No Military Patrols Last Night In Dublin Streets

Truce Arranged for Monday Is Early in Operation—England Intensely Interested in Peace Developments—Earl Middleton Speaks of Fervent Hope of Solution of Troubles.

London, July 9.—Military patrols were withdrawn from the streets of Dublin last night, says a Central News despatch from that city.

It is understood the armistice will be signed by Sir Nevill Macready and Michael Collins, commander of the Irish Republican army.

ALL ENGLAND IS STIRRED BY NEWS

London, July 9.—Earl Middleton, South Irish Unionist leader, reached London this morning after having travelled nearly all night from Dublin, and was almost immediately received in audience by King George.

It is understood he reported to the king details of yesterday's momentous conference at Dublin, at which a truce in Ireland was arranged and steps were taken to bring De Valera and Premier Lloyd George together.

Holyhead, Wales, July 9.—Earl Middleton landed here this morning on his way to London. He expressed belief that the terms of Eamonn De Valera's letter to Premier Lloyd George accepting the suggestion of a conference would be acceptable to the premier.

"Sentiment in Ireland," he said, in referring to the public attitude there, "is overwhelmingly in favor of a settlement and there is fervent hope it will be possible to arrive at a solution that will be permanent."

The basis for a formal conference. The meeting will probably occur next week. The only thing remaining is the fixing of the date, which Lloyd George will name in his reply to De Valera's letter.

A Fight Yesterday. Dublin, July 9.—A passenger train, on board which were soldiers going from Dublin to Cork, was attacked yesterday at Clondelkin, outside Dublin.

Bombs were thrown and an attempt was made to set the train afire. Several passengers were wounded, one of them seriously.

LORD MAYOR O'NEILL. Of Dublin, one of the Sinn Fein leaders who conferred with De Valera in Mansion House.

London, July 9.—Announcement of the date upon which De Valera would meet Premier Lloyd George is anxiously awaited by London today.

It is understood that a truce between the crown forces in Ireland and the Sinn Fein would become effective at noon Monday was taken as an indication that some quarters that the meeting of Mr. De Valera and Mr. Lloyd George would not be long delayed.

Lloyd George left for Chequers Court, his suburban home, today in company with General Smuts and other dominion premiers. It seemed probable that during the week end at Chequers Court arrangements would be made for the meeting between the British premier and the leading Sinn Feiners.

London Times Hoped. This morning the Times declared that since active hostilities ceased in Ireland, there was every reason to believe the whole atmosphere of that country would change and that the gravest menace to a settlement by negotiation will disappear.

It is observed that Mr. De Valera's letter to the premier, in which he accepted the plan of a conference, was guarded and non-committal, adding: "The fact remains, however, that Mr. De Valera has chosen the path of negotiation in preference to that of continued warfare."

It declared that grave substantial grounds for hope, especially in view of arrangements made for a truce on Monday. The newspaper noted that Lloyd George "seems clearly to have understood the danger of continued warfare" and concluded by expressing belief that "the end of this secular trouble, ruinous to Ireland, and humiliating to this country, is within measurable distance."

Warning was given by the Herald, organ of Labor, that a truce was not peace, but that it would be folly to resign permanently. It admitted, however, that the Irish truce should be the pride of peace and declared that ultimate responsibility rested upon British statesmen. It asked if these statesmen would show "the courage and generosity the situation demands."

The Morning Post a Conservative organ, complained of the "humiliation which has befallen upon England," and said that the British government was "negotiating terms at the point of a loaded pistol."

IRISH MATTER HAS FIRST PLACE. London, July 9.—Premier Lloyd George will it is said this afternoon, accept De Valera's proposal of yesterday and meet the Republican leader to discuss

COMMANDER ALONE IN UNIFORM IN DUBLIN STREETS AND UNMOLESTED

London, July 9.—The conclusion of a truce in Ireland, the Chronicle asserted, lifted the negotiations to a new plane of hopefulness. The newspapers remarked upon the extraordinary fact that Sir Neville Macready, military commander in Ireland, was able to drive through the streets of Dublin in full uniform and unattended, but without molestation, saying: "There is peace, not simply in prospect but in forecasting."

