NEWS ABOUT HOME.

"A child's among ye, takin' notes,
As' faith he'll prevent it."

TOWN TOPICS.

We greet you. The "mid'y" September. Oysters are again in season. How d'ye like our new dress? The melon-choly days have come. COLD.—At 5 a.m. on Wednesday morning the thermometer marked 38'. Mrs. Tennant, wife of Dr. Tennant, of Lucknow, has been visiting friends in Goderich.

Mr. Colin McDougall, of St. Thomas, will conduct the Crown business at the ensuing Fall Assizes.

Mr. H. Dunlop, the fashionable tailor, spent a few days in Toronto recently—combining business with pleasure.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Wm. Smith, of Goderich, had his fingers badly smashed at London, last week, by the moving of his engine while oiling it.

RETURNED.—Mr. Wilson Salkeld, of the Goderich Foundry, who has been in Chicago and the West for about three weeks, returned on Monday.

COAL.—The schooner Lillie Hamilton arrived from Cleveland on Friday last with a cargo of coal—350 tons—for Messrs Ogilvie and Hutchinson.

Mr. T. D. S. Moore, late of the London Advertiser, and brother of Mr. Edward Moore, of Goderich, has accepted the position of night editor of the Globe.

IN THE MARKETS.—Mr. John Acheson has been spending the week in Toronto, purchasing his fall and early winter goods from personal inspection. His advertisement will appear next week.

BACK AGAIN.—Mr. J. G. Detlor returned on Wednesday from a three weeks' visit to Orchard Beach, Me. The surf appears to have agreed with him, as he is much improved in health, and speaks highly of the place.

RAFFLE.—The raffle for Mrs. Walker's ottoman took place on Wednesday, Sept. 1st, at Currie Bros., Messrs. Woodcock, Ball and Currie presiding. No. 32 was the lucky one, and was held by Rev. P. J. Shea, of Seaford.

A RICH MENDICANT.—The Exeter Register advises its readers to be on the look out for a tramp with a large lump on his back, who does not tell those he begs from, that he the owner of a considerable amount of real estate in Toronto.

HOME AGAIN.—Mr. Abram Smith returned last week from a holiday trip across the lines. While in Chicago he took in the Knight Templar's parade. He is of opinion that they can muster a large crowd in the Phoenix City.

THE SILENT.—Judge Sinclair, of Hamilton, and Judge Senkler, of St. Catharines, have received special commissions to proceed to Sault Ste. Marie, for the purpose of trying a murder there. The trial will commence on the 13th of September and may possibly last over the 14th.

ENGAGED.—Mr. Samuel Sloane, of Goderich, has engaged the services of Mr. Lachlan McDonald, of this village, to buy wheat on the Goderich market during the coming season. McDonald has been spending a few days up in Bruce Peninsula, and leaves to enter upon his engagement next week.—Lucknow Sentinel.

ADVERTISE BY THE YEAR, says an old experienced business man. It is cheaper and yields a better return in proportion to the money invested. An advertisement should always be before the public in some shape. If it disappears it is soon forgotten, and those that remain have the superiority and advantage of the absence. The only good excuse for the discontinuance of an advertisement is that of retiring from business.

EXCURSION.—About seven well-filled coaches bringing excursionists from Woodstock and Ingersoll, arrived in town on Wednesday, Sept 1st. Notwithstanding the unpromising state of the weather the visitors expressed themselves as delighted with our pretty town. We are informed by Mr. J. L. Morton, the affable G. T. R. station agent, that during the season about 2,300 excursionists visited the town by rail on special trains.

Mr. James Dickson, our worthy Registrar, returned on Saturday morning from a trip to the North-West, where he had been spending the previous five weeks. During his stay in the Prairie Province he visited Crystal City, so-called, thence across the country to the Assiniboine River, and to Portage-La-Prairie. He says he saw some good land and luxurious pasturage up there, but that Nature had neglected to raise the land to its proper level by at least ten feet. Mr. D. looks as if he enjoyed his trip.

REMENTYL.—This famous Violinist will appear in Goderich on Monday ev'g, the 27th inst., when all lovers of music may expect a nice treat.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The Town Council will meet this (Friday) evening at 7.30 o'clock. We understand the chief topic of discussion will be the Market By-law.

SCHOOL OPENINGS.—Model School opened on Aug. 30th, with sixteen teachers in training. Public School opened Sept. 1st, with 684 pupils. No changes have been made in the staff since last term.

A JUDGE.—Mr. A. M. Polley, of this town, is one of the judges on horses for the Southern Counties fair, to be held on Sept. 28th and three following days in St. Thomas. He is just the man for the place.

CAMP MEETING.—The Camp Meeting near Blyth, commenced yesterday, and is under the direction of Dr. Williams, of this town. The meeting will continue for about a week, and on Thursday an "all day" temperance meeting will be held.

A CHORUS.—Miss Aggie Henderson, who has taught in the Exeter school for the last two years, have given up the situation, and intends going to Goderich to study for a second-class certificate. Miss Dickson, of Goderich, has taken her place.

THE WORLD is the name of a wide-awake little daily newspaper published in Toronto by Messrs. Horton & McLean, formerly of the Globe parliamentary staff. The World is a pronounced Liberal in politics, and bids fair to work itself into a good position.

FOR NEW YORK.—Mrs. E. J. Copeland of the Chicago House, left yesterday for Toronto, New York and other cities to take in the fall and winter styles. She will be absent about two weeks, and the ladies who patronize the Chicago House will doubtless get the benefit of her observations.

The annual sale of thoroughbred and other stock under the auspices of the Huron Live Stock Association, will be held in Goderich on Wednesday, Oct. 20, and following days, until the stock is disposed of. Mr. Francis Graham has been appointed auctioneer on the occasion. The catalogue will be issued shortly.

APPLE SHIPMENTS.—During the past week Mr. James McNair shipped two cars of fall apples to Winnipeg, and four cars to Montreal. We hope his venture will result profitably, as it is quite a new departure. Formerly fall apples were fed to stock and converted into cider to some extent, but the largest part of them perished, just because there has been no market demand.

SUCCESSFUL PUPIL.—In the official account of the result of the recent competition for Trinity term at Osgood Hall, Toronto, as published in the Toronto papers, we were pleased to notice amongst the successful candidates the name of Mr. Rich. Holmes, son of Mr. Thos. Holmes, of Wingham, who is well known to most of our readers. We are glad to learn that Mr. Holmes passed a highly satisfactory examination as a student of the third year, and we wish him continued success.

THAT SHOOTING CASE.—Thos. Sheridan, the sailor who a short time ago shot the mate of his vessel, John O'Byrne, was tried before Judge Squire last week. The evidence brought forward went to prove that the prisoner fired the shots in self-defence, and O'Byrne, in a letter from Toronto hospital, admitted that he had provoked Sheridan badly. The Judge also took into consideration the fact that the prisoner had already been confined in goal for nearly two months, and sentenced him to one week in goal. Mr. Campion defended.

NEWSPAPERS.—Judge Longstreet, the president of South Carolina College, thus sets forth the value of a newspaper:—Small is the sum that is required to patronize the newspaper, and most amply remunerated is the patron. I care not how humble and unpretending is the gazette which he takes, it is next to impossible to fill it fifty-two times a year without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price. Every parent whose son is off from home, at school, should supply him with a paper. I still remain surprised that a difference there was between those of his schoolmates who had and those who had not access to newspapers. Other things being equal, the first were decidedly superior to the last in debate and composition at least. The reason is plain, they had command of more facts. Youth will peruse newspapers, with delight when they will read nothing else.

The weather of the past few days has been suggestive of winter fashions.

HIS PICTURE.—A large portrait of the general proprietor meets the gaze of the passer by who glances at Mr. Harry Smith's shop window.

THIS STYLES.—Miss J. Stewart returned home last Friday from a week's visit to the cities, where she was purchasing new goods, and taking in the styles.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Archibald Fleming, late Canadian news editor, Globe, has accepted service with the Art Publishing Company, in the preparation of the projected artistic work, "Picturesque Canada."

DOMINION RIFLE ASSOCIATION.—Among those present at the Dominion Rifle Association meeting at Ottawa were the names of the following members of the 33rd Huron Batt.—Major Wilson, Lieut Wilson, Color. Serg. Munro, C. rpl. Sheppard and Pte. Wilson.

A GOOD MOVE.—We were informed that the Ladies' Aid, of the North St. Methodist Church, intend to furnish a course of Lectures, to beguile the long evenings that are coming on. Several prominent gentlemen from abroad, have promised their aid. We wish them every success in this their laudable effort.

DISTRICT MEETING.—The Financial District Meeting for Goderich District of the Methodist Church, will be held in Lucknow, on Thursday, the 23rd inst, at 9 o'clock a. m. The District Sunday School Convention will be held in the same place and date, commencing at 2 o'clock p. m. An excellent programme of subjects has been assigned to the ministers and laymen, and a good time may be expected.

OF INTEREST TO OUR VOLUNTEERS.—The following changes have been made in military regulations in field exercise and evolutions of infantry, as published in the Gazette: Swords will be returned on the caution before moving into an extended order, but will be drawn when required for signalling, also when bayonets are fixed during the attack for "the charge." In the firing a feu de joie bayonets will not be fixed. Pantalons and high boots are to be worn on all mounted officers. Valises will no longer be worn by officers of any mounted corps.

