BIG POPPY CAMPAIGN

The Middleton Branch, Great War Veterans Association, will conduct a wide-spread campaign for the sale of poppies on Poppy Day. Although the service men deeply resent the yearly shifting of Memorial Day, they are abiding by the regulations hoping that the next Session of Parliament will answer their numerous protests by a revision to November 11th as the official Memorial Day. Consequently, the poppies will be sold on November 7th and proceeding week.

A large committee is in charge of the work, and assistance is being asked of the I. O. O. F., Women's Institutes and School Teachers. To stimulate interest in the significance of an Essay Competition on "The Poppy's Poppy", open to public school children in the area bounded by Paradise, Clarence, Port George and Bloomington inclusive. The rules governing this competition have already been published, but further particulars may be procured from K. P. Johnson, Secretary of the Branch. The committee of judges will consist of two members of the G. W. V. A. and the Inspector of Schools.

The poppies have been made by wounded ex-servicemen in the Veterans' Shops in Halifax—men who are quite unfit to compete in the general labor market. The sale of poppies, therefore, directly assists these incapacitated men, in addition to commemorating our Sixty Thousand Dead.

The profits from the local sales will probably be used by the G. W. V. A. in endowing a soldier's bed in the Memorial Hospital at Middleton but this matter has yet to be settled.

The following comprise the Poppy Committee:—

C. E. Bant, Paradise
C. A. Good, Middleton, (Chairman)
H. F. Hamilton, Lawrencetown
G. R. Waver, Port George
F. East, Nictaux Falls
K. D. Cleveland, Middleton
K. P. Johnson, Middleton
M. P. Nelly, Spa Springs
A. F. Borden, Brooklyn

FROM PRESIDENT OF THE W. I.

Editor "The Outlook":

I am sending a short report of the Hospital Donation held under the auspices of the W. I., on Friday, the 18th of October.

The response was very generous and many have promised to donate fruit and other things, which will be welcomed later.

Superintendent Cox and her staff were very kind and hospitable, and although they had a "full house" there was always a nurse ready to conduct visitors through the Hospital, which presented a very creditable appearance indeed.

Many were especially directed to the Margaretville Room, which was very dainty in new hangings put up yesterday.

South Williamston, Lawrencetown, Torbrook and the Rebekah Lodge, have well appointed rooms, which reflect great credit on the respective contributors.

The question was asked that day: "Does the Hospital Pay?" I think very few if any, hospitals pay in a financial way. But they do pay in the service of lives and in comfort, which many sick folk receive, which would be next to impossible in their own homes.

This little Soldiers' Memorial Hospital does not pay in dollars and cents but it belongs to us and to eastern Annapolis Co. let us be glad because of the privilege of honoring our illustrious dead by lending help and comfort to the living, who are laid by for a time.

So then may we each give to it our loyal and generous support.

N. B. FREEMAN,
President W. I.

"Always-Ready" Battery Electrolyte Now Here

We are now prepared to give Battery Service with the wonderful solution that puts new life into the old battery. "Always-Ready" is a solution that contains less than one-half as much sulphuric acid as the old electrolyte, and is therefore one-half as harmful to the plates of the battery; will not eat off nor corrode the battery terminals; nor will it harm the battery case. "Always-Ready" acts upon the plates of the battery, consumes the sulphation caused by the sulphuric acid in the old solution, and frees the plates from their choked-up condition.

"Always-Ready" when used in a battery where the plates are still good will charge instantly, giving snappier starting, brighter lights, new and longer life.

"Always-Ready" is an anti-freeze liquid, with the use of it your battery is always safe from the unexpected frosts of the early winter, or any frost however severe.

With the use of "Always-Ready", Radio Battery will hold their charge a third longer and will always be in a healthy condition.

If you wish your battery to be completely rejuvenated and given a new lease of life, bring it in to us at your earliest convenience and then MARVEL AT THE CHANGE.

OBITUARY

MABEL GRANT

The community of South Williamston was shocked and saddened when the word came on Saturday noon, Oct. 17th, that Mabel Grant had passed away. She had retired the night before in apparently good health, but when her friends called her in the morning they found some time during the night, as softly and sweetly as the summer breeze die down at sunset, her soul had slipped away from the poor tired body, worn by suffering and Mabel was "at Rest."

