What An Election Would Mean

Professor Wrong told his audience at Burwash Hall on Friday night that the first duty of a citizen was to distinguish between the true and the plausible.

At first blush the plausible statement seems true that an electoral campaign would excite and unsettle the people. If we were really in a time of peace an election would unsettle our minds, but unfortunately this country has been rent by party feud and beset by faction for at least four years.

In the first place the country has been agitated and unsettled by the nationalist faction in Quebec. A number of men, no doubt believing themselves to be right, have argued that we should hold aloof from the rest of the empire in war and in peace.

What was merely fact became party prejudice and arrived at a national and imperial crisis in 1913, when the irresponsible senate, controlled by the Liberal party, threw out the naval aid bill and forbade the commons and the people of Canada to contribute dreadnaughts to imperial defence.

We are not passing judgment on the two parties or the two houses, but that deadlock must end. It can only be ended by a general election.

The Liberal premier of Quebec, from his place in the legislature of that province, has declared that the Conservative province of Ontario is dealing oppressively with French-speaking Canadians. The bilingual agitation is a far more serious thing than many people realize.

No doubt in time this unhappy state of affairs will be cleared up, but at present we have no hesitation in saying that the provincial election in Quebec is to precede the Dominion election and that in anticipation of both a bitter and insidious factional campaign is being waged night and day not only in the Province of Quebec but in eastern Ontario and many other places in the Dominion.

We need not comment on the furious party fighting at the last session of parliament. Suffice it to say that party feeling never ran higher in the green chamber. Never have the two houses of parliament been more bitterly hostile to one another.

WHAT HE HAS HE HOLDS.

responsibility to the representatives of the people. Let us have responsible government.

Rallying Power

Probably the most satisfactory tribute to Canadian prowess comes from Berlin, where it is now admitted that, but for the interference of the Dominion troops, the quick fall of Tyres had been anticipated. The Canadians smashed the advancing German line and threw eleven regiments into confusion.

A German officer commenting upon the difficulty of fighting British troops dwelt upon this feature. He said it was like fighting an army of non-commissioned officers. Everybody knew what to do, whether he was told or not.

There is a story told of the American civil war in which a demoralized private was described as requesting instructions how to get to the rear. "There ain't no 'r in this battle," was the information given him.

They "upset all German calculations," according to the Berlin dispatch, and that is the finest tribute that could have been paid them. Rallying power is the greatest asset an army can have, and recuperative power is probably the next.

The Answer

A Scribe from the west is propounding this question to the public men of Canada: Which do you consider more patriotic, to buy manufactured articles which are imported so as to help increase the revenues of the government, or to buy the made-in-Canada goods and thereby help to give employment to workingmen?

This is one of those catch questions which, following the most illustrious of all examples, one might decline to answer categorically. Any direct answer given by the prime minister or the minister of finance could easily be distorted, and there is no valid reason for the Scribe's failure to propound the same question to Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The fallacy, underlying the argument, called like a snake in the question is that the man who buys a product manufactured in Canada pays nothing into the public treasury. He does not do so directly any more than he does when he buys an imported article, but he does indirectly in one case as well as the other.

Take any article you may think of as an example—whether it be a plow, a shirt or an umbrella. We find first of all that the manufacturer has paid a tariff duty on the raw material, whether it be pig iron or raw cotton.

I would suggest that Premier Borden apply to the English Government for an amendment of the British North America Act which would give to the different lieutenant-governors-in-council of the provinces the power to recommend to the Governor-General of Canada the appointment of all members of the Canadian Senate within thirty days after a vacancy in each province, and that each senator will hold office for ten years.

Also that the number of senators shall not exceed one-third of the number of members in the house of commons. Liberals and Conservatives thought out carefully it should appeal to both Liberals and Conservatives alike for the abolition of the senate.

John Galbraith, 9 Cronyn avenue, Toronto, April 22, 1915.

HOSPITALS FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

Editor World: Sir, in your issue of April 18 you print Dr. Bruce Smith's report re the above. Can the doctor tell us why in a magnificent healthy country like Canada there should be so many people afflicted with the scourge of consumption, and the prevention rather than the cure?

The western Scribe will then repeat the question asked twenty centuries ago: "Is it lawful to pay tribute to Caesar?"

