MRS. ALLISON'S DAUGHTER A SENSATIONAL WITNESS IN BORDEN LIBEL TRIAL

Unexpectedly Appears, Swears Charges Are False, Then Admits and Denies Letters She'd Written.

TEARS UP PHOTOGRAPH AND DEFIES THE COURT

KENTVILLE, N. S., Oct. 12.—(Special.)—Interest in the trial of Sir Frederick Borden v. Carruthers is at fever heat. Every hotel is filled and private houses are harboring commercial men and others not lucky enough to order rooms in advance.

The defendant is charged by the minister of militia with criminal libel in having circulated, during an election campaign, copies of The Calgary Eye-Opener, containing fac similes of two letters in which Mrs. Maria Allison of Ottawa accused Sir Frederick of misconduct.

Back of the rail, in the doorways, in the ante-rooms, hallways, on window sills, clinging to wall mouldings, sat and stood the audience. Many came many miles to be present. If Sir Frederick's character is not, as Mr. Roscoe contends, a matter of public interest, it certainly is a matter interesting the public.

Mrs. Allison's Story. Mrs. Allison, whose two letters, printed in The Calgary Eye-Opener, caused the charges of libel to be made, was a witness this morning. The court was crowded.

To Mr. Ritchie Mrs. Allison said her daughter went to Montreal in June, 1894, a week after Sir Frederick left her house. In the interval she had had two conversations with him. Sir Frederick went to Montreal nearly every week after her daughter went to Montreal. An attempt to introduce the conversation at this time failed. A telegram from the daughter to Sir Frederick was not admitted, due notice that it was to be submitted not having been given.

Mrs. Allison said she had seen her daughter about four times in Montreal and since then, at an interval of seven years, she had seen her in September last in Baltimore. The daughter returned to her house over Sunday and searched for the telegram a week after she (Mrs. Allison) had found it. Here again an objection was raised.

The woman whose name was left blank with The Eye-Opener did live in Ottawa on the same street she lived on. She had seen Sir Frederick with her in a cab talking to him. The husband had made an awful row on the street when she came back to the house late at night. She had come back at half past two and had to help choose their candidate. "Out with the outsiders" was his slogan, and the meeting unanimously endorsed his view.

On the second point there was more difference of opinion. Dr. John Noble thought it would be unworkable. "Why do we have to take a personal part in choosing candidates for a convention with only the delegates there," he said. "What would it be like if 800 of the voters of No. 2 Ward descended on them?" But the association evidently considered that there were worse things than wolves to be feared if they did not take a personal part in choosing candidates for parliamentary honours, and so the resolution went thru.

The annual meeting of the second Ward Association will be held in Victoria Hall on Nov. 10.

REVISION COURT ASKED TO GO SLOWLY

Civic Legislation Committee Harkens to Protest of Yonge Street Merchants Against Soaring Assessment.

If the city council backs up the legislation committee, that august body, the court of revision, will be signalled to steam slowly ahead in the matter of confirming Yonge-street property assessments, while a special committee will enquire whether the Assessment Act is really to blame for what the retail merchants assert to be the dizzy heights reached by the assessors. If the act is found to be culpable, then the special committee will suggest amendments to remedy any grievances.

The committee came to these decisions after listening to a deputation of Yonge-street business men, who are members of the Retail Merchants' Association.

Ald. McMurrich was responsible for the idea of memorializing the court. Controller Ward, Ald. Maguire, Church and Anderson voted for it, and Ald. Keeler and Hilton against. The vote was the same on Mr. Church's inspiration as to the special committee to consist of Controller Ward, Ald. Maguire, Keeler and Church.

Mr. Trotter contended that the assessment was out of all reason, but said that Mr. Forman wasn't to blame, as he was only following the act. As to Ald. Keeler's suggestion that the court of revision was the proper place to go, Mr. Trotter replied that the merchants simply wanted the city to investigate to see whether values were too high, with a view to remedying them. Ald. Keeler objected that the city was being asked to prepare a case against itself, and Mr. Trotter retorted that all that was asked was the city's aid.

Next to Confiscation. John Willmot, past president of the association, declared that the high assessment was next to confiscation, and it made it impossible to remain on Yonge-street. He thought the assessment should be based on what a business could produce. Mr. Forman replied that it was necessary to have some fair rate, as a man in one line of business might do 50 per cent. less business than his neighbor.

Alive Bolard, the tobacconist, said his retail rate, as a man in one line of business might do 50 per cent. less business than his neighbor.

Mr. Forman said that the assessment was based on what a business could produce. Mr. Forman replied that it was necessary to have some fair rate, as a man in one line of business might do 50 per cent. less business than his neighbor.

There are streets in both the east and west ends where the assessment has increased 100 per cent and over," said the commissioner.

Ald. Maguire then asserted that if the city streets were assessed as they are now, there would be lines of vacant stores. This declaration was received with exclamations of "That's right," from the merchants, and with laughter from several aldermen.

Ward Seven Increases. The whole question hinged upon what was meant by speculative values, in Ald. Anderson's opinion. The present assessment was insufficient. He said that out in the seventh ward, 51-2 miles from the centre of the city, he was renting a property in a block of 1150 a foot, while this year it was $50 a foot, but the assessment had been accepted. He didn't believe in the city spending its money to help one body of citizens.

Ald. McMurrich suggested that a memorial be sent the court of revision, asking that body to give particular attention to the Yonge-street assessments. Ald. Keeler objected to "offering gratuitous advice to the court." He thought the commissioner fair enough to ask proper consideration. "Judging by the number in the deputation, there will be enough people to ask careful consideration," suggested the commissioner. He read out a statement to show that there was a wide difference between assessed values and what owners were asking. It ran:

Table with 2 columns: Address and Assessed Value. 159-91 Yonge-st. $250,000 $91,725; 88-90 Yonge-st. 250,000 146,000; 264-64 1-2 Yonge-st. 60,000 35,415; 392-2 1-2 Yonge-st. 150,000 58,175; S.W. cor Edward 100,000 66,774.

Prices Asked Speculative. Mr. Forman admitted that the prices asked were speculative, but contended that the figures showed the assessments were out of all reason. He remarked that the Gough Bros. property, bought by the T. Eaton Co. for a little more than $135,000, was assessed at $135,000. He said that it wasn't so much the assessment figures as the sudden increase that created a grievance, any laxity shown in making increases during past years had operated in favor of the merchants. This information showed that there might be a material increase in assessment without injustice.

HEARD ON THE STREET.

One paterfamilias speaking to another paterfamilias yesterday morning at 8, said: "I am dead tired this morning. I had to do my little girl's homework last night, and it took me till 10 o'clock. But it is great fun this homework; it makes one think I'm a schoolboy again. Of course my doing my little girl's homework doesn't help her much. But it pleases her teacher."

Ontario's Big Policy.

In the struggle for progressive government as against the mighty forces arrayed against it, the great Province of Ontario ought to lead the way, bear the torch before all Canadians.

