BRIGHT LIGHT DREAMS VANISH AS GIRL'S MONEY GOES

Olive, of Medicine Hat, Disappointed in Quest for Lobsters and Cabarets in Calgary—Lands in Station House Instead

CHUM LURES HER BY TALES OF GAY LIFE

Well-Meaning Stranger Also Gets Into Trouble Through Aiding Two Lost Girls; Trio Arrested and Train Leaves While They Explain

This is a story of blasted hopes, shattered dreams and a police station. It contains the history of the brightest night and the darkest days in the biography of Olive Minnerzwick of Medicine Hat, a girl who longed for a wider sphere of enjoyment than that furnished by the prosaic Gas City.

It seems with broken romance and an unfeeling chief of police, a well-meaning reporter, a mistaken detective and a good looking young man of mystery.

For sixteen years Olive has been content with life as exemplified by Medicine Hat.

Heretofore her wildest dreams of a Perfect Day brought her to a moving picture show and ended up with an ice cream at the corner drug store.

The sedate youth of Medicine Hat marked her limitation as far as the opposite sex were concerned. Life to Olive was just one ordinary thing after another, but she had a different attitude toward the joys of romance and a different mode.

She was once darest girl in town, and she told of what a regular life in Calgary consisted. She painted the picture of hunter and lobster, cabarets and convivial joy rides in large red touring cars and the sight of young men strapping bank rolls and prepared big red automobiles. Sunday was her last dollar, was spent, and before a sympathetic crowd in the lobby of a Calgary hotel they tearfully told their story of the lost money.

The crowd hurriedly made up a collection, and the girls were well on their way to Medicine Hat when the well-meaning reporter injected himself into the picture.

Stranger, Reporter, Detective
He notified the police. As he stepped from the telephone the two girls were met by a stranger in a suit and a stylishly dressed stranger. The reporter caught up to the trio and demanded the whys and wherefores. The stranger, still hurrying, refused to be interviewed. Then the mistaken detective appeared. He also asked questions, and the stranger emphatically and defiantly told him to mind his own business.

The detective took the trio to the police station, where it required twenty minutes to get the excited stranger to explain himself. He was custodian of the Olive Rescue fund, and was taking the two girls to the depot, where he intended putting them on the train for Medicine Hat. Investigation proved the truth of his story, but by this time the train had left, and Chief Cuddy took the girls into custody, sending them to Miss Gordon's Home.

Olive's chum proved refractory and wanted to take her home. Chief Cuddy, the police held the pair until last night when Olive's brother-in-law was permitted to take her home. Chief Cuddy explained him to take the chum with him, but he declared that one girl was enough for any one to handle. The girls left for Medicine Hat, yowing and sobbing and cabarets were two things which were forever scratched from her book of memory, and the dream of a Perfect Day was her last night's dream of a good time.

FRENCH SHIP STRIKES MINE AND IS BLOWN UP 200 PEOPLE ON BOARD

Marseilles, May 21—A private message received here says that the liner Senegal, of the Compagnie des Messageries Maritimes, struck a mine as she was leaving Smyrna and was blown up. It is believed that there were nearly 200 people on board. No confirmation of this dispatch has yet reached the company's offices here.

The Senegal was a vessel of 3,625 tons. She was built at L'Orient in 1872.

ANOTHER DELAY IN CITY LOAN; MONEY FOR CITY SAID TO HAVE BEEN NEGOTIATED IN LONDON

AFTER a special meeting of the city council, called expressly to pass a resolution dictated by the solicitors of the Bank of Montreal, and supposed to validate the recent issue of $2,000,000 worth of treasury bills, the bank's solicitor has discovered a flaw in his own motion; and as a result there is still no money forthcoming for the engagement of 1,000 laborers on various public works which have already been delayed five or six weeks.

It is understood that the bank has negotiated the notes in London at 5 1/4 per cent.; but that the transference of the money to the city is delayed by the action of the local solicitor representing the bank.

Increased Facilities for Taking Care of Immigrants Here

Chief Agent Craig and Assistant Chief Hunt, of the Dominion immigration office, are busy with preparations to move from the historic old "shed" into the new office building provided for them at the corner of First street east and Tenth avenue.

One of the peculiar features attendant upon the removal of the immigration headquarters is the fact that, despite the increased room given the officials for the benefit of immigrants, the room is being actually taken up at present by the guests of the government.

The steadily diminishing number of immigrants who stay in Calgary the limit of seven days as guests of the government is a tribute to the higher character of the men who are coming into the northwest.

DELAY WITH THE BANK

Ever since the month of February the city has been negotiating with the Bank of Montreal, under its monopolistic agreement with that institution, for ready money to carry on the city's business. It is now almost the first of June and the city is apparently no nearer getting its work under way than it was last winter. Necessary waterworks, sewer extensions, pavement, equipment for fire protection, sidewalks, apparatus for garbage collection, are all delayed on account of lack of funds, and the business depression, so evident in all channels, is considerably due to the fact that the city's business is held up.

The Bank of Montreal seems to be long on talk, but very, very short on works. It is submitting a variety of excuses why the money, which they are evidently able to secure on the city's treasury notes, is not forthcoming; and these excuses reflect little credit on the bank in its capacity as fiscal agent for the city. Legal quibbles which were never thought of in previous years, have been raked up by the bank's solicitors, and a delay which should be obviated by any straightforward business man in twenty-four hours has been prolonged to almost a fortnight. To the ordinary lay mind the attitude of the bank all through the year, is incomprehensible. In the beginning, the bank appeared to desire to constitute itself the paternal, guiding guardian of the city; but even this lofty interest has ceased apparently. The bank will neither produce the money, nor give any good and sufficient reason for the delay; nor will it allow the city to secure funds through any other channel. Any legal points which stand in the way could have been overcome days ago, if the bank's solicitors had been sufficiently business-like to state their complaints in plain English to the city council. The crowning absurdity is the spectacle of the bank's solicitor discovering a flaw in the motion which he himself dictated to the special meeting of the city council.

The bank has always made much of the fact that it has been able to secure a better rate for the city than any other agent, in any financial transactions, which it has negotiated. But the trouble, the delay, and the exasperation attendant on doing business through a concern which requires three months, more or less, to dot the 'i's and cross the 't's of an agreement according to legal formula, off-sets the advantage of a fraction of a per cent. in interest.

