Bosnitch ruins credibility of students

—Administration takeover sets alarming precedent

The students should have total control over the Student Union Building. The students should be free to run a variety of enterprises for the benefit of all at UNB. The students should have more influence when major decisions are made on and off campus.

All these statements reflect the goals of Student Union president John Bosnitch and of many students. The Brunswickan wholeheartedly endorses these objectives.

The problem is the key word in all these statements: "should." The power students seek, to determine their own destiny is not a God-given right. Such rights can only be gained by violent revolution or by gaining the respect of those who may grant such rights. Since violent revolution is not condoned by our society the students must prove they are capable of taking on the responsibilities associated with these rights, while at the same time asserting their desires.

Student Union President John Bosnitch has made great strides for the students and has accomplished much. His failing though has been disastrous: instead of proving that students are capable of managing their own affairs, he has proved that from time-to-time students are not able to manage effectively and thus has ruined the credibility arguments which propose more student rights.

Although many questions remain about the nature of the Downey takeover of the S.U.B., The Brunswickan supports the UNB president's actions because the SUB was being managed atrociously.

The old board, with Bosnitch as chairman, spent its time arguing procedure and accomplishing virtually nothing. Critical issues such as leases for the tenants were not dealt with. Hiring and firing were haphazard causing staff morale to hit rock bottom; employees did not know whether or when they were working, turnover was high and training was lacking. No minutes for SUB Board or its twin SUB Holdings were produced for months. Finances were being handled in a careless manner—money was being left lying around. The final straw came when the director was fired and no replacement was named. The list goes on...

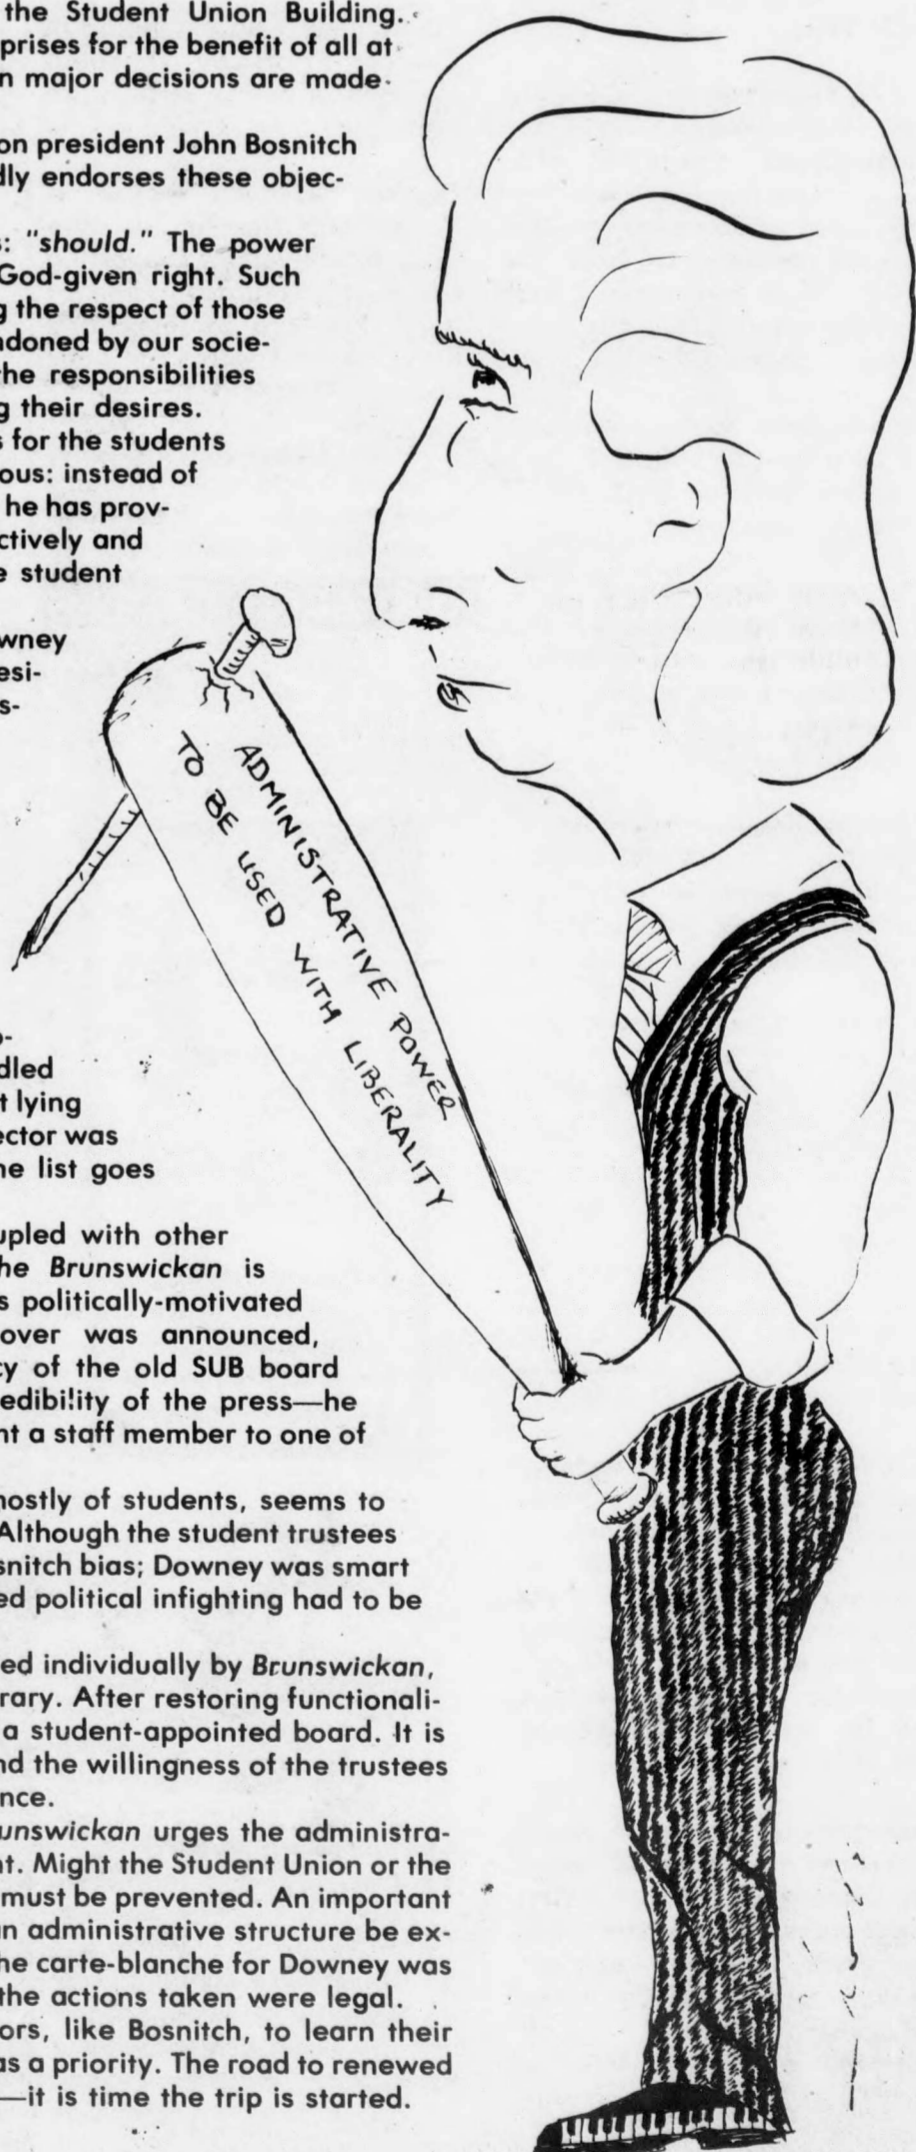

Bosnitch's running of the SUB was coupled with other bodies he runs or is involved with. The Brunswickan is especially critical of his tendency towards politically-motivated appointments. When the Downey takeover was announced, Bosnitch attempted to maintain legitimacy of the old SUB board while at the same time destroying the credibility of the press—he tried to convince the Brunswickan to appoint a staff member to one of the vacant UNB student positions.

The new board of trustees, composed mostly of students, seems to have the interests of the students at heart. Although the student trustees share a general pro-administration, anti-Bosnitch bias; Downey was smart to make the choices he did because renewed political infighting had to be prevented at all costs.

The trustees, most of whom were contacted individually by Brunswickan, share a common view that the board is temporary. After restoring functionality to the SUB they will work towards restoring a student-appointed board. It is critical that they do this with student input, and the willingness of the trustees to talk to students this week inspires confidence.

Although in favour of the takeover, the Brunswickan urges the administration not to consider their actions a precedent. Might the Student Union or the CSL exchange be next? The steamroller effect must be prevented. An important step would be to require that any change of an administrative structure be explicitly approved by the board of governors. The carte-blanc for Downey was dangerous, and many still question whether the actions taken were legal.

Now is the time for student administrators, like Bosnitch, to learn their lesson and start placing good management as a priority. The road to renewed respect from the administration a long one—it is time the trip is started.

The Brunswickan—in its 119th year, is Canada's oldest official student publication. The Brunswickan is published weekly by the UNB Student Union Inc. The Brunswickan office is located in room 35, Student Union Building, University of New Brunswick, P.O. Box 4400, Fredericton, N.B. E3B 5A3.

The Brunswickan is printed at Henley Publishing, Woodstock, N.B. Subscriptions are $15.00 per year. National and local advertising rates are available at (506) 453-4974. General phone 453-4983; News line 453-4973.

The Brunswickan, for legal reasons, will not print any letter to the editor unless it is properly signed. Names may, however, be withheld upon request.

Opinions expressed in The Brunswickan are not necessarily those of the Student Union, The Brunswickan editors or staff, or the administration of the university.

Articles may be freely reprinted, provided proper credit is given.

Many budgets may be cut to 40% of request
SU President opposes fee hikes

By SHELLY NELSON
 Brunswickan Staff

In response to the call for higher Student Union Fees, the Student Union President, John Bosnitch, has announced that he continues to oppose any proposal for increased fees. Bosnitch took this stand despite warnings of budget cuts from Student Union financial administrators.

Bosnitch said supporters of the hike consistently "forget" to mention that the UNB Student Union had the largest surplus in its history in the fiscal year 1982-83. He further declared that the "Student Union has a massive capacity to generate money through the establishment of commercial enterprises and the streamlining of its service operations."

When asked about alternative income from the Student Union, President Bosnitch made specific reference to government grants and university support transfers.

This summer the UNB Student Union received the highest federal funding in the constituency of York-Sunbury, and sponsored a total of more than 40 full time jobs for students. Applications are now in progress for extended year round grants from federal and provincial departments amounting to approximately one hundred thousand dollars annually.

