Handley-Page Machine Falls in Flight From Newfoundland to Long Island by Bursting of An Oil Tube

TWENTY TWO MORE OF OUR BOYS CAME HOME THIS MORNING

Of ninety men for this district who landed from the Mauretania yesterday, only twenty-two arrived in the city this morning.

The following St. John men arrived this morning: Private B. L. Bowers, Pte. C. Chisholm, Pte. R. Devine, 253 Waterloo street, Pte. W. Ferris, 254 Brittain street, Pte. W. P. Humphrey, 166 Sydney street, Pte. H. Silliphant, 95 Middle street, Pte. W. R. Trudell, 106 Dorchester street, Sgt. Henderson, 60 Camden street, Sgt. Casman, 47 Celebra street, Sgt. Shaw, Lancaster avenue, Sgt. McGilvery, 88 Orange street, Sgt. Brittain, 137 Duke street, Cpl. Bissett, 14 Duke street, Cpl. Jones, 25 City road, Pte. Knorr, 63 Victoria street, Pte. McCutcheon, 200 Newman street, Pte. Phillips, Hickory road, Cpl. Welford, 120 Prince William street, and Spr. McEice, East St. John.

Among the men to arrive in the city last night was Sergeant Laurence Scovill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond. He went overseas with the C. S. C., but afterwards transferred to the 26th Battalion and from there to the Y. M. C. A., where he was stationed at the 2nd divisional headquarters.

Lance-Corporal Harris Mawhinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mawhinney of Macos Bay, arrived in the city last night from Quebec, where he landed on July 1 from the C. P. O. S. liner Minnedouche. Corporal Mawhinney crossed overseas with the 6th Siege Battery, but was later transferred to the 12th Brigade. During his long service with the Canadian expeditionary forces he escaped serious injury, but was quite badly gassed during one big engagement. He was met at the station by his father, brother and sisters and driven to the home of his brother, C. E. Mawhinney, Sydney street, where a bounteous repast had been prepared for the home-coming. Corporal Mawhinney was accompanied home by his bride, a young English girl, whom he met while overseas. The party will motor to Macos Bay this afternoon.

Among the men who came across on the Mauretania and arrived in the city this morning, was Captain R. B. Coster, son of Mrs. C. J. Coster, King Square. He enlisted with the 56th battalion and went overseas in October, 1915, with that unit. After spending a short time in England he was transferred to the 26th and served in France with that unit until the signing of the armistice when he was again transferred to the military district concentration wing, in Kinnel Park, Riby, Wales, where he was attached until he left for Canada. Captain Coster has a large circle of friends in this city and elsewhere who will be very glad to hear of his safe return.

MUCH MIXED UP OVER THE RING BATTLE

All Kinds of Arguments Over Settling Bets

ONE ROUND OR THREE? Veterans Say the Latter—Dempsey Followed by Throg, Willard Home With Head in Ice—His Wife Glad He's no Longer Champion

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 5.—Through a new heavyweight champion has been crowned in Jack Dempsey, and the exodus of fight fans has depopulated Toledo today, controversy still rages over the sensational defeat of Jess Willard here late yesterday afternoon. So many unusual angles developed during the nine minutes of terrific fast bombardment that scarcely two spectators saw the scene the same. The uncertainty regarding the situation at the end of the first round when Dempsey left the ring believing that he had won with a knockout, and the payment of such wagers as hinged on when Willard was stopped furnished unlimited material for argument.

So weak was the sound of the gong and so great the uproar about the ring that Referee Percod failed to hear the bell and continued to count over Willard's head. Dempsey said that the referee ordered the fight to stop when he saw Dempsey's arm raised in victory. The referee notified Dempsey that he had won, and the Salt Lake City pugilist lay on his back for several minutes before his manager overtook him and told him that he was in danger of being disqualified on a technicality for leaving the ring.

Opinions of Veterans.—The question of which round Dempsey won his new title was placed before several veterans of the ring. The men who had wagers at stake and the concern was that Dempsey stopped Willard in the third round, as the latter's seconds tossed the towel of defeat into the centre of the ring before the bell rang for the beginning of the fourth round. These veterans pointed out several other interesting features. They said that it was the first time that a heavyweight champion had ever admitted defeat without leaving his chair, as well as the shortest heavy-weight championship fight of modern ring history.

In other respects the first few hours after the battle were much the same as those following the passing of other titles. Dempsey's reception committee, much in evidence about the downtown section, followed by a wildly enthusiastic throng. When he appeared for dinner at the chief hotel the corridors were a mass of swirling spectators who pecked at his chair, as well as his manager, training and dining in a manner entirely different from the simple menus of the last two months.

Five Cities Report Temperature of 100 For Fourth of July

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Thermometer readings in five cities—Washington, Boston, Hartford, Philadelphia and Harrisburg, Pa.—registered 100 degrees yesterday, and weather bureau forecasters said the day was one of the hottest fourths on record. Predictions were for a high in temperature by Saturday night and very general thunder storms.

The widespread publicity that attended the city's plans to guard against further bomb outrages was believed to have been largely responsible for the quietness of the day.

Dempsey made a hurried change to his civilian clothes after his victory and was taken in an automobile to his headquarters in a downtown hotel. Hundreds of admirers greeted him as he alighted from his car at the hotel, and the lobby rang with Dempsey cheers for more than fifteen minutes.

