The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol  $\longrightarrow$  (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol  $\nabla$  (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole  $\longrightarrow$  signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole  $\nabla$  signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

VI. Should neither of the representative officers nor a past Z. of a chapter attend any convocation of the grand chapter, such chapter, by a vote properly certified by the first principal and Scribe E., under seal, may delegate any companion entitled to a seat in the grand chapter to represent their chapter, but no companion can represent more than three chapters.

VII. Every companion elected or appointed to office in the grand chapter, shall, during his period of office, be a subscribing member to some regular subordinate chapter; and any past grand officer or member, who shall for twelve months continuously cease to be a subscribing member to some subordinate chapter, shall be disqualified from attending the grand chapter, such disqualification to continue until he shall have again become and continue to be, a subscribing member to some regular subordinate chapter.

VIII. Should a vacancy occur in any office of the grand chapter, the grand Z. shall nominate a qualified companion to supply the place pro tempore. But no officer can resign his office after he has been installed and invested, nor can he be removed except for cause which appears to the grand chapter to be sufficient, to be ascertained by the votes of the majority of members present, on complaint laid before it by the grand Z., in which case another must be elected or appointed in his stead, as the case may be. This includes the grand janitor.

IX. The annual convocation of the grand chapter shall be held on the Friday of the same week in which is held the meeting of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of Canada at the same place at the hour of ten a. m.

Returns of subordinate chapters shall be made up to the 31st of May in each year, and the financial year of grand chapter shall end on the 30th of June.

XV. In the grand chapter alone resides the power of enacting laws and regulations for the government of the royal arch, and of altering, amending, repealing and abrogating them. The Grand Chapter has also the inherent power of investigating, regulating and deciding all matters relating to the royal arch, and the intermediate degrees, and to subordinate chapters and individual companions, which it may exercise either of itself or by such delegated authority as it may appoint; but in the grand chapter alone resides the power of erasing chapters and expelling companions from this order of free masonry.

XVI. When the Grand Lodge or any other competent masonic authority shall, for any unmasonic conduct, suspend or expel any brother who is a Royal Arch Mason, such companion shall be suspended or expelled from his Arch Masonic functions for the period whilst such craft suspension or expulsion continues in force.

XIX. Companions of eminence and ability, who have rendered service to the craft, may, by a vote of the grand chapter, be constituted members of the grand chapter, with such rank and distinction as may be thought proper.

REGULATIONS

FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE GRAND CHAPTER
DURING THE TIME OF BUSINESS.

TO BE READ AT EVERY CONVOCATION THEREOF.

XX. The grand chapter being opened, and the regulations having been read, the minutes of the last annual convocation and of any intervening grand chapter, are then to be put for confirmation ; and any communication from the grand principals or either of them, and reports from the grand superintendents of districts, and any committee, shall be read and taken into consideration ; after which the other business will be regularly proceeded with.

XXI. All matters are to be decided by a majority of votes, except where a ballot is enacted or demanded ; each officer and member of the grand chapter, (except the grand janitor), shall have one vote, and the presiding officer, in case of equality, a casting vote, unless the grand chapter, for the sake of expedition, shall think proper to leave any particular subject to the determination of the presiding officer. The votes of the members are to be signified by each holding out one of his hands, which hands the grand scribes are to count, unless the presiding officers shall declare the numbers so unequal as to render the counting unnecessary. No visitor shall on any occasion be permitted to vote.

XXII. Any member may demand a ballot on any question, either before or immediately after an open vote shall have been taken. In all matters to be decided by ballot, each chapter shall have three votes, and each officer (except the janitor) and member, not otherwise entitled to vote, shall have one vote, and, (except where otherwise provided), in case of equality, the presiding officer shall have a casting vote. The grand scribes shall act as scrutineers.

XXIII. Whenever the presiding officer shall call to order, there shall be a general silence.

XXIV. All members shall keep their seats, except the grand scribes, the grand principal sojourner, and his assistants, the grand director of ceremonies, and grand stewards, who are allowed to move about from place to place in discharge of their duties.

