BAKER'S COCOA

HAS GREAT FOOD VALUE

THE food value of cocoa has been proven by centuries of use, and dietitians and physicians the world over are enthusiastic in their endorsements of it. It is said to contain more nourishment than beef, in a more readily assimilated form. The choice, however, should be a high-grade cocoa—"Baker's" of course.

CHAPTER XXV.
CAUTIOUS CONFIDENCE.

He put the question in his most careless manner, but he watched her closely from beneath his eyelids. A shadow passed over Olive's face as she replied quietly:

"I saw Mr. Verner some few days ago."

"With Mr. Morgan?" asked Normanby, with just the slightest suspicion of a sneer in his smooth tones.

"No; I have not seen Morgan for some time," she answered, a flush rising to her face; then she turned aside as if to mark her distaste of the subject.

"Ah! Morgan is a restless being," said Mr. Normanby, with a sigh. "He is young and thoughtless; I look upon him as the happiest of mortals, Miss Seymour."

Olive frowned faintly at the implied compliment, but Mr. Normanby, disregarding this sign, continued blandly:

"Morgan, like most young men of his age and class, has been wild. Forgive me, Miss Seymour, if I tread upon dangerous ground in imparting this confidence. I have your best interests at heart, though, perhaps, you think I ought not to broach the subject."

"Pray go on," said Olive coldly; and Normanby, with another keen glance, proceeded cautiously, for Olive was of dangerous clay and not to be molded easily, even in his powerful hands.

"Morgan has been wild and thoughtless. He has always had a great deal of money, and his father, of whom I

Salves Can't Cure Eczema.

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this. Don't impregnate the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all skin diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

The D. D. D. Prescription is a new skin discovery which is becoming famous throughout Newfoundland and Canada. It is a simple wash, compounded as a scientific antiseptic remedy for Eczema, Bad Leg, Ulcers, Sores, Pimples and all skin eruptions. This wash penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

Don't delay—this wash will cure. Get a bottle of D. D. D. Prescription today. Sold everywhere. Recommended by T. McMurdo & Co., A. W. Kennedy, M. Connors, Peter O'Mara,

When the Kidneys Fail.

Poisons Remain in the Blood, Which Causes Pains and Aches—Road Here of the Surest Way of Setting the Kidneys Right.

Brookville, Ont., January 19th.—If you have headaches, backaches and rheumatic pains you have reason to suspect the kidneys. Pain is caused by poisons in the blood, and poisons only remain in the blood when the kidneys are defective and fail to do their work.

This Brookville lady has reported her case because she believes that her cure was because she believes that a great many people are suffering as she did without knowing the cause or cure.

Frank Noyes, 9 Stuart street, Brookville, Ont., writes: "For years I was afflicted with kidney complaint. I became very nervous, was easily worried and had frequent headaches and neuralgic pains, especially through the back. I had indigestion, poor circulation of the blood and was troubled with weak spells. I commenced using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and had only taken two boxes when I felt greatly relieved. I continued the treatment, however, until I was completely cured. In all I took about ten boxes, and have not been troubled in this way since. I highly recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I think also that the Plasters and Ointment can't be equalled."

Here is another letter to show how rheumatic pains disappear when the action of the kidneys is awakened by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills:

Mr. John May, Walkerton, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with rheumatism in my legs and I became so lame that I could scarcely get around. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills were recommended to me, and so I commenced using them. After I had been taking them for awhile I was delighted to find that my rheumatism had left me, and to-day I am as sound as a bell, able to get around and attend to business. I have made use of Dr. Chase's medicines in many ways for the last forty years, and cannot speak too well of their good qualities."

lover, and she knew that this man had lied to her. There was some deep-laid plot here, and it behooved her to be careful.

All unconscious of the havoc he himself had wrought in his carefully laid plans by that one needless lie, Mr. Normanby smiled serenely as he said:

"Forgive me if I have shocked you by my plain speaking, dear Miss Seymour. Shall I leave you to think it over?"

"Yes—if you will, Mr. Normanby," returned Olive quietly, and murmuring something about letters and the library, he made his way there alone, feeling quite satisfied with his work.

Olive, left to herself, strove to think collectedly. She knew now that there was some connection between her marriage with Morgan Verner and the affairs of the philanthropic Mr. Normanby, and she wisely determined to conceal from both of them the fact of her meeting with Reuben, and to hold herself free as long as possible.

Meanwhile, Mr. Normanby, quite assured of success, though he had wrung no definite promise from Olive as yet, wrote but one letter, and that was to Morgan Verner. It was very brief, and ran as follows:

"Dear Morgan: I have prepared the way. Come down as quickly as you can, but don't fail to see me first, before you venture to speak to any one else here. Yours, 'Normanby.'"

At dinner Sir Edwin, looking fully restored to health, made his appearance, and welcomed his guest warmly. Mr. Normanby amused and interested the old man, relating anecdotes one after the other; but to Olive's intense relief no mention was made of Reuben or of Morgan Verner. That night, as he sat up over his cigar, Mr. Normanby mused over what he termed his conquest of Olive.