Claiming that university support for union finances at UNB is lagging behind that of other schools, Bosnitch indicated his desire to obtain an unrestricted annual operating grant from the administration of at least $25,000 in return for services rendered to the university community. He cited the case at the University of Alberta where the Student Union receives a 'no-strings attached' grant from the university.

Bosnitch stated his determination to see his policy on lower fees continue exclaiming, "When I was first elected as Engineering Representative to the Student Council, I promised to stop the rip-offs, stop the fee-hikes, and at long last, provide essential services to the students. I am not about to give up now." Expressing dismay at the continued efforts of the 'student establishment' to raise fees, Bosnitch called on all students to resist the institution of unnecessary and exorbitant student taxes.

When contacted for reaction to the Bosnitch stand, a representative of the Administrative Board of the Student Union, which is responsible for finances stated that although there was a net surplus two years ago, last year's spending resulted in a net deficit. There is still a reduced surplus carried over from two years ago, but the A.B. spokesman said that it is a good policy to not spend retained earnings on day-to-day expenses because some years will have surpluses and others will have deficits --these should be allowed to naturally even themselves out. He said increased fixed costs and an increase in the number of sponsored organizations will result in many budgets being cut this year to less than forty percent of what was requested.

CSL Vs. SMOKE SHOPPE: A Consumers Comparison

Opinion

By PETER THOMPSON
 Brunswickan Staff

The CSL exchange has now become quite an issue on campus, and is in direct competition with the well established Smoke Shoppe.

But aside from the fact that the CSL Exchange is student run, how do the two stores compare from a consumer's point of view? Which serves the students' needs the best?

Of course, we need a set of criteria by which to compare the two stores. Prices are obviously important, as are the range of stock, hours of operation, and the speed of service. But employee courtesy and the size and location of the store is also a factor.

In the price category, the CSL definitely comes out the winner. Virtually every common item is priced lower at the CSL Exchange, ranging upward from 5¢; discounts are usually 10 or 15 percent. For example, cigarettes are $2.30 at the Smoke Shoppe and $1.95 at the CSL Exchange. Also important is the fact that the Smoke Shoppe does not competitively price many items that are not sold at the CSL Exchange. For example, 1 litre of homogenized milk is $1.20, compared to $.97 at the grocery store. The CSL Exchange however, sells all of its items at a minimum markup to the consumer: although CSL is registered as a profit making corporation its student management does not have profit-making goals.

The ranges of stock of the two stores vary greatly. The Smoke Shoppe carries far more items than the CSL, and of the items that both stores carry, the Smoke Shoppe generally has a far greater variety. Examples of this are cigarettes and school supplies.

The CSL Exchange has photocopiers, textbooks, cups of coffee, and a few other things the Smoke Shoppe does not, but the Smoke Shoppe's list of exclusives is far greater; magazines, shirts, grocery items, and beer mugs to name a few.

The CSL Exchange asserts itself with its hours of operation: 126 hours per week compared to only 76 hours for the Smoke Shoppe. It is open from 8 a.m. - 2 a.m. daily and the Smoke Shoppe from 9 - 9 Monday to Friday, and 1 - 9 on Saturday and Sunday. CSL however, is not always very punctual in the mornings. It is sometimes not open until 8:15 a.m. or 8:30 a.m., something which is annoying if you want to buy cigarettes, or a pen for your morning classes.

The two stores ranked closely with respect to their speed of service. Neither store is very crowded in the morning or evening: the busiest time is at noon-hour Monday to Friday. The Smoke Shoppe was usually faster at this time, so it gains a marginal edge in this category.

Again, the stores ranked close when comparing the courtesy of their employees. Neither store had employees that were downright rude, but the service was not always very friendly at either store. There are, of course, employees at both stores who were very polite and helpful; so I will have to rate both stores about equal.

With regards to the size and location of both stores, the Smoke Shoppe is the obvious winner. It is closer to the blue lounge, the Social Club, and the Cafeteria, and this is where most students spend time in the SUB. It is also far larger than the CSL, a place that can get very cramped, especially at the noon-hour.

Overall, a rating would depend on the value of each of these categories. If price is the most important thing to you, and the CSL carries what you want, then go there. But if you want to shop around for your school supplies, or cigarettes then go to the Smoke Shoppe. The choice is up to you.

Bosnitch Press Conference

On October 2, Student Union President John Bosnitch called a press conference to inform the public on the current problems between the Student Union and the UNB Administration.

In defining the outline of the 3CF funding, Bosnitch stated that $65,540 was collected last September, 1983 from students, minus the rebates, to be included in the 3CF Fund. In October, the university gave the Student Union $40,000 to be used for rebates. However, it took ten months for the remaining balance to be turned over to the Student Union. According to Bosnitch, roughly 40% of the students claimed and received their rebates, leaving a total of $38,770 to go towards the 3CF Fund.

Regarding the SUB controversy, the UNB Student Union is appealing to obtain a 99-year lease on the SUB and also a contract that will outline the students' right in terms of ownership.

If St. Thomas Student Union adopts this action as well, then the initiative will be pushed forward resulting in a student-run student-owned SUB.

As chairman of the SUB, Bosnitch contended that there is no disarray concerning the finances of the SUB and that there have been no complaints from the auditors.

He went on to call for a public audit of all the books, claiming that a conflict of interest arises when the SUB Board hires their own auditors to handle their books.

Return of the 'Smoker'

By L. ANDREW SMALL

This year, the Engineers are bringing back "The Smoker", a tradition that had been lost for several years. In its true form "The Smoker" is a road trip to who knows where?! Only a handful of people know where the buses are going.

Once on the buses, the party begins and upon arrival at the destination, the party accelerates with movies and music. Sometime later the buses load up again with their weary Engineers and return them to Head Hall.

"The Smoker" is on Tuesday night of Engineering Week, October 9, 1984. Look for posters in Head Hall for further information.

Self-disciplinary model aids justice

On November 18, 1980 the Board of Governors of the University of New Brunswick approved a Student Disciplinary Code, the provisions of which established a mechanism for self-discipline among students. The very concept of self-discipline reveals a philosophy held by the administrators at this University. They recognize that university life creates a special environment and that student discipline should be administered by individuals who are the most familiar with this environment—the students themselves.

Further provisions in the Student Disciplinary Code outline that the structure of the Student Disciplinary Committee is to be composed of eight individuals representing collective interests of students from across campus. The Code specifies that the positions of Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson be occupied by a third year and a second year law student respectively. In addition, there is one faculty member sitting on the Committee, Professor Peter Kent of the History Department. The recording secretary of the SRC sits as a non-voting member of the Committee. The other four individuals are selected in accordance with the "Appointment of Officers" sections of the Code. All appointments to the Committee are ratified by the University's Board of Governors.

The Student Disciplinary Code provides for a Supervisory Board which is composed of seven members appointed by the Board of Governors. The Supervisory Board works in conjunction with a Commissioner of Student Discipline (Dr. Woodfield), also appointed by the Board of Governors, to achieve and maintain efficiency in the carrying out of the Code's objectives. The Supervisory Board also accepts and considers recommendations for both student and faculty members. Professor David Townsend of the Faculty of Law sits as a member of the Supervisory Board and serves as a technical advisor to the Chairperson on legal and procedural matters.

Student Disciplinary Code

Sections A,B,C, and D provide the machinery for the Student Disciplinary Committee and the Supervisory Board. Sections F, G, H, I, J and K deal with procedures for the conduct of the committee, laying and disposal of charges, appeals, etc. Section E is as follows:

E. OFFENCES AND SANCTIONS

NOTE: Sanctions are expressed as a percentage of the current regular tuition fee for a full time student (i.e. $1365 1984-85).

AIESEC Explained

By GEORGE VIBIEN

Has the meaning of the word AIESEC alluded you? Does it cause you unnecessary grief, perhaps even sleepless nights?! Well, please allow me to allay your fears.

AIESEC (pronounced eye-sek) is the French acronym for the International Association For Students in Economics, Commerce and Computer Science. AIESEC is the largest apolitical student organization in the world. We are active in 400 universities in 60 countries, with over 40,000 members in both the "Communist" and "Free" worlds.

As an international organization our goal is to "bridge the gap" between classroom theory, and aspects of the business world. We achieve this through numerous activities which allow students to gain valuable business experience, and business contacts.

Through AIESEC's international job exchange program, students have the opportunity to work abroad in their field of study, be it Business Administration, Economics, or Computer Science. Companies (in 60 countries) hire foreign students for 2 to 18 months to participate in the operation of their firm. You can choose the country you wish to go to, and AIESEC will arrange for your visa, insurance, housing, social activities and place of work.

Our activities this term include: our 1st Annual Career Day, which was held September 18th, and proved to be a tremendous success. The next major event is the fall Regional Congress, which is being hosted by AIESEC-UNB. Students from AIESEC-Dalhousie, AIESEC-St. Marys, and AIESEC-Moncton will be in Fredericton October 12, 13, and 14th to participate in workshops, training seminars, luncheons, and various social activities that will make the weekend memorable. Following these events AIESEC-UNB will host it's 2nd annual business luncheon to be held November 15th. This event is in the process of being organized, which allows business representatives, faculty and students to get together over lunch—a perfect opportunity to explore your career options, if you missed AIESEC's Career Day.

The AIESEC-UNB local executives are: President-Sven Tretrop; Chairman-Stanley Best; V.P. Exchange-Anne Marie Warner; V.P.

Marketing-Claude LeBlanc; V.P. Solicitations-Laura MacLeod; V.P. Human Resources & Productivity-Kawal Singh; V.P. Special Projects-Dave Hasson; V.P. Fundraising-George Vibien; V.P. Finance-Jim Bremner; V.P. Communications-Linda McBride.

If you would like to get involved or have a few questions, come find out more at our next meeting Wednesday, October 10, in SUB room 103 (the conference room) at 6:00 p.m. or drop by our office in SUB room 106 any school day between 11:30 and 4:00 p.m.

Awards Office

If you need assistance, the place to go is the Awards Office and see Bonita Hallett, the Director of Undergraduate Awards or Sue Wiesner, Financial Advisor.

Scholarships, Bursaries, and University Loans all originate at the Awards Office. Undergraduate scholarship applications are available starting in January of each year and should be submitted to the Awards Office prior to April 15. Completion of this form ensures that you will be considered for all scholarships awarded by the university.

Applications for University Loans for the fall term are available at the Awards Office between October 9 and October 19, 1984. In order to be eligible to apply for a University Loan, students must have successfully completed one term at UNB. A short interview is required with the Financial Advisor.

Are you having problems with your Government Student Loan? Do you need assistance with appeal forms? Do drop in to the Awards Office. We may be able to help you.