GENERAL SIR NEVILLE MACREADY

London, July 9.—The conclusion of a truce in Ireland, the Chronicle asserted, lifted the negotiations to a new plane of hopefulness. The newspapers remarked upon the extraordinary fact that Sir Neville Macready, military commander in Ireland, was able to drive through the streets of Dublin in full uniform and unattended, but without molestation, saying: "There is peace, not simply in prospect but in forecasting."

The Australian premier, Mr. Morris Hughes, makes this declaration in a cablegram to the president of the electrical organization at Bendigo, according to a Melbourne despatch to the London Times.

The message says: "All is going very well. The conference at present is dealing with the Anglo-Japanese policy. Despite the complexity of the question and the different aspects of the individual dominions, I have hopes that we shall achieve what is best for the interests of Australia."

The suicidal policy of increasing armaments, in the circumstances, can end only by an amicable arrangement between the U. S., Japan and the British Empire."

HUGHES IS FOR DISARMAMENT

Corner Stone of Empire Policy and Friendly Understanding With U. S.

London, July 9.—Reduction of armaments is regarded by the dominions conference as the corner-stone of empire policy and "friendly understanding with the United States" is essential to that policy.

The Australian premier, Mr. Morris Hughes, makes this declaration in a cablegram to the president of the electrical organization at Bendigo, according to a Melbourne despatch to the London Times.

The message says: "All is going very well. The conference at present is dealing with the Anglo-Japanese policy. Despite the complexity of the question and the different aspects of the individual dominions, I have hopes that we shall achieve what is best for the interests of Australia."

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbush to the Times reporter, "I heard a funny one in the market today. One of the fellows in a stall said he was mighty glad the street car weather was over up to ten cents, for now whenever he walked he saved twice as much money as he did when they were five cents."

"That's just it," said Hiram. "A young fellow was tellin' me last week that he was goin' to buy a car and he was mighty much right to buy a car as I have to buy a car in Ireland. Says I to him, says I, you just wait that money down till you get some more an' then buy a piece of land an' get ready to make a home for yourself. He said he wouldn't have no business in a short spell if he goes on at that rate. Well, I must run along home. The rain bar's about empty, an' Hannas says I got to fill it up afore Monday mornin'."

BOOTLEGGERS KILL OFFICER

Utica, N. Y., July 9.—Deputy Sheriff Charles Kammerloher was shot and instantly killed by two bootleggers here yesterday.

The bootleggers were wounded. They were arrested and taken to a hospital. Deputy Sheriff Kammerloher died from wounds received yesterday.

Several nights. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning they observed a suspicious truck and commanded the driver to stop. Kammerloher stepped on the running board and was met by a hail of bullets. He replied with several shots before falling off the truck and wounded both bootleggers.

Irishmen in the vicinity were soon on the scene and the wounded bootleggers were taken to the hospital. They said their names were John Komlosky and Nathan Denmark.

Komlosky had four wounds, one near the heart, two in the stomach and one in the hip. Denmark had a wound in the arm, one in the thigh and two on the lower part of the leg.

G. E. UNION FOR THE DOMINION

Nucleus Formed at New York Meeting.

Endeavors from This Side of Border to Have "Canada" Banners in Today's Parade—A Plea for the Immigrant.

New York, July 9.—Canadian delegates to the convention held a "get together" meeting yesterday and formed the nucleus of a Christian Endeavor Union for Canada.

At present there is no single organization in the dominion including Christian Endeavor groups of all denominations, such as exists in the United States. Another meeting will be held today to perfect a temporary organization to further the plans.

Considerable indignation is expressed by the Canadian delegates over an order prohibiting the use of any but United States flags in the parade which will be a feature of the convention program today. No formal objections will be voiced, however, owing to the delicacy of the situation.

President Harding and Vice-President Coolidge yesterday sent messages to the World's Christian Endeavor Convention, expressing the idea that the world needs no religion to cure its ills.

The Commissioner of Immigration Frederick A. Walls, in an address on the subject of immigration, said: "The immigrant is a human being, of blood and spirit and the day is past when immigrants can be treated like cattle."

SHARP REPLY BY BISHOP FALLON

Refutation of Charges Alleged to Have Been Made by Rev. L. W. Reid.

