None of the soldiers and sailors who figured in the disturbance were arrested.

CANADA GETS CABLE FROM THE PREMIER

Praises Record of Army of the Dominion on Battlefields of Flanders.

Ottawa, July 2.—(Lensed wire).—The following message of congratulation on the event of the jubilee of Confederation has been received on behalf of Canada by the Governor-General: From Premier Lloyd George: "Fifty years ago the statesmen of all provinces of Canada gathered in convention in Quebec to work out the basis of a federal union. From that act of statesmanship the Dominion of Canada was born. Confederation has done much for Canada. It has enabled the Canadian people to attain to internal unity and self-government and to achieve the beneficent development of the resources of their country. It has done no less for the Empire. It has made Canada the pioneer of that autonomous nationhood which is the unique characteristic of our commonwealth of nations and it has had its logical outcome in the imperishable record which the army of Canada has made on the battle field of Flanders in the cause of human freedom. The history of the fifty years is indeed a certain proof of the part which Canada is destined to play in concert with her sister nations in promoting the peace and unity of the world after victory has been won."

WILL NOT PROMOTE KUT OFFICIALS

London, July 2.—In the House of Commons today the government leader, Andrew Bonar Law, gave the assurance, pending the discussion of the Mesopotamian report, no person censured by the commission would be promoted to any higher position than he now holds. He added that there was not at the present time, and never had been, any intention of transferring Lord Hardinge, the former viceroy of India, to the Paris embassy or to any other diplomatic post.

RUSSIAN MINISTER IN LEAD

Minister of War Heads Army in the Great Forward Movement. LITTLE MARKED ACTIVITY IN WEST. Attention of Whole World Now Largely Centered on Russia.

Prisoners exceeding ten thousand and the capture of the village of Koniuchy and strongly fortified positions southwest of Brzesany are the first fruits of the new offensive movement of the Russian forces in Eastern Galicia. North of Koniuchy the Russians have attacked and fresh battles are in progress. The Russian artillery, long inactive from lack of shells, played an important part in the defeat of the Austro-Germans at Koniuchy. For two days a rain of iron was thrown into the German positions and Berlin says officially that they were turned into a crater field. The Russians not only carried three lines of German trenches and Koniuchy, which was strongly fortified but also advanced to the Koniuchy stream south of the village, which is on the Zlota Lipa river.

Around Brzesany the fighting was most bitter and Berlin claims that six-tenths Russian Division were thrown forward. The Russians carried the fortified Teton positions at several points in face of a desperate resistance by Austrian, German and Turkish troops. Minister of War Kereny was at the head of the revolutionary army in its forward movement and in a message to Premier Lvoff says that the offensive "proved to Russia and the entire world its fidelity to the revolution and its love for liberty and country." The premier has authorized Minister Kereny to give the regiments which participated in the fighting of July 1, red revolution flags and the name "Regiments July 1st."

Little Activity in France. On the western front there has been little marked activity. Both the British and Germans have carried out raids in the area around Lens and northward. In the Trentino south of Riva the Austrians have attacked Italian positions between Lake Garda and the Ledro Valley. Rome reports that all the Austrian efforts were checked with loss. The Greek destroyer Doxa, manned by a French crew, has been destroyed in the Mediterranean Sea by an explosion. Twenty-nine members of the crew including all the officers, were lost.

WREATH ON SIR CHARLES' GRAVE

Canadian Club of Halifax Honors Memory of Great Statesman.

Halifax, July 2.—The Canadian Club of Halifax placed on the grave of Sir Charles Tupper a wreath with the following inscription: "In Loving Memory from the Canadian Club of Halifax." The grave of the last of the "fathers of confederation" is in St. John's cemetery alongside that of his wife. The remains of the aged statesman were brought from London and given a state funeral. The placing of the wreath was, on this fiftieth anniversary of the confederation, a tribute to the memory of one of the greatest men Nova Scotia has produced whose name will ever be associated with the uniting of Canada.

CANADA'S DAY HONORED BY KING GEORGE

His Majesty, Queen Mary and Queen Alexandra Attend Impressive Service.

London, July 2.—(Montreal Gazette Cable).—The confederation jubilee celebrations passed off today with wonderful success and the people of London as well as other centers where Canadians are located seemed to vie with each other in entering into the spirit of the day. For the greater part of the forenoon traffic was held up in Westminster and work was at a standstill, while crowds gathered to cheer the King and Queen and Queen Alexandra on their entering and leaving the Abbey. It was especially fitting that just across the road is the building which was until recently, the Westminster Palace Hotel, where the fathers of Confederation drew up the Dominion's constitution.

The Abbey service was brief, but profoundly impressive and effective, the most stirring moment being that when Bishop Ryle pointed to the Wolfe monument, on which the colors of many fighting battalions were folded as a symbol of Canadian liberty. Outside the Abbey was a composite battalion representing every Canadian camp in England. These men, together with the guard of honor and cadets, were inspected by the King, who complimented Col. Godson and Major A. A. Law, of the London command, upon their fine appearance. The reception organized by the Royal Colonial Institute in the afternoon was largely attended and hundreds of Canadians were received by Princess Louise, the Duchess of Argyll and Sir George and Lady Perley in the Natural History Museum at Kensington.

SIR BEERBOHM TREE IS DEAD

Eminent English Actor Died Last Night—Had Appeared in Canada.

London, July 2.—Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree, the actor, died tonight. Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree, who was knighted in 1909, was born Dec. 17, 1853, the second son of Julius Beerbohm and Constantine Draper. He married Maude Holt and had three daughters.

He was educated at Schnepfenthal College, Germany. He made his first appearance on the stage in 1877. Ten years later he became manager of the Haymarket Theatre, London, but relinquished management in 1894. He then became proprietor and manager of His Majesty's Theatre. He held the order of St. John of Jerusalem and was a member of the Order of the Crown of Italy. Among his publications were: Lectures on the Imaginative Faculty and on Hamlet from an Actor's Point of View; Henry VIII and his Court; Thoughts and Afterthoughts. He had appeared in the United States and in Canada several times in well known plays.

THE RUSSIANS TAKE 10,000 PRISONERS

Also Capture Town of Koniuchy in Brilliant New Campaign. DRIVING FOR THE CAPITAL OF GALICIA. Operations Being Conducted at Scene of Fierce Fighting of 1916.

London, July 2.—The resumption of the Russian offensive, with the capture of the town of Koniuchy and more than 10,000 prisoners is the most cheering news the British have had for some weeks. References in recent German official communications to the activity of the Russians have given hope that something really serious was about to occur, but the public was hardly prepared for such an immediate and successful result, as it was thought it would take a few days for the artillery to destroy the Austro-German defenses which were under construction for so many months. The scene of the Russian success, between the Stripa and Zlota Lipa rivers, was the battle ground of such heavy fighting after General Brusiloff's offensive of a year ago, Koniuchy being on the latter river. Like other demonstrations it is, in the direction of Lemberg, the capture of which would be of the greatest strategic and political importance. General Brusiloff apparently has renamed his concentric manoeuvre, which was interrupted by the advent of winter and then by the revolutions. Appeal to Armies.

Petrograd, July 2.—War Minister Kereny has issued an appeal to the Russian armies to take the offensive. He says that Austria and Germany have replied to Russia's appeal to all democracies in favor of peace by the dishonorable proposal that Russia should conclude a separate peace which would enable them to crush Russia's western allies. On Russia's rejection of the proposal, the enemy, says the war minister, threatened an offensive against Russia, and the freedom of the country and the revolution itself were in danger. The appeal concludes: "Every day's delay strengthens the enemy. That is why we appeal to our armies to take the offensive. Let all the world know that it was not from weakness that we talked of peace. Let it be known that liberty increases our military strength. All Russia will bless your exploits in behalf of liberty, your country's future and an honorable and lasting peace."

Russians Advance. Petrograd, July 2.—The Russian official announcement today says that the Russians have advanced to the Koniuchy stream and also have captured seven heavy guns. Teton prisoners continue to be brought in. The official announcement reads: "Western (Russian) front: In the direction of Kovel (Volhynia) in the region of Rudkavichskaya our scouts under command of four officers, after destroying the wire entanglements by mines, penetrated the enemy's trenches, killed some of their occupants and captured a number of prisoners. According to the testimony of prisoners the Austrians knew of our attack from two deserters. Senior Non-commissioned Officer Karonkin and Private Kolotnikov. An investigation is being made by the authorities of the governments to which the soldiers named belonged. Many Prisoners.

"In the direction of Zlochoff, after two days' artillery preparation our troops attacked the Austro-German positions on the Koniuchy-Byahki front. After a severe engagement they occupied three lines of trenches and the fortified village of Koniuchy and advanced to the Koniuchy stream to the south of the village of the same name. As a result of the engagement on Sunday 164 officers and 8,400 soldiers have been captured so far as prisoners. We also took seven guns and seven machine guns. Prisoners continue to come in. "Southwest of Brzesany, after artillery preparation our troops attacked the strongly fortified positions of the enemy and after stubborn fighting occupied them at places. Germans and Turks made counter-attacks and formidable positions changed hands constantly. "On Sunday we captured on this

THE GERMANS ASSUME THE OFFENSIVE

Teutons Succeed in Forcing Back Both British and French.

London, July 2.—"As the result of hard fighting west of Lens yesterday and today our advanced posts have been driven back a short distance," says the official report from British headquarters in France issued tonight. "There is nothing further to report except considerable artillery activity by both sides at numerous points along the front." Germans Succeed. French Front in France, Sunday, July 1 (By The Associated Press).—The Germans succeeded in occupying today French front line trenches a third of a mile in length to the east of Corry, north of the Chemin Des Dames. This local success, worth less from a military viewpoint, followed a terrific pile-driving artillery bombardment at the beginning of which the French abandoned the line, the trenches of which were flattened out. This forward step leaves the Germans still without their coveted observation posts. Apparently there was little backbone in the attack, as the success was not followed up.

Furious Battle Between Whites and Negroes in South Illinois. ONE ESTIMATE HAS ABOUT 250 DEAD.