"How easily people are got over," he said to himself, "if you only pull the right string. They are all puppets in my hands. Even Miss Olive, with all her beauty and pride—her, too, I have bent to my will and used to further my own ends. 'Pon my word, she is almost too good to waste upon that boorish set, Morgan. If I could only have married her myself!'"

He strode up and down the room, turning over in his mind the pros and cons of the question.

"No!" he said at last, throwing away his cigar. "Women are but necessary evils, and clog one's footsteps. Only a fool can afford to marry. While I have only myself to look after, I am safe."

Having come to this amiable conclusion, Mr. Normanby prepared for bed.

EARLY MESSAGES

RUSSIA AND ROMANIA.

PETROGRAD, Jan. 18. A dangerous state has arisen in relations between Roumania and the Bolsheviks. A two-hour ultimatum has been sent to the Roumanian military authorities by the Revolutionary Committee of the 9th Russian Army, demanding a free passage to the Russian troops through Jassy, the temporary chief town of Roumania.

MORE PEACE PROPOSALS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. Germany and Pope Benedict, Senator Lewis of Illinois said today, are each planning early peace movements. I have reason to know, said the Senator, that Berlin expects to withdraw her peace proposals to the Bolsheviks and make new proposals, but proposals which will be applicable not only to Russia, but to all her opponents. I have also information, he continued, that the Pope is planning with the acquiescence of Italy another effort towards peace. For these reasons, Lewis said, he intended to defer discussion of his Senate resolution proposing the endorsement of the President's peace programme.

STRIKES AND RIOTS IN AUSTRIA.

LONDON, Jan. 18. Serious strikes accompanied by riots have taken place in Vienna and other cities of Austria, according to news Agency telegrams from Zurich and other points of Switzerland. A meeting of workers in a peace demonstration at Vienna on Tuesday night ended in a riot, during which, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch, food shops were looted. A wireless press despatch from Berne, says the strikes broke out on Monday morning in factories in Vienna, Graz (Graz), Brunn, Linz, and Wiener, and Neustadt, the walkouts resulting in a riot which necessitated a vigorous police action. On Tuesday the number of strikers increased, and there were numerous conflicts with the police. Since Wednesday, the despatch stated, no Austrian papers have reached Switzerland. It appears that the Austrian authorities are anxious regarding the situation at Prague, Bohemia, as a civil government has been replaced by a military governor. The Vienna correspondent of the Munich Nachrichten says that reports of the Austrian cabinet crisis are well founded. Dr. von Seidler, Premier, is opposed not only to Czechs and South Slavs, but also by the Socialists who are chaffing under food difficulties, while the German deputies are hostile owing to the President's alleged weak attitude towards the Czechs and South Slavs.

WHAT BERLIN SAYS OF AMERICA'S ARMY.

LONDON, Jan. 18. Commenting upon the statement made by Secretary of War Baker before the Congress committee regarding war preparation, the semi-official Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, Berlin, says: "The American Secretary of War speaks of an American Army in France. There is an American army in France, but it consists entirely of wood cutters, railway workers and laborers, except two or three divisions, whose precious lives are being spared in quiet places far behind the front. Secretary Baker speaks as if shortly there would be 1,500,000 Americans in France. Can the United States spare such a large number of men? The answer is no, because a large part of the army must stay behind for protection of frontiers, coasts, colonies and for other duties of a political nature. The political situation compels the United States to keep home a greater portion of her army and the country can at most put only 400,000 or 500,000 in European battlefields. For the transfer even of this number 250,000 tons of shipping will be required necessitating 650 journeys of ships of 3,000 tons to 5,000 tons. Thus the army of even this small size can't possibly be made available before the summer of 1918. In a decision on the west front this spring American participation can effect no change. The whole speech of the American Secretary of War is a gigantic bluff.

SETTLEMENT REACHED.

BERLIN, Jan. 18. On the resumption of peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk Wednesday was officially stated today, that a settlement of the principal questions concerning the future political relations of the Central Powers and the Ukrainians was reached during a private meeting with the Ukrainian delegates. Berlin, Jan. 18.—After an address to the peace delegates at Brest-Litovsk Wednesday by Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik Foreign Minister, the Russians agreed to a continuation of discussions. The German Foreign Secretary, Dr. Von Kuehlmann, addressed the delegates after Trotsky, and moved that they should start the discussion in a business-like manner of the four points proposed by the Russian delegation. Dr. Von Kuehlmann agreed. The next sitting was fixed for the following day. supposed—on 144UNello7uth ZzzVV

A NECESSARY ORDER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. Fuel Administrator Garfield issued a statement to-night reminding the public that while the fuel restriction order was drastic the war was drastic, and the order was necessary as a war measure. President Wilson will issue for publication to-morrow morning in the newspapers a statement supporting the fuel restriction order and his standing by the position of Fuel Administrator Garfield.

INVITES CANADA TO PARTICIPATE.

