CHRISTOPHER ROBINSON

AFTER BRIEF ATTACK OF PNEUMONIA PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

Toronto is Suddenly Called Upon to Mourn the Death of Eminent Counsel—Caught Chill on Saturday Evening and Illness De-veloped Seriously Yesterday Morning, the End Coming at 10 o'Clock—Lived His Life in This City.

THE LATE CHRISTOPHER ROBINSON, K.C.

Canada's greatest constitutional lawyer is dead. Christopher Robinson, K.C., passed away at 10 o'clock last night in the house in which he was born 77 years ago. The announcement of his sudden death comes as a shock to the legal fraternity and to the whole of the country, for his name was known and honored throughout the length and breadth of the land. The fact that only last week his splendid appearance of health and vigor was commented upon adds to the surprise and sorrow which accompanies this announcement.

Acute pneumonia, which has been developing for a day or so, was apparent at noon yesterday and Dr. Grassie, the attending physician, realized the seriousness of the case. Mr. Robinson passed away peacefully ten hours afterwards. His wife, and youngest son, Duncan, with some other relatives were at the bedside.

On Saturday night last Mr. Robinson attended a little dinner party on Homewood-avenue. He walked all the way home to the manor, which is at the corner of Richmond and John-streets, and was in his most cheerful mood, but on Sunday he complained of a cold and took to his bed. No one imagined that it was anything beyond a slight indisposition and it was not until the change yesterday that it was realized he was feared.

Leading legal men to whom The World announced the news of Mr. Robinson's death last night could scarcely believe it. They had seen him during last week engaged on behalf of a client in the long-street bridge arguments before Justice Anglin in the city hall and he appeared so well that his vigor was commented upon. He was associated with Hon. A. B. Ayleworth, K.C., and J. S. Fullerton, K.C. in his case, and on Wednesday afternoon, and since then Mr. Robinson was busy at his office.

His death closes a career which was one of brilliant triumph, characterized by modesty that forbade him seeking further distinction than that of an excellent lawyer and caused him to decline honors which sought the chair in the Beihing Sea arbitration as well as his presentation in the Parliament of Canada by the late Senator J. B. Plumb, three sons and one daughter. The eldest son, Christopher Charles, is a student at law with the firm of Ryckman, Kirkpatrick, Robinson, and Innes, Mr. MacInnes is a nephew, Mr. Robinson, Jr., was away for a day, not expecting any serious results from his father's illness. He will be home to-day. The second son, Beverly, is engaged in the lumber industry in Parry Sound district. He was communicated with last night. Duncan, the third son, is a student at Trinity College, and there is one daughter at home. Mr. Robinson's brothers were with-out exception distinguished Canadians—the late Chief Justice Robinson, the late Hon. John Beverley Robinson, the late Governor, and Major-General Chas. Robinson, now in England. The four sisters of Mr. Robinson were the late Mrs. Senator Lawson, Hamilton; the late Lady Lennox, the deceased wife of the late Senator Allen, and the late Mrs. James Strachan. Mr. Robinson was chancellor of Trinity University.

Mrs. Robinson enjoyed a lengthy vacation in the western provinces this summer, and went as far as the earnings of the public franchises which show a total net gain for the year of $23,145.90, leaving the net amount to be raised by general tax of $34,180.40. The earnings are divided among franchises: Electric railway, net profit, $5,539.10; telephone, $3,617.10. These figures are after all expenses, including interest and sinking fund, and $3000 death claim on railway are allowed for.

15 CHARGES DISMISSED

BUT THEN, THE PERJURY!

Witnesses Swear They Got Money for Corrupt Purposes; Others Swear They Positively Didn't.

CASH FROM MYSTERIOUS SOURCES

Four Charges in Kingston Trial Are Held Over—One Witness Says He Tried to Get Money in Order to Leave City.

Kingston, Oct. 31.—(Special)—The second day of the election trial resulted in four charges being held over and fifteen dismissed. Incidentally there was a flood of perjury that was depressing to nearly everyone in the courtroom. Howard Jones swore to getting $2 from Edward Gallivan. This will be gone into later. Thomas Scott swore to $2 from R. J. Carson. Jones swore the latter came to him several times after and shaking his finger at him, said: "I see six months facing you." Witness tried to get money to help him out. Carson swore he denied the story and the charge was dismissed. Charge No. 15 was a charge against R. J. Carson, Mrs. McOwen, whose husband died last May, swore that R. J. Carson left an envelope with $2 for her husband. Carson swore that R. J. and T. A. Carson, brothers, who are much alike, saw Jones treat R. A. Carson, and this charge also fell thru.

