NO. 36.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From a Former Elmaite.

To the Editor of THE BEE.

DEAR SIR:-1 arrived at Beresford Man. on the night of Aug. 26, with my carload of effects, and in this connection I would thank my Elma friends for their kindness in so carefully loading the car, not a thing was damaged on the way out. With the aid of a neighbor we pulled out some of the things ing the car, not a thing was damaged on the way out. With the aid of a neighbor we pulled out some of the things nearest the door of the car. The long ride and having to stand so long in one position caused the horses to be stupid and dizzy when put on the prairie, but they soon rallied and are none the worse for their trip. I mounted one of them and struck for the cabin on the claim. I met Mrs. Morrison and the boys in Brandon on the 5th of Sept. They had a pleasant trip and like their prairie home first-rate. Gophers are getting scarcer and the prairie chickens are shy. At present we are busy preparing scarcer and the prairie chickens are shy. At present we are busy preparing the land for next year's crop. Wheat and oats are a magnificent crop and not damaged by the late frosts worth speaking about. The farmers are busy stacking their grain and threshing. It did me good last week to meet my old friend, James Baker and his estimable family. The hove came up to the home friend, James Baker and his estimable friend, James Baker and his estimable family. The boys came up to the home place with three binders after haying finished cutting four hundred acres of wheat. I also met Mr. Bennett, of Virden; R. K. Hall, Scott Peebles and John Peebles, who are here to see the country. They appear to be much pleased with the appearance of things generally. We were somewhat disappointed last night in not getting The Bee. Even up here we would notlike to do without the best paper in the county of Perth. Yours faithfully, Robert Morrison. Beresford, Man., Sept. 17, 1891.

assisting to get the steamer out of the death hole met there on Monday morning expecting that the job would be let by auction. But, no, the favorite was sent again to build the culvert, and it is very doubtful if the same man is capable of building the culvert as it should be built. Circumstances are guarden. be built. Circumstances are surely strong against him when he covered rotten stringers with new plank. On the other hand some people will say the the other hand some people will say the rateyayers put the present Council in office and they have got to abide by their doings. Not so, the ratepayers of Elma did not put the present men in office to break the law as has been premeditatedly done in this case, but to uphold the law; not to give jobs to favorites, but to let them by auction and give every man a chance to earn a dollar. Another question arises, who gave those five men power to constitute themselves road commissioners and take Elma and there are very few safe for a heavy load, all on account of the total ignorance of the self-made road commissioners in regard to building bridges and culverts. Why not appoint a practical man for, say three or four months in the year, to look after and let such jobs, and have him bound to have all culverts in the township properly and substantially built. By doing so there would no doubt be a great saving to the ratepayers, as in the present state of things what money these five men illegally pocket would over and above pay a good man, and save the ratepaypay a good man, and save the ratepayers any chance of having to pay damages. Yours truly,

Elma, Sept. 29, 1891.

Huron County Notes.

The popular East Wawanosh fall show will be held at Belgrave on Oct. 6 and 7.

Bro. Gardner, of the Gorrie Lime Kiln club, has organized clubs at Owen Sound and Chatsworth. Fifty organs for the Goderich Organ

Co. were sold during the Northwestern Fair by the local agent. In the matter of the West Huron election petition, the time and place will be Oct. 22, at Goderich.

near Egmondville, found quite a curiosity in his field the other day. It was a petrified stone, about the size of an ordinary potato, and on one side is plainly marked and raised the links of a very fine chain, evidently a watch chain or something of that kind. The stone is unusually heavy for its size, and is a curiosity worth preserving.

Mrs. McCance, of Wingham, was in Toronto attending the Fair. When returning home she had the valise check Immense Crowds.

A FINE EXHIBITION OF HORSES, CATTLE, POULTRY AND VEGETABLES—$216 GATE RECEIPTS-NOTES.

The Elma fall show, held in Atwood last Tuesday, was a success in every particular. The outside department was full with the exception of the sheep and pigs. There was a large exhibit of cattle, and the poultry was excellent and the exhibit was much larger than that of last year. In horses, there was a fine showing, some of the best stock of the county being in the ring. The implement display was poor and almost neglected altogether we regret to say. Alex. Morrison was on hand with his self binders, plows, etc., which drew quite a number of the visitors. The Edison phonograph and a Punch and Judy show attracted a large number of the curious; while the different fruit stands catered to the wants of the inner-man. The band, reinforced by Jimmy Jones, of Brussels, and Fred. Howe, of Listowel, enlivened the proceedings with their music during the afternoon. The inside department was hardly up to last year in the matter of quantity, but in quality it surpassed all former shows. The vegetables were fine, and a credit to the exhibitors. John Sanders showed a squash which weighed 80 pounds. It was a whopper Leicesters—Aged ram, John Hislop. Shearling ram, Geo Mayberry. Ram lamb, T Dickson; 2nd, Wm Dickson. Breeding ewes, T Dickson; 2nd, W Sweeton. Shearling ewes, 1st and 2nd, T Dickson. Ewe lambs, W Sweeton; 2nd, C Dickson.

2nd, V Ioerger. Turkeys, A Miller; 2nd, J Hamilton. Pigeons, 1st and 2nd, T Male.

2nd, J Hamilton. Pigeons, 1st and 2nd, T Male.
Chicks—Plymouth Rocks, T Male; 2nd, J Morrison. White Leghorns, T Dickson; 2nd, G Smith; Brown Leghorns, 1st and 2nd, T Male. Hamburgs. any breed, T Male; 2nd, A H Wynn. Games, any breed, T Male; 2nd, J G Ballard. Cochins, any breed, 1st and 2nd, T Male. Black Spanish, 1st and 2nd, T Male. Light Brahmas, 1st and 2nd, G Smith. Bantams, 1st and 2nd, T Male. Geese, A Miller; 2nd, J Priest. Ducks, 1st and 2nd, J Priest. Turkeys, A Miller. Pigeons, 1st and 2nd, T Male. Recommended, Black Leghorns, G Smith; Golden Polands, T Male. Canary, A H Wynn.
Judges—Robt. Anderson, R Elliott.

Judges-Robt. Anderson, R Elliott.

MANUFACTURES.

Cowhide boots, pegged, J Ferguson.
Calf boots, pegged, J Ferguson. Union flannel, Jas Nixon; 2nd, H Ronnenberg.
Suit of cloths, R M Ballantyne; 2nd, G
Currie. Fulled cloth, C Heller. Pair blankets, Jas Currie; 2nd, C Heller.
Woolen yarn, J Sanders; 2nd, J B Hamilton. Rag carpet, Jas Nixon; 2nd, F
Switzer. Floor mat, J Switzer; 2nd, J
G Ballard. Double set carriage harness, J Heppler. Team harness, A
Campbell. Bee hive, H Ronnenberg;
2nd, Wm Horn, sr.
Judges—II Gleiser, H M Schaefer. MANUFACTURES

Journ Proces, who are here to see the photosis with a specimen of the seed that of photosis with a specimen of the photosis with a specimen of the photosis with the the photosis wi

Heifer calf, A H Wynn.

Grade—Milch cow having calved, 1st and 2nd, John Dick. Milch cow to calve, H Smith. Two-year-old heifer, 1st and 2nd, J Dick. One-year-old, A Lawrence; 2nd, H Smith. Bull calf, A Lawrence; 2nd, J Duncan. Heifer calf, J W Boyd; 2nd, J Dick.

Any breed—Yoke of oxen, J Riach. Two year-old steer, G Mayberry. One-year-old steer, G Mayberry. One-year-old steer, A Lawrence; 2nd, G Mayberry. Fat beast, A Simpson; 2nd, H Smith.

Judges—Wm White, Hibbert; David Milne, Ethel; Peter Fowler, Bluevale.

SHEEP.

Leicesters—Aged ram, John Hislop. Shearling ram, Geo Mayberry. Ram

Any Bread. Comb Honey, Whitain Horn, Sr.

Judges—John Goodall, G W Dawson, J. H. Climie, Thos Male.

LADIES' DEPARTMENT.

Patched quilt, John Switzer; 2nd, J. A Turnbull. Crotchet quilt, J B Hamiton, Any bread with the secured 12 baskets of delicious fruit this year.

Miss H Glows, though their clothes were seedy-looking, or rather we should say, time-honored.

Perth County Notes.

W. Pushelberry, Logan, has a peach tree from which he secured 12 baskets of delicious fruit this year.

Miss H Glows, Louden, St.

W. Pushelberry, Logan, has a peach tree from which he secured 12 baskets of delicious fruit this year.

Miss H Glows, Louden, St.

W. Pushelberry, Logan, has a peach tree from which he secured 12 baskets of delicious fruit this year.

Miss H Glows, Louden, St.

W. Pushelberry, Mindment of the county Notes.

W. Pushelberry, Miss M Hall, 2nd, Sims M Hall, 2nd, John Switzer, Stockings, G Mayberry, Miss M Hall, 2nd, John Switzer, Stockings, G Mayberry, amea, sash and door factory, Mitchell, had his right arm badly scalded on Friday afternoon, Sept. 18, by the bursting day afternoon, Sept. 18, by the burs office and they have got to holde by their doings. Not so, the ratepayers of the moderate they never the plants of the contractions of the contract of the same office of the same office of the same office. The statutes plainly point out that before doing so they must resign their seats as Counties, as they cannot hold two offices, as strongly applies to appoint the same office? The statutes plainly point out that before doing so they must resign their seats as Counties, as they cannot hold two offices, as they cannot hold Judges—Mrs. Geo. Moffat, Wingham; Miss Maggie Stewart, Brussels.

NOTES. Our Society receives $90 Government aid this year.

Mrs. T. Jackson's log cabin quilt was the admiration of all.

Young Coulter was awarded THE BEE's special prize for fall pears. A. Baker, 8th con. of Elma, scooped in a heap of prizes. He is a very successful farmer.

The three fruit stands would have gathered in more tin had Old Sol been kindly disposed.

Bonnett & Bowyer, the enterprising hardware merchants of Listowel, gave a special prize of a toilet set for butter.