Ontario is sovereign in many ways and she has illimitable resources, as well as a constantly growing income.

A hundred Ontario villages and towns can grow into cities, and the farmers of the province can have the finest home market in the world at their doors.

The great Canadian West will consume all that a hundred cities and towns of Ontario can manufacture.

But Ontario must have cheap power and she must have railways and more important still, cheaper and better railway accommodation.

The great corporations that are in Montreal would deny her both. They seek to destroy the Hydro-Electric Power policy and they refuse the railway accommodation that is needed.

They turn down every request for better railway facilities; they do not believe in suburban services or commutation tickets; they deny any kind of service to some places; they join together to exact the highest possible out of nearly all traffic. They have deeded, put the blight on all the towns from Kingston to Toronto on the lake front, with the single exception of Oshawa. These towns call in vain for better railway facilities.

What is the cure? Ontario must have a railway policy and a policy of state-owned roads. We have begun it in the north, let us try it in the south. If Sir James Whitney had only bought the Electrical-Development power system and its right of way, he would have played a master stroke equal to the purchase of the Suez Canal shares by the British Government. How it would have clinched the power scheme, given it a start-off that no one would have dared to check; it would have in one stroke laid the way for a government road from Toronto to the Niagara River and in five minutes after forced the Grand Trunk, the Canadian Pacific and the arrogant electric traction roads to change their attitude toward the people.

Mackenzie and Mann would have been glad to pay toll to run over such a line to the Niagara River! How Hamilton manufacturers would have appreciated it!

How easy it would have been to run an extension line from Toronto east to Whitby, Oshawa, Port Hope! There would then be no begging of The Grand Trunk to improve its line from here to North Bay, so as to hold the trade of our own province to the north for the people of the south!

How such a province-owned system would link up with municipal owned traction lines! How the farmers could gradually link up local lines to such a state system!

The public man of Ontario who comes out on these lines will be the greatest man Canada has yet produced! If Sir James Whitney does not want to be that man he might be willing to let him emerge. His name might be Mabec.

Whoever the man he will be the man with the club, and he will have the one club that means more for human headway and fair play for the people than any other thing or person.

Six Drown In a Wreck Off Point Pelee, Ont.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 12.—In the wreck of the steamer George Stone of Cleveland, Ohio, on Point Pelee, Ont., to-day, Upper Lake Erie added a gruesome chapter to the history of marine disasters on the great lakes. Six lives were lost and twelve were saved and the tail-end of the recent gale is to-night lashing a hopelessly disabled vessel, that was not insured and belonged to M. A. Brudley of Cleveland. The victims who lost their lives were Paul Howell and Peter Daley of Erie, Pa., who was a passenger and friend of the captain, and six members of the crew were capsized in the surf attempting to go ashore for assistance. Two of the crew clung to the overturned boat four hours, until they drifted ashore; six were drowned when the lifeboat capsized and the remaining ten members of the crew were taken off the wreck about noon by the steamer F. M. Osborne of Cleveland and brought to Detroit. The "Stone" left Ashabata Monday night, bound for a Lake Superior port with a load of coal.

EARL GREY TAKES FLING AT HIS CRITICS

Addressing Winnipeg Canadian Club, Denies That His Public Utterances Have Been Mispaced.

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 12.—(Special.)—Speaking before the Canadian Club to-day Earl Grey took occasion to refer to certain strictures that have been passed on him for his recent remarks at Calgary concerning naval defence. His excellency said in part: "Gentlemen, I must ask for your indulgence. I am in a somewhat embarrassing position. I have received warnings thru the press that I must abstain from uttering even a whisper on any political subject, for fear that I may be misreported. Even if I do succeed in ordering my conversation aright, I am warned that the ignorance of my countrymen may throw me down, and that, therefore, silence is golden. With these caveats ringing loudly in my ears what am I to do?"

"There is no subject affecting the well being of Canada that is not political. If I refer to the causes of your well being, if I urge you to have a 'vigilant regard to the courses of your national greatness, I shall be trespassing on forbidden ground. Well, I must do the best I can, and run the risk. For nearly five years I have endeavored, in my political utterances, to call the attention of the people to the importance of keeping before them high national and imperial ideals. For nearly five years I have, quite consciously of my constitutional limitations, walked the tight rope of platitudinous generalities, and I am not aware of having made any serious slip."

"His Majesty's Canadian government must appear to be very much of the same opinion, for they have paid me the usual compliment of printing, at the public cost, my answers to addresses and speeches which, inasmuch as they have dealt with politics, albeit in no controversial manner, shows that in their opinion I have not committed any constitutional offence. I will, therefore, assume that they and you desire me to continue as I have begun."

VICTIM OF AN INTRIGUE. Mr. Crane Will Carry His Case to the President.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—Charles R. Crane, minister designate to China, who has been invited to resign by the secretary of state for alleged indisposition to discuss Chinese matters, has put the matter before President Taft. He intimates that the state department neglected to give instructions as to what he should do. "I will, therefore, assume that they and you desire me to continue as I have begun."

For a long time Prof. Ferrer was an object of suspicion to the Spanish Government. He was an avowed Republican, and was classified as an anarchist. He opened a school in Barcelona, where he taught his principles to the pupils. He was also suspected of being one of a band of conspirators who plotted to overthrow the monarchy by armed revolution. In 1908 he was arrested and charged with complicity in the attempt on King Alfonso's life at the time of his marriage. He was tried, but acquitted, and continued at liberty in Barcelona, where Republicanism was rampant. Following the Barcelona riots, Ferrer was arrested on Sept. 11, 1909, and charged with having instigated the revolutionary uprising. He was sent before a court-martial for trial, a circumstance which lent color to the accusation that the Spanish Government was resolved to convict him. The proceedings were behind closed doors.

BARCELONA, Spain, Oct. 12.—Prof. Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish educator, and convicted revolutionist, was shot to-day at the fortress of Mont Juich, where he had been confined since his condemnation by court-martial. He faced the firing squad without flinching, and fell dead at the first volley. Ferrer, except for a momentary expression of emotion immediately preceding his death, retained his composure to the last.

His attorney, K. M. Malceran, who had defended the prisoner, had secured permission for a brief talk with the revolutionist before the latter was led to the ditch where he was to die. To his attorney Ferrer spoke feelingly of the work for which he had sacrificed his life, and of the future of his daughter, whose brave attempt to save his life touched the father more deeply than any other incident of his trial and conviction. On Ferrer's arrest his family was left dependent upon his daughter, who at once secured employment in a biscuit factory. The daughter made a personal appeal to King Alfonso to spare her father's life. When these facts were related by Malceran, Ferrer broke down. It was but a passing emotion, and presently the undaunted revolutionist was himself again.

Ferrer declined to receive the last sacraments and turned away from the two priests of the Order of the Peace and Charity, who had been sent by the prison authorities to offer him the final consolation of the church. When the hour of his execution arrived he walked bravely thru the prison yard to the ditch in the shadow of the encircling wall. Without a quiver he faced the 12 infantrymen who, at the word of command, fired a single shot. When the report of the volley will announce party convention for next year.

