TORONTO OPINION AGAINST INCREASE

lication of the financial screw also. It is not too easy for them to cut out the phone so indispensable in their daily routine, but they can band together and fight the company. They have their manufacturers' association, their board of trade and kindred organizations of weight and influence and these can all be brought into play. They are told by the telephone company that the message rate is "the only fair way," but they do not by any means see it in that light. In fact, they figure it out in quite another direction. The city council, the provincial government and other public bodies will be hit hard, too, by the boost. Mayor Church has already taken the bull by the horns, as it were, and is out to fight what he characterizes as "the brazen request" before even the private council of Canada itself. The provincial government, following the brilliant example set in connection with the railway companies' application for increased freight rates will doubtless stand idly by. They know that only the people must pay in the end. It is no concern of the government.

Some Typical Views.

The following are some typical views on the whole question:

Hugh Blain of Ely, Blain & Co., president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, denounced the application for higher rates. Instead of one hundred calls a month, Mr. Blain said that one hundred calls a day was far more like it. The number of outgoing and incoming calls for his firm at the present time averaged three hundred daily. The increase would mean a heavy charge on his company.

F. G. Oiler of Oiler & Hammond, brokers, said that the proposed increase would be a heavy charge on brokers. He thought the telephone company needed some increase, but not so much as they are asking.

Ald. S. Ryding said: "It's a black eye to Toronto. The rates are excessive." He considered it discouraging to merchants and manufacturers. He thought the city should take every possible step to defeat the company's application.

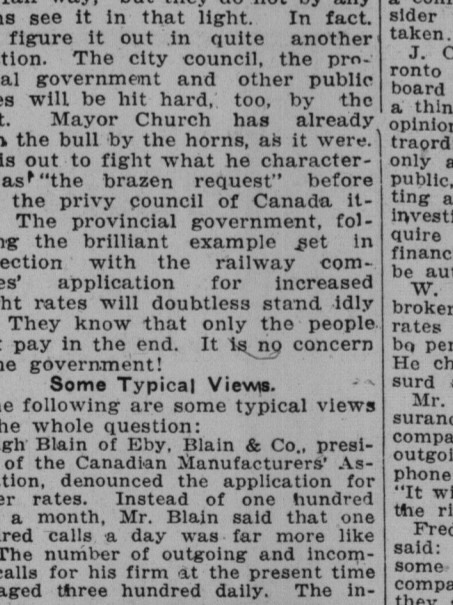

Mr. Flawman was in favour of a provincial system in Manitoba. "The only thing to do is to acquire the company in Ontario by arbitration or, if necessary, by getting an act of parliament." He was in favour of municipal-owning and operating telephone systems.

Ald. Blackburn said the new rates were going to be a hardship and he was in favour of the city taking over the system.

D. Chapman, New York manager of A. E. Ames & Co.'s branch, said that Toronto's telephone system was a hundred-fold better than New York's. He said the government controlled service during the war was impossible, the it had

FACE DISFIGURED WITH PIMPLES

Itched and Burned. Scarcely Slept. Cuticura Sealed.

"Pimples affected my face. They were large and always festering, and they were scattered all over my face. They afterwards turned into scales and when they fell off they left big marks until my face was disfigured. They itched and burned so that I scarcely slept at all. I had been bothered for nearly two months before I started using Cuticura, and after I had used three boxes of Cuticura Ointment with the Cuticura Soap I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss L. Burns, 26, Basile, Que., June 1918.

