NEW PARLIAMENT WILL TRY TO CHECK POWER OF LORDS

Program To Be Outlined, in Speech From the Throne, Fore-shadowing Revolution in Present Constitutional Methods of Great Britain.

APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE TO EFFECT THE REFORMS

The British Parliament will reassemble tomorrow in the presence of King Edward and Queen Alexandra at a full state ceremonial.
The reassembling has aroused intense interest in London, and it is probable that the speech from the throne will be kept strictly secret, but it is probable that it will refer to the house of peers may be included.
The high question also is likely to occupy the attention of the session.

London, Feb. 5.—The reassembling of parliament on Feb. 12 arouses intense interest here, as the government intends to immediately inaugurate measures to check the powers of the house of lords, making it subordinate to the will of the people, as represented by the house of commons.
This is nothing less than a revolution in the present constitutional methods, and fore-shadows a bitter contest between the two houses, with the government already prepared for a dissolution and an appeal to the country upon the necessity of curbing the power representing the aristocracy in the interest of the democracy. Recent councils of the ministry have determined the main lines of the government's action, which is expected to begin with the introduction of a resolution laying down the house of commons' insalubrious rights.

A similar historic revolution was adopted in the 17th century, upon which the rights of the commons to control money matters was based. This will be merely preliminary to a series of measures, by which Premier Campbell-Bannerman proposes to frame a new constitution, and then appeal to the people upon it.
The government's intention is to make the fight now is due to the defeat of the education bill by the upper house, and the consequent withdrawal of all other features of the existing ministerial program. It is seldom that a speech from the throne has been so widely and eagerly awaited, as it is asserted that the ministry has induced the crown to make an allusion to the constitutional deadlock between the lords and commons. Whether King Edward is ready to take such significant action is, of course, a matter of speculation. It is probable that any reference His Majesty may make on the subject of the house of lords will be in moderate, uncontroversial language, because the speech is addressed to both houses.

The proposed government resolution challenging the powers of the house of lords can have little effect in itself, as the lords' powers remain, despite resolutions, but the passage of such a resolution is designed to give the key-note of the mission of the commons, which will consist chiefly of sending the lords a number of popular measures, including a drastic land bill, affecting the estates of peers and other members of the aristocracy. These measures are sure to be rejected by the house of lords, thus giving the government the opportunity to appeal to the country. Members of the ministry are openly discussing these plans, and predict several dissolutions before a reform of the house of lords can become effective.

Elaborate Street Pageant.
The royal procession will consist of six state coaches containing the lords and ladies in waiting, the keeper of the privy purse, and the master of the horse, concluding with His Majesty's state coach, drawn by eight colored horses. Elaborate preparations are being made for the street pageant and the coronation, where King Edward, robed in crimson velvet edged with ermine, will be escorted by a band of brass, while the speech from the throne.
King Edward and Queen Alexandra returned to London this evening from Paris for the ceremony.

HOME RULE AN ISSUE.

Bill Must Be Introduced The Effect May Be Disastrous.

New York, Feb. 10.—The Herald's London correspondent cables: Although it has been for some time understood that a measure for home rule for Ireland would be the principal proposal of the radical government during the parliamentary session which opens Tuesday next, it has been made patent in a letter which the prime minister has addressed to his followers, that he intends to "deal" with the British constitution as the result of the crisis provoked by the action of the house of commons in rejecting the education bill during a special autumn session.
In all parts of the country the radicals are talking about "ending" the upper house, thus clearing the way for the legislative reforms sanctioned at the last general election by the people.
There are many peers and a large number of Unionists in the house of commons who are in favor of "mending" the constitution by a "mending" chamber, but any attempt at revolutionary legislation is certain to meet most extreme opposition.
While the extreme radicals are in favor of the abolition of the lords, an important section of the party is fighting for a measure which will provide

THAW HIMSELF TO TAKE STAND

Lawyer Delmas Insists That Client Tell the Jury His Experiences After Evelyn Nesbit Told Him Her Story.

VISIONS URGED HIM TO KILL

For Several Weeks Spectre Prompted His Act—Thaw's Will May Also Assist Materially in His Defence.

New York, Feb. 10.—The culminating sensation in the trial of Harry Thaw will be furnished by Thaw himself, who, it is announced, will be put on the witness stand in his own defence.
Even the goal barring story which his wife has told, it is now predicted, will be eclipsed in dramatic developments by the testimony of the defendant himself. For he will swear that from the hour of his first proposal of marriage, when Evelyn Nesbit sobbed out to him her shameful confession, he had been tormented by visions which came to him by day and by night—visions which warned him that unless he killed Stanford White his wife's life should be taken by slow poison.
Now, it is plain why all along the defence has decried such a deep importance to the seemingly meaningless exclamation of Thaw when he kissed his wife five weeks after he had shot Stanford White in Madison Square Garden, and cried out to her, "It's all right, dearie; I have probably saved you."