She was a girl of whom it is so excess of praise, to say she was loved by all who knew her and best loved, where best known. She was 25 years of age and the greater part of her life was spent in suffering, but her affliction only served to sweeten and strengthen her character. She was always cheerful, and very ambitious and her hands were always busy with some little task, something planned and done for some of her loved ones.

The funeral service was held at the Hall Sunday afternoon and taxed the capacity of the building. Her pastor, Rev. A. H. Whitman officiated. Mr. E. Hunt rendered a solo "The Beautiful Land On High."

The flowers were beautiful, all testifying to the high esteem cherished for the departed. The sympathy of a host of friends goes out to the grief-stricken parents and to the three brothers, who will remember their only sisters words of counsel to them and her many loving admonitions to "Do Right."

She was laid to rest in the beautiful Fairview Cemetery there to await a glorious resurrection.

GREENWOOD

Sory to learn Mr. K. Lightner passed away Sunday morning, October 18th.

Mr. Clark Spinyne is still very poorly.

The most beautiful colored lantern slides ever shown in Middleton will illustrate the lecture tonight in the Parish Hall. Bring your friends to hear this lecture on "Divine Motherhood" so exquisitely illustrated by 40 lantern slides.

MILLION MOTOR VEHICLES MADE IN CANADA

That over a million motor vehicles have been manufactured to date in Canada is one of the many interesting facts relating to the Automobile Industry in Canada, recently published by the Automotive Industries of Canada, the trade association of manufacturers of motor vehicles, tires, parts and accessories in this country. Automobile manufacturing has been carried on in Canada continuously for over a half century, and today it stands in the front rank of the Dominion's industrial enterprises.

More than a hundred thousand Canadians are now employed in relation to the industry and its products, and over half a million persons in Canada are dependent on the manufacture and use of motor vehicles.

There are only two countries in the world—the United States and Great Britain—in which a greater number of motor vehicles are owned than in Canada; while in respect to population, one or to every fourteen persons in Canada, there is one motor vehicle.

The Dominion of Canada ranks next to the United States in value of motor vehicle exports, a net revenue of $25,000,000.00 annually accrues to the Dominion, including the Provinces, from motor vehicles in Canada.

In 1923 and 1924 the Federal Government collected $22,000,000.00 in customs duties, sales and excise taxes on motor vehicles, parts and accessories, while the Provinces collected $24,000,000.00 in fees of various kinds, a total of $46,000,000.00 collected in two years on motor vehicles.

Allowing $3,000,000.00 for Customs drawback on exports, a net revenue of $43,000,000.00 annually accrues to the Dominion, including the Provinces, from motor vehicles in Canada.

In 1915 I felt obliged to express disapproval of Mr. Foster's conduct in connection with the purchase of horses. I did not then, and do not now, attribute to him any moral delinquency, but merely an error of judgment, arising largely from his inexperience in business affairs. It was never suggested that he profited in any way from the transactions in question, and any attack upon his personal character in this respect is unworthy to be resented by the electorate. Any mistake in judgment or carelessness in method to which I called attention ten years ago, was atoned for by his voluntary retirement from public life for the time being in 1917.

One Week More

HON. ARTHUR MEIGHEN
Leader of Opposition

HON. MACKENZIE KING
Prime Minister

One week from to-day, will seal the fate of these two leaders, who have been touring Canada from coast to coast, in the interests of their parties. He is striving to retain the premiership and the other is trying to change positions with him. In some parts of Canada, the election has wasted quite warm—while other sections are taking the issue as a matter of course—and will cast their votes on October 29th, just as they have done in many an election before. The tariff is the big issue and is being fought to a finish, and just as bitterly as it has for the past twenty-five years. Mackenzie King and Arthur Meighen are both confident of conquering the hosts—BUT ONLY ONE CAN WIN.

MODERN MARRIAGE IS SOCIAL EVOLUTION

Brides of To-Day Kick Over Victorian Traces—No Longer Recognize "Hubby" as Superior Being

Because some of our younger play-wrights find it profitable to represent a few degenerates as typical modern women, and unsuccessful matrimonial adventures cause judges and doctors to talk of "fast wives," many people who accept these views, at their face value imagine that marriage has gone to the dogs.

New ideas, changed manners, are invariably condemned at the outset, and the woman of to-day, though crusty bachelors may still label her as "the inferior sex," is undoubtedly more evolutionary than her "superior," man. His laws are being upset or modified where her rights are concerned, and she has won political enfranchisement, writes Lady Alexander in the London Mail.

