

THE ONTARIO HOUSE.

Voting on Amalgamation to the Place April 21.

Division of the Order of the Day—Passage of the License Bill—The Tax Exemption Bill Discussed.

TORONTO, Wednesday, April 2.

The order paper was pretty well cleared to-day in the Ontario House. The principal business was the consideration of the "Dog" Bill, the Registry License Bill, and the Tax Exemption Bill. It was arranged to debate Mr. Craig's bill respecting the language of instruction in public schools tomorrow (Thursday) evening.

The following amendments respecting cases: An act to amend the act respecting conditional sales of chattels—The Act in Muskoka and Parry Sound—The Act in Muskoka and Parry Sound—The Act in Muskoka and Parry Sound.

Mr. Meredith thought it would have been well if returns of mortgages on estates that should be returned. He thought the statistics asked for under the bill would be of little use.

Hon. Mr. Dewar said it was impossible to get accurate statistics in regard to mortgages on real estate. They could get the number, but it would be absolutely impossible to find out how much money was paid upon them.

The House then went into committee on Hon. A. M. Ross' bill respecting exemptions from municipal assessments.

There was some discussion on the second clause abolishing the exemption on clergy-men's salaries and dwellings. Mr. Meredith wondered if Sunday schools would be included as parts of the churches.

Mr. Ross said they would be so if they had been so before. One or two honorable members thought some exception should be made in the case of clergy with low salaries, but it was the general opinion of the House that clergy should be on the same footing in this respect as other men.

Mr. Waters pointed out that if they have less than $700 a year they are exempt altogether; if they have over $700 and less than $1,000 they are exempt on four.

There was little discussion on the third clause, dealing with the assessment of colleges, incorporated seminaries, etc., putting them and their lands on the same footing as churches. Mr. Meredith thought the clause did not go far enough, and moved the entire repeal of the clause in the Assessment Act exempting colleges and incorporated seminaries. The amendment was lost.

The business tax clause caused considerable discussion. It read as follows originally: 4. In the case of persons carrying on a mercantile business in a municipality, the municipal council of the municipality may pass laws substituting in respect of any class or classes of mercantile business, a business tax for the tax on an annual value of the premises in which the business is carried on.

The Treasurer proposed to make the 7 1/2 per cent, 10 per cent., and added to the clause a sub-section empowering any municipality to classify the various occupations and businesses affected by the tax, according to certain rates, never exceeding 10 per cent.

Mr. Meredith asked what a mercantile business meant. There would be lots of confusion over the term in the clause, he said.

The Treasurer said the term was used in the ordinary sense and did not include manufacturing business.

Mr. Meredith thought it should include all carrying on a trade or manufacturing business.

Mr. Graham moved the following resolution: That in the opinion of this House it is desirable that closer trade relations should exist between the United States of America and the Dominion of Canada, and that this House do humbly petition the Legislature to take effect. The amendments were agreed to and progress was reported. One of these clauses provide that the voting shall take place on April 21, and that the voters shall be the municipal electors.

ing added as sub-section 2 to section 1: In those parts of the Province in which the Dominion Temperance Act was in force on April 1, 1888, in cases where the petition of a majority of the electors against the granting of a license was presented to the commissioners, the provisions of sub-section 1 shall apply for persons who were not then licensed to be so as to require an application for a license to be accompanied by the petition mentioned in the first sub-section, notwithstanding that the license may have been granted during the said year.

Mr. Meredith mentioned that he moved this amendment in view of the special cases that had been discussed in the House during the present session.

Hon. Mr. Gibson said only two polling sub-divisions had been affected all over the Province by the difficulty which Mr. Meredith alluded to. In those two divisions, in addition to the fact that the section of the act in question did not apply where such applications were not made before April 1, the petition in question was also open to the objection that they were not legal. The amendment was voted down by 50 to 32.

Mr. Meredith then offered a third amendment, embodying the main plank of his liquor license policy—the appointment of commissioners in the rural districts by the county councils.

Mr. Carson moved an amendment to the amendment providing for the election of license commissioners by direct vote of the people, but he failed to get a second.