OTTAWA, Jan. 18. A cable received today by Trades Congress officials here indicates that the British Labor Party have arrived at a conclusion as to what they consider should be the war aims of the Allies and that they will be represented at the Allied conference to be held on Feb. 20th. The Britishers are anxious that the Dominion Workers should be present at this conference and the Congress will hold a meeting soon in Ottawa to arrive at a decision as to whether they will send a representative. In the event of the executive deciding to do one of the members of that body would be chosen.

ADMINISTRATION BILL PASSED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. The administration bill authorizing the expenditure of fifty millions from the funds of the Shipping Board for the Government purchase of lands near shipyards upon which to erect houses for the use of shipyard employees, was passed today by the Senate after a brief debate. The bill now goes to the House.

OTTAWA, Jan. 18. The Naval Department announces that the following ordinary seamen members of the R.N.C.V.R. were lost in the merchant fleet auxiliary, Stephens Furness, Dec. 13. Harry Bennett Lawes, Regina, Sask.; Henry Leo Moran, St. John, N.B.; William Franklyn Roman, Halifax.

CUBA'S SUGAR CROP.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. President Menocal, of Cuba, by a decree has permitted distribution throughout the world of the entire Cuban crop by International Sugar Committee, which works with the Food Administration.

THE MAYOR'S WARNING.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18. In a proclamation asserting that New York City is menaced by the imminent possibility of a general conflagration because of the recent cold weather and shortage of coal and closing down the buildings with sprinkler protection, due to the fuel administration order, the Mayor today called upon all citizens to take special precautions against fire.

WHY ZONE IS EXTENDED.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 18. The recent extension by Germany of the barred zone to the waters around the Azores and Cape Verde Islands is presumed by the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin in a recent issue to be due to the possibility that they might serve as assembling points for American transports and supply ships while good harbors and useful cable stations on a part of the African mainland were also included in the zone for the same reason. The paper expresses expectation that from the new extension zone will come weakening in effort of Germany's enemies to bring a report of the loss of the anti U-boat defense measures over a much larger area.

BRITISH STEAMER TORPEDOED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18. The British steamer Boston City, a new ship of 2,700 tons gross register, owned by the Bristol City Line, is reported sunk by a submarine. The ship was last in an American Atlantic port, Nov. 13. J. Arkelle & Co., agents of the Line here said they had received a report of the loss of the ship, but not from an official source. The Boston City was built in 1917 at Bristol, was 310 feet long, 42 feet beam.

CALLIAUX REMOVED.

PARIS, Jan. 18. Former Premier Joseph Calliaux who is under arrest on the charge of "trafficking with the enemy and other activities prejudicial to the interests of France, was brought today from Saute prison where he is being confined, to the Palais De Justice. The purpose of bringing him to the Judicial Chambers was that he be present at the opening of documents from Italy bearing on his case which reached Paris this morning.

ASKS HUGHES' RESIGNATION.

SYDNEY, Australia, Jan. 18. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.) At a meeting of the Council of the National Association representing all the National organizations of New South Wales, a resolution was tabled declaring that the interests of the Commonwealth and the National Party require the resignation of Hon. W. H. Hughes from the premiership and leadership of the party. The discussion of the resolution was postponed to enable Premier Hughes to attend.

AGAINST PREMIUM BONDS.

LONDON, Jan. 18. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.) The Committee on Premium Bonds has reported that it does not advise the issue of premium bonds until further efforts have been made to render the present issues more attractive to investors. The committee admits that there is a considerable untapped source of investment which might be secured by the issue of premium bonds, but it doubts whether the total thus obtainable would justify the legal and controversial legislation.

TRADE COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED.

LONDON, Jan. 18. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.) The Board of Trade Journal announces that Mr. G. T. Milne, at present Trade Commissioner for Australia, will take up his duties as soon as possible in Montreal as senior British Trade Commissioner in Canada in succession to Mr. Hamlyn Williams, who is for the present remaining at headquarters in England in accordance with the new arrangement whereby the Trade department and home will have the benefit always of the direct assistance and advice of one or more Trade Commissioners with practical experience in trade conditions in the Empire. Mr. F. W. Field will be appointed British Trade Commissioner in Canada, with headquarters at Toronto. Field is editor of the Monetary Times and recognized as one of the leading authorities on financial and commercial matters in the Dominion.

Hockey Notes.

The Hockey League meets to-night to arrange the schedule of games. The teams will begin practice early next week and the opening game of the season will probably be played on Feb. 1st. The rinks are now in perfect condition with a splendid glassy surface and are ready for opening. The younger folks are in their element.

Cross Country Notes.

The rotary plough is now stationed at Bishop's Falls ready for the heavy snow that is usually met with at the Topalls. Merchants of Channel are now shipping fresh frozen cod to the American market. The recent spurt of mild weather has brought large quantities of smelts close to the land at Bay St. George, and fishermen have done well. During the past week fishermen, Curling have done well at the herring fishery. The new water chute at Mackay's on the main line is now in use for the winter service. The new bungalow being constructed at Harry's Brook for Rev. Dean Rourke, of Curling, is about completed.

