The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada

A Militia General Order issued at Headquarters, Quebec, on April 26th, 1860, stated that "In pursuance of section 26 of the Consolidated Militia Laws of the Province, His Excellency is pleased to constitute into a battalion of Riflemen the following six companies of the Volunteer Force now serving in the 5th Military District of Upper Canada to be styled the 'Second Volunteer Militia Rifles of Canada,' viz,—the Barrie Rifle Company, the 1st Rifle Company, Toronto, the 3rd Rifle Company, Toronto, the Highland Rifle Company, Toronto, the Rifle Company formerly Foot Artillery, and The Highland Rifle Company, Whitby."

On November 21st, 1862, the Regiment was reorganized, the Barrie and Whitby Companies becoming independent, and the following independent companies recently raised in Toronto being absorbed into the establishment bringing the strength to ten companies,—The 1st Merchants Company, The 2nd Merchants Company, The Victoria Company, The Civil Service Company, The Trinity College Company and The University Company.

A Militia General Order dated March 18th, 1863, stated "that Her Majesty had been pleased to approve of the Second Battalion Volunteer Militia Rifles of Canada being designated in future 'The Queen's Own Rifles of Toronto.' "

The Regiment first saw active service on Christmas Eve, 1864, when in consequence of the St. Albans Raid it was ordered to supply two companies to proceed to the Niagara Frontier. These companies did duty in that area for four months.

On January 24th, 1866, by Militia General Orders, the formation of a Volunteer Company at Toronto to be attached to the Regiment, to be called the Upper Canada College Rifle Company, was authorized.

In January, 1866, following the cessation of the Civil War in the United States, the Fenian movement assumed grave proportions and bodies of Fenians, amongst whom were many veterans of the Civil War, congregated at frontier points threatening an invasion of Canada. On the last day of January, the Regiment was ordered to stand in readiness, and on March 7th it was mobilized for duty but was relieved by the end of the month. By the end of the month of May the situation assumed a serious aspect and the Regiment was again mobilized for active service. On June 1st it embarked on the Steamer "City of Toronto" and proceeded to Port Dalhousie and moved thence to Ridgeway Station. On the morning of June 2nd the Regiment together with troops from Hamilton commenced a march from Ridgeway Station to Stevensville where they were to join a force of regulars and militia under Colonel Peacock. About two miles from Ridgeway the advance guard consisting of No. 5 Company, Q.O.R., came into contact with the Fenians, and a general action ensued the result of which was that the enemy withdrew from Canada. The Regiment behaved on this occasion with extreme gallantry and a letter was received by the Officer Commanding from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief stating that he desired to express his thanks for the gallant conduct displayed by the O.C., Q.O.R. and the Regiment under his command on the occasion of the action at Ridgeway. The Regiment suffered casualties in this action of seven killed and twenty-one wounded, two of whom died of wounds a few days later. The Regiment remained in the area for several days when it joined a force at Stratford and on June 18th returned to Toronto.

In the spring of 1870 the Red River Rebellion broke out and a number of officers and other ranks of the Regiment served as volunteers in a mixed force which was sent to restore order in what is now Manitoba.

On New Year's Day, 1877, the Regiment was ordered out and proceeded to Belleville where it served under trying circumstances for three days in aid to the civil powers.

By a General Order dated February 7th, 1878, The Regimental Badge was authorized.

By a General Order dated January 13th, 1882, the official designation of the Regiment was altered, the words "of Canada" being authorized to be substituted for "of Toronto."

When the Rebellion of 1885 broke out in the Northwest Territories, the Regiment was called out for active service on March 27th; on March 30th it entrained for the Northwest and suffered terrible hardships before it finally reached its destination. At that time there were long gaps in the railway line between Toronto and Winnipeg which had to be covered on foot. The winter was unusually severe, the snow deep, and the thermometer as low as 35 degrees below zero; inadequately clothed and fed; shelter accommodations of the most primitive kind, added to the sufferings of the troops en route.

On reaching the Northwest, the Regiment became part of the force under the command of Lt.-Col. W. D. Otter (a former O.C.) which force marched to the relief of Battleford; playing a most distinguished part in the battle of Cut-Knife Hill, and forming part of the detachment sent to round up the force of "Big Bear." The Regiment returned to Toronto on July 23rd, 1885, after the cessation of hostilities.