The receipts totalled $216, which is $60 in excess of last year, a fact that should encourage every member to double his diligence next year.

It is quite natural that a prize for bread should be received by a baker. There was no prize given for Graham bread, but a Graham received a prize for bread nevertheless The Listowel exhibit would have their disposal. It is suggested that wings be built to the hall and the rear of the building extended.

Escape of the Brockville Murderer From The British Fleet Did Not Seize the Island a Pennsylvania Jail.

A Pittsburg, Pa., despatchsays: Frederick C. Fitzsimmons, of Brockville, Ont., the all around Canadian crook wholast March murdered Detective David Gilkinson, escaped from the Allegheny County Jail some time last night. A reward of $1,000 has been offered for his recapture. Fitzsimmons was to have been placed on trial next week for murder. The escape was as daring as the to have been placed on trial next week for murder. The escape was as daring as the killing of Gilkinson was cold-blooded and desperate. The prisoner first sawed off two of the iron bars of his cell window opening into the jail corridor. This gave him a space of 6 by 13 inches, through which he drew his thin and snake-like body.

His next feat was to crawl hand over hand to the ledge of a window thirty feet above by means of the long sash cords. Once there, he devoted at least an hour's time to sawing off a bar of the window.

time to sawing off a bar of the window.

This done, he bent the iron cross-bar, weakened by the cutting away of the upright, until he had made another small space just large enough to get through.
Then he pulled up the rope that had already served him so well, crept out on the roof of the jail, fastened the rope again and lowered himself to the ground in Diamond street, outside the prison walls. His subsequent movements have not been

All night long the corridors of the prison are supposed to be as bright as day in the glare of electric lights. There is also a mightwatchman on duty and on each tier a guard. How Fitzsimmons could have operated in the light, with the guards around angitwatchman on duty and on each tier a guard. How Fitzsimmons could have operated in the light with the guards around and nobody know about it is not quite clear to the average laymen. The generally-accepted theory is that he was aided by some one on the inside of the jail. He did his work with four small steel saws, such as are used in all orthodox prices experience. used in all orthodox prison escapes when bar-cutting is necessary.

Fitzsimmons is an educated crook. He began life in Brockville, Ont., forty-three years ago. Drifting away from his family, years ago. Drifting away from his family, who are people of wealth and respectability, he went south and eloped to Europe with a wealthy planter's daughter. There he pursued his crooked ways, and after several years of crime and adventure the pair returned to America. For several years they have been operating in Western Pennsylvania. One of Fitzsimmons' accomplices was a young divorced woman named Laura Snowden. She made her room a fence and rendezvous, but Detective Gilkinson ran across her one day and she gave the whole gang away.

Gilkinson, on March 27th, went to Fitzsimmons' house, several miles back of Mc-Keesport, this county, to arrest him. The moment the thief set eyes on the detective he opened fire and killed Gilkinson in his Gilkinson, blazed away at Fitzsimmons and the two grappled. Then the crook's wife handed her husband a fresh revolver, and told him to finish up Murphy. Fitzsimmons put another bullet into the officer and then fled. He was captured next day a few miles away.

At the last term of court Fitzsimmons and his wife and two accomplices were com-mitted on two charges of burglary, and his conviction of murder was a foregone conclu-

MORE THAN SHE COULD BEAR.

A Girl Suicides Because of Her Mother's Disgraceful Conduct.

A Portland despatch says: Little Annie Haley, fourteen years old, is dying from a self-administered dose of paris green. Her mother is addicted to the use of liquor, and some months ago was brought before the court for intoxication. She was sentenced to 60 days in jail, but her sentence was suspended on her promise to abstain from alcoholic beverages. She kept her vow until Wednosday, when in some way she obtained Wednesday, when in some way she obtained enough liquor to make her drunk, and she was arrested yesterday morning and taken to the police station to await transfer to the jail to serve her original sentence. Just before her removal to the county prison, her husband, James Haley, rushed breath-lessly into the police station, crying out. "For God's sake, let my wife come home; Annie is dying." Briefly he told the story, and a moment later the mother was released from her cells and cartering a head. from her cell, and entering a hack was driven rapidly to her home. Annie had been to school, but at recess she learned of her mother's arrest. She obtained her dismissal, walked to the nearest drug store and bought a box of paris green. She went home and swallowed the poison, and was found uncon-scious by her father when he came home to dinner. The little one will die.

FOUND HIS SON.

After Six Years' Search a Kidnapped Boy i

A Pittsburg despatch says: Detective W.
J. Negus, of Portland, Ore., has left here for home, having in charge little Harry Whitbeck, the 7-year-old son of George W.
Whitbeck, of Portland. The boy was kidmapped from his father's home six years ago. Mr. Whitbeck, who is very wealthy, has spent $20,000 searching for his son.
But no clue was found which would lead to his discovery until six months ago, when his discovery until six months ago, when Detective Negus heard that a child bearing the birthmark which the lost one was known the birthmark which the lost one was known to have, and which subsequently led to his identification, had left Omaha for Pennsylvania. He followed up the clue and located the boy on Wednesday, on his seventh birthday, in the family of C. Long, a mill worker of Homestead. Long's wife, who is now dead, had the boy when Long married her, and he knows nothing about his origin. The detective will receive $5,000 reward.

A Cure for Vanity.

"It is an old thing; Jones is such a modest man that I never saw him look in the glass; and yet he wears the loudest kind of neckties." "He dosen't dare to look in the glass, my boy. His wife buys his neckties."

Sixty-two convicts are awaiting death in various United States prisons.

NOTHING IN IT.

of Mitylene.

CLIMBS AND SAWS HIS WAY OUT. SOME SATISFACTORY EXPLANTIONS

A London cable says : It is now stated A London cable says: It is now stated that the Mitylene scare has arisen from the fact that a party of British naval officers on Saturday last picknicked on a desert island off Sigri, and that they re-embarked the same evening on board their vesseland sailed away Sunday.

The Times takes a sceptical view of the The Times takes a sceptical view of the Sigri rumors, and declares "misdoubtful" a policy which made all arrangements upon a basis which would have to be abandoned in a crisis. "In a great struggle," says the Times, "It would be our policy to close the Suez Canal and make our route to India by the Cape of Good Hone."

the Cape of Good Hope."
While it is now admitted that a British force has not seized the Island of Mitylene, news to the effect that the island had been occupied was received from Mitylene and elsewhere by the various embassies at Con elsewhere by the various empassies at Constantinople and in this and other capitals. The French, Russian, Italian and Turkish Governments and the Sultan personally received information of the alleged landing of a British force.

These reports concurred in stating that a division of the British Mediterranean fleet had landed at Sigri a force of sailors and marines, this force being augmented by several field pieces and Gatling guns; that Sign had been occupied and fortified and that British warships had surrounded the island with submarine mines and torpeoes.

The new Turkish Minister of the Interio telegraphed to the British Ambassador at Constantinople, Sir William White, asking the latter to explain the reports as to the landing of a British force on Turkish terri-

Sir William in reply said that he was entirely ignorant of the whole affair, but, he added, it was probable that the crews of some British warships may have landed on the Island of Mitylene in the course of the regular heat drills and landing exercises. regular boat drills and landing exercises. The British Ambassador assured the Turkish Minister that no fortifications had been con-

Minister that no fortifications had been constructed on the Island by British troops.

This view of the case was confirmed by despatches received here during the night, which stated that the force which had landed from the British war ships had reembarked and the men-of-war had left the island of Mitylene for Marmorito. Sir Wm.

White made the same explanations to the other embassies. other embassies.

The affair caused great excitement in diplomatic circles for a short time, and it is still asserted that these same "manœuvres" had at least the purpose of showing the Sultan and his advisers how easily England could change her boat drills and landing exercises off the Island of Mitylene into a dangerous reality. dangerous reality.

BOYS COMMIT MURDER.

Two Lads at Liverpool Brutally Drown Their Little Companion.

Their Little Companion.

A Liverpool cable says: The details of a horrible murder committed by two boys, both of them about 8 years old, have just come to light in this city. Two lads named Crawford and Shearon were arrested here to-day, charged with murdering one of their comrades, a boy also about 8 years old.

The boys said that they wanted to steal the clothes of the murdered boy, and so pushed him into the water, intending to drown him. When the poor little fellow managed to scramble out Crawford and Shearon pushed him in again, and then Crawford went down on his knees, and kneeling on the drowning boy's head, held him down under the water until he finally ceased struggling. struggling.

Struggling.

The young murderers then watched the dead boy for a considerable length of time to see if he stirred, and then they stripped the body of the clothes, dried them and afterward obtained some money upon them at a pawn shop. This led to their identification and arrest.

A LOVE TRAGEDY.

Parents Break off a Match and Murder and Suicide Result.

A Woodland, Cal., despatch says: The lifeless bodies of Miss May Adam and J. Montgomery were discovered here this morning in the rear yard of a small unoccupied residence. A vial labelled "Poison" and a revolver were found beside them. Investigation showed that Montgomery first shot Miss Adams in the left temple and fired a shot, through his own brain. and fired a shot through his own brain.

Miss Adams was the daughter of Hon. L. Miss Adams was the daugnter of Hon. L.

B. Adams, who represented this county for two terms in the Legislature. Montgomery whas a son of Judge Montgomery, of Stockton. It is supposed the tragedy is the result of the refusal of the lady's parents to The permit their marriage.

Six Hundred Boys on Strike.

A Milleville, N. J., despatch says: This has been an exciting day here owing to a strike of the tenting boys at the Glasstown and South Milleville glass works at Whitall, Tatum & Co. Over six hundred boys refused to work because fourteen Jew boys had been sixtuated. and South Milleville glass works at Whitall, Tatum & Co. Over six hundred boys refused to work because fourteen Jew boys had been given employment. The firm, it is said, preferred American boys but could not obtain them. The strike caused a suspension on the part of the blowers and other skilled workmen, and hundreds of men also are idle. The strikers demand a ten per cent. increase in wages and the discharge of all Jews employed at the works. The firm has refused to grant either demand. The boys are equally firm.