London, Ont., July 9.—Over his own signature, Bishop Fallon, pastor of the St. George's Roman Catholic church, stated to his Orange audience that the Roman Catholic church has stood behind bootlegging in Essex, he uttered an untruth.

The Rev. Mr. Reid is, therefore, a liar. He made the statement in public, he said, and he is a public liar.

"Moreover, his statement was deliberate and malicious, he is consequently a deliberate and malicious liar. When, on being challenged to do so, the Rev. Mr. Reid fails to give the names of the priests whom he accuses of flagrant crimes against the civil law and of grievous violation of the orders of his bishop, he shows himself to be a coward."

"An incomplete description, therefore, of the Rev. L. W. Reid, pastor of the Hulse street Methodist church, would be that he is a public, deliberate, apparently malicious and cowardly liar."

(Signed) "M. F. FALLON, Bishop of London."

SUGGESTION OF MIDDLE COURSE

Britain and U. S. and Japan Treaty.

London Times' Washington Correspondent Cables Outline of Plan to Which London Newspaper Gives Prominence.

London, July 9.—The London Times gives prominence today to a long despatch from its Washington correspondent in which he asserts that the concern of the people of the U. S. over the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty has deepened and that the British desire for a policy parallel to that of the U. S. cannot be attained if the Alliance is renewed, whatever modifications might be made in it.

Inquiries by the correspondents, however, lead him to assert there is a middle course whereby a satisfactory outcome can be achieved without Great Britain throwing over Japan or abandoning the policy of seeking a closer accord with the United States. This course, if followed would, the correspondent believes, end a situation which he says seems dangerously near an impasse.

The plan suggested by the government is this: Conversations between the U. S., Great Britain and Japan, leading eventually to an exchange of notes which might have the following effect: The open door policy be reaffirmed and the principle of the maintenance of the territorial integrity of China be extended to all border states on the Pacific; the principle of absolute equality of commercial opportunity throughout the Pacific area be enunciated; the U. S., Great Britain and Japan solemnly assert their deep concern in the preservation of peace in the Far East and engage themselves to act at all times with friendly co-operation and frankly exchange views.

This plan, the correspondent argues, would open the road to limitation of armaments, which, he contends is hardly possible without some such arrangement.

The Times supports the idea in an editorial, believing the governments of Great Britain and the dominion would approve it.

London Opinion. London, July 9.—Great Britain's suggestions for a conference at which matters pertaining to the Far East would be discussed, were made in the course of informal diplomatic conversations, so it was stated by several newspapers here this morning.

This statement was made in explaining what was described as a disinclination of Premier Lloyd George's statement relative to Pacific affairs in the House of Commons on last Thursday, it being asserted that he did not intend to convey the impression that formal invitations had been sent to the United States, China and Japan to confer over Far Eastern matters.

In an editorial commenting on the premier's statement the Daily News said that the Washington announced that Great Britain had not made official proposals need not be taken as a specific denial that a conference was projected.

It admitted that the Washington declaration was technically correct, because discussions that have occurred have been kept deliberately on an informal basis.

The News, which is hopeful that a discussion will take place, says that Great Britain and China, and apparently Japan, are agreed that these three nations should be joined by the United States in any conversations that take place.

The secretary, Miss Ethel Jarvis, submitted her report, which was, in part, as follows: During the last month the campaign work has still been going on and we are just now beginning to get results. In some parts of the province the results have surpassed our expectations. Our province can now boast of at least ten new life members and the returns are still coming in. A very great deal of permanent organizing work has been done in connection with the campaign whose results are very satisfactory to the society. The enrollment is now being prepared under county classifications under Miss Marion Egge. The most important event of the month was the preparation and sending out of our public health graduate nurses.

THE EUROPEAN OUTLOOK.

