Plummer at a convention of osteopaths here yesterday in an address on "effect of planetary influences," said that he believed that the position of the planets at the time a human being was born would have to be considered in the diagnosis by doctors of any case which came under their notice.

He said that he had some misgiving in taking the stand he did, that what he believed was not osteopathy, that he knew it was extremely radical, that it would be considered unscientific, an exploded theory, but he did believe that the old science of astrology linked up with the theories of blood reaction showed that radio activity of the blood showed clearly the correct diagnosis.

WHY NOT JOIN ME, SAYS NORRIS

Manitoba Premier to Farmers at Closing Rally

Winnipeg, July 15.—(Canadian Press)—If the farmers of Manitoba want responsible government, why don't they join with me? asked Premier Norris at the final Liberal rally here last night, at which he declared there was no possibility of the United Farmers and the Liberals getting together because the Winnipeg Progressive party was opposed to the income tax and legislation that had been passed for the benefit of the farmers.

The premier wound up a campaign of six weeks, and will now rest until the election on next Tuesday.

While Premier Norris was defending his seven years' administration and emphasizing the progressiveness of his legislation, the Conservatives were attacking the newly-formed Winnipeg Progressive party at a party rally.

Colonel Arthur Sullivan, Conservative candidate, charged that R. W. Craig, K. C., former Conservative supporter, was a "political renegade and an ingrate" and that J. H. Ashdown, formerly a strong Liberal, had organized the Progressives in an attempt to wreck the Norris government for failing to withdraw the income tax bill from the last legislature.

Both Craig and Ashdown were leading organizers of the Winnipeg Progressives whose urban campaign is linked up with the U. F. M. in the rural constituency.

Hon. Geo. A. Simard, another Conservative candidate, continued the attack against the farmers. After referring to the financial condition of the province, he said it would be worse if the farmers assumed power, as they had more than doubled the provincial debt in Ontario in two years, raising it from $97,000,000 to $204,000,000.

He forecast the disappearance of the unemployment situation if the Conservatives were returned to power.

GETS THREE YEARS.

Sarnia, Ont., July 15—Archibald Black, 19, of Point Edward, formerly of Sherbrooke, was sentenced to three years hard labor yesterday for stealing a bicycle, three years also for being in possession of goods alleged to have been stolen at Sherbrooke.

Black was arrested here by Provincial Constable Oliver on June 9 and was shot in the back as he attempted to escape. His value was found to contain two revolvers loaded and jewelry valued at $1,500, all stolen in Sherbrooke and Montreal.

Something Unusual Has Happened!

While there have been any number of "sales" and "special events" all over the city this season, our prices have stood the test because they were the lowest to be had anywhere on equally good clothes—sale or no sale.

But now that the time has come for us to make a complete clearance of everything on hand, what truly extraordinary values these goods are at the bona fide reductions named below.

QUESTION RAISED ON LIGHTING BILL

A bill of $8,000.88 for lighting for the parish of Lancaster was filed at yesterday's session of the finance and accounts committee of the county council.

As the county secretary contended that the company owed the Lancaster highway board an equal or larger amount under the provisions of the N. B. Power Co. act, wherein it pays $800 for every mile of track in Lancaster, the matter was referred to the Lancaster councillors.

The company said that $800 covered the whole amount. Twelve tenders, ranging from $2,688 to $7,408, were considered for the building of a retaining wall about part of the property of the General Public hospital.

The matter of a bond issue was deferred for further information.

A communication was read from the local board of health asking that the council immediately take steps to put into effect the act relating to sewerage for the parish of Simonds and urging the need of sewerage in East St. John especially. This was referred to the Simonds councillors.

A recommendation from the hospital commissioners to refund the sum of $1,468 to B. Mooney & Sons in an item relating to sales tax was laid on the table.

Several other matters of routine business were taken up.

At the present time he is president of the Campbell Coal Mining Co., and is located at Westbourne, Tenn.

Tires That Stand the All-Day Grind on Scorching Pavements

In India, where the rubber comes from, the heat is greater than Canadians ever feel. Cotton—the other important tire ingredient—is likewise a product of a torrid climate. Both of them thrive on heat.

It is not the rubber in a tire—nor the cotton—that will give way under hot weather driving conditions. It is the tire overloaded with cheaper ingredients that refuses to stand the heat test.

Royal Oak Tires have a high percentage of real rubber—enough to hold the cotton permanently in place, no matter how high the mercury registers.

