JAP TROOPS FOR PEACE

Field Marshal Oyama Forced to Appeal to Patriotism.

Plague and Cholera is Reported Among Japanese in Manchuria—Capture of Karsavorsk Effected After Exchange of Very Few Shots—Communication Severed Between Newchwang and Harbin and Western Towns.

Sipinghai, Manchuria, July 14.—Quiet continues along the front, but the Japanese are still moving in Corea. The Russian trains move far as Changhai. Information from the Japanese lines indicates that the rank and file are exceedingly anxious for peace. To counteract this feeling Field Marshal Oyama is continually issuing glowing appeals to the patriotism of his armies.

The Chinese says that decaying corpses buried in shallow graves in frozen ground after the battle of Mukden have created a terrible condition. Plague and cholera are said to have appeared among the Japanese.

Capture of Karsavorsk. The Japanese bombardment of Karsavorsk wires that the Russian forts were silenced on July 7, after the exchange of a very few shots. The piers, warehouses and other buildings were set on fire and the conflagration spread by the foggy atmosphere, converting the sky into a mass of blood and color. The Japanese army landed amidst the fire, which was fast spreading to the forts. The infantry quickly captured the forts, from the tops of which the bewildered inhabitants were seen fleeing in every direction, carrying what property they could remove. The fires were not subdued for over 48 hours.

Communication Severed. Shanghai, July 14.—Chinese post-office officials have issued notice that communication has been stopped between Newchwang and all western Manchurian towns, to and including Harbin.

M. Witte Appointed. St. Petersburg, July 14.—Emperor Nicholas has signed the appointment of M. Witte, president of the Committee of Ministers, to be chief plenipotentiary representing the Russian Government in the peace negotiations to be conducted next month in the United States. Appointment of M. Witte with plenipotentiary powers. Notification of the designation of M. Witte to head the mission was forwarded to Washington yesterday morning. M. Witte will take passage on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which sails from Cherbourg July 28.

TREPOFF DOOMED TO DIE.

Terrorists Warn Him That He Will Die in His Own Room.

St. Petersburg, July 14.—The resignation of M. Boulogne as Minister of the Interior is expected daily. Gen. Trepoft, the assistant Minister of the Interior, probably will be his successor.

The terrorists have recently renewed their warnings against Gen. Trepoft with ominous persistence. The General is constantly in receipt of letters signed by the executive committee of the fighting organization, informing him that his hour has come. A remarkable feature of all the communications is that the writers take pains to say that no safeguards will avail to avert his impending doom. At the same time they tell him he need not be afraid to go abroad in the streets. They add: "Your sentence will be executed in your own room. You will lie in your bed."

The terrorists seem to take pride in issuing a challenge involving a demonstration of their power and resource to penetrate the armour of the police. Moreover, Gen. Trepoft knows enough of the resources and desperation of the organization to firmly believe the terrorists are able to execute their threat. He makes no concealment of the fact that he expects to be killed, but his nerve is unshaken. He says: "I will at least die at the post of duty."

Twenty-Four Hanged.

Odesa, July 14.—Twenty-four leaders of the recent disturbance here were hanged yesterday in various prisons. Another batch of 17 will be publicly executed upon the arrival here of Gen. Ignatieff. The hanged men were condemned to death by a fresh crew for the purpose of taking 67 mutineers to Sebastopol for trial by court-martial.

Of 202 persons arrested and charged with robbery or incendiarism during the recent riots, 74 were acquitted yesterday owing to lack of evidence and 28 were sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment, the time to include the two weeks which they have already passed in prison.

Killing in Strike Riot.

New York, July 14.—Yesterday Isaac Newman, proprietor of a clothing factory was hit on the head by an iron bar in the hands of a striker and received a fracture of the skull. More than a score were slightly hurt and hundreds were involved in the rioting. A large number of strikers called at the factory and attempted to induce a score or more employees who had continued at work to leave. Newman protested against their action, and a pitched battle with the strikers on one side and Newman and his employees on the other followed.

A fine cooling breeze quickly obtained by using an Electric Fan. Order one now from Gas Company.

CLOSE CALL

Bullet Cashes Into Richmond Street Residence—Dangerous Practice Must be Stopped.

The reckless shooting of firearms within the city limits last evening nearly cost a life.

Shortly after seven o'clock last evening a rifle bullet tore its way through the screen door of a residence on Richmond street, between Raleigh and West streets, travelled across a twenty-foot room and broke a large pane of glass on the other side. The bullet just missed a young man in the room, who has it now in his possession.

The use of firearms is prohibited by by-law within the city limits and such reckless abandon as was displayed last night may any time cost a life.

GOT THE CIGARS

The West Lorne Baseball Team Enjoyed Chatham's Victory Over Dutton and Sent Them Some Havana's in Honor of the Event.

Julius Perrot, manager of the fast aggregation of players, known as the Chatham Baseball Team, who succeeded in shutting out the Dutton team in a hard fought battle, has received the following letter from the West Lorne club, which speaks for itself:—

West Lorne, July 12, '05. Please accept of this box of cigars from our team, given in honor of your defeating Dutton so cleverly yesterday.

G. B. MORRIS.

Mgr. West Lorne Baseball Team. The cigars were duly received and the boys are now enjoying some excellent smokes. As will be seen from the letter and the sending of the cigars, brotherly love is evidently an unknown quantity in the feelings of the West Lorne team has for Dutton.

A meeting of the Chatham Club was held last evening, when arrangements were made for a game next week, date to be announced later. On the day of the Pere Marquette picnic it is quite likely that a double-header will be played here, one with the Pere Marquette team and a Detroit team. These games promise to be very interesting and the boys should receive every encouragement financially, as they are putting up good games and are well deserving of liberal patronage.

BENNETT CAUGHT.

Nabbed by a County Constable at Soper in Dunn Township.

Dunnville, July 14.—Joseph Bennett, the supposed murderer of Betsy Jacobs, in Brant Indian Reservation, was arrested here last evening.

Chief County Constable Farrell of Cayuga tracked Bennett down and located him yesterday morning at the farm of Watson Murdoch, in Dunn Township, with whom he had hired to assist in haying.

Farrell came to Dunnville and, securing the assistance of the local police, who knew Bennett, returned and arranged to secure his prisoner when he came in from the hay fields last evening.

Bennett sat down to the supper table with the other men and was seized from behind.

He was not armed and made no resistance, and did not deny his identity.

He will be taken to Brantford this morning.

W. H. Harper received a letter from the head office of one of the assurance companies he represents in which the writer says: "I duly received a copy of The Chatham Daily Planet, setting forth the beauties of the Maple City and the merits of the good people therein; by the way the work is splendid and they seem to be getting on to things up there."

Lost, Tuesday, July 11th, between post office and St. Joseph's Hospital, ladies' silver open face watch. Finder will be rewarded by leaving at this office or at St. Joseph's Hospital.

INTO A FIERY FURNACE

Awful Death of a Boy at Booth's Big Mills at Ottawa.

Caught in the Carriers Which Carry the Sawdust to the Incinerator and Was Cremated—His Charred Body Taken Out at the Bottom Where the Ashes Are Removed—Other Accidents and Horrors.

Ottawa, July 14.—Frank Elliott, aged about 16 years, met a horrible death last night.

He was engaged at J. R. Booth's big mill at the Chaudiere Falls, and was caught in the carriers which carry the sawdust to the incinerator. The unfortunate fellow was carried to the top and hurled into the fiery furnace. His charred body was taken out at the bottom where the ashes are removed.

Killed by Iron Bar.

Toronto, July 14.—Frank Brant, 66 Albert street, was instantly killed by a 300-lb. bar of iron, which he was unloading from a truck, falling upon his head and crushing his skull. The accident occurred just north of King on Bay street, and was caused by Brant slipping on the curb. His brother, living near Dundas, has been notified.

BOY DROWNS; MOTHER SAVED.

Another Pitiful Drowning Accident at Kenora, Ontario.

