ENJOYABLE RECITAL FRIDAY NIGHT

Grounded House Heard Miss Dobson, Mrs. Miller and Mr. Neale.

The Temperance Hall was filled to the doors Friday evening to greet Miss Hattie Gunn and her assistants in the recital given on the 1st instant. The program of about two hours was so excellent that every number was heartily encored. Miss Gunn, gave in all, nine selections, and the versatility of her repertoire was well displayed, ranging from operatic selections of much difficulty and demanding great exactitude, to the simple but delightful melody "Annie Laurie." In all she seemed perfectly at home, but the Boat Song, a dreamy, beautiful air by Ware, and Carrissima, a spirited hucanalian chanson, were exquisite and were undoubtedly her masterpieces.

Miss Dobson of Moncton a very talented elocutionist, recited: "The Deacon and the Parson's New Year Sleigh Ride," "The Abandoned Engagement," and "Jean Valjean," and three other pieces as encores, each of the six delighting all who were present.

Miss Gunn and Mrs. John W. Miller were heard in a duet "Bonnie Doo," and responded to an encore by singing "The Wanderer's Night Song." Both singers made a decided hit and pleased the audience immensely.

Mr. Neale's splendid opening number and his perfect accompaniments gave the completing touches to the other numbers.

is advertising its advantages as a point for catching the new Canadian Trade. It says truly that when Reciprocity is adopted Canada's march towards industrial independence is ended, and that now is the time for Canadian business houses to establish themselves in cities on the southern side of the international boundary. This would be a safe investment were it not for the little formality of the bolloting on 21st September.

COUNCILLORS' ELECTIONS

To the Electors of the Parish of North Esk Ladies and Gentlemen:

In accordance with the request of a large number of the Electors of our Parish, we beg to announce ourselves as candidates at the approaching Municipal Election.

If we are elected we will endeavor to have the Government Road Grant increased to an amount in keeping with the importance of the public traffic through our parish, and to use our best efforts to keep our roads in proper condition and repair.

We will give our best attention to the public affairs of the County and particularly to the interests of our own parish.

We are both life long residents of our Parish and through our record has been such as to merit the confidence, and secure the support of our fellow rate-payers in this election.

Your obedient servants,
 Paul Kingston

WHAT ABOUT OUR FACTORIES?

Do we Wish Them to be Shut Down and our Growing Industries Transferred to the U.S.A.?

It is very satisfactory says the Canadian Municipal Journal, to see that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has taken the step which we pointed out in March as the only constitutional way to deal with Reciprocity, and that he has appealed to the electors. But—unfortunately he has only done the correct thing because he could not carry the measure through Parliament as he vowed he would do. Unfortunately too, the sudden dissolution, after the witnesses in the Oliver scandal enquiry had arrived in Ottawa, leaves that Minister under a distinct cloud—thanks to the Premier's sudden action.

The question of Reciprocity is without any doubt the most important one that Canada has faced for many a year, and every voter should face it as a Canadian, not as an individual. The question of one's personal loss or gain should be overshadowed by the good of the Dominion, not merely now, but for the future. For it is absolutely silly to say that Reciprocity can be tried for a while, and then dropped if it proves unsuccessful. If Canada once adopts Reciprocity with the States, it will be permanent, except for still lower duties.

In discussing the question, its advocates, including the Premier, lay great stress upon the desire for it in the past, and the fact that the late Sir John A. Macdonald and other Conservative leaders once advocated it.

This is not an argument at all. Conditions have changed, and not the most stupid can imagine that if Sir John A. were alive today, he would be in favor of it. Sir Wilfrid at one time opposed Confederation; would it be right to state that he still opposes it, and is trying to break up a United Canada? Hon. Mr. Fielding once advocated Free Trade; shall one accuse him of trying to introduce it, via Reciprocity, today?

All this harking back to opinions which prevailed years ago, when conditions were entirely different, does not produce a single reason why we should vote for Reciprocity now!

Let us look the matter squarely in the face, under present conditions. We were snubbed by the United States when every Canadian yearned for Reciprocity as the only salvation from bad times. We could not get what we wanted and so we tried for something else. We found another market in the Mother Country. Business grew better. The Laurier Government encouraged the new market by the Preferential Tariff, and mutual trade grew bigger. Many large firms in the United States, realizing the development and possibilities of Canada, built branch factories over here. American farmers, seeing our wonderful prosperity, sold out in their own country, and bought land and settled in Canada. The Americans, finding some natural resources, such as timber, etc., being exhausted, came to Canada for supplies.

And all business in Canada grew better, and the country was very prosperous.

There Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Fielding bargained with President Taft for Reciprocity, and agreed to force Parliament to ratify the bargain, and this is the situation today.

The opinions of men, a dozen or twenty-five years ago are history, but are not arguments today, and it is a sign of weakness to try and use such opinions to bolster up Reciprocity.

The question is—will it pay now?