In marriage she has challenged the word "obey" and has exploded the idea of the servant which lingers languidly on among Orientals and other races.

If a husband is "head of the house hold" it is no proof that he is superior to his wife, but rather that he has the economic advantage of being the breadwinner. Even this he is gradually losing with the advent of women as his competitor in the money market.

Give and Take

The result is the give-and-take marriage, for modern brides have kicked well over the Victorian traces, which, generally speaking, not only decreed that woman's place was in the home, but made her a servant there as well. But there is no fear that his man nature will be changed by social evolutions, or that mother will desert the cradle.

I take the unfashionable view that the change is all to the good. In unions at least, where the husband is progressive it is wise that his wife should move forward with him, be interested in his work, share his pleasures, meet his friends, and mix in his world.

At first of course, reactions go to the extreme, and that is why the all-for-pleasure cocktail girl and jazz band are with us at the lighter end of the social see-saw. Weighing down the other end is the overwhelming majority of sensible girls who still love with the love of a Juliet, desiring a perfect Romeo, picturing themselves in an ideal home.

Perhaps they desire modern girls accused of taking a less serious view of marriage than their grandmothers did just because a comparatively negligible number of irresponsible young women mistake hectic amusement and evanescent flirtations for life.

"Religious Argument"

LEADING EDITORIAL IN THE DEANERP MAGAZINE, OCTOBER, 1925, FROM THE ABLE PEN OF REV. ROBERT MILLER

Most people are agreed that it is not wise to argue much about religion and that the members of the Church Militant have better things to do than to fight each other with "Apostolic blows and knocks." Religious argument may breed sins for it may make men contemptuous of others or angry or intolerant. Religion touches us closely and our own worship is a thing about which we are very sensitive.

At the same time no Christian should be unable or afraid to give "a reasonable answer for the hope that is in him." Not everyone has the gift of ready speech and ready speech is best when it is the outcome of many years of thought. Meditation about the ways of God and upon the words of God is the secret of spiritual fluency for these are the steps by which the soul climbs to heavenly places.

When our conversation is really in heaven argument becomes difficult and controversy is only engaged in from a keen sense of duty and necessity. We speak of the great religious mysteries not for the sake of speaking but no taceretur...lest silence should be misconstrued.

So in most of the opinions expressed about the Church, about God, about religion, no argument is possible. It is simply a question of looking at the thing from a wider angle, with the loving faith and certainty of a child of God. "How can a man be born again?" argued Nicodemus. Jesus went on and Nicodemus understood as he saw the matter in its deeper, its spiritual bearings. Nearly all the mistakes of "popular theology" come from separating "what God has joined." The Christian faith is not a series of disjointed portions but a grand and harmonious whole of which "Christ is the chief cornerstone." We need, for the salvation of our souls, the fullness of the revelation of God, an Incarnation and an Atonement, a Calvary as well as a Resurrection.

So it is not that a man "must" believe because God will make Him or demands that He should. It is rather that as we see God, even in the "dimness of our blinded sight," we "must" believe because all that we have loved and sought is there: because a thousand emotions draw us to Him, because our hearts leap up to acclaim Him and in the fullness of the peace of God we find the Glory of God.

The True Story of Silver Fox Farming

Though the subject of much abuse from inside and from the outside, the silver fox industry has grown steadily and rapidly to its present immense proportions. This remarkable expansion cannot be attributed to chance—to a passing fancy or fad—or to any glittering promotion schemes. On the contrary, this growth has been inevitable. Were the business one which had less appeal to the imagination, to the spirit of adventure, to the love of animal life, its development would have been slower, but it would have been none the less certain. The reason for this is that the raising of silver foxes in captivity was started and has spread in answer to a basic need and an established demand. The fur trade, in its large sense, is no new business—it is as old as time. It resulted, not from an attempt to exploit a suspected vanity of man, but rather, from an existing need of warmth and desire for beauty.

How fortunate is the fox farmer today! He is not forced to develop untried markets for an unknown product. He furnishes the world with the highest quality fur piece. His product is already accepted and his market is asking for his goods.

The story of the modest beginning of the domesticated silver fox and its subsequent rise to its present importance is one filled with romance and adventure. It is a tale of the early trapping days when a silver pelt equalled the whole season's catch; of the first attempts at holding animals caught out of season till their fur was prime; of the successful mating in captivity; of the early ranching operations of Dalton, Oulton, Tuplin, Boyer and Rayner, who guarded their methods and knowledge with utmost secrecy of the first sales of live foxes; of the high prices for silver pelts; of the subsequent demand for breeding stock; of the inflation of prices and wild speculation, some breeding pairs selling above $25,000 and of the deflation of prices resulting from enforced economies during and after the war.