HON. A. MACKENZIE.—Hon. A. Mackenzie passed up the lake on board the Ontario, on Wednesday of last week. The boat laid over at Goderich a couple of hours, and an opportunity was thus afforded the hon. gentleman of seeing a number of his friends residing in town. He was driven to the residence of Mr. M. C. Cameron, M. P., and thence to the Albion Hotel, where a number of friends were received. About four o'clock in the afternoon the hon. gentleman returned to the boat, and proceeded on his way to Duluth, where he purposes being absent about two weeks.

HORSE STEALING.—Archibald McBride who for some time was in the employ of his uncle, Robt. Mitchell, Maitlandville, recently left, taking with him a horse belonging to his employer. The animal was sold at Exeter, McBride foolishly thinking that he had a right to dispose of the animal for wages due him. He went to the States for a short time and returned with his wife to this county, when he was arrested by Constable Dunlop of Seaford, and brought to Goderich goal. In consideration of the fact the prisoner had no intention of defrauding Mitchell, but went about a wrong way of getting back wages, the Judge sentenced him to but a month in goal. The prisoner was defended by Mr. E. Campion.

FALSE PRETENCES.—W. E. Parmeter of Toronto, who has been buying hides, leather and other articles through the country, made a purchase of leather from Hugh Moore, tanner, Clinton, last February, amounting to over $400, which was to have been paid in cash, but which as is alleged he induced Moore to forward and draw at three days instead of paying cash, on the representation that he had a store on King Street, Toronto, where he professed to be doing good business. The draft not having been paid, Moore, who had meantime ascertained that Parmeter had no store, nor any other property in Toronto or elsewhere, and falling to obtain payment or satisfaction, caused Parmeter to be arrested for obtaining goods by false pretences. He was arrested at London, and took bail. The preliminary investigation took place on Wednesday last, before His Worship, the Mayor, here. Mr. Malcomson appearing for the prisoner, and Mr. Garrow for the prosecution. After hearing testimony Parmeter was committed to take his trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The immense amount of extra work in connection with the change of form and type, has prevented us from making as thorough a personal canvass of the town, as we would wish. We hope that none will feel slighted at not being consulted, and we will call upon all during the next few days, with the rates. THE SPECTATOR will be a valuable advertising medium, on account of the large amount of local reading matter which will appear in it every week, and it will pay to advertise its well printed and well read columns.

SCHOOL BOARD.

No Business done for Want of a Quorum. At the meeting of Public School Trustees on Monday evening only Messrs Buchanan, Cooke, Parnor, Swanson and the Secretary were present. After waiting patiently and in vain for a sufficient number of their fellow trustees to appear to form a quorum, the quintette adjourned without transacting any business.

Special Notices.

For all kinds of machinery use "Castorine" machine oil. For sale by R. W. McKean, Goderich. 1746 B.

CHOKERS.—Some people are always croaking and grumbling about dull times and poor trade, but at R. B. Smith's business has been largely increasing during the past six months. No doubt this is owing to the new and attractive goods which are being daily received, the low price at which every thing is marked, and the reputation the house has earned for fair and square dealing.

East Wawanosh.

LIQUOR CASE.—Wm. Wylie was fined $25 and costs for contravention of the Liquor Law. Messrs. T. Holmes, B. Wilson and R. Armstrong, J. P., sat upon the case, and Stephen Yates, Inspector, prosecuted. Wylie has been fined five times for violation of the liquor laws.

Hay.

DIED.—Mrs. Margaret Gibson, wife of Mr. John McMurtrie, died at the residence of her husband, in the township of Hay, near Kippen, on the 26th ult. Mrs. McMurtrie was in her 67th year. She had been ill for some time. She was a native of Scotland, but had left it for an adopted county, Canada, some 40 years ago. She was respected by all who knew her, and she leaves a large circle of friends and relatives who will mourn her loss and cherish her memory in the most affectionate remembrance.

McKillop.

RE-ENGAGED.—Mr. W. G. Duff has been re-engaged for next year, as teacher in the Roxboro school, McKillop, at his former salary, $510 per annum.

FARM RENTED.—Mr. James Horsey, of the 8th con., has rented from Mr. Edwin Johnston one of his farms. The farm contains 80 acres, and Mr. Johnston receives a yearly rental of $130 for it.

DEATH.—Mr. James Lawrence, of 5th con., McKillop, departed this life on Wednesday morning, in the 74th year of his age. Mr. Lawrence had been a sufferer from dropsy for over two years. He was a native of Kilkenny, Ireland, and with his family emigrated to this country in the year 1845, and settled near Toronto. He remained there about five years, when he removed to McKillop where he resided until his death.—[New Era.]

Seaford.

PRESENTATION.—The friends of Rev. A. D. McDonald presented him with a purse of $12 last week.

DISSOLUTION.—The firm of Coleman & Gouinlock, salt manufacturers, has been dissolved, and Dr. Coleman will assume the management of the business in future.

SCHOOL APPOINTMENTS.—Miss Hogarth, of Stephen, has been appointed to take the place vacated by the retirement of Miss Ross, and Mr. Henry Cameron, of Brucefield, as successor to Mr. Sellars. Mr. Cameron is one of the most successful and efficient teachers in the county.

OBITUARY.—We regret to chronicle this week the death of Mr. James Spurling, of this town, which took place on Monday. Mr. Spurling had been ill for several months, and his demise was not altogether unexpected. He was one of the pioneer settlers of Huron, and for many years resided in the township of McKillop. About seven years ago he sold his farm and removed to Seaford. He was a quiet, unassuming, Christian man, who was universally respected.—[New Era.]

RATHER PERSONAL

We are the Subject of Journalistic Prophecy.

And This is What one Brother of the Q will Have to Say.

The Messrs. McGillivuddy, of the Brussels Post, have sold out their interest in that journal, and purchased the Godefrich Signal. We expect to see the old Signal flourish as it never did before under its new management.—[Sarnia Observer.]

Mr. T. McGillivuddy, late proprietor of the Brussels Post, gave us a call on Monday. He has purchased THE HURON SIGNAL and takes possession there on the 1st prox. Mr. M. is a live newspaper man and will make the SIGNAL a first-class journal.—[Woodstock Sentinel Review.]

Mr. D. McGillivuddy, late of the Brussels Post, called on us on Friday. Mr. M. G. has sold the Post to Messrs Kerr & Auld, and has purchased in partnership with his brother, the Godefrich Signal. Success to the McGillivuddies, who combine Irish wit with Scotch perseverance.—[Oak Reformers.]

CHANGED HANDS.—McGillivuddy, Proprietor of the Brussels Post, has sold out his interest in that journal to Kerr & Auld, and has purchased THE HURON SIGNAL, of Godefrich. There is no doubt but the latter paper will now flourish as never did before. The McGillivuddies, however, have ability to make the SIGNAL a power for good in Huron, and no doubt they will.—[Kinsardine Reporter.]

JOURNALISTIC.—The McGillivuddy Bros., who have for some years so successfully published the Brussels Post have sold their interest in that journal to Messrs. Kerr, of Brussels, and Auld, of Strathroy, and have purchased the Godefrich Signal. We wish the worthy brothers success, but we are not very sanguine on that point.—[Lacknow Sentinel.]

THE BRUSSELS POST.—Last week Messrs. McGillivuddy published their valentines, and Messrs. Kerr and Auld their salutatory notices. The former were the founders of the Post, who by hard labor have made it one of the best papers in the county, the latter are the purchasers of the same. The Messrs. McGillivuddy have bought the HURON SIGNAL, and we expect to see it very greatly improved under their management.—[Ontonagon News.]

The Godefrich Signal one of the oldest newspapers in the Huron tract, has been purchased by the Messrs. McGillivuddy, of the Brussels Post. The Signal, since the days of Mr. McQueen, has done good service, but of late has not displayed the vim and energy of the olden times. The new proprietors will no doubt bring it again to the forefront, being men of experience and push. They have disposed of the Post, of which they were the originators.—[St. Marys Argus.]

We were favored with a call this week by our friend Mr. D. McGillivuddy, late of the Brussels Post. The Messrs. McGillivuddy go to take charge of the Godefrich Signal, which they have purchased, on the first of September. The Messrs. McGillivuddy are energetic local journalists, and we expect shortly to see a marked improvement in the SIGNAL. The Reformers of Godefrich are to be congratulated in their local organ falling into the hands of the McGillivuddy Bros. They will make it a better paper than ever it will.—[Seaforth Sun.]

THE LOCAL EDITOR.

The following is borrowed, and it is the best we ever had a local editor lend us: If a man buys a new buggy, or if his cow can bawl three times without winking, the local is expected to proclaim it with a local journal. If he starts at a two-penny business, his first thought is to write the local with a five-cent cigar to bring up a five-dollar puff.

Indeed, he thinks it is a mission of the local to make his fortune for him by "free blowing." He will take the local one side and point out all the superior qualities of a rat-terrier dog, and coolly ask to "give him a hoist." He doesn't care anything about it, only Spriggins has a dog which he thinks is a buster, and some of 'em wanted his "put in" just to take the conceit out of Spriggins.

