The forty-eighth Session of the Medical Faculty of McGill University will be opened on Friday, October 1st, 1880, with a general introductory Lecture at 11 a.m. The regular lectures will begin on Monday, the 4th Oct., at the hours specified in the time-table, and will be continued during the six months following.

The Medical College, a large and substantial building situated within the University Grounds, contains two spacious class rooms, students' waiting-room, Library, Museum, Laboratories, together with a large and well-furnished Dissecting-room.

During the past year one of the three lecture rooms has been converted into a Physiological Laboratory and fully equipped with suitable apparatus.

The class tickets for the various courses are accepted as qualifying candidates for examination before the various Colleges and licensing bodies of Great Britain and Ireland, and the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

To meet the circumstances of the General Practitioners in British North America, where there is no division of the profession into Physicians and Surgeons exclusively, the degree awarded upon graduation is that of "Doctor of Medicine and Master of Surgery," in accordance with the general nature and character of the curriculum, as fully specified hereafter. The degree is received by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec.

I.

Graduates in Arts of recognized Universities are not required to submit to the Matriculation Examination, and a certificate of having passed this Examination before the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario or of Quebec will be accepted by this University.

Students of the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario are required by the laws of those Provinces to pass the matriculation examinations of the provincial Medical Boards. In Ontario, Graduates in Arts are exempted from this examination.

(b) Matriculation Examination of College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Quebec.

The subjects of examination are as follows :—

Compulsory Subjects :—English, French, Latin, Arithmetic, Algebra, Euclid, History, Geography, Belles-Lettres.

Examination Fee, ten dollars. Should the candidate be unsuccessful, one half the fee will be returned.

Of the four years study after having passed the Matriculation Examination, three six months' sessions, at least, must be attended at University, College, or Incorporated School of Medicine, recognized by the "Provincial Medical Board," and the first session must be attended during the year immediately succeeding the Matriculation Examination.

(c) Matriculation Examination of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of the Province of Ontario.

The examination is held in Toronto and in Kingston on the first Tuesday and Wednesday after Good Friday, and the third Tuesday and Wednesday in August of each year. It is compulsory upon all students of the Province of Ontario. Graduates in Arts are excepted.

The subjects are as follows :—English Language, including grammar and composition ; Arithmetic, including vulgar and decimal fractions ; Algebra, including simple equations ; Geometry, first two books of Euclid ; Latin, translation and grammar ; and upon one of the following subjects (of which Students are recommended to select either Natural Philosophy, or one of the Modern Languages), the candidate having the option of naming the subject upon which he will be examined, viz. :—Greek, French, German, Natural Philosophy, including mechanics, hydrostatics and pneumatics.

Enregistration in the Summer Session is compulsory upon all Students, whether attending one or more of the Classes.

III.

COURSES OF LECTURES.

1 Anatomy.—[Prof. Scott.]—The importance of Anatomy, both descriptive and in its relation to Medicine and Surgery, is duly considered by the Professor who employs chiefly the fresh subject in the illustration of the lectures, and, however, by dried preparations, wax models, plaster casts of dissections, plates, &c., the full size of life.

2 Practical Anatomy.—[Drs. Shepherd and MacDonnell.]—Special attention is devoted to this important branch, the teaching being similar to that of the best European schools. The Dissecting-Room is open from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Demonstrators' hours are from 10 to 12 a. m., and 8 to 10 p. m. Special demonstrations on the Brain, Thorax, Abdomen, Bones, etc., are frequently given. Every Student must be examined at least three times on each part dissected, and, if the examinations are satisfactory, a certificate is given. Prizes are awarded at the end of the Session for the best examination on the fresh subject. Material provided under cost.

3 Chemistry.—[Prof. Girdwood]—Inorganic Chemistry is fully treated: a large portion of the course is devoted to Organic Chemistry and its relations to Physiology. The branches of Physics bearing upon or connected with Chemistry also engage the attention of the Class. For experimental illustration, abundant apparatus is possessed by the Professor, among which may be enumerated, a powerful Air Pump—Oxy-Hydrogen Microscope—Polariscope—extensive series of Models of Crystals, Electrical and Galvanic apparatus, steam engine, &c., &c.

4 Practical Chemistry.—[Prof. Girdwood.]—Thorough instruction is given in the different departments of Practical Chemistry in the Laboratory of the Faculty under the personal supervision of the Professor. The course includes blow-pipe manipulations, qualitative and quantitative analysis, toxicological investigations, &c., &c. This class may be taken in the Summer Session.

5 Institutes of Medicine.—[Prof. Osler and Assistant.]—Embraced in this course are the following classes:—

(a) Physiology, comprising,

(1) A full course of didactic lectures upon the structure and functions of the various organs of the body in health. The lectures are illustrated by fresh preparations, diagrams, plates and models, and, when practicable, by experiments.