Will Canada—all Canada—benefit by Reciprocity?

Will the present good conditions continue, or shall we drop into the level of tight times now prevailing in the States?

Will our municipalities gain anything? For the factory operative and storekeeper are as necessary as the farmer.

Will the American manufacturers,—believing, as all sane men do, that the present measure of Reciprocity will lead to further tariff reductions—continue to establish branch factories in Canada, thus improving industrial conditions here? Or will many of those already built be closed down by the trusts, thus bringing disaster in the places where they are situated and which in many cases have blossomed there? If Canada, by a further revision of the tariff is put under the tyranny of the United States Trusts, many manufacturing places will lose these branch factories, and this will lead to a depleted population, empty houses and higher taxes.

The matter is very serious from the municipal point of view, and the sectional appeal to the farmers is likely to produce that ill-feeling among fellow citizens which every statesman and every loyal Canadian must deprecate.

One important factor in considering the question is the attitude of the people in the States, for this is an index of what they expect as the result of Reciprocity.

There can be no doubt that Reciprocity is a step towards Annexation; and they are perfectly right. It may be a long way off, but it is in that direction. The smothering of the Champ Clark series of speeches only proves the seriousness of the belief in the United States and the policy of keeping quiet so as not to alarm Canadians.

A new argument reached us only recently. The plea that as Canada is so prosperous and the United States is suffering from industrial depression, we should be willing to share our good fortune with our less fortunate neighbors!

Really, we can only be selfish on this question; that is, nationally, not personally.

For ourselves, we believe that lower duties with the States would increase our advertising. In fact several large firms in the States have said very directly, "Get your duties on our goods lowered, and we will give you a fat advertising contract." And we have no doubt that our advertising would increase very materially, and from a purely personal point of view, Reciprocity would lead to better business.

But this selfish view should not prevail against the good of the country as a whole.

SIFTON HAD FINE MEETING AT CHATHAM

Shows That Canadian Farmers Sell 85 per Cent of Their Products at Home.

Chatham, Sept. 3.—What was by long odds the largest and most enthusiastic political gathering ever witnessed in Chatham, assembled at the opera house tonight to listen to an address by Hon. Clifford Sifton on the reciprocity question. The building, which accommodates upwards of 1200 people, was packed to the doors, and Mr. Sifton was accorded a splendid reception by an audience which, judging by the manner in which they applauded each point made by him, was thoroughly opposed to the government's policy on the question.

Dr. Byrne, mayor of Chatham, presided and briefly introduced the speaker.

HON. D MORRISON

Hon. Donald Morrison, Conservative candidate, spoke briefly emphasizing the fact that the present issue before the people was in no sense a party question. Liberals all over the country have cast aside party affiliations and decided not to support a policy which could only end disastrously to Canada. Mr. Sifton, he said, was one of the Liberals who preferred to put on one side old associations rather than endorse a policy which meant delivering his country into the hands of a foreign power. Canada's prosperity was increasing year by year and there was room enough within our own borders for all the legitimate expansion which may reasonably be expected for some years to come.

MR. SIFTON'S ADDRESS

Mr. Sifton commenced his address by tracing the growth of the present fiscal policy of the country, which since 1870, at any rate, has been a protective one. Down to the last 20 years, Canadian farmers produced more than the needs of the country required, and therefore protection for them was looked upon rather as a joke. They had a considerable surplus of produce to sell, and would have been glad of free entry into the markets of the United States. But since then the large increase in population and the construction of so many new railroads has created a very large home market. The result is that now 85 per cent. of the farm products raised in Canada are consumed at home and ready sale for the remaining 15 per cent. is found in Great Britain, the best market in the world.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier in opening his present campaign gave no reasons for wanting to change the present satisfactory conditions and when asked for reasons he said that statesmen of both parties had favored reciprocal trade relations with United States. "But" said Mr. Sifton "the great leaders whom Sir Wilfrid referred to had been dead for years, and their opinions formed so many years ago were only a poor guide for present day policy, considering the changed circumstances."

PRICES OF FARM PRODUCE

Advocates of reciprocity said better prices were obtainable in the United States than in Canada; but this was only true of the very highest grades of produce. In the case of nine tenths of the farmer's produce better returns were got at home. The effect of reciprocity would be to give the United States the market of Canada in return for nothing at all. The States exported annually $438,000,000 worth of farm produce, after supplying the needs of their ninety million population.

Continuing the speaker said that many foreign countries were sending their surplus farm produce to Canada now, and if they found it profitable to do this after paying a duty, what would they do when the duty was taken off? The effect of the reciprocity would be that prices in Canada would be regulated by the United States markets, and as these markets were controlled by trusts, no one could say this would be good for either Canadian producers or consumers.

