PATRIOTIC CONCERT

HELD LAST THURSDAY

Crowded House on the Occasion of the Entertainment for Benefit of Red Cross Funds

Last Thursday evening the Opera House was crowded on the occasion of the Patriotic Concert held under the auspices of the Women's Institute, for the benefit of the Red Cross Funds. The program which was a lengthy one, was well received, every item being splendidly rendered, and encores were frequent. The stage was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting, and a large stand was erected on the stage to accommodate the chorus, whose singing was much appreciated. The stage management and decorations were under the personal charge of Mr. P. H. Pithy, who had the assistance of Mr. A. G. Adams and others, the stage decorations being looked after by Mr. W. M. Ferguson.

A special feature of the evening was a one act farce entitled "The Man from Wolfville", which was staged under the personal direction of Miss Jean McLatchy, assisted in the casting by Misses H. G. Gillis, Ethel Hogan, and Greta Metzler, and Messrs. A. G. Wallace, Harold Conrad and J. G. MacColl.

The singing of the chorus was much enjoyed, this class of singing not being heard here very often. The members of the choir enjoyed it as much as the audience, and it is probable that this will mark the beginning of a Choral and Dramatic Society, arrangements being made to start this after the New Year. The net proceeds of the entertainment were over $100, which will be used by the Red Cross Committee to purchase materials for sewing, etc., and as far as possible this sum will be spent among the town merchants.

The Women's Institute desire to return thanks to all who assisted to make the entertainment such a success, and especially thank the Trustees of St. Andrew's Church for the use of the hall for chorus practice and for the loan of their piano for the evening of the concert.

FAVORABLE SEASON

FOR LUMBER OPERATIONS

Weather Conditions Have Been Just Right for Lumbermen in This Section

The present season has been a most favorable one for lumber operations on the Restigouche.

The absence of deep snow has made chopping and yarding easy, and large cuts have resulted.

Throughout this section there is about a foot of snow, which is enough to make good sledding and indications point to a larger cut than was anticipated earlier in the season.

The Fredericton Mail says:— Mr. E. A. McFadden of the New Brunswick Railway Company, returned last evening from a trip north as far as Restigouche county. He reports operations being carried on briskly under favorable conditions. At the present time there is eight inches of snow in the woods of that section.

Mr. James Holmes, a successful lumberman and mill owner of Doaktown, was in the city today. Mr. Holmes is getting out about two and a half million feet of lumber on the Southwest Miramichi this season. He says that he never saw such a favorable season for lumbering.

WHOLE FAMILY USES THEM

"Fruit-a-lives" Keeps Young And Old In Splendid Health

J. W. HAMMOND Esq.

SCOTLAND, ONT., Aug. 28th, 1913
"Fruit-a-lives" are the only pills manufactured, to my way of thinking.
They work completely, no griping whatever, and one is plenty for any ordinary person at a dose. My wife was a martyr to Constipation. We tried everything on the calendar without satisfaction, and spent large sums of money until we happened on "Fruit-a-lives". I cannot say too much in their favor.

We have used them in the family for about two years and we would not use anything else as long as we can get "Fruit-a-lives".

Their action is mild, and no distress at all. I have recommended them to many other people, and our whole family uses them.

J. W. HAMMOND.
Those who have been cured by "Fruit-a-lives" are proud and happy to tell a sick or ailing friend about these wonderful tablets made from fruit juices.
50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c.
At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

PROPHETS HAD WRONG IDEAS

Disarm Predictions as to Failure of Our Country Somehow Fulfilled to Materialize

In the year 1788 Alexander Hamilton wrote of the electoral college system: "If the manner be not perfect, it is at least excellent; it unites in an eminent degree all the advantages the union of which was to be wished for." Yet, in a decade, the electors would not have thought of exercising their constitutional prerogatives.

Hamilton predicted that the house of representatives would have "no small advantage" over the senate in any dispute, since it would be the popular branch of the government, and because it would have the power of originating all money bills—a strong weapon in its hand. But the senate soon became the dominant partner, and the house found that the power to amend money bills exercised by the senate nullified the advantage of originating them.