Robert Jamieson swore to getting $5 from Dr. Sands in a laneway. Dr. Sands swore to the contrary, and this charge fell by the wayside. In charge No. 10 George Burns swore to getting an envelope from James Hadden with $3 in it when in a Chinese laundry, while two Chinamen were looking on. A companion, William Jackson, had since denied Burns got $3 or the expenses for coming down in 1910 to St. James. Jones swore he did not remember Burns at all and the charge fell thru.

Where Did Money From? Charge No. 1 was that James Stewart and Joseph Kehoe gave money to Robert Kemp. Kemp swore that when he came home his wife handed him an envelope with $5 in it, but he had not given it. Mrs. Kemp swore that Joseph Kehoe left it for her husband. It came out that the Kehoes had been making for four weeks. This charge was taken up in charge $2. Thompson swore that after voting he went into the Beaupre Hotel and St. S. Corbett, who was there yesterday, told him he had nine or ten dollars. He had not been canvassed. This charge was not sustained.

An interesting charge this afternoon was one against John Johnson, a class leader in Queen's Park, and a member of the Ontario Legislative Council, who swore that he ordered half a ton of coal and a bag of flour for John Feiler just before the election. He did it because the family needed it. One did not want to pay for these afterwards. Left by someone unknown at his house. Feiler swore that $17.50 was left at his house just before the election by an unknown. He and the money were sent to Queen's Park, against Johnson was also dismissed, the judge thinking the giving of the coal and flour was consistent with an act of charity.

Two Charges Reserved. Charge No. 147 was against C. F. Gildersleeve, late manager of the Richmond and Ontario Navigation Co. of hiring from August 1911 to August 1912, and Thompson denied getting any money, but had received a loan of $10 from him and gave a note. Gildersleeve admitted the loan and said it had not been paid until last week. Haliday said it then owing to the protest being on. There had been no contract with Thompson for driving. Decision was reserved.

Another reserved decision was on charge No. 171 and 172, that Haliday paid James Short $15 for a rig on election day. Short swore he was paid the $15 on election day. Haliday swore he gave him nothing. Charles Cummings swore he was treated by Haliday didn't remember. Five charges against George Gordon of bribery were dismissed.

Shibley is Located. Man of Ballot Box Fume Now Raising Figs. Kingston, Oct. 31.—(Special)—W. J. Shibley, Liberal candidate in Frontenac last November, who skipped out when his name was mentioned in connection with the ballot box cases, has at last been located. He owns a pig farm at Auburn, N.Y., and is billed to give a lecture on pig raising before a farmer's institute there in a few days.

A Gift for Ladies' College. Massey Estate Will Give $25,000 to Winnipeg Methodists. Winnipeg, Oct. 31.—(Special)—Dr. Sparling of Wesley College to-day received a letter from the Massey estate, Toronto, by a local ladies' college on the lines of Wesley College, Toronto, provided $50,000 were provided locally within two years. Dr. Sparling expresses himself as content that the local sum will be contributed long before the time limit.

RED FLAG ANGRERS CROWD WAS INSULT TO HEARST

Tammany Makes Mistake in Flaunting Big Campaign Banner Comparing Mayor McClellan and His Formidable Rival. New York, Oct. 31.—An invasion of the city hall was made to-day by a great crowd of men and boys who were angered at the raising of a Tammany campaign banner on which there was a red flag about the name "Hearst," and an American flag above the name "McClellan." The crowd, shouting, "Let's tell McClellan what we think of him!" overran the city hall steps for a quarter of an hour until dispersed by the police. When the immense banner was raised from the steps, a number of boys gathered about the statue of Benjamin Franklin in Park Row, bearing beneath the two flags the inscription, "Under which flag?" an excited crowd immediately gathered and self-constituted leaders made speeches from the steps. The crowd was quickly blocked by a crowd of mounted police, and one arrested. Several persons attempted to pull the banner down by climbing the steps, but were swept aside, and were pulled off the poles by members of the mounted police, and one arrested.

One of the speech-makers was seized by the crowd and carried on their shoulders; the way was led toward the city hall, directions being given to continue the demonstration in 10th Avenue. On the city hall steps a few police attempted to stop the mob, but were swept aside, and several members of the crowd entering the corridors of the building. The crowd was quickly dispersed by the police. When they arrived at the gymnasium the Meds. were just coming out after spending the evening listening to a lecture on his trip to South Africa, delivered by Prof. A. B. MacCallum, P. O. Miles and a corps of special constables protected university property.