There is one woman in Toledo happy because Jess Willard is no longer world's heavyweight champion. She is the wife of the vanquished title holder, and, according to her husband, she left her home in Lawrence, Kansas, came to Toledo unannounced last night and will remain here for some time. She is the 350 second wife her husband was being battered to defeat. No one in the huge crowd, except the champion himself, knew she was there. "I am sorry that Jess was beaten, but I can truly say that I am happy that he is no longer champion," Mrs. Wemp said. "It means now that we shall be able to live in peace. Jess will become a private citizen again. It was the second boxing contest I have ever witnessed and I do not want to witness any more. I shall be happy when I take Jess back home to our children."

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam this morning, "how is the crop of sheep-sorrel this year?" "I never knew a year when it wasn't good," said Hiram. "And are the tender water-cress along the brook?" "Yes, some last week," said Hiram. "And the watergreens—are they looking well?" "Were some 'em better," Hiram said. "Plenty of dandelion greens to be had?" "All you want to bile, Mister." "And the blueberries are getting ripe, and that all kinds of wild fruit will be plentiful this year—raspberries, raspberries, and currants." "Yes, sir," said Hiram, "an' the clover's in blossom, an' the nasturtiums an' ground-hemlock an' prince's pine is there to make a tonic if you need one. What an article of food it has gone up a cent or two cents in ten cents—and I can't stand the stuff. I want to get back to nature and eat the things the Lord provides. I want to browse for the summer and pick nuts for the winter. I want a wigwam, and a cool spring of water, and a brook with fish in it."

"Well," said Hiram, "come right out to the settlement an' camp on the back of 'em. I'll fix you up with a couple of blankets 'til you get along without you around here."

"I mentioned that to my wife," said the reporter, "but she said if I wasn't in a hurry, she'd like to see you at the house a grateful staff would hire a car to take me as far as Mexico."

"Poor fellow," said Hiram, "I know how it is myself."

Alarmist Reports Of Western Crops

There May Not be More Than 50 Per Cent Result in Alberta and Saskatchewan

OTTAWA, July 5.—Most alarming reports of western crops are being received by the western members. A dry belt is moving rapidly northward and Alberta and Saskatchewan cannot hope for more than a 50 per cent crop. Manitoba has been more fortunate in weather conditions, and there should be a bumper crop in that province. Many members say that conditions are as bad as in 1914, when the dominion government expended nearly $14,000,000 in relief and providing seed grain. Already requests are being received asking that the government again come to the relief of the settlers in the drought-stricken areas.

ANGRY LION TEARS FLESH OF TRAINER

Tamer's Bride Witnesses 'Emperor's Treachery; Showman Subdues Jungle King

North Adams, July 5.—Jack Lorenzo, a lion trainer with a carnival showing in this city, was attacked by an angry lion and terribly injured. He was in the cage with five of the animals. When he turned his back a minute he was pounced upon by "Emperor," the largest of the lions. His leather jacket was torn in shreds and his arms and shoulder badly lacerated.

THORPE OUT FRONT AMONG THE BATTERS

CHICAGO, July 5.—Jim Thorpe, Indian member of the Boston Braves, has stepped out in front among the batters of the National League, with an average of .411 in twenty-two games. Cravath of Philadelphia has .376 for fifty-two games. He has increased his mark in total bases to 115 in sixty-four hits, which included seventeen doubles, five triples and six home runs. He leads the home run listers.

Changes in The Records of The Big League Baseball Players

Other leading batters include Young of New York, .361; Williams of Philadelphia, .320; Southworth of Pittsburgh, .320; and Roush of Cincinnati, .319.

Other leading batters are: Flagstead, Detroit, .321; Siler, St. Louis, .288; Milan, Washington, .330; and Jackson, Chicago, .329.

PEACE MATTERS

PARIS, July 5.—Germany has indicated her desire to begin immediately her compliance with the terms of the peace treaty regarding reparations. Her request for oral conferences of German economic experts with Allied experts has been granted by the Allies.

PARIS, July 4.—Presentation of the completed peace treaty to the Austrian delegates will suffer a few days delay, as the drafting of the document has not yet been finished. La Liberté says. The clauses concerning Italy remain to be inserted in the treaty.

PARIS, July 5.—The annual convention of the Canadian Bar Association will take place in Winnipeg August 27-29.

JACK DEMPSEY DEFEATS WILLARD
 Wins Heavyweight Boxing Championship in Three Rounds—Ex-Champion Knocked Down Seven Times in First Round