During the war in South Africa, 1899-1902, Canada sent several contingents which were made up of officers and other ranks recruited from various militia units throughout the Dominion. The Queen's Own Rifles was represented in all these contingents, and the first to be sent, the Royal Canadian Regiment, was commanded by Lt.-Col. W. D. Otter (later General Sir Wm. Otter, K.C.B., C.V.O.) a former Commanding Officer of the Regiment.

In 1902 the Regiment was honoured by the selection of its Commanding Officer, Lt.-Col. Henry M. Pellatt (later Major-General Sir Henry Pellatt, C.V.O.) to command the contingent sent to represent Canada at the Coronation of King Edward VII. Through the generosity of Colonel Pellatt, the Bugle Band of the Queen's Own was enabled to accompany the Contingent to England and while there established a reputation for excellence, not excelled even in the British Army.

By 1906 the Regiment had become so strong in numbers that two active battalions of eight companies each were authorized in place of one active battalion of ten companies.

In 1908, the Regiment took part in the Tercentenary Celebration at Quebec where over 20,000 troops from various parts of Canada were assembled for a period of one week in August. At the Review before the Prince of Wales (later George V.) the regiment marched past, led by its Honorary Colonel, Field Marshall The Right Hon. Lord Roberts of Kandahar, V.C., G.C.S.I., etc.

In June, 1910, the Regiment celebrated its fiftieth anniversary by holding a reunion in Toronto, for the period of one week, and hundreds of ex-members came from various parts of Canada and the United States to take part.

In August of the same year, the Commandant of the Regiment, Colonel Sir Henry Pellatt, with generous patriotism took the Queen's Own to England at his personal expense to participate in the Army Manoeuvres, by this memorable action marking the Jubilee Year of the Regiment. Sir Henry firmly and rightly believed that he could perform a signal service in Empire consolidation, stimulate patriotism in all parts of the Empire, and exemplify the underlying strength of the fighting forces of the Empire, a belief which saw its perfect fruition in the Great War 1914-1918.

On August 13th, 1910, the Regiment, six hundred and seventy all ranks, left Toronto for Quebec where it went into camp, and a severe syllabus of training was carried on for one week before sailing. During the voyage every available moment was used for lectures, physical training, etc. On arrival at Aldershot, the Regiment was brigaded with the Buffs, and carried on battalion training for one week. Rapid progress was made possible by the assistance rendered by all ranks of this famous regiment, who during the whole of the period which the Queen's Own spent at Aldershot and vicinity and on manoeuvres, extended courtesies which will never be forgotten.

Battalion work was followed by brigade training, divisional manoeuvres and finally Army manoeuvres. Many officers of the Regular Army expressed doubt of the possibility of a Colonial militia regiment going through manoeuvres with troops of the British regular Army, but the esprit-de-corps and determination of all ranks of the Queen's Own carried them through this strenuous week with honour. Congratulations came from all quarters and it was with a feeling of service well done that the Regiment embarked for Canada on October 2nd, 1910.

Militia Order No. 85, dated February 21st, 1914, contained the following,—“His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the 2nd Regt. Queen's Own Rifles of Canada being made an allied regiment of the Buffs (East Kent Regt.)”

The Great War, 1914-1918, added greatly and honourably to the already well established traditions of the Queen's Own. On the outbreak of war, Colonel M. S. Mercer,*Commandant on behalf of the Regiment offered the Canadian Government the services of a complete battalion at war strength, for overseas service. Upon the acceptance by the British Government of one complete Division from Canada with reinforcements for the same, Colonel Mercer was notified that the Regiment would be permitted to send 250 all ranks from each battalion, making 500 in all from the Regiment.

At this time few, if any, Canadians anticipated the extent of Canada's ultimate effort, and doubtless many people believed that no contribution further than the first contingent and reinforcements therefor would be necessary. For this reason the authorities desired that all units of the Militia, of which there were 110 battalions of infantry and rifles alone, should have an opportunity of contributing their respective quotas. The result was that battalions of the Militia were not sent as complete units, but as composite battalions formed from drafts contributed by the Militia units throughout the entire country.

*Afterwards Major-General, Commanding the 3rd Canadian Division, killed in action at Sanctuary Wood, June 3rd, 1916.

Volunteers for active service from the Queen's Own, numbering about 1,000, were formed into a service battalion and paraded daily in Toronto. Representation was again made to the Government to allow this service battalion of the Regiment, already formed and up to war strength, to continue under its own name, but this was refused, and it was only after a hard struggle that permission was granted to the Regiment to exceed its authorized quota of 500 all ranks.