The Torch Applied to Negro District of East St. Louis. BULLETIN. The torch was applied to the negro settlement and the district is in flames. Detective Killed. East St. Louis, Ill., July 2.—Detective Sergeant Samuel Coppedge was killed, three other officers were wounded, one of them so seriously that he may die, and two citizens were shot here today by a negro mob in a recurrence of race rioting. After the killing of the officer the negroes dispersed. The police were armed with riot guns and patrolled the streets. Tonight's rioting began after a white man had been shot by a band of negroes. A mob soon applied the torch to rows of negro dwellings, the flames quickly spreading to the edge of the business district of the city. Attacks on negroes quickly followed and fatalities began rapidly to multiply.

RUSSIA ARMY OPENS NEW AND POWERFUL ATTACK

SOLDIERS OF NEW RUSSIA ASSUME THE AGGRESSIVE ON AN EXTENSIVE SCALE

Along Front of Eighteen and One Half Miles in Galicia Russian Troops Storm the German Positions.

ATTACK MADE BETWEEN THE UPPER STRIPA AND THE NARAYURKA RIVER

Berlin Declares Powerful Russian Attacks Were Brought About Through the Pressure of the Leading Entente Powers.

The soldiers of New Russia have assumed the aggressive. For the first time since the revolution last March Russian troops have begun an attack on an extensive scale.

Along a front of eighteen and one half mile in the region of Brzezany, Galicia, Russian troops have stormed the German positions. Berlin says the Russians suffered heavy losses and were compelled to retire before the German fire. The attack was made between the Upper Stripa and the Narayurka river. In the section southeast of Lemberg, the Galician capital, where the artillery firing has been heavy recently.

Night Attack.

The Russians also made night attacks on both sides of Brzezany and near Zwyzn, and Berlin reports that assaults between the Zlota Lipa and the Narayurka have brought new battles between the opposing forces. The artillery arm of the Russian forces, has been active and from Berlin reports it is learned that an intense duel has been in progress from the region of Brzezany northward to the middle Stockhod, in Volhynia, a distance of about 175 miles.

Berlin's Explanation.

Berlin declares that the Russian attack, which was powerful, were brought about through the pressure of the leading Entente powers, the text of the official statement saying: "The Russian government has been constrained to yield to the pressure of the leading Entente powers, part of the army has been induced to attack."

The region of the Narayurka and upper Stripa river has been the scene of much bitter fighting since General Brusiloff ended his victorious campaign last year, and Brzezany is one of the keys to Lemberg.

British Win.

Field Marshal Haig continues to tighten his grip on Lens. On the north bank of the river Souchez British troops have captured German positions on a front of half a mile south-west and west of the city of Lens. The British army during June captured 8,686 German prisoners, including 176 officers and 67 guns, including two heavy guns, as well as much other war material.

The French and Germans continue to battle at various points on the front from Cerny to the Verdun region.

AMHERST HAS APPROPRIATE CELEBRATION

Upwards of Thirty Persons Lose Lives — More Than Score in Hospital and Number Missing — Disaster Caused by Washout.

Tablets Installed at Each Birthplace of Four Fathers of Confederation.

Special to The Standard.

Amherst, N. S., July 2.—The commemoration of Confederation was fittingly observed here during the late hours of the morning. Hundreds of strangers were in Amherst, who witness the tribute paid to the four fathers of confederation who were born in or near the shiretown of Cumberland, namely, Sir Charles Tupper, Bart.; Senator R. B. Dickay, Hon. Jonathan McCully and Hon. E. B. Chandler. All four looked upon the town of Amherst as their home. Incidentally this day was also the birthday of the late Sir Charles Tupper.

Visited Birthplaces.

Committees from the town council, the Board of Trade, Canadian Club, National Service League and the clergy, with Dr. David Allison, of Halifax, and Justice E. B. Chandler, of Dorchester, N. B., visited the birthplaces of the four noted men. In each instance Dr. Allison, who is president of the N. S. Historical Society, pronounced the various sites to be the birthplaces of the statesmen named. A temporary tablet was staked in each instance and will be followed by a permanent memorial at a later date.

At half past eleven the various motor cars, bearing the committees returned to Victoria square where the Amherst Military Band gave them a rousing reception. A guard of honor, composed of soldiers from the detention camp, with Colonel Morris in command, surrounded the platform. Within the cordon were the returned soldiers and leading citizens of the town. Mayor H. Pipe as chairman, stated the object of the gathering and called upon Dr. David Allison, L. D., of Halifax, to speak. Dr. Allison delivered a lengthy oration and spoke exceedingly well.

Justice Chandler.

Justice Chandler of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, whose home is in Dorchester, a grandson of the late Hon. E. B. Chandler, was the second speaker of the meeting. He gave an insight into the life of his grandfather, and the part that this particular statesman played in paving the way for the union of all separate provinces.

At conclusion of the speeches the returned soldiers, filed upon the platform and were in turn presented with civic recognition cards by His Worship the Mayor. Over twenty men, who have done their bit for king and country received handsome cards. Many others were absent.

Heavy Washout.

A washout, due to the recent heavy rains, was the cause of the disaster, which occurred just below the cantilever bridge and sixty feet below the level where the smooth water of the upper reaches of the Niagara river break into the turbulent waters of the whirlpool rapids.

The car had all but completed the circuit of the Gorge, having crossed from the Canadian side of the river on the trolley bridge at Lewiston. There were more than fifty passengers on board, according to general estimates. The car was one of the open type, the seats extending from side to side with steps on both sides the full length of the car.

All the seats were occupied and some of the passengers were standing between them and there were others on the rear platform.

Upwards of Thirty Persons Lose Lives — More Than Score in Hospital and Number Missing — Disaster Caused by Washout.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 2.—Upwards of thirty persons are dead as the result of a trolley car disaster on the edge of Whirlpool rapids yesterday afternoon. A belt line car on the Great Gorge route left the rails, plunged down a 20 foot embankment and turned over in ten feet of water on the edge of the rapids.

Twenty-eight are known to be dead, two persons known to have been on the car have not been seen since the accident and are believed to be dead; an indefinite number, estimated at from two to ten, are reported missing, and more than a score are in hospitals suffering from injuries received in the accident.

THE DAY IS OBSERVED AT THE CAPITAL

Governor General, Premier Borden, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Others Participate.

Ottawa, July 2.—Half a century of progress, growth and development under the Aegis of Confederation was commemorated with simple but appropriate ceremony on Parliament Hill today. Simultaneously and as a befitting accompaniment of the historic occasion the new and state pit of the parliament buildings, now in course of construction, was formally dedicated, as a memorial to the Confederation fathers and to the valor of Canadians at the front.

Ideal weather favored the event, mid-summer sunshine was temperate with refreshing breezes and thousands of people turned out. The occasion was graced by the attendance of the Governor General and staff, members of the government, senators and members of parliament, the foreign consuls, the judiciary, military headquarters, representatives of the clergy and leading officers in the civil service.

Especially constructed dais and seating were festooned gaily with French, American and other flags. There were speeches by the Governor General and staff, members of the government, senators and members of parliament, the foreign consuls, the judiciary, military headquarters, representatives of the clergy and leading officers in the civil service.

TREAT OF BIG STRIKE IN CANADA

Great Meeting Held in Quebec Endorses the Calgary Movement — Claimed Toronto Men May Go Out.

Quebec, July 2.—A monster meeting of local labor men was held yesterday evening in Quebec City and the proposal of the Calgary unions to call a general strike should conscription be enforced was gone into at length. The result was the unanimous voting of a resolution of full sympathy with the Calgary union leaders on the subject. The resolution adds an especial warning to the Borden government, saying that if conscription is enforced the local unionists will join in a general strike throughout entire Canada.

Mr. Michael Walsh, president of the Federated Council of Trades and Labor of Quebec and Lewis Districts, (an international organization), stated before the meeting yesterday that he is in a position of authoritative saying that in the City of Toronto 30,000 labor men without any noise or trouble are closely bound together to go out on strike with the country's labor men if conscription is enforced in Canada.

LATER.

$3,000,000 Loss.

New York, July 3.—Despatches to the Associated Press at midnight indicate that the estimate of loss of life in the race riots in East St. Louis, Ill., was somewhat exaggerated. The death list, however, may reach 75, according to the latest estimates, and the property loss it is believed, will reach $3,000,000. The torch has been applied to four negro settlements.

CANADIANS GAIN ALONG WIDE FRONT

Advance Outposts Almost a Thousand Yards on Mile and Half Front.

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, July 2.—(By Stewart Lyon) Special Correspondent of the Canadian Press.—On the sector of the front to the west and south of Mericourt during the past two nights our outposts have been advanced almost a thousand yards along a front of over a mile and a half, practically without opposition from the enemy. There has been only this part of the plain, a wide stretch of "No Man's Land," between the trench system of the opposing armies. Encounters between patrols occasionally have taken place out there, but the territory was not effectively occupied either by the enemy or ourselves.

West of Lens.

To the west of Lens, in the sector north of the River Souchez, where there had been an almost continuous artillery duel since Thursday, varied by infantry thrusts and counter-thrusts, affairs have settled down a bit this afternoon. The cannonading has become less violent.

In a former despatch I spoke of the splendid valor of the British troops engaged in these operations. Later information indicates that in the fierce house-to-house fighting which has been the chief feature of the advance, they enhanced their already high reputation.

The dominion day sports were most successful. The weather was that of a cloudless July day. There were baseball and football championship games, tug-of-war and foot races between teams representing the various divisions. A Pierrot show in the open drew a great audience. It was a flawless day but for the absence of girls and ice cream.

TO SAIL SOON FOR NORTH

St. John's, Nfld., July 2.—The steamer Neptune, on which Captain Robert A. Bartlett is proceeding for Etah, Greenland, with supplies for the relief of the Crocker Land expedition, headed by Donald B. MacMillan, sailed today for Sydney, N. S., to take on bunker coal. Captain Bartlett expects to leave Sydney for the north land this week.