At the close of John Adams' administration it is said that John Jay refused the appointment of chief justice on the ground that the bench would never attain "the energy, weight and dignity which were essential to its affording due support to the national government." This forecast John Marshall made absurd.

When Louisiana was annexed Senator White remarked in debate that "gentlemen on all sides, with very few exceptions, agree that the settlement of this country will be highly injurious and dangerous to the United States, and that its incorporation into the Union would be "productive of innumerable ills."

In 1811, in a speech on a bill to permit the organization of a state from a section of the Louisiana Purchase, Representative John Quincy Adams of Massachusetts asserted that if the measure should pass "the bonds of the Union would be virtually dissolved."

In the thirties a Scotchman, Patrick Shirreff, made a journey through the United States and published the results of his observations. At that time Chicago was a town of 150 houses. Of its future the traveler wrote: "Chicago will in all probability attain considerable size but its situation is not so favorable to growth as many other places in the Union."

In 1862 Lincoln, in a message to congress, predicted a population of 120,000,000 for the United States in the year 1910 and of 187,000,000 in 1920. The estimate for 1910 was 47,- 000,000 too great. The difficulty was that the country did not continue to increase in population after 1860 in the same proportion that it had prior to that year.

END STOMACH TROUBLE CASES OF DYSPEPSIA

"Pape's Diapensin" makes Sick, Sour, Gassy Stomachs surely feel fine in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach, or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you feel gassy, have a feeling of distension, heartburn, fullness, nausea, indigestion, or stomach-headache, you will find blessed relief in five minutes by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapensin from any drug store.
You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.
It is the quickest, surest stomach doctor in the world. It's wonderful!

CHRISTMAS GRAPHIC WELL SPOKEN OF

Many Complimentary Remarks Made Upon Graphic's "Business as Usual" Policy

The Christmas issue of the Campbellton Graphic, which consisted of sixteen pages and art cover, issued on December 10th, was well received and very highly spoken of by many of our subscribers.

One lady in telephoning the Graphic, the morning after it was issued said she would like to send copies to a number of friends in distant cities, just to let them see what Campbellton could turn out in the way of a Christmas paper.

Many other telephone and letter requests were received for extra copies, which we were pleased to be able to fill, as we this year printed four thousand copies. We have about twenty copies still on hand.

Any child, who would like to have the front cover to adorn a wall of their bedroom, can have one by calling at the Graphic office any day during the next week. We have about fifty spare ones left.

We thank all our friends who helped make this year's Christmas issue a success, and wish all a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

CHRISTMAS FIRES

In many Canadian homes every year Christmas festivities cause regrets and in numerous cases loss of life among those taking part.

Illuminated effects as Christmas tree decorations in private homes are dangerous, and wherever either fire or lights are used too much attention cannot be given to their safety. The Christmas tree is in itself sufficiently inflammable, but when this is added decorations of cotton batting, light paper balls and other dangerous material, it is only by the exercise of great care that fires can be avoided. Where Christmas trees are erected in carpeted rooms, sheet tin or zinc should be placed under the tree, to catch the candle drippings. It should be one person's duty to watch the candles, that instant action may be taken if the tree takes fire.

In public halls, Sunday schools, etc., where numbers of children are assembled, unusual precautions should be taken. Fire extinguishers and pails of water should be in convenient places.
Santa Claus costumes should be dipped in a solution of four ounces of phosphate of ammonia to a quart of water.
If clothing catches fire throw the person down, and roll him in carpet, rug, blanket, coat or anything handy, to smother the flames. The exits should be kept perfectly clear to avoid danger of panics.

In business houses electric wiring and gas lighting for special displays should be carefully inspected. Do not use paper or muslin shades close to the lamps, as they may take fire from the heat. Some one in authority should be given the responsibility of seeing that the fire hazard is not excessive, and that every precaution is taken to protect life and property. Insurance may replace the property, but no insurance can replace loss of life.

WHY WE SHAKE HANDS

To the war-like practice of carrying swords may be traced the peace-promoting habit of handshaking. In the days when "knighthood was in flower" and every man carried a sword and was ready to use it on the slightest pretense it was customary for a man to extend his right hand when he met a friend, the open hand showing that his intentions were friendly. Swords went out of fashion, but long before they did hand shaking as an expression of friendship and good will became general among men and women.