Mr. Gladstone III Yet.

A London cable says: Sir Andrew Clarke thas just left Hawarden after a visit, during which he examined Mr. Gladstone, and an nounces that the aged statesman has not yet fully recovered from his recent attack of influenza. Sir Andrew enjoined the greatest caution upon his distinguished patient, and even urged him to give up his political engagements entirely, but Mr. Gladstone, who is feeling quite vigorous, insists on making the trip he had planned to Glen Almond, Perthshire, for which point he starts on the 25th inst.

The court fixed the time and place for the trial of the following Dominion election petitions: London, 8th October, at the court house, London; Peel, 10th October, at the court house, Goderich; Welland, 24th October, at Dottober, at Dottober, at Dottober, at Dottober, at Dottober, at Dottober, at Toltwell; North Norfolk (and cross-petition) 28th October, at Tilsonburg.

A Wilmington, Del., despatch says: A collision occurred between a through freight and a local freight near Newport yesterday on the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore Railway. When the crash came the engineer and fireman of the local freight jumped. The engineer, Henry Brockman, of Baltimore, was killed. His body was found under a freight car. He had been scalded to death. Fifteen cars were wrecked and travel was blocked for five hours. and travel was blocked for five hours.

In Germany no end of couples kill them-Sixty-two convicts are awaiting death in arious United States prisons.

—Queen Victoria has fifty living de Berlin, hanged himself because of an attack

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Mr. Dewdney introduced a bill to author ize the granting of subsidies in land to certain railway companies, which was read

first time.

Mr. McCarthy when the House had gone
nto committee on Sir John Thompson's bill urther to amend the Dominion Controverted Elections Act, moved an amendment that the deposits to be made upon an appeal be $300 instead of $100.

The amendment was carried.

Mr. Mulock proposed an amendment to the effect that the person presenting a petition shall make a solemn declaration to the effect that he has got good reason to believe and does believe, the allegations are true

Carried.

Mr. Kirkpatrick moved an amendment that the petition shall be signed by five persons or by a candidate.

After discussion the motion was with-

Mr. Mulock moved an amendment pro viding that counsel fees allowed by the courts shall not exceed $50 for the first day and shan not exceed $50 for the first day and $40 for each subsequent day, and that no greater sum, including counsel fees, than $300 shall be taxable against either party to the case except as to witness fees and actual disbursements

After discussion this amendment was car-Mr. Laurier moved that where two judges,

Air. Laurier moved that where two judges, trying an election petition, cannot agree, any party aggrieved may appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada.

The amendment was lost after discussion, on a vote of 32 to 33. It being 6 o'clock the Speaker left the

After Recess.

The House concurred in the Senate amendments to the bill respecting the Baie des Chalcurs Railway Company.

Sir John Thompson moved the second reading of the bill respecting frauds upon the Government.

the Government.

Mr. Mills (Bothwell) asked what th Government proposed to accomplish by the bill other than the protection afforded by the bill other than the protection afforded by the present law.

Sir John Thompson said that this bill went further than the present law, as in addition to it being an offence to bribe or attempt to bribe a public officer it would be made an offence for a public officer to receive a gift. Under this bill it would not be necessary, in order to make such an offence punishable, to prove injury, actual fraud, or even fraudulent intent. The reception of a gift under such circumstances eption of a gift under such circumstan vas made punishable.

The bill was read a second time. Mr. Dewdney moved the second reading of the bill to amend the Dominion Lands

Mr. Davin said he had not an extrave reverence for the administration of the Do ninion lands. House went into committee on the bill and reported progress.

The House adjourned at 11.05 p. m.

BULLION CARRIER MURDERED. Highwaymen Kill a Mine Superintendent

But Miss the Gold. A Nevada, Col., despatch says: S. Gallavetti, superintendent of the Derbec Drift mine, was murdered by highwaymen this morning while coming to this city with $5,000 in gold bars just cleaned up at the mine. Gallavetti and J. D. Ostrom were in a two-horse buggy ascending the South Yubariver grade, six miles from here, when a rifle shot was fired from the bank above. river grade, six rifle shot was fired from the bank above The ball entered the back of Gallavetti' head and emerged from his mouth, causing instant death. Ostrom whipped the horses Ostrom whipped the horse

A DEADLY DRAUGHT.

Several squads of armed men are starting

Young Lawyer Swallows Carbolic Acid in

Mistake for Wine. Mistake for Wine.

A Troy, N. Y., despatch says: Gerald Riordan, a prominent young lawyer of this city, entered a Congress street drug store last night, accompanied by a young woman. They were on their way to the theatre, While the clerk was drawing a glass of soda for the young woman Mr. Riordan went behind the prescription counter, where on a shelf he had placed a bottle of wine of cocoa for his own use. He filled a glass with for his own use. He filled a glass with for his own use. He filled a glass with what he supposed was the wine. It was carbolic acid, which he drank at a gulp. He staggered into the store and called for help. The proprietor noticed that his lips were white, and divining that he had used the carbolic acid bottle, gave Mr. Riordan, who was in terrible agony, a glass of system of the store and calles of system of the store and called for help. was in terrible agony, a glass of sweet oil.
The antidote proved of no avail, and in fif-teen minutes the young lawyer was dead.

Outrageous.

Jewellers' Circular: Miss Skinner—We must never recognize Sue Promise again. Miss Bones—What impropriety has she been up to now?

Miss Skinner—We were looking at the view and she said she could see a certain spot with the naked eye. D'jever!

By the laws of Texas a homestead cannot

The Emperor of China retires to bed at

DE COBAIN'S CASE.

Chief Crown Witness Tried and Acquitted of Conspiracy.

A London cable says: William Allen A London cable says: William Allen, the chief witness for the Crown in the approaching trial of E. S. W. DeCobain, member of Parliament for East Belfast and Deputy Grand Master of the Orangemen of Ulster, for unatural practices, has been indicted in Belfast on a charge of exposing indecent prints. The Crown counsel appeared in the case yesterday and declared his belief that attempts had been made to destroy evidence against terday and declared his belief that attempts had been made to destroy evidence against De Cobain. He stated that two men, Cole and Rodgers, in the employ of De Cobain's solicitor, Dudgeon, met Allen at a saloon bar and drank with him, and while they were thus engaged Allen showed an indecent photograph, which Rodgers seized and retained. Rodgers afterward had a conference with DeCobain's brother, and the result was Allen's agreest. brother, and the result was Allen's arrest. Rodgers now deposed that he was employed Rodgers now deposed that he was employed on a salary to unearth a conspiracy against De Cobain. Head Constable Hussey deposed that Allen, when arrested, said: "If I had taken the £500 offered me not to expose De Cobain this would not have occurred." The day previous to the alleged offence Allen applied to Hussey for protection against Dudgeon, Cole and Rodgers. Hussey also stated that De Cobain's agents had tried to tamper with several of the Crown witnesses. Cole ignored the summons to attend yesterday's hearing and was arrested at a coursing meeting at Purdy's Burn, where he was engaged in bookmaking. The trial was continued to-day, when Allen was acquitted. This is regarded as bad for the fugitive De Cobain.

CATCHING SUCKERS.

Blackmail Scheme of an Employer and his

Giddy Female Employees. A New York despatch says: Dr. Benson A New York despatch says: Dr. Benson W. Feldman was recently arrested on a charge of abducting Katie Bells Mahhalowitz. To-day in the Tombs Court it developed that the physician had been the victim of a gigantic blackmail scheme, in which he had been robbed of 86,000 inside of 18 months. He admits that he took the girl to a house of ill-repute, but says she was perfectly willing to go. Now it comes to light that it was the custom of her employer. a house of ill-repute, but says she was perfectly willing to go. Now it comes to light that it was the custom of her employer, Simon Tillerstein, a cloakmaker, to instruct his girls to notify him as soon as they "caught on to a sucker." Then he would proceed to levy blackmail. He followed the doctor and the girl and demanded $100. He got his money and signal as the same perfect of the same perfect his proper and signal as the same perfect his proper. doctor and the girl and demanded $100. He got his money and signed a receipt and promised to keep quiet. He did not keep quiet, and the doctor was compelled to pay hush money to the family of the girl, and was also forced to promise to set up her lover in business. The girl has been leading a fast life and lent herself willingly to the blackmail. The doctor had to establish her in luxury to keep her from telling his wife, but the demands on his purse grew so free. but the demands on his purse grew so frequent that he confessed to his wife, who forgave him. The detectives hired to rundown the conspiracy arrested Tillerstein today. The cloakmaker waived examination, and was held in $1,000 to appear to the constraint of the co and was held in $1,000 to answer. There will be more arrests, a lawyer also being in

GONE WITH THE PREACHER.

An Interesting Revivalist Deserts Hi

Family for an Enchantress. A Lexington, N. C., despatch says: A Lexington, N. C., despacen says: Chi the 15th of last December the Rev. Zacharias Bell, one of the most noted revivalists in North Carolina, living here, revivalists in North Carolina, living here, kissed his wife and five children good bye. At the same time he took leave of Miss Katie Washburn, a visitor at his house. She left the next day for her home. Since that time the preacher has not been heard from, and his wife has mourned him as dead. She has just learned that on the day after his instant death. Ostrom whipped the horses into a run up the steep grade just as a second shot was fired. The bullet entered the neck of one of the horses, but a turn in the road soon took the team out of range of the shooters. Ostrom forced the team up the grade, holding his compavion's dead body in the vehicle and being soaked from head to foot with his life blood. Reaching the Mount Vernon House, Ostrom left Gallatotti's body, hid the bullion in the brush, and rode to this city to notify the officers. Several squads of armed men are starting important revival engagements. Mrs. Bell thereupon wrote to Kandolph county and learned that Miss Washburn had never returned home. It is supposed she was the young lady who joined Bell at Salisbury and the pair are passing themselves off as husband and wife in Georgia

Total Abstinence for Clergymen.