The mayor could have got $2,000,000 for eight months at 6 per cent. in New York a month ago. The bank intimates that it can sell the same security at 5 1/2 for a similar length of time. The saving in interest amounts to $10,000. But the cost of the delay can hardly be estimated in dollars and cents. The sum of $10,000 will not feed and clothe one thousand men for the six weeks they have been out of work, owing to this abominable see-sawing of lawyers.

Surely it is possible for the bank and the city council to get together like sensible, grown-up business men and cut this tangle short! It is costing the city thousands of dollars for every day of delay; and it is time some one came down off the perch, put the lawyers where they belong in the affair, and closed up the prolonged negotiations.

Editorial Notes

The expenditure of the department of public works has increased from $10,000,000 in 1911 to $28,000,000 in 1913. It is a record which would not be so high if it were not squandered. In the last three years the needs of Canada are not regulated by the requirements of the people but by the requirements of the partisan politicians.

Who should collect the poll tax, and at what rate? No person should pay the poll tax. It is a poor affair. It seems like a sort of a special license to be alive.

The city of Calgary does not always patronize a good thing in the theatrical attraction when it comes. It is very disappointing that the last three or four good attractions have not brought out as good houses as might be expected. We complain about the theatrical attractions and when we get them we pass over and do not attend them. If that keeps up, we shall not get the good things. This is not the theatrical page, and The Albertan does not make any appeal through these columns except at the behest of the city council. Next week is one of them. The people of Calgary will lose what reputation they have as living in a good theatre city if they do not give good support to the

BOTH ARE PETTY

It is difficult to decide whether The Calgary Herald is pettier than Commissioner Samis in its effort by all means, fair or foul, to "get the commissioner," or Commissioner Samis who resents the action of The Herald in attempting to keep The Herald's representative out of the meetings of the commission, is pettier than The Herald. Between the two they are trying up the business of the city and one is as culpable as the other, but in a different manner.

Of course, The Herald started it. It criticized Commissioner Samis in an unfair way. It stated the case in a prejudiced, if not a dishonest manner. It drew conclusions not justified by its own story, which Commissioner Samis believed reflected upon him. But that was all.

Whether or not the story was correct is a matter of record. Whether or not the conclusion was justified is a matter of opinion. The public can draw their own conclusions. Commissioner Samis could wait.

But granted that Commissioner Samis is correct in all his assertions, which he probably is, he is acting in a sort of babyish way in trying to shut the representative of The Herald out of public meetings. He is acting against his own interests. He is moving in a most tactless manner.

If he wanted to get in wrong in this controversy with an opponent, he couldn't take a course which would place him there quite so soon as his present tactics. In addition to laying himself open to the accusation that he is trying to control or to gag the press, which is without justification, he is showing his opponent just the way that said opponent can reach the commissioner where the hurt is worst, just whenever that opponent so desires.

The turning out of a reporter from a public meeting is the court of last resort. Parliament, at the instigation of some grieved person, sometimes yanks a reporter before the bar of the house and forces him to go through some sort of a mummery of an apology and every person laughs about it and then everything is forgotten. Unfortunately, we have no bar of the house at the city hall or anything which might serve that sort of purpose. It would be better for all concerned if Commissioner Samis forgot about his annoyance and The Herald would give up its policy of aggravating and misrepresenting an opponent, though the latter is somewhat too much to expect.

THE GAS DISCOVERIES.

Mr. Dingman and his associates in the gas and oil venture in the vicinity of Black Diamond are making an effort to show that they are not boomsters with something to place upon the market, and they warn the public against misinterpreting the report in The Albertan yesterday morning. Everyone who knows Mr. Dingman and the gentlemen with whom he is associated, is quite aware that they are digging for gas and oil, and are not selling stock or boosting real estate, or anything of that kind.

However, the statement made by The Albertan yesterday morning was quite correct and founded upon definite information. Mr. Dingman does not question the correctness of the statement, though the unwary might place such a wrong interpretation upon his statement.

The public is very much interested in this venture. The company has taken the mistaken position of saying nothing about the progress of the work. The company would do better to give regular reports of the work. The reports should be, and doubtless would be, accurate and without color. The people of Calgary have been painfully disappointed about reported gas discoveries some time ago, and desire no repetition of these unhappy occasions.

However, it can be said safely now that gas has been discovered in something like paying quantities at present, and that the prospects for discovering gas in very large quantities, and also of discovering oil, are very good.

Rose Stahl company, and on the other hand they will get the best kind of an entertainment if they do go.

Hon. Mr. Michener says that he is an admirer of President Wilson of the United States. He must have made a mistake in the name. President Wilson is opposed to high tariffs, corporations, trusts and believes that men in public life, having given a promise should keep it. If President Wilson had made the promise of the natural resources of the provinces to the people of western Canada, he would have carried that promise to fulfillment, whether Saskatchewan or Alberta, or both, or neither west Liberal. Surely Mr. Michener would regard such a man as a weakling.

With Col. Sam Hughes in trouble at the capital and Col. Carstairs in trouble in Edmonton, it would seem that the ancient god Mars is helping himself to much disturbance in this mid month of May. Whether we are drifting?

The Bank Act seems to provide that the banks can get seven per cent. any time they so desire and as much more as they can get whenever the pinch really comes. That is fine financing.

It is rather too bad that Commissioner Samis is not a larger man with a heavier punch, so that he could settle disturbances in the backyard without involving a tie-up of the entire business of the city every time that he gets in an argument with a reporter.

The days of the duel had certain advantages.

If this naval debate would result in the Alberta of the Dominion senate and drop at that, its exciting life would not have been in vain.

The Albertan had expected to be running all by itself without the help of its friends by today, but in excavating for a pit for its big press, it struck a swift running river, which it could not cross. The coaxing of this stream to please change its course and meander elsewhere has taken a whole week and the stream has not fully decided yet. In another week we hope to be going something like regular speed and better order.

And when the Bank of Montreal seems to have got the money, or got something like it, before handing it over to us, it delights in turning its sharpshooters on the treasury notes and about the forms full of holes, or trying to do so, or otherwise embarrassing the city council.

The weather man seems to have wakened up to the idea that he resides in Alberta, and at last is taking some pride in the fact.

It may be that the Bank of Montreal will sell our treasury notes at a rate somewhat better than we get ourselves, but we would have got the money about six weeks earlier, which would have made a great difference in Calgary this year.

It is true, as Mr. Dingman says, that there have been reports of gas strikes which have been slightly exaggerated. We all know about them, even Mr. Dingman himself.