Kenora, July 14.—Another drowning accident occurred here yesterday at Sandy Beach, Coney Island, when Bill Law, the 7-year-old son of Conductor Law, of the C. P. R., lost his life. Mrs. Law and young Law, along with another young friend, got on a raft and were being pushed along by bathers close to the shore, when the raft shot into deep water and Eli fell into the water.

The mother, to save her boy, jumped in after him, but the lad never rose again. Screams brought Mark Musk from his cottage, who plunged in and with difficulty rescued Mrs. Law, who had gone down a second time. Other people arriving, they got the body up after 10 minutes, but all efforts at resuscitation were unavailing.

Drowns in Hotel Bath.

Montreal, July 14.—Douglas Bennis, a young man aged 20 years, was seized with an epileptic fit while swimming at the Bath Hotel last night and was drowned.

Smothered by Well Gas.

Winnipeg, July 14.—Peter Anderson was smothered to death by gas at his home while digging a well. He was lately from Minnesota and leaves a widow and small family.

Perhaps Fatally Injured.

Lac du Bonnet, Man., July 14.—While engaged in drilling rock at the dam of the Power Co. here Wednesday, two Italian laborers struck an unexploded shot and were seriously, if not fatally, injured. One had his foot blown off, and the other received a serious scalp wound and had his arm broken.

A Dangerous Pastime.

Seymour Bridge, July 14.—Alroy K. Butler, son of E. W. D. Butler of Toronto, had his right hand badly sprained in starting a gasoline launch.

Gave His Life For Another.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 14.—Dr. William Clarke, aged 49 years, of Maine, N. Y., lost his life Wednesday afternoon while assisting in the rescue of Edwin Haskins, a 12-year-old boy, who had gone beyond his depth while in swimming. The boy was saved.

TRYING TO BEAT RECORD.

Special Train Left North Sydney Thursday With Virginian Mail.

North Sydney, N. S., July 14.—The Allan line steamer Virginian arrived off Sydney Harbor at 7.20 o'clock yesterday morning, having made the run from Meville in five days, 20 hours, and 25 minutes, being the quickest time on record from mail station to mail station across the Atlantic. She has 1,247 passengers on board, 1,047 of whom are for Canada, and the rest for the United States. The transfer of mails took place about 16 miles off Sydney, the time occupied being one hour and 45 minutes. After the mails had been transferred, the Virginian proceeded to Montreal with passengers. The special train carrying the mails left Sydney at 10.47 o'clock.

Ship Against Train.

The race is now between a special train, with a clear road to Montreal, and the Allan liner, proceeding full steam up the Gulf. The race is to determine the merits of Sydney as a port of call. The Virginian expects to make the trip in thirty hours, but the Intercolonial anticipates doing it in less time. The Virginian had 74 bags of mail and 108 bags of parcel post. These include all the Canada mails for this week and those for the Western States. There were no Canadian mails sent by New York this week. The parcel post includes mail matter for China and Japan.

Man of Good Family Suicides.

Toronto, July 14.—Heart-broken at his failure to live down his past, and wearied out in an attempt to make a livelihood in a country that seemed to offer him nothing but rebuffs, Henry Marryat Martin, an Englishman of excellent family, committed suicide by shooting near High Park on Monday night. Martin's story, as well as it can be gained from the letters found in his pocket, has been a pathetic one. He was a man of about 35 years of age, and had but recently come to Toronto. His references showed him to have been the nephew of the late Sir Martin Holloway, and a grandson of the late Capt. Marryat R. N.

CANADIAN JUSTICE SOUND.

The famous case of Gaylor and Greene has been watched closely by the United States press, as it has been carried through its various stages through the different Canadian courts, points out the St. Thomas Times. It is a gratification to lovers of honesty and justice that these men have at last been beaten in their efforts to buy liberty and cheat justice. They were contractors on river and harbor work, and conspired with a captain in the United States engineer corps to defraud the Government out of several million dollars. They fled to Canada, and fought extradition in every way that the cleverest lawyers could devise, paying heavy fees and even enlisting counsel related to members of the Quebec Government. But though the course of justice has been blocked for years in their case, they are now awaiting extradition. The United States courts will deal with them later on. We shall see whether, like John C. Eno, bank wrecker, they can buy their way to liberty over there.

Whatever happens to them hereafter, all people who desire honest administration will have a wholesome respect for the courts of Canada, and such rascals as Gaylor and Greene will hesitate hereafter before robbing the public, hoping to gain immunity by skipping to this side of the line and trying to bribe the law's administrators.

CANADA'S REAL DEFENCE.

Bobbyeagon Independent.
"The best we can do," says the Ottawa Citizen, "is to promise that when Canada's standing army of 5,000 strays on to a battlefield 100 miles long and 50 miles wide, this great family journal will insert an ad. in its justly celebrated 'Lost' column free of charge." This merry adage aptly illustrates the rank absurdity of standing armies. When Canada has to defend itself every man will sling his rifle over his shoulder, and, like the Boers, be a match for a dozen standing army nonentities.

A SUGGESTION

F. Marx was seeking Mayor Cowan this morning. He had an idea by which the city tax rate for this year could be reduced. Shortly it is to issue the city's note for the extra expenditures of this year—the Central school addition and the increased appropriation to the C. C. I. In this manner Mr. Marx thinks the tax rate could be materially reduced and the notes redeemed at a more favorable time.

A GOOD CROP

W. G. McGeorge, P. L. S., and W. H. Shepley, of Raleigh, are making a survey of Walpole Island, straightening up the roads and marking the corners of the farms and laying out vacant lots. They have been engaged for the past seven weeks but have discontinued the work for the present to allow the taking off of the harvest, but will resume work about the middle of August. Mr. Shepley says there will be a fair average crop on the island, consisting of wheat, oats, corn, barley, sugar beets and buckwheat, that some of the farms are kept up to a high state of cultivation and that the Chief is a model farmer and has a number of farm hands in his employ.

THOSE HOG PENS

The odor from the G. T. R. hog pens this morning was so thick that you could hear it coming. "Yes, I was out there," said Inspector Mounter. "A zephyr wafted towards me a large chunk of atmosphere so thickly impregnated with hog that if I had not stepped and ducked it would surely have struck and crippled me for life."

The M. H. O.—Mover of Hog Odors—has heard from the G. T. R. superintendent, who says the Board of Health may choose any location it pleases on the existing sidings of the company, to which the pens will be moved. It is likely a concrete floor will be put in and the structure will have a roof to protect the animals from the sun. Sounds good! doesn't it? People out there, however, look "pensive" when you suggest that their salvation is nigh at hand. The "pensive" look is the result of long experience of the G. T. R. and is acquired only by those who whiff these odors. If you see a man with his hand to his nose and surrounded by an atmosphere which is a combination of untamed mineral water and an ancient hen fruit, you may conclude he lives near the G. T. R. That hoggard look in his eyes is the "pensive" look.

CURE FOR HAY FEVER

The Central Drug Co. Say Hyomei Will Give Relief—Sold Under Guarantee.

The season for hay fever is almost at hand, and many people feel that they will be obliged to go away in order to avoid the sneezing, watery eyes, and other annoying symptoms of this disagreeable summer disease. The Central Drug Co. wish us to announce that when Hyomei is used as a preventive, or a cure, there will be no hay fever. They advise daily treatment with Hyomei for two or three weeks before the usual time for the annual appearance of hay fever. If this is done, the attack will be prevented. However, if the preventive treatment is not started soon enough, and the disease makes its appearance, use Hyomei six or seven times daily, and relief will be given at once.

There is no stomach dosing when Hyomei is used. Breathed through the neat pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit, its medicated air reaches the minutest air cells, killing off germs and soothing and healing the irritated mucous membrane. The complete Hyomei outfit costs but $1, extra bottles 50 cents. It is the only treatment for hay fever sold by the Central Drug Co. under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

"SOLDIERS OF THE EMPIRE"

Canadians, especially the musical ones, will be interested to hear of a new and very valuable addition to our list of patriotic songs. "Soldiers of the Empire" is just published by Marsales and Burns, of Niagara Falls, Ont. Harry H. Marsales wrote the song words and J. Benj. Burns the music. Both words and music are of high order and the song is starting with the highest recommendations of musical critics, among whom are H. Ruthven McDonald, Toronto's favorite concert singer, and Bandmaster Robinson of Canada's foremost band, the 13th Regiment of Hamilton, to which Regiment the song is dedicated. It will be arranged for band and with the catchy military music and inspiring and patriotic sentiment is bound to take the place of "Soldiers of the Queen."

