The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

He shall pronounce the votes and decisions of the High Court on all subjects. His decisions on questions of order shall be without debate, unless, entertaining doubts on the point, he invites it; and he shall have the privilege of speaking only on such questions from the chair. When his decision has been appealed from, the question shall be put thus: "Will the High Court sustain the Chair in its decision?"

27. Every member, when he speaks or offers a motion, shall rise and respectfully address the Chair, state his name and rank, or give his name and the name and number of the Court that he represents. While speaking, he shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding all personalities or indecorous language, as well as any reflection upon the High Court or its members.

37. After any question, except one of indefinite postponement or the previous question, or one that the High Court has refused to reconsider, has been decided, any two members who voted on the prevailing side may, at the same or next session, move for a reconsideration thereof. No discussion of the main question shall be allowed until the question of reconsideration has been decided.

A beneficiary member having been expelled, may be reinstated to his former condition by being duly proposed therefor at a regular meeting of the Court from which he was expelled, his case referred to a committee who shall report at the next regular meeting, when a vote shall be taken by ball ballots, and if two-thirds of the beneficiary members present are in favor of reinstatement, it shall be referred to the High Chief Ranger and the Executive Committee for approval, and, if approved, he may again be admitted upon payment of all Insurance arrears and such dues as the Court may direct, and he must in all cases be re-examined and his medical application must be approved by the Medical Board.

33. A beneficiary member suspended for non-payment of dues, fines, Sick and Funeral Benefit Fees, assessments or Insurance premiums, can only be reinstated as provided for in the Insurance Law, but no member shall be entitled, by such reinstatement, to sick benefits for the term of sickness, if under suspension at the time when taken with such sickness.

34. No beneficiary member shall be considered in good standing in the Order unless he shall have paid all dues, fines, assessments and Insurance premiums, and Sick and Funeral Benefit Fees, if a member of the Sick and Funeral Benefit

CARDS.

35. Any beneficiary member of the Order, clear of all charges for which he may be tried and suspended, wishing to withdraw from his Court and join another, may apply for and receive a Card of Clearance therefrom, stating his rank in the Order, by paying all dues, Insurance premiums and Sick and Funeral Benefit Fees, providing he is a member of the Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch, for the time for which it is granted, and a brother receiving such Card shall deposit the same with a Court within whose jurisdiction he resides, but a member having received a Clearance Card shall be under the control and jurisdiction of the Court issuing the Card until it has been accepted by another Court. A member being unable to deposit his Card in another Court before it expires, may return it to the Court granting it and pay his fees and dues as usual, but the brother must return his Card within thirty days next after its expiration.

36. Any beneficiary member may at any time apply for and receive a Travelling Card from the Subordinate Court to which he belongs, he paying, at the same time, all Court dues, Insurance premiums and Sick and Funeral Benefit Fees, providing he is a member of the Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch, for the whole period for which such Card is granted. No Travelling or Clearance Card, however, shall be granted for a longer period than six months, but may be renewed from time to time upon payment of dues and Insurance premiums, and during the continuance of such Card the member holding the same shall be amenable to the laws of his Court and of the High Court.

37. A member wishing to withdraw from membership in the Order shall be entitled to and receive from the Court a Withdrawal Card, stating his rank in the Order and the reason why such Card is granted, but no Card shall be granted unless all dues, fines, assessments, Insurance premiums and Sick and Funeral Benefit Fees are paid to the date of its being applied for, and the brother clear of all charges for which he may be tried or suspended.

(9) It is provided, however, that any Subordinate Court may, by the adoption of a resolution to that effect, provide for the payment of any sum not exceeding the initiation fee as a bonus to any member for each beneficiary member secured by such member.

45. Any member, while on the funds of the Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch of the Order, acting in such a manner as to retard his recovery, shall, upon proof thereof, be deprived of his sick benefits for such a time as may be determined by the Executive Committee. (2) Should a member of the Sick and Funeral Benefit Branch be at any time incapacitated from transacting his business and not financially able to pay his Sick and Funeral Benefit fees, such fees shall be remitted by the High Court, and no brother shall be allowed to become in arrears for Sick and Funeral Benefits under such circumstances.