The mayor seems to consider the probability that certain officials use their office for Tammany business as something like a very good joke on the other fellow. We are somewhat disappointed in the mayor in this respect. Alderman T. A. P. Frost suggests that the singing of the national anthem be one test of citizenship. If the kind of ambition is harder to be the qualification, not one person in one hundred will be able to qualify.

The history of the lead duties is a good example of the way of protection. The government gave a bounty to assist the industry, and qualified the amount of the bounty by the selling price, so that the bounty would disappear when the price reached a certain figure, and the price rose to the maximum figure, and the bounty disappeared, for the industry had passed the infant stage and needed no more encouragement. But no industry forgets the sweets of protection, and now, conditions being favorable, the industry gets a few thousand more, the maximum price getting another boost upwards. It is ever so with protection.

Letters to The Editor

Is Calgary Still a Village?

Editor Albertan:
In a city (at least in civilized countries) one is surrounded by the means of obtaining the comforts and observing the decencies of life. In some important respects, I regret to say, Calgary is still a village.

There is a shameful dearth of public comfort stations in this populous centre of the province. For the lack of these, one has to resort to the hotels, the bars, and the C.P.R. depot. But for some unexplained reason the men's lavatory at the C.P.R. is as often locked as open, and entrance is impossible.

I may incidentally mention that the C.P.R. closets are about the dimensions of dog kennels save only as regards space from floor to ceiling.

One more remark while I am touching on this subject, I am in and out of the C.P.R. depot three or four times a day, and I notice that almost invariably men are to be observed lounging in the ladies' waiting room, usually any number from two to half a dozen. Why? Are not women to be permitted to this western country? I am no suffragette supporter, thank heaven! But I do know that no gentleman thrusts himself into an apartment set aside for ladies. If men and women desire to wait for their trains in company, comfortable seats and ample room will be found in the great hall.

The whole thing is crude, shiftless, and frontier-like. We hear much praise concerning a "Calgary Beautifier"; but I must own that first of all I should prefer a "Calgary Comfortable" and a "Calgary Decent." I enclose my card, and remain,

Obediently yours,
CITIZEN.

Sidewalk Sketches

By Howard L. Mann

AMBITION.

Ambition is an unseen force which gets behind a man and pushes him ahead of other people. Sometimes, however, it is seen in time so that it can be headed off at a primary election and thus reduce the number of boneheads in congress.

One of the saddest sights in this world is that of an ambitious man who has been nipped in the bud by an avalanche of scratched tickets. The kind of ambition is harder to be the qualification, not one person in one hundred will be able to qualify.

People consume most of their ambition in the winter in the effort to keep from being frostbitten on both sides, so that when spring comes they have very little left for making garden or helping clean house. Many a husband goes through the winter with a heavy surplus of ambition, only to have it ooze away in one large, mournful ooze when his wife wants him to hold a joint debate with a half bushel of seed potatoes. The only kind of ambition which will keep in warm weather is that which cuddles up to a fish pole or snuggles down behind the steering wheel of an automobile.

There is a good deal of wasted ambition floating around and playing three-cushion billiards on somebody else's time. If some of the ambition which is scattered around the courts could be harnessed up to real work, the sons of the idle rich might earn enough to defray the expenses of their bills and have something left for cigarette papers.

Finally, brethren, the kind of ambition which prevents a man from wearing the same collar more than four weeks in succession is a pretty good investment.

It was agreed that the name to be given to the society should be "The Consumers' League of Calgary." The object to be (a) the investigation of the ever increasing cost of living and the counteracting of same by any legitimate means. (b) The study and teaching of principles of co-operation in home economics, and the watching of interests and the promoting of civic legislation in connection with the foregoing.

The officers of the league will consist of one president, a secretary, and a treasurer to manage the general business of the league. There will also be four ward divisions, each having a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, with power to appoint such committees as may seem necessary. The executive will consist of the general president, secretary and treasurer along with the officers of the ward divisions.

With regard to the proposed public market, Mr. Woodbridge stated that he had written St. Paul, and that he had obtained details of the workings of such a market in that city.

He spoke of the old power house on the C.P.R. track and said no more suitable spot could be obtained. The old building for the market, the ground opposite for stalls, and the building for the farmers, fruiterers and women should be built on the site of the old power house.

Woodbridge replied in the negative, saying that each should follow its own business, and that the league bodies should approach the council.

It was agreed to bring up the matter of the Swans' store at the mass meeting along with other business.

THE HEART DEPARTMENT
By Laura Jean Libbey.

NOT LOVE'S CHOICE
Being thrown in contact is responsible for as many marriages almost as love itself. In the case of a youth and maiden the couple is usually brought together by well meaning mutual friends. The charms of the girl are sung continually in the young man's ears by the comrades of whom he has the utmost confidence. In his eyes that particular girl may not seem to be the perfection of loveliness, but they endow her with all these charms he is apt to view her after a while more favorably. If he takes her here and there a few times these comrades find it a not difficult task to make him believe that he is quite in love with her and that she is certainly his heart's mate. Under the influence of his conversation he whispers sweet words to her which he feels duty bound to repeat to her. He finds himself betrothed to the girl for whom he has only a deep but moderate regard. Instead of the love which should inspire a man to noble, worthy, honest, yet fall to touch the heart of some particular girl who has selected to love her affection to some ne'er do well.

Love makes its own choice, needless to say. It does not choose or reject. It oftentimes pass by girls of superior worth for the one who appeals more strongly to their hearts.

Well meaning parents, too, contrive to do this. In conversation they contact the daughters of excellent families with the cherished hope that it will be a match. They continually cherish plans into their ears until many a young man, who is a student of sheer hope for peace, even though it is not a choice of love.

Without love there can be no happiness, and the well meaning matchmakers have lived to rue their efforts, and their success in getting their daughters into the good families. A young man shows an inclination not to fall in love with a particular girl no try to find out just what it is so that the ocean to ocean search won't have to be repeated.

Says "She is an Awful Flirt."
"Dear Miss Libbey: I like many other young men, have a girl friend whom I think very much of. Being a traveling salesman, I do not get to see her very often, but when I do she seems very glad to see me, and tells me that she will never again go out unless he is with me. It happens that a friend in her town says that she is an awful flirt and is continually running around with men of a poor reputation. With me she is very quiet and seems to want me to marry her. As far as I am able to learn her family is of good blood, and they do not know of her actions. Her telling me that she never goes out and is faithful to my friendship leaves me in doubt. Do you think that she cares for me and is telling the truth?"

From where I am I can't tell whether she is telling the truth or not. Perhaps her friend is jealous of her. It is most unkind of you to be suspicious of her. Don't you think it is?