(2) Practical demonstrations, held every Saturday from 2 to 4 p. m. In this course a complete series of histological preparations is exhibited and explained. Specimens illustrative of physiological anatomy and practical physiology are also shown, and the Students invited to propound and discuss any questions which may have appeared clear to them.

(3) Practical Histology—normal and pathological. A course of 25 lessons—Microscopes, re-agents and material provided. This course is generally held during the Summer Session, but will also be conducted during the Winter if a class of 10 Students be formed. It comprises thorough instruction in the use of the Microscope, the preparation of the tissues, each Student preparing for himself during the course a cabinet of 100 or more specimens.

(b) Pathology, comprising,

(1) A limited number of lectures on General Pathology, which are included in a systematic course on the Institutes.

(2) Pathological Demonstrations—weekly—Saturday, 11 a. m. This course is based upon, and conducted, as far as possible, in the same way as that of Virchow, at the Berlin Pathological Institute. Specimens of all kinds are collected throughout the week, kept fresh until Saturday, and then brought before the class when practical comments are made upon them. An idea of the amount of material at command may be gathered from the fact that over 150 fresh pathological specimens, illustrative of almost all the common forms of disease, were brought before the class during the past session.

(3) Instruction in Post-mortems—The Autopsy Room of the General Hospital is in charge of the Professor, and the post-mortems are performed by the Students in rotation, under his supervision. System and thoroughness in inspection are insisted upon, the method followed being that of Virchow. As far as possible attention is drawn to the Medical Anatomy of the thoracic and abdominal organs. In connection with this class, aided by the Professor of Medical Jurisprudence, Coroners' Inquests will be conducted during the Session before the class, and the Medico-legal aspects of post-mortems dwelt upon.

6 Materia Medica.—[Prof. Wright.]—In this course the ordinary Medicines official in the British Pharmacopœia are taken up in classes according to their chief actions, and described under the various heads peculiar to Pharmacology. The Therapeutics of each are fully detailed, under the effects that follow from different doses. Those from toxic or over-doses are added, together with the mode of treatment, etc. The course is illustrated from a cabinet of the various drugs and preparations, and the plates of Wagner, Roque, Stevenson and Churchill are shewn. Analytical experiments with the ordinary re-agents are exhibited.

7 Theory and Practice of Medicine.—[Prof. Howard.]—While the lectures on this subject are mainly devoted to Special Pathology and Therapeutics, the department of General Pathology in this University being included in the Institute of Medicine, no opportunity is lost of illustrating and explaining the general nature of disease. With the exception of certain affections seldom or never observed in this country, all the important diseases of the body, not described from the changes in Surgery and Obstetrics, are discussed, and their Pathological Anatomy illustrated by the large collection of morbid preparations in the University Museum, and fresh specimens contributed by the Demonstrator of Morbid Anatomy.

The College possesses an extensive series of Anatomical plates illustrative of the histological and anatomical appearances of disease, and the wards of the General Hospital afford the lecturer ample opportunities to refer to living examples of many of the maladies he describes and to give the results of treatment.

8 Clinical Medicine.—[Prof. Ross.]—Attendance is given in the Medical Wards of the Montreal General Hospital on three days of every week. Accurate reports of all cases are kept by duly appointed clinical clerks, and are systematically read before the class. Instruction is given by the bedside, and special inducements are offered to every pupil to take part in the physical examination of patients. The mode of conducting investigations, the use of the microscope, the value of the

of p

meter and ophthalmoscope, etc., in Medical Diagnosis, are all explained and strated. Senior Students are called upon in rotation to examine new cases be-the class, and to be examined thereon as to their general knowledge. In dition, one weekly Clinical Lecture is delivered, bearing upon some case or cases importance which may happen to be under observation at the time. Special ention is directed to Medical Anatomy, and candidates for the degree will be mined thereon.

9 Surgery.—[Prof. Fenwick.]—Divided into Principles and Practice, includ-Surgical Anatomy and Operative Surgery, exhibited on the subject. The ious surgical instruments and apparatus are exhibited, and their uses and appli-ions explained and practically illustrated.