On August 22nd, 1914, the service battalion consisting of 33 officers and 768 other ranks under the command of Colonel Mercer, left for Valcartier, P.Q., to be joined one week later by 3 officers and 252 other ranks, bringing the strength of the service battalion at Valcartier to 36 officers and 1020 other ranks. To this service battalion were added the contingents from the Governor General's Body Guard and the Royal Grenadiers and together they became the 3rd Battalion of the Canadian Expeditionary Force. Colonel Mercer was promoted to command the 1st Infantry Brigade, C.E.F., and Lt.-Col. Robt. Rennie* of the Queen's Own Rifles, became the Commanding Officer of the 3rd Battalion, C.E.F. During the War this battalion was always commanded by an officer of the Queen's Own Rifles and 63 officers and 1708 other ranks of the Queen's Own served with it in the Field, of these 23 officers and 309 other ranks paid the supreme sacrifice.

As other battalions and units were raised for the Canadian Expeditionary Force, the Queen's Own Rifles continued to supply officers and men until the Military Service Act came into force, by which time the Queen's Own had sent overseas a total of 210 regimental officers and 7352 other ranks. Among the units of the Canadian Expeditionary Force to which the Queen's Own contributed largely were the 19th, 35th, 58th, 74th, 81st, 83rd Q.O.R., 95th, 123rd, 166th Q.O.R., 198th Canadian Buffs, and the 255th Q.O.R.

The Casualty List of the Regiment was heavy, there being 47 regimental officers and 1207 other ranks killed in action, died of wounds, or died from other causes.

Commissions were granted overseas to 276 non-commissioned officers and riflemen of the Queen's Own Rifles, 81 being in the Imperial Army and 195 in the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

For some time after the War very little interest was manifest in the Militia. No authority having been issued for training, no pay nor allowances were available. No definite instructions having been received from the Department of National Defence regarding the reorganization of the Militia, the officers of the Regiment held a meeting in September, 1919, and decided to commence quietly to reorganize.

At this time the available strength was practically nil because of the thousands who had been seconded from the Regiment for service in units of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and the period of service of the majority of those still on the strength at the end of the War having expired, it was necessary to build up practically a new organization. Officers and non-commissioned officers were posted, company armouries and the orderly room were open two nights a week for the purpose of taking on the strength and issuing uniforms to those who wished to re-engage or join the regiment. About two hundred all ranks were taken on the strength up to the beginning of November, 1919.

*Afterwards Major-General R. Rennie, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., M.V.O.

During the spring of 1920, still no official communication having been received as to reorganization, the Regiment carried on as it had done in the fall of 1919. Two parades were held. During the summer the rifle ranges were opened for regimental practice.

In the spring of 1921, orders having been received from National Defence Headquarters for the reorganization of the Militia, the Regiment recommenced its weekly parades and annual training in real earnest. While at first, recruiting was slow, normal conditions were gradually restored.

On April 16th, 1921, a bronze tablet, erected in the Armouries to the memory of Major-General Malcolm S. Mercer, C.B., Officers, N.C.O.'s and Riflemen of the Queen's Own Rifles who gave their lives in the Great War 1914-1918, was unveiled by the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, then Prime Minister of Canada.

By a General Order in 1926, the final reorganization of the Regiment, having regard to perpetuation of battalions of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, was authorized as follows:—

The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada

Active Battalions

1st Bn. (3rd Bn., C.E.F.)

2nd Bn. (83rd Bn., C.E.F.)

Reserve Battalions

3rd Bn. (95th Bn., C.E.F.)

4th Bn. (166th Bn., C.E.F.)

5th Bn. (198th Bn., C.E.F.)

6th Bn. (255th Bn., C.E.F.)

In June, 1926, a detachment from the allied Regiment, The Buffs, visited the Regiment for the period of one week.

On July 27th, 1928, Her Majesty, Queen Mary, graciously consented to become Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment.

On Sunday, October 18th, 1931, the Regimental Cross of Sacrifice, in front of St. Paul's Church, Bloor Street East, was unveiled by Sir William Mulock, K.C.M.G., Honorary President of the Queen's Own Rifles Association and Acting Lieutenant-Governor (Administrator) of the Province of Ontario. On this occasion the Regiment paraded 635 all ranks; also on this parade were detachments from the following C.E.F. Units perpetuated by the Regiment: The 3rd, 83rd, 95th, 166th, 198th, and 255th Battalions, and also the Upper Canada College Rifle Company.