Father Nilan, at the National Temperance Congress, held in Port Richmond, last week, declared for a total abstinence movement among clergymen. He said, "Catholic and Protestant clergymen ought to unite in this in order to save their flocks from wide-spread ruin and moral degradation resulting from the use of alcohol. The pulpit, in spread ruin and moral degradation resulting from the use of alcohol. The pulpit, in order to mass the forces against the liquor traffic, ought to become itself totally abstinent. Clergymen professing to lead intellectual and spiritual lives, with com-fortable surroundings and pleasant homes, cannot effectively teach total abstinence to those thousands of hard-working laborers and mechanics living anidst poor and and unhealthy surroundings, unless they practice what they preach."

Dominion Election Trials.

The court fixed the time and place for the

By order of the German Emperor, the Prussian Minister of the Interior has forbidden parents to baptize their children with political names of a zertain character with political names of a sertain character or color. Young Germans nay be christened with names from the Bible of princess or of "loyal" statesmen, genenls and patriots. This measure is intended to prevent Socialists from commemorating in their own families prominent revolutionists. "Robespierre" has long been a very favorite name for Secialists espierre" has long been a very favorite name for Socialist babies.

Thirteen years ago a stident in Berlin was mobbed in the streets or appearing on

BURIED UNDER JET.

Women's Get-Up Will Abound in This

Fair woman's outfit will be weighted down with jet the coming winter. The fad, which has assumed the proportions of a well-developed craze in the west, had its origin in the spring of this year, when the narrow jet edges sprang into popular favor. At that time the Parisian designers, the parents of all fashions, set their wits at work, and, as a result, we have such gorgeous combinations of dress goods and jet passementerie asare well calculated to throw the devotees of fashion into paroxysms of the devotees of fashion into paroxysms of ecstatic delight. This innovation has caused the manufacturers of jet ornaments in this country to bestir themselves, and they are now engaged in manufacturing cheap imitations of the French article to supply the demands of the poorer lovers of fine dress.

During the months of June and July the sales in the dress trimmings departments of the large stores in this city increased nearly 50 per cent, all of which was due to the demand for jet trimmings. There are girdles of jet, Henry II, Medici and Bolero collarettes, stomachers, band trimmings and fringes, ranging in width from three to thirty-six inches, and nail-head beads in all the designs and shapes imaginable. The large jet buttons, so popular many years ago are also being revived.

The new ornaments will be used on fabrics of all varieties, Crepe de Chine predominating, and the black passementerie will show to particular advantage on the new shades of brown. There are also manufactured jet ornaments of all colors, to suit the tastes of the lovers of gaudy apparel.

The freaks of fashion are well instanced here, for the more elegant and costly the garment the more uncomfortable is it, since the jet passementerie is naturally heavy. The simplest gown adorned with jet trimming will cost not less than $50, while the most elegant will entail an outlay of many hundreds of dollars. At one of the most prominent Chestnut street establishments recently a "mass" or 1,200 nail-head beads were sold, to be used in the adornment of a single garment. Some of the broadest pieces of jet trimmings for skirt garniture are sold at fabulous prices, one, for instance, costing $45 per yard.

A fall outfit recently ordered by a promi-A fall outfit recently ordered by a prominent belle of up-town society will cost many thousands of dollars. It consists of a tea-gown, visiting costume, walking dress, afternoon reception gown and a ball dress, afternoon reception gown and

A Model Witness.

"Now, sir, I hope we shall have no diffi-"Now, sir, I hope we shall have no difficulty in getting you to speak up," said the lawyer, in a very loud, commanding voice.
"I hope not, sir," shouted the witness at the top of his lungs.
"How dare you speak to me in that way?"
angrily asked the lawyer.
"Because I can't speak no louder, sir,"
said the hostler.
"Have you been drinking?"
"Yes, sir."
"I should infer so from your conduct.
What have you been drinking?"
"Coffee," hoarsely vociferated the knight of the stable.
"Something stronger than coffce, sir,

"Something stronger than coffce, sir, you've been drinking! Don't look at me like that, sir!" furiously. "Look at the jury, sir! Did you have something in your coffee, sir."
"Yes, sir."
"What was it?"

"Sugar."
"This man is no fool, my lord—he is worse!" stormed the counsel.
"Now, sir," turning to the witness,
"look at me. What beside sugar did you take in your coffee this morning?"

The hostler collected his forces, drews deep breath and, in a voice that could have been heard half a mile away, bellowed out: been heard half a mile away, bellow a spune! A spune! and nothin' else!"

"I don't see why you men should prefer one newspaper to another merely on account of its politics," said Mrs. Wickwire. "The news in each one is pretty much the same. And the bargain advertisements are exactly the same."

German Syrup" For children a medicine should be absoand Croup lutely reliable. mother must be able to Medicine. pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as childrens' troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the The Emperor of China retires to bed at sunset every evening, rising at 3 in the morning. His breakfast is served at 7 and his dinner at 3 in the afternoon.

A Cough

Queen Victoria puts in her spare time plying the crochet needle.

Thirteen years ago a stident in Berlin the Spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Bonual conference at Bresau, has 14,000 schee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.

THE HAMILTON MIRACLE

The Case Investigated by Globe Reporter.

THE FACTS FULLY VERIFIED.

One of the Most Remarkable Cases on Record.

A Man Pronounced by Eminent Physicians Permanently Disabled Fully Recovers -Fac-simile of the Cheque for $1,000 Paid by Royal Templars of Temperance for Total Disability-Hundreds of Vis-

TORONTO DAILY GLOBE, July 25.—This is an age of doubt; especially in regard to cures by patent medicines, and not without reason, for too often have the sick and their near and dear beloved ones been deceived by highly recommended. reason, for too often have the sick and their near and dear beloved ones been deceived by highly recommended nostrums that were swallowed to be of less avail than as much water. The old, old fable of the boy and the wolf applies also too frequently to many of the specific concoctions for curing the ills that flesh is heir to; and when a real cure is effected by a genuine remedy those who might be benefited fight shy of it, saying "it was 'cure, cure' so often before that I won't tay it." When such a state of affairs exists it is advisable that assurance should be made doubly sure.

A few weeks ago a marvellous and almost miraculous cure was made known to Canadians through the medium of the Hamilton newspapers. It was stated that Mr. John Marshall, a well-known resident of Hamilton, by the aid of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, had been snatched from the very jaws of death, placed upon his feet and enabled to mingle with his fellowcitizens with more than renewed health and strength and even brighter spirits than he had experienced for years before. This strength and even brighter spirits than he had experienced for years before. This remarkable statement naturally excited the wonder of almost a continent. Some believed, most people doubted, although the facts were placed so clearly as to ward off the slightest suspicion of fraud. To investigate the very extraordinary cure and place before the people of Canada and the United States verification or otherwise of it was the special mission of a Globe reporter a few days ago.

A close inquiry into the circumstances first showed that Mr. John Marshall, whose residence is 25 Lattle William street, off Barton street, in the northeast portion of the city, while employed as foreman for the Canadian Oil Company, five years ago, fell upon the edge of an oil vat and hurt his back. Thinking little of the affair, Mr. his back. Thinking little of the affair, Mr. Marshall continued to work on, but after a few months he became ill, gradually got worse and in August, four years ago, became stricken with that dread disease, locomotor ataxy—a disease attacking the nerves and rendering that portion of the system attacked perfectly helpless, proclaimed by the physicians to be incurable—which left him from the waist downwards without feeling, and utterly unable to move without feeling, and utterly unable to move his lower limbs. All he was able to do was to raise himself by the aid of sticks and crutches and drag himself around the house, and occasionally to the corner of the street on fine days. His legs were with-out feeling, pins and even knives were stuck into them without the sick man experiencing any inconvenience. He could take a walking stick and beat his legs until the blows resounded through the house and yet he felt nothing. During all these years of torture Mr. Marshall consulted every of torture Mr. Marshall consulted every doctor of ability in the city; tried every form of treatment and took almost every kind of patent medicine, but without receiving one tittle of relief. The agony was frequently so intense that he was obliged to take morphine pills in order to receive a reasonable amount of sleep.

As the months and years passed by, although the doctors continued to treat him in various ways, they plainly told the though the doctors continued to treat him in various ways, they plainly told the suffering man that he could not get better, the disease was set down in the works of specialists as incurable. The doomed man was a member of United Empire Council, No. 190, Royal Templars of Temperance, and under the discouraging circumstances he thought it advisable to apply for the payment of the total dischility along a he thought it advisable to apply for the payment of the total disability claim of $1,000, allowed by the order on its insurance policy. Application was accordingly made, but before the claim was granted the patient had to offer conclusive proof of his patient had to oner conclusive proof of his total disability to the chief examiner, and Mr. Marshall was sent to Toronto for a special electrical treatment. It proved no more successful than the others that had preceded it, and a number of city doctors and the chief medical examiner of the Order signed the medical certificate of total disa bility and Mr. Marshall received from the Dominion Councillor of the Royal Templars a cheque for $1,000 last November. One day last February came Mr. Marshall's salvation, although he did not accept it at first. A small pamphlet telling of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the diseases it cured, was thrown into the house, but it was placed aside and no notice was taken of it for weeks. One day the sick man re-read the circular and although Mrs. Marshall tried hard to dissuade him, saying they would be as ineffectual as all the others; but on April 14th—memorable day to him—Mr. Marshall began to take the pills, one after each meal for a start. In a few days a change was noticed, and as he continued to take the pills he gradually improved, and in a little over a month he was able to take the train for Toronto and visit an astonished brother-in-law. Now he can walk four or five miles with any of his friends.

The Globe representative paid a visit to

The Globe representative paid a visit to the house of the man thus rescued from a living death. Mr. Marshall's home, cosy, comfortable, with climbing flowers covering its from was reached only to find him out, its fron was reached only to find him out, taking a few miles' constitutional up town. Mrs. Marshall, with smile wreathed face, and looking as happy and light-hearted as upon her wedding day, welcomed her visitor and appeared delighted to have the opportunity of telling frankly and fully—while awaiting Mr. Marshall's return—what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for her husband.

husband.