SPECIAL RELIEF.

47. Special relief may be granted from the funds of the Court by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting thereof, to any distressed brother in good standing, provided the sum voted does not exceed ten dollars at any one time.

FUNDS.

48. The general fund of a Court shall be composed of all moneys received on account of initiations, dues, fines and donations, and shall be applied in defraying the general expenses of the Court. A Court may by a two-thirds vote of the beneficiary members present at a regular meeting, after notice of motion at the meeting immediately preceding action thereon, order money to be paid from the said fund towards other objects of the Order, when it is shown to be clearly in the interests of the Court to authorize such expenditure.

49. The funds of a Court, having been raised for the relief of sick and distressed members and other charitable uses in the Order, are therefore trust funds for the benefit of its members, and shall not be divided in any manner among its members, individually, or between a Court and any other that may branch from it, without the assent of two-thirds of the members in good standing in the Court, which assent shall be ascertained by a vote by "Ayes" and "Nays" upon a roll call of the members, and upon a written proposition for the same, which shall be submitted and read in not less than two regular consecutive meetings next preceding that at

And, if the Court so approve, the Secretary must transmit the same to the Executive Committee for confirmation, and all funds and other property not so disposed of shall remain the property of the Court and its members. A Court shall not loan its funds on promissory notes or bonds of security.

50. Should a Court at any time surrender its Charter, such property as may be in their possession as may be fairly considered High Court property, (such as seals, regalia and books) shall be returned to the High Court.

51. Whenever a brother, from any cause whatever, ceases to be a member of the Court, his right, title and interest in the property or funds of the Court, or any part thereof, becomes extinguished, unless the same is founded in some legal instrument, whereby the same may be properly conveyed by deed, will or descent.

AMALGAMATION OF COURTS.

52. Any two or more Subordinate Courts desiring to do so may amalgamate, when in their opinion it may be to the interest of the Order for such Courts to do so. Such amalgamation shall be effected by each Court appointing a committee of three to arrange the terms therefor. The joint committee, if favorable to amalgamation, shall report the terms and conditions agreed upon to their respective Courts for adoption. If the Courts desiring to amalgamate agree to the terms and conditions proposed, and adopt the recommendations of the joint committee the same shall be reported to the High Chief Ranger, and if approved by him he shall issue a dispensation authorizing the amalgamation. The Courts shall meet in convention at the place and time appointed for the purpose of amalgamating, which shall take place under the supervision of the High Chief Ranger, or a Deputy appointed by him, who shall install the officers, and transmit to the High Secretary, the charters, dispensations and seals of the amalgamated Courts, except those of the Court under which they are to work. 53. No order for the payment of money shall be drawn without the vote of the Court being taken thereon, and a majority of the beneficiary members present vote in favor of the motion.

RETURNS.

54. Regular semi-annual returns shall be made on the first days of January and July in each year.

OFFICERS TO PREPARE RETURNS.

55. It shall be the duty of the Chief Ranger and Recording Secretary to prepare and forward to the High Secretary, on or before the 10th day of January and July in each year, a return on the prescribed form. Such return shall be accompanied by the sum of fifty cents for each beneficiary member in good standing; and should a Court fail to make such return for one year, it shall become liable to the forfeiture of its Charter, and its seal, books, regalia and papers shall be returned to the High Court.

INCORPORATION OF COURTS.

56. Any Subordinate Court may make application to the High Court for permission to become incorporated under the provisions of any Provincial or Territorial Statute or Ordinance authorizing the same, and the Trustees of such incorporated Courts shall have any and all powers as conveyed by the said Statutes or Ordinances.

BONDING OF OFFICERS.

57. (1) The Treasurer and Financial Secretary of each Subordinate Court shall each, before being installed into office, furnish a bond from a Guarantee Company approved of by the Executive Committee, for the faithful performance and discharge of the duties of their respective offices.

