DRAWING CLOSER TOGETHER.

The rapid expansion of trade between the various parts of the British Empire naturally attracts attention, and it is not surprising that the press and politicians of the United States are commenting upon the proposed reciprocity arrangement between Canada and the British West Indies.

There is, of course, this distinction, viz., that Canada has a fiscal independence unknown to any American state or dependency, and by her commercial treaties deals with and is dealt with by foreign nations as if she were an independent state.

But the tariff with Canada is about the last thing the United States is looking for. Some pressure might be brought on the West Indies, but it must be remembered that our neighbors are quite busy at present with their domestic affairs, and no recasting of the tariff is at all likely before 1914.

Beyond the question of temporary trade advantage there will be political value in reciprocity between the British possessions in America. President Taft's friendly aid to the Madero government in Mexico, and the quasi-protectorate already exercised by the United States over the affairs of several Caribbean countries suggest the possibility of American influence becoming so paramount in North America as to isolate Canada.

Meanwhile we note that The New York Tribune apparently agrees with the views publicly expressed by President Taft that preferential trade arrangements between various states of the same empire cannot be regarded as discriminatory against foreign nations. Indeed, The Tribune finds a strong argument for the British tariff reformers in some figures recently published by the British Board of Trade.

POPULATION OF THE EMPIRE. In a statistical abstract just published of the population of the British Empire, at the several decennial periods from 1851 to 1911, interesting and in some cases remarkable figures are given. It is rather surprising to find that among the self-governing states of the empire Canada has made the least proportional advance.

Australia remains the most distinctly British of all the self-governing states of the empire. Its census of last year showed that of its population, excluding the aboriginals, of 4,455,000, there are only 35,242 individuals of other than European origin, equal to 1.17 per cent.

REVIEW OF THE SESSION

The curtain has been rung down at Queen's Park, and one of the most strenuous and eventful sessions that the legislature ever went through has passed into history.

Apartment from the important measures that have been put upon the statute books two outstanding features marked the session. One was the government's appropriation of $5,000,000 for the development and colonization of New Ontario; the other is the adoption by the Liberal party of the temperance people's old-time slogan, "Abolish the bar."

Day by day as the session progressed the fact became apparent that N. W. Rowell was determined in every way possible to make his presence as effectively as leader of the opposition. Consequently the house was flooded with amendments of all sorts and descriptions.

One of the first topics of special interest that came up for discussion was the Manitoba boundary settlement, which has resulted in thousands of square miles being added to the province, as well as access having been obtained for the Ontario Government Railway to an ocean going port on Hudson Bay.

Early in the session the question of bilingual schools cropped up, and intermittent remarks on this subject were made from time to time in the house until the report of the special commission, Dr. Marchant, who was sent out to investigate these schools, was received.

Nothing of a definite character was announced with regard to the government's policy on this matter until noon on Saturday, half an hour or so before the session ended. The minister of education, Mr. Marchant, then made a statement to the effect that in view of Dr. Marchant's report and the resolution that was passed unanimously at the previous session of the legislature, the government would right away amend the act in relation to the matter.

Good Roads. A good roads system for Ontario was also a knotty problem for discussion. The Hamilton Times never misses an opportunity to crank hydro-electricity on every vulnerable spot in Ontario, and the province as a whole seems to be contrary notwithstanding.

LICENSE REFORM IN SCOTLAND. Ontario opponents of the provision regarding a three-fifths majority to carry local option are in the habit of designating it un-British. It has been repeatedly pointed out that a similar requirement has been included in British local option bills, and it again appears in the temperance (Scotland) bill which recently received a second reading as it already has, in two successive parliaments.

Public Ownership. The Hamilton Times is full of indignation over the failure of the public ownership of the Grand Trunk railway. The Times forgets that there is already a public ownership of the Grand Trunk railway, and that the failure of the public ownership of the Grand Trunk railway is a failure of the public ownership of the Grand Trunk railway.

OZONE-INHALATION-CURES CONSUMPTION. Oxaline—which is Dr. Neel's apparatus for producing pure ozone from an ordinary electric light current and then passing same through Eucalyptus oils, thereby softening ozone and producing a new compound or vapor called Oxaline, the most delicate liquid in nature, which is used by doctors throughout the United States as a cure for consumption, tuberculosis, and other pulmonary diseases.

PAID $900 TO SATISFY CLAIMS. BELLEVILLE, April 14.—(Special.)—Settlement has been made by the county, in connection with the estate of Bert Easton, who was killed while in the employ of the company, and the offer of the company of $900 has been accepted.

