Pat's Regiment

Sailed This Morning From Montreal—First Canadian Regiment to Go.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] MONTREAL, Aug. 28.—With every ship in the harbor covered with bunting and to the accompaniment of hundreds of whistles the White Star Liner Megantic, with her thousand odd men composing the Princess Patricia's Canadian light infantry, left port this morning on her voyage down the river to the sea.

No Atonement

Can Ever be Made for the Wanton Destruction of the City of Louvain by the Germans.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Aug. 29.—1.30 p.m.—The official information bureau in a statement regarding the destruction of the Belgian town of Louvain by the Germans and the German announcement that the inhabitants had fired on their troops, says: "The assumption of the German commander was, under the circumstances, so wide of probability that it can only be supposed that in the desire to conceal the facts, the first idea which occurred to him was seized upon as an excuse for an act without parallel in the history of civilized peoples."

Our Battery There

[By Special Wire to The Courier] VALCARTIER CAMP, Que., Aug. 28.—Two batteries from Ottawa under command of Col Morrison and one from Brantford, arrived at an early hour this morning, being the first appearance of Canada's artillery at the mobilization camp. Seven more batteries from eastern centres consisting of about 4,000 men are expected by Monday morning. The last of the artillery will be here from the west by Monday afternoon, putting the strength of the camp up to 25,000. There are also several rifle regiments and the army service corps of some of the principal cities of Ontario and the prairie provinces now on the road to Valcartier.

Latest Bulletins

200 PRISONERS. LONDON, Aug. 29.—A British cruiser arrived in the Nor to-day with 200 German prisoners on board, chiefly from the German cruiser Mainz, which was sunk by a British fleet in the recent naval engagement off Cuxhaven. FISHERMEN HURT. LONDON, Aug. 29.—4.10 p.m.—The official bureau of information has announced that two trawlers, sweeping for mines, have been sunk by mines. Five members of the crew of the trawlers are missing, and eight others sustained injuries. RUSSIANS NEAR. WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The Russian troops are thirty kilometers from Lemberg, and Serbian army headquarters has moved forward to Zallevo, according to official despatches to-day to the French embassy. Before Nancy the French troops found 2,500 German dead and before Vitrymont, 400 dead.

FRENCH ARMY CHIEF.

GENERAL JOFFRE

General Joffre is commander-in-chief of the French army. He is sixty-two years old. When only eighteen years of age he served in the great Franco-German War of 1870-71. Since then he has been engaged in the task of building up the French army and thoroughly reorganizing the French frontier forces. The results of his labor are seen now in the frontier forts are almost impregnable and French troops are among the best in the world.

THREE TO ONE ARE THE ODDS AGAINST BRITISH

LONDON, Aug. 29.—A Daily Mail editorial concerning the concentration of the Germans in immense strength to crush the British expeditionary force says: "Germany has brought the stupendous odds of three to one against the British soldiers of whom we may well feel proud; but the situation is most critical. France has done everything in her power. Russia cannot help except by indirect pressure. Great Britain alone can find more men, and find them she must. The nation must prepare on a colossal scale and must send every man and every gun that can be spared here and now to the decisive point in France."

The marriage takes place on Tuesday at Jamestown, N.Y., of Mr Frank Kitchen, manager of the Kitchen Overall Company, of this city, and Miss Diego Duffee, a popularly known young lady of the American city.

DEFEAT WAS REAL VICTORY

Courage of British Army Against Tremendous Odds.

Force of 700 Fought 5,000 Germans for Hours.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Daily Mail's Boulogne correspondent, writing of the Battle of Tournai, says: "The Battle of Tournai should go down in history besides Rorke's Drift, and Magerfontein as a revelation of the prowess of the British army. At Tournai, a German cavalry force of 5,000 men overwhelmed a British force of 700, who fought expected relief which never appeared. The Germans were victors at a terrible price, and only after their own ranks had been sadly thinned. The British stood their ground until all hope had been lost and only 300 remained. Then they retired, calmly and coolly, carrying their wounded and harassing their pursuers all the way. "The story of this last stand is somewhat belocuded by the British charge that the Germans inally turned the tide of battle by mounting quick firers in Red Cross wagons. The British survivors fell back on Wednesday afternoon, the fight having lasted from 11.30 in the morning. Here is the story of Tournai in brief: "On Wednesday morning our troops had taken a position slightly to the rear of the town, upon high ground. Our artillery fired effectively at first upon the German advance, but later lost the range. Towards one o'clock our position became critical. "As every vital moment slipped by, anxious eyes looked back for the promised help that was never to come. Even at the terrible disadvantage of more than ten to one, the infantry and artillery were holding their own, when hordes of Uhlans seemed suddenly to swoop down from nowhere. "Through the town they galloped with an amazing disregard for themselves and up to the very muzzles of our field guns. Their losses were appalling, but survivors insist that the British stood their ground until armed ambulances, at least three in number, made their appearance with rapid fire guns mounted on them. Towards two o'clock the 300 survivors began to retire."

