Deeply Interesting Meeting of

When Spain Acceded to the United States' Demands.

Personal Views of the Commissioners -The Position of Germany in the Matter. Paris, Nov. 29 .- A great deal of interest was taken in yesterday's meeting of the peace commission. The two commissions arrived at the foreign office in carriages in the rain, almost Premier Dupuy's Summary of simultaneously, and, repairing to the conference room, immediately opened the early business before them. Without a word Senor Montero Rios produced two type-written sheets and passed them to the interpreter of the United States commission, Mr. Ferguson, who read them substantially as cabled. The commissioners left the foreign office immediately after the secretaries had been directed to pre-There was scarcely any conversation between the American and Spanish commissioners after the adjournment. Among the Americans only grave consideration for their spanish colleagues was apparent. The Spaniards seemed to be relieved at having arrived at the conclusion of a long controversy. Having embodied in the treaty articles all the protocol questions, the two commissions will now enter upon friendly negotiations regarding the matters suggested in the American ultimatum a week ago, matters subsidiary and incidental to the principal provisions which must form part the peace treaty as finally signed. These include the religious treedom of the Caroline Islands, as agreed to twelve years ago; the release of political prisoners now held by Spain in connection with the insurrections in Cuba and the Philippines; the taking over the Island of Kusaie or Ulaan, in the Carolines, for a telegraphic and naval station; cable station rights at other points in Spain's jurisdiction, and the renewal of certain treaties, previously in force between the United States and Spain which may have lapsed or been vitiat-

FRENCH PRESS COMMENT. The leading articles in the Temps, a column long, is devoted to a severe arraignment of the American attitude towards Spain, in which America is queror, imposing Draconian conditions in a helpless foe, and exacting the sig-ature of a treaty at the point of the bayonet. The Temps adds: "The Spanish commissioners should, in submitcenter ting, protest to the civilized world against the spoliation of the weak by the strong.'

> THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON. It is not understood from the news so far received that the commissioners have yet reached the point of signing a treaty. Much remains to be done in execution of the last instructions of the state department perore the peace treaty itser can be completed and made ready for signature. The exact text of the agreement reached in Paris up to a late hour is not known to the state department, although, of course, it has knowledge of hte general terms of agreement. The instructions to the American commissioners, sent last week, were to arrange for a renewal of the denounced trade treaties with Spain, for the acquisition of Ulan, for obtaining concessions for cable connections in other quarters, and for the procurement of religious toleration in the Carolines. These things are not likely to be easily disposed of, so it may be that the American commissioners will feel that they have complied with the spirit of their instructions if they succeed in including in the peace treaty a provision binding the Spanish Gov-erhment to negotiate hereafter on those subjects on lines that may be very broadly defined in the peace treaty.

FORCED CONCESSION. New York, Nov. 29 .- A dispatch to the World from Paris says: Spanish Peace Commissioner Abarzuza, discussing the peace negotiations, said: "We have fulfilled our mission here, and have agreed to make a treaty of peace, but we do so under protest that our sovereign rights over the Philippines are still intact. Our memorandum today sets this fact forth, though admittedly it cannot affect the treaty. We lose our colonial empire, but America does not know what new and difficult responsibilities she is undertaking. The Island of Mindanao alone will keep her debts, Senor Abarzuza answered: "No: inasmuch as the Americans have put these questions aside, and have refused to take them into account when framing the treaty. Subsidiary matters, such as the Carolines, cable stations and so on, will be dealt with separately. I do not expect more than two or three sittings after Wednesday." Senor Ojeda, the principal Spanish secretary, said: "Peace is assured. We have agreed to sign a treaty in accordance with the protocol of Washington, hard American terms owing to our inability to renew the war, and in the presence of superior force.' Secretary Moore, of the American commission, puts it this way: "The Spaniards accepted our conditions unreservedly, and a draft of a treaty will be laid before the joint meeting next Wednesday. They have accepted $20,-000,000 for the Philippines." The American commissioners are highly pleased and relieved that the crisis has been successfully surmount-They did not at all relish the possibility of failing in their task. Pre-

Von Sternberg, charge d'affairs, of Germany, called at the state department and had a conference with Secretary Hay, in the course of which Baron Speck took occasion to express the most friendly sentiments on the part of Germany concerning the present status of affairs. The call was chiefly significant as an evidence that German officials desire to counteract the reports that Germany is about to assume an attitude of protest and to lay claim to the Sulu archipelago. His call gave rise to sensational published reports to the effect that he had presented a protest from Germany against interference Christmas Gifts, etc. with the Sulu Islands. In view of these reports, it was stated in an authoritative quarter that the Sulu Islands were not mentioned during the talk, which was of a most general and friendly character.

the Situation.

The French Have Lived Twenty-Eight Years Under a Contradiction-Demo cracy and the Army Side by Side-Fighting in India.

UNDER A CONTRADICTION. Paris, Nov. 20 .- The Figaro today publishes an interview with the prepare the articles of the peace treaty. mier, M. Dupuy, during the course of which he is quoted as saying: 'For 28 years we have lived under a contradiction. The army and the democracy subsist side by side. The maintenance of the traditions of the army is a menace to liberty, yet they assure the safety of the country and its more sacred duties. In spite of everything, I am confident that the vitality of the country will triumph over the present storm and thus in all the crisis it has undergone. A dispatch from Brussels to the Journal reaffirms the report that Major Count Esterhazy has sailed for Americt. This dispatch asserts that he embarked at Rotterdam.

NARROW MAJORITY.

Paris, Nov. 29.-The Chamber of Deputies was crowded, much interest being taken in the announced intention of some of the deputies to interpellate the government on the Picquart case. M. Paul Deschanel, Republican, announced that he had received a request to interpellate the government, and Premier Dupuy proposed an intermediate discussion of the matter. M. Fourniere, Socialist, moved for an adjournment for an hour and a half in order that the Republican deputies might be able to consult with their colleagues in the senate regarding the adoption of a common policy. The chamber rejected the motion by a vote of 252 to 244. STRONGLY SUSTAINED.

Paris, Nov. 29. On appeal from M. and America and England have Millerand for a postponement of the drawn together. Picquart court-martial, M. Dupuy declared that the Dreyfus affair "must remain purely judicial, as the only means of reaching the truth, which may now be attained. We declined to grant a postponement of the courtmartial," said the premier. "To give such an order, even if we had the right, Japan to external influences, the only would be to strike a blow at the principle of separation of the public powers. It is not within the province of parliament or the government to adjust the connection which may exist between the Dreyfus and Picquart cases. Our intervention would be calculated to hamper the work of the court of cassation. We will respect the decisions of law, and refuse to be a government of arbitrary measures." (Prolonged cheers.) The order for the day, approving the statements of the government re-specting the principle of the separation of the judicial and executive powers, was then adopted by a vote of 437 to 73.

An immense mass meeting was held last night in favor of Col. Picquart. Thousands of people shouting "Conspuez Rochefort," and "Conspuez gathering. Drummont," proceeded to the Cherche-Midai prison, where Picquart is confined, and demonstrated there on his The anti-Picquarts rallied, behalf. and there were several conflicts between the two bands.

of victory, since the Dreyfusite demand was for the government to order the Picquart court-martial post-poned. Nevertheless, the whole debate served to advauce the cause of Dreyfus. Madrid, Nov. 29.—The Heraldo today publishes a dispatch which says: Don

Carlos will not publish a manifesto un-til the ratification of the peace treaty by the chambers. Continuing, the Heraldo expresses the belief that the Spanish Government does not know the whereabouts of Don Jaime, the son of Don Carlos. YOUNG, PRETTY AND BAD. Paris, Nov. 29 .- Madame Blanchini was arrested on a charge of attempting to poison her husband, Charles Bibusy for years." Being asked if the ing to poison her husband, Charles Bitreaty will contain any reference to anchini, the famous and popular scenic painter. About six months ago he was attacked by a serious malady. One physician declared his belief that the symptoms were those of atropine poisoning. Thereupon Bianchini's friends, directors of the Grand Opera, took him to a distant village, away from his wife. There he recovered rapidly. This led to mademoiselle's arrest, the police finding bottles of atropine in her house. She is young and pretty, and treats the case quite flippantly. A divorce suit was pending between the London, Nov. 29.—Special dispatches from Simla say the mad mullah has been successful in his first fight, defeating the Dir tribesmen and killing a number of them. The Nawab of Dir has sent an army against the mullah and the British native frontier troops are moving towards the Swat valley, where the outbreak has occurred. The mullah is trying to arouse a fanatical outbreak against the British.

