The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

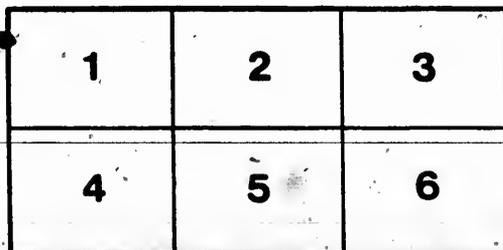

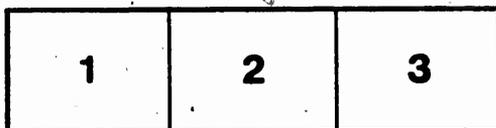

University of Toronto,
Edward Johnson Music Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

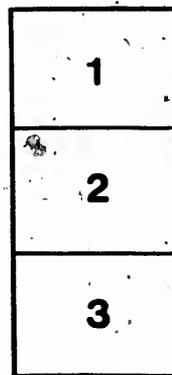

University of Toronto,
Edward Johnson Music Library

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

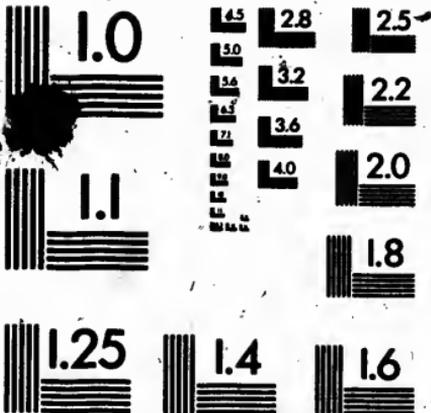

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

HAMILTON, ONTARIO:

ROYAL TEMPLAR BOOK AND PUBLISHING HOUSE,
W. W. BUCHANAN, Manager.

PREFACE.

THE power of song in the Temperance movement cannot be overestimated, and many of the foremost song-writers have given some of their contributions in this direction.

The National Temperance Society and Publication House was the first in the modern Temperance movement to recognize its importance and to meet its demands. In 1867 it published "The Temperance Chimes," and later on "Bugle Notes," "Ripples of Song," "Prohibition Songster," "Temperance and Gospel Songs," "The Temperance Evangel," "Band of Hope Songster," and "Rallying Songs," all of which have been most favorably received by the temperance public.

In "TRUMPET NOTES" we have sought to combine the choicest gems from all the books, with many of the very best from other sources, and to give a large number of new tunes from some of the most popular composers in the country, together with many of the old familiar Gospel songs, and adapted to all organizations and Temperance assemblies, and to supply a Standard Book of Song suitable for every phase of the movement.

We send it forth with the sincere hope that it may be instrumental in aiding the growing sentiment against drink and the saloons, and help to usher in the "Better time coming," "so long foretold," when "Right shall win the day."

The music and poetry of nearly every piece is copyright property, and cannot be used without consent of the owners.

 3. With God there is no com-pro-mise, He hat-eth ev-ery wrong;

It said to ev-ery list'ning ear, An-oth-er day's be-gun;
 To join the few who long have fought, With faith that nev-er dies;
 With Him as Lead-er of our cause, With bal-lot, prayer and song,

So, in our na-tion's gloom, a peal Rings out our tri-umph hour;
 Our foes fall back in wav'ring lines, And trem-ble for their power;
 We'll work u-nit-ed, brave and strong, Un-til the whis-ky power,

It tells how hon-est, ear-nest work Breaks down the tyrant's power.
 They know de-feat is drawing near,—God's clock has struck the hour.
 Throughout the world, shall sure-ly know God's clock has struck the hour.

All-gracious God to Thee we Raise.

Tune—MELOOMBE. L. M.

- 1 All-gracious God to Thee we raise
 Our voice in solemn prayer and praise;
 We praise Thee for Thy mercy shown;
 Lord, let that mercy now be known!
- 2 Intemperance on every hand
 Abounds in this our guilty land;

While drunkards glory in their shame,
 And pour contempt on Jesus' name.
 3 Lord! let Thy banner be displayed,
 And check the ruin sin hath made;
 The foe with power divine assail,
 Nor let the hosts of hell prevail.

He took the dying sailor in the life-boat.

The storm is past, and I have reached my home,
With angels in glory I now sing the song,
My soul has safely landed in the life-boat.

The Handwriting on the Wall.

