

THE WEEKLY ONTARIO

AND BAY OF QUINTE CHRONICLE

ESTABLISHED 1881

BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, JULY 14, 1921.

JULY 7, 1921.

MORTON & HERITY, Proprietors.

MERCURY CLIMBS TO 96, "PEAK" FOR 1921

"Black and Tans" Sent Away From Dublin on Indefinite Leave

HUGE CROWD ON TWELFTH AT STIRLING

Picturesque Village Set in Oak Hills Echoes to Fifth and Drum

PROCESSION A FEATURE
Prominent Men Speak on Issues of the Day and on Orangism

Details of the Walk
Number in line estimated 2,000
Orange Lodges in line 23
True Blue Lodges 23
Bands 23
Fife and Drum bands 19
County and District directors 19
Lady True Blue Lodges 19
Juvenile L. O. L. 19
Time Parade Given to Pass
Given point (minutes) 23
Addresses (minutes) 23

To the stirring airs of "Boysie Waters," "Orange Feather," "Protestant Boys," the hills which hem in the picturesque village of Stirling, re-echoed on the "Glorious Twelfth" Hearsie beat fast to music with the beating drum and the light music of the fife. Centre Hastings massed its thousands in the village set in the Oak Hills and there celebrated the two hundred and thirty-first anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. All roads led to the centre. The county celebration, held from Queen's Park, attracted as the main event from Campbellton, the village and Belleville and Carleton Place to the south. Five or six thousand people joined in the demonstration.

The day opened with a smaller band all morning the celebrants were better in perspiration, another form of the usual Twelfth of July rain which was missing. Towards noon there was a slight breeze sprang up and making life fairly endurable.

Cavalcades Arrive
They came in motors, on bicycles and in carriages, while concessions following in procession after procession to the village in the early morning hours. To one standing on the hills and looking down upon roads leading to the village, it appeared as if the entire countryside were coming. Every cavalcade had its Protestant drum which was beaten for all it was worth as it was borne to the village. The streets were early alive with a riot of color and human life. Horses in gay caparisons that none more gaudily dressed than the marshals themselves pranced through the streets, banners flaunted everywhere their bright colors at the sun, white-coated or shirt-sleeved Orangemen decked with badges and sashes rubbed shoulders with the light colors of the "True Blues." All the elements were there for a grand day.

Scenes at Grounds
The lodges assembled at the fairgrounds. Here impromptu feasts of music were staged under almost every tree, the enthusiastic drummer pounding the hide with all the energy of an enthusiast believing in the glory of work of the kind he was performing. More often a lonely fife did its shrillest and best in competition with the bass and the snare drum.

The Orange Committee and the Agricultural Society put on the dinner and operated the booths jointly. They had prepared to serve five thousand at the meals and did not fall short. The hosts were fed in the dining hall and in the open.

Parade Organized
At one o'clock there was a hurrying and a scurrying of marshals to organize the walk. The lodges formed in districts in the oval of the race track under the following directors: County Director, Stanley Hayton; District No. 1, Theodore Reid; District No. 2, John Gunn; District No. 3, James Montgomery; District No. 4, Harvey Vance.

After an hour's assembling of the hosts, the procession started off led by the directors in their brilliant plumes and uniforms for the walk to the village. Twenty-eight Or-

Continued on page 4.

COLONIAL PREMIERS GO FOR A FLIGHT IN R-30

Photo Shows a group waiting their turn to climb the mooring mast and enter the big vessel.

LADIES LODGE LEADS PARADE

Belleville L. O. L. No. 350 Had Place of Honor at Brighton "Walk"

Twenty Lodges Follow
Camp Rob Roy Pipe Band of This City Played—1500

Belleville Ladies Orange Lodge No. 350 had the honor of leading the "walk" at Brighton yesterday at the head of twenty lodges. There were thirty members of the lodge in the front. The brethren of Benjamin L.O.L. No. 274 and L.O.L. No. 2519, of Belleville, and the local "Prentice Boys and True Blues" took part in the demonstration. The Camp Rob Roy band of Belleville, created a furor of excitement as they marched past. Fifteen hundred men and women were in "the walk."

R. J. Ross, county master, presided over the gathering in the park. Among the speakers were Grand Sec. F. M. Clarke, of Belleville, Bro. Bell, of Ottawa and Bro. Fitzgerald, of Belfast.

Grand Secretary Clarke explained that Orangism is a loyal and religious organization, "teaching a broad and tolerant spirit among its members."

Bro. Bell, of Ottawa, contrasted conditions in Ulster and the rest of Ireland, to prove that Ulster represented progress and industry. He contrasted recruiting results in the two parts.

Fifty-three years an Orangeman and able to keep step with the best walkers in the order is the record of Grand Secretary F. M. Clarke. He walked at Brighton. He was initiated at Benjamin Lodge No. 274 fifty-three years ago last May and has ever since been a member of the order. For twenty-seven years he has been Grand Secretary of Ontario East.

Among the younger Orangemen walking at Brighton yesterday was Bro. L. Soule, thirty-six years an Orangeman, who has the distinction of being a past master, a past preceptor and past commander.

Bro. George Rutlan is another of the younger generation with over thirty years of service in the order. He has the same record as Mr. Soule in the three branches of the order.

Belleville Orange ladies were roundly applauded in the parade. Mrs. William Kennedy is worshipful

Continued on page 3.

GRECO-TURKISH WAR ON AGAIN

Greeks Claim Advance of 15 Miles on Long Front in Asia Minor

Towns Are Occupied
Engagement Which Opened the Battle Preceded by Artillery Duel

ATHENS, July 13.—(Associated Press)—Official confirmation of the beginning of the Greek offensive against the Turkish Nationalists was supplied in a Government statement late last night. This announced a preliminary movement in the operations. The Greeks, said the statement, advanced fifteen miles, occupying the towns of Yenil-Shehr and Hassau-Pasha, east of Brussa, and Jenikoy, north of Ushak.

No resistance was encountered by the Greeks in this advance. Artillery Duel.

LONDON, July 13.—(United News)—Both Turks and Greeks have launched an offensive along a 25 kilometre front in Asia Minor, according to a cable to the United News which escaped the official censor at Athens. Both advances were preceded by a prolonged artillery duel which lasted throughout Monday over the entire battlefield.

King Constantine and his general staff are at the front in the Smyrna sector directing the operations of the Greek forces. The first shots in the battle were fired in this sector after the Kemalists had issued an ultimatum that they would be unable to observe the neutral zone unless the Greeks ceased using Constantinople as a supply and naval base.

No Trouble in Straits.
On the other hand, Lloyd George declared in the House of Commons that he was not anticipating any trouble in the Straits of Constantinople but announced that the British would defend themselves if attacked.

The army of occupation includes 8,000 British, 4,000 French and Italians and 1,000 Greeks. It is said.

SMYRNA, June 18.—(The Associated Press)—A complete victory of the Hellenic arms over the Kemalists of Turkey in the next offensive was predicted today by Major General Anastasios Papoulas, the Commander-in-Chief of the Greek forces in Anatolia.

His army, he declared, has been

Continued on page 3.

ERIN'S FATE IN THE HANDS OF TWO MEN

Lloyd George and De Valera to Meet Alone 4.30 p.m. Thursday

EARL OF BANDON SAFE
Aired Nobleman "Captured" Some Days Ago Now Returned to Home

LONDON, July 12.—The first meeting between Premier Lloyd George and Eamon de Valera, Irish Republican leader, will be held at 4.30 p.m. Thursday at number 10 Downing St. It was announced at the Sinn Fein headquarters here this afternoon. It is inferred that the conference is to be between these two men alone.

Rioting in Belfast

London, July 13.—Rioting occurred in the Vere Street in Belfast this afternoon, says a Central News Despatch from Belfast. Two constables were injured and three civilians were taken to the hospital suffering from gunshot wounds.

Black and Tans Go

Dublin, July 13.—Large bodies of police auxiliaries, as a consequence of the truce in Ireland have been granted indefinite leave of absence. The first batch of auxiliaries have already left for England.

LONDON, July 13.—Final preparations for the meeting of Eamon de Valera, Irish republican leader, and Prime Minister Lloyd George to be held here tomorrow, were being made by the government and the Irish delegation today. The first conference will be held in the cabinet room at 10 Downing street, the Prime Minister's official residence, at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, but the procedure to be followed had not been announced early today.

British officials who have been closely associated with Irish affairs during the recent past were said today to be prepared to join in discussion with the Sinn Fein delegation headed by de Valera, and it was thought possible that General Jan C. Smuts, president of the Union of South Africa, would play a very definite role in the negotiations that would take place. General Smuts has been considered the man chiefly responsible for the rapid development of peace moves in Ireland, and late last night it was said that he might act as temporary chairman of the coming conference.

Lord Brandon is Safe
Cork, July 13.—The Earl of Brandon, who was kidnaped by Sinn Feiners early on the morning of June 21, was brought back to Bantry last night by his captors. The aged earl, for whose safety there has been some concern for some time, was uninjured.

MAKES MOVE TO REDUCE ARMAMENTS.

PRESIDENT HARDING, of the United States who has invited Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan to a conference in Washington on the "limitation of armaments."

British Ship Yards Busy 60% of All Building, There

NEW YORK, July 13.—The United Kingdom has 2,813,000 tons more shipping under construction than the United States. Nearly sixty per cent. of the world's shipbuilding is being executed by British yards. According to Lloyd's statistics for that quarter ending June 30 world ship construction showed a decrease of approximately 900,000 tons from the first quarter, and the latter figures were less than 100,000 below those of the preceding three months. During the three months ended June 30, United States shipping under construction dropped nearly 400,000 tons, British about 270,000, and other countries, combined, with the exception of Germany, for which complete returns are not available, about 250,000 tons.

ENGINEER CRUSHED TO DEATH IN BAD ACCIDENT NEAR MADOC

Engineer E. O'Brien, of Lindsay, lost his life at 5.05 o'clock this morning, one quarter of a mile north west of Madoc junction on the northern division of the G.T.R. He had brought an extra freight through from Lindsay and the train had been divided in two sections near the junction in order to get it over the grade. It was when his engine was running back for the rear section that it jumped the track and careened over turning on its side. Engineer O'Brien was caught between the cab and the tender and was almost instantly killed. His companions, the conductor and fireman escaped through the cab window. They were injured slightly by escaping steam. The position of the engineer's body was such that the engine had to be removed before it could be extracted. Mr. O'Brien was well known to Grand Trunk employees in Belleville.

An inquest is being held at Stirling, where the body was taken.

The tracks were cleared shortly after ten o'clock this morning. The Belleville auxiliary was used to clear the line.

TWO MOTORS COLLIDE

Bridge-Pinnacle Corner Scene of Excitement
Two motors collided at the corner of Pinnacle and Bridge street today shortly before noon, both being wrecked slightly. Nobody was hurt. Mr. W. Grey was the driver of the one and Mr. Samuel Sprague of the other, the latter going along Bridge street and the former coming off Pinnacle street.

DRESSING UP MADOC ROAD

Making it Provincial Highway Width—A New Culvert
Madoc Road half way to Foxboro is undergoing a big transformation. The road is being widened to the width of a provincial highway. A large culvert is being built about three miles from Belleville.

NEW MARRIAGE LAW

TORONTO, July 13.—Effective in October, no clergyman in Ontario will be permitted to solemnize a marriage unless he hold a certificate of registration.

FAILED TO ASSASSINATE THE PRESIDENT OF POLAND; MAN FIRES SEVERAL SHOTS

OOPENHAGEN, July 13.—A despatch to Berlingske Tidende from Warsaw today says it has been learned that an attempt was made to assassinate President Pilsudski of Poland, and that the police have run down the plot to overthrow the present Polish Government. The authorities, says the message, are maintaining the utmost reserve with regard to the affair, but it appears that a man forced himself into President Pilsudski's room and fired several shots. A number of arrests have been made.

EARLY MORNING BLASTING GETS ON PEOPLES NERVES

Early morning blasting in sewers in West Belleville is getting on the nerves of the citizens in various parts of the city, many being awakened out of sleep. An effort will be made to abate this if such is possible, residents of that section said today.

HEAT WAVE HITS BACK; 96 AT NOON

Hottest Day of the Year According to Official Readings at Pump House

81 AT EIGHT TODAY
Nothing in Way of Big Storm in Sight—Indian Makes a "Forecast"

Official Readings
8 a.m. today 81
1 p.m. today 96
Lowest during night 74
Highest Yesterday 87

Old Man Heat struck back with venom today and unofficially it was variously said to be between 93 and 105, officially it was 96 at 1 o'clock constituting a new high record.

In factories and shops the heat was said to be worse than any day last week, although there was the "light winds" which probs referred to, and these zephyrs just kept one from using the extreme in language at the weather man.

The overcast sky of yesterday was not repeated today and the full rays of Old Sol got in their dirty work. Crossing the street was just enough for anyone, old or young.

Store-keepers and their staffs closed up shop at one o'clock today with the pleasing thought of nothing to do till tomorrow and scattered far and wide, some to go on picnics and excursions others to hunt the shadiest spots nearby.

Men on paving and roadwork jobs were complaining but did not quit as they did last week.

"Elsewhere in Ontario and Quebec the heat wave continued but down on the coast as usual they gloated over cool breezes, and just "nice weather."

So far, there appears to be a lack of that general atmospheric disturbance which is essential before the heat wave can be entirely broken up. The Atlantic coast and British Columbia districts appear to be running along comfortably at their old temperatures of normal summer heat while the central portion of the continent is still gripped in the unusual wave of heat which it seems to be particularly difficult to disturb. Some of the extreme wisecracks, who do not take part in the official meteorological work, but who have gained their experience from age and observation alone, are free to declare that the intense and prolonged wave is the forerunner of some terrific thunderstorms, which may come in a week or a month, but which they feel are quite necessarily the inevitable answer. They are looking for eyelines and all sorts of things of that nature to sweep the torrid zones in the United States, where the heat is unusual, and the reflex, they say, will be felt here in the form of heavy storms. An Indian, it was said here today, promised a cool wave by the 15th.

These New Brunswickers Make us Feel Jealous

ALGONQUIN HOTEL, N. B.—St. Andrews was an fête today on the occasion of Orange Day celebrations and all the Orangemen from the country side drove into town in all kinds of vehicles to take part in the festivities. It is still very cool and comfortable here while the heat wave is hitting Quebec and Ontario. The golfing fixture for the season includes seventeen interesting competitions for both ladies and gentlemen. Apart from the annual meeting of the Canadian seniors association which is scheduled for September 19th 13th, among the principal com-

Continued on Page 8.

COMING EVENTS

ANNUAL Y.W.C.T.U. GARDEN Party, Mrs. Frank O'Flynn's, Friday, July 16, for Armenian Relief and "Y" work. Sale fancy work, ice cream, home cooking, candy, from 4 to 10 p.m. Tea, 5 to 7. Bill's orchestra in the evening. Admission 10c. 113-214 ts and Children.

TORIA

Know That
e Castoria

In Use For Over arty Years

TORIA

COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

AS EVER

me before that fate-of 1914, it is easily also by the number reable young men in the war.
Intervening years as of our Toronto girls of our young men might this June have ing them to flower-
stars.
A touch with war resolves tell us that those ages which our men reages would help to toronto statistics. of the hurried, almost weddings of war
the loss of our young does it not look as he's record was more al?

REAT LAKES.

ontreal to Toledo, O.
en at Montreal.

BRIDGE & CLARKE'S

rk Grape Juice, made in Concord Grapes, ht Grape Juice, Made in Catawba Grapes, bottles 35c
bottles 65c
rt bottles for $7.20
t bottle for $8.75

—Ginger Ale (dry or a Water, Lime Juice, inegar, Welch's Grape
te.

BRIDGE & CLARKE'S

in 22 years old, was the St. Charles, near e bathing.

Continued on page 4.

FOR RECIPROCITY WITH AUSTRALIA

Canada Wants to Take Advantage of New Australian Tariff

CABLE TO MEIGHEN

Sir George Foster Asks the Premier to Consult Australian Leader

OTTAWA, July 12.—Reciprocity between Canada and Australia is the subject of negotiations between the Government here and that of the Commonwealth now that the latter has finally adopted its protective tariff. Sir George Foster has cabled Premier Meighen asking that incidental to the London conference he take up with Premier Hughes of Australia the subject of entering into a reciprocal arrangement between the two countries.

The American tariff was brought down in resolution from a year ago and has been operative meanwhile but it is only a few days since legislative effect was finally given to it. By this tariff, a preference is given to Great Britain, but to no other Dominion or country. The effect is to operate against Canada. There is, however, a general provision authorizing reciprocity negotiations with other Dominions, and this is now to be availed of in the hope of developing trade between Canada and Australia.

Canadian imports from that country are largely fruits, meats, wool, certain kinds of wood and dairy products. Canadian exports to Australia cover a much wider range, the principal items being machinery of all kinds, automobiles, farm implements and newsprint. The interview between Premiers Meighen and Hughes on the subject is expected to pave the way for a reciprocal arrangement being concluded in the course of a few months.

FOSTER SHIELDS EXPERTS

Sir George Rises to Defend Efficiency of People at Ottawa

OTTAWA, July 12.—Sir George Foster disposed of a source of much controversy and bickering today when referring to civil service re-organization throughout Canada. He shielded the efficiency experts from blame in determining the personnel of dismissed employees. "It is unjust, it is barbaric cruelty," he said, "to state day by day that a band of foreign experts are ruthlessly dismissing employees. The experts simply suggest a plan. Its application is by the departmental officials. If there are thirty men in an office and the experts say twenty are enough, their work stops at that point. It is the departmental officials and the Civil Service Commission who determine the twenty who are to stay and the ten who are to go."

Sir George also denied that all over 65 are being dismissed. "They are being let out only where they are inefficient or not needed," he said.

FUNERAL OF MRS. EUSTACE

The obsequies of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Eustace, who died in Toronto, were held here Saturday at St. Michael's Church, Rev. Father Killen officiating and interment was made in St. James' Cemetery, the bearers being T. Manley, L. P. Hughes, J. M. Hurley and T. J. Hurley.

Mrs. Eustace had been ill for four years and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald F. McMillan, 129 Kendall Ave., Toronto. She was born in Belleville 74 years ago and ten years ago removed to Toronto. She conducted a millinery store here. Her husband, Stephen Eustace died eleven years ago.

Five daughters and one son survive. They are Mrs. J. J. Conlin, Montreal; Mrs. R. J. Quigley, Winnipeg; Mrs. H. H. Skewes, New York; Mrs. W. J. Walsh, and Mrs. D. F. McMillan, Toronto and Mr. E. Eustace, Montreal.

MRS. JOSHUA DODDS

The obsequies of the late Mrs. Joshua Dodds took place from her late home to Mountain View church, Rev. Mr. Knox officiating. The choir sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and the pastor delivered an impressive sermon. Interment was made at Mountain View, the following being bearers—Charles Sprague, Fred Lawder, H. Parliament, C. Wood, J. Black and Earl Anderson.

Arthur Blaney, river driver, was drowned in Savigne Rapids.

A group photographed at the inspection of the Montreal Police and Fire departments. Left to right—Chief Pierre Belanger, Montreal; Chief Morley, Iroquois Falls, Ont.; Col. Gaudet, Director Public Safety, Montreal; City Commissioner Ross; Ald. Rubenstein; City Commissioner Hon. Chas. March; Chief Whitley, Hamilton, President of the Association; Chief Tingley, C.N.R., Moncton.

RIOTS FOLLOW INDIAN TRIALS

Court Houses Attacked, Police Stations and Post Offices Burned

DELIBERATE LIES

Lord Ronaldshay Says Propaganda Stirring up Race Hatred

CALCUTTA, July 12.—In the last few days there have been fresh outbreaks of rioting reported from several populous centres in India, resulting partly from the agitation ensuing in Nationalist circles on account of Gandhi's success in collecting 10,000 rupees, and in part from the Government's belated efforts to arrest the reckless propaganda by arrests and prosecutions. Lord Ronaldshay, Governor of Bengal, in a speech said he could give example after example of the "amazing falsehoods which have been circulated among the people by peripatetic speakers and other means."

"The public life of the country is becoming polluted by propaganda of that kind which has no other conceivable motive than to sow the seeds of race hatred," Lord Ronaldshay said. In an effort to check this process, agitators have been brought to trial in various centres, resulting in huge mobs forming to obstruct the trials. At Dharwar, Bombay presidency, when prisoners were escorted to jail by the police, mobs attacked the liquor shops and in the final melee two rioters were killed and ten police officers and many members of the mobs were wounded. At Aligarh, famous for the Moslem College, and now the centre of Moslem hostility to the Government, a large mob attempted to rush a cordon, surrounding the court while the trial was in progress. Subsequently every police station in town was set on fire, the post offices burned and ten rioters were killed and forty wounded. British troops are now preserving order.

In Calcutta two arrests were made for edifying speeches. The British estimated that 50,000 surrounded the court house when the first prisoner was tried and a serious situation avoided only by a very careful handling. When the second case was due for trial the police resorted to the extraordinary measure of raising the only bridge crossing the Hooghly River between Calcutta and the great suburb of Howrah. For thirteen hours all communication was suspended between the important railway terminals and the city. As a result the crowd at the trial was restricted to 3,000.

These methods of controlling the people are eloquent of the apprehensions entertained. The present phase of the movement amounts to defiance of the courts by mob law to which the British authorities can hardly reply with their customary passivity. Meanwhile Gandhi, with his new wealth has started an intensive campaign against foreign goods which he declares will mean a total boycott by August 1. The riots reported from Madras, though indicative of the prevailing lawlessness, are not connected directly with the political propaganda.

Cornwall ratepayers voted to extend the Stormont Electric franchise.

"BRINGING UP FATHER" BY GEORGE McMANUS.

Canada's New Coat of Arms

Canada is today resplendent with a new royal coat of arms. Without any flourish of trumpets the King's Printer started using it a few days ago. It is the result of the labors of a committee appointed in March, 1919, by Order-in-Council "for the purpose of inquiring into and reporting upon the advisability of requesting His Majesty the King for a grant of Armorial Bearings for Canada." That committee made a report to Council which was approved in July, 1920, but the Garter King of Arms raised "certain heraldic objections of a technical nature" and suggested alterations in the emblemment that were adopted by Council in April last.

The new coat of arms as described in the official heraldic terms will doubtless be "so much Dutch" to the ordinary reading public, but there are those who will probably enjoy puzzling the thing out so here it is:

Arms: Quarterly: 1 England, 2 Scotland, 3 Ireland, 4 azure three fleurs-de-lis or, on a base argent three maple leaves slipped vert.

Crest: On a wreath argent and gules a lion passant-guardant or, crowned proper, with a maple leaf gules in the dexter paw, and ensigned by the Imperial Crown.

Supporters: Dexter, a lion or, supporting a banner, the Union device; sinister, a unicorn argent, armed, crined and unguled, or, and surmounted with a coronet composed of crosses impales and fleurs-de-lis, a chain affixed thereto reflexed over the back of the last, supporting the banner of the ancient Kingdom of France.

Motto: A mari usque ad mare.

The motto means "From sea to sea" and it will be noticed that the two "Old Countries" Britain and France from which Canadians sprang are represented.

CHEESE REACHES 23 1/4

List of Factories Boarding at Saturday's Price

Cheese reached 23 1/4 c on Belleville Board on Saturday afternoon, the following factories boarding:
East Hastings	57
Thurlow	57
Mountain	60
Plainfield	60
Moira Valley	50
King	38
Mountain View	50
Frankford	50
Burnley	40
Wicklow	50
Cedar Creek	40
Cordington	45
Castleton	40
Shannonville	40
York Road	30
Silver Springs	30
Union	80
Bellpse	70
Halloway	40
Wooler	30
Rosebud	25
Bayside	30
West Hastings	45
Melrose	80
Zion	120
Foxboro	90

DOMINIONS SCORE WITH PEACE MOVE

Canada Strongly Associated With Present Steps Toward Disarmament

MEIGHEN HOPEFUL

Spends Week-End at Chequers as Guest of Lloyd George

LONDON, July 12.—(By Gratian O'Leary, Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press)—President Harding's invitation for a conference by the Dominion in a communication to the principal Allied and Associated Powers was accepted here as a decisive triumph for the conference of Prime Ministers. Put forward by the Dominion in a communication to the British Government as early as last February, and advocated in the Empire Congress by Premier Meighen, the result ought to be particularly gratifying to Canada, in that it is universally admitted here that without the great impetus which the idea received from the Dominion Premiers, President Harding would not have been in a position to risk such a declaration as he has made.

The offer, of course, will be accepted at once, but it is not expected that the proposed conference, probably the most momentous of its kind that the world has seen—not excepting the historic assembly at Versailles—can be brought together until some time in September or October.

The proposal, as understood here, is that there should be two conferences, the first to deal with disarmament and including all of the important world Powers, and the second conference to take up Pacific problems and to be confined to the nations with special interest in the Pacific.

Meighen Optimistic
Premier Meighen, who spent the week-end at Chequers with Premier Lloyd George, returned to London this morning, plainly pleased with the situation. To the Canadian Press, Limited, he expressed the belief that the chance of achieving a great advance toward disarmament and a more permanent world peace was exceedingly bright, and believes that in respect to the Pacific, an agreement can be made which will obviate the necessity of any special alliance with Japan.

Notice of the termination of the Treaty has not yet been given, but there is reason for believing that such a step is nearer than most people here suppose.

When the conference asked by President Harding is held, Canada in the high role of interpreter of United States sentiment to Britain and with vital interests in the Pacific, will be an important, if not dominant factor in any decision reached.

Meanwhile the situation in Ireland has changed almost overnight from black despair into the brightest hope of a century, and for this almost universal credit is given to the Premier's Conference as having created an atmosphere for peace.

A single room the cost is reduced from $7,500 to $6,000.

Protest made against removal of tax office from Chatham.

The Tour of the Scottish

(By Billy Penton)

In The Toronto Telegram. The Scottish players have come and gone. During their tour from coast to coast, they succeeded in weaving into the soccer fabric of the Dominion a thread of golden memories of the most pleasant kind that will outlive this generation at least. Their mission was to show Canadians how soccer ought to be played. They more than achieved their object. As a result of their coming, soccer has been established on a higher plane in the public favor, and already players from the Dominion over are showing themselves apt pupils of the "Stars" from the Motherland. Soccerists throughout Canada will never be able to repay sufficiently the sacrifices made by the tourists. What to them appeared at first in the light of a holiday trip, turned out to be one prolonged grind of entertaining and being entertained, and if the trip proved anything it was that in any future tour—the games must be confined to the larger centres. The taking in of so many small centres this tour made the going extremely hard for the visiting players, who rather than disappoint folks submitted to a test of endurance I am glad to state will leave no prolonged ill effects. Tod Sloan, manager of the team, expects to return the players to their respective clubs in good shape, so that there may be less difficulty in securing releases for a future tour.

A word about the players themselves. A better aggregation of sports never set sail from the Motherland for any country, and though much tried by climatic conditions strange to them, they never lost that geniality and spirit of camaraderie which went far to make the tour pleasant for themselves and a joy to thousands. Financially the tour will prove a success. Expenses everywhere were heavy, but justified, and when the "divide" is made provincial associations, I believe, will receive a pleasant surprise.

RECORD OF THE TOUR.