XXV. No companion shall speak twice to the same question, unless in explanation, or the mover in reply, and no visitor shall speak to any question, unless requested or permitted to do so by the presiding officer.

XXVI. Every companion who speaks shall rise and remain standing, addressing himself to the presiding officer, and no companion shall interrupt him except to speak to order, or the presiding officer to call him to order; but after he has been set right he may proceed if he observes due order and decorum.

XXVII. If any member shall have been twice called to order by the presiding officer, and shall, nevertheless, be guilty of a third offence at the same meeting, the presiding officer may command him forthwith to quit the grand chapter, and he shall not be again admitted to that convocation.

XXVIII. Whoever shall be so unmasonic as to hiss at a companion, or at what he has said, shall be forthwith solemnly excluded from the convocation, and declared incapable of being a member of any grand chapter, till, at another grand convocation, he publicly own his fault and grace be granted.

XXIX. No motion for the repeal or alteration of any existing law or for the introduction of a new one, shall be made, ~~without notice thereof~~ without notice thereof has been given in writing to Grand Secretary & previous to 3/25 in a previous grand chapter. And no repeal, alteration or addition shall be valid unless supported by two-thirds of the votes present.

XXX. No motion on any new subject shall be made, nor any new matter entered upon after eleven o'clock at night.

OF GRAND OFFICERS.

XXXI. The Grand Z., after his installation, at the annual convocation, shall nominate such grand officers as it is his prerogative to appoint, who, with the elective grand officers, are to be thereupon installed and invested in ancient form.

XXXII. Should the grand Z. die during his term of office, or be rendered incapable of discharging the duties, the immediate past first grand principal shall act until the next election takes place. Should he decline or be unable to act, the last but one, and so on; but if no former grand Z. be found to act, the grand chapter shall be summoned by the grand H., or in his absence, by the grand J., to elect a new Grand Z.

XXXIII. The grand Z., under the sanction of the grand chapter, may, by warrant, appoint any companion of eminence and skill to represent the grand chapter in a sister grand chapter; he may also constitute the representative of a sister grand chapter a member of the grand chapter of Canada, with such rank as the grand chapter may deem to be appropriate.

XXXIV. The grand principals, or either of them, may preside in any chapter they may visit.

XXXV. The grand Z. may summon any chapter or companion to attend him, and may order the production of the warrant, books, papers and accounts of such chapter. If the summons be not complied with, nor a sufficient reason given for non-compliance, such summons shall be repealed as a peremptory one; and if such last summons be not attended to, the offending chapter or companion may be suspended, and the proceeding notified to the grand chapter for further consideration, and punishment if deemed necessary.

XXXVI. The grand Z. shall not be applied to officially concerning royal arch companions or masonry except through the grand scribe E. or grand superintendents of districts. But this shall not refer to the grand principals H. and J., who can communicate direct.

XXXVII. The grand Z. has the sole power to grant dispensations, except for public festivals or processions, authority for which may be granted by any of the grand principals or grand superintendents of districts.

OF GRAND SUPERINTENDENTS OF DISTRICTS.

XXXVIII. This officer must be a past first principal, and a resident in the district for which he is appointed.

XXXIX. He may preside in every chapter he visits within his district.

XL. He may hear and determine any subject of masonic complaint, or irregularity respecting chapters, or individual companions within his district, and may proceed to admonition or to suspension. A minute of all such proceeding, stating the offence and the law applicable to it, together with his decision, is to be transmitted to the grand Z., through the grand scribe E., and when the case is of so flagrant a nature as in the judgment of the grand superintendent of the district to require the erasure of a chapter, or the expulsion of a companion, he shall make a special report to the grand chapter, with his opinion thereon. His decision is final, unless an appeal is made therefrom to the grand Z. or grand chapter.