In one of the speediest and most one-sided fights ever staged for the heavyweight championship of the world Jack Dempsey defeated Jess Willard, title holder, in three rounds at Toledo yesterday afternoon. The champion was out-fought, out-gamed and out-general and was buffeted about the ring in the first round, going to the ropes or floor seven times before he beat, saved him from further punishment. The second and third rounds were equally disastrous for the champion and at the termination of the last round he was called off the contest.
 After the first round Dempsey thought that the referee had awarded the bout to him and started to leave the big arena, but was called back.
 The heat during the day was terrific and ranged from 110 degrees to 130. From seven o'clock in the morning until 12.30 o'clock preliminary bouts were staged and during that time the fans sat through it all sweltering in the heat.
 At nine minutes after four the big bout started.
 At nine minutes after four, the weighing, Dempsey later caused a much confusion, changed and the battle was on.
 Willard looked up like a Goliath against his five-inch shorter Dempsey. He opened the engagement by pumping his long left twice into Dempsey's face with force enough to make the latter blink. The challenger missed his swing, slipping into a clinch landed three body blows with his free left hand carrying the little Dempsey to the ropes. He easily in a clinch and partly turning him around used his rapier-like left hand to jab the head and one to the body after the break.
 Then Dempsey, as if he had got the range, opened his heavy artillery and swung a jarring left to the jaw, followed by a right and left to the body. The almost superman power of the immediately apparent Dempsey, he whipped and as Dempsey crowded in again shot a left to the mouth and repeated to the right. The blows did not even cause the youthful Nemesis to hesitate and dodging past the outstretched left as if it were a wall, he hit Dempsey with a right over a right and left almost simultaneously, the blows landing flush on Willard's nose for the first time in his championship career. Willard was dropped to the floor. He was up again at the count of six only to be sent to the canvas with another right as he rose slowly to his feet. The blood began to pour from his mouth.
 He turned away from his opponent who struck again twice with his right, Willard falling on his hands and knees. When he arose Dempsey crowded him into a corner and with a right and left to the face sent him to the floor again. As he rose a fusillade of body blows dropped him in a corner where he sat, when the bell terminated the round, he had been counted out.
 Dempsey started where he left off and Willard with a big cut under his eye appeared to be in a bad way. He managed to snap a left to Dempsey's face and a puny right uppercut to the chin. Dempsey replied with several body drives and Willard fell partly through the ropes. When he rose Dempsey stumbled into a clinch, but Dempsey easily tore loose and proceeded to batter him almost as will, the champion replied with but three feeble slabs to the face during the melee. When Willard went to his corner he fell heavily on his head and it was seen that his right eye was completely closed and that one side of his face was swollen entirely out of shape while Dempsey was unmarked.
 Round Three.
 The first session was completely a series of rapid-fire swings which fell on Willard's face and body with pile-driving power which left Willard completely helpless. As he staggered about the ring and wobbled along the ropes utterly unable to defend himself, blood bubbled from his mouth with every gasp for breath while the crowd about the ringside began to yell to Referee Pecora to stop it. Just as the bell rang and Willard collapsed in his chair he spat out a tooth and it was seen that he was in bad condition. As he sat swaying from side to side, his chief second, Walter Monahan, talked earnestly to him and when Willard nodded his head, Monahan walked over and spoke to Pecora. The referee threw up his hands and hurried to Dempsey's corner. He graciously in the up-and-down finally pulled Dempsey toward the centre of the ring before the new champion realized that Willard's seconds had thrown up the sponge. As soon as he grasped the situation, he started for Willard's corner and the late title holder arose and stepped weakly to meet him. They shook hands and Willard muttered something in reply to Dempsey's remarks and the fight passed into history.

SLAIN WIFE BURIED
MONEY FOR CHILDREN
 Worcester, July 5.—The latest development in a murder and suicide tragedy of Monday night, when Maurice Sheehan shot and killed his wife and then fatally shot himself, came in the digging up under the piazza of the Sheehan home at 25 Everard street, of a sum of money and a photo of Sheehan buried there by Mrs. Sheehan. Relatives say Mrs. Sheehan had feared for her life because of the repeated threats Sheehan had made to kill her.
 The money, the amount of which is not announced, was to help care for the children, and the photo was to aid the

FRUITS OF BOLSHIEVISM.

From Hungary as well as from Russia comes a revelation of what Bolshevism does for a country. They have a Soviet in Hungary, and its purpose is to eliminate the capitalist and put a ban upon trained intelligence. Of the result an exchange says:

"At a meeting of the National Soviet at the Hungarian capital the minister of social protection, Mr. Varga, expressed the opinion, as did other members of the Soviet, that the attempt to eliminate capital from industry was leading Hungary to the brink of ruin. Mr. Varga said that thus far the results in industry and agriculture had been deplorable, while the expropriation of 800 banks by the dictatorship had been of little benefit to economic life. Among the foolish arrangements of the new regime cited by the minister was the failure to employ the talent of efficient bourgeois, and the suppression of the latter by inefficient young men who were constantly in collision with each other. Another detrimental result of the socialization of industry has been the taking away of the incentive to skilled men to increase their output by decreasing equal pay for skilled and unskilled workers. This measure has resulted in a decline in production of from 25 to 75 per cent in different factories, while in the coal mines the output has fallen off from 10 to 30 per cent, conditions which led the minister to advocate a return to piece work."

Whatever change may be necessary in the relations between capital and labor, a sudden and complete revolution such as has been brought about in Russia and Hungary cannot fail to have disastrous results. On the Hunnish principle that might is right the Bolshevist leaders have taken from every man the fruits of his labor and leave him without any incentive to more cog in a machine than he would be under the present economic system in other countries. Constitutional reform, not destructive revolution, is the safe way to solve industrial and social problems.

GROWTH OF MONCTON.

The rapid growth of Moncton is shown by the following comparison of valuation of taxable property in that city in 1912 and 1919:

Table with 3 columns: 1912, 1919, Increase. Rows include Land, Building, Personal, Income, and Assessment.

Thus the value of taxable property and income has more than doubled in seven years. Nor is there any evidence that the growth has reached anywhere near its limit. Business blocks are being erected, scores of houses are being erected by private enterprise, and the housing commission has decided to go ahead with forty houses under the federal and provincial government plan.

All the rest of the province congratulates Moncton on its growth and its very bright prospects. It is at once an example and an inspiration. Its citizens are progressive and courageous, and lose no opportunity to advance their city's interests.

OUR PROSPEROUS NEIGHBOR.