The MacMillan party, which is at Etah, is said to have sufficient supplies to last only until about August 1, and will be in the need if the Neptune does not reach there by that time.

The men of the water department met with their usual holiday luck yesterday and had two leaks to repair. One was on Britain street and the other on the corner of Vulcan and Charlotte streets. Repairs were made and the water turned on again last night.

New type hydrants are replacing old one-way type ones at the corner of Cliff and Coburg streets and at the corner of Paddock and Coburg streets. The men who are cleaning the 12 inch main on Main street got into difficulties on Saturday when the scraper stuck somewhere near the head of Sherbrooke street and stayed there. Yesterday they were engaged in digging down to get at it and will probably get it out today and started again.

ST. STEPHEN CELEBRATES OCCASION

Anniversary of Confederation Well Observed in Border Towns—Horse Races and Baseball.

Special to The Standard.

St. Stephen, July 2.—The semi-centennial of Confederation was well observed in the border towns, appropriate services being held in all the churches on Sunday, with large congregations in attendance. In the Presbyterian church Sunday evening stirring addresses along patriotic lines were delivered by Rev. G. W. Gannon, the appointed governor of the province, who is to be sworn in to office at Fredericton on Wednesday, and by J. Wm. Richardson, police magistrate.

Good weather prevailed today and the sports held at the trotting park under the auspices of the Agricultural Society were well attended. F. D. J. Graham acted as starter and three good races were carried out in excellent order.

Horse Races.

The 2.15 class was won in straight heats by Little Gillig, by Gillig, owned by Bert McBride and driven by W. H. Keys. The other contestants were Lady Fondly, by Prince Alfonso, owned and driven by Hugh Love; Lady Ashbrook, by Joe W., owned by Ed. Gillman, and driven by Nat McBride; and Helena P., by Peter The Great, owned and driven by Chas. Conn.

In the first heat Ashbrook and Fondly trotted a dead heat. In the second Lady Fondly was second and Lady Ashbrook fourth, but in the third these positions were reversed. Helena was fourth, three and three, but there was never more than half a length between any of the horses at the finish. Best time 2:10.

The 2.25 class was won by H. R. Haley's Evelyn by Cochoat, in straight heats. Mary Heir, by Minor Heir, owned and driven by C. Conn., was second, and Black Bear, by Clayton, owned by Geo. McBride and driven by Dan Groves, was third in each heat, though each heat was well contested. Best time 2:24.

The colt race, half mile heats, two in three had for starters Ben Bourbon, by Bourbon T., owned and driven by Alex. Forbes; Lady Mack, by Lord Hastings, owned by M. McBride, and driven by H. R. Haley; Nuthun, by Archa, owned and driven by R. B. Love; Todd Jr., by Maine Todd, owned and driven by Joe. MacMillan; Bourbon T. was 4-1-1, Lady Mack 1-3-2, Nuthun 2-3 and Todd Jr. 3-4-4. Best time 1:35.

All the starters wanted another try at the handsome Bourbon stallion, and Mr. Forbes accommodated them, the result being a repetition of the last heat. He is a very handsome and promising horse and in capable hands will make a good showing.

The day closed with a dance in Agricultural hall. A large number of strangers have been in town during the day, over a thousand people being in attendance at the races.

A ball game between junior teams representing Milltown, Me., and St. Stephen was won by the latter by a score of ten to seven.

ST. JOHN WINS AND LOSES AT AMHERST

Local Ball Players Win First Game, 9-8, But Lose Second, 10-7.

Special to The Standard.

Amherst, N. S., July 2.—Amherst and St. John split even in two games of baseball played here this afternoon and evening. St. John in a sensational finish clinched the afternoon game to the tune of 9-8, but in the evening went down to defeat 10-7. At the afternoon session the men from the "Foggy City" faced a lead of 8-2 at the sixth inning, but with a bunch of hits and a little loose playing by the picked players from the clubhouse of Cumberland the visitors came through with a win.

In the evening the Amherst boys outbatted the pitchers from St. John, although the visitors pulled out a couple of heavy wallops.

Chumberland County Loggieville Fox Ranch from Chatham Sleuth Hears of Statuary

Fox Speaks to 8-Year-Old Questions and Getting Seen the Second Time

Loggieville, June 28, 1917.

Dear Sir,—Please show Mr. Walsh through the ranch and oblige.

Yours, etc.

R. LOGGIE

For two days I had been laying trails in Northumberland county. I have described in previous story, had "jumped" to Loggieville to escape apprehension at Chatham, where I had been recognized. What I had planned at Chatham was thrown to the wind with the unexpected retreat I was compelled to make.

Slinging into the park at Chatham, I met Mr. E. Mowlen, the tenor of the park. I endeavored to entertain him. "You should have status secured in this park," I said. "Sure it's a fine park and deserves artistic attention."

"Well, yes. It's all right. But good deal has to be done to put it shape as I would like it," he replied.

Strolling with the hunted man among the spruce-covered mold that make the Loggieville ranch an ideal tract for the fugitive into the big wire meshed enclosure, Mr. Mowlen gave me a favorable opportunity to "make deductions."

When he parted with a hearty shake of the hand, I said to him: "Thank you very much. I will send you some literature—newspapers—treatise on the subject of foxes."

Mr. Mowlen evidently didn't quite understand just what was back of the talk. My manner and tone of speech seemed to puzzle him, for he looks at me blankly all the time squinting. But he gave me a hearty good bye.

Returning from the ranch I met several mill hands on their way to dinner and they appeared to be quite interested in me, a stranger to them.

Here is the letter Mr. Loggie gave me to Mr. Mowlen:—

PLANS WITH CHATHAM PARK ATTENDANT FOR INSTALLING "ITALIAN VENUS" IN THE PARK

Chamberland County Trails Led Fugitive Into Loggieville Fox Ranch in Trying to Slip Away from Chatham Sleuthettes — Park Tender Hears of Statuary.

Fox Speaks to 8-Year-Old Boy Kindly Asking Questions and Getting His Name But When Seen the Second Time the Lad Took to His Nimble Heels.

Hello! Hello! The girl stood at the telephone "when all others had fled."
"Hi! Hi! Put on your carpet slippers, my 'Hello girl.'"
"Sure, it's him!" "Fox?" "Certain, Fox." Why would he be treating all of the girls, there in Corbetta's at Westfield, if he weren't Fox?
So "with stealthy tread" the charming telephone girl "crept up" and "nuzzled him."
The wretch. He just laughed. He refused to deny. He half admitted. It was a shame—he should treat those girls in Corbetta's at Westfield that way.
He was not Fox. Fox—that's me—was not in Westfield. I was on the trails of Westmorland and Northumberland counties.
But the telephone girl did right. Those who refuse to take chances get the money.
Loggieville the town watched me for two hours. At the fox ranch I was out Supt. E. Mowlen entertained the fugitive another hour.
When Mr. J. R. Loggie was asked by Fox the fugitive for a pass to see the foxes he kindly responded.
If Mr. McLannigan, the Park Janitor at Chatham takes my advice he may get statuary erected in that park.

It is not to be supposed that when the distinguished Loggieville statesman, merchant and ranchman, Mr. Robert Loggie, gave Fox the fugitive that written pass to invade that colony of 95 foxes of the reynard family, that he was deliberately trying to play a prank with the stranger of the fugitive family who stood at his elbow; the unknown man who was telling him that the United States and Canada's postal departments had united their resources for the purpose of carrying out a mysterious secret service inquiry (not to be mentioned) down there in Loggieville and vicinity; and that the gentleman giving Mr. Loggie this information had been sent there to probe the mystery.

That he should send Fox the fugitive to call on Fox the Reynard and not for a moment as much as smile over the joke—if a joke it was—can well be understood by those who are in close touch with Loggieville's uncrowned king.
"Are you interested in foxes, Mr. Loggie?" with a pause to refresh his memory with the name I had given him.
"Mr. Loggie, I am, indeed," emphasizing my language and looking into my upturned eyes with an earnest expression as I could muster.
"Fox you know are worth money. Garden me! I do not hope to end you on foxes—you, Mr. Loggie, who has such large interest in catching them—"
"All that I was hopeful of interesting in—what I wanted to say—is that there are foxes, and other foxes."
"Loggie's ranch of seven acres with fifteen large open pens screened and covered with meshed wire, besides many smaller pens; started four years ago with breeders of the black fox from Prince Edward Island, is now producing a yearly average of forty to fifty puppies, under the personal superintendence of Mr. E. Mowlen, whose experience in catching foxes had not prepared him to land the fox that was there with a distinct challenge. Mr. Mowlen is all right when it comes to catching foxes for the reynard, but he is not good at catching Fox of the Fugitive family."

Strolling with the hunted man among the spruce and firs over a carpet of grass-covered mold that makes the Loggieville ranch an ideal tract; piloting the fugitive into the big wire meshed enclosure, Mr. Mowlen had a favorable opportunity to "make deductions."
"He was telling of two occasions when his four-legged prisoners got out from the confinement. 'Did you catch them?' I asked. Oh, yes.
"Evidently you are skilled at catching foxes," I remarked with a significant emphasis. He smiled and replied, 'I don't know.' He was modest.
"You will hold fast to all foxes you get in here, now?" querying. Then I laughed heartily. He grinned and eyes me a quizzical look. Of course I didn't understand what I was driving at. He thought he did.
"When we parted with a hearty shake of the hand, I said to him: 'I thank you very much. I will send you some literature—newspapers—treating on the subject of foxes.'"
Mr. Mowlen evidently didn't quite understand just what was back of this talk. My manner and tone of speech seemed to puzzle him, for he looked at me blankly all the time squinting. But he gave me a hearty good bye.
Returning from the ranch I met several mill hands on their way to dinner and they appeared to be quite interested in me, a stranger to them.

TOMMY WARING AT CHATHAM SCARED AT FOX

This is Third Lad Eligible to Three Prizes the Fugitive Has Picked Up and Favored with a Chance.

Boys! Girls! Be Ready! Have the Warrant with You Every Day.