XLI. He may summon any chapter or companion within the district to attend him, and may order the production of the warrant, books, papers and accounts of such chapter. If the summons be not complied with, nor a sufficient reason given for non-compliance, a peremptory summons shall be issued; and, in case of contumacy, he may suspend the offending chapter or companion, and shall report the case as before provided.

XLII. All petitions or warrants must be recommended and duly signed by the grand superintendent of the district prior to their transmission to the grand scribe E., whose duty it shall be to see that such recommendation and signature are duly attached to each petition, and recommended by the nearest chapter; if such recommendation be unreasonably withheld, it shall be left to the decision of the grand Z.

XLIII. He shall transmit to the grand scribe E. at least fourteen days prior to each annual convocation of grand chapter, a report on the condition of royal arch masonry in his district, with a list of such chapters as may have been constituted since the last annual convocation, for the information of the grand chapter.

XLIV. He has power to give or refuse consent for the removal of a chapter from place to place within his district, but not from his district into another, nor from another district into his own, without the sanction of the grand Z.

XLV. He may grant dispensations for public festivals or processions in his district.

OF GRAND SCRIBES E. AND N.

XLVI. All ministerial duties usually known as appertaining, and all privileges attached to the office of grand scribe, are to be performed and enjoyed exclusively by the grand scribe E.

XLVII. The grand scribe N. shall assist the grand scribe E. during the business of the annual convocation of the grand chapter, and temporarily perform his duties should the grand scribe E. be rendered incapable by sickness, absence from the province, or otherwise.

OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

XLVIII. The executive committee shall consist of all past grand first principals; the grand principals H. and J.; the grand superintendents of districts and the grand scribes, (ex officio members); the benevolent committee; and ten other members of the grand chapter, five to be elected annually by ballot and five to be appointed by the grand Z immediately after the election and appointment of grand officers. The grand H. shall be the presiding officer, and seven members shall constitute a quorum for the despatch of business. The committee may appoint sub-committees from amongst its members.

*XLIX. The committee shall meet at the place appointed for the annual convocation on the day previous thereto, at such hour as the grand H. may appoint. It may also be convened at other times by command of the grand H.

L. In the absence of the grand H. the committee shall elect a chairman.

LI. The committee shall audit the accounts of the grand chapter, and report thereon at the annual convocation, and shall prepare an annual report on foreign correspondence for general information.

LII. The committee shall appoint a committee on credentials, and shall examine and report on all applications for warrants, and generally on all matters referred to it by the grand Z. and grand chapter, and shall have the right of summoning any chapter or companion to attend and produce all books, papers and accounts belonging to them, under penalty, on neglect or refusal, of being by said committee suspended and reported to the grand Z. or grand chapter.

LIII. All questions shall be decided by a majority of votes ; the presiding officer, in case of equality, having a casting vote.

LIV. The members of the committee, when assembled on business, shall be in royal arch clothing.

LV. The committee shall proceed to the consideration of any special matter referred to it by the grand Z., or grand chapter, in preference to other general business..

LVI. All transactions and resolutions of the committee shall be entered in a minute book by the grand scribe E.

GOVERNMENT OF SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS.

LVII. The grand Chapter of Canada has the sole government and superintendence of the several royal arch chapters and lodges of mark, past and most excellent master masons within its jurisdiction ; with authority to assign the limits of the several districts and settle controversies that may happen between them ; and has power under the great seal of the grand chapter, and the sign manual of the grand principals, attested by the grand scribe E., to constitute new chapters of royal arch masons, and lodges of mark, past and most excellent master masons within the jurisdiction.

LVIII. The grand Z. has the power and authority, whenever he shall deem it expedient during the recess of the grand chapter, to grant a dispensation under his hand, and attested by the grand scribe E., under the seal of the grand chapter, upon the petition of nine registered royal arch masons empowering them to hold chapters of royal arch masons and lodges of mark, past and most excellent master masons, for a certain specified time, provided such does not extend beyond the next ensuing annual convocation of the grand chapter, when the grand chapter may confirm the said dispensation and grant the petitioners a warrant of constitution.