"Real rubber, and plenty of it," is the Royal Oak way of building tires.

Tires so built have a way of giving service long after the average tire has broken down on account of the summer heat.

WHAT OF ST. JOHN?

Hon. Fred Magee, in an address in Moncton at the opening of the summer vocational school this week, presented a strong case for vocational schools. He pointed out that New Brunswick had been behind most provinces and states in recognizing the value of vocational training.

Assuming that group government is unworkable, Canadian Finance says: "Perhaps at some not very distant date we shall have two main groups at Ottawa—a Liberal-Progressive government and a Conservative opposition; but it is to be hoped that the rise of the Progressive party will have impressed upon the public men of the east that the west is not content to sit on the doorstep at Ottawa and beg for that which rightly belongs to it, namely, a proper place in the affairs of the nation."

A former Fredericton man now residing on the Pacific Coast writes to the Fredericton Mail: "I understand that some of your merchants don't want new business in there. Now that is just what you need to break the jam and start things going. Not only will it help your city, but it will help those who are now opposed to it. It is a pity that some people with capital could not try and exploit a water power system up the river somewhere, for, with cheap power I have no doubt that Fredericton would become a gas point for manufacturing."

About six o'clock yesterday three different men very obviously under the influence of liquor were to be seen in Prince William street. Doubtless others might have been seen in a number of other streets. Even those whose duty it is to enforce the law ought to know what this means.

If St. John is to adopt a progressive policy in regard to vocational training it should not be too far behind Moncton, Edmundston and other towns.

THE PROGRESSIVES.

Canadian Finance of Winnipeg is of opinion that the Progressive movement in Canadian politics will eventually disintegrate, but that it has had and still has its uses. The Winnipeg Journal resents a recent criticism by the Montreal Gazette, which said: "What the nation needs more than any other single thing at the present moment is a revival of genuine Conservatism."

There are many people in the west who do not support the Progressive platform in its entirety, but there are few who will deny that the western members have attended to their duties at Ottawa in a very businesslike manner. The Progressive movement is a direct result of the failure of the two old political parties to give Western Canada a proper consideration, and so long as these parties consider that their main duties in parliament are to make political capital for themselves by throwing mud at the other fellow, they will add to the power of the Progressives."

Canadian Finance further asserts that "the Progressives are entitled to a great deal of credit for the manner in which they handled the Crows' Nest Pass agreement," and, alluding again to the growth of the party, it says: "It is interesting to review the history and growth of the Progressive movement. Farmers were compelled to organize to protect themselves. A little more than twenty years ago the farmer was getting it in the neck from all directions. Conditions were so bad that he had to choose between two alternatives, go out of business or organize and fight. He chose the latter. In the past twenty years he has fought with ever increasing power. Today the Progressive party at Ottawa have the government in their power and at any time could join the Conservatives and defeat the administration."

It is claimed by some observers that the Progressive movement will reach its peak in the current Manitoba elections and then begin to disintegrate. Canadian Finance is disposed to accept this view, because the farmers expect more from their representatives than the latter can possibly accomplish, and therefore a reaction from which the old parties would profit would occur. We shall very soon learn whether the Progressives have gained ground in Manitoba. If they have, and should be able to form a government there is no reason to assume that they will prove less capable than the Progressives of Ontario. If they should not gain ground in Manitoba the assumption that the movement is near or has reached its peak might not be so far astray.

Premier Norris says the Liberals will have the largest group in the new Manitoba legislature. The Progressives say he has another guess coming. With five or six parties in the field one man's guess may be as good as another's.

In some streets of the city the application of a coat of paint to houses has had a brightening effect that should stimulate other property owners to pursue a similar course. With much street improvement in progress there is a greater incentive to improve the appearance of the houses.

Citizens of St. John and persons in the province generally who need men or women to work for them should get in touch with the new branch of the employment service here. Many applicants are registering and by that act express their desire to get something to do.

The Gyro Club is now formally installed as a local institution. Its members must all be young men. It should be a force for fellowship and progress in the city's life.

There is a dead-lock at the Hague between the Russians and the other powers. The former want everything their own way, and so long as they maintain that attitude there can be no agreement.

The United Organizations are keen for action to give the city cheap light and power with the least possible delay. Assurance is given that steady progress is being made.

Before another week passes there will be important further developments in regard to hydro in St. John.

This is a glorious day for an outing at the water sports at Lily Lake.

THE FERRY STEAMER.