The official record of the tour up to and including Thursday's game at Toronto, is as follows:

Halifax	7-0	Edmonton	5-1
Montreal	8-2	Vancouver	3-0
Hamilton	6-0	Nanaimo	4-0
Toronto	4-1	Victoria B.C.	4-1
Ottawa	7-0	Vancouver	3-0
Winnipeg	3-1	Prince Albert	3-0
Regina	3-0	Pt. William	7-1
Saskatchewan	6-0	All-Ontario	3-1
Calgary	5-1	All Canada	1-0

In the 19 games the Scottish players scored a total of 36 goals against 9 goals registered by opposing teams. The goal scoring record for the Scots as follows: Andy Wilson 46, W. Rankine 11, Thomson 7, McMeneny 5, Gordon 3, Maxwell 3, Lowe 3, McAndrews 2, McBain 1, Scott 1, Craig Brown 1.

WEDDINGS

BOULTER-SMITH

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Smith, Trenton, to Mr. Havelock Boulter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Boulter, of Belleville, was solemnized in Trenton Saturday afternoon.

HENTHORNE-MILLS

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon Saturday at Christ Church when Miss Hazel Mills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills, Grove St., was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Percy Archibald Henthorne, of Montreal, formerly of Belleville, the Rev. W. S. Swartz officiating.

The bride was dressed very becomingly in an accordion pleated crepe de chine dress, combined with shadow lace and a pretty bridal veil and carrying a beautiful bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Phyllis Hallam was gowned in buttercup yellow orandy and large black ploupe hat and carried roses. Mr. Sherwood Mills, of Montreal, a friend of the groom, did honors for the groom.

After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the bride's home where a dainty luncheon was served. The happy couple left for Toronto and Niagara Falls on a honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Montreal.

TEAM BOLTS AND HURTS

DRIVER TO GROUND

Brookville—Wm. McNeil, a farm laborer employed by Frank Tackeberry, Plum Hollow met with a painful accident. He was driving a team of horses, which were attached to a wagon, and the whiffle-trees breaking, the team bolted. McNeil was thrown to the ground and bones in his face fractured, as well as cuts about the head and face. Dr. Kelly, of Delta, was immediately summoned, and accompanied by Mr. Tackeberry rushed the injured man to the General Hospital here. Dr. Kelly set the fractures and dressed the wounds.

DEATH NOTICE

CANNING—At Point Anne on July 11th, John Canning, aged 54 years.

Dr. Salem G. Bland, of Toronto, has been asked to speak at Owen Sound on Labor Day by the Trades and Labor Council.

PORCUPINE SITS TIGHT

Strange Visitor at Y.M.C.A. is "Watchfully Waiting."

Mr. Porcupine, the guest of the Y.M.C.A., was found roosting on top of water pipes near the ceiling of its basement chamber today and apparently waiting for something to happen.

Mr. C. MacKenzie, who captured it is having a cage of iron made for it and will try to keep it in good humor. Visitors today made sure not to get directly under it, as it can drop its "points" on people but cannot "shoot sideways" according to students of natural history who saw it.

FRANCE IS SURPRISED AT BIGGER WINE TRADE

Russia and United States Her Two Best Customers Lost Yet Exports Increase

PARIS, July 12.—An increase in the exportations of wines and liquors from France in the first quarter of this year as compared with the same period of 1912 is a surprising discovery. In the meantime France has lost two of her biggest customers for wines and brandies, Russia and the United States. Of the brandies and liquors Germany took about half followed in that order.

WORLD CONFERENCE OF THE IRISH PEACE

Self-Determination League of America Wants Something to do So Starts This

LONDON, July 12.—It is planned to hold a world conference of the Irish race. Art O'Brien, secretary of the Irish Self-Determination League has issued an announcement that the league has taken the first steps to organize the conference. An organizing secretary is about to take office in Paris. O'Brien says he hopes representatives of the Self-Determination League will be chosen from each of the states of America.

FIRE IN FRENCH CITY

DEATH TO MANY PEOPLE

DAX, France, July 12.—Many persons were buried by a falling wall during a fire which destroyed a mercantile establishment here, owned by Senator Millieu LaCroz, today. Eleven bodies had been taken from the debris up to a late hour this afternoon.

Genuine Orange Blossom Engagement and Wedding Rings

To be correct select an Orange Blossom Engagement Ring. It can be matched later by an Orange Blossom Wedding Ring, in gold, platinum, or in the beautiful platinum overlay. If your engagement ring is plain, let us mount your diamond in a new Orange Blossom mounting to match your wedding ring.

"Genuine Orange Blossom Rings Are This Mark—None Genuine Without It"

Angus McFee

KINGSTON 248 TODAY

The 250th Birthday of Limestone City Already Planned.

KINGSTON, July 12.—Today Kingston is quietly observing the 248th anniversary of its founding in 1673 by the Count de Frontenac, who sailed up the St. Lawrence and established a post where this city now stands. The 250th anniversary of the city's founding is to be specially observed in 1923 by the holding of great water pageant.

CAMPBELLFORD WINS

Take Home Pennant for Best Showing in Sports

The Campbellford cadets who spent last week in camp here, returned home Saturday much pleased with the week's outing and carrying with them the pennant for having secured the largest number of points in the sports.

WOMAN HOISTS PARASOL DURING CHURCH SERVICE

SAULT STE. MARIE, July 12.—Scorning convention, a woman worshipper in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday raised her parasol and kept it hoisted throughout the service, to escape the sun which was shining through a window.

QUIET "TWELFTH" HERE

Several Hundred Orangemen go to Outside, Celebrations

Belleville was minus several hundred citizens today with Orange celebrations in Stirling, Brighton, and Picton. The two local lodges went to Brighton.

Early trains to these places were crowded.

There was little evidence in the city of the "Twelfth" with just here and there an orange ribbon floating in what little breeze there was now and then.

CAUGHT PILFERING A RIDE

Two Sentenced to Two Weeks each by Magistrate

Two wanderers caught pilfering one ride each—their names were Thomas Meto and Hugh Gibson—were given free board and lodging for two weeks today in police court. The number of these gentry on the roads these days continue to be a source of work and worry to law enforcement officials.

John Purdon, prominent resident of London, dies.

M. Royal, of Creemore, rescued Geo. Stewart from drowning at Wauaga Beach.

Westside and First Methodist churches, Owen Sound have amalgamated for July and August.

R'S

ery

Goods in plain bottles, their regular they once pretty styles worn on uncommonly down. The roof ery

0

own qual- Silk Hos- in Black, and Brown,

ings

volle that They are Come in half their and tion ties med ices

es

must have for the hot may choose of good or colored 0 to $4.00. are $5.00

00N.

R'S

MYSTERY SHIP AGAIN APPEARS

British Steamer Meets Vessel Which Violates Maritime Rules

WITHOUT PROPER LIGHTS Would Not Answer Signals and Acted in Very Suspicious Way

NEW YORK, July 13.—An unknown ship which was violating international maritime regulations by running without proper lights and which refused to respond to signals asking her identity was sighted last week 750 miles southeasterly from Halifax by the British steamship Croxteth Hall, which arrived here from Hull and Antwerp.

According to a report made by Captain Spence of the Croxteth Hall to Sanderson & Sons, agents, the ship, apparently a small freighter, was showing a stern light. The Croxteth Hall caught up with the vessel, which suddenly swerved in her course and then came right at the British vessel. The stranger passed astern, went around and came up again on the opposite side.

The red and green running lights indicating the port and starboard sides of the ship were not lighted, Captain Spence said, and as soon as the Croxteth Hall came up the single stern light disappeared. Repeated efforts to signal the stranger by flashlight code and by wireless brought no answer. The vessel, after running with the Croxteth Hall a short time, turned away and disappeared.

When the stranger was sighted the weather was rough, but not so thick that the vessel could not be seen clearly by the British captain. His first thought was that it might be one of the ice patrol ships, but failure to answer signals and absence of regulation lights disproved this theory.

Agents of the line, while admitting they were puzzled at the unusual occurrence, said they did not connect it with recent unverified reports that a mystery ship with piratical intent was operating off the Atlantic coast.

RIVER DRIVER DROWNS

Young Fellow Wades Beyond Depth and is Swept Away

Kingston—Arthur Blaney, employed for the past three months as river driver by Ferguson & Findlay, on the Madawaska River, was drowned in Savage Rapids, near Callabogie. Blaney could not swim, and while wading in the river, lost his footing and was swept by the current into the deep water. His fellow-workmen tried in vain to rescue him. The body was recovered and the remains were shipped to Centre View, Hastings county, where his parents reside. Blaney was twenty years old.

ACCIDENTLY SHOT SELF

Young Lad Shoots Himself While Working Up

Kingston—A very regrettable accident occurred at 7 o'clock in the yard at the side of the house occupied by Mrs. Mary Ann Carr, 34 Patrick street, when William Kearns, step-son of Mr. Frank Lee, Charles street, aged 14 years, shot himself below the heart while working up from bed. Young Kearns is now in the Hotel Dieu in a precarious condition, the bullet not yet having been taken from his body.

QUEEN'S NEW PROF.

Thomas Secombe Selected As Head of English Department

Kingston—A letter received by a college official in the city from Principal Bruce Taylor, now in England attending the Universities Congress, announces the selection of Thomas Secombe as the new head of the English Department at Queen's University. Since the retirement of Dean Cappon this position has been vacant and before going to England Principal Taylor was empowered to choose a man for the post. Prof. Secombe will sail for Canada on the S.S. Victorian on September 2nd.

USES FOR OLD CORKS.

Bottle corks are always useful as cleaners. For cleaning plate, a cork dipped in a little moistened powder is excellent for rubbing the tarnished parts. Egg stains on spoons disappear when they are treated with salt applied with a cork. Marks on aluminumware can be removed with a cork and a little sand. In most cases stains on polished wood can be rubbed out with a soft, dry cork. Marks on light or brown shoes can be treated successfully with a cork which has first been rubbed over the inside of a banana skin. A dry cork also good for cleaning spots on paint or wallpaper.

FRESH FIGS COMING EAST

FRESNO, Calif., July 12.—Fresh figs, a fruit practically unknown in eastern cities, yet a highly prized delicacy on the Pacific coast for years, will soon be found on eastern fruit stands. With the demonstration last month by the California peach and fig growers that it is possible to ship this delicate fruit across the continent, arrangements have been completed to ship in large quantities.

In carload lots fresh figs will be supplied by the largest fig gardens in the world, to the key markets of Chicago, Indianapolis, Columbus, Cleveland, Toronto, Boston, New York, Milwaukee, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington and Pittsburgh. The fruit will be shipped cooperatively.

Two carloads left Fresno July 2 containing 5,000 boxes of Black Mason figs, considered by epicures as one of the prize delicacies of California, and will go by express to the various markets. It is estimated that the shipments will reach the various cities before the middle of July.

The shipments mark the launching of a new industry in California, as it has been considered for years that the fresh fig was too delicate a fruit to be sent across the continent. The perfection of a new method of packing and the use of pre-cooling has solved the problem of getting the fruit to distant markets in perfect condition.

The first carload ever shipped from California, consisting of 2,400 boxes, was absorbed in the Chicago and New York markets last week in June and was instantly taken up by the trade.

County and Suburban News

GLEN ROSS

The grain is being harvested and does not look too bad.

Mr. R. Pyear has his barns completed, which add much to the appearance of his property.

Mrs. R. Pyear spent a few days last week the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. Benson of Stockdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Cherry, of Green's Music store staff, Belleville, spent last Thursday evening with us at Carmel, where a social evening was being held by the Epworth League.

Ice cream, cake and lemonade were served as refreshments. The solos rendered by Mr. Cherry, while Mrs. Cherry accompanied him were greatly applauded.

Miss Thora Hubel spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. A. Pyear.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Barker, the Misses Irene and Florence, were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hagerman entertained a few friends from Madoc vicinity a few days this week.

C. Howard is suffering severely with erysipelas in her face.

Mrs. Mason and three sons, of Rochester, paid a short visit to her relatives here last week. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. J. B. Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hubel and Miss Helen, arrived here on Saturday last by motor from Akron, Ohio, and will spend their holidays, guests of Mrs. H. Hubel and other friends in this vicinity.

The Misses Edith and Olive Abbott of Frankford, were guests of their sister, Mrs. C. Johnson on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hagerman spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jeffrey, of Rawdon.

REDNERSVILLE

Mr. Harry Aston and daughter Marion, of Toronto, are spending the summer months with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Aston.

Miss Beatrice Russell is spending her summer vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Harland Clapp at Thurlow.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Baker, of Rochester, are spending a few weeks with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Brown, of Belleville, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Brickman on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Thompson motored to Trenton on Sunday.

TABERNACLE

Miss Iris Williams of Toronto, is spending a couple of months with her friend, Mrs. Chas. Leach.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Frost spent Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Bryant.

Miss Edith Rogers was taken to the Belleville Hospital for appendicitis.

Mrs. N. Haggerty is very sick at her mother's with acute indigestion.

Mrs. A. Rogers called at Mrs. Chas. Leach one night this week.

AMELIASBURG ATH. CONCESSION

Mr. and Mrs. Claudi Wannamaker and family, spent a recent Sunday in Concession, the guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Fox.

Miss Hattie Hawley, of Toronto, is visiting her sister Mrs. Arthur Parliament.

Mrs. A. Sprague and children, returned to her home at Lockport after spending a couple of weeks with her brother, Mr. Merrill Gooding, and other friends in this vicinity.

Miss Anta McCartney, of Pleton, was the guest of Mrs. Luella Ferguson recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kemp and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carrick returned home on Saturday having enjoyed a trip to the northern country picking blackberries.

Mrs. Chas. Dolan and children, of Trenton, spent Thursday with Mrs. Richard Dolan.

Miss Bernice Mitchell of Vars, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sager and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Price accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Murphy of Concession, motored to Stirling on Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Lout, of Sidney, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wycott.

Miss Fannie Stapleton is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed. Wannamaker, Trenton.

WOOLVER

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Ladies' Mission Circle was held at the home of Miss Eva Maister on Saturday afternoon. Quite a number attended in spite of the warm weather.

The church service in the Methodist Church was withdrawn on Sunday morning on account of the annual Orange Sermon which was held in the afternoon.

Rev. J. R. Bick preached the sermon and it was well attended. The altar was beautifully decorated with beautiful orange lilies and daisies.

On Sunday evening (Rev.) Lieut. Col. Cecil Williams, of Toronto, preached in the Methodist Church, in spite of the storm a goodly number were out. All enjoyed the impressive message.

Mr. Douglas Goulet is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Forsell.

Rev. and Mrs. Bick left on Monday morning for three week's holidays.

Lieut. Col. C. G. Williams and family, of Toronto, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leach.

Mr. Matthew Morrison has been elected captain of the Trail Rangers baseball team. They intend to play Stockdale on Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Callahan and family, of Toronto, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. Callahan.

FRANKFORD.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Latta and son Thomas, left on Monday the 4th to visit his brother and wife at Edison, Alberta, also other friends, and they intend going on to Vancouver, B.C. before they return.

Mr. Harry Nugent was suddenly called to the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Austin who is very ill at her son's, Alex. Nugent in Toronto.

About 2 a.m. on Tuesday, Mr. W. W. Bell had the misfortune to have one of his legs broken between the knee and ankle. He was using the machinery at the Canada Box Board, when he slipped, which caused the accident.

Mr. John Bruyca left on Thursday to visit friends in Rochester.

The extreme heat of the past eight days have caused the people to look for a cool spot which was almost impossible to find.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Johnston spent Sunday with her cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Blake Cox, of Murray.

Dr. Jack and Mrs. Simmons of Springbrook, were in town on Sunday.

Mr. Tom Murphy and bride, are taking up housekeeping over the hardware.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bowman have returned home after a six weeks visit in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ihey and baby, were in town on Monday.

FOXBORO

Mr. J. C. MacFarlane, of Montreal, is visiting at his home here.

Mrs. Geo. Wooten and daughter, of Belleville, spent over Sunday with Mr. Walter Wickett and Mr. D. Wickett.

Miss Gladys Stewart left on Sunday for Carthage, N.Y., to visit her aunt and uncle. She was accompanied by her father as far as Morris-town.

Mr. and Mrs. Murney Reynolds took dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Woods on Sunday.

HON. J. R. BOYLE

Who is a candidate in Sturgeon as well as Edmonton City in the Alberta elections. He is Attorney-General of the province.

Miss Francis Charlton, Ottawa, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred Gould at Mrs. C. Hetherington's.

Mr. Davidson and Mr. Fred Gould and son Percy, motored from Flinton on Saturday night and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hetherington on Sunday.

Mrs. C. Holgate and granddaughter of Rochester, are visitors in this village.

Mr. Harold Stewart spent Sunday at his home here.

CARMEI

Several from this appointment attended the Orange sermon at Plainfield on Sunday.

The circuit picnic at Twelve o'clock point was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Gay are entertaining friends from Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Vanderwater and Master Lyle, spent Sunday at Mr. Frank Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Parks and Mrs. M. Reid, Sixth Line, spent Sunday at Mrs. W. C. Reids.

Several members of the Sunday School attended Summer School at Belleville last week.

Master Clifford Grindley, Toronto, is visiting Mr. Treverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson and family, spent one day in Stirling recently.

The social evening, held by the W.M.S. last week, was well attended.

Mrs. McParlane's address was very much appreciated.

OTH LINE SIDNEY

There was no church service here on Sunday.

Mr. McHand Sine and family, spent Sunday at the Sand Banks.

Mrs. Robert Smith spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Sullivan, also spending Sunday at Weller's Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman Frost spent Sunday evening at Mr. Howard Dato's.

Mr. Jack Seely, of Belleville, called on his aunt on Sunday evening, Mrs. J. J. Reid who is very ill.

Miss Myrtle Bell is spending her holidays under the parental roof.

Miss Grace Sine is also home for the holidays.

The raspberry pickers are busy in this section, the crop is reported very good.

SHORT VAMPS LATEST.

Long Pointed Toe Gives Way to Broad Kind.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Short vamps will be the style this fall and winter.

This might seem to be unjust discrimination against tall girls, but it doesn't apply to the girls themselves—only their footwear.

The exhibit of the shoe manufacturers' board of trade revealed that the long, pointed toe for woman's shoes had given way almost exclusively to broad toes and short vamps.

French heels, save for formal wear, will be replaced by the so-called Cuban heel and the straight low heel.

Straps will be more popular than ever, but the buckle will practically disappear.

The most popular material will be kid, for street wear, and satin for dress occasions.

While on the subject of styles, here is what women will have on their minds this fall, according to military buyers returning from Paris:

Either small toques or large, flat hats.

Purple, crimson and orchid as the popular shades.

Ribbons, laces and wings for trimming.

What women now wear between head and feet is so comparatively negligible that styles in shoes and hats are about all that count.

Worms cause fretfulness and rob the infant of sleep, the great nourisher. Mother Graves' Worm Eliminator will clear the stomach and intestines and restore healthfulness.

KING'S BIG ROLE AS DIPLOMATIST

His Activities Have Clothed Monarchy With New Powers

PART TOWARD IRELAND Optimism in London For Success of Conference With Irish Faction

The following article is from Chas. H. Erasty, the chief European writer on world affairs for the New York Times:

LONDON, July 13.—Coming over on the train from Paris I met officials from Downing Street who showed real enthusiasm over the new turn affairs have taken in Britain. They expressed confidence in the favorable outcome of the Irish negotiations. In London people who usually reflect political opinion seem similarly affected by the late developments. With mental reservations against premature optimism, London seems to be enjoying a vision of ultimate world settlement that has appeared in the Western sky.

Conversations between Washington and London are regarded by some as the forerunner of the promised Association of Nations. With a long-time knowledge of ententes and alliances, whatever is lacking in information is easily supplied by imagination. Such fragments as the American Ambassador's remarks on the Fourth of July and the publication in newspapers regarding Washington approach to Britain are pieced together, and a simple and definite scheme is conjured up out of vagueness in which the international relationships have been enveloped.

May Lead to Formal Association. The prospect of peace in Ireland is sufficiently important in itself to cause some degree of buoyancy in a country which for many months has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and back again. The British stolidity has been unable to see a bright horizon in any direction. But the Irish negotiations, if successful, will not only put an end to a dangerous internal situation, but can be considered, speculatively at least, as leading up to a still larger plan to reduce to a state of order the confusion which prevails from London to Tokio and

THE EMPIRE. A play in 3 Acts. Empire. Strike one!

Batter. (sourcastick). Hay, you're a wonderful empire, you are. You're certainly a all rite of a empire. You can see almost twice as good as a blind man.

Crowd. Kill the empire! Down with the empire!

Pitcher. That's what I call a good empire. He's got some seats. Heer goes another one rite over the plate.

Ack 2. Scene, game still going on. Empire. Strike 2!

Batter. (sourcastick). You must be the greatest empire in the world, aint you? If I had a empire like you I'd take them out somewares and down him.

Crowd. Kill the empire! Down with his hole family!

Pitcher. That empire certenly knows a strike wen he sees one. Heers were he sees another one.

Ack 3. Scene, game still going on. Pitcher. O boy, that was a peetch. That makes 3 strikes, dont it empire?

Batter. If you call that a strike somebody is libel to be arrested for murder, ony it wont be you because you'd be dead.

Crowd. Kill the empire no matter what he calls it!

Empire. I refuse to answer. (Runs to beat the band and olmes over the tents.)

The end.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Consistency is a jewel which is often swapped for success.

There is little warmth in the mitten handed to a rejected lover.

Most people overestimate their sorrows and undervalue their joys.

Beware of the man who is extensively polite. He probably wants to make a touch.

The sword swallower should tackle a saw occasionally; it would be more toothsome.

The average doctor's private opinion of the medical fraternity wouldn't show up well in print.

Nothing pleases a spinster when she has occasion to stop at a hotel like being assigned to suite 16.

A woman's idea of a dutiful husband is one who will stay at home and look after the baby while she spends the afternoon shopping.

Gala Nights in London Royal Dances Delight All

Last week saw a pre-war brilliant spectacle at Buckingham Palace when the Belgian royalties were guests of honor at a state ball.

No less than 1,300 tickets had been issued, and the acceptances included the Prince of Wales, Princess Alice and the Earl of Athlone, the King of Spain and the Duke of York.

The grounds of Devonshire House adjoining were also illumined and used by the guests, and rooms for those who preferred bridge had been set apart.

Some entirely novel decorative effects were used. One side of the grounds in front of the house was lined with illuminated pillars 10 ft. high, with crystal globes, which from a thousand facets spread electric radiance.

In a crescent shape had been placed rows of "futuristic" lanterns. One corner had been turned into a delicately-scented Japanese bower, from which softly luminous lanterns hung.

Around the lawn glowed scores of electric "glow-worms" which by a mechanical device lit the swaying trees dimly every few seconds.

High up in an old tree was a gigantic "Man in the Moon," whose phosphorescent face laughed down grotesquely at the crowds.

Big white owls and birds of unknown origin upon their "nests" made a ghostly audience in the branches of the trees, as the Murray Picer's orchestral music came from

Virginia Page Says

STANDARD OIL MAGNATE

CELEBRATES 82ND BIRTHDAY

On July 8th, John D. Rockefeller celebrated his 82nd birthday. He didn't mind the heat and insisted on shaking hands with all the guests.

FASHION NOTES SAY:

That caution crepe will continue in vogue for fall frocks.

That Peggy Hoy declares that black and mauve, and black and silver, will be the reigning colors of the coming season.

That "straight lines" is the beginning and the end of the story of the silhouette for day frocks for fall, says New York, though evening frocks may be as bouffant as they wish.

That among the fashionable colors for the fall millinery season, dahlia shades in shadestone ranges on the hat is the "dernier cri," in Paris as well as combinations of cerise and purple.

It is up to the bookkeeper to keep posted.

Every Woman's Realm

WHAT SHOULD SUMMER BUSINESS GIRL WEAR?

What is the summer business girl to wear? Must the Fluffy Ruffles abandon their "fluffs" and their "ruffs"?

Are frilly clothes, short skirts, sleeveless gowns, open work or sheer hostery, cool, filmy blouses and above-the-elbow sleeves to be tabooed by business employers?

They are it Chicago has her way. "The dolls must go," say the authorities of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad offices. And an official decree has gone forth from headquarters prescribing especially that there shall be no more peep-a-hoo waists or see-you-later hostery.

Even if they do adopt the costume of the summer resort girl, many declare it is too strenuous to keep up. If you cannot afford limitless laundry bills, it means that after sweltering all day you sweeter nights and holiday time renewing a wardrobe.

This week in New York Miss Lena Phillips, secretary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, was asked her opinion. She herself was wearing a cool dark brown silk with elbow sleeves, a modest V neck and a becoming white crepe collar.

"It is a very simple matter for the business girl with taste and discretion to dress appropriately in the cool months of the year," continued Miss Phillips. "Dagreen tailored suits and dark one-piece dresses the matter is very simple, but when the warm weather arrives, when the sweltering days are here, every girl naturally longs for cool, summery clothes."

"But isn't the New York girl overdoing the summer girl stunt?" was asked Miss Phillips. "There seems to be just two types, the 'doll' type, who is all lace, ruffles and flowers, and the 'Main Street' type, who wears gingham dresses and looks like she were ready for the hammock on the back porch."

"I do not approve of the 'doll' type for business," said Miss Phillips, "and personally I do not care very much for gingham dresses. Perhaps we can become educated up to the gingham dresses, but memory always takes us back to the days when they were worn by the housewife for morning or kitchen wear."

"Organdie dresses, pink and blue muslin affairs, dresses with huge sashes and white satin skirts, with gay sport sweaters, are not appropriate for business. They are pretty, dashing, fascinating and chic for the seashore, but they are not clothes for the office."

"In the first place that type of clothing is most impractical and expensive, because of the frailness of the cloths and the constant laundry bills," continued Miss Phillips.

"We need to take sex out of our clothes," concluded Miss Phillips. "I agree with Vance Thompson when he says that business women will have to take sex out of their clothes. Evening clothes, seashore clothes and afternoon frocks all have their place, but business girls must make a distinction in their clothes. They must be strictly business. The business girl is going to be judged for three things by her employer: (1) What she says, (2) What she does (her business ability), (3) What she wears."

"When I see a girl dressed this way I always think how much of her salary must go to the laundry or else how hard her poor mother must have to work to keep her wardrobe fresh and clean."

"Then you don't approve of white clothes for the business girl?" "Plain white skirts and waists or Palm Beach tailored suits are appropriate and decidedly pretty," replied Miss Phillips. "But there is the question of laundry again. If a girl can arrange to take care of her own white clothes I think there is nothing prettier in the summer. The organdies and muslins suggest picnics and parties, but there is something strictly tailored about all white."

"However, I think the coolest and most economical dress for the business girl is a one-piece dark silk affair," continued Miss Phillips. "Girls will say, Oh I can't afford a silk dress, it costs three times as much as other dresses; and so it does, but it lasts! One little midnight blue brown or even black (and her opinion) will look well all summer and be the coolest thing possible."

"The business girl who has a simple little dark silk frock, out reasonably low in the neck, short sleeves and large sunshade hat, will never suffer from the heat," laughed Miss Phillips. "In fact, she will be much cooler than the girl who is bound up in sashes and ribbons and frills and furbelows."

"Then she would give special attention to her feet. Low-heeled, comfortable pumps and black silk stockings are the most comfortable, cool arrangement I know of. I detest grey stockings for business, and high heels in the summer time are disturbing."

"The trouble with the average business girl," continued Miss Phillips, "is that she tries to have too many changes. I know of one comfortable crepe or silk dress is all she needs for one season. It is better to have two becoming, tasteful and appropriate rigs than a whole wardrobe full of frills and furbelows and ill-chosen clothes."