It was nonsense to say, "give reciprocity a trial, and if not satisfactory repeal it." Reciprocity was a government proposal, and did anyone expect the government to turn round and say they had made a mistake? To repeal it would need another election to put a party in power pledged to its repeal and if it had to be turned down it might as well be done now as later. He could only describe it an act of sheer lunacy for Canada to endorse the government's policy.

Mr. Sifton was accorded a hearty vote of thanks for his eloquent address.

A SCREAM FROM SKY-TOWN

A Workingman Wants Equal Rights With the Farmer.

Mr. Editor of the Union Advocate: They tell me you are running free in this election fight, and I would like your help in some questions I don't understand. What has become of the workingman in this fight? He used to count for something—on polling day.

Because the Government is using special bait for the Farmer, is that any reason for turning us down? By all means "Give the farmer a chance," but don't wipe us off the earth.

If Reciprocity is going to raise prices in Newcastle what are WE going to do?

What do you think I have been paying for potatoes since last fall? How much butter do you think I was able to buy between Christmas and June? And Eggs? do you think we were able to save up any to hand out to the Politicians on nomination day? Anyhow it is a shame to eat eggs when if you keep them long enough they will grow into old hens for Christmas at sixty cents apiece. I would send you my bills since last fall only my storekeeper is a good fellow and a Reciprocity man and he might think I was running on him.

Speaking of storekeepers, what is the matter with a market place for our town? If the farmers are going to get higher prices would it be a good plan to have a market place where we could buy from them ourselves, and get the things at their price? Wouldn't it have been better to have put that $2000.00 into a market place instead of into that Clock—Mind you it is a nice Clock, and it looks well up there in the Post Office and it will be handy to remind us of Mr. Loggie when he used to be our Member, and of all the things he used to promise us. It will be handy too to remind us of the hour of the adjourned Liberal Meetings for appointing offices and officers.

And I think the market house ought to be near the River for the fishermen, and to give us a chance to buy our fish ahead of the Shipper and Packers.

I have heard Mr. Loggie speaking three times on Reciprocity and he told us every time—and all the time—that it would raise the price of fish. And if Reciprocity raises the price of Tommies-cods it will be a good thing for—the shipper. And even if Reciprocity does raise a market-house way still be able to get a treat on Monday occasionally at twenty cents a pound—out of last year's crop.

Now Mr. Editor, taxes have gone up, and if our supplies are to go up there will be nothing left but for us to go.

I was going to ask Mr. Emmons some of these questions, but got the hint that the "real and only" Preserver of Peace at Political meetings would lay a complaint against me before the Police committee.

Yours truly,
 $1.60 per

MRS. FAYLES

Millerton
 Monday Morning.

Mrs. John Fayles of Millerton was fatally burned early Friday morning, while rubbing her side with paraffine oil near a lighted lamp. Her husband, awakened by her cries, extinguished the flames by use of a bucket, but the sufferer died.

Mrs. Fayles was 42 years old. Her husband and five children—Ritchie, in Maine, and Milly, Eva, Lewis and Walton, at home survive. A great number of mourning friends attended the funeral at Upper Derby Sunday afternoon.

$3,600 in Cash Prizes for Farmers

Tell Us How You Did It

You may win a prize by doing so

SUPPOSE your friend Bob Wilson, on the next concession, "pulled up" at your front gate on the way back from market and asked about that silo or barn foundation you built, you would be glad to tell him, wouldn't you? And it wouldn't take you long, either, would it? And, as a matter of fact, you'd find as much pleasure telling him as he would in listening—ain't that right?

First you would take him over to view the silo or barn foundation. Then you would start to describe it—its dimensions—the kind of aggregate used—the proportions of cement used—number of men employed—number of hours' working time required—method of mixing—kind of forms used—method of reinforcing, if any—and finally, what the job cost. So that by the time you finished, neighbor Wilson would have a pretty accurate idea of how to go about building the particular piece of work which you described.

Now couldn't you do the same for us, with this difference—that you stand a good chance of getting well paid for your time?

In Prize "D" of our contest, open to the farmers of Canada, we offer $100.00 to the farmer in each Province who will furnish us with the best and most complete description of how any particular piece of concrete work shown by photograph sent in was done. The size of the work described makes no difference. The only important thing to remember is that the work must be done in 1911 and "CANADA" Cement used.

In writing your description, don't be too particular about grammar or spelling or punctuation. Leave that to literary folk. Tell it to us as you would tell it to your neighbor. What we want are the facts, plainly and clearly told.

Sounds simple, doesn't it? And it is simple. And surely it is well worth your while when you think of the reward in view.

Now sit right down, take your pen or pencil—all out the attached coupon—or a post-card if it's handier—and write for the circular which fully describes the conditions of this, the first contest of the kind ever held in Canada.

Every dealer who handles "CANADA" Cement will also be given a supply of these circulars—and you can get one from the dealer in your town, if that seems more convenient than writing for it.