ARCH ENEMY

Remarkable Plot Charged by The Contemporary Review.

Spanish-American War Said to Have Ruined a Plan for the Spoliation of the Mother Country.

New York, Nov. 29.-A special cable dispatch from London to the New York Times says: The Contemporary Review, issued last night, contains a sensational anonymous article, entitled "The Arch Enemy of England." This is the German emperor. The writer alleges that the kaiser seized Kiac Chao by an agremeent with Russia to prevent England from getting it, and the czar holds his personal promise to vacate it when called upon, Russis providing Germany with coaling stations elsewhere. The writer declares that the kaiser had drawn up a complete plan, arranging for the naval superiority of France, Russia and Germany over England four years hence, at which time England was to be compelled to make humiliating terms throughout the world, leaving Germany the chief commercial colonial power. All these plans have been suddenly thrown into confusion by the American-Spanish war,

The article continues: "The American people, with characteristic shrewdness, have detected this resentment and hostility, and are in no mood to put up ground for surprise is that they have been so slow in manifesting interest in the situation in the far east, but now that the impulse has been supplied, and an assertion of the claim to have a voice in it has been made, there will be no drawing back or hesitation in pushing matters to a conclusion.'

Frightfully Long List of Marine Disasters.

Awful Havoo Caused by the Recent Storms in Boston Harbort and Other Points-One Hundred Vessels Ashore -Appalling Loss of Life Reported -Many Bodies Washed Ashore-Others Taken From the Wrecks Frozen in the Rigging.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 29.-Not until yesterday morning when daylight offered a safe opportunity for investigation and exploration, did the awful havoc wrought by the storm in Boston harbor and vicinity become apparent. Not since 1852 has a storm caused such destruction of property and loss of life so near the city. The tugs that started to explore the harbor and offer assistance wherever it was possible, found a condition of affairs almost unprecedented in the marine history of Boston. On every side the awful spectacle of reef in the harbor was the resting place of some wrecked craft, over which a wild sea still dashed, carrying the vessel higher upon the shore or slowly grinding it to fragments. Many wrecks were covered with ice, and this and the fact that a terrific sea was running, made it impossible to learn their names. The waters also prevented any attempt to recover bodies known to be in some of the wrecks, and it is probable that it will be several days before a complete list of those lost can be obtained. At Hull Beach, where two barges and two schooners went ashore, more than a dozen bodies were visible in the fierce surf, but it was impossible to get at them. At Shag Rocks, between Boston Light and the Brewsters, where the schooner Calvin F. Baker went ashore, two sailors were taken from the rigging, nearly exhausted, and the dead oody of another was recovered. Three others from this vessel were drowned, but their bodies could not be found.

PARTIAL LIST OF THE DEAD.

The list of dead, as far as reported this afternoon, is as follows: From the schooner Calvin W. LOST ON THE ROCKS.

Salem, Mass., Nov. 29.—Two members of the crew of the schooner Bertha A. Gross, from Derisle, Maine, were rescued from House Island, off Manchester, yesterday, nearly dead, having been without shelter or food for 30 house, and from them it was learned that the schooner was lost on the rocks near Fresh Island, Saturday, at midnight, and Capt. Wallace Thurston, aged about 70 years, and his son John

LARGE FLEET DESTROYED.

Vineyard Haven, Mass., Nov. 29.-The flerce northeast storm Saturday night and Sunday swept out of existence a large fleet of salling vessels which anchored off this port to escape its fury. It is known that at least four men have perished, and it is very probable that many more have lost their lives. Twenty-one schooners, nearly all heavly laden, and one barkentine are ashore. Four schooners now lying at anchor are totally dismasted, two others were sunk, and one bark is resting on the bottom, entirely submerged. Many other vessels were battered and partially stripped of their rigging.

OFF NOVA SCOTIA.

Halifax, N. S., Nov. 29.-A special from Digby says two vessels are ashore there and nine are high on the beach at Westport, besides one sunk and one dismasted. The schooner Seraphine, from Boston, with flour, meal, etc., is ashore, and full of water on the north side of Bear Island, in Digby Basin. The schooner Silver Cloud is ashore with loss of rudder and all head gear. The Plympton schooner W. K. Smith, from Boston for Port Lorne, put port, with wax, bound for Boston; into Digby for a harbor and rode Captain Stanley. rudder by striking ground at low water. Among the schooners ashore are the Alfred, of Lockport, and Primrose,

DASHED TO PIECES.

According to advices from Eastern Passage, the inhabitants of that fishing village, six miles east of Halifax, saw a steamer dashed on Thrum Cap Shoal in the height of the hurricane on Sunday morning. If their story is true the vessel has been completely destroyed, as there is not a trace of a wreck today on Thrum Cap, and her crew must have perished quickly in the nowling gale that raged all day. THE WORST.

The Plant Line steamer Halifax, which got in here yesterday, was slightly damaged. Capt. Pye says it was the worst gale he ever experienc-

Wrecks occurred on the coast of Nova Scotia during Sunday's hurricane, and it is feared that some of them were attended with loss of life. cosses occurred all along the Atlantic. At Westport, near Digby, no less than a dozen schooners met disaster in the tempest. Nine were cast ashore; one was sunk and others dismantled. The chooner Renfrew, from Louisburg, C. 3., for Wine Harbor, N. S., laden with oal, ran for Canso Harbor in the storm and struck on Hart's Island, near the ighthouse, becoming a total wreck. Her crew escaped. At Whitehead a number of fishing smacks foundered at heir moorings.

AT SEA. The sorm was felt far out at sea. Many of the regular liners and steamers which were due at New York early Sunday morning failed to arrive. The Bermuda steamer Trinidad was nearly up to Sandy Hook on Saturday night, but was driven off by the heavy wind and the danger of approaching the coast in a blinding snow storm. The French liner La Touraine first encountered the storm on Nov. 25, but came along steadily until the night of the 26th, when the snow and wind became so blinding that at a distance of 70 miles from the port, the vessel was slowed down and barely held her way. The Furnessia had the gale, as did also the Thingvalla. The latter reported the strength of the gale as 12, the highest the Beaufort scale gives. SEVENTY LIVES LOST OFF NEW ENGLAND. Boston, Mass., Nov. 29.-It is known definitely now that over 70 lives have been lost in the wrecks of schooners and coal barges in New England, and if the steamer Portland, which is missing, has also gone down, as now seems possible, the work of the storm will carry the casualties up to 1,400, with over 100 vessels of all lescriptions ashore, two score of them total wrecks, and an unknown number probably beneath the waves of Massachusetts Bay.

ANOTHER VICTORY.

Mr. R. Morrow Cured of Lumbago Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Toronto, Nov. 28.-The vast majority of Torontonians know and esteem Mr. R. Morrow, the able and popular general agent for the Toronto Auer Light

For this reason, the following statement, made in writing by Mr. Morrow, possesses unusual significance: "Two years ago I was attacked by Lumbago and Urinary trouble which caused me intense suffering. I took several different remedies without any benefit. Then I began using Dodd's Kidney Pills and was completely cured by them." Lumbago is unusually prevalent this fall. All sufferers should know that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only cure for it. They never fall. Land in the city of London is worth over £2,000,000 an acre.