Owing to the impossibility at the present time of procuring Uniforms for the Lads of the Newfoundland Highlanders, the Officers of the Brigade appeal to all ex-members or their families who have uniforms or parts of uniforms in their possession to help them out by turning them over to Lieut. Oke, Quartermaster of the Brigade, at the Armoury on Friday evening, or to any other Officer of the Brigade during this week.—jan18,21

The question of placing candidates in the field at the coming election was deferred for further consideration at a meeting of the Industrial Workers Association last night. Messrs. W. Smith, W. A. O'D. Kelly, J. Cahill, E. Whitty, Best, T. D. Carew and V. E. Whitty reported having attended the meeting of the Municipal Council at which the Association's letter in reference to fish markets and lavatories had been read. It was ordered to write the Municipal Council in reference to an employee who is ill, asking that his case be dealt with. Though not classed as a permanent employee, he has been with the Council for twelve years. He has eight dependants and is at present in the hospital to undergo an operation. A telegram was read from one of the members, stating he had initiated sixty others between Port aux Basques and Humbermouth and asked for forms to enroll forty more. At the close of the meeting 123 new members were added to the roll. President Bennett, who is still under the doctor's care, attended the meeting for a short while. ## Little War Sufferers.

Will our readers pause a moment and give more than a passing glance to the illustration that we print to-day, which has come all the way from Armenia? Will our sympathetic young readers especially do so? It is not a pleasant picture to look at, we know that. One part of it shows six or seven young children in a state of emaciation, from starvation, which is only too plainly apparent; the other an Armenian mother bowed in grief beside the bodies of her five little ones. They have died from want of food, want of a crust of bread to keep life in their starved little bodies. That is what war has meant to these innocent, unoffending little Christians, whose only fault it has been to be born and live under the domination of a people more cruel than savages, more unfeeling than wild beasts. There are millions of them in this pitiable condition. Their cry for help has gone around the world, and where humanity still lives it is being answered with all speed possible. Cannot we too give some answer? We do not know how that question is far less starved than we would be if we did not. We made a general appeal in these columns some weeks ago, but while a response was being made the great Halifax disaster so much nearer us, rightly claimed first the sympathy of the whole country. We now make this one to the children of the island, in conjunction with the appeal that is being made in the United States to the Sunday schools throughout that country. The Rev. T. B. Darby, who has sent us the photograph, is organizing the movement, and he will have the help of all clergymen in the country. Plans are being made for a general appeal later to this people's generosity, we understand as part of the great work of mercy on behalf of Armenia and Asia Minor that is being performed in Great Britain. We know it will not fail on deaf ears. Meanwhile, will where humane children give of their plenty to their little brethren who have nothing?

The Latest Outrage.

We have been wondering, with the public, just what position would be created for the children of the island. The Government has exceeded expectations. It has created one of the least necessary, involving the most useless expenditure of public money, and one to which Mr. Crosbie is the person least fitted to be appointed. Every principle of propriety being thus outraged, the Government is highly satisfied and proceeds to congratulate itself in the columns of the Advocate. We will not discuss again the proprieties of the matter. In any other country the mere fact that Mr. Crosbie is a large shipowner, and that his industry will in consequence frequently conflict with his duties, would be sufficient to make his appointment quite impossible. That is but the more sufficient reason why this administration should make it. If it ever did a single act that could be approved as right and proper, it would scarcely survive the shock to its self-esteem. There was absolutely no need of a Minister of Shipping, Mr. Stone, or of a Minister of Marine and Fisheries was the most capable person to discharge any duties necessary in that connection, and Mr. Crosbie was entirely disqualified to perform them. That was enough; the case was made out. Mr. Coaker being, of course, the manipulator of the strings from which all these marionettes dangle, we shall here merely seek to ascertain some of the reasons that have moved him to manipulate this particular string in this particular manner. We are indebted to the Plaindealer for a few testimonials of Mr. Crosbie's character from Mr. Coaker himself. They are taken from no less authoritative a source than the Advocate. "As for the

