While the city commissioners are grappling with the milk price problem, members of the Housewives' League are taking a deep interest in the matter. When it was learned that the council would invite representatives of the Kings County Producers' Association to meet with them on Monday, representatives of the league sought to arrange a conference with the producers on the same occasion and it is expected that this meeting will be held on Monday, when the ladies will discuss the matter with the producers' representatives. A member of the league said that that organization is determined to prevent the imposition of the twelve cent price if it is at all possible to avoid it.

At the meeting of the council committee on Monday, the resolution, which notice was given yesterday by Commissioner McEllan, for the appointment of a city milk inspector, is to come up. Along this line, it is expected that the commissioners will arrange for a conference with the board before taking action.

EXEMPTION FORMS IN PRINTERS' HANDS

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—More than two million forms of exemption reports under the military service act are in the hands of the printers and will be distributed in the course of a few days. Distribution will be effected through the post office department and the forms will be available at any post office in the dominion.

Medical boards are to be established almost immediately in all the large centres of population. While a man in the first class to be called out is expected to submit himself for medical examination until the time limit for exemption expires, it is hoped by the military service council that full use will be made of the boards. In the interests of both the employers and men, it is essential that a reliable list should be prepared of men in the first class available should be obtained without delay.

A certificate of physical unfitness granted by one of the medical boards will be accepted by the tribunals and the man exempted from service on that ground. Should a man feel that he has not received justice from the medical board, he can still appeal to the tribunal and submit outside medical opinion as to his physical fitness or unfitness.

MAY BE LIMITED OF FIVE TONS TO ANY CITIZEN

Coal to be Placed Probably in McLeod Wharf Warehouse—Transportation Not Yet Arranged

Now that the 10,000 tons of anthracite is available for the use of the citizens of St. John, provided means of transportation can be secured, further steps regarding this feature of the matter is being awaited with interest. Mayor Hayes said this morning that he has received no reply yet to his wire addressed to the Century Coal and Coke Company in which he asked about the possibility of arranging rail transportation. When the coal reaches St. John, it is the intention to store it in one of the city warehouses, probably that on McLeod wharf, and then retail it to the citizens to the best advantage.

As the coal is being brought here chiefly for the benefit of those who can least afford the present high prices and who may have difficulty in securing coal at any price, it is the intention to place a limit on the amount which will be sold to any one citizen. The quantity which will mark the limit has not yet been fixed, but it is probable that it will not be more than five tons.

BONAR LAW SAYS ALLIES OWE MUCH TO UNITED STATES

London, Sept. 12.—Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, speaking today at a luncheon given by the Empire Parliamentary Association to McGill McCormick, congressman at large for Illinois, said: "Everything connected with the military arm, the Germans have shown remarkable results, even genius. But in dealing with questions of human nature they have repeatedly made mistakes which have been the salvation of the Entente Allies. No mistake has been made which would be so great in its consequences as that which drove the United States into the war."

"The Germans lately," he continued, "have been saying that the Entente was relying on the United States as their last hope. I want you to know that we do rely on the United States."

"As chancellor of the exchequer, I am ready to say to you now, what I should have been sorry to have had to say six months ago, namely, that without the United States' financial assistance, the Allies would have been in disastrous straits today."

KING'S LAW SCHOOL

King's College Law School will re-open this year one month earlier than in other years, making the opening date on the second Tuesday in October. The standard of the school is to be raised, and for this reason the courses will be gone more fully into than in preceding years. The school is by no means of low standard, as a graduate can hold up his hand with a graduate of any school in America. The intention of the faculty, however, is to make the standard as high as possible. With the exception of a lecturer in medical jurisprudence to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. T. D. Walker, the faculty will be the same as last year. The appointment to this vacancy has not as yet been announced.

NORTH END TOP WHARFAGE

Regarding the protests which have been made by the owners of wood boats and others against the attempt to collect top wharfage on goods landed on the old city wharf at Indiantown, Commissioner Russell said this morning that he has not decided yet what action will be taken. For many years no charges have been collected, but the attention of the city officials was drawn recently to the fact that the law provides for such collections and there was nothing to do but to carry it out. He will report to the council at a later meeting.