“ “ “ from 50 to 100	150 00
“ “ “ from 100 to 150	200 00
“ “ “ from 150 and upward	250 00

But any Court may increase the amount of either or both of said officers' bonds to such sum or sums as a majority of the members may by vote decide upon.

(3) The premiums for such bonds shall be at a rate of one per cent. per annum, and shall be paid by the Subordinate Courts, and must be remitted to the High Secretary with the January returns in each year.

(4) In the case of new Courts the Organizer shall require such bonds before the final institution of the Court, the premiums for same to be forwarded to the High Secretary with the Charter fees.

(5) All bonds shall run concurrently with the calendar year, and in the case of new Courts a pro rata amount for the unexpired portion of the calendar year shall be required.

(6) Where the cash in the Treasurer's hands is, or as soon as it becomes, in excess of the amount of the bond of the Treasurer, that officer shall hand over to the Trustees such sums as the Court may direct, not required for the current running expenses of the Court. This sum shall be deposited in some chartered bank, subject to withdrawal only on the order of the Court and the joint signatures of the Trustees and Chief Ranger. The Trustees shall give their personal joint bonds for the faithful discharge of their duties.

SUPPLIES MUST BE PURCHASED FROM HIGH COURT.

58. It shall be compulsory for all Subordinate Courts under the jurisdiction of the High Court to purchase their supplies from the High Court.

BY-LAWS AND APPROVAL OF SAME.

60. (1) A Court shall be competent to make, alter or amend such By-laws, Rules and Regulations from time to time as may be deemed expedient, if adopted by two-thirds of the beneficiary members present, after they have been read at two regular meetings immediately preceding action thereon; provided, always, they do not in any wise contravene the Constitution of the Order.

(2) The By-laws of the Court must be approved by the Laws Committee before they shall become law, and for that purpose two copies of the proposed By-laws shall be sent to the Laws Committee, through the High Secretary. And when the same shall have been approved, one copy thereof shall be filed with the High Secretary, and the other copy returned to the Court.

OFFENCES.

61. Any member of the Order who shall violate any of the principles of the Order, or offend against the Constitution, the By-laws or Rules of the Order, or who may be charged with drunkenness or with any act unbecoming a Forester, shall, after due trial, if found guilty, be reprimanded, suspended, or shall have his name submitted to the High Court for expulsion, as the majority of the Court may by ballot determine.

62. Drunkenness and habitual use of opium or other narcotics, being a violation of the Insurance Law, and the Certificate or Policy being issued on the express conditions of that Law, a death caused by the persistent indulgence therein annuls the Insurance; any brother who shall, after due trial, be convicted of such violation of the Law shall be reprimanded or suspended, and in case of suspension the name of the brother so suspended shall be immediately submitted to the High Chief Ranger for further action, and who may deal with the brother as the circumstances may fairly warrant. The High Chief Ranger may order the brother to be reinstated provided he shall be satisfied the offence will not be again committed, and upon the brother complying with the law governing reinstatements as per section 10 of Insurance Law.

63. Any member of the Court who shall improperly make known any of the private affairs of the Court shall be suspended from membership therein for a period not exceeding six months, and any member of the Arbitration Committee making known the action or vote of any member thereof in any trials, shall be suspended for not less than two nor more than six months. Members may be reinstated upon complying with the law governing re-instatements as per Section 10 of Insurance Law.

TRIALS.

64. (1) Every member shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offence involving reprimand, suspension (except for non-payment of Dues, Insurance Premiums or Sick Benefit Fees) or expulsion, and no member shall be put on trial unless the charges fully specifying the offence shall have been first submitted to the Court in writing, signed by a member of the Order, a copy of which, as in form "B," attested by the Court Seal, shall be furnished the accused by the Recording Secretary, either personally or by registered letter, so as to fully apprise him of the nature thereof and to enable him to prepare his defence.

