Decision Held Over.

Hamilton, Aug. 26.—The Times has the following respecting the dispute over the Times' road race: Although yesterday was the day that R. A. Brownfield, district chairman of the N.A.A., was to give his decision in the race for the Times trophy,

run last Saturday, no word has been received from him. Before the week, as everyone knows, a great many reports, some of them pretty well authenticated, have been going around in connection with the race, involving members of at least two of the clubs. In what might be looked upon as irregular and unsportsmanlike actions, which have been alluded to among the wheelmen as being held in view of this fact, he asked to hold his decision until his return, pending developments. W. S. McNamee, chairman of the committee, wired him to that effect.

A Bunch of Centuries.

The Ramblers are away ahead in the running for the Canadian Road Club's century trophy. During the past week they have

Opening of the New Store.

For several months past we've been working and planning to have a different store by Fall, including a vast increase in room and largely improved facilities. Long acquaintance with Canada's needs and ample faith in Toronto's future have inspired larger energy and greater effort. The result is a handsome new addition, which tells at a glance how much in earnest we are. The point has been to have some portion of it ready for Fall business, and although the building is unfinished we shall be ready Tuesday morning to receive visitors on the Ground Floor in the new store. We want you to see how well we've planned to make business bigger. The intention has been to create the

Finest Clothing Store in Canada, to associate with it

Men's Furnishings, Hats and Caps, Men's Boots and Shoes

—in point of fact, to have a complete MEN'S STORE, and make it the very best. We've been getting from all over the world the best makes of the various kinds of merchandise, and we shall pass them along, charging as little as possible for service rendered. There will be no concealments as to qualities, no tricky labels, no double prices, no fictitious reasons for buying—nothing but straightforwardness. Our care will be for the customer's interest at every point and at points not always manifest. We've long had the handsomest dry goods store—big enough and cheerful enough to make everybody welcome as often as they came. Now we've a large, bright store for men folks, as complete in itself as though our whole business was clothing, and as ready for business as wit and energy and money can make it.

Last of the Furniture Sale.

Money will go further in Furniture this week than it will next month or any time probably this side of January. Twice a year we make special occasions to tide over the usual dull months and stimulate trade. The special chances we emphasize now will end with August, and after this week we'll have other things to think of that are more important. Furniture emphasizes the housefurnishing side of the business, and special values such as these represent a big saving. The general tendency is to charge more since manufacturers are asking higher prices.

No time to lose if you want any of these:—

MINES AND MINING NOTES

World's Correspondent at Republic
Describes Some Very Promising Properties in That Locality.

THE DELTA AND THE HIT OR MISS.

Arsenic Formations of the Canadian Gold Fields Co. Have Been Started in North Hastings.

Republic, Wash., Aug. 18.—(Special Correspondence to The World.)—One of the largest and best defined ore bodies in the camp is to be found on the Delta, Delta Fraction and Chacalis claims, owned by the Delta Gold Mining Company of Spokane. These claims are situated about two miles from Republic Camp, in the west belt—a belt that is rapidly coming to the front through development. This afternoon, in company with William Lane, superintendent of the Delta, the World's correspondent visited this mine and two others. Mr. Lane, or, as he is familiarly known around camp, "Billy Lane," is making a name for himself as a mine superintendent of exceptional ability. He was one of the first men to operate in the camp and is now in charge of the Frances Maud, the Hit or Miss and the Delta properties.

The Delta Mine.
The group of claims mentioned gives 2250 feet on the main ore body of the Delta mine, an ore body that on the surface has been exposed by five open cuts of different depths, giving values from a trace in gold to $2.50 to the ton, and measuring up to 20 feet in width. The main development consists of a 7-foot shaft following the dip of a well-defined hanging wall. At a depth of 70 feet, leaving 7 feet for a dump, a drift was started on the ore body in a northerly direction. This drift also follows the hanging wall, against which is found a paystreak of rich ore, which was encountered while sinking the shaft. While it only measures a few inches to a foot in width, it is rich, and from careful samplings of this class of ore on the dump, values have been obtained of $50 and $80 in gold. The purpose of the drift is to determine the nature of the ore body. If such there be, on the property. The vein is exceptionally strong on the surface, and the possibility of an ore chert being found is within reason. A sampling of the whole extent of the ore, including the paystreak mentioned, gives a value of $40.

It will be necessary to install a horse-when further depth, though it is probable, the superintendent thinks, that by following down the well-defined paystreak in the shaft, it might widen out to good proportions. The mine is so located that, if necessary, a 600-foot shaft could be sunk to run that would give a depth on the vein of 220 feet. This would be done if a paystreak is encountered in the north drift and would be the most economical method of development. The mine has merit and investors will have a good run for their money. It is not out of the way, it is exposed, but when it is exposed by such a man as Superintendent Lane it will do so wisely and in the development of the mine to the advantage.