"It was a happy day for me," she said,
"when Mr. Marshall tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Look at all these things we bought, hoping they would cure him," and the good lady turned with an armful of straps and tacklings of all kinds. There was a combination of harness and attachments of leather used for the "suspensory treatment" by which the crimpled man was ments of leather used for the "suspensory treatment" by which the crippled man was hung in the barn by his body with his feet but a few inches from the floor. There were enough belts, bandages, supporters and soles to set up a good-sized store. Then Mrs. Marshall showed a collection of crutches and sticks which her husband had used. The whole collection was a large and remarkable one.

Mrs. Marshall showed a letter received.

Mrs. Marshall showed a letter received that day from New York State, in which was a query similar to many that had previously been received by Mr. Marshall, "Write me if it is a fact or only an advertisement." tisement.'

"Write me if it is a fact or only an advertisement."

"Here's a bundle of letters," said Mrs. Marshall, showing about a hundred letters tied together, "that my husband has received during the past two weeks, and I can tell you he is only too glad to answer all the letters cheerfully and readily, for he is anxious to give all the information he can to others suffering as he did." A firm step here was heard at the gate and in a moment a sturdy, healthy-looking man of middle age, with glowing black side whiskers and ruddy, pleasant features stepped into the room. It was Mr. Marshall, who gave no indication of ever having been a sick man, suffering from ataxy. When the reporter's mission was explained, Mr. Marshall's face lighted up with a smile, which caused a responsive one to rise upon the features of his wife, and he expressed his perfect willingness to tell all that was asked of him.

"Why. I feel a hetter man new than I. asked of him

"Why, I feel a better man now than I why, ries a better man now than I did ten years ago," said he, cheerfully. "It's four years next August since I did a day's work, but I guess I can soon make a day's work, but I guess I can soon make a start again. About my illness? It was all caused through falling and hurting my back. I kept getting worse until I couldn't get off a chair without a stick or crutches. The lower part of my body and legs were useless. I tried every doctor and every patent medicine, spending hundreds of dollars. Everything that was likely to help me I got, but I might as well have thrown it in the bay. I suppose my wife has shown you the apparatus I used at one time or another. A dozen city doctors gave me up. I got enough electric shocks. time or another. A dozen city doctors gave me up. I got enough electric shocks for half a dozen men, but they did me no good. I lost control of my bowels and water and couldn't sleep without morphine. water and couldn't sleep without morphine. During the day my legs were cold and I had to sit by the stove wrapped in a blanket, suffering intense agony from nervous pains in the legs, neck and head. Yes, I received from the Royal Templars a $1,003 cheque, being declared totally unable to follow my employment. One day in April I took a notion to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, carefully following the directions accompanying each box. Why, in three days I got relief and kept on mending. I threw away the morphine pills and the crutches I recovered my appetite and regarined conaway the morphine pills and the crutches I recovered my appetite and regained control of my bowels and water, and I went on getting better and stronger, and now you see me stronger and more healthy than I was for years before I was taken ill. I tell you I am feeling first-class," and Mr. Marshall slapped his legs vigorously and gave the lower part of his back a good thumping, afterwards going up and down the room at a lively gait.

"I weigh 160 pounds to-day," he continued, "and I've gained 30 pounds since I first took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I haven't such a thing as a pain or ache about me, arst took Dr. Williams Pink Pills. I haven't such a thing as a pain or ache about me, and another thing, I can walk as easily in the dark as in the light."

Mr. Marshall offered to make an affidavit to the truth of the above story, but the reporter considered that wholly unnecessary. He carried conviction to the inquirer's He carried conviction to the inquirer's mind by every word and action, and there was no gainsaying the fact that the cure was one of the most marvellous in the nine-teenth century. All the neighbors bore testimony to the genuineness of the cure. None of them ever expected to see Mr. Marshall on his feet again and regarded his restoration to health as nothing short of marvellous.

marvellous. The headquarters of the Royal Templars taken of it for weeks. One day the sick man re-read the circular and concluded to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills, W. W. Buchanan, general manager, and one of the most prominent temperance advocates of the Dominion, was found. In response to the reporter's question he said: "Oh, yes, I am well acquainted with Mr. John Marshall. He has been a member of one of the councils of this city for about seven years. He is a well-known citizens and a reliable temperance man. About four years ago he was first taken seriously ill, and his case was brought before the Order. The provisions under which the total disability claim is paid in our organization are very strict. The weekly sick benefit is payable to any person under the doctor's care who is unable to follow their usual vocation, but the total disability claim is paid in our their usual vocation, but the total dis-ability is a comparatively large sum, only paid a member who is disabled for life, and paid a member who is disabled for life, and declared by medical men to be entirely past all hope of recovery. In Mr. Marshall's case there was some difficulty, it is true. He was examined upon a number of occasions, covering a period of upwards of two years. The medical men who examined him all agreed that there was little hope of recovery, but they would not give the definite declaration that our law demands—that the claimant was permanently and totally disabled until last November. When this declaration by two regular physicians was made and our Dominion Medical referee, we paid Mr. Marshall the total disability benefit of one thousand dollars. He was paid by a cheque on the Bank of Montreal. There is no doubt whatever about the remarkable character of Mr. Marshall's care. A large number of our members in this city were intimately acquainted with Mr. Marshall and acter of Mr. Marshall's care. A large number of our members in this city were intimately acquainted with Mr. Marshall and called upon him frequently. All were unanimous in the belief that he was past all unanimous in the belief that he was past all hope of recovery. His cure is looked upon as next to a miracle. I have conversed with him a number of times about it, and he gives the whole credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the application of cold water which is recommenced as a subsidiary treatment by the proprietors of the medicine. He drops into my office every day or two and is apparently enjoying good health now."

now."

The general offices of the Order are in the old Bank of Upper Canada building just opposite the publishing house. Mr. J. H. Land, the Dominion Secretary, was easily found, and in response to the questions asked simply corroborated all that the general manager had said. Mr. Land is a neighbor of Mr. Marshall, living within a block of him in the northeastern part of the city. He was well acquainted with him for years before he had taken sick, and pronounced his recovery as one of the most remarkable things in all his experience.

"I have not much faith in patent nostrums," said Mr. Land, "but Mr. Mar shall's case proves beyond a doubt that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful medicine. He seems to have exhausted all other means and methods of treatment during his long illness and all without any benefit, but his recovery was rapid and wonderful immediately after he commenced using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Inquiries among the city druggists disclosed the fact that an extraordinary degeneral offices of the Order are in the nervous system, or from an impoverished or vitiated condition of the blood—such as the complaints peculiar to female weakness, loss of appetite, inability to sleep, dizziness, pale and sallow completions, loss of memory, that tired feeling which affects so many, and disease resulting from over work menand disease resulting from over work, men-tal worry, abuse or loss of vital forces, etc. John A. Barr, a well-known and popular dispenser of drugs here, told the reporter that he knew of no patent medicine that had such a demand upon it, or one that had done all that was promised for it. On that day he had sold no less than forty boxes of the wills and give he was resided to day he had sold no less than forty boxes of the pills, and since he received the first instalment he had sold nearly three hundred boxes. He told of several cases of great relief and cure that had come under his notice. Mr. Wm. Webster, MacNab street, after suffering from ataxy for years, from the first had found certain relief from taking the pills, and he is now a new man. Mr. George Lees, corner of Park and Main streets, after years of illness of a similar streets, after years of illness of a similar nature, had taken three boxes of the pills, and was able to walk out greatly improved in health. Another case Mr. Barr vouched for was a city patient, who had been cured by the pills of the effects of la grippe, after having been given up by the doctors. having been given up by the doctors. Many others had spoken highly of the Pink Pills as a fine remedy for nervous and blood disorders. Other druggists told the Same story.

One thing worthy of note in connection with the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the light expense attending the treatment. These pills are sold in boxes (never in bulk be had of all dealers or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Morristown, N. Y.

The Bright Side.

Tounghusband-You've made a fool of me Mrs. Younghusband—That will be handy for you now, my dear. You can do silly things and keep the baby amused.

About 4,500 species of wild bees are known, and of wasps 1,100.

THE COOPER CUT OUT.

Casks Now Made Direct From the Tree.

Casks may now be made direct from the tree.

Casks may now be made direct from the tree. Those who are familiar with the lathe will know that a very long turning can be taken from a piece of wood or metal. In this way casks are now being produced from the log—that is, without the wood having to be cut up into numerous staves, the cask being formed of a single stave. In this system the tree stem is first sawn into lengths to suit the length of cask to be made, and these lengths are boiled for about three hours in a closed veesel, which renders the wood soft. A current of electricity is passed through the water during the boiling process. The log is taken from the boiler to the cutting machine, in which it is fixed as in a lathe and brought up against a long, broad cutting black. machine, in which it is fixed as in a lathe and brought up against a long, broad cutting blade. The log is revolved, the knife automatically approaches it, and the sheet of wood passes out of the rear of the machine through an opening in the frame just at the edge of the blade, as in a plane. The sheet of wood is drawn from the machine on to a table by the attendants, and is then cut into lengths suitable for the diameter of barrel required. The lengths are then taken to a grooving machine, where they are grooved near the edges for receiving the head and bottom of the cask. The wood is then put into edges for receiving the head and bottom of the cask. The wood is then put into another machine which cuts long, narrow V pieces or gussets out of the edges at intervals, which gives the necessary double taper to the cask. The sheets of wood are then formed up into a cylinder, and the first two hoops are driven on by the machine. There is thus only one stave in the cask and, consequently, only one joint.

Lord Northesk Dead. Lord Northesk's death has been received with great sorrow and regret in Scotland. He had always from his youth been delicate He had always from his youth been delicate and suffered when young from pulmonary weakness, and his only sister died of consumption. His death was sudden at the end, for he ruptured a blood vessel only a few hours before his death, when he appeared in perfect health. He was a man of very wide scientific and antiquarian pursuits and had a very fine collection of fossils and antiquities, which only a short time ago he presented to the Edinburgh Museum. His place in Scotland near Arbroath was one of the oldest and most picturesque of Scotch houses, and he had recently restored it. Lord Northesk left instructions that his body be cremated.