HEALIFAX, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—The speech to be delivered to-morrow evening by R. L. Borden, minister designate to the United States, will contain a great deal of interest in conservative circles. It is understood that he will announce a grand party convention for next year, and will also declare that the case of the next election will depend upon the interest shown by the convention.

Mr. Borden, it is stated, will adhere to the government defence resolution of last session, and to the plea that such a large expenditure will engender corruption. Mr. Borden will contend that healthy public opinion in Canada should obviate any such result.

LATEST CABINET RUMORS. Brodeur, Beland and Dandurand Are Mentioned in New "Shift."

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—The Hon. L. P. Brodeur, to be appointed to the supreme court bench, replacing Justice Groulx, retired, is succeeded by Hon. Brodeur in the cabinet.

The Hon. R. Dandurand, to be a minister without portfolio. This constituted the latest batch of political rumors as likely to become accomplished facts before the opening of parliament.

DEATH SENTENCE ON ONE GOVIN JURY DISAGREES

Italian to Be Hanged at North Bay Nov. 26—No Verdict in Second Murder Trial

NORTH BAY, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—Sam Spannelli, Italian, found guilty yesterday of fatally stabbing a Chinaman at Halesbury, was to-day sentenced by Justice Riddell to be hanged at North Bay on Nov. 26.

The jury in the case of Saul Gouin, charged with the murder of Carrie Russell near Cobalt, disagreed after two hours. Ten were for acquittal, one for manslaughter and one for murder.

Ethel Crawford, who had been living with the Russell woman in a shack in the woods, swore that Gouin had demanded $100 that was in the house and attacked them both with a hatchet. Russell died some months later in a Toronto hospital.

Evidence was introduced by the defence showing Gouin to have been an industrious man, of good character, and an effort was made to show that the girl's death might have resulted from other causes than the assault.

WANTS $12,000 FOR HIS WIFE Loses Her Affections and Sues a Fellow-townsman.

ORANGEVILLE, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—In the case of Walker v. C. P. R., the jury awarded Walker $1500, claiming that the C. P. R. was negligent in that the train was moving before all the passengers were off.

The case of Robert Kannawin, plaintiff, against W. J. Corbett, defendant, alleged alienation of wife's affections, was begun. Kannawin is asking $12,000 damages. J. L. Island, K.C., and Robert McKay, K.C., are acting for plaintiff and C. R. MacKeown, K.C., and Hartley Dewart, K.C., for Corbett.

Kannawin, cross-examined by Dewart, swore he had been a carpenter, earning good wages, but is now butchering for less wage. He had never rebuked his wife for going with any one but Corbett. He had been away all of 1907, but learned while away that Corbett was trying to win her affections, and came home and found Corbett with her. She had been away in the fall of 1908 for days. On two occasions he had found letters under the carpet in her room. He read them and returned them. More came. Finally he collected them all and kept them. He had tried to reason with his wife, had gone to Welland with her to get a job, to be away from Orangeville, but his wife did not want to go away. Once he saw Corbett drive up to the back door and take Mrs. Kannawin for a drive. He, with Mr. Holden, had found Corbett and Mrs. Kannawin in the grand stand at Idlewild Park one night last February. "Wit-ness had struck at Corbett and jumped on him, and had his wrist bitten. Mrs. Kannawin told him not to hurt "poor Billy." Witness afterwards ordered his wife from the house, but she replied that Corbett was not ready to take her, and that she would go when ready.

Witness saw his wife in Toronto last September, and went to an amusement resort with her. She wanted him to settle the suit, saying she thought Corbett would pay $2000.

Formerly he was employed as fireman on the Modjeska and Arabian.

Michael Boyle, 221 Hamilton-road, London, says he was robbed of $25 in a local hotel yesterday.

Judge Monck reserved judgment in the case of H. V. Pearman, agent of the Great Western Assurance Co., who sued W. H. Forster for $12,317, first premium on a policy. He claimed that Mr. Forster had made application over his own signature for the insurance, but Mr. Forster said he did not remember signing the application, and refused to pay.

10 ARMENIANS STOPPED BY IMMIGRATION SQUAD

Were Destined for the G.T.P. and Entrance to Canada Was Being Neatly "Worked."

HAMILTON, Oct. 13.—(Special.)—The immigration officers turned back ten Armenians who were being sent on to work on the Grand Trunk Pacific. The practice of importing foreign labor has been carried on for some time. The scheme is for the contractors to buy tickets from one United States point to another, and when passing thru Canada the foreigners are taken off the train and forwarded wherever wanted. The ten to-day had tickets from Buffalo to Detroit. Their game was to get off at Toronto and then hike north. The men were deported on the ground that they were unemployable. George Badak, 411 North James-st., a Hungarian, was severely injured this afternoon during blasting operations on the mountain by flying stones. He was taken to the city hospital.

The 40th annual meeting of the Friends and Infants' Home was held this afternoon. The institution has enjoyed a prosperous year. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Robert Evans, president; Mesdames R. J. Husband, J. H. Herring, R. A. Robertson, R. Hobson, W. C. Hawkins, vice-presidents; Mrs. George Valance, treasurer; Mrs. J. D. Ferguson, recording secretary; Mrs. J. Hindall, corresponding secretary. Reference was made to the fact that there was much difficulty in looking after the feeble-minded inmates, and the hope was expressed that the government would build a suitable home for them. Addresses were delivered by Adam Brown, Dr. Wickes, Rev. D. H. Drummond, Alex. Turner and Dr. O'Reilly. The disbursements amounted to $4309 and there is a surplus of $38.85. The home girls.

Says He's Not the Man. Arthur F. Zimmerman, arrested at the request of the Brooklyn, N. Y., police, on the charge of bigamy and afterwards released, denies the story from New York that he was known as Baron Von Lichtenstein and that he had six wives. Zimmerman says his uncle is the baron. When told that a Brooklyn detective was on his way here to arrest him, Zimmerman did not appear to be disturbed, claiming that there was but one woman who had any claim upon him. He admitted he knew Mrs. Hahl, who told the police that she was his second wife, but says she was married before she married him, and that her husband turned up afterwards. As to having written a letter to Mrs. Hahl, Zimmerman says he was ex-wife and announcing that he was about to marry a rich bride at Niagara Falls, Zimmerman enters a strenuous denial.

Magistrate Jelfs did not send Mrs. McCarthy and her young child to jail yesterday after all. After passing sentence upon her and giving her a scare he allowed her to go.

Eistner Fisher Dead. Eistner Fisher, ex-superintendent of the T. H. & B., died this morning at 10. He had undergone an operation for abscesses in the head. Cincinnati was his birthplace. For a time he served in the U. S. navy, but entered the service of the Pennsylvania Railway, afterwards joining the Michigan Central as trainmaster at Detroit. In 1897 he was appointed superintendent of the T. H. & B. He is survived by one son, Philip B. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, with interment in Detroit.