LIX. No charter or dispensation shall be granted for instituting lodges of mark, past and most excellent masters, independent of a chapter of royal arch masons.

OF SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS.

LX. All legally constituted assemblies of royal arch masons are called chapters, as regular bodies of mark masters, past masters and most excellent masters are called lodges. Every chapter ought to assemble for work at least once in every three months, and shall consist of three principals, two scribes, three sojourners and a janitor, to which, for the better working of the chapter, may be added other officers.. Lodges of mark masters, past masters and most excellent masters may be opened and worked without the chapter being first opened.

LXI. Every chapter of royal arch masons throughout this jurisdiction shall have a warrant of constitution from the grand chapter, and no chapter shall be deemed legal without such a warrant or a dispensation from the grand Z. The mode of application to be by petition, signed by nine registered royal arch masons, specifying the place where it is intended to hold such chapter, the day on which it is proposed to be holden, with the names of the three intended principals, and such warrant and dispensation shall also give power to open and hold lodges of mark, past and most excellent masters.

LXII. The petition is to be transmitted to the superintendent of the district in which it is intended to hold the chapter, for his recommendation or opinion.

LXIII. Every chapter shall be solemnly consecrated according to ancient custom, by one of the grand principals or superintendents of districts or by some present or past first principal of a chapter.

LXIV. Every chapter shall annually elect, by ballot, the first, second and third principals, Scribes E. and N., principal sojourner and treasurer, and, by an open vote of the chapter, the janitor; and at the next regular meeting following such election, after the minutes shall have been read and approved, they shall be duly installed and invested. The first principal shall then appoint all the other officers required for the better working of the chapter.

LXV. No companion shall be eligible for the first principal's chair, until he has served in the second principal's chair for twelve months, nor to the second until he has served in the third principal's chair for twelve months, unless by special dispensation from the grand first principal.

LXVI All matters are to be decided by a majority of votes except where a ballot is specially enacted. If the numbers on the ballot or vote shall in any case be equal, the first principal shall have the casting vote, or he may order a new ballot, at his discretion.

LXVII. A register shall be kept by each chapter of all companions who shall be installed as first, second and third principals; and every chapter shall return to the grand scribe E. the name of every companion so installed, with the date of his installation, and shall also notify the grand scribe E. whenever any companion who has been installed as first, second or third principal, shall, from any cause whatever, cease to be a member of the chapter; and no companion shall take his seat in the grand chapter as a principal or past principal until his name shall have been so registered.

LXVIII. The first principal is responsible for the due observance of the laws relating to subordinate chapters, and that all returns are made, and fees and dues paid to grand chapter. He shall see that a book or books be kept, in which the scribe E. shall enter the names of all candidates, with the dates of their proposals and taking the degrees of mark master, past master, most excellent master, and the royal arch, and their ages, residences and professions, together with all such other transactions of the chapter as are proper to be written.

LXIX. The principals of the chapter for the time being, shall be the master and wardens respectively of the lodges of mark, past and most excellent masters, and the other officers according to seniority.

LXX. The officers and companions, while in chapter, shall wear the proper clothing and jewels of royal arch masons.

LXXI. In case of the absence of the first principal his chair shall be taken by his immediate predecessor therein, or, in his absence, by the last but one, and so on, who shall discharge the duties of the office.

LXXII. In case of death or removal by grand chapter of a first principal of a chapter, the chapter shall proceed to elect a new principal in his place, giving seven clear days' notice of such election to all the members of the chapter; and should a vacancy occur in any other office, the first principal shall appoint a companion to supply the place pro tempore; but no officer can resign his office after he has been installed or invested; nor can he be removed, except for cause which appears to the chapter to be sufficient, to be ascertained by the votes of the majority of members present, on the complaint being laid before it by the first principal, after having been duly notified to the members in the summons, in which case another must be elected or appointed in his stead, as the case may be. This includes the janitors of chapters.