Wishes to Marry Her.
"Dear Miss Libbey: I am engaged to a young man, and dearly love him, and he wants us to get married right away. He says he cannot live without me. I have two sisters who will have to look after the household duties. They are 15 and 12 years old, and my father seems to think I ought to stay home a

Pay no attention to the letter if you love the fellow and believe he is worthy of your love. You must not give him a second thought, for it is only a coward who will write one. It strikes me you ought to have a bit more confidence in the man if you expect to be happy as his wife.

Searched from Ocean to Ocean.
"Dear Miss Libbey: Am considered handsome, having means. Am very affectionate, but with no aversion to women. I really am a very good catch if the girls only knew it. I have searched from ocean to ocean for a man who would be suitable to be the wife of a man of my position. But since that time I became deeply in love with a girl, and she is now in my arms. I have a complex and dreamy blue eyes, but for some cause unknown to myself I could not win her affection. I have treated her with peanuts, candy, and the choicest of fruits, pop, ice cream, etc. but when I ask her to accompany me to the electric theatre she haughtily refuses. Please advise me as to the best course to pursue to try to win her affection. Would you advise me to look on trying to court her, or try to find another to take her place?"

Arthur you are too much in love with her. Don't be blowing your own praise so much if you would have other people appreciate your goodness. Must be something wrong with you, Arthur, or women from "ocean to ocean" would not reject you. I would advise you to not reject you.

Question of Kissing.
"Dear Miss Libbey: I am 16. I have been going with a boy ever since one should attempt to coerce him into proposing to her.

Marriage is solemn. It is a life affair. A young man should make his own choice by letting his heart speak, and some what will be in ever after ready to stand by his decision which he might not have done had love not made the choice for him.

Of all the boys to court the public tongue or pen the saddest are those who settle the great question as to a heart mate through the standard of love, and love alone, if they would insure for themselves a happy future.

HAMILTON OLD BOYS WILL VISIT HOME
Hamilton old boys who are resident in Calgary will make a great trip east to their home town in August for the great celebration which will be held there. The reunion in the town hall takes place August 11 to 13, and 200 will go east from Calgary for the occasion. A band will be organized and a big bundle of literature distributed. The prizes of Calgary and the prospects for those who come out there will be the visit have a meaning to others than those who make it.

It is difficult to advise in a case like that. It seems rather inconsistent to leave your father and the household in the care of two such very young girls. On the other hand, so many older sisters have sacrificed their best years and chances in caring for the younger members of the family, only to receive neglect instead of gratitude for their sacrifice. Could you not arrange to live near your sisters if you married, so as to keep a watchful eye on them for a couple of years at least? I think that this would perhaps work out satisfactorily.

It is only a coward who will write one. It strikes me you ought to have a bit more confidence in the man if you expect to be happy as his wife.

Canadian Northern and Hoped Men Already in Field Surveying Ry. Routes to Smoky River; Some Well Known Packers Will Make the Trip

Edmonton, May 21.—An advance agent for the new trail into the Peace River country, Leslie H. Zohrab, is in the city today, pointing out the benefits which might accrue to the Peace River country by the opening and improvement of the old Indian trail, as it is called, from Hinton to Saskatoon lake.

For the purpose of securing government assistance toward opening this new short route to the Peace River country the people of Hinton and Saskatoon lake are co-operating in an expedition to survey the route.

The Canadian Northern has a charter for a line from a point nine miles to the west of Hinton into the coal fields and already has a considerable force of engineers at work on the route.

The Hoped men are also planning the construction of a railroad into the Smoky River, which has a gauge slightly different from that of the Canadian Northern.

Judging from the advance sale to date, the largest crowd that has ever attended a boxing bout in Canada will be in attendance, and it is very doubt-

SMICK MEYERS' TIMELY
DOUBLE WON GAMEWith Score Tied and Streib on Second, Calgary Twirler
Hits a Two-Bagger

One lustrous two-base swat availed by Smick Meyers in the last half of the ninth inning when the score was a tie and Julie Streib was on second decided the last game of the Moose Jaw series in favor of the Bronchos by the score of 6 to 5. Throughout it was a game in which the twirlers played a very important part and the circus finish which Smick Meyers put on the contest was quite in keeping with the importance that the mousmen had taken in the play.

To begin with it was a pitcher's battle in which the honors were about evenly divided between Meyers and Rossback. In the sixth inning when the score was a tie Meyers scored the run which gave the Bronchos a 4 to 3 lead. Then in the eighth inning, 4 to 3 in favor of the locals, Rossback landed a stiff upper cut on the Reach spheroid when one mousman put on the sock and by good sprinting stretched the swat into a homer, sending in Weed ahead of him and tied the score.

Rossback Was All In.
The exertion of traveling around the bases so exhausted the big twirler that he had to retire from the game. Steel who pitched the no-hit-no-run game on Monday, finished the game in the ninth and a third which he twirled he fanned four batsmen. But he went into the game with a stingy double which brought his boss home.

Steel Credited With Loss.
Steel must be credited with the defeat in spite of his splendid work in fanning the four men who made all the outs during his term of office. He took hold of the game when the score was a tie and as the contest was lost while he was working the official record will show the game to be a defeat for the star twirler.

Bouquets for Jaw Twirlers.
Although the Bronchos won the game, and Smick Meyers by his timely hitting brought in the winning run, yet the biggest bunches of bouquets must be thrown at the Moose Jaw twirlers. Rossback held the Bronchos down to one safe hit during the first four innings that he pitched. He went into the game in spite of the fact that he had a lame wing and every ball he threw over the plate caused him a twinge of pain. Steel, who took up the burden of the contest in the eighth after Rossback had exhausted himself in making the four base swat, lacked control, but he did have a roundhouse curve which bewildered the Calgary batsmen. He pitched an inning and a third and was responsible for all four outs which were made during this time. Flanagan, Hollis, O'Brien and Rothfus were the men who fell victims to his out drop. Roche, Streib and Meyers got hits off his delivery, but did not succeed until he was forced to either groove them or walk.

How the Run Came In.
During the first four innings the Jaws accumulated three runs off four hits. The Bronchos by consistent hitting and an error scored enough runs to tie the score in the fifth. In the Moose

M'DONALD PREDICTS BIG FUTURE FOR STEEL

Umpire McDonald, who naturally is in a better position to judge the work of a pitcher than any man on the field, is as strong for Steel, the auburn-haired little twirler of the Moose Jaw twirlers, who pitched the no-hit-no-run game against the Bronchos on Monday, and who finished the game for the Jaws last night and struck out four Calgary batsmen in one inning and a third.