THE SHARKEY-CORBETT AFFAIR. The inquiry instituted by the directors of the Lenox Athletic Club, with the intention of fastening the blame for the sudden termination of the Sharkey-Corbett contest Tuesday night, took place yesterday, but no collusion was shown by the statements Corbett was the last to be questioned, and he emphatically stated that he did not believe that McVey had been bought by anyone. Corbett "I believe in McVey's loyalty. He has been with me for years, and would not throw me down. After I had returned to my dressing-room on Tuesday night, McVey told my brother Tom that he could not see the big fellow (meaning me) licked, and as he considered me being beaten, he jumped into the ring to save me. I believe in McVey, and am positive that he was not actuated by any other mo-tive in doing as he did last Tuesday night." Corbett's statement was satisfactory to the inquisiters, and the matter dropped right here. Tom O'Rourke, on behalf of Sharkey, promised to give

Corbett another chance at his man. Tom O'Rourke, match-maker for the Lenox Athletic Club, stated that the amount of money Sharkey received was $16,845, while Corbett's share was Those sums were made up of 75 and 25 per cent of a $20,000 purse and 50 per cent of the receipts exceed-

EUFFALO LEAVES THE EASTERN. President Franklin, of the Buffalo baseball club, has accepted a franchise in the Western League, and will withdraw his club from the Eastern League circuit. This action was decided upon by Mr. Franklin after a conference held in Buffalo with President Johnson, of the Western League, and the president of the Milwaukee club. The Western League representative offered the Buffalo president the franchise and the majority of the players of the St. Joseph, Mo., club, if he would become a member of their organization, and Franklin accepted their offer.

THE ST. LOUIS FRANCHISE. Chris Von der Ahe says he is in the saddle once more, having deposed B. F. Muckenfuss from the presidency of the

In J. Fenimore Cooper's Leather Stocking Tales, we read stories of the wonderful agility, physical endurance and the unerring accuracy of the eve of the American Indian when he reigned supreme over this continent. Before he was debauched by modern civilization, he was a magnificent specimen He lived entirely in the open air, knew no medicine, save the simple herbs gathered by his squaws. Civilized man leads an unnatural and an unhealthy life. Unlike the Indian if he would maintain his physical and mental health, he must take reasonable precautions to combat disease. Nearly all diseases have their inception in disorders of the digestion, torpidity of the liver and impurity of the blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made of simple herbs. It restores the lost appetite, makes digestion and assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver, purifies the blood and promotes the natural processes of excretion and secretion. It sends the rich, red, life-giving blood bounding through the arteries and corrects all circulatory disturbances. It dispels headaches, nervousness, drowsiness, lassitude, and drives out all impurities and disease germs. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption, bron-chitis, asthma and diseases of the air-pasages. It gives sound and refreshing sleep, drives away all bodily and mental fatigue and imparts vigor and health to every organ of the body. Medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing else, "just as good."

"A few of my symptoms," writes Charles Book, of Climax, Kalamazoo Co., Mich., "were heart-burn, fullness after eating, pain in my bowels, bad taste in my mouth, and occasional fever and hot flushes. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured all these and I am perfectly weil."

ARTHUR IRWIN TALKS.

Arthur Irwin, the baseball magnate, of Toronto and Washington, while in Buffalo yesterday, had a conference with the president of the Buffalo ball club, with regard to the advisability of joining the Western League. Mr. Irwin would not say what the result of the conference was. "I have had no proposition whatever from the Western League," he said. "As things look now I will stay in the Eastern League. Columbus was dead last year, and the idea evidently is to buy the Toronto franchise and put Loftus in there instead of at Columbus. I am open to a proposition for the sale of the Toronto franchise. If Buffalo joins the Western League and doesn't get within a rush at the top, the club will be a heavier loser than it was in the Eastern League last year. The Toronto club is a winner whether it stays in the Eastern League or not; and with the rearranged circuit for next year, the Eastern League should be strong."

WILL INSIST ON BETTER SERVICE

Board of Works' Suggestions for the Street Railway Company.

Ald. Jolly's Motion Goes to Pieces-Struck a Legal Snag-Special Legislation Would Be Necessary.

A special meeting of the board of works was held last night to consider the advisability of certain changes in the street railway service. It is claimed that under the bylaw the council can fix the rate of speed, the intervals at which cars must run, and the routes they must take. Ald. Carrothers, Douglass, Dreaney, Belton and Cooper, City Solicitor Meredith, City Engineer Graydon and Secretary Bell were pre-

The engineer recommended that the rate of speed as at present in voguesix miles on pavement and ten miles on other streets-be adopted. This will be recommended to the council.

On motion of Ald. Cooper it was recommended that the belt line be reversed on Central avenue and Adelaide streets, and the service be six minutes. Ald. Douglass moved to recommend a 12-minute service on Wellington street, instead of 15 minutes, as at present. Carried.

Ald. Carrothers moved a 9-minute service on the Oxford street and Hamilton road route-the cars to run east on the Hamilton road. He also moved to have a new belt line, giving a 5-minute service east on Dundas street to Rectory, south to Hamilton road, west to Richmond and north to Dundas. Both recommendations will be sent to the council.

Doubt was expressed about being cars both ways on the Hamilton road. "Well, if we can't do that, I'll move to fix the time at four and six miles," said Ald. Carrothers. "That'll bring them to time."

The matter will come up again on Thursday evening. Asked if he thought Manager Carr would be agreeable to the changes, Mr. Graydon said: "It is hardly likely. He wants to do away with three cars, and you want him to put on five new ones." Mr. Carr has offered to run the cars both ways on the Hamilton road if the city will allow him to abandon the Rectory street line, but the aldermen will not consent to this. Ald. Jolly was present, and on being urged by the chairman, the committee consented to discuss his motion that no more board walks be laid, but that in every case artificial stone walks be laid and paid for by frontage tax. The alderman was piling argument upon argument in favor of the step, when the city solicitor informed him that the theory was not practicable unless special legislation be secured.

A Fine Programme of Oratory-Supper Will Start at 8 P.M. Sharp.

St. Andrew's Society banquet tomorrow at the City Hotel, will start at 8 p.m., sharp, with the accent on sharp. The programme is very promising. The president, Mr. Thomas Purdom, will occupy the chair, and introduce the following toast list: "The Queen and Royal Family," chorus; "The Governor-General and Lieutenant-Governor," chorus; "The Army and Navy and Volunteers," Col. Buchan; "The President of the United States," Col. Culver United States consult "The Day Culver, United States consul; "The Day We Celebrate," Hon. George W. Ross; "The Literature of Scotland," Rev. W. J. Clark; "Canada," Rev. Robert Johnston; "The House of Commons," Mr. Thomas Beattie, M.P.; "The Mayor and Corporation," Mayor Wilson; "Sister Societies," by the representatives present; "The Learned Professions," Mr. A. G. Chisholm; "The Press," "The Ladies," and "The Host." Songs and instrumental music will be interspersed. It is a public banquet, and everyone is cordially invited.

The United States war department, in view of the assurances that a peace treaty with Spain will be signed, is arranging to muster out more troops, probably 30,000 to 40,000. It is stated that a powerful English syndicate is preparing to go into the wood pulp business in the Saguenay district, and has approached the Que-bec Government, offering to make 450 tons of pulp a day, providing the use of certain water powers is accorded. They propose to spend $2,000,000 to erect the principal mill at Alma Island, on the Grand Discharge.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Works an Astonishing Cure in Goderich, Ont.

Mr. Beck's Boetor Was of Cpinion That He Was Incurable.

Wells & Richardson Co.:

Gentlemen: I wish to offer my testimony voluntarily in praise of Paine's Celery Compound. I am a tanner by trade, and about thirteen years ago I had an attack of rheumatic fever. While recovering I took cold, and had a relapse, which ended in inflammatory rheumatism, and was laid up for two years. My doctor said I would not live to see my thirtieth year. I was afflicted with sleeplessness, and while almost giving up in despair your Paine's Celery Compound was recommended to me for insomnia. I bought a bottle and used it, and to my surprise it gave me natural rest and sleep, and after using six bottles I was entirely cured of inflammatory rheumatism. My wife also used your medicine for insomnia, and before using one whole bottle was entirely cured. We have been using Paine's Celery Compound for years, and would not be without it. CHARLES E. BECK. Goderich, Ont.