A great many ranches had been established during the boom period and the industry had spread out to embrace a considerable territory. True, a certain number of unscrupulous operators were attracted by the fabulous profits to be made, and many ranchers—victims of a declining market—lost money.

Since the war and the drop in the raw fur market, however, the growth of the silver fox industry has been truly remarkable.

It started under a great handicap. The opinion of those not connected with fox farming was one of great skepticism. They had heard of fortunes made of $25,000 foxes, of a tremendous drop in values, of bubbles burst and of money lost. Reputable papers and magazines refused to accept advertising from silver fox producers. The fox industry was in disrepute. It was indeed a skin game.

A change took place, however. It was discovered that this business could be engaged in on a conservative basis; that persons could raise foxes for the pelt alone and, even at low prices, make handsome profits. It became apparent that fur farming was a logical diversification for the grain or livestock farmer; that it was a profitable sideline for the business man and the professional man; that, in itself, it was a business which, if properly managed, could be counted on to pay large returns.

The governments of the United States and of Canada now encourage the raising of wild animals in domestication to offset the alarming decrease in the numbers of fur-bearers in the wild. They further recognize fur farming to be a logical, important and profitable branch of livestock husbandry.

Today, there are fox ranches operating at a profit in every state in the United States where the climate permits, in Alaska, and in every province of Canada. Fox farming has been recognized as a sane branch of agriculture.

And tomorrow? What of tomorrow? The fur trade asks only for a good quality pelt and is willing to pay a good top price to get it.

With the fox industry organized as it is, the individual need only co-operate with his fellow breeders and do his part to produce the right kind of a pelt from his ranch. The beginner, today, has within his reach all the advice and help he needs, his problem is to purchase good foundation stock from reliable breeders.

To the outsider—just a word—if you have the inclination to raise foxes, don't hesitate, buy good ones and start. You'll like it and you'll make money.

And besides, You cannot help but double your money as I guarantee one pair of pups at least to every pair foxes purchased from my ranch.

G. W. V. A. HOLDS SUCCESSFUL SMOKER

On Wednesday evening of last week the local branch of the G. W. V. A. held a most enjoyable and successful smoker, in the Armouries. It was the first big get-together meeting of the winter season.

The members and a few of their friends congregated for a jolly good time, and they had it. Cards and smokes took up the first portion of the evening, followed by all singing the good old songs of trench days. The boys entered into this part of the entertainment with a zest peculiar only to the returned man. He knows how much those songs helped him in the fields of France, how they kept up the high spirits—and when the opportunity arises, those songs are sung with the greatest feeling of companionship and smile that only a sincere understanding can bring.

Music for the evening was furnished by Messrs. Joudrey, Spurr and Carter.

Major Parker pleased the gathering with two of his splendid recitations.

Lunch was then served, after which the meeting was called to order, by the president, M. P. Noy.

During this session many fine speeches were listened to with rapt interest. Considerable stress was laid on the point of Armistice Day, being overshadowed by another day, which will have a tendency to obliterate the day that means so much to the returned man and the civilized world, and the G. W. V. A. heartily disapproves of the idea.

On November 8th Armistice Day is to be celebrated this year, and the members are making elaborate plans to celebrate the day in a most fitting manner. Efforts are being made to secure the Regimental Band from Annapolis Royal, also for a firing squad and a good speaker.

The Middleton branch of the G. W. V. A. is a fine institution and is doing a lot of good for the rank and file of the organization.

A special sale of Poppies will be put on this year, the proceeds from which will be used for some commendable purpose. It is to be hoped that the public will realize what the Poppy means, and help the cause so deserving of the best support.

Further social nights will be held throughout the season, and every unaffiliated returned man is cordially welcomed to join the Middleton branch and to attend the meetings of the G. W. V. A.

CASSEROLE OF LAMB WITH VEG-ETABLES

Even dishes are becoming more popular because the appearance of the food is more appetizing than that prepared on top of the stove. And experienced housewives who are using self-heating casseroles realize that this utensil is best adapted to meat dishes where basting plays such an important part in the flavor and browning of the roast. And after the meal is cooked, enameled ware is most easily cleaned, no matter how thick the gravy.

