These are some talk of Princess Mary coming to Canada for a short visit with the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall if they return to Rideau Hall.

Was a Gloomy Day In London Stock Market

Monday Saw Greater Depression Than on Any Day Since Outbreak of Balkan War—C. P. R. Drop a Feature

(Canadian Press)

London, June 3.—The London Times says: "Not since the autumn, when the outbreak of war in the Balkans seriously alarmed speculators in stocks and real estate, has the London market seen such a gloomy day. The market was depressed as never before, and the selling of securities was much increased by the unexpected fresh creation of German imperial and Prussian consols, but the selling came also on a considerable scale from the other side of the Atlantic. The depression was enhanced by the selling of new Canadian Pacific shares by the holders who do not wish to have to provide calls which mature later in the year."

Fenaghvale, Ont., Jan. 29th, 1910. "For thirty-five years (and I am now a man over seventy), I have been a terrible sufferer from Constipation. No matter what remedy or physicians I employed, the result was always the same—impossible to get a cure. About 2 years ago, I read the testimonial of Hon. John Costigan regarding "Fruit-a-tives" and I decided to give them a trial. I have used "Fruit-a-tives" ever since. They are the first and only medicine that suited my case. If it were not for "Fruit-a-tives," I am satisfied I could not live."

EMIGRATION FROM SCOTLAND SO FAR THIS YEAR MAKES A RECORD

Almost 30,000 From the Clyde to Canada and States—Australia Getting More Than Before

London, June 2.—The volume of emigration from Scotland during the last four and a half months is much larger than it has ever been during the corresponding period of previous years. The number of passengers who sailed from the Clyde from the beginning of the year was almost 80,000, an increase of more than 10,000 as compared with 1912. This difference is due largely to the fact that while the opening of the emigration season was delayed last year by the coal strike and other labor disturbances, it started very early this year—earlier than it has ever done.

HOW I MADE MY HAIR GROW

Women With Marvelously Beautiful Hair Give Simple Home Prescription Which She Used With Most Remarkable Results

I was greatly troubled with dandruff and falling hair. I tried many advertised hair preparations and various prescriptions, but they all signally failed. Many of them made my hair greasy so it was impossible to comb it or do it up properly. I think that many of the things I tried were positively injurious and from my own experience I cannot too strongly caution you against using preparations containing wood alcohol and other poisonous substances. I believe they injure the roots of the hair, prevent my hair from growing, and I found a simple prescription which I can unhesitatingly state is beyond doubt the most effective thing for the hair I have ever seen. Many of my friends have also used it, and obtained wonderful effects. It is not only a powerful stimulant to the growth of the hair and for restoring gray hair to its natural color, but it is equally good for removing dandruff, giving the hair life and brilliancy, etc. and for the purpose of keeping the scalp in fine condition. It also makes the hair easier to comb and arrange in nice forms. I have a friend who used it that long it has not only stopped the falling of his hair and wonderfully increased its growth, but he naturally curly hair has become straight. The ingredients for making this are: Menthol Crystals, Bay Rum, 6 oz.; Menthol Crystals, 2 oz. If you like it perfumed add a few drops of To-Kalon Perfume, which mixes perfectly with the other ingredients. This, however, is not necessary. Apply night and morning; rub thoroughly into the scalp.

Mr. Cochrane a statement that there would be opportunity for the discussion of this and other government railway matters before parliament prorogued.

BIRTHS

(See page 7)

RECENT DEATHS

Boston, June 2.—(Special)—Patrolman Frederick Sullivan, of East Boston, died today of Bright's disease. His death was probably hastened by the shocking death of his brother a few weeks ago. The brothers were unmarried and lived together. They were devoted to each other and were inseparable companions. The other brother became ill, could not work, became dependent and feared constantly that he was a burden to his brother, so he killed himself.
Frederick Sullivan was born in New Brunswick March 24, 1872. He was appointed a policeman March 7, 1903. He was son of Cornelius Sullivan, of St. John.

Mrs. Mary Stevens, of New York, who is visiting Mr. George Galbraith, 61 Patrick street, has received word of the death of her husband in New York. Mr. Stevens, who is a commercial traveler, had been ill for three months, but was improving and intended to come to St. John on Wednesday. Previous to her marriage Mrs. Stevens was Miss Agnes Watters, of St. John. She expected her husband to join her here on Wednesday of this week.

Glenette S. Kierstead, youngest daughter of Isiah and Fannie I. Kierstead, of Springfield, Kings Co. (N. B.), passed away on May 26 after a very long illness. She is survived by her invalid father, her mother and one sister. In their hour of mourning the relatives are joined by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral was held on May 28, Rev. Mr. Colwell, of Hampton, officiating. The place of interment is the Kiersteadville burial ground near the Kierstead home.
Belleville Creek, May 31.—The death of William Prentice, son-in-law of McLeod, of Belleville Creek, Kings Co., took place at the General Public Hospital, Montreal, on the 28th inst., after a short illness. Mr. Prentice, who was a general favorite with those who knew him, was in the employ of the dining car department of the C. P. R., and his work of late had been in western Canada. His body was brought to Belleville Creek for burial, the funeral service being held in the Methodist church at that place on the 28th inst. Mr. Prentice was a native of Scotland but has been for some time in Canada. He leaves a wife and one child, who have the sincere sympathy of many friends in this time of sorrow. He was twenty-six years of age.

Digby, June 2.—Mrs. Jane Dunn, widow of William Dunn, died in Digby this morning, aged 67 years. She leaves one son, E. P. Dunn, with whom she resided. She is also survived by one brother, Edward Keen, of Digby, and two sisters, Mrs. Urania Worthylake, of Barton, and Mrs. Baxter Smith, of Northampton (Mass.).

NICKEL'S BILL WILL DRAW THE CROWDS

Strong List of Attractions For The Holiday at the Big Picture House
—Some Fine Features

The Monday-Tuesday bill at the Nickel, which received its first presentation yesterday, was as full of interesting features as the proverbial egg. This same programme is to be continued throughout the holiday, commencing at 1.30 and 6.30. John W. Myers was royally welcomed back and his number, The Port of Missing Ships, elicited rounds of applause. Mr. Myers is to change his songs with the picture bill during his stay—three times per week.