We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by All Druggists.

TILBURY

July 14.—Very little opposition is being shown to the waterworks extension by-law to be voted upon next Monday and it is thought the measure will easily carry.

ONE DOLLAR SAVED REPRESENTS TEN DOLLARS EARNED.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent. of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on.

It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by All Druggists.

The money that makes one more go often makes the other more stop.

The hot summer weather is now here and most people are thinking of a trip to some cool summer resort. We would advise you to call on W. E. Rispin, city passenger and ticket agent, 115 King street, who can issue tourist tickets for all summer resorts, including Muskoka, Georgian Bay, River St. Lawrence, Great Lakes and Atlantic Sea Coast points at particular low rates, and will supply all information and pamphlets.

LEARN DRESSMAKING IN TWO WEEKS

I will be at the Garner Hotel, Chatham, on Saturday, July 22nd, between 9 and 6 o'clock, to show how dressmaking can be taught in two weeks. Why spend from six to nine months learning dressmaking in a shop, and then not know anything about cutting, when I teach you everything from measuring to finish in the making of ladies' and children's garments in two weeks. I have taught over 700 girls in this way within the past three years, and all were more than satisfied. If you are the wife or daughter of a farmer, mechanic, laborer, merchant or millinaire, you should learn Dressmaking. No accomplishment you can acquire will prove of such every-day, life-long value to you as a practical knowledge of Dressmaking. And if you have this knowledge you can, by saving dressmaker's bills, be able to dress much better, with less money, than you probably do now. I teach you how to put together, not only the lining, but all the outer goods, in coats, skirts, waists, wrappers, sleeves, in fact everything in dressmaking. And you are losing nothing by trying, for if you are not satisfied at the end of the term, there will be no charge. School teachers, college girls and everybody who are having your holidays now, do not fail to take advantage of this splendid opportunity. You may never get another like it.

Charge for full course is $10, when you are through, if satisfied, including one of the most perfect fitting systems in use, which I give you free! I will also at the same time teach part of the course, consisting of shirtwaists, sleeves and skirts, and teach you how to use the system for $5.

I will teach at Chatham from July 24th to August 5th. Hours from 8:30 to 5. All wishing to learn, or for full particulars, be sure to see me in the upstairs parlor of the Hotel Garner on Saturday, July 22nd, at the hours named above.

An evening class will also be taught at Chatham this time. Full particulars for it can be had upon application on July 22nd.

SOME NOTABLE WOMEN

PATRIOTIC WIVES AND MOTHERS OF JAPAN.

Count It Joy to Give Life, Husbands, Brothers and Sons for Their Country—In Present War One Has Been Hanged by the Russians As a Spy—Sketch of the Marchioness Oyama.

The little women of Japan love their country so passionately that for it they would sacrifice every being and every object they hold dear—husbands, brothers and sons—and their own lives first of all and count it joy. There are several instances on record in which in the present war Japanese women have disguised themselves as men and joined the army, their only being discovered when they were killed or wounded. One of these heroines served her country as a spy in the capacity being most successful and fearless. At last she was captured by the Russians and hanged. She met her late wearing a glorified smile, as though she knew heaven itself was waiting to receive those who died for their country. After her death it was discovered that the body being prepared for the grave was the body of a woman. This was told to the Russian general. In despair, likewise admiration, he exclaimed:

"Great heavens! How can we expect to conquer a people like this? Japan is to-day more really democratic socially than the republic of America. Ladies of the highest nobility have none of the top-bottled snobbery that characterizes many of the women of the 'new rich' in the United States. Mme. Oyama, wife of the Japanese field marshal, is as single-hearted in her patriotism as the humblest woman laborer in the rice fields and thinks herself no greater than this sister in the work for the soldiers at the front.

Stematz Yamakawa, now the wife of Gen. Oyama, was a child during the war which finally drove the shoguns from the throne of Japan. The older sisters of Stematz actually wore armor, prepared to defend their home, which was besieged during the war. Later brave little Stematz was sent west to be educated. After eleven years she was graduated at Vassar. Marchioness Oyama is at the head of an organization formed to collect and forward useful gifts to the beloved soldiers in the field.

The mother of Japanese women patriots may be said to be the venerable Ioko Okumura, known and loved through the length and breadth of her native land. She appears to have been one of the first Japanese women to feel a call to modern philanthropic work. Before the war between China and Japan Mme. Okumura went to Korea to do missionary work among the ignorant people of that out of date land. At the outbreak of the China-Japanese war Mme. Okumura returned from Korea and went where she could serve her country directly. She already a gray-haired woman, was in China during the Boxer uprising and was actually with the Japanese advance against the rebels. When a soldier was killed this pious and loving woman attended his funeral and prayed for the departed soul, according to the custom of her people. To see her kneeling in prayer beside the bier of one of their comrades brought tears to the eyes even of rugged Japanese soldiers. After the Boxer rebellion was put down Mother Okumura, as she was now called, went home and organized the Japanese Ladies' Protective Association, a national society to take care of the families of soldiers.

One of the most active of Japan's army of patriotic women is Mme. Uru, wife of Vice-Admiral Uru. Both Mme. Uru and her husband were educated in the United States. Her maiden name was Shige Nagai, and she was the schoolmate of Marchioness Oyama. At the same time Shige Nagai was a Vassar student her future husband was a cadet in the Naval academy.

Day and night the women of Japan work at home for the men in the field. The Ladies' Protective Association now numbers 40,000. Instead of bewailing the fact that her husband is called to fight for his country, the brown women are glad and proud to toll like a slave to support her children while he is away.

Work On the Bible.

An immense amount of labor has been expended on the various Bibles of the world. The palm for execution must be given to the Kutho-daw, which is a Buddhist monument, near Mandalay, Burma. It consists of about 700 temples, each containing a slab of white marble on which the whole of this Buddhist Bible, containing more than eight million syllables, has been engraved. The Burmese alphabet is used, but the language is Pali. This wonderful Bible is absolutely unique. The Kutho-daw was erected in 1857 by Mindon-min, the last king but one of Burma. The vast collection of temples, together form a square, with a dominating temple in the centre. Each of the marble slabs on which the sacred text is inscribed is surmounted by an ornamental canopy in pagoda form.

"IT SAVED MY LIFE"

PRaise FOR A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—

"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, my monthly periods started; I am regular and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave to-day.

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Sea Water.

Sea water is a complicated mixture of a great variety of substances. Roughly speaking, it consists of 96 1/2 per cent of fresh water plus 3 1/2 per cent of mineral salts. Three-fourths of these salts are chloride of sodium, or common table salt, and the next largest constituent is chloride of magnesium. After these come sulphate of magnesium, sulphate of lime, sulphate of potash, bromide of magnesium and carbonate of lime. In addition to these substances sea water contains minute quantities of quite a variety of elements, including iodine, phosphorus and arsenic. It also contains some silver, copper, zinc, nickel, cobalt, iron and gold. There is said to be 2 cents' worth of gold in every pallful of sea water, but as yet nobody has found a way to extract it. Copper and zinc are found in some seaweeds, and certain species of coral is three-millionths silver.

Stonewall Jackson's Battles.

Stonewall Jackson's negro body servant knew before anybody else when a battle was imminent. "The general tells you, I suppose," said one of the soldiers. "Lawsd, no, sir! De g'neral never tell me nothin'. I observe de motion of de g'neral dis way: Cose he prays just like we all mornin' an' night, but when he gets up two, three times in a night to pray den I rubs my eyes an' gets up, too, an' packs de haversack, 'cause I done fine out dere's gwine to be old boy to pay right away."—From Mrs. Roger A. Pryor's "Reminiscences."

Cooling Off.