A Financial Aid Brochure describing our services is available upon request from the Awards Office. We are located in Rooms 109 and 112, Alumni Memorial Building.

To all students!!

If you have moved - it is important to list your new address with the Registrars Office immediately.

World Food Day, recognized by the 147 members of the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), will be observed on the Fredericton campus on Tuesday, October 16, 1984.

Praxis

By KAYE MACPHEE AND MIKE MACKINNON

In a 1982 communique received from the Chair of the Student Disciplinary Committee the following was stated:

"On November 18, 1980, the Board of Governors of the University of New Brunswick approved a Student Disciplinary Code, the provisions of which established a mechanism for self-discipline among students. The very concept of self-discipline reveals a philosophy held by the administrators at this University. They recognize that university life creates a special environment and that student discipline should be administered by individuals who are the most familiar with this environment—the students themselves."

Reassuring words these; presumably stated with the basic tenet of Common Law in mind: that people should be judged by their peers. Unfortunately, however, the administration merely pays lip service to the ideals stated therein. In the past academic year a disciplinary case involving the UNB Campus and a UNB student was taken before the Board of Deans rather than the Student Disciplinary Committee. The explanation was that this particular case should be heard by the Board of Deans for "the best interests of all parties", a decision reached after discussions between the Commissioner of Student Discipline, the Chairman of the SDC, the Dean of Students and the technical legal advisor as well as the complainants. The question that comes immediately to mind is why establish a policy and procedures if they are going to be followed only at the whim of the administration in its increasingly arbitrary fashion? The action taken by the Board of Deans runs counter to the above quoted philosophy.

Simply stated, disciplinary cases involving students should be heard by the SDC, particularly if the charges are brought under the Student Disciplinary Code (as they were in the aforementioned case), as the SDC better understands the Code and is in a better position to judge the actions of students. The Board of Deans should act instead as an appellate body (body of appeal) as is established in the Code. Had the case mentioned above been heard before the SDC a more appropriate decision would likely have been made and we would be well on our way to regulating the actions of the Campus Police. As it now stands, we are back to square one with no worthwhile precedent upon which to rely.

The administration must recognize the fact that students do have rights and these rights must be respected. Just treatment of students in disciplinary matters is long overdue. In the now familiar words of Lord Heward "It is not merely of some importance, but is of fundamental importance that justice should not only be done, but should manifestly and undoubtedly be seen to be done." (Rex v. Sussex Justices, Ex parte McCarthy (1924, 1 KB 256).

On Sunday, September 30, 1984 at 7:47 p.m. Candice Alexandra Macmillan joined the honorary staff on the Brunswickan. This blue-eyed, red-haired beauty weighed in at 7lbs.10oz. and is the daughter of ex-Editors Bob and Kathryn (nee Wakeling).

POLITICAL PERSPECTIVES

By R. HUTCHINS

(This week's Political Perspectives column was meant to be published two weeks ago. It was not however, due to pressing deadlines, hair pulling, and lack of staff. (Hint, hint. Oh, well. Hi-yo, Silver, away! The Lone Ed.)

All last week, I watched the C.B.C. with keen interest, hoping to receive some visionary insight from the Pope's historic visit. I was amazed at the pontiff's patience and stamina in the face of such an exhausting itinerary. It struck me as ironic that so much fanfare would accompany such a simple and patient man (especially considering some of the other figure-heads we aspire to see). Canadians definitely arose to the occasion with passion, tenderness and reverence, exhibiting a faith seldom seen in our day to day lives. Although I was impressed and at times touched by the Pope's sensativity to modern issues, I was also distraught by the media's use of him as a figure, an image to be idolized and commercially packaged.

Only in a society such as ours can a religious pilgrimage, designed to renew faith, strengthen church unity, moral values, and belief in God be used as a forum for issues too often neglected by our media. The messages carried by the pope were all important issues in modern society, yet ones neglected too often for the sake of placidity and conformity. 250,000 people will assemble to hear the pope speak of the evils of nuclear war and the perils of immorality yet very few will carry his message further than the stadium or church they have assembled in. Our own press would prefer to present the image of the Pope 12 hours a day for 12 days instead of carrying his much needed message all year long! The Pope is only a man, a representative of the church, although revered and symbolic his job is to present the word of God as a messenger of God, not an idol, or star, but a prophet and medium to the people. I think this intention is overlooked and not emphasized enough by the society he is trying to communicate with.

Although I am not a religious person, I see the value of the Pope's message and realize the importance of action in the face of an ominous future. We must perceive him as a medium for our unity, and continue to press for social justice and peace. I think this message moves beyond a question of faith in God, it moves to a belief in principals that should govern a civil society.

Now that the pope has left Canada and the fanfare subsided, will Canadians have a renewed energy and desire to deal with such prevailing issues that he touched upon, or do we need an image to show us the way, a figure to be used as an excuse for our own weakness? I think the Pope himself would be happy if we forgot his image long enough to remember his message.

The views expressed within are my own and not necessarily those of the Brunswickan.

CAREER LINE

By NATALIE BULL

I always found shopping with my mother extremely frustrating. No matter what outlandish get-up I pulled on, she never failed to keep her voice and expression absolutely neutral and recite the same old line: "It doesn't matter if I like it - you're the one who has to wear it." She was right, of course, to insist that I make my own decisions about something as individual as dress.

Shopping for a career entails similar concerns - personal taste, likes and dislikes, range of choice - but is certainly a much graver and more mind-boggling proposition than putting together a decent wardrobe. Often students are overwhelmed by the whirl of courses, faculties, degree programmes and occupations open to them, or feel locked into a career path that is becoming less and less attractive.

As a senior in the faculty of Arts, I know what agony choosing a faculty, then a major or honours programme can be, and have heard the eternal question, "What are you going to do when you grow up?" at least a hundred times. This column, back for its third year of publication in the Brunswickan, is sponsored by Counselling Services and aims at familiarizing UNB - STU students facing similar choices and dilemmas with the avenues of assistance that are offered.

The core of these services is the Career Center of Counselling Services in the Alumni Memorial Building on campus. Expanded three years ago on a grant from the Counselling Foundation of Canada, the expansion has proved its worth and has recently become the financial responsibility of UNB.

At Counselling Services Career Center, experienced personal and career counsellors are available for confidential assistance. In career Counselling, an expert does not tell you what work you should be doing or use a career test for a quick and sometimes irrelevant answer. Instead, advanced self-discovery procedures are used to help you see more clearly your orientations, options and priorities, laying the ground work for an informed decision.

Setting upon a career path may very well be one of the most challenging - and frightening - things we ever have to do. And although it is a decision no one can make for us, the aim of this column is to introduce and outline services, programmes and career information that can help untangle the choices.

AN OPEN LETTER TO STUDENTS FROM THE TRUSTEES OF THE SUB

"The students are running the SUB with the help of the administration. Operations are under the direction of a student board. This is set down in the constitution and everyone seems to be in agreement."

So said Gary Davis--a UNB graduate and Acting Director of the SUB Board when it was first constituted--in the December 3, 1968 edition of The Brunswickan.

Since student leaders first made known the need for a new student facility in 1962, the University has advocated student involvement. Students voted in 1964 to increase SRC fees by $10 in order to pay for half the cost of construction. So in 1969 it seemed only fitting for the UNB Board of Governors to delegate the responsibility of running the building to a predominantly student board.

The University still believes in student management of the SUB even though the SUB Board has been dissolved for the present. Four students--three from UNB and one from St. Thomas--serve on the newly-appointed Board of Trustees. True, we are appointed by the University and not the Student Union executive, but we are students with proven records of involvement in student activities and student affairs: Larry Fox as Orientation Chairman; Suzanne Currie as a Student Representative to the Senate; Gordon Loane as a long-time broadcaster on CHSR; and Joel Leger as a former Chairman of the SUB Board.

Audio-Visual Services Director John Webster, who chairs the Trustees, and Intercollegiate Co-ordinator Jim Born, in particular, have also worked with students in a number of capacities.

And we are here to serve you now.

The Board of Trustees is not a permanent organization. We are here to get the affairs of the SUB running smoothly and in a business-like manner. These are our objectives:

- to appoint a permanent Director of the SUB by December 1, 1984;
- to finalize the leases with commercial tenants;
- to establish an annual budget for the operation of the building;
- to negotiate terms for the existence of the Campus Services Ltd. store;
- to determine staffing requirements of the SUB;
- to develop hiring procedures and staffing policies;
- to draft suitable job descriptions for the Director and Assistant Director of the SUB;
- to authorize immediately necessary building maintenance and renovations;
- to conduct a building inventory;
- to evaluate and standardize hours of operation and building security;
- to produce an events manual with procedures and policies for use of the building by student and off-campus groups.

We have already appointed UNB graduate Kim Norris as Interim Director of the SUB. As we do, he welcomes your suggestions and recommendations for the operation of the building. Please submit them in writing to:

Office of the Director
Room 104-105
Student Union Building

The UNB Board of Governors, who, in fact, owns and maintains the SUB, will be monitoring our activities. President James Downey has said publicly that the Board will be asked to review the question of appropriate longer-term arrangements for the administration of the SUB, after the Trustees have restored normal operations and there has been adequate opportunity for consultation with various interested student groups.

Yours sincerely,

John Webster, Chairman

Inconsistencies in MacKenzie House Affair

This summer, the residents of MacKenzie House received letters from the Men's residence office that MacKenzie House was being turned into a quiet house. The residents had to accept accommodation in another residence or else they had to appeal to get back into MacKenzie.

This action, undertaken by former Dean of Men's Residences Bob Smith in the waning days of his term (which ended July 1, 1984), was meant to calm down MacKenzie House, which had a reputation as a "rowdy house." To this end, Dean Smith also told all members of third floor they would not be readmitted.

The third floor of MacKenzie was the scene of some rather wild times last year; however, there are always exceptions in a group, and some third floor residents were never discipline problems.

Dean Smith arbitrarily kicked out a whole floor, and when Dr. Reavley Gair became the new Dean later in the summer, he refused to go back on the previous Dean's decision.

MacKenzie went through substantial changes. In all, only 22 out of 105 residents were readmitted to the house. The men of MacKenzie basically had three conditions:

- 1) if they lived on third floor, they were kicked out.
- 2) if they had a grade point average below 3.5, they were kicked out.
- 3) if they didn't want to live in a quiet house, they were kicked out.

One student, Larry Long, was the Vice-President of the House Committee last year. Mr. Long was not allowed back into MacKenzie, nor in fact, allowed into the residence system at all. No sufficient reason was ever given, as Long never had any in-house disciplinary actions taken against him, and he had a G.P.A. as high or higher than some who were readmitted. Mr. Long did circulate a petition last year expressing disapproval of Reavley Gair being named new Dean of Men's Residences. The petition was signed by approximately 80 people (this out of a house of 105).