The United States Embarks. Spain has at last swallowed her pride and yielded to the inevitable. She relinquishes all authority over the Philippines-an authority merely nominal since the battle of Manila-and the Islands pass into the hands of the United States. It is an evertful step in history. It 's fraught with great consequences, not only to the United States, but to the world. The republic cuts loose from the traditions which have hitherto guided its foreign policy. The injunction of Washington, once considered as sacred, 18 overruled. The nation projects itself into a new orbit in which there is danger of collision with other powers. By this move the United States incurs the ill-will of continental Europe; but that is no discredit. Great Britain in civilizaing other lands, has been incurring the same ill-will for many years. In that respect John Bull and Uncle Sam are now in the same boat.

Whether or not the United States will profit by this venture only time can tell; but nobody except a Spaniard van doubt that the Philippines will be gainers. It will be instructive to watch American legislation in the slands. The first steps will necessarily be experimental. The attitude of the natives must be determined before a mode of government can be fixed. For the present military occupation is indispensable. Even if the natives prove docile, a considerable army will be required for moral ef-'ect during the formative state of the government. Eventually, if all goes well, the troops may be gradually withdrawn, a few garrisons being retained to uphold the civil power.

It has been suggested by those Americans opposed to the annexation of the Philippines, that the islands be :uled as Great Britain rules Egyptby permitting natives to hold the high offices of the state, while its affairs are really managed and directed by the tutelary power. In this way, they out seriously displacing British goods: affirm, the United States need not annex the Philippines, nor even declare a protectorate over them, but the natives may be educated for self-government by American emissaries. This scheme is plausible; but if Great Britain's experience in Egypt is a criterion, it would mean annexation in fact if not in name. The British are in Egypt to stay. If they were to retire, it would be chaos come again in the land of Pharoah, for the Egyptians, after all these years of shining British example, are admittedly unfit to rule themselves efficiently. The task of governing the Philippines is one to which the American Administration will apply itself sincerely. Having become sponsor for the new imperialism, the reputation and success of the republican party are staked upo nthe outcome of that policy.

United States are very obvious. Great Britain has no reason to fear the disturbance of the balance of power in the East. She has had to play a lone hand against the rest of Europe, and is therefore not displeased to see some of the antagonism of Russia, France and Germany diverted in part to the United States; an antagonism which drives Great Britain and the United States closer together in pursuit of a common interest-the open door in China. In view of all this it is not likely the American Government will chill British friendship by a selfish tariff policy in the Philippines. How much Great Britain is interested in .the trade of the islands is shown by the following table:

Poor Pay, Poor Policy.

A movement is on foot in the Ottawa School Board to reduce the salaries of public school teachers. The trustees. as in some places hereabout, have been somewhat extravagant in other respects, and they are inclined to blame the system, or anything but their own management. It is important, however. that a good public school teacher should be well paid, so as to encourage his or her continuance in the profession. The Scottish parish schoolmaster has generally been a success because he was not only well paid, but his ability being established before he was permanently engaged, he was an expert at his profession, and was continued in charge so long as he was physically and mentally able to do his duty. Thus he stored up, as years went by, a vast amount of information about the ability and family history of his charge that stood him in good stead in making the most of their talents.

A competent teacher should be liberally paid. It must be understood, however, that an inefficient teacher-a Tariff.

All the Americans ask is to be placed on the same level as Great Britain in the Canadian market. As the 25 per cent preference has secured for us no advantage whatever in the British market, we can see no reason why an extension of it to the United States should not be used as a means of se-curing hospitality to Canadian prod-ucts, natural and artificial, in the American market.-Kingston News.

While taking exception to the statement that the preferential tariff has secured us no advantage in the British market, the News is more reasonable than many other Conservative newspapers, which, while denouncing the British preference, claim that the Liberal party will stultify itself if it extends the same preference to the United States in exchange for like concessions. The Government laid it down as a principle of its new tariff policy that Canada would give advantages to other countries in proportion to the advantages they would give to Canada. But there is no reason to believe that the United States will open its door wide enough to merit this treatment on the part of Canada. A substantial measure of reciprocity can be arranged between Canada and the United States without curtailing to any appreciable extent, the advantages enjoyed by Great Britain under our pro-British tariff. It is on this basis that our commissioners at Washington are working. A glance at the trade returns shows that there are many articles of American production which enter the Canadian market and find practically little or no British competition. Without injuring British trade we could grant more favored terms for these American products in return for an equivalent in the American market for our own products. For instance, Canada last year bought from the States $9,000,000 worth of coal. Reciprocity in coal would be mutually advantageous. This is only one of the lines of exchange between Canada and her neighbor in which British competition does not enter. In hides, cotton, tobacco and cereals we also bought heavily from our neighbors. In manufactured articles the following table of Canadian imports for last year shows

> Commenting on Mr. Chamberlain's recent reference to the Newfoundland treaty shore trouble, La Minerve, the Montreal French-Canadian daily, says:

"As Newfoundland must inevitably end by becoming part of our confederation, we desire only that satisfactory arrangement between the two nations will free our future sister province from a servitude which is prejudicial to it and which in reality has no reason to exist.'

Spoken like a true Canadian.

Women are forging ahead in Great Britain. The British census reports of 1891 say that in England and Wales alone 51,000 are engaged in agriculture. How many women farmers have we in Canada?—Hamilton Times.

Thousands of them. Every farmer's wife and every farmer's daughter is, or should be, engaged in agriculture. She does not have to handle the plow or hoe the corn, but when she milks the cows, or churns the butter, or feeds the chickens, or bakes the pies, she is engaged in agriculture as much as her husband or father.

Mr. Robert Holmes, the Liberal candidate in West Huron, has a versatile and doughty champion in Mr. Dan Mc-Gillicuddy, of the Goderich Signal. He hurls this blast of defiance at those who have been unfairly assailing Mr.

"If there is any legitimate attack that can be made upon the public conduct of Mr. Holmes we are perfectly willing that our contemporaries should make it, but we protest against skulduggery assaults. However, if they prefer a rough-and-tumble campaign the Signal is prepared to slosh right in and fight to a finish. Just say word-is it to be Chesterfield or Bill Sykes?"

Brantford's increase in population was greater last year than it was in 1892, after the suburbs had been annexed. On the contrary, we have no desire to belittle its triumphant struggle with vested interests or its complete and lasting victory for economic truth a victory by which Greater Britain bids fair to gain in still fuller measure as the years roll on. much CUTICURA REMEDIES have done for me, my father and two brothers. In the fall of '95, I began to be afflicted with an itching rash under my chin. It kept spreading until it was all over my body. I could not sleep but was compelled to lie awake and scratch all the time. My father and two brothers were afflicted with the same thing, at the same time. We all suffered terribly for a year and a half, trying in the meantime all the remedies we could find, but received no benefit. I happened to see Cutioura Remedies advertised and how they had cured others from itching skin diseases, and we thought we would try them. I bought three cakes of CUTICURA SOAP and three boxes of CUTICURA (ointment) and they cured the four of us completely.

the magician, produced dozens of eggs, live animals, bushels of real roses, etc., from the mysterious somewhere apparently known to the magician only. The audience would not have been much surprised had a whole menagerie, elephant and all, trooped out of the magician's inside pocket, and had he himself vanished into thin air.

In his presence one begins to have doubts as to the truism of the old established theory that two objects can't occupy the same space at the same time, or that black isn't white.