KOENIGSBERG IS SURROUNDED SAYS DESPATCH

Russians Are Wedging Into German Territory in Great Force.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Aug. 29.—A St. Petersburg despatch to The Times sent Saturday morning, says the Austrians made a bold bid for the offensive yesterday by trying to seize the left flank of the Russian position in Poland with the obvious intention of relieving the pressure on the German forces in northeastern Prussia. "Two or three army corps advanced as far as Kielce, where they encountered a strong Russian force. A pitched battle was fought and resulted in the overthrow of the invaders, who sustained heavy losses. It was here that the eleventh Hungarian reserves met their fate. "Operations in Eastern Galicia, according to the despatch, are fast developing, and the Russian net is drawing around Lemberg. The German Altestein army is in full retreat towards Elbing and Marienburg. "The reported capture of Koenigsberg is not confirmed," says the Times correspondent, "but I have the best of authority for stating that Koenigsberg is completely surrounded. (Continued on Page 3)

GLORY OF NELSON IS REVIVED

Naval Victory Yesterday Greatly Cripples Germans

It Was a Very Bold Thing for British to Go So Near.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—The Tribune publishes the following London cable: "It was a bold thing to go into the Bight of Heligoland," says the Daily Chronicle, commenting on yesterday's naval victory, "but our officers measured the risk and their enterprise was justified. Many a time did young officers in old wars go close to the enemy's shores and cut off his coastwise shipping. The new race of officers is evidently the equal of the old and we can think of Nelson rejoicing to see the gallantry of old repeated in the action recorded to-day."

The Morning Post's naval expert says: "The reduction of the German light cruiser force is a serious matter for them. The loss of Magdeburg in the Baltic was reported on Thursday and three more were lost yesterday. The number of light cruisers in home waters possessed by Germany is said to be 28 available ships. Their number is now reduced to 24, a proportion utterly insufficient adequately to work with the destroyer flotillas and battleship fleet. "In addition she has a number of destroyer flotillas knocked out. Seventy-seven destroyers are based on Wilhelmshaven, and as no flotilla can remain at sea in the face of an enemy for more than three days without relief, the loss of one destroyer really incapacitates another and the loss of a flotilla reduces the activity of half another flotilla. "The German weaying-down tactics have now resulted in Gerban's advantage in one British cruiser sunk and to Germany's disadvantage in one mine layer, three cruisers and two destroyers sunk besides damages to many other vessels."

The British admirals mentioned in the official despatch have youth on their side. Rear Admiral Beatty, although only 43, is a seasoned sailor, who has seen fighting service in Egypt and China and has had an amazingly swift rise to distinction. Under Kitchener he performed wonders on the Nile in getting gunboats over the cataract. He commanded a flotilla, which bombarded Mongolia and Tien-Tsin. He was twice wounded while leading 200 blue jackets to the capture of two guns. He became admiral at the early age of 38 and was knighted this year. He is in command of the British squadron which paid a visit to St. Petersburg, just before the war broke out.

WORK FOR RED CROSS

Hyde Park Women's Institute Decides to Aid Society. HYDE PARK, August 29.—At the regular meeting of the Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs Robert Kray, on Wednesday afternoon, August 26, Mrs. Bapty, of London, spoke on the needs of the Red Cross Society, her plea met with a ready response from the members of the institute. Several became associate members and the president, Mrs. (Rev.) Dufford, was voted a full member. It was decided that for at least three months the institute will lay aside all local work and devote their time to the more pressing need of the Red Cross Society.

EXPERT OPINION OF TIMES

Allies Must Stone-wall and Russians Steam-roll.

Situation in West is Serious Part of Campaign.

[By Special Wire to The Courier] LONDON, Aug. 29.—The military expert of The Times in his comment on the war to-day says: "There is a great difference between the tasks of the allies in the western and eastern theatre of war. "In the west, our task is stone-wall; that of the Russians is steam-rolling. "The situation in the west is such that only an extraordinary stroke of good fortune could give us a smashing victory and enable us to annihilate the foe. It is our business to keep our wicket up while Russia makes the runs. We must fight back if need be, to the Atlantic ropes without allowing ourselves to be knocked out. "Germany must have an aggressive victory to win, and it must be our endeavor to foil her in that object. "The Russians have a most brilliant role in this war. Russia must reach Berlin within a couple of months. If at the end of that time our claws are still fast in the German army in the west, and if Serbia still has her teeth in Austria's back, then the strategic and principal object of the war will be achieved."

ITALY'S ULTIMATUM

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Paris correspondent of The Express sends his paper the following despatch: "I am informed Italy will present an ultimatum to Austria requesting an explanation of Austrian mobilization on the Italian frontier. Only a brief period will be given for an answer, and within a short time Italian troops are expected to be in Trieste. Militia regiments throughout Canada are ordered to recruit up to full strength as soon as possible and to drill in view of a call for a second expeditionary force.

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

General French Sends a Message to the Men of the Royal Navy.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
 LONDON, Aug. 29.—1.15 a.m.—The official press bureau makes public the following telegram sent by General Sir John French, who is in command of the British troops in France, to a war secretary:
 "I shall be greatly obliged if you will tell the first lord of the admiralty how very much the army appreciates the kind messages and thoughts of the navy. Our warmest sympathy also is with our comrades in the royal navy in their trying and arduous vigil."

Reception—There is not so much in the ordinary vacation as there is in a single bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which refreshes the tired blood, sharpens the dulled appetite, restores the lost courage. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla this summer.

DEFENCELESS PEOPLE ARE BOMBARDED

Germans Violate Laws of Warfare in Most Disgraceful Fashion.

LONDON, Aug. 29 4.50 a.m.—The correspondent of Reuter's Telegraph Company at Antwerp sends the following official statement, which has been issued here:
 "On Thursday, the Germans, contrary to the laws of war bombarded Malines, an open and undefended town."
 "On Friday morning the town was partially occupied by German infantry, which withdrew toward the south in the afternoon and the bombardment was renewed, four shells falling about each quarter of an hour."
 The enemy also bombarded the region about Heyst-Opden-Berg, a town seventeen miles southeast of Antwerp, an open locality not occupied by the military.