M. Viviani, former premier of France, in a recent letter criticizes Mr. Lloyd George for his Russian and Greek policies. The eminent Frenchman believes England should not have entered into any sort of negotiations with the Soviet government of Russia, and should have approved of forcible resistance to the return of Constantine to the throne of Greece. It may be said in reply to French criticism that France takes a narrower view, more local and self-centred, than that of England, which is broader and more detached. This is apparent in the matter of French relations with Germany. If Mr. Lloyd George were in either of the cases cited, it was with an honest desire to make the best of a serious and involved situation, in the interests of Europe at large. As a matter of fact, Britain has been the chief influence in improving the outlook in Europe, and now that her troubles at home are being solved, she will be the more able to exert and to extend this influence. An American observer declares that the outlook for a general betterment of European affairs is brighter now than at any time since the war ended. It would be made very much more bright if his own country came in as a stabilizing influence, and in this connection there is much truth in one statement by M. Viviani, as follows:—

AIRWAYS FOR AIRMEN.

So much progress has been made in the use of aircraft in the United States that there is now talk of a system of model airways covering the whole country and to be for the use of all. The army air service is laying the plans. A Washington letter says that the plan calls for the first of the model airways between Washington and Dayton, Ohio, with five main stations, ten subsidiary stations, and twenty emergency fields. Each main station, we are told, will be provided with a municipal landing field, wireless and telephone equipment, and a meteorological station, which will forecast weather conditions and wind directions and disseminate such information to the fliers along the route. There is no government appropriation for the project, but the promoters will appeal to the chambers of commerce, agricultural, and civic organizations to assist in creation of the airways. Other airways suggested are between New York and Langley Field, Virginia; Jacksonville and San Diego, St. Paul and Seattle, New Orleans and Chicago. No doubt some such plan will eventually be carried out, for in the not distant future we may anticipate a great increase in traffic by the air route.

In an article telling how everybody in Swedish villages watches over the forests, with help always assured when needed, the Toronto Globe says that every man, woman and child is a natural forest protector, because they are educated to realize its value, and the laws also are very stringent. We quote further: "Incipient fires are quickly discovered. Help is nearly always ready at hand. The law requires that every citizen between sixteen and sixty must respond to a call to fight a forest fire. The Swedish army is also subject to similar service when it is required of it. Swedish forest experts who have visited Canada marvel at the tremendous losses sustained by Canadian forests through the agency of preventable fires. They incline to the opinion that adequate fire protective measures are more necessary in Canada than restrictions on cutting. They are willing to admit that many differences exist between the physical conditions in the two countries, but they insist that Canada's forest fire losses could be greatly reduced by systematic effort and good laws properly enforced such as have been applied with such good effect in Sweden."

THE WATER SUPPLY.

The water supply of St. John must be kept free from contamination. It is vital to the health of the citizens. For many years it has been the boast of the city that it possessed an abundant supply of pure water. If the results obtained by Dr. Abrahamson by tests of the water from one tap are found to be typical of the whole supply, the necessity for drastic action will be obvious. This is not a matter to be debated at great length and dealt with by half-measures. If it appears that the city should obtain control of the whole watershed at the source of supply in order to protect the public, the thing must be done. This question has been up many times in the last forty years, and the city has moved gradually in the direction of complete control, but without as yet securing it. The Board of Health does well to take immediate precautionary measures, and to make such further tests as are necessary to establish the general purity or impurity of the water supply. If further steps are necessary the city council also must act with promptness. We are careful to prevent the spread of disease among animals, the spread of fire, and many other evils that threaten; but none of these is as important as a pure water supply for the people. In hot weather large quantities are required to assuage thirst, and if the liquid contains bacteria dangerous to health the peril is greater than at any other season. The warning to boil water before using may be heeded in the home, but thirty persons out of doors are not likely to get the sterilized liquid. There is no cause for serious alarm, for the Board of Health is alive to its duty and will give the citizens full information.

Halifax Chronicle: Lord Lee, First Lord of the British Admiralty, has virtually invited President Harding to call a conference between the United States, Great Britain and Japan on limitation of armaments. "Great Britain said she is ready for such a conference. Japan has said she is ready, too. All that remains is for some one to name the time and place, and I hope the American ambassador does not accept that statement as too broad a hint," said Lord Lee, speaking at the American Society's fourth of July banquet in London.

A Washington despatch says it looks as if the new American tariff would leave Canadian lumber free. There is a very strong sentiment in favor of this course. A good American market would be of enormous benefit to the lumber shippers of this province and Nova Scotia at the present time, but there seems to be very little prospect of improvement in conditions this year.