Contest will close on November 15th, 1911—all photos and descriptions must be sent in by that date, to be eligible for one of these prizes. Awards will be made as soon as possible thereafter. The decisions will be made by a disinterested committee, the following gentlemen having consented to act for us, as the jury of award: Prof. Peter Gillespie, Lecturer in Theory of Construction, University of Toronto; Prof. W. H. Day, Professor of Physics, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph; and Ivan S. Macdonald, Editor of "Construction."

Having decided to compete for one of the prizes, your first step should be to get all the information you can on the subject of Concrete Construction on the Farm. Fortunately, most of the pointers that anyone can possibly need, are contained in our wonderfully complete book, entitled "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." A large number of Canadian farmers have already sent for and obtained copies of this free book. Have you got your copy yet? If not, you'd better send for one to-day. Whether you are a contestant for one of our prizes or not, you really ought to have this book in your library. For it contains a vast amount of information and hints that are invaluable to the farmer.

Please send full particulars and book.

CARNEGIE ON GOLF

The Laird of Skibo Castle Tries Writing.

Andrew Carnegie says in his latest essay on "Dr. Golf": "I notice a recent estimate of the money already expended in greens and club houses in the United States is fifteen million dollars. The charm of golf—who can analyze and decide in what it really consists? We are under the sky, worshippers of the 'God of the Open Air.' Every breath seems to drive away weakness and disease. A cough of mine made his first trial one morning on Skibo links, and, as is often the case when taking it all easily and not trying hard, he succeeded wonderfully. He could hardly wait for the morning game. We started and he fended everything, and as fast I heard exclamations, and called out to him: 'What 'tation,' 'Morgan?' He replied appreciatively: 'I know, I know, I feel it, but I don't think I said it.' We have a celebrated professor who was lost from a golf cart, and being asked, 'Why are you 'tation?' he cut: 'He's been along the water, tation to the golf course, the reporter on leaving, he said that his chief in the morning asked why he got so 'tation, and he explained that he had to get to work on his golfing, and he knew he couldn't go there."

THEIR GOOD WILL CONTRIBUTION TO THE
MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES

MEDICAL FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES
MAIN SPRING FOR PATIENTS

A national institution that accepts patients from all parts of Canada. Here is one of hundreds of letters being received daily:—

John D. McNaughton, New Liskeard, Ont.: A young man not belonging here, and suffering from it is tuberculosis, is being kept by one of the hotels here. He has no means and has been refused admission to our hospital. The conditions where he is offer him no chance. Could he be admitted to your Free Hospital for Consumptives? If not, could you inform me where he can be sent, and what steps are necessary to secure prompt admission? A SINGLE PATIENT HAS EVER BEEN REFUSED ADMISSION TO THE MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL BECAUSE OF HIS OR HER INABILITY TO PAY.

Since the hospital was opened in April 1908, one thousand five hundred and twenty-four patients have been treated in this one institution, representing people from every province in the Dominion. For the week ending November 20th, 1909, one hundred and twenty-five patients were in residence. Ninety-six of these are not paying a cent for their maintenance—absolutely free. The other twenty-nine paid from $2.00 to $4.90 a week. No one pays more than $4.90.

Suitable cases are admitted promptly on completion of application papers.

A GRATEFUL PATIENT

Norah P. Canham: Enclosed you will find receipt for my ticket from Gravenhurst, hoping that you will be able to oblige me with the fare. I was at your Sanatorium ten months, and I was sent away from there as an apparent cure. I am now working in the city, and I am feeling fine. I was most thankful for the care I got from the doctors and staff, and I must say that I spent the time of my life while I was there.

TAKING THE CURE IN WINTER AT MUSKOKA FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

The Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives is dependent on the good-will and gifts of the Canadian public. Money is sorely needed at this present time to make it possible to care for the large and increasing number of patients that are entering the institution.

The Wrong List.

One of Lady Bony's recollections is of a dinner party at which she had her neighbor Gladstone, in her usual mood. He said her of his experiences and ways of tactics in the States. The latter always had the names of those doomed to be hanged written down on a small piece of paper.

One day, picking up such a list, he called up for the boys' names. Names were inscribed upon it. Upon such occasions the appointments were permitted to offer explanations, to be after boy was castigated, and named some and escape to his seat until the operation was complete. He learn that, instead of the foregoing list, he had picked up the slip in which were the names of the boys about to be confirmed.

The Date is Fixed.

And now it is 1915 which is set for the millennium. Religious enthusiasts have been guessing at the end of the world for years, but date after date has passed, and the world still wags on. Each one of these has had a system of reckoning as certain—and as fallible—as the various systems with which it has been proposed to weak the bank at Monte Carlo. The only effect of their predictions has been to upset nervous temperaments. There is nothing surer than that "no man knoweth the day nor the hour."

A Matter of Training.

The disappointed person carps at everything and makes all those in her vicinity feel ill at ease; if anything can be done to cure her, it should be done in the interest of humanity. So modern rush and worry render it more easy for anyone to lapse into that condition, for our nerves are affected to an extent which our grandfathers neither experienced nor anticipated. The way out of the trouble is a matter of training and, as the child is the mother of the woman, it is well to commence with the little one.