Adams House my course followed his. A good many youngsters hear Fox talked about at home and school. Often the elder boys like to tease them by telling them Fox is an ogre who devours small boys.
It is foolish to frighten any lad. But they soon learn how they've been fooled and there are now three rewards to be paid to the first boy and the first girl of twelve years and under who catches Fox.
The Standard pays a cash reward, as does also "Uncle Dick" with whom thousands of boys and girls in New Brunswick are familiar, and Fox presents a useful souvenir, something out of which the boy and the girl will get real enjoyment.

FORCEFUL SERMON BY CATHEDRAL RECTOR

The Rev. Wm. Duke Deals with Confederation — The Advancement of Canada — Advocates More Christian-like Living.

Appropos of the anniversary of Confederation, the Rev. Father Duke, rector of the Cathedral, preached a powerful sermon on Sunday morning on the development of Canada since 1867. The reverend father referred particularly to the important part that Canada was playing in the present great war for the cause of Christianity. He also presented facts and figures showing the enormous increase in population and trade since Confederation, and also dealt ably with the Dominion's prosperity along other lines.
Rev. Father Duke admonished his hearers that the people of Canada should strive for greater progress along the lines of Christianity, referring to the necessity of all leading strong, God-fearing Christian lives, which would help the country in its worldly affairs and also assure happiness in the other world.

"There are Italian, Greek, Hungarian, French and Irish," said Mr. McLannigan nodded. "But Italian is the cheapest. Probably the authorities would stand for the cheapest."

A small boy, eight or nine years old, came along and fastening his little eyes on me began to sidle up. I followed him up and asked him his name. "Tommy Waring," he replied. By this time he was backing out of the park, his eyes still riveted on me. He knew I was a stranger and very likely had Fox in his mind.

When I returned to the park later he was slowly going the other way. Probably returning from an errand. He caught sight of me. I was entering the same path with an ordinary walk. For an instant he stood still looking at me in the distance. Then he turned and ran a little way. Then he stopped and after watching me for an instant he started and ran another short distance, then stopped again and turned to look at me. I walked along with an ordinary gait.
But the little fellow for some reason made up his mind I was following him. At any rate it was plain that he wanted to keep a long distance between us and yet didn't desire to lose sight of me.
By short runs as I have described he left the park and went down the street to the Adams House. Three times between the park and the Adams House he stopped and turned around to look. As I was headed for the

8 PERSONS PERISH IN FLAMES

Madison, Me., July 2.—Eight persons are dead as the result of a fire which occurred on the Anson side of the Kennebec river. The dead are: George B. Rowe, aged 37 years, his wife, aged 33 and their six children, ranging in age from one to thirteen years. The eldest child was Harry, aged 12. The others were Ellen, Amy, George, Frank and Herbert.
The Rowe home was a story and a half frame building situated two miles from here. A week ago the family was driven from their home by the freshest in the river and had just moved in again. Nothing is known as to how the fire started, but there is little doubt but that it was accidental. Rowe was in Madison during the evening purchasing provisions.

House in Flames.
Early in the morning Harry Gordon, who lived nearby, discovered the Rowe dwelling in flames but was unable to save any of the inmates. The doors were locked and when he broke in a window the smoke and flames were so thick that he could not enter. The family were evidently dead then. The eight bodies were found in the ruins later. All had been burned to a crisp.
Rowe was a native of England. He had two sisters living near London and one in Halifax. Rowe served with the Infantry in the Spanish American war. He was employed by the Great Northern Paper Co. at Madison.

THE KILTIES FIGURE IN A BOSTON RIOT

ere carried small flags with white centres emblematic of peace demonstration and there were large banners bearing inscriptions, some of which read:
"Want Russian Conditions."
"Russia has a six hour day. Why not America?" and "Liberty Loan a first mortgage of labor." A large American flag was at the head of the procession.

Half a hundred men in the uniform of naval reservists, national guardsmen, marines and Canadian "kilties," who had watched the formation of the parade, marched across the Common in a double column and interrupted the procession at the corner of West and Tremont streets, and again at the corner of Winter and Tremont streets. In both instances the contact resulted in a street fight. Blows were exchanged and flags snatched from the hands of the marchers, while women in the line screamed with fright.
At Scollay Square there was a similar scene. The big American flag at the head of the line was seized by the uniformed party and the band, which had been playing "The Marsellaise" with some interruptions, was forced to play "The Stars and Stripes," while cheers were given for the soldiers.

The police had just succeeded in quieting this disturbance when the reservists were called out to quell a near riot at the meeting place on the Common. The first of the "peace" speakers had barely begun his remarks when the reservists arrived. They formed a circle in the crowd with the police wagon as a center in front of the speakers van but in spite of their presence, there were scores of individual fights in the big crowd. To restore quiet, Supt. Rowley, as acting police commissioner, revoked the permit for the speaking and the meeting was called off.

Headquarters Ransacked.
Meanwhile the Socialist headquarters in Park Square had been ransacked and its contents destroyed in a bonfire. The American flag taken from the paraders was placed over a statue of "Lincoln the Emancipator," near the scene of the bonfire.
The peace demonstration was organized at Socialist branches from unions and workmen benefit societies acting under the name of the Workmen's Council in imitation of the Council of Workmen and Soldiers of Russia.

"Nature" chose Assam

Scientists tell us that Assam in northern India was the original home of the tea plant. Thousands of years ago "Nature" chose the climate and soil of this favored region as most suitable for growing tea.

It is, therefore, natural that the hillside gardens of Assam (see picture) grow the teas which to-day are famous for their flavor, fragrance and rich strength.

It is of these Assam teas, skillfully blended with choice Ceylons, that Red Rose Tea consists. It is this rich Assam strength that users of Red Rose Tea must thank for its splendid economy—for the greater number of cups it yields to the pound, fully one-third more than ordinary teas.

To make certain that these Assam qualities are fully preserved for you we put Red Rose Tea into dust, odor and air proof sealed packages. Red Rose Tea reaches you pure, fresh and full strength—we guarantee it.

Red Rose crushed coffee is as generously good as Red Rose Tea and just as easy to make.

WONDER WAGNER
PITTSBURG MANAGER

James J. Callahan Deposed by Management Because of Poor Showing by Club.

Pittsburgh, July 2.—James J. Callahan, manager of the Pittsburgh National League baseball club since the opening of the 1916 season, was today relieved of the management and it was announced that John H. (Hans) Wagner, the veteran infielder and been appointed temporary manager.

Callahan is a Pittsburg, Mass., boy, former manager of the Chicago American league, and was considered one of the greatest ball players of his time.

Wagner assumed charge yesterday afternoon. The dropping of Callahan, who succeeded Fred Clarke, had been predicted for several days. Dissatisfaction among members of the team and the consequent poor showing of the Pirates this season was blamed by many upon Callahan.

ST. JOHN POWER
BOAT CLUB HELD
ANNUAL CRUISE

Outing at Belyea's Point Most Successful—Men from Military Hospital and Parks Home Here Guests.

The annual cruise of the St. John Power Boat Club yesterday to Belyea's Point was one of the most successful yet held. The attendance was large and the day was most promising if not very promising in the morning and was not too hot for comfort. One very interesting feature of the outing was the presence of the men from the Military Hospital on St. James street and the Parks Convalescent Home who were the guests of the club, and their enjoyment of the day added materially to that of their hosts. It is the intention of the club to have the "boys" as their guests on several more occasions this summer and the invitation will be welcomed by all the soldier boys who are able to accept it. The fleet left the club house at ten a.m. under charge of Commodore J. C. Chesley in the Thomas Mason, assisted by Rear Commodore Willard Wilson in the Venus and Fleet Captain Sergt. Major J. G. Sullivan in the Barry S. The boats were gaily decorated with flags and bunting and presented a handsome sight as they started on their journey.

On their arrival at Belyea's the first item on the programme was dinner and in this all took a hand. This was followed by the sports, held both on land and water. All the events were keenly contested and the lucky winners received valuable and handsome prizes. The sports were under the charge of Rear Commodore Willard Wilson.

The winners of the various events were: Land sports, soldiers' race, 1st, Pte. Keith; 2nd, Pte. Kinney; 3rd, Pte. Hopper. 100 yards dash, 1st, R. Roberts; 2nd, J. Belyea; 3rd, H. Belyea. Ladies' egg and spoon race, 1st, Miss Chesley. These were followed by a little girls' race, fat man's race, three-legged race and boys' race. After these had been finished a game of baseball was played between the soldiers and the club and the soldiers came out victorious by a score of four to three.

Water sports: Cabin cruisers, 1st, Caledonia, R. Roberts; 2nd, Tory, A. P. Chesley; 3rd, Oulfa, F. Roberts. Tender race, 1st, Charles Doucay; 2nd, M. Harrison; 3rd, R. Roberts. Bang and go back, 1st, Dixie, J. Frodsham; 2nd, Anzac, M. Logan; 3rd, Caledonia, R. Roberts. Board race, 1st, Tory; 2nd, Edna M., J. C. Gorrie; 3rd, Caledonia, R. Roberts.

The next event was supper after which the boats were headed for home and all voted it a most satisfactory outing and one of the best yet.

LANTIC SUGAR is the best of all sugars for preserving because of its purity, its high-sweetening power and its "FINE" granulation. At preserving time we recommend you to use one of the larger packages. Your grocer will supply you.

Buy According to Food Values!

"If we do not economize in food stuffs we stand a grave chance of losing the war."
Herbert C. Hoover, ex-Chairman of the Belgian Relief Commission.

WHEN you have nothing else to do with your money, it may be alright to spend it on extravagant food and out-of-season delicacies. But now—in this critical year of the war—there are more important uses for it!

Save it by purchasing economically—and to do this, study food values. You will be surprised to know how extravagant some supposedly cheap foods are, and how some that seem high are really more economical. These true values are brought out clearly in a new National Service pamphlet, "How to Live in War Time," which we will gladly send you on request.