LACK OF MONEY LIMITS WORK

At present the public works department is making some repairs to Chesley street and Strait Shore road, and when the work now in hand is completed, some repairs will be made in Portland and Camden streets. This is all the work which Commissioner Fisher expects to be able to accomplish this fall.

PROCLAMATION BY KORNILOFF STATE OF WAR NOW EXISTS IN MOSCOW

(Continued from page 1.) "General Korniloff, son of a peasant and Cosack, declares to all that I regard nothing personally, nothing except the salvation of mighty Russia and I want to lead the nation by the road of victory over the foe to a constituent assembly through which the nation will decide its own fate and choose the president of its own political life. But I shall never betray Russia into the hands of its traditional foe, the man race, or make the Russian people the slaves of Germany. I prefer to die in the field of honor and battle rather than to live in the shame and infamy of Russian land."

"Russian people: In your own hands rests the fate of your country."

In the second proclamation Korniloff declares that he is supported by all the higher commanders on the front, declares that the government for incapable victors has ordered the franchise to be withdrawn from the non-existent court revolutionaries. The provisional government under the martial law regulations, has prohibited the circulation of Korniloff's manifestos or the publication of unofficial news concerning military measures taken against the revolt.

Autocracy Such As Canada Has NEVER SEEN BEFORE (Continued from page 1.) Dr. Neely's amendment was declared lost on division.

Mr. McCraney moved an amendment limiting the vote to soldiers' female relatives, to those born within or without Canada in any of the naval forces.

Mr. Carvell asked why the vote was given to the relative of a naval cadet who had never been out of Canada.

Mr. Meighen admitted that the clause might be capable of strict limitations, but he promised consideration.

Hon. Jacques Bureau of Three Rivers asked if it was the intention of the government to extend the franchise to female next of kin of British subjects from Canada who were resident in the allied countries.

Mr. Meighen replied that he had thought of that, but had concluded that it would be very unfair.

Mr. McCraney's amendment had there were from 12,000 to 15,000 officers overseas who had not been able to secure the appointment and had taken no part in the war. Were their female relatives to get the vote?

Mr. Meighen replied that Mr. McCraney had very much overstated the number of unemployed officers. He had multiplied the number of the unemployed by the number of the unemployed.

A discussion followed on the system of enumerators proposed in the bill. Mr. Oliver contended that the government were proposing a method which had been abandoned in Alberta.

Mr. Oliver contended that the additions to the voters' lists would be posted only three days before election day.

Mr. Meighen remarked that all an enumerator could do would be to add to the list the names of any qualified female relative of a soldier or take from it any disfranchised person.

Mr. Carvell—"Suppose 300 names were struck off by an enumerator and the election were a close one. If you had to deal with some of the people we have in the maritime provinces it could easily be done. These 300 votes would not be counted, but would be placed in an envelope and would be placed to prove that they are qualified voters. It makes the enumerator practically a dictator. I view the provision with the greatest possible alarm."

Purported To Be Outline Of Peace Terms

Belgium, Northern France, Serbia, and Roumania Restored Area Part of Alleged Offer

Washington, Sept. 12.—What purports to be an outline of Germany's peace terms has been circulated among diplomats here within the last two weeks, but has been regarded by the Entente embassies and most of the neutrals as a "feeler."

The origin of the so-called terms was not disclosed, but they are said to have been written by Foreign Secretary von Kuhlmann before his visit to Vienna, which since has been pointed to as strengthening the probability that they bear evidences of authenticity.

Briefly, the so-called terms were as follows:— Restoration of Belgium and northern France, to be paid for out of the sale of Germany's colonies to Great Britain.

Restoration of Belgium and northern France, to be paid for out of the sale of Germany's colonies to Great Britain. Alsace and Lorraine to be independent states. (High French officials recently have stated anew the determination of France to be satisfied with nothing less than the recovery of her lost provinces.)

