FORCES OF GERMANY BURNING VILLAGES IN DISASTROUS ROUT

Drive of French and American Forces Into Soissons-Rheims Salient Between Soissons and the Region of the Marne Continues — Germans Counter-Attack At Some Points, But Efforts Futile.

Further Ground Gained By Allies South of Soissons, Along Ourcq River and North and East of Chateau Thierry—British Make Further Advances in Champagne.

(Undated War Lead By The Associated Press.)
The drive of the French and American forces into the Soissons-Rheims salient between Soissons and the region of the Marne continues. The Germans at some points are counter-attacking desperately, but their efforts thus far have been futile in more than impeding the advance.
Further ground has been gained by the allied forces south of Soissons, in the centre of the line along the Ourcq river and north and east of Chateau Thierry. Additional large numbers of Germans have been made prisoners and numerous quantities of guns and war material have been captured.
In the Marne region, the American troops on the northern bank of the stream are well on the heels of the fleeing enemy east of Chateau Thierry, between Chartèves and Gland.

Back Four Miles.

Their advance has been pushed virtually four miles from their old positions on the southern bank and they were pressing the enemy northward in the direction of Fere-En-Tardenois, possibly with the intention of endeavoring to link up with the French forces proceeding eastward along the Ourcq. Further east along the Marne the French have been enabled to throw forces across the northern bank of the stream.

Severe fighting is in progress between the British, French and Italian forces and the enemy, southwest of Rheims, where the British have made a further advance while in Champagne to the east of Rheims the French are reported to have regained all their old front line positions between the River Sulpes and the town of Mas-siges.

Hun Defense Stiffens.

The German defensive has noticeably stiffened on the western side of the Rheims-Soissons salient, but although large numbers of reserves have been thrown into the fighting, the manoeuvres seem to be more in the nature of strong rear guard actions designed to help the large forces of the enemy in the Chateau Thierry pocket to escape northward than a purpose to stand and give battle with the ultimate aim of holding or beating back the Franco-American troops.
That the Germans now realize to the

The Allied Advance Still In Progress

Pushing in South of Soissons French Have Crossed Soissons-Chateau Thierry Road North of Villedomont, Opposite Buzancy — Soissons Endangered, But Enemy Offers Desperate Resistance.

Paris, July 22.—Pushing in south of Soissons, the French have crossed the Soissons-Chateau Thierry road north of Villedomont, opposite Buzancy, the Temps announced today in describing the situation in the Soissons area.
Villedomont is five and a half miles south of Soissons, Buzancy is about a mile and a half northeast of Villedomont, on the easterly side of the Soissons-Chateau Thierry road. The Allied advance is approaching this road still further to the north.
On the front to the west of Soissons the situation has remained stationary. The Germans are offering desperate resistance to the Allies in the entire Soissons area, as the grave consequences to them of a withdrawal from the town are apparent, and the struggle is continuing with great severity.

ATTEMPT ON PARIS

Paris, July 22.—A German airplane made an unsuccessful attempt to reach the region of Paris today. It was driven off by the French anti-aircraft fire.

ENEMY BETWEEN THE MARNE AND AISNE MENAGED

German Guns Furiously Shell South Bank of the River Aisne.

WILL ATTEMPT TO STOP RETREAT HERE

Enemy Loses Many Guns and Men in His Rush Northward.

Special Cable to The New York Tribune and The St. John Standard.
With the French armies, July 22.—The German guns on the north bank of the Aisne today are furiously shelling the south bank indicating that the retreat will attempt to stop just across the river.

The Franco-American advance between the Aisne and the Marne is now menacing the entire German force in the great salient. The Soissons-Chateau Thierry road has now been cut by the Franco-Americans and the long range guns are able to play their destructive fire on the roads feeding and supplying the enemy forces in the salient where they come to a hub.

Bomber's Busy

Next to the victorious advance of the Franco-American troops on the line from the Aisne to the Marne the Anglo-French bombing squadrons deserve immense credit for the Germans precipitate retreat back to the north bank of the Marne.