The two operations had no less an object than to terrorize the civilian populations.
 "The Germans have systematically bombarded the forts and gaps of Namur for 48 hours. The town itself suffered little. The enemy has invested the northern portion of the place and is attacking the forts and gaps in that region. The Belgian division retired to the second line of defence which was bombarded violently. In turn the Belgian and French troops made numerous counter attacks."

The Belgian division retired by way of the Sambre and the Meuse and the movement was accomplished in good order. Our troops have rejoined the French lines.
 "Reconnaissance made in the neighborhood of Antwerp gave favorable results and showed the country unoccupied. Our security therefore is complete."

ADRIATIC IS ARMED.
 NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—With six-inch guns mounted fore and aft, with every porthole blanketed and all lights extinguished, the White Star liner Adriatic crept into port in the darkness of early morning to-day. She had aboard 1,762 passengers. It is said that the vessel will go with little delay from here to Halifax to help carry Canadian volunteers across the sea.

RAILWAYS TIED UP.

"The minister of finance has informed prominent temperance advocates that sale of spirits would be forbidden throughout the war."
A GERMAN ACCOUNT
BERLIN, Aug. 29.—(By wireless telegraph to the Associated Press via Sayville, L.I.)—News of the defeat of five Russian army corps to the south of Allenstein is made public here to-day. It is said to ensure the safety of the German flank.
The Associated Press has been informed from official Austrian sources that the battles which have been in progress for several days past are expected to be decisive. Austrian troops are pursuing the Russians from Krasnik, about 20 miles north of the Galician frontier, in the direction of Lublin.
There is no invading army between the River Bug and the River Wieprz (those rivers are affluents of the Vistula and embrace a territory located to the east of Warsaw).
Austria, according to this same authority has invaded Russia and has occupied the region in front of Zamose. (Zamose is a strongly fortified town of Russian Poland on the Wieprz, 45 miles southeast of Lublin).
The Austrians are said to hold the regions to the west, north and southwest of Lemberg, Galicia, and have advanced towards the Dnieper River against strong invading forces of the enemy.
BIG FORT FALLS
LONDON, Aug. 28.—A despatch to The Times from St. Petersburg says that reports are circulating there of the fall of Koenigsberg, the strongly fortified seaport of the Germans in East Prussia.
The Russian advance in East Prussia gave rise to three days of prolonged and stubborn engagements in the vicinity of Soldau, Allenstein and Pischoffsburg, where the enemy had concentrated the army corps which retreated from Gumbinnen and some fresh troops. Allenstein has been successfully occupied by the Russians.
The German losses were particularly heavy at Meurien, between Osterode and Nordenburg, and the enemy is in full retreat.
On the Galician front the fighting had on Wednesday assumed the character of general engagements, developing in the southern districts of Lublin and in Eastern Galicia on the roads to Lemberg. The front of the battle extended for 200 miles. At first the fighting was more of the character of attack and counter-attack, but gradually the Austrians were compelled to assume the defensive.
A Russian foot regiment in a hand to hand fight with the 11th Hungarian reserves, captured their colors and nearly annihilated the enemy.
RIOTS IN GERMANY.
LONDON Aug. 29, 6.40 a.m. — A Copenhagen despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says the German steamer Derkid has arrived there from Danzig, Germany. The captain told of a terrible panic there on account of the fear of the Russian invasion. He said the inhabitants were in a desperate condition and that there had been fierce rioting. Foreigners and their possessions, he said, were ruthlessly misused.

AUSTRALIAN FLEET TO AID BOMBARDMENT

This Ship's Guns Will be Able to Fire With Safety on the German Port.
PERKIN, Aug. 29.—Military men here say that the warships of the allies, including the Australian dreadnought, which is expected in China waters shortly, will be able to bombard Tsing-Tau with safety, owing to the range of their large guns, which is greater than any of the guns within the German fortification.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM RAN WILKES NOW IN LONDON