A committee will be meeting to give Larry Long the reason(s) he was cast out of the residence system. Members include Dean of Students Don Eagle, Don of MacKenzie Regeev Mathur, and the present and former Dean of Men's Residences, Reavley Gair and Robert Smith.

There are many inconsistencies in this affair. Some people were readmitted even though they had had charges against them for house rule infractions and/or damages; some even though their G.P.A.'s were not up to requirement. Jim Arsenaault, who helped Larry Long circulate the petition, was not let back into MacKenzie, but was made a Proctor at Rosary Hall. Julius Csabai, who was from third floor, was readmitted. In fact, he was the only member of his floor let back in. The reasons? He was on the House Committee, and was needed to organize the incoming committee, since President Long was now persona non grata. He was also cited by the residence administration as showing valuable leadership qualities. The third reason he was readmitted, the administrators later revealed, was that he was in fact let in by mistake, but it was too late to do anything about it.

This is a very odd situation. The Brunswickan calls for a restructuring of appeal and grievance procedures in the residence administration, and for some kind of board (rather like a SUB Board that works) to be developed, with students and administrators both. As it stands now, the residence system is arguably the least democratic administration on campus.

By DAVID MAZEROLLE

It's time again to Mug some wumps. Sure, you know what I'm talking about. Wumps. Wumps (as opposed to wimps) are mysterious creatures that lurk in the corners of the campus, who through outrageous, ill-conceived, laughable, or idiotic actions expose themselves to the lambasting of the press.

Who is this weeks wump? The honor goes to: the person or group of persons who stole the climbing net at the UNB Kindergarten at Marshall D'Avray Hall. Mary Lee Chase, the Assistant Administrator of the Kindergarten, writes, "This is an expensive piece of equipment which will cost at least $600 to replace, if a net can even be located to purchase." Boys and girls, can you say "Grand Theft"? I think you can... Low, low, low...especially when children are the victims. Ms Chase also writes, "The children at the Kindergarten used this net everyday and really wish that the guilty party(ies) would return the net."

Anyone who has information about the net is asked to please return the net or contact the UNB Kindergarten at 453-3506. My advice: check residence rooms, as nets are common in the decor of many rooms. Then send them to me. I'll sic my personal bodyguard, Craig Roy (formerly in the employ of F. Sinatra), to do the most horrible, twisted, sadistic things to their wardrobe imaginable.

John Bosnitch has called the election for Oct. 31 (yes that's in 1984). Nominations are to close Oct. 17 (again, same year).

Curiously, Oct.17 is the day the Student's Representative Council will meet to discuss changes in the SRC Constitution that will create new positions on council. New positions are VP Administration, VP Services, VP Academic, and VP Public Relations. However, John is calling for nominations in these positions already. Note: for positions that do not exist at this time. When, when, O Lord?

Wednesday morning, your dear Editor-in-Chief was interviewed by Paddy Greig on CBC Radio's Information Morning Show. You can't find out what I said, because the interview was live and not re-broadcast. And I'm sure not telling. One advantage of the electronic media is its impermanence. You have your hour in the sun (or in my case, five minutes) and then, pfft, you're gone. Here at the Bruns, everything you write may someday be in the archives or on microfilm for all posterity.

In all actuality, I gave the CBC listeners the Brunswickan's editorial policy, which is obvious to those who read the front page this week. 'Nuff said.

Speaking of the SUB Board case: Is the tide of opinion turning? Is the Daily Gleaner going to retract the mistakes made in their editorial of Monday? Is the Alumni Association going to come out in Bosnitch's favor? Stay tuned, campers, stay tuned!

Congratulations to John Bosnitch for pulling a rabbit out of a hat--a cheque for $38,770 is being sent to UNB Comptroller John O'Brien. That's the balance of the Third Century Fund rebate money that the administration wanted back. Now, are both parties satisfied?

As a special note, I've been told that 1983 United States Chess Champion, Yasser Seirawan extends a free challenge to any chessplayers at UNB for a 12 board exhibition today. Players should show any time between 12:00 and 3:00 p.m. in the SUB Blue Lounge.

Steve Roy: the wildest woman in Fredericton says she is going to miss you and wishes you well. Many of your other friends, here at the Bruns and elsewhere, feel the same. Best wishes et bonne chance.

Caribbean Circle expresses confidence in Bosnitch

Dear Sir:

We, the executive and members of the Caribbean Circle, have noticed with concern the concerted and well-orchestrated attempt to discredit John Bosnitch, both personally and in his capacity as Student Union President. There were a few instances when articles and letters ran counter to the anti-Bosnitch trend - the articles by Oliver Koncz (Brunswickan vol. 119, Issue 4, Sept. 28, 1984) and Shelly Nelson (Brunswickan, vol. 119, Issue 3, Sept. 21, 1984) and a letter in the latter issue cited, by Tillotson Li, are examples.

When Bosnitch heard of Maple Li's tragic death (one

"There were a few instances when articles and letters ran counter to the anti-Bosnitch trend" hesitates to term this an accident), he was in the building and offering his comfort to Tillotson Li in a matter of minutes. His sympathetic and humane act was instinctive and immediate.

Three years ago, Bosnitch was also firmly supportive of foreign students in their battle against the former International Student Advisor. He was also instrumental in having the Board of Foreign Students recognized as a fun-

"It surprises us, therefore, that John Bosnitch could be accused of harassing people and threatening them."

dable body under the umbrella of the SRC.

In addition to all of this,

"It surprises us, therefore, that John Bosnitch could be accused of harassing people and threatening them."

Bosnitch has been instrumental in assisting three or four international students who found themselves destitute as a result of occurrences in their home, occurrences beyond their control. He was, for instance, instrumental in having representations and pleas made to Immigration Canada (Fredericton) to have these student granted temporary part-time employment authorizations.

threatening them. On the contrary, our dealings with John Bosnitch have always been with a gentleman who was kind, considerate, sympathetic, perpetually available and cordial. Always, there was reciprocal respect between John and our groups and our individual members.

We thank you, Mr. Editor, for the space in your newspaper in order that our views be expressed and, hopefully, in order that some equipoise of opinion be rendered.

Thank you,
The Caribbean Circle

At a meeting of the Caribbean Circle on Sunday, September 30, 1984, the Circle passed a motion of

"categorical confidence," in Bosnitch as Student Union President and as a profoundly concerned human being.

Without listing the achievements or attempting to refute allegations against Mr. Bosnitch which have already been generally dealt with in other places by other people and which have to do with his concern about the general body of students at UNB, we should like to concentrate on an aspect of John Bosnitch which has hitherto gone ignored or unaddressed. We refer to John's relationship to and dialogue with all International/Foreign students and to the Caribbean Circle of UNB.

Earlier this year, when Brian James's child fell from the sixth floor of Magee House, it was eventually to Bosnitch to whom James went. Bars were put on his windows out of John's representation and in-

Venezuelan students support John Bosnitch

Dear Editor:

The students and staff of our university have witnessed with dismay the recent antagonism between the administration and the Student Union. In particular, the President of the latter, Mr. John Bosnitch, has been the subject of several criticisms, one of which is that he is unable to administer SUB affairs in an efficient manner.

The Venezuelan Students Association and its executive committee are firmly convinced that Mr. Bosnitch has shown outstanding leadership, initiative, concern and compassion. We also believe that the administration should exercise some perceptiveness in seeing the qualities which we have seen in John, then the gap between the SRC and the administration will cease to exist.

Without attempting to resolve the problem by simply "taking sides," we should like to express our confidence in John as Student Union President.

Thank you.

Sincerely Yours
On behalf of the Executive Committee
Carlos Moncada
President, V.S.A.

Student government a farce

Dear Editor:

Last week's paper included a letter from a student from Dalhousie by the name of Patrick Malone. Mr. Malone seems to think that John Bosnitch should be re-elected. The reason? Bosnitch is "exciting, if not a bit scandalous..."

Right.

It is very difficult to reply to the arguments of such a skilled political pundit. Malone does make the valid, if obvious, point that student government is a bit of a farce anyway! Bosnitch doesn't seem to recognize this, however. Perhaps the best thing to do is to dethrone John Bosnitch and supply all those who want "excitement" and "scandal" in their lives with copies of the latest tabloids.

"Bosnitch is 'exciting, if not a bit scandalous...' Right."

Barry Parkinson

Fellow Students:

I am writing this letter in hope to open some eyes. For the past two years the students at UNB have taken for granted the services that our Student Union President has provided us with. John Bosnitch has obviously gained enough experience and confidence to tackle issues that no previous president dared and probably no future president will. I am not saying that Dr. James Downey's actions are wrong, just that I sympathize with the intentions of John Bosnitch. Those intentions that have been keeping the "short end of the stick" away from the students. John has given us something that we will be thankful for, only after he completes his post as President.

Yours sincerely,
Bob Robinson

Reader offers sympathy, advice to Li

Dear Mr. Li:

I have just read, as I'm sure others have too, your letter and story that was printed in the September 21 issue of the Brunswickan. My heart truly went out to you in your "battle" against us. You suffered one of the most heart sickening tragedies that one could go through. Nobody knows the pain you and your wife feel right now, nor will feel in the years to come.

I do feel however, that you have taken a stand about who is responsible for the death of your child. You blame it on, in short, UNB. I ask you though, does it really matter about who is responsible? The fact remains something should be done to prevent anything from happening to others. I do feel that in time, you will change your opinion of this when the pain of this death mellows (Although you will always feel this pain, I'm sure). In time, a "sweet" memory of Maple will exist, one that will not always include the accident, as it most likely already does.

Two years ago, I experienced the death of my nephew. The accidents between the two children are similar, as were the ages. I too, have felt the loss of life before my eyes as well as in my arms. I do feel your pain and when I heard of your accident, I relived what I thought was behind myself. Apparently, I was mistaken.

One of our differences is the fact that my friends gave unconditional love and support; where your friends did not. I would not be here if it wasn't for them for they, literally, saved my life. I would encourage you to look into self-help groups such as "Passionate Parents."

and it hurts. I suspect that it will always be this way but now I have learned to deal with this hurt in different ways.

I do want to wish you "Good Luck" because frankly, you are going to need it! I learned a very sad lesson about life at a very early age but I feel we share something not many could comprehend. You are not alone; that is one of the hardest things to comprehend. Your daughter is in the most sacred place and until you realize that, it is a very rocky road; one I'm still walking on.

Name withheld upon request.

Asylum warms over "Mixed Grill"

The Comedy Asylum is on a roll. Hot on the heels of their sizzling summer sensation, Passin' Thru, the Fredericton based theatre company announces a revised winter season. Due to popular demand the Asylum's smash musical revue, Maritime Mixed Grill Mixed Over. The show promises something for everyone - the best of the original show and a wealth of new material, all updated, and all in the madcap, whimsical, satirical, musical spirit which made Maritime Mixed Grill such a hit with Comedy Asylum patrons.