That the scarcity of food is increasingly felt in Germany is manifest from the nature of the instructions issued by the Government. The latest is that notatoes are to be boiled in their skins and that less of their contents may be lost in the process of peeling them.

The latest instances of war names being conferred on English children include P. West, Duncan and Wilkie-Marne and every man carried a sword and
extend his right hand when he met a
intentions were friendly. Swords went
did hand shaking as an expression of
friendship and good will became general among men and women.

It must be comforting to the unhappy people of Belgium to realize that their King and Queen continue to share their burdens. Nobler persons never lived than Albert and his Queen.

The Kilt skirt with leggings is not a German but a French menace, yet that will not lessen popular alarm over the new fashion.

Is the Turk to go out under the influence that will follow another Armenian massacre?

Do forget that it is winter in the shock of the unemployed as well as in the comfortable home of the well to-do.

With the present grand spectacle before us of nine-tenths of the American press and people arguing in our favor, the man who next tries to stir up hate or enmity between Canada and the United States should be treated as an enemy of both.

It is probably after all the best thing that could happen to us, to have the Germans make a dash into the North Sea. The sooner they come out and fight the sooner they will be over.

CO-OPERATION BETWEEN EMPLOYEES & MANAGER

First Number of Canadian Government Railway Employees Magazine Issued

To the Officers and Employees of the Canadian Government railways: With the publication of the first number of the Canadian Government Railway Employees Magazine, I desire to request the co-operation of all our Officers and Employees with the editor, Mr. J. E. Long, Safety Engineer, for I believe that, with your help, it can be made a most beneficial publication for railway men.

The object of this magazine is to secure the co-operation of all Officers and employees in those things which make the operation of these Railways more efficient by suggestions from Officers and Employees in all departments in matters of safety, better service to the public and better conditions for ourselves. The suggestion of this publication met with the heavy approval of the Minister of Railways.

The policy of the publication is that it shall be free from politics and religion, and that it shall be devoted to making these Railways better and to make better men of ourselves.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) F. P. GUTELIUS.

All right well does the initial number enter into the spirit of the General Manager's letter. Different branches of the service have contributed well written and most interesting articles on their respective activities, dealing with such weighty subjects as the system of accounting, automatic block signals, evolution of a freight car, Pacific type locomotives down to the ubiquitous time table, or as the article is headed "The Red Folder."

Readers will learn that the ticket agent is not the ordinary person he may appear at first glance through the window, but that he has duties to perform, situations to meet and qualities and knowledge to possess, with which he is not generally credited.

Incidentally, the reader may benefit by seeing himself as he sometimes appears to the ticket agent. The average traveller who accepts the dining car service as an ordinary condition of every day travel is reminded it is a comparatively modern institution, and that such a model of completeness, cleanliness and attention to detail is somewhat costly to build and operate. This article concludes:

The Canadian Government Railways are fortunate in having on their dining cars a well trained staff of conductors and waiters on whom is impressed the necessity of showing each and every passenger the fullest and most polite attention.
That they do this is shown by the frequent expressions of praise received from appreciative travellers by the Railway management.

Of special and timely interest are the pages devoted to the Government Railways' quota to the first Canadian Contingent. One hundred and seventy-three enlisted, and a number of excellent photographs of those who have "joined in the war of liberty and defence" are published. $20,253 was the Government Railways' employees' contribution to the Patriotic Fund, representing one day's pay from each employee. The Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Railways and Canals, writing to the General Manager, says in part:

It is gratifying to know that the men of the Government Railways have risen to the occasion and given

MARITIME WINTER FAIR

Comments on Seed Department.

The number of exhibits in the Seed Department grows rapidly from year to year. There is also marked improvement in their quality. This year only an odd sample was not well cleaned and graded. The Good Seed movement, initiated through field crop competitions, seed fairs and Provincial seed exhibitions with their attendant lectures, distributions of literature and seed-judging classes, is evidently bearing good fruit. Encouragement to the production of registered seed through the Canadian Seed Growers' Association is also worthy of special mention.

The tin pans containing a sample for examination in each bag head, are a new feature this year. They are useful in judging and prevent the remainder of the exhibit from being mixed. For next year the management should consider the addition of sections for those field roots and garden vegetable seeds which are grown in the Maritime Provinces. More floor space will be needed as exhibitors were unduly crowded this year.