The strain of the last few days, during which she has been made to live again the hours when, according to her confession, she testified she made to Harry Thaw, is being so severely on her. To-night, it was stated that Thaw should tell his own story in his own way to the twelve jurors who will give him liberty or send him to death.
The defendant's plans do not seem to be in a position to be recalled until Tuesday. The cross-examination by District Attorney Jerome will begin later than had been anticipated.
Delmas Insists on His Story.
Not until to-day was it definitely decided Thaw should take the stand in his own behalf. It was from Lawyer Delmas, who insisted that Thaw should tell his own story in his own way to the twelve jurors who will give him liberty or send him to death.
The defendant's plans do not seem to be in a position to be recalled until Tuesday. The cross-examination by District Attorney Jerome will begin later than had been anticipated.

INQUEST OPENED.

Enquiry Into Mrs. Smith's Death is Begun by Coroner Cotton.

An inquest was opened on Saturday afternoon into the death of Mrs. Debrale Smith, who died in St. Michael's hospital from ill effects induced, it is alleged, by the giving of a dose of iodine in mistake for medicine.
The young woman who gave the iodine solution appeared at the inquest, where she was asked to give her account of the case, after which Dr. Cotton adjourned the hearing until Thursday night.
The enquiry will likely turn on the reason for having had the iodine in the medicine chest.

Foster Mine Has Gold, Too Ottawa Makes Discovery

Officer of the Geological Survey Breaks Pieces of Ore and Discovers Large Nugget—Up to American Smelters to Make Explanation.

Ottawa, Feb. 10.—(Special)—Considerable excitement prevails in Ottawa amongst those who have ventured into Cobalt mining stocks, and they are many, for the silver fever is rampant in the capital.
It seems that in the mad rush for silver the fact has been overlooked that there is gold also at Cobalt.
Ore has been shipped with fierce haste to the smelters across the border and reports of silver alone have been looked for.
Just out of curiosity yesterday one of the officers of the geological survey broke in two a piece of ore from the Foster Mine, and he was astounded to find laid bare a gold nugget about the size and shape of a man's forefinger.
The story soon spread around town, and others, upon examination, discovered gold amongst the silver.
No doubt, under the circumstances, the precious metal was classed by the American smelters, and monopolized without remark.
Enquiries have been at once set afoot.

G. N. KIDD DEAD FROM TYPHOID

M. L. A. for County of Carleton Died Late Saturday After Two Weeks' Illness.

Ottawa, Feb. 10.—(Special)—George Nelson Kidd, Conservative member of the Ontario legislature for the County of Carleton, died at 11.30 Saturday night at Carleton Place.
He had been ill for about two weeks with typhoid fever.
Mr. Kidd came of a sturdy, highly-respected family of the county, and was closely identified with its agricultural progress.
He was born in Carleton Place, Ontario, and represented the county in the legislature since 1894.
Previous to that time he had served nine years in the municipal council. He was a farmer and an active member of the Ontario Agricultural Society, and was president of the Central Canada Fair at Ottawa, as well as holding high offices in other agricultural fair societies.
He was married in 1886 to Esther Young, daughter of William Young of Hales Corners.

THREE HUNDRED TO SWITCH ALDERMAN OFFERS BRIBE

St. Kitts Man Asked to Change Petition From Block Pavement to Vitrified Brick.

St. Catharines, Feb. 9.—(Special)—Announcement of the proposed construction of permanent pavements in this city early in the spring has set citizens busy selecting grades of pavement.
Octave Lachance, property owner on Queen-street, has been engaged circulating a petition to the council asking that block asphalt be laid on that street.
It is currently reported that Mr. Lachance was approached by a city alderman with the statement that "there is $300 in it" to switch the petition to vitrified brick instead of asphalt block, and that he was willing to divide the amount. Mr. Lachance, however, turned down the offer, and reported the facts to Ald. Campbell, chairman of the board of works, and to Mayor Riddell, and it is promised the facts will be made public at the council meeting on Monday night. Mr. Lachance has signed an affidavit in substantiation of his assertion.

WAVE DESTROYS VILLAGE MANY HOUSES COLLAPSE

Storm Causes Serious Damage on Calabria Coast—Loss of Life Small.

Naples, Feb. 9.—A very severe storm has caused serious damage on the Calabria coast.
At Marina di Catanzaro, a fishing village, a tidal wave swept in and practically carried the village away. The loss of life was slight. Seven hundred feet of the shore line was inundated.
Several houses collapsed entirely, and the ruin of water carried off everything portable. Many of the buildings were undermined.
The people are still in a condition of panic. One woman is reported dead, but four persons are unaccounted for. The schoolhouse has been transformed into a hospital and shelter for a score of wounded persons. The people of the village have sought refuge in the surrounding hills.
At Mesima also the storm was severe, and caused considerable damage.
A landslide at Guidemardi buried a house and three persons lost their lives. The crops have been destroyed by the flood.
Reports from Taranto say there is great apprehension concerning the fate of eight fishing boats that have not been seen since the storm.

SOCIETY FAVORITE KILLED IN LEARNING RAILROADING

Alfred Armitage of Albany Was "Firing" for Experience When Wreck Occurred.