Sir:—Westsider states in your issue of the 10th inst. that the good mahogany benches and doors in the ferry steamer, including brass and nickel plates, have been very nicely varnished with a coat of dark brown paint. Westsider has, however, failed to notice that the life belts, which have always been kept in an easy place to reach, namely under the seats the whole length of the cabin, have been removed and stowed away in an attic built over the doors at each end of the cabin. There seem to be more belts than space was allowed for, so they are piled and hammered in, in such a manner that it would be most impossible to get one out. Certainly the bottom ones could not be separated from the pile and there is no means of reaching the top ones. Someone should take the responsibility of inspecting this new move on the part of those in charge of our ferry service.

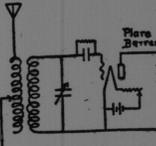

Yours truly, ANOTHER WESTSIDER, West St. John, July 14.

THE PLATE BATTERY

A vacuum tube receiving circuit is dependent upon the plate battery or "B" battery for the supply of energy which actuates the telephone receivers.

The plate battery is connected across the plate and filament, in series with the telephone receivers and the plate feed back or "tickler" coil in the case of regenerative receiving systems. The positive terminal of the plate battery is connected to the plate, no signals being heard in the telephones if the polarity is reversed. The current which flows from the plate to the filament through the vacuum tube is very small compared to the current consumed by the filament of a vacuum tube, and therefore a plate battery of small ampere hour capacity is sufficient to furnish current for months.

It will be recalled that the vacuum tube detector functions in a manner different from the crystal detector. The signal which impinges on an antenna system does not actuate the detector tubes, but serves merely as a trigger system to control the flow of plate current. In other words, a small change in the voltage impressed upon the grid results in a large change in the current flowing in the plate circuit.

The plate "B" battery is usually made up of a number of small dry cells sealed in a block with an insulating compound. There are usually fifteen such dry cells in a unit, all connected in series giving a total voltage for the block of twenty-two and one-half volts. This voltage is sufficient for the satisfactory operation of most detector tubes, some requiring even less voltage, in which case advantage is taken of the taps taken from intermediate cells to secure a lower voltage. These taps are usually in the form of sockets connected to each cell of the block into which plugs can be inserted, giving variations in voltage from one and one-half to twenty-two and one-half volts in steps of one and one-half volts. Another method is to have taps of wire or brass strip connected to certain cells in the group, different manufacturers having their own details of construction.

For voltages in excess of that furnished by a block of "B" battery two or more blocks may be connected in series for use with amplifying tubes which require voltages of forty or sixty volts or more. The same plate battery may be used for both the detector tube and the amplifier tubes by merely taking a tap off at the proper point for the detector tube.

Another type of plate battery is the storage cell variety, which may be either of the lead-acid or the alkaline cell type. The storage battery for plate purposes consists of a contained in which are a sufficient number of small storage cells to give the required plate voltage. This type of plate battery has the advantage of being capable of recharging a feature not present in the "B" battery of the dry cell bank type. The dry cell plate battery, however, will render good service for from six months to a year or more dependent upon the time actually in use.

RADIO MUSIC FROM STEEL STACK

Cleaners in a big steel smoke-stack near Greenville, Ala., hurried into the open air when they heard a hand play "Dixie." They were unable to locate the hand and it is believed that wireless waves were responsible for the phenomenon.

A WANDER SONG.

Sing a song of an open road, Of life at twenty-one, Of unstained youth, a love of truth, Of battles to be won, When spring is at its fairest, And time not yet begun To write with words the sad old words That 'man is wolf to man'.

LIGHTER VEIN.

Edens Old and New, St. Mary's Garden at Oxford is a veritable Eden. "Really," said Miss Lamb, "this garden is like Paradise! The undergraduates must fancy they have returned to the garden of Adam and Eve!" "Indeed, you would think so," said Dean Craik, "from the way they avoid the trees of knowledge. They are a good deal cleverer than Adam!"

WHY SHE QUIT.

"Why did the new girl in the ribbon department quit?" "The last found out that her work here interfered with her attendance at the movies and her late night parties."

WHY HE CRIED.

It was a soiree musical. A singer had just finished "My Old Kentucky Home." The hostess, seeing one of her guests weeping in a remote corner, went to him and inquired in a sympathetic voice: "Are you a Kentuckian?" "No, and the answer came quickly: 'No, madam, I am a musician.'"—Boston News Bureau.

THE MALAPROP FAMILY.