JAPAN AND THE WAR

Critics of the alliance between Great Britain and Japan as well as those who inveighed against the politics of the Laurier administration in respect of Canadian-Japanese relations generally, have had their answer in no uncertain way in the splendid activities of the Japanese army and navy during the past four months. The evis-cation of the Germans from Kiao-Chau and the occupation of a number of German islands in the Pacific by Japanese forces are but a part of the work accomplished by our ally in the far east. Ships of the Japanese navy have sunk the German merchant ship, and it is likely that not until the war is over will Canadians be allowed to learn just the extent of the work done in protecting British commerce between the Orient and Canada. Much of this patriotic work has been done at no great distance from our own Pacific coast, a circumstance that should appeal particularly to Canadians. Japan is living up to the spirit and the letter of her alliance with Great Britain.

WILL GIVE GIFTS TO BELGIANS
In former years it has been the custom of the Sunday School of the Methodist Church to have a Christmas tree entertainment, shortly after Christmas, when presents were given to the Sunday School children, an event which the young people looked forward to with great pleasure. The programme has been entirely reversed for this year, and the members of the Sunday School are each endeavoring to earn 25c, so that this amount may be forwarded to the Belgium relief, to go towards the needy Belgium children.

PRESENTATION OF MEDAL TO MISS EDITH BATEMAN
(From the Gloucester Northern Light) On Wednesday last, the Lieutenant-Governor's medal was presented to Edith Bateman of Salmon Beach for highest standing in the High School entrance examination last June. Miss Bateman made a total of 750 marks, out of a possible 1000. Ralph Wightman was second with 705.

The presentation was made in the Grammar School by Mr. P. J. Veniot, on behalf of the Board of Education. Mr. Veniot congratulated the young lady on the splendid showing she had made. He regretted that, owing to the Christmas Exams, it could not be conveniently arranged to make a more public presentation of this work of recognition from the highest official of the Province. Mr. Veniot, on behalf of the Board of Trustees, granted the school a half holiday in Miss Bateman's name.

CHRISTMAS
At this festive season it is our pleasure and privilege to wish all our readers the old, old wish A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
Although we are now in the shadow of the greatest war-cloud of the ages, there is still the bright silver lining of normal business conditions and every probability of the continuance of such. Since the outbreak of the war we have been called on to sacrifice much, both in lives and wealth, and we must rest assured that a just and equitable return will be made for all these things. Right must triumph in the end, and it therefore behooves the business men of each community to keep the "Business as Usual" idea ever before them, secure in the knowledge that all will come right. If we do our parts as we should, let us therefore keep our Christmas as in days gone by in the spirit of peace and unity, and while the fires of friendship glow mellow in our hearts, let us not forget the poor, friendless and afflicted peoples of other lands whose Christmas cheer consists of ruined homes, destroyed properties and ruined lives. Let us remember the sorrow and suffering in the great war theatre and in the Christmas spirit of charity seek in some measure to alleviate that great burden. Then shall we know the true Christmas spirit so simply portrayed by the immortal Dickens when Tiny Tim observes: "God Bless us every one."

A BRITISH CONSERVATIVE VIEW
The Morning Post of London, England, a staunch Conservative journal noted for its keen Imperialism, printed on December 10 an editorial of unusual interest to Canada and all the Overseas Dominions. The cable copy of this editorial reads: "It would no doubt be invidious to compare the share of the crown colonies with the share of the Dominions in the common task, but this much may at least be said. What has been done and is being done best is the result of the voluntary, spontaneous effort inspired by the local genius and the spirit of the particular country concerned and not that imposed upon it by Whitehall."

"In Canada, Australia and New Zealand, the raising, equipping and despatching of their contingents was in each case a local work conceived on a generous scale, and handsomely carried out. These contingents will be found to justify the local efforts of the Dominions to create their own military forces."

"Even where the central authority is the Dominion's judgment that is proving right."
"Thus Australia insisted, against a great deal of opposition at this end, and on having her own navy and this Australian navy, when war broke out, was found to be the right thing in the right place. If Australia had developed this independent policy somewhat earlier we might not have been under the necessity of applying for the good offices of our loyal and obliging ally in the East (Japan)."