DECLINES TO PAY GRANT

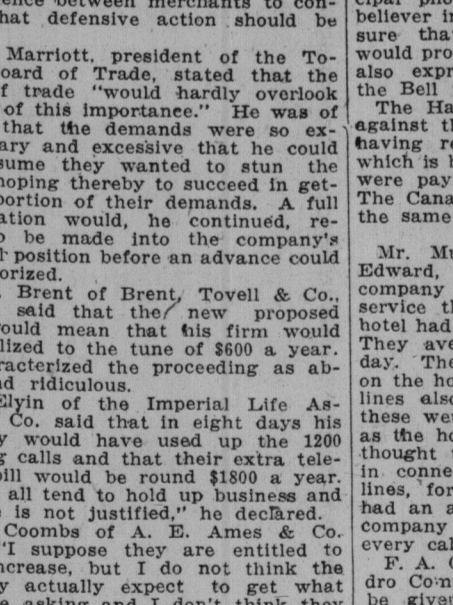

The city treasurer has declined to pay over to the Veterans' Reunion Council the $3500 which was authorized by the board of control recently to entertain visiting V.C. men during the Exhibition. He is backed by the authority of council, and is backed up by the city solicitor. Council will not meet until Sept. 25. The board of control will discuss the situation again this morning.

THREATENED A CONSTABLE.

WIFE OF RETURNED MAN DISAPPEARS

Comrade Dixon is Anxious to Find Clue—Woman Leaves No Trace.

Comrade George Dixon, now residing at 87 Harbord street, is very anxious to find a clue as to the whereabouts of his wife, who disappeared some days ago, leaving no trace of any sort.

The circumstances as given by the distracted husband to The World are these:

A week ago he and his wife took positions at the Montleith House, Lake Rosseau. The husband, becoming dissatisfied with his position, decided to leave for more remunerative work at another island. His wife asked him not to leave her alone at the island, but he felt he must go to the other island if the couple were to make ends meet. He left, and procured a steamer with Big-winning House, Lake de Bays. In the meantime a registered letter had been sent on by the Dominion Bank for Mrs. Dixon at the Montleith House. Comrade Dixon wired for his wife to come down to Lake de Bays. The manager of the Montleith House reported, however, that she had left the hotel the next day, and that the Montleith management had no idea where she had gone. She has not been heard of since. The two registered letters, one sent by the husband two hours after he got his job at Big-winning and the other sent by the Dominion Bank from Toronto, reached Montleith House after the wife had left.

Mrs. Dixon is about twenty-one years of age; she is a brunette, and is about five feet five inches in height. Her hair is quite black, and eyes brown. She was dressed in white blouse with black skirt, and wore a brown turned-up straw hat. Comrade Dixon enlisted with the 25th Battalion in 1915, and married shortly after his arrival overseas at the close of 1915. Both he and his wife returned from the old country last September.

OPENING OF PANTAGES WILL BE AUSPICIOUS

The opening of the new Pantages Theatre, Saturday evening, Aug. 28, is to be a most auspicious occasion. There will be a number of city and parliamentary dignitaries present, and Mayor Church will deliver the formal address of welcome. A large delegation of prominent theatrical managers and representatives of various theatrical circuits will be in attendance. Invitations have been issued to several of the well-known screen stars, and the first to accept has been Montagu Love, the English stage and screen star. A complete list is to be announced in due time. Starting this week, the various departments working in the construction of the theatre will work day and night shifts to ensure completion of the theatre for the opening date.

BASKET OF APPLES EXCHANGED FOR KITTENS

A pair of kittens in exchange for a basket of apples was made in Toronto last night. Lieut. Vipond was visiting his father, Rev. F. Vipond, at St. John's rectory, leaving the basket of apples in a car outside. He remained in the rectory a couple of hours. Shortly after starting for home, Lieut. Vipond sought to make sure that his basket of apples was safe. To his astonishment, he discovered that the apples were missing, and that a couple of kittens had been left in the car. The father and his son are now wondering whether a joke has been played, or whether the apples were stolen and the kittens left as some consolation.

WOUNDING IS CHARGE

Fred Metalsky, who gives his address as 7 Centre avenue, was arrested last night by Detectives Ward and Tift, on a charge of wounding Soo Fong, 39 Elizabeth street. Both men were employed at the King Edward Hotel, and it is alleged that during an altercation Metalsky slashed Fong on the forehead with a knife and struck him across the wrist with a hammer.

DISCOVER THREE MORE V. C. HEROES

Trio of Canadians Who Won Coveted Distinction in South African War.