Hit or Miss Property.
South of the Delta is the Hit or Miss property. A large amount of money has been thrown away in surface work, but now that the property is in the hands of Mr. Lane development will be carried on to gain depth. The shaft is already down 32 feet and is in a healthy-looking quarry, but being so near the surface, the values have naturally leached out to a considerable extent. An inspection of half a dozen holes and surface work will indicate the existence of more than one lead, but if the money already expended had been devoted to the energetic development of one of them a good showing would doubtless have been made. The property is in another word, the Delta, is one of great promise. The Princess Maud mine was also visited and will be described at length in another article.

Adding the Princess Maud to the west and parallel with it is the Iron Monitor, that in the early days of the Republic was floated in Toronto. What the writer, and doubtless numerous shareholders, would like to know is why the Iron Monitor is lying idle. The stock certainly brought a good figure in the market, but the mine (7) left to take care of itself. Toronto share investors probably hold stock in such companies as the Europa Queen, the Liberty, the Samson, the Iron Monitor, the Tapley and many others. Those the correspondent has mentioned are just now not being worked. Why? That, it is answered by the directors of these companies. There are many reasons, but it is known to the correspondent, but he believes that with further development many of these properties will live like mine turn out well.

ARSENIC WORKS.

A Great Industry Successfully Inaugurated at Deloro.

Prof. Warren of Syracuse, N.Y., who has lately returned from a visit to London, Eng., and Mr. John McCreary of this city, have just returned from a visit to North Hastings, Ontario, where they saw the starting of the new arsenic furnace of the Canadian Gold Fields Company. In conversation with a Sun reporter, Mr. McCreary said that the arsenic was being properly sublimated for the first time in the Province, and that the plant there would turn out three tons of refined or commercial arsenic per day. He says that the supply of crude material is ample, as this is but a by-product of gold ore, it means a lot to the country.

This is, he states, the only place in America in which arsenic can be produced in commercial quantities, and the company are using every effort to make of the material at hand. As to the gold output, Mr. McCreary had nothing to say at present—Belleville Sun.

Saturday's Transactions.

On the Standard Mining Exchange Saturday, Minneapolis sold at 10 1/2, Rambler-Cariboo at 4 1/2, Big Three at 14 and a lot of Gold Quarts at 7 1/2. Fairview sold at 5 1/2, J.O. 41 at 4 1/2 and White Bear at 4 1/2.

Mining Notes.

A new mining exchange has been formed at Colorado Springs, which makes two at that place now handling the mining stock interests of that section.

The Silver King mine, in Crook County, Oregon, has just been sold for $1,000,000. The deal was consummated at Dayton, Wash., the owners of the property residing in the vicinity of that city. The Silver King, which is about 80 miles from the Dalles, Oregon, has a shaft down 60 feet, and the ore taken out has been a surprise to all who knew of it.

Dr. Doolittle Pays for Venus.

Last March Dr. Doolittle, of Toronto, dropped into Nelson on his way home from some of his mining properties. He was to be here only a few days, but before he could escape he was induced to take a trip to Tread Mountain through six feet of snow and dig down to the vein. The vein was generally accredited as a wildcat. But he made up his mind that there was something in it and took a bond on the property on behalf of himself and Toronto capitalists. That his judgment was good has been amply demonstrated since, for to-day the Venus is one of the most likely looking prospects in the Nelson camp. The payments on the bond were made promptly and yesterday the doctor paid over the Venus group—in which there are seven claims—for better or for worse—Nelson Miner.

HOW LYLE STEVENS DIED.

At the Hands of William Houston.
Who Had Fired a Rifle in a Reckless Manner.

Chatham, Aug. 26.—It was midnight before the jury's verdict in the Stephens murder case was rendered, as follows:
We, the jury appointed to inquire into the death of the late Lyle Stephens, find:
(1) That the said Lyle Stephens came to his death by the hands of William Houston, on the 13th inst.
(2) The evidence does not, in our opinion, show that there was serious intent on the part of the said William Houston, but we find that he had knowledge that there were persons in the immediate vicinity to the house, opposite to where the firing took place, and he recklessly and carelessly fired the shot which caused the death of the said Lyle Stephens.
(3) That it is a matter of serious regret that any suggestion should have been made of the shooting on the night that the shooting occurred.

Three Cases of Lese Majeste Are Now Under Way—Voorwerts'
Editor Is One Victim.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—Three monstrous cases of lese majeste are now proceeding in the courts here. The first case is that of the editor of the "Voorwerts," a socialist paper, who was arrested and charged with having published an article in which the Kaiser was called "a stupid old man." The second case is that of a woman who was charged with having written a letter in which the Kaiser was called "a stupid old man." The third case is that of a man who was charged with having written a letter in which the Kaiser was called "a stupid old man." The cases are being tried in the Reichstag building, and the verdicts are expected in a few days.

Two Young Men and Four Girls

Yesterday afternoon Mr. H. Jones and Miss M. Smith, two young men and four girls, were out for a swim in the lake. They were all dressed in their best, and were having a very good time. Unfortunately, the boat in which they were swimming capsized, and all of them were thrown into the water. They were all rescued, however, and are now home.