The Post concludes with the declaration: "These things point also to the great truth that if this Empire is spared under Providence to continue its development that development will be upon lines of freedom and co-operation not upon lines of centralization and subordination."

AUSTRALIA INCREASES THE BRITISH PREFERENCE Canadians generally will be interested in the announcement that the Australian Commonwealth has considerably increased the tariff preference on goods imported from the United Kingdom. The Australian Customs Tariff Act of 1908 provided for a preference, carefully adjusted to various items of import produced in and shipped from the United Kingdom, as against the goods of other countries. For some time there has been a strong feeling in favor of an increase in this preference and the action taken by the Commonwealth government may undoubtedly be taken as but another evidence of the immense effect the war has had and will have in binding closer than ever all parts of the Empire.

While details of the increase in the preference are as yet lacking, cable advices via London indicate that it amounts to from five to ten per cent on almost all imported cloths and dry-goods, while the duties payable on goods of all kinds from foreign countries have also been increased from five to ten per cent. Great Britain has also been granted preference rates on a number of products which heretofore have not been in the preferential class. Australia's provision for war expenses for the current calendar year alone amounts to $58,000,000.

SHOULD HELP
In connection with Germany's placing of wood on the contraband-of-war list, it might be well to note that Sweden sent to British ports last year $4,600,000 worth of wood and timber, as against Canada's $3,800,000 worth. There was also a Russian exportation to England of the value of no less than $13,600,000. Germany's declaration, with the assistance of the British navy, should serve to stimulate the export of wood from Canada, and particularly from New Brunswick.

DALHOUSIE OPERA HOUSE
On account of the carelessness of the Express Co. in carrying film from Campbellton to Dalhousie on Wednesday, Dec. 23rd, the film did not arrive in Dalhousie in time for the evening performance, which proved to be a great disappointment to the patrons of the Opera House.

APPROPRIATE SWEETS

Holly Balls.—Boil two cupsful of granulated sugar, a saltspoonful of cream of tartar and a cupful of water until it threads when poured from the spoon. Remove from the fire and beat until it begins to cream slightly; then add the beaten white of two eggs and beat until nearly cold. Season with a teaspoonful of vanilla or half a teaspoonful of orange extract. Drop on a buttered platter and form into balls, into each of which press a preserved cherry. Pecan, English walnut or almond kernels may be substituted for the cherries if preferred.

Mince Bars.—Into plain fudge work a mixture of ground cinnamon, nutmeg extract, minced nut meats, preserved ginger, cherries and raisins. With the hands work it to a paste and then form into a loaf and let it stand until slightly hardened. Cut the bars and serve in fancy boxes or on a tray surrounded with a wreath of holly.

Near Rawa-Rosska—Ammunition Abandoned by the Austrians After Their Defeat

Cross Wagon Abandoned by the Austrians During Their Retreat From Tomaszov.

A Russian Transport Column on the Road From Tomaszov to Lublin

At the Battle of Tomaszov, in Russia's Austrian campaign, the Austrian army was broken and forced back with great loss by the advancing Russians, who, after inflicting their smashing blow, proceeded to march on the fortified position of Grodek, which was eventually taken by them after another decisive victory over the Austrians. Tomaszov is situated on the Russo-Galician frontier between Zamosc and Jaroslavl. Its position is of great strategic value, commanding as it does both Lemberg and Jaroslavl. The retreat of the Austrian army under General Auffenberg was made precipitately, and on going away pursued for many miles by the victorious Russians. General Ruzsky, commanding the Russian forces, attacked the Austrians from the southeast and compelled them to give battle on three fronts. The counter attacks were easily repulsed, and finally the Austrians retreated, throwing aside their arms as they did so.

ALLIES ARE STILL MAKING PROGRESS

But Russians Have Given More Ground.—Bomb Dropped at Dover

Lisbon, Dec. 24th.—The Portuguese Chamber has voted in favor of preparation to join England in European war.
Athens, Dec. 24.—Anti German sentiment is rapidly increasing in Constantinople. Many Turks known not to be in sympathy with policy of War Minister, who was responsible for Turkey's entrance into war, have been arrested.