Pittsburg 8 Detroit 4

Note and Comment

If Pittsburg and Detroit go on taking games alternately, the Pirates are bound to win, because they landed the first, and the Tigers seem incapable of doing better than hang on. However, they guessed the flip of the coin, and after winning to-day have only to upset the program Saturday and win the seventh and the world's championship.

There were a lot of Detroit fans looking for Wagner last night, says the dispatch, claiming the mighty German had hit the ribs by Summers once and fell to the ground screaming, in what afterward proved to be mock agony. Every player on the Pittsburgh team came rushing up. Finally, leaning on at least four fearful fellows, the Dutchman was helped to first and stood on end. The crowd did not get a chance to see Wagner, who was not killed, and the game was then resumed, with Wagner dropping like a log from first a streak of white. The thrower was a fast and true, but Wagner, who was hit in the ribs, was not into the field also. Summers followed the flying Dutchman down the line, talking to him, however, in a deep regret that he had not killed him with that pitched ball.

Fergus and Bracebridge wind up the lacrosse season this afternoon at Scarborough Beach, and the weather would indicate that it's about time. They are playing the Junior C.L.A. final, starting at 7:30.

The organization of the Ontario section of the C.A.A.U. last night completes the work of the governing body as to provincial details. The newest section will take the form of an association, and will be organized as soon as the provincial registration committee is appointed.

They used to be little Lakeviewers, but now no more so. The new scale, this time with no less than twenty skeps, is still reliable, and the sport is getting to be a little extra of which would let them start business right away on the lake.

A difference having arisen between the differing pieces of fact, the competition for the Lou Scholtes Challenge Cup, the donor announces that the race must be flown from Berlin, and not Atlantic.

During the recent Belmont Park meeting 35 favorites out of 100 were successful. This excellent average shows that form is still reliable, and that the sport is getting to be a little extra of which would let them start business right away on the lake.

Johnson is favorite over Ketchel for his battle Saturday, the present odds being 10 to 4, but that is no reason why the black champion should win. On the other hand, Ketchel is twenty pounds lighter than Johnson, and there are many precedents in favor of the lighter fighter.

Fitzsimmons was under 100 pounds when he stopped Peter King, 30, in two fights, and won the title from James J. Corbett, at Carson City. The Cornishman was twenty pounds lighter than Tom Sharkey when he knocked that Tom out on Coney Island in quick time, and was forty pounds heavier than the night he knocked the daylight out of the clever Californian in New York.

Some people in business are ready yet to question our good sense in printing prices in our announcements—we've good and sufficient reasons, and we're backed up in them by the liveliest men in our trade-to-day the world over. Here are the reasons:

- 1- It is the up-to-date method of doing business—no body kept "in the dark" about prices.
2- We have proved it to be much more satisfactory to ourselves and to our prospective purchasers.
3- There is no good and consistent reason why a man, because he wants high class goods, should pay exorbitant prices to make up for bad debts and long-winded customers.
4- Our prices represent honest values, and we are not afraid of comparisons—that's why we do, and will, print prices—and here are a few of them:

- $23.50 For a very fine Black Cloth Morning Coat and Waistcoat.
$25.00 For a Suit of fine Scotch or English Tweed or Irish Blue Serge.
$38.50 For an Evening Dress Suit, all silk-lined and corded silk faced.

PIRATES TAKE THE FIFTH PITCHER SUMMERS WILD

DETROIT, Oct. 13.—Pittsburg took the lead in the battle today, being aided by the pitcher Summers, who pitched a gem, defeating Detroit 8 to 4 in the fifth game of the series at Forbes Field today. The Pirates, the National League champions, have the American League pennant. The series will shift to Detroit again to-morrow, where the sixth and possibly the last game of the series will be played. The commission to-day decided that a seventh game, if it is needed, will be played in Detroit.

Garry Herrmann flipped a coin, President G. Johnson of the American League won and chose Forbes Field. To-day's game was played with the thermometer hovering between 55 and 40 degrees above zero, a chilly wind from the southwest swept across the field. Despite the unattractive conditions, 27,000 people saw the game and the receipts were $22,173. Of this sum the National Commission receives $22,173; each club owner receives $100,000; each club owner receives $100,000; each club owner receives $100,000.

Summers is Wild. Davy Jones' home run gave Detroit a run in the first inning, but Pittsburg immediately tied the score, because Summers gave a base on balls with the bases full. A wild pitch by Summers allowed the second Pittsburgh run to score in the second inning and another came in the third. The score remained 3 to 1 in Pittsburgh's favor until the sixth, when Detroit bunched a single and a two-bagger and scored two runs. Then came Clark's home run in the seventh and gave the National League the commanding lead. Each team scored one more run in the eighth inning. The mighty Wagner had a bad day in the ninth, making two errors in five chances. As the bat he made one in five times up, but reached first three times. Cobb made only one hit, a single, to left in the sixth. After getting three balls and two strikes, D. Jones hit ball into centre field and home run. Bush walked, but Cobb flied to left. Summers' single to left sent Bush to third. Crawford stole second, but Deleahanty struck out and Mortarity popped to Abstein.

Pittsburg tied the score in its half of the first, Byrne hit by Bush and Leach. The Pittsburgh error was a single, which allowed the score to be tied. The mighty Wagner had a bad day in the ninth, making two errors in five chances. As the bat he made one in five times up, but reached first three times. Cobb made only one hit, a single, to left in the sixth. After getting three balls and two strikes, D. Jones hit ball into centre field and home run. Bush walked, but Cobb flied to left. Summers' single to left sent Bush to third. Crawford stole second, but Deleahanty struck out and Mortarity popped to Abstein.

A Home Run Gives Pirates Three. A home run by Manager Fred Clarke, which scored Byrne and Leach in front of the Pittsburgh error, gave Detroit a lead of two to one. Detroit had tied the score at 2 to 2 by striking out two in the sixth. Detroit led by a score of 3 to 2 at the end of the eighth, but neither came with anyone on bases. D. Jones, the first man up in the first inning, hit the ball into the enclosure which had been built around the outfield. The other Detroit home run in the eighth, Crawford's home run, nearly deprived Pittsburgh of the services of the brilliant pitcher, because of the brilliant play of Tommy Leach. Leach's chase to Crawford's long hit, and while running back towards a good clip he struck the pitcher's head first, and the impact of his body smashed the boards and he shot over the backstop. Presently, however, he returned to his place in the field, apparently with no recollection of his spectacular mishap.

Charles Adams, the phenomenal youngster, who pitched the seventh inning, delivered a gem, but he was lucky in allowing the losers four runs. Adams pitched two home runs, two singles, two two-baggers and two singles, while Summers was hit safely ten times, including one home run and one double. Gibson Scores on Wild Pitch. The winners added another to their total in the second. Gibson beat out a hit to Bush and Adams sacrificed. Summers, Deleahanty, Deleahanty made a wonderful one-handed score by Byrne's fast ground and threw him out to Jones, Gibson and Adams.