Too Careless With the English Language. A clothing dealer, in Boston, advertised all-wool pantaloons for $2, advising the public to make haste and secure the great bargain, saying: "They will not last long." Probably they would not. Neither will your health last long if you don't take care of it. Keep Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in your health last long it you don't take care of it. of it. Keep Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets in your house. They are indispensible to every family, as they positively cure biliousness, with its endless train of distressing ailments—sick headache, irritability, constipation, dizziness and indigestion; a marvelous specific for liver and kidney troubles, and a pure vegetable compound. They are sugarcoated, the smallest pills made, and the best, because they do all they promise. All druggists sell them, and the proprietors guarantee them, and refund the price if they fail.

Gladstone and George.

Detroit News: Gladstone must have been fluenced by Henry George's writings. He Detroit News: Gladstone must have been influenced by Henry George's writings. He is now advocating the imposition of a land value tax exempting improvements, and an income tax including bondholders. The latter tax, however, he does not press in deference to the views of others, but he insists upon the land value tax. How far he goes in this direction we do not know; but it is not probable that he would absorb the total rental value of land, as Mr. George would. Indeed, England is making haste slowly. slowly.

What a pity it is that his face is all pimples Ho'd be very fine looking if 'twasn't for that,' aid pretty Miss Vere, with a smile at the dimples Reflected from under the nobby spring hat—As she looked at herself in the glass, softly sighing.

sighing.
That she had for the young man a tender regard,
gard,
There wasn't the least need of denying—knew it. His beauty is marred by the frightful red blotches all over his face. I wonder if he couldn't take some-thing to cleanse his blood, and drive them away ?"

He heard what she said about his looks.

He heard what she said about his looks. He heard what she said about his looks. It hurt his feelings, but he couldn't deny she told the truth. He remembered a friend whose face used to be as bad as his. It had become smooth and clear. He went to him and asked how the change had been brought, about. "Simply by using Drought, about." brought about. "Simply by using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," was the reply. "Take that, and I'll warrant the reply. "Take that, and you to get rid of your pimples." He did so.

His face became healthy and clear, And next week he'll be married to pretty Miss

Hens Are Not Shod.

"Shoo, shoo!" said Mrs. Black to her "Noo, shoo!" said Mrs. Black to her neighbor's hen.
"No, thanks; I don't need any shoes," was the reply, as the hen settled herself to work in the garden again.

The Emperor of Russia's new yacht, the Polar Star, is certainly the most magnifi-cently decorated and furnished vessel afloat. She carries two priests, a physician and a surgeon in addition to the suite. She has maintained a speed of 19½ knots. The Sandwich Islands alphabet has 12

The Sandwich Islands alphabet has 12 letters; the Burmese, 19; Italian, 20; Bengalese, 21; Hebrew, Syrian, Chaldee and Samaritan, 22 each; French, 23; Greek, 24; Latin, 25; German, Dutch and English, 26 each; Spanish and Sclavonic, 27 each; Arabic, 28; Persian and Coptic, 32; Georgian, 35; Armenian, 38; Russian, 41; Muscovite, 43; Sanscrit and Japanese, 50; Ethiopic and Tartarian have 202 each.

THE VELVET COLLAR.

It is Not Put on Overcoats by Tailors Any

The velvet collar on men's overcoats was as inevitable a feature, a few years ago, of dress as the buttons on the back of a cufas inevitable a feature, a few years ago, of dress as the buttons on the back of a cufaway coat. But in the last two or three years that fashion has gone cut to a remarkable degree. The comparatively old-fashioned velvet collar of a decade is quite extinct now. This was an entirely velvet collar, and when the collar was turned up nothing but the velvet touched the skim. Now where the velvet has been used recently it has been in the form of a half-collar, and the lower half of the turn was ornamented in this. It was very rare a few years ago to see a melton overcoat without a velvet collar, but last year the coats were made almost entirely of the one cloth, and the exceptional case was that of the use of velvet. The reason of this change is as much one of cleanliness as anything efse. The turned-up collar came into contact with the hair of the head, as everybody's hair has some natural oil, and nearly everybody uses some sort of prepared hair lubricant, the velvet became greasy and lost its texture. And about the dirtiest thing in the world is greasy velvet.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Wool—The Chicago World's Fair Com-

Wool—The Chicago World's Fair Commissioners made arrangements for some mighty interesting things during their recent visit to New England. Van Pelt—What did they secure? Wool—The hand of Providence and the foot of the Bunker Hill manument. Hill monument.

-Rome has twenty-five Protestant

D. C. N. L. 40. 91

RHEUMATISM. Neuralgia, Sciatica.

Lumbago, Backache, Headache, Toothache,

Sore Throat, Frost Bites, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Etc.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Firty Cents a bottle. Directions in 11 Languages.
THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Battimore, Mc. Canadian Depot: Toronto, Ont.

EPILEPSY OR FALLING SICKNESS

H. G. ROOT M. C., 186 West Adelaide St. Toronto, Ont.

for every Family and School.
Work of revision occupied over 10 years.
More than 100 editorial laborers employed.
Critical examination invited. Cettho Best.
Sold by all Booksellers. Pamphlet free. Soid by all languages. Pauphiet Free.

CAUTION is needed in purchasing a dictionary, as photographic reprints of an obsolete and comparatively worthless edition of Webster are being marketed under various names and often by misrepresentation.

The International bears the imprint of G. & C. MERRIAM & CO., Publishers, Springfield, Mass., U. S. A.

WEAKNES

PISO'S CURE FOR THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE.

R. S. PELTON, - PUBLISHER.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1891.

Says the London Free Press:-Certain of our contemporaries are advocating changes in the postal laws to simplify and cheapen postage rates. At present a printed circular, unsealed, can be sent to any part of Canada for one cent; a letter mailed at the same time, sddressed to the same place, carried by the same trains and delivered by the same postman, costs three cents. The suggestion is made to "strike the golden mean," and make the postage two cents "all round" whether the communication be printed or written with a pen, or a typewriter or a pitch fork, so long as it does not exceed a certain weight, or contain matter which is not permissible to send through the mails.

SNOW THEM UNDER.

Rev. A. F. Tully, in a letter to the London Advertiser, says:-"The cure for the present political scoundrelism is wholly in the hands of the electors. Let every man in Parliament who has either given or received a bribe, or has supported knowingly those who have done so, be snowed under at the polls How can it be done? I answer that the electors must cease to view the situation from the standpoint of either political party. It is a straight issue between right and wrong. It is not a question of right and wrong. It is not a question of party politics. Any party that supports or condones bribery ought not to live. Let the lovers of right from every creed, class and political party unite and overthrow those who have disgraced themselves and dragged our fair Canada into the mire. The political rascality in the mire. The political rascality in Canada to-day can live only as long as the people are willing it should live. "Like people, like priest." Loyalty to principle may be a lesson hard to learn but we must and shall get it somehow."

Lesson 4—The Little Midshipman. 7—Boadicea.

- 14—Lament of the Irish Emi-grant. 16—The Humble Bee.
- 21—Oft in the Stilly Night. 21—'Tis the Last Rose of Sum-

- mer.

  34—Death of Little Nell.

  37—The Bell of Atri.

  41—Making Maple Sugar.

  49—The Mound Builders.

  50—The Prairies.

  79—The Capture of Quebec.

  80—Waterloo.
- 80-Waterloo.
- 83—The Influence of Beauty. 85—Marmion and Douglas.
- 90-Mercy. SELECTIONS FOR MEMORIZATION.

SELECTIONS FOR MEMORIZATION.

Lesson 13—The Bells of Shandon.

31—To Mary in Heaven.
40—Ring out Wild Bells.
42—Lady Clare.
46—Lead, Kindly Light.
47—Before Sedan.
73—The Three Fishers.
99—The Forsaken Merman.
103—To a Skylark.
105—Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard.

The copy book to be presented to the examiner by entrance candidates is No. examiner by entrance candidates is No. 6, senior fourth, of the authorized series.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

SOUTHERN EXTENSION W. G. & B.

Trains leave Atwood Station, North and South as follows: GOING SOUTH.

Express 7:12 a.m. | Mixed . . 8:25 a.m. | Express 12:30 p.m. | Express 2:34 p.m. | Mixed . . 10:10 p.m. | Express 9:24 p.m. |

ATWOOD STAGE ROUTE.

Stage leaves Atwood North and South

GOING SOUTH. GOING NORTH.
Atwood 8:00 a.m. | Mitchell 2:30 p.m.
Newry 8:05 a.m. | B'rnho'm 3:30 p.m.
Monkton 9:00 a.m. | Mankton 4:45 p.m.
B rnho'm10:15 a.m. | Newry 5:55 p.m.
Mitchell 11:15 p.m. | Atwood 6:00 p.m.

Latest Market Reports.

ATWOOD MARKE	T.
Fall Wheat		$ 90
Spring Wheat	80	85
Barley	35	40
Oats	26.	26
Peas	56	57
Pork	5 00	5 50
Hides per lb.	4	41/2
Sheep skins, each	50	1 25
Wood, 2 ft	1 15	1 50
L'otatoes per bushel	60	60
Butter per lb	13	14
Eggs per doz	11	11
TORONTO GRAIN MAI
Fall Wheat	80 95 8	81 02
Spring Wheat	93	95
Barley	43	51
Oats	31	32
Peas	61	62
How	0 00	0 50

Potatoes per bag ...... 000 0 00 8.

THOS. FULLARTON,

OMMISSIONER IN THE H.C.J.; Real Estate Agent; Issuer of Marriage Licenses; Money to Lend on reasonable terms; Private Funds on hand; all work neatly and correctly done; Accounts Collected. Atwood, Nov. 11, 1890.

my remedy to cure the worst cases. Because others have failed is no reason for not now receiving a cure. Send at once for a treatise and a Free Bottle of my infailible remedy. Give EXPRESS and FOST-OFFICE.