A wholesome baked dinner consisting of meat and vegetables can be prepared in a self-heating enameled ware roaster, which saves considerable time. All the real work is in the preparation—the chopping, the roasting, the cooking, etc.—and the roaster requires an oven of the proper temperature and timing.

Wipe two pounds of lamb shoulder or neck chops with a damp cloth, trim, sprinkle with salt, pepper and flour and brown quickly in a hot, greased frying pan. Place in a self-heating roaster and add two cupsful of sliced carrots and a dozen small white onions. Add two cupsful of water to the fat in the roasting pan; let boil up once and then pour over the meat, adding more water if necessary, just to cover the chops. Cover the roaster and bake in a moderate oven for one hour. Then add one teaspoonful of salt, six small potatoes and continue baking one hour longer. Thicken the gravy slightly before serving.

SHORT AND LOVETT FAVOR PROHIBITION

The following pledge submitted by the Prohibition Federation of Canada and sent to all candidates in the coming election has been signed by both of the candidates in this constituency:

Dear Sir:

The Prohibition of Canada, which seeks the ultimate elimination from the Dominion of Canada of the traffic in, and use of alcohol for beverage purposes in view of the present situation regarding Federal action as imperatively required to achieve the following ends:

"1. The automatic prohibition of export, manufacture, importation of liquor, out of, within or into any province whose Legislature having prohibited the sale requests this Federal support, or whose electorate on referendum have voted for this prohibition of the sale of the same."

"2. The refusal of Federal License to establish any new brewery or distillery in any province which has legislated as aforesaid."

"3. The adoption of a thoroughly friendly policy of complete co-operation with the United States of America in the enforcement of the constitution and law of that country and the removal from international relations of the irritation caused by now existing facilities for the evasion of these laws."

In accord with the foregoing we respectfully submit the following:—

Should you be elected to represent this County in the Dominion Parliament may we depend upon you to use your influence and vote for Federal action along the lines indicated in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3.

In behalf of the Social Service Council,

Yours truly,
W. D. WILSON

—OO—
JUST DIFFERENT BAKED APPLES

In most localities apples are abundant at practically all seasons, but they are inclined to be better at this particular time of the year. Perhaps no one fruit lends itself to serving in more varied ways, and a baked apple doesn't necessarily mean the usual kind that is served at breakfast. Baked apples filled with tempting dainties would never fail to make an appeal as a dessert.

Select six large firm, tart apples, core and pare them about one-third of the way down from the stem end. Place them with the period surface upward in a deep enameled ware dish.

Make a syrup of one cupful of sugar and one and one-half cupful of water boiled together for six minutes. Squeeze some lemon juice over the peeled part of the apples, pour the syrup over them and bake in a moderate oven for ten minutes. Then remove from the oven and fill the cavities with a mixture made of chopped dates and raisins which have been mixed with cinnamon and marshmallow. Return to the oven for thirty-five minutes and taste occasionally.

—OO—
ROOT AND BRANCH

"See here, son," said the gardener, impatiently, to the young fellow from the city who was finding temporary employment in the truck gardens. "You can't kill those weeds just by cutting off their tops. You've got to root them out. You'll never kill them any other way."

In this not good advice to follow in the elimination of those poisonous weeds that so often take root in the soil of our souls. Leave even a part of them, and they will strike root afresh and, before we know it, they have turned out a brand-new crop of tares. The reason certain evil habits so often persist is that we do not pull them out root and branch; we simply cut off that part above the ground that the eyes of friends and neighbors are apt to see.

FEDERAL ELECTION WILL COST $2,000,000

The Dominion general election, which now is in progress, will cost the country two million dollars. Appropriation of the necessary outlay is a statutory provision of the Dominion Elections Act.

The carrying out of the act is under the direction of the chief electoral officer, while the executive administration of the financial outlay is under the auditor general.

There are about 242 returning officers. Their pay is dependent upon the extent of the constituency, the number of polls, etc. Other large items of cost are printing, stationery and expenses connected with the registration of voters.

2 in 1 Shoe Polish

keeps you and your shoes fit

A tonic that gives strength, that revitalizes weak nerves, that increases the appetite and aids digestion, will put color in the cheeks and lips and give vigor to the step. That means new joy in living, increased usefulness and longer life.

Where ever you find a person who has taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills faithfully you find an enthusiastic friend of the tonic that has made life mean more in many ways. These blood-making pills have been used by three generations of Canadians and in almost every community—however small, can be found those who owe health and happiness to this famous household remedy.