The show will feature a vibrant cast. Marshall Button, Comedy Asylum Artistic Director, and author of Maritime Mixed, returns from a sojourn with Mermaid Theatre in Nova Scotia with, among other surprises, an update on his legendary mill worker, Lucien; and after a summer spent with the Blyth Festival in Ontario, The Comedy Asylum's own Queen of Comedy Jenny Munday, once again graces New Brunswick's stages with all her fiery charm and wit. Back for a second convalescence with the Asylum is the multi-talented, crowd-pleaser and Dalhousie native, Dave Peterson; and new to the Asylum, National Theatre School graduate, Fredericton's Helen Taylor, will add her unique sparkle to the production. Comedy Asylum veteran Vaughn Fulford, who will be remembered as Ed Parent in Passin' Thru, is still committed to the Asylum and will double as the show's director. Jim Gow returns as the affable Jim the bartender and as technical director of the troupe. Alfred Paul-Elias, Associate Producer, rounds out one of the strongest Comedy Asylum line-ups ever.

Maritime Mixed Grill Warmed Over will play to dinner theatre crowds in Fredericton at New Brunswick's first dinner theatre showcase, The Fredericton Wandlyn Inn, on the following dates: Nov. 2, 3, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, and 18. Patrons are advised to make their reservations early by calling the Wandlyn Inn at 452-8937. The Comedy Asylum will also present a dinner theatre performance on November 23 and 24 at the Wandlyn Inn, in Amherst, N.S. The number there is (902) 667-3331.

A date is also scheduled for Saint John. In conjunction with "Performance", an amateur theatre company in the loyalist city and the management of the 1800 Club, Maritime Mixed Grill Warmed Over can be seen at the club for one show only on Sunday, Nov. 4. Advance tickets will be available.

As part of The Comedy Asylum's Final Bicentennial Bash, Maritime Mixed Grill Warmed Over will tour the province of New Brunswick in conjunction with various local Bicentennial Committees and the New Brunswick Bicentennial Commission. Watch for it in your area. Says Comedy Asylum Artistic Director, Marshall Button, "We're very pleased to have this opportunity. Our Bicentennial doesn't end in September.

Last spring when we toured Maritime Mixed Grill many people expressed a desire for all New Brunswickers to see the show; and this summer many patrons were anxious to see again the characters they loved so much from Mixed Grill. Maritime Mixed Grill Warmed Over allows us to fulfill these requests and to perform before a whole new audience with a brand new show, all in the spirit of our last revue." Some tour dates are still available. For more information call Vaughn Fulford at 455-6198 or 455-5037.

As another highlight to The Comedy Asylum's banner year, Theatre New Brunswick's Young Company will be performing a revised version, suitable for high school audiences, or the original Maritime Mixed Grill. It will play in high schools around the province this school year, giving students the opportunity to "have a laugh at ourselves."

Plans are already in the works for the new year. In February The Comedy Asylum will perform (rights pending) Automatic Pilot, an hilarious comedy about adult relations by Toronto playwright, Erika Ritter.

TNB starts fundraising campaign

Theatre New Brunswick is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. George Urquhart as Chairman of TNB's Fundraising Committee for the second consecutive year. He will be appealing to corporations throughout the province and elsewhere in Canada in an effort to raise $100,000 to "keep TNB on the road". Mr. Urquhart is the past Chairman of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce and is Director of the CNR. He serves on many boards and commissions, and has had a very strong involvement in the business and community life of New Brunswick.

Mr. Tom Crowther, Chairman of TNB's Board of Directors said "It is essential that TNB receive financial support from the private sector in order to maintain the vital role of taking professional theatre to all sections of New Brunswick. TNB is 'the jewel of Canadian theatre' as it is the only theatre company that tours its five mainstage productions each year".

In addition to TNB's mainstage activities, its Young Company tours bilingual productions that are both lively and educational to New Brunswick schools. The summer company provides entertainment at festivals and special events throughout the province during the summer months.

This year marks a new era for New Brunswick's own professional live theatre. Janet Amos, one of Canada's most distinguished actor/directors, will be taking the reins as Artistic Director after five successful seasons with the Blyth Festival in Ontario. She has planned an exciting season of plays for the year beginning with a brand new comedy, The Melville Boys, by New Brunswick playwright Norm Foster. For Christmas she is giving the province an enchanting new musical version of the story all families love, Scrooge. The new year will begin with a thriller called I'll Be Back Before Midnight that will have New Brunswick audiences on the edge of their seats. Next is the powerful drama, A Taste of Honey, which is the story of a passionate, funny, tough 17-year-old whose search for life leads her into incredible situations with those that are dear to her. The season ends with Country Hearts, a rousing musical set in a small town hotel on a stormy night. TNB is thrilled that this production will also be part of the National Arts Centre's season in Ottawa.

TNB is very grateful for the support it receives from the Beaverbrook Canadian Foundation and all levels of government. However, if TNB is to continue to provide the excellent quality of professional live theatre for which it is recognized, at such reasonable ticket prices, financial support from the private sector must increase. Donations of any amount will be greatly appreciated. TNB is a non-profit, professional organization, and all donations are tax deductible.

Drama Society Rumours abound

This is an announcement, as well as a summary of past activities. The announcement shall follow the summary, so as to attract more attention. The summary involves the activities of a group known only as the UNB Drama Society. Apparently, they have been about campus having MEETINGS and the like. They have obviously been talking about the past and how they managed to perform two plays last year. They are also, or so rumour has it, planning on putting on more plays this year. All I can say is "How can we stop these fanatics from engaging in the art of self-expression?" The answer to me seems simple, we must attend their meetings and create disorder, shout loudly and exuberantly when others are talking and try to prevent them from getting anything done. Rumour also has it that there is no governing group and that free expression is welcomed. Well, it is time we put a stop to that. Time to stop this ramble, as well.

Essentially, all I want to say is that presently a group of individuals are in sort of a 'think tank' atmospheres (right Bill) and are deciding the options or plays that they may do this term. These individuals expressed such interest at the first meeting and thus have been thinking. The second meeting is scheduled for Wednesday October 10 in room 143 of Marshall d'Avray from 7-9 p.m. This meeting will involve the auctioning of "to be's" or "not to" be's, as well as provide a place for those that enjoy the group feeling. The plays will not be announced as to insure equal opportunity for all. Posters and other types of incentive (propaganda) will be present on campus for those that failed to read this. Of course, all are welcome, the more the .....

Cope releases masterful debut

By WILDRED LANGMAID

Julian Cope - World Shut Your Mouth

World Shut Your Mouth is the first solo release by Julian Cope, the former frontman of the late group the Teardrop Explodes. It is certainly a masterful solo debut.

The Teardrop Express released two splendid albums,

Kilimanjaro and Wilder, but Cope then pulled the plug on the group. The team has not totally disbanded though, as drummer Gary Dwyer has remained from the Teardrop Explodes, while former group bassist Ronnie Francois appears on two tracks. A key addition is lead guitarist and album producer Stephen Lovell. Besides writing all the gems for World Shut Your Mouth, Cope does all the vocals and plays rhythm guitar, bass guitar, and atmosphere-rich Casio organ.

This Cope solo album bears resemblances to his work with the Teardrop Explodes, through it is certainly not alone. Cope has come up with material that is more commercial at times, but by no means has he sold out. "Greatness and Perfection", "Strasbourg", and "Sunshine Playroom" are all well thought-out songs which have hit written all over them. "Pussyface" conjures up early Bowie images, while "Elegant Chaos" is quite a bit like the recent subdued strains of The Psychedelic Furs. Melodically, Cope continues along his oft-psychedelic way in parts of such songs as "Kolly Kibbers' Birthday", whose title just invites one to listen further, "Metranil Vavin", with its intriguing and beautifully-fused tempo change from stanza to chorus, "Elegant Chaos", and the moody album closer "Lunatic and Fire Piston", with its dischordant Casio organ conclusion. As well, atmospheric and arguably psychedelic interjections appear betwixt and between various songs on the album.

Cope has an interesting way of putting things, and that is the essence of much of his music's charm. In "Strasbourg", he metaphorically sums up a relationship with the line "If I was France and you were Germany/What an alliance that would be", while in "Kolly Kibbers' Birthday", he sings "My life is a delicate balance/The distance between Time A and Time B".

The biting cynicism of Cope's lyrics is particularly striking in "Elegant Chaos". Right off the bat, he puts it on the line, saying "I was happy for a while but the joke is over", and then bemoaning "the rotten core of man" and "(his) cool cool attitude to ignorance". He stands alone, proclaiming "Sanity is - it's neither one thing or the other/My bit fear is to dig it at last and have it taken away".

The alienation continues in the song's final stanza, as he sings:

"The look in your eyes when you gave this to me/
Has put me on my guard/
In this elegant chaos/
I stand to one side."

The then-lamented demise of The Teardrop Explodes now appears to have been a good move. Julian Cope's focus is clearer than ever as a songwriter. World Shut Your Mouth will perhaps get Cope some commercial success to go along with the critical plaudits.

LA CHRONIQUE ÉTOILÉE

par MARC POIRIER

Bienvenue aux étudiants et étudiantes à "La chronique étoilée". Cette chronique fera maintenant partie intégrante du Brunswickan et a pour but d'informer les universitaires sur ce qui "s'brasse" en français à Fredericton.

Le Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne:

La plupart des activités de la communauté francophone se déroulent au Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne, situé au 715 rue Priestman, non loin du campus universitaire.

Le Centre Sainte-Anne se veut le carrefour de la vie académique et francophone de la région de la Capitale. Le complexe qui a ouvert ses portes en janvier 1978, abrite l'école Sainte-Anne offrant un programme d'études françaises de la première à la douzième année. En plus, nous y retrouvons les bureaux de Cercle français, la Caisse populaire de Fredericton, la bibliothèque Dr. Marguerite-Michaud, ainsi que la paroisse Sainte-Anne-des-Pays-Bas qui présente deux messes de dimanche matin au théâtre, soit à 10h00 et à 11h30. Finalement, le Centre comporte des installations servant principalement aux activités communautaires: un gymnase, un théâtre, un terrain de soccer, une cafétéria, deux salles de squash, une garderie, une galerie d'art, deux cours de tennis extérieurs, des salles de réunion, etc.

En un mot, le Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne et la communauté a beaucoup à offrir aux universitaires de Fredericton. Aussi cette année, l'accent sera mis sur l'organisation d'activités pouvant vous intéresser et dont l'annonce sera fait dans cette chronique. Vous serez des nôtres?