The Making of a Nation

A nation is made powerful, and to be honored in the world not so much by the number of its people as by the ability and character of that people; and the ability and character of that people depend in a great measure upon the economy of the several families, which, taken together, make up the nation. There never yet was and never will be a nation permanently great, consisting for the great part of wretched miserable families.

Another Reason.

Here's a new reason for the abolition of Hansard. An English financial schemer accuses his failure because he was "intimidated" regarding the value of the Canadian railways by reading reports of the Dominion Parliament. What sins these M.P.'s do have to answer for to be sure!

Japan's Budget

The main features of Japan's Budget, which balances at $29,000,000 yen ($264,500,000), are the reduction and reform of taxes, the increase of the salaries of Government officials, opening in administrative expenses, and the increase of the sinking fund.

CARD

To the Electors of the County of Northumberland: Gentlemen;

The Liberal-Conservative Convention of our County, held last month, nominated me as the Party's Candidate at the approaching election of a member of the House of Commons for this Constituency. I have accepted the nomination and as such nominee solicit your support of the principles laid down at that convention and held by the Conservative Party in Canada.

I find it will be impossible for me to personally interview all the electors, as I would like to do, but hope to be able, with their co-operation, to give them a chance of hearing my statement of the case at issue, at public meetings throughout the County, and I earnestly appeal to you to give the great question your careful and loyal attention and vote against the Reciprocity Pact and for the platform of the Liberal-Conservative Party and mark your ballots for me, its Candidate, on the twenty-first of September.

That Convention spoke not only for the Conservative Party but also for the large number of Liberals who have taken issue with their Leaders both on the vital question of the day and also on the manner in which they have attempted to force this policy upon the Country without consulting the people.

The Election now about to be held is the most important since 1876. It is a referendum of the question of Reciprocity with the United States to the supreme decision of the people. The Government entered into this Reciprocity Pact by secret negotiation at Washington, on its own initiative, without request, without discussion, and without the approval of the people. It is a matter due to the Conservative Party and some patriotic Liberals, that the people have obtained an opportunity of expressing their opinion and giving their decision on the question.

There are many questions emanating from the position taken by the Government; the effect of this radical change in our fiscal policy on the industries of our Country; the exploiting by indifferent and foreign corporations and trusts of our forests and other natural resources; the debasing of our people into hewers of wood for the aggrandizement of foreign labour and capital in the higher processes of manufacture; the cheapening and control of our market by foreign producers; the closing of markets for our products which are only now being established. Shall Canada remain a free country? free to make her own laws? Shall we shall shun the responsibility of living this Fielding and Patterson would make us wear? Shall Canada remain in the British Empire—the greatest of its world encircled dominions—the brightest gem in the Imperial Crown; growing with the Empire growth, protected by its Army and Navy, sharing its greatness, glory, growth and prosperity,—or shall she enter upon the path that leads to entanglement and separation? These are kindred subjects I hope to discuss with you on the public platform during my canvass.

The Vital Question is,—Shall Canada direct her own destinies? Shall our relations with other countries be the friendly but free dealings of one self-respecting people with another? President Taft says, 'Canada is at the parting of the ways.' At this is true. Which way will I take fellow-citizens of Northumberland? The path that leads to Washington fiscal dependence and ultimate annexation; or the path of tariff independence, national self-respect and closer trade relations with the other members of our great Empire? Years of a hostile tariff have taught Canada independence and are beginning to bring her wealth. Why this sudden insistence by the United States upon giving us what is no longer a necessity? For years we sought it and were denied. We have found other markets; other capital has sought us; other Investors have established their industries among us; our credit is now firmly established in other and larger money centres and the conditions which induced us to desire Reciprocity with the United States have long since disappeared.

The meaning of these sudden overtures by the United States is plain, and the answer of the Liberal-conservative Party, and the Liberals who join it on this issue is the voicing of the decision of the country that Canada will protect and maintain for her own people, her wealth, her natural resources, her constitution and her autonomy.

Your Obedient Servant, D. MORRISON. Aug. 26th, 1911.

Tramp, the Boys are marching. We don't want the Stars and Stripes. We have no use for Yankee snipes. Who come spying round our forests and our shores. But stand by the Union Jack, Drive the crowd of Grafters back, And we'll never vote for Loggie any more.

Hark! the Conservatives are marching, Marching proudly to the fray, Standing by the Union Jack, Keeping all the Grafters back; We will be true Canadians on that day.

II - We don't wish to boast or brag, And we seldom chew the rag, But it's up to us to see what we will do.

Donald Morrison's our man, And we'll elect him if we can, We Conservatives intend to see him through.