New York, Feb. 10.—His ambition to become a practical railroad man cost Alfred Armitage his life. The millionaire's son, working as a fireman, was one of the two men killed in a collision between the Adirondack and Montreal-express and a freight train near Cossing, Friday night. Half a dozen others were injured.
Armitage was a college man, strong, courageous and self-reliant. He was determined to learn the railroad business. There were places for him in the offices of the New York Central at Albany or in this city, but he preferred to begin at the bottom and get practical experience. He was a prime favorite and few of his fellow employees knew that at his home in Albany he was a leader of cottillions and a pet of society.
Alfred G. Vanderbilt's private car Wayfarer was in the wreck, but the passenger escaped injury. In the Vanderbilt party were Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burden and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Iselin.
Four arrests have been made in connection with the wreck. The arrests were by order of Coroner A. O. Squibbs of Peekskill, who said that he would have the prisoners brought before him at a preliminary examination immediately.

NOT ENOUGH TRAIN HANDS AND FATAL WRECK OCCURS

Three Men Killed When Runaway Freight Crashes Into Passenger.

Halifax, Feb. 10.—(Special)—A head-on collision occurred yesterday on Mackenzie & Mann's Halifax & Southwestern Railway, at Mahone Bay, in which three train-hands were killed.
A runaway freight train from Bridgewater, composed of 17 cars of lumber, crashed into the Lunenburg and Middleton passenger train, which was standing at the station in Mahone Bay.
The crew of the freight train had lost control a short distance outside of Mahone, on a steep down grade.
The engine struck head on and was badly damaged.
The coroner's jury returned a verdict the substance of which was that the freight train was overloaded and undermanned, and this was what caused the accident.

WHITNEY TO FILL BORDEN'S SHOES?

Said to Be One of the Plans Included in a Reorganization of the Conservative Party.

HUGH GRAHAM BEHIND IT

At Least That's How the Story Goes—Premier, However, Denies That He Has Been Approached in Matter.

A rather startling story of changes in the leadership of the Conservative party was published in The Ottawa Free Press of Saturday under a Toronto date line. In commencing, it said:
"Those who claim to be in the secrets of the party state that big changes are impending. It is asserted that Mr. Hugh Graham of The Montreal Star—who has for more than ten years been in charge of the destinies of the Conservative party, and who is by some people regarded as the evil genius of the party—has planned a reorganization and that he has secured substantial support for his plans."
"These are, in brief:
"The retirement of R. L. Borden from the opposition leadership to accept a position as consulting counsel of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company.
"The selection of Hon. J. P. Whitney, now member of Ontario's Conservative leadership in the house of commons.
"The return of T. Chase Casgrain, ex-M.P., to active politics as the leader of the party in Quebec.
"The removal of Hon. F. W. G. Haultain from the provincial cabinet to Saskatchewan to be western leader of the party."
"And, if it be possible, an alliance with Hon. Richard McBride by which the Premier of British Columbia shall hold himself in readiness to become a member of the federal cabinet, should the Conservatives come into power."
"What Will Whitney Do?
"Mr. Whitney has on several occasions stated that he would under no circumstances relinquish the provincial leadership. But it is now asserted that Hugh Graham was able to give him assurance that his leadership would be favorably viewed in Quebec, that he would be the only man permitted under no circumstances to relinquish the provincial leadership. TRAITORS TO THE PEOPLE.

The French-Canadian papers, like many English ones, have been full of editorials denouncing the proposed law for a two-cent-a-mile passenger rate on railways.

The World and W. F. Mackenzie have been substantially cured of late by many Canadian papers because The World has for weeks been directing the attention of the people to this barefaced betrayal of public rights by professed public journals.

The railways now have in their employ the ablest newspaper writers that can be secured for money, and these men can write the most insinuating and apparently honest arguments in favor of the railways.

One of the biggest public enemies in Canada to-day is The Toronto Globe. It professes to champion Liberal opinions and public rights; it is absolutely owned by men who are mixed up in the electric ring and while it pretends to oppose them it greases the ways for all their rackets on the public.

Whatever hopes were entertained by the progressive Liberals of Ontario regarding the place to be filled by the Hon. A. B. Aylesworth in Canadian politics must long ago have disappeared.

It is at least a moot point whether the cause of the higher civilization on this continent is not better served by the presence of two great nations, each working out its independent destiny in its own way, linked by similar ideals, but solving its own particular problems according to its own peculiar tempers and genius.

Hon. Adam Beck is now known in the Province of Ontario as the minister of power. His work on behalf of the people of the province to obtain for them the blessing of cheap Niagara of fact, as it admitted on all sides, so far as franchise-holding corporations are concerned, they are public trusts, in administering which directors have duties both to the shareholders and the people.

Mr. Aylesworth is an open defender of over-capitalization, and sees no reason why public service corporations should not get as much as they can out of the people.

What wider ambitions he may have for a wider field than is given him in the legislature, all citizens of Ontario are glad to know that he has no present desire to abandon the struggle for cheap power at this critical time.

THE PLACE OF CANADA. Perhaps the most hopeful feature for the future of the British empire is the increasing appreciation shown in the motherland of the trend of public opinion in what are for convenience sake still called the "self-governing colonies."