Trieste to be a "free port." Serbia and Roumania to be restored, and Serbia to have a port on the Adriatic.

The Balkan question and the status of Turkey to be subjects for negotiation. Disarmament and international peace. Freedom of the seas, with Great Britain in control of the English Channel until the projected tunnel is built between Dover and Calais.

This outline of terms, circulated without definite stamp of official authority, it will be noted, bears in many respects a resemblance to the general tenor of the peace proposals of Pope Benedict. By some diplomats such an outline is regarded as presenting something susceptible of discussion. It is discussed merely as a possibility, without having yet advanced fully into the range of probability.

THE BUSINESS OF PRODUCTION (Financial Post.) Let us again give emphasis to the necessity for immediate and aggressive action in the campaign for increased agricultural production in 1918. Now is the time to lay the foundation for that effort which will help Canada to fulfill her duty to the Empire and to the Allies—a duty in which she has failed in 1917.

And not only is this a duty, but it is a good business. That agricultural production is the foundation of our national prosperity was the keynote of the address of Dr. Rutherford, superintendent of the department of Natural Resources of the C. P. R., at the National Exhibition luncheon on Farmers' Day.

Dr. Rutherford declared that it was time that Canadian people woke to the necessity of putting the best agricultural brains in charge of our departments of agriculture. We agree with him that the best agricultural brains should be serving these departments, but we do not believe that they should necessarily be in charge.

Agriculture is an industry which is closely related to science. But in seeing production we believe that the principles of science are secondary to the principles of business. We believe that we have previously declared, that our departments of agriculture should have the services of our best agricultural scientists, but also that they should be directed by executives who have proven their capacity for effective organization to productive ends.

Agriculture is a business. When we put business methods on the farm—when we show the farmer that there is big profit in increased production despite certain increases in the cost—then we will have increasing rather than decreasing crop areas. If the prices do not encourage the larger operations, then they will be raised by treaty rather than lowered. The world demands more food. Price is a secondary consideration for the time being.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain milled coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

EX-GAZER IS EXONERATED No Evidence That Nicholas Knew Of Monarchist Plot Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Regarding the monarchist conspiracy, the procurator of the Moscow High Court declares that the chief conspirator was Mme. Hitrovo, wife of the former director of posts, who was engaged in a plot to release the former Emperor Nicholas. The procurator says there is no evidence that Nicholas knew of the plot. Some of the Petrograd papers assert that Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich, brother of Nicholas, and Grand Duke Paul were not implicated in the plot, but were arrested as a measure of precaution.

Barbers Itch Eczema BARBERS' Itch is in reality a form of eczema. The delicate skin becomes irritated from shaving, a little infection gets in, and soon burning, stinging eczema is set up. Fortunately, there is cure for Barbers' Itch and Eczema in the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and once you have made the acquaintance of this soothing, healing ointment, you will always keep it on hand to apply after shaving. Not every time, but whenever there is roughness or irritation of the skin. Mr. Chas. A. Durbury, Wexford, Ont., states: "While out in the Northwest I caught barbers' itch, and anyone who has had it will admit that it is not at all pleasant. It was on my neck below the chin, and spread until I became alarmed. It itched so bad that I had to scratch it, and that only made it worse. A friend of mine told me to use Dr. Chase's Ointment, and I did so. The application of the ointment gave prompt relief to the itching, and it was not many weeks until I was entirely freed of this annoying ailment." Some of the ingredients of Dr. Chase's Ointment are very expensive, and for this reason imitations and substitutes are offered because they afford greater profits to the dealer. They will only disappoint you. The genuine Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment will positively cure. Dr. Chase's Ointment 60c a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

CANADA'S SHAME

A majority in a parliament which is not representative of the people of Canada, and which exists because its term was extended by consent of the minority, has deliberately and without warrant disfranchised great numbers of loyal citizens in an effort to get for itself another term in power.

Mr. Wilson may not have been a great statesman, but he was a great leader. He led the Canadian people, and announced that at least until the end of the war the patronage committee would be abolished and all the people invited to unite in the most complete mobilization of the country for war purposes.

