Weekly Colonist

FRIDAY, JANUARY 14, 1887.

From The Daily Colonist, Jan. 13, 1887.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

ANOTHER WARD SCHOOL.—The government intend to provide for another ward school in the central part of the city.

MONTROSE.—Mr. Edward F. Moran was last evening appointed member of the judicial division of the boys' central school.

TRAMWAY.—It is doing good work on Fort street and in a few weeks vehicles will be running over the first roadbed in the city.

FOR THE NORTH.—The C. P. N. Co. will dispatch the steamer Masque on January 26th for Fort Simpson and way ports.

POLICE NOTES.—For several days past at the police court have been decided cases, and yesterday acting Police Magistrate Harrison was relieved of all duty.

AUSTRALIAN WARE.—At Melbourne, Jan. 6.—The wheat harvest in Victoria is 12,000,000 bushels, average of twelve bushels per acre. The exportable excess is 150,000 tons, or 60,000 tons over that of the preceding year.

"THE AGENT ON"—This is the title of a new song which Mr. DeLange, who has become so great a favorite during the last two nights, will sing to-night during the opera.

NEW TRIAL.—In the case of the libel suit against Tuttle and others, the full court, yesterday acting Police Magistrate Harrison on the original trial, by the Chief Justice on the original trial.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD.—Marka va Lohe and others in the volunteer fire department charitable fund. On the opening of this case the supreme court, yesterday, Sir M. B. Begbie, C. J., directed that certain enquiries be made, and that the master of the vessel will come up for final decision.

THE CHINESE WOMAN, Choo Kook, arrested on a copy by Deputy Sheriff Langley on Saturday, while loading on the San Francisco steamer, was held out by Kim Shoon and Lim Sam, the amount of the debt, $187, and $50 costs.

THE MATOR'S REPORT.—His Worship Mayor Fell has written an elaborate report upon the work of the year, touching upon all the various departments. It will be incorporated with the annual reports and printed in pamphlet form.

THE WEBS.—The following telegram is an extract for the absence of dispatches from the steamer W. T. Watson, Jan. 11.—Western Union south of Point Elliott, W. T., since 6 o'clock this evening.

A VALUABLE DONATION.—Mr. M. King of Comox, has the honor of the provincial museum for the gift of a fine elk, which Mr. King shot on Thursday last, near Campbell river. The animal, which is very fine, is now on the museum and placed in position in the museum as a specimen of the monarchs of our forests.

OTTAWA JOURNAL.—The rumor is again revived that Mr. Dewdney, who is in town at present, will be succeeded in the north-western territory by Mr. Joseph Tupper. The latter, at any rate, is the leading applicant for the position. If the appointment is made, Mr. Dewdney, who is a conservative in politics, will be succeeded in the north-western territory by Mr. Joseph Tupper. The latter, at any rate, is the leading applicant for the position.

THE EXPOSITION MATTER.—We understand that the matter is being decided by the Port Moody property owners, whether their claims will be appealed to the full court of the province, or to the court of appeal. It is the intention to carry them to the Privy Council of Great Britain, but it will first be necessary to have the matter decided by the machinery of the courts of Canada. Mr. Edmonds, who is the leader in the fight against the policy, is being viewed with respect to the matter, but declined to say much about it, or whether in his opinion the injurious effects of the matter would be settled by the settlement of the appeal.—Colonist.

ROBBERY.—Mr. D. F. Fee, who keeps a corner grocery on North Park street, is the victim of a very smart Chinaman, who emptied his till of the ready cash of the robbery. The robbery was a premeditated one, as the fellow had for the last week been hanging round the store, and was seen to be looking up the various articles. At last he found the key of the money drawer and disappeared for a few days. On the evening of the robbery, he returned to the shop on the day in question, and while in there he heard a noise proceeding from the shop, and on entering he saw enough found Mr. Chinaman in full possession. He asked him what he was doing there, and the man, who was in a hurry, came forward and asked him what he would give for an old jar, which he produced. Mr. Fee said he would take the jar if he would give him the contents of it. The fellow said he would do it for him, and Mr. Fee is still awaiting the return of the jar, and the man's hand and will do their best to bring the culprit to justice.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the B. C. Benevolent Society was held at the City Hall, President Fell in the chair. A statement of expenditures and receipts for the past year was read and found on hand at the beginning of the year was $889 51; subscriptions, $749 50; benefits $864 51; donations, $142 50; and rents, $119 05; interest, $19 48. For relief the expenditures were $170 00, leaving a balance of $1,606 21 on hand. $296 14 more was spent for relief in 1886 than in 1885. The report was read by Senator Macdonald and other kind friends for their untiring efforts to assist the society in their work.