Thus in a recent article The London, Eng., Saturday Review, not usually in sympathy with democracy and democratic sentiment, states that looking to the movement for preferential tariffs among the autonomous colonies, "in the light of the historical development of other great nations, it is safe to say that when the various colonies have reached maturity they will constitute a great brotherhood of nations, with common interests and in a large measure a single organization of their economic institutions."

But The Saturday Review goes further when it contemplates the certainty that the "colonies must necessarily get more and more into the habit of settling their affairs without reference to the Metropolis." With the extension of their foreign trade and the independent control they have over it, they must themselves deal with their relations with foreign countries, and "must assume as the natural consequence of their development more and more the character of sovereign states."

Favrot killed Dr. Aldrich with apparently as much calm premeditation as if keeping an engagement, and then announced that Dr. Aldrich had brought his fate upon himself by neglecting to see Mrs. Josephine Holt Favrot which her husband could not ignore.

The true facts have baffled diligent searching, and the only glimmer of an explanation has been gossip about a third man in the case, whose name is still a secret.

CANADA AND THE EMPIRE.

Inspector Hughes Gives Inspiring Address at Guthrie.

Guthrie, Or. Township, Feb. 9.—A large and enthusiastic crowd greeted the appearance of James I. Hughes, inspector of schools, Toronto, who lectured here last night under the auspices of the Or. Township Lecture Committee.

"Imperialism" was the subject dealt with, and Mr. Hughes strongly spoke in his favor, advocating federation on broad lines. Imperialism stood to him for the advance through the empire of British ideas, which seemed to him the best of those of all other nationalities.

First among British ideals he placed the building up of a magnificent nation, physically. There was need of a wider participation in games in Canada. The Marathon races were to be held this year in England, and preparation for that event should be made in every town and township in the country.

"President Roosevelt," said Mr. Hughes, "congratulated me when I was speaking to him about three weeks ago on a Canadian having won first place last year. I told him I would be first and second this year."

Manliness in the highest sense was another British ideal. Errol was recognized throughout the world as always playing fair.

"If I had to choose between the two," Mr. Hughes declared, "I would rather have our boys and girls learn to be honorable than to know grammar and arithmetic."

Mr. Hughes stigmatized as narrow and shortsighted those who had cried out against the Alaska boundary award.

"In the event of a war between the United States and Canada," he asked, "would many of these be prepared to fight? We're not ready to cope, by ourselves, with any strong power. The English navy is our defence; and what do we contribute towards its maintenance? Not one cent."

Concluding, Mrs. Hughes expressed the belief that the federating of the empire was ultimately making way for a larger union—that of the whole human race.

KILL JUSTICE OF PEACE BY INFANTRY MACHINE

Sent by Anarchists to Paterson, N.J., Magistrate Who Was Opposed to Them.

New York, Feb. 10.—Thru the anti-ment statement of Justice of the Peace Robert Cortese, of Paterson, N.J., the victim of a bomb sent to him in a package by express, the police expect to be able to run down the assassin or assassins who sent the package.

Just what Justice Cortese said in the statement, which he issued at the instance as he lay dying in St. Joseph's Hospital Saturday morning, the police will divulge, but it is understood that the declaration gave the name of at least one man whom Justice Cortese believed to be responsible for his death.

As Justice of the peace, Cortese had incurred the bitter animosity of some of his foreign countrymen here thru the sternness with which he had administered the law. He had, thru his knowledge of their methods and character, been on many occasions of great assistance to the police in ferreting out such criminals and bringing them to justice. For some months past he had been in almost daily receipt of letters threatening his life.

Justice Cortese teaches his office, at No. 23 Passaic-street, at 7 o'clock Friday night. As soon as he had arrived his twelve-year-old son, Robert, showed him a package that had just arrived by express. It bore the stamps of the American and Wells-Fargo Express Company. Investigation shows that it had been received at the Newark office of the American Express Company, but as that company has no Paterson branch, it was the package over to the Wells-Fargo Express Company to deliver.

But there is no real lead as yet. Today the Irish Nationalists are like scattered sheep, and the old saint of self-seeking has disappeared. It cannot be many reasons take the form of bargaining for office with any English kind of public betrayal, even if the man in question were capable of it.

It is believed by many English political circles that as a matter of fact a large proportion of the Irish Nationalist members of parliament do not now vote home rule.

But whatever happens, the parliamentary proceedings this year promise to be of a very lively nature and there is no doubt that the turn of events will be of a most interesting kind.

During the reign of Queen Victoria the speech from the throne was carefully prepared by the prime minister of the day, and a summary generally leaked out on the eve of the opening of parliament. But King Edward writes his own speech on the occasion, and it is just probable that the government's intentions with respect to home rule will be clearly stated in the message from the throne.

His name and hands had been torn in many places and his back, arms and legs had been badly scratched as if by a long knife. His son Robert was also badly hurt but will recover.

When Policeman William Fitzpatrick reached the place the room looked as if it had been demolished by a cyclone. The front door of the office had been blown in, and the walls of the room had tumbled inward, and the whole building seemed about to collapse.