New York, Dec. 24.—Agents of Italian government have placed an order in the United States for ten thousand horses.
London, Dec. 24.—The Allies are pressing forward in Belgium and France, and daily gaining new ground.
Russians have retired from before Cracow and are now in a position twenty miles from Warsaw. Continuous fighting goes on.

Hostile aeroplane dropped a bomb at Dover this morning, but no damage was done. Aviator escaped.

THE SKATING RINK OPEN The skating rink is now open and running merrily, and with the cold weather the ice is in splendid condition. The managers of the rink are leaving no stone unturned to provide for the comfort and convenience of skaters, and from appearances the rink will enjoy a full measure of prosperity as in past years. Season tickets may be purchased from A. McG.
McDonald, Druggist, Water Street.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT On Tuesday evening in the halls of St. Andrew's Church, the Primary Department of the Sabbath School held their annual Christmas entertainment.
The halls were nicely decorated with Christmas decorations, and the young folks rendered a program which was much appreciated. During the evening a presentation of a hand bag was made to Miss M. E. Gerrard, the hard working secretary of the Sunday school, who was much surprised at receiving this kindly gift from the teachers and officers of the school.
Gifts of candy were then distributed from the tree, everyone receiving a generous supply, even the Superintendent, Mr. John M. McLean, not being forgotten, after which lunch was served and the little folks went home well pleased with the evening. The committee in charge are to be congratulated on having held one of the best entertainments for the Primary Department, and the children's program which was well rendered reflects great credit on their teachers.

CHRISTMAS IN SYRIA
The Rev. Dr. D. G. Howie, the well known Palestine missionary, describes a Christmas celebration at midnight in a mountain village in Syria:
"From different directions men, women and children bearing their flickering hand lanterns, wound their way through the muddy, slushy, crooked and dark lanes under the falling sleet and over a thin layer of snow already on the ground. Men and boys entered by a huge door in the middle of the south wall and occupied the body of the church; women and girls entered by another south door and stationed themselves in the western division of the immense building, which is screened from the other divisions by wooden lattice-work. All stood erect, motionless, in the cold, comfortless and very dimly lighted and too airy building.
"A few had umbrellas, but water-proofs were unknown, and consequently many of them must have stood in partly wet clothes. The question did occur to me at the time as to whether many British people could be drawn out of their beds, out of their homes, at that hour of night in that kind of weather, fasting, to attend Christmas service amid such dismal, comfortless surroundings."

OVER THE CHRISTMAS CIDER
See the steaming gleighbells Smoking on the plate!
See the luscious icicles Blazing in the grate!

Oh, the joys of Christmas, Driving off dull care!
Hear the mince pies ringing
On the frosty air!

Hear the turkeys chiming
On the distant lea!
Christmas is the season Best of all for me!

KEEPING BUSY.
"Does your family approve of your dancing?"
"No," replied Mr. Cumrox, gloomily.
"They say I'm too old-fashioned. The dances I know are at least six weeks behind the times."

NEW CARLISLE

The branch of the Red Cross Society here have forwarded a second consignment of four boxes containing $200.00 worth of men's warm underwear, and a third bale is underway, which will consist of $100.00 worth of underwear, as well as some knitting and sewing for the hospital. Christmas boxes were recently sent to the two volunteers of this town now at Salisbury Plains, containing one muffler, belt, balaclava cap, pair of wristlets, pair of socks, tobacco and pipe, chocolate, exo cubes and chewing gum. The same is being forwarded to E. Saint-Mieux, of Port Daniel, who is now in France at the firing line.

Mrs. J. H. Kelly, the President of this Society is very energetic in the work. At the recent patriotic concert she so successfully carried through, $250.00 were realized, besides receiving a very liberal contribution from Chandler. Mrs. Kelly latterly has been painting some very pretty patriotic picture frames, which are selling fast, and she has already realized about $50.00 on them.

The Society is very grateful indeed to the people of this town and vicinity for the generous contributions in work, money and material.

Friday last was closing day at the Academy for the Christmas holidays. The school board, parents and interested friends were present. A very pleasing program was given by the pupils, a few short addresses were also made. At the close of the program, a presentation was made to the care taker, Mr. John Flowers.