Col. Wilkes has just received two most interesting letters from his son, Mr. Ran Wilkes, who for the past year has been in England attending Trinity College, Oxford.
Mr. Wilkes recently joined a squadron of the famous King Edward Horse, composed of university undergraduates, and was in camp at Canterbury when the declaration of war was made. Naturally the whole camp was greatly excited when orders were received to immediately strike tents and move on to London where the regiment, when last he wrote (under date of August 9th) are quartered at Alexandra Palace, the well known North of London amusement hall, situated on Mussel Hill, about five miles from London Bridge.
Mr. Wilkes recently purchased a motor cycle, and as a result he has been selected as a despatch rider.
Vide his letters: "I happened to be the only one in camp who has his motor bike, so I am on duty for the regiment. Only about an hour ago I was despatched to the barracks in Canterbury with an urgent message for the officer in charge of transports. While waiting for a reply, an officer approached me and said that he would ask our Major if I could join the regulars in their motor cycle section. Since then one of our officers has informed me that I will in all probability be requisitioned for the Royal Edward Horse regiment itself. In any case I shall be a despatch rider, which is perhaps the most exciting and interesting post in the regiment. This morning our regiment attended a cracking church service on our own grounds. We all turned out as smartly as possible, and led by our own band we formed a square and went through the glorious Anglican church service. The general routine in camp is as follows: Reveille 5 a.m.; stables 5 to 6.30 a.m.; breakfast, 6.30; parade, 7.30 to 12.30; stables, 12.30; lunch, 1 p.m.; instruction by major, 2 to 4 p.m.; rifle inspection, 5 p.m.; stables, 5.30 p.m.; dinner, 6.30 p.m.; beds unfolded, 7.30 p.m.; lights out, 11 p.m. (A pretty stiff day's programme this.—Ed.)
On Wednesday the officer commanding received word that the regiment was to mobilize on Friday morning in London. As we were quite prepared for the order, there wasn't much commotion, but there was a general undertone of excitement in camp. I was kept on duty every moment of the day, and often into the night, carrying despatches and telegrams. You can form some idea of the number of times I travelled between camp and Canterbury, a distance of only a mile and a half, when I tell you in three days I covered about 175 miles. It was certainly a most exciting week for me, especially as I obtained all the news first hand. On Wednesday morning all the horses were sent away in the pelting rain, as we are to be supplied with picked ones in case of being called to the front. On Friday I was told to bike to London in company with a chap in "B" squadron. The regiment, preceded by the band, left camp at 11.45 for Canterbury east station and we watched them go by from the door of a garage near the station. At noon we two started out for London, a distance of some sixty miles by road. Of course there is no speed limit for us when in uniform, so we hummed along at about thirty miles an hour. I had a great coat and rifle slung over my shoulders, besides various other military paraphernalia, such as a haversack, water bottle, etc. The roads were in topping shape and the country through which we passed was gorgeous. Reaching London we had to proceed rather slowly through the dense traffic. I was the first to arrive at the Palace and was no sooner off my bike than the Colonel gave me a message to deliver to the adjutant at Bricklayers Station, near the Elephant and Castle, so I turned about again and made for London Bridge. London is awfully quiet just now, and the occasional outbursts of patriotic enthusiasm are the only exciting events. It is marvellous the way the English "Tommy Atkins" takes to his oats—as cool and collected as he always does. Tomorrow we are to be issued with new uniforms and picked horses. As I told you before I may be requisitioned with my bike."
Mr. Wilkes concludes his letter by saying that the ultimate destination of the King Edward Horse is not yet known. There are rumors that he may be sent to the front or they may be despatched to Egypt to relieve a regular cavalry regiment there. Personally, it would seem from the tenor of his letters, he would prefer active service, but wherever he may be sent, this sterling young Brantfordite is sure to give a good account of himself in the interest of King and country.

WOUNDED FROM FRANCE ARE ON WAY HOME

Boulogne is Threatened With German Invasion—People Leave City.
[By Special Wire to The Courier]
LONDON, Aug. 29.—The correspondent of The Express at Boulogne wires that preparations are being made there in anticipation of a cavalry raid on the town. He says:
"The German troops are advancing in north France and Boulogne is making preparations for a cavalry raid on the town. A notice was posted this morning on the sub-prefecture and the gendarmes, stating that the troops had been withdrawn, and calling on the inhabitants to remain calm, preserve order and make any sacrifices necessary for the good of their country."
"I am told the customs officials left Boulogne Friday morning, and that the officials of the civil administration are ready to leave."

LONDON, Aug. 29, 7:15 a.m.—A despatch to Reuters's Telegram Company from Milan says a report has reached there from Bari, Italy that British and French warships combined with Montenegrin guns, started the bombardment of the Austrian forts at Cattaro on Thursday night. Two forts were demolished after six hours' cannonading. A small Austrian squadron attempted a sortie from its place of retreat at the Island of Cherso, but without success. The troops of the allied armies were holding their own on the French frontier.

Over $2,000 Remains From Old Home Week Celebration. A very satisfactory condition of affairs was revealed at the meeting of the Old Home Week executive which was held last night. A balance of $2,000 is on hand and there are a few outstanding bills to be paid, against which there are some to be collected. It is therefore estimated that the executive will come out about $2,000 in hand. The final accounts will be audited by C. J. Parker and a final statement made. The city will be given back the $500 which they donated and the balance will be kept for charitable purposes, principally for the relief of poverty stricken homes during the coming winter. A motion proposed by Mr. T. E. Ryerson and seconded by Mr. John Hill was that a board of trustees be appointed to be entrusted with the balance of surplus and to make such arrangements with a general relief association as they see fit in being understood that in its final distribution of the trustees be unanimous, as to its disposal also that they arrange so that a member of such organization being a trustee shall become a member of that relief association. The trustees were appointed as follows: G. D. Watt, C. A. Waterous, T. E. Ryerson, M. M. McBride, F. J. Calbeck, W. M. Anderson and J. J. Kelly.

Official intimation to this effect was given out last night by Colonel Hughes.

"We shall avail ourselves of Canadianians willing to go to the defense of the Empire," stated the minister.

"Troops will continue to leave until the war is over and we will not let up until Germany is beaten. I shall do my duty and get our soldiers trained just as quickly as they enlist."