Fitzpatrick plunged forward blindly. He stumbled over the Justice's body, which he had not been to see for some time. He followed the desk into the hole which had been made in the floor and crushed thru to the cellar, but picked himself up unhurt.

An ambulance was sent for and Justice Cortese was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital. He had not once lost consciousness, and he was able to make a clear statement of all that had happened and give the police valuable clues.

So far as the son, he was standing near the door when the explosion took place, and he was struck on the head by a piece of debris and rendered unconscious for a few moments. He was also burned and cut about the face and hands, but he recovered.

Cortese leaves a widow and eight children. He had been a Justice of the Peace for twelve years.

Not long ago Justice Cortese's father was robbed of $100, and the Justice was instrumental in having one of the thieves sent to the Trenton jail. Cortese has always been an extremely powerful one. Several nearby buildings were rocked by the force of the explosion. The bomb had evidently been loaded with projectiles of all sorts. At the hospital a long hall was found imbedded in the judge's leg.

NEW PARLIAMENT WILL TRY for the calling up of the eldest sons of the radical peers or even the whole-sale swamping of the upper chamber by the elevation of influential supporters in the commons who have for years filled radical seats for electioneering purposes. The radical government, with its vast majority, may pass resolutions, but these can have no operative force, and the constitution of the country will not be abrogated without the nation having an opportunity of expressing its opinion at the polling booths upon the proposed revolution.

Some Would Shelve Home Rule. Many followers of the prime minister are pleased at the prospect of a fight in the house of lords, because they hope it means the shelving for the time of the measure of home rule for Ireland, which would again split up the party. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and other members of the cabinet are pledged to home rule, and a bill of some kind must be introduced.

In the political clubs of London the belief is strong that a home rule bill will be passed in the next session, and the weakness, not in numbers, but as the body, of the present national members of parliament is pointed to as a reason for not expecting a great fight.

GOING TO USE "BIG STICK" ON THE SOO CORPORATION

If Opposition to Canal Improvement Continues, Will Demand Taxes.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Feb. 10.—Interest in the pulp canal project, which promises to delay the government in making the proposed improvements here, is at white heat.

The city thru its newspapers, demands that the Clergue interests withdraw from their position and re-nounce all obstacles to the canal improvements. The Civic Federation is to take the matter up and the council also will probably like some action. A combined effort in all probability, will be made by taking the matter up with wire with President Warren of the Lake Superior corporation, who lives in Toronto.

Unless action is taken at once by the corporation, the city will be asked to repeal the specific tax law under which the Michigan-Lake Superior Power Co., a subsidiary corporation, pays only $5000 annual tax on property which cost over $50,000, and on which the city receives nothing. With this view the head of the government in its fight for improvements.

The bridge trust will invade Canada at the Soo and establish a plant under the name of the Algona Bridge Co. A. W. Hillier is the manager. The plant will supply all the northern Canada district adjacent to the Great Lakes and is expected to ultimately develop into a big industry. The plant will employ 100 hands at the start.

Paris Temps Gives an Inner History of the Episcopate Address.

Paris, Feb. 10.—The Temps today prints what it declares to be the true history of the address of the French episcopate, proposing model contracts for churches. According to this ultra-papal address, the majority in the episcopate, favored the moderate proposal of the status quo, but agreed to submit to the Vatican the question of contracts which the moderate proposed, in the belief that it would not be acceptable there.

Monseigneur, Archbishop of Dijon, and Bishop Touchet took minutes to Rome, and Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state, told them the Pope was not in a position to accept the principle of the contracts is absolute solidarity was shown, but that this decision must come ostensibly from the episcopate, as he could not publicly intervene. Thereupon, the Temps says, the address was drawn up and submitted to the Pope, who, with his own hands, supplemented the clause specifying that the contract must be accepted everywhere, with "or we do not wish it anywhere."

The document, the paper says, was then brought to the attention of the many of the bishops never saw it until it was published.

TROUBLE IN HAYTI. German Objections to Certain Transactions Are Officially Ignored.

Port au Prince, Hayti, Feb. 10.—The relations between the governments of Hayti and Germany are strained owing to the refusal of the German bankers, Hermann & Co., by direction of the court at Port au Prince, to return to the German government the large sums of money alleged to have been obtained fraudulently from Hermann & Co. with the Haytian government was one which is said to have proved favorable to the government. This was concluded by the German minister of finance, the German legation minister Hermann & Co. The German minister of finance, as well as others, announced, but the Haytian government, in terms, refused to accept the German minister at the same time demanded the withdrawal of the phrase objected to. This also was refused.

The Official Monitor recently published a notice of the resignation of Mr. Mansour, an American citizen, who had been appointed to the position of minister of finance, and his expulsion unjustified, asked for the withdrawal of the order. This, however, was refused, and Mansour has left for New York. The German American legation has been placed on his side.