Mrs. Malaprop in Sheridan's "Rivals" is one of the funniest old ladies in modern comedy. Her family is far from extinct. The Rev. Robert Collyer was fond, in his old age, of reciting his early struggles and triumphs. One evening his desultory introduction was unusually lengthy, whereupon the good doctor said, "Without any further 'pre-rambles' let me say that I was born in Ilkley in Yorkshire." James Russell Lowell knew an old dame in Boston who told him that she greatly admired Bevenuto Cellini and his "grand delinquently style." As Cellini was a thief and a murderer, as well as a consummate artist, this admirer of the "grand delinquently style" was a consummate thief and murderer, as well as a consummate artist. Of kin to her was the ancient lady in Brooklyn, who, speaking of her granddaughter Anna, said: "She has a new Newport on a pleasure excursion."

The man who steps on your favorite corn—one that you cherish tenderly, and then smiles blandly as he asks "Did I spoil your shine?"

The man who attempts to be expressing regret at the death of your mother-in-law. The dental gentleman in a white coat who prefaces a near-murder with the remark: "Now this won't hurt very much."

The street car motorman who always starts his car with a leap and a bound just at the right moment to land you into the lap of a fat lady with muscular rheumatism.

The traffic cop who signals you to go on and then waves three or four old ladies into your path.

Thomas H. Lawson.
The city lost a well known and highly respected citizen yesterday when Thomas Sanford Lawson passed away at his residence, 11 Horsfield street, at the advanced age of eighty-four years. Mr. Lawson was employed in the Government Savings Bank in this city for forty-five years, but had retired from his duties there about two years ago. Previous to his entry into the government employ he was a large contractor and one of his work still remains, including the Crulshank building in Sydney street, the late Harbor Master Taylor's house in Queen square, and the James Robertson house in Orange street.
Mr. Lawson was a loyal and staunch member of the Queen square Methodist church. He was an active member of

FAIRVILLE AND BEACONSFIELD CONSIDER FIRE PROTECTION
That Fairville and Beaconsfield are to remain separate units in the matter of fire protection was the outcome of a meeting of property owners in the two districts held last night. A resolution was passed favoring the installation of an electric pumping station at Spruce Lake. The Beaconsfield property owners did not favor amalgamation with Fairville. It was suggested that Beaconsfield unite with the city in this regard, and secure protection from the west side stations, and that Fairville build a new station on the site of the old and purchase fire apparatus. A motion was passed for the appointment of a com-

BRAVERY OF GIRLS SAVES TWO LIVES

Blanche Corliss Rescued by Reta Lawrence in Lake Off Oakville — Boy Off Dock by Sisters.

Oakville, Ont., July 15.—The town dock here was very nearly the scene of two drowning fatalities. The first incident almost to result tragically occurred when Miss Blanche Corliss was rescued by Miss Reta Lawrence after she had sunk for the third time. Both girls, who are employees of the Bell Telephone Company, were in swimming when Miss Corliss was seized with a cramp. Although she was a considerable distance from shore and although the water was rough, her companion swam to her assistance and succeeded in effecting the rescue.

Just after supper time, six-year-old Harold Hopkins was playing with his sisters on the dock when he slipped on its edge and plunged into the water. The little girls, in spite of their screams which brought quick assistance, did not

Snowy white without boiling

THAT dull, grey, streaky look that you always had to boil out of your clothes is never there when you use Rinso. It soaks the dirt, softens it, loosens it so thoroughly that it all runs away in the rinsing, leaving the clothes sweet, snowy-white and fresh as new.

It's because Rinso is the new, modern scientific washing preparation that works in an entirely new way. It washes by soaking. It is altogether different from ordinary soaps and washing powders. So, it should be used differently. Do not pour Rinso itself into the tub. Make your Rinso liquid first, as per directions.

IF YOU USE A WASHING MACHINE

Soak your clothes in the Rinso suds as usual—for one hour, two hours, overnight, or whatever time is convenient. Then add more Rinso solution and work the machine. Rinse and dry—you'll have a clean, sweet, snowy-white wash.

ENGINEER SAVES FIFTEEN LIVES

Flags Fast Flyer in Nick of Time to Prevent Almost Certain Fatalities.

Brockville, July 15.—An incident reflecting great credit upon the railwaymen concerned and resulting in the possible saving of fifteen lives, is reported at Grand Trunk headquarters here.