The visits to the ladies' colleges were brief, but the slumbers were awakened by the college yells and choruses. Near Bloor and Spadina, a policeman, said to be P. C. Bogart, grabbed one of the boys in the act of pulling off a trolley. During a melee of five minutes he kept an open space with a big heavy walkingstick, someone hit him across the back with a cane when he retreated with his club, striking several of the students. The mob then overpowered him and the prisoner got away.

A Riot at Queen Street. At the corner of Queen-street a number of boys had run ahead and were just finishing a barricade across the street as the mob came up. The squad of police ran across and grabbed a couple of the ringleaders and one was arrested. The order of the mob was somewhat dampened now and they contented themselves on the rest of the trip with jeering.

Medics' Elections. The result of the elections for representatives on the medical at home committee was as follows: First vice-president, M. McRuer; second vice-president, J. W. Wilson. Continued on Page 2.

St. Petersburg's Masses Celebrate the Dawn of Freedom With an Enthusiasm That Has Never Before Been Theirs.

SOCIALISTS STILL TALK TREASON

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31.—The Russian capital blossomed out with flags and bunting to-day. All the troops were withdrawn from the streets and the city presented almost its normal appearance. The nervousness of the people has suddenly disappeared. Workingmen by the thousands flocked back to the shops and factories without awaiting the permission of the strike committee. The authorities did all in their power to encourage the spirit of rejoicing over the newly-granted liberties. It was by order of Gen. Troopoff that the regulation decorations were hung out, the troops were withdrawn to their barracks and the police were instructed to permit the people to vent their feelings. Before noon the celebrations began and the city soon appeared to have gone mad. Such scenes had never before been witnessed in Russia. Unrestrained by word or deed the crowds roared and did what they liked. Disparaging words had been replaced by Lenin, the name of every street in evidence. In the churches devout men and women on bended knees before the image of St. Nicholas, the miracle worker, rendered thanks for the blessings of liberty, while at the corners of the thorough streets on the banners hung the portraits of the people assembled principally on the Nevsky Prospect. From the Kazan Cathedral in the town hall opposite the Hotel d'Europe, traffic was blocked.

The biggest demonstration was organized by students and workers. A great procession was formed. Starting from the university 1,000 strong it increased in numbers as the demonstrators marched across the city and on the Nevsky Prospect as far as the Kazan Cathedral, singing the Ma. melaine. A dozen red banners inscribed with words of defiance and liberty were carried at the head of the parade, which stopped at the places where the troops stood on their people. The parade with bared heads chanted funeral dirges. The crowds in the streets uncovered their heads as the procession passed. At the Kazan Cathedral the procession counter-marched to the university, where from the balconies students harangued the crowds with fiery speeches, calling the people not to cease the struggle until every right of man had been attained. In the midst of the oratory a student who scaled the roof of the university and attached a red flag to the cross with the inscription, "Storm the Bastille."

The following is a sample of the incendiary speeches which must be made to the prisoners and liberate your comrades. Go armed with revolvers, dynamite and bombs. Troopoff still in power. Our watchword must be that all the troops must be withdrawn from St. Petersburg and leave the capital in our possession. That bloody scoundrel, Troopoff, must be driven out of Russia by force of arms. The army and the fortresses must be opened and a national guard must be created for the protection of our liberties. It would be Continued on Page 6.

NEEPAWA STICKS BY OPTION. After 15 Years' Experience, There's Nothing Like It. Neepawa, Man., Oct. 31.—An attempt to defeat local option, after eighteen years in force here, has been a most decisive failure. Instead of the license advocates getting their heads three-fifths, the vote gave local option 251 and license 152. Every available license vote was polled.

What a Sealskin Jacket Costs. For the information of many who do not know, it is here stated that a genuine sealskin jacket costs $250, $275 or $300, according to length and style. This information was provided by Diner's. The prices quoted mean that the highest grade of sealskin in the world, and they are in the neighborhood of $30 lower than would be quoted for sealskin, because Diner's were extremely fortunate in an enormous purchase of the finest skins on the market when there was such a scarcity last spring, and their patrons got the benefit.

SUPPLIES IN BRITISH MARKETS LOCAL HORSE MARKET PRICES TAKE A TUMBLE

But the Volume of Trade is Large, With Supplies in Excess of Demand. Canadian-owned and bred horses seem to have had their usual run of success at the recent horse shows in Ontario, Kansas City, Louisville and Chicago...