LXXIII. A chapter of emergency may at any time be called by summons, giving seven clear days' notice, by authority of the first principal. The reason for calling it shall be expressed in the summons, and no other business than that specified therein shall be entered upon at that meeting.

LXXIV. Every chapter shall, at least once in each year, make a return to the grand scribe E., specifying the names, ages, professions and residences, and the dates of exaltation of the companions exalted, together with the dates of their taking the previous degrees of mark, past and most excellent master, and shall at the same time remit the registering fees and fees for grand chapter certificates that may be due, and when any companion exalted in foreign parts, whose name is not previously registered in the books of the grand chapter, shall join a chapter as a member, his name, age, profession and chapter shall be likewise returned, and the same fee shall be paid as if he had been exalted in the chapter which he may so join. The name of each candidate must be included in the return as soon as he has received the degree of mark master, and the registering fee must be then remitted. The names also of all companions who may join from any other chapter must be returned, and the chapter in which they were exalted specified, and the names of all companions who have ceased to be members must be returned. Every mark master must select his mark within six months from the date of his taking the degree, and a description of it shall be returned by his chapter for record by the grand scribe E.

LXXV. No chapter shall exalt a mason to the royal arch degree, or admit a joining member, without strictly complying with the regulations enacted for those occasions. See "Of proposing members."

LXXVI. No mason shall be exalted to the royal arch degree unless he has been a master mason for three calendar months at least, of which he shall give proof, except by dispensation from the first grand principal, which shall not, however, be for a shorter period than four weeks. He must have taken the degrees of mark, past and most excellent master previous to exaltation.

LXXVII. No chapter shall confer the degrees of mark master, past master, most excellent master and royal arch upon any brother for a less sum than ~~twenty~~ <sup>ten</sup> dollars, which sum must be paid before any of the degrees are conferred, and may include the fees to the grand chapter for registry and certificate. This is not, however, to extend to serving companions, who may be exalted free of fee or charge, provided that a dispensation be obtained from the first grand principal.

LXXVIII. When any companion from without the jurisdiction of the grand chapter of Canada presents himself as a royal arch mason, and produces satisfactory proof of his having been exalted to that degree, each and every chapter shall have liberty to and may confer the degrees of mark master, past master and most excellent master on such companions who have not heretofore received them, free of charge, except a fee to grand chapter for registry and certificate.

LXXIX. Every chapter has the power to make such by-laws as to them may seem meet for their own private government, provided they be not incompatible with the general laws of the craft, or the general statutes enacted by the grand chapter, and such by-laws shall be fairly copied in a book to be kept for that purpose, after a copy thereof shall have been sent to the grand scribe E. for approval by the grand Z. ; every companion shall sign them as a token of submission to them when he becomes a member. The regular day and hour of meeting of the chapter shall be specified in the by-laws..

79 A. 1st, Private chapters may, by by-law, admit their members to life membership on such terms as such Chapters may determine, and for each such life member such Chapter may pay into the Grand Chapter the sum of ($2) two dollars, which payment shall exempt the Chapter from the payment of further dues to Grand Chapter on his behalf.

2nd. Upon such life member withdrawing from the Chapter of which he originally became a life member and joining any other Chapter, such other Chapter shall not be obliged to pay any annual dues to Grand Chapter on his account, nor, in case he becomes a life member of such other Chapter, shall it be obliged to pay a second fee therefor to Grand Chapter.

3rd. Life members shall be entitled to all the privileges of and shall be amenable to discipline in the same manner as ordinary members.

LXXX. The Scribe E. of every subordinate chapter shall send a copy of every summons issued to the members of the chapter, whether for a regular or emergent convocation, to the Grand Superintendent of the district.

LXXXI. Every chapter shall keep a book in which members shall sign their names before entering the chapter, and also a book for visitors, which shall contain their names, rank and chapter from which they hail. The janitor shall see that these entries are properly made.