The man who would sit on a cake of ice to cool off would be considered crazy. Yet it is a very common thing for a person heated by exercise to stand in a cool draught, just to cool off. This is the beginning of many a cough which ultimately involves the bronchial tract and the lungs.

For coughs in any stage there is no remedy so valuable as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures deep-seated, obstinate coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, and like conditions which if neglected or unskillfully treated terminate in consumption. There is no alcohol in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is entirely free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good."

I took a severe cold which settled in the bronchial tubes," writes Rev. Frank Hay, of Nortonville, Jefferson Co., Kansas. "After trying medicines labelled 'Sure Cure,' almost without number, I was led to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took two bottles and was cured, and have stayed cured."

"When I think of the great pain I had to endure, and the terrible cough I had, it seems almost a miracle that I was so soon relieved. That God may spare you many years and abundantly bless you is the prayer of your grateful friend."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 50 stamps for it in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

JOHN HAY BALLADS.

Dead U. S. Statesman Will Be Long Remembered For "Jim Bludso" and "Little Breeches."

The late John Hay was the best evolution of the American newspaper reporter known. He was a reporter who was great at the work, and from that onward successful in everything. A reporter, editor, ballad writer; secretary to Abraham Lincoln and then his biographer; an historian; a diplomat, an Ambassador, the ablest secretary of state the United States ever had, holding that office when he died. The story is current that Hay in his better days thought little of his ballads and his early writings. Whether this is so or not we cannot say, but probably Hay will be remembered longer for "Jim Bludso" and "Little Breeches" than anything else. We reprint these and some others from "Pike County Ballads." Probably John Hay was the inspiration of Mark Twain, Bret Harte, certainly Whitcombe Riley and perhaps also of Rudyard Kipling:

Jim Bludso of the Prairie Belle.
Wall, no! I can't tell whar he lives,
Because he don't live you see;
Leastways he's got out of the habit
Of livin' like you and me.

Whar have you been for the last three year
That you haven't heard folks tell
How Jimmy Bludso passed in his checks
The night of the Prairie Belle?

He weren't no saint—them engineers
Is all pretty much alike—
One wife in Natchez-under-the-Hill
And another one here, in Pike;
A keerness man in his talk was Jim,
And an awkward hand in a row
But he never flunked, and he never lied,
I reckon he never knowed how.

And this was all the religion he had—
To treat his engine well;
Never be passed on the river,
To mind the pilot's bell;
And if ever the Prairie Belle took fire

A thousand times he swore,
He'd hold her nozzle agin the bank
Till the last soul got ashore.

All boats has their day on the Mississipp
And her day come at last—
The Movastar was a better boat,
But the Belle she wouldn't be passed,
And she she came tearin' along that night

The oldest craft on the line—
With a nigger squat on her safety-valve,
And her furnace crammed, resin and pipe.

The fire bust out as she cleared the bar,
And burnt a hole in the night,
And quick as a flash she turned, and made

For that willer-bank on the right.
There was runnin' and cursin', but
Jim yelled out,
Over all the infernal roar,

"Till hold her nozzle agin the bank
Till the last galoot's ashore."

Through the hot, black breath of the burnin' boat
Jim Bludso's voice was heard,
And they all had trust in his cussedness.

And knowed he would keep his word
And sure's your born, they all got off
Afore the smokestacks fell,
And Bludso's cough went up alone
In the smoke of the Prairie Belle.

He weren't no saint—but at judgment
I'd run my chance with Jim,
'Longside of some pious gentlemen
That wouldn't shook hands with him.

He seen his duty, a deadsure thing,
And went for it thar and then,
And Christ ain't a-goin' to be too hard
On a man that died for men.

Little Breeches.
I don't go much on religion,
I never ain't had no show;
But I've got a middlin' tight grip sir,
On the handful o' things I know.

I don't pan out on the prophets
And free-will, and that sort of thing—
But I b'lieve in God and the angels
Ever sence one night last spring.

I come into town with some turnips.
And my little Gabe come along—
No four-year-old in the country
Could beat him for pretty and strong
Pearl and chipper and sassy,

Always ready to swear and fight—
And I'd lart him to chew terbacker
Jest to keep his milk-teeth white.

The snow come down like a blanket
As I passed by Taggart's store;
I went in for a jug of molasses
And left the team at the door.
They scared at something and started

ed—
I heard one little squall,
And hell-to-split over the prairie
Went team, Little Breeches and all.

Hell-to-split over the prairie!
I was almost froze with skeer;
But we roused up some torches
And searched for 'em far an' d near.
At last we struck hosses and wagon,
Snowed under a soft white mound,
Upst dead beat—but of little Gabe
No hide nor hair was found.

And here all hope soured on me,
Of my fellow-critter's aid—
I jest flopped down on my marrow
Crotch-deep in the snow and prayed.

By this, the torches was played out,
And me and Isrul Parr
Went off for some wood to a sheep fold
That he said was somewhar thar.

We found it at last, and a little shed
Where they shut up the lambs at night
We looked in and seen them huddled thar,
So warm and sleazy and white;
And that sot Little Breeches and chirp-ones

As peart as ever you see.
"I want a chaw of terbacker,
And that's what's the matter of me."
How did he fit thar? Angels,
He could never have walked in that storm.
They jest scooped down and toted him

To whar it was safe and warm.
And I think that saving a little child,
And totching him to his own,
Is a derned sight better business
Than loafing around The Throne.

Banty Jim.
(Remarks of Sergeant Tillmon Joy to the White Man's Committee of Spunky Point, Illinois.)
I reckon I git your drift, gents—
You 'low the boy shan't stay;
This is a white man's country;
You're Democrats, you say;
And whereas, and seen!, and wherefore,

The times bein' all out o' j'int.
The nigger has got to mossey
From the limits o' Spunky Pint!

Let's reason the thing a minute;
I'm an old-fashioned Democrat, too.
Though I laid my politics out o' the way

For to keep till the war was through.
But I come back here, allowin'
To vote as I used to do,
Though it gravels me like the devil to train
Along o' sich fools as you.

Now dog my cats if I kin see,
In all the light of the day,
What you've got to do with the question

Ef Tim shill go or stay.
And funder than that I give notice,
Ef one of you tetches the boy,
He kin check his trunks to a warmer climate
Than he'll find in Illanoy.

Why, blame your hearts, jest hear me!
You know that ungodly day
When our left struck Vicksburg
Heights, how ripped
And torn and tattered we lay.
When the rest retreated I stayed behind,

For reasons sufficient to me—
With a rib caved in, and a leg on a strike,
I sprawled on that cursed glacee.

Lord! how the hot sun went for us.
And brifed and blistered and burned!
How the Rebel bullets whizzed round us

When a cuss in his death-grip turned!
Till along toward dusk I seen a thing
I couldn't believe for a spell:
That nigger—that Tim—was a-crawlin' to me
Through that fire-proof, gilt-edged hell!

The Rebels seen him as quick as me,
And the bullets buzzed like bees,
But he jumped for me, and shouldered me,
Though a shot brought him once to his knees,
But he staggered up, and packed me

With a dozen stumbles and falls.
Till safe in our lines he dropped us both
His black hide riddled with balls.

So, my gentle gazellas that's my answer,
And sence stays Banty Tim—
He trumped Death's face for me that day,
And I'm not goin' back on him!

You may rezoot till the cows come home,
But ef one of you tetches the boy,
He'll wrastle his hash to-night in hell,
Or my name's not Tillmon Joy!

The Stirrup-Cup.
My short and happy day is done,
The long and dreary night comes on.
And at my door the pale horse stands
To carry me to unknown lands.

His whinny shrill, his pawing hoof,
Sounds drearier as a gathering storm;
And I must leave this sheltering roof
And joys of life so soft and warm.

Tender and warm the joys of life—
Good friends, the faithful and the true
My rosy children and my wife,
So sweet to kiss, so fair to view—

So sweet to kiss, so fair to view:
The night comes down the lights burn blue:
And at my door the pale horse stands
To bear me forth to unknown lands.