Constant bombing of the enemy's pontoon bridges both day and night since last Monday morning prevented the transportation of a single enemy cannon across the river, forcing the Germans to fight with the disadvantage of long range gun fire from the opposite bank. The fire was inaccurate, owing to a lack of proper communication with the gunners miles away and caused serious losses among the Germans from their own shells.

Added to the demoralizing effect of being isolated on the south bank and with constant bombing attacks on the pontoons, their only communication for food supplies, took all the fight out of the field Grauen before they were ordered to escape.

Attack blocked

The attack toward Epernay was not only completely blocked in a remarkably brief time by the pontons but they were able to retake the heights dominating the river before the retreat. With the enemy locked in a narrow pocket which he was unable to enlarge he would have been forced to retreat eventually without the danger from the Aisne-Marne advance.

The escape, made early Saturday was harassed continually by French gunfire from the vicinity of Reuilly where the steep hillsides afforded some protection from shells.

His losses were heaviest before the foe reached the river. The fewness of the prisoners taken was due to the rear guard who fought furiously to effect the main body's escape. Most of these fought until slain by the advancing pontons.

ROOSEVELT OUT

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 22.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt issued a statement tonight in which he declared that under no circumstances would he accept the Republican nomination for governor of New York.
On the Democratic side William R. Hearst was also withdrawn.

The steamer Siberian Prince, which went ashore at Lawrenceton, 15 miles east of Halifax, during a heavy fog on July 2, has been reloaded. The damage was slight.

BRITISH MAKE FURTHER GAIN AT A CROIX

tacks Between Marne and Ourcq Fail.

FRANCO-AMERICANS INCREASE GAINS

Village of Epieds Taken and Much Other Ground Gained.

Paris, July 22.—Heavy German counter-attacks launched for the purpose of checking the progress of the Allies between the Marne and the Ourcq today were without avail, according to the war office announcement tonight, and the British made further advances in the region of La Croix and Grisolles as well as north-east of Mont St. Pere.

The statement says:
"During the course of the day the Germans attempted by powerful counter-attacks to check our progress between the Marne and the Ourcq. The Franco-American troops resisted all these assaults and increased their gains advancing beyond the heights east of La Croix and Grisolles, taking the village of Epieds and gaining ground northeast of Mont St. Pere."

Still Fighting.

"Between the Marne and Rheims there was still fighting which gained no result for the enemy. We maintained our lines in the Courton wood."

"Further north British troops made an advance, capturing 200 prisoners and 40 machine guns.
A great fire, followed by the Champagne front great artillery activity is reported, but there was no infantry action."

Batteries Silenced.

"Tens of thousands of cartridges were fired at German troops and batteries, which were silenced in the region of Courmont, Ronchères and Villeneuve the same day. Our aviators brought down nine enemy machines."

"Eastern Theatre, July 21.—There was reciprocal artillery activity on the lower Struma, west of the Varadar to Srka. Di Legen and in the Serbian sector. On the Struma, a Greek reconnoitering party dispersed a Bulgarian detachment and brought back six prisoners. North of the Devoll our troops captured Austrian positions on the River Holla and took 100 prisoners, three of them officers, and six machine guns. Allied aviators carried out several bombardments in the regions of Sere and Pograd."

LUDENDORFF HAS FAILED DISMALLY

(Special Cable to The New York Tribune and St. John Standard.)
London, July 22.—With Foch's great success the Allied statement will wax strong while the enemy leaders will be thrown on the defensive.

Victory makes politicians; adversity cripples them; the pan-Germans will now have a harder row to hoe.

It is premature to consider the political possibilities of the last four days' developments for the German army still has the power not only to make a long, stubborn defensive but to launch one or two powerful blows.
The point to remember is that Ludendorff failed dismally at the moment of his greatest power and that all of his earlier brilliant successes have been neutralized by his present defeat. The whole German campaign has been disorganized in less than a week. The future has grown exceedingly bright.

TWO ADDITIONAL TOWNS CAPTURED

Enemy Increasing His Resistance Along Line South of Soissons.

With the Army on the Aisne-Marne Front, July 22.—(By The Associated Press)—The Franco-American advances continued this morning, along the line on the south and to the west. The Germans gave more ground and are slowly continuing their backward movement to the north of Chateau Thierry.