His second great opportunity came when it was made apparent that because of its partisanship and inefficiency his government was in disgrace and facing certain defeat.

THE GERMAN PEOPLE

"Onward with God," said the Kaiser, in a message to Prince Leopold after the capture of Riga.

But let us not deceive ourselves into the belief that it is only the Kaiser who has faith in the Divine leadership of Germany. The German press is boasting of the superiority of German civilization over that of other countries, notably that of the United States, and mocks at the suggestion that the German people have anything to learn from these sources.

exhaust the nation by hunger. This attempt can only fill with indignation and contempt German merchants who have had the opportunity in foreign lands to compare German with foreign conditions.

We are further told that "In the course of his speech, President Fabius said no other enemy utterance had evoked such wrath in every German heart as President Wilson's note, in which the most sacred rights of the German nation were assailed, and that a demonstration also was held on the Hamburg Bourse, where resolutions similar to those adopted in Bremen were passed."

All this goes to show that up to the present time the German people, however doubtful they may be of final victory, are still convinced that they ought to win, and that they owe no apology and no reparation to anybody.

Mr. Wilson may not have been a great statesman, but he was a great leader. He led the Canadian people, and announced that at least until the end of the war the patronage committee would be abolished and all the people invited to unite in the most complete mobilization of the country for war purposes.

In a speech in Toronto last week Mr. N. W. Rowell said: "I do not believe that precedent without practice will arouse the enthusiasm of the Canadian people, and if our government wants the people to save their money, they should not spend money on public enterprises which are not absolutely needed till after the war. Surely, in the days of a great crisis which the people of the allied countries are facing—if the conclusion is not reached by some other reason than a military reason—it is apparent that we in Canada must save and eliminate extravagance in every instance possible."

The assurance that the work of wearing down the German forces on the western front goes on apace does not hide the fact that with winter coming on the Germans are not very far from where they were last winter. On the eastern front the situation is even worse. We must still be content with small victories.

The Russian situation is very serious, but the government appears to be confident that it can suppress the ambitious revolt headed by Gen. Kornilov, who seeks to become supreme dictator.

"Why," a restaurant manager asked a waiter, "why did the man who just came to that table leave so suddenly?" "Well," explained the waiter, "he ordered sausage and I told him we were out, but if he'd wait a few minutes I'd tell the cook to get it. When I went to the kitchen and called out the order, I accidentally stepped on the dog's tail, and it yelped. The man left on the jump."—Pittsburg Post.

Underwent Operation.
Sergeant Jas. Osborne, a returned veteran of this city, underwent a serious operation on his left leg last Wednesday in the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. It was found necessary to connect the disconnected ends where this was possible and this necessitated the placing of a plaster of paris cap upon the knee. His many friends will be glad to know that, so far, the operation has proved successful. Sergeant Osborne is an active member of the Great War Veterans Association of this city.

Albert Kindred, livery stable proprietor on the West Side, has recovered a horse and carriage stolen from him on August 24. The thief had hired the horse and driven to Fredericton with it, leaving it at Messrs. Feeney and Jameson. His many friends will be glad to know that, so far, the operation has proved successful.

The low cost per cup

It is hard to believe that a cup of good, rich tea only costs about a fifth of a cent, but, you see, Red Rose consists chiefly of Assam teas—the richest, strongest teas in the world. Red Rose easily yields 250 cups to the pound. And it's a tea of rare economy and flavor.

The Other Side Of The Story

Statement by Children's Aid President Relative to the Work of the Society and Its Home.

The president of the Children's Aid Society makes the following statement relative to its Home in Elliott Row—

"Certain charges have been made which are calculated to injure the society and greatly hamper its work. These charges are to the effect that the Home in Elliott Row is an 'appalling' condition from the sanitary point of view, and generally unfit for a Children's Home. This charge is not borne out by Hon. Dr. Roberts, who generously visits the Home whenever requested by Dr. Melvin, the medical health officer.