"Steel has more stuff on the ball than any pitcher in the league that I have ever seen. He has the biggest curve of any pitcher I have ever seen in my experience. I think he is due for fast company."

Steel is just twenty years old, and this is his first season playing professional baseball.

ful if there will be a reserved seat left the morning of the bout. Fans who intend to attend should make arrangements today for their seats if they do not want to be disappointed. There is accommodation for 6,000 fans at the arena. About 2,000 of these are reserved and tickets are on sale at 1,000 of these choice pasteboards have already been sold.

Several orders have been received from out-of-town for blocks of seats. The bout is expected to draw from all parts of the province. Even in Edmonton, where the counter attraction of the West-Sooner bout is drawing the crowds, will send down a special train. This train will leave Calgary in the afternoon and will get the Edmonton fans back to their home city in time for the lightweight attraction.

Jaw half of the sixth the same number of hits were made by Weed's bouch, but the fielding kept the twirlers scoreless. In the Calgary half of the sixth Meyers scored the run which put the Bronchos in the lead. There was nothing doing in the seventh, but in the eighth Rossback slammed the four-base swat when his boss was on first which put the Jaws in the lead again only to see the ninth when Steel decided things with his mighty swat.

MAD HATTERS WIN FINAL GAME FROM ESKIMOS

Edmonton, May 21.—Medicine Hat won the last game of the series from Edmonton today by a score of 8 to 2. It was a close exciting game all the way through and the best pitcher, Redmond tripped to the left field fence with one out. Clayton fanned. With two strikes on Rocho, Redmond attempted to steal home but was nipped at the plate. Dickenson started the game, but was unsteady and was replaced by Clayton in the fourth inning. In the fifth inning Clayton, who was hit in the matter, and was told that the Callies had met Hillhurst in every possible way, with the exception that they would not play at Hillhurst. Mr. Atwood declared that Hillhurst were simply hiding behind the widow and attempting at the same time to override the league, who, everyone knew, was in absolute favor of anything that could be done for the benefit of Mrs. Melville.

It is up to Hillhurst. The whole result is that Hillhurst are offered all kinds of alternatives, and more than that the decision was also come to that the tickets sold already in connection with the proposed international game will hold good for any game got up for the benefit of Mrs. Melville on Victoria Park on Saturday.

The secretary, Mr. John Ferguson, resigned his position on account of his going out of town, and was awarded a hearty vote of thanks for his valuable services. Mr. J. K. Matheson was appointed league secretary pro tem.

ATHLETICS DEFEATED THE
Y. M. C. A. CHAMPIONS

Before a crowd of over 600 fans at Mewata park last night, the Athletics won the Inter-metropolitan league when they defeated the Y.M.C.A. champions by the score of 6 to 5.

Boys had the better of a pitchers' battle between he and Smith. The Athletics got by Smith early in the game, scoring three runs in the first inning, losing fielding, however, played an important part in this sprint. The Senior Amateur league games have proved so popular that the city has had to erect a number of bleacher seats which are very much appreciated and are filled at every game.

Callies Were Surprised.
The senior league football game last night at Victoria Park was witnessed by over 600 spectators, and at the end the Callies retired victorious by the only goal scored. The city provided the opposition, was expected to be weak, owing to the departure of several of their players, but the game put up by the team was splendid. The Athletics' play was excellent, and augurs well for the future of football to be served up to the public this evening.

Football Accident.
The first football accident in the Commercial league game when Boothe, the left half of the Athletics, slipped and fell on the ice. Boothe has been placed in a hospital, but is expected to recover after a few days. He is being treated by a specialist. It is believed that he will be able to return to the team in a few days.

QUAKERS MAKE IT THREE IN A ROW FROM SOX

Saskatoon, May 21.—Bill Hurley's Quakers made it three straight wins from the Regina Red Sox, defeating the locals 5 to 2 here today. It was easily the best game of the series, being a nip and tuck until the eighth session, when the Sox balloon went up, and Saskatoon brought in three runs.

With the score one to nil in favor of the visitors in the third, Mills alarmed out a homer, bringing in Cruikshank for the Quakers, striking out twelve batsmen. He passed four men, but tightened up in great shape at critical stages and in the last three innings had the Sox at his mercy. Burgess supported by the team he retired three batsmen and hit one. Score by innings: Saskatoon .. 002 000 03
Regina .. 100 001 000-2

Inter-metropolitan Game Tonight.
The Iroquois and Y.M.C.A. meet tonight in the Inter-metropolitan league at Mewata park. Both teams are evenly matched and a close game should result. The Quakers are anxious that all their players be out early.

FRANK RILEY THREATENS TO KILL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Unless It Agrees to Play Benefit Game at Hillhurst, Is Statement Made at Meeting—Organization Promptly Turns Down Proposition and Appoints Conference Committee

"Mr. Riley told me yesterday that if the league turned down the game on Saturday first, he would kill the league." In view of that statement, said Mr. Inglis, at last night's meeting of the Calgary City and District league, "we have to be careful what we do."

The meeting was called for the purpose of considering what action the league would take in connection with the proposed match at Hillhurst Park on Saturday first, between teams picked from Scotch and English players, the proceeds to be given to Mrs. Melville, widow of Hillhurst player.

The first intimation was given through the press, but just as the meeting began, Mr. George Taylor handed in a letter from the Hillhurst club asking permission to play the game. Mr. Alex. Robertson, the president, stated the particulars that had been done by the Hillhurst club, and then read the letter, which contained the statement that the proposed game had fallen through between Callies and Hillhurst because Callies had wanted to run the whole business.

Hillhurst Request Refused.
A great discussion followed, and ultimately it was unanimously decided on the motion met Mr. Atwood, Tynesiders, seconded by Mr. Matheson, Callies, that the international game on Saturday be refused, and that a deputation, consisting of the president, Vice-president, Gov. Messrs. Aiken and Matheson be appointed to visit the Hillhurst committee if possible this evening, to put before them the following proposition: To play a game on Saturday first at Victoria Park, between Hillhurst and Callies; failing that, a game between Hillhurst and a team selected from the league itself; play a benefit game for Mrs. Melville, outside the Hillhurst club altogether.

Every member was emphatically of the opinion that a game should be played for this worthy object, and Mr. Melville and acquaint her with the league's feeling in the matter.