Engineer Donald Ross was proceeding east in charge of the engine on an extra freight train, and, when crossing the bridge near St. Anne de Bellevue station, he noticed about fifteen people standing on the westbound track, watching the progress of a boat through the locks. There is no footpath on the bridge, which is solely for railway use.

Knowing that the westbound international Limited, the Grand Trunk passenger flyer, was almost due, that its engineer would be unable to see them because of a curve in the opposite direction, and that the people themselves could not escape being struck, in view of the freight train on one track and the passenger train on the other, Engineer Ross, with rare presence of mind, succeeded in flagging the approaching flyer from his engine and attracting the notice of the engineer before any accident occurred.

SMALL BOY HIDES LIGHTED CIGARETTE IN MAIL BOX

Chester, Pa., July 15.—Nine-year-old Jimmie Wilets is at liberty despite the fact that he dropped a lighted cigarette into a government mail box. He was smoking a cigarette on a street corner when a wonderful coincidence occurred. Thinking to free himself from suspicion by destroying the evidence, dropped the butt into the convenient mail box, and a letter carrier caught him in the act. A few letters were searched before the carrier could unlock the box, but as Jimmie promised never again to desecrate government property he was let off with a reprimand.

CHICAGO TO NEW YORK IN ORDINARY CANOE

Bryson, Ont., July 15.—Messrs. Henry Koda and Carl Wiberg, two picturesque dressed travelers, sunburnt, hair bleached white as snow from the sun and weather, on a wonderful canoeing cruise from Chicago to New York, landed at Bryson wharf on Monday evening. They left Chicago on this expedition two months ago, and have enjoyed every minute of the trip. They passed through Lake Michigan, Lake Huron, the North Channel, Georgian Bay, French River, Lake Nipissing, Mattawa River, Mattawa, and the Ottawa River. They caught strings and strings of fish, saw moose, deer and many beautiful wild animals and birds.

DRAGGED BY GIRL FROM PATH OF A TRAIN

Woodstock, Ont., July 15.—Cecil Young, aged 24, of this city, both deaf and dumb, was almost instantly killed when he walked into the path of an east-bound freight train while crossing the G.T.R. tracks five miles east of this city.

Young was thrown by the engine into the second track directly in the path of the Detroit Express, only a few hundred yards away. Miss Blanche Perry, a graduate of the Woodstock Hospital, spending her holidays at her home, only a few yards from the track, witnessed the accident, rushed out and pulled the unconscious man off the track just as the train rushed by.

Young was taken to the local hospital suffering from concussion of the brain and a severed right leg. All efforts to save his life were of no avail and he died two hours after entering the hospital.

EUNUCHS IN TURK HAREMS STRIKE FOR MORE MONEY

Constantinople, July 15.—Constantinople's harem attendants have gone on strike for more money and shorter hours. Many of the capital's finest harems have been left unguarded, and their owners are trying distractedly to find suitable substitutes for the strikers. Numbers of Russian refugees have volunteered their services, but it was found that they were not adapted to the position.

The striking attendants insist that their "twenty-four hour day" and the unceasing vigil they are required to keep on the women of the harems, justify better remuneration, especially during the present hard times. Many of them protest that their salaries have not been paid for more than a year. The fact is that their masters, who in most cases are officials or employees of the government, have not drawn any salary for months. The strikers include the eunuch and other attendants.

ALLOW SUNDAY GAMES IN PARKS OF LONDON

Ask Your Dealer For Crank Case Service

You probably realize the importance of having your crank case cleaned every 750 to 1000 miles. But it is dirty work. You dislike to do it yourself. Why not have it done for you?

There is an Imperial Crank Case Service dealer near you who maintains a modern crank case cleaning department and he will gladly have an expert do the job properly.

And what is most important—he will use Imperial Flushing Oil for cleaning your crank case. No danger then of diluting the fresh oil which is added later as might be the case if coal oil (kerosene) were used for flushing purposes.

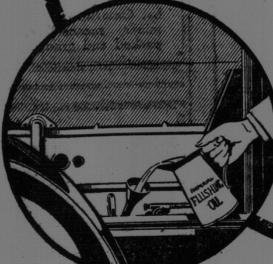

Make it a special point to drive 'round to the Imperial Crank Case dealer's sometime during the next week. Let him tell you more about this service that saves your car and saves you money.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED

Dead Oil Removed

Even the best oil you can buy wears out in time and loses much of its lubricating efficiency. It then fails to maintain the proper piston seal. Power goes to waste. Wearing surfaces no longer receive proper protection. It is of the utmost importance that you have the old oil drained out of your crank case frequently.