Money Coming to Mr. McCaffery. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 13.—The National Commission at a meeting this afternoon wired Charles Murphy of the Chicago Club that they would give it until Sunday next to make good the fine of $500 the Chicago Club was fined for tampering with Pitcher Pfeffer of Toronto. The message was sent to them at 5 p.m. and at 7 p.m. Chairman Herrmann received a reply by wire to the effect that the cheque for the amount had been mailed. This, of course, will close a dispute that a warning was sent the Chicago manager that in the future should any more trouble occur a heavy fine would be placed. The commission also took up the story published this morning in a local paper which says the game was being judged for box office receipts. The proprietor of the paper was at the meeting and he notified the commission that the paper would publish an editorial refuting the story.

FATAL BOILER EXPLOSION. NEWCASTLE, Eng., Oct. 13.—A boiler explosion occurred this afternoon at the Turkish Bath Hotel, by which Arthur Ouellette, an employe, was instantly killed, and Charlie Binks, colored, severely injured. The plug in the boiler blew out, fire having been in the boiler with no water in the pipes.

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE. Hon. L. P. Broder denies any intention of retiring from the cabinet to go on the Quebec bench. U. S. Senator Chauncey Depew, back from Europe, says he would be surprised to see Britain and Germany war any day now.

Score on Pilgrims Soccer Tourists Win at Trenton

TRIDENTON, N.J., Oct. 13.—For the first time since their arrival in this country the Pilgrims of England, crippled by the absence of T. T. Pichie, the Woolwich Arsenal star, were scored against in the sixth match of their tour contested against the pick of Trenton Association football players. The former finally won by the narrow margin of 2 goals to 1, and had the hardest sort of fight on their hands. The Canadians, Liberals and Lacoy club furnished most of the players on the Trenton team. A. K. Campbell of Southampton, who hitherto has figured among the half-backs, moved up among the Pilgrim forwards in Mitchell's place at inside left, while W. Stanger filled in for Campbell. Pichie suffered from a slight lameness and Capt. Milnes decided to save for some of the hard games expected in the west.

C. C. Donaghy of the Caledonian eleven elected to play. Donaghy took the ball on the first goal against the Pilgrims. This was accomplished after fifteen minutes of play. Donaghy took the ball on a pass from J. Plant at outside right, passed the English backs and sent the ball into the goal. A redoubtable Lennox later worked the ball up from the centre and the entire Trenton defence in clever fashion.

The second period was remarkable for the stubbornness of the defence put up by the Trenton players. Not until the last five minutes of play were the Pilgrims able to score again. Then it was Brown-Slim, inside right, who scored. The Pilgrims net. Fifteen minutes before the end of the game, Lennox worked the ball up from the centre and the entire Trenton defence in clever fashion.

EXECUTION MAY COST ALFONSO HIS THRONE

had died away Ferrer was dead upon the ground.
Previous to the execution precautions had been taken to forestall a possible attempt at rescue by doubling the sentinels upon the walls of the fortress.

"POLITICAL CANNIBALISM."

PARIS, Oct. 13.—The news of the execution of Ferrer at Sarceleville created a tremendous sensation when printed here to-day. The newspapers issued extra editions with glaring headlines, some of them expressing the belief that King Alfonso had compromised his future by failing to inter-
Interviews printed show that many persons prominent in the scientific and political world, are bold in their opinion that the day's events in Spain. A member of the institute said that he was stupefied at the execution, which he characterized as an act of political cannibalism.

ALFONSO'S DEATH WARRANT.

BRUSSELS, Oct. 13.—Le Peuple, a socialist organ, announced the death of Ferrer in a special edition to-day. Editorial was hastened by the fact that the paper stated: "The awful news will unchain a tempest. We fear that in refusing to stop the execution Alfonso has signed his own death warrant."

FEARED POPE'S INTERFERENCE.

ROME, Oct. 13.—It is believed here that the execution of Ferrer at Sarceleville was hastened by the fear that the Pope would intervene. According to this theory, the Spanish authorities wished to prevent their intervention being placed in a position where he might grant or refuse a papal request for pardon.

THE TOLSTOI OF SPAIN.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The News said editorially to-day: "If Prof. Ferrer, one of the noblest and most useful men in all Europe, and worthy to be called the Tolstoi of Spain, is murdered after a most trial, the civilized world will suffer an unspeakable humiliation."

DISORDERS IN PARIS.

PARIS, Oct. 13.—Ten thousand men headed by M. Jaurès, the leader of the socialists in the chamber of deputies, to-night appeared at the Spanish embassy, where it is expected to hold a demonstration against the execution of M. Ferrer. The police resisted the crowd after a sharp scuffle. The mob bellowed with shouts of "down with Alfonso," "down with Maurin."
Later the faculty element reformed in the vicinity of the embassy and tore up lamp posts, trees and benches and erected a barricade. The rioters then burning three automobiles. M. Lepine, the prefect of police, arrived with reinforcements and was received with a volley of shots. The rioters charge back, using the rioters' food and stormed the barricade. The police arrested a gregarious Spanish anarchist, Emmanuel Delort, who admits having fired at M. Lepine.
Another demonstration of anarchists took place at Cléry, in the outskirts of Paris. There were numerous demonstrations throughout the provinces, and the departmental council of Beuchamps.

APPEALED TO THE POPE.

ROME, Oct. 13.—To-night there was a serious demonstration of protest against the Spanish Government. The police and army succeeded in maintaining comparative order and prevented the approach of the demonstrators to the square where the Spanish embassy stands. It is reported that a few days ago Ferrer's daughter telegraphed to the Pope from Paris, asking his intervention to save her father's life. The pontiff was deeply moved and exclaimed: "Poor child! if I could succeed in softening the grief of her afflicted soul, it would be a great consolation to me."

OPPOSE NAVAL POLICY

Young Quebec Conservatives May Urge It on Bordeh.

MONTREAL, Oct. 13. (Special.)

The Montreal correspondent of L'Action Sociale of Quebec, who is generally well informed on political matters, says: "The news that the government will at the coming session vote large amounts for naval defence has created a great deal of interest in both political parties. I am informed that an important group of Montreal Conservatives and especially the young men of the party have formed a pact with a view to bringing pressure upon their leader, R. L. Borden, so that he shall not support the government policy of imperialism."
Mr. Borden is expected to declare the party's naval policy at Halifax to-morrow night.

SIRING FOR IRON WORKS RAILWAYS ARE TO SHARE

Dominion Commissioners Dispose of Number of Miner Applications at City Hall

At the meeting of the board of railway commissioners for Canada in the city hall yesterday, Chairman Mabey ordered that the matter of a siding to the National Iron Works property in Ashbridge's Bay marsh be put thru at once. The C.P.R. and G.T.R. will have equal rights on the siding.

The Hamilton Electric Radial Railway Co. were ordered to fulfil an agreement with Herbert J. Dymms, which they were to construct a suitable crossing on his property in the Township of Nelson.
The Grand Trunk obtained leave to appeal to the Supreme Court against the order of the board directing the establishment of a station at Vine-laridge.