Logo du Centre

Le symbole du Centre communautaire Sainte-Anne est formé de cinq flèches en forme humaine se tenant par la main. Les flèches représentent la communauté qui converge vers son Centre communautaire. Le centre du symbole a la forme d'une étoile et souligne la présence de la culture acadienne et francophone au coeur de la région de Fredericton.

"Le Temps d'une vie": du bon théâtre

Qualifié de "spectacle à voir, certainement un des meilleurs jamais présenté par la Théâtre Populaire d'Acadie", "Le Temps d'une vie" de Roland Lepage sera à l'affiche au théâtre du Centre communautaire Sainte Anne de Fredericton mardi 9 octobre à 20h00.

Claire Normand, qui fait ses débuts sur la scène professionnelle, incarne le personnage de Rosana, née en 1900, de la petite fille à la vieille grand-maman. Huit tableaux illustrent les différentes étapes de la vie de cette femme à la fois simple et attachante, dans des ses rapports avec les hommes de sa vie; c'est-à-dire son père, son frère, son premier amour, son mari et enfin son fils. Laval Goupil, Jilien Cormier, Jean Lambert et Marcel Thériault remplissent tour à tour ces rôles avec solidité.

Sous une mise en scène de Réjean Poirier, décorée par Luc Rondeau qui signe aussi les costumes, "Le Temps d'une vie" est la première de quatre pièces qui viendront visiter la Capitale au cours de l'hiver par l'entremise du Théâtre Populaire d'Acadie. C'est à ne pas manquer!

Y penser c'est assez

L'Association sportive francophone de Fredericton a repris ses activités. Toutes personnes voulant joindre les équipes de hockey-boule, de racquetball, de ballon-balai masculin ou féminin, de badminton, de balle-molle, de volleyball masculine ou féminine, ou de hockey sur glace (les Acadiens), sont priés de contacter le Cercle français de Fredericton au 454-1487. Y penser, c'est pas assez...faites-le.

Entre les branches...

-Voici les heures d'ouvertures de la bibliothèque Dr. Marguerite-Michaud: lundi: fermé; mardi: 9h00 à 21h00; mercredi au vendredi: 9h00 à 17h00; samedi: 10h00 à 12h45 et 14h00 à 17h00; dimanche: 10h45 à 12h00.

-Le 3 octobre prochain, le Centre communautaire accueillera une clinique de sang de la Crois-Rouge, parrainée par le Club Richelieu. Cinq bénévoles sont demandés pour donner au coup de main. Veuillez téléphoner Conrad LeBlanc au 453-2731.

-La Caisse populaire de Fredericton est ouverte du lundi au vendredi de 10h00 à 17h00.

Man & Myth

By RICHARD K. ANDERSON

"Dramatically Forever"

I recognize you! You read "Man and Myth" last week, right? I thought so — I have a thing for faces. Actually I have a thing for entire bodies, but faces have always held a special place for me: right up there on the front of the head.

Last week my co-columnist and I promised to entice you each week with excruciatingly orgasmic mind-blowing concepts. We figured you couldn't ask for much more. That, a bowl of Heavenly Hash, and a stack of completed assignments are as close to nirvana as you or I are likely to get.

This week I have written the column, Morgan J. takes over the next. The following week I will cover a concept that will eradicate boredom from your life forever and is true to boot: the left and right side of your brain have independent streams of consciousness. You never again will find yourself alone. Intriguing huh?

This week I will offer less intriguing but more fascinating fare: a method that will add 12 to 18 years to the life of an average person and decrease the amount of their illness by 35%. I am convinced that once you read this column and the book I mention that your life will be changed dramatically forever.

Why should you care? Because one day you will stop, call it die if you prefer, and I don't think you like the idea of stopping. I can think of two or three incredibly enjoyable things I could be doing during an extra 12 to 18 years.

You could exercise regularly, which once you appreciate getting high on endorphins is a real joy. You can reduce the intake of drugs (alcohol, nicotine, THC, and more nasty varieties) which involves a trade-off of pleasure now for pleasure later — always a difficult decision. Or you can keep your body as finely tuned as possible by ingesting the optimum dosages of nutrients. For most people this last method gives by far the best ratio of greatest gain for least cost.

Linus Pauling defined in 1968 (what was your state in 68?) the beautiful science of Orthomolecular Medicine: "The preservation of good health in the human body of substances that are normally present in the body and are required for health".

Linus Pauling (1954 Nobel Prize in Chemistry, 1962 Nobel Peace Prize, publisher of over 400 papers) published for the public in 1970 "Vitamin C and The Common Cold", which was awarded the Phi Beta Kappa award for best scientific book of the year. Although five excellent blind and double-blind studies since 1942 had conclusively demonstrated that Vitamin C had value in controlling the Common Cold and reducing illness, nine more were carried out between 1972 and 1975 to prove Pauling wrong. They proved him right. He therefore published "Vitamin C, the Common Cold and the Flu" for the public in 1976. This book my friends, will change your life, dramatically, and forever, because it will convince you to supplement your diet with ascorbic acid (Vitamin C), and convince you to take full advantage of the state of the art in health today: Orthomolecular Medicine.

I can not convince you of this in a single column. I hope to convince you to read "Vitamin C, the Common Cold, and the Flu", which Phil 1053 taught me is good enough. Linus Pauling estimates that the improvement in health caused by the optimum ingestion of ascorbic acid will cause an increase in the life-span of the average person of between 12 and 18 years. A measure of the increase of quality of life can be found in the discovery that the — x studies carried out on Vitamin C and the Common Cold — three at the University of Toronto — showed an average decrease in illness of 35%.

What other benefits can we get from Orthomolecular Medicine? A strong association between reduced incidence of heart disease and the regular ingestion of tocopherol (vitamin E) was shown by a survey of 17, 884 people between 50 and 98 by Richard Passwater Ph.D. The survey included 2,508 people between 50 and 98 that had taken 400 IU of tocopherol daily for 10 years or more. Although based on U.S. Dept. of Health, Education, and Welfare figures (HRS 74-222) you would expect to find 836 of these having heart disease there were only 4. A second group of 1,038 had taken 1,200 IU or more of tocopherol daily for 4 years or more. Although you would expect 323 of these to be suffering from heart disease there were only 7.

The optimum dosage of Vitamin C lies probably somewhere between 1 and 10 grams for most people. You may regularly be able to get one quarter of a gram in your diet if you eat very well. You don't eat very well.

Criticisms for album unfounded

The Psychedelic Furs - Mirror
Moves

*We're still experimenting.
We're trying to get over to some people who might not otherwise be listening to us.*

-Richard Butler

The fourth and latest album by the English group The Psychedelic Furs, Mirror Moves, is certainly their most subdued effort yet. As such, it has elicited a mixed response worldwide, though several British publications have been lavish in their praises.

Particularly when one recalls with fondness the past music of the Psychedelic Furs, Mirror Moves comes off as a rather blah product on a first listen. However, it is truly an album which grows on you. In fact, it could be said that it is their most easily understood album to date. Agreed, it was clear that the Furs were opinionated young men on their marvellous 1980 self-titled debut, but the thread tying things together was often rather flimsy. The same thing could be said, albeit to a lesser extent, for their next two albums Talk, Talk, Talk and Forever Now.

Today, the Furs are essentially a trio — vocalist Richard Butler, who writes all of the group's lyrics, giving their material a distinctive personality with his sneering Cockney-inflected voice, bassist Tim Butler, and guitarist John Ashton. Mirror Moves producer Keith Forsey serves as drummer and percussionist on the album and saxophonist Mars Williams makes occasional contributions. The textured instrumentation still revolves around Butler's vocals.

Richard Butler remains as intriguing a lyricist as ever, such as in "Alice's House" "High Wire Days", which rank among the album's prime cuts. All of the tracks are perfect for ADR radio stations, and there might be a singles chart hit in the sax-rich "Heartbeat".

However, the cream of the album is "The Ghost In You". The lyrics are superb, and Butler peaks vocally in a song awash with a glorious instrumental background, including flutes.

Overall, I personally preferred the earlier work of the Psychedelic Furs. However, it is nothing short of closed-minded to dismiss Mirror Moves as a dud simply because it is not in fact a mirror move.

UNB Vs. Toronto

By IAN SUTHERLAND
Brunswickan Staff

The hockey Red Devils start their season off with a bang tonight when University of Toronto Blues invade the Aitken Centre for the first two weekend games.

The Blues, who eliminated the Red Devils' last March on the way to the national title, are here for an 8 p.m. start tonight and a 2 p.m. encounter Saturday afternoon. Reserved tickets for the game cost students $3 and adults $4. It is the first set in a tough pre-season schedule the Devils have, with Concordia Stingers here next Saturday and Three Rivers, P.Z. here on October 19. The top flight competition will give the Devils something they didn't have a year ago, according to Coach Don MacAdam.

"We were having a good season last year within our conference, but we didn't have any games against outside teams that gave us a chance to compare ourselves against the top teams," MacAdam said. "Going into the playoffs against Toronto, we really didn't know how we stacked up against top teams from the other conferences."

Of course, the Devils played Toronto tough in both games at the Aitken Centre, and actually gave the Blues the toughest competition they received on the way to the national title. That fact, plus the A.U.A.A. championship, UNB won, is one of the reasons Toronto is in the city this weekend.

"The top teams only play each other," MacAdam said. "We could not arranged a pre-season game with Toronto a year ago."

One thing MacAdam and the players must keep in mind this weekend is that exhibition games are as much for getting organized for the regular campaign as they are for winning. Of course, Coach MacAdam and the players who were here a year ago would dearly love to settle the score with the Blues, who are being guided again by Tom Watt, who coached Winnipeg Jets before his dismissal by general-manager John Ferguson.

"This weekend is a great motivator for the guys who were here a year ago," MacAdam said. "The returning players have definitely been looking forward to this weekend."

One of those returning players is defenceman Scott

Clements, who is back with the Devils after a tryout with the Toronto Maple Leafs. He and Paul Murphy are the only returning blue-liners from a year ago.

"Scott is the best defenceman in the Atlantic Conference," MacAdam said. "We're going to rely on Scott and Paul a lot this season to steady things for us on the blue-line."

In goal, the Devils have lost all star Kevin Rochford, but appear to be sold with second year man Jamie Frizzell and newcomer David Lutes.

MacAdam foresees a big difference in Frizzell this year now that he is established as the No. 1 man between the pipes.

"Jamie can certainly do the job for us," MacAdam said. "He and David Lutes are both very competent goaltenders. Jamie is not one to the No. 2 goaltender, although in actual fact both he and Kevin shared the job last year. Jamie isn't content just to be on the team; he wants to play a big role in how the team does."

The Devils of a year ago were awfully strangely defensively, with the club capable of closing the door on almost any team in the league after it got by a couple of goals. In contrast, UNB was in a lot of trouble last year if it got behind by a goal or two, no matter how weak the opposition. That should be all different this season.