Everybody wants to be "put in." They are the big "I," but no one says, "Here, local, put yourself inside this new suit of clothes," or "throw yourself outside of this oyster-stew," or "stuff this watch into your pocket." Oh, no, of course not; that would cost something. The shoe is on the other foot, you see.

The local is supposed to know everything about other people's business, and is expected to show up all the actors in every family broil in town. If the vilest tongue of scandal finds a victim, people wonder why he didn't run about with his notebook and gather up the vituperative bits of slander for his paper.

If he steps into a billiard hall he is requested to make a note of the astonishing fact that Bill Tompkins has made a run of eleven points.

When the minstrel troupes arrive in town the agent immediately rushes into the printing office, and calling for his local, he slips three or four tickets in his hand, and whispers:

"Draw us a big house. Put it in strong."

And putting him patrimonically on the shoulder, the agent admits the inferiority of the troupe, but we are not to "let on." It is no sin for a local to lie. To please the lecturer the local is forced to sit two moral hours to hear him through anapid discourse, so that he can "write him up."

And so it goes. All are anxious to appear favorably in print, but few are willing to pay for it. The local's time is worth nothing but to be his head writing puff for ambitious persons. It doesn't cost him anything to live; he never eats or drinks, or travels, and money is of no use to him. Put it in! put it in!

Fun and Fancy.

A taking leav of company make your best salutation to them as you go out, but don't slam the door.

Learning is a good thing for a man to have in his upper story, if he has common sense on the ground floor.

An individual who boasted of "moving in intellect circles" was afterwards ascertained to be the clown in a circus.

When children are young they'd like half a dozen birthday-cakes a year; but as they grow old they don't care to have even one.

A man who had been waiting a long time for something to turn up, stepped on a barrel hoop, and it turned up with a bang.

A lecturer on "True Manhood" asked: "Can any one improve his condition by whining?" "If not, whine-hot!" exclaimed an auditor.

It is because he has heard that close attention to little things makes a successful business man that the yellowed goods dealer pays such close attention to his mouth-clothes.

A North Carolina man will work four hours to cut down a tree that has a room in it, but nothing would induce him to split up enough wood to cook the supper with. The latter proceeding isn't reported.

"How came you to fail in your examination?" asked the tutor. "I thought I crammed you thoroughly," "Well, you see," replied the student, "the fact was you crammed me so tight I couldn't get it out."

An old lady seeing a sign over the door of an umbrella shop, "Umbrellas Re-covered," went in and told the shopman that she would like to have him recover for her the one that was stolen from her the week previous.

A colored sailor, addressing his brethren, made the following sensible point: "Be industrious. Take care of what you earn. Get homes of your own. If you want to be respected you must make money. Make it honestly if you can, but if you can't make it honestly, make it just as well as you can make it."

An old backwoodsman, who was about to take his first ride on a Mississippi steamboat, was asked whether he wished a deck or a cabin passage. "Wal," said he, "in a humble, resigned sort of way, 'I've lived in a cabin all my life, an' so I guess a cabin passage 'll be good 'nough for me."

A bashful young man could defer the momentous question no longer, so he stammered:—"Martha, I—I do you—you must be—are you aware that the good Book says—er, says that it is not good for man should be alone?" "Then hadn't you better run home to your mother?" Martha coolly suggested.

A DISRUPTION.—When the excitement caused in Scotland by the disruption was at its height, two elderly females met together in the village of Leith, and a discussion on spiritual independence ensued.

"Do you," asked the independent dame, "are ye no' fear'd to bide in the Auld Kirk when ye ken they will be gae to the bad place after they doo?" "The only thing that concerns me," rejoined the other, "is that if I have any word to send your father and myther, who belonged to the Auld Kirk, ye had better send it by me."

PARTED LOVERS.—They were fond of each other, and had been engaged; but they quarrelled, and were too proud to make it up.

He called a few days ago at her father's house to see the old gentleman on business, of course. She was at the door.

Said he: "Ah, Miss Blank, I believe; is your father in?"

"No, sir," she replied; "he is not in at present. Did you wish to see him personally?"

"Yes," was the bluff response, feeling that she was yielding, "on very particular business," and he turned proudly to go away.

"I beg your pardon," she called after him, as he struck the "lower step," "but who shall I say?" He never smiled again.

A GENTLEMAN.

The following item is worth consideration: "A patron of a newspaper said to the publisher: 'How is it that you never call on me for pay for your paper?' 'Oh,' said the editor, 'we never ask a gentleman for money.'"

"Indeed," replied the patron, "how do you manage to get along when they don't pay?"

"Why," said the editor, "after a certain time we conclude he is not a gentleman, and then we ask him."

THE SORROWS OF GENIUS.

Homer was a beggar.

Spencer died in want.

Cervantes died of hunger.

Dervent, the dramatist, was a slave.

Dryden lived in poverty and distress.

Sir Walter Raleigh died on the scaffold.

Butler lived a life of penury, and died poor.

Becon lived a life of meanness and distress.

Plautus, the Roman comic poet, turned a mill.

Paul Borghese had fourteen trades, and starved with all.

Esses, the Italian poet, was often distressed for 5 shillings.

Steele, the humorist, lived a life of perfect warfare with bailiffs.

Otway, the English dramatist, died prematurely, and through hunger.

Chatterton, the child of genius and misfortune, destroyed himself at 18.

Bentivoglio was refused admittance into a hospital he had himself erected.

The death of Collins was through neglect, first causing mental derangement.

Savage died in prison at Bristol, where he was confined for the debt of $40.

Goldsmith's "Vicar of Wakefield" was sold for a trifle to save him from the grip of the law.

Fielding lies in the burying-ground of the English factory at Lisbon without a stone to mark the spot.

Milton's copyright of "Paradise Lost," for $75, at three payments, and finished his life in obscurity.

HANLAN STARTS FOR ENGLAND.

Thursday afternoon, Sept 2nd, Edward Hanlan left Toronto en route for England to compete with Trickett for the championship of the world. Hanlan, who is accompanied by George Hawthorne as trainer, embarked at the Yonge-street wharf on board the Ontario, and with him were his wife and son, who go as far as Buffalo.

On the wharf to bid the champion "good-bye," were the Hon. J. W. Patterson, Tinning, Elliott, Monroe, several members of the Toronto Rowing Club, and others. The champion appeared in excellent health, and though not over confident seemed to think he had a good chance of retaining his championship. He said that the trip would cost him money, as he was going at his own expense, while the Sydney people had subscribed £400 for Trickett.

Just before the Ontario left the dock three hearty cheers were given for Hanlan, who appeared at the bow of the vessel, and in response thanked the crowd for the good wishes. "He was going," he said "to defend the honour of Canada, and he would do his best. In fact there was nobody enough in England to buy him." Hanlan takes with him only one boat, the Canada, rowed by Wharm, She weights a trifle over 24 lbs., and was despatched express by the G. W. R. yesterday morning.

On arrival in England it is probable he will order a Swaddle & Winship. Hanlan's training quarters will be the Bull Head, Ramen, and John Bright, 25, Newcastle, who attended to him last year, will probably look after him on the water this time.

THE BEDOUIN'S REBUKE.

In the Arab tale of Neggedeh there was a home whose fame spread far and near, and a Bedouin of another tribe, by name Dahar, desired extremely to possess it.

Having offered to give for his camel and the whole wealth, he hit at length upon the following device, by which he hoped to gain the object of his desire. He resolved to stain his face with the juice of an herb, to clothe himself in rags, to tie his neck and legs together, so as to appear like a lame beggar.

That equipped he went to Nabab, the owner of the horse, who he knew was to pass that way. When he saw Nabab approaching on his beautiful steed, he cried out in a weak voice:

"I am a poor stranger; for these days I have been unable to move from this spot to seek for food. I am dying; help me, and heaven will reward you."

The Bedouin kindly offered to take him up on his horse and carry him home; but the rogue replied:

"I cannot rise, I have no strength left."

Nabab, called after him to stop and listen. Certain of not being pursued, he turned and halted at a short distance from Nabab, who was armed with a spear.

"You have taken my horse," said the latter. "Since Heaven has killed it, I wish you joy of it; but I do confide you never to let any one how you obtained it."

"And why not?" asked Dahar.

"Because," said the noble Arab, "another man might be really ill, and men would fear to help him. You would be the cause of many refusing to perform an act of charity for fear of being duped as I have been."

As a family medicine and tonic, there is no remedy at present giving such universal satisfaction, and effecting so many astonishing cures, as Electric Bitters.

Our druggists report a lively demand for them, at times being unable to supply the many calls. All Bilious Attacks, Stomach, Liver, and Kidney Complaints, Diabetes, Gravel, readily yield to their curative qualities. Sold by F. Jordan at fifty cents per bottle.

Jersey Butter is all the fashion, and it has become so, mainly because the makers have kept up a uniform color through the creaming process, and never allowed the Dairyman who wish to be in the fashion must use the Perfect Butter Color made by Wells, Richardson and Co., Burlington, Vt. Hon. E. D. Mason, Pres. Vt. Dairy Association says: "It gives the brightest and most perfect color to butter of any substance I have ever used. I know it to be as you say, as harmless as salt, and it adds several cents per pound to the value of butter."