The Meredith amendment was defeated by 52 to 29, a Government majority of 23. The motion for third reading was then again put, and Dr. Willoughby, at great length, discussed the whole license question, the appointment of the commissioners, the nature of the fines, some of which, he alleged, had not been accounted for; the conduct of the commissioners in the alleged charge of their duties, and the by-law department generally.

Hon. Mr. Hardy, replying briefly to Dr. Willoughby's remarks, read correspondence showing that Dr. Willoughby had entirely misled the House. The Clerk had even made the returns without receiving payment, though he was clearly entitled to receive his fees. He repelled indignantly the insinuation that the Government desired to screen any of its officials who had wrongfully withheld money from any of the defaulter's pockets. The fact was that a good many of the fines imposed were not collected at all, and in other cases, the person fined went to jail or left the country, and finally, when the act was repealed, a good many were still uncollected, and had not been collected yet.

The discussion was continued by Mr. Stewart and Mr. Strachan, the Attorney-General, Mr. Field, Dr. McLaughlin, and the bill was read a third time.

In amendment to the motion for the third reading of the Provincial Secretary's bill to amend the Registry Act, Mr. Meredith moved to vest the appointment of registrars in the county councils and to provide for the payment of these officials by salaries.

The Attorney-General argued against the amendment with convincing force and clearness. He insisted that the public interest had never been prejudicially affected by delay in filling a vacant registration. The county councils were subject to party influence as the Legislature, and the Government and the Legislature were as truly representatives of the people.

Mr. Meredith attacked the primary principle of responsible government.

Mr. Mowat instanced the great control of patronage and the wholesale seizure of appointments by the Dominion Government, and the flagrant abuse by that Government of the system of superannuation, all loyally supported by Mr. Meredith, who loyally the making of political capital was the Opposition leader's only object.

Mr. Meredith's amendment was defeated, 52 to 32.

The CITY OF LONDON BILL. The House in Committee took up the bill respecting the city of London, introduced by Mr. Meredith. The honorable gentleman brought up several amendments to the bill providing for the assent of the majority of the taxpayers affected by the measure being obtained before the annexation of South London to the London municipality takes effect. The amendments were agreed to and progress was reported. One of these clauses provide that the voting shall take place on April 21, and that the voters shall be the municipal electors.

The House went into committee on the bill to amend the act imposing a tax on dogs and for the protection of sheep. The bill was further amended at the instance of Mr. Fraser by being deprived of the provision that allowed of a dog being shot in case the taxes owing on account of it have not been paid by the owner. The bill was then reported for third reading.

Hon. A. M. Ross moved that the House to-morrow consider the railway bill resolutions standing in his name. Mr. Meredith objected to these resolutions being brought down so late in the session, but with this objection the motion passed.

IN CONGRESS.

Interesting Congregational Meeting. A special congregational meeting of the members of St. Andrew's Church was held last night in the lecture hall for the purpose of taking into consideration matters of importance to the church. The meeting was referred to it by the last annual meeting, and it is the intention of the church to immediately erect a suitable building to accommodate the congregation. The cost in the neighborhood of $3,500. The following trustees were appointed to carry out the work: H. E. Nelles, Jas. Gordon, J. M. Robb, W. Bell, Wm. Stevely and J. M. Robb. The questions of making alterations in the school room of St. Andrew's Church and building a new school house on the grounds were postponed. Rev. J. A. Murray conducted the meeting, which was a pleasing one.

Interesting Services in Memorial Church. The special services in the Memorial Church last evening were of a very interesting nature. The various societies in connection with the church including the Aid Society, the Women's Missionary Society, the Women's Union, the Haverhill Mission Band, Ministering Children's League, Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor and All Saints' Mission Society, took part in the proceedings and marched into the church in a body headed by the choir boys. The pastor, Rev. Canon Richardson, read the litany, after which the Bishop of Huron gave a very thoughtful and earnest address. He divided his discourse into two parts, basing his remarks to the junior societies on the hosannas and Jerusalem, and sung on Christ's entry into Jerusalem, and to the senior societies on the fruit of the vine. The attendance was greatly augmented by members from the other city churches.