"We should have a lot of people this year who will be able to score on a consistent basis, and that means if we fall behind by a goal or two it won't be the end of the world. Last year we found it very difficult to play catch-up hockey. We still don't want to, but I think this year we will be more successful when that situation arises," MacAdam said.

By the same token, however, the Devils may not be able to close the door on other teams as effectively as they did a year ago. "It's important to play sound defensive hockey, because as you advance and play the better teams, the defence is what makes you or breaks you," MacAdam said. "It's going to be awfully important this year for our forwards to do the job defensively, to be good two-way hockey players."

What kind of team will the Devils turn out to be this years?

Come to the Aitken Centre tonight and find out!!!

Redsticks on a roll

The UNB Women's field hockey Red Sticks had a busy week playing 3 games since the last report. On Wednesday they travelled to Moncton where U de Moncton was currently leading the Western Section of the League in points with 3 wins. UNB handed them their first defeat of the season.

Although only a 2-0 score, the Red Sticks were all over the Angels. Goalkeeper Barb Leaman kicked the ball only once. The Angels swarmed all the Red Sticks offense and continually fouled but UNB could not seem to put it in the net any more than 2 times. Shauna Lambert, as part of the penalty corner team, put a hard drive in the left corner of the net after receiving a lay off from Kathryn MacDougall for the first goal. Captain Kathryn MacDougall scored the second goal of the game on a penalty stroke as a U de M player stopped a goal with her body. Kathryn shot high and hard making no mistakes.

UNB's next game was Saturday at home to peennial rivals Dalhousie Tigerettes. UNB started well but had a lapse in the first half of about 10 minutes. As a result Dal put 2 shots past goalkeeper Barb Leaman. Despite outplaying Dal for much of the second half, the Sticks could only muster one goal and that off the stick of Anne Campbell. UNB had 13 penalty corner situations as compared to Dal's 2 but could not capitalize on any.

On Sunday the Red Sticks met cross province rivals Mt. Allison Mounties on their turf. Again the Sticks couldn't get untracked and played a rather muddled game. A win was still to be had off goals by veteran Anne Campbell and rookie Leona Corey (her first). Myfanwy Woolway was in goal for this game but was never tested.

UNB's record rises to 3 and 2 or possibly 2-2-1 depending upon the outcome of a protest of an overtime win against St. F.X. (The league wants to throw out all overtimes thus leaving us with a tie). U de M's record is 4 and 2. Winner of the western section of the league hosts the AUA's so it looks as though UNB will have to put a few wins on the scoreboard in order to host.

The Red Sticks are in P.E.I. for 2 games Thanksgiving Weekend at 4 p.m. Saturday

ATTENTION ALL FIGURE SKATERS

The first organizational meeting of UNB/STU Figure Skating Club is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. Wednesday, October 10 at L.B. Gym Lounge. Anyone who is interested in joining our club is to attend as we will be discussing many aspects of this year's activities. Among items on the agenda are schedules, registration dates and fees, and executive appointments.

The Figure Skating Club is entering its fourth year of operation at the Aitken Centre, which is a beautiful and warm rink, (skaters who are used to freezing cold rinks will find this one a real treat). Our club's purpose is to give figure skaters a chance to skate at a leisurely pace, with no coaches, test days, or competitions to worry about. Sessions are usually planned for twice a week, and should be commencing the week of October 15. Old and new skaters alike are urged to come to our meeting and get involved in the club. Lets make this our best year yet! Watch for more information here and around campus concerning registration and important dates. If you are unable to make it to the meeting on October 10, and are interested in becoming a member of our club, or have any further questions, then please feel free to call Connie Morrison at 454-5250.

NON CREDIT INSTRUCTION

MORNING WEIGHT TRAINING

In response to popular demand the Recreation Department is offering another Beginners Weight Training Class. Participants will be instructed in proper technique, weight room etiquette, safety precautions, and personal program planning.

The special feature of this class will be information concerning using weights to build aerobic fitness. Classes will be held on Tues. and Thurs. mornings 10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. beginning Tues. Oct. 9. Registrations are being accepted in the Business Office 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 pm.

SQUASH

There are still openings in the Squash Instruction Program. Classes will be offered at the Basic, Follow-up to Basic and Intermediate levels if there is sufficient demand. Instruction is given on Tues. nights. Interested individuals may register at the Business Office.

FENCING CLUB

An organizational meeting for all those interested in the Fencing Club will be held in L.B. Gym on Thur. Oct. 11, 1984. Everyone is welcome. No experience is necessary.

CO-ED COMPETITIVE VOLLEYBALL

Co-ed Competitive Volleyball registration is now underway. All those interested in playing can pick up information sheets at the Intramural Office Room A-121 at the L.B. Gym. Sign up as an individual or make your own team. Entry deadline is Tuesday, October 16 at 2:00 p.m. with a maximum of 16 teams.

INTRAMURAL BADMINTON TOURNAMENT

The fall Intramural Badminton tournament will be held on Monday October 15 beginning at 7:00 p.m. Competitions will be held for Men's and Women's Singles and Doubles. The exact tournament format will depend upon the number of participants registered. For further information or to register, contact the Recreation Office Room A-120 L.B. Gym. Get into the swing of things - PARTICIPATE!

WOMEN-ONLY FUN RUN

On October 20 (Saturday) at 2 p.m. a 10 kilometre road run and 2 mile fun-run will be held in the Wilmot Park area of Fredericton. The purpose of this women-only fun run is to promote fitness and a sense of togetherness among women.

A FREE SPORTBAG is offered to all entrants in either the 10k or the 2 mile. Entry fee is $4.00. This fee can be paid by mailing (along with name, address, phone No. and age) to

NFL Football With The Labrador Connection

By TERRY HOBBS

There are a few clarifications I would like to make concerning my column.

- 1) When you see the name of a team in capital letters means they are the home team.
- 2) The point spread in each game is done a bit differently than most sport columns. I try to make the predictions as simple as possible (Mind you, no guessing. There is some detailed analysis of the teams involved).
- 3) Contrary to public belief. I do not always choose the teams with the best records to win the games.
- 4) I did not choose the name "NFL FOOTBALL with the Labrador Connection". Solely due to the purpose that I am not from Labrador (Hey, I have nothing against the Labradorians. They are fine people).

Now that the minor details are over with on with this week's picks.

St. Louis Cardinals (2-3) vs. DALLAS COWBOYS (4-1)

Cowboys by 3
This will be a closer game than most people think. Cards always play Cowboys tough in Irving Texas. Lomax and the Potent cards offence will make it tough for Landry and company.

Philadelphia Eagles (1-4) vs. BUFFALO BILLS (0-5)

Eagles by 7
This is a tough one. I am not choosing the Eagles because they have a better record but because the Bills are just that bad. My heart bleeds for Joe Ferguson (getting replaced at quarterback).

Denver Broncos (4-1) vs. DETROIT LIONS (1-4)

Broncos by 6
2 weeks I picked Detroit to win, 2 weeks they lost. My patience has run out. Besides that Broncos have a great defence and Elway (also known as the "Messiah") is finally starting to live up to his potential.

Minnesota Vikings (2-3) vs. TAMPA BAY BUCCANEERS (2-3)

Bucs by 1
Bucks have finally got some consistency in their offence. There are 2 reasons for this:

- 1) Steve Deberg at quarterback
  - 2) James Wilder at running back
- Last week Wilder tied Butch Woolfolk's record for most rushes in one game (42)

Atlanta Falcons (2-3) vs. LOS ANGELES RAMS (3-2)

Rams by 6
After what the Rams defence did to the Giants last week, I'd have to be crazy to pick the Falcons.
Note: Jack Youngblood, a 14 year veteran with the Rams, has got to be one of the greatest defensive players of all times.

San Francisco 49ers (5-0) vs. NEW YORK GIANTS (3-2)

49ers by 3.
49ers will not lose out to the REDskins in the NFC championships this year. They are a sure bet to be in the Super Bowl.

Washington Redskins (3-2) vs. INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (2-3)

Redskins by 10
The Colts are a good team but they have nowhere near the talents of the Redskins. Theisman and company should have an easy day of it.

New Orleans Saints (3-2) vs. CHICAGO BEARS (3-2)

Bears by 6
I hate to be a Chicago player after last week's loss to Dallas. (Bears beat themselves with turnovers, missed field goals, etc). Walter Payton, deservedly, will break Jim Brown's all time rushing record this week. He needs 67 yards to do so.

San Diego Chargers (3-2) vs. GREEN BAY PACKERS (1-4)

Chargers by 7
Fouts is finally getting time to throw the ball. Also, Chargers have a great new running back in Jackson. Green Bay, unfortunately for Forrest Gregg, are in for a disappointing year.

New England Patriots (3-2) vs. CLEVELAND BROWNS (1-4)

Pats by 3
First I pick the Patriots to win, they lost. Then I picked them to lose, they won. This week I am picking them to lose in hopes that they will win. (sound confusing?)

Miami Dolphins (5-0) vs. PITTSBURGH STEELERS (3-2)

Dolphins by 8
Simply put, the Dolphins are unstoppable. Not only that, they finally got running back in Pete Johnson (they must have read my column last week).

Seattle Seahawks (4-1) vs. L.A. RAIDERS (4-1)

Raiders by 2
I know that Seattle always beat Raiders in regular season play. But I also know that Raiders are upset about last week's loss to Denver. Flores will not let his team lose 2 games in a row (He better not or Mr. Alzado and company will be very unhappy).

New York Jets (3-2) vs. KANSAS CITY CHIEFS (3-2)

Chiefs by 3
This is another close one. I will pick Chiefs only because they play good at Arrowhead Stadium.

Houston Oilers (0-5) vs. CINCINNATI BENGALS (0-5)

Oilers by 3
Oilers have got to win sooner or later. They do have a bit of talent. On Cincinnati's side, Anderson is injured. You know what that means. (Turk Schonert will be starting: Poor Bengals)

LAST WEEK	SEASON RECORD
9-5 64.2%	17-11 60.7%

Red Harriers "A" and "B" teams place 2nd and 3rd

By KEVIN HOOPER

Last weekend in Moncton gave the Harriers their first look at AUA competition for this year and also a chance to run the race course that they will run on Oct. 27 in attempt to regain the AUA title.

UNB was there with their "A" and "B" teams, as was host team U de M and Dal (in their cute blue "tights"). MUN whimped out fearing they would be run into the mud.

At the sound of the whistle, U de M foolishly sent 5 men sprinting to the lead but to no avail. By half-a-mile they were cleaning up the rear and UNB's Peter King, Kevin Hooper, Tim Boyle, Bill Mac-Mackin, and Chris Pinsent shared the lead with Dals' top 4.