Rev. J. M. Sutherland occupied the pulpit at New Richmond on Sunday. The rink is again open and so far has drawn big crowds. The ice is in splendid trim, as well as the skaters.

Mrs. J. H. Kelly left on Thursday for Montreal to bring her daughter, Miss Annie home for the season's holidays. They returned on Saturday.

Duncan Maguire of Quebec, is at present the guest of his parents. Quite a number of the teachers up and down the coast returned on Saturday for the holidays. Among them are Misses Annie Jacobson, Cora and Lydia Cook, Winnie Chisholm and Leora Smollett.

On Saturday the pupils attending McDonald College returned for three weeks' holidays. They are Misses Rita Cook, Greta Blois, Mary Hamilton, Bell Caldwell and Mr. W. Sherar. Guy Kempfer spent the week end in Chandler with his sister, Mrs. Arnold.

DEESIDE

Miss Dora McNaughton and Mrs. James Walker drove to Runnymede on Sunday where they were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Brochette.

Mr. Ernest Roberts, who has been working in Wyers Brooks has left for his home in Selwood to spend Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sharpe spent Sunday with friends at Chain of Rocks.

LORE OF THE SEA

Drastic Rules Which Portuguese Sailors Once Observed

Some remarkable advice to seafarers is given in an old Portuguese book, published for the guidance of mariners. Amongst other things it deals with the rights of captains to assault sailors, and the methods in which the attacks are to be legally met.

The sailor is advised to bear calmly any verbal abuse that he may receive, but if words passed to blows he was to run away into the bow and firmly take his stand beside the anchor chain.

Should an infuriated master, armed with a belaying pin or other lethal weapon, chase him to his stronghold, the mariner was to slip around to the farther side of the chain. Should he still be pursued, he was to call his messmates to witness that the master had broken the rules of circumventing the chain.

Then, at last, he was to defend himself. Other little matters of discipline are set out, and they show a noble effort to make the punishment fit the crime.

The ship's clerk, a privileged person who acted as bookkeeper, purser, and cargo-master, was liable to be branded in the forehead, to lose his right hand, and to forfeit all his property if he made a wrong entry in the ship's book, or connived at such an entry.

A seaman who fell asleep on his watch was only put on a diet of bread and water, unless the offence was committed in hostile waters. In that case he must be stripped naked, flogged by his messmates, and ducked thrice in the sea.

If he were an officer, however, he would only lose all food except his bread, and have a pall of water hung over him from the head downwards.

School children should be taught fire precaution.

BLACK CAPE

Rev. J. M. Sutherland of New Carlisle filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian Church here on Sunday afternoon, and preached a most interesting sermon.

Miss Hilda Gallan, teacher of school No. 1, left on Friday for her home in New Carlisle to spend her vacation.

A few of our young men arrived home last week from Ontario. Among them we note are Mr. Colin Campbell, Mr. Wallace Campbell, Mr. John Cyr and Mr. Arthur Cyr.

Mr. N. Cyr and Mr. T. LeBlanc returned on Saturday from a business trip to New Carlisle.

Wishing the Graphic staff and all the readers a bright Christmas and a happy New Year.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL CLOSING EXERCISES

Held Here on Friday When Interesting and Enjoyable Program is Carried Out

The closing exercises at Campbellton Grammar School took place on Friday morning, when large numbers of the parents were present, and took a great interest in the work of the various departments in the school.
The pupils and friends then gathered in the Assembly Hall, where a good program by the scholars was carried out to the enjoyment of all present. His Worship Mayor Andrew presided at the gathering and supporting him on the platform were, His Honor Judge McLatchy, Rev. J. H. Jenner, Dr. Murray, Messrs. John Harquail, W. D. Duncan, J. M. McLean, Max D. Mowat, D. F. Graham and S. Laughlin, secretary to the Board of Trustees.
His Worship presented the High School Entrance certificates to the following pupils:

Walter Pratt
Ethel Baird
Florence LeBlanc
Isabel McBeath
Jean Jameson
Jessie Norman
Theresa McNaughton
Raymond Andrew
Jessie Ferguson
Isabelle Currie
Grace Roberts
Hugie Marquis
Claire Mowat
Winnifred Delaney