Under present conditions careless buying is worse than wasteful. It encourages still higher prices, and makes conditions harder yet for the less fortunate who are already feeling the pinch.

Buy carefully for their sake—for your own sake—and for your country! Canada needs every dollar you can save and invest in Canadian War Savings Certificates. Buy these certificates at any Bank or Money Order Post Office, at $21.50, $43 or $86. In three years you will get back $25, $50 or $100, respectively—which means over 5% interest. Or you can get your money back at any time you need it.

What Shall It Profit a Man?

If he, to save a penny, plunges his community into liquidation?

The man of red blooded physique makes his patriotism fight for him in these stirring times; let the man of business gray matter make his patriotism pay him dividends.

The prosperity of the community is your prosperity. The degree of that prosperity depends upon you.

St. John—the City of the Loyalists—May the spirit of our forefathers permeate our business ideals. Make the St. John counter check book work overtime and the mail order house will go into decline.

A Fool There Was

A Toothpick Bought at Home

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H. M. The King.
TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

A SERIOUS TIME.
The debate on the compulsory military service bill will be resumed this afternoon in the House of Commons, and although the most important contributions have already been made, it is expected the speech-making will drag until the end of the week before a vote is taken. As a matter of fact there will be three votes, first on the amendment to the amendment suggesting that the measure be disposed of by the "six months hoist" or, in other words, thrown out of Parliament for that period; second, on the amendment of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, seconded by Hon. Frank Oliver, that the operation of the law be suspended until the opportunity of pronouncing upon it by means of a referendum, and, third, upon the original motion of the Prime Minister that the Canadian Government shall proceed to fill our armies to required strength by the system of "selective draft."

After two full weeks of debate it is now assured that the bill will pass the House; whatever difficulty may be encountered will not make itself manifest until the measure is enforced and as to the extent of that difficulty there are varying opinions. Some Quebec parliamentarians, Liberals and Conservatives alike, do not hesitate to express the opinion that the French-Canadian people of that province, or, at least, a considerable section of them, will oppose the enforcement of the act no matter to what lengths that determination may carry them. This view was presented in the House last week by Mr. Gauthier of St. Hyacinthe, who predicted civil war, and concluded a remarkable speech with the heated declaration: "I believe my people will be right and I will do as they will do." Taken at their face value these are serious words, far more serious than the street corner threathenings of the Tancred Marsils, or the vapourings of the Yervilles and the Madric Martins, for the member for St. Hyacinthe is a serious-minded man, held in high esteem by all who know him and containing in his makeup none of the qualities of the demagogue or the fanatic. The same cannot be said for Marsil, an opportunist, Yerville, who brings to the conscription debate all the bitterness and spleen of a disappointed senatorial applicant, or Martin, mayor of Montreal, who is a reckless firebrand not regarded seriously even in the city where he rules with prodigal hand.

The situation in regard to the province of Quebec is admittedly serious, more serious than residents of the Maritime Provinces, who are not brought closely into touch with events at the capital, have any idea. But that wise counsels will prevail is the belief and hope of all Canadians. The Quebec people have been unfortunate in their leadership; they have listened too willingly to the voice of the irresponsible spell-binder and street corner orator and today they are in the unenviable position that a large portion of them are prepared to do whatever may be necessary to defeat the proposal which has for its purpose the reinforcing of our armies at the front. The effort will not avail. The Government, supported by an overwhelming majority of Canadians of all races, political parties and creeds, will carry the conscription bill through the House by a majority so large that it will leave no doubt as to the mind of the legislators and the necessary steps will then be taken to have the policy enforced.

Quebec will loyally fall in line with the rest of Canada or else do to herself and all that she holds most dear an injury which will require half a century to repair. It is a serious time for Quebec and for all Canada—but particularly for the province of Laurier.

Laurier's Changed Views.
In his opposition to the compulsory service measure Sir Wilfrid Laurier holds that it should not be adopted until it has been submitted to the people through the medium of a referendum. He does not urge an election but a plebiscite to decide whether the people of Canada want compulsory measures used to supply men for our armies at the front. In this Laurier has executed a complete change of front. As recently as 1913, during the debate on the Borden Naval Aid proposals, he refused an amendment of that there should be a referendum or plebiscite on the question. He is quoted in Hansard for February 27th, 1913, on page 4255 as follows:
"I have only one word to say as to the amendment, which asks for a plebiscite. This has been discussed in the press at great length. Speaking as an admirer of the British system of parliamentary government, I do not see any possible reason why we should depart from the usages and rules of that system. Many of our friends derive their ideas upon such a proposal from the United States and from Switzerland, both republics, in which the executive is elected by the people for a term of years, and has no right to initiate legislation. But under the British parliamentary system, we hold the executive responsible for their action or non-action, as the case may be; we hold them responsible for presenting necessary reforms and for failure to present such reforms. Therefore, while I am strongly in favor of consulting the people, I am in favor of that consultation, not by the method in vogue in the republic to the south of us or in Switzerland, but by means of a general election, which is the custom under the British parliamentary system."

FEW FLAGS FLYING IN CITY YESTERDAY

W. H. Golding Makes Some Pertinent Observations in Regard to Apparent Apathy Regarding Confederation Jubilee.

St. John, N. B. July 2nd, 1917.
Dear Sir:—
Far be it from any citizen to impute lack of patriotism to another in these days when everybody is trying to help along the war machine, but did you observe the bare flagpoles all over the city yesterday?
A well-known resident offered to bet me $5 on Friday that St. John would not respond to the Dominion's jubilee anniversary with a united display of bunting; that there would be many "slackers" and among prominent folks too.
Today I find that the man was right. He evidently knew his St. John better than I did. From the windows of my office I see at least six prominent flagpoles barren of any bunting. These are official, one a prominent store and three on hotels. Down King street only a building or two are observing the day. The same throughout town generally. One King street shop had a few flags, no British. And this is how the fiftieth birthday of our glorious Canada—Our Laid of Promise—is being observed by Loyalist St. John! To be sure the government officers have said there were to be no big festivities because of the war but nothing was said about not flying flags.
I'm no flag-flogger by nature or inclination and have no use for that kind of "patriot" but a golden anniversary is surely some occasion in a country. Look what we make it in a private home, either a personal birthday or a wedding milestone. Have the people of St. John got to stirred up with a parade or something to show their colors?
The excuse is being offered today that "so many people are out of town." Yes, but the flagpoles are still here. There has been no exodus of poles and bunting. Why not have had the poles decked out over night, or over Sunday for that matter. Anyway, Sunday was the rightful holiday, the real occasion.
Are we to take the lack of bunting as an indication that there are still some prominent people who believe that Confederation is a bad thing? This is a question hardly possible and more in the nature of a facetious remark. Why then was Dominion Day allowed to pass so little noticed by our citizens?
Thinking perhaps townfolk would like to hear some of our older public men discuss the anniversary and what it meant to us all, I took the liberty of offering the Imperial Theatre for a public gathering Sunday evening after church. It struck me a symposium of short addresses on the lesson of the day would be fitting and educating and would do much to put St. John on record as having observed the occasion. Our orchestra volunteered its service and leading singers were willing to take part.
Again I was told that "so many people would be out of town." Now what I'd like to know is this: How much longer is this "out-of-town" idea going to govern public gatherings hereabouts? It is a safe bet to say that 50,000 people are still very much in town. These are THE PEOPLE too, the so-called general public. A meeting such as was suggested could have been made a wonderfully inspiring occasion, a lasting memento of the day for the younger generation to refer to in fifty years, possibly on the 100th anniversary.
So the next best thing this theatre could do was to fill its front windows with Confederation pictures and reminiscence relics which were most generously loaned by Lady Tilley, the C. P. R. Natural History Society, private homes and elsewhere. Thousands of the displayed and hundreds thanked us for our little effort.
Now Mr. Editor, I have trespassed too long upon your good nature. I must hasten to a close as I notice the hands are preparing out on the Square for the concert which is to be Loyalist St. John's joyful outburst and official recognition of the great natal occasion. Thank goodness it is still left to private individuals that they can give thanks and honor by some other route than that marked "Of ficial."
Yours for a Little More Canadianism.
WALTER H. GOLDING

FOOD CONTROL.

Hon. W. J. Hanna, ex-provincial secretary of Ontario, who was recently appointed food controller for the Dominion of Canada, has made a good start. In an appeal to the Canadian people he comes down to business and points out that the duty of every man, woman and child in this Dominion is to eliminate waste and luxury and regulate their consumption of food by the necessities of the nation.
This statement will come as a surprise to many who have been demanding, more or less uncertainly, that "someone" should do "something." Mr. Hanna points his finger directly at every Canadian householder and puts the responsibility squarely upon the individual. He says food shall not be wasted, storable food shall not be eaten when perishable food is available, extravagance must be curtailed and the practice of economy must become general. This appeal, or rather, command, is made voluntarily. If it is not heeded by the people the controller may decide to make it obligatory.
His commission of appointment gives him wide powers, and even if it did not it is not likely that the Government would hesitate to enact the necessary legislation to give effect to his wishes. Mr. Hanna says:
(1) It is the imperative duty of Canada to create an exportable surplus of food in order that the people of Britain and the armies fighting for us at the front may be fed;
(2) One of the surest ways of reducing food prices in Canada is to reduce the demand for food supplies—a demand largely created by wanton waste and a luxurious scale of living.
The new food controller is a strong, forceful man. His career in Ontario's public service affords ample evidence that he will not shirk a duty the performance of which he believes to be in the interests of the people or the Empire. He has been assigned a big task and if he is to be successful he must receive the hearty co-operation of the people whose interests he guards. Washington already has an active food controller in the person of Mr. Hoover, who, before accepting that position, did most valuable service in the way of organization for Belgian relief. It is quite probable that the Canadian and American officials will find many cases where they can work together successfully. Canada is fortunate in that, at this time, such an important undertaking as food control has been entrusted to a man possessing in outstanding measure the qualities essential to the attainment of the goal sought.

PURCHASED NOVA SCOTIA CAR WORKS.