The answer given twenty centuries ago cannot be improved upon. Let us buy what we must abroad; let us buy all that we can at home.

SENATE REFORM.

Editor World: I notice in reading the Conservative newspapers that there is quite a bit of criticism, almost amounting to abuse, hurled at the members of the Canadian Senate, which appears to me to be unnecessary from a constitutional standpoint.

When Sir John A. Macdonald and the Fathers of Confederation adopted the Canadian constitution, known as the British North America Act, they took for their precedent the house of lords in England as a model for the senate in Canada, and no person, Liberal or Conservative, will question their loyalty and wisdom for doing so, but in their appointments to the senate they did not foresee the contingency which now occurs, that they were not to blame for it.

When a political party is in power for ten or fifteen years, they generally—and have the right to—recommend their friends for appointment in the Canadian Senate, and the result is that when the party goes out of power there is a large majority of that party in the senate, as manifested in 1896 and 1911, and the result is that the new party have to wait from five to ten years before they have their own party majority, and the great problem is: How can this be remedied or reformed and still retain the usefulness of the senate?

After some careful study of our constitution I permit me to suggest a reform in the senate which will overcome the above difficulty and make the senate more in touch with the people.

Jitney Drivers to "Clean Up" or Action Will Be Taken Against Them.

On a charge of being pro-German J. H. T. Direks (135), who is connected with the Wilton avenue police station, was ordered to resign from the police force at the meeting of the police commissioners yesterday afternoon.

Direks was born in Canada of German parents, is 39 years of age and joined the police force in September, 1904. His record for duty was very good.

The commissioners were asked to grant a license to a firm to run a jitney service to the island, but as they have no jurisdiction in this matter until a special bylaw is passed by the city they could not take action.

Chartered clubs will have to obtain licenses from the commissioners immediately or close up shop. The police will take action at once in the matter.

A recommendation from the committee of works that the tariff of teamsters be increased was not concurred in. The commissioners said a teamster could work for less than the tariff, but they would not raise it.

A TWO MILE RUN AT WOODBINE PARK

By Commoner Filly from the Hendrie Stable — Fast Mile by Bendel.

All the horses from both the Giddings and Hendrie stables were bred at the Woodbine yesterday morning. They will not be given any work for a day or two. While being bred along with the other two-year-olds yesterday morning, the American-bred chestnut filly, Vogues, by the Commoner—Mountain Mist, from the Hendrie stable, ran away two miles with her exercise boy. Neither rider nor horse was hurt. Mrs. L. A. Livingston, who need a large stable over the Canadian and American tracks for many years and who was reported to have retired from racing last fall, intends sending twenty-one horses in charge of the veteran trainer, Matt Feakes, to the Woodbine for the spring meeting.

The fastest move made at the Woodbine yesterday morning was a mile in 1:48 3/5 by Bendel, from the stable of Johnny Walker. This is the fastest mile trial made at the Woodbine so far this spring. Bendel is the four-year-old English-bred which Mr. Dymont purchased in England along with Tippecanoe and Double Bass. Bendel was very nervous last season and Mr. Walker secured him from the Dymont stable early last fall and shipped him to one of the southern farms where he was trained. Bendel won the only race of his career. Bendel was filled out, is looking in good shape and should race well this season.

The following are the workouts over a fast track:

Tom Bird's Maritan went a half in 51.8 s.

Red Walker's two-year-olds, William W. and The Larkin, went three-eighths in .297 s.

Sherlock Holmes, from the same stable, went a half in 51.3 s.

W. Bennett's Canadian-bred went three-quarters in 1:22.

TORONTO LAWN TENNIS

Members in Honor Roll

In connection with the article on lawn tennis, appearing in your column yesterday, stating that there would not be any Davis Cup competition this year, owing to the tennis courts of the warring countries being at the front, it might be of interest in this connection to lawn tennis players and the public in general to know that 43 members of the Toronto Lawn Tennis Club are either at the front or are going with future contingents. Already two of this number, both prominent officers, have been killed in action, another, who is also a prominent officer, has been awarded the D.S.O. medal and has been recommended for the V.C., while several others have been wounded, all of which goes to show that our Canadian tennis players have not been backward in doing their duty.