Bradstreet's report last week showed a remarkably healthy condition of business in the United States. We quote:

"Trade currents are very strong—broader and deeper, indeed, than at any time since this country entered the war—collections have very little to be desired, and crop prospects, taken as a whole, are better than a year ago. Manufacturing and industry, it is true, lack the appearance of feverish activity of a year ago, when war demand was so pre-emptive, but with allowance made for the fact that demand today is purely for peaceful purposes, the industrial situation, barring some sporadic strike symptoms, is really excellent. There are, indeed, evidences that in wearing apparel (including shoes), jewelry, furniture and household furnishings, agricultural implements, lumber, and a long list of other products used in everyday life, demand is treading close upon, if not actually passing, supply. Reflection of this is found in reports of complaints of slow delivery of goods ordered, these coming both from jobbers and retailers; in the almost total absence of the usual seasonal clearance sales, and in the reports that orders for fall goods are being placed sixty days, in some instances, ahead of the normal. It is plain that, not wheat crop in history, with the high prices guaranteed therefor and the prospect of very high prices for corn, cotton and hogs, is working upon the imagination of buyers, who expect and wish to be prepared alike for unsurpassed agricultural buying power and for purchases in keeping therewith."

There is a new pugilistic champion, but the interest in the contest was far below the expectations of the promoters of the affair, and speculators are said to have lost heavily. Very few tears will be shed on their account, or on account of those who traveled far to see a one-sided and very brief slugging match.

A BRITISH EXAMPLE.

The experience of the United States in the matter of government operation of railroads has been cited as a warning against the adoption of that policy, but quite a different story comes from England. The last issue of Bradstreet's says:

"Government operation of railroads in England during the entire war period resulted in a profit of some $85,000,000, instead of a deficit of about $800,000,000, as has generally been believed, according to an official statement recently published, which shows the cost of running the railways of Great Britain during the period of government control up to the end of 1918. In commenting on this statement the London Railway Gazette says that at last the facts are known in regard to railway receipts and expenditure during the war and that the figures indicate astonishing results. A tabulated statement shows that the total revenue earned last year was £177,584,291 and the total expenditure £181,295,293, leaving a balance of £2,639,098. Both revenue and expenditure increased largely from 1914 to 1918, but the balance was always on the right side. If, therefore, government control was not a success in the United States the like cannot be said of England."

The city council of Buffalo has adopted a rule which forbids policemen joining any labor organization. It reads thus: "No member of the police force, or employee of the department, shall become affiliated with any labor organization after he takes his oath of office or while he remains a member of the police force or an employee of the department." The mayor said he would recommend the immediate dismissal of any policeman who went on strike. A report of the discussion says: "The council agreed that they were in sympathy with labor but that there was a vast difference between labor unions and a police union. The Winnipeg situation was pointed out to the labor leaders as an instance of what might happen if police joined a union."

ATTENTION HAS BEEN DIRECTED TO AN INCREASE IN STREET CAR FARES IN MASSACHUSETTS.

Of equal interest, however, is this from Cleveland, Ohio: "The Cleveland City Council yesterday directed the Cleveland Street Railway Company to reduce its fare at once to eleven tickets for fifty cents, as the interest fund of the company, which is the carfare barometer under the Taylor plan, shows $700,000 to its credit. It also instructed its street railway committee to draft a report informing the company that it favors a raise in the wages of carmen."

In Tonawanda, N. Y., the demand for houses is so great that the Chamber of Commerce has taken up a plan to meet the need. The factories are handicapped in securing expert help because of the lack of housing accommodation, and a despatch says: "The Chamber of Commerce is behind a project to erect at least 100 new houses in Tonawanda and North Tonawanda. The most feasible plan under consideration is to have manufacturers and real estate dealers build the homes jointly and either rent or sell them to persons desiring dwellings."

Alarming reports about crop failure in the west add to the national concern about the high cost of living. Today's report is very gloomy. Timely rain would of course alter the situation, but it is said great damage has already been done by the drought.

St. John will give a rousing welcome to the men of the 13th Reserve Battalion. The soldiers who arrived last evening must have been greatly pleased with the cordial reception.

The threat that the Fourth of July would be marked by bomb outrages in the United States was not carried out.

Parrsboro must have been somewhat surprised by the big bird that landed in its streets this morning.

Lieut.-Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will be a candidate for the New York House of Assembly. He is a Republican.

The resignation of Miss E. V. N. Clements, secretary of the provincial Red Cross Society since the outbreak of war, was accepted at an executive meeting yesterday. Mayor Hayes presided and there were also present Lady Tilley, General H. H. McLean, C. B. Allan, Col. E. T. Sturdee, J. H. Frink, H. A. Powell and Miss Clements. A sum of $250 was presented to be voted to Miss Clements in appreciation of her excellent work. C. B. Allan was chosen as delegate to the central conference in Winnipeg in September. The names of Lady Tilley, C. B. Allan and H. A. Powell were chosen to be sent to Ottawa for the selection of delegates to the Geneva convention. It was decided to vote $500 toward the French Red Cross on France's day, July 14. An outline of the proposed paper-time work of the organization was read by Lady Tilley. Mrs. Gordon was appointed acting secretary for the summer.

At a regular meeting of the King's Daughters yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. P. Crockett presided. Arrangements for the dominion convention here were discussed.

THE LATE DR. ANNA SHAW

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, honorary president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, who died at her home in Fayal, Penn., on July 2, was 71 years old.

She was chairman of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense and was recently awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for her work during the war.

Dr. Shaw had been prominently identified with the woman suffrage movement and was president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association consecutively for eleven years. In 1915 she declined a renomination and then was elected honorary president.