10 Clinical Surgery.—[Prof. Roddick.]—This course is eminently practical, sisting of bedside instruction and lectures delivered weekly, illustrative of Sur-al cases actually present in the wards of the General Hospital. The class is en charge of by the Teacher on alternate days, when the reports of the Clinical ks are read and criticized, and fresh cases examined by the senior Students.
Surgical dressings are, as much as possible, reserved for these occasions, so as ive all present an opportunity of participating in the application of splints to ures, dressing of wounds, minor operations, etc. Major operations are per-med in the spacious theatre attached to the Hospital, which is so admirably structed that the most distant can generally obtain a fair view of the operation.
is also used as a Lecture Room by the Clinical Professors. All of the recently ented appliances for the treatment of Surgical disease have been introduced into Hospital, prominent among which is a complete outfit of Lister's Antiseptic paratus, so that this excellent method of treating wounds is now almost universally adopted.

11 Midwifery.—[Prof. McCallum.]—Including diseases of women and chil-n, illustrated by a series of drawings on a large scale, by humid preparations, by els in wax, by the use of the artificial Pelvis, and by cases in the wards of the ng-in Hospital.

12 Medical Jurisprudence.—[Prof. Gardner.]—This course includes Insan- to which a good deal of attention is devoted, the subject being treated of in its ical as well as Medico-legal aspects. Special attention is devoted to the ect of blood stains, the Clinical, Microscopic and Spectroscopical tests for which ully described and shown to the class. The various spectra of blood in its rent conditions are shown by the Sorby-Browning Micro-spectroscope, so well sted for showing the reactions with exceedingly minute quantities of suspected erial. Recent researches in the diagnosis of human from animal blood are ded to. In addition to the other subjects usually included in a course of this Toxicology is taken up. The modes of action of poisons, general evidence poisoning and classification of poisons are first treated of, after which the more non poisons are described with reference to symptoms, post-mortem appearances, and chemical tests. The post-mortem appearances are illustrated by plates, and the tests are shown to the Class.

13 Hygiene and Public Health.—[Prof. Gardner.]—A three months' course of Lectures will be delivered on this subject, the attendance upon which is now compulsory.

14 Ophthalmology and Otology.—[Dr. Buller.]—Will include a course of lectures on diseases of the Eye and the Ear, both Didactic and Clinical. In the former the general principles of diagnosis and treatment will be dealt with; in the latter, cases illustrative of the typical forms of ordinary diseases of these organs will be exhibited and explained to the class, and afterwards placed under the special care of gentlemen who may show themselves competent to take charge of them. A Course of Operations on the Cadaver will be open to such Students as may wish to avail themselves of the same.

15 Botany and Zoology.—[Prof. Dawson.]—The Course in Botany is illustrated by specimens, diagrams, models, and the microscope. Students have access without any additional fee to the lectures in Zoology in the Faculty of Arts, and to the Natural History Museum of the University and the Museum of the Natural History Society of Montreal.

16 Helminthology.—A course of six lectures on the Parasitic Diseases of Man and the Domestic Animals. (Prof. Osler). The life history and development of the Entozoa, together with the diseases caused by them, are fully considered. The lectures are illustrated by a series of beautiful diagrams, and by fresh and prepared specimens.

The following are extracts from the University Regulations with respect to the courses of Lectures :

1st. Each Professor shall deliver at least five Lectures during the week, except in the classes of Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery, in which bedside demonstrations and one Clinical Lecture shall be given; and in that of Medical Jurisprudence, if extended through six months, in which case the Lectures a week will suffice.

2nd. Every Lecture shall be of one hour's duration.

3rd. Every Professor shall occasionally examine his class upon the subjects treated of in his preceding Lectures, and every such examination shall be considered a Lecture.

The Sessional Examinations at the close of the 1st and 3rd Years are compulsory upon all Students, and they will be rated according to merit.

With regard to the Primary Examination at the end of the 2nd Year, it remains optional with the Student whether he passes in all the branches or leaves two for the 3rd Year. In any case, Chemistry and one other must be taken at the close of the 2nd Year.

MUSEUM.

Most of the usual Pathological Specimens are collected here, obtained from Hospital and private practice. They are largely used in illustrating the lectures on Medicine and Surgery. There are also wax and papier-mache models.

Graduates of the University are invited to contribute specimens.

LIBRARY.

This comprises between six and seven thousand volumes, including all the standard text-books and works of reference, together with complete files of the leading periodicals. Students may obtain books on making a deposit of $4.00, which is refunded on returning the volumes.

XI.

MCGILL MEDICAL SOCIETY.

This Society, composed of enregistered Students of the Faculty, meets once a week during the Summer Session, and fortnightly during the winter, for the reading of papers and the discussion of medical subjects. It is presided over by a physician chosen by the members.

A reading room has been established in connection with the Society, in which the leading English and American medical journals are on file.

XII.

COST OF LIVING, &c.

This will, of course, vary with the tastes and habits of the Student, but the necessary expenses need not exceed those in smaller towns. Good Board may be obtained from $14 to $20 per month. A list of Boarding-houses is prepared annually by the Secretary of the University, and may be procured from the Janitor at the Medical College.