Toronto Globe: The Irish linen trade, the greatest in the world, seems to be looking to Canada for a supply of flax. The Russian crop has disappeared, there is a serious falling off in Holland, Belgium and France, and this year's sowings in Ireland are only about one-third of those of last year.

RUTH TO NAOMI

Entreat me not to leave thee—
Thy worth I will I know;
So deeply I believe thee
That anywhere I'll go.

And pitch my tent beside thee,
Thou hast so won my heart,
That whatsoever betide thee,
From thee I never can part.

I leave old things behind me,
Thy kin' and God I'll take;
Let this profession bind me,
That with the past I break.

Leave safe in Orpha's keeping
The graves we went around;
With thee a place of sleeping
I'll find in Judah's ground.

I feel a strange new wonder;
Come, every danger brave!
Nought shall these new ties under—
One home, one God, one grave!

—Alexander Louis Fraser.

LIGHTER VEIN.
All Off Balance.
A golfer dropped into a store to buy a driver. "This club is off balance," he remarked to the clerk as he jiggled a nice looking brassie. "That is a special order club. Let me have it please," said the clerk nervously, piquing the curiosity of the shopper. The manager, an old friend of the golfer, happened along just then. "Bill," asked the customer, "what is a stage whisper?" "That is the best club in the bag. It holds just two drinks of hootch, and the handle is hollowed out," and Scotland was vindicated.

Saving the Profit.
Kathleen—Did you return Harold's ring when you broke off your engagement?
Maggie—No, I paid him what it cost him. Diamonds have gone up 100 per cent since he bought it.—Stry Stotes.

Exception That Proves Rule.
"Now you all understand," said the teacher, "that the trunk is in the middle of the body, don't you?"
"Taint in an elephant," spoke up one youngster.—Boston Transcript.

Unromantic Cause.
Mr. Stalate—Have never seen such greedy eyes as yours."
Miss Frank—"Perhaps you've never stayed so late before."

Mistaken Identity.
"Cap'n, sub" explained the unbelieved motorcycle courier who had unsuccessfully attempted to navigate a French highway in night traffic, "everything was just what I needed, and the handle was just what I needed to dodge in between two motorcycles."
"Well, what of it?"
"Well, all day was to it, Cap'n, sub. Dem two motorcycles was a truck."

Quite in His Line.
Tramp—"Can you assist me along the road, mum?"
Lady—"Personally I cannot, but I can unchain my dog and I know he will be pleased to do so."

THE PLAYGROUNDS.
At a meeting of the Playgrounds Association yesterday afternoon routine business in the form of committee reports and the June report of the general supervisor were considered. Miss Heffer's report of the filling of the places of teachers who had resigned, and that the teachers were all giving satisfaction. The report spoke of the need for shelters at the Centennial and Carleton playgrounds. The matter of car fare and ferry tickets for teachers who live some distance from their playgrounds was mentioned in the report. On motion this matter was left in the hands of the president who recommended the purchase of some more equipment. Miss Heffer was given authority to buy one standard Centennial playground, and if it worked out for Alexandria playground.

U. S. TARIFF IN RELATION TO THE DOMINION

(Toronto Globe)
At his own request, it is asserted, President Harding is given authority under the draft tariff bill submitted to congress to impose duties equal to those of another country when that nation maintains a discriminatory rate of duty on American goods. This clause represents the "big stick" to be flourished in the face of countries that discriminate especially against American goods, but there is danger that the aggressive high protectionists who are in the saddle at Washington may endeavor to utilize the authority which will be conferred under the tariff bill to impose duties on American goods. Vacation Needs

In Smart Apparel

From the very first day of one's vacation, till the last thing has been packed up for the return trip home, there must be suitable clothes—not necessarily such a lot of them—simply the right kinds.

In the matter of frocks there are two great divisions—Sports, and Dress-Up. These should be chosen with an eye to their suitability.

For Sports' wear you can find here the new Tuxedo Sweaters; Skirts in plaids or the fashionable blazer stripes; Jersey Suits; Middy Blouses; Tubable Skirts; and other garments correct in every little detail.

For Dress-Up there are frocks of colorful Voiles and Gingham; beautiful creations in Crepe-de-chine, Georgette and Tafeta.