After luncheon Mr. Cowan for the Grand Trunk asked the board to rescind an order directing the company to squire a night watchman at Wellington-street, Hamilton. He contended that the traffic there did not warrant the placing of a watchman on the crossing. Judge Mabey concurred.
The Township of Colchester North was unable to come to an agreement with the M.C.R. over the width of a culvert. The chairman ordered the engineers of the board to settle the matter.

When the Grand Valley Electric road requested permission to run a double track across the G.T.R. at Brantford, Mr. Cowan raised several objections. He suggested that the single track was sufficient, but should the board grant the petition, he submitted that crossing should have an interlocking system with details on the board granted the application, directing that the engineer should investigate.

When the C.P.R. made application to make alterations in their interlocking system on Richmond-street, London, Ont., a joint argument ensued between the opposing lawyers. The street railway complained that they had spent much money in the past and they had borne the whole burden of the expense of the interlocking. J. W. Leonard placed the facts concerning the C.P.R. before the board. Judgment was deferred till to-day.

YONGE STREET VALUES.

Editor World: I'd like to pay the taxes on Yonge-street property. In much as it has more than doubled in two or three years—some of it quadrupled in that time. True, it has raised rents; rents come out of the people who do business on that street. The real estate on the facts is that the owners of these properties (not the lessees) ought to be taxed even more than they are, in order to make them contribute to the public, who really benefit the unearned increment that the owner has the good fortune to fall into.

BREDIN'S 'High Bakers' FOR TOASTING

All breads may be good breads, but all breads do not make good toast.

Bredin's "high bakers" loaf is the ideal toasting bread—light, sensitive to the heat contact, taking nicely to the browning—and has the richest of the nutty wheat flavor.

It's a 20-ounce loaf, too. 5 cents.

Ask the "driver" for a "high bakers" for toasting next time he makes a call.

MRS. ALLISON'S DAUGHTER

she had arrived in town in the morning. Last night she had spent in an hotel some miles from Kentville. She did not know what the name of the place was. She could not say when she arrived in Yarmouth. Four years ago she had an enlargement of the head, and her memory was bad since. Mr. Wickwire had seen her at Kentville and Baltimore, Md., but had not asked her single question about the evidence she would give. He had advanced $75 for expenses. Asked if she had not afterwards she said she might have seen him, but her memory was very bad.

She had stayed at Miss Ellen Williams' as a guest. She did not see him after that. She had stayed at Madame Clements' for a month. She had been in Boston in 1896, about a month or six weeks, with a lady in a carriage. She had stayed at the Stanley House, Montreal. She spent a year at Jacksonville, Fla.

Says Letter is Untrue.

A letter from Miss Chalefour to her mother was read by Miss Chalefour, who started to read it thru. She said every page was written by her, but that the statements were untrue. Another letter was written by her, and still another. She said she had done everything in her power to get her mother down south. Three or four more letters were produced and identified.

"Are you in the habit of lying when you are not on your oath?" asked counsel.
"Yes, especially to my mother. I would lie to beat the band. If you knew my mother you wouldn't wonder," said the witness.
Then she went on: "Not one of these letters was written by me. Every time I said a letter was mine, I told a lie, and I told it under oath. I never wrote such trash. My signature is always on my letters, and I acknowledge no letter without it."

She ended by flinging the papers to the floor. She said she had sworn that she had not written them. To Judge Drysdale she recalled her statement that she had lied.

Betrayed by Postmark.

"Do you notice the postmark is Jacksonville?"

"It looks like that, don't it?" was the reply.
"I was there at that time. The letter is not in my handwriting."
Each successive letter was reproduced in turn. Miss Chalefour said she had been in New Orleans before she had Jacksonville. She first said she was there a year, then she said it was Louisiana. A letter produced was disowned. She said she had written the writing looked like her own.

"I don't want to get you into trouble," said Mr. Ritchie.
"You need not worry about getting me into trouble," was the reply.
At this point a jurymen left the room, and proceedings were held up for a quarter of an hour. During the interval Miss Chalefour called Mr. Wickwire to her, and talked to him.

A bill for nursing, in which a charge of $20 for dress making was included, was read. Miss Chalefour jumped up and secured it. She said the doctor did not know what was the matter with her. She had had a bad regular trouble of the heart, and peritonitis. She was swollen up in July and August, and the doctors did not know what ailed her.

With alternate smiles and gestures of defiance she repudiated the letters which were in turn introduced and filed.
Witness said she was in Crowley, near New Orleans, two years ago. She swore she wasn't in Crowley on the 26th of April, in spite of a letter exhibited.

A photograph of the witness, exhibited in the morning, was handed to the witness. It was taken by Wm. W. before she could be prevented from doing so.

"I'm not going to have my mother have my photo," she cried.
Everybody gazed in wonder at the deed, the offence being a breach of the rules. Miss Chalefour was not repentant, when Judge Drysdale told her of the enormity of the offence of destroying court exhibits. She must act differently, he said, or he would have to send her below.

"I hardly know what to do with you," said his lordship.
"If it is not on trial," said Miss Chalefour, rising to her feet in anger. "I am here to give evidence, gentlemen," she said, stretching out her arms. "I feel to see why my private letters have been brought to court and given to the public."
"I have sworn on oath that Sir Frederick's letter to you was not written by me," she said.

"What you have sworn to have been lies," said Mr. Ritchie.
"Yes, they are," she said.
Sir Frederick Borden arrived in town to-day and went to his solicitor's office. He has not yet appeared in court.

COURSE FOR NURSES

In Connection With Provincial Hospitals For Mental Diseases.

Hon. W. J. Hanna, provincial secretary, is becoming more versatile every day, and is now emerging as a squire of dames. His latest innovation is a "nursery," or to be more correct, the minister has established a course of training for nurses in connection with the provincial hospitals for mental diseases.

The applicants must be between 21 and 30 years of age, of average height and good physique. A clergyman's endorsement is required on admission, and successful applicants must serve two months' probation.

Comparatively reasonable remuneration is offered to pupils. Those in the first year will receive $12 per month, second year, $14 per month, and after the second year $15 per month during the remainder of the course.

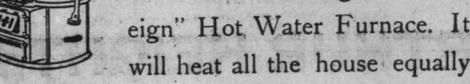

This is one more attempt on the part of Hon. Mr. Hanna to have the provincial hospitals recognized by similar institutions through the continent as foremost in the line of scientific progress and organization.

A Suggestion.

It's Not Too Late For Hot Water Heating

Review the discomforts of last winter and resolve upon new plans to-day. There is plenty of time for installing a "Sovereign" Hot Water Furnace. It will heat all the house equally and comfortably, and supply abundance of hot water for the bath and kitchen. And next spring, if you wish to sell your house, the "Sovereign" will bring a ready purchaser.