Bargains in a Player-Piano. The Hamilton Times has a notice of a bargain in a player-piano. The piano is a grand piano, and is in excellent condition. It is being sold at a very low price, and is a real bargain.

during the session and the appropriation by the government of $1,000,000 for the improvement of highways has been hailed with satisfaction by all classes of people throughout the province.

By the passing of a bill introduced by Hon. Adam Beck more power was given the hydro-electric commission to extend the operations of the hydro-electric system throughout the province to supply cheap electric power to the people of all classes.

Tax reform also came in for a good deal of attention and as a result the government has arranged for a special committee to consider the whole question of reform in taxation.

The Public Health. The revision of the Public Health Act and the division of the province into health districts, with a medical health officer in charge of each, will also be a boon to the people of the province.

The passing of W. K. McNaught's bill to provide for interchange of traffic between city and suburban street cars makes another step in favor of public utility.

Workmen's Compensation. The Workmen's Compensation Act will be presented shortly, the interim report from Sir William G. Stewart, showing that up-to-date and efficient protection for workmen will be provided.

Ontario's expenditure during the coming year will amount to nearly $12,000,000, over $2,000,000 of which will be for education.

The past few weeks that the Ontario house has been in session, the Hamilton Times never misses an opportunity to crank hydro-electricity on every vulnerable spot in Ontario, and the province as a whole seems to be contrary notwithstanding.

With regard to his charges against Mr. Barber and Mr. Gordon, the following statement was made by the officers of the Ontario Police Department.

Both Mr. Morris and Mr. Morrison absolutely deny that they struck the boy as set forth in his statement.

With regard to Mr. Bingham, he left the school on the 14th inst. at 11 o'clock, and he has not seen him since.

With regard to the statement prepared by this boy favorably to myself, I have no objection to its publication, and I do not change or alter it in any way.

With regard to the number of escapes from the school I desire to say that I am largely due to the publicity given to the affairs of the school in the public press.

MR. FERRIER'S STATEMENT.

Toronto, April 13, 1912. Editor World: I have notified in this morning's World an interview with Wilfred Fletcher, the boy who escaped from the Victoria Industrial School last Wednesday. I desire to publish the following statement concerning this boy.

It is untrue that he was not given every chance at the school. During the period he was there he was paroled three times. About two years ago we sent him to a farm in the country. After staying there about two months he ran away, stealing $18 and some clothing from the farmer.

He was a boy of very violent temper and was extremely difficult to handle. He was very impulsive and was amenable to discipline. When he lost his temper he resorted to extremely unbecoming and frequently resisted the officers who tried to restrain him.

I have enquired into the various charges he has made against the officers of the school, and I find that the real facts are as follows: Fletcher and Schuler were fighting in the dormitory when he refused to stop. Mr. Furman had to separate them by force and gave them each a good shaking. Mr. Furman says that this was a fair account of the whole transaction.

With regard to his charges against Mr. Barber and Mr. Gordon, the following statement was made by the officers of the Ontario Police Department. Both Mr. Morris and Mr. Morrison absolutely deny that they struck the boy as set forth in his statement.

With regard to Mr. Bingham, he left the school on the 14th inst. at 11 o'clock, and he has not seen him since. With regard to the statement prepared by this boy favorably to myself, I have no objection to its publication, and I do not change or alter it in any way.

TWO YOUTHFUL BURGLARS ADMIT CHARGES OF THEFT

Joseph Gill and Joseph Ball Confessed to Series of Crimes in Ward Seven, and Christopher Sparks Is Held As an Accomplice.

Two youthful burglars, Joseph Gill, aged 18, of 180 Maria-street, and Joseph Ball, aged 15, of 216 Dundas-street, were arrested early Sunday morning in a lane in the rear of the south side of Dundas-street, by P. C. Smith (203), following a series of burglaries. Christopher Sparks, Myrtle-avenue, Runnymede, was later arrested as an accomplice.

Smith found Gill and Ball crouching on a shed in the rear of W. R. Sheppard's clothing store, corner of Dundas and Pacific-avenue. When the boys were placed in custody they confessed to a series of thefts. They admitted having broken into the rear of the R. M. Baldwin Co.'s fancy goods store at 184 Dundas-street.

stealing about $5 in cash from the cash registers. On April 4 they entered the tailor's shop in the rear of A. M. Gale's, 174 Dundas-street via the coal chute, removing therefrom three suits of clothing valued at $40 and marched out the front door, which was locked by a spring lock. Here they left a bundle of 22 cartridges, which they said they found in an empty house near the lumber.