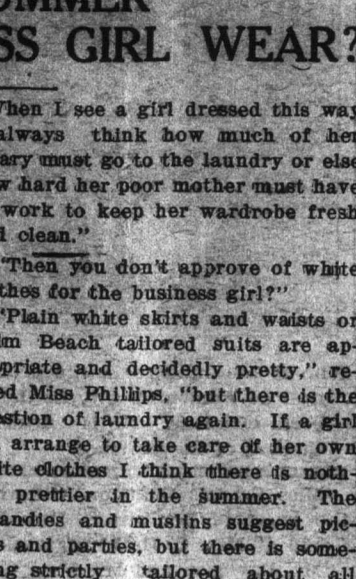

"We need to take sex out of our clothes," concluded Miss Phillips. "I agree with Vance Thompson when he says that business women will have to take sex out of their clothes. Evening clothes, seashore clothes and afternoon frocks all have their place, but business girls must make a distinction in their clothes. They must be strictly business. The business girl is going to be judged for three things by her employer: (1) What she says, (2) What she does (her business ability), (3) What she wears."

UPTURNED HAT IS NOW THE FAVORED OF FASHION

Newest hats are upturned, says a New York fashion authority. She gives her reason why. The vogue for flopping hats which hide the wearer's features has ended, says she. "This is the day of beautiful women. With the ever increasing number of beauty parlors we find very few plain women. Almost every woman I know has her face 'laundered' regularly, and that is the reason for the new upturned hats."

Another plea for the upturned hat comes from London, where it is declared fashionable millinery is responsible for increased eye-strain. Women who wear hats with large lace or net brims that droop over

HERBERT HOOVER

U. S. Secretary of Commerce who was among the distinguished visitors from the United States to inspect the possibilities of the proposed St. Lawrence deep waterways and power scheme.

CENTRE.

Miss W. K. Burr, Mrs. Dr. Kingston and daughter Marjorie, of Lockport, Ill., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Spencer for a few days.

Miss Estella Grant Woodstock, is spending her holidays with Mrs. Roy Giles and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. D. T. Stafford entertained a few young ladies on Monday afternoon in honor of Misses Evelyn and Marjorie Parks, Toronto.

Mr. B. L. Redner reports a big haul of huckleberries and a big crop. The apples in this vicinity will not exceed 25 percent of last year's crop. Plums are holding good and promise a big yield.

Mrs. John Currite, Toronto, is visiting Mrs. Mack Giles for a few days.

Quite a number from here attended the Eastern Star picnic at 12 o'clock point on Wednesday from Quinte Chapter No. 59.

Mr. Harold Babitt and Mr. Don Spencer called at D. T. Stafford's on Sunday.

MONKEY FUR IS SO DEAD!

Every fashion letter from Paris reports a vogue for monkey fur that will not abate. However much some folk shudder at it, monkey fur refuses to be discarded. Though even staid matrons have donned attire adorned with it, it is noted that it is most favored by those who go in for the outre in clothes.

"Why is monkey fur so repugnant? 'I'd feel as if I were wearing a scalp. It seems so dead to me,' says one woman.

We thought of her the day we came down the trail at Lake Louise. As we looked down at the big pine tree tops something was strangely familiar. Their boughs were covered with a black, shaggy substance.

"Why, your trees are nothing if not fashionable," we cried to the guide. "They're wearing the very latest thing, monkey fur!"

"Oh, that's just a parasite that grows on the trees."

"So you see the people who say monkey fur is so dead aren't so very far wrong!"

HOT WEATHER DESERTS.

The wise housewife will serve fruit for dessert during the warm weather. It will eliminate the task of cooking or baking a dessert and will be a kindness to the digestive organs of the diners. The family may tire of it in its natural state and the appetite may crave prepared desserts, so she will occasionally make a change in its appearance on the table.

Watermelon is the ideal summer fruit, and on a real hot day when one does not feel a bit like eating this will prove a stimulation to the appetite, and if served with a relish, so on some hot day take a chilled watermelon, remove seeds and cut it into small triangles, squares, diamonds or any preferred shape. Arrange these in a glass dish and sprinkle sugar over each layer. Cover top with sugar and put in refrigerator until ready to serve.

Miller's Worm Powders can do no injury to the most delicate child. Any child, or infant in the state of adolescence, who is infested with worms can take this preparation without a qualm of the stomach, and will find in it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and great suffering to legions of little ones.

Suburban and County News

HERBERT HOOVER

U. S. Secretary of Commerce who was among the distinguished visitors from the United States to inspect the possibilities of the proposed St. Lawrence deep waterways and power scheme.

CENTRE.

Miss W. K. Burr, Mrs. Dr. Kingston and daughter Marjorie, of Lockport, Ill., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Spencer for a few days.

Miss Estella Grant Woodstock, is spending her holidays with Mrs. Roy Giles and friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. D. T. Stafford entertained a few young ladies on Monday afternoon in honor of Misses Evelyn and Marjorie Parks, Toronto.

Mr. B. L. Redner reports a big haul of huckleberries and a big crop. The apples in this vicinity will not exceed 25 percent of last year's crop. Plums are holding good and promise a big yield.

Mrs. John Currite, Toronto, is visiting Mrs. Mack Giles for a few days.

Quite a number from here attended the Eastern Star picnic at 12 o'clock point on Wednesday from Quinte Chapter No. 59.

Mr. Harold Babitt and Mr. Don Spencer called at D. T. Stafford's on Sunday.

MONKEY FUR IS SO DEAD!

Every fashion letter from Paris reports a vogue for monkey fur that will not abate. However much some folk shudder at it, monkey fur refuses to be discarded. Though even staid matrons have donned attire adorned with it, it is noted that it is most favored by those who go in for the outre in clothes.

"Why is monkey fur so repugnant? 'I'd feel as if I were wearing a scalp. It seems so dead to me,' says one woman.

We thought of her the day we came down the trail at Lake Louise. As we looked down at the big pine tree tops something was strangely familiar. Their boughs were covered with a black, shaggy substance.

"Why, your trees are nothing if not fashionable," we cried to the guide. "They're wearing the very latest thing, monkey fur!"

"Oh, that's just a parasite that grows on the trees."

"So you see the people who say monkey fur is so dead aren't so very far wrong!"

HOT WEATHER DESERTS.

The wise housewife will serve fruit for dessert during the warm weather. It will eliminate the task of cooking or baking a dessert and will be a kindness to the digestive organs of the diners. The family may tire of it in its natural state and the appetite may crave prepared desserts, so she will occasionally make a change in its appearance on the table.

Watermelon is the ideal summer fruit, and on a real hot day when one does not feel a bit like eating this will prove a stimulation to the appetite, and if served with a relish, so on some hot day take a chilled watermelon, remove seeds and cut it into small triangles, squares, diamonds or any preferred shape. Arrange these in a glass dish and sprinkle sugar over each layer. Cover top with sugar and put in refrigerator until ready to serve.

Miller's Worm Powders can do no injury to the most delicate child. Any child, or infant in the state of adolescence, who is infested with worms can take this preparation without a qualm of the stomach, and will find in it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and great suffering to legions of little ones.

FOR SALE

Houses and Building

Lots Best Locations in all Parts of the City Satisfactory Terms Arranged

Whelan and Yeoman's REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE GET UNDER YOUR OWN ROOF BELLEVILLE, ONT.

MONARCH FLOUR

Better Than The Best For Light, Flaky, Delicious Pastry

Cream of the West

A Superior Hard Wheat BREAD FLOUR

Findlays Feed Store

Phone 812 329 Front St.

Housekeepers Attention!

Be Sure You Visit The Beehive Saturday

There is a Special Week End Sale Chas. N. Sulman

OUR Job Printing DEPARTMENT is equipped with MODERN MACHINERY and AN EXPERT STAFF of workmen always at YOUR SERVICE.

ALL KINDS OF PRINTING done at REASONABLE PRICES.

When you require Letter Heads, Letter Circulars, Envelopes, Statements, Calling Cards, Wedding Invitations, Window Cards, Menus, Pamphlets, Catalogues, Sale Bills, etc., let us quote you prices.

THE ONTARIO JOB PRINTING DEPT

THE HOME OF STYLISH PRINTING.

ONTARIO FALL FAIRS.

Table listing Ontario Fall Fairs with columns for location, dates, and contact information.

Wor

in young men's Blue Serge Suits

This was a Class Manufacture double the price Without doubt been our privilege - Come see

QUICK

SUMMER UNDER

Geo

273 Front St. PANAMAS

THAT G

Commenting on the Lindsay Post says: The Greybirds lost the Oshawa on Saturday by 2-2.

The loss was, as usual, a clear reason, the standstill considering score. Umpire Duncan, player, is not sufficient to be trusted with a game day's. Two of his decisions were very raw and a different have been told if the play, Rosevear has been hitting behind that statement means a made a creditable attempt to fill the vacancy, was out of the running, ing filled with York and if a team, weakened to can hold the Oshawa crogle run what could the do?

Lindsay had every a team about to be shut out until the last hit with two out, Workman hitting rally that netted The only clear hits of the made in this little outscored on a couple of fly errors, assisted by the ty, the eccentric pitcher

Bringin

Up Fa

By

Geo. Mc

Wonderful Offering in young men's Single and Double-Breasted, all Wool Blue Serge Suits at

$25
This was a fortunate purchase of 90 Suits of High Class Manufacture, and were made to sell at almost double the price asked.
Without doubt the best Clothing bargain it has been our privilege to offer in a long time.
—Come early before your size is sold out—

QUICK & ROBERTSON
SUMMER UNDERWEAR STRAW HATS

The Coolest Place In Town Is Under A Woodley Hat Trimmed Panamas $3.95

Geo. T. Woodley

273 Front St. Furs and Millinery Phone 421
PANAMAS CLEANED and BLOCKED

THAT GAME AT OSHAWA

Commenting on the Oshawa game the Lindsay Post says:
The Greybirds lost their games in Oshawa on Saturday by the score of 2-2.
The loss was, as usual, due to several clear reasons, the more understandable considering the close score. Umpire Duncan, once a good player, is not sufficiently posted to be trusted with a game like Saturday's. Two of his decisions were very raw and a different story would have been told if the original judge of play, Rosevear had presided. Logan was missing behind the bat and that statement means a lot. Bates made a creditable attempt, however, to fill the vacancy. Williamson was out of the running, his place being filled with York and Richman. If a team, weakened to that extent could hold the Oshawa crowd to a single run what could the original crew do?
Lindsay had every appearance of a team about to be shut out absolutely until the last innings when with two out, Workman started a hitting rally that netted two runs. The only clear hits of the day were scored on a couple of juicy Lindsay errors, assisted by the umpire. Dainty, the eccentric pitcher was relegated to the field for the day and Pat-ten, last year's veteran twirler, giving a real exhibition with thirteen strikeouts. Oulette was not an inch behind in his heaving work playing one of his best games with ten whiffs.

Jack Stark was back at third base, relieving Art Carew for the wilds. The diamond was damp, but passable. A good crowd attended, swelled by a number from Lindsay.
PORT HOPE HAS LOST
EIGHT GAMES IN ROW.
"The Guide" says: Port Hope dropped another game on Saturday when they were defeated by Cobourg by a score of 5 to 1. As both teams were hopelessly out of the running not much interest was shown. Manager Sheehan should have a real shaking up of the team before commencing the second schedule.
ENGINEERS LOOK IT OVER
Bay Bridge Now Its Free Gets Lots of Inspection
Engineers of the Department of Highways of Ontario are here going over the Bay Bridge and approach on Belleville side and over the provincial highway in Prince Edward County.

GLIMPSE AT THE WORLD OF SPORT

PITTSBURG PIRATES AND INDIANS LOOK LIKE THE PENNANT WINNERS

NEW YORK, July 13.—The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cleveland Indians, close to the middle of the season, seem to be almost sure winners in the two races.
Both clubs are going along playing steady, easy ball, taking the breaks well and getting the best out of their talent.
George Gibson has been getting good pitching all season and his club is playing a great defensive game as well as packing a good punch in the pinches.
The world's champion Indians have been leading the league just because they possess the stuff of which champions are made.
Tris Speaker has had a lot of bad luck all season. His pitchers—Covaleskie, Bagby and Malls—who ought to win a pennant, have been awfully slow in getting away, and he had a tough break to overcome in the accidents that deprived him of Bill Wambegans and Steve O'Neill.
The two New York clubs look like the runners-up.
The Giants, afflicted by their ancient malady, infield trouble, are just moving along in second place. John McGraw's great pitching staff turned into an "in-and-out" and the club

BIG LEAGUE BALL SCORES

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE

Baltimore	68	18	.778
Buffalo	48	36	.571
Rochester	44	37	.494
Toronto	39	40	.494
Jersey City	36	44	.450
Newark	37	46	.446
Syracuse	34	45	.430
Reading	23	58	.284

Monday's Results

Reading, 3; Toronto, 1.
Syracuse, 10; Jersey City, 4.
Rochester, 11; Newark, 1.
Baltimore, 6; Buffalo, 2.

M. O. LEAGUE

City	Won	Lost	P.C.
London	0	0	.000
Hamilton	0	0	.000
Brantford	0	0	.000
Kitchener	0	0	.000
Port Huron	0	0	.000
Flint	0	0	.000
Saginaw	0	0	.000
Bay City	0	0	.000

NATIONAL LEAGUE

City	Won	Lost	P.C.
Pittsburg	52	27	.658
New York	47	29	.618
Boston	41	32	.562
St. Louis	40	37	.519
Brooklyn	41	38	.519
Chicago	38	40	.488
Cincinnati	27	48	.360
Philadelphia	22	52	.297

Monday's Results

Chicago, 7; New York, 2.
Brooklyn, 9; Pittsburg, 8.
Boston, 2; Cincinnati, 0.
Philadelphia, 9; St. Louis, 8.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

City	Won	Lost	P.C.
Cleveland	50	28	.641
New York	47	31	.603
Washington	46	40	.534
Detroit	46	41	.494
Boston	36	40	.474
St. Louis	35	45	.438
Chicago	33	45	.428
Philadelphia	31	49	.385

Monday's Results

New York, 4; Chicago, 0.
Boston, 6-7; Detroit, 1-3.
St. Louis, 5; Washington, 4.

FRANKFORD'S NEW THEATRE OPENS JULY 22.
Frankford—The new theatre erected at Frankford by Mr. Chas. Herman, will be opened on July 22. It is announced. It is a fine large structure nicely finished both inside and out, and the comfort of its patrons is assured.

NOTES ON RACING SEASON

There need be no lamenting over the fact that two months of racing in the east have failed to bring forth an outstanding two-year-old such as Tryster and Man o' War of previous seasons. On the contrary, the juvenile division is providing the most interesting phase of the current season's racing because it has developed a keen rivalry among more than half a dozen youngsters which have come to be recognized as topnotchers, and the interest increases with the running of each stake event, says a New York writer.
It is a rather peculiar circumstance that no horse has won any two of the five most important stake events for juveniles so far this year, and each of the five winners has been defeated at some time or other.
Norton L. Schwartz's Coloma, winner of the Juvenile, was defeated in the Keene Memorial, which was won by William A. Sweep. By which was second in this latter race, won the Hudson Stakes, while the Great American went to Brometer, which had been defeated at Jamaica. Then came Olympus on Saturday to win the Theomont and defeat William A. among others, after two failures.
The only juvenile that has a clean record is the sensational colt Morvich, which has won all of his starts with great ease, but he has not yet been tried out among the topnotchers of his age. He has proved to be a high-class colt and must be rated among the best. There will be added interest when he finally meets some of the other leaders, as he is scheduled to do in Saratoga. Kentucky has at least one very fast youngster in the filly Miss Joy. Her only defeats have been against her own stablemate, and on one occasion she was purposely placed second. She will be brought east in August to measure strides with the best in this section at Saratoga.
As a result of this situation there is now much speculation as to which is the best of these youngsters. Olympus ran very impressively as the distance of the dashes lengthened to six furlongs, and is evidently destined for more achievements. Coloma has great speed and should be a strong factor if he recovers from the injuries sustained in the running of the Keene Memorial, while there is no telling how good Morvich is. He runs like a truly good horse. His speed in his work-outs is remarkable, and he has won all his races by so many lengths that he has never been put to a test.

Stop Knocking; Support Your Own Team

It takes more of a man to support a losing team, doesn't it?
From the amount of talk floating round the last couple of days one would think some of the local boys were guilty of some terrible crime in losing Saturday's game.
The odd remark is heard here and there that the game was "sold" or that "there was some crooked work about it."
That line of talk comes from either a madman or a fool. Probably just a fool.
Here's the situation:
The Grand Trunks won seven straight games and then slumped. If you figure 't out you can see it was coming. Every team has an off day when nothing goes right and nobody in particular is to blame for it.
Of course the fans, many of whom couldn't hit a barn door with a ball, can all tell you how it ought to be done, who made all the errors and "if he'd only done this or that" etc., etc.
Remember the players in this C. O. League are in it for the sake of the game. They lose a lot of time and some lose money by practising and taking these road trips. They are out to boost the club and the city and right well they've done it this year and in past years.
It's the same in winter as in summer and its about time we've heard the last of this "hero to hobo" stuff. The Grand Trunks are not yet out

CHOICE WHITE FOOTWEAR

Great Bargains For the Ladies in WHITE CANVAS BOOTS
Pumps and Oxfords— Cuban and Spool Heels—
All sizes in the Lot
Regular $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 lines
Clearing at $1.45

The Haines Shoe Houses

Only Three More Weeks

in which to procure furs at a special discount
By putting a small deposit on any article we will lay it aside for you until required in the fall.
SO BUY NOW AND SAVE MONEY

DELANEY
Belleville's Only Exclusive Furrier
Phone 797 17 Campbell St. Opp Y. M. C. A.

Auto-Electric Service

If your troubles are Electric come to the authorized Service Station.
Large Stock of Genuine parts always on hand for ignition, switches, coils, magnetos, Generators, Starting Motors. Expert Storage Battery repairs.
Willard Batteries from $30.00
"THROUGH SERVICE WE GROW"

Quinte Battery Service Station
Phone 731 133 1/2 Front St.

COVER LEADS C. O. PITCHERS

Freddy Goyer, the mainstay of the Belleville team, has a great record in his three seasons in the Central League. In 1919, including the two play-off games, he won 9 and lost 3, last year his record was 8 wins and 2 losses, and this year his mark is 7 wins and 3 defeats, a total for three seasons of 24 victories and 8 losses. The Petes have beaten him three times, Oshawa three times, Cannonball Scott doing the trick two years ago and Oulette repeating this season.
Goyer easily leads the C. O. League pitchers in number of games won in the C. O. League this year.

Player	Won	Lost	P.C.
Patton, Oshawa	2	0	1000
McElroy, Peterboro	3	1	.750
Goyer, Belleville	7	3	.700
Dainty, Oshawa	4	2	.667
Oulette, Lindsay	5	3	.625

It's a funny old race in the Central League this year. Belleville, Lindsay and Peterborough have all broken even in their series with each other, but the quser part of it is that in the case of all three they lost their home games and won on the other fellow's grounds. Oshawa has also broken even with Belleville and Peterborough, but in both instances lost away from home and won their home games.
Saturday's defeat was the second Belleville has sustained on their own grounds in the Central League in three seasons.

Bringing Up Father
By
Geo. McManus

Belleville on Sat. 9th, George Ed.

GRECO-TURKISH WAR ON AGAIN

(Continued from page 1.)

enormously strengthened since the repulse at Eskişehir, and only by pure chance could the Turks now be successful.

A character. The Greek generalissimo, whose appearance suggests the old civil war type of soldier, received the correspondence from the ancient Turkish barracks overlooking Smyrna harbor.

General Popoulas is about 65 years old, of commanding physique and impressive features and with a great charm of manner.

"We are anxious to show the world that this time we can crush the Turk if given a fair chance," said the General sanguinely.

"Our soldiers seek redress for the lives of their brothers and sisters who have been the victims of Turkish rapacity and murder.

"I cannot appraise in words the value of their material aid and moral stimulus to our men.

The strength of the Kemalists forces was placed by General Papoulas at between 80,000 and 90,000.

MEMORIAL GATES FOR CEMETERY IN SALIENT

Lord Redesdale Presents Them in Memory of Son Buried There in 1915

LONDON, July 12.—The family of Lord Redesdale have presented to the Imperial War Graves Commission a pair of wrought-iron gates of seventeenth century design.

These gates will form the main entrance to this well-known cemetery, which is situated just behind the Vlamertinghe Church on the Popperagh-Ypres road.

ARREST OF LEADER ENRAGED THE INDIANS

They Put on a Revolution That Terrorized People for a Whole Week

LIMA, Peru, July 12.—The arrest by the authorities of an Indian chieftain in the province of Chimborazo, Ecuador, resulted in a general rising of Indians in that province that spread terror among the inhabitants for more than a week.

A newspaper correspondent reported that the villagers had organized defense committees in various parts of the province to protect the families of the farmers.

That Deadliest Parallel

From Kingston Standard.

Table with two columns: THE WORLD TODAY and THE GOOD OLD DAYS. Lists various items and their prices.

Rhodes Scholars' Great Influence

Delegates to Universities' Conference Spend Week-end at Cambridge

LONDON, July 13.—(Canadian Press Cable).—Overseas delegates to the Universities Conferences spent the week end at Cambridge.

Commenting on the meeting here of distinguished overseas educational authorities a correspondent of the Times takes occasion to discuss the effects of the Rhodes scholarship scheme.

The effect of this influx of young men from the Dominions upon Oxford itself has been enormous.

Oxford has in fact become a great meeting place of the youth of the Empire, and the temperamental attitudes which she gives the students will do much in future to determine the interrelations of the constituent parts of the Empire.

Plan for Future Success

Many young people leaving school do not at first realize that special training in a special line of work is absolutely necessary in all the most desirable positions.

Italy Has Wave of Love Tragedies

ROME, June 23.—(By Mail) —A wave of love tragedies is sweeping through Italy.

SEE LIVELY RUNAWAY

Team Collide With Bike and One Horse Severely Cut

Port Hope—The faithful team of horses belonging to Mr. Edward Gardiner Perrytown, caused some excitement here the other day.

BRUCE PETER NELSON

Bruce Peter Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Nelson, 2nd Con. of Sidney, passed away last night at Belleville Hospital.

HEAT WAVE HITS BACK

(Continued from page 1.)

petitions are the qualifying round for the ladies' cup, presented by Mr. C. R. Hogmer, and the championship cups presented by Lord and Lady Shaughnessy.

WEDDINGS

FRAWLEY-KELLEHER. A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at 8.30 o'clock in St. Michael's Church.

WOODINGTON-FOXTON. A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the Tabernacle Methodist Church, Tuesday, July 12th.

SPRINGBROOK. Mr. Charles Linn, of Stirling, called on his father, Mr. Bill Linn, on Sunday.

PULLER. Mrs. J. M. Geen and Mabel have returned home after spending a number of weeks with her daughter.

NANCY UNIVERSITY AGAIN OPENS DOORS

Plugged up Holes in Walls and is Ready to Receive Allied Students

MONARCH YARNS

MEN'S WORK SHIRTS

BATHING SUITS

THE RITCHIE Co., Limited

LADIES LODGE LEADS PARADE

(Continued from page 1.)

Three cases of liquor were stolen from Walkerton C.P.R. station.

GREEN POINT

Rev. I. Wickware and little Helen also Mrs. L. Moore and her sister of Chicago took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Wattam.

Miss Rutlan, of Belleville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Roblin.

MISS ISABEL COLE VISITED IN KINGSTON

MISS EMMA ANDERSON IS VISITING HER SISTER, MRS. SIDNEY PARKS NEAR NAPANE.

SOMETHING NEW CLAIMED BY AN ITALIAN INVENTOR

ROME, July 12.—An airplane capable of landing without the need of a large aviation field, able to rise without a long run beforehand.

SPRINGBROOK

PORT HOPE

PULLER

NANCY UNIVERSITY

MONARCH YARNS

MEN'S WORK SHIRTS

BATHING SUITS

PUBLIC NOTICE

Parties disturbing gates, wire fences, or fruit trees, on the southeast quarter of lot Twenty-three in the 8th Concession of Sidney, known as the McIntosh Farm, if located, will be prosecuted.

Have a Drink Of Fine Fresh Buttermilk At the Fountain 5c a glass Healthful, Cooling, Refreshing CHAS. S. CLAPP

RITCHIE'S

Attractive Prices For Summer Goods Popular Viyella Flannel

Viyella Flannels guaranteed to wash and not shrink—the newest material for skirts, suits, etc.

Dainty Neckwear

GINGHAM DRESSES $3.95

LADIES' UNDERWEAR 49c each

INFANTS' MUSLIN BONNETS

LADIES' VOILE DRESSES

WASH SATIN SKIRTS

HOSIERY

MONARCH YARNS

MEN'S WORK SHIRTS

BATHING SUITS

The RITCHIE Co., Limited

DUMBLE DESPIT

No One is to Leave Troupe for Y

NEW YORK. —Members of the organization of former have reached an agreement with the company for New York theatre and the veterans of "Big Bing" and the theatre-actors' contract offer to a in the United States.

WORLD TO Start Off in F Up to Stron

As a result of "Dumbells" will world tour in Be all the original m They plan to app the U.S. during th tour the Orient, ope.

JOHN CALVIN KNOWN AFT

One Family Kept Time—Last of Publ

GENEVA, June Leaders of the throughout Europe ty interest in the the burial place of Swiss divine and revealed after hav for 357 years.

RESTORE RUS

STOCKHOLM, J seven years of int is about to be bro the Soviet Foreign presses its willing for to help furth scientific literature Europe and Americ

DIES AG

A resident of the named Benjamin O today at the age of a native of Sidney.

LIC NOTICE

...ing gates, wire fence, on the southeast of Twenty-three in the of Sidney, known as Farm, if located, will

Drink Fresh Milk from the Fountain of a glass of Cooling, Refreshing. S. CLAPP

...cesoodsannel... and not shrink... .75c yard $1.00 yard $1.75 yard $2.00 yard at $1.50 yd., very cool and, at $1.00, $1.25,

UNDERWEAR... each... in a variety, some lace tops, others have tubular trimming to 42, Regular

...ES' VOILE... ESSES... dozen Ladies... in plain and... sizes 14 to

...TS... Peach, Rose, Pe... sizes 26 to 34 $16.50 to $23.00,

...OSIERY... White Lisle Stock... as sheer as... wear twice as

...ORK SHIRTS... Work Shirts with... color in khaki... white and plain

...$1.29... in blue with carry quality, Regu... $1.19

...Co., Limited

DUMBELLS STICK DESPITE BRIDES

No One is to Leave the Famous Troupe for Next Two Years

WORLD TOUR COMING Start Off in Fall From Boston Up to Strength—All Canadians

NEW YORK, July 9.—(By Mail)—Members of the "Dumbells" organization of former Canadian soldiers have reached an agreement whereby no member of the cast is to leave the company for the next two years. New York theatrical producers were quick to note the ability displayed by the veterans in their presentation of "Biff Bing Bang" at the Ambassador theatre and nearly every one of the soldier-actors received an attractive offer to appear on the stage in the United States. To prevent the falling to pieces of the organization the members agreed to remain, although in two instances producers had announced that members of the company would appear in a next season's Broadway production.

As a result of the decision the "Dumbells" will commence their world tour in Boston next fall with all the original members in the cast. They plan to appear in Canada and the U.S. during the winter and later tour the Orient, Australia and Europe.