G. T. R. FIREMAN HURT. Disaster Narrowly Averted at Dufferin Street Crossing.

G. T. R. Fireman Henry Buchanan of 236 West Adelaide was seriously injured in a collision at the Dufferin-street crossing at 6 o'clock Saturday night. The Buffalo trolley, C.P.R., here at 5.55 p. m., with four coaches, struck the fireman in a collision at the foot of Dufferin-street. The prompt action of the engineer of the Buffalo train averted serious disaster.

Officials are not able to account for the accident. An outgoing freight train went off the track at the crossing of a box car spreading across the track adjacent. No warning could be given, although the fireman's whistle was heard all over the city for fully half an hour.

No one else was hurt, and the track was immediately cleared. The passengers arrived at the Union Depot about six minutes behind time.

Two Accidents. Cecil McDonagh, aged 5, was run over by a horse's wagon near his home on Bond-street on Saturday afternoon and had a rib broken. Dr. Adam Wright attended him.

Charles Barrow, 402 Carlton-street, fell off a toboggan in Riverside and broke his left leg.

Retains Championship. New York, Feb. 10.—Thomas E. Heaton of Scranton, Pa., retains the title of national professional pool champion, defeating Edwin Dawson, of St. Louis, in the three-evenings' play, concluded last night. The total score was 620 to 353.

THAW HIMSELF

ter that he brooded in silence, feeding his diseased fancy with hallucinations until he awoke White, believing that he was shooting him he had saved his wife's life. He believed the vision real then; he believes it real now.

Aside from Thaw's own appearance for the first time in the role of witness, this week promises to be the biggest and most fruitful in the history of the great trial. Evelyn Thaw's story is far from being finished, and it is that comes the cross-examination by Jerome, which swayed in the nature of things, will fairly throbb with sensations.

Conate-pleas to be Unaverted. Then there is to follow the unraveling of the devious counterplots which the flowered chorus girl when the two rival crews of private detectives were scouting each other—terrors and woe-filled fetters—reassuring—when Thaw's women aides and aids scouted the Tenderloin on their high heels, while Abe Hummel, the little master waverer, the home woe-counseling leaser spiders.

Delmas will also make renewed effort to signed the contract drawn on the night of his marriage to Evelyn Nesbit on April 4, 1906, put in a mass of papers, and on Monday, in hope of proving by its extraordinary provisions that the defendant had not been mentally retarded at the time of the marriage, the pursuit of Evelyn Nesbit by Stanford White.

This will be most remarkable, both as to its wording and its beneficiaries, and also as to the alleged allowance for Thaw's wife, her mother and brother, and to create a fund for the benefit and support of other girls mentioned in the alleged papers. Thaw had suffered from White's villainies as had Evelyn Nesbit. The will also shows that this was the medium through which Evelyn Nesbit met Stanford White for the first time.

TROLLEY JUMPS TRACK WRECKS TELEGRAPH POLE

Same Old Corner of Queen and McCaul Scene of Accident—No One Hurt.

A Bloor and McCaul car was banged into by a Queen-street car at the corner of Queen and McCaul-streets Saturday evening, and by the narrowest of a margin barely missed tearing the front end of Adams' drugstore. The stout stone curbing saved the store, by turning the course of the derailed car, whose velocity was not checked until it had crashed into a telegraph pole, which was cut off slick and clean. Ten feet was cut out of the center of the pole, which fell on Maurice Hepler, 172 West Adelaide-street, inflicting a slight scalp wound.

Accidents of this nature are becoming an annual affair on the McCaul-street curve. Three years ago the whole front of Queen-street was closed by a fire which was caused by a Bloor and McCaul car which had left the curve running at great speed and it is less than two years since young Rockwood met a horrible death at the same curve by a car jumping the rails.

The accident on Saturday evening was caused by Queen-street car No. 1084 (eastbound) not stopping west of the curve, but following the southbound Bloor and McCaul car, No. 796, which was just rounded the corner, east when No. 1084 crashed into the rear, driving it ahead with velocity toward the pharmacy on the south side. The wheels struck the telegraph pole, which is now hanging suspended by the wires.

Motorman Clayton was badly shaken up and required attention. There were half a dozen passengers aboard.

TO END CASTRO GLORE BY AN APPEAL TO ARMS. Gen. Parades Has Landed in Venezuela and Will Lead a Revolt.

New York, Feb. 9.—Gen. Antonio Parades, who is reported to have landed in Venezuela, is expected to begin a revolt against President Castro, said from this port on Dec. 22 last for Trinidad.

About a month ago, when he tried with sixty of his followers who had been in service in Venezuela to start his expedition from Trinidad, he was arrested by the British authorities. He thereupon went to a point in the French Guiana, whence he embarked for Venezuela, where he landed, in a small town in the State of Marurin, in the eastern part of the country.

Parades, it is said, has 2,000 rifles and a million cartridges. His agents here declare that he expects to rally an army of from 500 to 800 men.

Gen. Parades is about 38 years of age, and served in the Venezuelan army in the administration of Gen. Castro. He was captured and imprisoned by Gen. Castro in 1904.

He remained in prison at Maracaibo about three years, when he was released under an act of amnesty.

The representative of Gen. Parades said here yesterday that he had kept his word; he said he would go out into January for Vice-President Gomez to exercise his rights under the constitution of assuming the presidency in case of the incapacity of President Castro by illness.