H. G. ROOT, M. C., 186 ADELAIDE ST. WEST, TORONTO, ONT.

W. D. GILCHRIEST, Prop.

STRAYED.

TRAYED on the premises of the undersigned, lot 12, con. 15, Elma, on or about the 19th of Sept., 1891, a yearling bull, red in color. Owner is requested to prove property, pay charges and take it away.

J. R. HAMMOND, Monkton P.O.

SHEEP LOST.

LOUIS HEIBEIN, Atwood, P. O., Ont.

STRAYED.

Entrance Literature For 1892.

The following is the list of literature selections for the High School entrance examinations of 1892.

Lesson 4. The Little Midshipmen.

WM. RENNIE, Milverton, Ont. 51-1y

URCHASE a Cooking Stove before seeing

THE-

As the Model Cook Stove is the most powerful baker ever made. It is the

FOR SALE ONLY BY

Main St. Bridge, Listowel.

Apollos of strength and form, but all may have robust health and strong nerves and clear minds. Our treatment makes such men. The methods are our own exclusively, and where

VIGOR OF MEN is easily, quick-Debility, and all the train of evils from early errors or later excesses, the result of over-work, sickness, worry, etc., forever cured. Full strength development, and tone givimpossible. 2,000 references. Book, explanations and proofs mailed Hay ... 8 00 8 50 (sealed) free. Address, Eggs ... 12 12 Butter ... 13 15 ERIE MEDICAL ERIE MEDICAL CO.,

Business Cards.

MEDICAL.

L. E. RICE, M. D., C. M. L. E. RICE, M. D., C. M.
Trinity University, Toronto; Fellow by examination of Trinity Medical College, Toronto; member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Ontario; member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Michigan; special attention given to the Diseases of Women and Children. Office and residence, next door to Mader's store, Atwood. Office hours: 10 to 12 a.m.; 1 to 2:30 p.m., and every evening to 8:30.

W. M. BRUCE, E.D.S., DENTIST,
Is extracting teeth daily without pain through the aid of "The Electric Vibrator." The most satisfactory results are attained by the use of this wonderful instrument, for which he holds the exclusive right. References, &c., may be seen at his dental apartments, over Thompson Bros.' store. Entrance, Main St., Listowel.

AUCTIONEERS.

C. H. MERYFIELD. Licensed auctioneer for the County of Perth, Monkton, Ont. Rates moderate For particulars apply at this office.

ALEX. MORRISON,

Licensed Auctioneer for Perth County All sales attended to promptly and at moderate rates. Information with regard to dates may be had by applying at THOS. E. HAY. Licensed Auctioneer for the County of Perth. Rates moderate. Office—Over Lillico's bank, Listowel. All orders left at this office will be attended to promptly.

Money to Loan. At Lowest Rates of Interest.

A. FRAME.

Any information wanted respecting the Perth Mutual Fire Insurance Co. will be cheerfully given by applying to R. S. Pelton, of The Bee Publishing House, or

HOUSE, SIGN AND

The undersigned begs to inform the citizens of Atwood and surrounding country that he is in a position to do all kinds of painting in first-class style, and at lowest rates. All orders entrusted to the same will receive prompt attention.

REFERENCES:—Mr. McBain, Mr. R. Forrest, Mrs. Harvey.

WM. RODDICK, Painter, Brussels.

HORSES

For Sale.

GOOD Horses for Sale cheap. Terms satisfactory to purchaser.

BONNETT & BOWYER, D. & W. Lamont's

Musical Emporium,

34tfListowel.

anything is left to build upon, the In Dry Goods we are showing New Flannels, Hosiery, restored. Weakness, Nervousness, Flannelettes, Shirts and Drawers, Gloves, &c. We have also a new stock of Boots and Shoes and Rubword to the wise is suffic-free of cost. ient."

BUFFALO, N.Y Mrs.

Atwood Livery ! 011

Fine rigs, good horses, and everything requisite, is kept at the Atwood Livery Stables. Terms moderate. Special rates to ministers and others requiring livery service periodically. A sundid Corry service periodically. A splendid Carry all in connection with the stables.

WM. THISTLE, Proprietor

NOTICE.

J. J. FOSTER, L. D. S.,

Is using an improved Electric Vibrator, Vitalized Air, or Gas, for the painless extracting of teeth. Satisfaction guaranteed. Office—In block south first-class rigs, fast and gentle drivers, and in every way adapted to meet the requirements of the travelling public. Terms reasonable. Stables opposite Ioerger's hotel.

W. M. BRUCE, L. D.S., DENTIST, Is extracting teeth daily without not. The vitalized Air, or Gas, for the paid of the County Court of the Coun

All persons having business at the Court are required to attend at the said time and place. Dated 22nd day of September, 1891.

THOS. FULLARTON, Clerk of Elma.

IS BEGINNING TO

NOW is the Time to purchase a

Overcoat. Latest Cuts,

Best Materials, Lowest Prices Call and convince yourself. We are doing the Tailoring Trade of this District, and no mistake.

A. FRAME,
Box 14, Stratford, Ont. CURRIE & HEUGHAN,

ATWOOD, ONT.

WILL SELL YOU AN

Wool Suit

-FOR-

A Fine Worsted Suit for $18.00.

Where is

McGinty

Now?

Call and examine our goods, we guarantee to Save you from $2

to $5 on each

Suit.

Ornamental Painting. LARDINE MACHINE

The famous heavy Boiled Oil for all Machinery. Those who use it once use it always.

McColl's Renowned Cylinder Oil

Has no equal for Engine cylinders. Give it a trial and see for yourself. Beware of imitations of Lardine. Made only by McColl Bros. & Co., Toronto.

FOR SALE BY J. ROCERS, ATWOOD.

777 STORE!

The 777 Store is Headquarter in Listowel for

For Dry Goods, Groceries, Clothing, Dress Goods, &c.

Please Call and See Us when you Come to Town.

JOHN RICCS.

FORREST, Furniture Dealer, Atwood,

Has on hand a large assortment of all kinds of Furniture, strength development, and tone given to every organ and portion of the body. Simple, natural methods. Immediate improvement seen. Failure is now complete, and "a impossible 2,000 references. Book is now complete, and "a impossible 2,000 references."

Freight or Baggage taken to and from Station at Reasonable Rates. Dray always on hand.

M. Harvey. Hearse in connection. Furniture Rooms opposite P. O.

SOAP! * SOAP

0000000

LYCERINE soap, Carbolic soap, Ball soap, Oatmeal soap, Suldry goods, boots and shoes, etc., on Tuesday, Oct. 6th. The goods will go at a sacrifice. phur soap, Castile soap, Honey Soap, Seafoam soap, Cuticura soap, ployed with his brother at the tailoring trade, here, has secured a situation in Palmerston. Success, James. Soap, Unscented soap, Cheap soap, Elma factory, captured two red tickets for his cheese at the Western Fair last week. This is a feather in James A's parent soap, White soap, Colored soap, in fact almost any kind of soap for toilet purposes can be had soap for toilet purposes, can be had at the

Atwood Drug & Book Store.

Town Talk.

OCTOBER.

THE fall wheat is growing rapidly during this weather.

READ the fall announcements of our advertisers in this paper.

ROBT. CAMPBELL, employed in H. Hoar's blacksmith shop, put on 57 horse shoes last Saturday besides doing other work. This is a day's work hard to heat in the line of horseshoeing. work. This is a day's work beat in the line of horseshoeing.

beat in the line of horseshoeing.

School Report.—Junior Department—The five of highest standing in each class.—Senior Second Class—Fred. Hamilton, Fred. Glebe, Annie Graham, Ada Wilson, Arthur Harding. Junior Second Class—Elsie Gordon, Henry Robertson, Edgar Mader, Elsie Struthers, Ethel Brown.

Miss M. Dunn, Teacher.

DEAR, gentle, virtuous reader, you who have not spared your condemnation of the guilty officials at Ottawa and Outslee Area. Quebec, are you quite honest yourself? Are you honest in your business dealings? Are you honorable in your actions toward your fellowmen? Are you straight up and up in your relations with your employer? The stream will rise no higher than its source.

WHEN the leaves begin to fall.

W. W. Elliott, of Mitchell, was renewing old acquaintances in town Sun-

A CHRISTIAN Endeavor convention will be held at Peterboro on October 21

DONALDSON'S mill in Addington county is a new post office that has been established

MISS IDA HALPENNY, of Elma, Sundayed with Mrs. John Rogers.

SIM FAX, Canada's comic yocalist, on Friday evening, Oct 9th. Hear him.
"WHAT I saw in Italy," by J. L. Murray, M. A., in the Presbyterian church, next Monday evening. Hear it.

THE Presbyterian church anniversary sermons will be preached next Sunday by Rev. J. L. Murray, M. A., of Kincar-

The Cosgrove Family were greeted by a bumper house Tuesday night. The entertainment was first-class. John Driscoll, as a comic vocalist, has, in our mind, few equals on the Canadian stage.

AT a regular meeting of the Toronto school board, a good move was made in passing a resolution favoring the adoption of a public school curriculum which should only include what is absolutely practical and useful in the way of education, leaving higher but less immediately essential branches of education to be dealt with by High schools, which will afford an opportunity for the more general teaching of hygiene in the common schools, and relieve the pupils from the murderous forcing system now in vogue.

ONE half of the newspapers of the world are published in the United States a striking proof of the general intelligence of the people of the great republic.

E. E. HARVEY left Wednesday for Toronto, where he will prosecute his studies at the University. During his vacation E. E. made himself generally useful, and he will be very much missed.

The chiefs of the Farmers' Alliance in Minnesota and Dakota have issued a million circular letters to the farmers, calling a halt in "the mad rush of grain to the market." The circular says there is a shortage in Europe of 678 000 bushels.

who have not spared your condemnation of the guilty officials at Ottawa and Quebec, are you quite honest yourself. Are you honest in your business dealings? Are yon honorable in your actions toward; your fellowmen? Are you straight up and up in your relations with your employer? The stream will rise no higher than its source.

A CORRESPONDENT writes: "The circular says there is a shortage in Europe of 678,000, bushels, and that wheat will soon be over $1.50 a bushel.