This is fully exemplified in the demonstration that so common, and pasture weed as smart weed, water pepper, possesses medicinal properties which, when combined with essence of Jamaica Ginger and other efficacious vegetable extracts, as in Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart Weed, it constitutes a most potent remedy for bowel affections, as diarrhoea, dysentery, flux, &c. It is also an efficacious medicine for colds, and to break up fevers and inflammatory attacks, and for the alleviation of pain. Every family should keep a supply of it. 50 cents by druggists.

Where doctors have failed to cure and have given their patients up to die, Electric Bitters have often been used, and a cure effected, greatly to the astonishment of all. Discharge of the stomach, Liver, Kidney and Urinary organs are positively cured by Electric Bitters. They invariably cure Constipation, Headache and all Bilious attacks. Try them and be convinced that they are the best medicine ever used. Sold by F. Jordan at fifty cents per bottle.

As SURELY AS EFFECT FOLLOWS CAUSE, so surely will disease eventually fasten itself up on a system deficient in vital energy, if not a medication is not resorted to in time. The necessary tendency of a weak discharge of the functions of the body is to disorder its organs.—Invigoration, prompt and thorough, is the only safeguard. No renovation of depleted physical energy, no restoration of lost force, nerve power and cheerfulness, has more clearly demonstrated its efficacy than Northrop & Lyman's Quinine Wine. In this preparation, associated with the salutary medicines which form its basis, is pure sherry wine and certain aromatic constituents, which impart an agreeable taste to the article, and give additional emphasis to its effects.

In cases of general debility and dyspepsia it is invaluable and the desired effect is, in the vast majority of cases, remarkably prompt as well as decisive. That good natural appetite, which gives a relish for the coarsest fare, is restored by the use of the Quinine Wine, which also cures brain soothing and body refreshing sleep. Fever and ague, and bilious remittent fever, are diseases to the eradication of which it is especially adapted; but it should be used only in the intervals between the seizures. The far-reaching effects of a good tonic, in all complaints involving loss of physical energy, are well understood by physicians, and the comprehensive influence of our good of this preparation upon the system goes far to bear out the prescient belief in the value of invigoration as an opponent of disease. Be sure to ask for the Quinine Wine prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto. Sold by all druggists.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT. A FEW PREPARATIONS OF MEDICINES WHICH HAVE WITHSTOOD THE IMPARTIAL JUDGMENT OF THE PEOPLE FOR ANY GREAT LENGTH OF TIME. One of these is Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thomas Robinson, Farmham Centre P. O., writes: "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and since then I have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all." J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper, West Sheffield, P. Q., writes: "I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried it on my horses, in case of cuts, wounds, etc., and think it is equally as good for work as man." A. Maybe, Merchant, Warkworth, writes: "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Electric Oil, and it is pronounced by the public, 'one of the best medicines they have ever used.' It has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence." Joseph Rusan, Township of Peasey, writes: "I was persuaded to try Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a great public benefit."

Beware of Imitations.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottles, and take the other Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cts. THE GREATEST WONDER OF MODERN TIMES!—The Pills Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels and are valuable in all complaints essential to Females. The Ointment is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Bronchitis, Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism and all Skin Diseases, it has no equal.

BEWARE OF AMERICAN COUNTERFEITS.—I most respectfully take leave to call the attention of the Public generally to the fact that many parts of the globe are sending to many parts of the globe numerous imitations of my Pills and Ointment. These imitations are sold under my name and address in New York. I do not allow my Medicine to be sold in any part of my Pills and Ointment. I have no Agents there. My Medicines are only made by me, at 353 Oxford Street, London. In the Booklet directions for the use of the Pills and Ointment, I most earnestly appeal to the Public against being deceived by counterfeits. Do not be misled by this advertisement, as they are the counterfeits they pretend to denounce. These counterfeits are purchased by unprincipled vendors at one-half the price of my Pills and Ointment and are sold to you as my genuine Medicines. I most earnestly appeal to those of justice which I feel sure I may venture upon asking from all honorable persons, to assist me and the Public, as far as may lie in their power, in denouncing this shameful fraud. Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicine bears the British Government Stamp with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT, LONDON," engraved thereon. On the label is the address, 353 Oxford Street, London, where they are Manufactured. Holloway's Pills and Ointment bearing any other address are counterfeits. The Trade Marks of these Medicines are registered in Canada. Hence any one throughout the British Possessions, who may keep the American Counterfeits for sale, will be prosecuted. THE HURON SIGNAL

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1880.

OUR SALUTATORY.

With this issue we begin our connection with THE HURON SIGNAL. It is customary upon such occasions to make a bow to the public with a flourish of trumpets, but we do not believe in a heavy blast unless there be great cause for it; and so we will be pardoned if we do not lay before our readers a history of our past excellencies in another field.

It is sufficient for our readers to know that we have had long experience in the journalistic profession, having been for many years engaged successfully in the printing and publishing business in a neighboring town in this county.

Of the past record of THE HURON SIGNAL we need not say anything to the residents of Goderich and vicinity. It has withstood the storms and outlasted the calms over 32 years, and after many vicissitudes comes this week again to the fore-front in the ranks of Canadian journalism.

As considerable cost we have renewed our printing material; we have changed the shape to the popular quarto style; we have endeavored to present to our readers, and we think with success, one of the handsomest Provincial sheets in Canada; and while making all these changes we have not overlooked the editorial, local or literary character of the journal.

Politically we announce no new departure from the past utterances of THE SIGNAL, when the trenchant pen and solid common sense of Thomas McQueen gave power to its tone. But although pronounced in our political views, we are not of those who believe that because we are politically allied with the loyal Opposition we are against every measure brought forward by the Government.

No, we are firmly convinced that measures in the interest of the country have come from the party led by Sir John A. Macdonald, and we are willing to give him the credit of having placed them on the Statute Book, notwithstanding the fact that we are aware that the inspiration for the best of them flashed to the brain of the Premier from the opposite side of the House. However, be that as it may, we are not here to eternally hold up the political red rag before the eyes of those who may differ from us in the matter of party; but we take our side with them and join hands to fight the battle of progress in the good days that are, we earnestly trust, in store for local news.

Our specialty shall be general news, and neither time nor money will be considered of consequence so long as news of importance to the people of Goderich and the County of Huron can be obtained.

To the public THE SIGNAL to-day presents itself under the new management, printed from new type, and in a neat and improved form. Much has been given into the business men and others of Goderich and vicinity, and we hope they will not forget, so far as we are concerned, that which has passed into a proverb, "Where much has been given, much shall be expected."

We will in the time to come have many opportunities of becoming acquainted with the resources and business enterprises of the town of Goderich, and will not fail to let the outside world know that an embryo city lies on the shores of Lake Huron, and at the mouth of the Marston.

SOME of the Conservative papers have been endeavoring to make capital out of the fact that Sir Richard Cartwright and M. C. Cameron, M. P.s, have been buying land in the North-West. Just where the inquiry of the thing comes in is not definitely stated, but it is insinuated that the gentlemen named were getting a good thing in Government lands. The facts are, that the land bought was private property, the owner being a son of one of the Cabinet Ministers who had purchased the lands from the Government a year ago. The transaction was purely a commercial one, and if any "crookedness" occurred it must have been done about twelve months since.

We are pleased to learn that our old friend Mr. J. P. Macmillan has been appointed County Attorney of Dufferin, and has gone to locate at Orangeville. Mr. Macmillan is a first-class man for the position, and no better proof of his fitness can be adduced than the testimony of Mr. Peterson, the County Attorney of Wellington, who, although politically opposed to him, paid a most flattering tribute to his ability as a lawyer and his gentlemanly bearing and courteous manner during his residence in the Royal City.

ONE must go from home to learn the news. A French Canadian journal, the Nouvelles Monde, last week gravely informed its readers that "The Toronto World owes its seeing the light to Mr. Horton, ex-M.P., the same to whom Sir Richard Cartwright owes his seat in the Commons." Our Quebec contemporary should try again, and Mr. Horton may well rejoice that the venacious scribe accused him of no worse crime than starting a newspaper.

MAY FINN, a very fat and very fast actor, who manages a troupe of "blondes," was arrested and fined in London a few days ago for giving an immoral show. The authorities of London are to be commended for their action in putting a stop to the almost nude exhibitions made by these brazen blondes.

The engineers of the Public Works Department were engaged in surveying the harbor on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, with a view to embodying the results of their labors in a Government report. We understand it is the intention to have all the harbors along the Lakes likewise surveyed.

MR. PETER RYAN has published a card in the Globe warmly thanking the 1,836 Liberal electors of West Toronto for the loyal and generous support extended to him by every section of the party in the late contest. Mr. Ryan polled the largest Reform vote ever polled in West Toronto, while Mr. Besty's was considerably behind that of Mr. John Beverley Robinson in 1878.

It has always been a puzzle with political economists how to protect labor. Mr. Jury, in alluding to this matter in Toronto recently, said that everything that the workmen has to buy may be protected; but his labor, the thing he has to sell, admits of no protection. There is and cannot but be free trade in the labor market. When work is plentiful here and scarce elsewhere men will flock up to share it, and in proportion to this influx the price of labor will come down in obedience to the unerring laws of demand and supply. No prohibitory duties can be levied upon labor. Men can come and go as they please, and so it happens that the workman at home has no protection for his labor.

CONTEMPORARY OPINION.