Most important is the matter of details. Fresh Neckwear, plenty of gloves, immaculate blouses, untorn hair nets, smart sport hats and hosiery are touches that give the crisp, finished appearance to simplest summer clothes.

You Are Invited to Inspect Our Holiday Apparel Sections.

LOCAL NEWS

Commissioner Jones accompanied by S. A. Sewell, superintendent of water, yesterday visited the eastern watershed from which the city proper receives its water supply. Mr. Jones said he saw no indication of hoisting or bathing in any of the lakes. He said the water was down about six inches below normal level. He also intimated that the matter of water pollution would probably be brought up in council next week.

The East St. John scouts held a concert last evening in the Edith Avenue hall the proceeds to go toward sending them to camp at Grand Lake. Those taking part were C. A. Lawson, Pat Whittle, Miss Edith Magee, Scout Chandler, Scout Brindley, M. Y. Riddell, Wolf Cub Levison. Rev. G. M. Henry addressed the boys as did also M. V. Riddell, scout organizer from Ottawa.

The attendance at the Rural Summer School of Science in Sussex is expected to reach a record. The school will open next week under the direction of A. C. Gorham, M. Sc., and will continue for four weeks. Other instructors at the camp will be Prof. Frank Wheelock of Acadia University, who will lecture on practical physics, and O. Hicks of the agricultural department, who will give instructions in cereals, soils and general farm chemistry. William McIntosh, M. Sc., of this city, will lecture on animal life and nature study.

"SILVERGLEAN" YARNS FOR SUMMER KNITTING

(CORTICELLI)

That piece of knitted work you have in mind can best be made up from "Corticelli Silverglean" yarn. It has a silky thread in it and is delightful to work with; the colors are fast. Repeated washings cannot dim the lustre of their brilliant hues, nor will repeated wearings tire you of their novel and natural charm.

For general knitting such as scarves, pullovers, children's garments, etc., "Silverglean" is always the favorite. Made in all the fashionable shades such as honey dew, wild rose, scarabe, bluish pink, lilac, Algonquin, beige, marine, silver, etc.

"Corticelli Silverglean" yarns are made in Canada.

CANADIAN RAILWAY WAGES MATTER

It is known, however, that a definite basis of procedure was arrived at. Further conferences between the companies and employes will take place next week.

LEVINE'S DREW BIG CROWD YESTERDAY

Popular Shoe House at 90 King Street Did Thriving Business at Its Sale—Many More Bargains There for You.

There was one spot in St. John yesterday, anyway, that had all the appearance of business revival in the fullest sense of the word and that place was Levine's at 90 King street—the place where the footwear bargains reign supreme.

Experienced as this firm is with quick response to sales appeals the busy store was fairly carried off its feet. And that the public is satisfied with the timely offerings made was apparent from the way they bought and the words of appreciation on their part.

Fortunately for those who have not yet had an opportunity to take advantage of the snags the sale will continue for some few days yet. So don't be disappointed when you hear your friends tell of their good fortune. Come yourself today and get the same values they received.

Needless to say that when this sale closes the pre-sale prices, although low in themselves, but not so low as the sale prices, will again become effective.

So place Levine's at the top of your shopping list this afternoon or tonight and save real Canadian money on footwear of quality. Levine's, 90 King street.