All Parts Thoroughly Cleaned

Merely draining the crank case is not sufficient. Metal particles, road dust, dirt, grit and carbon have a tendency to adhere to the metal parts of your engine when the oil is drawn off. Imperial Crank Case Service uses Imperial Flushing Oil, a scientific cleansing agent, which removes all foreign matter and thoroughly flushes out your engine and crank case.

Refilled with Fresh Oil

No one grade of oil could properly lubricate all different makes and models of automobiles and trucks. Different types require a special grade of oil, suited to their construction and operating conditions. The Imperial Crank Case Service dealer who refills your crank case, will use the grade of Imperial Polarine recommended for your car on the Imperial Chart—an infallible guide to proper lubrication.

The review reported that a large number of out-of-town buyers visited the

New York market last week, and had to return without being able to place orders, all available fuel having been disposed of. Coal trade reports showed that the Kentucky and northern West Virginia coal fields had been hardest hit by the shoppener's strike, particularly mines served by the Louisville and Nashville and Baltimore and Ohio railroads. Prices as high as $8.25 were quoted on western Kentucky coal, while both Buffalo and Philadelphia markets reported ranges from $4.35 to $5.40 a ton. Trade in anthracite is still limited to pea coal, and some inferior fuel recovered from rivers, it was stated. The miners are reported out in the hard coal fields 100 per cent, and about 20,000 to 25,000 tons are being dredged weekly out of the rivers. ACADIA SUGAR. (Montreal Gazette) On the 26th of this month the annual meeting of the Acadia Sugar Refining Company, Limited, will be held and at that time plans will be considered for an internal reorganization which will have for a primary requisite the rearrangement of capital obligations. It is the intention to sell to shareholders second mortgage bonds to the extent of $1,000,000. This company, in common with all refiners, is now beginning to find a greatly improved outlook, with their refineries working to capacity and a demand quiet in keeping with their output. These facts, coupled with the advance in prices of late to a scale in keeping with high cost of raws, should find reflection in earnings of the sugar refiners, who all feel, however, that they still have a long row to hoe following their strenuous experiences in 1920 and the period of rehabilitation of 1921. OCEAN GAMBLER IS SOUNDLY THRASHED

Ladies' Escort Resented Foul Language in Restaurant of the Olympic.

New York, July 15.—A fight between a New York business man and a professional transatlantic gambler in the Ritz Restaurant helped enliven the voyage of the White Star liner Olympic, in from Southampton and Cherbourg, and if the gambler was not taught a lesson it was not the fault of either the New Yorker or Captain A. E. S. Hamblen, commander of the vessel.

The business man was dining in the restaurant one night with two women. The gambler, who, according to the ship's officers, went aboard the Olympic at Cherbourg much the worse for liquor, began a tirade against him which included language not customary in such a place before women.

In response to this outburst, the New Yorker got up promptly knocked the gambler down. There was a rapid mix-up, and stewards separated the two men. Then the Olympic's commander took a hand. He had the gambler put in the "hospital" for 48 hours. As the skipper explained, "One of our hospitals has bars to it."

At first the gambler was most obstreperous over his confinement but later he was completely subdued.

"The Atlantic isn't what it used to be," he complained. "We've got to seek another hunting ground."

By the "we" he referred to himself and three companions, all of whom were detected as professional. The passengers were warned against them. One of them, in golf togs with a bag of clubs, said: "After the second day nobody would

BEAR STORIES FROM FIRE AREAS

Prince George, B. C., July 15.—Two amusing bear stories, both vouched for by reputable eye-witnesses, are going the rounds here. Forest fires in northern British Columbia during the past month have had a peculiar effect upon some of the wild animals of the woods, judging from some of the stories brought in here.

One of the gamblers, it was said, was being looked for by the police of this city, but he managed to elude them and got away from the pier.

A fight between a fire-crazed bear and a mule, in which the bear was worsted, occurred at L. Mason's ranch, at Bedenest, B. C. The forest fire routed the bear from its lair, and in its dash from the flames into the open country it collided violently with a jack-mule, which was grazing contentedly. The bear was promptly stretched out on the ground by a double tattoo from the capable hind hoofs, and the mule calmly resumed its interrupted grazing. Thoroughly angered, the bear picked itself up and cautiously approached the mule from a different angle. The huge paw was brought down with a resounding thwack on the mule's ribs. This was unfortunate. The hoofs were again brought into play, after a quick, herself on the back of the speaker, holding on by her claws and paws. This is where the forester decided to resign in favor of the enemy. He dove off the car, and regained his feet in time to see it continuing its journey eastward, with a mother and child happily reunited as its passengers. Later the speaker was found, run down and everything intact except the side of the seat where the cub had been tied, the old bear having torn it out to release her offspring.