She had spoken in every state in the United States before many state legislatures and committees of both houses of Congress in the interest of suffrage. She was a member of the Woman Suffrage Alliance, International Council of Women, League to Enforce Peace and National Society for Broader Education.

Dr. Shaw continued her active participation in public affairs to the last. Immediately preceding the great war, in the early summer of 1914, Dr. Shaw went to Rome as chairman of the committee on suffrage and right of citizenship at the quinquennial session of the International Council of Women.

Immediately after hostilities ended in France, Dr. Shaw signed the resolution she helped draft for the National American Woman Suffrage Association addressed to the Peace Conference, asking for punishment of the Germans for their crimes against women and girls.

For her endeavors in the interest of women at home as well as soldiers in France during the war, Dr. Shaw received letters from Queen Mary of England, Mme. Poincaré, wife of the President of France, President Wilson and Gen. Pershing and other celebrities.

IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, July 3—It is not expected that the dominion house will proceed before Monday or Tuesday. The Toronto and Niagara Power matter has again been passed back to the senate in an amended form. On Saturday there is to be a conference between members of the senate and the house of commons on the deadlock over the prohibition question.

The most important bill of legislation before the House today was Hon. Mr.

Meighen's bill to create a Board of Commerce, on the lines of the Railway Commission, to deal with matters relating to trade. The bill is based upon the recommendation of the committee which inquired into the cost of living. Exception was taken by the opposition to the provision which gives the governor-in-council power to overrule the findings of the board. It was pointed out, however, that in this respect the board will be in the same position as the Railway Board from whose judgment an appeal lies to the government.

At the evening sitting Hon. J. D.

Reid's bill covering the clauses of the consolidated railway bill, which the senate declined to retain in that bill, provoked a warm debate. The bill, which is designed to protect the rights of municipalities in dealings with power companies, was criticized by Mr. Jacques Bureau, who asserted that it would take away the vester rights of the Toronto and Niagara Power Company.

Hon. W. S. Fielding said that the measure would treat the rights of this company as a scrap of paper. Mr. Bureau moved an amendment in line with the senate and the report of the railway committee of the commons, but it was rejected on a division of 81 to 40. The bill was reported and given third reading.

Conspicuous nose pores

How to reduce them

Complexions otherwise flawless are often ruined by conspicuous nose pores.

The pores of the face are not as fine as on other parts of the body. On the nose especially, there are more fat glands than elsewhere and there is more activity of the pores. These pores, if not properly stimulated and kept free from dirt, clog up and become enlarged.

To reduce enlarged nose pores: Wring a soft cloth from very hot water, lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Then finish by rubbing the nose for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

Notice the improvement the very first treatment makes—a promise of what the steady use of Woodbury's Facial Soap will do. But do not expect to change completely in a week a condition resulting from long continued exposure and neglect. Use this treatment persistently. It will gradually reduce the enlarged pores and make them inconspicuous.

Get a cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap and begin tonight the treatment your skin needs. You will find Woodbury's on sale at any drug store or toilet goods counter in the United States or Canada. A 25 cent cake will last a month or six weeks.

What Kind of Blood Have You?

Thin, Pale and Watery—Keeping You Weak, Nervous and Run-Down—Or Rich, Red, Healthy Blood With Plenty of Iron in it to Give You Strength, Energy, Power and Endurance

Physician Says Iron is Red Blood Food

Explains How Nuxated Iron—Master Strength Builder of the Blood—Helps Give Renewed Vigor and Energy to Men and Put Roses into the Cheeks of Women.

Plenty of Iron makes rich, red corpuscles like these. Highly magnified drop of blood of anemic woman, showing lack of healthy, red corpuscles.

If you tire easily, if you look pale, haggard and worn, if you feel generally weak, nervous and run-down it would probably astonish you to look at a drop of your own blood under a powerful microscope and compare it with a drop of pure, healthy blood—rich in iron. Actual blood tests show that a tremendously large number of people who are weak and ill lack iron in their blood and that they are ill for no other reason than lack of iron. Iron deficiency paralyzes healthy, energetic action, pulls down the whole organism and weakens the entire system.

GIVE TO THE LIVING.

If we gave unto the living as we lavish on the dead,
Kindly thoughts and gentle phrases, tender words and friendly praises,
Blotting out all imperfections, holding virtues up to light;
If we left no daily token of our love and care unspoken—
Then would life be well worth living in a world all glad and bright.

If we offered to the living, as we heap upon the dead,
Fragrant flowers of affection, blossoms of sweet recollection,
Waiting not till hands are folded on the quiet, pulseless breast,
Then the passion of our pleading would not fall on ears unheeding,
Nor our tears fall, unavailing, on the weary form at rest.

If we gave unto the living as we lavish on the dead,
All our heart's long hidden treasures, all love's full, unstinted measure,
Adding day by day, new jewels to the crown of human bliss,
Then life's burden would weigh lightly, and the sun would shine more brightly,
And not heaven itself were fairer than a world as glad as this.

—Ida Goldsmith Morris, in New York Times.

OUTLOOK IN BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION

Bank of Commerce Comment On Situation in States

Complication of House Shortage High Building Costs and Diversion of Capital From Residential Building Purposes

With normal construction totalling nearly a billion and three-quarters dollars held up by the war, and with a steady increase meanwhile in population, the United States is more than a year behind in its building requirements in respect to residences, public works and railroads, says the National Bank of Commerce in New York in reviewing the building and construction outlook in its magazine, Commerce Monthly for July. The situation is described by the bank as a complication brought about by an unprecedented shortage of houses, high building costs and the diversion of capital from residential building purposes.