To say which of Mr. Ansbach's experiments was the best would be an exceeding difficult feat, as all were good and of the highest order. What made Mr. Ansbach's work more interesting was the entire absence of mechanical aid, such as elaborately draped tables, doubtful boxes, or even accomplices in the audience, as every magician we have ever seen employs.

His ability in interspersing witty remarks and sayings added not a little to the enjoyment of the evening. A pleasant surprise, not announced on

Mrs. Ansbach, a very beautiful wo in his wonder-working feats.

The musical selections rendered dur-

Grain deliveries were fairly good to- day. Wheat sales were made at $1 15 to $1 17. The decline was caused by influence of other markets, Oats were steady; mostly at 80c to 82c; some odd lots, however, sold as high as 85c.

Several loads of barley sold at 90c to $1 07 according to sample. No other kind of grain offered.

Eggs' and butter both steady, there being probably a little stronger feeling in the former. Chickens, turkeys, etc., show little change.

Meats were plentiful and quiet. Hay sold from $6 to $7; supply good. Potatoes quiet and unchanged; re-Quotations:

A Severe Sufferer From Bladder Disease Could Find No Relief Till He Tried Dodd's Kidney Pills-They Cured Him.

Montreal, Nov. 28 .- There are few people in Montreal who have not known the agony of bladder trouble. This complaint attacks four out of every five persons, and, unless it be checked in time, it leads to more serious and dangerous conditions, such as inflammation of the bladder, stricture, Weak or defective kidneys are the cause of bladder troubles. The one way to get rid of bladder troubles, to cure them for all time, therefore, is to strengthen and heal the kidneys.

This, like everything else, is easy to do, if you take the right way, for there is only one way to do it. Use Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only known remedy that can restore the kidneys to complete health.

Thousands have proved this fact by experience. All who have done so, speak in the same terms as Mr. John H. Barber, of this city, who says: "I suffered for two years with bladder and kidney troubles

170 VESSELS LOST OR DISABLED. Boston, Mass., Nov. 29 .- From reports from New England points up to 10 o'clock this forenoon, it is difficult to estimate the total loss of life and shipping along this coast, as the result of the recent storm. The list of disasters seem to grow every hour. It appears that at least 30 schooners have been wrecked at different points from Eastport, Maine, to New Haven, Conn., 86 schooners have been driven ashore, 14 barges loaded or empty, are aground, besides a large number smaller craft.

This list does not include the 30 yessels either wholly or partially wrecked in Boston harbor; nor half a dozen or more craft which are reported missing, including the Boston and Portland steamer Portland, nor the big Wilson Line freighter Ohio, which is ashore on Spectacle Island in this harbor; the steamer John J. Hill, which is ashore at Atlantic; the Merchants' and Min-Transportation steamer Fairfax, on Sow and Pigs Ledge, off Cutty Hunk, north, and the small steamer George Chaffee, foundered at Rockport, Mass. When these are added, the aggregate list exceeds 170 craft. FORTY PERSONS PERISHED IN the programme, was the appearance of BOSTON HARBOR. It is known that about 40 persons man, who ably assisted her husband perished in and about Boston harbor. Perhaps a score would cover those of whom nothing is known, not including ing intermission by Miss Paul, of the the 65 or more who were on board the steamer Portland.

42 points.' -The statement that Motorman Hopkins, of the street railway company, was discharged because of suspected complicity in the Addison assault is not true. Mr. Hopkins left to accept another situation. -Miss Stella Jackson, Miss Jean Duncan and Mr. Ralph Duncan, of Petrolia, and Mr. Maurice Duncan, a student of Woodstock College, have returned home after spending their Thanksgiving holidays at 392 Adelaide street, the guests of Miss Florence M.

Kirk. -Mr. Georgius Zegeer lectured in the Memorial Church schoolroom last night before a fairly large audience, on "The Mohammedan Belief and the Customs of the Country." His remarks were listened to with interest. He also exhibited a number of books and papers printed in Arabic. Mr. Zegeer says Canada is the best country in the world to live in as regards laws and personal safety.

-At the police court this morning Michael Tierney was found guilty of theft from John Cleve, and was sentenced to two months in jail at hard Patrick Quinn, for assaulting labor. Thomas Walsh, was fined $5 or ten days. The charge of housebreaking preferred against the prisoner by Nellie Jacoby was dismissed. James Fox, drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 or twenty days. One drunk was discharged. -The many friends of Mr. Henry Fletcher and family will regret to hear of the death of little Francie, the pet of the household, which occurred at the family residence, 451 Princess avenue, on Monday afternoon, the 28th inst. Her demise was not altogether unexpected, but was thought to be more remote, her frail constitution being unable to withstand the severe attack of disease, which laid its hand so heavily upon her. The family have the sincere sympathy of all in their

buildings this afternoon. Tomorrow afternoon there will be a joint meeting of the city and county hospital committees. Warden Elson says the county committee considers that the "little matter of bookkeeping" which the city referred to when amending the proposed agreement, would mean a loss of $120 a year to the county.

CHANGES ON THE C. P. R. On and after Dec. 1 the C. P. R. train leaving at 8:30 a.m. for Ottawa will run as far as Toronto only. No change will be made in the 4:30 a.m. and 5:15 p.m. trains.

NUMBER SIX WARD LIBERALS. Proceedings at No. 6 Ward Liberal Club "At Home" this evening will commence promptly at 8 o'clock, as there is a lengthy programme. Everybody should make it a point to be sharp on time, and thus avoid those troublesome interruptions incident to seating late comers. Liberals of the ward are all heartily welcome. Mr. J. M. McEvoy and Mr. Philip E. McKenzle have been added to the list of speakers already announced. A NEW PAPER.

On Dec. 6 a new Presbyterian paper will appear in Montreal. The paper, which will be entitled the Dominion Presbyterian, will contain sixteen pages, slightly larger than the pages of the Westminster. The publication will be a weekly, under the managing editorship of Mr. C. Blackett Robinson, who has for so long been connected with the Presbyterian publications of Toronto. The Dominion Presbyterian will sell at 5 cents, the annual sub-scription being $150. An edition of 25,-000 copies is expected, and there are promising indications of success

THE STREET CAR SCHEDULE. Manager Carr, of the London street railway, said today that he had heard nothing so far of the schedule for car service formulated by the board of works last night. Mr. Carr said it was one of the mayor's undertakings when the recent strike was settled, that the schedule of last year, namely, fifteen cars, instead of twenty, as at present, should be adopted this winter. It is said the mayor undertook to see that a schedule of fifteen cars was pushed through the council. AN OLD AND SUCCESSFUL LON-

DONER. The appearance at the Opera House this evening of a London boy, who is today the shining light of minstrelsy, is an event of the season. It is not amiss to make especial mention of this gentleman, George Primrose, as he is familiarly known. However, Mr. Primrose is too well known here to need a review of his theatrical career. It might be well to introduce his new partner-Liew Dockstader-who is to minstrelsy what Joseph Jefferson and Nat Goodwin are to legitimate comedy. Mr. Primrose promises Londoners the most superb aggregation of minstrelsy ever brought into Canada. The sale of seats is very lrage, and from all indications the house will be packed to greet our townsman and his company

aged 28 years, died yesterday of lung Masked Man Breaks Into Duncan's Store, Wanstead.

> Shoots at the Proprietor and Robsthe Safe.

[G. N. W. Special to The Advertiser.] Wanstead, Nov. 29.-About 4 o'clock this morning, a masked man entered A. Duncan & Co.'s hardware store here by breaking open the cellar window. Going upstairs in his stocking feet he awoke the only occupant of the building, Mr. W. Duncan, demanding bis money and the keys of the safe.

On Mr. Duncan demurring the burglar fired a shot at him from a revolver, the ball passing near Mr. Duncan's

Mr. Duncan's arms were then pinioned and he was led downstairs to the safe, which the burglar opened, under his directions, securing all the money it contained, which, fortunately, was not a large sum. He then made off down the street, and was tracked to the railroad, along which he seems to have gone east.