Chorus. Hark! the Conservatives are marching &c.,

III For a few cents or his fish Loggie'd roast us in his dish; Mr. Fielding, too, has got his axe to grind. But if we stand firm and true, Be Canadians through and through, Mr. Loggie he will be the man behind.

Chorus. Hark! the Conservatives are marching &c.,

IV Mr. Taft must bear in mind We Canadians are not blind, Though we live down in this Province by the sea!

No, nor can he pull the wool O'er the eyes of Johnny Bull. While he swipes the leaves from off apple trees.

Chorus. Hark! the Conservatives are marching

The Mother Country o'er the wave, With her ships and sailors brave, Oftentimes has stood between us and our foes;

So in this enlightened age, Do not soil our history's page. Put no stain upon the Shamrock, Thistle or the Rose.

Chorus

VI So Canadians one and all, Answer your Country's Do not mind whatever the Liberal Leaders say;

Stand up boldly in the fight, And be sure your course is right, Do not let them vote our heritage away!

Chorus. WILLIAM AHEARN, Newcastle, N. B., Sept 2nd., 1911.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, but constantly failing to cure. Science has now discovered that Catarrh is not a local disease but a constitutional one, and therefore requiring constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful, acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They therefore hundred dollars for any case fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 7c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

AFTER SUFFERING YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Fox Creek, N.B.—'I have always had pains in the loins and a weakness there, and often after my meals in my food would distress me and cause soreness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me much good. I am stronger, digestion is better, and I can walk with ambition. I have encouraged many mothers of families to take it, as it is the best remedy in the world. You can publish this in the papers.'—Mrs. WILLIAM BOURGEOIS, Fox Creek, N.B., Canada.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women after all other means have failed, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

CROWDED HOUSE MEETS 'THE COUNTRY CLERGYMAN'

Campbellton Amateur Theatrical Society Present Drama to an Enthusiastic Audience in Opera House.

The Campbellton Opera House was crowded to the doors Friday night, by an enthusiastic audience to witness the production of 'The Country Clergyman,' a three act drama by Thomas Littlefield Marble, by the Campbellton Amateur Theatrical Society.

The program was as follows:

- CAST OF CHARACTERS: Arthur Grayhurst—a clergyman; Cecil Mersereau; Terrold Bisco—his friend; H. W. Ferguson; Jonas Dixon—leader of the choir and Jacob Snyder—a theatrical manager; T. H. O'Brien; Reuben Stubbins—whose duties are as an actor; R. J. Lavoie; Olivia Vaughurst—an actress; Jean McLatchey; Alice Grayhurst—Arthur's sister; Isa Cameron; Mrs. Wilkins—who favors a rummage sale; Hazel Langley; Amarilla Jones—who has a bean; Jessie Moore; Matilda Triplett—who sings alto; Mary Graham; Miss Brackett—organist; Ruth Cameron; Parishioners, etc.

SYNOPSIS: Act I—The Chapel. A summer evening. Act II—The Opera House. Evening. Two weeks later. Act III—The Garden of the Parsonage. Next morning. Time—The present. Place—A New England village.

SPECIALTIES BETWEEN ACTS

- When the bell in the Lighthouse rings Ding Dong—Solman; H. W. Ferguson; Absent—Metcalfe; A Dream—Barlett; R. G. O'Brien; Love's Sorrow—Shelley; Miss Ethel Malcolm; Far away in the South—T. H. O'Brien; Lavoie, Mersereau, O'Brien and Ferguson; Garden of Roses—Schmid; T. H. O'Brien.

There was no long wait, the specialties being rendered between the acts and were of the usual high order, all being obliged to respond to encores.

In the rendering of the drama the young people showed much care and aptitude in the interpretation of their portions. Miss McLatchey and Mr. Mersereau looked after the heavy work with the ease and grace of professionals, while Miss Lingley, Miss Graham and Miss Moore and Misses O'Brien and Ferguson in the lighter roles took their lines promptly and with proper interpretation of their various parts.

As a whole the entertainment was a grand success and the success realized will assist the Fire Brigade in their work.

The special scenery used was prepared by Messrs. Blyth & Murray.

THE CARICATURE Its Influence on the Public Mind

A correspondent makes a timely suggestion as to the influence of caricature in turning boys from the stage. It cannot be questioned that caricatures have a wide influence on the public mind. People accept the distorted personality in order to enjoy the joke. Those who create caricatures and make jokes have consequently a wide influence. If we leave out the impressions of mirth they spread abroad in a too serious world they have a bad influence, for they give false views of classes of people and of institutions. The farmer, the Irishman, the Dutchman, the Jew, the mother-in-law, the old maid, the suffragette, the small boy, all have afforded and still afford themes for the caricaturist and the joke-maker. These draw false pictures to excite mirth, and the more clever their work the more lasting are its impressions. The farmer of the melodrama, the cartoon, and the joke column has no real existence. The language of the farmer and of his family is quite as grammatical as that of the average city home. There is no farming type, and just as much individuality and diversity among farmers as among any other class. The virtues, the graces, the accomplishments, and the mental acquisitions are quite as prominent among the rural as among the urban population.