The pictures at the Nickel are a carefully selected lot. Miss Orni Hawley, Lubin leading lady, appears in a charming little romance entitled Love and Literature, the Pathé-American stars present A Woman Scorned in masterly fashion and the redoubtable John Bunny, assisted by charming Rose Tapley, and the Vitagraph Twins, make fun a plenty in Bunny Sees Double. Then comes a sweet portrayal of a boy and girl, the collie dog star and her six little collie babies. The manner in which clever old Jean teaches her puppies to fight and play is very amusing.

In addition to all this fine line of pictures and songs the Edison Talking Pictures were a tremendous hit yesterday—being vastly an improvement over any yet shown. It was a musical sketch called The Five Jolly Blacksmiths and introduced quartets, solos, funny sayings, marches and a lot of bright comedy. Little Edna Flanagan of the Edison studios had a pretty little part in this excellent and lifelike sketch.

SPECIAL FEATURES FOR THE KING'S BIRTHDAY

Unique Presents Attractive Programme — The Grey Sentinel, Thrilling War Picture, The Leader

The Unique theatre is presenting a special feature programme in honor of the King's birthday, which made a decided hit with audiences yesterday and will no doubt more than please today's patrons. The extra subject is The Grey Sentinel, the latest effort of the famous Broncho Picture Company. It is a coast story, a relief to their general run of subjects, and the Grey Sentinel is a Virginia lighthouse, but the scenes are those of the Civil War, and the movement is of tremendous almost bewildering energy. Boats launched in the breakers, marine pictures of a surf beaten shore, fierce engagements in deadly conflict, cavalry charges, infantry movements, desperate falls, fighting in trenches, behind barricades, within hours and on the sea. Perhaps there is a little too much action in the Grey Sentinel, but none can dispute that it is a wonderful picture in every respect. They largely involve the adventures of a young officer, but is a decided relief to the usual war studies. They are shown at the Unique the first of every week.

TROUBLE WITH SIGNATURES OF PETITIONERS

Common Clerk Cannot Identify Names — Weekly Meeting of Common Council

The payments made by the city during the month of May according to the report of the commissioner of finance and public affairs at the meeting of the city commissioners yesterday afternoon amounted to $17,600.25, but $8,000 of this was for the redemption of bonds. Another large amount was for interest on bonds. The following were also recommended for payment: Public safety department, $794.90; harbors, ferries and public lands, $1,461.65; treasury department, $208.48; water and sewerage, $874.47; public works, $1,801.07.

Mayor Frank announced that the reason no action has been taken on the petition against the amendment to the building law which limits the construction of wooden buildings to two stories was the difficulty the common clerk is experiencing in identifying the names of the signers. So far he has approved of 800 of the 1,500 signatures.

Edward Craig granted a renewal of a lease to lot F, Guy's ward, for a further term of five years at an increased rental of $20 a year. Albert J. Taylor is to receive a lease of a lot in Green Head, Lancaster, for a term of seven years, at $25 per year under the condition that he erect a house upon the lot by May 1, 1914.

The commissioner of public works was given authority to expend the difference between the cost of the pavement in King square and Sidney street for the purpose of putting the surface coating on these roadways. The contracts to present all necessary data on the city works will place the final coating of asphalt or other material that is thought necessary.

The McClary Manufacturing Co. was granted permission to take down the railing wall in Prince William street to allow workmen to erect the reinforced concrete wall at the street level. The company is also to take down the whole wall on Murder Hill, to allow the street to slope till excavation work can be done. They are then to build thereon a wall to exactly fifty-one feet from the Custom House. The McClary Co. is to grade Murder Hill to the satisfaction of the commissioner of public works and the city is to contribute $500 towards the work. The company is to execute an agreement satisfactory to the commissioner and the recorder.

It was decided to make an extension to the water main in Sand Cove road for a distance of 1,850 feet, upon the property owners entering into a preliminary agreement to the satisfaction of the commissioner of public works and the city is to contribute $500 towards the work. The company is to execute an agreement satisfactory to the commissioner and the recorder.

The Eastern Steamship Company, through its local agent, asked that Frank Olive be given the powers of a policeman so that he could work about the wharves and sheds of the company. Commissioner McLellan said that he understood that the chief of police had the appointment of the policeman and he thought that the mayor would have to recommend the appointment. The mayor will consider the matter and report later.

Commissioner Schofield was authorized to open negotiations with the Dominion Department of Public Works in regard to the C. P. R. and No. 1 wharves at West St. John. At present there were jobs in each and it was thought that the government should build a concrete wall in order to make the faces of these wharves available for steamers.

Glasgow, June 3.—The Secretary for Scotland, T. McKinnon Wood, M.P., received a deputation here, representing a corporation committee and the executive of the Mill-Scotland Canal Association, on the subject of a proposed deep sea canal connecting the Clyde and the Forth, and following the direct route by the Kelvin Valley.

The naval and commercial value of the proposed was emphasized, and the suggestion was put forward that a grant should be given out of the development fund to enable engineers to obtain the necessary data on which to base a close estimate of the cost of the undertaking. Mr. Wood expressed his sympathy with the latter proposal, but could not commit himself to any responsibility without consulting his colleagues, the result of that survey being that the government was to find the whole cost, now estimated at $27,000,000.

BOUQUETS FOR SENATE

In view of the attacks that are now being made upon Sir George Ross and the Liberal members of the senate, it is worth while to quote some remarks made by Premier Borden himself in the course of his recent speech in the city of Toronto. He said:—

"I deprecate the assertion that the majority in the Canadian senate is merely an echo of a discredited minority in the house of commons, and that whenever Sir Wilfrid Laurier pulls the strings the Liberal senators will dance as he desires. There are many men of high character and intelligence among the Liberal senators, and I entirely decline to believe that their action would be thus unworthily controlled."