The report that the Princess Louise has found life in Canada distasteful appears founded on fact. It is no wonder. She has lived chiefly in Ottawa where the sickening snobbery of brainless civil service employees gives a low and unhealthy tone to society, and where little is known of culture except the affectation of it.—[Galt Reformer.

If the reform gain of 393 votes in West Toronto and over 100 in North Ontario is significant of nothing but popular approval of the Government, why does the Mail waste so many words explaining the lesson taught by last Saturday's elections? Liberals hoped for a little more than they gained, but they gained enough to relieve them from the necessity of making difficult explanations.—[Telegraph.

The Mail is severe on Wright and his confederates. It says—"Mr. Wright's candidature in Mr. Ryan's interest ended in disaster and contempt; and the Conservative party has, it is to be hoped, seen the last of him, and of Mr. Ick Evans and all that crew." It is wrong, however, in saying that Wright's candidature was in Ryan's interest, for he was doing a little electioneering on his own hook.

One result of the West Toronto election has been the strangling of the rag-baby movement, which a score or two of levellers have been endeavoring to bring to the front in Canada. The collapse of the irredeemable currency party in the States left very little danger of the scheme being seriously considered by the Canadian people, but the Toronto vote on Saturday showing but one voter in eighty as a supporter of the fraud, renders the attempted campaign a complete farce.—[Chatham Banner.

Mr. Blake's abilities will not be questioned by any one, friend or opponent, who has had the opportunity of hearing him in the House, at the Bar, or on the public platform. One of the first of Canadian judges said in speaking of him not long ago, "I know the best man in public life in Canada, and I have for a number of years past come into contact with the best men in the British House of Commons. My opinion is that Mr. Blake has no equal in Canada, and no superior in England. No higher tribute than this could be paid to a Canadian statesman."—[Toronto World.

The hum of the threshing machine is sounding throughout the land, following sharp upon the quick rattle of the reaper. The hum is on this occasion of a sound and substantial character. There is no humming about it. It means forty to fifty bushels of barley to the acre. It scores 20 to 40 bushels of wheat to the acre. To the farmer or to the multitudinous interests depending for fresh life on the farmer there is no sweeter sound than that of the hum of the thresher turning out twenty-five to fifty bushels of golden grain. Herein is one of our greatest sources of national prosperity; and the grand harvest of 1880 has more to do with the good times coming than the tariffs of a dozen finance ministers or the "blessings" of a dozen N. P.s.—[Lindsay Post.

The Kincaidine Council has exempted Mr. Rightmyer's Salt Works from taxes for four years. Prior to the general election, this gentleman stated that if the N. P. was adopted it would be $10,000 a year in his pocket.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.

As will be seen by THE HURON SIGNAL of this issue, a metamorphosis has taken place in the make, shape and get up of the paper. It is now printed entirely at home and from type manufactured by the celebrated founders, Miller & Richard, of Edinburgh, Scotland. The beautiful engraved heading is from the establishment of Messrs. Beale Bros., Toronto, the design having been furnished by Mr. Wm. Revell, of the same city. The paper upon which this issue is printed was supplied us by the Canada Paper Company, and for cleanness and good color cannot be excelled.

Having supplied a first-class paper to our readers we consider it is now their province to show their appreciation of our enterprise, and we look for a cordial support from the people of Goderich and the County of Huron.

We present to the public a newspaper far superior to what THE SIGNAL has heretofore been, and having done our part we expect with confidence our friends to do theirs.

Hereafter the living price of $1.50 per annum will be charged by us for THE SIGNAL, so that we can enter on equal terms into a fair competition with first-class newspapers, local or otherwise; but as some of our readers will feel disposed to demur to the raise in price (notwithstanding the improved quality of the journal and the increased quantity of local news which they now receive) we make them the following liberal offer:—All subscriptions now in arrears for THE SIGNAL paid before October 1, 1880, will be charged only at the rate of $1 per year; if not paid by that time regular scale rates will be enforced. With reference to new subscribers we make this offer:—We will give THE SIGNAL from this date to January 1st, 1882, for $1.50. This is an unprecedented offer for a first-class journal, and we hope the people of Huron will avail themselves of it.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS.

To the Editor of the Signal.

Sir,—Will you kindly allow me space for a few words of comment on some statements which were made at a recent meeting of the Town Council, in reference to the cost of the High School, and which my lengthened absence from town prevented me from taking notice of sooner. In THE SIGNAL of the 11th August, under the head of "Town Council," I find the following:—"Mr. Johnston thought that the staff engaged in High Schools was too expensive for the work done. When he went to the High School there was only one master to 80 pupils, and they were efficiently taught as now. For 120 pupils in Goderich High School we had four teachers. Mr. Sloane agreed that there were too many teachers; he did not see how they put in their time doing so little."

Now, before these gentlemen undertook to pronounce so positively in regard to the work done in the High School, common fairness would surely have required that they should have taken the trouble to visit the school when in operation, obtain some information in regard to the number of pupils in the various classes, and see for themselves how the teachers' put in their time; but so far as I am aware neither of them has ever paid us a visit for that purpose, or even asked any member of the staff for any information. Now that we have got fairly to work again, I shall be very happy to have a visit from these gentlemen, and to furnish them with full information in regard to the amount and character of the work done; and if they will bring with them some disinterested rater, I undertake to satisfy him not only that there is abundant employment for four teachers, but also that there is more work and less talk done in the High School than in the County.

I may also be permitted to say that Mr. Johnston's memory must certainly be seriously at fault when he speaks of there having been 80 pupils to one master when he went to the High School, as a reference to the annual reports leads me to believe that the attendance rarely exceeded half that number. However, if Mr. J. disputes this, and will give me the dates of his attendance, I will get him the exact figures as nearly as possible.

Like Mr. Johnston, I have no particular love for newspaper controversies, but, as he says, sometimes one is forced to put himself right before the public, owing to the rash utterances of some people who ought to know better.

AFGHANISTAN.

Full Account of General Roberts' Splendid Victory.

British Loss—28 Killed And 525 Wounded.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The following despatch from General Roberts gives details of his victory over Ayub Khan:—

CANDAHAR, Sept. 3.—A reconnaissance on the 31st ult. afforded me the necessary information regarding the enemy's position. I found it quite practicable to turn his right, and thus place myself to the rear of the Baba Wali range where Ayub Khan's main camp was.

To cover my design I made preparations for direct attack upon Baba Wali. This point was entrusted to the troops of the Candahar garrison under General Penrose, who also arranged to occupy my advanced positions of the previous day.

At the same time a cavalry brigade under Gough advanced upon the left, and with some difficulty reached the Argandab, where it was well placed for pursuit should the enemy break. The attack was made by the first and second brigades under Generals Maipherson and Baker respectively, with the third brigade, under McGregor, in support, the whole infantry being under command of Rosa.

The first division of the British force, consisting of the 2nd and 3rd Brigades, covered by artillery. The two brigades then advanced through orchards and enclosures, fighting steadily. The left of the second brigade being brought gradually round until the village of Pimpal was reached. At this point the enemy was in great force, and fought most resolutely, but nothing could resist the determined advance of the British troops.

Shortly after this reverse the slope of Baba Wali was reached, and the standing camp of Ayub Khan became visible. All the enemy's attempts to stem the torrent were fruitless. By noon the camp was in our possession, with 27 pieces of ordnance, which include our own guns lost on the 27th of July.

The 92nd Highlanders had 51 wounded, three of whom have since died. The 72nd had 17 wounded, of whom one has since died. Among the natives 11 were killed and 72 wounded.

The killed include Lieut. Col. Brownlow, Captain Frome, and Captain Stratton. Among the wounded are Lieut. Col. Batty, Major Slater, Captain Murray, and Lieutenants Menzies, Monroe, and Donald Stewart.

In Ayub Khan's camp the body of Lieutenant Machine was found. Appearance indicated that he had recently been murdered. A despatch from Candahar on the 21st ult. mentioned that Maclane who had been missing since the battle of Khash-i-Nakhud, was a prisoner in Ayub's hands and was well treated.

THE FEELING IN ENGLAND. General Roberts' splendid victory has quieted public anxiety and relieved the nervousness caused by his rashness. It was even doubted that he could crush Ayub effectually without the aid of a plague, but the enemy was really dispersed with little loss, and the British guns were recaptured.

It is believed that Ayub is extinguished, but the Government is not rid of the difficulties attending the settlement of Afghanistan.

A large party urge the Government to retain Candahar, but it is even unwilling to favour the creation of Candahar into a protected State. There is a suspicion that England will come to terms with Russia on all questions.

THE OFFICIAL RETURNS for North Ontario give Mr. Wheeler 2,271 votes and Mr. Gibbs 2,113, leaving the former a majority of 158. The spoiled ballots numbered 26.

This has been a marvellous herring season on the east coast of Scotland. The Argyll Observer records that in Fraserburg the town prior went round calling upon the fishermen not to go to sea that day, because the women who assist in the work were worn out. Nevertheless, 400 boats went out that evening.

Buying and giving his note in payment and then selling the so purchased goods at whatever ready money he could get for them, then slipping across the lines, leaving a deficit of about $700 as kind of souvenir, was the style in which the business was done by Solomon A. Crowder the absconding teacher of S. S. No. 12, Bruce.