On To Calgary and The Women's Council

During the past week of interminable entertainment and diversion we had the pleasure of a call from Chief Longance, Montana born, now resident of Calgary, a writer of magazine stories and also editorials for the Calgary Herald. He served overseas with distinction during the five years of war, going over as a private with the 88th Ottawa Battalion (though he quaintly remarked he had not seen Ottawa yet), won his commission, and later a captaincy; is now with the 60th Battalion of the 2nd Calgary Regiment. At the garden party at Mr. Roper Hall's I heard his name mentioned, and recalling that my son had spoken enthusiastically of Chief Longance, whom he had met in France and again in England, word was sent to him and a ready response on the telephone made possible a chance to see a young, fine looking, soldierly man of twenty-nine, whose appearance was more that of a well-dressed Cuban, and whose regiment of speech and manner made the half hour pass very quickly. His quick recognition of the mother through likeness to the son was charming, and when the call was over the St. John woman realized she had found another to add to her already lengthening list of new Calgary friends. Souvenirs and magazines containing his name were promised, and confidence inspired that they would be promptly forwarded, as the promise of the true Indian is inviolable. History of the National Council of Women was imparted to him and the importance of the Women's Parliament of Canada duly impressed. It is to be regretted that advance information of its platform of work had not reached further than the Local Council of Women, while through this last week ereg where has been heard the regret from many old timers, who do not form its inner circles of work, that the able discussions and addresses were only heard by the more actively interested. The summer months bring many con-out ice-cream cones, and ready later at the street cars to help aboard the tired mothers and little ones. Calgary never forgets her children, and we were informed that the Rotarians and Pilks are foremost in helping the city juniors enjoy many pleasures great and small. Does it need always a Mr. O'Connell to finance our St. John children on a summer outing? The Soldier Settlement wives and kiddies are in Calgary; began arriving on Saturday in big numbers to attend the government courses on housekeeping and farming. A day nursery was improvised in the church building, so recently the headquarters of the National Council of Women, and Mrs. Jean Muldrew is in the midst directing and energizing every active worker in Calgary into eager patient service. One of my friends, an old-timer, whose invitation for hospitality was one of others I gratefully declined, has opened her beautiful, luxurious home to soldier-wives, whom I feel sure will return to their home, rested, happy and with a store of information for future house-keeping pleasure from these short courses improvised by the government. Days may not seem so wearisome in their schedule of work in the bright memories of a Calgary woman's courteous hospitality. The hostel for immigrant girls, and working girls not earning more than 30¢ per month is a delightful home situated on Fourth Ave., dainty and artistic in all its appointments. One can hardly conceive such a charming place, planned and owned by the Calgary women interested in this work, and who proudly state that there is no debt on the building, which they own. An attractive sitting room for girls, blinds eliminated, and in their place soft, restful curtains of brown, and restful chairs, and flowers everywhere in the rooms, and on the tables of the bright dining room, to gladden and refresh the eyes of the stranger. While there, Mrs. Robson, active in this immigration work for Western Canada, arrived, and a few moments for departure were delayed to greet and tell her of the National. The Chinese cook of my hostess surely possesses the soul of an artist in embryo, or else has become enchanted with the beauties of Alberta. He dipped the brushes of inspiration into his mistress's box of oils, and lo! there was a woodland scene of trees, hills and water, with the moon shining gloriously forth upon a sleeping sylvan spot. Later, signed with his full name, it was presented to me with broad smiles and gay chuckles. Since then Sing has literally poured out his soul upon the stray cardboard house affords, and between dishes washing and cooking of meals, manages scenes of still more streams and fields, and a stray bridge or so—with even wild flowers adorning the underbrush. My hostess showed him vases exquisitely adorned, her own work, but he smiled and said, "No, you buy," and still refused to realize her claim of workmanship, and who knows, seek to emulate, though I trust for her peace of mind it would be on her beloved wedgewood. He said to me: "When you go?" "Monday," I replied. "How far?" "Six-day journey," my answer. "No, too far," shaking his head in consideration of the long journey east. He had intended following the motor party to Midanpore on Sunday on his wheel, but the distance was too much for him to finish, so he turned back, at least work, take wheel and look. His interest in the family is wonderful, and with the little boys he is always ready to yield the tennis racket, to play ball, or to order the late comers in dinner. As the host remarked the other night: "Sing made me leave the lawn and come in. I guess he's boss." His cakes are a miracle of beauty of adornment—roses, turrets, and battlements in grand array, while each one of the family valiantly sits it his his or her birthday, to have the glory of possession. Only memories now, as with my face turned to the east, like Mohamed, I mumbled my prayers for a safe journey across the continent. We passed Drum-skies and spreading over it splashes of red that were almost white. I continued in it still linger on the platform, while the darkness steals noiselessly on, and there comes to me those lines in fragments of thought: "And lo! a hush is in the air— "As if the winds were saying pray—" This morning we passed many interesting little settlements, or towns, and between great stretches of growing wheat without sign of house or barn—and four and five elevators near the stations, telling their own story of what the crops would be to fill these immense places. Prairies flecked with the golden daisy with blood red centre, my loved single prairie rose welcomed like a long lost friend, later, underbrush, and quantities of tall rose bushes massed with bloom; ranch house, appearing as if suddenly dropped from the sky; prosperous looking barns, and the knowledge of many endless tracts of wheat lands. At midnight, a meadow lark is gaily heralding its appearance in time for the train's arrival, and I stand in admiration, while from a telegraph pole with true nonchalance he sings on and on, until we are lost from his view. "Teach me half the gladness "That my heart must know—" and I wonder if I have quoted correctly! We will be in Winnipeg tomorrow, and the day will be spent there until five p. m., when the journey will be resumed to Toronto. A. Pauline Raymond