The Ottawa Citizen is a pronounced Conservative newspaper, and therefore its remarks concerning Sir George Ross may fairly be quoted. It says:—

"The well known imperialism of Sir George Ross will do much to shield him from the adverse comment of those who would fain charge him with disloyalty to the Naval Aid Bill. He has so lately been given a good character in this regard by the prime minister himself that such charge must fall rather flat."

But the Citizen goes a step farther and approves of the solution of the difficulty which has been proposed by Sir George Ross, and endorsed by the Liberal members of the senate. The Citizen says:—

"Whatever fault might be found with his (Sir George Ross) seven objections to the bill, the solution suggested for final settlement was so much in line with the principles of democracy as to commend itself to the impartial citizen and patriot."

These quotations from Conservative sources should have a corrective influence upon those who may have been deceived by the wild utterances of the partisan press, such for example as those of the St. John Standard, which has become one of the most utterly unreliable and slavishly partisan newspapers in Canada.

BORDEN AS A HERO

The Victoria Colonist, in an editorial praising Mr. Borden, and especially praising his Toronto speech, reveals itself as a hero-worshipper content with heroism of very moderate dimensions. Mr. Borden is described as "nailing the colors of Canadian patriotism to the mast," "tearing away the mask from Sir Wilfrid Laurier," and giving all Canadians cause for thankfulness that public affairs are in the hands of such a great statesman as the Conservative leader. The Colonist describes Mr. Borden as: "a bold and courageous man, of high purpose and firm resolve, determined to serve the mother country in an hour of need."

It describes him as being: "courageous in the determination to stand or fall by a policy which he believes to be vital to the well-being of the Empire."

The Victoria Colonist does not often make itself ridiculous by fulsome eulogy of a political leader, and it is not easy to understand how that journal could mistake Mr. R. L. Borden for a great statesman. The man who was willing to profit by the double game played in 1911 certainly cannot qualify on that score as a great statesman. No more disgraceful appeals were ever made to the electors of Canada than were made by the Borden party in Ontario and some of the other provinces, at the same time that the party was profiting by appeals of an exactly opposite character though equally disgraceful in the province of Quebec. This may be successful political trickery. It may win a temporary triumph, but it is not statesmanship; and it cannot gain a permanent advantage. Mr. R. L. Borden has had several splendid opportunities to prove himself a statesman, if it were possible for him to measure up to that standard. Unfortunately he has not done so, but has remained the nominal head of a party in which the real power is with such men as Rogers and Pelletier and Nantel.

The Liberals were successful in two by-elections for the legislature in Quebec province yesterday.

The labor party in Australia appears to have been defeated in the federal elections which have just been held, although the party still has a majority in the senate.

Eleven nations have responded favorably to the proposals of Secretary Bryan of the United States tending toward universal peace. All declare themselves in favor of the general principle. Perhaps such an acknowledgment does not mean very much, but it is a step in the right direction.

His subjects everywhere have a kindly and a loyal feeling toward the person of King George, whose birthday is today celebrated. Since his accession to the throne he has justified the confidence of those who declared that he would be a wise ruler, and he has won and held the love of his people. King George has become him the promise of many years of

AMENDED BANK ACT PASSED BY COMMONS

Ottawa, June 2.—The bank act, the chief legislative achievement of the government this session, apart from the other achievement of piling up expenditures of nearly a quarter of a billion dollars, is finally through both houses of parliament.

The commons this afternoon by a vote of 88 to 10, on non-party lines, endorsed the motion of the minister of finance to concur in the amendments made by the senate. The bill was finally passed substantially the same as it was when first introduced in the house early in the session. There is no radical departure in principle from the original act passed in 1871.

The final comparatively brief but somewhat vigorous discussion today gave opportunity for a little gallery play. It was charged that there had been too much lobbying on the part of interests representing the bankers both in the commons and the senate, a charge, however, which was indignantly denied on both sides of the house.

In the end a peculiar and somewhat amusing spectacle was presented by several of the members on the Conservative side of the house rising to demand a vote on the motion of the finance minister that the senate amendments be concurred in. Eight Conservatives, Messrs. Nield, Taylor, Stevens, Bennett (Calgary), Meighan, McCreedy and MacLean (York) and two Liberals, Messrs. Emmerson and Buchanan, voted against the motion. Premier Borden and the members of the government with the rest of the members. The amendments inserted by the upper house were, as Mr. White explained, of a minor character and did not affect any vital principle of the bill.

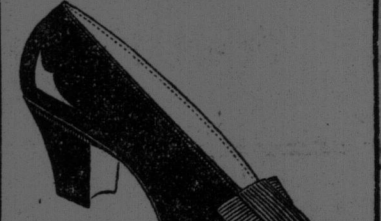

AGRICULTURAL BULLETIN

(Bulletin of Agricultural Statistics—May, 1913.)
The International Institute of Agriculture has just published the May number of its bulletin of agricultural statistics, and the following is a summary of the most important information contained therein.
The bulletin gives the data concerning the areas sown under cereal crops in the most important countries. These crops, as a whole, are in good condition and have only suffered very slight damage from the frosts which occurred almost everywhere in Europe during the month of April. These same frosts caused very little damage to the vines in Spain and Italy, whilst the vines in

Tired and Weak Nerves Exhausted

The feeling of fatigue and languor which overcomes so many people at this season of the year tell of the exhausted condition of the nerves.
It is impossible to keep up the action of the heart and the vitality of the nerves when the blood is thin and watery, and this is why nearly everybody needs tonic treatment in the spring.
Some of the symptoms are restlessness, purposeless activity, insomnia, absent-mindedness, tired gait, lack of ambition and enthusiasm, headache and neuralgic pains, dyspepsia and feelings of languor and depression.
Monotony of work and mental overstrain or worry sap the nervous system, as does the strenuousness of modern life, whether in the business or social world. More and more men and women are obliged to seek the assistance of such concentrated foods as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore vitality to the tired and worn-out nerves.
Such treatment is necessary, because diseases of the nerves do not right themselves. As nerve force runs low the digestive system fails to extract the necessary nutrition from the food. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food supplies in condensed form the ingredients required, and restores health.
A little patience is necessary in treating diseases of the nerves, and rest helps to restore strength. You can be sure of lasting beneficial results when you use

QUEEN LILUOKALANI

Ex-Monarch as She Appears Today in Her Hawaiian Home

She Still Retains the Place of Mother To Her People — Is 74 Years Old and Has $1,250 a Month Government Allowance

Almost forgotten on the mainland where a dozen years ago she was the subject of continued newspaper gossip, Liluokalani, last monarch of Hawaii, is still very much alive in her native land. Hardly a week passes that she does not furnish "copy" for the Honolulu papers. This copy is not always willingly supplied. The ex-queen is very much averse to being interviewed. She will not see newspaper men. However, there is nothing to prevent a reporter from seeing Her ex-Majesty if he stays in Honolulu any length of time.