The bank says: "With regard to residential construction a difficult financial situation exists as a result of high costs of the materials and labor, coupled with the diversion into other channels of capital which would ordinarily go into this class of building operations. There is little prospect of a decline of building costs, but the building shortage must be met. Although expansion is in evidence, the full solution seems to require that prospective builders themselves carry a larger share of the building costs than has been customary in the past.

"During the greater part of the period of our participation in the war, definite restrictions limited building and construction for ordinary purposes. Issues of securities for road building, development and irrigation projects were given favorable consideration only if of military importance.

The dominant factor in relation to building shortage, Commerce Monthly says, is the growth in population which, although checked in this country by the falling off of immigration, war losses and influenza, nevertheless probably increased from 800,000 to 1,000,000 during 1918. We now are in need of sufficient buildings, the bank says, to take care of that portion of the population increase of 1917 not provided for in the building programme of 1918, and in addition, we must take care of the increase in 1918. The war, it says, as a stimulus to industrial construction, produced over-building in some directions, but this excess, now that the need for it is passed, cannot in all cases be adapted to ordinary requirements.

Optimistic conclusions, however, as to the building outlook for the present year seem justified, the bank declares, adding:

"The figures for contracts awarded for the first five months of this year, together with building permits for May, indicate that a genuine building expansion has arrived. The future of the building programme for this year rests ultimately with the question of building costs, as the possibility of financing projects is determined by cost. The wholesale prices of lumber, structural steel and other building materials are now between 60 and 70 per cent. higher than the average for the year 1918. Wages in the building trades are high, but there is no reason to anticipate a reduction as long as the present cost of living prevails. The prices of building materials did not advance nearly as fast during the war as most other commodity groups. The reason for this relatively slow increase is obvious, namely, the sharp curtailment of building for ordinary purposes."

There is a scarcity of funds for real estate mortgages for residence and apartment house construction, the bank says, and continues:

"Nevertheless, the building shortage must be met, and the great prosperity which most individuals and firms have enjoyed during the war should point the way to the main factor in the solution of the problem of finance. Prospective builders should not depend upon the mortgage money market to the extent to which they have been accustomed prior to the war, but should be prepared to invest a greater proportion of their own capital in their projects, whether they be planning home building or factory construction."

This is a Greater Maxwell

There have been many improvements made in the Maxwell since the war ceased. Some of them have made the car look better. Others have made it run better.

You will note a new type radiator, a further advance in body detail, an improved electrical system, a Hot Spot and a Ram's-horn, a superior development in upholstery, and a top more durable.

Any of these is well worth any man's time to look over, and the sum of all represent a decided value added to the car, which post-war purchases for cash have made possible without increasing the price.

But the fundamentals of the car are unchanged. 300,000 Maxwells on the highways of the world—all of the same model—have proved that a policy of never changing the base design is profitable in more ways than one to buyer and maker.

- It means extra value at a lower price.
- It means perfection in design.
- It means perfection in workmanship.
- It means you pay for no experiments, no engineering knick-knacks.
- It means you pay for no mistakes.
- It means a car of everlasting reliability.
- It means a car of endless mileage.

You can easily pay $300 more and receive less. This Maxwell is old in antecedents but modern as far as sound engineering dare go.

There is no car of the day selling for so low a price to offer so many attractive inducements.

See this recent Maxwell, and bear in mind that despite the eight great Maxwell plants the supply is already running far short of the demand.

G. W. V. A. CONVENTION
Important Matters Deal With At Dominion Gathering

Vancouver, July 4.—R. B. Maxwell, of Winnipeg, today was elected first vice-president of the Great War Veterans' Association on the first ballot by an overwhelming majority.

Consideration of committee reports and the land settlement resolution occupied the time of the convention yesterday afternoon. In addition to concurring in the principles of law and order, minimum and maximum wage legislation, old age, illness and unemployment insurance, improved conditions for labor, proportional representation, restriction upon immigration and naturalization of aliens, equal opportunities for children, the convention passed clauses in the report of the industrial commission disclaiming sympathy with factions controlled by the extremists who strive by all means to overthrow their institutions and breed discord and advocate riot or revolution.

Other principles approved by the convention were: Public ownership of cold storage plants. The superannuation of a certain number of civil servants whose positions could easily be filled by returned soldiers. A longer period of training in the vocational training system, with properly qualified craftsmen in charge of every department. Resolutions were passed affirming that steps should at once be taken to establish the Canadian air service under national ownership, control and operation, with the workers sharing in the management, and on petitioning the dominion government to appoint a permanent committee composed of representative producers, manufacturers and wage earners and such experts as may be necessary to investigate and fix the cost of production of manufacture, of transportation and of the scale of all essential commodities of life and to prepare a schedule of such costs, profits and wages for the sanction of parliament, such schedule to be embodied in the statutes with heavy penalties for the violation of the same. The schedule to be revised from time to time as changing conditions may warrant.

PERIOD CABINETS
Worthy of Their Contents

HAVE you seen the new period cabinet in which The New Edison is now encased? You may not know a Sheraton from a Jacobean but if you've an eye for beauty you'll enthuse over every one of them. They are the final word in authenticity. Their graceful lines: their beautiful proportions: the rich color of the mahogany—genuine mahogany: the mellow tints of the oak—honest, quarter-sawn white oak—you don't have to be a furniture connoisseur to appreciate them.