"Two additional towns have been taken by the Americans on the front north of the Marne since daylight this morning.
The enemy is increasing his resistance along the line south from Soissons where every yard which the allies push forward further hampers the German lines of supply."

On the front where the Franco-American forces are pushing in just to the north of the Marne the enemy is carrying out sullen and stubborn rear guard actions, but despite these the Allies continue their gains.
In the region of Soissons another town was captured by the Americans, and still another town has fallen into the hands of the French, improving the Allied position and likewise covering the enemy's lines of communications. The Germans left a number of machine gun nests in the path of the Allied progress and are using their artillery likewise in guarding the slow retreat.

In connection with the heavy machine gun fire which has been encountered by the Americans, prisoners say that machine gunners from a divisional school are being brought up to check the Allied offensive.

BALLOON LANDS IN NOVA SCOTIA

Chatham, Mass., July 22.—A dirigible balloon which has been missing since Friday landed at Summerside, N. S., according to word received here tonight. Its three occupants were reported safe.

YOUNG MAN KILLED AT NEW GLASGOW

New Glasgow, N. S., July 22.—The first fatality that has occurred at the Eastern Car Plant for some considerable time, happened this morning, when a young man named Ronald McDonald, was instantly killed. The unfortunate man was up on a cab doing repair work. He got out of the cab and climbed up on one of the girders. In some way or the other he grasped a live wire and almost instantly fell to the ground, a distance of about 33 feet landing on a pile of old scrap iron. His back and neck were broken, the hands were badly burned and a bad scalp wound was found on the head. He expired in a few minutes, after reaching the first aid room. McDonald was 21 years of age, and the son of Andrew McDonald.

Kaiser's Son Sends For Aid To Rupprecht, Whose Army Is Opposite That of British — German Proud Arms Suffer Crowning Blow of Bitter Defeat on Banks of Marne.

Special cable to New York Tribune and St. John Standard. (By Wilbur Forrest.)
With French Armies, July 22.—This day in France dawned with an entirely new face on the war. Exactly a week ago the powerful Teutonic army was putting the finishing touches on as great and daring an offensive as any single army in the history of the world ever attempted. The German high command in a six days' struggle, ending yesterday in a disastrous though historic retreat back across the River Marne, may now be said utterly to have failed in the one last chance to do what Germany set out to do by force of arms.

Tens of thousands, the flower of the German army, lie dead today over the wavy, ninety-mile front stretching roughly southward from the Aisne to the Marne, and following the course of the world-famed stream to the vicinity of the village of Troissy, then northeastward again almost to the wooded hills of the Argonne. DECLARES POSTAL STRIKE UNJUST ENEMY'S RETREAT IS NOT CUT OFF

Hon. Mr. Doherty Explains Situation and Says Employees Are Expected To Return.

He Has a Very Wide Avenue Through Which To Get Back North — Delayed Movement Too Long.

Ottawa, July 22.—The points at issue with the striking mail carriers were discussed at a meeting of the cabinet council this afternoon. Subsequently a statement was issued by Hon. C. J. Doherty, acting premier. He says:
"The industrial disputes act makes no provision for the establishment of boards of conciliation between the government and its employees."
"The civil service commission are now conducting an enquiry into the matter of the re-organization of all branches of the outside civil service which will involve the matter of fixing for permanent employees minimum and maximum salaries."

"In view of facts which have been set before the men's representatives the government cannot but view the attitude of certain of the employees of the post office department in absenting themselves from the public service at this time as unwarranted, and their immediate return to duty is expected."

Winnipeg, Man., July 22.—Winnipeg's mail service has been totally disorganized by the strike of letter carriers who quit work this morning in an effort to force the government to make some response to their appeal for higher wages.
At a meeting of the postal clerks union tonight an ultimatum was delivered to the effect that unless a conciliation board is granted by the government by tomorrow morning they will quit work.

Toronto, July 22.—There is reason to believe that the railway mail clerks are becoming restless, the demand for increased wages.
Camp Sussex, July 22.—"Bill" a bear cub and popular mascot of the Depot Battalion died today from syncope. Bill did not appear quite himself yesterday, but this morning was about as usual. Whether a court of inquiry will be held or not has not yet been decided by the camp commandant. A number of Bill's friends among the men were mourners at the funeral.