He realized that Gen. Gomez is detested from assuming these duties by the Castro clique, and has decided to try to force the present regime by force of arms.

WAR IMPENDING. Arbitration Between Honduras and Nicaragua Abruptly Closed.

Washington, Feb. 10.—Advice received at the state department late today added to the gravity of the Central American situation.

It was reported that the arbitration which has been going on in San Salvador for the adjustment of the differences between Honduras and Nicaragua had been abruptly terminated, and that war was impending.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 10.—Advice received here are to the effect that it was President Bonilla of Honduras who broke the treaty of Corinto (which provides for the arbitration of questions in dispute between the Central American republics), and that as a result of this the tribunal, which was sitting at San Salvador in an endeavor to settle the differences between Nicaragua and Honduras, was dissolved.

Conspicuous Asphyxiated. New York, Feb. 10.—A man and a woman, known at a lodging house where they have stopped since Friday as Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman of Newark, N. J., were found today unconscious from a gas which was escaping from an open gas jet. The police called that appearances indicated an accident.

The house of David Sheppard, 1 Cameron-street, was damaged by fire to the extent of $200. Children and matches were in Canada for business.

WILL DRIVE 100 MILES TO DISTRIBUTE WOOD

Frince Albert, Feb. 6.—To-day 100 teams are hurrying southward, loaded with cordwood. Each carried one cord, and farmers are supplying rural homes. The fuel will be sent as far south as Saskatoon, 100 miles. It will not be sold, but a strict account kept, to be settled for on some basis at a later date. The teams distribute there will be no charge. The whole country in the north has turned out with grim resolution to supply the very best cordwood, to volunteer for this appalling hundred mile drive. As each team will be required to make 20 miles, however, it may not be past human endurance.

Young Couple's Adventure. Maple Creek, Man., Feb. 6.—John Dunoon, a well-known rancher, was married Monday and started for his ranch on Skull Creek, with his bride. Their car was wrecked on the trail, and they were wed yesterday almost dead. They are in the hospital here, and Dunoon's feet will have to be amputated. Many reports of people perishing in the storm are being received here.

Barstler Perished. Weyburn, Sask., Feb. 6.—At Goose Lake, Aeneas McIntosh, a member of the English bar, a man of prominence, whose presence in the west has been a mystery for some months, has perished in a blizzard, with a companion. The body was found on the trail. They got off the trail. The mounted police found this companion nearly dead, but he was not found until the snow melted. He evidently wandered out on the plains and was covered up.

CLERGY AND THAW TRIAL

No Pulpit Reference—One Pastor Much Interested in Report.

The reports published in the daily papers of the proceedings of the Thaw trial, despite the condemnation of a member of parliament, received no criticism from Toronto clergy yesterday.

When asked by The World last night stated that not a word had been mentioned in their pulpits.

He read, however, the speaking of the Thaw trial, stated that he had followed the legal battles with great interest. He read, however, the speaking of the Thaw trial, stated that he had followed the legal battles with great interest.

Some of the clergy are against publishing such full accounts of the trial.

Another said that he had a better feeling for the new and the old trial of children.

MARKETS FOR MINING STOCKS UNIFIED---Largest Valuable Stake is Made at the Rochester Mine---COBALT

TRADING LESS ACTIVE BUT MARKETS ARE FIRM

For the Standard Cobalt Shares—Many New Issues Have Tended to Congest Investment.

The past week has witnessed a decline in the trading in Cobalt mining stocks, but the lessened demand cannot be said to have weakened the standard stocks to any material extent. The local and United States markets for mining stocks are still largely under the influence of the apathy and weakness in general securities, and appear to have run into a rut from which they may be aroused at any moment. The interest in mining shares is growing through the states and Canada, and a wave of speculation may eventually result. At Toronto, a good deal of investment buying is reported in such shares as Foster, Silver Queen, and Trethewey, but the first among these appears to have been the purchase of shares in the latter, which is being bought in quantities larger than any other issue outside of Nipissing.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS MR. AYLESWORTH AT KING GIVEN GOOD RECEPTION

North York Liberals Entertain Their Member and Hon. G. P. Graham.

King, Feb. 8.—(Staff Special.)—Hon. G. P. Aylesworth and Hon. G. P. Graham were the guests of the Liberals of the Township of King at a love feast and concert given here to-night. The town hall was packed to the doors, many ladies being present. The distinguished guests were met at the station by a torchlight procession, headed by a brass band, and conducted to the hotel, where the banquet was served.

Joseph Rogers, treasurer of the North York Reform Association, presided; F. G. Inwood, Toronto; Henry S. Cain and Aubrey White, Newmarket, had seats on the platform. The leader of the opposition was out for free school books and he would also reduce the number of school books in both public and separate schools. Mr. Graham outlined a forestry policy as the only lasting development for yielding an income to the people of this province.

As to the question of corporations Mr. Graham stood for fair play with capital, but contended that the corporations were not keeping faith with the people. "Don't be carried away with the mining craze," said Mr. Graham. "The trouble up there is over-capitalization. The principle is wrong and the government should investigate every claim. We stand also for a clear title of any mine and the Ontario government should protect the buyer at all stages."