Many holders of the Victoria Cross or their next of kin have already accepted the invitation of the Exhibition committee to be present at the Veterans' and Mothers' day, August 25, the opening date of the Canadian National Exhibition.

Most of the V.C.'s, of whom there are 83 in Canada received the decoration in the late war, but yesterday the Exhibition committee obtained from the division of records of the War Department the names of three other Canadians who won their distinctions in the South African war.

These are Lieut. Gen. R. E. W. Turner, Quebec; Major E. J. Holland, Montreal; and Sergt. A. H. Richardson of the Strathcona Horse.

In many respects the most unique among the visiting V.C. men with whom G. Richardson of Lindsay, Ont., who received the decoration from Queen Victoria in 1889. Mr. Richardson is the tenth man to win the Victoria Cross. He served with a border regiment in the Indian mutiny. Recently the veteran made a flight in an aeroplane. It is reported.

The officials of the Exhibition have the names of only those who won the distinction while with Canadian regiments. They would like to hear from any other V.C. men with whom they have not yet got into communication.

Arrangements have been made for a special return rate for those who wish to visit the exhibition, which will amount to fare and a third for the round trip. Congestion on the roads this year is not as great as last year, and the special command of outside points is expected to be larger. An unprecedented number of American visitors to the fair is anticipated. A special bureau will be opened in the old Traders' Bank building, Colborne and Yonge. This bureau, which will be in charge of the information, will maintain a list of places where visitors to the Exhibition may also with their returned home.

ENGLAND RECUPERATES, JUSTICE HODGINS SAYS

Mr. Justice Hodgins, who has returned from an extended visit to Europe, in an interview with the press yesterday, expressed himself as impressed with the evidence of recuperation shown by Britain in the aftermath of the great war. On the other hand, he was by no means as visibly impressed with conditions surrounding the readjustments in France. In England, due to the fact that taxation had been quite heavy during the war, money was fairly plentiful in all the large centres, and business was strong and active, while many centres which had suffered from bombing and other raids showed but little signs of damage. The reverse was noted in France, where no means had been taken to cope with after-war difficulties. It was a remarkable fact that the value of the franc was less in France than in Switzerland.

POPULAR SOLDIER-CITIZEN WAS BROTHER OF HON. M. DOHERTY AND SPECIALIST IN PSYCHOLOGY.

A very popular soldier-citizen has passed away in the person of Lieut. Col. E. Doherty, brother of Hon. Manning Doherty of the Ontario government, and member also of one of the province's best known families. Lieut. Col. Doherty died at New Westminster, B.C., where he was superintendent of the British Columbia Hospital for the Insane. Surviving relatives are: His wife and four children, Hon. Manning Doherty, Dr. F. J. Doherty, Mrs. Kelly, Sherburne, Ont.; Miss Marguerite Doherty, New York, and Dr. Agatha Doherty, London, Eng.

COLONEL DOHERTY DIES

For many years the Dohertys have made their home at 2340 Yonge street, the present home of Dr. F. J. Doherty. The real family home, however, is at Brampton, where Hon. Manning is at present. Col. Doherty enlisted at the outbreak of the great war, serving a year in France at the very outbreak. He then returned to Britain as A.D.M.S. of the Canadian forces. Returning later to Canada, he was placed in charge of Newmarket Hospital, where the work was of so strenuous a nature that his health was considerably undermined. He returned finally to British Columbia, where he undertook the insane class of work.

TENANTS' ACTION FAILS

Claimed Family's Health Suffered Thru Lack of Sufficient Heat on Flat.

Judge Ward has allowed $15 to James Holding in his action against Alexander Doyle for damages for alleged failure to properly heat the flat of defendant at 420 Lansdowne avenue, on unlawfully raising the use of the phone. Plaintiff also stated that as a result of the low temperature the health of his wife and daughter had suffered. He found the evidence insufficient to support the plaintiff's claim that the sickness was the result of defendant's negligence. He allowed plaintiff $5 for the electric heater he had bought, $4 on his gas bill, and knocked off $6 which had been wrongfully added to the rent bill.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS

New Board Holds Preliminary Meeting—Act Not Burdened With Details, Rollo Says.