Found the "Lazy" Germ.
A special to The New York Herald from New Orleans says:—Dr. Arnold Pfaff of the National Bureau of Education, who believes that laziness among school children is caused by a germ, has found specimens of the germ in school children of New Orleans and is now looking for a cure for the disease.

Dr. Pfaff says that he has found the germ in ten students in the Ferrell School and will begin an investigation in the high schools.

The blood of schoolboys which was analyzed by Dr. Pfaff was drawn from their ears. He selected those who seemed chronically disinclined to study.

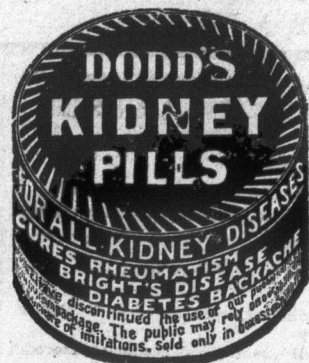

After an analysis he assured the teachers that the boys were not responsible for their condition, but were the victims of the disease. On this hypothesis the boys were allowed to get off easily on their final examination. Dr. Pfaff had all the boys under treatment and assured their teachers that they will be cured before the next term begins.

Bridegrooms Ignored.
Bridegrooms are usually considered necessary to the wedding festivities the world over, about the only land where they are regarded as unnecessary being Polynesia. There the young man who would a-wooing go turns the matter over to his parents and friends and takes to the woods—no difficult matter in that part of the country.

The family proceeded to traffic with the parents of the bride elect, and after a more or less extended palaver the arrangements are brought to a satisfactory conclusion.

Then ensues a festive time, with feasting, speech-making and other forms of celebration, until at last the nuptials are announced and the groom makes his appearance among his friends, in theory at least, sufficiently hungry for human companionship to regard his bride with more than usual complacency.

Keeping the Distance.
"I understand you're a distant relative of Roxley Astorgit."
"You've got it twisted. He's a distant relative of mine."

The Slum Child in the Country.

At a luncheon given by Mrs. Alice Barber Stephens, the illustrator, at her new home at Moylan, the talk turned for a while to the various charitable societies that give slum children outings in the country in the summer.

Remarkable instances were narrated of slum children's ignorance of country life—their idea that milk was an extract of the milkweed, that eggs came from the eggplant, that mush was a product of the mushroom, and so on.

"Those instances," said Mrs. Stephens, "are old and well known. But let me tell you of a new one that happened last summer."

"A little East Side boy was on his first country excursion. He lay on the grass in a peach orchard, making a chain of daisies and buttercups. Across the blue sky a line of birds darted; and his hostess a young woman said:

"Look up. Look up quickly, and see the pretty birds flying through the air."

"Tommy looked up quickly, and then he said in a compassionate tone: 'Poor little fellows, they ain't got no cages, have they?'"

VACATION IS A NECESSITY.

All successful people take a vacation. To be successful you need a change from every day occupation. A brief respite among the pines and woods, breathing in the pure air of the Highlands of Ontario, is nature's best tonic. There are so many delightful tours offered by the Grand trunk that it is hard to innumerate, but they not only embrace charming Muskoka, Lake of Bays, Georgian Bay, Kawartha Lakes, Temagami, The Magnetawan, French River, Lake Simcoe, but also delightful six day trips to Mackinaw Island through the 30,000 Island scenery, Duluth, Winnipeg, Portland, Oregon, Exposition, and to the East the always delightful 1,000 Islands and St. Lawrence tours, Historic Quebec, White Mountains, and Sea Coast resorts, Portland, Old Orchard, St. John, N. B., Halifax, etc. A tourist folder, giving rates, etc., may be had for the asking at the City Ticket Office, W. E. Wherry, City Agent, 115 King street, or by addressing J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Toronto.

HANDSOME CLOCK

Alex. VonGuten has a remarkably fine clock in his King St. jewelry store. It stands about seven feet in height and might be called a "modern grandfather's clock." The dial is of chased gold work and the case is of mahogany. It tells the hour, and every quarter-hour chimes play. A unique feature of the time-piece is a dial above the time dial showing the phases of the moon day by day.
It was made by Elliot & Sons, of England, who have made these clocks for over two hundred years. Mr. VonGuten has a still larger one, which is not yet set up. He intimates that this handsome piece of furniture will find a place in one of our new homes.

HATS OFF

Mayor Cowan is strenuous. His friends and supporters always knew this and it is strange that Ald. Jno. Edmondson should do what he did.
Yesterday morning when the Mayor and Aldermen Edmondson and O'Keefe were on the morning C. P. R. train en route to Toronto the Mayor went to sleep. This, in itself, was wrong. Chatham's chief gateway should neither slumber nor sleep. Near Galt he awoke—his hat was gone. What an embarrassing position for the exalted head of this proud city—to land in Toronto hatless. Ald. J. E. saw the humor of the situation at once and joined by all the passengers in the coach, gave his worship the merry ha-ha.
Meanwhile the Mayor was doing some quick thinking. He was near an open window—therefore his hat had blown off. This had occurred lately. When he had reached this conclusion he was on the station platform, and had given a small boy nervous prostration by the offer of fabulous wealth to run up the track to look for the missing helmet.
Just as the train was pulling out the boy re-appeared in his hand the lost hat. The Mayor made a grab for it, some currency changed hands and his worship triumphantly re-entered the coach, having demonstrated that when it comes to doing things and having the strenuous life there are none who have it on Chatham's chief magistrate.

SAD DEMISE

Miss Dorothy Sheldon Daughter of Mrs. O. Sheldon Passes away in Calgary N. W. T.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Miss Dorothy Sheldon in Calgary, N. W. T.
The intelligence of her sad demise has come as a sudden blow to her many friends and relatives here, who, until a couple of weeks ago, understood that she was rapidly recovering from her lingering illness and were looking forward to the time when she would return to her home here. The telegram bearing the sad message was received this morning by Mrs. Jas. Reeves, her grandmother.

Miss Dorothy Sheldon was one of Chatham's brightest and most popular young ladies, and universal regret is occasioned by her untimely death. She has been ill for a number of years. She has visited many places during that time in search of health, but to no apparent advantage. She was for some time a patient in the Gravenhurst Sanatorium, and afterwards visited Le Veigles, New Mexico, and upon her return home, seemed to be benefited.

About two years ago she went to Calgary and has remained there ever since. She seemed to be recovering, and the reports heard by her friends here were very favorable. She seemed to be gaining strength, but a couple of weeks ago she began to decline until death came. Mrs. Sheldon has been with her all the time she has been in Calgary.

The deceased young lady was a very bright, intelligent and enterprising girl. She was a talented musician and was very popular in musical and social circles. She was a niece of Mrs. T. French, Mrs. J. M. Pike and W. D. Sheldon, who with her mother, Mrs. O. Sheldon, and grandmother Mrs. Reeves, are left to mourn her loss. She was 24 years of age.
It is expected the remains will arrive in this city on Monday. The funeral arrangements will be made later.

LEAVES FOR THE WEST

Wm. Goudreau, leaves the city tomorrow morning for Saskatoon, N. W. T. Here he is to assume full charge of the furnishings and clothing department in the large departmental store of J. F. Cairns, formerly of this city.

Will was born and brought up in Chatham and has innumerable friends whose regret at his departure is tempered by the thought of the splendid future awaiting him. For the past eight years Mr. Goudreau has been employed in the men's furnishings department of the Austin store. To evidence their regret at his departure and good will for the future his associates to-day presented him with an address accompanied by a travelling bag. Mr. Gray made the presentation.

NO CONFERENCE NEGOTIATIONS.

Balfour Replies to Interrogation Re Roosevelt's Proposal.

London, July 14.—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. Robertson asked Premier Balfour whether there had been any further representations in regard to the international conference proposed by President Roosevelt, and whether the Government was prepared to agree to the president's proposal to include in the subjects of discussion the question of making private property, not contraband of war, free from capture or destruction.

Mr. Balfour replied that the Government cordially welcomed the proposal of President Roosevelt, but Great Britain, in common with other nations, reserved the right of considering what should be submitted to the conference. The Premier added that there had been no further negotiations on the subject.