POOR BILL IS DEAD, BEAR CUB WANTED

Col. McAvity presented the bear to the unit and the men would appreciate it if some lumberman or farmer would present another cub to the battalion.

A HOUSEWIVES' LEAGUE FOR CITY OF MONCTON

Moncton, July 22.—The Housewives' League for Moncton is in course of organization. At a meeting of women this afternoon addressed by Mrs. Muldrew, Ottawa, it was decided to organize, and a committee was appointed to nominate officers.
A mass meeting to form a United Consumers' League for the city of Moncton will be called in the near future.
The present indications point to the suspension of further permanent street making in Moncton for the duration of the war. The city council applied to the Royal Bank for a loan to carry on the work, but today received a reply refusing a loan as it would be contrary to the instructions of the minister of finance not to advance money at the present time for municipal purposes.

AMERICANS ADVANCE OVER FIVE MILE SOUTH OF SOISSONS

Allies Steadily Pounding Their Way Towards Nanteuil-Notre Dame and Have Apparently Begun New Drive Southwest of Rheims To Outflank Boches.

(Undated War Lead by The Associated Press). Rear-guard actions are being fought by the Germans north of Chateau Thierry. These were probably organized for the purpose of delaying the relentless pursuit of the fleeing enemy by the French and Americans, who on Sunday passed through Chateau Thierry and advanced northeast of that corner-stone of German conquest in eastern France.

The reaction of the Germans is said to have been marked between Grisolles and Bezu-St. Germain, two villages north northwest and north of Chateau Thierry at a distance of approximately seven and four miles respectively.

The distance between Grisolles and Bezu-St. Germain is about four miles. Along this line German attacks were broken and the allied line was maintained throughout.

American Advance. The fire was particularly notable in the region of the woods of Courton and Ro.

British Gain Ground. London, July 22.—Further ground has been gained by the British in the Hebuterne region, on the front between Albert and Arras. The British likewise, in conjunction with the French carried out a successful enterprise to the south of Villers-Bretonneux, east of Amiens, in which prisoners were taken.

German Opinion. Amsterdam, July 22.—"The withdrawal of our troops to the northern bank of the Marne came as no surprise to well-informed circles because the supreme command had confidently communicated its intention before hand," says the Cologne Gazette, and adds: "The object which the forcing of the Marne had in view was attained. Therefore it did not appear dangerous to retreat locally in order to save unnecessary losses."

Swedish Opinion. London, July 22.—(Via Reuters' Ottawa Agency)—A despatch from Stockholm says that for once the German press is not attempting to minimize the importance of the Allied advance.

Private Clarence Sherwood, 1st Depot Battalion, was tried and convicted of deserting His Majesty's service, and sentenced to one year's imprisonment with hard labor.

Soisson-Chateau Thierry Railroad Has Been Cut

General Pershing Confirms Crossing of Marne By Allied Troops—Twenty Thousand Prisoners.

Washington, July 22.—Official reports from General Pershing confirm the crossing of the Marne by Allied troops, and also the occupation of considerable territory north of Chateau Thierry.

Mr. Baker said the official reports confirmed the fact that the Soissons-Chateau Thierry railroad had been cut.

There has been no recent substantial additions to the number of prisoners taken, the secretary continued, "nor any exact estimate of the war material captured. It is quite clear however, that large quantities of war materials have fallen into our hands."

The German high command, evidently underestimating the strength of the Allied forces, had planned to trap the Allied command and was in turn trapped.

NEWS OF SPECIAL INTEREST

THE POSSIBILITIES OF A BEEF SHANK IS DEMONSTRATED

Mrs. A. R. Melrose Tells How a Family of Four Adults May Be Provided With Meat For One Week.

The possibilities of a shank of beef are here pointed out by an experienced housewife. A week's meat for a family of four adults can be provided and with the necessary variety.

Buy a shank of beef weighing from 15 to 20 lbs., preferably the latter. (This costs, in our market, about 14 or 16 cents per lb.) and two beef kidneys.