An indication of the success of the entirely Canadian show in New York, is seen in the proffered engagements. Ross Hamilton has been offered a large salary to appear in Vaudeville as a female impersonator; "Red" Newman offered a prominent part in the Village Follies; Al Plunkett practically engaged as juvenile with the new Al Johnson Winter Garden Show; Jimmie Good approached by minstrel managers and Alan Murry, Jock Holland and Fred Fenwick gave a bid for vaudeville. Alexander Pantages would place the whole show in vaudeville. Ability of the war veterans in other lines has been recognized and Jack McLaren was offered a position with a prominent firm of artistic poster designers. Leonard Young has been offered a long term contract with a fifth avenue modistes to design ladies' gowns. Ted Walters has been making photograph boards.

JOHN CALVIN'S GRAVE KNOWN AFTER 357 YEARS

One Family Kept Secret All This Time—Last of the Race Tells Public

GENEVA, June 22.—(By Mail)—Leaders of the Protestant church throughout Europe are showing lively interest in the announcement that the burial place of John Calvin, the Swiss divine and reformer, has been revealed after having been unknown for 357 years.

Calvin died in 1564 and was buried somewhere in the Plain-Palais cemetery here but no stone has marked the spot. According to the legend, he was buried secretly from fear that his grave would be desecrated. Knowledge of the location of the grave is said to have been held by one family for more than three and a half centuries. The secret is said to have been handed from father to son for all these generations.

RESTORE RUSS. LIBRARIES

During War all Best Literature Lost or Neglected

STOCKHOLM, July 11.—Moscow's seven years of intellectual isolation is about to be broken according to the Soviet Foreign Office which expresses its willingness to use its efforts to help further the exchange of scientific literature between Russia, Europe and America.

During the last few years only a few scientific works have been printed but a large number of manuscripts have been collected under the Soviet regime. A delegate of one of the Finnish commissions for the distribution of food in Petrograd stated that the libraries there are generally well preserved but the big general library at Petrograd had its stocks depleted in 1915 when, after the German conquest of Liban, 25,000 valuable books were carried away and deposited in an unknown place. All attempts to trace them have failed.

DIES AGED 83

A resident of the Front of Thurlow named Benjamin Ostrom, died early today at the age of 83 years. He was a native of Sidney.

NONE SO BLIND

The Showman—"Hullo, You'd better be careful how you go to work with that saw." The Man up-the-Tree—"That's all right mate. I don't care. It ain't my tree."—The Passing Show (London)

Six Nurses in Grad. Class; Two Sisters Complimented Hospital Here Must Carry On

"The work that has been carried on here has been of inestimable value to the community. The people no matter of what creed should lend it every assistance to carry on its noble work and extend its sphere of influence," said Judge Willis, who was chairman at the graduation exercise at Belleville General Hospital on Thursday afternoon. The nurses' home was crowded in spite of the inclement heat. The addresses were short, the ceremony lasting less than an hour.

"It is up to you young ladies," the judge continued, "to offer your services to this institution and give the women of the W.C.A. every assistance. I do not wish to see this institution carried on by any other than the voluntary work of the women of Belleville. We are looking for the people to come forward to help carry on the work."

Work of "Carrying On." "I would ask you for unity and support in making this the one hospital for us all. The last year we received a grant of $1,000 from the County of Hastings; but it is only a beginning. Our own citizens must carry on the institution no matter what the cost. By contributions you will help lighten the burden on the ordinary taxpayer."

Rev. Dr. Cleaver opened the proceedings with prayer. On the platform were Judge Willis, Mrs. W. C. Mikel, superintendent of the W.C.A., Miss Tait, superintendent, Mrs. Moynes and Rev. Dr. Cleaver. Mrs. Mikel complimented the nurses on finishing a very strenuous period of training through two epidemics of the "flu" and the change in the staff, and presented pins to the graduates. "The graduates this year included two sisters," said Mrs. Mikel.

"I am glad to see the Misses Fargay graduate from their own community hospital," declared the chairman. List of Graduates. The diplomas were presented by the superintendent, Miss Tait, who administered the pledge of a nurse to the graduating class—Mrs. Josephine Richards, Sealey's Bay; Effie

EXPLORE YOUR SKELETON; IT'S ON FREE LIST. WASHINGTON, July 9.—(By Canadian Press)—The Canadian who has a skeleton in his closet and wishes to export it will not be prevented from doing so by the new U.S. tariff bill. Paragraph 1651 of the new U.S. tariff measure places skeletons on the free list the ways and means committee had in mind also other anatomical specimens. Turning from the grave to the gay, it is discovered that the tariff on poker chips has been reduced 10 per cent.

MOTOR GOES OVER BOY Serious Accident to Led at Lower Bridge Just Averted Riding across the lower bridge at noon today, James Letourney, a boy, was struck by a motor bearing marker number 142-143 and fell from his bicycle beneath the car. The bicycle was smashed and the boy fortunately escaped serious injury, only bruises being sustained.

WANT BETTER NEWS SERVICE

Imperial Premiers Declare U. S. has too Big an Advantage on Cable

COLOR BRITISH NEWS American Press Has Best Collection Agencies Conference is Told

LONDON, July 9.—The official text of the speeches delivered at yesterday's meeting of the Conference of Prime Ministers was issued today, and in it there were expressions of disapproval of world distribution of news through the U.S.

Premier Hughes of Australia, made an unfavorable comparison between the British wireless service and the German installations that were in operation before the war, as well as those at present existing in the U.S. He said the U.S. was conducting wireless services to Great Britain, France, Norway, Japan and Germany, and was arranging to cover other fields. He declared the U.S. was daily radiating in every direction, not only U.S. news, but U.S. concepts of world events, and instanced the transmission of such news to China, which, he said, formed his opinion of the British Empire thereon, while Great Britain did nothing. He contended that if Great Britain and the Dominions failed to increase their wireless telegraph and wireless telephone services in the immediate future, they would be left behind other countries.

NEWS SERVICE BOOSTS U.S. Premier Meighen, of Canada, said that, while Canada had less cause to complain than Australia and New Zealand, her exchange of news with the Motherland was unsatisfactory. Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary of State for the Colonies, spoke sympathetically regarding these complaints.

"There is no doubt," he said, "that the U.S. press is able to collect its news on a vast scale, and, having been paid the cost of this collection by internal circulation, it can afford to dump news into other English-speaking countries." "And advertises itself," interjected Premier Massey, of New Zealand. Mr. Churchill declared it was vital in the dissemination of news of the British Empire that a strong British Empire atmosphere be developed, adding: "This will come when the mother country and the Dominions are able to tell their story to each other, instead of having it told by other men."

They're Worth Their Weight in Gold

WHAT CLOVENE MAN SAYS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

David Waddington Has Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and Recommends Them to All Who Suffer From Kidney Ills. Clovone, Ont., July 11.—(Special)—Right to the point is the statement of Mr. David Waddington, a well-known and highly respected resident of this place. He has tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and found them good. But let us use Mr. Waddington's own words: "I have taken Dodd's Kidney Pills and I cannot say too much in favor of them." He states: "They are worth their weight in gold and I advise all who suffer from Kidney Disease of any kind to use Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely and simply a kidney remedy. They have given splendid results in cases of rheumatism, backache, diabetes, dropsy, heart disease, and urinary troubles, because each of these is either a kidney disease or springs from sick kidneys.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the remedy sick kidneys are crying for.

DIED. WILKINS—In Belleville on Monday July 11, Willoughby Wilkins, aged 75 years 6 days.

For cleaning glasses which have contained milk there is nothing to equal wood ashes.

A BETROTHAL. TOKIO, July 11.—The betrothal of Prince Yasuhito, the second son of the Emperor and Princess Naoko, fourth daughter of Prince Ichijo, will take place in the near future. It is believed here, Prince Yasuhito, who was born on June 25, 1902 is now attached to the third regiment of Infantry stationed at Tokio. Princess Naoko, who is 14 years of age, is attending the Peccoles School.

WARSHIPS RETURN MEXICO CITY, July 11.—The United States warships, which on Friday were reported to have been withdrawn from Tampico returned to that port yesterday afternoon.

GERMANS STEAL WAR MATERIAL

Howitzers, Field Guns, and Rifles Surrendered for Destruction

USED IN SILESIA Ordnance Mostly Recovered But Rifles Smuggled Across Frontier

BERLIN, July 9.—The entente disarmament commission is hot on the trail of some audacious free-booters who within the last month have attempted to steal a large quantity of artillery and small arms from the stocks surrendered for destruction. The raids were successful in many instances and practically all the artillery used by the German irregular forces in Upper Silesia is understood to have been the proceeds of such "thefts," executed with the connivance of the German watchmen guarding the depots pending transport to centres where the surrendered military material was to be destroyed.

In one important instance, however, a battery of four heavy howitzers and fourteen field guns, abstracted from Kuesstrin fortress, were discovered in the woods a few miles from the fortress, where they were concealed awaiting a good chance to transport them to Upper Silesia. Thirty Orzech embassaries were detected in the act of stealing four guns at Legnitz, in German Silesia. Three, including their leader, were arrested.

A raid on the small arms depot at Bamsiau, in the Silesian frontier, was successful, the raiders carrying off two truckloads of rifles. German civilian authorities are credited by the entente representatives with co-operating with the entente in the endeavor to recover stolen armaments. It is hoped that most or all of the stolen cannon have been recovered. The rifles, which can be more easily concealed or smuggled across the frontier, are probably gone beyond hope of recovery.

TWEED Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Sagar, of Toronto, are spending the holidays with Tweed friends.

Mrs. Ralph McQuire and son, of Toronto, have been visiting friends in town for several weeks.

Lois Morrison left for Toronto on Monday last where he will take a course in job printing in the office of the McLean Publishing Co.

Rev. T. P. Bennett, of Nebraska, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Bennett's mother, Mrs. Wm. Sagar, and other friends in Tweed.

Misses Lois Richardson, Grace Houston and Elsie Hicks are attending Summer School at Albert College, Belleville, this week.

Mrs. M. Kehoe, who spent the past two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Turcott, has returned to her home in Buffalo.

Miss Kathleen Hottel and Miss McGoldrick returned to Toronto on Monday after spending the past week at the former's home here.

Mrs. (Dr.) Mather has just returned after spending a week in New York visiting her daughter Ana, who has just finished her course in nursing, and who is now at Columbia University taking a science course.

Inspector Mann and family have taken up their residence at their summer cottage at Wallington.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Holton and family spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith, Estershire.

MRS. JOSHUA DODDS. Grace Emmeline Dodds, wife of Joshua Dodds, former lessee of the bay bridge, died early today at Mountain View after only two days' illness. She was a daughter of John Smith and was born at Northbrook. She had lived in Prince Edward for six years. Mrs. Dodds was a member of the Methodist Church and leaves besides her husband one son, John Alexander, two brothers and two sisters.

WARSHIPS RETURN MEXICO CITY, July 11.—The United States warships, which on Friday were reported to have been withdrawn from Tampico returned to that port yesterday afternoon.

JOAN OF ARC STILL FIGHTING

This Time It's in Turkey Where Women Train to Fight the Greeks

STEIN DARK WOMAN Wears a Veil but Prefers Trouser to Skirts While "in the Army."

ANGORA, Turkey, July 11.—A Turkish Joan of Arc, Aishe Hanum, has started a woman's fighting brigade against the Greeks. Her organization, called the Kain brigade, has already taken part in active fighting and she is constantly enrolling new recruits.

This is the first time in Turkish history that a woman has been so militantly active. She has been dubbed by the people of Anatolia, "The Conqueror." Her personality is in distinct contrast to the beautiful Halide Edith Hanum, the writer and graduate of the American Constantinople College, who has been so active in Nationalist politics for two years and fled to the interior in March, 1920, to escape imprisonment by the Allies. Aishe Hanum is a stern, dark woman of the soil, aged 52, who sees visions and believes she is inspired by the Prophet. She wears a veil but has cast aside skirts. She carries a rifle and when not at the front goes through the villages accompanied by her 15-year-old son, urging the peasants to contribute food and money and their able-bodied women to cast out the enemy stranger from the homeland.

As Nationalist soldiers, the uniform of the Kain Brigade corresponds to that of its leader. Indirectly, Aishe Hanum is doing as much as Halide Hanum to emancipate the Turkish woman, when she began her work, the Turkish men, who dislike to have women interfere in politics, tried to force her to return to her farm. But, by the courage born of her visions, Aishe Hanum has continued until she is recognized as an aid to the Nationalist cause.

SIX GET NEW CHANCE Suspended Sentences Awarded by Trenton Magistrate

Six young men were given suspended sentences by Magistrate O'Rourke today on charges in connection with the breaking into of garages at Prince Edward and this vicinity, on making restitution and paying costs. They were Raymond Anderson, Harvey Hillier, Grant Walker, Morley Stewart, Hugh Geddes and Gerard Campney. Norman Hillier on a charge of receiving stolen goods was acquitted. W. Carnew appeared for the crown. Provincial Officer Ward and Chief Bain prosecuted.

Mr. Kenneth McMillan and bride of Montreal, arrived in the city at the week-end.

FATHER OF M. P. DUFF DIES AT BARRIE HOME

Was Formerly License Inspector of Simcoe County—Two Sons in Railroad Business

Mr. Thomas Duff, former liquor license inspector in Simcoe County, died at two o'clock this morning at two o'clock this morning at his home in Barrie after a protracted illness, according to a telegram which reached his son, Mr. M. P. Duff, of this city.

The late Mr. Duff was 86 years of age and had lived in Barrie most of his life. He was formerly engaged in business in that town and before his retirement was inspector of liquor licenses. He was a Methodist in religion and a Conservative in politics.

Surviving are his widow living at Belleville, two sons and one daughter—W. N. Duff, Allandale, Mr. W. P. Duff, of Belleville, and Miss Margaret of Toronto.

Funeral takes place tomorrow at Barrie.

FOUND LAW TO ROTARY Mr. C. A. Payne Complimented on Speech at Luncheon

At the Rotary Club luncheon today, Mr. Charles A. Payne delivered an address on the new Bankruptcy Act. He was complimented by Judge Wills on his admirable presentation.

Dr. and Mrs. Coughlin were recent visitors in Hastings. Mrs. Laidman and daughter, of Barrie, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Duff.

SPECIAL SALE —OF— MEN'S AND YOUNG MEN'S SUITS! at $25.00 We are celebrating the opening of the Bay Bridge by offering a special lot of suits at the above prices—when you see them you will be satisfied. See Our Two Show Windows Lower priced Suits if you want them. OAK HALL BELLEVILLE

SUGAR PRICES COMING DOWN

Big Drop in Sweet Stuffs as Mercury Takes Jump Skyward

GOOD NEWS FOR WIFE Retailers, Toronto Despatch Says, Are Buying Very Small Supplies.

TORONTO, July 9.—As the mercury soars sugar prices keep coming down. This with the preserving season looming hotly on the horizon, should fill with delight the hearts of thrifty housewives.

"Retailers are now selling fine granulated at all kinds of prices, and are making nothing on the goods," declares the secretary of the Wholesale Grocers' organization.

"The sugar situation is bad," declares a wholesaler. "We look for a big drop in price almost any day. Just now granulated is costing us $8.75 f.o.b. Montreal, less the usual 5 per cent. of $9.09 Toronto. We are selling only from day to day, doing nothing to push sales, but only to hold our customers."

FOR IMMEDIATE REQUIREMENTS "We are buying only for immediate requirements, and giving the consumer the benefit of low prices," say retailers. "As far as we can see, the price is due to drop again—and soon. We don't want to be caught stocked when it may come down to $8 or even $6, or perhaps $5 per cwt."

OVERSTOCKING CAUSE "What's the reason for the decline? Over-stocking for speculation by refiners, I suppose. They are caught with the goods, and have to get rid of them. If they don't—if they keep on selling cautiously—their money will be tied up indefinitely and what is more, by the time they have unloaded they will have put the cane-growers out of business, and there will be no stores of raw sugar for them to operate on. It's a case of make the best of a bad bargain—clear out the held sugar and recoup losses when the recouping gets good."

Secretary Miller, of the Retail Merchants' Association, is not in town to contribute his chapter to the comedy-drama of tumbling sugar prices. Retailers individually talked to shrug indifferent shoulders. Theirs not to worry over refiners' troubles. The big fellows made theirs when prices were up—let them take the penalty of trying to play hog too long. Meanwhile the customer will benefit and it will be good business for the small trader.

"SWEET BUY AND BUY." "It is quite possible if the refiners decide to cut their losses by sacrifices, which seems the common-sense play for them," said one Queen street house to-day, "customers may be able to get their preserving sugar as low as seven or eight cents. It is nine and a fraction now. When it drops a bit lower, with the fruit coming in, it sure will be a case of the 'sweet buy and buy.'"

CHEESE CANAPEES. I came across this in a rather old book. And as cheese takes only a short time to cook. I copied it down; for I thought it might do. For others, as well as for me, or for you.

From a loaf that is stale cut two or three slices. Stamp these out with cutter of tin in heart shapes, rounds, ovals (you can cut at low prices. Buy cutters) To fry now begin. Use clarified butter, and when colored slightly.

On each put a small piece of cheese. With mustard spread under; then season them lightly. With pepper, your palate to please. If you have a fire that is burning quite clearly. (Push them in brisk oven, it hot!) Place canapees near, for a few minutes merely.

Until the cheese melts, then serve hot.

Ready-made Medicine.—You need no physician for ordinary. His when you have at hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. For coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchial troubles, it is invaluable, for scalds, burns, bruises, sprains it is unsurpassed, while for cuts, sores and the like it is an unquestionable healer. It needs no testimonial other than the use, and that will satisfy anyone as to its effectiveness.

County and Suburban News

ALBURY

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sager and Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peck, Mrs. and Mr. Joseph motored to Hykes Point on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bull, of Picton, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Dempsey.

Mr. Carrol Redner called at George Wessels on Sunday evening.

Mr. Ross Dempsey of New York is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dempsey.

Miss Marion Allison took tea with her friend Irene Wessels on Sunday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Tripp a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Embury Adams called at Clifford Pecks on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McColl spent Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Benns.

Mrs. Clarence Cole has returned from the hospital, Toronto.

Mr. Murray Hann and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown spent the week-end at Colborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk of Toronto, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. Palmer.

Miss Annie Gilbert and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Jamieson on Sunday.

On Saturday evening the baseball fans witnessed an exciting game of ball at Codrington when the Wooler team beat Codrington by a score of 9-4. Wooler has a new pitcher, Mr. Kenneth Regan.

Miss Sadie Dalmas, delegate from the Young Ladies' Mission Circle, is attending Summer School at Belleville.

Mr. W. C. Bull and Mr. David Teal attended the races at Napanee on Friday.

Mrs. E. A. McColl is visiting relatives at Brighton.

Miss N. Ellis left for Toronto on Monday morning where she will spend a month or so. Mr. C. Ellis also returned to Toronto.

HALLOWAY

Rain is very much needed in this vicinity.

The Sunday School from this appointment had their annual picnic at Oak Lake on Friday last.

Dr. E. Lowery was under the doctor's care last week with symptoms of appendicitis.

Several families from this vicinity took in the Foxboro Presbyterian picnic at Twelve O'clock Point on Wednesday.

Miss S. Kelly of Madoc, is visiting at the home of Mrs. E. Lowery.

Mr. W. Wilson was a guest of his brother Anson on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Townsend and Rev. Mr. Wood of Foxboro, and Misses Mildred and Annie Elliott and cousin, Mairs, motored to Madoc on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. Biddell of Watertown, is visiting relatives in the vicinity.

Mr. J. McKee of Ivanhoe, was a guest of Mr. J. Lowery on Sunday last.

Mrs. Cadman Sr., returned home from visiting her daughter at West Huntingdon.

STH LINE SIDNEY

The 5th Concession and Presbyterian Sunday School held a picnic at 12 o'clock point on Wednesday of last week and was a decided success as everybody enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bartlett visited his parents on Sunday.

The buzz of the mower is heard in every direction in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Casey of Zion Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hamblin of Peterboro, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. J. McCullough.

Miss Reta Beckstead from near Ottawa is holidaying with her aunt, Mrs. W. Christie.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thrasher from Belleville were Sunday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilson and son, also Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson visited friends near Harold last Sunday.

Miss Anna Bamber is attending Summer School as delegate from the Sunday School at Albert College this week.

Messrs. Jim Lake and Fred Faulkner made a trip up to Sarnia last week and purchased a brand new threshing outfit.

Mr. Provines, of Lonsdale, spent a couple of days last week at Mr. Wm. Birds, visiting.

A large number gathered at the Methodist Church in Foxboro last Sunday evening to hear Rev. Mr. Kemp before leaving for his new Circuit at Warkworth. Rev. Mr. Butler from that place will take up the work.

Co., and expect to be about nine weeks.

Dentist Dr. A. O. Bradley has opened a dental parlor in Shuries' Block, Wellington, this week.

Rev. W. G. Lansbury and Mr. Ezra while driving in the country last Saturday afternoon unfortunately had an accident, as the horse stied at something on the roadside. Both gentlemen were thrown out of the buggy and got a severe shaking.

At the Friends' meeting on Sunday A. G. Dorland and James Wild gave an account of the yearly meeting they attended at Newmarket. One of the interesting items mentioned was that a letter was received by the Yearly Meeting from the First Friends' Yearly Meeting held in Germany. As a result of the Friends' Service Committee's activities in Central Europe the influence of the Society of Friends has grown, in various parts of Central Europe, and 14 Friends' meetings have been opened in Germany.

There was a small attendance at our churches on Sunday owing to the heat and the services were cut short.

Dr. and Mrs. Lothrop, of Kingston, spent the week-end and the guests of Prof. A. G. Dorland, and A. G. Dorland, after spending his summer vacation in his home here, were to Kingston on Monday where he is to lecture at the Summer School.

Mrs. Chislett had as visitors on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Phillips of Redensville, and Mrs. G. W. Hepler and three children, from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Another daughter, Mrs. I. F. Hepler and three children, from Tyrone, Penns., has come to spend her summer holiday with Mrs. Chislett.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Allan and two daughters from Los Angeles, are on a visit to T. M. Nash. This party motored from their home in California to Indiana, and covered about 200 miles a week, camping at night, then to Cleveland, where they left their car, and took train to Wellington. Mr. Allan is Mrs. Nash's nephew.

The County road builders, under the supervision of E. Stoenburg are busy repairing the road between Wellington and Bloomfield. They are laying gravel and plowing the side near the hedge with a view to widening the road, and a new bridge is being put up a tittle west of P. Underwater's.

Dr. McCullough is looking well after his three weeks visit to Chicago, where he attended the Post graduate summer course at the University and Cooks County Hospital.

NORTPORT

Sidney Kerr spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kent, of Shannonsville spent a recent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kent.

Misses Marjorie and Emma Smith, are visiting friends at Gilead and Bloomfield.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cox, of Bethel, were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Babble's in the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Smith have moved in with Mr. and Mrs. S. Smith since the fire destroyed their home.

Mr. Alex. Anderson and family, are living in part of Mr. Ed. Robinson's house.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Putman and Alice of Belleville, spent a recent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Crothers.

Mrs. T. Mills and Miss Evelyn Mills spent a few days at Stirling last week.

Mrs. J. M. Kerr, of Big Island, spent several days recently with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barker and baby Donna, and Mrs. G. W. Black, Solmesville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Ward and family have moved to Picton.

Mr. Sam Putman of Deseronto, spent several days recently with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Crothers.

Mrs. Ed. Robinson is spending some time with friends in Belleville.

A number from this vicinity attended the anniversary dinner, at Knox Church, Demorestville on Monday last.

Mr. Albert Rowe and family, are living in one of Mr. Sam Fox's houses.

Martha Minaker is staying with Mrs. Harry Smith.

CONSECON

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Mabee, spent the week-end and guest of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Morrison have returned to Ottawa after a visit to the home of the former's father.

Among those that enjoyed a quiet but pleasant day along the shores of Lake Ontario on Sunday last were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank Hickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller and family.

Miss Edna Fleming left on Tuesday for Whitby where she will attend the Lady's College there.

MADOC JCT.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Bennett was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday, June 29th when Mr. and Mrs. Bennett celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding day. This is the first diamond wedding ever celebrated in this community and their friends took great pleasure in congratulating them on being able to celebrate the day with such a gathering and their children who arranged for the occasion deserve much credit for the success of the day and their loyalty to their parents in their old days.

There were four generations of the family present and the marriage of their grandson, Mr. A. White, a grandson, to Miss Florence Lyons, both of Toronto, was another very interesting feature of the day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. P. Bennett, of Nebraska, assisted by Rev. Mr. McQuade.

—Drawn by C. W. Kahles.

Both brides received some very valuable gifts and after a most bountiful dinner was served, a reception was held in the evening and ice cream and cake served.

Among those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Drury, of Dresden, Rev. C. P. Bennett, Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. White and family, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Armour Bennett and Mrs. Bennett Smith, of Belleville, Mr. Ben Clarke and others from Thurlow, Mr. and Mrs. Timmon, Mr. and Mrs. Reide, of Foxboro, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Hamilton, of Rossmore, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Reide, of Harold, Mrs. Nell Brown and Mr. George Cooke, Carmel, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Burgess and others.

A number from here attended Mr. Kemp's farewell service last Sunday.

Mrs. James Stapley is still in a serious condition also Mr. Keegan who has been on the sick list for some time.

Miss Annie Stapley, of Northport school is home for the holidays.

Miss Purdy, of Napanee, spent the week-end with friends here.

Mrs. Barker has been in Buffalo for the past week on account of the illness of her mother.

DESERONTO

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Solmes, Toronto, who were visiting here, returned to the city this week.

Mr. T. L. McCullough, who purchased the Alex. Foote boat recently, is erecting a substantial boat house in the ship yards slip.

Mr. George Kimmery has returned to Toronto after a pleasant visit with Deseronto friends.

The E. C. Metcalfe Canning Co. factory opened up with a heavy run of peas during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cole and family motored to Kingston on Sunday to see the tonner's son, James, who is recovering from an operation in the General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Cole were accompanied by Miss Blackburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Webb of Toronto, have returned home after spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Webb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McKendry, of Bethany.

CAMPBELLFORD

Mr. Thomas Wilson, of Oshawa, spent the week-end at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Gibson visited friends in Peterboro.

Mr. Frank Reid, of Belleville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Millis, of Napanee, were visiting at Mr. W. Jordan's last week.

Miss Mabel Anderson, of Ottawa, spent the week-end under the parental roof.

Mrs. Bonycastle, of Belleville, spent a few days at the home of Mr. C. E. Bonycastle.

Miss Nellie Davidson and Miss Carl Shaw, of the Toronto Public School teaching staff, are home for their holidays.

Mrs. Levetus has returned to Toronto after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Bullock.

Miss Amy Gorenlock, of the Public school teaching staff, Toronto, is visiting her friend, Miss Nellie Davidson.

Capt. and Mrs. Neale and son Douglas, of Bowmanville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bonycastle.

Miss Winnifred Armstrong is taking the Toronto University Summer Specialists' course in Commercial work. Miss Grace Payne is taking the course in music.

Miss Dorothy Heath and Miss Marion Moore are attending Summer School at Albert College, Belleville, as representatives of the Campbellford Epworth League.

Mrs. J. M. Smith leaves on Thursday for Montreal when she will sail by Steamer Metagama, for England to visit her son, Mr. H. Smith. Mrs. Smith will be accompanied as far as Quebec by her daughters, Misses Annie and Mabel Smith.

WESTERN AMELIASBURG

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vandervoort attended the picnic of his father's 76th birthday in the 9th concession of Murray.

Canning peas seems to be the order of the day.