LXXXII. The precedence of a chapter is derived from the number of its warrant, as recorded in the books of the grand chapter. If a chapter be dissolved, its warrants, records and property shall be delivered up to the Grand Chapter.

LXXXIII. If the majority of members quit a chapter the constitution or power of assembling exists with those remaining, provided their number be not less than nine, but if less than nine remain their warrant ceases and becomes extinct, and all the authority thereby granted or enjoyed reverts to the grand chapter.

LXXXIV. A chapter or companion offending against any law or regulation for which no specified penalty is enacted shall be subject to admonition or suspension, at the discretion of the grand Z., the grand chapter or the grand superintendent of the district.

LXXXV. No companion shall in any way make known or publish the proceedings of a chapter without proper authority, nor violate the secrecy of the ballot under any circumstances; under penalty of severe censure for a first offence, and for a second offence of suspension from all his royal arch privileges.

LXXXVI. Every chapter has the power of inquiring into offences, and of suspending or excluding a member, but no companion shall be suspended or excluded under any circumstances until he shall have had due notice of the charge or complaint preferred against him, and of the time appointed for its consideration, so that he may be present and be afforded every opportunity of defending himself before a decision is rendered as to his guilt or otherwise.

LXXXVII. The name of every companion suspended or excluded together with the cause thereof, shall be sent to the grand scribe E., and also to the grand superintendent of the district; and notice of his restoration shall also be sent to these two officers.

LXXXVIII. When a member has been suspended for non payment of dues he shall be immediately restored by the chapter, without ballot, on payment of all arrears owing at the time of his suspension, and of the regular chapter dues for the period he was so suspended.

LXXXIX. The majority of the members of a chapter, when congregated, have the privilege of giving instructions to their principals or other representative before the convocation of grand chapter.

XC. Every chapter shall be subject to erasure and forfeiture of its charter of constitution in either of the following cases :

Omitting to hold a convocation of the chapter for the space of two years.

Neglecting to make any return required by the foregoing laws.

Neglecting to register annually the names of all companions exalted and of those who have joined the chapter.

But no chapter shall be erased under any circumstances until the principals thereof shall have been duly summoned to show cause to the contrary to the grand chapter.

OF PROPOSING MEMBERS.

XCI. No mason shall be advanced to the degrees of mark master, past master and most excellent master, and exalted to the royal arch degree until he has presented a petition recommended by two companions, being members of the chapter, and been regularly proposed at one convocation of the chapter, and a committee has been appointed to enquire into his character, and his name, age, addition or profession, residence and lodge shall have been sent to all the members of the chapter in the summons for the next convocation—whether regular or emergent, when, if the committee report in his favor, he may be balloted for, and if approved, admitted. But should the committee report unfavorably he shall be deemed a rejected candidate and subject to article 96.

XCII. All balloting for candidates as aforesaid must take place in the royal arch degree.

XCI. No companion shall be admitted a joining member without a regular proposition at one convocation of the chapter, and unless and until his name, occupation, residence and chapter shall have been sent to all the members in the summons for the next regular convocation, and their decision ascertained by ballot. He must give proof of his good standing, and be proposed and seconded by two members of the chapter.

XCIV. No chapter shall admit a candidate who resides within the jurisdiction of another chapter without the written consent, given by open vote, of such other chapter, and signed by the first principal and scribe E, unless by dispensation from the grand Z. The jurisdiction of every chapter, except in cities and towns where there is more than one chapter, extends between them half-way to the nearest chapter. In such cities and towns, chapters have concurrent jurisdiction.

XCV. No candidate shall be admitted or companion received as a joining member if on the ballot two black balls appear against him.

XCVI. No rejected candidate can be again proposed and balloted for within twelve months of the time of his rejection. (See article 91.)