K. SHAW.

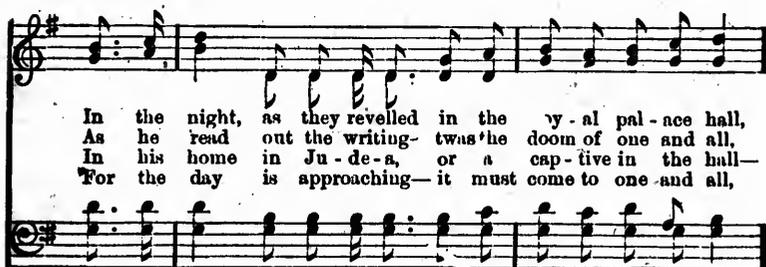

KNOWLES SHAW. 1877, arr.

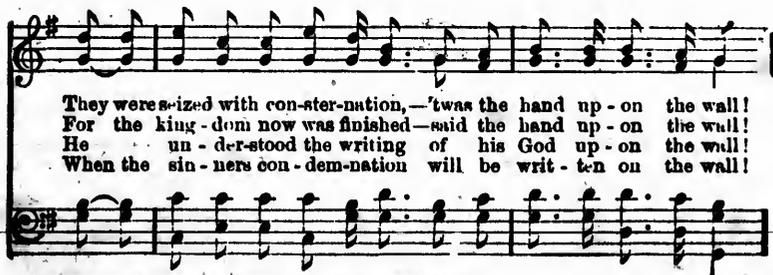

1. At the feast of Bel-shazzar and a thousand of His lords,
 2. See the brave captive, Daniel, as he stood before the throng,
 3. See the faith, zeal and courage, that would dare to do the right,
 4. So our deeds are re-cord-ed—there's a hand that's writing now,

While they drank from golden ves-sels, as the Book of truth re-cords—
 And re-buk'd the haughty monarch for his might-y deeds of wrong;
 Which the Spir-it gave to Dan-iel—this the se-cret of his might;
 Sin-ner, give your heart to Je-sus, to His roy-al man-date bow;

In the night, as they revelled in the y-al pal-ace hall,
 As he read out the writing—'twas the doom of one and all,
 In his home in Ju-de-a, or a cap-tive in the hall—
 For the day is approaching—it must come to one and all,

They were-sized with con-ster-nation,—'twas the hand up-on the wall!
 For the king-dom now was finished—said the hand up-on the wall!
 He un-der-stood the writing of his God up-on the wall!
 When the sin-ners con-dem-nation will be writ-ten on the wall!

The Handwriting on the Wall.—Concluded. 49

CHORUS.

"Tis the hand of God on the wall,
that is writ - ing on the wall;

"Tis the hand of God on the wall;
that is writ - ing on the wall;

Shall the re-cord be "Found wanting." Or shall it be "Found trusting?"

While that hand is writing, on the wall

Fight for Prohibition.

Tune—RING THE BELLS OF HEAVEN. B Flat.

1 Fight for prohibition, gird our armor on,
Valiantly we'll march against the foe;
We will wield the scepter till the battle's won,
Till we stay the stream of blood and woe.

CHORUS.

Glory, glory, let the people sing,
Glory, glory, make the welkin ring;
"Tis for Prohibition we will take our stand,
Till we drive intemp'rance from the land.

2 Vote for Prohibition—hear the bond-
men call;
From the weak and fallen comes the cry,
"Come, undo the shackles, burst the chains that gall,
Come and rescue, save us ere we die."

3 Work for Prohibition—now the father calls,
Calling for the safety of his child;
O, he loves him dearly, can not see him fall
By intemp'rance, and by sin defiled.

'Tis Time to Swing our Axes.

Tune—YANKEE DOODLE.

1 We've had enough of license laws,
 Enough of liquor's taxes;
 We've turned the grindstone long enough,
 'Tis time to swing our axes.
 This deadly upas tree r-ast fall—
 Let strokes be strong and steady,
 Pull out the stumps! grub out the roots!
 O brothers! are you ready!

2 No longer will we shield this foe
 To manhood, love and beauty;
 We've had enough of compromise—
 The right alone is duty,
 Enough of weak men and distrust;
 The burden grows by shifting;
 Let's put our shoulder to the wheel!
 And do our share of lifting.