If there is not much fat on the beef buy at the same time a piece of suet. Have the butcher saw the bone in several places. Cut off all the meat you should have six or more pounds of clean beef. From this you will have:

A huge pot of good beef stock which will give soup of four different kinds for nearly every day in the week.

A beef loaf enough for two dinners with probably a cupful of broken pieces to help out a luncheon or supper dish.

A beef-steak and kidney pie—enough for one dinner and a breakfast dish for two people.

A meal of hamburger steak, probably a left-over there also.

From the scraps of meat of the soup bones and the left-overs either a shepherd's pie or a batch of meat cake or a good hash.

First the soup. This means long slow cooking of the bones—then cooling overnight, then removing the cake of fat (another asset, clarified and well strained, and having no flavoring in it, it yields usually enough dripping for frying for the week).

Second, Beef Loaf. Put through the coarse knife of food chopper 2 or 2½ pounds of the raw meat—about ½ lb. of fat salt pork, 2 cupfuls of bread crumbs. Drop in 2 beaten eggs, ½ cup of milk and seasonings, salt, pepper, summer savory, (if liked a hint of sage, onion, thyme or marjoram).

Third, Cut into small pieces and wash well the two beef kidneys, also ½ lb. of lean beef and stew steadily for 3 or 4 hours with one large or two small onions, salt and pepper. Thicken the gravy. Serve with nicely mashed potatoes, or put in a scallop dish with a good biscuit crust on top and bake.

Fourth, Put through the coarse chopper all the remaining raw beef, about ½ lb., season and make into small cakes to fry in some of the dripping. It can be added bread crumbs to this with a little milk or an egg to bind them together.

Fifth, The various left-overs can be used in many ways. The cut-up soup meat with a little of the melted soup jelly strained over it can be put into a mould or individual moulds and set aside to harden. It can then be turned out and served on lettuce with mayonnaise, or with hot tomato sauce, or with peas and carrots in a cream sauce.

Or the scraps of meat may be chopped up moistened with a little gravy from your loaf, seasoned with onion, salt and pepper, and served on meat, or combined with potato mashed and made into cakes to be fried for breakfast, lunch or supper. Or instead of separating, fry it all together allowing a brown crust to form and turning little in omelet serving with parsley on top.

Any cook can add to these ideas ad infinitum.

With two fish dinners in the week you will find you have plenty of meat, but as one woman remarked, "It takes brains" and one does need a little thought and looking ahead.

Jap actor Sessue Hayakawa will be seen in a magnificent picturization of the well-known novel "The Honor of His House."

NEWCASTLE BOY'S CHEERING WORD FROM OVER THERE

Miss Alicia Gray Receives Letter From Her Brother in France—Praise For the American Soldier.

Miss Alicia Gray, daughter of Rev. S. Gray, of Newcastle, has received the following interesting letter from one of her three brothers doing their bit overseas:

My Dearest Alicia: Neither of us have written home for some few days. But the days do not pass so quickly and there is much to do, one way and another.

The famous General Byng has just pulled up on horseback outside our place here. I put my head out of the window wondering who was calling. One of our chaps jumped outside and directed him to his destination.

There is little to tell you of what we are allowed to tell which you do not already know. You follow the spring offensive with as much anxiety and interest as those in England, and know quite as much as they do there.

We have moved back some distance in "accordance with plan!" And from what we have just heard, it was just as well we did. The second swash is just about to be launched.

I am not pessimistic but I rather fancy we have spoken a bit too quickly about the enemy being beaten and all the rest of it. After four years of tremendous pounding see what he has just done as a commencement for this year's campaign!

One can only say Canada may be proud of what she has done. Looking at matters in correct proportions, her manhood, hospitals, nurses and supplies generally for war have done her credit.

A Y. M. C. A. has arrived here. It was needed, for there is always quite a bunch of men in transit for the "forward area."

They have sent their best men first, and fine specimens they are. It is good to see men, and the military band has been playing "Over There," the Yankee march for days now.

America's practical value will be seen later. They are preparing on a vast scale. I cannot see how Germany can win. Even if it takes ten years, the Allies will keep them from that.