The wife of Mr. Batty, foreman of Miller's woolen mills, Woodstock who has been in a desponding state lately, twice tempted to put an end to herself on Tuesday, by drowning, and was only prevented doing so by her friends. On Wednesday morning, while her daughter's attention was occupied for a few minutes, in pulling vegetables, she slipped out of the garden gate, and immediately plunged into the pond in connection with the mill, which is a few yards from the house, and when found, but a very few minutes after, life was extinct.

NEWSPAPER LAWS.

We call the special attention of postmasters and subscribers to the following synopsis of the newspaper laws:

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the post-office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed, is responsible for the payment. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publishers for payment.

3. If a subscriber orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrears, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether it be taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until the payment is made.

4. If a subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the post-office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take a newspaper and periodicals from the post-office, or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

THE BEST TIME AGAIN BEATEN.

At the Trotting meeting at Charter Oak Park last week, St. Julien was again successful in beating the best recording time. On Friday he was taken on the track for the purpose of trotting a match against him, he made 2:00 if he succeeded in lowering the record from 2:11, made by Maud S., and himself at Rochester.

The horse received with cheers, and jogged around the track once to get warmed up. He made the mile in 2:24. He was taken off for a few minutes, sponged off, and again put on the track. After two or three preliminary starts, Hickok got him up to a high rate of speed, and nodded for the word. A very slight start, and the tremendous rate, with not a skip, and hundreds of watches were held to mark his time. The first quarter was made in 32, or at a 2:11 gait, and the half mile in 1:05, or a 2:10 gait.

The crowd were excited, and began to shout "He'll do it," and as the horse fairly flew around the back stretch and started up the track, the confidence of the spectators increased that St. Julien would again make the best time ever made by a trotter.

As he approached the turn there was a thrill of apprehension on the discovery that the driver of the drag which had been smoothing the track to make it perfect for the horse was still at work, and it seemed that he would turn the horse from his course or cause him to break, but a quick turn of the drag to the outside was made, and the horse came on unpimped, and without annoyance. Leaving the distance stand, some spectators thought there was a slight slackening of speed. If there was a slackening it was only momentary for St. Julien went on with a tremendous burst of speed. In an instant watches were consulted, and there were shouts: "He has won," and cheer upon cheer went up from the grand stand and from the crowded section of the judges' stand, where many prominent citizens were visiting. The time had passed. Some gave the time as 2:11, others 2:11, but all acknowledge that the record was beaten, and four out of five agreed with the time afterwards officially announced, 2:11. St. Julien jogged back to the judges' stand, and the spectators on the grand stand raising to their feet, cheering and waving hats and handkerchiefs. Hickok lying his hat in response. He was met by an official of the Association and presented with a beautiful floral wreath. A floral cushion was placed upon the sulky, and St. Julien was blanketed and led up and down in front of the stand. President Harbison announced that in addition to the purse of $2,000 which had been won by beating the record, the Association had voted $500 extra to Hickok, but St. Julien had come to the front and given a performance equal to anything which could have been expected from another. He proposed they cheer for St. Julien, which were given with a will.

THE FASHIONS.

What will be worn this Autumn and Winter.

A New York fashion writer gives the following interesting statement in regard to the fashions for the ensuing season...

The new shapes for fall and winter hats and bonnets show that the models of 1880 to 1884 have been followed. The old 'poke' bonnet will be one of the leading styles this season. All the new bonnets except the close fitting 'cottage' have flaring brims four or five inches deep, and all are large and have square, large crowns, with small capes at back. Feather turbans of the impian, pheasant, and other birds are of last season's shapes, with a wing on each side and the head resting flatly on the left side.

A Succo hat of white beaver hair for trimming a white dove and two long ostrich plumes and three tips of white. A suspended chain of gilt holds a small gilt pig. The shape of the hat was a poke of one side, with the brim turned up on the other, and covered with the bird and plumes.

A cardinal plush large egret, the 'Eugenie' had trimmings of olive green velvet flowers shaded cardinal and black ostrich tips, shirred plush face trimmings and black lace strings. A mouse-colored baker shape hat of the natural nap is among the importations of a leading house.

A TER Fall Part... The stean off Alcona, in on Sunday large number were rescued...

A TERRIBLE SCENE.

Fall Particulars of the 'Marine City' Disaster.

Graphic Narrative by a Canadian Survivor. The steamer Marine City was burned off Alcona, in Lake Huron, about 6 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, 29th ult. She had a large number of passengers, most of whom were rescued by the tug Vulcan and Grayling. The exact loss of life is not known, but the latest estimates place the number at eighteen. Most of the survivors came to Bay City from Alcona on the Metropolitan, a few remaining at Alpena and Alcona. William A. King, of St. Catharines, Ont., who has been engaged in getting out ties at Cheboygan for the Detroit & Butler railroad, was a passenger. He was smoking in the bar-room at the time the Marine City left Alpena. In the room at the time were Messrs. Cady, Cole, and another. Mr. King remarked: "The boat is on fire—I smell smoke. It was about twenty minutes after the steamer had backed out from the dock and headed on her course. The men went aft, finding it difficult to go through the smoke, but groped his way aft to the after cabin stairs, he proceeded to the hurricane deck at the stern. The crew were throwing water with pails about the smoke stack. The wood-work was all ablaze, the flames shooting up almost to the top of the smoke stack. The water had no effect. Mr. King picked up the hose, but the fire at that time had shut off the engine and it was useless. The crew still labored drawing up water with ropes attached to pails. It being observed that the flames increased, Mr. King urged the crew to launch the boats. There were no passengers at the after hurricane deck that Mr. King could see. Two of the boats were launched—one a life-boat and the other a yawl. They were immediately filled with passengers, who stood upon the guards and lower decks. An effort was made by Mr. King and the crew to launch the life raft—a big construction of lumber piled on the hurricane deck, but nothing could be done with it and the attempt was abandoned. Mr. King climbed down to the station and broke in the window of one of the staterooms and found therein three life preservers. In coming out he met two women and a little girl. The woman said, "For God's sake, give us the life preservers." He put one on the little girl, and gave one to each of the women, grabbed a short piece of wood which he found lying near by and jumped overboard. The fire was crowding him close at that time. It was after the Vulcan had rescued the passengers forward. He did not see the women jump, but saw them afterwards in the water. He thinks Clerk McIntosh saved one of the women and the little girl. Mr. King, after swimming five or ten minutes, was picked up by the Vulcan at about the same time.

THE WATER WAS ALIVE WITH SWIMMERS. When he struck it. There were men hanging to chairs. Mr. King, after getting on board of the Vulcan, observed a big, stout man in the lake sinking, and while in the act of doing so plying the water in a vain effort to keep afloat. A woman with a little girl, perhaps 8 years of age, in her arm clinging to a rope which hung from the after-gangway of the Marine City. The woman's hold was low down, and the waves as they rolled up dashed over her and the child. At last the child reigned her grasp and went down, the mother powerless to save her. What became of the woman Mr. King can't say. He thinks the Marine City was on fire before she left the dock. The blaze could hardly have acquired such headway in so short a time—less than half an hour. It was burning like a lumber pile when Mr. King rescued the hurricane deck. While taking his supper at the Alpena Hotel on Sunday night, Mr. King heard a citizen remark that as he (the citizen) stood on the dock looking at the Marine City backing out, his little boy observed, "Papa, look at the smoke, the boat is on fire." The citizen's eyes were not so sharp and he simply thought the boy had referred to the usual smoke from the smokestack. Mr. King lost everything but the clothes on his back.

A SELF-POSSESSED BOAT. Charles McIntosh, an old Goderich boy, Clerk of the burned boat, remained on the main deck aft, with Mrs. Lumaden and child, although he was unable to swim a stroke, he succeeded in keeping the ladies by him and in comparative quiet for many minutes. At last he saw that the heat would soon drive them overboard, and explained to the ladies that he would go down one of the fenders into the water, and that after he had got a good hold they would follow him, and by holding to him with one arm and to their children with the other they would be out of the reach of excessive heat, and where they would be less drenched by the water, and so could escape burning and possibly could hang on until rescued by one of the small boats. Mrs. Lumaden, who is in feeble health, fastened her child to her body, attached life-preservers and lowered herself over the guard by one of the fenderpoles, to which she clung. While hanging in this way she says she was kicked upon the collar bone by a large man, whose name she does not know, but who she thinks was desirous of stealing her life-preserver. She, however, clung to the fender and to the life-preserver until Clerk McIntosh came to the rescue. Mr. McIntosh cannot swim, but assisted her materially in keeping up the child and relieving her from the strain of clinging to the fender. Charles Thorn, of Detroit, steward, was one of the most active members of the crew, and devoted himself to the salvation of the passengers. Mr. Thorn's hands are badly burned. He hurried inside and alarmed those in the staterooms, but could get no further than the four rooms on each side—the fire preventing him from going further amidships. He collected as many life-preservers as he could, and threw them to the passengers struggling in the water. (He saw Clerk McIntosh in the water, with Mrs. Lumaden's baby, and tossed him a life-preserver. McIntosh failed to catch it, and the sea washed it away.) McIntosh and the infant sank but were caught by Luke Doney, the second mate, and pulled on board the life-boat.