The Menace to the Country.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Sir,—Yesterday I very respectfully asked the intelligent members of the Fishermen's Union to consider the questions I presented to them, and I said, that in my opinion, Mr. Coaker's political escapades were calculated to jeopardize the business interests of the Union, for, the declaration, by what he has announced to the public to be the "Official Organ" of the Fishermen's Union, that the Union Trading Company was established to smash "Water Street Influence," and the insane attacks upon those engaged in our Trade and Commerce cannot fail to jeopardize the interests of everybody who has anything at stake in the Country. It means class war, that means dislocation of business, that means financial embarrassment, then follows ruin. We had an example of a commercial collapse in 1894. Never mind how that collapse was brought about, that is beside the question at issue. We had a collapse. The fishermen did not then escape the effect of it. They cannot escape the effect of a repetition, and that repetition must come if the credit of the Trade is impaired, and business is hampered by class warfare. Why should the Fishermen's Union be converted into a political battering ram? Why should it have been made an instrument of destruction? Mr. Stone, sensible man that he is, from his place in the House of Assembly said—"I would point out that the Union needs commercial power to fix prices, while it needs its political power so that the fishermen may be represented in Parliament." A perfectly legitimate and entirely praiseworthy object. It has been Mr. Coaker who has transformed it into an instrument of offense. And yet, he is the man who promoted the business and induced, as his newspaper the Advocate declares, "four thousand toilers" to place "their savings" in the enterprise. We are further advised by that newspaper that those savings amount to Four hundred thousand dollars, and that besides the four thousand fishermen who have made that investment, "the commercial welfare of two-thirds of the Electorate is affected by it. If that be true, then Mr. Coaker is the paid custodian of the "commercial welfare" of more than forty thousand fishermen, and in the face of this stupendous responsibility, for the purpose of controlling the Government of this Country, he has taken away from the management of that business three of its principal officers, Stone, Halfyard, and Grimes, and a considerable portion of his own services. To an ordinary mind the thing is perfectly amazing, and one is forced to conclude that political grandstanding is the first consideration, and "the commercial welfare" of forty thousand fishermen only secondary. The ordinary mind fails to comprehend what possible direct advantage it can be to the Fishermen's Union to lose the services of its tried servants. Of course one fully understands that it is a decided advantage to those gentlemen to acquire an increased salary of Two thousand dollars a year, which the transfer of their services to the Government brings them. We can also understand that to an ambitious man like Mr. Coaker, the title of Honourable, with a seat in the Executive Council, and the position therein of dictator is very gratifying, but, what advantage that can be to the Fishermen's Union whose business he is paid to devote the whole of his time to, I cannot understand. Mr. Coaker himself evidently appreciated the extraordinary nature of the matter, for the day following the official announcement of the Coalition Government, on July 18th last, he addressed a letter to the "F. P. U. members" in an effort to explain the peculiar undertaking. In that letter he said "Mr. Stone will consult with me in relation to the work to be done by the Fisheries Department, therefore the work in your behalf to be performed by the Department will not be neglected, and its policy will be directed by the desires of the Supreme Council Conventions." You will observe, that the sop to the Union for the loss of Mr. Stone's services was, that the future policy of the Government Department of Fisheries "will be directed by the desires of the Supreme Council Conventions" of the Union.

What an outrage upon Responsible Government!

But Mr. Coaker's apology for his own conduct in the matter of the Coalition was no less remarkable, for he said—"If I obeyed the dictates of a free will, I would prefer devoting my entire time to the business of the Fishermen that I am held responsible for." Mr. Coaker did not possess of a "free will"! Who shackled his will? Who was the Keeper of his conscience? Who forced the Coalition upon him? Was it the late Prime Minister Morris, or the Reid Railway Company? I will return to this subject to-morrow.

Yours truly,
January 18th. VIGILANCE.

W. S. Harkins Players.

On Friday night next the W. S. Harkins Players will open a limited engagement at the Casino Theatre. The opening play will be George M. Cohan's sparkling business comedy, "It Pays to Advertise." On Monday and Tuesday the play will be Miss Billie Burke's great New York success, "Jerry." As laugh producers these two comedies cannot be surpassed, so those who want serious plays and dislike laughing should not attend either of these performances. Regarding the above two plays, the following are headlines taken from the "Official Organ" of the Fishermen's Union, that the Union Trading Company was established to smash "Water Street Influence," and the insane attacks upon those engaged in our Trade and Commerce cannot fail to jeopardize the interests of everybody who has anything at stake in the Country. It means class war, that means dislocation of business, that means financial embarrassment, then follows ruin. We had an example of a commercial collapse in 1894. ## Wedding Bells.

At the Church of the Sacred Heart, Odeon, by the Rev. Michael Ryan, P. P. Albert J. Drake to Miss Annie M. Murphy, both of Odeon. The bride wore a dress of cream satin and Duchess silk with wreath and veil to match. Vincent Manning, cousin of the groom, was best man, and Miss Stella Abbott, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. After the ceremony they lunched at the home of Mr. Andrew Murphy, brother of the bride. After luncheon they proceeded to their future home where the wedding supper was served to over two hundred guests. Dancing was commenced at 6 and kept up till the wee small hours. All enjoyed themselves and ended up by singing Auld Lang Syne. We wish the bride and groom bon voyage through life.—L. J. M.

Obituary.

The Grim Reaper Death has again swooped down and this time plucked with relentless hand one of earth's choicest blossoms in the person of Jessie Sybil, daughter of Solomon and Emily Cole, Pleasant Street, at the early age of 20 years. For two years she was a patient sufferer, having fallen a victim to that dread disease consumption, so her death was not unexpected. Jessie was of a kind, lovable and gentle disposition and was beloved by all with whom she came in contact. Ever forgetful of self she was always ready when an opportunity offered to help others and earth will be the poorer for her early demise. She will be greatly missed in the home of which she was the idol. She is survived by a mother, father, one sister and four brothers, all of whom were with her when the call came, with the exception of one brother who is expected to arrive home shortly from Alberta.