We are both feeling splendid in

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—M. M. The King.

THE WAR SITUATION.

Judged by the standard of preceding days yesterday's cables from the war zone were not sensational, but they brought pleasing evidence to show the extent and importance of the most recent Allied gains. Much territory has been regained but the most notable advance to the Allies is in the extraordinary heavy casualties inflicted upon the Hun. The phrase "a war of extermination" has been objected to on the ground that it is no part of the Allied purpose to exterminate the German nation. But that phrase, when applied to the doctrines and disciples of Prussian Kultur, can be justified. A satisfactory peace cannot be made so long as advocates of Prussian methods continue to hold the whip hand in the Kaiser's domain and the most effective way to drive those gentlemen from their positions is to capture or slay the legions of fighting men who are putting their theories into practice and obeying their commands. Germany has lost her reason, and the only argument that can appeal to her is bitter disaster. In driving that argument home in such fashion that it cannot be misunderstood the Allies are gaining a victory that is not to be counted in acres or miles of terrain.

Yesterday saw comparatively little hand fighting. The Allies made gains which, while inconsiderable compared with the preceding day's operations, would have been regarded as highly important a few months ago. Last night it was reported that the enemy is destroying his materials between Soissons and Rheims, an action which war reviewers contend points to a speedy evacuation of that territory. It is to be assumed that Foch will follow up his present advantage and give the retreating foe neither rest nor opportunity to regroup until he has been destroyed and routed. The opinion is that Germany has already sustained the most disastrous defeat of the war, greater even than the achievements of the Russians when the ill-fated "steam roller" was pursuing Hindenburg back into East Prussia early in the war. There will be no further attempt to march on Paris for the power to take the offensive to come can only emphasize the superiority of the Allied arms.

BRITISH SHIPPING PLANS.

Some time ago a committee was formed in Great Britain "to consider the position of the shipping industry after the war, especially in relation to international competition, and to report what measures, if any, are necessary and desirable to safeguard that position." That committee has recently submitted its report. It has based its recommendations on the hypothesis that the maritime ascendancy of the Empire must be maintained at all costs and that the grave wastage sustained by the merchant marine must be repaired without delay. In its report the committee says:

"We consider that no peace would be satisfactory which did not enforce the surrender of enemy shipping and inflict drastic and exemplary punishment for the enemy's crimes at sea. Enemy countries should be required as a condition of peace: (a) To surrender to the Allies all their merchant shipping, whether in enemy ports or in the close of hostilities or in ports of countries still neutral; (b) To forfeit all ships laid up since the outbreak of hostilities in ports of countries that have become involved in war or have broken off diplomatic relations with them; and (c) To restore to the Allies all Allied shipping that may have come into their possession since the outbreak of hostilities. The committee does not favor government control of shipping and urges that this system be abandoned as soon as possible after the war. It also recommends the prosecution of an energetic shipbuilding programme as soon as possible after the conclusion of peace. The report is interesting as it evidences a determination that after the war as before Britannia shall continue to exercise her bestial control over the trade lanes of the deep.

A NEW ERA.

In Britain this year thousands of Englishmen celebrated the American Independence Day for the first time in history. The same spirit has prompted the formation of a Sammy's Blighty League, the founder of which explains that its purpose is to bring together the British mother and the American mother: "because we are going to take charge of the American mothers' sons." By "taking charge" the Blighty League intends to take American boys in Britain into the homes of British fathers and mothers whose own sons are in France. And the visiting will

The War-god went through the orchards. And all of the trees are dead. The War-god comes through the whole wide world. Like a dragon that must be fed!

Now how shall we speak to the War-god. And what shall our prayer be? For never a prayer we know and love will be heard by such as he! And we have no altars made for him. Nor any palmistry.

We stand in the way of the War-god. Where the little streams run red—We have sworn to kill the War-god. And will die for the word we said! We have sworn that the fields shall be green again. And give the children bread!

Oh! the earth is a strong, old mother. And she will give us fields of clover and grain. And good, green trees again. And father's seeking a window light. In the old, old way of men.