Manning Gray
Joseph Gallagher
Henry Steeves
Charles Killam

His Honor Judge McLatchy presented the Governor General's Bronze Medal to Bert Burgess, and the Lieut. Governor's Silver Medal to Miss Jessie Ferguson. This latter presentation was a most signed honor both to the school and to Miss Ferguson, this pupil leading the province in the High School Entrance examinations.
Dr. Murray, a former chairman of the School Board then presented certificates to Miss Ethel Hogan and Miss Laura Alford for singing and piano-forte. These certificates were gained by examination set by McGill University and held here as a local centre by Dr. Saunders recently. Both young ladies received two certificates which were presented in absentia, and they are both pupils of Miss F. DeCorrevent.

Mr. Guy Lutz was also a winner of a certificate for singing which was presented to him before his departure to the front with the first contingent of the Canadian Army.

The program rendered by the pupils consisted of songs, choruses and recitations, reflected great credit on the teachers who had charge of this part of the entertainment.

The Trustees feel satisfied that they have now the best staff of teachers available, and to show their appreciation of their work, they have increased the salaries of the staff 10%, dating from the first of September.

LET FROM THE FRONT
Bulford Camp, Nov. 28, 1914.

Dear Mother:
It is a half holiday for us today. I will write you a nice long letter to let you know that I am still here and in good health. I wrote you a letter about a month ago and didn't get any answer yet, and I also wrote you when I was on the boat, but I told you not to answer that one for I didn't know my address, but the last one I wrote you was in Salisbury Plains and gave you my answer, and it is time I was getting an answer. I know that it takes a long time for a letter to reach you, but it was time I had a letter from you now, but may be you didn't get it at all. Well mother, I told you on the letter I wrote when I was on the boat that we were going to London, but we didn't, when we got of the boat we took the train at Plymouth for Salisbury Plains at nine o'clock at night, and we got there about three in the morning, when we got off the train we had about three miles to walk, but I don't mind that now for I am getting used to walking. Well, we stayed in Salisbury about three weeks, and we had to move from there on account of the mud, we were walking in the mud up to our knees, and it rained every day we were there and we were in tents. I never had my clothes off all the time I was there, for the ground was too wet, and my clothes were wet for three weeks. After that we moved to a place called Bulford. We are happy here, for we are living in huts. There is about fifty one men to a hut. We have a stove and we are just like at home, we have lots to eat. Let me know if you are drawing twenty dollars a month I signed for you. I hope you are, and if you ain't let me know, and I will fix it up, for they are keeping it out of my wages. You should get that from Ottawa. I had a hard time to understand the money when I first struck this country. The money ain't the same here as it is home, there is no Canadian money here, at all, and what we call five dollars in Campbellton, they call it one pound here, and it ain't the same kind of money at all. I will take some home with me when I go and show you. Well mother, I got the Graphic here last week, and I seen in it where there was a lot of Campbellton boys coming over in the second contingent and McKensie also, but I don't think we will be here then. I expect we will be leaving for the front pretty soon, we may leave any day, but I expect to get back all right. I hope you give up worrying. Let me know if James and Archie are in the woods yet, and give them my best love and give me their address and I will write them a letter if I have time.

Well, I suppose there is lots of snow in Campbellton now. It is just like summer here, they never have any snow here at all, that's one thing I will get clear of this winter. We have a little frost at night, but through the day it is fine.
We are dressed good, we got some good underwear, overcoat and good boots. We have to do our own washing, so you can imagine that I ain't very clean, but we got to expect that in time of war. I am in a good crowd of boys and we get along fine.
Well mother, I would like to see you now and the children too, and also little Wallace, I suppose he is quite a boy now, but I hope to see you all again if God is willing.
We get three days off if we like, I am going to try and get off next week and go to London, we are only sixteen miles from there now.
Well mother, I think this is all for this time, and don't forget to answer this letter, I know you won't so good-bye and good luck.
BARRY YOUNG.

NOTICE

During the winter months my teams will leave Campbellton at 7.30 a.m. for Cross Point Station to connect with the Quebec Oriental train. Anyone wishing to go over will please phone 24, and I will meet them in any part of the town.
Good warm rigs. Prices per passenger as usual.