On April 10 they entered Pearce's drug store at 183 Dundas-street and stole nearly $30 worth of cigars, cigarettes and perfume. Apparently feeling the need of cash they broke open a contribution box for the Muskoka Hospital and removed $3 in copper.

Gill and Sparks have been before the police on different occasions. They have admitted all the burglaries.

FRANCE STRONG FOR PEACE BUT READY FOR HOSTILITIES

Premier Poincare, in Warm Tribute to Late King Edward's Efforts to Preserve Amity, Says Policy of Non-Provocation Will Be Earnestly Followed.

CANNES, April 14.—(Can. Press.)—France's attitude in regard to future world politics was outlined by Premier Poincare in the course of an eloquent tribute which he paid at the dedication of the statue of King Edward VII, which was unveiled here to-day.

The French premier lauded King Edward as the maker of the triple understanding between Great Britain, France and Russia, saying that he was a laborer for the world's peace and civilization and for the progress of humanity. Speaking as to the future, M. Poincare declared that France would steadfastly adhere to the policy of peace, which King Edward had laid down in the understanding between the three countries.

He continued: "France will neither attack or provoke, but in order to be assured that she herself will be neither attacked nor provoked, she must have land and sea forces capable of commanding respect for her honor and insuring the defence of her interests. It is by our own resources of men and money, and by our naval and military power that we will primarily safeguard our rights and dignity."

This sense of security, he concluded, will be fortified by the sympathy and support of France's friends and allies.

Great Trip on Electric Car From Toronto to Trenton

New Model C.N.R. Gas-Electric Coach Traveled 45 Miles an Hour and Amazed Rustics En Route—Experts Were Ticked With Its Success, Which May Revolutionize Present Method of at Least Handling Local Passenger Traffic.

To see a passenger coach whizz by at 45 miles an hour, to see no engine in front and no coaches behind, to hear a whistle that sounded like a belching steam locomotive. All these and many more caused no little consternation and provided much food for thought among the hundreds of farmers and other rustics between here and Trenton Saturday.

Toronto to Trenton on the new C. N. R. gas-electric coach, a distance of 113 miles, without a hitch and doing the distance with much better time and more comfort than a passenger coach, was the interesting experiment of a party of company officials and newspapermen. It was a great trip on the first car of its kind ever placed on the rails in Canada.

The car left the station shortly before 2 o'clock and reached Trenton about 4. However, it was not a clean journey. Naturally, there were stops at stations en route, for there was a real live conductor on board to get the rustics and the wide-eyed section gangs had a habit of leaving their handcars on the track at very inopportune moments, causing delay here and there along the journey.

But the traveling was smooth. There was not as much vibration as in an ordinary passenger coach, and the ride was fine with a refreshing spring breeze and the sun now and then peeping around the corner of the clouds.

The party included A. J. Hills, general superintendent of the Canadian Northern; Eustace Smith, general superintendent of the Ontario Electric; and Fairbairn, assistant general passenger agent; Harry Bayne, special representative of the Ontario Electric; and J. J. Ashworth, assistant general manager Canadian General Electric. With these there were a number of newspaper representatives and others interested in the novel car.

Such cars have proved efficient in various parts of the United States, and it is within the realm of possibility that they will be seen throughout Ontario before long. This particular conveyance, which is a model was built by the General Electric Company in Schenectady, N.Y., but hereafter cars of the type will be constructed in the factory of the Canadian General Electric in Peterboro.

A Daily Service. For a few days the gas-electric car will be used on the Central Ontario line between Trenton and Picton, and will later run between Quebec and Lake St. Joseph, a run of about 24 miles, to handle the summer traffic. Formerly the trains have made week-end trips between these two points, but it is the intention of the Canadian Northern to use this car, and probably others to follow, daily.

Smooth Running. To compare the smooth running of the electric coach it was only necessary to return to Toronto on the passenger train. Despite the roadbed, which was good, but not the best, owing to spring freshets, there was scarcely any vibration in the coach and the rustics picked up speed. The car was so smooth that it was almost as if it were on a level. One amazing thing was the quick way in which the car was brought to a stop when it was necessary to stop at the various stations. Before the train had stopped at Port Hope and Colborne, according to stop watch, it sped along in less than a minute.