XIII.

HOSPITALS.MONTREAL GENERAL HOSPITAL.

The Montreal General Hospital affords ample means for the instruction of Students in Clinical Medicine and Surgery. The daily number of beds occupied by patients averages from 140 to 150, and during epidemic visitations has reached a much higher number. The Governors have also erected a Hospital for Children, contiguous to the Reid Wing of the present building. The Students have thus an opportunity of becoming familiar with nearly all the diseases of suffering humanity, and with the peculiarities imparted to them by infancy, adolescence, maturity and declining age.

The large number of out-door patients that are treated in the Hospital, averaging from sixty to seventy daily—supply illustrations of most of the diseases of infants and children, of very many of the eye and skin, and of those chronic and ill-defined ailments which, as they do not require admission to the wards of a hospital, would not otherwise come under the observation of the Student, although, on account of their variety and frequency, they are of great importance to the Physician.

The large number of patients affected with diseases of the eye and ear, now attending the out-door department, will afford Students ample opportunity to become familiar with all the ordinary affections of these organs, and to make themselves proficient in the use of the ophthalmoscope, and it is hoped that every Student will thus seek to gain a practical knowledge of this important branch of Medicine and Surgery. Operations are performed on the eye, by Dr. Buller, after the out-door patients have been seen, and Students are invited to attend the same, and as far as practicable to keep such cases under observation so long as they remain in the Hospital.

The shipping contributes many examples of accidents and surgical cases.

CLINICAL CLERKS to both medical and surgical wards are appointed every three months, and each one during his term of service conducts, under the immediate direction of the Clinical Professors, the reporting of all cases in the ward allotted him. The holding of one of these offices is found to be of the greatest possible advantage to Students, as affording the most real practical training for his future professional life. They will be awarded on application at the end of each Session to final Students of that year, in order of their standing in the primary examination.

DRESSERS are also appointed to the Surgical wards and to the Out-door Department. For these appointments application is to be made to the Professor of Clinical Surgery, and to the Out-door attending Physicians.

The Operating Room (used also for a lecture room) is so constructed as to enable the Students to obtain a good view of the operations.

MONTREAL DISPENSARY.

ST. ANTOINE STREET.

About 10,000 patients yearly are treated at this Institution. The cases are of great variety, comprising a large number of pulmonary affections and children's diseases. Minor operations are of daily occurrence, and excellent practice is afforded in the application of splints and bandages. The attending Physicians furnish Students with all possible facilities. The hours of attendance are from 12-2 daily.

UNIVERSITY LYING-IN HOSPITAL.

This is under the direction of the Professor of Midwifery. Students who have already attended one course of his lectures, are furnished with cases in rotation; they are advised to attend this Institution as much as possible during the summer, when, since there are as many patients and not so many pupils as in winter, a larger proportion of cases falls to the share of each. Moreover, in this way more attention can be given to their duties during the winter.

The Assistant to the Professor of Midwifery attends each case, and gives instruction to the students in the methods of examination and the diagnosis of presentations.

UNIVERSITY DISPENSARY FOR DISEASES OF WOMEN.

Clinical instruction to Senior Students will be given thrice weekly at this Institution, 107 St. Urbain Street.

Faculty of Medicine.

SUMMER SESSION.

APRIL 15TH—JULY 8TH, 1880.

The Classes are chiefly practical and demonstrative, and are designed to supplement and extend the teaching of the regular winter Session.

The experience of the past sessions has been very encouraging, both in regard to the numbers in attendance and the diligence with which the classes have been followed ; and the Faculty hopes that all students will endeavour to take one or two of these extra Sessions, the fees for which have purposely been placed so low as to be almost nominal.

The special advantages of attendance upon a Summer Session are :—

(1) The benefit derived from the practical and demonstrative classes.

(2) Dresserships and Clinical Clerkships are more easily obtained at the Hospitals, and the student has more time at his disposal to follow up the cases.

(3) Cases of Midwifery are obtained in greater numbers at the Lying-in-Hospital.

(4) Systematic study can be carried out more effectively than at home.

The advantages offered by the city of Montreal for the practical study of Medicine and surgery are unequalled in the Dominion. In the wards of the General Hospital there is always—and more particularly in the summer months, when navigation is opened—a large collection of interesting medical and surgical cases. In the out-door department there is a daily attendance of between 75 and 100 patients, which affords excellent instruction in minor surgery, routine medical practice, and diseases of children. The Eye and Ear Department, will afford to the student an opportunity of studying practically, under skilled direction, these important branches.

Dresserships and Clinical Clerkships may be obtained on application to the Attending and Out-Door Physicians.