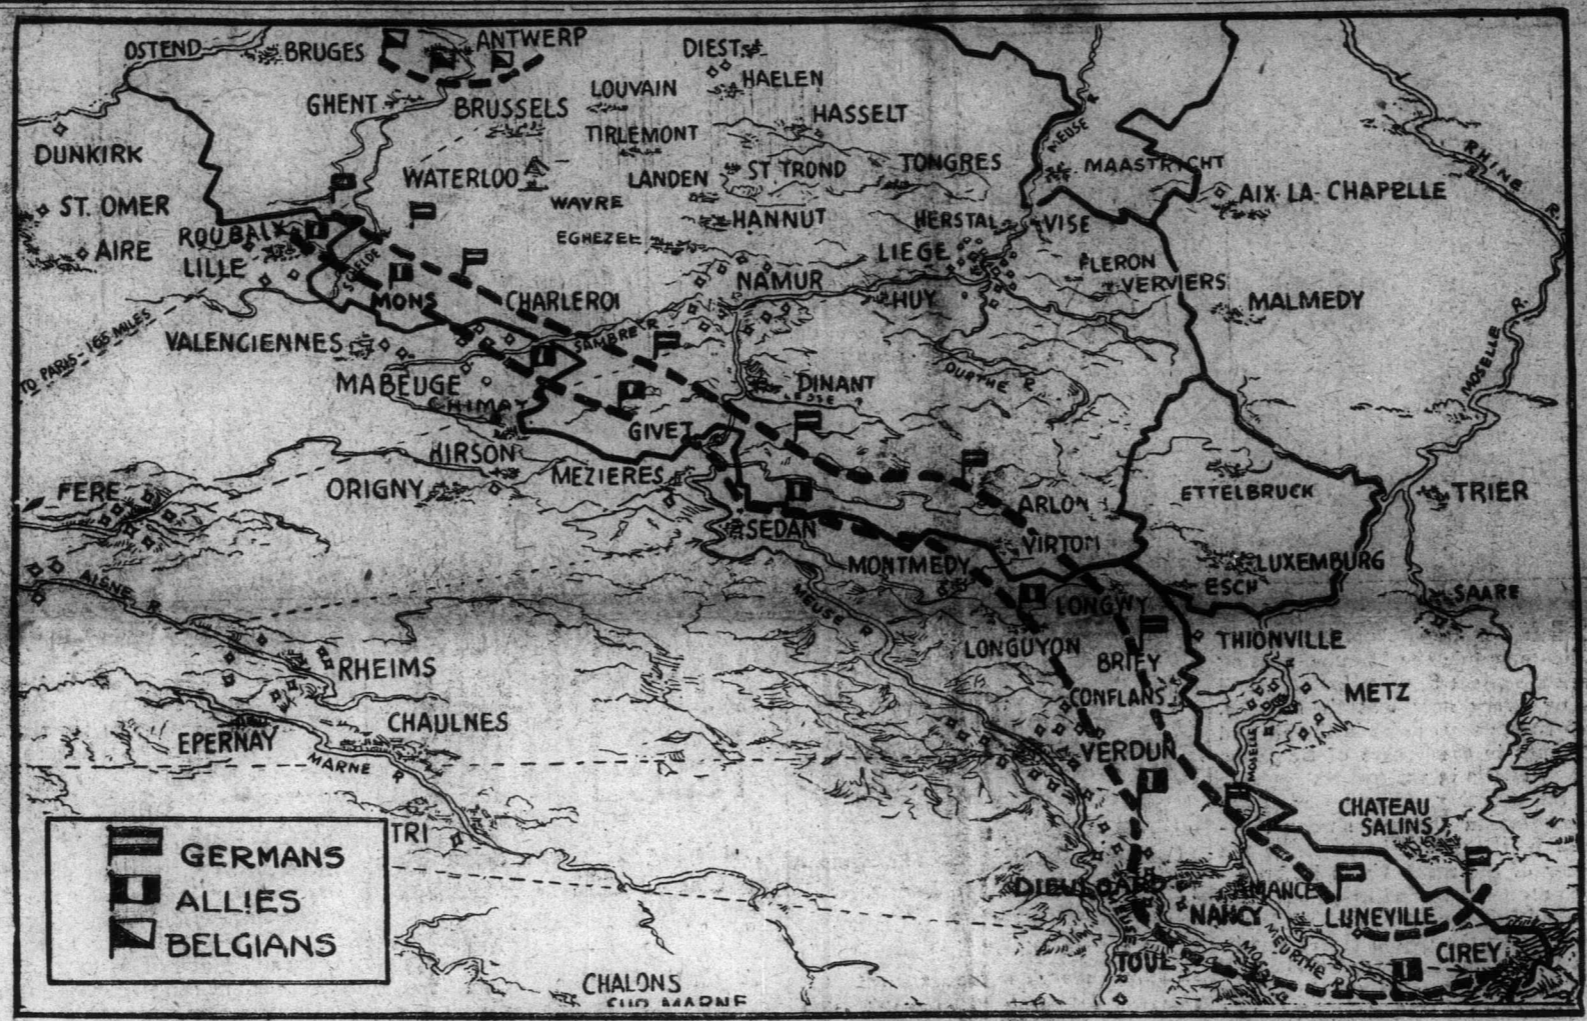

Colonel Hughes is strongly of the opinion that we should not be content with sending one army division but that two more should be mobilized and get ready to dispatch as soon as possible.

The minister goes to Valcartier next week and will stay there until the troops embark. He will supervise the arrangements for their departure and prepare for the coming of the other divisions as the camp is now in good shape and fully equipped, the difficulties which have attended this initial mobilization will be greatly obviated.

Her armament was 12 41 quick-firers, two machine guns and two torpedo tubes. The four cruisers of Koln (cologne) class are all less than four years in commission, and were Germany's fastest protected cruisers.

"IT WAS A BIG SHEAF OF FLAME"

Dramatic Description of Austrian Bombardment of Belgrade by French Officer.

A French captain of artillery M. Dauchand, was in Belgrade, Serbia, when the Austrians commenced their arriving in France, where he has joined his regiment. He has given a vivid description of the state of Belgrade during the bombardment.