THE JUBILEE SINGERS.

The St. Philips' jubilee singers gave a delightful concert in the Temperance hall, west end, last night. The entertainment was well attended and the various numbers showed much talent. Mrs. Bertha Treadwell and Mrs. Maud Ritchie were heard in pleasing solos, and Professor McCollum gave several instrumental numbers which were loudly applauded. Mrs. Maud Graves and K. N. Bekeley were heard in readings. Among those who took part in the choruses were Mesdames Bertha Treadwell, Margaret Dixon, Amelia Williams, Maud Graves, Maud Ritchie, Evelyn Skinner, Lillian Marsden, Ada Simms, Naula Ford, Maud Johnston and Carrie Davis, Miss Emma Jackson and Mrs. Hannah Marshall, and J. N. Bekeley and George Simms. The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the St. Philips' church fund.

accurate manoeuvre for position, and the light was called off so far as the bear was concerned. Mr. Mason, who had witnessed the unusual encounter, dashed to the house for a rifle to finish the bear, should any life be left. Before he could get back to the scene, however, Bruin managed to get promptly to his feet and return to the less exciting environment of the forest fire.

A fire patrol ranger is sponsor for another bear story. While making a survey along the Grand Trunk Pacific railway in the mountain district, he came upon a young cub suffering from severe burns on the feet and body. The youngster was whimpering from the pain and the forester took pity on it and lashed it to his speaker. The patrolman started on his journey, only to discover that the mother bear had appeared and was in hot pursuit. As the track ran uphill at this point, the bear, making long strides, gained steadily and the need for strategy was clearly indicated. The forestry book of instructions does not cover a situation such as this, but the ranger was resourceful and decided that the best plan would be to throw the cub off his car. His attempts to untie the knots on the lashings which secured the youngster to the machine, however, proved futile. Pursuer and pursued came to a yet steeper grade, with the advantage all with the former. Finally with one mighty effort the old bear threw

Bonar Law—Some Secret History
By F. Gordon Sampson

A dramatic story of a chivalrous great man, showing what happened when Bonar Law, a few months ago, declined to take advantage of a peculiar situation which might have made him Premier of Great Britain.

TEA FROM CHINA
By Frederick W. Wallace

The leading fiction feature of the Maritime number is "Tea from China," by Frederick William Wallace, author of the "Sail Dragger" etc. It is a fast-moving adventure yarn, telling the story of a bonnie Canadian lassie who took over command of her husband's clipper ship, 'way back in the fifties, and carried on during a desolate voyage while he lay helpless in his bunk. It is a story to fire your blood, one that will carry you out of yourself, no matter how blasé you may have become. It is a compelling, stirring yarn which makes you almost smell the salt sea and hear the wind whistle through the sails of the careening wind-jammer.

Members of the "Bluenose" Crew

It is fitting that this story should be both written and illustrated by men who are widely and popularly known in the Maritime Provinces. Mr. Wallace and C. R. Patterson, who has painted the illustrations, both were members of the crew that sailed the "Bluenose" to victory in the International fishing schooner race last year.

Afternoon Game Off.
The afternoon game between the St. Peter's and St. Johns, scheduled for today, has been postponed on account of the swimming sports at Lily Lake. The two teams will meet, however, in the evening, when a hot game is expected. Parice is the probable pitching choice for the St. Johns, with either King or Lawlor on the mound for the St. Peter's.

He Won Two Games.
Pitcher Leonard, of the Magic Baking Powders, evidently believes that endurance is a winning factor in baseball and he put his belief into practice last night when he hurled in and won two games on the North End Improvement League diamond, the first a nine inning affair against the North End Olympics, and the second a six-inning game against the North End Canucks. The scores were 4 to 0 against the Olympics and 7 to 6 against the Canucks. Leonard and Kimball were the battery for the Magics, Shea and Jones for the Olympics and Boveles and McAleer for the Canucks.