3 We've had enough of forging chains
 This demon drink to fetter,
 Good bullets from the ballot box
 Well sped, will fix him better!
 Will ye not hunt him to the death!
 Speak out! speak out, O brothers!
 Will ye not sound the bugle call,
 O sisters, wives and mothers!

4 We've had enough of shame and woe;
 Of cruel spoliation,
 Who fears to say it loud enough
 To thrill our land and nation?
 God help us all to work like men,
 In earnest agitation,
 Till we have crushed the power of rum
 By righteous legislation.

Now to Heaven our Prayers Ascending.

Tune—"GOD SPEED THE RIGHT."

1 Now to heaven our prayers ascending,
God speed the right!
In a noble cause contending,
God speed the right!
Be their zeal in heaven recorded,
With success on earth rewarded,
God speed the right!

2 Be that prayer again repeated,
God speed the right!
Ne'er despairing, though defeated,
God speed the right!
Like the good and great in story,
If they fall, they fall with glory,
God speed the right!

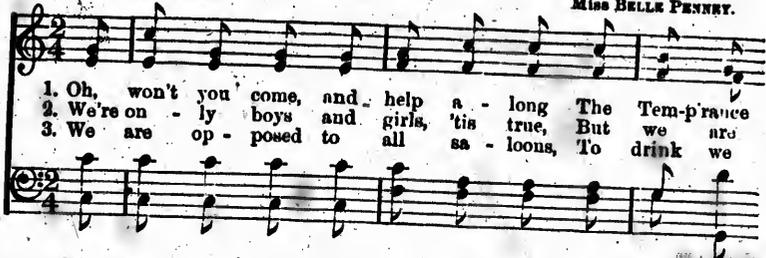

3 Patient, firm, and persevering,
God speed the right!
Ne'er the event nor danger fearing,
God speed the right!
Pains, nor toils, nor trials heeding,
But in heaven's own time succeeding,
God speed the right!

4 Still their onward course pursuing,
God speed the right!
Every foe at length subduing,
God speed the right!
Truth Thy cause, what'er delay it
There's no power on earth can stay it,
God speed the right!

See that glorious Temperance star!
Watchman! does its beauteous ray
Aught of hope or joy foretell?
Traveler! yes! it brings the day,
Wrested from the tyrant's spell. | 2 Watchman! tell us of the night,
Higher yet the star ascends;
Traveler! blessedness and light,
Peace and truth its course portends.
Watchman! will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Traveler! ages are its own;
See! it bursts o'er all the earth! |

1. Great Founder of our cause look down, And bless our la - bors as thine own;
Tyrant has usurped her throne, Beneath whose reign the world doth groan;
Breathe thy Spir-it' on our cause. And we shall vanquish all our foes;

Our common foe drive far, And bid her pomp'rance bear the sway.
Bid pomp'rance now resume her reign, And earth's wild waste shall bloom again.

All Unite in Singing.

Tune—AULD LANG SYNE.

1 Come, friends and brethren, all unite
In songs of hearty cheer;
Our cause speed onward in its might!
Away with doubt and fear!
We give the pledge, we join the hand,
Resolved on victory;
We are a bold, determined band,
And strike for liberty.

2 The cup of death no more we take;
That cup no more we give;
It makes the head, the bosom ache—
Ah! who can drink and live?
We give the pledge, we join the hand,
Resolved on victory;
We are a bold, determined band,
And strike for liberty.

Jesus Shall Reign.

ISAAC WATTS.

Tune—UXBRIDGE. L. M.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Je - sus shall reign, where'er the sun Does his successive journeys run;

His kingdom spread from shore to shore, Till moons shall wax and wane no more!

2 For Him shall endless prayer be made,
And praises throng to crown His head;
His name, like sweet perfume, shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

3 People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on His love, with sweetest song;
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on His name.

4 Blessings abound where'er He reigns;
The prisoner leaps to loose his chains;
The weary find eternal rest,
And all the sons of want are blest.

5 Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud amen!

The Worker's Song.

THOS. R. THOMPSON.

WILLIAM HOYLE.

1. To those who bravely take their stand—The good, the true, the brave;
2. With cour- age, then, work, watch and pray, U - nit - ing heart and hand,
3. The temp'rance cause is gain - ing ground, 'Tis pushing to the fore;

In this, and ev - ery oth - er land, Who would their coun - try save;
To drive the curse of drink a - way, From this, and ev - ery land.
With rap - id strides it speeds a - long, And spreads from shore to shore.