Hillhurst Selling Tickets.
It was also commented upon that the letter from Hillhurst had come long after they had begun selling tickets for the game, and after they had selected the two teams to provide the game. All teams in the league will carry out the decision of the league to abstain from the game arranged by Hillhurst, and in view of the statement of the chairman that they would be deluged from football in Alberta, would, he thought, bring the players to see that the attempt on the part of Hillhurst to run football in the city of Calgary was obnoxious.

The league were unanimous in their opinion that some benefit game should be played, but decided that they should not be intimidated by Hillhurst. Vice-president Gow made an appeal on the Callies for the position. It had taken a heavy vote of thanks for his valuable services. Mr. J. K. Matheson was appointed league secretary pro tem.

Luther McCarty at the Circus

In spite of the fact that he is rated as one of the best boxers in the world and boxing is supposed to be a man's game, Luther McCarty is nothing more or less than a great big boy with all the inherent love for excitement and circuses. When Luther was training for the Flynn bout he pitched his training camp in the wild animal menagerie attached to Al G. Barnes' circus which show maintains its winter quarters in Venice, California. Luther in his cowboy outfit aboard a "snake" ship of the desert, which is one of the features of the Barnes show.

MCCARTY MUCH IN DEMAND

Offered $15,000 to Meet Gunboat Smith July 4

LUTHER MCCARTY is very much in demand these days. Offers are crowding in on Manager Billy McCarty at such a rate that he is at a loss to know what to do lest he be doubling back on his other offers. The most monumental of all the offers came in last evening from Venice, California. It was a list of $15,000 for McCarty's services to meet Gunboat Smith, who so decisively defeated Jess Willard on Tuesday night. The offer came from William Aldridge, president of the new club organizing at Los Angeles, in opposition to the club managed by "Uncle Tom" McCarty. The McCarty arena is located at Vernon, a suburb of Los Angeles, going south while the new club, which is financed by two wealthy land owners of Venice, a northern suburb of the southern California metropolis, are erecting their arena with a seating capacity of 25,000, right on the edge of the beautiful town patterned after an Italian city.

EASTERN FOOTBALL MEN LOOK FORWARD TO BIG SEASON

Peace Compact With A. A. U. of C. Is Signed—Pro. Soccer Not Taking Well

With the consummation of the agreement that the Dominion Football association has been able to make with the Amateur Athletic union of Canada, soccer players in the east are looking forward to the best year in the history of the game. The agreement is substantially the same as that offered by the A.A.U. of C. some time ago, and rejected at that time by the footballers. However, after more mature consideration, and after the decision of the Western Ontario Football association, which is the strongest body in the east, to stay in the A.A.U. of C., the heads of the Dominion association have decided to co-operate with the footballers in their affiliation. The same amateur definition that exists in other lines of sport will hold good in football. It is stated that the proposed trip of the English professional teams to Canada this season is off, now that the agreement is ratified.

SCOTS BEAT FURNITURES

ALARMING INCREASE EXPENDITURES IS OPPOSITION'S CLAIM

is collecting all the duties that the tariff law calls for. He complimented the customs department on its course. The large expenditures were necessary, he said, because Ontario, Manitoba and British Columbia had been starved by the late government, while Nova Scotia had been spoon-fed.

Mr. Carvell, (Carleton), moved the adjournment of the debate and the house rose at 11:15.

Continuing his reply to the minister's budget statement, A. K. McLean took up the matter of the duty on certain kinds of sawed planks which had formerly been free but which this government had put under a 25 per cent duty. This had been called to the attention of parliament by the member for Assiniboia, who moved a resolution, it was then stated, that the government had permitted "smuggling of this article" for some strange reason the question of whether these articles were free or dutiable had been referred to the Exchequer court, which decided that lumber of this class was dutiable. But the Saskatchewan members were pending at this time, and as something had to be done an appeal was made to the Supreme court against the finding of the Exchequer court, which had supported the government's contention. The Supreme court reversed the decision of the Exchequer court. Reference to both courts Mr. Carvell characterized as "a wicked and wanton expenditure of public money." It was not dealing seriously with the matter, he said, but was a public matter. There was no reason or reference to the courts and it was an attempt to deceive the public. If they had been acting fairly they would have announced in 1911 that they were taking this particular kind of lumber, or they would have made it clear what the item did mean.

The member for Halifax then turned to the question of imperial preference, which he discussed briefly. He did not think that there was much hope of a preference on national goods, judging by the latest utterances of Unionist leaders. They might be able to give something of a valiant preference on manufactures.

He also criticized the fact that no further steps had been taken in the direction of appointing a tariff commission. He had never thought that it would be of any advantage to the country.

A Prodigal Government. Turning next to the figures given by the minister of finance with respect to the revenue and expenditures, Mr. McLean declared that the government showed every evidence of being an extravagant government and naturally inclined to prodigality.

The only question which is exercising the minister's mind as to the source of the excess revenue, Mr. McLean said, has not worried him. He should have given to all demands made upon him by ministers and members. He should put a check on a spender. When in opposition the conservatives were never tired of talking of the big labor expenditures and of the big disaster. What had they to say now in regard to increases in the expenditure since they came into power?

Enormous Increase. The figures for the public works department, Mr. McLean said, were remarkable. In 1910 the expenditure was $10,344,000. In 1911 the expenditure was $18,700,000, nearly three times as much as in 1910. The expenditure for the militia department in 1912, Mr. McLean said, was $13,131,000, which had risen to $18,307,000, while the proposed expenditure for 1914 is $10,500,000. The figures for these two departments of parliament, when the Liberals were in power, Mr. Borden had stated that the expenditures were so large as to establish prima facie that the government stood convicted of the improper use of public money. What was the said of a proposed expenditure of over $200,000,000 exclusive of railway subsidies, which would probably bring the grand total up to $225,000,000?

Mr. McLean declared that, while he was not pessimistic as to the future, this was a year in which the minister of finance should have practiced economy. It was quite possible, owing to the tightness of money, a probable reduction in imports and a speculation in leads, that the immediate future may not be quite as bright as the immediate past.