I have seen her many, many times within the last ten months. I have genuflected and kissed the royal hand, have seen and spoken to her in her home and out of it, but never interviewed her. She is old now, seventy-four last September, and one has to respect her years quite as much as her rank, and consider her wishes. Besides, she has a temper. No longer ago than last June she went into a rage and had to go to bed for several days because her wishes were crossed.

No reporter, no matter how ambitious he might be, would like to run the risk of sending an old lady to bed for several days in the faint hope that he might sell an interview with her. J. O. Dominis, clerk of the court, and a protégé of hers, who has grown up at Washington place, the queen's home, says that she "is like a mother to us all."

This Washington place is one of the first sights sought by the tourist when he comes to Honolulu, and he is usually disappointed to see, instead of the magnificent palace his imagination had pictured, a simple two-story house, set in the midst of wonderful tropical foliage. The grounds are small, but well kept and beautiful, and very fragrant. The royal residence is not unlike the country farmhouse of a well-to-do New Englander. In fact, it was planned and built by a New England woman, the wife of old Captain Dominis, the queen's mother-in-law. One unique feature it has in the broad stairway, which is made of the beautiful koawood, one of the native trees of the island. Except on the rare occasions when the house is thrown open to the public, the queen lives there, with her retainers, very much as the grand dames of colonial days lived with their servants. I have frequently seen her about the place, dressed in the black holohe, beloved by the Hawaiian woman, and attended by her lady-in-waiting, Princess Kawananakoa, and followed by one or two servants. She has besides her income from her own real and personal property, an allowance of $1,250 a month from the territorial government for the rest of her life, which ought to be enough to keep her from actual want.

She is better looking now than she was in the days when, leaning from

HOW IS THIS FOR A CANADIAN FAMILY?

It's not a father's family, but a grandfather's family, ten grandsons and one granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Apple, of Alton, Ontario. They were gathered in Toronto last week to attend the annual dinner given them by their grand-parents. Their photograph was taken on the steps of the legislative building, in Toronto, in the course of a tally-ho ride round the city.

made her modest little request for the heads of all the "haloes" who dared to say she should not be queen. She is not so fat. Advanced age, many cares, less poi and pig have combined to give back to her a walk line which she was losing at the time of her marriage to Hon. Mr. Dominis, fifty years ago. She is still not exactly spheroidal, but she does not waddle when she walks, which, however, happens very seldom, as she is lame and is usually assisted in her progress by her lady-in-waiting and one of the male attaches of the royal household.

She is Spanish in appearance, especially her eyes, which are large, dark, and still softly luminous. Her voice is like music. Whether she speaks her native tongue, which is so full of vowels that it seems always about to burst into aspirates, or the English which she loves and uses so readily and well, her voice is full of melody.

She loves music, and is herself musical, having composed many of the Hawaiian airs that are heard today on the mainland, the most famous of which is her balcony at the royal palace, she her "Aloha Oe" "Farewell to Thee"—so familiar to all who come into and go out of the port of Honolulu, where it is played by the Royal Hawaiian Band as a goodbye to departing ships. Many of the young singers who have come to Honolulu within the last year owe their popularity here in a large measure to the ex-queen's patronage. At the present time she is one of the subscribers backing a local amusement opera company here from the mainland. But the music she loves best is the singing of her people.

On her birthday, last September, she held a public reception. Seated in state on the throne chair, with two kahili-bearers (pages holding the royal feather dusters) stationed like statues behind her chair, she received from 10 in the morning until 1 in the afternoon. Her own people, the Hawaiians, were the first to be admitted. Some of them still approach their queen by wriggling toward her on their stomachs, but this ancient custom is not adhered to by the younger Hawaiians, who are content with pressing their lips to the hand of the Queen—some merely shaking hands.

Liluokalani, as her health permits, or when the whim takes her, likes to receive people of note who happen to be in Honolulu. She received Dr. Elliot and his party on their way home from the Orient, and attended receptions given in honor of Secretary Knox and of Secretary Fisher when they were here—Jean West Maury, in Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In the will of William H. Hillier, just probated in Philadelphia, there is a clause which reads: "I bequeath to Noble Robinson $5 should he survive me, as he kept his promise never to marry. Should he die before me, the same is to be turned over to a worthy charity." No further clue to Robinson's identity is contained in the will. The rest of Mr. Miller's estate of $5,680 is left to his widow and children.

Nearly two-thirds of all the letters carried by the postal service of the world are written, sent to and received by English-speaking people.

The death is announced in her 100th year of Mrs. Mary Ann Cooper, of Southgate, a playmate of Charles Dickens, and the original of "Little Dorrit."

Parcel post antedates federation in the Australian Commonwealth, each state having its own system prior to that time. By far the larger part of the parcel business is still carried on within state boundaries, as the returns for 1911 show. In that year there were carried by the Australian post office no less than 8,287,000 parcels, of which 2,760,000 were carried within state boundaries. This does not include "C. O. D." parcels, which are also carried by the Australian post office; nor does it include packages, a large number of which contain goods.