Mrs. L. Puffer, Trenton, spent a few days at J. H. Vandervoort's.

Edria Rathburn is spending a few days at her uncle's, Mr. Morley Carlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase and Elsie, and Mr. and Mrs. N. Gooding, of Salem, spent dinner hour with Morris Aleya's.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ostrom and Annie Shears, Rednersville, spent Monday afternoon at Mr. Vandervoort's.

BERD OF HILLIER

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wolf, of Consecon Lake, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Benway.

Mr. Earl Palmer, of Picton, is spending some time with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hubbs, and Mr. and Mrs. German Vandervoort, of Wellington, spent Sunday at Trenton with Mr. and Mrs. Hubbs, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Demille spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spence.

Mr. Harry Chase, of Melville, called at Mr. Joseph Harvey's on Sunday.

Miss Edna Irwin is spending her holidays with her parents at Lisie.

Master Vernon Clapp, of Oshawa, is spending his holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Clapp, at The Orchard.

Mrs. Elton Clapp and daughters are at their home, Niles Corners, from Picton while Mr. Clapp is out west.

Mr. Paul Leavens has returned home from his visit at Trenton with Mr. and Mrs. W. Hick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Campbell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Benway spent Sunday at Wiggins Point, and enjoyed a motor trip around Scotch Bonnet Lighthouse and Aman's Island.

Mr. Will Benway and Miss Geraldine Benway spent Saturday evening at Wellington.

Miss Helen Alexander, of Peterboro, is home for the holidays.

Rain is needed very badly, peas are being cut this week, and the late hay is all cut.

FOXBORO

Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Rose and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Rose on Sunday.

Miss Ruth Eggleton, of Stirling, is visiting her friend, Miss Martha Pisman.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Windover, of Belleville, were visitors in the village this week.

Mr. Morton is home to spend the vacation.

Miss Keitha Henderson is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Embury and Mrs. Joe Daniels called on Mrs. John Sprague on Thursday.

Mrs. Will Gossell is visiting her son and family in Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gossell.

Master Maxwell Shorey, Belleville, is visiting at Mr. C. Hetherington's.

Mrs. Murney Reynolds visited friends in Campbellford for over Sunday.

Mrs. Nell Davis and daughter, Helen visited her daughter, Mrs. W. Rose, 6th line, Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ward and children spent Wednesday in the village, attending the Boy Scout picnic.

Mrs. W. Burd spent Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Gladys Stewart.

Mrs. McCrodon and children, Toronto, are visiting her sister, Mrs. John Gossell, Jr.

Mrs. Francis LaPalm, of Detroit, visited her mother, Mrs. John Sprague on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Daniels and little Marion are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Utman in Stirling.

Miss Ethel Gossell, of Port Arthur, is home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McEwen, of Port Arthur, spent a couple of days recently with his brother and family Mr. and Mrs. John McEwen.

NEAR DROWNING AT LAKEPORT

Cobourg—Lakeport came near being the scene of a drowning accident when a young English lad, who was fishing at the dock there, fell into the lake. His companion, a young boy named Orook, was unable to swim, but ran to obtain help. A young man dived into the lake and brought out the boy, who was nearly gone, but after some attention, was brought around.

ACCIDENT TO FRANK McAVOY.

Fort Hope—Mr. Frank McAvoy, beamster, met with a very unfortunate accident. Mr. McAvoy was driving his team east under the C.P.R. viaduct on Mill street when a street car driven by Mr. McKenzie, of Cobourg, turned under the viaduct. The automobile struck the rear wheel of Mr. McAvoy's wagon breaking the reach and throwing Mr. McAvoy to the ground. It is thought in falling he struck the wheel several ribs are broken and one finger very badly crushed. Mr. McAvoy was removed to his home and is resting quite comfortably and no serious results are anticipated.

Car Turned Over.

Campbellford—Mr. Sherwood Sees and family narrowly escaped serious injury one day recently when his auto turned turtle. He had turned off the switch at the top of Archer's hill and was coasting down the hill but he was unable to control the car as the brakes were not working. The car gained considerable speed and ran into the ditch.

It turned over, crushing one front wheel, smashing the top, and windshield and injuring the car generally. Strangely enough not one of the three occupants of the car was seriously injured. The car is now at Davidson's garage being repaired.

Started Canning Last Week.

Cobourg—Canning factories started on peas last week and growers report the crop not as good as last year owing to too much heat and not enough moisture. No tomatoes will be put up by the Cobourg branch of the Dominion Canners this year, only peas and corn being taken. Quite a number of canning factories in the district did not contract for tomatoes this year, owing to the extra large pack last year.

RUSSIAN PRESS TELLS THE TRUTH

Bolshevik Papers Printed in Petrograd and Other Cities Give Facts

PICTURE OF DESPAIR Terrible Conditions of Peasants Who are Without Food is Shown

REVAL, Esthonia, June 19.—(By Mail)—Those who have the idea that Bolshevik newspapers printed in Russia say only rosy things about the country could quickly be disillusioned by perusal of the papers themselves. During the past four months, the principal Moscow and Petrograd newspapers have been startlingly frank about some of the conditions that Communism has produced.

The Moscow Economic Like, long ago wrote the following description of conditions on one of the Communist "model" farms:

"The farm presented a picture of complete desolation. For years there have been no repairs. Windows are broken, walls are falling in, and some of the buildings are in ruins. Workers live in terrible, dirty rooms, black from smoke. In one of the rooms there lives a calf, placed there by the foreman despite protests of women tenants.

"There are neither potatoes nor vegetables for the workers. In the summer no one has bothered to store them. People are starving, cattle are starving. In the farm there are 32 persons, of these six are officials."

The old program of the Bolshevik government called for an increase in the number of these "model" farms. The new program by which the peasants are given nine years tenure of their land, practically does away with them.

No less frank were more recent admissions in the Moscow newspapers about the economic state of Russian factories, some of which were shown to be producing less than five percent of what they produced before the war.

The chaotic conditions and daily tragedies that followed upon resumption of free trade in South Russia are described graphically by a writer for the Moscow Evestia who has just made a trip through the Ukraine.

The peasants, he says, carrying sacks of grain or other food to the cities are literally overwhelming the railways. He thus describes the appearance of one of the trains coming into Kiev.

"Along the tracks is crawling a huge grey caterpillar—a train covered all over with grey masses of food-carriers. From beneath these masses neither cars nor locomotives can be distinguished. The grey mass covers everything, the car roofs, the steps and even the spaces between cars. Every available nook is occupied. Everything is filled up. Only when the train begins to slow down, nearing Kiev station, it begins to shed its grey fleece. Little by little, while yet in motion, the locomotive and car roofs begin to uncover.

"At Kiev all out-bound trains are literally packed all over with people. On the locomotive, cars, fire-wood truck, water tank and under the cars—anywhere that it is only possible—people fasten themselves to every hook, nail or crevice. Those who have been fortunate enough to get a place on a brake platform are looked upon as favorites of fortune, who are comfortable for their whole trip.

"The departure of every train is accompanied by lamentations, wails, crying, shooting and all kinds of accidents. When the train is beginning to get in motion, those who were not able to board it and those who have been forcibly removed from it start mad rushes for it again. The military detachments, whose duty is to maintain order during the boarding of trains, run after the trains, pulling down some of the surplus passengers who have managed to fasten on to them, while from others caps are pulled off and so on.

"One of the results of this state of affairs is that porters take 50,000 to 75,000 of rubles for a "guaranteed" place on the train.

"Another result is that the Kiev railway shops every month have to make about 300 coffins for food-carriers who have been run over by the trains."

M. Dzerzhinsky, head of the "Cheka," or Committee to Combat Counter-Revolution, known as one of the most efficient men in Soviet Russia, has been appointed by Lenin as Commissar of Railways to regulate this traffic of food-carriers.

Summer School Here Ends Important Sessions

BELLEVILLE is becoming a gathering place for many conventions and the young people of the Bay of Quinte Conference in their annual Summer School at Albert College, add their quota.

The sessions this year were held from July 4th to 13th, with a large registration. Notwithstanding the sweltering heat, interest was well maintained, partly due to the excellence of the program and partly to the character of the delegates.

Bible Studies.

At the heart of the school is Bible study. Every morning the delegates study together, this year under Prof. W. C. Graham, M.A., S.T.M., of Wesleyan College, Montreal. The general subject was "Personal Religion." The leader believes in the fundamentality of a vital relationship between the individual and God. The modern tendency to social efforts results in a vast burden of overhead and duplication of effort. Mr. Graham does not question the general sincerity of the motives which lie behind institutionalism, but believes the results are by no means satisfactory. We do not accomplish anything commensurate with the effort put forth in time, money, energy.

Teaching of Jesus.

The methods in vogue for the moralization and spiritualization of society were compared to the methods of Jesus. In Matthew thirteen we have a notable collection of parables concerning this matter. He is the master of human life.

The conception of a kingdom of God was not original with Jesus, but was a heritage he received, along with all his race, from the thought and ideals of the past.

Four Views.

Jesus was conscious of the existence of four great and different conceptions of the kingdom and the manner of its realization.

The first was that of the Sadducees. They were the priests who officiated at the Temple and in whose hands rested all the civil power that remained in the hands of the Jews. They grew rich and powerful through their control of the Temple, and especially through the system of tithes which required all the sacrifices to be purchased with temple coinage.

They cherished the idea of the Kingdom only as a pious hope.

Stand-patters.

They wanted to maintain the status quo. The Kingdom of God meant the rule of the priests and the exact performance of ritual.

Pharisees and Scribes.

There were also the Pharisees and Scribes—the Puritans of their time. They constituted the backbone of the moral element. But they translated their morality into an elaborate code of laws. By their exaltation of law their idea of the Kingdom had become as external as that of the Sadducees. They held if Jesus would for one day obey the law perfectly the Kingdom would come. They were letter-perfect. They trained young men and sent out to the synagogues members of their order who labored earnestly to teach the laws to the people. They stressed the legal rather than the ritualistic side of life.

The Zealots.

These were a third party to which belonged at least one, if not more than one, of Jesus' disciples. They were political and moral reformers. They desired an appeal to all things, which clashed with their rather materialistic idea of the Kingdom. This to them the Kingdom was also an external thing.

Overhead Expenses.

All these ideas were of such a nature they entailed a vast overhead on society. The methods of the Sadducees made necessary the maintenance of a great temple and a hierarchy. The Pharisee system involved the support of a great body of scribes and lawyers and hundreds of local buildings.

The ideas of the zealots would mean the organization of armies, withdrawal of men from productive occupations, the destruction of life and loss of property.

Acquisitiveness is sometimes mistaken for purpose. Egotism and conceit do not constitute success. The man of purpose is one who gives himself to something so great that it takes all his powers. Jesus had purpose, and from his inner relationship to God, Jesus got transparency. The crowd wanted to use him for their own ends; Jesus wanted to bring them into submission to his purpose. He could have done many great things had he yielded to them but he could not have done the thing—to get men into right relationship to God.

He gave up many things but he got purpose and perspective. There is a great need for men who are real men to fill the pulpits.

What a wonderful man was Jesus!

REV. R. T. RICHARDS, B.A.

President of the Bay of Quinte Summer School.

How modest, kindly, sympathetic—He was the Master of Life!

Presidential Address.

The presidential address on "The Challenge of the Age" was delivered by the President, Rev. R. T. Richards, B.A., Castleton. The term is hard to define but we may note some characteristics of this age. There is a spirit of restlessness evidenced by strikes, strikes, etc. There is turmoil and upheaval, political, commercial, and industrial.

There is the spirit of change. We are changing the emphasis in many things. Individualism is giving place to a broader conception of social ideals. Old established traditions and opinions are giving place to new or ideas that, hence, are imperfectly outlined and hence not assimilated.

The spirit of the age is materialistic. Men sacrifice everything for money. People demand thrills in their pleasures. They covet power. The age thus challenges us.

The Challenge.

The challenge is to sober judgment and calm decision. Is our ambition worthy or unworthy? Napoleon would crush a nation to attain his purpose. On the other hand some are looking for a "soft job." We should seek to do and to know that we may be. We should take time for training for life work. There is no short cut to real success. There should be adherence to certain well defined and fixed principles even amid temptations. A principle is a law of right which reigns everywhere and at all times.

Jesus Christ.

Then shall be the exaltation of the spiritual with Jesus Christ as the central idea. The great forces are spiritual. Love, faith, hope, scorn life of Jesus Christ is a standard for this and for every age.

Twilight Talks.

Quiet talks on personal problems given on the lawn at twilight are among the best features of this school.

Rev. T. Wallace gave two interesting talks on the Rich Fool. There is much to be said in his favor. He is the producer of his own wealth. No one was robbed nor did he foreclose any mortgage. He was a man of thought and vision. He prepared for emergencies and he was a practical man—a man of brain as well as brawn. He planned to build barns and in the strictest meaning of the term did not hoard nor attempt to corner the market. He was not excessively greedy. He was preparing for the future but was willing, when that was done, to give place to others. He did not pursue wealth to the edge of eternity yet God tested his decree and called him a fool. He was a fool because he ignored his responsibility to God regarding his possessions. He did not recognize his stewardship. He spoke of "my barns," "my fruit," etc. "My" is the devil's pronoun. He had an enlarged conception of his individual importance.

REV. W. E. WILSON

of the Department of Evangelization and Social Service, Methodist Church.

And he gathered wealth for self. The true storehouse of wealth is benevolence. This man was not rich toward God. And he made the mistake of regarding wealth as the proper food for the soul. "Soul, thou hast much goods for many years." He also ignored the truth that wealth was not his forever. He did not consecrate it to God.

Archer Wallace, B.A.

The Rev. Archer Wallace, Associate Editor of Sunday School Periodicals was introduced by Rev. W. P. Woodger as a surreptitious character inasmuch as he writes many articles to which his name is not appended.

Mr. Wallace said the most optimistic man in Canada probably never realized the wonderful possibilities and the great work to be accomplished. In the decade 1901-1911 we received 2,000,000 immigrants or 34 per cent. of our population. The task of assimilation was tremendous. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman had said that many people thought America is a "melting pot," but said she must not become a "garbage can." Mr. Wallace had seen a school on the east side of New York with 36,000 boys, 95 per cent. of which were foreign-born or the children of foreign-born. He has much sympathy even with the extreme measure to secure Americanization for this is necessary owing to the large foreign element.

Dr. S. Parkes Cadman had said that many people thought America is a "melting pot," but said she must not become a "garbage can." Mr. Wallace had seen a school on the east side of New York with 36,000 boys, 95 per cent. of which were foreign-born or the children of foreign-born. He has much sympathy even with the extreme measure to secure Americanization for this is necessary owing to the large foreign element.

Evangelism.

Rev. W. E. Wilson, of the Department of Evangelization and Social Service spoke on Evangelism.

In the teachings of Christ and His Apostles we see the triumph of the spiritual over the ecclesiastical and ceremonial view of religion. The experience of the forgiveness of sins leads to a knowledge of God and that knowledge leads to the perfect obedience to the Divine will. The remission of sins is the trumpet note that sounds clearly through every revival.

The history of revivals is the history of the church, whether old or new, ancient or modern. The Bible is the manna of revivals in so far as it is a record of successive efforts which were made by prophets and kings, by prophets and apostles for the redemption and religious betterment of the world. Interesting accounts are given of the spiritual quickening in the times of Joel, Samuel, David, Elijah, Hosea, and Ezekiel.

With the inauguration of Christianity we find that Pentecost is the emphatic date in the commencement of the new era, and the apostolic ages was ushered in as a great missionary and evangelistic era.

In the time of Constantine the power of pagan persecution was destroyed but the reflex influence proved disastrous, as a result a night of spiritual darkness settled down in which the church slumbered in contented indifference. Then came a mighty awakening through the Protestant Reformation. Then followed the Wesleyan revival and later the great American revival.

Today's Revival.

The pastor, having his soul stirred for the salvation of his flock, should endeavor to roll the burden of the evangelistic campaign upon the heart of the people.

Trusted workers should be gathered and having been convinced of the need, there should be an organized plan to meet the need.

There should be created an attitude of expectancy, for without that the church is not likely to attempt great things of God. There should be much prayer and Bible study. "Lord have mercy upon me, my brother is unsaved" should be the burden of our prayer. The whole church should be abandoned to the work and personal workers should be directed.

With our souls stirred and on fire under the direction of the Holy Spirit, we should go forward to drive out the forces of sin.

New Officers

The officers for the coming year are:

President—Rev. R. T. Richards, B.A., Castleton.

1st. Vice-Pres.—Rev. W. P. Woodger, B.A., Marmora.

Secretary and Physical Director—Rev. J. J. Mellor, Woodville.

Business Manager—Rev. A. E. McCutcheon, B. A., B. D., Bloomfield.

Assistant—Rev. E. Harstone, Cambridge.

Book Steward—Rev. D. R. Clark, B. A., B. D., Colborne.

Registrar—Miss Tillie M. Wood, Ivanhoe.

Historian and Reporter—Rev. S. F. Dixon, Lakeside.

School Settings

Albert College was nicely decorated for the school.

The games played under Canadian Standard Efficiency Test rules train

Sunday Evening.

The closing session of the school was marked by a thoughtful, stirring sermon by Rev. R. T. Richards, B.A., who preached from John 11:28: "The Master is come and calleth for thee." After describing the circumstances, Mr. Richards said this text relates itself to the young life. When Jesus was born new faces were revealed which have been mighty factors in the development of civilization. The Greek, the Roman and the Jewish nation did not see what the humble shepherd and the wise men said.

Changed Ideals.

Jesus has changed heads. Before he came God was regarded as a Judge and men feared. Jesus showed God as a Father. He was in constant communion with His Father. Before Jesus came there was civilization but it lacked mercy. Slavery was regarded as most proper. Marriage was lightly esteemed. Pleasure was cruel and licentious. But the babe of the manger has changed these ideals.

Before Jesus came there was religion but it was divorced for morality. Even yet some people get so "religious" they have no place for morals. But Jesus gives us spiritual power to interpret aright, and He went to the cross that His ideals might be perpetuated.

He call to a personal call. His greatest sermons were to the individual—to Nicodemus and to the woman of Samaria. Organization helps but the world is to be saved by the individual.

Mr. Richards closed by an impressive appeal to the young people to devote their lives to Christian work.

Evangelism.

Rev. W. E. Wilson, of the Department of Evangelization and Social Service spoke on Evangelism.

In the teachings of Christ and His Apostles we see the triumph of the spiritual over the ecclesiastical and ceremonial view of religion. The experience of the forgiveness of sins leads to a knowledge of God and that knowledge leads to the perfect obedience to the Divine will. The remission of sins is the trumpet note that sounds clearly through every revival.

The history of revivals is the history of the church, whether old or new, ancient or modern. The Bible is the manna of revivals in so far as it is a record of successive efforts which were made by prophets and kings, by prophets and apostles for the redemption and religious betterment of the world. Interesting accounts are given of the spiritual quickening in the times of Joel, Samuel, David, Elijah, Hosea, and Ezekiel.

With the inauguration of Christianity we find that Pentecost is the emphatic date in the commencement of the new era, and the apostolic ages was ushered in as a great missionary and evangelistic era.

In the time of Constantine the power of pagan persecution was destroyed but the reflex influence proved disastrous, as a result a night of spiritual darkness settled down in which the church slumbered in contented indifference. Then came a mighty awakening through the Protestant Reformation. Then followed the Wesleyan revival and later the great American revival.

Today's Revival.

The pastor, having his soul stirred for the salvation of his flock, should endeavor to roll the burden of the evangelistic campaign upon the heart of the people.

Trusted workers should be gathered and having been convinced of the need, there should be an organized plan to meet the need.

There should be created an attitude of expectancy, for without that the church is not likely to attempt great things of God. There should be much prayer and Bible study. "Lord have mercy upon me, my brother is unsaved" should be the burden of our prayer. The whole church should be abandoned to the work and personal workers should be directed.

With our souls stirred and on fire under the direction of the Holy Spirit, we should go forward to drive out the forces of sin.

New Officers

The officers for the coming year are:

President—Rev. R. T. Richards, B.A., Castleton.

1st. Vice-Pres.—Rev. W. P. Woodger, B.A., Marmora.

Secretary and Physical Director—Rev. J. J. Mellor, Woodville.

Business Manager—Rev. A. E. McCutcheon, B. A., B. D., Bloomfield.

Assistant—Rev. E. Harstone, Cambridge.

Book Steward—Rev. D. R. Clark, B. A., B. D., Colborne.

Registrar—Miss Tillie M. Wood, Ivanhoe.

Historian and Reporter—Rev. S. F. Dixon, Lakeside.

School Settings

Albert College was nicely decorated for the school.

The games played under Canadian Standard Efficiency Test rules train

WILSON'S FLY PADS

Kill them all, and the germs too. 10c a packet at Druggists, Grocers and General Stores.

groups of students. Next year it is proposed to train more especially in community games.

Rev. W. P. Rogers, B. A., gave two eloquent twilight talks on the four-fold development of life.

Major H. A. Frost conducted an interesting Round Table Conference on the four-fold standard in Sunday School work and work among young people.

Rev. Denzil S. Ridout, Toronto, gave a sketch of a probable development of work among the Protestant Churches for those between 18 and 24 years of age.

Miss Nellie Turner, Campbellford, representing the W. M. S. did effective work among the delegates.

Rev. D. R. Clark, in addition to his duties as Book Steward, planned an impromptu, but high class and varied concert Saturday evening.

Rev. Wm. Higgs, a former President, took charge of the Covenant and Closing service.

Mrs. Amos Campbell, in her 82nd year, was introduced to the school. She and Mrs. Carman are the only two remaining members of the W. M. S. organized in the former Methodist Episcopal Church in 1878.

The program this year was well arranged and well articulated, designed to meet practical needs.

Rev. W. Woodger conducted a class in studying "The Church as a Community Centre."

Rev. W. Elliott, president of the Bay of Quinte Conference, was a welcome visitor and gave a most helpful address.

Rev. George E. Morley's Dramatic Recital of Van Dyke's "The Lost Word" was an outstanding feature.

Personal Sketches

Your reporter succeeded in getting some sketches of speakers and new officers.

Rev. Archer Wallace, M. A., was born in Northumberland Co., England, of Scottish descent. He came to Canada when 19 years of age, having spent three years in Newfoundland. He attended Victoria College and was afterward associated with the work of the Earlscourt Church, Toronto.

Rev. W. E. Wilson was born in Huron Co., Ontario, educated at Eberly High School, Albert and Wesleyan Colleges, and is now residing at London. He is a good mixer.

Rev. E. A. McCutcheon, B. A., B. D., the new business manager, was born in Sidney Township, attended Stirling High School, taught at Albert College and graduated from Victoria College and Toronto University. He is of Scotch descent and is now engaged in shooting ideas into the minds of Prince Edward County people, especially those about Bloomfield.

Rev. Joseph J. Mellor, the secretary, is a Welshman, and is a live wire in Boys' Work. After coming to Canada he lived near Belleville, attended Albert and Victoria Colleges and is now Pastor of Woodville Church, Ontario Co.

Professor Wm. C. Graham, M.A., S. T. M., was born in St. Mary's, Ontario, the home town of Premier McEwen. He is a nephew of Revs. W. H. and H. A. Graham, of the London Conference, and is of Scottish descent. He was educated at Harvard Collegiate, Toronto, Victoria College and Harvard University, became professor at the Wesleyan, Montreal, in 1914, enlisted in 1915 and went overseas in 1916. He was chaplain of the Fort Garry Horse, Canadian Cavalry Brigade, in France. He deals with fundamental principles and has left a deep impression on the delegates.

Miss Tillie M. Wood, Ivanhoe, has been ceaseless in her attention to the needs of the delegates.

The school was favored this year by the presence of Miss Gardiner, of Albert College.

LIQUOR TRADE TO U. S. IS HIT

Bermuda Over-did the Smuggling Business—Law is More Effective

SHIPS FULL OF BOOZE

Legitimate Cargoes of Groceries Were Held up and the Owners Protested

HAMILTON, Bermuda, July 11.—The Colonial Parliament has just passed a special law to prevent liquor smuggling from Bermuda to the United States. Anyone putting intoxicants aboard a vessel bound for American ports incurs a fine of £25 and the penalty for the second offence is £50. Local dealers who are found to be in connivance with the law-breakers are penalized and may be deprived of their licenses.

This law, which is now in effect, was brought about thanks to the reckless manner of carrying illicit operations during the past year. Not only were hiding places for "booze" in all parts of the ships utilized, but the smugglers went so far as to open up barrels of potatoes in the hold and insert whiskey bottles.

Discovery of this practice led to an outcry from local produce shippers who foresaw interference with their deliveries entailing delay and money losses. The Bermudians were concerned over the possibility of having the liners held up at New York by Federal agents to the peril of legitimate trade and the interruption of tourist traffic on which local prosperity so largely depends.

The recent capture, off the Carolina coast, of a schooner with 45 barrels of whiskey loaded here at St. Georges, also had its effect in hastening legislation.

Hear Only One Appeal From Revision Court

The County Judge gets off much more easily than the Court of Revision in the matter of appeals against the assessment. While the latter body wrestles with nearly sixteen hundred appeals, only one appeal from the Court of Revision goes to County Judge Devonne. The time for the appeal to the judge expired on Saturday.

ONLY ONE MARKER; $10.

Motorist Fined for Not Showing two License Numbers

A motorist paid $10 and costs today for not having two markers on his car. He was using only one.

Max Rich and Bernard Trilman accused of vagrancy, were remanded for ten days. G.T.R. Officer Maker made the arrest.

FORMER BELLEVILLE MAN KILLED AS CAR HITS POLE; TWO OTHERS BADLY INJURED

Reginald Lewis, a Grand Trunk telegraph operator at Colborne, formerly of Belleville was killed in a motor accident one mile from Marysville on the road leading to Deseronto on Saturday night. His two companions, Frank and William Marschall, of Marysville, were badly injured.

Lewis lost control of his car and plucked into a pole. He met almost instant death. His body was taken to Deseronto. The Marschalls were also removed to Deseronto, one not becoming conscious by midnight and being taken to Kingston General Hospital for treatment.

Lewis formerly was relieving at Marysville. Last year he lived in Belleville at 187 Victoria Ave., but of late had resided in Kingston. His widow lives in that city. He served as aviator in the war.

News of the fatality reached Belleville at 8.15 o'clock Saturday evening from Chief Bowen, of Deseronto and a request was made to get in touch with deceased relatives, Sergt. Harmon, and Sergt-Detective Trusich investigated and found that the family had removed to Kingston.

SEXTONS OF TWO CHURCHES BOTH DIE ON SAME DAY

Fate strangely linked the careers of George Edwards and Willoughby Wilkins whose deaths are today recorded. For years they had been sextons of the Anglican churches of Belleville, the former of St. Thomas' Church and the latter of Christ Church.

GEORGE EDWARDS.

After eight weeks' serious illness, George Edwards passed away on Saturday night at the Belleville Hospital. Mr. Edwards was well-known in Belleville where he had lived for many years. He was born in England and came to Canada 45 years ago. In early life he was in the service of the Grand Trunk Railway and for the past seventeen years he had been sexton of St. Thomas' Church. He was a member of Oxford Lodge, Sons of England. Surviving are his widow, two sons, William, of Belleville and George, of the G.T.R. staff, New Toronto, and two daughters, Brothers and sisters live in England.

WILLOUGHBY WILKINS.