RECORD CATTLE RISE. The last week of October creates a record for the city market. Last week the railroads brought to the old market 235 cars, containing 423 cattle, 2759 hogs, 5714 sheep and lambs, 211 ponies and 20 horses...

High Price Lower Consumption. The ending of the sugar trade year on Sept. 30 gives a retrospect of extravagant speculation, of fluctuations in prices rarely exceeded in extent, causing heavy failures in the trade...

At Monday's sale at the Canadian Horse Exchange there were one hundred and forty horses offered for sale, mostly horses ranging in weight from 1400 lbs. to 1650 lbs.

Chicago advises say: "Trade for the week has been on the most satisfactory ground for the month, receipts for the week total 1673, against 2065 last year..."

Value of Buttermilk. Buttermilk is not generally considered of much importance as a food for hogs, but from careful investigations it has been demonstrated that buttermilk is fully as nutritious as separator milk...

THE GRAIN BLOCKADE. The grain section of the Dominion Marine Association at yesterday's meeting, held at the office of the Board of Trade Building, representatives of the principal shipping firms were present...

B. C. CATTLE MARKET. Interesting Descriptions of a Pacific Coast Live Stock Market

Thomas Williamson, The World's cattle market reporter, who is now on a visit to the Pacific coast, has the following interesting information of a cattle market near Vancouver: "Yesterday visited the city farmers market of importance on the British Columbia coast, which is held at New Westminster, where it is situated on the Fraser River, distant about fifteen miles from Vancouver..."

The horses were a mongrel lot, amongst which were some very nice ponies about the size of a yearling, and a few heavy horses that had seen their best days. Prices ranged from $3 up to $150 for a well-broken pony...

Locally the horse market is weak, but this is the best of the year. The trade is well sustained, but purchases are not so numerous as in the past. There are a few speculative bargains here and there for immediate use...

CITY MARKET BREAKS RECORD 147 CARS ARRIVED TUESDAY

Tuesday was a record day on the old City Market. From all sources the livestock totalled 147 cars, or 22 cars more than a corresponding date last year, when receipts were 125 cars.

The U. T. L. yesterday contributed 88 cars and the C. R. 36. The total receipt was 274 cattle, 1174 hogs, 4644 sheep, 183 calves and 16 horses.

Quality in a garment gives it unshrinkable and unmistakable richness. Quality is remembered long after the price is forgotten.

Our fur garments are saturated with quality from the tips of the highest hair in their generous-sized collars, to the last stitch in the end of the beautiful linings.

Every little odd and end of routine sewing is done with the same care that is bestowed by the fur cutter on the designing of the garment.

Now, if there is one fur garment in which all these things go to make for individual style it is a fur-lined coat.

To begin with, the cloth used in these garments is selected because of its novel style, appropriate coloring and richness of material. The fur used—but what's the use talking about the good qualities of the fur! You know we buy direct and use only such skins as pass under the critical eyes of our experts. We manufacture every garment on the premises. Our absolute guarantee goes with everything.

We have to-day some beautiful fur-lined Coats, Capes and Cloaks, lined with rare specimens of Hamster, lock squirrel, mink, etc., and trimmed with becoming fur such as seal, mink, Thibet, sable and chinchilla. They're the proper thing for these chilly evenings.

Toronto Appeals Monday. Ottawa, Oct. 31.—It was announced in the supreme court this morning that the Toronto appeals will not be taken up before Monday next. Most of the Ontario appeals will have to be heard before. There is a quorum of only four judges.

"SCORE'S EXCLUSIVENESS"

That finish Splendid fit And style Are emblems of Score workmanship and exclusiveness.

To order an overcoat here does not necessarily mean extravagance, as we price them from $25, but leaving your order with us mean an absolutely stylish and exclusive garment.

SPENCE RINGS THE ISSUE WORKING FOR REDUCTION

Would Submit Question to People After Second Hearing in Council.—Street Railway Lines.

These are the days when it is not a difficult matter for the man of even slight discernment in matters municipal to conceive again of the approach of election day. It is still two months in the future, but it is not too early for controllers and aldermen to be looking for platform planks.

Controller Spence appeared at yesterday's meeting of the board of council to have taken a trip to the timber region. What he did was to bring forward a bill for a by-law to reduce the number of street railway cars to be operated in the city to 1500.

That was not all. The controller had two other suggestions to make, the first being to reduce the number of street railway cars to 1500, and the other that he should be asked to submit such a bill to the council before its third reading by which licenses are issued.

It was upon the second of these suggestions that the council passed a resolution to refer the matter to the committee on street railways.