The stage Irishman and the stage Dutchman are equally non-existent, but people accept them for the jokes that can be made at their expense. They are raw material for the joke-writer and cartoonist. When a joke with the semblance of novelty comes forth it is distorted by many professionals and applied to each and every class with which the humorist takes liberties. The Jew is now a favorite peg on which jokes are hung, and he is quite as false a picture as any of the other creations. The character attributed to him is entirely misleading. While most Jews have keen commercial faculties, they are also freely charitable, generous, and devoted to the pursuit of all the healthy pleasures of life. The mother-in-law, the old maid, and the suffragette of the humorists have no existence. They are purely imaginary creations accepted for the amusement they afford to children. Inspired by Punch and Judy on their mimic stage must be supplied in later life by creations quite as unreal, but clothed with a deceptive semblance of actual life.

TRAINING THE CHILD

'Let The Punishment Fit the Crime' I have had a large and varied experience in dealing with children, both as a teacher and as a mother. Two rules which I have followed closely have been of inestimable value to me. The first, some advice given to me by an old gentleman who had been a teacher in the early part of the nineteenth century, was this: 'Be very careful what command you give, but be sure if you give one that your words are always obeyed. Be gentle but firm.'

Secondly, this motto has always been my guide: 'Let the punishment fit the crime.' A punishment a child realizes that he deserves and feels as a direct consequence of his actions is always more effective than one he feels is an injustice to him. Vice versa, the same system should be carried out in regard to rewards for good conduct. If he is angry let him stay by himself until he is in a proper state of mind to associate with other people. If his behaviour away from home has not been satisfactory, deter him from going anywhere until he is sure that he can be a little gentleman of whom his mother may be proud.' On the other hand, if his manners are pleasing allow him some special privilege, because you were so proud of him the last time he accompanied you," etc.

A child thus dealt with comes to appreciate the fairness of those who control him and realizes that he himself is responsible for the privileges granted or denied him.

Catching Monkeys

In the Philippine Islands, the natives catch monkeys in a curious way. The monkeys are fond of the meat of coconuts, which grow plentifully there as apples do in our country. They are lazy, though, about gnawing through the outer bark, and will only do so when exceedingly hungry. The natives take advantage of their greed and indolence by cutting a circular opening through the shell, just large enough for Mr. Monkey's long, thin hand to penetrate. When he once gets inside, he gets his hands full of delicious, dainty meat, and his hand is naturally wider in this act than when it entered. Finding his hand will not come out, the monkey chatters and scolds, plainly showing his indignation at the way he has been trapped, but never thinks of loosening his hold on the coconut and withdrawing his hand as easily as he puts it in. There he stands, an angry monkey, until the man who set the coconut trap comes and takes him captive.

Satisfaction

Once while stopping at a country inn, Stephen Inledon, an earnest English tenor of other days, quarreled during the evening with an army officer. He imagined he had closed the controversy by going off to bed, but the officer left downstairs to brood over his wrongs, thought otherwise. Making his way to Inledon's room, he found the singer fast asleep. Waking him, the officer demanded satisfaction. "Satisfaction?" queried Inledon, sleepily. "Well, you shall have it." Whereupon he got up in bed and sang "Black-Eyed Susan" in his best style. "There," he said, lying down again, "my singing of that song has given satisfaction to the party, and it will have to satisfy you." And he turned over and went to sleep again.

CLOCK FOR CAMPBELLTON POST OFFICE

Tower Will be Erected With Four Clock Faces.

The Public Works department have forwarded the plans for the proposed clock tower for the new post office. This shows an artistic tower about twenty-five feet high which will contain a clock with four illuminated faces. These faces will face north, south, east and west, and the clock will be visible from all parts of the town and harbor.

At first it was proposed to install a small single faced clock, but citizens and the Graphic brought the matter to our members attention and he quickly took the matter up with the above results.

CHEAP FARES TO TORONTO EXHIBITION

Special fares will prevail over the Intercolonial Railway in connection with the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, which this year will be held from August 20th to September 11th.

The Toronto Fair is the largest and most attractive of annual exhibitions held in America, and this year many new features are to be added. Aside from the attractions of the exhibition itself, a trip to Toronto at this season of the year is sure to be most enjoyable. The rates prevailing are most reasonable. From Newcastle that round trip fare will be $20.55 going on August 24, 25, 26, and 30th and Sept. 6 and 7. A special rate of $18.90 will prevail on August 25, 31 and September 5. All tickets are good to return September 13th. Maritime Province travelers will have their choice of the two through vestibuled trains, the Ocean Limited and the Maritime Express, both renowned for their excellence, especially in regard to the sleeping and dining car service. It will be well for intending travellers to apply in good time for berths, as every year there is an increasing rush of travel in connection with the Toronto Fair. Aug 16 1911.