The recently-appointed mothers' pension committee held its first meeting yesterday. All the members were present—Rev. Peter Bryce (chairman); Mrs. Adam Shortt, Ottawa; Mrs. W. E. Sincere, Toronto; Major J. Reynolds, Hamilton; Mrs. J. Reynolds, Hamilton. Mrs. Shortt was chosen vice-chairman.

The minister of labor, Hon. W. R. Rollo, who was present, said that under which the commission was appointed, was not as complete as many would like it to be, but the government thought it was better not to burden the act too much with details. However, amendments could be made from time to time as circumstances required. His personal opinion was that the commission should rather err on the side of generosity.

The commission, which resumes its work today, has decided to advertise for an executive secretary. Yesterday's session was in the nature of preliminaries to the real work of the commission, and the questions of policy and other important matters will be taken up at today's session.

SOLDIERS BENEFIT BY ADJUSTMENTS

Returned Men's Associations Are Helping All Classes of War Veterans.

District Secretary Conroy, Toronto G.W.V.A., is still enjoying his vacation at Comberide and is officiating in his place at headquarters, Kent building. The office is kept very busy with adjustments of all kinds. A few interesting cases of those of gratuities and pensions as well as back pay. Among notable adjustments in the past few weeks have been three outstanding cases, one that of the widow of a "France" man who died of cancer of the mouth. The adjustment here brought the widow $1,058.86; and a second, that of another widow who received $1,800 in arrears in pension.

RETURNED MEN'S ASSOCIATIONS ARE HELPING ALL CLASSES OF WAR VETERANS.

Perhaps the most notable of the three cases was that of a comrade who never left Canada, but who had just received about $2,300, as arrears in pensions. This man fell on the ice at Stanley Barracks and suffered severe paralysis. He was brought to the hospital in the hospital he was discharged without a pension. In due course his case was brought to the attention of the district command of Toronto G.W.V.A., and the office followed up the case with much vigor. Several officers and m.c.o.'s from this district were brought forward as witnesses of the fall on the ice resulting in his being carried off by ambulance.

ENGLAND RECUPERATES, JUSTICE HODGINS SAYS

Mr. Justice Hodgins, who has returned from an extended visit to Europe, in an interview with the press yesterday, expressed himself as impressed with the evidence of recuperation shown by Britain in the aftermath of the great war. On the other hand, he was by no means as visibly impressed with conditions surrounding the readjustments in France. In England, due to the fact that taxation had been quite heavy during the war, money was fairly plentiful in all the large centres, and business was strong and active, while many centres which had suffered from bombing and other raids showed but little signs of damage. The reverse was noted in France, where no means had been taken to cope with after-war difficulties. It was a remarkable fact that the value of the franc was less in France than in Switzerland.

STREET RAILWAY DUES

No Legal Action Taken By City to Compel Payment of Outstanding Percentages.

City Solicitor Johnston has not yet applied for the issue of a writ to compel the Toronto Railway Company to pay over to the city treasurer the overdue percentages of earnings for June and July. Mayor Church announced some days ago that he had instructed the legal department to take action, but The World hears that no action will be taken until the board of control authorizes proceedings. Council passed a resolution some years ago, laying down the principle that no lawsuits were to be launched on behalf of the board of control, and it is understood this rule is being observed by the legal department. The board of control may hear from R. J. Fleming, manager of the Toronto Railway Company, this morning regarding his request that his company be allowed to retain the percentages until the end of the franchise term.

An important ruling has been made by Mr. Holmstead, senior registrar at Osgoode Hall, in regard to procedure under the bankruptcy act. In case it should be determined that they should be filed with some other office I shall be ready to transfer them on the direction of the judge to that office."