We sing a song, a temp'rance song, The hearts of all to cheer;
Oh, work - ers all, in ev - ery clime, The com - ing vic - tory hail,
The land we love, the land we prize, Shall from the curse be free,

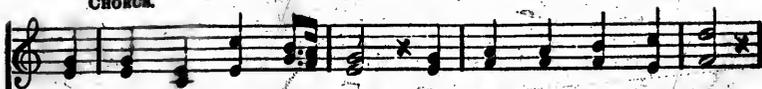

If wrong to right, must yield its might, Then what is there to fear?
For God will give the har - vest time, We nev - er knew Him fail!
And small and great shall cel - e - brate A Temp'rance Ju - bi - lee.

[OBLIGATO SOLO AND CHORUS]

Lively.

Arr. by I. B. WOODBURY.

1. And are ye sure the news is true? And are ye sure he's signed?
2. Whose eye so kind, whose hand so strong, Whose love so true will shine,
3. And blessings on the helping hands That sent him back to me;

I can't be - lieve the joy - ful tale, And leave my fears be - hind;
 If he has bent his heart and hand The temp'rance pledge to sign;
 Haste, haste, ye lit - tle ones, and run Your fa - ther's face to see;

If John has signed, and drinks no more, The happiest wife am I
 But what puts breaking in my head? I trust he'll taste no more;
 And are you sure, my John, you've signed, And are you sure 'tis past?

That ev - er swept a cot-tage hearth, Or sung a lul - la - by.

| 1 Shall we see the brighter beaming
Of an error yet to be?
Will the signs that now are gleaming
Bring the temperance jubilee? | 2 Shall we see the light returning
To our homes of deepest woe?
And love's altar-fires new burning
Where the cup had quenched their glow? |

Be tender in speaking the truth,
And gentle in look and in deed.

By the future more blest than the past
That we're seeking and longing to share,
Be hopeful of leading at last
The wayward to paths that are fair.

DR. LOWELL MASON.

1. There is a fountain fill'd with blood, Drawn from Im-man-nel's veins;

And sinners plung'd be-neath that flood, Lose all their guilt-y stains.

CHORUS.

Lose all their guilt - y stains, Lose all their guilt - y stains,

And sinners plung'd be - neath that flood, Lose all their guilt-y stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.
CHO.—Wash all, etc.

3 Thou dying lamb! thy precious blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransom'd Church of God

Unfurl the Temperance Banner.

Tune—WESS. Key of E \flat .

1 Unfurl the Temperance Banner;
 And fling it to the breeze,
 And let the glad hosanna
 Sweep over land and seas:
 To God be all the glory
 For what we now behold—
 Oh! let the cheering story
 In every ear be told.

2 Come, join the noble army,
 Enlist now for the fight;
 Maintain our nation's honor,
 Firm stand ye for the right;

Promote the cause of temperance
 T'assist poor, fallen man;
 Put on the glorious armor;
 Be foremost in the van.

3 Then rally round the standard,
 And let the work go on,
 Until the last dim vestige
 Of intemperance is gone.
 Be earnest in the battle,
 Your weapons boldly wield;
 You'll surely gain the victory,
 And make the monster yield.

All our sins and griefs to bear;
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer.
Oh, what peace we often forfeit,
Oh, what needless pain we bear—
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer.
- 2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Can we find a Friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

3 Are we weak and heavy laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Saviour, still our refuge,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

Tune—SUWANNEE RIVER.

1.
 'Way down upon the Congo River,
 Far, far away,
 'Mid burning heat and wasting fever,
 There's where the black folks stay.

CHORUS.
 Hear the Afric natives crying
 From the Congo's brink,
 Oh, save us for we're dying, dying,
 Dying from the curse of drink.

2.
 All up and down the Congo region
 Vile traders come,

Like evil fiends whose name is legion,
 Bringing them the curse of rum.—Cho.

Work, for the Night is Coming.

Tune—WORK SONG. P. M. Key of F.

1 Work, for the night is coming;
 Work through the morning hours;
 Work, while the dew is sparkling;
 Work, 'mid springing flowers;
 Work, when the day grows brighter,
 Work, in the glowing sun;
 Work, for the night is coming,
 When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming;
 Work through the sunny noon;
 Fill brightest hours with labor;
 Rest comes sure and soon.