WORLD OF SPORTCRICKET

An attempt is being made to get a team together to take in the cricket tourney at Pittsburgh, the latter part of July. Several have already signified their intention of going. If a purely Chatham team cannot be made up it is likely the Chatham contingent will amalgamate with Niagara Falls and other Canadian places to form a Canadian team.

Extensive preparations are being made by Pittsburgh cricketers to entertain their visitors, a couple of thousand dollars having been set aside for that purpose.

LAURUSSE

A lucky swipe by Whitehead, of Brantford, in front of the Chippewas goal a minute before time gave Brantford the game on the 12th, the score being 3-2.

Paste the date in your hat—Wednesday, July 19th. That is the day the Tecumsehs and St. Thomas clinch on the Saints' stamping ground. The Heavenly ones are working hard and have secured a trainer to aid them in their efforts to beat the Chatham Braves.

Persistent rumor hath it that one P. Babcock, well known to the faithful here, is backing the Saints and giving them every assistance. Nobody here is losing any sleep over the matter, however.

There was a good practice last evening; there will be another to-night and Monday night—then for the tussle.

HAS RESIGNED

E. B. Arthur, Organist and Choir Director of the First Presbyterian Church Leaves on Monday For New York.

E. B. Arthur, organist and choir director of the First Presbyterian Church, has resigned his position; the resignation to take effect immediately.

This action on Mr. Arthur's part will be greatly regretted in local musical circles, especially as it will mean his departure from the Maple City. Mr. Arthur has now been connected with the First Presbyterian Church for two years but since his first arrival here he has never enjoyed perfect health. His present intention is to take a well earned rest during the coming summer season, but it is not probable that he will return to Chatham.

During the time Mr. Arthur has been in Chatham he has done much towards the advancement of music, and conspicuous among his musical triumphs were "The Crucifixion" and "The Sermon on the Mount," two excellent oratorios, which he so capably presented. He was also instrumental in bringing that worthy and talented organization, "The Meistersingers," to Chatham. He is a musical director of rare conception and ability, and an organist of exceptional taste and brilliancy, and in his departure Chatham loses one of her most talented musicians. The good wishes of a host of friends will follow him during his future career as organist and choir director of any church, who are fortunate enough to secure his services.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur and little daughter Shirley will leave on Monday for New York on a holiday trip.

Wash greasy dishes, pots or pans with Lever's Dry Soap a powder. It will remove the grease with the greatest ease. 36

J. H. Gardner, who attended school here some years ago, has been visiting friends on Stanley avenue. He left last night for Chathamville to visit his parents before sailing for Liverpool en route to Valparaiso.

Work is progressing very favorably on the electric railway. Third street has now been torn up and the tracks will soon be put down. The work of putting the roof on the boiler room of the power house has already been started.

The death occurred to-day of Eliz. Paxton, widow of the late Robert Paxton, of the second concession of Dover. The deceased lady was in her 65th year. The funeral will take place from the family residence Sunday at 3 p. m. to the Maple Leaf cemetery.

Reg. Richardson has received a letter from the Pittsburgh cricket club in which they asked for the photographs of the Chatham team who will go to the tournament at Pittsburgh. The request will be complied with and the Chatham men will find their pictures figuring in the Pittsburgh papers.

The concrete foundation for the William street pavement is nearly all laid. Contractor Blight is expecting an automatic machine to mix the stone and cement and will have it in operation soon.

He Will Cure You First Then You Pay Him

The physician, who has not sufficient confidence in his own ability to cure his patient first and receive his pay afterwards, is not the man to inspire confidence in those who are in search of honest treatment.

Dr. Goldberg's acceptance of a case for treatment is equivalent to a cure, because he never accepts incurable cases. He is satisfied to receive the money for the value he has given the patient, but he expects to prove his worth and show positive and satisfactory results before he asks for the fee. So nothing, while the doctor, when he cures the patient, has given him what is worth much more than money—he has given him his health back.

Dr. Goldberg is the first specialist in the United States of Canada, who has had sufficient confidence in his ability to say to the afflicted that not a dollar need be paid until cured.

There is no guesswork, no experiment about his method. He is a known expert in his chosen specialty, and offers you the best, and only the best treatment. When your life or your health is at stake, inferior treatment (which leaves after-effects worse than the disease itself) is dear at any price.

Dr. Goldberg has 14 diplomas and certificates from the various colleges and state boards of medical examiners, which should be sufficient guarantee as to his standing and ability. It makes no difference who has failed to cure you, it is at stake, inferior treatment (which leaves after-effects worse than the disease itself) is dear at any price.

Fate of a Japanese Traitor.
Traitors among the Japanese officers are not treated pleasantly when their misconduct is discovered. Bonnet Burleigh in his new book on Japan tells of an instance. Two Japanese transports laden with men, stores and heavy siege artillery had been suddenly attacked by the Russian Vladivostok squadron. One was sunk, and the other escaped with difficulty. Who had given the information of the sailing of these ships? "The Japanese made search to find out who had blabbed and ultimately traced it to a high official in Tokio, one holding sea rank and engaged in the admiralty. A Russian check for a large sum was traced into his hands. He was arrested and then he was led into a secluded room, where a number of his fellow officers had gathered. They stripped him naked, spat upon him and kicked him to death."

A Modern Desdemona.
The London papers are printing the story of an English girl, Clara Casey, who married a Moorish acrobat, Mohammed Ben Bulkhasan, and who now in far off Tangier sighs for her Albion home as follows:
"I wish I were in England again. I am quite miserable and lonely here, and it makes me feel it more when I see how Mr. Abdullah treats his wife and the way Mohammed treats me.
"There is a great difference. He is always hitting me, and he laughs at me now he has got me here and tells me I will never see you again, that I shall live and die here.
"Dear mother, I hope and trust to God I will soon be able to return to England again. What a fool I have been to give myself to this man!
"So far the intervention of the British vice consul has led to nothing, for Miss Casey had previously become a convert to Islam, and she stated that she had the approval of her parents."

His Pitiful Story.
There is a pitiful story told in the Bookman of Philip Bourke Marston, the blind English writer. One day a particularly good idea came to him, and he sat down to his typewriter with enthusiasm. He wrote rapidly for hours, and had nearly finished the story when a friend came in. "Read that," said Marston proudly. "The friend stared at the happy author and then at the blank sheet of paper in his hand before he was able to understand the little tragedy. The ribbon had been taken from the typewriter, and Marston's oil was for nothing. He never had the heart to write that story again."

SURPRISE SOAP
PURE HARD SOAP
The silence remained when he found light again. It was very still. He looked lazily up at the yellow tinted walls, at the window next his bed. There were yellow curtains at it, and on the window sill was a jar filled with blossoming daffodils. They looked pretty in the sunshine. Stafford was so engrossed in watching them that he did not notice the girl standing at the half opened door until the nurse had left the room and she came to the foot of the bed and smiled down at him.
"Was it yesterday?" asked Stafford. She laughed.
"You have been bad, haven't you? It was day before, day before, day before yesterday—last Tuesday."
Stafford stared steadily up at her. Last Tuesday! And he should have turned in the interview by Wednesday, so Curtis could hustle the illustrations.
"Did you wire to New York?"
"We couldn't. We didn't know where to wire. You're the prince in-cog, you know. We don't know a blessed thing about you, who you are or where you came from. It's very interesting."
"So it is," assented Stafford seriously. "May I ask if Mr. Houghton has seen me?"
"Oh, yes! He came up the very first

"I am so sorry," said the girl. "Don't mention it," responded Stafford.
"Are you badly hurt? Can you stand up?"
Stafford made an effort to rise. It was curious. There was no particular pain, but so far as any usefulness or sense of feeling went he might as well have had no legs at all.
"I don't believe I can," he said. "It's awkward, isn't it? Did you run clear over me?"
"Oh, dear, I don't know! It was the snow, and I was in a hurry. I didn't even know that you were in the road at all until the machine hit you and jumped. It might have gone over you. Just think if I had killed you!"
Stafford looked up at her with contented, speculative interest. He was bareheaded. His hat lay about a hundred feet down the road—at least what there was left of it. There did not seem to be much snow on his hair. He wondered if she had been holding his head in her lap.
"Don't think of it. It isn't pleasant. Anyway, it would have been my own fault if I had been. I was trespassing."