Now is the Time To Build Up Their Health

The long summer vacation is the time to build up the children's health. Too often autumn finds them pale and languid after the summer months. The long hours of play, the exhausting heat of summer and the lack of a healthy appetite cause this. It is entirely a matter of diet. So that they may return to school clear-eyed and rosy-cheeked, see that every day they drink plenty of pure, rich milk. Farmers' Dairy Milk is a perfect food, and one which they will take and enjoy when their appetites for heavier and less wholesome foods vanish. It is a cooling and refreshing drink—but more than that, it has a sustaining quality which relieves the languor of midsummer days. No child ever had too much of Nature's finest and most economical food. Order an extra supply of the Farmers' Dairy Milk to-day, and give it to your children at every meal and between meals, as often as they want it. Farmers' Dairy Milk is rich in butter fat, and contains more cream than ordinary milk. It is made safe by scientific pasteurization in the wonder dairy of America.

Bell Telephone Company of Canada on Trial

Just when the people were expecting the Bell Telephone Co. to reduce its rates as a partial recompense for the daily decreasing efficiency in service, that found corporation comes along with an application to the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners for an increase in rates that will net to the company something like five million dollars a year, and nearly double the cost of telephone service to every household in Toronto. Naturally the plea is made that "everybody else is grabbing higher rates and higher wages and why should the Bell Telephone be backward at this time?" Indeed, the company, in its application, plaintively says that the increase is needed to pay dividends upon its common stock.

This makes it quite proper to inquire into that stock which has been issued to the face value of fifty million dollars. Who owns the stock, and what did the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada get for it? Is not the stock largely owned and the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada itself controlled by the gigantic monopoly which owns practically all the Atlantic cables and practically all the telegraph and telephone lines in the United States? When the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada applied for permission to increase its capital stock, W. P. Maclean, M.P. for South York, wanted a condition attached that the new stock to be issued should be sold at public auction, and for not less than par. The company would not hear of this, but insisted upon disposing of the stock in secret, and for what consideration it pleased.

Now the time has come for a show-down. The company says it courts the fullest investigation, and for such an investigation it should not sue its own lawyer. Let the books be opened and let us find out whether the wire master of the United States is the owner of our telephone system in Canada. The city of Toronto should not be asleep on the job, but should employ the best legal talent and the best expert accountants to scrutinize the Bell Company's application for higher rates. The provincial government should be roused from its lethargy, for the time may be at hand when Ontario should join with the western provinces in making the telephone a public utility, provincially owned and operated. The Dominion parliament, too, may have to retrace its steps and turn the searchlight of publicity upon the affairs of the company.

The city officials should not be stampeded and allow this application for higher rates to go thru at Ottawa without a long and desperate struggle. The silent phones should be taken out of all houses where they have been installed free of charge, and the city and the public generally must prepare themselves for a long, hard fight. What help it will get from the provincial government we are unable to say, but we certainly trust that the Dominion government will not surrender to this great monopoly in the matter of communication.

Up to a short time ago practically all the asbestos spinning fibre used in the commerce of the United States came from Canada. Canada had a monopoly in asbestos corresponding to her monopoly in nickel, and acted with similar stupidity in regard to both. For years she got out of her nickel deposits was the privilege of running a boarding house for illy-paid foreign labor doing the crudest sort of work. All the refining processes were done in the United States and Wales and millions of profit went to German families transplanted to New York and Wales who happened to own the stock in the International Nickel Company and the Mond Company, respectively. It is even worse in the case of asbestos. Canadians go down in the quarries and grub out the asbestos ore, which is shipped for treatment and refining and commercial use to the United States.

Moreover, if we are to believe The Canadian Mining Journal, the private owners of these asbestos deposits in Canada have charged such high prices for their product that British and American enterprise alike have been seeking for asbestos ore outside of Canada and claim to have met with considerable success in South Africa and Arizona, respectively. The world's great storehouse of asbestos is nevertheless in the province of Quebec. If that province takes no interest in the development of an asbestos refining industry in Canada would it not be well for the Dominion government to interfere and place the exportation of asbestos under a federal regulatory license system? The inside story of nickel, we hear, will soon be exposed to a provincial royal commission in Chief among the unresters is The Toronto Star. The Star says the great majority of the people of the world, including the people of Canada, are in a state of unrest, and grieves because the new prime minister is not more astute to the situation. We are told that the wage-earners have lost all faith in the wage system and that they will no longer be satisfied with shorter hours, better conditions under which to work, and higher pay. According to The Star, the workers of the country will fret and worry no matter what concessions they are able to obtain from their employers. Not only the workers, but all the people except a favored few are, according to The Star, dissatisfied "with the way the bread and butter of the world is cut, spread and divided up."