Editors Three Fade Away And Numerous Winnipegers View Their Passing With Poignant Regret.

WINNIPEG, April 13.—After a meteoric career, covering three months, during which the trio did up local hotels, taxicab proprietors, a boarding-house keeper and a printing firm to the tune of several thousand dollars, the three associated editors of Events of the Week, a theatrical advertising sheet, made good their get-away Thursday and are now safely across the international boundary.

William Chamberlain, who has a family at Orange, N.J., and was conspicuous around town by reason of his great height, was the prime mover, the other two being Harry E. Oddiebock, who acted as business manager, and J. C. Gordon, who claimed to have been in the employ of the Bank of Montreal in British Columbia, secretary of the defunct paper. Besides carrying on this publication, the trio ran the Bohemian Club on Broadway, where boxing bouts and after-theatre orgies were pulled off. Henderson Bros., who printed the paper, are heavy losers, and a number of local tradesmen are among those stung.

Socialism in British Universities.

LONDON, April 14.—(C.A.P.)—A movement looking for its objective the number of Socialists in the universities of the world will be inaugurated in Manchester on Friday evening. The first inter-university conference will be held. Among the premier schools to send delegates will be Oxford, Cambridge, London, Edinburgh, Port Hope and Colborne, according to stop watch, it sped along in less than a minute.

DEATH OF HENRI BRISSON BOLT FOR SPEECH

Was President of French Chamber of Deputies—His Comprehensive Grasp of Irish Question Makes Him Failed in Ambition to Be Head of Republic—Outstanding Figure—One Liberal Bolter Only.

PARIS, April 14.—(Can. Press.)—Henri Brisson, president of the chamber of deputies, died to-day. He was born at Bourges, July 31, 1838.

Henri Brisson was on several occasions defeated in the election for the presidency of the republic. In 1894 he stood second in the poll, receiving 195 votes to M. Perrier's 451. He was first elected as representative of the Seine in the assembly in 1871, having been prior to that deputy-mayor of Paris.

As the general elections in February, 1898, he was elected for the Tenth Arrondissement of Paris to the new chamber. He was elected vice-president three years later and was named president of the budget commission. He succeeded M. Gambetta as president of the chamber in 1891, and accepted the office of premier on the fall of the Ferry cabinet in 1895, but after a few months gave place to M. De Freycinet.

Life of an Aspic. In the elections of 1889 he was the only republican candidate elected in Paris in the first ballot. For many years his republicanism was of a Spartan nature. He lived in a bare flat that the Iron Duke would have admired. He was never known to take a cab, always riding on the outside of omnibuses. He was the living embodiment of the Nonconformist conscience. His special mission was to preside over commissions of enquiry, especially when these were to investigate with inflexible severity.

Anti-Militarism Caused Downfall. He served as president of the Panama commission. When the Mellin cabinet fell in 1893, after Mm. Petral, Sarrien and Ribot had failed to form a cabinet, M. Brisson was commissioned by the president to undertake a series of visits affording the opportunity of the civil over the military power, declaring continued confidence in the cabinet and rejecting a motion censuring the government. The chamber called upon the government to institute proceedings against persons "insulting the army." When the Mellin cabinet fell in 1893, after Mm. TORONTO STOCK MARKET TURNS INACTIVE AGAIN

Bank Stocks the Only Ones to Record Any Material Movement

World-Office, Saturday Evening, April 13.

The Toronto Stock Market to-day did not maintain the appearance of activity which characterized its existence for the earlier part of the week.

The public speculative movement showing a tendency to subside, and transactions bearing a very little interest in consequence.

Price changes, where shown, were restricted to small volume, and on the whole the list did little more than maintain the level established in the previous day's trading.

The South American traction stocks, Rio and Sao Paulo, continued the leaders, but in neither case was anything like a vivacious market experienced.

For the season, Sao Paulo held within a narrow range, the stock moving between 120 and 120 1/2 through, and closing about unchanged at 120 1/8 bid, just a shade above its bottom level.

An upward movement in Bank of Commerce stock, which got up two points to 225, revived the rumors of a pending new stock issue.

Traders were stock speculators with an upward turn to 152 1/4, a gain of a full two points.

TIME FOR PRUDENCE

Henry Clews, the New York broker, comments as follows on the situation: The stock market was temporarily disturbed by developments.

Considerable profit-taking resulted, and the market has really been bettered by the test thus applied.

What its immediate future will be largely depends upon events from day to day.

At the higher level now reached reactions are quite probable. There is continued reason.