Give every flying minute
 Something to keep in store;
 Work, for the night is coming,
 When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
 Under the sunset skies;
 While their bright tints are glowing,
 Work, for daylight flies,
 Work, till the last beam fadeth,
 Fadeth to shine no more;
 Work, while the night is darkening,
 When man's work is o'er.

A Little Bow of Blue.

EDWARD CARSWELL.

1. My heart was ver - y heav - y. For my children cried for bread -
 2. He came and stood be - side me, And stooped and kissed my face,

I went to see my lit - tle ones Go sup - per - less to bed;
 Where tears but late - ly wip'd a - way Had left a burning trace;

I list - ened for a footstep, As I'd oft - en done be - fore,
 Then, as my arm embraced his neck, Sweet hope came back a - new,

Wait - ing for a stag - ger - ing man To stumble thro' the door.
 For on his rag - ged coat I saw A lit - tle bow of blue.

But his step came firm and stead - y, And his eyes were clear and true,
 And his step came firm and stead - y, And his eye was clear and true,

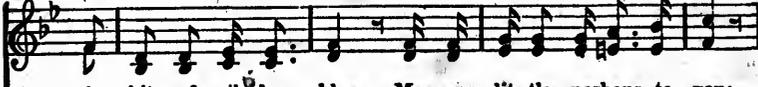

And on his rag-ged coat he wore A lit-tle bow of blue,
And on his rag-ged coat I saw A lit-tle bow of blue,

And on his rag-ged coat he wore A lit-tle bow of blue.
And on his rag-ged coat I saw A lit-tle bow of blue.

CHORUS.

A bit of rib-bon blue May seem lit-tle, perhaps, to you;

But oh! how much it meant to me, That lit-tle bow of blue.

3 We knelt down by the bed-side,
Where the children lay asleep,
And prayed the Lord to give him strength
His new-made vow to keep.
Then to my lifted eyes a bow
Of promise rose in view;
The bow that spanned my brightened sky
Was just a bow of blue.
For his step is firm and steady,
And his eye is clear and true,
And on his manly breast he wears
A little bow of blue. †

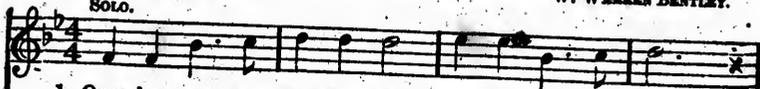

4 And is there one before me now,
Addicted to the cup,
Oh, listen to a woman's prayer,
And give the idol up,
Do, while your heart is warm,
An act you'll never, never rue;
Come, take our vow, and proudly wear
Our little bow of blue.
Then, with step that's firm and steady,
And eye both clear and true,
Wear in your heart and on your breast
Our little bow of blue. †

The Right Shall Prevail.

Tune—SWEET BY-AND-BY.

1 When the right over wrong shall prevail,
When the woes of wine-drinking shall cease,
Then all nations and people shall hail
With a shout the grand triumph of peace.

CHORUS.—It will come, by-and-by,
When the race out of childhood has grown;
It will come, by-and-by—
Then the age of true manhood shall dawn.

2 Right ordains that the old wrongs shall cease,
And make way for the growth of reform;

I Love the Cause of Temperance.

Tune—SWEET REST IN HEAVEN.

1 I love the cause of temperance,
 'Tis good and true, I know;
 It gives a joy and blessing
 To many a heart of woe;
 It makes the home of sadness
 A glad and bright abode;
 And the drunkard, once so fallen,
 Is nearer brought to God.
 Lead us onward, O Lord.
 Lead us onward, O Lord;
 ||: Lead us onward. :||
 Lead us onward, O Lord.

2 Strong drink, impetuous ever,
 Sweeps like a rising flood,

And downward beareth many
 That once were wise and good;
 The poor man from his cottage,
 The monarch from his throne,
 And the young in life's fair morning,
 Are carried swiftly down.

3 I would not be a drunkard,
 For all this world can give,
 In sorrow and in sadness
 A sinful life to live;
 But still in words of kindness
 I'll ask him to abstain,
 And God may yet restore him
 To happiness again:

5 Shall men who are training with bloated distillers,
Whose traffic degrades fair Columbia's fame,
Receive from the people their lofty positions,
And use them to add to a nation's foul shame?
Shall they who bow down in the rum-seller's caucus,
And worship the master they humbly obey;
Shall they lead the nation, by Washington founded?
"Which way are their muskets a-p'intin' to-day?"