All New Edison instruments, at whatever price, with but two exceptions, are now encased in period cabinets of classic purity.

See the display in our store identical with the exhibit of Sheraton, Heppelwhite, William & Mary, Chippendale, Jacobean and Eighteenth Century English models shown this month at the Hotel Commodore, New York.

For a wedding, anniversary or a graduation gift what could be more appropriate.

The schedule to be revised from time to time as changing conditions may warrant.

A resolution was passed, following discussion of the report of the land committee which amongst other suggestions provides that returned men should be allowed to abandon their homesteads which prove unsuitable, and retain their homestead rights.

Housing problems and question of the treatment and disposition of the alien in Canada were discussed at the evening session. In connection with the former, a resolution was presented recommending that the terms of lending under the soldier settlement act now applying to farms only, should be extended to dwellers in cities for the purpose of enabling them to improve their homes or build new ones. The first clause of the resolution requested the federal government to abandon its present housing scheme as undesirable.

THE PLAYGROUNDS

Enthusiastic Meeting of Association Hears Cheerful Reports

Excellent reports were heard at the meeting of the Playgrounds Association held last evening in the Y. M. C. A. building with the president, A. M. Seidling in the chair. It was said that the ideal weather which had prevailed since the opening of the playgrounds on Wednesday had given the playgrounds a splendid start.

The reports from the respective grounds were as follows: C. M. Lingley reported that the Allison grounds had a fine attendance and many small children, the apparatus was in fair condition. On his suggestion it was decided to give the vaulting pole from this playground to the South End playground for boys.

The Alexandria report given by Mrs. W. C. Good told of a good attendance and the interest taken in their work by the teachers and also said that the order was excellent. The report of the Aberdeen grounds was given by H. H. MacLellan to the effect that the attendance was large and supervision splendid while the apparatus was in need of repairs. It was planned to keep this ground open at night if the association's property and that of the school was properly protected by those who enjoyed this privilege. Captain and Mrs. Mulcahy reported that there was a large attendance at the West Side playground and that 100 babies of ages varying from three months to one year were brought to the grounds by their older brothers or sisters and played happily in the sand piles. Mrs. W. E. McIntyre said of the King George ground that it had a good attendance and was in many ways the best in the city. She specially praised it for having a comfortable room in the new school that could be used on rainy days. M. E. Agar and Miss Emily Goodwin reported that at the Centennial ground had the best attendance in two years while work was going on most successfully and much interest was being shown in all branches of the work.

Reports said that the Alexandria, Aberdeen and West Side grounds have returned soldiers for caretakers and that the men are giving excellent results. The age limit for boys was discussed, and it was decided that the committee of each ground should have authority to settle the matter for itself. The president, Captain Mulcahy, and C. M. Lingley were given authority to procure supervisors for the boys' playgrounds, the need being urgent as the boys were becoming restless and causing annoyance by visiting the grounds of the smaller children.

It was said that wool was required for the use of the smaller children and a suggestion was made that the ladies who are knitting jerseys might have some wool to spare for the children. Great enthusiasm was shown at the meeting and complete satisfaction was in every case expressed with the work being done by the teachers.

Sidelights On Sport

The much heralded championship fight at Toledo is over and proved to be even a greater farce than anticipated. Some writers intimated that Willard was not training like he should have been, but they refrained from coming out openly and knocking the bout. To those who have followed the career of Ex-Champion Jess Willard, the defeat did not come as a big surprise, but the real surprise was in the brevity of the bout. Even the Dempsey backers did not expect more than a win on points, with the exception of a few who made some freak bets.

Outpoints Gibbons. Kansas City, July 4—Jeff Smith of New York outpointed Mike Gibbons of St. Paul in a ten-round boxing match today, according to the newspaper writers.

Victory Loan and W. S. S. During the "Victory Loan" now in progress in Great Britain the sale of war savings stamps will be continued. The money loaned to the government by the sale of these securities will be included in the amount of the total money raised during the period. It is anticipated that this arrangement, together with the new loan, will make it so comprehensive as to cover every home in the land.

Stecher Defeats Lewis. Omaha, Neb., July 4—Joe Stecher of Dodge, Neb., today defeated Ed (Strangler) Lewis of San Jose, Cal., in two straight falls in a wrestling match. Stecher won the first fall in one hour and forty-seven minutes and the second fall in fourteen minutes. He took each with a body scissor and wrist lock.

Victory for Zbyzsko. Gloversville, N. Y., July 4—Wladek Zbyzsko, Polish wrestling champion, defeated More Henderson, the "Masked Marvel," before a large crowd at Sacandaga Park tonight in two straight falls in thirty-five and ten minutes respectively.

THE RING. Fifteen Rounds. Baltimore, July 4—Young Chaney of this city tonight easily outpointed Kid Coster of New Orleans in a fifteen-round bout to a decision here. Chaney was much more clever than Coster, who was compelled to take a severe pummeling.

A Knockout. Benton Harbor, Mich., July 4—Joe Burman knocked out Pete Herman in the seventh round of a scheduled ten-round bout here today. Herman was knocked down three times before he was put out. Both men are Chicago bantamweights.

Langford Loss. St. Louis, July 4—Harry Wills won the newspaper decision over Sam Langford in an eight-round open-air bout this afternoon.