A BRAVE WOMAN. The bravest, coolest woman I ever saw, said Dr. Stockwell, of Fort Huron, was Mrs. Clough, of Marine City, who was accompanied by her 10-year-old boy. I saw her all the time from the first alarm of fire until she was rescued, and not once did I hear her utter a scream or act anything but the cool, brave woman that she is. Her little boy, too, never cried—and he fully realized the situation too—and did just what his mother told him to do. With her boy standing bravely at her side and obeying every word, Mrs. Clough busied herself getting to a small boy named Voigt. Twice young Voigt attempted to jump overboard, and both times Mrs. Clough held him back, telling him to be quiet, that he was safer on the boat than in the water. In this way she kept the two boys at her side, and quieted the fears of other passengers, many of them men, until rescue was at hand.

A BRAVE BOY. On the ill-fated steamer was a 15-year-old boy named McElroy, whose home is in Cleveland. While the passengers were hurrying to and from seizing life-preservers and climbing to the lower deck, young McElroy remained quiet until nearly all had gone below, when he buckled on a life-preserver and went to the lower deck. No sooner had he reached there than a lady rushed to him and cried, "For God's sake give me your life-preserver." Without a moment's hesitation the boy took off his life-preserver, and not only gave it to the lady, but helped to adjust it about her person.

A SICKENING CONTRAST. To the action of the brave young McElroy was the action of two men whose names are not known, who, in quick succession, forcibly took life-preservers away from Mrs. Clough, of Marine City. The second life-preserver was taken away from her just as Dr. Stockwell approached and observed the cowardly act. The doctor ordered the man to return the life-preserver to the lady, at which she said, "Let him have it if he needs it more than I; but the doctor insisted, and the cowardly man handed it back to her and slunk away from sight."

THE CAPTAIN. Was off watch when the fire broke out. He was asleep and rushed out in his pants and shirt, as did Mr. Voigt. He soon realized the situation and did all that could be done to save life. Communication with the afterpart of the steamer was cut off by the fire. Yesterday Mr. Voigt asked the second mate why he did not launch the life-raft, which would float 50 people. The mate answered that he tried to launch it with three men, but the raft was jammed and could not be lowered. Two of the 4 boats were lowered, and finally the second mate himself managed to get a bit of plank and safely rough about as rough as it is ordinarily seen in the Detroit River, although the wind was light. Mr. Voigt saw one man, apparently one of the crew, drown when near the Vulcan. The mate threw up his hands and screamed: "Save me! Save me!" His efforts only served to send him down. The life-saving station was about six miles away from the scene of the disaster, but the life-saving crew came up in their boat at tremendous speed.

MUSTAPHA. How He Took His Vacation and What Came of It. Now in the sixth month in the reign of the good Caliph, it was that Mustapha said: "I am wearied with much work; thought, worry and care have worn me out; I need repose, for the hand of exhaustion is upon me, and death even now lieth at the door." And he called his physician, who felt of his pulse and looked upon his tongue and said: "Typhoidah!" (for this was the oath by which all physicians swore.) "Of a verity, thou must have rest. Fleeto into the valley and close thine eyes in a dreamful rest; hold back thy brain from thought and thy hand from labor, or you will be a candidate for the asylum in three weeks."

And he heard him and went out and put the business in the hands of the clerk, and went away to rest in the valley of quiet. And he went to his Uncle Ben's, whom he had not seen for lo! these fourteen years. Now this Uncle Ben was a farmer, and a dobe in the valley of rest, and the mountains of repose rose about him. And he was rich and well favored, and strong as an ox and healthy as an onion crop. Oftimes he boasted unto his neighbors that there was not a lazier bone in his body and he swore that he hated a lazy man.

But when he reached his Uncle Ben's, he received him with much joy and placed before him a supper of homely viands, well cooked, and piled upon his plate like the wreck of a box-car. And when he could not eat it all they laughed him to scorn. And after supper they sat up with him and talked with him about relatives where-of he never, in all his life, so much as heard. And he answered them at random and lied unto them, professing to know Uncle Ben and Aunt Bethesda, and once he said he had a letter from Uncle George last week. Now, they all knew that Uncle George was shot in a neighbor's sheep pen three years ago, but Mustapha was not that it was so, and he was sleepy, and only talked to fill up the time. And then they talked politics to him, but he hated politics. So about 1 o'clock in the morning they sent him to bed.

Now the spare room wherein the slept was right under the roof, and there were ears and bundles of ears of good corn hanging from the rafters, and he bunged his eye with the same, and he hooked his chin in fetlocks of dried apples, and shook dried herbs and seeds down his back as he walked alone, for it was dark. And when he sat up in bed in the night he ran a scythe in his ear. And it was, that the four boys slept with him, for the bed was wide. And they were restless and slumbered crosswise and kicked, so that Mustapha slept not a wink that night, neither closed he his eyes. And about the fourth hour after midnight his Uncle Ben awoke him from the back, and spoke unto him, saying: "Awake, arise, rustle out of this and wash your face, for the liver and bacon is fried and the breakfast waiteth. You will find the well down at the other end, and the cow let. Take a towel with you." When they had eaten his Uncle Ben spoke unto him saying: "Come let us stroll around the farm."

And they walked about eleven miles. And his Uncle Ben sat him upon a wagon and taught him how to load hay. Then they drove into the barn and taught him how to unload it. Then they girded up their lions and walked four miles, even into the forest, and his Uncle Ben taught him how to chop wood, and they walked back to supper. And the morning and the evening were the first day, and Mustapha wished he were dead. And after supper his Uncle spoke once more, and said: "Come, let us have some fun." And so they took a team and drove nine miles down to Belcher's Branch, where there was a hop. And they danced until the second hour in the morning.

When the next morning was come, which was long, for the night was already far spent, his Uncle Ben took him out and taught him how to make mackerel fences. And that night there was a wedding, and he danced and made merry, and drank and ate, and when they went to bed at three o'clock Mustapha prayed that death might come to him before breakfast time.

But breakfast had an early start and got there first. And his Uncle Ben took him down to the creek and taught him how to wash and shear sheep. And when the evening was come they went to spelling school, and they got home at the first hour after midnight, and Uncle Ben marvelled that it was so early. And he lighted his pipe and sat up for an hour, and told Mustapha all about the forty he bought last spring of old Mossy Stringer to finish out that north half, and about the new cow that was foaled last spring.

And when Mustapha went to bed that morning he thought him of a dose of strychnine he had with him, and he said his prayers wearily, and he took it. But the youngest boy was restless that night and kicked all the poison out of him in less than an hour, and he went to bed at the first hour after midnight, and his Uncle Ben took him out and taught him how to dig a ditch. And when evening was come, there was a revival meeting at Ebenezer Methodist Church, and they all went. And there were three regular preachers and two exhorters and a Baptist evangelist. And when midnight was come they went home and sat up and talked over the meeting until it was bed time. Now when Mustapha was at home, he left his desk at the fifth hour in the afternoon, and he went to bed at the third hour after sunset, and he arose not until the sun was high in the heavens. So the next day when his Uncle Ben would take him out into the field and show him how to make a post and rail fence, Mustapha would swoon to him, and smother him with an ax helve, and fled and got himself home.

And Mustapha sent for his physician and cursed him. And he said he was tired to death, and he turned his face to the wall and died. So Mustapha was gathered to his fathers. And his physician and friends mourned and said: "Alas! he did not rest soon enough. He hurried at his desk too long."

Can't Preach Good. No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a law suit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters. See "Truths" and "Proverbs," other column.

You Can Be Sappy. If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions of doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for all the ills that men are troubled with is a bottle of HOP BITTERS—believe it. See "Proverbs" in another column.

A Fact Worth Knowing. Are you suffering with Consumption, Coughs, Sore Throat, Pleurisy, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs? If so, go to your druggist, and get a bottle of BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP. This medicine has lately been introduced from Germany, and is selling on its own merits. The greatest success, and druggists all over our country are writing us of its wonderful cures among the customers. If you wish to try its superior virtue, get a sample bottle for 10 cents; large size bottle 75 cents. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it.

Man's Noblest Work. This is an age of great works and wonderful inventions. Steam, electricity, water, air, all are made to serve man, but unquestionably the greatest inventions are those which preserve man's health and prolong his life, and among the greatest of these is Dr. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY FOR CONSUMPTION. Its effects are truly wonderful and hundreds are happy to day, who once looked forward to an early grave. For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, loss of voice, Hay Fever, Hoarseness, Croup, or any affection whatever of the Throat, Chest or Lungs, Dr. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY will positively cure. We can cheerfully recommend it to all, and unquestionably say it is the only cure for Throat and Lung Affections. Trial bottle ten cents; regular size $1. For sale by F. Jordan, Goderich.

THE DAYS OF MISERY AND NIGHTS OF UNREST endured by the sufferer from a persistent cough soon sap the vitality of the system and wreck the constitution. Such a catastrophe can only be avoided by precautionary measures. Prevent the climax of a cough with Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda—approved in professional quarters, and which is a combination of the purest and most salutary ingredients in perfect chemical harmony. Coughs, colds, laryngitis, incipient bronchitis, and other affections of the respiratory organs, are speedily relieved by it, and it has likewise proved to be a useful specific in scrofulous maladies. The loss of strength consequent upon being diseased is checked, and the invigorating physical energies restored by its invigorating action. Phosphorus, the active principle of the hypophosphites, not only supplies the system with an important element of strength, but gives a healthful impetus to the circulation. The lime and soda aid to vigor in the same. In wasting diseases of all kinds, this preparation can be depended upon to produce a beneficial effect. A fair, persistent trial, is all that is necessary to prove its potency, either as a pulmonary or general invigorant. For poverty of the blood, with which so many invalids are troubled, it is a sovereign remedy, promoting the acquisition of both strength and flesh. Prepared by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, and sold by all druggists.