The "C. O. D." business of the Australian post office is itself a growing institution. Prior to confederation "C. O. D." parcels were handled by the post office in Queensland only but the business has since extended over the whole commonwealth. In 1911 there were 795 parcels of this character posted; in 1912 the number was 1,212, and in 1913, 1,546. About half the business was done in Queensland, but Western Australia contributed nearly a third. The system, which is appreciated chiefly in the less closely settled states, enables a store to mail a parcel to a purchaser and have the price collected by the postal officials. For this service the post office charges a small commission in now in force in the United States. Australia does not possess the "zone" system as it is understood in the United States; but it has two classes of rates, one for parcels carried within one state and the other for parcels carried in inter-state traffic. The rates for inter-state parcels follow closely the rates in the United States for the thousand mile zone. The inter-state parcel rates are just a little higher—about five cents throughout—than the rates for carrying a parcel from coast to coast in the United States.

Parcel post antedates federation in the Australian Commonwealth, each state having its own system prior to that time. By far the larger part of the parcel business is still carried on within state boundaries, as the returns for 1911 show. In that year there were carried by the Australian post office no less than 8,287,000 parcels, of which 2,760,000 were carried within state boundaries. This does not include "C. O. D." parcels, which are also carried by the Australian post office; nor does it include packages, a large number of which contain goods.

The "C. O. D." business of the Australian post office is itself a growing institution. Prior to confederation "C. O. D." parcels were handled by the post office in Queensland only but the business has since extended over the whole commonwealth. In 1911 there were 795 parcels of this character posted; in 1912 the number was 1,212, and in 1913, 1,546. About half the business was done in Queensland, but Western Australia contributed nearly a third. The system, which is appreciated chiefly in the less closely settled states, enables a store to mail a parcel to a purchaser and have the price collected by the postal officials. For this service the post office charges a small commission in now in force in the United States. Australia does not possess the "zone" system as it is understood in the United States; but it has two classes of rates, one for parcels carried within one state and the other for parcels carried in inter-state traffic. The rates for inter-state parcels follow closely the rates in the United States for the thousand mile zone. The inter-state parcel rates are just a little higher—about five cents throughout—than the rates for carrying a parcel from coast to coast in the United States.

THE DEMAND FOR MONEY

(Bradstreet's) Metaphorically, borrowers of funds from all points are tapping at the tills of the money lenders. There seems to be an insatiable desire for money. France, England and Germany hoard, or try to hoard, their gold. India, Egypt and South America continue to call for the yellow metal, and having obtained it, each and all of them apparently proceed to keep it. That which goes to India and to Egypt probably never comes back to the leading centers. Loans for this or that government are on the schedule, and capital is needed for a multiplicity of other enterprises. War bills growing out of the Balkan entanglements will have to be financed, and China wants $200,000,000 to expend on railway building within the next ten years. Idle dollars are few, and the borrower who would have funds must pay the increased interest rates demanded. Some of the fields, China and the Balkan countries, may not be stable enough as yet for investments, but times and things for those quarters of the globe are changing, and it is obvious that a new order of development is on the cards. So it is evident that competition for capital will be a factor for some while to come. The dollar must work with renewed energy, and its velocity must increase if it is to fulfill expectations. In the face of patent facts, economic views about the plethora of gold are

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT AT WAR WITH FREEMASONRY

Heads of Army and Navy Announce Drastic Action Against Violators of Orders Milan, June 2.—The Italian government is making an effort to suppress membership of secret societies, in general, and Freemasonry in particular, among officers of the army and navy. Some years ago an order to this effect was promulgated, but there was rather an increase than otherwise, so far as Freemasonry was concerned. General Spingardi, the minister for war, has just declared in the senate his firm intention to drum out of the army any officers in Freemasonry. It is held that superior officers have before now yielded to junior officers where the latter had held higher rank in Freemasonry. Signor Cattalicio, minister of marine, has made a similar statement with reference to naval officers. The greater part of the press supports the government in this campaign.

MARATHONS' MANAGER

The task of guiding the St. John Marathons to victory in the E. B. & S. Maine League this year is in the hands of a veteran of the diamond, Frank J. Leonard, of Lynn, Mass., who has been in baseball for twenty-eight years in many capacities, including the management of teams in many places. He has back of him in St. John an earnest body of owners and a loyal aggregation of lovers of the game, who want to see good ball first and then the pennant won after a good fighting season. Mr. Leonard, it is understood, has been given a free hand in the matter of men and methods and he will have the good wishes of all for success in putting the Marathons at the top of the ladder.

HUGE PROFITS IN VODKA MONOPOLY

Russian Government Pressing Drink Sale in All Places For Revenue it Gives Odessa, June 3.—The numerous temperance reform societies in this country are all alike most direct and conscientiously hard-working bodies in the campaign they are waging against the drink evil among the peasant proletariat. Their annual reports bear abundant evidence to the perseverance with which their missions are prosecuted throughout rural Russia. They are mostly under distinguished patronage, and their treasuries are generously furnished by public subscriptions and handsome donations. The best efforts of these philanthropic associations, however, are greatly handicapped by the crown vodka monopoly. This highly lucrative government trust is concerned only with its steadily increasing income, and like a well-organized industrial enterprise, it pushes its activities into every village and hamlet. There may be no school in the village, but the vodka store is never absent. The administration of the vodka trust ignores absolutely anything in the shape or form of local option. One hears of innumerable cases where not only the women-folk of a village, but a large minority of the males themselves, are petitioning the district authorities for the establishment of the monopoly in their midst, but the vodka administration is not at all provoked. Last year the government derived a net profit of more than $800,000,000 from its vodka monopoly. The "voted interests" of the imperial exchequer overrides all considerations of the vodka's health, economic welfare and morality.