FOY NAMES J. E. ROGERS FOR PROVINCIAL CHIEF

Officer of Old Regime Secures Appointment—Whole Force to Be Reorganized

After a delay of over six months Hon. J. J. Foy, attorney-general, yesterday announced the details of the reorganization of the provincial police force. Joseph P. Rogers, senior inspector, has been made superintendent, at a salary which will later be determined by the cabinet.

Inspector of criminal investigation, Geo. Caldwell, inspector of the north-west division, and William H. Blains, inspector of the southern division, are in charge of the force, which is now composed of sixty-four men. Men are stationed at Niagara Falls, Windsor, Sarnia, North Bay, Bala, Parry Sound, Sudbury, points on the 600 branch of the C.P.R., on Manitowish Island and the north shore of Lake Superior, Fort William, Port Arthur, Kenora, Rainy River, Fort Frances and Cobalt.

Under One Department.

When making the announcement yesterday Hon. Mr. Foy said that heretofore the responsibility of placing men at different points had been upon the shoulders of the riding. He did not think this was a good plan and desired a number of men, which would cooperate with the fisheries and license branches when necessary. It was intended to be a consolidation and would result in reorganization and would result in the work of the department being done with more method.

"At the present time," he remarked, "we are flooded with applications from men who expect an increase in the force."

Joseph E. Rogers, the newly appointed superintendent, has been connected with police work all his life. Born in Barrie in 1855, his father was chief constable of the County of Simcoe. Mr. Rogers entered police work in 1890 as local constable. In 1894 he entered the service of the Ontario Government during the regime of the late Sir Oliver Mowat, and served successively under Hon. A. S. Hardy, Hon. J. M. O'Brien, Hon. Frank Latchford and Hon. J. J. Foy, the present attorney-general.

Among some of the cases with which Mr. Rogers has been connected are the Sarnia dynamite, Day murder at Niagara Falls, McLaughlin fires, Brigatone counterfeiter, Lambton counterfeiter and the Tilbury murder case. Mr. Rogers also claims credit for original framing of a number of bills in the legislature, a few of which are the act to regulate circuses and traveling shows, the act to license moving picture shows, the act to license private detective agencies and prevent blackmail.

The reorganization will not affect the standing of the license branch or of the fisheries and game protection officers.

Elaborate Regulations. An elaborate set of regulations have been provided, which are quite general in nature, except that the attorney-general will take no chance on the so-called "untrustfulness" of the member of the force shall drink or smoke while in uniform or when on duty. All fees are to be remitted to the superintendent.

Rule 45 says that "every member joining the force must be possessed of a respectable set of clothing." Officers are enjoined under severe penalty from accepting any gratuity, present or reward from any person for services rendered by him in the discharge of his duty, unless the superintendent gives permission.

Rule 24 says that "untrustfulness is a grave disqualification." To prevent being charged with constabulary must keep in a memorandum book a record of the events connected with his official career.

Woman's Suffrage in New York. NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Equal

Franchise Society, announced to-night that the society has engaged the Garden Theatre in this city and arranged for a series of meetings at which Bishop McVicar of Rhode Island, Everett Colby of New Jersey and perhaps Martin W. Littleton will speak in defence of woman suffrage.

RELEASED BY WIRE.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Oct. 13. (Special.)—James Barry Finn, charged with selling western lands under false pretences, was released from jail to-night on a writ from the attorney-general of Alberta.

CITY OF PORT ARTHUR

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 3.—The Atikokan Iron Company have solved the treatment of hard, sulphurous ores, so that they can be converted into a high quality of commercial iron at as low a cost as iron can be manufactured at any place in Canada.

This statement is made on the authority of Hugh Sutherland, the executive agent of the Canadian Northern Railway.

The solution of the problem is the greatest thing that ever happened for the industrial future of Port Arthur. It means that this city will become a great iron manufacturing centre. The supply of ore is inexhaustible, and can now be manufactured here as cheaply as in Nova Scotia. This means factories to make agricultural implements, structural steel, bar iron, nails, wire, etc. With electric power at $17 to $14 per horsepower, the industrial future of Port Arthur is now assured.

PRINCE ARTHUR HEIGHTS

The sale of lots in Prince Arthur Heights has been successful beyond our expectations, not only in the number of sales, but in the high character of the purchasers.

The "Heights" consist of a plateau overlooking the City of Port Arthur and the beautiful panorama of Thunder Bay. It will have the street car service within a year. The telephone wires are already there. Some excellent lots are still available at

$100 PER LOT

One-third cash, one-third in one year, one-third in two years.

The real estate values of Port Arthur are supported by the national significance of the location. The Twin Cities are the converging point of three transcontinental lines of railway. The greatest grain elevators of the world are there. It is the "Silver Gateway to the Golden West."

Already the combined population exceeds 32,000. At the same rate of growth the population will exceed 100,000 in ten years. Here are some of the points to be noted: Rapid growth. National location. Busiest ports on great lakes. World's greatest elevators. Three transcontinental railways. Head of inland navigation. Half million dollar hotel. Fine street car system, sewerage, fine water, telephones and all modern conveniences. Iron smelters. Shipbuilding yards. Logical centre of great woodworking industries. Cheap electrical energy. Daily newspapers. Unlimited bodies of iron ore available. Fine agricultural lands coming under cultivation.

The Twin Cities have a great future as sure as Canada has a great future. To doubt the city is to doubt the nation. As real estate dealers of standing, we have stated that we believe within two years these lots will be worth $300 to $1000 each. All the conditions that give rapid increase in values to urban real estate exist here. The lots are within 10 minutes' car ride of the business section of the city.

Send for applications and booklet on Port Arthur to-day.

BARRIE GETS HIS DIVORCE

Wife Admitted That Her Love Was Given to Another.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—James M. Barrie, the novelist and playwright, was today granted a divorce from his wife on the grounds of the latter's misconduct with Gilbert Cannan, a young author. The suit was not defended. Barrie himself took the witness stand, and said that in 1908 he permitted the respondent the use of a cottage which the novelist owned at Farnham. Matters first came to his ears from the servants, and his wife admitted their truth. Barrie said that he offered to forgive the offences on the condition that the defendant should break off her acquaintance with Cannan. He also said that he consented to an agreement of separation. Both these offers were refused by Mrs. Barrie, who pleaded with her husband to set her free, declaring that Cannan was the only man in the world for her.

EVANS JURY DISAGREES

Judge Winchester Lets Prisoner Out on His Own Bail.

The jury in the case of Arthur Evans, charged with furious driving and running down two children of Cottingham street school, disagreed. Judge Winchester expressed surprise that the prisoner had been unable to secure bail. "It is a shame that you should have been forced to spend 23 days in jail, and I am now going to let you out on your own bail. Try and be a good boy in the meantime."

CANADIAN FRUIT IN LONDON

But Excelsior Should Be Used for the Packing.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—(C. A. P.)—The Ontario Government exhibit of agricultural produce arrived in splendid condition, especially the peaches, which the Covent Garden fruit dealers, having seen, think there is a good market for in London. The only fault they found was with the packing, and they suggested the use of excelsior to prevent bruising of the fruit, cotton batting being conducive to too much warmth. N. B. Colcock leaves for Canada Nov. 1, remaining two months. Joe Clark will have charge of the Ontario office during the absence of Colcock.