MAGISTRATE CURED OF PILES & ECZEMA

'One of the latest prominent gentlemen to speak highly in Zam-Buk's favour is Mr. C. E. Sanford of Weston, King's Co., N.S. Mr. Sanford is a Justice of the Peace for the County, and a member of the Board of School Commissioners. He is also Deacon of the Baptist Church in Berwick. Indeed it would be difficult to find a man more widely known and more highly respected. Here is his opinion of Zam-Buk. He says:—'I never used anything that gave me such satisfaction as Zam-Buk. I had a patch of Eczema on my ankle which had been there for over 20 years. Sometimes the disease would break out on my shoulders. I had applied various ointments and tried all sorts of things to obtain a cure, but in vain. Zam-Buk, unlike everything else I had tried, proved highly satisfactory and cured the ailment. I have also used Zam-Buk for itching piles, and it has cured them completely also. I like comfort in helping my brother men, and if the recommendation of my own other sufferers to try it, I can only say: For the relief of hemorrhoids, Piles, Skin Diseases, Itching, Pruritus, etc., Zam-Buk is the only remedy. It cures various ulcers, salt rheum, burns, bruises, baby's sores, etc. The box, dropper and store. Ref.'

Baker's Cocoa and Chocolate ARE THE STANDARDS OF THE WORLD

53 Highest Awards in Europe and America

THE NEW MILL AT 1000 ALBERT STREET, MONTREAL

For over 131 years these well-known preparations have been made only at the company's mills (the largest in the world) at Dorchester, Mass., U. S. A. In order to keep pace with the rapidly increasing demand for its goods in the Dominion of Canada and the British Provinces, a large mill has been put in operation in Montreal.

With the finest possible equipment of modern machinery, with the accumulated experience of more than a century and a quarter in the selection and blending of cocoa beans and by the employment of a perfect mechanical process of manufacture, consumers and dealers are assured that the uniformity of quality and delicacy of flavor which have made these goods the standards of the world will be maintained.

To facilitate the distribution of goods, selling offices are located at Montreal, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

We guarantee the absolute purity of these goods under the pure food laws of Canada

CONSERVATIVE MEETINGS ENTHUSIASTIC

On Thursday evening the Conservatives held a meeting at Loggieville. The speakers were T. W. Butler of Newcastle, Dr. Byrns, Mayor of Chatham, a late leader in the Liberal party, and Philip McIntyre of Chatham, another Liberal who is opposed to Reciprocity. The meeting was very enthusiastic and lasted up till nearly midnight.

Another enthusiastic and well attended meeting was addressed by the same speakers Friday night at St. Margarets.

Hon. Donald Morrison returned from his tour Sunday morning, very much encouraged with the prospects of the campaign.

A large delegation from Newcastle attended the Sifton Meeting in Loggieville Sunday night.

A leading resident of North E. K. Basin, in town Saturday, reported that Mr. Morrison would pull a much larger vote in his section this month than in 1908.

The opposition had good meetings at Whitneyville and Allison Settlement Monday night.

The same reports are coming in from all districts between here and Beckettown, and also from Rogersville and down river parishes.

WEDDING BELLS

TOZER-DUNNETT

On Monday afternoon Sept. 4th at the Baptist Parsonage Newcastle, a very quiet but pretty wedding took place between Oakley C. Tozer of Lyttleton, N. B. and Myrtle Dunnett of the same place. The Rev. Dr. Cousins officiated. The bride who was unattended was tastefully dressed in a steel-grey travelling suit, with white felt hat and veil. After the marriage the happy couple and their nearest congratulations left for their home at Lyttleton. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Tozer long life and much prosperity.

TAYLOR-BARRON

A very pretty and interesting wedding took place on Tuesday evening, Aug. 29th at Lower Derby, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Barron, the parents of the bride. The bridegroom Mr. William Robert Taylor, was accompanied by Mr. Hazen McFavish as best man. The bride, Miss Mary Isabel Barron, who was accompanied by her father, had as bridesmaid her sister, Miss Annie Barron. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Cousins of Newcastle, before a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride looked radiant in a white silk dress tastefully trimmed with lace and orange blossoms, and as she entered the sitting room for the ceremony the Millerton band played suitable selections of music. After the marriage feast, the bride and bridegroom left for Newcastle en route for Halifax. During the evening the band played several lively airs and at intervals a (charivari) was indulged in by neighbors and friends to the great amusement of all present. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor intend taking up their residence at Lower Derby after the honeymoon. We wish them long life and happiness.

The unctious Globe of Toronto is taking alarm as to the fate of the Sunday Paet arranged by its Reverend Editor with "my friend President Taft." It certainly is rude for common Canadians to say right out loud that they don't think much of the President's invitation. And yet this unseemly clerical anger is no in keeping with the smooth, not to say oily, traditions of the Good Globe.