"Suddenly," says the French captain, "during the night, that is shortly after midnight, a dark and moonless night, a sustained fusillade broke out near the railway bridge. From my room situated on the third floor of the Hotel Moskva, which overlooks the town and its surroundings, I was able to follow closely what was taking place on the River Save. In the vicinity of the bridge a great black mass became visible, moving slowly towards the Serbian bank. From this moving mass, and from both banks of the river, came flashes of fire, the crackle of musketry continuing uninteruptedly.

"Suddenly, at 1.25 a.m., an immense sheaf of flame rose over the head of the bridge on the Serbian side, which illuminated the town and surroundings, while a terrible explosion shook the foundations of the buildings. The bridge had been blown up, completely destroying, as I ascertained at day-break, one of its spans. From that moment a hail of shells burst over the town, at first on the fortress and then on Kale Meidan Park, then on the town itself, without the Servians being able to retort, as they had withdrawn all their artillery from the town.

"It is, I believe, the first example of the bombardment of an open and undefended town, I could discern distinctly the bursting of shells over the houses in Prince Michel street. Some entering the interior of the buildings, caused volumes of smoke and dust to rise. As the firing began to extend over the town I left my observatory, which had become too exposed, and went to ascertain how it had begun.

Bridge Blown Up.

"At one o'clock the Servian sentries on watch at the approach to the bridge discerned, advancing slowly, trains coming from Sendin. They immediately raised the alarm. At the same time they saw several rafts towed by a small steamer silently approaching the beach. On being summoned to stop, the rafts responded by rifle fire, but in return were riddled with bullets from the Servian rifles and machine guns. They had to run and make for the Austrian bank.

At the same time the Servian troops guarding the bridge were fighting with the troops that the trains were carrying, and it was then that fire was set to the mine that exploded the bridge. Thus the double attempt of the Austrian army to seize the bridge and to cross troops over to the Servian side was frustrated. Is it through vexation at this failure that the town was bombarded? One cannot say, but next day, the 29th, two shells fell and exploded on the British Legation, nearly killing the British Consul, who was working at his office.

"Through the telephone, which has been left still working between Belgrade and Semlin, the Servian commander brought to the knowledge of the Austrian commander the fact of this outrage on British property together with the energetic protest of our Monitors, we sent a few shells over your town, and each time your Komitadjis fire again we shall do the same."

"Meanwhile the Austrian river gun-boats parade the Danube, passing before the silent Servian fortress, and sending every now and then shells, which burst sometimes in the air and sometimes in the houses of Belgrade.

Shells in the Streets

In the morning, while I was at the Franco-Servian Bank, a shrapnel exploded in the street just outside the window of the room I was in, breaking up to atoms the window panes. After I had left the bank, and while we were nearing the Grand Hotel, another shell burst a few yards on our left, bringing down one of the buildings and covering us with dust. We had just time to rush to the walls of the street, and avoid the falling bricks of the house.

"Nearly all the remaining inhabitants pass their days and nights in the wine cellars, where they lie in comparative safety; but provisions have become scarce, and they are in danger of suffering great privations."

The Austrian river gunboats came out at regular intervals before the Servian fortress, and after firing regularly eight shots, supposed to be aimed at the fortress, but which invariably fell on the town, they returned to Semlin. These gunboats are in size, similar to our small torpedo boats, but they are very daring. They do and fire their shells at the silent fortress from a distance of only 1,000 metres.

Housewives, You Can Help Canada in This Great War

Ottawa Household League Urges Canadian Women to Purchase Only Canadian Goods.

"At a time when the Empire is straining every nerve against the common enemy it is essential that each and every section of the community should stand together. The help of Great Britain, but it must be remembered that scarcely less effective help can be rendered by keeping trade and industries prosperous throughout the Dominion. No one is able to say how the strain of war may affect us. Already there is a prospect of unemployment on a considerable scale during the coming winter.

"There are many ways in which the evil of unemployment may be fought, but one way is to keep up the demand for Canadian products in order that Canadian industries may continue in operation. Articles that are produced in Canada are also being imported annually to the value of $104,693,799. By purchasing only commodities produced in Canada we should largely increase the output of our factories and provide employment for large numbers of workmen. To attain this desirable end it is hoped that it is so far as possible, housewives and others will buy products "made in Canada."

Canada's Imports

Official figures relating to the importation of goods produced in Canada were laid before the meeting, and it was found that in certain products $30,337,083 worth of the $104,693,799 imported came from the United States alone. For instance Canada, which is a wheat country herself, imports $268,617 worth of wheat flour from the United States. If Canadian women would see that they purchased Canadian flour only this in itself would be a great help.

Soap is another household commodity which is manufactured in Canada, yet we import $1,327,997 worth a year, 917 men are employed in this industry in Canada, but if our women would purchase only Canadian soap there would be employment for very many more.

TO VACATE THRONE.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Rome says: "An authentic message received here from Durazzo, Albania, states that as both Italy and Austria have withdrawn their financial support from Albania, the intention of the Albanian ruler, Prince William of Wied, to vacate the throne in the near future, is officially confirmed."

Private Gordon M. J. Betts of the 5th Royal Highlanders, Montreal, sixteen years of age, was shot in the eye and instantly killed as he was doing sentry duty along the Soulanges Canal.

GERMANS HAVE NO PORTS FOR PRIZES

Wandering Cruisers Soon Run Out of Coal in Present Conditions.

A prediction that ocean traffic will soon resume, or even exceed the normal as far as concerns Great Britain, comes in a very optimistic bulletin published by the Department of Militia and Defence at Ottawa.