6 The question, my friends, is of vital importance,
The nation is waiting in anxious suspense;
Each voter can wield a political musket,
Then wield it, I ask, in your country's defence!
The issue before us is plain and unclouded—
Shall our nation be ruled by King Alcohol's sway?
I candidly ask every qualified voter,
"Which way is your musket a-p'intin' to-day?"

FIN.

1. Je - sus, Lov - er of my soul! Let me to thy bo - som fly,
 While the near - er wa - ters roll, While the tempest still is high!
 D. C. Safe in - to the ha - ven guide, O receive my soul at last!

2 Other refuge have I none;
 Hangs my helpless soul on thee.
 Leave, O leave me not alone,
 Still support and comfort me:
 All my trust on thee is stayed,
 All my help from thee I bring;
 Cover my defenceless head
 With the shadow of thy wing!

3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want;
 More than all in thee I find;
 Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
 Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
 Just and holy is thy name,
 I am all unrighteousness:
 False and full of sin I am,
 Thou art full of truth and grace.

ORTONVILLE. C. M.

1. Oh God! we lift our hearts to thee, And grate - ful vo - ce raise;
2. Here may our souls de - light to bless, The God of truth and grace,

We thank thee for this fes - tive night, - Ac - cept our hum - ble praise,
Who crowns our la - bors with suc - cess, A - mong the ris - ing race!

3.

Ac - cept our hum - ble praise,
A - mong the ris - ing race!

May each unholy passion cease,
Each evil thought be crushed,
Each anxious care that mars our peace
In hope and truth be hushed. :||

Oh! may we all in truth abound,
And charity pursue;
Thus shall we be with glory crowned,
And love as angels do. :||

Closing Ode.

AULD LANG SYNE. C. M.

Now we must close our la - bors here, Though sad it is to part,

Closing Ode.—Concluded.

179

May Hope, and Love, and Truth sin - cere, U - nite each mem - ber's heart.

Now to our homes we'll haste a - way, Each filled with peace and light,

And may our hearts in kind ness say, Dear friends, a kind good-night.

Initiatory Ode, No. 1.

CORONATION. C. M.

1. We'll nei - ther buy, nor take, nor give The Drunkard's drink at all;
2. We will not make a sin - gle drop Of Gi - der, Wine or Ale;

We will not keep it where we live, In cot - tage or in hall;
But break the drink - ing cus - toms up, Wher - e'er our pow'rs pre - vall;

We will not keep it where we live, In cot - tage or..... in hall.
But break the drink - ing cus - toms up, Wher - e'er our pow'rs pre - vall.

Initiatory Ode, No. 2.

PLEVEL'S HYMN. - 7s.

{ God of Mer - cy, be thou near While the vows are spok - en here; }
 { Shield, pro - tect - and safe - ly guide From temp - ta - tions that be - tide; }

Man may strive, but thou a - lone Must the fi - nal con - quest crown.

Initiatory Ode, No. 3.

TIBRON. L. M.

1. Now bound by Hon - or's sa - cred laws, Oh, shrink not from thy chos - en part,
 2. Heed not the shafts of er - ror cast, The foul or, hiss - ing bolts of scorn;

Keep pure and un - de - filed the cause For - ev - er near - est to thy heart.
 For with the right shall dwell at last, The vic - tory of en - dur - ance born.

Installation Ode.

NAOMI. S. M.

1. May sol - emn vows once ren - dered here, Be, sa - cred in our hearts;
 2. What du - ty coun - sels to be done, Let res - o - lu - tion do,

And may we all, with con - science clear, Per - form our sev - ral parts.
 And through our lives for - ev - er shun All save the good and true.

Opening Ode

BALERNA. C. M.

1. In - to our Coun - cil, bless - ed Love, Come with - thy spi - rit - ual smile;
2. Glow in each heart with ho - ly fire, Our spir - it shall be kindled with Thine,

Bring from the bliss - ful courts a - bove Thy heaven on earth a - while;
Thy faith - ful vo - ta - ries in - spire With char - i - ty Di - vine.

Closing Ode.

OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

Praise God, from whom all bless-ings flow! Praise him, all creatures here be - low!