A sudden call came to Mr. Willoughby Wilkins at his home, 83 Octavia street. He was stricken this morning with a heart attack and expired in a few moments. Born in Berkshire, England, seventy-five years ago, he came to Canada at the age of thirty. He was a stationary engineer by profession and had been sexton of Christ Church for years. He was a member of the Anglican Church and was one of the oldest charter members of Oxford Lodge, Sons of England and of Misspach Lodge I.O.O.F. Surviving are two sons, Harry, of Toronto and Merrin of Belleville and five daughters, Mrs. H. Hendricks, of Spokane, Washington, Mrs. Middleton, Cobourg, Mrs. Ralph Gibson, Mrs. E. Vance and Mrs. E. Youker, all of Belleville. Brothers and sisters live in England.

HIS LIFE RUINED BY DYSPEPSIA

Until He Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES" The Wonderful Fruit Medicine

MR. FRANK HALL

Wyeval, Ontario.

"For some two years, I was a sufferer from Chronic Constipation and Dyspepsia.

I tried every remedy I heard of without any success, until the wife of a local merchant recommended 'Fruit-a-tives'.

I procured a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and began the treatment, and my condition commenced to improve immediately.

The Dyspepsia ceased to be the burden of my life as it had been, and I was freed of Constipation.

I feel that I owe a great debt to 'Fruit-a-tives' for the benefit I derived from them."

FRANK HALL.

50c a box, 5 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Local Orangemen March on Brighton

"The Glorious Twelfth" will be celebrated by local Orangemen at Brighton tomorrow. The "process" starts from this city by the early train. Hastings' Protestant societies will "walk" at Stirling and the Prince Edward organizations at Picton.

PORCUPINE IS "GUEST"

Pointed Animal is At Present at Y.M.C.A. Here

In the basement of the Y.M.C.A. is housed today a visitor to Belleville, viz., a porcupine. It was captured by Mr. C. McKenzie near Belleville General Hospital.

Mr. B. F. Jennings is in Rochester, N. Y., attending the funeral of his mother, Mrs. J. W. Jennings. A daughter, Miss Nellie Jennings also survives.

Miss Mildred Milling, Miss Eileen Cook, Mrs. Miss Elizabeth Armitage, Miss Chantiqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barber and Mr. Mitchell from Rochester, N.Y., week end with Mrs. M. Donald Street.

Mr. Ira Parks and son, Lawrence and son, Miss Mary town, N.Y., visited Mr. William Warren's.

Miss Marguerite Crovet Hospital, New York expected to arrive in to spend her vacation parents, Mr. and Mrs. ton.

Mrs. A. B. Terry, of Tuesday in town with Meagher on her way to spend two months with Mrs. Stanley Dancy.

Mrs. Sidney Littlewood, who has been the sister, Mrs. W. G. Swain has returned to Newburgh guest of her sister Mr. worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miss Bernice Foltz, spent Dominion Day, Mr. and Mrs. John F. The Misses Anna and man, of Belleville, spent the guests of Miss Wilson.

Mrs. George Vanaist, Misses Leah and E are spending a couple relatives in Hamilton's.

Mrs. John Reid, My was been spending the month with her sister Hinch, and other friends in Napanee, En vicinity, left last Wednesday, accompanied as by Miss Hinch.

"WHITE STRIKE" ALONG NEW

Italian Workers But "Soldiers Job."

NO WORK; DE

Tied up the Court as if They Had Out

ROME, July 11. "white strike" of the of Italy produced an innovations in labor workers kept their not normally did not ce "soldiered on the extent that in mass abstention from work wrought greater dan

The strike besides ordinary employes in administration included forces, which in Italy the telephone and employes would prefer for work in the "soldier" along with the practically nothing, o'clock, when all various ministries at labor meeting.

The whole of the tration would then be for several hours, cases it extended for Besides the mass would be local meetings various departments, pence of the time of

The greatest public was caused by the postal employes, including and telephone sal was threatened the ed the daily labor me threat only partially restoring discipline. vice was practically Persons would attempt centrals for hours an give it up in despair, a central operator wo there was never a gua connection wanted wo

The letter-carriers ad in the "white strike" another became fill another letter. The emptied when it satis of the man assigned. The service was compl Premier Giolitti gas all adhering to the must be punished. Ac 100 were discharged, in Milan, 140 in Nap numbers elsewhere.

NAPANE

Miss Mildred Milling, Miss Eileen Cook, Mrs. Miss Elizabeth Armitage, Miss Chantiqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barber and Mr. Mitchell from Rochester, N.Y., week end with Mrs. M. Donald Street.

Mr. Ira Parks and son, Lawrence and son, Miss Mary town, N.Y., visited Mr. William Warren's.

Miss Marguerite Crovet Hospital, New York expected to arrive in to spend her vacation parents, Mr. and Mrs. ton.

Mrs. A. B. Terry, of Tuesday in town with Meagher on her way to spend two months with Mrs. Stanley Dancy.

Mrs. Sidney Littlewood, who has been the sister, Mrs. W. G. Swain has returned to Newburgh guest of her sister Mr. worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miss Bernice Foltz, spent Dominion Day, Mr. and Mrs. John F. The Misses Anna and man, of Belleville, spent the guests of Miss Wilson.

Mrs. George Vanaist, Misses Leah and E are spending a couple relatives in Hamilton's.

Mrs. John Reid, My was been spending the month with her sister Hinch, and other friends in Napanee, En vicinity, left last Wednesday, accompanied as by Miss Hinch.

Ready-made Medicin no physician for ordi You have at hand a Thomas' Electric Oil, solds sore throat, bron it is invaluable, for bruises, sprains it is while for cuts, sores a is an unquestionable h no testimonial other h Cana that will satisfy a effectiveness.

"WHITE STRIKE" ALONG NEW LINES

Italian Workers Did Not Quit But "Soldiered on the Job."

NO WORK; DREW PAY
Tied up the Country as Badly as if They Had All Gone Out

ROME, July 11.—The recent "white strike" of the state employees of Italy produced another series of innovations in labor disputes. The workers kept their positions and nominally did not cease to work but all "soldiered on the job" to such an extent that in many cases total absence from work would not have brought greater damage.

The strike besides involving the ordinary employees in the state administration included the post-office forces, which in Italy comprises both the telephone and telegraph. The employees would present themselves for work in the morning and "soldier" along with their work, getting practically nothing done until 11 o'clock, when all would leave the various ministries and offices for a labor meeting.

The whole of the state's administration would then be at a standstill for several hours, while in some cases it extended for the whole day. Besides the mass meetings, there would be local meetings held in the various departments, all at the expense of the time of the government.

The greatest public inconvenience was caused by the attitude of the postal employees, including the telegraph and telephone staffs. Dismissal was threatened those who attended the daily labor meeting but that threat only partially succeeded in restoring discipline. Telephone service was practically at a standstill. Persons would attempt to get the centrals for hours and would finally give it up in despair. Occasionally, a central operator would answer but there was never a guarantee that the connection would be given.

The letter-carriers also participated in the "white strike." The street letter-boxes became "too full for another letter." They were only emptied when it satisfied the whim of the man assigned for the work. The service was completely disorganized.

Miss Ida Fox of Delhi, has returned to her home for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, was guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Riordan, Sr.

Miss Jean Burns of Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burns. Mr. and Mrs. O. Litchburn and son, of Stanstead, Que., are visiting Mrs. Litchburn's brother, Mr. C. I. Ross. Mr. Allen Hallstone is spending a week with relatives in Frankford.

Miss Riordan, of Belleville, is visiting her brother, Colonel Riordan. Mr. Charles McDonald, of Brockville, and Mr. Harry McDonald of Toronto, are spending a couple of weeks in Madoc.

Mrs. John MacDonald has returned home after spending the past two weeks in Belleville, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. McGuire, who has been ill.

Miss Aileen Higgs is in Belleville this week attending the summer school. She was sent as the representative of the Epworth League of the Methodist church. Miss Mabel Cox is also in attendance.

Mrs. A. Osborne and daughter, Helen, have returned home after spending ten days with the former's sisters, at Bancroft. She was accompanied home by her two nieces, Miss Lilian Debye and Miss Irene Drummond.

Two Remarkable Field Crops. Kingston—Two of the finest field crops in this district are two which are on the Asylum farm. One of a large field of ensilage corn, which had made remarkable growth, and which promises to be a record crop. The other is a field of peas and oats, which abuts Lake Ontario Park and which is so stout and tall that the grain is lodging. The other crops on the farm are of good quality and show splendid progress.

Mrs. George Vanalstine and daughters, Misses Leah and Betty and Jean, are spending a couple of weeks with relatives in Hamilton and St. Catharines.

Mrs. John Reid, Myrtle, Man., who has been spending the past eight months with her sister, Miss Lucy Hinch, and other friends and relatives in Napanee, Enterprise, and vicinity, left last Wednesday for her home, accompanied as far as Toronto by Miss Hinch.

Ready-made Medicine.—You need no physician for ordinary ills when you have at hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. For coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchial troubles, it is invaluable. For scalds, burns, bruises, sprains it is unsurpassed, while for cuts, sores and the like it is an unquestionable healer. It needs no testimonial other than the use, and that will satisfy anyone as to its effectiveness.

SIR GEORGE H. PERLEY, Canadian High Commissioner in London, who presided at the Dominion Day Dinner, the largest and most successful ever held there. It was attended by many distinguished persons including Hon. A. Meighen, Duke of Connaught, the Japanese Ambassador, Sir Arthur Currie, and the Hon. Hugh Guthrie. He is on his way home, and a successor is rumored.

HORSE WADED INTO MARSH AND SINKS TO HEAD AND NECK

Kingston—One evening recently Ald. Sargent was motoring along the road running round the marsh this side of Collin's Bay when he heard the whinnying of a horse as if it were in distress. Getting out of his car he picked his way through the rushes surrounding the marsh until he located the source of the sound. A horse had waded out into the marsh and had sunk in the soft earth till only his head and neck were visible. Just at this time the people were coming out of church at Collin's Bay and Ald. Sargent notified them of the horse's plight. With ropes and pulleys they extricated the frightened animal and Ald. Sargent has since seen the animal on high and dry land apparently none the worse for its experience.

MADOC

Miss Ida Fox of Delhi, has returned to her home for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, was guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O'Riordan, Sr.

Miss Jean Burns of Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burns. Mr. and Mrs. O. Litchburn and son, of Stanstead, Que., are visiting Mrs. Litchburn's brother, Mr. C. I. Ross. Mr. Allen Hallstone is spending a week with relatives in Frankford.

Miss Riordan, of Belleville, is visiting her brother, Colonel Riordan. Mr. Charles McDonald, of Brockville, and Mr. Harry McDonald of Toronto, are spending a couple of weeks in Madoc.

Mrs. John MacDonald has returned home after spending the past two weeks in Belleville, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. McGuire, who has been ill.

Miss Aileen Higgs is in Belleville this week attending the summer school. She was sent as the representative of the Epworth League of the Methodist church. Miss Mabel Cox is also in attendance.

Mrs. A. Osborne and daughter, Helen, have returned home after spending ten days with the former's sisters, at Bancroft. She was accompanied home by her two nieces, Miss Lilian Debye and Miss Irene Drummond.

Two Remarkable Field Crops. Kingston—Two of the finest field crops in this district are two which are on the Asylum farm. One of a large field of ensilage corn, which had made remarkable growth, and which promises to be a record crop. The other is a field of peas and oats, which abuts Lake Ontario Park and which is so stout and tall that the grain is lodging. The other crops on the farm are of good quality and show splendid progress.

Mrs. George Vanalstine and daughters, Misses Leah and Betty and Jean, are spending a couple of weeks with relatives in Hamilton and St. Catharines.

Mrs. John Reid, Myrtle, Man., who has been spending the past eight months with her sister, Miss Lucy Hinch, and other friends and relatives in Napanee, Enterprise, and vicinity, left last Wednesday for her home, accompanied as far as Toronto by Miss Hinch.

Ready-made Medicine.—You need no physician for ordinary ills when you have at hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. For coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchial troubles, it is invaluable. For scalds, burns, bruises, sprains it is unsurpassed, while for cuts, sores and the like it is an unquestionable healer. It needs no testimonial other than the use, and that will satisfy anyone as to its effectiveness.

BUILDING COSTS DROP ONE-FIFTH

Slight Slackening in June Construction, but Boom is Expected

Building operations throughout Canada for the month of June showed a falling off from May by $22,700, according to figures published by MacLean Buildings Reports Limited. Contracts made in June were $29,436,000, compared with $28,359,500 in May. Building activity for the first six months of the year compares very favorably with the same period of previous years, the total investment represented in new buildings up to July 1st of 1921 being $111,783,500 which is 8 per cent. ahead of the showing at the end of the corresponding period of a year ago. Residential building continues to be active, the contracts let during June for buildings of this nature reaching $7,943,500, or 30 per cent. of the total. Business buildings amounted to $16,027,500, or 37.6 per cent.; industrial buildings reached $485,700, or 1.7 per cent., and public works and utilities $8,008,700, or 30.4 per cent.

The table following shows the building for June, according to provinces:

Province	No. of Projects	Value
Ontario	1,027	$7,504,800
Quebec	350	$4,861,100
British Columbia	292	$3,931,500
Alberta	167	$2,776,000
Manitoba	251	$2,147,000
Saskatchewan	103	$1,188,100
Nova Scotia	69	$1,150,000
New Brunswick	35	$68,000
P. E. Island	5	$19,000

Total for Dominion... 2,289 $26,436,800

The wholesale price index of 48 building materials declined 4.4 points during the month, making a total drop of 23.5 per cent. from the high building cost of May, 1920. Architects report that in many instances bids are being received from contractors at a lower price than the architect's estimates, and this indicates that material and labor costs have receded to a point where a substantial increase in activity may be expected.

TWO AND ONE-HALF CARS PER MINUTE

Oshawa—On Sunday night last, a pedestrian standing on King St., took enough interest to count the number of cars passing along the thoroughfare. He counted for about half an hour during which time, the cars averaged two and one-half per minute going along the highway. In dollars and cents, the value of the cars would make a substantial total, while it furthermore would be difficult to figure out, just what the wear and tear cost and damage bill would be in the course of a day, on account of the dilapidated state of the pavement on the street.

PORTER ELECTROCUTED

Kingston—A telephone message received in Kingston stated that Marshall McQuail, aged fifty, porter at the Campbell House of that town, was found dead during the morning in the cellar. It is thought he was electrocuted as he held a flexible cord, attached to a socket.

LADY PATRICIA RAMSAY AT BAGSHOT PARK.

Captain and Lady Patricia Ramsay, who had previously arrived at Clarence House from Paris, were the guests of the Duke of Connaught last month at Bagshot Park, where there was a small party for Ascot, Lord and Lady Somers, Lord Carnegie, Sir Philip and Lady Cheswode and Sir Hill Child. This was the first Ascot party at Bagshot for many years past. It is expected that the Crown Prince of Sweden and his elder children will come to England shortly on a private visit to the Duke of Connaught.

LORD MAYOR O'NEILL, of Dublin, one of the Sinn o'Pin leaders who conferred with De Valera in the recent Mansion House gathering.

Struck a Bird. Brockville—When the International Limited arrived at Brockville one of the taxicab drivers at the stand nearby picked from the pilot of the locomotive a bird which had been struck by the train in its flight and which had received injuries which prevented its escape from the pilot.

Gets Hero Medal.

Frederick McElwain, of Cornwall, who saved Felix Boucher, of the same town, from drowning in the Cornwall canal last December, has been awarded the medal of the Royal Canadian Humane Society which will be presented to him shortly by Mayor Chisholm.

Three New Text Books.

When the public schools of Ontario open next fall the scholars will be brought face to face with three new textbooks, the geography, history of Canada and history of England. The prices, however, will be as at present. The Canadian Stationer and Book Trade Journal, a publication which has just made its bow to the public, quotes officials of the Ontario Department of Education as saying that the shortage of school textbooks last autumn will not be repeated in the coming fall.

MARMORA

Miss Jean Thomson was in Toronto for the week end. Miss Muriel Jones, of Copper Cliff, is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Jones.

Miss Berniaut, who was milliner for Mrs. M. Crawford for the past season, left last week for Toronto. The unusually hot weather has made Crowe Lake more popular than ever this season. Among those who have recently gone there are Mr. F. Morse and family of Rochester, Mr. Jas. Hodge and family of Oakville and Miss Alice Wilson and Graeme Mackenzie are opening their cottage and Mrs. Mackenzie and daughters will join them in a few days. Nearly all from the villa, a who have cottages at the Lake have also opened them now, but even the lake affords little relief from the present intense heat.

Williams Remains as Head.

Ogdensburg, N.Y.—C. E. Williams who for two terms was the efficient and capable president of the Ogdensburg, N.Y., chamber of commerce and has been acting president since his last term expired, has been prevailed upon to continue in office. Mr. Williams consented to continue on condition that the directors make a strong effort to secure another capable executive as soon as possible to relieve him.

DIED.

DIGWEED—In Belleville on Saturday, July 9th, 1921, Alfred Digweed, aged 45 years. Funeral from his late residence, 4 Wicket St., on Monday, July 11th at 2:30 p.m. Service at the house at 2 o'clock. Interment in Belleville cemetery.

CALLS LAYMEN TO ASSIST HIM

Postmaster General of Great Britain Decides on New Policy

TO CHASE DEFICIT
On Revenue of Seventy Million Pounds There Should Be No Losses

LONDON, June 21.—(By Mail)—The Postmaster-General has called upon the business men of Great Britain to aid him in solving the problem of how to operate the postal, telegraph and telephone services efficiently and without a deficit.

A council of business men has been appointed to assist in the management of the department. H. Gordon Selridge the American merchant in London is one of the 19 appointees. The others include bank directors, presidents of Chambers of Commerce, railroad managers and other leaders of industry. One is a newspaper proprietor, Viscount Burnham of the London Daily Telegraph.

The Post office Department estimates for the current year show a deficit of $3,500,000. The Postmaster-General had proposed to cover this by increasing the rates on the second class mail but now this project has been abandoned.

The question why the department should show a loss has been the subject of much debate in the newspapers. The department has a monopoly in the United Kingdom of the mails, telegraphs and telephones, thus making it the greatest business in the country. Yet, on a combined revenue of 270,000,000 a year it has been run at a loss. One writer has attributed the deficit to the doubling of the penny postage on letters which took place during the war and its retention since.

FLOCK OF SHEEP WITH HEAVY COAT

Port Hope—A flock of sheep which have not been clipped for three seasons may be seen out in Hope Township. These poor animals are said to be a pitiful sight, carrying three seasons' accumulation of dirt along with the wool. Even if the wool is not valuable the poor animals should be looked after. How is it that a good all-wool suit cannot be bought except at a price beyond most of us while the good wool is not used, asks the Port Hope Guide.

SIX HORSES IN BROCKVILLE WERE STRICKEN BY HEAT

Brockville—Six horses, used by the Central Canada Coal Co. in the coal carting business, were stricken with the heat and dropped in their tracks while carting grate coal from the steamer Isabella H. to the gas house. Dr. McAlpine, veterinary surgeon, and assistants, worked hard throughout the entire night, all but one of the animals were said to be out of danger.

ROME HAS 2-CENT CIGAR

Government There Says it Has the Goods—War on Profiteers

ROME, July 11.—Somewhat the Italian government has solved the problem of a cheap national cigar. Prices of tobacco have been soaring to such luxurious heights that the ordinary cigar smoker could not purchase. Accordingly, experts were assigned the task of getting up a new cigar. They have just announced their accomplishment of the task. The new cigar will soon be put on the market and will sell for two cents. It will resemble the Pittsburgh stogie in shape.

An Oil of Merit.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the curative qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

MAKING MEN
In Physique, Mind and Character

This is what we are doing along the broad lines of education and training of

ALBERT COLLEGE
Belleville, Ontario

This residential school, established 64 years ago, prepares young men and women for University, Ministry, Teaching or Commercial careers. Courses in music, expression, physical culture and art. Seven-acre athletic field. Sports encouraged.

SCHOOL RE-OPENS SEPT. 14TH.
For calendar, write to—

Rev. E. N. Baker, M.A., D.D., Principal, Belleville, Ontario.

WEDDING BELLS

MATTHEWS—RICHARDSON
On Wednesday, June 29th at ten o'clock there was solemnized a very pretty wedding at the home of the bride's parents, when Bessie Leigh, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Richardson became the wife of Edgar Wm. Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Matthews, Stirling. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Archer, of Stirling. Immediate friends only being present.

POWELL—MCDONALD

Grandview Farm on the Kingston Road was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Dora Helena, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. McDonald, was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. R. Powell, of Peterboro, at 12 o'clock, Wednesday, July 6th.

About 50 guests were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. E. C. Moddie, an old pastor of Kingston Road Methodist Church, and took place on the verandah under an arch of flowers and evergreens.

The bride looked charming in her wedding dress of white satin and georgette, trimmed with silver beads, wearing a coronet of white satin and tulle veil, and carrying a bouquet of roses. Miss Ruth Jones of Belleville General Hospital, acted as bridesmaid and was attired in a beautiful dress of white Jersey silk, and carried a bouquet of carnations, whilst the groom was supported by his brother, Morley, of Peterboro. The bride was given away by her father. The groom's gift to the bride was a dainty sunburst of pearls, to the bridesmaid an opal bar-pin, and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links. The large number of very beautiful and costly gifts revealed the high esteem with which the bride is held by her many friends and neighbors who knew her.

MCCRIMMON—BADGLEY

A wedding of much interest to many Pictonians and residents in the vicinity of Bethel, on account of the bride being recently a student at P.C.I. and a Prince Edward county girl, was consummated at Belleville, June 23, the contracting parties being Miss Mabel Badgley, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Badgley formerly of Bethel, and Mr. Samuel Norman McCrimmon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. McCrimmon of Mountain Grove. The ceremony took place at eleven a.m. the Rev. Mr. Mutton officiating. The winsome bride was attired in a gown of white silk crepe de chine, heavily embroidered and tulle veil surmounted by a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore the groom's gift, a pearl necklace, and carried a sheaf of white carnations. The charming bridesmaid was Miss Inez Osborne of Picton, wearing a gown of silver striped white voile with beautiful hand made lace on bodice and sleeves. She carried a sheaf of pink carnations. The best man was Mr. John McCrimmon, brother of the groom. The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Evelyn Smith, of Belleville, a cousin of the bride. After the signing of the register a buffet luncheon was served from a beautifully decorated table, centered by the wedding cake. The house was abloom and very fragrant with seasonal blossoms, one huge bowl of pond lilies commanding particular attention, being unusually large specimens. The display of table linen, cut glass, china, silver

COLBORNE

Colborne—The Colborne School Board has increased the salaries of teachers by about $1,200 which will mean approximately a two mill advance in the school levy.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Parties disturbing gates, wire fences, or fruit trees, on the southeast quarter of lot Twenty-three in the 8th Concession of Sidney, known as the McIntosh Farm, if located, will be prosecuted.

WM. MULLETT, Owner.
J6-4td-4tw

"BRINGING UP FATHER" BY GEORGE McMANUS.

RUINED SPEPSIA

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Fruit Medicine

FRANK HALL

Wyvale, Ontario. 10 years, I was a chronic Constipation and remedy I heard of, until the wife said 'I had been, and ceased to be the same as it had been, and benefit I derived.

gemen on Brighton

Twelfth" will be a social Orangenam at 7. The "proceeds" city by the early Protestant societies at Stirling and the organizations at Picton.

IS "GUEST"

is At Present at Y. Here at of the Y.M.C.A. a visitor to Belleville. It was captured near Belleville.

OLE; INJURED

Kingston General

was relieving at Victoria Ave. but of in Kingston. His at city. He served war.

S SAME DAY

armid, Toronto and of Saskatchewan.

BY WILKINS.

came to Mr. Wil- at his home, 83 was stricken this heart attack and ex- moments. Born in land, seventy-five he to Canada at the was a stationary session and had been Church for years. of the Anglican one of the oldest of Oxford Lodge, and of Misspeth Surviving are two Toronto and Mervin five daughters, Mrs. Spokane, Washington, Cobourg, Mrs. s. E. Vancor and all of Belleville. ers live in England.

3 MASKED MEN STIR KINGSTON SHOT IS FIRED

Alarm is Phoned Police That Strangers Were Putting on Masks

BICYCLE SQUAD COMES Whole Neighborhood is Out to Help in Capture Which Falls

KINGSTON, July 7.—The Standard today contains the following: Three masked men caused considerable excitement among the residents of the vicinity of the corner of Colborne and Clergy streets yesterday morning shortly after 2 o'clock, and the police followed them so closely through the backyards of that district that Officer Fitzgerald fired a shot after one of them. The men escaped in the labyrinth of yards and back fences, despite the fact that Officer Fitzgerald followed his shot as closely as possible and other officers who had joined in the chase made a thorough search of all the premises in the block bounded by Clergy, Queen, Barrie and Colborne streets.

Later Tuesday afternoon three strangers were noticed by residents loafing about the streets in the vicinity and one woman approached one of them and asked him what he wanted there. He answered that it was none of her business and passed on down the street. Later another of the trio passed down Colborne and the same lady watched him closely as he passed her door. He remarked to her that he did not care if she did gaze at him. These incidents were talked about among the residents and caused suspicion among some of them that all was not well and that something might happen. They reached the cars of Howard Marshall and he tipped off the police to the possibilities and during the early hours of the night several visits were made to the vicinity by members of the bicycle squad.

Men Donned Masks. After two o'clock Mrs. Jacobs, who lives near the corner of Colborne and Clergy, gave the alarm that three men were in her back yard and were changing their clothes and donning black masks. This word reached W. J. Vince, who had been awakened by Mrs. Vince who had heard a noise nearby, and he phoned the police. In the meantime Officer Fitzgerald on a bicycle had been patrolling the neighborhood and he reached the corner as Mrs. Jacobs shouted her alarm. He drew his gun and made his way through an alleyway to the Jacobs' yard, and from there he was about to scale the fence into the third yard a man appeared on the fence between the third yard and the fourth one, and Fitzgerald called on him to halt.

Officer Fired at Man. The man continued to make his way to the top of the fence and then the officer fired at him. At that time he was about seventy-five feet from him. The man dropped over the fence out of sight and Fitzgerald continued his climb. He rapidly scaled the fence and found a man.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell and Beaujeu had responded to the alarm sent in by W. J. Vince, and they with a number of taxi drivers and the residents who had turned out commenced a search which included every yard and outbuilding in the block. Not a trace of the men could be found nor was there anything to indicate how they had made their quick get away from the block. The taxi drivers who had followed the police to the spot and had immediately tendered their services in the search, were sent scurrying around the adjacent district with orders to run down and gather in anyone they might meet. Their search did not meet with any result, and the mystery is how the men escaped from the block so quickly.

CHILD OF 6 WEEKS DIES Cleo White, six-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White, 59 Wharf Street, died Wednesday evening. The funeral was held this afternoon at Belleville cemetery. Rev. Ven. Archdeacon Beamish officiating.

London's restaurant and hotel keepers protested against what they describe as the "fanatical prohibition attitude" of the committee recently appointed by the Government to consider the Licensing regulations. About 15,000 Canadians visited Port Huron on the occasion of their Centennial celebration.

FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCOMMODATION FOR HUNDREDS WHO SEEK RELIEF IN BAY BRINGS CRITICISM OF CITY COUNCIL

Water, water everywhere, and scarcely a place to swim in! That is the situation as far as hundreds of Belleville people see it. Absolutely no accommodation for those who seek relief from the heat in the enjoyment of swimming or bathing!

The public has been left to pick out spots for recreation and swimming and perhaps in doing so have run counter to city ordinances, for the city has not this year set aside any of the waterfront on the river for the use of bathers, nor has a dollar been spent for their accommodation.