Mr. Duncan's watch was also taken, a gold-filled, open-faced Waltham-Bartlett, No. 2,830,388. The burglar appeared to be of medium size, but was so masked as to conceal all his face. He left the tools which he used. They were taken from the blacksmith shop of Norman Fraser, near by.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a twenty-five cent bottle of Dr. Wills' English Pills, if, after using three-fourths of contents of bottle, they do not relieve Constipation and headache. We also warrant that four bottles will permanently cure the most obstinate case of Constipation. Satisfaction or no pay when Wills' English Pills are used.

Two colored gentlemen of Windsor fought to a finish on Saturday, and had to be taken to the police station for repairs. It cost them $5 25 each. John Rourke, M. C. R. switchman; St. Thomas, was knocked down by an engine while at work in the yards on Sunday. He was severely bruised. S. Assley, of Blenheim, Ont., while driving towards home, was thrown out of his rig and severely cut about the face and head and required the services of a physician. A youth named Dave Flett was skating on the canal in Brantford on Monlay, when he broke through the ice. The water was deep, and he was only rescued after great difficulties. A well-known resident of Brantford died on Sunday in the person of Mr. William Ashbury. The deceased gentleman was 59 years of age. He had been ill for a couple of years with bronchial trouble. St. Thomas Times: Chief Fewings received a communication from Cleveland, offering $300 reward for the locating of John Cotapish, a harmless insane person, who wandered away from the state hospital.

Le Burtis, the colored ex-pastor of Woodstock, was assaulted the other night by two white men. The preacher was having the best of fit, when one of his assailants hit him with a stone. Police proceedings will follow.

Albert Pooah, while employed at a sewer at Chatham, Ont., Monday, met with a very painful and possibly serious accident. He was using a pickaxe, when he accidentally struck his foot, inflicting a very painful wound on the instep.

Henry Sanders, the man who attempted suicide twice on Saturdayonce in the Walkerville cells and again at Sandwich jail—is still in a state of wild delirium, and will be for a week, Jail Surgeon Casgrain says. His condition is considered critical.

Benjamin Sanderson died very suddenly at the residence of his brother, Dr. Sanderson, Sparta, on Sunday, at 6 p.m. Deceased, who was about 70 years of age, appeared to be in his usual state of health during the day. He was a widower and had no family.

Joseph Cudney, who runs a woodyard in St. Thomas, had a narrow escape from being killed Sunday night. He was driving to his home, and while crossing the G. T. R. track at the St. George street hill, a train came along and struck the wagon. The rig was rather badly disfigured, but Cudney was not hurt.

Col. Goold, a well known resident of Mount Pleasant, was struck by a T., H. and B. train on Saturday, while driving into the city, and had a close call from instant death. The carriage was badly smashed, and the colonel escaped only by a miracle. He was shaken up and bruised, but not seriously injured.

The thanksgiving dinner and concert last week under the auspices of Christ Church Guild, Port Stanley, proved a phenomenal success in every way. A sum of nearly $60 was realized from the receipts, thus enabling the guild to pay off all indebtedness for repairs and improvements on the rectory, with a snug balance on hand.

HALL CAINE

Close View of the Noted Author-Looks Like Shakespeare.

Hall Caine, the author, who is now visiting America to deliver a series of lectures and to superintend the production of his dramatization of The Christian, has had a remarkably successful literary career. He was the son of a blacksmith. From a crofter's cottage on the Isle of Man he has risen to be the owner of a great castle on the island. This castle, with its stonework and its towers, reminds one somewhat of Windsor, although, of course, it is not nearly so large or so magnificent. Hall Caine's study is a large, square room, with bookcases ranged on both sides. It has no desk, for the author of The Manxman never writes at a desk. He holds the paper on his lap and uses a fountain pen. The chair which he uses while writing was once the property of Dante Gabriel Rosetti, the poet and painter. When at work on a novel he does his work between five and eight in the morning, and spends the rest of the day in riding about the country or in taking long walks. The Manx author has a host of friends in America, and his not infrequent visits to our shores are usually occasion for lionizing him. of his more enthusiastic admirers claim to find in Hall Cain a striking likeness to Shakespeare. Perhaps this may be the case—in appearance.

THE QUEEN OF THE SEASON

"Nor I," she replied; "except that the dancers are supposed to have been bitten by a tarantula, or huge spider; and that, as the poison circulates through the veins, their movementswhich at first are very slow—become brisker and wilder, till at last—oh! dear, I'm sure I don't know what they do at last. There must be a final of some sort, mustn't there?"

"Get well, I suppose, and celebrate their recovery with a sportive frisk,' suggested Aymer; "or perhaps they strike an attitude, and expire to slow enusic in each other's arms! Exquisite and pathetic tableaux! We must prace tice that before a looking-glass, and you'll have to chalk your cheeks for it,

"Oh! but we couldn't do a die in thy center of a ball-room," objected Lotty; because there would be no curtains to hide us while we got on our feet again.

I wonder which is the correct thing, and how we ought to dance the tarantella?"

"Why not decide on something with which we are better acquainted-something less descriptive and difficult to represent successfully?

But the young lady was obstinate. Lady Vivien's maid was arranging for her the attire of a Tuscan peasantmaiden, and it was too picturesque to be relinquished. "I'll go and ask Marie if she knows," cried Lotty suddenly. "She has been in Tuscany, for she is modeling my dress by her recollections of the costume of a contadina. Stay here till I have questioned her."

Lotty returned presently, her eyes sparkling with pleasure, to where Aymer was leaning against the wall, sawing out on a violoncello such long, melancholy notes that the first thing she did was to put her hand on the bow and stop him.

"What, don't you recognize the "Last Rose of Summer?" No more do I; so I was trying to extemporize a melody. However, I'll not indict it on you in its present unfinished state. What news from France? "Oh! she has seen the tarantella danced, and will teach me, and then, you know, I can teach you. "Wouldn't it be a better plan for Ma'm'selle Marie to instruct both of us?" asked Aymer, insidiously.

But Lady Vivien's attendant did not choose to see the wisdom of this, and, as Lotty Ramsden was anything but scholar, there was very little prospect of the weird Italian dance making a conspicuous figure in the

In vain did Marie strive to make the young lady imitate her own graceful poses; and the Misses Estridge, who were inclined to be jealous of Lotty's superior personal attractions, tittered at her mistakes and maliciously predicted in her hearing a break-cown. "No matter, my dress is far more be-coming than theirs," Lotty confided to her partner. "Vivien has a dress by her which she intends to wear as the Scottish Queen, so she has been able to let Marie devote herself to me; and I hatter myself that my appearance will not disgrace you, Signor Bepps, or Guiseppe er whatever you mean to yourself. I'll eclips: these illnatured Estridges in one way if I cannot in another. They may outdance, but they shall not outshine ma."

CHAPTER XXII.

The evening arrived for Vivien's soiree dansante, and though the invitations issued had been confined to a select few, the guests were more numerous than had been anticipated; for the rumor that something original would be eacted induced all who had been invited to come; and on one pretext or another a few were smuggled in whose names were not on the cards sent out.

The fine old hall, always worth seeing, with its tapestried panels, suits of ancient armor, wide open hearth and carved oaken roof, was brilliantly lighted, and Lady Esselyn, in the character of a French marquise, receiv-ed her guests, and conducted the older ones to the dais, from whence a better view of the space roped off for dancing could be obtained. The musicians were stationed in a gallery above the principal entrance, and another was thronged with the servants, who were eager to view so gay and pretty a spec-

It commenced with an old English morrice-dance, which was to have been led off by Lord Esselyn and Lotty Ramsden, but at the last moment the young lady had not appeared, and as soon as he could do so without attracting attention he went in search of her. His tap at the door of his sister's dressing room was answered by his eister's voice, and opening the door he found Lotty sitting on the floor in tears. The rose-trimmed muslin skirts, in which she was to have figured as Maid Marian, were all crumpled, and her gay, white chip hat lay doubled u p and cruehed at her feet, while, in the intervals of her passionate weeping she was vindictively tearing into atoms the letter she held in her hands.