A Benefit Game.
Arrangements are being completed for a baseball game between St. Peter's and the St. Johns next Tuesday evening on St. Peter's Park to secure funds to help defray Hilton Belyea's expenses. Hilton is due to leave for St. Catharines next Wednesday or Thursday to complete training for the Canadian Henley and may go from there to Philadelphia to enter the National championships.

Each team secured one run in the first and two runs in the second inning, and then went scoreless until the ninth, when Somerville secured four. Ash pitched for Somerville and McLean for Fredericton.

St. Peter's Defeat St. Rose's.
St. Peter's defeated St. Rose's by a score of 8 to 3 in St. Peter's Intermediate League last evening. The game went nine innings and was replete with snappy plays and good base running. Hannah was on the mound for the winners and Murphy for the losers. Both pitched well, the former having nine strike-outs and the latter ten.

Civics Defeat Post O'F.
In the Civic and Civil Service League last evening the Civics defeated the Post Office nine, 18 to 15. Hatfield and Blair formed the battery for the winners, and Torrie and Evans for the losers.

A SHOW THAT CANNOT BE DUPLICATED IN CANADA
Mat. 10, 15, 25c., Eve. 25, 35c. Serial Story Friday-Saturday

At a meeting of the executive of the United Organizations held last evening with Roy Willet in the chair, it was decided to hold another meeting immediately after the publication of Engineer Krebs' report on the hydro situation. Haste was urged in the matter of distribution.

Reports of progress were heard at the anniversary meeting of the Congregational Union of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, which was held at Margaree, N. S., recently. In the selection of officers, J. W. Flevelling, of St. John, was elected secretary. An invitation to meet at Sheffield, N. B., next year, was accepted.

Examinations in the Royal Life Saving Society tests for the award of the bronze medalion, were held yesterday afternoon. Those who took part in the tests were Misses Elizabeth McKinnon, Lois Fairweather, Viola McAvity and Francis Firth, and it is thought that all passed successfully. The examinations were conducted by Miss Catherine McAvity.

Samuel A. Sewell was sent up for trial yesterday afternoon in the police court without any further evidence being taken. H. A. Powell, K. C., appeared for Sewell and Daniel Mullin, K. C., for the city. Mr. Sewell was permitted to go on his own guarantee of $1,500 and securities of $750 each from Samuel M. Sewell and George Ellis. His case will come up at the August sitting of the county court.

B. H. Fraser of Ottawa, chief engineer of the department of marine and fisheries, made an inspection of local conditions about the harbor this week. As a result of his investigations he will recommend to the lighthouse board the construction of a lighthouse at the end of the new breakwater and the placing of lights and buoys in the channel into Courtenay Bay. The work probably will be done this summer. The survey of the harbor was made by Mr. Fraser, J. C. Chesley, F. H. Ross, manager of the St. John Drydock and Shipbuilding Company, Alexander Gray, federal harbor engineer, and John Kelly, lighthouse inspector.

ROBBED OF $300 IN CARLETON COUNTY

D. Dow, of Canterbury, Had Drunk Some Ale.

Says He was Given Lift in an Auto and Left Dazed on Road--Hon. P. J. Veniot Places Flood Damage at $200,000.

(Special to The Times)
Fredericton, N. B., July 15--The authorities in various places have been asked to be on the lookout for a young man driving a McLaughlin car. A description of the man has been furnished. The reason that he is wanted is the separation of a Canterbury young man, from a roll of $300 when he accepted a lift from Woodstock to his home on Thursday.

D. Dow of Canterbury, had attended the carnival at Woodstock and on Thursday morning was leaving for his home. The McLaughlin car was going his way and he was offered a chance in it. Some ale was produced by the young man driving the car. The other accepted the refreshment and after, says his recollection is hazy. His next clear recollection is of lying beside the road near Skiff Lake some miles beyond his home. He said $300 which he had been carrying, had disappeared.

The Flood Damage

"I placed an estimate of $200,000 some time ago on the flood-damage to roads and bridges in New Brunswick," said Hon. P. J. Veniot, minister of public works, on his return here on Friday after a tour of inspection. "I have no reason yet to alter that estimate," he continued. "Reports of damage are coming in all the time and it probably will be the end of the year before we can make a total estimate."

"Some of the pieces of repair work will be costly. In Madawaska there is a piece of road work which will run about $5,000. The damage near Hartland will exceed that, being the worst instance in the province."

The minister and chief highway engineer, B. M. Hill, were through Kent, Westmorland, Albert and St. John counties on their last tour of inspection. That section did not receive the flood damage which the western counties did.