There is a strong agitation which is backed up by all classes that the council should take some steps to make Belleville's waterfront accessible for bathing purposes. In only a couple of spots is it safe for non-swimmers to enter the water. Many for instance use the new dock, a shed there being used as a dressing station, but this place is only suitable for good swimmers.

TRADE WITHIN EMPIRE URGED

Statement to British Premiers on German Reparations

Statement to British Premiers on German Reparations

LONDON, July 7.—Sir Robert Horne, Chancellor of the Exchequer, made a statement to the Conference of Premiers this morning concerning German reparations, pointing out what the United Kingdom and the various Dominions and colonies might expect from them.

In the absence of the British Prime Minister, Mr. Lloyd George, and Gen. Jan. Christian Smuts, the South African Premier, who were attending the conference on the Irish situation, the session was robbed of much of its interest. Later, the premiers attended a luncheon of the British Empire Exhibition, at which Sir Robert Horne presided.

In his speech the Chancellor of the Exchequer suggested that the commerce of the Empire required all the encouragement and incentive it could be given, and impressed upon his hearers the importance of the exchange of commodities between the different parts of the empire.

Premier Hughes of Australia, spoke of the necessity for improvement of communications between the Dominions and the United Kingdom. He concluded:

"Unless this country can produce coal at a price which will enable it to compete with the rest of the world, Empire exhibition or no exhibition, the greatness of this country must pass away."

THE MARCHMONT HOME. The manager of the Marchmont Home, 193 Moira St., Belleville, is expecting a party of English children both boys and girls, ranging in age from six to thirteen, about August 1st next. He would be very glad indeed to send an application form to anyone willing to offer a good home and kindly treatment to one of these children. They are in most cases either fatherless or orphaned and have had a good Christian training in the Liverpool Home or London Home in England. Please apply to the manager, 193 Moira St.

The value of building permits issued in Windsor last month amounted to $1,442,755.

HEAT AND FOG AT PETAWAWA PUT GUNNERS OUT OF ACTION

The 34th Battery, Major R. J. E. Graham, O. C., returned from Petawawa early today with stories of the tremendous heat and mist there which nearly made firing practice impossible.

The unit left here early Saturday noon, arriving at Petawawa at noon. Gun-laying and prize-taking examinations were held that afternoon. On Sunday the men had nothing to do except stables and most of them enjoyed the fine bathing facilities in the Ottawa, the beach

BERRIES

There was a big berry market today. Red and blue raspberries eased to 25c per box, the black berries running at 30c. Red currants sold for 10c per box, black currants, 20c, cherries 12 1/2c, gooseberries, 10c, huckleberries, 25c. Green peas brought 25c quart and potatoes 50c to 60c peck.

Mr. B. L. Hymán, one of the Harbor Commissioners, has done more for the swimmers of Belleville than the whole city—he has provided a ladder reaching from the water's edge to the top of the dock.

A citizen suggested last evening that there might be two swimming beaches—one on the east side, east of the grand junction dock and the other at or near Zwick's Island for the

Some Fish

Inack Walton's disciples are still angling! Ald. W. A. Woodley, who has been somewhat of a fisherman now and then, stepped into fame yesterday by landing a four-pound four-ounce bass in Prince Edward County waters. The fish specimen measured 21 inches from nose to tail.

OBITUARY

MRS. JAMES COOK. Mrs. James Cook, wife of James Cook, 5 Erie street, died Wednesday afternoon after an illness of about six weeks. She was the daughter of the late J. Bateman and was born in Rawdon township. She had lived in Belleville for some years and was a member of Christ Church. She was twice married, her first husband, George Simpson dying nine years ago. Mrs. Cook was 69 years of age. Besides the husband there survive two brothers, James and John Bateman, and one sister.

The remains were today taken to Springbrook, her former home. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m.

FIRST FALL WHEAT. Col. Ponton has cut his first field of fall wheat on the bay shore, and will store it immediately to avoid the depredations of the voracious English sparrow, who stripped three acres of wheat last year. Whoever invents a universal poison to exterminate this pest, will deserve well of his country as the grasshopper-destroyers have done in the West. The sparrows are rapidly expelling all other birds also.

SRD LINE THURLOW. Farmers are cutting their hay. A light crop generally. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pascoe, Cecil Pascoe and wife and Percy Pascoe motored down from Whitby and visited Mr. and Mrs. A. Ruitan and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCreary at Halston for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Nicholson spent Dominion Day at Frankford. Investigation on exchange on soldiers' pay opens at Ottawa. The Chief Constables' Association convention opened in Montreal.

there being one of the best in the country. Monday they were out for firing practice but on Tuesday the fog and mist made it impossible with visibility at only a few hundred yards. Yesterday they took on a tank and apparently made very good practice on it.

The party which numbered 36 all ranks arrived back in the city today, tanned and tired, all glad the "war" was over for this year. A pay parade for these men is being held tonight.

LUNGE, BASS, ARE DYNAMITED

Dirty Work Alleged at Rice Lake, Famous for Its Fishing

VANDALS AT WORK Spoil Sport for Decent Fishermen According to Gore's Landing Report

GORE'S LANDING, July 7.—The broiling weather which has heated the waters of the lake to lukewarmness has been bad for fishing. Lunge and bass have poor appetites these days, and for the most part lie deep down. Visitors have not of late had the sport they anticipated, but a cool spell will once more make the finny denizens voracious. Fish seem to be pretty plentiful in Rice Lake, whose weed beds have long been famous for the monster maskalonge and big green bass which frequent them. That gamest of fish, the black bass, is also in evidence. The pickerel, unknown in Rice Lake until it was introduced by the Government a few years back, is as yet a not infrequent catch, though most of them seem to be small.

OPEN THE BAY BRIDGE BUT CLOSE UP STREETS ON WEST BELLEVILLE SIDE

Local men declare that considerable damage is done to the maskalonge spawners by the Government's lowering of the lake at the Trent Canal to accommodate some neighboring farmers, in the springtime. Unfortunately, too, netting and fishing out of season and even dynamiting was practiced this spring and early summer by unscrupulous people living along the shores of Rice Lake. Long before the legal date maskalonge and bass were being taken from the lake and carted off to neighboring towns for sale. It is, of course, illegal to sell game fish like lunge or bass at any time. This sort of vandalism has been going on at many another Ontario lake, which settlers are fast denuding of its fish.

Hard Task for Wardens. One of the economies of the Ontario Government has been to cut down the number of game wardens in the province from about 133 to 40. It is true that the 40 are competent men and better paid than formerly, but the task of efficiently patrolling the woods and waters of Ontario is beyond the capacity of so small a force.

The fish and game of this province not only afford sport to a large number of residents, but attract thousands of American tourists annually. The average American fisherman does not take a heavy toll of the fish, for he can't very well take them home. But the prospect of fishing makes Ontario's lakes and streams particularly attractive to residents of the crowded States, who come back year after year to enjoy the sport, have a holiday and incidentally to leave in the aggregate a very large sum of money in Canada.

Five Injured Will Recover. In the Smith car were, besides Smith, Everett Bell, Trent Road, Belleville, Joseph Hart, of Belleville, a man named Ellis, of Trenton and another man whose name was not known to Smith.

The five were taken to Dr. Cronk's office and treated for their injuries. Dr. Cronk did not think any of them were seriously hurt and believed that all would recover. Their injuries are bruises and cuts.

The charge against the Toronto motorist was today adjourned by Magistrate Masson for a week.

SIX NURSES GIVEN DIPLOMAS TODAY

Six graduate nurses of Belleville General Hospital received their diplomas at four o'clock this afternoon at the graduation exercises held at the institution. Those who have completed their training are: Alice Fargoy, Helen Fargoy, Mina Diamond, Ina Richards, Effie McMullen, and Hilda Collier.

TO PATROL FORESTS.

COL. REDFORD MULOOCK, D.S.O., formerly of the Naval Air Service, who is taking two airships of the "blimp" type to the Lake of the Woods district, to be used for the patrol of forests as well as aerial photography.

FINDS SOUTHERN STATES MUCH INTERESTED IN CANADA

After nearly five months' lecturing on a southern Chautauqua circuit Mrs. Genevieve Lipsett Skinner, of Winnipeg, a western newspaper woman, is spending a few days in Toronto en route home. Mrs. Skinner reports the liveliest interest in Canada and Canadians in the southern States, and from the way they speak of Canadian soldiers you'd think we'd won the entire war, declares she.

Women appear to be taking growing interest in public affairs down here. In New Orleans they have a League of Women Voters, a non-party organization, and the Red Cross is quite active in its peace time programme.

Most appealing in her trip, Mrs. Skinner found the marked way in which the United States, especially New Orleans, made the most of its historical spots. She thought that Canada might do more to mark, save and make the most of such spots here. Another thing was the emphasis of the particular character of the town or centre different from other centres. Mrs. Dixon, has been awarded the annual silver loving-cup, given by the city to the citizen who has rendered the greatest unremunerated service to the city. As a labor of love Mrs. Dixon had restored Vieux Carre, the old French quarter of New Orleans. Among other places re-stated had been the house built to shelter Napoleon, if a company of gallant French gentlemen in New Orleans who set out to rescue him had achieved their purpose; the old "Absinthe House," once the resort of pirates famous in history, now a famous restaurant, where French chefs prepare beautiful meals and charge 75 cents for them; and Pontalba, the great place in Jackson Square, built by a Spanish grandee and used below as a slave market and for the slave brokers' offices, and above as quarters for the keepers who brought slaves to sell and be sold, and for the slaves themselves.

Pontalba has become the centre of the artists' quarter, studios have been built and a little theatre put in one part of the building, its success being so great that it is now necessary for an outsider to know a founder in order to obtain admission. "Even their public schools are founded on romance," declares Mrs. Skinner. "It appears that a young and highly educated Irish-American named McDonough, born in Baltimore, dared to love a daughter of the haughty Almonester family, which had built the Cathedral of St. Louis. His suit was spurned, and the signorina married to a Pontalba. McDonough then declared he would spend the rest of his life as a hermit, but would amass a great fortune, and so dispose of it that the ent citizen today. "One road at least should have been kept clear. Wellington street is closed by the contractors from Toronto, and no street is opened up as a substitute, to the great inconvenience of the taxpayers who have a right to be considered."

"If we want to encourage trade in this city," the complaint continued, "we cannot look for aid to the Department of Public Works, who appear to bite off at once more than they can digest."

FIVE HAVE MIRACULOUS ESCAPE AS CAR TURNS THREE TIMES ALL INJURED, BUT WILL RECOVER

Five Injured Will Recover. In the Smith car were, besides Smith, Everett Bell, Trent Road, Belleville, Joseph Hart, of Belleville, a man named Ellis, of Trenton and another man whose name was not known to Smith.

The five were taken to Dr. Cronk's office and treated for their injuries. Dr. Cronk did not think any of them were seriously hurt and believed that all would recover. Their injuries are bruises and cuts.

FORTY YOUTHS IN CAMP NOW

Build Swimming Raft and Diving Tower and Then Play Baseball

A VISIT TO MADOC News and Views of Camp Community—Fire-place in New Dining Hall

Forty boys landed in Camp Community on Monday, July 4. Several generous persons, among them Mrs. A. R. Symons, Messrs R. J. Wray, W. Patterson, J. Cook, J. G. Moffat, G. F. Cole, W. H. Gilbert and W. McCreary donated their cars for transporting the boys. They arrived at the camp about 11 o'clock and were at once assigned to their tents. When the cars were going back to Belleville they took back sixteen boys who had come out on June 20th. After dinner the boys spent a large part of the afternoon building a swimming

ITALIAN PROFITERS ARE POOR LOSERS

ROME, June 19.—(By Mail)—The struggle between buyers and sellers still continues in Italy, as it goes to the heart of the Italian shopkeeper to reduce those prices which have made his fortune since the war.

A quantity of wool has been sent to Italy from Australia, and consequently the Italian woolen merchants find a difficulty in disposing of their goods, and fine woolen stuff can now be produced for $10 a yard. The shopkeepers, however, refuse to sell this cheaper material until they have exhausted all the dearer but inferior quality cloth which they have in their shops, and continue calmly to charge from $100 to $200 for a suit of clothes.

Eight Harbor Mine-Layers Pass Brockville. Brockville—Eight harbor mine-layers built for the United States government by the DeFoe Shipbuilding Co. of Bay City, Mich., passed down the river and anchored during the night at the mouth of the Oswegatchie river in the Ogdensburg harbor. The boats proceeded for Montreal, en route to Hoboken, N.J. After reaching the coast one of the boats will be sent to Honolulu, one to Portland, Me., one to Panama, one to San Diego, one to Columbia River, one to Portland Oregon, one to Long Island and one to Sandy Hook.

F. W. Clark, Kingston, who had been employed by the C.P.R. for 42 years has retired.

Trying the diving board at Camp Community.

HE STIPPED FORTY-FIVE INTO AN OFFICE

He stepped forty-five into an office in men with their feet on one in his shirt-sleeve, bushy young man in the latest mode. "This the office of minimal Stockyards Co. Deva?"

The clerk looked at an over from head to toe. The judgment was indicated by the voice. "Name's on the door, stepped superciliously. "You in charge here?" The clerk was about to take the trouble to might think so, might "Are you in charge evenly. "Maybeso. What y "I've asked you if y this office." "Hell, yes! What for?"

The clerk's visitor "I've got a train o edge of town," explai stockyards engine did "Consigned to us." "To the Denver Te yards Company." "Name of shipper?" "West Cattle Com ry B. West." "All right. I'll take The clerk turned back His manner diamet purchase. "And she sa love to go with you, you dance like an a says—" "When?" Interrupt ly, but those who kn have guessed his voi too gentle. "I says, 'You're s der,' and—" "When?"

The man who dance turned halfway round, the cowboy over his was irritated. "When what?" he "When you goin' stock?" "In the morning." "No, sir. You'll have now. That stock has b days without water." "I'm not responsible "No, but you'll be the train ain't unload Dave. "You won't hurt 'em morning." "That's where y They're sufferin'. All of now, but they won't all if they ain't tended y "Guess I'll take a c since you say it's m replied the clerk impu "Not none," annou from Arizona. "You'll to." "Say is this my yours?"

"Mine and yours bo "I guess I can run i help from you. I'll ask me worry about you have guys coming in with hurry-up tales all cattle won't live unles gle on me. I notice me to take a little next day all right, all Dave caught at the railing which was bet the men finished the combination to open fore vaulted over. I clerk back of the nee lar and jounced him hard in his chair. "You're asleep," he got to waken you up sabs plain talk."

The clerk looked up frightened face. "Say, I got heart trouble. I voice dry as a whisp "What about that position?" asked the "I'll see to it right Presently the clerk terna in his hand, was the railroad tracks in He had quite got ove this lank youth was a make sport of. They found the swi engine of the cab plie out at the juncti said, swinging up to the men finished settled up, but withi the engine was runn freight train.

Day was breaking tumbled into bed. He with the clerk to be When the bell rang, it that he had not been tates. After he had eater

"GUNS PASS" By William MacL Copyrighted by T

He stepped forty-five into an office in men with their feet on one in his shirt-sleeve, bushy young man in the latest mode. "This the office of minimal Stockyards Co. Deva?"

The clerk looked at an over from head to toe. The judgment was indicated by the voice. "Name's on the door, stepped superciliously. "You in charge here?" The clerk was about to take the trouble to might think so, might "Are you in charge evenly. "Maybeso. What y "I've asked you if y this office." "Hell, yes! What for?"

The clerk's visitor "I've got a train o edge of town," explai stockyards engine did "Consigned to us." "To the Denver Te yards Company." "Name of shipper?" "West Cattle Com ry B. West." "All right. I'll take The clerk turned back His manner diamet purchase. "And she sa love to go with you, you dance like an a says—" "When?" Interrupt ly, but those who kn have guessed his voi too gentle. "I says, 'You're s der,' and—" "When?"

The man who dance turned halfway round, the cowboy over his was irritated. "When what?" he "When you goin' stock?" "In the morning." "No, sir. You'll have now. That stock has b days without water." "I'm not responsible "No, but you'll be the train ain't unload Dave. "You won't hurt 'em morning." "That's where y They're sufferin'. All of now, but they won't all if they ain't tended y "Guess I'll take a c since you say it's m replied the clerk impu "Not none," annou from Arizona. "You'll to." "Say is this my yours?"

"Mine and yours bo "I guess I can run i help from you. I'll ask me worry about you have guys coming in with hurry-up tales all cattle won't live unles gle on me. I notice me to take a little next day all right, all Dave caught at the railing which was bet the men finished the combination to open fore vaulted over. I clerk back of the nee lar and jounced him hard in his chair. "You're asleep," he got to waken you up sabs plain talk."

The clerk looked up frightened face. "Say, I got heart trouble. I voice dry as a whisp "What about that position?" asked the "I'll see to it right Presently the clerk terna in his hand, was the railroad tracks in He had quite got ove this lank youth was a make sport of. They found the swi engine of the cab plie out at the juncti said, swinging up to the men finished settled up, but withi the engine was runn freight train.

Day was breaking tumbled into bed. He with the clerk to be When the bell rang, it that he had not been tates. After he had eater

DODI KIDN PILL RHEUMATISM GOUT DIABETES 1927 THE

"GUNSIGHT PASS"

By William MacLeod Raine. Copyrighted by Thos. Allen.

He stepped forty-five minutes into an office in which sat two men...

The clerk looked the raw Arizona over from head to foot and back again...

"Name's on the door, ain't it?" he asked superciliously.

"You in charge?" asked Dave evenly.

"I asked you if you was running this office."

"Hell, yes! What're your eyes for?"

The clerk's visitor sniggered. "I've got a train of cattle on the edge of town," explained Dave.

"Name of shipper?" "West Cattle Company and Henry B. West."

"All right. I'll take care of 'em." The clerk turned back to his friend.

"When?" interrupted Dave calmly, but those who knew him might have guessed his voice was a little too gentle.

"I says, 'You're some little kidder.'"

"When?" "When you go in to unload my stock?"

"In the morning." "No, sir. You'll have it done right now, but they won't all be by no'nin if they ain't tended to."

"Guess I'll take a chance on that, since you say it's my responsibility," replied the clerk impudently.

"Not none," announced the man from Arizona. "You'll get busy pronto."

"Say, is this my business or yours?" "Mine and yours both."

"I guess I can run it. If I need any help from you I'll ask for it. Watch me worry about your old cows. I have guys coming in here every day with hurry-up tales about how their cattle won't live unless I get a wiggle on me. I notice they all are able to take a little nourishment next day all right, all right."

Dave caught at the gate of the ranch which was between him and the night clerk. He could not find the combination to open it and therefore vaulted over. He caught the clerk back of the neck by the collar and launched him up and down hard in his chair.

"You're asleep," he explained. "I got to waken you up before you can save plain talk."

The clerk looked up out of a white frightened face. "Say, don't do that! I got heart trouble," he said in a voice dry as a whizzer.

"What about that onloadin' proposition?" asked the Arizona.

"I'll see to it right away."

Presently the clerk, with a lantern in his hand, was going across to the railroad tracks in front of Dave.

They found the switch crew in the engine of the cab playing seven-up.

"Got a job for you. Train of cattle out at the junction," the clerk said, swinging to the cab.

The men finished the hand and settled up, but within a few minutes the engine was running out to the freight train.

Day was breaking before Dave tumbled into a cab. He had left a call with the clerk to be wakened at noon. When the bell rang, it seemed to him that he had not been asleep five minutes.

After he had eaten at the stockyards hotel he went out to have a look at his stock. He found that on the whole the cattle had stood the trip well. While he was still inspecting them a voice boomed at him a question.

"Well, young fellow, are you satisfied with all the trouble you've made me?"

He turned, to see standing before him the owner of Fifty-Four Quarter Circle brand. The boy's surprise fairly leaped from his eyes.

"Didn't expect to see me here, I reckon," the cattleman went on. "Well, I hopped a train soon as I got your first wire. Spill your story, young man."

Dave told his tale, while the ranchman listened in grim silence. When Sanders had finished, the owner of the stock brought a heavy hand down on his shoulder approvingly.

"You can ship cattle for me long as you've a mind to, boy. You fought for that stock like as if it had been your own. You'll do to take along."

"The fellow flushed with boyish pleasure. He had not known whether the cattleman would approve what he had done, and after the long strain of the trip this endorsement of his work was more to him than food or drink."

"They say I'm kinda stubborn. I didn't aim to lie down and let those guys run one over me, sir."

"Tore straightaway is money in my pocket. Do you want to go back and ride for the Fifty-Four Quarter Circle?"

"Maybe, after a while, Mr. West. I got business in Denver for a few days."

The cattleman smiled. "Most of my boys have when they hit town, I notice."

"Mine ain't that kind, I reckon. It's more stubbornness," explained Dave.

"All right. When you're finished that business I can use you."

If Dave could have looked into the future he would have known that the days would stretch into months and the months to years before his face would turn toward ranch life again.

CHAPTER XIII. The Law Puzzles Dave.

Dave knew he was stubborn. Not many men would have come on such a wild-goose chase to Denver in the hope of getting back a favorite horse, worth so little in actual cash. But he meant to move to his end intelligently.

If Miller and Doble were in the city they would be hanging out at one of the saloons or at the house. Once or twice Dave dropped in to see Chuck Weaver's place, where the sporting men from all over the continent inevitably drifted when in Denver. But he had little to expect.

"One of finding the men he wanted there. These two rats of the underworld would not attempt to fleece keen-eyed professionals. They would prey on the unprofessional."

His knowledge of their habits took him to that part of town below Lawrence Street. While he chatted with his foot on the rail, a glass of beer in front of him, he made inconspicuous inquiries of bartenders.

"Did not take him long to strike the trail. 'Two fellows I knew in the cattle country said they were comin' to Denver. Wonder if they did. One of 'em was fat guy name of Miller—kinda rolly when he walks. Other's small and has a glass eye. Called himself George Doble when I knew him.'

"Dave in here 'most every day—both of 'em. Waitin' for the Festival of Mountain and Plain to open up. Got some kinda concession. They look to yours truly like—"

The bartender pulled himself up short and polished the top of the bar vigorously. He was a gossipy soul, and more than once his tongue had got him into trouble.

"You was sayin'—"

"—that they're good speakers, the fellow says," amended the bartender, to be on the safe side.

"When I usta know 'em they pony a mighty cute little trick pony—name of Chiquito, seems to me. Ever hear 'em mention it?"

"They was fussin' about that horse today. Seems they got an offer for him and Doble wants to sell. Miller he says no."

"I'll tell 'em a friend asked for 'em. What name?"

"Yes, do. Jim Smith."

"The fat old gentleman's liable to drop in any time now. The young man hid his face against the soft, silky nose. Jim Smith, alias David Sanders, for dropping out. He did not care to have Miller know just yet who the kind friend was that had inquired for him."

But just as he was turning away a word held him for a moment. The discretion of the man in the apron was not quite proof against his habit of talk.

"They been quarrellin' a good deal together. I expect the combination is about ready to bust up," he whispered confidentially.

"Quarrellin'?" "What about?"

characteristic of him. Dave had just time to dive into a pawnbroker's shop unnoticed.

A black-haired, black-eyed salesman came forward to wait on him. The publisher cast an eye helplessly about him. It fell on a suitcase.

"Seven dollars. Dirt cheap, my friend."

"Got any telescope grips?"

The salesman produced one. Dave bought it because he did not know how to escape without.

He carried it with him while he lounged up and down the sidewalk waiting for Miller to come out of the Klondike. When the fat gambler reappeared, the range-rider led in behind him unobserved and followed him down past the Tabernacle House as far as California Street. Here they swung to the left to Fourteenth, where Miller disappeared into a rooming-house.

The amateur detective turned back toward the business section. On the way he dropped guiltily the telescope grip into a delivery wagon standing in front of a grocery. He had no use for it, and he had already spent his last cent on a white elephant on his hands.

With the aid of a city directory Dave located the livery stable within walking distance of the house where Miller was staying. Inspired perhaps by the nickel detected there, he had read, the cowboy bought a pair of goggles and a "store" collar. In this last, substituted for the handkerchief he usually wore loosely round his throat, the sixth knightly strangled himself for lack of air.

His inquiries at such stables as he found brought no satisfaction. Neither Miller nor the pinto had been seen at any of them.

Later in the evening he met Henry B. West at the St. James Hotel.

"How's that business of yours gettin' along, boy?" asked the cattleman with a smile.

"Doin' know yet. Say, Mr. West, if I had a haw's that's been stole from me, how can I get it back?"

"Some one steal a haw's from you?"

Dave told his story. West listened to a finish.

"I know a lawyer here. We'll ask him what to do," the ranchman said.

They found the lawyer at the Athletic Club. West stated the case.

"Your remedy is to replevin. If they fight, you'll have to bring witnesses to prove ownership."

"Bring witnesses from Malapi? Why, I can't do that," said Dave, staggered. "I ain't got the money. Why can't I just take the haw's? It's mine."

"The law doesn't know it's yours."

"Dave felt much depressed. Of course the chieftain would go to the sun rose and dried the moisture. Dave looked down on a town scattered up and down a gulch.

He met an ore team and asked the driver what town it was. The man looked indignantly at him.

"Why, it's Idaho Springs," he said. "Where you come from?"

Dave eased himself in the saddle. "From the Southwest."

"You was in a ways from home, I reckon you hills ain't no uncurried down there, are they?"

The cowpuncher looked over the mountains. He was among the summits as they came in sight of the day with the many blended colors of wild flowers. "W got some down there, that don't fit a lady's bodewar. Say, if I keep moavin' where'll this road take me?"

The man with the ore team gave information. It struck Dave that he had run into a blind alley.

"If you're after a job, I reckon you can find one at some of the mines. They're needin' hands," the lawyer said. "We're all right. Perhaps this was the best immediate solution of the problem. The puncher nodded farewell and rode down into the town.

Well, Bob, I done got Chiquito back though it sure looked like I wasn't going to but you never can tell. Dave and Doble got out to look over the horse.

The first one his eyes fell on was Chiquito.

CHAPTER XIII. For Murder.

Dave whistled. The pony pricked up its ears, looked round, and came straight to him. The young man hid his face against the soft, silky nose. Sanders turned away. He did not care to have Miller know just yet who the kind friend was that had inquired for him.

"Well, I'll be doggoned," that youth commented. "The little pinto sure is a wonder. Acts like he knows you mighty well."

"Ought to be trained him. Had him before Miller got him."

"Bet you hated to sell him."

"You know it." Dave moved forward to his end, the intention to get possession of the horse. He spoke in a voice easy and casual. "Say, Miller a while ago. They're talkin' about sellin' the paint haw's, him and his partner Doble. I'm to saddle up and show what Chiquito can do."

"Say, that's a good notion. I was a buyer I'd pay ten bucks more after you'd put him through that circus stunt."

"Which is Miller's saddle? When it was pointed out to him Dave examined it and pretended to disapprove. "Too heavy. Lead me a"

Dave glanced. His heart beat fast with a prescience of impending disaster. "Murder," he repeated dully.

"You're charged with the murder of George Doble last night in Denver."

The boy stared at him with horror-stricken eyes. "Doble? My God, did I kill him?" He clutched at a railing for support. The hills were sliding queerly up into the sky.

CHAPTER XIV. Ten Years.

All the way back to Denver, while the train ran down through the narrow, crooked canon, Dave's mind dwelt in a penumbra of horror. It was impossible for him to have killed Doble, he kept telling himself. He had fired back into the night without aim. He had not even tried to hit the men who were shooting at him. It must be some ghastly joke.