Weak and Run Down

"I wish from my heart I could persuade every person who is run down in health to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial." Thus writes Mrs. Louise Mitchell, Oak Point, Man., who further says: "About a year ago I was a weak woman, suffering from a run-down system and impoverished blood. Any little exertion would cause my legs to tremble and my heart to throb violently. I could not sweep a room or walk fifty feet without being exhausted. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking only six boxes I am as well and strong as ever. I can walk and run without stopping every few seconds gasping for breath as previously. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be my standby in the future if ever my blood needs building up again, and I shall always find pleasure in recommending them to anyone needing a tonic."

A STRANGE CAREER

One of the strangest careers of this century has been that of M. Caillaux, the present Finance Minister of France, who, with his mission of senators, deputies, and financial experts, was sent to the United States to make the best possible settlement on behalf of his country's other debts incurred during the Great War. A member of the French Government at the outbreak of the war, M. Caillaux and his wife were accused of being in treasonable communication with the Germans. At once the great man became the centre of a political upheaval the like of which had not shaken France for many years. As a result of the struggle, he was driven from France, and no name during the succeeding war years was regarded by the French people with opprobrium equal to that with which M. Caillaux was regarded. For years, he was in exile, penniless and an object of hatred and scorn. At the conclusion of the war, he made successive attempts to become repatriated, and finally on the downfall of Premier Herriot, received an invitation from the new Government to return to Paris and to use his supreme financial genius on behalf of the country which had so lately regarded him as an enemy and a traitor. Return to Paris he was at first received by the mass of the people with suspicion, but at the conclusion of a few months spent in settling financial tangles which had been the cause of the political ruin of so many others, behold M. Caillaux on his way to the United States, the trusted emissary of the whole French nation, and with full power from the Cabinet to negotiate this operation—the most momentous undertaken by France since 1918. From parliamentarian to exile; from exile to Finance Minister! Who knows what tomorrow may hold? But M. Caillaux, we are told, lives only in the present.

—OO—
HE FAILED

The great Caillaux, in whom France placed so much faith, has failed in his mission to the United States. The French Finance Minister offered a series of lump sum payments over 68 years and returning a total of $6,220,000,000 to the American Treasury, but he discovered that hard-headed Uncle Sam, in sharp contrast to John Bull, though generous in conversation, forgets generosity when it is a case of hard cash. Though France did, her creditors must have their pound of flesh.

Red Blooded Men and Women

Get More Pleasure Out of Life and are of More Use in the World Than Sickly, Run Down People.

There are people who lack the red blood to give color to their lips, warmth to their hands and brightness to their eyes.

These people tire easily and cannot compete in school, store or shop with the more energetic. Their blood being thin they are nervous and do not sleep well. Arising in the morning unrefreshed, they begin each day badly and miss much of the pleasure of living.

To become active and energetic, like most red-blooded Canadians, these people need a blood building tonic.

Where ever you find a person who has taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills faithfully you find an enthusiastic friend of the tonic that has made life mean more in many ways. These blood-making pills have been used by three generations of Canadians and in almost every community—however small, can be found those who owe health and happiness to this famous household remedy.

Help for Nervous People.

Are you pale and weak, tired most of the time, out of breath on slight exertion?

Are you nervous, is your sleep disturbed so that rest does not refresh you?

Is your appetite poor, your digestion weak, and do you have pains after eating?

If you have any of these symptoms you need the help of such a reliable tonic as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Read what Mr. W. W. Francis of Calgary, Alta., says of this tonic: "After returning from overseas," writes Mr. Francis, "my whole system was in a badly run down condition. I became nervous, irritable, pale and lost weight. Of course I was given treatment and recommended many tonics, some of which I took, but with no apparent result. At last I could not even sleep. My sister, who is in England wrote and urged me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and I can scarcely say how glad I am that I took her advice. My friends were surprised at my complete recovery, but I assured them it was due entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I now always keep a box on hand in case of emergency."

Keep Your System Toned Up

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills assist digestion, correct the habit, the palpitation of the heart, shaky nerves and the pallor of the face and lips; that are the results of thin, impure blood.

Try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for anemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness. Take them as a tonic if you are not in the best physical condition and cultivate a resistance that will keep you well and strong. Get a box and begin this treatment.

Send For These Health Books

Two useful books, "Building up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., if you mention this paper.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box.