The minister of justice was proud of the Township of King. He had his home in North York, and congratulated the electors on the result of the last federal election. "When leaving Ottawa I told Sir Wilfrid Laurier that I felt it a duty to go to North York," said Mr. Aylesworth. "He replied he wished he could go with me, as North York was the greatest constituency in Canada."

"That is the message which I present you here to-night," (Loud applause.) Mr. Aylesworth pointed out that the scope of the government on which he might speak was narrow; his account of his stewardship would be short. He had tried to do his best, but no money was wasted in the postal department. This department was now at a saving of one to the extent of $1,000,000.

"I cannot speak of any financial surplus flowing from the department," said Mr. Aylesworth. "Because it is the law office of the Dominion, nor am I able to give any account of my stewardship with the department of the postoffice. I shall do my best. The present session is probably half gone and we have seen one marked difference from the session of last year—that was to have been the session when the death knell of the Liberal party would be tolling. It was to have been a scandalous session. We had it, and I think the opposition are welcome to the result. They have shakled the people of Canada with their alleged scandal, which has receded upon their own heads and which has not been repeated on that account this session."

The speaker referred to the passing of the Sunday Observance Bill and the part he had therewith. One of the biggest pieces of legislation the Laurier government had ever put through.

"If you had not had Sir Wilfrid, a Frenchman and a Roman Catholic, you would have had no Sunday Bill," he said.

F. G. Inwood predicted that Hon. A. B. Aylesworth would step into the premiership of the Dominion. H. S. Cain, Aubrey White and W. C. Wildfield made short speeches, and a dance was afterwards held.

Toronto Junction, Feb. 10.—The Dominion Bank is negotiating the purchase of Nos. 42 and 44 Dundas-street, owned now by A. J. Heydon. It is their intention to open a branch if they can purchase the property. St. John's Branch A.Y.P.A. intend paying a visit to the St. Peter's branch on Monday night. Ex-Mayor Armstrong, it is reported, had improved wonderfully during the last week.

At a meeting of the property committee of the public school board on Saturday night, it was recommended that flags on the different schools be raised on the King's Birthday, Empire Day, Victoria day, opening day, closing day, Arbor Day, Thanksgiving Day and on the anniversaries of the battles of Trafalgar and Queenston Heights. The secretary was instructed to advise the Press Furnace Company of the next day to ask them to explain the bill re storm windows. A blackboard in St. Clare's school is to be repaired, the accounts were also passed. A number of the Ranger Hockey Club have entered a team in the Markham Hockey Tournament, being held this week.

Miss Kate Ellis sang a solo at the while Miss Fanny Harshaw and Mr. Arledge took the solo parts in the anthem. The Shamrock Lacrosse Club will meet shortly for reorganization and the appointment of delegates to the C.L.A. convention on Good Friday. The town council will hold a special meeting to-morrow night to take the place of the regular meeting that should have been held last Monday night. D. McKelvie was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sgt. Peters on a warrant charging him with assault on the boarding mistress, Mrs. Teggett, 144 Vine-street. Jesse Noble, who resides on Campbell-street, was arrested at the request of High Constable Brodie of Peel County, charged with stealing a revolver at Brimley.

At 7.25 o'clock to-night an alarm was sent in from box 13, corner of Pacific-avenue and Dundas-street. The department found that a fire had started in one of the flues of the furnace of St. James' Hall. There was no damage. There are sixty-nine cars of live stock in the Union Stock Yards for Monday's market.

ADVOCATE THE SECESSION OF COLONY FROM EMPIRE

Newfoundland Ministers Encouraged by Laurier's Sympathy With Island's Position.

St. John, Nfld., Feb. 9.—The announcement that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has expressed sympathy with Newfoundland in the colony's campaign against American fishermen, encouraged the government leaders, who will outline their plans of further protest against the modus vivendi, at Tuesday's session of the legislature.

The newspapers of the opposition uttered a vehement protest to-day against the strong language used by several government speakers in the legislature on Thursday. They advocated the secession of the colony from the empire.

THOUGHT COLD WOULD TURN TO CONSUMPTION

READ HOW DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 26th, 1906. The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sir: As I am one of the thousands that have been benefited by your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I thought it my duty to give you a description of my case. I am 19 years of age and was always in the best of health until last spring when I caught a severe cold by going about with wet feet. It settled in my chest and all the remedies I tried would not stir it. My friends began to fear it had turned to consumption and were advising me to go east and see a specialist. One day my father brought home a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I laughed at the idea of being any good and refused to take it, and only as a last resource would I. When I had finished one bottle I had only a slight cold left and before I had taken a quarter of the next I was as well as ever. I was, in fact, better, as you can see what a God-sent medicine was to me. I never fail to recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to my friends and they all use it. To show my full appreciation of this remedy I will gladly answer any letters in reference to it. Believe me, Sincerely yours, Miss Winifred D. Smith. Price 25 cents a bottle at all dealers.