CHASES RUN AWAY HORSE WITH AUTO
D. Doherty Performs Plucky Act in Marsh Road

An episode with the thrills of a motion picture drama was enacted one day this week in the Marsh road, with the one difference that the whole drama was a stern reality and there was no camera click to spur on the participants.
A horse attached to a light carriage bolted and was going at breakneck speed along the road. It passed a Ford car being driven by Dan Doherty with one other passenger in the seat with him. He gave chase and, with the car speeding along at a good stiff pace, handed the wheel over to his companion and climbed out on the running board on the side next the runaway horse.
With careful and skilful driving the car was piloted alongside the swiftly moving carriage and Mr. Doherty secured the perilous leap. He landed safely in the carriage seat, gathered up the reins and gradually brought the horse to a stop.
There was a good amount of traffic on the road and there is no doubt that the action of this young man prevented a serious accident. As it was there were some close shaves registered during the period of the horse's temporary freedom.

The St. John baseball nine, which has been playing around the circuit of the New Brunswick and Maine League, won a double header in Calais, Me., yesterday making the morning fixture 8 to 6 and the afternoon game by 15 to 14. Lawlor and Killen formed the batlow, Gorman and Killen worked in the afternoon. The afternoon contest developed into a slug-fest and for a few innings the Maine boys had the best of the going, but from that on the St. John boys found their batting eyes and drove O'Neill, the opposing twirler off the mound. He was followed by Phinney who was also hit hard. Despite the big scoring the game was interesting and was witnessed by a large gathering of fans. Today the St. John team plays in Milltown, N. B. They will return home to the Boston train tonight.

FINE NEW HOME FOR GOLF CLUB

Contracts for Building at Riverside Have Been Awarded—What Plans Disclose

The contract for the erection of the new clubhouse for the Riverside Golf Club, on Country Club Heights, Riverside, has been awarded to J. S. Porter of the North End. The plans are by Architect F. Nell Brodie and work will be started immediately.
The building is to be of colonial type, two stories high, finished with shingles and will front on the river. It will be 110 feet long and sixty feet in width. It will be entered through a large semi-circular veranda fifty-four feet long and sixteen feet wide. The opening of the veranda into the main lounge will be through three French casement doors. The lounge is to be a large room seventy-five feet wide and forty-three feet long, with a ceiling twelve feet high. The floor is to be finished in birch and the walls paneled to a height of four feet six inches, the rest of the distance being finished with beaver board and ornamental batons, and the ceiling is to be finished with five large panels and four large, mock beams.
To the right of the lounge is to be the general dining room twenty-four feet wide and twenty-eight feet long and finished to correspond to the lounge.
To the left of the lounge will be a gentlemen's check room and adjoining that a gentlemen's locker room, the latter having open brick fireplace, two shower baths etc. To the rear of the lounge will be two private dining rooms, one fourteen feet by sixteen feet and the other sixteen feet by twenty feet. At the rear of the general dining room will be a large serving pantry, equipped with the necessary apparatus, such as sinks, cases and refrigerators, and to the rear of that will be a kitchen sixteen feet wide and twenty-two feet long. Adjoining the kitchen will be a wood and coal room.
To the left and at the rear of the lounge will be a veranda fourteen feet wide and thirty feet long, built in order that spectators may sit there and view the start of a game.
The second story of the building will include a ladies' sitting room with brick fireplace, ladies' locker room with shower baths, four chambers and a bath room, with caretaker's apartments also on the second floor.
The building is to be on a magnificent site where the old clubhouse now stands. The contract for the plumbing work has been awarded to G. & E. Blais. The contract for the heating installation has been awarded to the McClary Manufacturing Company, and the electrical apparatus is to be installed by the Vaughn Electric Company.

ST. JOHN WILL HAVE DISTINGUISHED VISITOR
The Official Story of How Lieut. Col. C. W. Peck Won V. C.
St. John is to have a distinguished visitor in the person of Lieut.-Colonel C. W. Peck, V. C., D. S. O., member of parliament for Skegna, B. C. Lieut.-Colonel Peck is a native of Hopewell Hill, Albert county, where he was born on April 26, 1871. The London Official Gazette thus describes the deed which won for Colonel Peck the Victoria Cross: "Lieut.-Colonel Cyril Wesley Peck, D. S. O., of a Manitoba regiment, for the most conspicuous bravery and skilful leading when in attack under intense fire. His command quickly captured their first objective, but progress to further objectives was held up by enemy machine gun fire on his right flank. The situation being extremely critical, Lieut.-Colonel Peck pushed forward and made a personal reconnaissance under heavy machine gun and sniping fire across a stretch of ground which was heavily sown by fire. Having reconnoitered the position, he returned and reorganized his battalion and, acting upon knowledge personally gained, pushed forward and arranged the protection of his flanks. He then went out under the most intense artillery fire and machine gun fire, intercepting the tanks, and gave them necessary directions, pointing out where they were to make for and thus have a way made for a Canadian infantry battalion to push forward. To this battalion he subsequently gave requisite support by his magnificent display of courage and fine qualities of leadership. He personally led the advance and caused it to be continued, although always under heavy artillery and machine gun fire, and contributed largely to the success of the brigade attack."

The Twenty-Four-Hour Article of Furniture -- The Divanette
A Divanette is always on the job. In the day-time as a Comfortable Couch, in the night-time as a First-class Bed. Always ready to accommodate the unexpected guest and making a bedroom of any room in the house.
We are showing a particularly attractive line of Divanettes at this time, fully capable of accommodating the thickest felt mattress without effort.
This feature will appeal because of the added comfort as a Couch and the plush on of securing a special mattress. Attractively upholstered in either Leatherette or Tapestry and in various woods, the line will quickly attract your favor. May we show it in more detail?