Then there shall be no more War-god. For, out through the Milky Way, Goes a host of men who have fought and died. To carry his name away. And drop it into the Bottomless Pit. To wait for the Judgement Day! —Louise Driscoll in New York Times.

MERELY LOOKING 'EM OVER.

Yesterday's Frederickton Gleaner chronicles the arrival of Hon. P. J. Veniot in Fredericton from Bathurst and says that he will leave for Gagetown this morning "to look over" the roads in that vicinity. This will be good news to the people of New Brunswick. Hon. Mr. Veniot's effort to date has been largely confined to "overlooking" the roads, except in Gloucester County. It will be a decided relief to learn that he has stopped "overlooking" them and will now "look them over." We are willing to admit the compelling power concentrated in Mr. Veniot's cold glance but it will take more than a "look" from the master of the Foster administration to give the province as good roads as we enjoyed in the autumn of 1916.

WHERE VIENNA SMILES.

When the Italians were rolling up the Austrian armies on the Piave River a few weeks ago the authorities at Berlin were much out of patience with their Austrian allies and German newspapers did not withhold caustic criticism of Austrian strategy and military ability. If the authorities at the Austrian court and the editors of Vienna are furnished with anything like a true account of recent happenings on the Marne we can imagine that more than one Austrian countenance carries a quiet smile. The "Made in Germany" brand of offensive does not appear to be more successful than the Vienna product.

"To 800 tons of ice stored in shed at $1.55 per ton $1,000." This was the bill accompanying the draft which figured in a lawsuit heard in Circuit Court yesterday. On the face of it it looks like a cold transaction.

The German Crown Prince has had an opportunity during the past few days to learn that war in France is not all made up of looting wine-cellars and pillaging silverware from abandoned chateaux.

Rupprecht of Bavaria has been summoned to the aid of the Kaiser's son and heir. It will be in the "necht" for Rupprecht.

A SUNDAY JOY RIDE; A SKETCH FROM LIFE.

Characters: Jack—A man. Jill—Not a man. Scene—One of the Veniot "permanent" roads in Kings County—Subject of extravagant laudation in the venal press supporting the Veniot government. Time—Sunday afternoon. Enter an automobile containing Jack and Jill. Both look worried. Jill—"What a glorious day for a ride. Isn't the scenery (bump) beautiful?" Jack—"What lovely foliage? (Smash)—Business of disentangling himself from the windshield. Jill—"How beautiful the river is (splash, swish through a small lake in the centre of the road)—with the shadows, (bump) and the reflections, (bang) and all." Jack—"Yes, (bump) it's a good job that hole was no deeper, I can't swim." Jill—"The country never looked so (bang) well and if we do find the roads a trifle moist (swish, splash, through another lake) Oh, there, I know my dress is ruined." Jack—"Let me pull that robe up a little to protect your gown (bang, smash) Pardon me, I will remove myself from your lap just as soon as we get over this new road." Jill—"Was that a lake or a new arm of the river we just crossed?" Jack—"Hope you are not getting seasick (swish, splash, bang)." Jill—"Oh, there is the house, we have arrived." Jack—"So sorry (aside) another mile of this would be the death of me and the ruination of the car." Jill—"I enjoyed the drive immensely. The motion was so entrancing." Jack—"I am so glad" (aside) "the car will be cleaned by next week." Later. Business of heavy thinking by both. Jack—"What a nice girl." Jill—"What a nice boy." Both—"WHAT ROADS."

THE ALLIED ADVANCE STILL IN PROGRESS

Continued from Page One. When the Bavarian Crown Prince answered the German Crown Prince's appeal for help and sent some of his divisions from the Picardy front to aid the Germans in the Marne salient an equal number of British divisions was detached from the northern front and moved to the battle sector southwest of Rheims. The British divisions are composed of picked troops. It is interesting to note that the British divisions on the front southwest of Rheims have again taken the same place in the battle order which the British occupied when driven back the Marne offensive. Their transport from the British front to the Champagne front was executed in a most skillful manner.