The following officers were elected for the current year: James Fell, president; A. J. Langley, vice-president; J. Nichols, E. B. Marvin, J. W. Simpson, secretary and treasurer. A sum of $50 was paid over to Mr. Siffkin in recognition of his efficient services.

ARCHDEACON PINKHAM. Has Been Appointed Bishop of Saskatchewan. The Ven. Wm. O'Connell Pinkham, B. D., Archdeacon of the Diocese of Rupert's Land, has received from His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, the office of Bishop of Saskatchewan. It is understood that the Archdeacon will accept.

M. Howell, Q. C., of Winnipeg, also received from the Bishop of Rupert's Land, a letter to the effect that the Archbishop of Canterbury had appointed him to the office of Bishop of Saskatchewan. He had then, as accepted, the appointment would be made immediately.

UNCLE SAM.—"Got a new idea, have you?" "Naval Contractor." "Yes, sire. I can make you a very nice new gun that can fire a shell." "Suppose a Canadian cruiser sees it and shoots?" "It will drive just like a shell." "Can it fly?" "Well, it will fly like a dove." "Dive out of sight?" "Clear to the bottom." "Well, I duno. Sounds mighty like those you have now."

WHAT SOME PEOPLE SAY.

That during this winter year Sir John Macdonald will be raised to the peerage, with the title of Earl of Ottawa.

That the Abbott company opened last night in Traviata at the Baldwin Theatre, San Francisco, to a large and fashionable audience, and was warmly welcomed.

That during the Montreal carnival Peter Redpath's and the National Hockey Society's program will be opened to the public, as will also the extensive conservatories of Sir Donald A. Smith, James Bruce and Andrew Allan.

That it is stated that the government proposes shortly to consolidate two of the present departments under one minister, and to create a new department of commerce under which will be established a bureau of labor. The railway and public works departments will probably be the departments consolidated.

That the constant fear in which the czar of Russia lives has driven him to drink, and that he has indulged to excess. When he is not filling his tank, the doctors are giving him bromide of potassium, and between the buds and the buds he is having a Cossack's time of it.

That according to the English correspondent of the New York World the Queen's Jubilee will be celebrated by very liberal distribution of so-called "honors" to Canadians. Sir John is to be made a baron, and the Duke of Devonshire is to be made an imperial privy councillor and all the surviving "fishbone" members of the Dominion cabinet, and the lieutenant-governors, premiers and chief justices of the ten Ontario provinces.

That the editor who secured election in the Ontario election was J. R. Stratton, of the Peterboro' Examiner; Gaspare Pacaud, of Le Progrès, Windsor; J. H. Keenan, of the Windsor Standard; D. Drington, of the Owen Sound Free Press; W. Balfour, of the Amherstburg Echo; and W. M. Mack, of the Bruce Reporter. The candidates were John Carnegie, of the Peterboro' Review; J. S. Larke, of the Ottawa Freeholder; J. H. Schmidt, of the Windsor Standard; and E. M. Campbell, of the Brantford Conservator.

HARMONIOUS.

The Remored Dissensions in the Cabinet. The board met at 7:40 P. M. The President, Chairman Higgins and Trustees Herman, Milne, Walker and McKicking, Minutes of the previous meeting being adopted.

The chairman said he had granted permission to the street superintendent to erect a school ground; but on reflection he had not arrived at the conclusion that he had not the power to do so, and he had referred to the risk of injury to the school children from the passage of carts through the grounds.

The trustees were unanimously of opinion that the permission should be withdrawn and requested the chairman to so notify Mr. Tierney, which he said he would do.

Trustee Heisterman moved, and Trustee Milne seconded, that in future reports of the street superintendent should be made to the trustees at the next meeting of the board, and that the trustees should be kept advised of the progress of the work.