Should Reduce Taxation. Dealing with the question of surpluses, Mr. McLean said that notwithstanding the conditions to which he had referred, the surplus of $55,000,000 over ordinary expenditure last year would probably amount to $45,000,000 or more for the current year. In view of such large surpluses, real and prospective, the government should have made a remission in taxation, more particularly in view of the fact that the country is facing a new problem in the rapid and abnormal increase in the cost of living. Mr. McLean remarked that there had been continuous surpluses since 1901. Those under the Liberal regime averaged from seven to eight millions. Mr. Fielding's two last surpluses were large, and they had continued to grow, and the time had certainly arrived when the burden of the people should be lessened. Customs and excise taxes for the past current year amounted to $114,000,000, per capita tax of $17. Conservatives were very critical when the per capita tax was only $10 or $11. They then waited like Jeremiahs. At the present time the per capita tax is allowed to grow, although the revenue is so large that the government is unable to spend the money. In this connection, Mr. McLean contended that the surpluses were not so large and they were engaged in the expensive undertaking of constructing the National Transcontinental Railway, the Liberals made substantial reductions in the tariff.

Surpluses and Wastes. Conservatives had always taken the position that it was indefensible, illegal and unbusinesslike to take more revenue than was actually required for the expenditure of the country. But a point had now been reached in Canada where there were more either the remission of taxation or else an abandonment of this previous theory and practice. In the past it had been customary to estimate the necessary expenditure of the year and then proceed to devise ways and means of expending the general revenues. Such big surpluses were incentives to waste and political corruption.

Delegating the Administration. Mr. McLean referred to the bill for increasing Manitoba's subsidy and the appointment of a commission to investigate British Columbia's claim along this line. The appointments of the commission, he said, was a sheer waste of the public money and an insult to the intelligence of the people of that province.

BAKERS AGAIN PAY FOR FEATHERING TO WRAP LOAVES

Nominal Sum Collected on Charge of Neglecting Bylaw

Four bakers were yesterday fined in the police court for failing to observe the bylaw, they offered for sale, duly wrapped according to the city bylaw. These were J. W. Shelley, the Whitlock Bakery company, L. Laderer and Edward Davis. The fine imposed by magistrate Sanders was $5. Shelley, who appeared for the defence, contended that the bakers were doing all in their power to observe the bylaw. They were wrapping some of the loaves in this territory, are simply what the requirements of the city. He had had $50 during the past month by reason of the bylaw, and he had refused to take the expense of having his bread made the bread damp. A great deal of time had to be taken up in doing the work. There was no one present to represent the city.

VICTORIA DAY FALLS ON SATURDAY AND IS HOLIDAY

Stores and Places of Business Must Be Closed and Police Will See That This Is Done

Tomorrow, Friday, is Empire Day. Saturday is Victoria Day. Empire Day is not a holiday, but on that day it is supposed to be a day when the public schools for the day to be devoted to addresses and other features bringing home to the minds of the pupils the greatness and stability of the British Empire, on which the sun never sets.

Victoria Day is a public holiday in Canada, in memory of the good Queen Victoria, whose birthday it was, she died on the night of the 22nd of May, 24, 1819. In Calgary this day will be observed as a holiday, and all stores and places of business will be closed. There will be many picnics and other outings for the day.

There is an impression among some people that the holiday need not be observed as a holiday, and that stores have gone so far as to put up notices to the effect that they will be open on Monday and Tuesday. The secretary of the Retailers' association, Mr. J. H. Smith, has pointed out that the holiday is a legal holiday, and all stores must be closed. He further stated that the secretary of the Retailers' association has written to all stores and places of business, asking them to observe the day as a holiday, and that the police had their orders to take action against any stores that were open on Monday and Tuesday.

DRUGGIST ACQUITTED OF GRAVE CHARGE AT ASSIZES

Wm. Reddick Found Not Guilty of Illegal Operation; Is Discharged

William Reddick, manager of the Pure Drug store on Ninth Avenue E., was yesterday acquitted on the charge of performing an illegal operation on a woman, by the jury at the criminal assizes. The jury were out for about two hours, considering the case, and returned with a unanimous verdict which is necessary in all cases. They added a rider to the verdict of not guilty saying that the evidence produced by the crown had not been sufficient to convict.

The accused was accordingly discharged and congratulated by his friends and relatives who had been following the case with interest. The judge remarked to the jury that their verdict did not contain any reflection on the crown in the way of failing to produce the evidence. He thought all the evidence that could be secured had been presented. The foreman of the jury said no reflection was cast on the crown.

The evidence given yesterday included for the prosecution Chief Cuddy, who had been informed of the case by a private detective, of the men Crank and Magee the former being the sweet-heart of the girl in the case and the latter a chauffeur who claimed that he made arrangements for the treatment by Reddick and who said he had been told by Reddick to send down any boys and girls who were in trouble.

For the defence only two witnesses were called, W. J. Wilson, a grocer, who has a store next door to the Pure Drug store and who said that he had been in the drug store on the night that the girl Rose Knight claimed she had stayed there all night. He said that there was no one in the store.

Reddick also took the stand in his own defence and said that he was 28 years of age, not a druggist by trade, but a lumberman. He had been manager of the Pure Drug store for some months. He acknowledged that the girl had visited his store but all the remainder of the story he absolutely denied.

Judge Scott in summing up to the jury said it was a case of the reliability of the evidence. He advised the jurors if they had any doubt to give the accused the benefit.

RECORD CUCUMBER IS GROWN AT STRATHMORE

An example of what can be done in Alberta by intensive culture was given at the C.P.R. department of natural resources yesterday. The illustration was a cucumber grown under glass at Strathmore, the equal of which has not been grown on the continent. It was no less than two feet three inches in length and ten inches in circumference. The vegetable was not so long as some of those grown a year ago at the same place, but it was much firmer and of far better quality and thickness.

FIFTY-THREE IN CELLS BUILT TO HOLD THIRTY-FOUR

Central Station Overcrowded Because of Limited Quarters at the Barracks

Packed like sardines in a cell, fifty-three prisoners were crowded into the central police station yesterday morning when the cell house at the barracks was opened. The overcrowding of the station was due to the fact that the barracks cell house, not more than three weeks ago, had been opened in the place of the old one. When the new station was opened in a few weeks, the congested conditions at the barracks will still remain to make life miserable for the city police officials.

No less than six prisoners are kept in cells at the central police station because of the inability of the mounted police officials to care for them. Two of the prisoners, Charles Yes Mook and Michael Sison were transported to the penitentiary in the next batch of prisoners. Instead of being confined in the penitentiary, they must be cared for in the city. John Kelley and Frank Ryan were transported to the penitentiary. John L. Harrow and Gerald Lema were bound for Lethbridge, are still in the city. The other two prisoners, who were transported to the penitentiary, were unable to take more than a few days of their journey, and were returned to the city. They will do thirty and twenty days respectively at the barracks, must wait in conditions there are such that many prisoners can be relieved.