XCVII. No mason shall be exalted to the royal arch degree until he has received the degrees of mark master, past master and most excellent master. He must have been a master mason for three months, of which he shall give proof, except the period be shortened by dispensation of the grand Z., which shall not, however, be for a shorter period than four weeks.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

XCVIII. Chapters may elect any companion an honorary member with or without the full privileges of an ordinary member by unanimous ballot. Due notice must be given at one convocation, and the name be inserted in the summons for the next regular convocation. The chapter must include all honorary members in its return to the grand chapter and pay similar dues for them as for ordinary members.

XCIX. Honorary membership does not confer the right of voting, except it is so declared at the time of election.

OF WITHDRAWAL.

C. Any member of a chapter in good standing may withdraw from membership after notice in writing given to the scribe E.

OF VISITORS.

CI. No visitor shall be admitted into a chapter unless he be personally known or recommended or well vouched for, and until after due examination on his first visit by two or more of the companions present, and he shall have entered his name, residence and chapter, together with his masonic rank, in a book to be kept by the chapter for that purpose. The janitor is to see that such entry is properly made.

CII. Visitors during their continuance in a chapter are subject to its by-laws.

CIII. No companion residing within the jurisdiction of this grand chapter, and not affiliated with some chapter has a right to visit any chapter in the town or place where he resides more than once during the period of his non-affiliation.

CIV. The first principal of every chapter is particularly bound to enforce these regulations.

OF THE CHAPTER SEAL.

CV. Every chapter shall have a masonic seal, to be affixed to all documents proper to be issued. An impression of it is to be sent to the grand scribe E. and grand superintendent of the district, and if at any time the seal shall be changed an impression of the new seal shall in like manner be transmitted-

OF CERTIFICATES.

CVI. Every chapter shall procure for each companion exalted therein immediately upon his being registered in the books of the grand chapter, a certificate under seal of the grand chapter, and signed by the grand scribe E., of such exaltation and registry, to be paid for by the chapter.

CVII. Every companion must sign his name in the margin of his certificate to make it valid, which should be done at the time of its delivery to him.

CVIII. Every return or document upon which a grand chapter certificate is to issue must specify not only the date of exaltation but also the dates when the companion was advanced to the degrees of mark master, past master and most excellent master.

CIX. All applications for grand chapter certificates must be made to the grand scribe E., and no certificate can be issued until payment is made of the fees for registry and certificate.

CX. No chapter shall grant a private certificate to a companion for any purpose except to enable him to obtain a grand chapter certificate, in which case it shall be specifically addressed to the grand scribe E., and except all such certificates as the laws or committees of grand chapter may sanction or require.

CXI. Whenever a member of a chapter shall give notice in writing of his desire to retire, or shall be excluded from membership, or whenever at a future time he may require it, he shall be furnished with a certificate stating the circumstances under which he left the chapter, and such certificate is to be produced to any other chapter of which he is proposed to be admitted a member, previous to the ballot being taken. No charge shall be made under any pretence for a private certificate.

OF PUBLIC PROCESSIONS.

CXII. No public procession or festival shall be allowed without a dispensation from one of the grand principals or the grand superintendent of the district, except to attend masonic funerals, the urgency of which may not admit of the delay necessary for procuring the dispensation, and which shall immediately afterwards be reported to the grand superintendent of the district.

CXIII. If any chapter shall attend any public procession (except a funeral) or festival in royal arch clothing without a dispensation, such chapter shall be suspended until the grand Z. or grand chapter shall determine thereon.

OF APPEAL

CXIV. The grand chapter, when congregated necessarily possesses a supreme authority over, and the power of finally deciding on, every case which concerns the benefit of royal arch masonry, with its intermediate degrees. Any chapter or companion, therefore, which or who may feel aggrieved by the decision of any other authority, may appeal to the grand chapter against such decision, except it be that of the grand Z. The appeal must be made in writing, specifying the particular grievance complained of, and be transmitted to the grand scribe E. A notice and copy of the appeal must be sent by the appellant to the party against whose decision the appeal is made.

CXV. No appeal will be received by the grand chapter or the grand Z. unless made in proper and respectful language, and it must be sent to the grand scribe E. within one month after the date of the decision appealed against.