Members of the Queen's Own Rifles awarded the Victoria Cross

Lieutenant (afterwards Captain) Charles S. Rutherford, V.C., M.C., M.M.
5th Canadian Mounted Rifles, C.E.F.

"For most conspicuous bravery, initiative and devotion to duty. When in command of an assaulting party at Monchy-le-Preux, August 26th, 1918, Lieut. Rutherford found himself a considerable distance ahead of his men, and at the same moment observed a fully armed, strong enemy party outside a 'pill box', ahead of him. He beckoned to them, with his revolver to come to him; in return they waved to him to come to them. This he boldly did and informed them that they were prisoners. This fact an enemy officer disputed and invited Lieut. Rutherford to enter the 'pill box', an invitation he discreetly declined. By masterly bluff, however, he persuaded the enemy that they were surrounded and the whole party of 45, including two officers and three machine guns, surrendered to him. Subsequently he induced the enemy officer to stop the fire of an enemy machine gun close by and Lieut. Rutherford took advantage of the opportunity to hasten the advance of his men to his support. Lieut. Rutherford then observed that the right assaulting party was held up by heavy machine gun fire from another 'pill box'. Indicating an objective to the remainder of his party, he attacked the 'pill box' with a Lewis gun section and captured a further 35 prisoners with machine guns, thus enabling the party to continue their advance. The bold and gallant action of this officer contributed very materially to the capture of the main objective and was a wonderful inspiration to all ranks in pressing home the attack on a very strong position."—Official Record.

2nd Lieutenant Edmund De Wind, V.C.
15th Battalion, Royal Irish Rifles
(Killed in action—March 21st, 1918)

"On the 21st March, 1918, at the Race Course Redoubt near Grougie, this officer showed the greatest possible gallantry.

"For seven hours he held the most important position, being a section of trench into which the enemy had penetrated. Though twice wounded, he remained at his post, often alone with one N.C.O., until another section could be got to his help.

"On two occasions he, with two N.C.O.'s alone, got out on top, under heavy machine gun and rifle fire, and cleared the enemy out of the trench, killing many.

"He remained at what was the most dangerous point, repelling attack after attack, until wounded for the third time (very severely) he collapsed. His courage, tenacity and example were of the highest order."—Official Record.

Members of the Queen's Own Rifles awarded the Victoria Cross

Captain (afterwards Major) Thain Wendell McDowell, V.C., D.S.O.
38th Battalion, C.E.F.

"For most conspicuous bravery and indomitable resolution in the face of heavy machine gun and shell fire (April 9th-13th, 1917, at Vimy Ridge).

"By his initiative and courage this officer with the assistance of two runners was enabled in the face of great difficulties to capture two machine guns, besides two officers and seventy-five men. Although wounded in the hand, he continued for five days to hold the position gained, in spite of heavy shell fire until relieved by his battalion. By his bravery and prompt action he undoubtedly succeeded in rounding up a very strong enemy machine gun post."—Official Record.

Lieutenant Wallace Lloyd Algie, V.C.
20th Battalion, C.E.F.
(Killed in action, 11th October, 1918)

"For most conspicuous bravery and self sacrifice on the 11th October, 1918, north-east of Cambrai, when with attacking troops which came under heavy enfilade machine gun fire from a neighbouring village. Rushing forward with nine volunteers, he shot the crew of an enemy machine gun, and turning it on the enemy enabled his party to reach the village. He then rushed another machine gun, killed the crew, captured an officer and ten of the enemy and thereby cleared the end of the village. Lieutenant Algie having established his party, went back for reinforcements, but was killed when leading them forward. His valour and personal initiative in the face of the intense fire saved many lives and enabled the position to be held."—Official Record.

HYMN—"O God our Help in Ages Past".

OPENING SENTENCES—(All standing).

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.
I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Watch ye; stand fast in the faith; quit you like men; be strong.
As dying, and behold we live. In Christ shall all be made alive.

LESSON—Revelation 7:9. (read by Major the Rev. H. F. D. Woodcock, Chaplain of the Q.O.R.)

Order of Service at the Unveiling and Dedication of the Memorial Shrine

on Sunday, March 13th, 1932, at 3 p.m.

HYMN—"O God Our Help in Ages Past".