HOME EVIDENCE IN FAVOR OF THE PAIN-KILLER.

Hint No. 1. If you wish to save yourself, your family, and your friends a world of suffering and pain, which at present they endure needlessly, and also save many dollars in doctor's bills, go at once to the nearest store, and buy a few bottles of PAIN-KILLER.

Hint No. 2. Ask your Druggist, Grocer or Shopkeeper, for a bottle of PAIN-KILLER. If he passes it down without ceremony, ask him while extracting the quarter dollar from your wallet, if this is the genuine made by PERRY DAVIS & SON, at same time watch the expression on his face. You can easily tell by his countenance if he really likes it, and also examine the bottle closely yourself.

Hint No. 3. When you ask for a bottle of PAIN-KILLER, and the gentlemanly store-keeper, without scarcely looking, remarks, "see here, just out, but have another article as good or better, which sells for the same price as this, 25 cents." Turn on your heel and say, Good-bye, Sir! That man carries more for his profit than he gets than he does for your health or happiness.

Hint No. 4. Beware of all the worthless mixtures, and dirty, grocer-combinations which are offered you in almost every store you enter, and which some unprincipled shop-keepers try to palm off as a substitute for the PAIN-KILLER. These mixtures are gotten up expressly to sell on the reputation of the PAIN-KILLER, but have nothing in common with it.

Hint No. 5. If you cannot obtain the genuine PAIN-KILLER in your locality, (a fact not very likely), you should address the Proprietor, and by sending them the sum of $3.00, one dozen regular sized bottles, or a half dozen large bottles will be sent, charges prepaid, to the nearest address by railway to any part of the Dominion.

The PAIN-KILLER

Is recommended by Physicians, Ministers, Missionaries, Managers of Factories, Work-shops, Plantations, Nurses in Hospitals—in short, everywhere where there has ever given it a trial.

TAKEN INTERNALLY, it cures Dysentery, Cholera, Diarrhoea, Cramp and Pain in the Stomach, Bowel Complaint, Painter's Colic, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Sudden Colds, Sore Throat, Coughs, &c. USED EXTERNALLY, it cures Boils, Felons, Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Old Sores and Sprains, Swellings of the Joints, Toothache, Pain in the Face, Neuralgia and Rheumatism, Chapped Hands, Eros-bitten Feet, &c. The PAIN-KILLER is put up in 2 oz. and 5 oz. bottles, retailing at 25 and 60 cents respectively,—large bottles are therefore cheapest.

HOPE FOR CONSUMPTIVES.

See what Physicians and the People say about SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE LIVER OIL. A VERY SUCCESSFUL REMEDY for Consumption, Scrofula, and Wasting Affections. Messrs. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, I have prescribed Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, etc., in my practice and used it in my family. I am greatly pleased with its effects. It is better than any other preparation of Cod Liver Oil in Consumption and children's diseases. I have found it especially valuable.

CALEDONIAN DAY.

How Lucknow Celebrated the Occasion.

An immense gathering of spectators and a Fine Competition.

The sixth annual celebration of the games under the auspices of the Lucknow Caledonian Society was held here today. The games, which have obtained a continental celebrity, are the occasion of the gathering of an immense concourse of people from all parts of the Dominion, and not a few of the great American and Scottish athletes annually present themselves among the competitors and spectators.

Among the prominent visitors we noticed the following gentlemen: John Gillies, M. P., Paisley; Sheriff McKellar, M. P., Paisley; Sheriff McDonald, W. E. Glennie, W. B. Nichol, W. Stuart, H. Dallas, C. Field, C. McCrae, L. Strachan, Hamilton, &c., &c., Goderich; S. Case, R. L. Peddie, John Drummond, Fred. Pavey, S. Monroe, J. Moffatt, J. Michie, J. Marr, London; A. Urquhart, Toronto; M. Bull, Montreal; Turnbull, C. McElderry, C. Auld, Guelph; M. C. Cameron, M. P., D. McDonald, Hy. Horton, T. J. Moorhouse, D. C. Strachan, A. B. McWilliams, Jas. Loutit, J. C. Currie, Fred. Segmillor, Thos. Sturdy, N. Campbell, A. Mackie, &c., &c., Goderich; D. Watson, Geo. McKenzie, J. Webster, W. Macara, Dr. Dowseley, John Dinsley, John Ainsley, Dr. Tamlyn, F. Clegg, R. Scott, Robt. Laidlaw, J. Alexander, J. Campbell, A. Roe, R. McKinney, A. Hunter, P. Scott, W. Woods, T. Fletcher, Brussels;

The chief competitors were: E. W. Johnston, New York; Archie Scott, Brussels; M. McDonald, Toronto; T. P. Howard, Hamilton; H. C. Little, Ratho; D. Smith, Lucknow; D. McKenzie, London; Wood Brothers, Galt; A. Robinson, Parkhill; C. J. Noble, Parkhill; T. Newman, Owen Sound; A. McLean, Hamilton; W. A. McLean, Lucknow; G. Blair, Glenora; H. Murdoch, Blyth; J. Little, Lucknow; A. Morrison, Brussels; J. Sturgeon, Kinross; and Jock Adams, Lucknow.

The pipers and highlanders were out in strong force, and we noticed Lucknow's own favorite, Henry Ross, as good a piper as you get anywhere; also G. A. Smith, McKay, Robertson, Anderson, G. A. Matheson, Ian McKenzie, Wm. McKenzie, H. Henderson, J. L. Henderson, Chas. and Thos. McMillan, McIntyre, McDonald and others. The competition in both playing and dancing was exceedingly keen.

The success of the games has been mainly due to the efforts of the following gentlemen, who have put their shoulders to the wheel and brought the annual gathering to its present efficient condition:—D. A. McCrimmon, M. D., Chief; J. G. Smith, 1st chief; Geo. McHardy, 2nd chief; A. McIntyre, Treasurer; L. C. McIntyre, Secretary; D. Hornell, Assistant-Secretary; D. E. Cameron, Reporting Secretary; James Somerville and M. Campbell. The remaining officers of the Society are: C. Mooney, 3rd chief; A. R. Cameron, 4th chief; J. R. Hunter, Marshall; N. Beaton, Assistant-Marshall; John Morrison and D. Clark, Standard bearers; J. D. Stewart, Bard; H. Ross, J. McKay and A. Finlayson, Pipers; Games managers—J. Finlater, D. D. McIntyre, A. McPherson. The greatest courtesy was extended by all the above gentlemen to

The members of the press, of whom the following were present: John Cameron, London Advertiser; James Somerville, Dundas Banner; J. N. McLean, Brantford Telegraph, and Toronto and Country; A. G. Mortimer, Kinross Standard; Jas. Bryan, Lucknow Standard; Wilson, Bryden Express, and D. McGillivuddy, of The Huron Signal.

At the games were held, to a most magnificent natural amphitheatre for the holding of a gathering of the kind. It is situated about half a mile from the business part of the town, and is admirably suited for the purpose by which it is used. On the east side a gradual incline circles around the arena, and on the west a grand stand of ample proportions has been constructed, thus giving full opportunity to the thousands of spectators to get an excellent view of each and every competition. It is the property of James Somerville, Esq., the Father of Lucknow, who has kindly placed it at the disposal of the Caledonian Society.

A large dining hall has been erected on the grounds, and many of the hungry multitude added to the funds of the Society by partaking of the excellent refreshments there obtainable. A special feature in the Lucknow gathering which we observed, was the universality of brotherhood, which appeared to exist among the residents of the town and vicinity, irrespective of nationality, for English and Irish, as well as Scotch, vied with one another on the occasion, to advance the interests of the games, and promote the harmony of the occasion. Another pleasing feature was the apparent interest which the ladies took in the proceedings, and the zest with which they entered into the archery competition, where they appeared tastefully decked with tartan plaids, and Glangary bonnets, forming a picture pleasing to the eye of the spectator and very gratifying to the heart of the managers of the games.

The different games were very keen, and a number of the amateurs, notably Archie Scott, of Brussels, showed conclusively that they could appear advantageously in the professionals, wherever strength, endurance and agility were necessary essentials. A very full programme was carried out to the letter, with the solitary exception of the sword combat, which was unavoidably omitted, owing to the non-attendance of one of the expected contestants, who was prevented from being present on the occasion.

DEATH.—On Friday last Mr. John Rathwell, sen., of the Bayfield com. passed away. Deceased some time ago had his leg amputated, since which time he has not enjoyed good health, although able to be about. He was one of the oldest residents of the township, a member of the Methodist church, and held in the highest estimation by all. He was buried at Bayfield on Sunday, his remains being first taken to the Varna Methodist church, where an impressive sermon was preached by the Rev. J. Livingston, large numbers being unable to gain admittance to the church.