"That the Home is far from being all that it should be in point of construction, no member of the board attempts to deny. That it is sometimes crowded is a regrettable fact, but what can the board do when children are committed to its care, or very urgent cases call for immediate action? It is also true that sickness sometimes occurs, as in the case of two now suffering from a highly infectious skin disease, contracted before they went there. These children are isolated and cared for under medical direction. The hospital authorities were asked to take them but could only offer outside treatment. The children were too ill to go back and forth for this treatment. They could not get a place in the epidemic hospital. Yesterday the board of health agreed to open the isolation hospital if medical attendance could be provided. The hospital commissioners will meet tomorrow to consider what they can do in the matter. Meantime the children cannot be thrown into the street. Of course their presence in the Home is undesirable, and hampers its work, which is difficult enough because there are several very young and under-nourished children also needing careful attention. That is not the fault of the board. Where would these children be if they were not in the Home?"

"None would rejoice so heartily as the members of the board if money were available to provide a model Children's Home, with ample accommodation to meet all demands. None would so heartily welcome a working agreement with the hospital, under which every case of contagious or infectious disease would at once be removed to hospital quarters. But these things are of the future. When the people demand it their will is law."

"In the meantime the board has searched the city for a house that would better suit its needs, but has found none available that was sufficiently superior to the present Home to warrant a change, and the society has had to be expended to improve this Home. Moreover the present building is under lease for some time yet, and when it was taken most people thought the board was quite too ambitious, and asked where the children were to be housed to fill its rooms. There are now fourteen children in the home, and there have been more, and while two will go out within a very short time there are others who ought to be taken into the institution."

"Dr. Melvin suggests a number of minor improvements to the Home. These will receive the immediate attention of the board, whose funds, however, are very limited. The general health of the children ever since the Home was established, apart from certain cases of infectious disease, has been the best answer to the charge that the sanitary conditions are 'appalling.' The Children's Aid Society does a great and sorely needed work under serious difficulties. Is it fair to add to these a gratuitous and unjustified attack upon the Home, and upon those who without any other thought than that of child-welfare are doing what they can to make its work of some value in the community?"

"It may be added that there are visiting days, when any citizen is free to inspect the institution, and no visitors are turned away."

B., by Rev. G. F. Dawson. Miss Margaret Johnston acted as bridesmaid, and Edward B. Johnston supported the groom. Children as well as Women Being Mobilized in the Agitation

Copenhagen, Sept. 12—German children as well as German women are now being mobilized in the agitation against President Wilson's standpoint. The Vorposten of Berlin, says that the motive of the Conservative and Pan-German wire pullers, to which attention has been called in recent dispatches, namely, to utilize the American note to the Pope for exciting anew the bellicose democratic movement, is steadily becoming more apparent.

MORE DANGEROUS TALK AT MEETING OF MONTREAL ANTIS

Montreal, Sept. 12—Anti-conscriptionist meetings are still being held in this city, although but a handful of people braved the chilly weather to listen to the antis at the corner of Gaston street and Chateaubriand avenue last night, when some prospective parliamentary candidates spoke.

One of these, Alphonse Bernier, who intends to oppose L. A. Lapointe, M. P., in St. James division, announced that the C. P. R. Company had discharged him because of his anti-conscriptionist views, after six years of faithful service to the C. P. R.

Paul Lafortune declared that neither Mayor Martin nor Premier Borden will stop him from speaking against conscription. Some one called out, "we will know them up." Lafortune replied, "you may do that if you will, but I tell you it is a dangerous game. Anyway, it is up to you. A man may take chances if he wants to, but again I counsel you, it is a dangerous game."

BOVRIL Repels Colds, Chills, and Influenza

The purpose was to make the vote a representative vote for the soldiers overseas.

Mr. Pugsley thought that as far as he could see, one purpose of the measure was to give women the vote on the basis of service and not so much because they would represent the men at the front.

Mr. Pugsley urged that the franchise be extended to women on a wider scale.

Mr. Pugsley said that he hoped to avoid the tremendous task of holding by-elections in war time.