They bear interest at 5 1/2 per cent. per annum, COMPOUNDED HALF-YEARLY, and the following table shows the amounts required to purchase Bonds for specified sums payable at the end of five years:

$ 76.24 will purchase a Bond for	$100
$152.48 will purchase a Bond for	$200
$325.20 will purchase a Bond for	$500
$762.40 will purchase a Bond for	$1000

Money invested to return simple interest at 5 1/2 per cent. per annum, payable half yearly, will double itself in a little over 18 years, whereas if invested to return the same rate compounded half yearly it will double itself in less than 13 years.

We particularly recommend these Bonds to those not in need of an immediate return on their investment or to anyone wishing to provide an amount for a specific purpose at some future date.

Any further information desired will be gladly furnished on request.

ORANGE LODGE CASE OF INTEREST

George A. Blair Takes Action Against the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick.

A case of unusual interest to the members of the Orange Association will be entered in the Chancery Division on July 12. George A. Blair of this city is the plaintiff and the Orange Lodge of the Province of New Brunswick, at the defendant. The plaintiff, who has been a life long member of the order, a past master and one of the local lodges and an honorary member of the grand body, was suspended from the order by a resolution passed at the last annual session of the independent corporation, held in Moncton in April last. He contends that he was irregularly and unconstitutionally suspended, as he never received notice of any charge being preferred against him, nor was he in fact ever accorded the right of a trial.

CEASE RAFTING AT NASHWAAK

Water Too Low—The King's Daughters' Committees are Named.

(Special to Times.)
Fredericton, N. B., July 9.—The Nashwaak Pulp and Paper Company on Saturday will indefinitely suspend rafting operations at the mouth of the Nashwaak River on account of the extremely low water. For some time the dam at Marysville has been used to store water, sufficient being contained to carry logs to the mouth of the stream. Lately it has been impossible to store enough water in a night to carry on the rafting operations the next day. Forty men will be out of employment and many will join the fighting crews. Only heavy rain will remedy this condition.

MAINE CROPS SUFFER.

Bangor Commercial—Hay and grain crops in Penobscot, Piscataquis, Hancock and the lower part of Aroostook counties have suffered greatly from the long continued drought and farmers and agricultural specialists concur in the opinion that there will not be more than half or two-thirds of a hay crop this year. Grain has prematurely yellowed and crops will be smaller and of an inferior quality this year. Other crops are suffering in the same proportion, farmers say, potatoes being perhaps the hardest hit by the dry weather. Corn usually thrives in hot, dry weather but this year farmers report that their corn fields look anything but promising. There was comparatively little corn planted this year.

Comes To Hampton.—The Rev. G. A. Ross of the Methodist church will preach his last sermons to the people among whom he has ministered during the past four years in Bathurst, on Sunday morning and evening, prior to leaving for Hampton, N. B., where he is going at the behest of the Methodist Conference held recently, and over which he was elected president.

HOW WE LOSE SOME BUSINESS TO THE U. S.

Ottawa, July 8.—Canadian fresh fruit has in general a better flavor than Californian, though the appearance of the latter no doubt due to climatic reasons and methods of packing, is superior, it is stated in a bulletin of the department of trade and commerce by Major Gordon B. Johnson, Canada's trade commissioner in Glasgow.

Major Johnson says further that Canadian packers pay too little attention to the important matter of grading, both as to size and quality. For this reason alone, he asserts, a large amount of business which might be Canadian is allowed to go to California.