French Over Marne

French troops, says La Liberté, continue to cross the river Marne in strong force northeast of Chateau Thierry. They are following rapidly on the heels of the enemy who cannot long hold ground with General De Mitry's army coming up from the south and General Degoutte's army coming from the west. The latter army has already reached the region of Chateau Wood. General Degoutte's troops which have been fighting hard since the beginning of the counter offensive, last night crushed the effort made by the Germans and took 1,000 prisoners.

Rapid Retreat

In their rapid advance north of the River Ourcq French infantry captured a battery of French six inch guns which the French had abandoned on May 27. Since that time the guns have been used by the Germans. The French immediately put them into action against the enemy as the Germans did not have time to destroy them.

INCREASES GRANTED UNDER MCDODD AWARD

For Unorganized Men on August 1—Union Men on Expiration of Present Schedules. H. C. Groat, superintendent of the eastern division of the C. P. R., said last night that the increases granted to the men under the McDodd award would in the case of unorganized men go into effect on August 1, and in the case of the union men would go into effect on the expiration of the present schedules.

The increase runs from forty-three per cent. in the case of men getting from $45 to $60 per month, down to one per cent. ceasing with the men who are getting $250 or over per month. Men getting less than $40 per month get a flat increase of $20.

MUCH EXCITEMENT AT BOUNDARY CREEK

Horse Falls Into Well, Is Killed and Man Injured in Attempt At Rescue. Moncton, July 22.—On Saturday afternoon Mr. Lemuel Wilnot, of Boundary Creek, had the misfortune to lose a very valuable team horse in a peculiar manner. The animal, it appears, walked on to the plank of a deep well which was covered over in this manner in order to prevent any one falling in. The plank broke under the weight of the horse and the animal fell in head downward.

Nearly spectators responded quickly to assist in getting the horse out of the well. In order to get the horse out it was necessary to erect a sort of scaffolding over the well. While doing this a piece of timber fell, striking Mr. Charles Corey, a neighbor, on the head, rendering him unconscious for over an hour.

When the horse was lifted out of the well it was quite dead.

FARMER KILLS TWO BANDITS

Two Men Attempt Robbery in Quebec Province and Meet Their Match. Montreal, July 22.—A farmer living at Killdare, twenty-five miles south of Montreal, in an encounter with three masked men on Saturday night, killed two. It is reported the bandits attempted to hold him up in his house.

BORDEN PLEASED WITH CANADIANS

Visits Many Camps — Took Particular Notice of French Troops Under Training Just One Day.

London, July 22.—(By The Associated Press)—Sir Robert Borden has returned to London after visiting several Canadian camps in the country with General Emsley and addresses a large gathering of soldiers, dwelling upon the individual responsibility of every one to do his part. The premier particularly noticed one regiment of the French-Canadians who had been under training here only one day.
Sir Robert Borden visited the headquarters of Colonel Bessieres and Major Deserte and then passed on to the Nova Scotia headquarters, under Colonel Muirhead.

At another camp under Colonel Colquhoun, Sir Robert Borden saw a thousand men parade and later passed to General Garnet Hughes' command, where he spoke for half an hour to another thousand Canadians. At every camp he visited the premier was informed that the men under training were making remarkable progress and it was impossible for them to be keener on business.

Cables from Canada announce there is a demand in the provinces for the premier's early return. The Canadian Associated Press understands that Sir Robert Borden may possibly make some early statement concerning this.
Meanwhile the reminder may be put forth that Sir Robert Borden directly he arrived in England, expressed an anxiety to return to the Dominion at the earliest possible moment.

SYMPATHY IN ENGLAND FOR NICHOLAS' FATE

Newspapers However Do Not Splash Much Type About Concerning It.

London, July 22.—Recent reports and a recognition that probably the former emperor would suffer a violent death eliminated the element of surprise in the killing of Nicholas Romanoff, which none the less, excites sympathy reference here and has caused some strong denunciations of the perpetrators to the crime.

Nicholas never was a hero in this country for he had always been regarded as weak and a poor specimen of a sovereign, but it is admitted that he had good intentions which by the tragedy of his weakness he was unable to realize.

The news of his death, which in ordinary times would have filled the newspapers and called for the biggest type appears in most papers inconspic-uously, and with one or two exception without editorial comment.