GOOD NEWS ABOUT EDWARD JENNINGS COMES

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Jennings of East St. John were greatly cheered yesterday by receipt of two messages relative to one of their three soldier sons, Edward, who was reported, in August, as wounded in the head. There came a letter from the soldier himself, written soon after he was hit and stating that he was struck by a piece of shell in the back of the head. A cable also came from his brother, Lieut. Frank X. Jennings, now in England, stating that Edward had fully recovered.

WITHOUT WATER FOR A TIME

A leak in the pipe line along the Manawagonish road made it necessary to turn off the water yesterday afternoon and evening. It was not until nearly eight o'clock. There was evidently no means of notifying householders and much inconvenience was caused particularly at supper time. Many took up their pails as in days gone by and patronized the wells or neighbors who were on a different system.

FAIRVILLE FOOTBALL TEAM

The Fairville football team is fast rounding into shape and the captain said last evening that he had a good line-up arranged now and so soon as the worthy contractors should be ready, the Fairville squad would get right into action. Goal poles have been erected on Dawson's field and the first witness called was Dr. F. L. Kenney. He said that Comeau called on him last night with a slight wound in the abdomen, three-eighths of an inch long and three-eighths of an inch deep, in the region of the liver. It was recently made and by a sharp instrument. When showed Clark's knife he said that such an instrument would have done it. He treated the wound and put on a plaster dressing.

Harold Haley was called. He said that some fellows were talking in Union street and Clark was there whittling. Comeau arrived and an argument was started about the knife. Clark was holding his knife and Comeau came up against it. That was all he saw. Comeau said he was hit and Haley said he went away just then.

Comeau said that he had received an offer to enter the employ of the Valley Railway contractors at $8 a day. He was going home to talk it over, when he saw the other men standing talking. He went up and said that they were Clark calling his a liar and, he said, grossly insulted him. The stepping up to Comeau and put the knife into him.

Magistrate Ritchie postponed the hearing until 2 o'clock this afternoon when more witnesses will be heard. Sergeant O'Neil conducted the prosecution and E. S. Ritchie appeared for Clark.

KNIFE WOUND IN ABDOMEN

Wellington Clark Charged With Using Knife on Charles Comeau

A case in which Wellington Clark was charged with knifing Charles Comeau in Carleton last night came up in the police court this morning before Magistrate Ritchie. The first witness called was Dr. F. L. Kenney. He said that Comeau called on him last night with a slight wound in the abdomen, three-eighths of an inch long and three-eighths of an inch deep, in the region of the liver. It was recently made and by a sharp instrument. When showed Clark's knife he said that such an instrument would have done it. He treated the wound and put on a plaster dressing.

T. Percy Bourne Gets Word That Report About Son Was Incorrect

T. Percy Bourne of 25 Cranston avenue, who was advised recently that his son, Private Norman L. Bourne, had been wounded, received this morning an official telegram from Ottawa conveying the news that the first announcement was in error and that his son had not been wounded.

Naturally, the message was received with delight and many friends will be glad to learn that Private Bourne has escaped unscathed.

BY-LAW MATTERS IN POLICE COURT

A complaint against H. McGrattan & Sons, monument makers, for allowing chips to fly over the streets to the danger of passersby, was brought up by Policeman Hopkins in the police court this morning. Both officer Hopkins and Dr. White swore that chips flew yesterday to the middle of the road.

Murray, manager of the firm, Joseph Hopkins and yet saw no chips fly into the street. He admitted, however, that he was not paying particular attention to them. The case was postponed until this afternoon for other witnesses.

William Ritchie was reported for exceeding the speed limit on September 6 in Charlotte street. He was fined $10.

J. F. MacDonald was charged with leaving his car for more than half an hour. It was found that the police had reported the wrong man, and after apologizing, Magistrate Ritchie dismissed him.

Burton Kirkpatrick was charged with running his car without a number plate, but explained to the court that he had lost his tags and was waiting for new ones to come from Fredericton. He was excused.