"Yes, that's just it!" cried the girl eagerly. "You know these are private grounds, and I never thought for a moment that there could be any one on the road. How did you get past the gates?"
"I didn't get past," replied Stafford calmly. "The person with the dog who guards the gates informed me that I couldn't get past, so I concluded not to argue with him. I walked down the highway a mile or so and climbed over the stone wall."
"It's such a high wall!"
Stafford laughed. Some vagrant lines recurred to him from the Capulet orchard, lines about love's light wings and high walls.
"I didn't exactly climb over it. I tried the nearest tree and dropped over. It was very simple."
"Oh!" she looked down at him in a puzzled fashion. He hardly appeared

"WE WANT YOUR VIEW ON THE STRIKE SITUATION."

to belong to the tramp genus, but his methods were decidedly tramp-like. "Did you want to see any one up at the house?"
"Well, I did," Stafford confessed cheerfully. "But they wouldn't let me in, so I was going back by way of the gates this time."
The girl laughed a trifle nervously and drew on her gloves.
"They'll have to let you in this time, because I mean to take you back with me. Lift the gentleman in, please, Andrew."

Stafford managed to suggest something about going to the hotel at Unionport—he would be all right there; he could wire to New York—when the chauffeur raised his hand and with the rush of sudden agonizing pain there came a slipping back into silence and darkness.
The silence remained when he found light again. It was very still. He looked lazily up at the yellow tinted walls, at the window next his bed. There were yellow curtains at it, and on the window sill was a jar filled with blossoming daffodils. They looked pretty in the sunshine. Stafford was so engrossed in watching them that he did not notice the girl standing at the half opened door until the nurse had left the room and she came to the foot of the bed and smiled down at him.

"So it is," assented Stafford seriously. "May I ask if Mr. Houghton has seen me?"
"Oh, yes! He came up the very first thing and said he thought you were all right. We didn't want a Raffles, you know. One must draw the line somewhere. But papa said you were all right, so we kept you. Otherwise he would have sent you to a hospital and settled the damages with you later. As it is, you are here and have daffodils and—"

"No damages," she laughed at him again. "Oh, you might even collect damages in spite of the daffodils! What shall I tell papa you want?"
"Tell him I want an interview," said Stafford grimly. "And, say, will you please give me the pad and pencil in the inside pocket of my overcoat—no, the other side—thanks. Before he comes up."
When Houghton entered he gave the occupant of the bed a quick, direct look. The girl was behind him. Stafford punched another pillow back of his head and tried to sit up.
"Keep still," said Houghton. "Grace will take your notes for you. Is this what you came after?"
"Yes. From the Record-News, New York." Stafford fumbled weakly to get his old grip on the pencil. "We want your view on the strike situation. The elevated men went out Monday, and the subway followed them Tuesday morning. If the surface men go out it will tie up the whole town. Bixby heads the committee of arbitration, but they say you are back of him and won't arbitrate."

Houghton opened his mouth to speak and shut it again as he looked down at the white, dogged young face on the pillows. When he left Stafford held eleven pages of notes the girl had taken down for him. It was the broadest interview Houghton had ever given out to any newspaper. Stafford smiled lazily at the daffodils and thought first of what Curtis would say and, second, of how the sunlight had danced and flickered around a certain girl's blond head as she sat by the window taking notes.
It was six weeks before he left Brkensmore. He had not noticed the time. It had been February when he had dropped over the stone wall. It was April before he wired the Record-News he would be back at work Monday.
Houghton went himself to the station with him. The two men had passed many a comradely ten minutes together during Stafford's convalescence, and it made things a little easier for Stafford as he told Grace and the promise he held from her.

"It's all right, Tom," said Houghton. "Nothing to say at all. I've got six of them married, and they've married everything from a broker to a duke. I am inclined to compliment Grace on her choice. You ought to see the rest of them, especially the duke. He's taxing me for damages yet. But about that interview, you left out one important feature. You wanted my views on the strike situation, didn't you, and you thought I was holding Bixby back on the arbitration?"
"Well, weren't you?" demanded Stafford.
"My boy, that strike was arbitrated and settled and called off the night Grace ran you down with her auto. But you can hold up your head in town all the same. That was the only interview I gave out, and it clinched Bixby's stand. So I guess your damages are about settled, eh?"
Stafford smiled, but he was thinking of a girl standing among the daffodils in the garden, her face upraised to his.
"Settled in full for injuries received," he said.

What They Might Have Done.
A good story is told of two young Englishmen traveling in Europe. They had never thoroughly mastered any of the languages commonly spoken on the continent and were particularly weak in their French, knowing that language well enough by sight, but not having a speaking acquaintance with it.
Finding themselves in a small French town one evening, they were desirous of obtaining a good cup of coffee. Knowing that cafe was coffee and that it was milk, they endeavored to call for a judicious mixture of the two, but their articulation was so remarkable an order that they succeeded only in getting the coffee. Cafe au late they tried without success. Then du lay-it was attempted unavailingly. The suggestion that lait might be pronounced "light" was adopted equally in vain.
Finally in despair one of the struggling youths exclaimed:
"Well, it's mighty queer we don't know enough to get a little drop of milk."
"Do you want milk?" asked the waitress, opening her mouth for the first time.
"Yes," stammered the travelers, overwhelmed with surprise.
"Then why didn't you say so at first?" queried the girl as she flounced off.
And again the young men didn't know—London Tit-Bits.

A Plagiarist and Mr. Howells.
"When W. D. Howells," said a publisher, "was the editor of Harper's, a young man of humble and rough exterior one day submitted personally to him a poem.
"Mr. Howells looked over the poem. Then he said to the young man:
"Did you write this poem yourself?"
"Yes, sir. Do you like it?" the youth asked.
"I think it is magnificent," said Mr. Howells. "Did you compose it unaided?"
"I certainly did," said the young man firmly. "I wrote every line of it out of my own head."
"Mr. Howells rose and said:
"Then, Lord Byron, I am very glad to meet you. But I was under the impression that you had died at Miss Lough's a good many years ago."—New York Tribune.

THE most important part of a range is the oven. Any kind of a fire will boil potatoes, but it takes an evenly distributed, dry heat to bake light bread and flakey pastry.

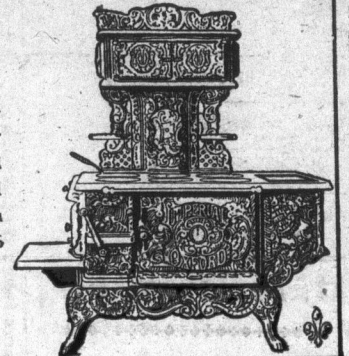

The Imperial Oxford Range is the result of over sixty years of work along the lines of oven improvement. When we had produced the perfect oven with the Imperial Oxford Diffusive Flue, we worked on the other improvements that make it the most economical and easiest-managed range on the market.

Imperial Oxford Range

But it is the wonderful baking qualities of its oven that has made the Imperial Oxford Range famous.

We would like to tell you more about this range. We would like to have you examine one. If your dealer doesn't handle the Imperial Oxford Range, write us direct and we will send you our catalogues and tell you where you can see the range. 16

LOTTERIES IN ENGLAND.
They Had Great Vogue There a Couple of Centuries Ago.

Drawing for the first lottery held in England commenced on January 11th 1569, and continued a. all hours of the day and night at the west door of St. Paul's Cathedral for nearly four months. For the previous two years the scheme was well boomed, and the lottery consisted of 40,000 tickets, each at ten shillings each. The profit was devoted to the repairing of harbors and other useful public works. The lottery very quickly grew in popularity, and a keen and brisk business was carried on by the numerous lottery offices.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

HAVE ACCEPTED

Steam Heating Company Accepts the City's Offer of 25 Year Exclusive Franchise.

Mayor Cowan is able to announce this morning that Chatham will have steam heating.