Two Parishes Combine.

Arrangements for the amalgamation of the Anglican parishes of St. George and St. Margaret have been completed. Rev. R. J. Moore, M.A., rector of St. Margaret's, will assume the duties of vicar on November 1. Rev. Canon Cayley, D.D., of St. George's, will retain the title of rector but the responsibility for the services and work of the parish will be carried on by Mr. Moore. The farewell services will be held in St. Margaret's on the last Sunday of this month.

The memorial brasses and the memorial stained glass windows in St. Margaret's will be re-erected in St. George's. The rest of the furniture will be distributed.

Lectures on Shakespeare.

Edward Howard Griggs, so well known in Toronto as a lecturer on literary and critical subjects, will begin a new course of nine lectures on Shakespeare on Nov. 9. The subjects Mr. Griggs will treat are: "The Humanity of Shakespeare," "The Early Aspect," illustrated from "A Midsummer Night's Dream," "The Ethical Awakening," "The Merchant of Venice," "The Individual and the State," by "Julius Caesar," "World-Fores and the Individual," by "Antony and Cleopatra," "Facing the Mystery," by "Hamlet," "The Tragedy of Love and Jealousy," by "Othello," "The Tragedy of Ambition," by "Macbeth," and "The Final Act," by "The Tempest." The lectures will be given at intervals in Association Hall.

CITY OF BRANDON

SECOND CITY OF MANITOBA.

ONE OF THE WORLD'S GREAT WHEAT MARKETS.

In connection with the sale of lots in Kensington Park, Brandon, Man., we have endeavored to give the fullest information.

Man was evidently not made perfect, for in the compilation of our advertising copy something was still wanting. A Hamilton gentleman writes to ask us several reasonable questions, as follows:

What taxes do I have to pay, and when do I start to pay them?

Do I pay for the deed and registration?

Do you guarantee the lots good land, on which houses can be erected?

THIS IS OUR REPLY

Your taxes this year will be 25 cents on each lot. Not a very serious matter, is it? You pay this year's taxes, and whatever they may be in future as a matter of course.

You also pay $2.50 for deed and registration. That and the nominal tax constitute your sole outlay over the purchase price.

We guarantee the lot good land, suitable for building, or no sale.

We offer you for a limited period, lots in Kensington Park, right inside the limits of Brandon, for

SIXTY DOLLARS

One-third cash, one-third in three months, one-third in six months.

Seven per cent. off for cash.

No interest charged.

The lots are 25 x 120 to a 20-foot lane.

They are located within easy walk of the City Hall, on fine rolling, naturally-drained land. No filling in will have to be done. We are giving you more than value for every dollar of your investment.

We refer you to J. Walter Curry, K.C., trustee, in reference to the absolute accuracy of our representations.

Send for folder on "Facts About Brandon."

ORIENTAL LABOR WOULD HURRY
COMPLETION OF G. T. P.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—(C.A.P.)—Sir Chas. Rivers-Wilson said, in regard to the position at the Prince Rupert end of the line, that everything practically hinged upon the supply of labor. The early completion of the road means much to the province, and the temporary employment of three or four thousand Asiatics would save two or three years. Their introduction would displace a single native Canadian. When their contracts ended they would be taken back to the orient.

Wall Street Issues Rebound But Ease at the Close

Bears Unsuccessfully Seek To Bring About Further Liquidation—Local Market Subjected to Pressure.

World Office, Wednesday Evening, Oct. 13.—A little pressure of sales here and there was noted in the dealings at the Toronto Stock Exchange to-day, while elsewhere support rallied prices somewhat from yesterday's low figures. Northern Navigation and Toronto Electric fell in price, the former on three small sales.

Toronto Electric was more freely put out and quotations dropped two points. The city's aggressive action in the electric light question is more than likely responsible for holders being willing to sell out this stock.

Coal and Steel are still being kept well to the front in Montreal, but the former shows much more resilience than Steel, and is being bought more for its intrinsic value than for its speculative possibilities.

Tractions are exceedingly quiet and are subjected to price-takers. Toronto and Twin City sold lower to-day, but the foreign issues maintained their prices. Rio was well bought at 90 and closed with the stock wanted at that price.

Mexicans were quiet and substantial bidding is being made for Mexican Trams.

Accumulating operations in Mexican L. and P. have taken the form of stock offerings and this may be successful in bringing out a small supply of the shares.

The speculative side of the market is not attractive to traders and business faces the exchange until sentiment undergoes a change.

Wall Street Pointers.

Jay Gould, son of George Gould, elected a director of Washash yesterday.

The loaning rate on American stocks in London is 4 1/2 per cent, but banks lending to the stock exchange at 2 1/2 per cent.

Federal government loses Panama Canal bid suit.

The Pennsylvania Railroad directors, at their meeting to-day, took no action regarding their financing plan.

International and Great Northern receivership expected to terminate this month.

Net earnings for American Sugar for this year expected to be rather below those of 1908.

Australian wool clip will be largest on record.

Cables received by prominent international banking houses intimate a strong possibility of the Bank of England governors reducing the minimum rate of discount a full one per cent to four per cent.

Lawson out with a statement showing he knows of an order of 600,000 shares of Steel for sale in a certain house in New York, and they have to sell the stock privately. This stock was bought on paper profits of Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, which has been taken.

Joseph says: Marketwise we may look for rallies to follow early feverishness. Later traders will sell on the apprehension that a further rise in the rate of England rate of discount will take place to-morrow; this, however, is unlikely. Buy on slumps and sell on jumps. Don't be afraid to take quick profits.

Atchison, Car Foundry, Southern Pacific, Pennsylvania, Rock Island preferred and Steel preferred, as far as the pathwise with heaviest temporarily, but we would seek buying opportunities in them during weakness after reactions. Central is still sold by professionals.—Financial Bulletin.

Earnings Western Union for year ending June 30, gain of $2,944,110 over previous year.

Union Pacific stockholders meeting yesterday developed the election of William Rockefeller, Henry W. DeForest and Jacob H. Schiff, in place of William Hall, W. D. Corning and E. H. Harriman.

Irregularity will continue until the Steel liquidation runs its course, which, however, seems to be near at hand. We would continue to buy this stock on a scale down, as about the best proposition the market affords, with the idea that before the up movement is resumed the decline might possibly run a half dozen points further.—Town Topics.

Under the influence of lower prices from abroad our market opened heavy and during the first quarter hour sold off 1-4 to 3-4 per cent, but there was apparently much less pressure to sell than heretofore and the market soon steadied. The short interest has been largely increased of late, and the technical position of the speculation is better from that consideration.

R. E. Lyman & Co. wired R. B. Holden:

"It looks to us as if there were a great many shorts yet to cover through the active list. We expect to see plenty of support and there probably will be aggressive operations against shorts."