BRITANNIC TO BE 4,000 TONS HEAVIER THAN AQUITANIA Harland & Wolff Hope to Launch Newest White Star Steamship November The London Daily Telegraph Belfast correspondent writes: "So far the White Star Company has declined to communicate the official details of the size of its new vessel, the Britannic, now being built for it by Harland & Wolff, but I now learn of an excellent authority that the following are the approximate dimensions of the ship: length 307 feet 9 inches; breadth, 94 feet 6 inches; gross tonnage between 30,000 and 31,000. "The Britannic will thus, while without the length and breadth of the Aquitania, be about 4,000 tons heavier and in respect to tonnage will also be slightly in excess of the Imperator. "March next was fixed as the launching time of the Britannic, but so remarkable has been the progress made during the past two months with a double shift of workmen that builders hope to send the vessel into the water about the end of November. In that event the steamer will be ready for her maiden voyage in August or September of next year." BISHOP IN STEERAGE—HIS PLACE, HE SAYS New York, June 3.—A high church dignitary was a steamer passenger on board the steamer Caronia here from Liverpool. He was the Rev. Chas. H. Brent, Episcopal Bishop in the Philippine Islands. He said he enjoyed the trip immensely. "I came in the steerage," the bishop said, "because I believe the place for a clergyman is with the common people. There I rubbed shoulders with the immigrants who will some day make America a more Christian country than it is at present. I am all that, and then America has reason to be proud of her adopted children. Those on board the Caronia were mostly from Great Britain and Scandinavia and they were a clean and wholesome lot, strong and vigorous. I ate the same food and lived with them and feel better for it." INTEREST IN DECISION IN MONTREAL COURT

New Question Raised in Suit Against Harbor Commissioners Montreal, June 3.—A ruling of moment from a legal standpoint was handed down by Mr. Justice Dunlop, in the exchequer court of Canada, Quebec, admiralty division, yesterday, when the claim of the Sydney, Cape Breton and Montreal Steamship Company Limited against the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal was dismissed on a demurrer filed by the defendant. The question was one never before raised in Canada, and His Lordship, after citing from imperial and federal statutes as well as from the civil code, took up consideration of English and other jurisprudence on the point, finally concluding in favor of the defendant's contention. The suit was for $17,000 brought against the harbor commissioners by the owners of the steamer Batican, chartered by the Dominion Coal Company. The Batican touched at a wharf in the ship channel at Windmill Point on October 4, 1911, and sustained slight damage but was able to continue her trips until the end of the season that year, when she was taken to New York, where permanent repairs were effected. The owners of the vessel then made a claim against the harbor commissioners of Montreal. The latter disclaimed responsibility and after protracted, though futile negotiations, suit was entered by the owners for $17,000.

CANADIAN FORESTRY CONVENTION

The Fifteenth Convention of the Canadian Forestry Association for the presentation of addresses and papers, and the discussion of forestry questions, will be held in Winnipeg on July 7, 8, and 9. While special attention will be given to prairie conditions, the programme will bear testimony to the national character of the work in that the problems now pressing for solution in both east and west will be carefully considered. Assurances have been received from the deputation and nearly all the provinces, that they will be officially represented. Many Canadian authorities on forestry and related problems will be present and a number of the men in the United States, best qualified to give assistance in regard to our conditions have already signified their intention of attending. While the details of the programme cannot yet be given, it is expected that the proceedings will be opened by the lieutenant governor, on Monday evening, July 7 at an official reception in which the delegates will be welcomed by the representatives of the government of Manitoba, city of Winnipeg, etc. The following two days will be devoted to the presentation of papers, and such entertainment features as shall be arranged. The public sessions will be held in one of the halls of the Winnipeg Industrial Bureau, which is well adapted to the handling of conventions of this kind. It is centrally located and has the necessary offices, committee rooms, etc. Owing to the fact that the Canadian Forestry Association has never met before in Winnipeg, there will be brought forward the first time, problems which relate to the great central part of Canada. These will include that of the protection and perpetuation of the forests of Western Ontario and of northern Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta; the best methods of handling prairie forest reserves, and the possibilities of the same in supplying timber, fence posts, poles and cordwood for the settlers; the need of getting under timber the sand lands which will never produce any other profitable crop but trees, and the rate of growth in the central parts of Canada as a basis for deciding the possibility of economical forestry under these conditions. Along with all these will go the discussion of the value of forests as windbreaks, sources of stream supply, and as cover for insectivorous birds. Farm forestry, shelter belts to protect prairies and orchards and the use of hedges will be discussed, as will also the dangers from insects and how these may be combated. Throughout the whole convention the aim will be to have all papers and discussions as practical as possible. READ THIS BOOKLET, "THE HAIR AND ITS CARE"

The Herpicide Company want every one to have a copy of their booklet telling how to take care of and possess nice hair. The booklet contains much valuable information on the subject of saving and cultivating the hair. If the present-day men and women would begin to live up to the teachings of this little booklet it is doubtful if the next generation would find a bald-headed man or lady wearing false hair. It is just as easy to have robust and beautiful hair as to have thin, scraggy hair or no hair at all. If the scalp is kept clean and free from dandruff the hair grows naturally and luxuriantly. The booklet tells how this may be most effectively accomplished by the use of Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide de-

Real Title Match Between Light Weights on July 4 Next

By TOM ANDREWS

A real championship battle between light weights is on the tapis for the fourth of July in California, when Willie Ritchie, the present holder will meet Joe Rivers, of Los Angeles, who has come to the front in the last year in great style. It will be the first battle for the title in more than eight months, Ritchie having won the championship from Ed Wolgast on November 28 last. Ritchie, under the ring rulings should have defended his title sooner, as six months is the usual limit of time elapsing after a title match before another is fought. Ritchie, however, was tied up with theatrical contracts and could not well get away from them, or no doubt he would have fought sooner.

There is always unusual interest in a light weight championship match, and coming on the holiday date, will create all the more interest among the followers of the game. The question that is agitating the minds of Ritchie's friends is whether the stage life he has been following will have any ill effects on his fighting when he gets into the ring again. It must be said to Willie's credit that he is a model athlete, off and on the stage, and he has been kept in fair condition all the while by the careful handling of his manager, Billy Nolan. The latter knows the pitfalls of the stage and he has steered Willie away from them. Many boxers have had their fighting spoiled by stage boxing, getting into the habit of hitting too lightly with the big gloves, but Manager Nolan has again overcome this drawback to considerable extent by inventing a dummy which Ritchie walloped for all he was worth. It gave him a chance to cut loose with all his strength and not "pull his blows." He has met boxers of all styles on the trip and this no doubt has added to his cleverness rather than taken from it.