(2) Such charge or charges shall be in the manner as in form "A," and referred to the Arbitration Committee of five members, to be chosen by ballot, three of whom shall be a quorum, and in case such committee or any member thereof shall be challenged for cause, such challenge shall be tried by the Court at the first meeting thereafter. The committee shall, after the expiration of seven clear days from the service of a copy of the charge upon the accused, or the mailing of such copy by registered letter to the last known residence or address of the accused as found in the books of the Court, proceed to summon the accused and the accuser, as in form "C," try the case, and recommend a penalty if the charge is proven. They shall keep full and complete minutes of their proceedings and the evidence produced in a book provided for that purpose, and shall forthwith report to the Court their decision as in form "D," and upon such report being received and adopted, the Court shall proceed to affix a penalty for the offence, and if a specific penalty be provided in the Constitution or the By-laws of the Court, the Chief Ranger shall enforce it, and notice thereof shall be given to the accused parties by the Recording Secretary of the Court, by either personal service or by registered letter, and if neither party

(3) If the accused refuse or neglect to stand trial when summoned to do so, the Arbitration Committee shall report him guilty of contempt of Court, and unless an excuse that shall be satisfactory is tendered to the Court for such absence at its first regular meeting thereafter, he shall be suspended indefinitely, and may be recommended to High Court for expulsion.

(4) When a member shall be subject to a penalty of reprimand, he shall be summoned to attend some regular meeting, to be fixed by the Chief Ranger, to be reprimanded from the Chief Ranger's chair. If he fails to appear at the time appointed, he shall, unless a satisfactory excuse be offered for his non-attendance, be suspended from all the benefits and privileges of membership until reinstated by complying with the demand of the Court.

(5) Notice of the suspension or expulsion of a member shall be mailed and registered by the Recording Secretary of the Court to the brother so suspended or expelled immediately after the decision has been so given, and a copy thereof sent the High Secretary.

(6) If an appeal be taken it shall be first to the High Chief Ranger, second to the Executive Committee, or direct to the High Court in the order named, through the Recording Secretary of the Court, who shall transmit a certified copy of the claims of the appellant, the grounds of appeal, together with a full copy of the charge or charges as preferred, the evidence taken, the decision thereon, and the penalty fixed by the Court.

(7) Should the charges upon such appeal again be sustained, the High Chief Ranger, the Executive Committee, or High Court acting upon such appeal, shall at once notify the parties, and the Subordinate Court shall inflict such penalty as the Subordinate Court or Appeal Court may fix.

65. (1) All charges against members of the Order shall be drawn in a clear and definite manner, as in Form "A," and must be submitted to the Court of which the accused is a member, and in duplicate, signed by a member in good standing in any Court in the Order. The charges shall state, as near as can be, the time, place and circumstances of the offence or offences.

(2) The Court shall, upon receiving such charge, choose, by ballot, a committee of five brethren (who may be singly, or as a whole, challenged for cause), and such challenge shall be decided by the Court. Three of such committee shall form a quorum, to whom the charges shall be referred. In selecting the committee, only one name shall be written upon the ballot, and the first selected shall be Convenor thereof.

(3) The Recording Secretary shall affix the seal of the Court on one copy of the charge and specifications, and certify to its correctness, substantially as in Form "B," and serve, or cause to be served upon the accused, either personally or by registered letter, such copy, at his last known place of residence. The Secretary shall also furnish the Convenor of the committee with a duplicate copy of such charge or charges upon which the brother is to be tried.

(4) The accused shall, within seven clear days from the receipt by him of such charge and specifications, serve his plea or answer to the same, upon the Convenor of the Committee.

(5) The Convenor of such Committee shall, upon receiving notice of the appointment thereof, duly summon the Committee to meet and try the charges as preferred, and, at the meeting, a Chairman and Secretary shall be selected from among their number, and the trial proceed by examination of the parties and witnesses in their behalf. Either party may amend their proceedings by leave of the Committee, and, in case of amendments to such pleas, an adjournment may be had by the opposite party, to enable the securing of attendance of necessary witnesses.

(6) Either party may appear in their own behalf or be represented by an attorney, who must be a member of the Order.