W. R. Mathers, manager of the A. R. Williams Machinery Co., of St. John, N. B., Ltd., informed The Standard on Saturday that his firm had just completed negotiations for the purchase of the entire plant and equipment of the Nova Scotia Car Works, Ltd., Halifax.
This company was organized about six years ago and for some time promised to be a success, but later on was forced to suspend operations and the plant has been standing idle for the past three years.
Mr. Mathers returned from Halifax Saturday where he just put through the deal, the purchase price running well into six figures. The A. R. Williams Co. will remove the machinery and dispose of it piecemeal or en bloc.

APPROPRIATE REFERENCES CONFEDERATION IN CHURCHES

City Pastors Referred to the Important Event Which Took Place Fifty Years Ago—The Progress and Development of Canada During Half a Century—The Present Great War.

Dominion Day was observed in the city churches Sunday and special sermons appropriate to the day were delivered by the pastors to large congregations. The sermons dealt with the confederation of the provinces and the debt Canadians owed to the great men that had made the confederation possible. Brief outlines of the history of Canada since Confederation were given and the great advances in various lines of endeavor were pointed out.

Waterloo St. Baptist Church. Rev. F. H. Wentworth's subject Sunday night was "O Canada," and the text Jeremiah 18: 1-10. He stated in the course of his sermon that scarcely any event was so momentous to the life of the world and the history of a nation, and the next momentous thing was its development for good or ill. A. G. Bradley closes his little sacrifice in the war and he urged that proper support be given to those who were actively carrying on the war and to the nation's leaders.

Central Baptist Church. In his sermon Sunday morning, Rev. D. J. MacPherson stated that Canadians owed a debt of gratitude to the men that had made Confederation possible and he made reference to Sir John A. Macdonald as one of the leading fathers of Confederation. He went back to the history of the movement, referring to the British American League, founded in 1849, largely under the inspiration of Sir John Macdonald. He adopted the confederation of all the provinces as one of its principal objects with the fundamental principle of inviolable connections with the Mother Country.

Stone Church. Rev. G. A. Kurling preached a splendid sermon on the confederation of the provinces at the Sunday morning service at Stone church. He pointed out the tremendous sacrifices that the maritime provinces made for confederation in the losses in commerce, due to the closing of markets in the United States and in the British Isles, which had never been computed. He also referred to the great sacrifice of men in the building up of the West at that time, and the fact that the west has drawn upon New Brunswickers for men to fill positions in their educational institutions. He said that these sacrifices have not been in vain is shown by the fact that Canada stands high in the councils of the nations.

Centenary Methodist Church. At the Sunday morning service at Centenary church, Rev. W. H. Barracough spoke on "The Jubilee Year" and he pointed out Canada's past and future tribute to the fathers of Confederation, dwelling on the courage and hope of the men who fathered the confederation project. He expressed the hope that this jubilee occasion would find a Canada re-born, recognizing God's value in the life of the individual.

Trask Race. The postponed Trask Cup race will be held on July 9th at 7 p. m. Arrangements for measuring contesting boats can be made by applying to the secretary care of P. O. box 1381. Applications should be sent in at once as the measuring must be completed by July 6th at the latest.

HOLIDAY GENERALLY OBSERVED YESTERDAY Large Numbers Take Advantage of Opportunity to Spend Day in the Country.

Yesterday could hardly be called typical first of July weather as the sun was not as much in evidence as usual on that day, but it was fine enough for those who wanted to spend the day out doors to have a right good time without perspiring too freely, and large numbers took advantage of the freedom from a toil to spend the day out of doors either on the river or at some of the breathing spots around the city.

The rail birds had a chance to enjoy themselves at the races at Moosepath in the afternoon as they were out in force. Some good racing was witnessed which kept them on their toes all the time. The devotees of the rod and line had a great time and many of them returned to the city with substantial evidence of their prowess in the way of fish and "bites," for the mosquitoes this year are exceedingly large and hungry.

NEWS AND COMMENT FROM THE FINANCIAL WORLD

SENTIMENT IN WALL STREET WAS BEARISH

Freight Decision Unsettles Railroads—St. Paul Slumps 5-8 Points—Ind. Alcohol Down Seven.

New York, July 2.—Trading in today's desultory market was governed almost entirely by the caprices of professional operators. Sentiment was overwhelmingly bearish, for which the recent freight rate decision was held chiefly accountable. Rates experienced additional price depreciation, standard shares losing one to three points, while St. Paul recorded an extreme decline of 5.8 points to 78. Its minimum quotation for about twenty years.

Elsewhere the list displayed highly erratic tendencies, a few leading issues rising briskly when others of equal prominence were irregular or weak. This was especially true of equipments and recognized war shares.

Baldwin and American Locomotives, Pressed Steel Car, Steel Foundries and Republic Iron scored gains of one to three points, while United States Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Colorado Fuel and a few associated issues reacted one to two points.

Shippings Active.

Shippings, oils, American Sugar and minor specialties were intermittently active at one to two points advance, but these movements were overshadowed by the heaviness of Automobiles and accessories, Ohio Gas and Industrial Alcohol, the latter making a gross decline of seven points. Metals were unusually quiet, dealers in that group being restricted by labor troubles. With scarcely an exception lowest prices were made in the broader selling of the last hour, even at concessions. Few gains remained, the market closing with a heavy tone. Sales amounted to 635,000 shares.

Call and time loans were increasingly easy, sixty day accommodations shading half per cent. Commercial paper also evinced a lower trend. Foreign exchange held around last week's rates, except rubles, which fell to the new low of British gold was offset by moderate exports to Japan and South America.

Bonds were irregular and nominal as to dealings. Liberty 3 1/2's held firm at par to 150.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,800,000.

United States coupon and registered 2's gained 1/2 per cent. on call.

MORE GOLD FROM THE DOMINION IN NEW YORK

Total Imports for United States Since War Began $1,645,000,000.

Special to The Standard.

New York, July 2.—Arrival of gold to the amount of $5,000,000 from Canada for the account of J. P. Morgan & Company was announced here today, making the total imports from that source in the present movement $107,531,000. Another gold shipment amounting to $5,300,000 arrived Saturday. Imports from this source for the present movement amount to $102,531,000. A total of $97,200,000 has been received in the past nine days. The next largest receipts for any similar period were those of the first two weeks, December, 1916, when the imports amounted to $78,900,000. The imports of the past two weeks, however, were the only receipts during June.

The month's total, therefore, falls short of the high record of $158,700,000 established last December.

During the recent movement there was a single consignment of $24,241,000 received in one day, that of June 22. Another large shipment was that of June 18, when $22,000,000 was received. These, however, are not high records for any single day. The record for all time was that of December 23, 1916, when a large single day's arrival was that of September 8, 1916, when $27,500,000 was received. On July 17, 1916, a total of $20,000,000 was received. This was a record up to that time.

The heavy imports of past two weeks bring total for first half 1917 up to figures of $484,200,000. Only once before in history of our country has so much gold been imported in such a short period of time.

The total imports for the whole country since the commencement of the European war amount to $1,645,000,000.

NEWS SUMMARY.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)

New York, July 2.—Penns. railway system all lines may not after taxes decrease $1,553,251. Five months' decrease $10,568,967.

Russians continue powerful attacks extending over a line of 18 miles.

Ninety-two per cent of the copper output at Miami, Inspiration and Arizona washed out.

Senate Finance committee decided on a graduated tax ranging from 13 to 48 per cent. on excess profits.

Maximilian Harden, a noted German editor, says that peace can only be restored when Germany yields to democracy.

WAR'S END WOULD NOT EFFECT QUOTED VALUES

Wall Street Thinks Prospects of Peace Would Be Notable Bull Card.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)

New York, July 2.—Leading interests of the Street are now taking the position that peace will not adversely affect quoted values in the stock market, but that on the contrary definite indications of peace will provide the greatest bull argument ever seen because there is a certainty that it will be an allied triumph.

It is important to observe that bankers are calling attention to the fact that the reduction in the price of coal is certain to benefit manufacturers and may operate to cut the cost of living. Considerable attention is going on in investment circles in New England upon the point that the high prices of coal with the resultant advance in the producing cost of steam is operating to expand electrical power to degree never before seen, and in this connection the demand for copper for electrical activities is bound to increase on a following on the heels of a big war demand for it.

Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific preferred stocks are the cheapest railroad bargains in the list, and they should be bought without reserve. There is a prominent indication which says a prominent institution which is taking the position that they should sell 30 per cent. higher than present levels.

It is intimated in well informed quarters that American Car and Foundry will be able to pay $8 a share annually for at least two years to come. The large revenue reported for the past year have built up a surplus that will stand behind dividend disbursements. Earnings are declared in some quarters to be running at the rate of $16 a share.

The fact that the U. S. has absorbed practically all European holdings of United Steel makes almost certain that speculative accounts here in that stock are very large, says a prominent firm of private bankers.

ST. PAUL AT LOWEST POINT IN 20 YEARS

Railroad List Generally Weak Yesterday—Crucible Steel Makes New High Record.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)

New York, July 2.—On largely professional trading the market moved irregularly in the early afternoon, but with an increasing disposition to sell off, and in the last hour a successful bullish ammunition stock put that stock down to the lowest price in twenty years and affected the entire list more or less.

Lessons of one to two points prevailed generally throughout the railroad stock and the industrials became generally reactionary, although they did not give way as much as the railroads. The fact that dividend action is due this month, and earnings are going on in considerable volume, since the first of the year have been mostly poor. But St. Paul's May earnings which appeared this morning showed an increase of about half a million in net. It has not been the habit of the St. Paul directors to make their dividend reductions while the crops are still in the making, and this year's prospects for spring wheat are generally reported to be excellent. Crucible was strong in the early part of the afternoon making a new high record for the year, but closed below Saturday's final, as did most of the other steel issues. The ruling rate for call money remained at 4 1/2 per cent.

REACTINARY HALTING NATURAL OUTCOME

Stock Market Usually Has Let-Up at Close of Half Yearly Period—Financial Machine Working Well.