Rivers, by his defeat of Joe Mandot, southern champion, and Knockout Brown, with a paper decision over Lesch Cross, makes him a very formidable opponent for Ritchie. Rivers is no doubt on a par with the best light weights and should be able to make Ritchie show his best form to win. What the fans would like to see, however, is a match between the winner and Freddy Welsh, British champion, for the world's title, for Welsh is certainly in line for such a match. Freddy has a clear title to the championship of Great Britain and Australia, so it is up to Ritchie to meet him for the world's title.

EDMONTON'S SELF-TAKEN CENSUS SHOWS LARGE GAIN

Edmonton, Alta. June 3.—Thomas Walker, city assessor, says in an official report submitted to Mayor William Short and the council, that the civic census just completed shows a population of 67,842 in the city proper on May 1, as compared with 58,611 on June 1, 1912, an increase approximating 25 per cent.

The dominion census, taken in 1911, gave Edmonton and Strathcona, now merged, a total population of 30,462. This figure was challenged at the time as being too low.

Analysis of the figures for 1912 shows there are 28,469 males and 15,999 females over twenty-one years of age, 10,991 males and 10,889 females under twenty-one years, and 915 unclassified, while on June 1, 1912, there were 22,680 males and 11,432 females over twenty-one years of age, 8,247 males and 8,591 females under twenty-one years, and 2,691 unclassified.

MERRY WIDOW RINGS OVER THE ALPS BY WIRELESS

Geneva, June 3.—The wireless installations around Lake Geneva, from the Port of St. Maurice over 3,000 feet high above Sion to this city, have been puzzled by receiving fragments of personal conversation and portions of walks, such as the Merry Widow and the Italian national hymn.

Now the mystery is explained. Roberto Galletti, an Italian civil engineer, has established the wireless telephone stations at Lausanne, and to amuse a friend the Italian engineer places a phonograph in front of the "wireless phone," and hence the Merry Widow was heard in the Alps.

The steam will be generated by twenty water-tube boilers of the triangular type. The armament will consist of twelve 12 inch guns in four revolving turrets, twenty 5.11 inch guns, and some smaller artillery. Each ship will have four torpedo tubes. The new ships will be protected by side armor and two armored decks of Krupp steel. The hulls are being built partly of soft Martens steel and partly of a special steel of high resistance. The other two dreadnoughts are to be named the "Ekaterina II. and the "Imperator Alexander III." They will be launched, it is expected, in the spring of next year. The completion of a first-class battleship usually occupies, in Russian yards, about two and a half years.

Under the supervision of an expert constructor from Messrs. Thornycroft, several torpedo-boats are under construction at Nicolaieff, and when the dreadnought are off the slips the new cruisers will be taken in hand.

Swan, Hunter, and Wigham Richardson are building a new floating dock at Nicolaieff. It will be one of the largest in the world, capable of carrying a vessel of 40,000 tons.

METHODIST CONFERENCE ON RING FIGHTS

Medicine Hat, Alta., June 3.—After a lengthy discussion of the fatal result attending the McCarty-Pelley fight in Calgary, and expressing the view that a great difference existed between amateur and professional boxing bouts, the Alberta conference unanimously passed the following resolution, yesterday: "Moved by Rev. S. E. Marshall of Calgary, seconded by W. H. Clegg of Edmonton, that in view of our experience in the Province of Alberta in connection with professional boxing bouts which citizens generally regard as virtually prize-fights, we, the members of the Alberta conference of the Methodist church, both ministerial and lay, do most respectfully urge upon the parliament of Canada to amend, at the present session if possible, the definition of prize-fighting in the criminal code so as to include so-called boxing bouts, which have the characteristics usually

B. Copp, of Port Elgin.

Children's Dresses, Underwear and Wash Wear

To Make Pretty Children Prettier

So far as carefulness counts for anything we are careful buyers of Children's Wear. We see to it that the materials are proper, that stitching is fine, smooth and straight and that details of making and trimming are satisfactory. We do our best to select suitable fashions. And we pick and leave among pretty styles until the frilly, fussy prettiness of them all gets in our blood and we buy everything in sight.

We are not so stupid, as to fancy ourselves in this flood of Children's Wear. It embraces really everything worth while. It runs the whole scale of style and quality from simple to sublime.

EXPECT 3,500 MEN IN CAMP THIS YEAR

Recruiting Begins To Get All Units up to Strength

MORE ARTILLERY THERE

Also New Cavalry and Corps of Guides — It is Believed That a Camp Commander Will be Colonel Humphrey, D. O. C.

The work of recruiting in the interests of the militia units which will take their annual training at Sussex Camp has begun. The ambition of every unit is to go full strength into camp in the hope of making a good showing, and every endeavor is being put forth to roll to the limit in each corps, company or regiment. It is expected to be a very large camp this year, the estimated number of men under canvas being about 3,500 with probably Colonel Humphrey, D. O. C. in command. It is not certain that this will be the case, but this is the expectation, local militia men thinking that he will have command with Colonel Rutherford going to Aldershot.

The number of men under canvas at Sussex this year will be swollen by three batteries of artillery which drilled last year at Petawawa, namely the 10th, 12th and 19th. Five battalions of infantry will be stationed at the camp, the four rural regiments which drill there annually, the 71st, 73rd, 74th and 87th for the full period and the 62nd Fusiliers of this city which will go in for their usual drill over Dominion Day, in command of Col. J. L. McAvity. In addition to these there will be the new mounted Corps of Guides, the two cavalry regiments, and the 8th Princess Louise Dragoons, the 8th Hussars, No. 8 Signaling Section the Army Service Corps and "A" Company from the R. C. R., Fredericton. The latter body under Major A. E. Masie will encamp about ninety strong, from this city for the most part. The work of drawing recruits has now commenced with this, the only local corps to take more than a mere handful of men to camp. They had their first drill last night. The local Army Medical Corps under Colonel Walker, which for years encamped at Sussex, will again go to Aldershot as they did last year, their place being taken by the same body which was at Sussex the last annual camp, the Field Hospital Corps from Nova Scotia, under Major Ford. The local "medics" will have their first drill on next Tuesday evening and will continue until the time of going to Aldershot in September.