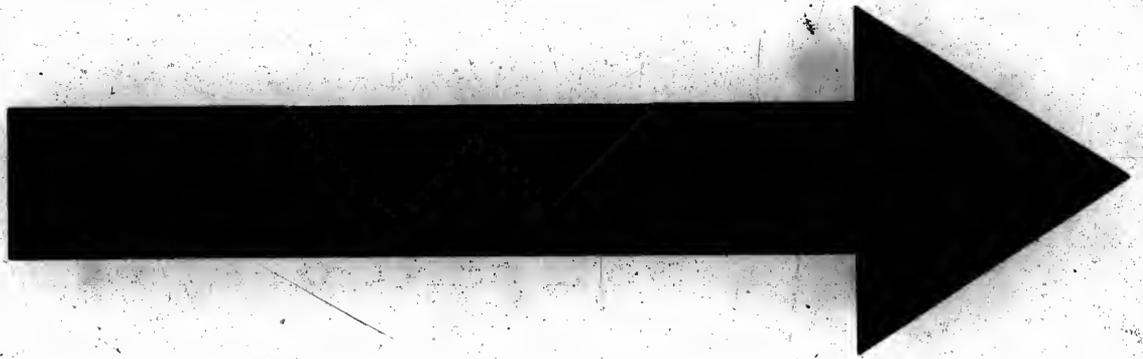

Praise him a - bove, ye heav'n - ly host! Praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost!