Probably everyone would like to be rich, but we fear there is not enough real money to go round. The man who wrote The Star editorial would probably rather spend his time on a steam yacht sailing around the world than reporting for work every Monday morning at The Star office. Most of us who spend our lives jumping out of the way of automobiles would be much better satisfied to be in the automobiles ourselves, chasing fellow-citizens and chickens off the road by the raucous tones of our horn. Nearly every lawyer would like to be on the supreme bench, but the bench is only large enough to accommodate six at a time. Nearly every politician would like to be prime minister, but only one man at a time can hold the job.

What on earth is to be gained by telling the mass of the people that their lives are hard and narrow, compared with the lives of kings and queens, prime ministers and millionaires? There is just so much bread and butter in the world, out it up and divide it as you will. To get even a small portion of that bread and butter for himself and his family the ordinary man has got to hustle, especially in a butter the family has to be provided with clothes and fuel.

What does the Star want Premier Meighen to do? The prosperous, happy people into whose smiling faces he looked when he spoke at Stirling a week ago would have thought he put off his head if he had condescended to them for their supposed privations and hardships. Probably half the farmers in that audience had more money in the bank than the prime minister, and most of the working men were earning larger incomes than it is likely Mr. Meighen ever earned in the practice of his legal profession.

Perhaps other sections of the country are less fortunate, and this side of the discontent and unrest about which The Star is worrying may reach high water mark in the crowded city of Toronto. That is as it may be. But when our theatres of every kind provide daily-seating accommodation for eighty thousand people one is almost persuaded that even in Toronto people still work and save, live and love, in the same old foolish way.

But, of course, if the unresters keep on telling the people they are unhappy they will get some of them discontented just as a quack by feeling the pulse and looking at the tongue can persuade a healthy man that he is sick. Conditions in this country at this time may not be ideal, but they are better than they have been in any country in days gone by. Let us make them better if we can, but without whining.

THE "TERRIBLE" YORK ROADS SCANDAL

stable of the metropolitan county of Ontario. But it's appalling.

As for the women of the county, now voters, are they to sit quiet while this plea "we are helpless," rather "we leave it to Drury" is to be made? There never was such a menace to the womanhood, the girlhood of the county as this new menace of nightriders in motor cars with booze, tempting girls and women to join them in their revels. Every car pulled up for half an hour at a time along a quiet country road, or in a farm-herd's barn, is and has been held by one of our judges to be the worst kind of a disorderly house. And yet the officials of the rural municipalities say it is no concern of theirs. Perhaps the women's clubs and sisterhoods may waken up.

As for what Mr. Clarke of York says about the Ontario license law and its abuses, Premier Drury must make answer. The province will be a great deal better if things are allowed to continue as they are. Thousands of men are making a living out of the illicit sale of liquor in every part of Ontario. What the Globe, The Star, to say? They should leave Hon. N. W. Rowell's legislation to defend itself while that gentleman is on a well-dressed holiday.

Said an ex-judge and ex-M.P.: Things have changed and the county police are asleep at the switch. We have now the greatest trade in illicit liquor in Ontario ever known in its history; we have a provincial and a municipal system of police and inspectors absolutely unable to deal with this illicit liquor trade and the evils that go with it; and this at a time when the motor vehicle has suddenly become the leading factor in our life and doings, a vehicle which is a great service to the public and a great aid to evil. Consequently when the motor car is turned in to help in evil deeds it requires motor cars to check the evil work. You can only beat these evils by police going after the evil doers in motor cars. Fight the devil with fire is the only rule; and if High Constable Phillips or Attorney-General Raney expects to fight illicit rum running which uses the gasoline engine in any form, or to fight the new evils on the road that the motor car is the mainstay, with anything other, than the same kind of vehicle they ought to be superannuated forthwith and put in the museum on Bloor street west.