"Death and despair!" exclaimed Aymer, tragically. "What has befallen my fair ladye?"
Vivien, who was evidently alternating between impatience and amusement, was about to reply, when Lotty broke

"It's papa! He has such dreadful oldfashioned notions, that he writes to forbid my taking any part in the figure dances. He says—he says;—and now the sobs made her almost unintelligible—"that—that I'm 200 much inclined to be fast—isn't it an odious word?—already; and he'll not hear of my donning a fancy dress, and making public exhibitions of myself."

"Is that all? Well, then, never mind," cried Aymer consolingly; "you will be able to enjoy all the waltzes and polkas. For how many may I put down my name?"

"But it's those unfeeling, jeering Estridges," wailed Lotty. "How they will triumph over me! And everyone will be asking why I am not taking part in the affair, and how mortifying, how humbling, to be obliged to answer that papa forbids it, and why he does so. Those disagreeable, unfeeling girls will make me the laughing-stock of all their acquaintances." This was true; but the earl and his sister could only say that they were sorry for her mortification. They were too honorable to tempt her to disobey her irascible father, and Lotty wept on till a sudden thought made her start up with brightening face.

"Oh, Viva! oh! Lord Esselyn, such a capital idea! Marie is just my size, and her hair is precisely the same color; let her dance the tarantella in my stead. You have a half-masque of black silk, Viva, that she can wear, and no one need know but ourselves that it was not me. Let me foil those Estridges, and I shall be consoled."

At first Vivien uttered a decided "Impossible!" but Lotty was not to be discouraged by one refusal, and she pleaded eloquently for her wish to be granted. Would not dearest Viva help her to escape the taunts and sneers of those ill-natured girls? Yes; she knew it would not be pleasant for Lord Esselyn to dance with a maid, yet he always led off the servants' annual ball with the portly housekeeper, and Marie would be a more eligible partner than Mrs. Jones, so would not dear, dearest Viva let it as she wished?

"Will Marie herself consent to such an arrangement?" asked Aymer, when his sister began to hesitate.

"She must!—she shall!" cried impetu-ous Lotty, running to seek and per-"I will sot be denied." Vivien shrugged her shoulders as she met her brother's inquiring glance.

"It's a foolish plan, and if I did not detest Jane Estridge as much as Lotty does I would not consent to it. But I must go and show myself downstairs, or my dearest step-mamma will be inventing some pleasant reason or other for my absence

Listen to what Mr. James Row, a well-known resident of Belleville, says: "Nine years ago I was attacked with pain in my back just above the hips, and severe rheumatic pains all over my body, which as time went on grew constantly worse. I was most of the time unable to work, and suffered greatly from pain in the bladder. My disease has cost me fully $300 in doctors' bills and medicines, and still I got no material relief until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. I got a box, and as a result have no pain or ache of any kind. The urinary or bladder troubles are all cured. I sleep well, and the tired, worn-out feeling has vanished. It was the best thing I ever did in all my life when I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills. The effect on me has been simply wonderful, and, what is still better, the cure is permanent, for I have had no return of my trouble."

THE NAPANEE BANK ROBBERY

Expert Testimony in Regard to the Safe-Detective Wilson's Evidence.

Napanee, Nov. 29.-Expert evidence was given at yesterday's session of the bank robbery trial. Mr. Youngs, of the Taylor safe works, said it was impossible to open a combination without the numbers or a clew to the numbers. The combination given by Pare would not open the Dominion Bank safe, as he had demonstrated by trial. The witness gave evidence in reference to the condition of the safe after the rob-

The deposition of John D. Hill, the Indian witness, given at the preliminary inquiry, was read, as he is too ill to appear. It relates to the visit Holden and Mackie paid to Hill's house in the winter of 1897.

Daniel Cox, general foreman of the Taylor safe works, stated it as his opinion that a combination could not be worked without a knowledge of the numbers. The hole bored in the side of the safe was directly in line with the locking bolt.

Geo. Wilkes, the Pinkerton detective, told of finding the slip of paper containing the impression of the key of Bain's private compartment in the safe. He found it in Ponton's private room. To Mr. Porter, he stated the reason for searching Ponton's rooms was on account of Mrs. McGreer's story of the noise heard in Ponton's room the night of the robbery, and reported by her to her brother before she knew the bank had been robbed. When Detective Dougherty arrived, Ponton's examina-tion was continued, and, with the exception of one instance, Ponton told the truth. On Sept. 23, Ponton gave the key of his rooms up to the detectives. He was going away. Detective Wilkes stated the only theory he ever had of the robbery was that someone in the bank was in the job. To Mr. Porter he stated that at the time the impres-sion of the key was found ne thought he had Mr. Bain's key of his private compartment in his possession. The crown's case is practically presented. The principal witness yesterday afternoon was Mrs. Hannah McGreer, who testified to having heard noises in Ponton's room on the night of the roobery. She described it as a moaning and walking, a stirring in a hurried, quiet manner. She was awakened by a loud crash at 11 p.m., and the noises continued until 3 a.m. She told about the disturbances two days before she heard of the robbery. At the time of the burglary Mrs. McGreer occupied rooms above Ponton's apartment, in said she was positive that she had not dreamt all this. Joseph Haycock, the younger, followed his aunt in giving testimony. He spent the night with his aunt, and occupied a room with her son, arrectly above Ponton's sleeping apartment. He, too, heard the noises, but described them as a movement of light footsteps, and a low murmuring of voices. Detective Wilkes, in his cross-examination, said that he could make a key impression on paper. Had possession of the key of Bain's compartment of the safe when he made the search of Ponton's rooms, and could have placed the slip, containing the key impressions, in Ponton's room had he desired to do so. W. H. Gordon, book-keeper for Ritchie & Co., Belleville, testified that he rendered Ponton's account, due in November, 1896, several times, and it was finally paid in 1897 by check.

Clarence Beegant, manager of the Montreal branch of the bank, testified that Ponton, in accounting for his finances, prior to his first arrest, had expended $80 which he could not satisfactorily account for.

Detective Greer and High Constable Sills gave evidence—the former relative to the interviews held with Ponton re his finances, and the latter to the finding of the keys in the lockup. Adjourned.

THE BUSINESS SITUATION

Good Reports From All Sections of the Dominion-Pointers From Bradstreet's Review.

Montreal, Nov. 29.-Business in connection with the shipping of the port of Montreal has been very active, incident to the rush to get stuff on the last steamer. Trade in most articles is more active than usual at this season. There is a good demand for wools, and the mills are working full time and are filled with orders. Hides are steady. Leathers are in fair demand. A good many orders for boots and shoes for the spring have been received; prospects in that department of trade are bright. Groceries are selling quite freely. Good demand for seasonable drygoods; spring orders are increasing. Cheese is a little more active. No special change in butter. Cheese is a little more There is a good demand for all sorts of seasonable hardware. Weekly payments are very good, the country remittances being better than for some years at this time. The money market is steady at 4 to 4½ per cent for call loans, and 6 to 7 per cent for mercantile discounts.

There has been a marked improvement in Toronto wholesale trade this There have been many orders week. for seasonable lines, and shipments are being made on a large scale. Values are very firm and higher quotations are reported from British and French makers in dress fabrics. The movement in certain lines of shelf hardware is very good, and metals are in fair demand with prices well maintain-There is a good demand for glass, and dealers are firm in prices. Leather is more active and firm. Hides are scarce and strong. There is a very active demand for hog products. Dairy products are in fair demand and steady with the exception of butter, which is rather easy under large receipts of dairies. There is a good de-mand for funds here both for the purposes of trade and for speculation.

Business at Winnipeg has been checked to some extent lately by milder weather than expected at this season. In the lumber districts the cut of logs promises to be larger this season. The movement of grain has been hampered by the scarcity of cars. The grain is turning out better than expected. The prospects for the winter business are very fair.