Camp to Open on June 24

This year's camp will be opened on June 24 and will continue for about two weeks. The main bodies which will drill there will arrive on the day being preceded by the advance parties which will go up-street on June 21, consisting of the Army Service Corps, the R. C. R., and advances from other regiments. The grounds are now being put in shape for the opening and will continue at work right up to the opening day.

The presence of motor cars for the officers on field duty was very noticeable last year and will probably be more so this year as an allowance has been provided, from $5 to $8 a day, with an extra grant of $1 a night for garage. Horse allowance in cavalry and artillery units has been increased from $1 to $1.25. There has been an increase in the command pay of officers of independent corps.

It is planned to have the local N. B. 3rd C. A. gradually work into field battery and several men will be trained this year in riding, both here and in Petawawa with this end in view. Authority has been given Lieut. Col. B. R. Armstrong, to enlist twenty horses a battery for drilling at local quarters so that this would carry on an amount of sixty horses. About twenty-five have now been secured, for which the allowance of $1.25 will be given.

TWO KING'S BIRTHDAY WEDDINGS IN THE CITY THIS MORNING

Miss Rose A. Dawson Bride of Geo. M. Fontaine; Frank E. Flewelling and Miss Sadie E. Allingham Wed

Fontaine-Dawson

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning in St. Peter's church when Miss Rose A. Dawson was united in marriage to George M. Fontaine of Cleveland, Ohio. Rev. J. H. Borgmann, C. S. R., officiated. The bride was given away by her father, J. Dawson, and was dressed in a suit of grey with black picture hat and carried a bouquet of carnations. Her sister, Miss Nellie Dawson, was bridesmaid, and was dressed in a tan suit with black picture hat. Samuel White supported the groom. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride, and later Mr. and Mrs. Fontaine left on a trip through Nova Scotia. They will reside in King street west on their return.

Flewelling-Allingham

An interesting wedding was celebrated this morning at six o'clock in Fairville Baptist church when the pastor, Rev. H. B. Boyer, united in marriage Miss Sadie E. Allingham, daughter of Harry T. Allingham of Fairville, and Frank E. Flewelling, a bright young merchant also of that place. The bride was given away by her father, and was unattended. She was nicely attired in a becoming costume of Alice blue with hat to correspond, and carried a bouquet of carnations.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Flewelling left on a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia, and on their return they will reside in Main street, Fairville. They were the recipients of many handshakes from numerous friends, with whom they are most popular.

FORMER MONCTON MAN DEAD IN KENTUCKY; LEAVES LARGE ESTATE

H. F. Hamilton Has News of Passing Away of Wm. White — Railway Town Does Not Keep Holiday — Baseball

(Special To Times)

Moncton, June 3—H. F. Hamilton, last night received a telegram from Louisville, Ky., informing him of the death of William White, formerly a well known resident of Moncton. Mr. White left here when about twenty one years of age and went to Louisville after the civil war, engaged in the dry goods business, and was very successful. He was sixty-eight or seventy years old, unmarried and is survived by one brother John White of Amherst. He leaves a large estate.

The King's birthday is not being generally observed as a holiday here. The banks, postoffice, customs, city schools and city market are closed but the Intercolonial railway shops are working as usual while industrial concerns, merchants and professional men are not observing the day. In other words only a small proportion of the population are taking advantage of the holiday.

It seems to be settled that Moncton is to have semi-professional baseball. At a meeting of promoters last night it was decided to run a three team league opening on June 14. One professional will be engaged for each team. The Commercial Club is taking an active interest in the movement for a semi-professional ball league, promising financial assistance.

THE JUDGESHIPS

The intimation that the conferring of a judgeship upon Chief Justice Frederick Barkner will be followed by his honor's retirement has aroused considerable interest in the changes on the bench which would follow, and is in line with the Times' announcement of some months ago.

It is believed that the retirement of the Chief Justice would be followed by the elevation of Judge McLeod to that important office, but that Judge McLeod would be content to occupy it for a comparatively short period and then would retire, thus leaving another opening to be filled.

An extra judgeship was recently created and it has been taken for granted that Attorney-General Grimmer had his own appointment as judge in mind when the legislation was adopted. There has been a strong demand from the legal profession that the next vacancy on the bench should be filled by the appointment of M. G. Teed, K.C., as the one most entitled to the honor but the retirement of the chief justice would give room for both Mr. Grimmer and Mr. Teed.

The appointment of the attorney-general to the bench would mean, it has been said, the appointment of Hon. Geo. J. Clarke, speaker of the assembly, to the office Mr. Grimmer would vacate. More recently, however, the name of Recorder Baxter has been mentioned more prominently in this connection and it is believed that his chances are at least equal for the office. In this case it is supposed that Mr. Baxter would find it necessary to resign the recordership and another attractive office would be open to one of the local lawyers.

GOING WELL ALONG

Work on the new building being erected on the grounds of the Knights of Columbus in Colborne street is progressing favorably, but it will be several weeks before it is ready for occupancy. The new structure, which will be connected with the present building, of which it is to be an extension, is being built of brick and from what is already to be seen of it there is no doubt that it will be a creditable addition to the present handsome quarters of the knights. Facings of stone add effectively to the attractiveness of its appearance.

Getting Just What is Wanted in Summer Clothing is An Easy Matter for Any Man Who Comes to Oak Hall for It

With our enormous business—the largest of any in Eastern Canada—we must necessarily show the largest variety.

We consequently have more styles, more patterns, more color effects than you'll find in the combined stocks of many of the stores in the city.

When a man comes here, therefore, he has such a wide scope of choice that his every whim and desire in the matter of clothes can be fully satisfied.

Besides getting exactly what he wants the man who buys his clothing at Oak Hall will get it for fully a fourth to a third less than other stores charge for clothing which in fabrics and workmanship is not even as good as ours. This is because as manufacturers the middleman's profit is eliminated from our prices. Our customers pay us no more than other stores pay at wholesale. Our clothing this season challenges comparison, it cannot be surpassed at any point.