As is known, the Council at first refused to give the company any exclusive franchise. The company wanted a monopoly for forty years. Just before the last Council meeting the Mayor interviewed Mr. Kipp to see if the company would consider an exclusive franchise of 25 years. Mr. Kipp was doubtful, but the Mayor had the resolution amended, giving them this.

Yesterday a telegram was received from M. Lillie, of Towanda, accepting this proposition. This will effectually safeguard the company without restricting the city too much.

"This will mean a great saving to merchants and house holders," said the Mayor. "In view of the reduced cost of heating supplied by this company the heating estimates of the School Board can be materially reduced."

The route of the pipe lines through the city include King, William, Queen, Third, Fourth and Fifth streets this year, the lines to be pushed into other parts of the city next year. Work will be started at once.

KILLS TRADING STAMPS

Text of the New Legislation Ready For Third Reading.

Goes into Force November 1, 1905, and Provides Heavy Penalties If Third Reading is Passed — Immigration Amendment Lost — House Supports Contract For $5 Per Head Immigrants—Grain Inspection Bill.

Ottawa, July 14.—In the House of Commons yesterday morning the bill from the Senate amending the grain inspection act asked by the Board of Trade of Winnipeg and the Grain Growers' Association, were considered, and Hon. Thomas Greenway offered another amendment, as being in the interest of the grain grower. He did not see much necessity for the standard board. The established standards were fixed and should remain so. It would be a good thing for the trade if all below No. 3 northern were thrown into one grade of milling wheat. There was a great difficulty now as to the spread in price of wheat, which amounted to 17 1/2c between No. 2 and No. 3. We asked why farmers could not sell their wheat at the same price as the other produce. The amendment to the grain inspection act had all been of late in the direction of giving greater facilities to the farmer to market his wheat. The crop last year was 60,000,000 bushels, and of that more than 10,000,000 was No. 3 northern, so that the loss to the farmer on No. 3 alone was half a million dollars. He proposed an amendment for the appointment of an officer in the interests of the shipper, who would have access to all inspection papers, transportation records, etc.

Mr. Campbell said that this could be done by order-in-council, and the Government had agreed to do so.

Arch. Campbell said that the difficulty mentioned might arise from the option markets in Winnipeg. At present No. 3 northern could not be delivered under contract.

Immigration Amendment.

When the House was moved into supply, Mr. Osler (West Toronto) moved an amendment condemning the contract made by the Government with that nebulous concern known as the North Atlantic Trading Co., whereby the company gets $5 per head for ten years for every man, woman and child it brings from Central Europe. The resolution also called upon the Government to give notice terminating the contract which has been done within four years. It was time the quality, rather than quantity, of our immigration should be regarded, a policy which could not be pursued under the arrangement, which looked solely to the earning of the bonus.

R. L. Borden thought that efforts should be made toward directed settling, curing immigrants from the British Isles.

Mr. Fielding said the reason why the North Atlantic Trading Co. received $5 per head for immigrants, while only $1.75 per head was paid for bringing seamen from Great Britain, was because the company did all the advertising and had to bear all the expense connected with this work.

Mr. Wilson (Lennox) replied that the steamship companies in Great Britain spent large sums in advertising and making Canada known to the British working people. It should be the duty of the company to show how many persons were brought to Canada by their instrumentality. Mr. Wilson criticized the laxity of the Government in failing to deport undesirable immigrants who reach Canada.

The amendment was lost by 40 to 76.

To Kill Trading Stamps.

In the afternoon, after a long discussion in committee of the whole, reported the trading stamps bill, with several important amendments. The bill, which is to be incorporated in the criminal code, now stands for a third reading, and will probably pass in this form:

(1) The expression "trading stamps" includes, besides trading stamps commonly so called, any form of cash receipt, coupon, premium ticket or other device, designed or intended to be given to the purchaser of goods by the vendor thereof, or his employee or agent, and to represent a discount on the price of such goods or a premium to the purchaser thereof, which is redeemable either (1) by any person other than the vendor or the person from whom he purchased the goods or the manufacturer of the goods, or (2) by the vendor or the person from whom he purchased the goods, in cash or goods not his property or not his exclusive property; or (3) by the vendor elsewhere than in the premises where such goods are purchased, or which does not show upon its face the place of its delivery and the merchantable value thereof, or is not redeemable at any time.

When Its Not a Violation.

(b) An offer, printed or marked by the manufacturer upon any wrapper, box or receptacle in which the goods are sold, of a premium or reward for the return of such wrapper, box or receptacle is not a trading stamp within the meaning of the section.

(c) The expression "goods" means anything which is merchandise or the subject of trade or manufacture.

(d) The expressions "every one," "endor," "purchase," "merchant," "agent" or "person" includes any partnership or company or body corporate.

Heavy Punishment.

(2) Everyone is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to one year's imprisonment and to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars who by himself or his employee or agent, directly or indirectly, issues, gives or sells or otherwise disposes of or offers to issue, give, sell or otherwise dispose of trading stamps to a merchant or dealer in goods for use in his business.

(3) Everyone is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to six months' imprisonment and to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars who, being a merchant or dealer in goods, by himself or his employee or agent, directly or indirectly, gives or in any way disposes of or offers to give or in any way dispose of trading stamps to a purchaser from him of any such goods. Begins in November.

Section 4 imposes a maximum fine of $20 upon a person who receives stamps. The next clause applies the penalties of subsections 2 or 3 to any executive officer of a corporation or company who aids or abets the offences named. The last clause provides that "That this act shall not apply to any trading stamps issued by a manufacturer or vendor on or before the 1st day of November, 1905."

In Supply.

The House in supply passed the Intercolonial votes and rose at 1 o'clock.

In the Senate.

The Autonomy bill was debated in the Senate until one o'clock this morning.

WIN TROPHY

Wilson Taylor's Chatham Rink Win McMaster Cup and Meads—Twenty Six Rinks Entered.

Wilson Taylor's victorious bowlers returned from Ridgeway last night. They brought with them the McMaster cup, which was in competition among the twenty-six rinks entered in the tournament. With the cup go four gold medals, which are the property of the individual players.

The tournament was in progress all Wednesday and yesterday. In the preliminary round Mr. Taylor's rink defeated Reid, of Bothwell, 20-13. It then went up against Graham, of Ridgeway, winning 19-13. In the third round Marr, of Ridgeway, was its opponent and was decisively beaten 23-8. In the semi-finals it defeated Horton, of St. Thomas, by the score of 22-14. The Chatham rink and that of the London Thistles, skipped by Fincham, clashed in the finals. Mr. Taylor's rink coming out victorious, the score being 23-21. The rink which has just shed fresh lustre on the already proud name of the Chatham Bowling Club was composed of Messrs. Fleming, Jewett, Hodgins and Taylor.

Dr. Bray's Erieau bowlers also did creditably, defeating rinks from Ridgeway and Leamington before they succumbed to one from London. Webb's rink was defeated by Gossnell, of Blenheim, in the first round, and Tillson's of Duncan, of Thamesville, by the close score of 16-15. One shudders to think, though, what would have happened to the opponents of this rink if that dog had not bayed at the moon the night before and broken the slumbers of J. E. Thomas, their lead.

It is always a pleasure to record the achievements of Chatham's sportsmen. It is doubly one when success has been attained in keen, close competition, which characterized the Ridgeway tournament. Banquet to Mr. Taylor's rink and the club.

Lots of good ten cent Cigars, but only one best—the Lord Lake.

The committee appointed by the Catholic Order of Foresters for their annual excursion to Detroit Aug. 15 will spare no pains and will serve abundant refreshments. Music on board.

THE 2 T's FOR QUALITY.

"Lower Prices"

That's the excuse offered for the "mercerized cotton" cheat; and say nothing about lower quality.

Now the man who demands lower prices and accepts "mercerized cotton" as the answer, ought to have what he calls for. He probably pays more than he ought to; but let that pass.

The trick is to "work" the man who wants best quality and is willing to pay for it; to charge him a little less and give him a good deal less. "Mercerized cotton" does the trick.

We'll stick to all-wool; there's no trick or cheat about that. Our label stands for all-wool; a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.