(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)

New York, July 2.—It is natural that there should be some reactionary halting in the stock market at a half-yearly period so full of portentous influences as now prevails. Heavy aggregate payments accompany the Liberty Bond installment date, which is so near that of July 1st, when large disbursements are seasonal. Price questions are largely uninvolved, and this adds widespread uncertainty concerning profits. The requirements of the great domestic business are crowded upon by the government's needs, which are constantly becoming more diverse and are heavily increasing in volume. Under these overtopping pressures, notwithstanding uncertainty, production is forced to greater activity.

All considered, the financial machine has worked wonderfully well, and in both the business and security markets, there is evidence of great confidence.

As far as the stock market in normal times it would be reasonable to expect through the coming months, dullness with lower prices, awaiting the later months for activity and upturn, but the rapid pace of events permits no comparisons of this stupendous era, bursting with action, with the peaceful past.

As far as the war news in a long war counts, the present situation on the battle lines is favorable; Russia's attitude is crystallizing in the right direction; our own crop situation is encouraging. These are some of the things making for confidence, combined with an outlook for great volume of it abnormally profitable. However, much of this profit may be commiserated to finance the war, it must be borne in mind that if excess profits are made, whatever is left will be "excess profit."

IMPROVEMENT IN LONDON INVESTMENT SENTIMENT

Special to The Standard.

London, July 2.—A distinct, significant though unexplained improvement took place in stock exchange sentiment in the last week-end and many members are complaining of the Friday to Tuesday holidays as if expecting important developments. Prices did not advance much, but there was a difficulty in finding stocks to buy. The prime minister's Glasgow speech was not minute in business hours, but attracted much attention later. It certainly contained no indication of an early peace.

It is to be recalled that the markets have experienced several waves of optimism before. Armament shares are strong on the belief that the controlled companies will receive some relaxation of the excess profits tax. Brewery shares are strong on the belief that the postponement of the government's purchase scheme means that the plan will be definitely dropped. Shipping shares continue active on the persistence of the rumors that some kind of agreement is imminent.

TOTAL SUSPENSION IN GOLD CAMPS UNLIKELY

Hollinger Consolidated Mines Grant Flat Rate of $4 per Day to All Men Underground.

Special to The Standard.

Toronto, July 2.—Some further support to the belief that the situation in the gold camps will not lead to a total suspension of operations is contained in a despatch received last night from Porcupine. The management of Hollinger Consolidated Mines, it is announced, has granted a flat rate of $4.00 per day to all men working underground.

For the present the local service bonus which the Hollinger mine workers have been receiving for several years is discontinued, so far as it applies to the underground workers. The effect of this policy will probably be to increase the development of Hollinger underground and to provide increased reserves in preparation for the increased capacity of the mill. The millmen are not affected by the recent order.

NEWS COMMENT.
(McDOUGALL & COWANS.)
New York, July 2.—Market Comment—Irregular recovery is expected in the market. Specialties are likely to go higher, notably Crucible. Steels are well bought, including U. S. Steel and Republic. There may be liquidation in some of the rails, especially St. Paul, but this group is well supported by a big shortage. Digestion of the rate decision suggests that it is much better than appeared at first, and further retirement of the bear element is indicated. C. and O., Sou. Pac. and Reading are reported well taken. It is intimated in the banking offices that the war taxation developments are better than expected. Coal fuel should be stimulated by the declaration of a dividend on the common.

Buying HOME PRODUCTS A Full "DINNER PAIL"
 "PATRONAGE OF HOME PRODUCTS IS THE WORKINGMAN'S BEST INSURANCE."
 No matter what your position in life may be, when you spend money for goods made at home you save directly the freight on the article purchased and indirectly you are benefited by the money being kept at home. No matter who you are or what you do, some of the benefits of the dollars spent for home products filter down to you.
 It is good insurance for the working man, to buy goods made at home. This policy universally practiced insures steady employment at good wages—means improved working conditions, and a happier, more prosperous community as a whole. It means better education for the children, a greater opportunity for them when they become bread winners.
 So the support that you give the concerns located here brings you back prosperity, success and happiness. Not only in a spirit of so-called selfishness, but moved by local patriotism, every purchaser should give his preference in every case to articles of domestic production.

THE MOVIES THE PLAYERS

Here are Related Facts and Fancies Concerning the Activities of Individuals and Organizations, the Home, Fashions and Other Matters.

MAYBE HE DID IT, BUT HOW?

A letter carrier in Indianapolis worked thirty years on an income of $1,000 a year or less. Yet this man says that Providence has been kind to him. This is what he has done, according to the Duluth Herald:

He has reared and educated a family of four boys and two girls. Three of the boys and one of the girls have been through college—in part, no doubt, by their own efforts, though the parents deserve credit for so rearing them that they were willing to help on the college expenses.

The three boys who went to college are civil engineers with good positions and the girl who went to college is a teacher of physical training. Two of the boys helped build the Panama Canal. One of them was in the engineering division six years and is now an examiner in civil engineering for the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington. The other was with the Panama Railroad at years and is now in Alaska with the United States Alaska Engineering Commission. The third boy is assistant superintendent of maintenance and right of way with an important railroad.

The youngest boy didn't go to college, but got all the common schools could give him, and has a splendid position as managing salesman with a great corporation. The girl who didn't go to college took a high school course and remains at home with her father and mother.

Every child born to this family got a fair start in life and is doing well. The home from which they emerged into the world is the kind of home of which the foundations of the republic are built.

And it was all done on $1,000 a year!—Milwaukee Journal.

CARE OF CUT GLASS IN YOUR HOME.

Cut glass is a great household care. It is pretty and comes in handy for a well-set table, but unless it is shiny and glittering its charm is small. It must be properly washed and polished. It must never be rinsed under running water, for it is liable to break in a thousand places, caused by the change of temperature. How, then, should it be cared for?

To wash it properly use a wooden tub (a wooden shopping bowl will do), laying a linen dish towel in the bottom. Warm water should be used. Add a quarter of a cup of household ammonia and use any good white soap.

SCHOOL CLOSING AT SEA DOG COVE

The closing exercises of the school at Sea Dog Cove, Somerville, was held Friday afternoon before a large attendance of relatives and friends. In the afternoon three prizes were presented, one to Mabel Miller for the excellent manner in which she passed her examinations; one to Edward Hughes, also for excellent work in the examinations, and one to Willie Hughes for regular attendance at school. Mr. W. Spencer presented the prizes with appropriate remarks. An interesting programme was carried out as follows: Chorus by the pupils; recitation, Mabel Miller; dialogue, Albert Sleep, Willie Hughes; recitation, Joseph Sleep; dialogue, Willie Gable, Albert Sleep, Mabel Miller; recitations, Edward Hughes, Egan Hughes; monologue, Mabel Miller;

When a brush is used to clean out the crevices it should have very soft bristles, less unremovable scratches appear. Polish with a lintless cloth after it has been rinsed with fresh warm water. White tissue paper or a chamois skin may be used to give it the final polishing.

When cleaning the inside of carafes or water bottles they should be soaked with the inside white skin of an egg, a piece of raw potato or salt and lemon juice. It is said that buckshot, if used with care, will remove white or vinegar stains.

Never use cut glass obtainers for a greasy substance, such as butter, as it makes them dull, and they are hard and sometimes even impossible to polish.

recitations, Willie and Walter Hughes; Dialogue, Willie Gable, Albert Sleep, Willie Hughes; dialogue, Willie Hughes, Mabel Miller, Joseph Sleep; recitation, Mr. W. Spencer.

Refreshments were served and the exercises came to an end with the National Anthem. Miss Hattie E. Puddington, the teacher, presided at the examinations and she reported that the pupils passed with good marks.

A book agent recently found his way into the apartment of Modie King, star of the Pathé serial "Mystery of the Double Cross," and orated eloquently as to the merits of a certain book, title as yet unmentioned, which he had the honor to be selling. He paused for breath. "Go on; don't stop," said Miss King. "Your story interests me strangely. What's the title of this remarkable and monumental work?" "Scenes Behind the Scenes: or The Life of an Actress," said the book agent.

FINE CONFEDERATION EXHIBITION AT THE IMPERIAL THEATRE

A stream of people all day Sunday and Monday viewed with much interest the historical display in the windows of the Imperial Theatre. Many of the older inhabitants discussed the changes in buildings or seasons, while the younger generation, said to say, showed deep ignorance of the history of their native country and the men who helped to make it great. The mistaking of Sir John A. Macdonald for a movie actor emphasized the need for lectures illustrative of just such milestones in our national life as the 50th anniversary of Confederation.

Much credit is due Mr. Golding of the Imperial Theatre for the patriotic spirit and energy displayed in arranging this exhibition.

Topping the doors was a placard bordered with maple leaves which bore the words: "Canada, God's country, fifty years old today."

One window showed views of St. John before and after Confederation and statues by Robert of Sir Charles Tupper and Sir John A. Macdonald. A large portrait of Sir Leonard Tilley, St. John's statesman, occupied a prominent place, and photographs of Canada's premiers from 1867 till today were also shown with portraits of R. Borden and W. E. Foster. A framed picture of the Rockies was flanked by portrait of Baron Shaughnessy, who predicts a population of fifteen million people for Canada in the next ten years. The latest map of our Dominion, loaned by the C. P. R., was described as "2,400 miles of everything to make a people happy and prosperous."

An interesting relic was a framed copy of the anthem sung by school children to greet the Prince of Wales in St. John, August, 1860. This was loaned by one of the singers. Maple leaves, copies of "My Own Canadian Home" (written by E. G. Nelson, a poet of our Confederation) and Canadian flags ornamented the display, which was unique, instructive and most creditable.

Sleeping Fires. Diary of a Puppy. The fires of love and passion did not seem to be dormant in this Famous Players' picture, in which Pauline Frederick takes the part of the wronged wife and mother.