There is a good demand for staple lines at the Coast and prices are generally firmly maintained in all leading lines.

BERING SEA QUESTION. Washington, Nov. 29 .- The Bering

Sea question has reached such an advanced stage in the considerations of the Anglo-American commission that a special meeting was held yesterday to hear the report of the committee which for the last ten days has been examining Canadian and American experts relative to the value of the Canadian fleet of sealers engaged in the Bering Sea.

THE HAVANA EXPLOSION. Havana, Nov. 29.-Investigation into cause of yesterday's explosion shows that it occurred on Avenue Infant, between the Santa Clara and Reina batteries. Many boxes of powder were stored in a private house, which also contained five rooms full of Mauser and other cartridges. The careless handling of one of the boxes of powder, not a box of dynamite, as at first reported, or of one of the boxes of cartridges, caused the explosion which killed or more or less seriously injured 38 persons.

His Logs, from His Feet to His Body Entirely Raw, and Ran a Blood-Tinged Irritating Water.

THE CURE B. B. B. MADE IN HIS CASE WAS PERMANENT, in eight years there has been no return OF THE DISEASE.

The triumphs of Burdock Blood Bitters over disease are eclipsing anything ever heard of in the annals of medicine.

The cases being published from time to time showing how thorough and permanent are the cures made by this remedy, are making the sick and afflicted consider whether it is worth their while wasting money on medicines that can only offer them temporary relief - and perhaps not even that -when a few bottles of B. B. B. will do all that any medicine can do in giving temporary relief, and besides, will make a cure so permanent that there will be no return of the trouble. In the severest forms of skin diseases. Salt Rheum or Eczema, Tetter, Shingles, Ring Worm, B. B. B. applied externally and taken internally will take out the burning and itching, give prompt relief, and make a permanent cure.

It was so in the case of Freddie Keirstead of Snider Mt., N.B.

He had one of the most aggravated B. B. B. cured him so thoroughly that after eight years the disease has shown no signs of returning. Read the following letter just receive ed from his mother:

"With gratitude I can testify to the wonderful curative powers of Burdock Blood Bitters. Eight years ago our little son, Freddy, was afflicted with salt rheum and was in a dreadful condition. His legs, from the soles of his feet to his body were entirely raw, and ran a bloody water, which appeared to burn and itch until he was often in great agony.

"After trying several remedies, we resolved to give B. B. B. a trial.

"You can imagine with what delight and gratitude we saw our boy entirely cured after using one bottle and part of the second. We gave him the remainder of the second bottle, and from that time till the present he has never had a sign of salt rheum or a sick day. You need not wonder that I think there is no other medicine can equal Burdock Blood Bitters to purify the blood and build up the health and strength."

AMUSEMENTS

PRIMROSE & DOCKSTADER AT

THE GRAND TONIGHT. It has been stated by some critics that the eleverest comedians in the world were really sad-faced individuals, looking little like what they were supposed to look. However, such is not the case with all entertainers in the humorous. Take, for instance, the two great stellar lights, Primrose and Dockstader, who appear at the Grand tonight. Primrose has a merry twinkle tonight. Primrose has a merry twinkle in his eye, is a jovial disposition, and at times somewhat given to practical jok-ing and the saying of quaint things. Dockstader is not a whit behind his colleague, only there is a lack of the ever-ready humor about him still there ever-ready humor about him, still there lurks that innate desire to burst out with a witticism of some kind; nor is the fountain of jest ever suppressed. It is therefore natural to believe that the union of these two particularly clever people will result in the formation of a minstrel organization that will be one of the, if not the very best.

"TWO LITTLE VAGRANTS." Tomorrow night at the Grand the attraction will be the very successful melodrama, "The Two Little Vagarnts," presented in the same elaborate completeness that insured it a run of nine hundred nights in Paris. While possessing all the heart-thrilling pathos and soul-stirring excitement of modern French drama, it is far from lachtymose, and completely devoid of morbid emotional features, too frequent in most melodramas of the present decade. The story begins strongly, continues so, and ends strongly. The stic features of the play are enhanced by admiral scenic effects, which are duplicates of the European produc- 107......Business Offices tion. The company which delineates 134..... ROYAL ITALIAN OPERA FRIDAY NIGHT.

Signorina Montanari, of the Royal Italian Grand Opera Company, is one of the most attractive personalties seen in opera for many a long day. She is as pretty as a picture, graceful and affulgent of presence and carriage. When she is in sight she lights up her surroundings with a charm of man-rer and genial vivacity that are irresistible. She possesses that indescribable talent which can evoke laughter or tears with almost equal facility. The leading tenor, Guiseppe Agostini, has a delicious voice of purest tenor quality, and at once becomes the favorite and popular idol of the public. He has gained a great reputation for so young a man in European cities. Other members are Sig. Franceseoni, Sig. Cioni, Sig. Scolori, Sig. Girardi, Sig. Calcagni and Signora Franco. A specially pleasing feature will be the excellent Italian orchestra, composed of musicians of tried merit, and a large chorus of specially selected voices.

THE SOUDAN

Interesting Lecture on the Conquest by the Mahdi and the Reconquest by Lord Kitchener.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of First Presbyterian Church, last night, a lecture was delivered by Rev. W. J. Clark. A very large audience was present, and the closest attention was given, with punctuations of applause. Hon. David Mills, minister of justice, was to have presided, but he was compelled to proceed to Ottawa on important business. In a graceful note of regret he said the subject was one of importance, and of great interest to himself personally, and it was a disappointment that he had been compelled to deny himself the pleasure of listening to Mr. Clark on the theme of the evening. In his absence, Rev. IA. J. McGillivray pleasantly fulfilled the duties of chairman. The selections on the organ by Mr. W. C.

Barron. a graphic and weird picture that the lecturer unfolded; the vast, long-unknown Soudan, in the center of Africa: its isolation, because of distance, lack of communication, and desert sands; the fall of Khartoum before the fanatical Mohammedans; the death of Gordon, and the showing of his still bleeding head to Slatin Pasha (the author of the book, "With Fire and Sword in the Soudan"). Then came pictures of the awful, almost unimaginable oppressions and outrages of the Mahdi's rule. Then the slow turn of the tide; the resistless march of the British reconquest, and the final defeat of the Mahdi, and the recapture of Khartoum, into which important cen-ter entered, side by side, General Kitchener and Slatin Pasha. In passing, Mr. Clark paid full respect also to the undoubted bravery of the dervishes. In the course of the lecture, Mr. Clark introduced two of Rudyard Kipling's poems, in which the poet credits the dervishes with being the only people "that ever broke a British square," and described how the British drill sergeant took hold of the modern "Pharaoh," and made a man of him and a gallant soldier. The lecturer's eloquent peroration dealt with the prospect of the great Soudan country being opened up fully to civilization, to commerce, and to Christianity, and of the completion of railway communication, under the British flag, from Cairo to the

At the close of the lecture a vote of thanks to the lecturer was moved by Ald. Greenlees, seconded by Mr. W. C. Ferguson, and carried by standing

After that, "God Save the Queen," and the listeners dispersed, reflecting as they went on the difference between life in fair Ontario today, and life a few months ago in the fateful Soudan.

ATHLETIC CONTESTS

A Series Will Be Held in the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium During the Winter Months.

A series of athletic contests will be held in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium during the winter months. The present intention is to hold about one contest a month, the start to be made on Friday next, Dec. 2, with a fencing match, singlestick and quarterstaff contests. The contestants will be Mr. A. Williams, gymnasium instructor, Queen's University, and Mr. E. I. Sifton, city (one year senior champion of the same university). Some gymnasium work will also be run in between each bout. The other features of the course will be indoor athletic contests, and two basket ball games between Brantford and London, and Hamilton and London. The committee in charge have arranged for a number of handsome prizes to be given. Course tickets will be issued at a small fee.