AT THE THEATRES

ROSE STAHL, STAR EXTRAORDINARY, COMES TO THE SHERMAN GRAND THEATRE NEXT MONDAY

Miss Rose Stahl in her new play "Maggie Pepper" comes to the Sherman Grand for three days, commencing Monday, May 26. The play is by Charles Kline, and her fellow-actors are the best of theatrical entertainers. The name part of the piece is well adapted to the star's abilities, as it might more correctly be stated that Miss Stahl has adapted "Maggie Pepper" to herself by the artistic interpretation she makes of the dramatic story. From the moment she steps upon the stage for her first appearance, the personality of the star dominates the piece. She knows the art of keeping still and yet never allowing the audience to forget her. Even while "Maggie Pepper" is off the stage there seems to be a sense of her presence in the episodes which are taking place back of the footlights. The Henry B. Harris Estate has surrounded Miss Stahl with an exceptional supporting company, which makes the pleasure of the performance complete. And the story of "Maggie Pepper" is so true and wholesome; it has such a big human appeal, with comedy situations and laughter in abundance, that the spectator goes home with pleasant memories. "Maggie Pepper" is said, is a play worth seeing more than once, for the art of Miss Stahl and her companion plays improve upon acquaintance.

AMUNDSEN IS POPULAR WHEREVER HE GOES ON THE CONTINENT

Explorer Who First Reached South Pole Will Lecture Here Tomorrow

Not since the homecoming of Theodor Roosevelt from the pursuit of Big Game in the equatorial jungles has the name of anyone on American shores evoked such a royal welcome as is now being given to Capt. Roald Amundsen, whose modest story of how he had reached the flag of Norway at the South Pole on December 14, 1911, lifted him to a bound to premier rank as an explorer.

The Canadian people have lost none of their interest in polar expeditions. It is made evident by the enthusiasm with which Capt. Amundsen has been received as a lecturer in this country. Already his original concert number, so that he will be obliged to remain in America for at least a year.

At his opening lecture in New York City, the great auditorium of Carnegie Hall was packed with enthusiasts in thousands, who had paid five dollars apiece for the privilege of listening to his marvelous story.

Amundsen has given in all six lectures in New York City, and every time the hall was crowded and hundreds had to be turned away.

The same interest has been seen in Canada, where Capt. Amundsen has given his wonderful lecture. In Vancouver 2,000 people heard him; at Queen's every ticket was sold out two days before the lecture was to be given, and at Moose Jaw the other night the largest hall in town proved to be too small.

Calgary will give him a full house on Friday night. Capt. Amundsen is a modest man, as are all truly great men, and he is a clean, sportsmanly, warm while to go and hear and see. He is the only explorer who has shown motion pictures from his travels in the far south. The pictures are spoken of as the most marvelous motion pictures ever shown on the canvas.

DUETS AND TRIOS BY ANIMALS FEATURES OF BARNES SHOW

Work Done in Old Circuses by Men and Women Now Done by Animals Themselves

Every large circus has equestrians that are usually paid fabulous salaries for a few moments work each day. This department of circus entertainment has, however, grown to be somewhat stale. It's been of the same character "ever since we were boys."

The first showman to change this feature of circus entertainment and bring it up to a modern standard, was Al G. Barnes, at the head of the Al G. Barnes big 8-ring wild animal circus. The Barnes show presents a galaxy of equestrian performers entirely new to the circus world—trained animals taking the places formerly occupied by people.

A full grown Russian bear, a cougar, a leopard, "Nero," a full grown African lion, goats, monkeys, dogs; the most wonderful of the aggregation being a troupe of sea lions.

Not only do these animals ride, gallop, jump, and perform feats of balancing, juggling, back somersaults, leap from hurdles and jump through flaming hoops of fire.

The combination of horse and lion is an unusual one, as the lion is the horse's most dreaded enemy, and unof the Tiller school of dancing and are to England what the Imperial Ballet is to Russia.

A vaudeville bill appears to have something lacking in this advanced stage of entertainment enterprise unless there is a sketch, but there will be nothing lacking in this bill for "A Comedy Cartoon" as presented by Miss Norton and Paul Nicholson is one of the real hits of the season. It deals with department store life, after its employees have gone home to face the problem of eking out an existence upon $8.59 a week.

Octodes' Five Musical Gormans, are another of the big hits of the bill with their fine line of instrumental music. Miss Katherine is regarded by many as the best cornetist in the world.

G. S. Melvin's name as an entertainer has travelled before him and was often mentioned in news from the old country long before he ever consented to leave the Highlands of Bonnie Scotland and make his first Canadian tour. He is a talented singer and is spoken of as Scotland's representative dancer. It will also be pleasing to note that he makes no attempt to caricature his native people or land.

Much is added to the bill by the act of Miss "Mike" Berkin, daughter of a wealthy western mining man. She is a violin virtuoso of the first water and shows the results of five years tuition by the best masters.

The Goyt Trio have combined acrobatics and animal training and in that way made their act unique and exceedingly attractive.

Chief Caupolica, an Indian with a wonderful baritone voice, is one of the bright spots on the bill with his wonderful range of voice. As usual the bill will have a new collection of "talkies" which brand of entertainment has come to stay.

VIOLATED ALIEN LABOR ACT AND DEPORTED

London, Ont. May 21.—Four Cuban cigar makers employed in Kelly's cigar factory were arrested today and pleaded guilty to violation of the alien labor law and were tonight deported by Dominion Officer Reynolds. It is alleged that they were brought to the city by Brenner Bros. The latter were the defendants in police court today in connection with the case and the magistrate reserved his decision.

THE LONDON PALACE GIRLS WHO HEAD ORPHEUM BILL

No act since the appearance of Sarah Bernhardt has been of such international importance as the appearance of the London Palace Girls, who headline today's bill at the Orpheum and another scoop must be credited to Impresario Martin Beck for capturing the "aristocrats of the dancing world" for his circuit. Many attempts had been made in the past to have them enter into a contract but all were unavailing until the honeyed words—"Money" made a noise like "Honey" in that case—from the lips of the managing director of the Orpheum circuit fell upon their ears. New York, May 21.—Union Pacific, Reading and Steel, the stock market leaders, moved within a range of a point or less today. The unusually narrow fluctuations of these speculative favorites gave the measure of the market in general, which was a dull and spiritless affair. Traders sought in the early session to inaugurate a bull movement on the strength of the floatations of the New York City bonds below the average price of 104.159 obtained by the city heavy sales today.