Positions jostled throughout the race, but when all was said and done Dal took the top 3 spots. However, Kevin Hooper, just off the injury list, finished 4th just 4 seconds behind 2 place. Bill Mac-Mackin, running another strong race, placed 5th with ill fated Tim Boyle in 7th and rapidly-improving Peter King in 8th. Chris Pinsent's consistently strong pace gave him 10th spot followed by Peter Dumphy and George MacDonald completed the "A" team.

Louis Brill, Dave Wallace, Collin MacFarlane (who wasn't feeling too well), Peter Stapleton and Andy Grievs respectively completed the "all-rookie" UNB- "B" team and shocked a few people-like U de M.

The final tally was Dal 1st with 23 points, UNB "A" 2nd with 34 and UNB "B" 3rd with 98 who beat 4th place U de M (also with 98) in a tie breaker based on the position of the 5th man.

this weekend we're off to Boston, Mass. to face a contingent of 19 New England teams. Who knows - with a healthy top 7 we just might win!

Preparing to pass: UNB's George MacDonald, Bill Mac-Mackin, Chris Pinsent and Kevin Hooper.

Lady Harriers defend record

In 5 years of competition in the AUAA conference, the UNB Lady Harriers have yet to be beaten by an Atlantic University Women's Cross-country team.

The Lady Harrier's strength, depth, and determination as a team to win a 5th straight AUAA title were proven last weekend. The girls handily defeated the competition from Dalhousie and University de Moncton at a tri-meet on the AUAA Course in Centennial Park in Moncton. Unfortunately the team from Memorial was not present (Are they afraid?) and still remain the unknown factor for the AUAA championship.

The girls were nervous for this competition and were not going to take anything for granted. The team's determination was displayed from the start of the race as the UNB girls surged to the front of the pack with the sound of the starting pistol.

As the race wound through the woods, UNB runners remained in good scoring position and were showing marked improvements over previous races this season.

Margaret MacDonald lead UNB to finish first over the 3.4 miles course in 19:25. Terry Lee Daman ran an excellent race for 2nd place in 20:24. Tammi Richardson, just missing 3rd place, turned in an equally strong effort to finish 4th in 20:54. Lynn Sutherland and Lynn Poole rounded out the team scoring for UNB with superb performances to finish 7 and 8 respectively in times of 21:34 and 21:51. Gina Spear and Wendy Woodfield who have been coming on stronger with each race turned in great efforts, finishing 13th and 20th in 22:44 and 23:20.

Margaret MacDonald leads the pack, also visible are Lynn Poole and Lynn Sutherland

UNB's score of 22, shows the required team effort to win an AUAA Cross-country title. Dalhousie's score of 44 and U de M's score of 64 were good for 2nd and 3rd places.

This weekend UNB will be in Boston to compete in one of the largest Cross-country races in North Eastern U.S.A. Between 15-20 teams are expected to compete in the Annual Codfish Invitational Cross-country Meet at the University of Mass. in Boston. This race will be an excellent experience for the UNB girls.

WOMEN'S SOCCER CLUB

Last weekend the UNB Women's Soccer Club travelled with 12 players and a coach to Machias, Maine to participate in a soccer tournament, their first major competition of the season. The tournament was hosted by the University of Maine at Machias which is a small University of 700 people. There were 4 teams present, UNB, Acadia, Woodland, Maine and Machias.

UNB's first game was Saturday afternoon against Woodland. UNB won the game 2-0 with goals from the Smith sisters, Shona Smith and Caroline Smith, scored on a penalty kick (one of 3 in the game) scored for UNB on a "weave" play from center. It was a well played game by UNB.

Our second game was against Acadia and it was played immediately after our first game Saturday afternoon.

Acadia won the game 5-1 but it was still a well played game by UNB. Acadia was awarded 2 penalty shots in their win over UNB. Scoring for UNB was Carolin Boushel.

Saturday night saw a supper social hosted by Machias at the gym. All the teams attended and enjoyed a good meal followed by a tour of the campus.

Sunday we played our third and final game at 10:30 a.m. against Machias. They provided a good strong game and had some good scoring chances but UNB prevailed. UNB won 2-0 with Caroline Smith and Carolin Boushel scoring. Sue Keirstead played in net for UNB for the weekend.

The team left Maine Sunday afternoon and headed home, knowing that they played very well together as a group considering that it was the first time that those 12 girls had played together. Everyone had a lot of fun both on and off the field and we are looking forward to our 2nd Annual soccer tournament at the end of October when hopefully Maine, Acadia and other teams will be participating. Our thanks to Donnie McKinnon for travelling with the team and to everyone who participated in the weekend tournament.

The team is still practising twice weekly and is hoping to get some more exhibition games in before AUAA's in October. The team has played 1 exhibition game against the F.H.S. girls' team. That was played September 22 at F.H.S. UNB won 2-0.

The team will travel to Halifax to represent UNB at the AUAA tournament Oct. 20 and 21.

For their final event of the fall outdoor season the club will host an invitational tournament the last weekend of October.

Anyone interested in additional information Women's Soccer should contact Donnie McKinnon 457-0842.

UNB/STU CURLING CLUB GENERAL MEETING

All students interested in curling this year are encouraged to attend this meeting.

Last year, the Curling Club saw a large increase in membership and we hope this year that we get another large club. Last year we had three bospiels that went very well. The curlers had a lot of fun and some good curling. Also last year we sent three teams down to the AUAA Invitational in Acadia. The teams that went curled very well and had a lot of fun.

This year we plan to have more events for the curlers in the UNB/STU Club. Such events will be more funspiels, entering Capital Winter Club Spiel and Club's spiels in surrounding areas.

This we plan to hold a N.B. AUAA ranking spiel in order to rank teams going to the AUAA

The Rebels Yell

UNB/STU Rebel's Women's RFC (Rugby Football Club) returned home from a Mount Allison Tournament in Sackville with some impressive news. The Rebels demonstrated a strategic, clean, hard-hitting game, with chants of crush, kill, destroy leading them to victory over Fredericton's Loyalist Ladies. Team member June Dobson scored the two tries for an 8-0 score.

Short one player due to injury and lacking some good defensive play, the Rebels were defeated by the Mount Invitational, 2 girls and 2 guys.

This year we will try to offer instruction for all levels of curlers, starting with a trip to St. John on the weekend of the 20-21 of October. This will be a Level I Technical clinic for experienced curlers.

We welcome all beginners who would like to learn how to curl and we hope the experienced curlers on campus will come this year to improve the club's curling.

The meeting will be on October 9, 1984, Tuesday night at 7:00 p.m. in Rm. 26 of the SUB.

INTRAMURAL ICE HOCKEY

As of Press deadline there were no more openings in the Intramural contact league. There were, however, a number of openings in the non-contact league. Again we encourage participation in this league. If your team did not gain entrance to the contact league then why not give non-contact a try. Who knows, maybe you'll have fun.

Volley into a weekend of fun with COED RECREATIONAL VOLLEYBALL. If you're interested in playing, the deadline for entry forms up at the Recreation Office in the L.B. Gym anytime before this. All UNB/STU students, faculty, staff and alumni are welcome. So get your teams together and come out for a weekend of fun!

VOLLEYBALL

Intramural Volleyball will be starting shortly and we are in need of officials. If you have a knowledge of the game, we would appreciate your help. If interested, contact the recreation office in the Lady Beaverbrook Gymnasium Room 121 on Monday thru Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. or for further information call Andre (chief-referee) at 454-5337.

A SPORTING CHANCE!!!

By REGAN LEGASSIE

"The Varsity Blues have scored! The Varsity Blues have scored! Those were the words that echoed from the University of Toronto broadcast crew seconds after Tom Callahan scored the game winning goal in game number one of the CIAU Eastern Regional Hockey Final last March at the Aitken Centre. The game had been tied at two up to that point and the Red Devils had been playing an excellent hockey game, keeping the awesome Toronto firepower in check and coming up with a few good scoring chances of their own. Destiny, however, was not with the Devils and a strange bounce onto the stick of Mr. Callaghan put the game away for the Blues. The loss seemed to take the zip out of the AUAA champions because in game two the next day, the Devils could not reach the level of intensity that had almost earned them a victory the night before. Despite a valiant comeback effort in the third period, UNB lost the game 5-2 and gave the Toronto Varsity Blues the best-of-three series in two straight games.

This weekend the Blues are back in town for a pair of exhibition games and although the intensity of a playoff series is not present, they still promise to be a pair of excellent hockey games. The Red Devils are icing one of the best teams in years and although regulars like Bluteau, Mancuso and Rochford are missing some new names have been brought in to fill the vacancies. Charlie Cameron, Robbie Forbes and John Leblanc are just some of the rookies, and when coupled with returnees like Terry Balcom, Mark Jeffery and Mark Welton the goal scoring production should certainly improve. The biggest question this year has been finding a replacement for Kevin Rochford. The fact of the matter is you DON'T replace a Kevin Rochford, you find a goaltender that is capable of playing the same calibre of hockey. For this Donny MacAdam shouldn't have to look any further than his bench. Jamie Frizzell did not play much last year but he did make the most of his chances, and given a fair chance he should prove to be the answer to the Devils' goaltending Question this year.

The Varsity Blues themselves have undergone some changes. The most obvious is the loss of last year's coach Mike Keenan who is now the head coach of the Philadelphia Flyers of the NHL. This problem was easily rectified however with the announcement that former Winnipeg Jets coach Tom Watt will be patrolling the ice behind the Toronto bench. Watt is no newcomer to college hockey, having coached the Blues to a couple of National titles back in the early 70's as well as being named CIAU Coach of the year in the 1970-71 season, exactly 10 years before he took the same honors in the NHL. Coach Watt has also been involved in the Olympic program in previous years and there is no doubt that he is capable of compiling a winning hockey team. One player that Tom Watt will have to do without this year is last season's top goalscorer in the CIAU, Andre Hidi. Last year Hidi posed a major problem for the Devils collecting 5 points in the two games. This year however, Hidi is currently in training camp of the Washington Capitals and has already collected a point or two in exhibition play. Of course, I would have to be a fool to say that losing Hidi will hurt the Blues but, with a player of that calibre out of your lineup it makes it a little harder to count on someone to score 3 or 4 points a game. With a campus as big as Toronto though, rest assured that somewhere out there, walking the hallowed halls of the University of Toronto is another Andre Hidi just waiting to break out and wreak havoc on the CIAU scoring statistics.

Enough of my raving for this week though. The only way to really get the scoop on the rematch is to invest your money in a ticket for what should be the most exciting hockey game in town (never mind the fact that it is the only hockey game in town!) and judge your self whether or not it was a good series. If however, you find the tickets are sold out and you haven't got one, have no fear, both games will be broadcast live on CHSR-FM and you won't miss a thing. The stage has been set for the rematch between these two hockey teams and it should prove to be as exciting as last years games.....WITH A SPORTING CHANCE!!!