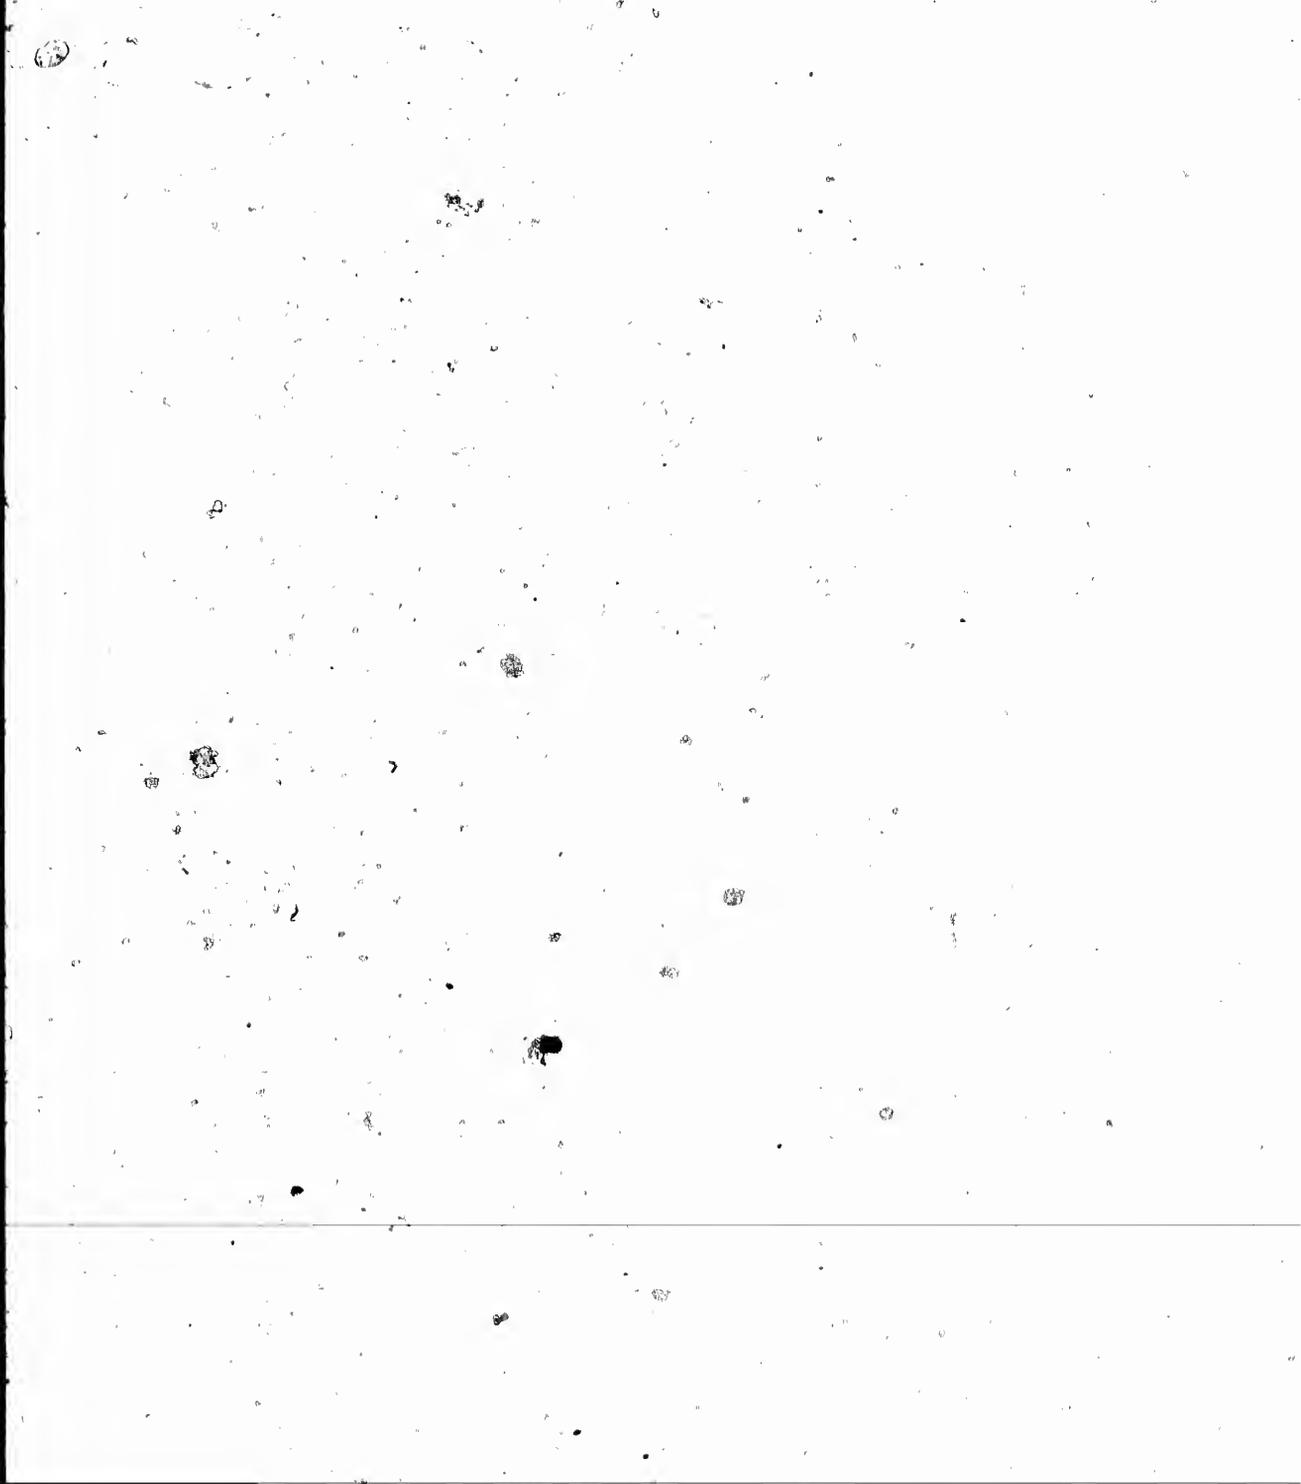

Raising Ode, No. 1.

GIVE. C. M.

1. Hap - py the heart where grac - es reign, Where Love in - spires the breast;
2. This is the grace that lives and sings, When faith and Hope shall cease;

LOVE is the bright - est of the train, And per - fects all the rest.
'Tis LOVE shall strike our joy - ful strings, In the sweet realms of bliss.

Raising Ode, No. 2.

DENNIS. S. M.

Blest is... the tie... that binds Our hearts in Chris-tian Love,

The fel-low-ship of kin-dred minds Is like to that a-bove.

Raising Ode, No. 3.

ROCKINGHAM. L. M.

Sweet is the la-lor to set free Our broth-er from Intemp'rance chains,

In sick-ness to his side to flee, As-suage his grief and soothe his pains.

Raising Ode, No. 4.

BOYLSTON. S. M.

1. In LOVE we'll clus-ter here, Like grapes up-on the vine;
2. As e-quals here we meet, Li-en-blem-at-ic line,

What grieves an-oth-er help to bear, Nor mur-mur or re-plue.
Teach-ing in this Se-lect re-treat, Les-sons Love Di-vine.

Raising Ode, No. 5.