During the singing of this hymn, the Rector and Churchwardens, Rev. Canon Cody and Messers. James Nicholson and L. A. Winter, will proceed to the main door of the church, where the officers of the Queen's Own Rifles Memorial Association will knock thrice on the door. On the door being opened, the President asks permission to enter for the purpose of unveiling a Shrine and placing therein a Book of Remembrance.

The Rector will answer:

"Sir, the authorities of this church will afford every facility for the carrying out of this laudable purpose."

The Officers and Escort enter with the Book of Remembrance and the procession moves up the aisle in the following order:—

The Rector and Wardens; Regimental Sergeant-Major Butler (W.O.1), carrying the Book of Remembrance, together with six staff-sergeants and sergeants, Q.O.R.; Lieut.-Col. J. W. Langton, President The Queen's Own Rifles Memorial Association.

The Wardens and the Escort wait at the Chancel steps; and Brigadier General Langton, Colonel Kirkpatrick and Lieut.-Col. Hedges proceed to the Communion rail accompanied by Regimental Sergeant-Major Butler (W.O.1), carrying the Book. There General Langton will present the Book of Remembrance to the Rector, and will request the acceptance and dedication of the Book and of the Memorial Shrine in which it is to be deposited.

The Rector will place the Book on the Holy Table and then say:—

"We accept the custody of this Shrine and of this Book in which are recorded the names of the members of the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada who died for their Sovereign and their Country from 1866 to 1918, in the confident hope that they will inspire to patriotic service all who will look upon them in the days to come."

The Officers and Escort take their places in the pews.

"Let us proceed to the dedication of this Book of Remembrance."

Let us pray:

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

O Lord, Thou lover of souls, who through the mouth of Thy prophet of old hast declared that all souls are Thine, we bless Thee for all these Thy servants whose names are recorded in this book, which we now dedicate to Thy glory and to their memory. We give Thee thanks that they waxed valiant in fight and wrought righteousness and, counting not their lives dear unto themselves, laid them down for their brethren. Grant that we may never forget their valour and sacrifice. Forbid that their sufferings and deaths should be in vain; and mercifully vouchsafe that through their devotion the horrors of war may pass away from the earth and Thy kingdom of right and honour, of peace and brotherhood, may be established among men.

Order of Service at the Unveiling and Dedication of the Memorial Shrine

of the Queen's Own Rifles Memorial Association, Inc., and at the Depositing therein of their Book of Remembrance

on Sunday, March 13th, 1932, at 3 p.m.

Help us by Thy grace to be worthy of their blood and enable us so to follow their good example in faithfulness even unto death, that we with them may rejoice evermore with those who have come out of great tribulation and now stand before Thy throne and serve Thee day and night; through Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Comfort, O Lord, we pray Thee, all who proudly mourn the loss of those who are near and dear to them. Be with them in their sorrow; support them by Thy love; teach them to rest in Thee; give them faith to look beyond the troubles of this present time and to know that neither death nor life can separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

THE LESSON—Rev. 21:1-7 and 22:1-5.

(To be read by Major the Rev. H. F. D. Woodcock, Chaplain of the Queen's Own Rifles.)

Then shall be sung by the Choir:

"I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write: From Henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord; even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours."

ADDRESS by the Rector, Rev. Canon Cody, D.D., LL.D., Senior Chaplain of the Regiment.

The procession will re-form and headed by the Churchwardens and Clergy and accompanied by the Administrator of the Province, the Right Honourable Sir William Mulock, K.C.M.G., Chief Justice of Ontario, and Honourary President of the Queen's Own Rifles Memorial Association, will proceed to the north-west corner of the church, where the Shrine will be unveiled and dedicated.

Brigadier-General Langton, V.D., will unveil the Shrine, saying "To the Glory of God and in grateful memory of members of the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada who gave their lives for their Sovereign and Country from 1866 to 1918, I unveil this Memorial."

The Rector will dedicate it, saying:

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, we dedicate this Memorial to the glory of God and in proud and loving memory of these our brothers.

May their example inspire us to courage in the unending war against all evil; may their sacrifice constrain us to obey the call of duty; may their memory ever burn brightly in those who remember their deeds; and, strengthened by their fellowship, may we look forward to reunion with them in the inheritance of the saints in light, through the power of the resurrection of Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

The Book will then be deposited in the Shrine by Major-General Sir H. M. Pellatt, C.V.O.