The article quotes a writer of the time of the wars with France, stating that British trade had commenced to increase shortly after the beginning of war. Continuing, it says: "Figures bear out this assertion. In 1792, in peace time, the imports and exports of Great Britain amounted to $216,500,000. In 1786, after three or four years of war, they stood at $261,000,000. In 1800 they had risen to $358,000,000. Throughout the Napoleonic struggle the trade of the nited Kingdom steadily increased."

The so far ineffectual efforts of the Germans to destroy British commerce are pointed out, and one reason for their lack of success is shown to be the paucity of coaling facilities owing to the 24-hour time limit allowed a belligerent ship in neutral ports.

Wireless Menace to Germans.

The pamphlet continues: "The German cruiser which tries to do commerce-destroying to-day has a difficult task. The sea swarm with British cruisers; many of them are slower than the very fast ships which Germany just now has in the Atlantic and Pacific, but most of them are larger and carry heavier guns. They are carefully placed so that wherever on the Atlantic at least, the German cruiser goes, she is likely to find waiting for her a ship too heavy to fight.

"Meanwhile she is burning her coal. Hanging over her is the menace of the wireless, that the ship long before she is taken—for the chase will take time—will have given notice to every British cruiser within a thousand miles of the German's whereabouts, and a ring of enemies will be converging upon the corsair before she has clutched her prey."

Now a Helpless Hulk.

The case of the arlsruhe is cited, and it is pointed out that while she got away it must have taken 40 of her 1,200 tons of coal, bunker capacity to do so. A few weeks chasing and the fastest German cruiser becomes a helpless hulk.

But even should the Germans make a capture they are faced with the question: what shall they do with their prize? With no ports in this portion of the Atlantic the only thing to be done is to continue sailing around. To run the gauntlet of the North Sea, so long as the British are in possession, would be suicidal.

The risk of interference with Great Britain's trade on the high sea is considered to be as small for the future as it has proven up to the present.

FEAR A RAID

People of Antwerp Terrified at Possible Approach of Airships.

(By Special Wire to the Courier)

ROTTERDAM, Aug. 29.—Via London 2.30 a.m.—The Nieuwe Courant says that the people of Antwerp fear another visit, not merely by one, but by many Zeppelin dirigibles. The inhabitants of houses in the vicinity of the royal palace have left their homes and that locality is closely guarded.

Steam is kept up constantly on the royal yacht. At the first sign of trouble the queen and princes will be taken to England, the paper states.

Regal THE PLEASANT LAGER WITH NO UNPLEASANT BITTER—TRY IT

"Sounds good, Fred."
"Yes, and it's just about right, too."
"You seem to know."
"Yes, I've known Regal for years, there's nothing tastes so good on a hot day, or as a luncheon drink. Regal sure is the 'old reliable' lager, clean tasting and always good."
"How about a bottle now?"
"Right."

"No 'unpleasant bitter,' my dear!"
"Yes, I remember how nice it tasted at your place that day—that was Regal, wasn't it?"
"Certainly. It's the only lager I ever liked, because it hasn't that thick, bitter taste I used to think all lagers had. My husband likes a bottle at dinner. Sometimes I have one at lunch. There is so little alcohol and so much nourishment in it that we always keep Regal in the house. I wonder you don't use it."
"I believe I will."

World of Labor

Pittsburg steel manufacturers expect to be hard hit by the present trouble in Europe, which they expect will have the effect of placing them on the list as contraband of war. They will have disastrous effect on trade.

Because they had a one hundred per cent organization the painter Concord, Mass. have secured a job in the wage scale from 41 cents to 45 1/2 cents per hour, and what is more they did not have to go on strike to get it, either.

Organized labor in the state of Georgia is putting up a strong fight against the employment of children under 15 years of age. The employers claim that a heavy blow to profits and are offering strenuous objection to the proposition.

At the recent congress of the British dockers, held in Swansea, it was shown that as a direct result of trades union agitation the wage the craft had been raised during the past 25 years more than four hundred per cent, besides material improvement in the conditions of labor.

As a result of the European war there has been a rush on the part of depositors in the United States to place their savings in the new savings banks. In one day, New York deposits alone amounted to $60,000,000. The previous heaviest day ever recorded totaled up some $31,000,000. On August 8th, $16,000,000 was turned away to limitation of deposits allowed, the same day deposits in Brooklyn were $23,000,000.

The joint executive board of Steamfitters and Steamfitters' Union of Boston, Mass., agreed to a new three year contract with their employers to take effect when both parties come to a satisfactory understanding as to the working rules. The agreement provides $4.50 a day to be paid for the year, and $5 a day for the two following. It was agreed by the union to aid the helpers union in its effort to raise 50 cents a day.

Something like a revolution in trade union thought is taking place

MT. VERNON

[From our own correspondent.] A very interesting service was given in the Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Cole gave a splendid sermon to a large congregation.

In Miss Mott's class, the bun race was won by Oran Newstead, who received a snake-in-a-box. In Miss Perrin's class the potato race was won by Ethel Cleaver, receiving a box of stationery.

games and races, for which prizes were given. In the Bible Class the collar and tie race was won by Mrs. Bert Amey, receiving a glass dish.

The speaker pointed out that various suggestions have been made by scholars respecting the import of this prophecy by the Master. Some guessed that the sign would be a Cross in the sky.

Manifold will gradually become awakened to the thought that a new Government is in control, and that its policy will be the law of "judgment to the line and righteousness to the plummet."

A SUNDAY SERMON BY PASTOR RUSSELL

"THE SIGN OF THE SON OF MAN IN HEAVEN" "Then All the Tribes of Earth Shall Mourn."