Who Has the Illicit Still. At the Police Court this morning Charles Woodward, a baker, whose shop and residence is at 38 Waterloo Street, was charged by Inspector Henderson with a large quantity of liquor on his premises for which he had no license. Detectives Wilson and Phair swore as to finding the liquor, and the officers were searching the house, and the accused left the house, and was caught in the act of running away with a demijohn containing over two gallons of whisky in a smaller jar of whisky and several empty jars and bottles were also found. Inland Revenue Collector Alexander testified that he was present when the liquor was found. The object of the visit was to search for an illicit still. The liquor found was illicit. Woodward swore that he used also sugar. Woodward swore that he used the liquor for making cakes and syrups and for bitters, but he never sold any of it. He claimed to have bought the liquor from Mr. McMillan, a licensed man of London. Mr. Frank Love appeared for the defendant and Mr. McMillan looked after the interests of the Crown. The case was dismissed. The inland revenue people are quiet satisfied with the result of the trial, and the camp is to be congratulated for the manner in which the dinner passed off. Frater H. Gibbons occupied the chair, while Frater F. Plant acted as vice-chairman.

Among those present were: C. W. Jones (department commander of Canada), Commander H. Gibbons, J. J. Wright, Mr. Leonard, Frank Plant, Wm. Partridge, E. Maude, James J. A. Padfield, W. H. Robinson, H. Baker, J. A. Padfield, W. H. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Plewes, Alex. Aikman, Mrs. H. Gibbons, Miss M. Smith, H. T. Smith, H. Robinson, Mrs. A. D. Lucas, Wm. Stevely, David A. Dibbs, Mrs. David A. Dibbs, Miss J. A. Dibbs, Geo. W. Woollerton and Dr. English.

After the good things provided had been done ample justice to by the assembly, the Chairman in a short address introduced the toast list.

"The Queen and Royal Family," responded to by the company singing the National Anthem.

"Governor-General of Canada and the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario," coupled with the name of Frater G. N. Woollerton who replied in a very pleasant and patriotic speech.

"President of the United States"—"He's a jolly good fellow," by those assembled.

"Grand Army of Fraternity" was replied to by Frater C. W. Jones. In a forcible address he set forth the aims and objects of the society, and showed how the Grand Army commander's work where other benevolent societies ended. He said the organization was in a flourishing condition.

After an interesting and remarkable toast list, and after Frater H. Gibbons, president of the occasion, introduced the toast of "Sister Societies," coupled with the names of Frater Dr. English, Frater H. T. Smith, and Frater J. J. Wright.

The toast of "The Ladies" was taken cheerfully by Frater E. B. Plewes. The singing of the National Anthem brought a pleasant and profitable evening to a close.

Coughing KINGSMILL'S

Nature's effort to expel foreign substances from the bronchial passages. Frequently, this causes inflammation and the need of an anodyne. No other expectorant or anodyne is equal to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It assists Nature in ejecting the mucus, allays irritation, induces repose, and is the most popular of all cough cures.

"Of the many preparations before the public for the cure of colds, coughs, bronchitis, and kindred diseases, there is none within the range of my experience so reliable as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. For years I was subject to colds, followed by terrible coughs. About four years ago, when so afflicted, I was advised to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and I did so, and within a few days was well of my cold and cough. Since then I have always kept this preparation in my house, and feel comparatively secure."

"A few years ago I took a severe cold which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the Pectoral, a permanent cure was effected."—Horace Fairbrother, Rockingham, Vt.

A GOOD CIGAR. Few 5-cent cigars have enjoyed such an unprecedented run of success as the "Highland Lassie," and it is continually finding new admirers in the large army of smokers who one and all unite in its praises. The sale of this fine cigar is daily on the increase. Some persons have a prejudice against an article manufactured by a local firm, but the "Highland Lassie" has been a large factor in overcoming this prejudice, and is to-day the most popular 5-cent cigar ever put on the market. Manufactured only by H. McKay & Co., London.