None the less he knew by the dull ache in his heart that this awful thing had fastened on him and that he would have to pay the penalty. He had killed a man, snuffed out his life wantonly as a result of taking the law into his own hands. The knowledge of what he had done shook him to the soul.

It remained with him in the background of his mind, up to and through his trial. What shook his nerve was the fact that he had taken a life, not the certainty of the punishment that must follow.

"Well, what's done's done. No use cryin' over the bust-up. We'd better fix up whatever's left from the smash. First off, we'll get a lawyer, I reckon."

"I gotta fix money later—twenty-six dollars," spoke up Dave timidly. "Maybe that's all he'll want."

West stared at him. "That's a awfully low price for a lawyer. He'll want more. 'I'll last as long as snowflake in you-know-where if it's like some lawyers I've met up with."

It did not take the lawyer whom West engaged long to decide on the line the defense must take. "We'll show that Miller and Doble were crooks and that they had wronged Sanders. That will count a lot with the jury," he told West. "We'll admit the killing and claim self-defense."

The day before the trial Dave was sitting in his cell cheerlessly reading a newspaper when visitors were allowed at sight. Of Emerson Crawford and Bob Hart he had heard in his throat. Tears brimmed in his eyes. Nobody could have been kinder to him than West had been, but he had been a horse-follower. He had known them many years. The kindness in coming melted his heart. He gripped their hands, but found himself unable to say anything in reply to their greetings. He was afraid to trust his voice, and he was ashamed of his emotion.

"The boys are for you strong, Dave. We all figure you done right. Steve says he wouldn't worry none if you'd got Miller too." Bob breathed on.

"That's no way to talk, son," reproved Crawford. "It's bad enough to be in a jail without you boys wantin' to see me. But don't you get downhearted. We're all right in to stand by you to a finish. It ain't as if you'd got a good man. Doble was a mean-hearted scoundrel if ever I met up with one. He's no loss to society. We're goin' to show the jury that too."

They did. By the time Crawford, Hart, and a pair of victims who had been trapped by the sharpers had looked at Miller and Doble, the jury were all in a row. They were left with the jury. It was shown that they had robbed the defendant of the horse he had trained and that he had gone to a lawyer and found no legal redress within his means. But Dave was unable to prove self-defense. Miller stuck doggedly to his story. The cowpuncher had fired the first shot. He had continued to fire until he must have seen Doble sink to the ground immediately. Moreover, the testimony of the doctor showed that the fatal shot had taken effect at close range.

Just prior to this time there had been an unusual number of killings in Denver. The newspapers had stirred up a public sentiment for stricter enforcement of law. They had claimed that both judges and juries were too easy on the gunmen who committed these crimes. Now they asked if this cowboy killer was going to be allowed to escape. Dave was tried when this wave of feeling was at its height and he was a victim of it.

The jury found him guilty of murder in the second degree. The judge sentenced him to ten years in the penitentiary.

When Bob Hart came to say goodbye before Dave was removed to Canon City, the young range-rider almost broke down. He was greatly distressed at the mistreatment that had befallen his friend.

"You gonna stay with me, Dave? You know Crawford. He goes through when he starts. Soon as there's a chance we'll hit the Corcoran for a pardon. I've got a shiner, old pal. That's what it is."

Dave nodded. A lump in his throat interfered with speech.

"The old man lent me money to buy Chiquito, and I'm gonna keep the pinto till you get out. That'll help pay your lawyer," continued Bob.

"On this money," continued Bob. "The only one that's liable to be sent up is Miller. He'll get a term for haw-stealin', I'm a liar. We got a good open-and-shut case against him."

"What's your name?" he demanded. Dave knew at once this man was an officer of the law. He knew, too, the futility of trying to escape under the pseudonym he had written on the register.

"Sanders," Dave answered. "Always been Sanders."

"So? Who are you?" "Sheriff of the county."

"What'dawnt me for?" "Murder."

ready we'll be movin' down to the penitentiary. The friends shook hands again.

CHAPTER XV. In Denver.

The warden handed him a ticket back to Denver, and with it a stereotyped little lecture of platitudes. "Your future lies before you to be made r marred by yourself, Sanders. You owe it to the Governor who has granted this parole and to the good friends who have worked so hard for it that you be honest and industrious and temperate. If you do this world will in time forget your past mistakes and give you the right hand of fellowship, as I do now."

The parole man took the fat hand proffered him because he knew the warden was a sincere humanitarian. He meant exactly what he said. Perhaps he could not help the touch of condescension. But patronage, no matter how kindly meant, was one thing this tall, straight convict could not stand. He was quite civil, but the hard, cynical eyes made the warden uncomfortable. Once or twice before he had known prisoners like this, quiet, silent men who were never insolent, but whose eyes told him that the iron had seared their souls. The voice of the warden dropped briskly to business. "Seen the book-keeper? Everything all right, I suppose."

"Yes, sir."

"Good. Well, wish you luck."

"Thanks."

The convict turned away, grave, unsmiling.

The prison officers' eyes followed him as he went. His function, as he understood it, was to win these men back to fitness for service to the society which had shut them up for their misdeeds. They were not wild beasts. They were human beings who had made a mistake. Sometimes he had been able to influence men strongly, but he felt that it had not been true of this puncher from the cow country.

Sanders walked slowly out of the office and through the door in the wall that led back to life. He was free. Tomorrow was his. All the tomorrows of all the years of his life were before him. But his heart stirred in him no emotion. As he stood in the dry Colorado sunshine his heart was quite dead.

In the earlier days of his imprisonment it had not been so. He had dreamed often of this hour. At night, in the darkness of his cell, imagination had projected picture after picture of it, vivid, colorful, set to music. But his parole had come too late. He had been in the penitentiary too long. The shadow of the prison had left its chill, had done something to him that had made him a different David Sanders from the boy who had been waiting for his parole. He would never learn to meet life eagerly as that other David Sanders had for a thousand years ago.

He followed the road down to the little station, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so. He had said of this to his partner, but he alone, especially during these first days of freedom. It was his intention to go back to Malapi, to the country he knew and loved, but he wished to pick up a job in the city for a month or two. He had a little money, and took a through train that came puffing out of the Royal Gorge on its way to the plains. Through the crowd at the Denver depot he passed into the city, moving up Seventeenth Street without definite aim or purpose. His parole had come unexpectedly, so that none of his friends could meet him even if they had wanted to do so.

BANDIT SCARE IN KINGSTON IS EASING OFF

Number of Phone Calls Received by Police is Decreasing

REPORTS OF BURGLARIES Officers are Exercising Every Precaution—Are Bandits Scared?

KINGSTON, July 9.—Last night was another quiet night as far as the bandits who have been creating so much unrest among citizens are concerned. Of course the police had many telephone calls describing suspicious looking persons at various points in the city, and relating circumstances, many of which, at other times, would pass by unnoticed, but on the whole when these calls were answered and investigated, they were found to have no connection with anything serious. The number of calls was fewer than on previous nights.

The strain has relaxed somewhat at police headquarters, but the vigilance remains the same, in fact it is more keen than ever. Because the bandits have not been heard of for a couple of nights the police are not resting in security. They have studied the methods of crooks for years, and are not being fooled by any fancied security. It is a safe bet that any clue which primes anything tangible will be followed to the bitter end.

Reports of small burglaries continue to filter through, but in respect to many of them the police are keeping guarded watch. They feel that the less that is said about these incidents the better, that the less publicity given them the better the chances of the officers for rounding up the offenders.

Despite the report given publicly late yesterday that the police are making wholesale stoppages of citizens who were about the streets after midnight and inquiring into their business, it was stated today at police headquarters that such was not the case. No such practice was ordered. It was said, though the officers are exercising their discretion and stopping any characters who were the least suspicious.

Among citizens generally there is some tendency to rest easier regarding the bandits, but many are still keyed up to a high pitch and magnify small happenings. The fact that the police were close enough on the trail of the miscreants the other night to fire at one of them is taken to indicate that the band will remain low for some time, or perhaps transfer their hunting grounds.

BIG AIR FLEET ON CHEAP BASIS

France Will Consider New Scheme Proposed by Brandy Deputy

PARIS, July 9.—A fleet of 1,000 airplanes, suitable for war, is proposed in a bill now before the Chamber of Deputies. It is planned to establish and operate these warcraft commercially so that the cost to the government would be little if any more than under its present policy.

The author of the measure, Deputy Paul Benzet, called attention to the large and expensive aviation personnel of the government, "which consumes but does not produce." Strongly advocating the creation of a great, protecting aerial force, M. Benzet, urged that the government create a corporation to operate commercially, transporting passengers and freight and establishing air-pot routes, thus training aviators, developing aviation, cementing relations with the colonies and meantime keeping the fleet ready for immediate conversion to war purposes.

HITCHCOCK GOES INTO BANKRUPTCY

NEW YORK, July 9.—Raymond Hitchcock, comedian, is bankrupt, and no one is going to get money from him except over his dead pocket-book, he asserts. His voluntary petition, filed in the Federal Court, gives his liabilities as $3,944 and assets as nothing except $150 worth of clothing.

WHAT THIS LEAGUE COSTS

Well Over $5,000,000 Spread Over 48 Nations LONDON, July 9.—The total expenses of the League of Nations for the current year have been 21,500,000 gold francs, approximately $5,312,500, and are apportioned among forty-eight members, Arthur Balfour informed the House of Commons. Great Britain's share of this expense, he said, was $260,000.

FAREWELL GARDEN PARTY AT MOIRA STREET HOME

The Home of the Friendless held their farewell garden party last evening on the grounds at the home on Moira St. Everything looked gay with the bright lights, flowers and little girls fitting in and out among the crowd selling ice cream. The proceeds realized amounted to $125. A good programme was furnished by the band and a humorous recitation was given by Mr. Barragar.

Mrs. W. A. Woodley was in charge of the garden party. Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Beckus and Mrs. Day presided over the flower and candy booth. Mrs. Lee and Miss Bone had charge of the fish pond in which all the kiddies delight. Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Lloyd dispensed the home-made cooking and soft drinks. Mrs. Parkes and Miss Hays served the ice cream.

FRANCE TO STOP GERMAN TRIALS?

Paris Will Protest at Once to Either Allies or Germans

FORCE AT LEIPZIG Another Hun Officer Who is Charged With Death of Man, Freed

PARIS, July 9.—It is probable the French Government will protest immediately either to the Allies or to Berlin and halt the judicial proceedings in Leipzig which the British press characterizes as farcical.

The Government has ordered recall of the French legal mission at Leipzig as a protest against hypocrisy of the German trials of war guilt in that city it was announced today.

It was added that France will refuse to recognize any more of the trials, which are regarded as farcical. The acquittal of General Steiner has intensified the dissatisfaction which even the desire not to complicate the task of the Wirth cabinet is not likely to quell.

The Versailles Treaty requires judgment before Allied military courts of Germans accused of having committed acts contrary to the laws and customs of war. It is true the Allies replying to Germany's request to be permitted to accomplish justice herself, decided in February, 1920, not only to furnish the lists of persons to be tried and the Spa protocol the following July ratified that procedure.

However, the idea steadily grew and when at the beginning of the conference Premier Meighen of Canada and General Smuts, South African Premier, advocated such a gathering as a substitute for an Anglo-Japanese alliance they met with almost unanimous support.

What the replies of Japan and the United States may be nobody here pretends to know. It is felt, however, that insofar as the United States is concerned there would be a great chance of its response being more favorable if the Anglo-Japanese alliance had been denounced. Should it be found that the continued existence of the alliance was standing in the way of a conference, then it is certain that some of the Dominion Premiers will press that the necessary twelve months' notice of denunciation be given at once. Meanwhile, the British press makes no attempt to disguise the fact that it regards the situation as one of the vastest moment, involving as it does, the whole future of armament and the peace of the world.

Another is freed Leipzig, July 9.—Lieutenant Laute another German officer on trial in connection with war crimes was acquitted yesterday on the charge of shooting a defenseless French captain.

WILL TRY TO FLY PACIFIC

SYDNEY, N.S.W., July 9.—An airplane flight across the Pacific ocean is to be attempted soon. It was announced by an Australian aviator, Lieut. P. J. Parer, who some time ago flew from England to Sydney.

To raise fifteen thousand pounds to finance the trans-Pacific attempt, Lieut. Parer has started on an exhibition flight around Australia. It will be possible to follow a chain of islands from Australia two-thirds of the way across, but on the Canadian side of the ocean there will be a long stretch in which there is no land.

Berries Big Market Feature

It was a regular berry market today, scarcely anything but raspberries. Prices were down considerably and the quality was much better than might be expected from the hot weather. Heavy dew is given credit for the excellence of the berries.

Blue raspberries sold at 16c to 17c per box, reds at 20c, blacks at 25c or five boxes for $1.10. Huckleberries were very plentiful at 25c quart. Cherries were down to 10c or 2 boxes for 25c. Black currants sold for 20c box or 6 for $1.00. Eggs were selling at 50 to 52c but shippers are paying only 27c and next week will put into force a cut of 2c bringing the price down to 25c per dozen. The volume of eggs is holding up beyond expectations, but the quality is lowering. Green peas sold at 20c quart, beans salable.)

SAY IDEA CAME FROM CANADIANS

Ottawa First to Make Proposals for Disarmament to London

LLOYD GEORGE ACTS Possibility of a Pacific Conference is Canvassed Eagerly in London

LONDON, July 9.—Premier Lloyd George's statement in the British House of Commons that the British Government has proposed an international conference on disarmament and that replies from Japan and the United States are anxiously awaited, confirms the announcement made in these despatches last week. In view of the British Premier's statement there can now be no harm in stating that the original proposal for such a conference came from the Canadian Government early in February last.

It was then suggested that the Dominion Government, through the Department of External Affairs, be empowered to consult with Washington, to sound it out, so to speak, on the possibility of a Pacific conference.

The proposal does not appear to have been accepted at the time, the reason being, it is understood, that there was some difficulty in getting the Pacific Dominion to decide upon what ought to be done, although it was evident from the first that the British Government was favorable to such a step.

However, the idea steadily grew and when at the beginning of the conference Premier Meighen of Canada and General Smuts, South African Premier, advocated such a gathering as a substitute for an Anglo-Japanese alliance they met with almost unanimous support.

What the replies of Japan and the United States may be nobody here pretends to know. It is felt, however, that insofar as the United States is concerned there would be a great chance of its response being more favorable if the Anglo-Japanese alliance had been denounced. Should it be found that the continued existence of the alliance was standing in the way of a conference, then it is certain that some of the Dominion Premiers will press that the necessary twelve months' notice of denunciation be given at once. Meanwhile, the British press makes no attempt to disguise the fact that it regards the situation as one of the vastest moment, involving as it does, the whole future of armament and the peace of the world.

MAILING THE BIG PAPERS

Messrs W. Leslie and T. Blackburn, the committee in charge of the fund for wrapping and mailing the special free bridge editions of the local newspapers, report subscriptions of $164.50 with the following disbursements: Postage, $91.95; Intelligence P. & P. Co., $39.72; Morton & Hority, $42.00; Children's Aid Society, $36. Total $164.50.

TOWN PUMP IS FIXED

Mayor Has Provided Cool Drink on Zwick's Island. Mayor Hanna had had the pump on Zwick's Island repaired so that picnickers may have cold filtered water for drinking.

SAYS ELECTION A BLUNDER

H. W. Wood, President of the United Farmers of Alberta, says the holding of an election in Alberta is a "factual blunder." He added that the farmers had not expected an election so early.

BOY STOLE FOUR DOLLARS

Money Recovered and Lad is Given Another Chance In police court today a boy of tender years who has been here for some days was charged with robbing a young man's pocket in a public place, of over four dollars. As the money was recovered, the straying lad was given an opportunity to live the straight life by being put off his good behavior.

WHO'D LIKE TO LIVE IN SAHARA DESERT?

The King recently received Mrs. Rosita Forbes, who has recently returned from a long journey through the Sahara desert, at Buckingham Palace, and listened to the story of her travels. The Queen was present at the interview.

Mrs. Forbes, who wore a navy serge red-trimmed dress, a black hat with a russet veil, black shoes inset with red, and a fur coat (because the daytime in England is colder than the coldest night in the Sahara), was astonished at the knowledge of North Africa that the King and Queen displayed.

"I went to Buckingham Palace prepared to explain everything about my tour," said Mrs. Forbes yesterday to a Daily Express representative, "and discovered that the King and Queen know more about the country from which I have come than I do myself."

"The Queen was especially interested to know how I managed to pass as a Bedouin woman, as I have grey eyes, and I told her the story I used to tell when it was necessary—that I had a Circassian mother, who came from the harem of the Bey of Tunis."

LATE MRS. NELSON

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sidney Nelson took place on Friday afternoon from her residence, 149 Charles St., Rev. Dr. Cleaver officiating, assisted by Rev. G. Brown. The cortege proceeded to Salem Church where Rev. A. E. Foster of Holloway St. Methodist Church officiated. Burial was made in Salem cemetery, the bearers being W. R. Scott, O. M. Allen, F. M. Brintnell, J. F. Wilson, E. E. Mallory and W. E. Moore.

LATE ALFRED DIGWEED

Alfred Digweed passed away early today at his home, 4 Wickett St., West Belleville, after an illness of about nine months. He was 45 years of age and was unmarried. By occupation he was a carpenter. Surviving are his father, David Digweed and three sisters, Mrs. W. Nunn and Mrs. W. K. Labran, of Vancouver, and Miss Florence Digweed, of Belleville.

LATE MRS. COOK

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Cook took place on Friday afternoon from her home in the eleventh concession of Rawdon to St. Mark's church on the twelfth concession. The Rev. L. K. B. Hall, of Madoc preached the sermon and Rev. Mr. Toll, the present member of the parish, assisted in the service. There were many beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were John Mason, Sidney Mason, Christopher Barkitt, J. Burditt, Edward Scarlett and Thomas Webb.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

RIGA, Latvia, July 9.—The "Newsky" Prospekt, the "Broadway" of Petrograd, has been rechristened by the Bolshevik government "25th of October Prospekt," that being the date by the Russian calendar, in 1917, when the Soviets overthrew the Kerensky government. So it becomes popularly known, in Russian, as "Oktobria Prospekt."

TOBACCO LIKES THE HOT SPELL

Other Crops Including Hay, Grain and Fruit Need Rain Badly

PRAIRIE CROPS GOOD Out on the Pacific Coast the Weather has Been Cool and Showery

The only crop in Ontario which "likes" the dry weather, and which has been doing well in the past few days is tobacco. This is contained in a crop report issued by the Bank of Montreal to-day which follows:

PRAIRIE PROVINCES. Edmonton and Calgary Districts.—Damage caused by heat and dry spell largely repaired by recent heavy rains. In Edmonton District, conditions generally favourable. In Calgary District, crops on summer fallow now promise average yield. Those on spring and fall ploughing and on stubble only, fair.

Lethbridge District.—Crops revived by rain. Prospects again promising, though from some localities North-east and West, reports are not so good. Alfalfa and Timothy an average crop on irrigated land. Pasture good.

Regina District.—All grains making strong growth. Wheat heading out under ideal conditions, some local damage by drought. Fall losses negligible except Estevan District where damage extensive. Pasture abundant.

Saskatoon District.—Wheat and Oats doing well. Conditions favourable. Winnipeg District.—Wheat generally headed out, intense heat of last week followed by rains and cool weather ideal for filling, some hail not serious, prospects good. Damage by Grass-Hoppers throughout the west exceptional and slight.

PROVINCE OF QUEBEC. Absence of rain has greatly retarded crops in all districts. Hay has suffered severely in moat sections, and will be much below average. Root crops are fair but like grass pasture, are badly in need of rain.

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO. Up to ten days ago, the prospects for a full crop were excellent but intense dry heat and lack of rain since then have materially affected growth, present prospects are—Hay light crop. Cutting now general, grass pasture—growth seriously checked. Fall wheat—promising but ripening too quickly. Other grains, fair all short in straw. Roots—average crop. Fruits—small fruits, fair but need rain. Apples developing satisfactorily. Tobacco—weather is ideal for this crop and it is taking hold well.

MARITIME PROVINCES

Growth of all crops in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick is backward, owing to lack of rain. Hay crop very light. Roots promise fairly well, but need rain as does also grass pasture. Fruit prospects favourable. In Prince Edward Island, grain and potatoes promise well. Hay, generally a short crop. Fruit prospects are average. Pastures need rain.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Weather cool and showery, standing hay crop 25 percent above average in Fraser Valley and exceptionally heavy in nearly all districts. Grains in excellent condition and heading well. Roots and Vegetables progressing satisfactorily. Potato yield estimated fifteen percent below average. Tree Fruits rising and coloring well. Small Fruits heavy although strawberries damaged by recent rains. Pasturage abundant.

STIRLING

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Anderson, of Montreal, motored up and spent the week end with the Misses Judd. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Rodgers, of Myronne, Sask., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rodgers. Misses Mollie Park and Minnie Payne are taking the Summer Course for Teachers at Victoria, Toronto. Master Aubrey Sutcliffe is holidaying at Brighton for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Martin returned the first of the week from a visit at Burnbrae.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morton motored to Toronto on Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whitty. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ketcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Seeley and Miss Margaret of Avondale, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Reid. Rev. F. H. and Mrs. Howard, Misses Mary and Margaret and Master Arthur, of Whitty, have been spending a couple of days with Striding friends.

FUNERAL OF MRS. EUSTACE

The funeral of the late Mrs. Eustace who died in Toronto took place this morning to St. Michael's Church. After a solemn requiem mass, the interment was made in St. James' cemetery.

Advertisement for THE STANDARD BANK OF CANADA. Features include: Your Harvest Expenses, HAVE you sufficient ready money with which to meet the expense of harvesting your crop? Not you are cordially invited to discuss your position with our local manager. Standard Services always affords practical and helpful accommodation.

Advertisement for THE MERCHANTS BANK. Features include: The Brass Bound Box and the Steel Safety Deposit Vault. The old-fashioned box and the brass bound box were no protection against fire or theft. The Safety Deposit Vaults in The Merchants Bank afford the maximum of protection. Valuable papers, jewellery and silverware are guarded against loss when placed in our care and the yearly charge for such protection is very moderate.

Advertisement for THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA. Features include: WHY YOU SHOULD SAVE. To insure yourself against an unknown future. To insure happiness and comfort in your old age. To insure provision for your family in the event of your death. Commence Saving to-day with THE ROYAL BANK OF CANADA. W. A. PARKER, Manager Belleville Branch.

PICTON

Miss Lena Empey, of Toronto, spent the week end at her home, Black River Bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw, Tweed, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Dyer, East Lake, last week.

Mrs. Barle Ringer and children of Toronto are visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Thorne.

Miss Rose Lusk of Newark is enjoying holidays at the home of her parents in Picton.

Miss Mary Collier, of Bishop Belthune College, will spend her summer holidays at The Pines, the guest of her grandmother.

Mrs. Earl Cornell, Toronto, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Collier, Grove Street. Mr. Cornell will join her later.

Mrs. David Wellbanks has returned from Richmond, Va., after spending a couple of months with her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) I. T. Gortline, Vancott, Point Traverse.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Crysdale and their daughters, Misses Gladys and Ruby, also Master Gordon, motored from Toronto on Friday returning Sunday. They were guests of Mr. Crysdale's sister, Mrs. D. P. Boles.

Mr. Arthur Johnson, Ottawa, and little sister, are visiting friends in Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmatier and son, Midland, are visiting relatives in town.

On Tuesday the Bristol staff enjoyed a most delightful picnic at the Sandbanks.

Mr. Wilfrid Head, of Arnstein, Ont., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Head, Grove St. Mr. Head has acquired a general merchandise store at Arnstein.

Mr. Wellington Boulter and the Misses Boulter arrived from Detroit last week. Mr. Boulter was ill for some weeks but is rapidly returning to normal amid scenes that hold an irresistible fascination for this veteran Prince Edwarder.

Mr. George Hogarth, Inspector of the Highways for Ontario, is inspecting the Provincial Highways in Prince Edward County this week.

Mrs. D. B. Morden and children are staying with friends at Burr's, their home having been burned in the Northport fire.

Miss Margaret Vancott and Thomas Vancott of Burr's, are spending the week with her son, Fred. During the month of June the customs collectors for Kingston amounted to $40,000.

THREE VALUABLE HORSES DIE OF STRANGE MALADY

Port Hope—Through some strange malady Mr. Walter C. Martin Westmount, last week lost three valuable horses and a pony, the animals taking suddenly sick and dying shortly afterwards. Two veterinary surgeons were called, one being of the opinion that death was caused through a sort of influenza or germ, while the other thought that meningitis caused death. At any rate Mr. Martin's loss is considerable.

Sanitary conditions in the section where he resides are not what they should be and he has taken the matter up with the Sanitary Inspector.

NO "PUSSYFOOT" ASCOT

Westminster Gazette. However dry, from the meteorological point of view, Ascot has been, it certainly seemed to me, yesterday morning, as I watched the endless procession on Ascot road that, in another and a very telling way it must surely be one of the wettest race-weeks of all times.

There were careful erections on top of the myriad motos, around the drivers on the foot boards in the rear, among the spare tires. The crates of bottled beer were such that the very sight of them made me feel hot; oceans of mineral waters must have been taken out of London; and as for wine, there were actually elaborate coolers and great cases, dripping in water and showing the gold or silver-crowned heads of champagne bottles. Not a private or public motor but frankly flaunted these signs of the mood of the day.

Want Contracts Signed

Kingston—The board of education is asking every teacher to sign a contract for the year. The public school teachers have always signed the agreements but the collegiate teachers declined. This year the members of the board are insisting on having the requirements carried out.

Miller's Worm Powders can do no injury to the most delicate child. Any child, or infant in the state of adolescence, who is infested with worms can take this preparation without a qualm of the stomach, and will find in it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and great suffering to legions of little ones.

BOUGHT YACHT

Kingston—De recently purchased a sailing yacht, and will find in it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and great suffering to legions of little ones.

Advertisement for ANCE VANCE. Features include: ESTABLISHED, BEST TO BUY, SAYS, Minister of Highways Own, MERGE C, Good Roads, ple in Rural, The Minister Ontario who is ways, the Hon. who builds road, greatest last night in return made a straight-fronted department; in policy. He was day taking in the ways herabout now doubly—of things generally. The afternoon a drive nearly to trip evidently gr Biggs. At the supper at which Mayo master. Hon. Ireland, M.P.P., M.P.P., were also briefly. Mr. Biggs law subject. He perly pleased that the bridge had b Since he had t roads had disapp out at Sarni when the people awake to take t He had been in the yearly tolls 900. "I am positive kept of rigs and the toll is gone, the amount un would be twice, will find twice, can easily estim Belleville." (ch "Another th province of Prin will become the tarlo. Beautiful scenery and lak to mingle wit market will be merchants will proved now the "Now that th us—I say that (Continu REAL PIR Moors Attack Capt M7LILLA, Mor ish pirates are qps, an attac Spanish sloop reported today, killed and the tinez Saez, and taken prisoners found abandon with the dead s supposed he re The vessel left 20-YEAR "SO MADE Farm, South of Distillery F WINNIEG, perance act ad shed on the fa mille Sys of Gr south of here e stills running a ducing 100 gal day. The dist 'twenty-year-ol dence at the ho cial police out plant had been month. The S manded. BOUGHT YAC Kingston—De recently purcha a sailing yacht, and will find in it a sure relief and a full protection from these destructive pests, which are responsible for much sickness and great suffering to legions of little ones.