Popular West of the Great Lake

MRS. W. J. VALE TALKS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

She Also Tells How Her Dyspepsia Was Cured by Using Dodd's Kidney Pills. ...
Pandora, Alta., January 18 (Special).—"We are never without a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills in our house." That's what Mrs. W. J. Vale, a well-known and highly respected resident of this place has to say of the great Canadian kidney remedy. Her husband suffers from lumbago, and she always helps him, "is the reason that she gives."
"I must also tell you," Mrs. Vale continued, "what Dodd's Kidney Pills did for me. They cured me of a very bad attack of dyspepsia, and have also derived great benefit from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is evidence like this that proves that the Dodd's remedies have a permanent place in the family medicine chest of the West. Dodd's Kidney Pills are particularly popular because of the success with which they have been used to treat all kinds of kidney troubles from backache to rheumatism. Bright's Disease have earned for them the gratitude of thousands of people on this side of the Great Lakes."

Which Shall It Be?

By RUTH CAMERON.

RUTH CAMERON

I want to tell you a story of two women. ...
Both were mothers. Both had a lost son. And there the resemblance ends and the contrast begins, and it is on this contrast that my little story is founded. ...
One of the mothers was a neighbor of mine. After her boy died she kept his room exactly as he had left it, and even had his place set at the table every day. When the family moved to another house she had a room reserved for him there, and placed everything exactly as he had had it in the old home. She would never give away any of his toys or his clothes. Everything, she insisted in a sort of mania, must be kept just as he had left it.

"David's Shelf"

The other woman who lost her boy was a woman I do not know—except by her works. She lived in a little country town in which I have recently been visiting. One day when I was browsing about the little library I came upon a set of shelves over which was placed a little placard "David's Shelf."

I asked the librarian what that meant. She explained that it was a case of boy's books donated by the mother of a little boy that died. She had given all his books that he had when he died, and yearly has added to them the books she would have given him had he grown up. ...
She Finds Much Happiness. ...
David's mother is well off by village standards and she has been able to give through the little David, a fine boy's library. She has had much happiness of a sweet and tender sort in carefully choosing these books. There are to be found well worn copies of Treasure Island and Tom Sawyer and many other books that boys love best. ...
What wonder that the village boys flock to David's Shelf. ...
The librarian went on to say that

THE LETTER CARRIER.

The letter carrier is a meek creature between an express wagon and a furniture van which is used for the purpose of saving the legs of the inhabitants. If it were not for the letter carrier and his long, eager feet the citizens of this restless Republic would have to go to the post office for their mail two or three times a day, thereby wearing out thousands of serviceable legs which could better be employed in chasing a golf ball or running around a billiard table with outstretched tongue. ...
The letter carrier is chosen because of two reasons, his patience and his physique. If the letter carrier delivers mail to the wrong house and is mailed into a close resemblance to a bread pudding by an irate tenant, he is required under the regulations to sing the first verse of "Angry words, O let them never," and pull a sweet smile over such of his teeth as happen to be left. The letter carrier always makes a model husband, as he is able to put up with anything that strays onto the table disguised as food without using coarse and reproachful language. ...
Letter carriers are now selected because of the size, number and location of their manacles. If the parcel post law is amended once or twice more, nobody will be able to qualify as a letter carrier unless he can carry a four-foot safe under one arm and a barrel of cider vinegar under the other, with an upright piano resting uneasily against his stomach. It is a pitiful sight to see a middle-aged carrier juggling down the street looking like a human Christmas tree, with packages ranging from a pony keg to a mail order catalog strung about his neck and rebounding tidily off his shins. Why do we object to a man beating his horse and yet allow the letter carrier to be loaded down until he is in a dejected and hamstrung condition? ...
Letter carriers are under the protection of the civil service law, which means that they cannot be removed except when the civil service commission is looking in another direction. It is pleasant to record that this does not happen very often, owing to the scarcity of able-bodied men with legs

Another Call to Sir Robert Bond.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—Permit me to congratulate you on the excellent editorial in the Great War which I have always admired, and for your very highly patriotic stand which you have taken on all public questions, and more especially your denunciations of Sir E. P. Morris and his successors, Lloyd and Coaker and the F. P. U., which has done for our country what the Government of the Colony.

Let me express my regret that you are soon to leave the chair of the old reliable Telegram. I trust your successor will not be afraid to stand up for what is right and just, to wield favour or affection for never before in the history of the world has the Press had so much power and influence as the present day, and serious consequences always follow when the Press is controlled by politicians to advance their own selfish aims. I intended writing before, but I am just getting over the shock I received when I heard about Sir Edward Morris being elevated to the peerage. I read his valedictory in which he said "the door is always on the latch," if I am any judge of human nature I do not think he will ever hear the latch click. If I had my way I would be charmed to bolt the door and turn the key on one who will be remembered as the greatest political hypocrite in the history of Newfoundland.

I cannot imagine that the people of this country are going to entrust the destinies of this little Colony to Coaker and the F. P. U. If they are, then all I have to say they are damned and deserve to suffer.