IMPORT OF GOD'S PROPHECY The Character of the Sign—Its Effect Upon the Whole World—Why Mourn if Messiah's Kingdom Brings People Blessings—Israel's Mourning Particularly Foretold—Its Blessed Results—Similar Blessings For All Nations—The Day of Trouble a Plowshare to Prepare the Hearts of Mankind For Designed Messianic Blessings.

August 23.—Notwithstanding the summer heat a goodly congregation greeted Pastor Russell today. His Photodrama of Creation, whose beauty and instructiveness are more and more appreciated as the days and weeks go by, continues to be presented both at home and abroad.

The Pastor's topic was from a text we have never before heard discussed in the pulpit—"Then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory."—Matthew 24:30.

The speaker pointed out that various suggestions have been made by scholars respecting the import of this prophecy by the Master. Some guessed that the sign would be a Cross in the sky.

But because of the Election, because of the Kingdom which will then be set up, those days will be shortened—brought to an end. Nothing will be destroyed except that those days of tribulation should not be longer than the days of Noah.

Manifold will gradually become awakened to the thought that a new Government is in control, and that its policy will be the law of "judgment to the line and righteousness to the plummet."

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson IX.—Third Quarter, For Aug. 30, 1914.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xxii, 15-22; Memory Verses, 16, 17—Golden Text, Matt. xxii, 21—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This lesson of questions by Pharisees and Herodians and Sadducees, reigning themselves just men, but seeking to entangle Him in His talk that they might catch Him in His words and so deliver Him unto the power and authority of the governor, is found in Matthew, Mark and Luke (Mark xii, 13; Luke xx, 20). His warning to the disciples to beware of the leaven or false teaching of the same three classes of people is found in Matt. xvi, 6; Mark viii, 15. The Pharisees were the most religious people of that day, but were mere formalists. Everything was outward to obtain praise of men; nothing real before God.

Even Daniel's enemies had to confess that he was faithful and that there was neither error nor fault in him and that it would be impossible to find occasion against him unless in some way concerning the law of his God (Dan. vi, 4, 5).

These enemies of Christ were in a similar difficulty, but they would not cease from their purpose. The Pharisees and Herodians unite in a scheme which they think will surely enable them to find occasion against Him, and so they come with flattering words concerning Him that could not be dealt with by one who knew what was in man (Jer. xii, 10; John ii, 25). How scathing His reply, "Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? How surprising His request, "Show me the tribute money," or as it is in Mark xii, 15, "Bring me a penny that I may see it."

When they had brought it in and reply to His question told Him whose image it bore, then He saith unto them, "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's and unto God the things that are God's" (verse 21). So they could not take hold of His words marveled at His answer, held their peace, left Him and went their way (verse 22; Luke xx, 20).

It was true on all occasions, "Never man spake like this man." He Himself said, "The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself, but the Father that dwelleth in me He doeth the works." "He gave me a commandment what I should say and what I should speak" (John xiv, 10; xii, 49). If we were as fully yielded to Him as He was to the Father it would be true of us, "It is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you" (Matt. x, 20). He was the image of the invisible God (II Cor. iv, 4; Heb. i, 3; Col. i, 15).

When we become His by redemption we begin to bear His image and should day by day be increasingly conformed to that image, for to that end all things are intended to work (Rom. viii, 28, 29). If we by faith behold His glory it will be so until when we see Him we shall be like Him (II Cor. iii, 18; I John iii, 1, 2). By creation they belonged to God, for He gave them life and breath and all things, but by choice they denied God in their works through professing to know Him (Tit. i, 16). God wants nothing from those who will not accept His mercy in Christ Jesus. He must first forgive us as sinners and give us Himself in Christ and make us His children before we can render Him anything, but when we become His our song should be "ever only for Thee." The words "went their way" (verse 22) remind us of the same in verse 5 and that all who are not with Christ in the way are still going their own way to everlasting destruction.

The same day came the Sadducees with their question about the seven brethren who, one after the other, had the same woman to wife, "If there be a resurrection, then whose wife shall she be of the seven?" (Verses 23-25). Thus they thought they had shown the impossibility of a life after this one. Note His reply, "Ye do err, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God" (verse 29). What a far-reaching, comprehensive word and in a sense applying to all error, for it all comes from not knowing the Scriptures. The only way to be free from error is to know the truth, which makes us free indeed (John vii, 22-36).

Prizes For Maids. Approved maid-servants of the part of St. Andrew's parish, Holborn, Eng. which lies outside the city, who have been at least five years in the same situation and were thrifty, have received gratuities of $30 and upwards (in the year of Isaac Duckett, who died in 1620).

A POSITIVE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Hundreds of People Have Found "Fruit-a-tives" Their Only Help

READ THIS LETTER

Superintendent of Sunday School in Toronto Tells How He Cured Himself of Chronic Rheumatism After Suffering for Years.

"For a long time, I have thought of writing you regarding what I term a most remarkable cure effected by your remedy 'Fruit-a-tives'. I suffered from Rheumatism, especially in my hands. I have spent a lot of money without any good results. I have taken 'Fruit-a-tives' for 18 months or more, and am pleased to tell you that I am cured. All the enlargement has not left my hands and perhaps never will, but the soreness is all gone and I can do any kind of work. I have gained 35 pounds in 18 months'.

Rheumatism is no longer the dreaded disease it once was. Rheumatism is no longer one of the "incurable diseases". "Fruit-a-tives" has proved its marvellous powers over Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago—in fact, over all such diseases which arise from some derangement of stomach, bowels, kidneys or skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50. Trial size, 25c. or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.