G. M. Hatt, chauffeur for G. T. Barbour, was fined $10 for exceeding the speed limit in Charlotte street on September 6.

H. M. Breen was reported for taking the wrong side in turning the corner of Mill and Pond streets. He was excused, as he thought that the policeman had signalled for him to move that way.

George Banks was reported for having no number plate on his car. He explained that he was just bringing the car from the Ford works and they did not have enough tags there, so he was forced to come away without one. He was excused.

The case of the Eagles Bellows Contracting Company, charged with allowing stones to fall in Prince William street from the new elevator, came up and judgment was deferred.

The Man In The Street

The last rose of summer is having a tough time these days.

The chilly mornings have been warmly welcomed by the chaps who have been waiting all summer for a reasonable opportunity to pose as heroes by casual references to the fact that they take a cold "bawth" each morning.

It is comforting to learn that the fuel controller has arranged for 10,000 tons of hard coal for this city; if you want your share all you need to do is to run down to Pennsylvania and get it.

One so simply gulleible as the Swedish minister in Argentina seems to have missed his vocation in choosing a diplomatic career.

There are a whole lot of children in this city who would find the "unsatisfactory" conditions of the Children's Home a considerable improvement on their present surroundings.

If the Borden government carried their franchise policy to a logical conclusion they would make it a crime for any one suspected of being opposed to the administration to cast a ballot.

The minister of labor says that the St. John milk situation "is a case for action"; therefore and thusly he passes it on some one else. He seems to know his own limitations.

The chief inspector has discovered that a prohibitory act is not a sure cure for a taste for booze.

Fair Warning.

"Smoke?" he queried, as he offered his friend a package of cigarettes.

The friend glanced at the package, which was gayly adorned with a Scottish crest and the Scottish motto. "No, thanks, I wouldn't take a chance," he replied.

"What do you mean, take a chance?" "Just read that inscription, 'Nemo, Me Impune Lacesit.' Doesn't that mean 'No one touches me with impunity'?"

How and What.

The National Service Board has issued an interesting booklet entitled "How to Live in War Time," but they have neglected to send a dictionary along with it. The average housekeeper may experience some difficulty in adopting the suggestions for properly balanced rations of "protein, carbohydrates, roughages and accessory factors." Probably this is very useful and instructive, but the ordinary unimaginative housekeeper would be more interested in some simpler tips on how to make low wages cover the high cost of three square meals a day.

Quid Pro Quo.

Automobile owners in and around St. John have established an enviable reputation for generosity in the use of their cars and for their willingness to give a wayfarer a lift. Occasionally, however, a driver will overlook an opportunity to be friendly. One chap who did so now regrets it.

"I was heading for home the other night," he says. "It was a dark night, with the roads muddy and the rain coming down in sheets, and I did not bother to stop when I passed a chap walking along the road a few miles out of town. Half-a-mile farther on, I had a blow-out, and I had to get out in the rain and mud to change the tire. It was a nasty job and, when a man came along I called to him to give me a hand. 'You go to it with your car,' was the response I got.

"Then, as I looked at him more closely, I saw he was the chap I had passed a few minutes before, and I could not help feeling that I had no kick coming."

ST. JOHN SOLDIER IS IN AMERICAN BASE HOSPITAL

The fact that the neighboring republic is at war as one of our allies is brought home by the announcement that a St. John boy is being cared for in a U. S. army base hospital in France, sort of a short time ago.

Mrs. H. G. Hunter, who was advised officially a short time ago that her son had been admitted to a hospital has received a letter from a nurse on the staff of No. 5 U. S. Army Base Hospital who writes that her son is a patient there, suffering from burns on both hands and the face. She says that the burns are not so serious as had been believed and that his eyesight is not in danger. At the time of writing he was getting along nobly.

A WELCOME REPORT.

The Children's Aid Society have just received a most welcome report concerning a bright young girl who came under their care and was taken at a very critical time from surroundings which warranted immediate action in her behalf by the society and the court. The young girl is now in a minister's home, where she is happy and greatly beloved, and is eagerly pursuing her school studies, in which she has made exceptionally rapid progress. Her future happiness and a life of usefulness seem to be assured.