We want to send a largely signed requisition to the incorruptible Statesman, Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Bond, who has served us as a statesman among men, as scholar of the highest type, as statesman of the first rank who, while he had charge of the Government before.

"Never sold the truth to serve the hour. Nor paltered with eternal God for power."

who fulfilled his duties nobly, served his country faithfully, and to whom the country owes an eternal debt of gratitude. I believe when the call comes to him, Newfoundland, the country of his heart, shall not call in vain, for Sir Robert Bond was, and always will be, a patriot. ...
He is the man capable and should be placed at the head of affairs. We are bordering on serious times and I cannot see how people are satisfied to go on drifting instead of waking up to the fact and realizing that we are at war and want somebody with vision to lead us. ...
The gallant boys in France have died to uphold the honour of old Newfoundland, they have made us known to the world and have won for us a name, but at home the old political game goes on—waste, graft, grab, no economy, people and country drifting because they have lost all faith in the leader of our people. ...
I will write again, Mr. Editor. In the meantime I hope the people will start to think of the seriousness of the times and will wake up to the fact that every man owes a duty to his country that he cannot ignore or shirk, and more especially at the present time when the whole world is passing through great trial, and if we want to share in the good times to "Ring out the old, ring in the new, Ring out the false, ring in the true." PRO PATRIA. Carbotear, Jan. 17th, 1918.

Mount Cashel Entertainment.

The second entertainment in aid of Mount Cashel Orphanage, was held last night at the Casino Theatre, and was attended by another large audience. His Excellency the Governor built out of chrome steel. We should all be patient with the letter carrier and treat him as a fellow being, so that our mail will reach us before the close of the fiscal year.

and suite. Rt. Rev. Mons. McDermott (representing His Grace the Archbishop), Rev. Fr. Ashley (Argentina), and many of the city clergy and Christian Brothers were present. The programme opened with overtures and selections by the C. C. C. Band, gun drills by Mt. Cashel boys and solos, recitations and choruses by the junior pupils of the Mercy Convent. Some of our best known city artists also took part, all the numbers being much applauded. The following are those who contributed—Miss Strang, Mr. R. Bennett, Miss Mabel McGrath, Marjorie Glendon, Mary Emerson, Josephine McNamara, Anita Kearney, Bealie O'Neill Primin, Angela McGrath, Mollie Kelly, Madeline Kavanagh. ...
Then came the charming operetta "Little Red Riding Hood" given by the pupils of the Mercy Convent. The principal characters were sustained by the following:—Misses McNamara, Kelly, McGrath, Devine, O'Neill, Emerson, Harris, Thorburn, Velch, McGrath, Donnelly and Duff. To all who assisted Supt. Cashman and staff of Mt. Cashel are deeply grateful for the results achieved, especially to Mr. J. P. Kieley, who kindly loaned the theatre.

A Good All Round Liniment

Stafford's Liniment.

We believe there is no more generally useful liniment. It seems to reach the spot every time. ...
No home should be without a good liniment for use in those emergencies common to all homes calling for a reliable liniment. Keep a bottle of "Stafford's Liniment" in your medicine chest.

For sale everywhere. Manufactured only by ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. DE. F. STAFFORD & SON, NEW YEAR MUSINGS.

The New Year is a sight to see, to people safe and sane, and I've no doubt that it will be a year of stress and strain. There'll be a thousand urgent calls for coin in sacks and kegs, to purchase useful cannon balls and shells and wooden legs. Our boys will go from training camps, from native shores they'll scoot, to paralyze those Teuton scamps, and make them cease to Teut. And ever as the battles wax, and armies charge the foe, the burdens on our shapely backs the heavier will grow. Before this brave young year runs down we'll know beyond all doubts, who are the pikers in our town, and who the dead game scouts. We can't get by on bounce and brag, in crucial times like these; a lot of bunk about the flag won't help things o'er the seas. Fine words and phrases loud and big won't put a foe to flight; we'll have to dig, and dig, and DIG, if we would show we're white. The piker cannot save his face, excuses won't go down; it's either glory or disgrace, for every gent in town. The year will show us if men's souls are sordid or sublime, and slackers, wedded to their rolls, will have a beastly time. ...

THE MENACE OF THE EMPTY CRADLE.

(By Father Bernard Vaughan.)

WHERE IT IS, WHY IT IS, AND WHAT IS ITS CURE.

The object of this book is to recall his fellow-citizens to a sense of the ruinous decay which is sapping the foundations of this 'plot', this earth, this realm, this England, together with its Overseas Dominions. As Newfoundland is one of its Overseas Dominions, every citizen should read this very interesting and only too true book. Price 35c.; postage, 2c.