Those who break the laws in motor cars or motor boats have got to be gone after by police in motor cars and motor boats.

PLANS AND ESTIMATES FOR DETENTION HOME

On motion of Ald. Risk the juvenile court committee of the city council decided yesterday to proceed at once with the preparation of estimates and plans of a new detention home and juvenile court, with the idea of having council submit the figures to the ratepayers on the first of January next. It was said that a building such as was proposed would cost probably $75,000 to $100,000. Mrs. Alderman Hamilton suggested that suitable quarters be rented, but other members of the committee thought this course would be fatal to the project, as council had a feeling for letting makeshifts serve the purpose for years.

Three daughters and one son share equally in the $25,542 estate left by the deceased Peter Macdonald, at one time an alderman of the city, who died intestate.

The surviving husband, three sons, and three daughters share in the estate of Rosie Tolchinsky, who died intestate, leaving $3088.

The parents, two brothers and a sister share in the $888 estate left by the estate of Rose McIneroh, who was killed in France. He left no will.

The widow and five children inherit the $850 left by Samuel Wagner, a pedlar, who died intestate.

GETS HEAVIER FINE FOR COURT CONTEMPT

In the motor court yesterday afternoon J. D. Goldfarb was fined $4 and costs for not having a rear light on his car.

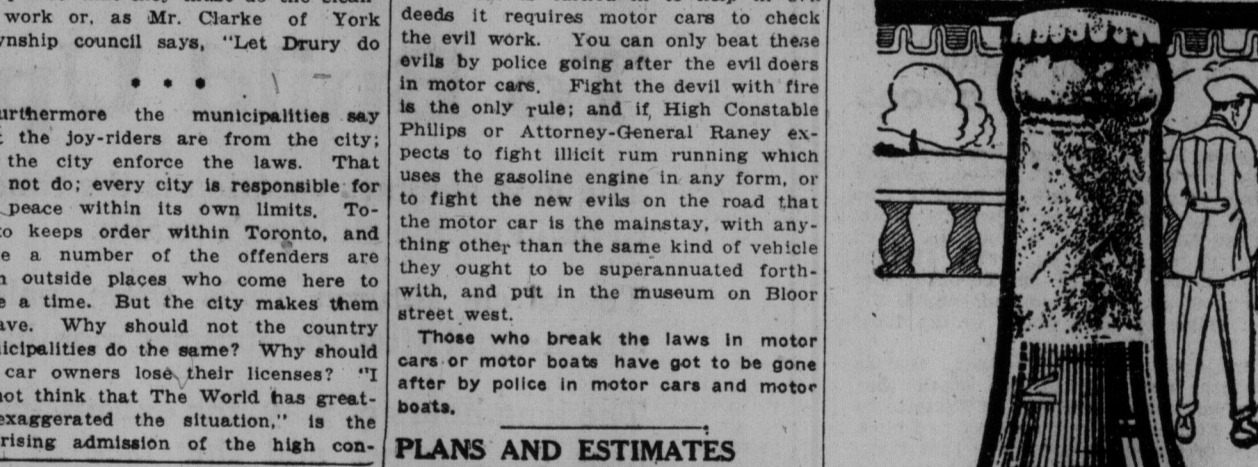

"I am not supposed to sit on the fender and watch the tail light, am I?" defendant snapped to the court, which, with further words, brought down an additional fine of $10.

Going to pay Clerk James Hendrie, Goldfarb attempted to "slide thru" on the $4 fine. He then made insinuations against one of the constables and caused such an uproar in court that it was necessary for one of the officers to slip on the handcuffs. Magistrate Davidson then proceeded to lecture him on etiquette in court.

There were 134 cases on the docket, but only a few appeared to plead "not guilty."

REMANDED ON ARSON CHARGE

Charged with arson, George Brown was, in yesterday's police court, remanded for a week. The young man, who held his stock with the other, I don't know, letting the cigaret burn bed clothes to the value of $25.