It is a typical Pauline Frederick role and she is tragic and desperate, grieved and heart-broken by turns. The most forceful acting perhaps occurs in the murder-trial scenes, where she seems stunned and oblivious to all that is passing about her. In the love passages between herself and her little son she impersonates mother-love beautifully. The story is a gripping one, and with its happy ending just fitting, will be found entertaining. Thomas Meighen plays opposite Miss Frederick. That comedy can be thoroughly clean yet most amusing was proved conclusively yesterday at the Imperial when the first of The Country Life series was shown. The large audience laughed and thoroughly enjoyed The Diary of a Puppy and followed the roly poly pup with delightful interest. It was one of the dearest pictures ever seen here and will be appreciated by all dog lovers (which means most people with heart and good feelings). The children are Miss Blackton's own and the pictures directed by Stewart Blackton.

Who's Who and What's What in the Picture World and on the Stage---Favorites and What They Say and Do.

With a timely British Pathé Gazette and a world tour this excellent holiday programme concluded.

OPERA HOUSE. "Now, don't you call that a fine bill!" said J. B. Franklin of Halifax to The Standard's theatrical editor at the Opera House on Saturday.

Few could help agreeing with Mr. Franklin that it was indeed a good programme, characterized by sparkle, dash and some of the very prettiest dresses that have been worn on the stage for some time. Now that so few evening gowns are seen it is quite a treat to view beautiful creations of tulle silver lace, sequins and all kinds of fascinating costumes.

Wards and Meade are two dancers, distinguished for skill and grace. The lady wears three lovely frocks which add to the attractiveness of the act.

The girl with the baritone voice is Marie Dreams, who made a decided hit with her rendering of "Just Break the News to Mother," an old song that has a special timeliness just now.

She also sings comic selections in good style. Miss Dreams was most cordially received.

The Vice-Versa Company are composed of a couple known to St. John theatre-goers, as the comedian was here with Harkins some years ago while the little lady was a member of the New York Tabloid Company. The fun in this sketch is rapid and the Eva Tangway style of "The Millionaire's Daughter" well acted. It is no easy thing to carry out that kind of "nutty" effect and requires temperament.

Beginning with a suffragette skit, Winchesse turned their act into a musical one, which was excellent. The short skit joke is getting a bit wearisome but I suppose it is typical of vaudeville. Included grand opera and rag-time and was pleasing.

Jolly Johnny Jones' work on the stage was some of the best seen here yet and people's eyes fairly bulged with amazement at the feats this artist could perform. This act is well worth seeing. With a good number of Gloria's "Romance" in which the story gets more interesting, a number of selections from the Edison Re-creation, and some nice music by the Opera House orchestra, it was indeed a "fine bill."

NEW THEATRE FOR F. S. SPENCER

News that Mr. F. S. Spencer has leased the Gem Theatre, Fredericton, will be heard with much interest. This adds another link to the chain of theatres which Mr. Spencer has established through the Maritime Provinces, and he will be wished much success in this undertaking.

The Gem Theatre, owned by Mr. David Richards, and managed by him until recently, will have new chairs installed and several improvements made in it. It is also planned to enlarge the theatre, increasing its capacity by several hundred seats. The lease is from July 16th. The Arlington Orchestra, which was such an addition to the United Theatre, has been engaged for that theatre in September.

UNIQUE.

Patria.

The thirteenth episode of Patria is quite as full of happenings as the others. Bess Morgan is in duress vile in the hands of the Mexicans but is rescued by her brother and lover. She has been true to Patria and gave away no secrets but learned the news of the rebels.

Morales is captured and there is much wonderful riding, as well as several aeroplane drives, in which Patria rides the world of one person who was of no use upon it. With a comedy and a Pathé Weekly this holiday bill pleased the large audience in evidence all day.

Alice Brady's next World-Picture, the publication date of which falls in July, is called "A Self Made Widow," and it contains an exceptionally fresh and novel story. The comedy touches are unusually numerous and amusing, while the serious side is quite out of the ordinary. Then there is the charming Miss Alice herself, in the habiliments of mourning.

Margaret Joslin, whose 200 pounds of bone and muscle has been seen in motion picture comedies for some years, in private life is known as Mrs. Harry Todd. Together she and her husband appear in Pathé's "Lark" comedies, and together they live in harmony. It is rumored that a jar has never disturbed the marital happiness. Perhaps there's a reason. Harry Todd only weighs about 100 pounds.

On the wreath in red excelsior were placed the dates 1867-1917. The wreath was placed early Sunday morning by the president of the club and a delegation from the executive who wired it to the feet of the bronze figure and a large number of the club members visited the statue during the day. The club also sent a special message to Lady Tilley who is their patroness.

Joseph Beauchamp. The death of Joseph Beauchamp, of the 23rd Battalion, Private Beauchamp was 18 years of age, and had been in the hospital since his battalion had left the city. On arrival at the station a salute was fired over the body of the young soldier. The Women's Canadian Club remembered the late soldier by sending a handsome bouquet of flowers. The body will be conveyed to St. Laurent, Manitoba, where the home of the young man was located.

THE VETERANS GO TO BOSTON FOR A JOLLY TIME

War Heroes Will Be Given the Freedom of the Hub—The Names of Returned Men Who Are Making the Trip.

A few years ago in peace times Canadian citizen soldiers from this city journeyed to Boston to be guests of their American neighbors on the national day of the United States. Yesterday a large party of war veterans, including many formerly active in peace regiments, left St. John for the Hub to attend the 4th of July celebration in that city. The veterans who marched to the American boat presented a splendid appearance. Several citizens assembled to give them a joyful send-off. The veterans took their banner with them and this will be carried in the parade in Boston.

Following comprise the word that Mayor Curley will be on hand at the pier to give the Canadian heroes a hearty welcome. Boston folk generally are interested in their Canadian allies. Col. Armstrong has rendered splendid service in organization and training artillery units at Partridge Island and since then his performance of his duties at Halifax has been of great service to the troops in New Brunswick owing to his familiarity with local conditions. MAKING GOOD PROGRESS ON VALLEY RY.

If Labor Does Not Fall Off Contractors Hope to Complete Line in Early Fall—Contractor Lynch in the City.

"If we can get the necessary labor we will be able to complete the Valley Railway between Gagetown and Westfield by the early fall," said Thomas Cozzolino, president of the Nova Scotia Construction Co., Ltd., who was in the city yesterday a guest at the Royal Hotel.

"One of our biggest difficulties at the present time is to get delivery of ties we have ordered. We placed a large order at Campbellton, but up to the present, owing to the scarcity of freight cars, we have been unable to get shipment of them to the railway. I understand the director is talking up the matter of procuring the steel required to complete the road, and we do not anticipate any serious difficulty in this connection.

"At the present time there are about 600 men employed on the constructional work," added Mr. Cozzolino. "This number is scarcely adequate, but if we can retain the men we have at present, we hope to complete the construction in the fall."

Contractor Lynch of the well known firm of Lynch, Peckham and Gorman, sub-contractors for the five miles between Queenstown and Centre Hamstead, was also in the city yesterday a guest at the Royal Hotel. Mr. Lynch told The Standard that his firm was making satisfactory progress on that section. Two large steam shovels are being operated. The contract of the company includes the erection of a bridge at Little River above Oaknaboo. The former structure is now being built, while the freshets have served to make it impossible to commence building the latter bridge yet.

MILITARY HOSPITAL IS TO OPEN SOON

Orders Issued by Lieut. Warner of Staff of Hospitals Commission to Have Everything in Readiness at Local Armory.

As a result of orders issued by Lieut. F. V. Warner of the staff of the Military Hospitals Commission, who was in the city yesterday, it is expected that the new local discharge hospital at the armory will be opened at once. While not disclosing definitely the information that the hospital will be opened, Lieut. Warner gave orders for the installation of the beds, and the placing down of the linoleum so that everything would be in readiness for early occupation.

It is stated from a reliable source that the opening of the discharge hospital is now only a matter of days, as the large numbers of wounded soldiers now returning to Canada made it absolutely necessary to provide the increased accommodation.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR PTE. M'LAUGHLIN

Many Attend Service at the Fairville Baptist Church in Honor of Young Hero Who Gave Life for Empire.

A memorial service was held Sunday evening in the Fairville Baptist church in memory of Pte. Eugene McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McLaughlin, of Pleasant Point, who was killed at the front last fall. Private McLaughlin went overseas with the 55th Battalion with the rank of corporal. He was later transferred to the 42nd Battalion, being with that battalion when he met his death. His parents have never received any word in connection with his death except for a letter from the young man's chum which stated that the writer had seen him for the last time shortly before his last engagement. This letter was read from the pulpit. Private McLaughlin was formerly a member of the Sunday school, and the Sunday school classes sat in a body during the service. Rev. P. R. Hayward took for his text Matthew 21: 20, "Go and work today in My vineyard," and he paid a splendid tribute to the memory of Private McLaughlin and to his devotion to the cause of liberty.

During the service the name of Private McLaughlin, inscribed on the Honor Roll, was draped in black.

Boston Train Late. On account of the heavy holiday traffic the Boston express came in at 1.30 this morning, just two hours and ten minutes late.

TO CALL FOR TENDERS FOR NEW ADDITION

Thirty New Beds at River Glade and Forty at Saint John County Hospital—New Hospital at Fredericton.

It is expected that tenders will be called during the present week for the additions to the St. John County Hospital at East St. John, and the Jordan Memorial Sanitarium at River Glade, to provide the necessary accommodation for the treatment and care of the returned tubercular soldiers. Forty beds will be added to the County Hospital, while thirty new beds will be placed at River Glade. This will afford accommodation for the treatment of returned men suffering from the white plague and gratifying results are expected to accrue.

Just as soon as the 23rd Kiltie Battalion leaves Fredericton, we expect that work will be started to fit the Government House there for hospital purposes," said Charles Robinson yesterday. The main companies of the battalion have already proceeded to Valcartier, but as recruits are coming in daily, the battalion has not yet turned over this building to the Military Hospitals Commission.

Word is expected at any moment of the creation of New Brunswick as a separate division of the Hospitals Commission. The province will likely be known as the K division.