THE BOLSHEVIKS AND ROMANIA. LONDON, To-day. The latest threat of the Bolsheviki to cause the arrest of the Rumanian royal family, has created no surprise among the Rumanian authorities in London. Some time ago the Bolsheviki sent troops to Jassy under the leadership of the Bulgarian reactionary Rakovsky to arrest General Scherbacheff, Commander of the Russo-Rumanian front, and at the same time to seize the Rumanian royal family and members of the government. General Tcherbacheff succeeded in capturing the ring leader of the movement and with the assistance of the Rumanian Army dispersed 15,000 Bolsheviki irregulars. The Bolsheviki ultimatum recently demanded the release of the prisoners. The Rumanian Army refused to comply with the ultimatum and refrained from armed conflict with the Bolsheviki, but the Bolsheviki will not tolerate any plans on Rumanian soil against the Royal Family people. The King and Royal Family are still at Jassy, cut off from the world, living almost entirely upon bread and white bread three times weekly.

SERIOUS FOOD SITUATION.

TORONTO, To-day. While flour, beef, bacon and other food items are in short supply, it is not expected that a long war in accepting of restrictions. They are pretty well prepared for the absolute prohibition of the use of certain articles of food, even to a degree that is not without its danger to public health. Absolute prohibition of some foods is the problem of the day in Canada as well as in U. S. The Times is not far from the mark when it says that when the choice of the consumer will be between what is left or going without. The price of flour is not expected to rise within a short time. Beginning on February 23 all bread in Canada will be of one standardized quality. Experts are now working to reduce the price of flour and other commodities. MRS. W. J. YALE TALKS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS. She Also Tells How Her Dyspepsia Was Cured by Using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Pandora, Alta., January 19, 1918. (Special.)—"We are never without a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house." That's what Mrs. W. J. Yale, a well-known and highly respected resident of this place has to say of the great Canadian kidney remedy. Her husband suffers from lumbago, and they always help him, "is the reason that she gives. "I must also tell you," Mrs. Yale continues, "that Dodd's Kidney Pills did for me. They cured me of a very bad attack of dyspepsia. I have also derived great benefit from the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is evidence like this that prove that the Dodd's remedies have gained a permanent place in the family medicine chest of the West. Dodd's Kidney Pills are particularly popular. The success with which they have been used to treat all kinds of kidney ailments from backache to rheumatism and Bright's Disease has earned for them the gratitude of thousands of people on this side of the Great Lakes.

Starving Armenian Children at Etchmiadzin. 2,500,000 Starving in the Land of Our Lord. LET THERE BE NO SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS TREATS IN AMERICA WHILE ARMENIANS ARE STARVING! The above striking photogravure is from photographs taken in Armenia and gives a slight glimpse of the frightful tragedy being enacted in Western Asia, where 2 1/4 millions of people are starving to death. Among them are 400,000 children orphaned by the Turkish atrocities. We understand the Sunday Schools of the City are taking up collections for a Relief Fund. This is surely a gripping appeal.

The country at large knew nothing of the exemptions except the few announced last night, and it was not until late this afternoon that the Fuel Administration admitted officially that important work wasn't affected by the order and gave out a list of hundreds of factories that may continue the work of the government contracts only during the five days of the closing period. The day brought a statement of unequivocal support for the order from President Wilson and a vigorous defense by Fuel Administrator Garfield of the Fuel and the Government's purpose in taking it. Opposition to the order apparently spent itself in the debate in the House, during which Garfield replied to the Senate's request of yesterday that the order be suspended for five days, disclaiming any purpose to be discourteous in declining to comply, and again pointing out the necessity for enforcement of his order. The Food Administrator's statement interpreted the order to mean that no check would be put on operations of any sort of food handling or distribution. In a statement of the Fuel Administration, the order was interpreted as the closing order President Wilson agreed he was consulted and fully agreed with the Fuel Administrator as to its necessity. It hadn't been taken, he declared, immediate relief couldn't have been found for the fuel transportation shortage. This was the only concession he made, and he said that many sacrifices and sacrifices of the sort called for by his order are infinitely less than the sacrifices of life which otherwise might be involved.

RUSSIAN TRANSPORT SERVICE IN CHAOS. PETROGRAD, To-day. A Russian official statement issued to-day announces that the commission for food and communications have urged the Workmen's Council to stop at nothing to establish order on the railways by organizing special detachments of the red guard and other contingents. The communication says the railways are now in the power of a plundering mob and that the transport service is entirely disorganized, a fact which is causing the worst possible effect upon the starving regions and the army.

A NEW GERMAN PEACE PARTY. AMSTERDAM, To-day. The Tagliche Rundschau of Berlin learns from Munich that a new political party has been formed there under the name of the "Free Committee," and that it has sent a telegram to the Reichstag saying that notwithstanding its partiality, President Wilson's recent message contains a practical basis for the inauguration of negotiations toward a general peace. The Committee represents the ideas of Professor Friedrich Forster, of the University of Munich, who was obliged to leave the Bavarian capital for Switzerland because of his unorthodox views.

THE CLOSING ORDER ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY. WASHINGTON, To-day. The nation's manufacturing industries in 28 states east of the Mississippi River were virtually suspended in obedience to the Government's order forbidding the use of fuel. Most of the plants engaged on war contracts were exempted from the order operation in a telegram sent out last night, but few of them learned of it at the time. A great many of them closed down with the other factories.