JUDITH OF BLUE LAKE RANCH

By JACKSON GREGORY.

"I'm coming to you, Judith girl," he whispered over and over to himself. "Somehow."
Dawn trembled over the mountains, grew pale rose and warm pink and glorious red in the eastern sky, and Bud Lee, throwing down his coil of rope, which had been put into service a dozen times during the night, said shortly:
"Here we camp, boys. I'll leave you my dried bacon, Tommy, and take the raw with me. You're not even to light a fire. And you're to stick here until I come for you."
They had traveled deeper and deeper into the fastnesses of the mountains, mounting higher and higher, until now, in a nest of crags and cliffs, on a flank of Devil's Mountain, they could look far to the westward and catch brief glimpses of the river from Blue Lake slipping out of the shadows. They had gone a way which Lee knew intimately, traveling a trail which brought them again and again under broken cliffs, where they must use hands and feet manfully, and now and then make service a loop of rope cast up over an outjutting crag.
"They'll never follow us here, Tommy," he said confidently. "If they do, you've got the drop on them and you've got a rifle. You know what to do, Tommy, old man."
"I know, Bud," said Tommy, his eyes shining. For never before had Bud Lee called him that—"old man."
Long ago the gag had been removed from Hampton's mouth. Long ago, consequently, Hampton had said his say, had made his promises. When he got out of this—glory to be! wouldn't he square the deal, tho! Did Lee know what kidnapping was, such places as prisons?
"Here," said Lee not unkindly, "I'll loosen the rope about your wrists. That's all the chance we've got to take with you. Come, be a sport, my boy. You're the right sort inside; just as soon as this fracas is over, when you know that we were right and that all this is a put-up job on you, your friend Trevors playing you for a sucker and getting Miss Sanford out of the way, you'll say we were right, and I'll know it."
"That so?" snapped Hampton. "You just start now and keep going, Bud Lee, if you don't want to do time in the jug."
Tommy Burkitt, staring back across the broken miles of mountain, canon, and forest, his eyes frowning, was muttering:
"Look at that, Bud. What do you make of it?"
For a little Lee did not answer. He and Tommy and Hampton standing among the rocks, turned their eyes together toward the hills rimming in the northern side of Blue Lake ranch.
"I make out," said Lee slowly, "that Trevors means business, and that Carson has got his work cut out for him this morning, Tommy."
For the thing which had caught the boy's eyes was a blaze on the ridge, its flames leaping and licking at the thing in darkness, its smoke a black smudge on the horizon, staining the glow of the dawn. And farther along the same ridge was a second blaze, and then that point dropped down, smaller with distance, but growing as it flicked at the dry brush. Still farther a third.

HOSPITAL HELD LIABLE

Court Decides Patient Lost Money Thru Institution's Negligence.
Judgment for the plaintiff was given by Judge Denton yesterday in the action brought by John Gurnea against the trustees of Toronto General Hospital for $461 taken from his pocket when he was a patient in the hospital.
A jury in the county court found that plaintiff had the money in his possession when he entered the hospital for treatment and that those in charge at the hospital did not take proper measures to find what value-able plaintiff had in his clothes.
"The defendants owed a duty to the plaintiff to take due and prudent care of his money," the jury found, "that they did not take care, but, on the contrary, lost his money thru their negligence."

WORKMAN'S BAD FALL

Charles Duncan, 48 Seaton street, a roofer, aged about 45, fell three stories from the top of a dwelling on the corner of Broad and Bay streets, which he was working at 10 Biggar avenue, and was removed to Grace Hospital in the police ambulance. It is stated by Dr. J. H. Seay, 935 St. Clair avenue, who is attending him, that he is at least badly wrenched and bruised. The injured man fell first from the higher building to the roof of a one-story house beside it, and from that point dropped down between the two buildings, alighting on head and shoulders.

TAXI DRIVER CHARGED

Charged with the theft of about $100, a military medal, watch and chain from George M. Taylor, who was a passenger in his taxi, George Dawe was, in the police court yesterday, remanded for a week. The watch, chain, medal and $50 were recovered.