A CORRESPONDENT writes: "The ditches along the road in most townships are too deep and dangerous. The wonder is that accidents from this cause are not more numerous. When the roads aways are sixty-six feet wide, the roads could be as high in centre as they are now and with a gradual sloge racching to near the fence on either side instead of the deep ditche lose to the roadway as now. In winter these ditches are necessary?

Enterprising—It has been our privilege before to call the attention of our readers to the enterprising firm or Messrs. Carson & McKee, of the well-known Golden Lion dry goods store in Listowel. But this fall we believe they are better prepared than ever before to meet the wants of the people, with a stock of the meet private and because the wants of the people, with a stock of the meet prepared than ever before to meet the wants of the people, with a stock of the meet prepared than ever before to meet the wants of the people, with a stock of the meet prepared than ever before to meet the wants of the people, with a stock of the meet prepared than ever before to meet the wants of the people, with a stock of the finest dry goods and millinery ever brought to Listowel. The law provided the materially affected this would be well for our Elma triends to visit this establishment and inspect and select for themselves. You will be courteously received and kindly treated and learn the newest styles in the market and learned to the green and believe they are better prepared than ever before to meet the wants of the people, with a stock of meet the wants of the people, with a stock of the finest dry goods and mil linery ever brought to Listowel. It would be well from the limit of the courte only received and kindy treated and learn the newest styles in the market at the lowest possible prices.

TALL wheat stories down big egg stories these days. I dropped into the Manitoba Emigration office in Toronto one day last week.asys a correspondent, exhibition there. It is eightly and the state of the courte only the courte of the courte only the courte of the courte only the courte of the courte of the courte only the courte of the co

TUESDAY, OCT. 6.—Store goods, Newry. R. Hutchison, auctioneer; J. S. Gee, proprietor.

UR PREPARATIONS

FOR.

THIS : SEASON'S : TRADE

HAVE BEEN ON-

A Scale Never Attempted by Us in the Past.

Dress Goods.

We have Opened a New Stock of Dress Goods

Which surpass anything ever shown here, either in Quality or Price. Don't fail to see our 20c. Cashmeres in various shades.

Do You Want

A Splendid Assortment of Flannels, Wincies, Flannelettes, Meltons, Cottons, grey or white, Cottonades, Ginghams, Tweeds, etc., etc.

You will be looking for the best assorted stock to be found in the locality, or whether you will be looking for some particular or special line of Dry Goods, in Case do no buying until you have made a Thorough Examination of Our Stock.

BOOTS & SHOES!

By taking a careful look through this department you will be convinced that the prices are away down; we keep a full range of all sizes.

We have opened out another Case of those 25c. Tweed Slippers.

Our stock of Groceries is always complete. Try a sample pound of our 25c. Uncolored Japan Tea; the best value on the market.

J. L. Mader.

(By Jas. Whitcomb Riley).

The summer winds is sniffin' round the bloomin locus' trees,
And the clover in the pastur' is a big day for the bees.
And they's been a swiggin' honey above board and on the sly,
Till they stutter in their buzzin' and stagger as they fly.

They's been a heap o' rain, but the sun's out to-day,
And the clouds of the wet spell is all cleared And the clouds of the wet spen is an cleared way,
And the woods is all the greener and the grass is greener still;
It may rain again tomorry, but I don't think it will.
Some say the crops is ruined, and the corn's drowned out.

drowned out,
And prophasy the wheat will be a failure without doubt;
But the kind Providence that has never failed will be on hand onc't more at the 'leventh hour, I bet!

Does the meadow lark complain as he swims high anddry
Through the waves of the wind and the blue of the sky?
Does the quail set up and whistle in a disappointed way.
Er hang his head in silence and sorrow all the day?
Is the chipmunk's health a failure? Does he walk or does he run?
Don't the buzzards ooze around upthere, just like they ve alius done?
Is there anything the matter with the roost er's lungs or voice?
Orta mortal be complainin' when dumb animals rejoice?

Then let us, one and all, be contented with our lot;
The June is here this morning, and the sun is shinin' hot.
Oh, let us fill our hearts with the glory of the day,
And banish ev'ry doubt and care and sorrow far away!

Whatever be our station, with Providence for guide,
For fine circumstances ort to make us satisfied.
For the world is full of roses and the roses full of dew,
And the dew is full of heavenly love that drips
for me and you.

THE SISTERS

CHAPTER XXXII. HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

He was talking to Patty and Eleanor in the garden when Elizabeth wentout to him, looking cool and colonial in a silk coat and solar topee. The girls were chatting Very cheerfully did Mr. Yelverton come rward to greet his beloved, albeit a little moved with the sentiment of the occasion. He had parted from her in a ball-room, with a half-spoken confession of—something that he knew all about quite as well as he did —on his lips; and he had followed her now to say the rest and to have formed to her had followed her now to say the rest, and to hear what she had to reply to it. This was perfectly understood by both of them, as they shook hands, with a little conventional air of unexpected. ness, and he told her that he had come at Mrs. Duff-Scott's orders.

Mrs. Duff-Scott's orders.

"She could not rest," he said, gravely,
"until she was sure that you had found pleasant quarters, and were comfortable.
She worried about you—and so she sent me up,"

"It was troubling you too much," Elizabeth murmured, evading his direct eyes, quite unable to hide her agitation from him. quite unable to hide her agitation from him.

"You say that from politeness, I suppose? No, it was not troubling me at all—quite the contrary. I am delighted with my trip. And I am glad," he concluded, dropping his voice, "to see the place where you were brought up. This was your home, was it not?" He looked all round him.

"It was not like this when "It was not like this when we were here," she replied. "The house was old then—now it is new. They have done it here," she replied.

They reached high land after a while, They reached high land after a while, whence, looking back, they saw the other buggy crawling towards them a mile or two away, and, looking forward, saw, beyond a green and wild foreground, the brilliant sea again, with a rocky cape jutting out into it, sprinkled with a few white houses on its landward shoulder—a scene that was too beautiful, on such a morning, to be disregarded. Here the girl sat at ease, while the horses took breath, thoroughly appreciating her opportunities; wondering, not what Mr. Yelverton was doing or was going to sensibility to his love for her—though till now that had seemed an impossibility. In a few minutes he returned with her sisters and Mr. Brion, all bearing dishes and bottles and heaving making the second of the s and Mr. Brion, all bearing dishes and buggy cushions and rugs; and, when the luncheon was ready and the groom had retired to feed and water his horses, she lifted her eyes to her tall lover's face with a look that he understood far better than she did. He quietly came round from the log on which he had been about to seat himself and laid his long limbs on the sand and hyperboxers here in on which he had been about to seat himself and laid his long limbs on the sand and bracken at her side.

"What will you have?" he asked carelessly; "roast beef and salad or chicken pie? I can recommend the salad, which has travelled remarkably well." And all the time he was looking at her with happy contentment, a little smile under his red moustache; and her heart was beating so that she could not answer him.

When the sylvan meal was ended, and the unsightly remnants cleared away, the two men smoked a soothing cigarette under the trees, while the girls tucked up their clean gowns a little and tied handkerchiefs over their heads, and then Mr. Brion, armed with matches and a pound of candles, marched them off to see the caves. He took them but a little way from where they had camped. and disclosed in the hillside what looked like a good-sized wombat or rabbit hole. "Now, you stay here while I go and light up a bit," he said, impressively, and he straightaway slid down and disappeared into the hole. They stooped and peered after him, and saw a rather muddy narrow shaft slanting down into the earth, through which the human adult could only pass "end.on." The girls were rather dismayed at the prospect.

"It is a case of faith," said Mr. Yelver-at the prospect.

"It is a case of faith," said Mr. Yelverton. "We must trust ourselves to Mr. Brion entirely or give it up."
"We will trust Mr. Brion," said Eliza

"We will trust Mr. Brion," said Elizabeth.

A few minutes later the old man's voice was heard from below. "Now, come along."

Just creep down for a step or two, and I will reach your hand. Who is coming first?"

They looked at each other for a moment, and Patty's quick eye caught something from Mr. Yelverton's. "I will go first," she said; "and you can follow me, Nelly." And down she went, half sliding, half sitting, and when nearly out of sight stretched up her arm to steady her sister. "It's all right," she cried; "there's plenty of room. Come along!"

When they had both disappeared, Mr. Yelverton took Elizabeth's unlighted candle from her hand and put it into his pocket. "There is no need for you to be bothered with that," one will do for us." And he let himself a little way down the shaft, and put up his hand to draw her after him.

Groping along hand in hand, they after him.

Groping along hand in hand, they came to a chasm that vawned, bridgeless, across their path. It was about three feet wide, and perhaps it was not much deeper, but it looked like the bottomless pit, and was very terrifying. Bidding Elizabeth to wait where she was, Mr. Yelverton leaped over by himself, and, dropping some tallow on a boulder near him, fixed his candle to the rock. Then he held out his arms and called her to come to him.

For a moment she hesitated, knowing what awaited her, and then she leaped blindly, fell a little short, and knocked the candle from its insecure socket into the gulf.

candle from its insecure socket into the gulf, from its beneath her. She uttered a sharp cry as horizon, she felt herself falling, and the next instant she fett herself falling, and the next instant found herself dragged up in her lover's strong arms, and folded with a savage tenderness to his breast. This time he held her as if he did not mean to let her go.

"Hush!—you are quite safe," he whispered to her in the pitch darkness.

CHAPTER XXXIII. THE DRIVE HOME.

An hour later they had reached the shore again, and were in sight of the headland and the smoke from the kitchen chimney of Seaview Villa. and in sight of their companions dismounting at Mr. Brion's garden gate. They had not lost themselves, though they had taken so little heed of the way.

"My darling," said Elizabeth, responding to the caress, "don't be sure yet. I am

"And whether he loves you?"

"Yes."
"Of course you do: You can't help knowing it. Nobody could. And if," proceeded Patty sternly, fixing the fatuous countenance of the man in the moon with a baleful eye, "if, under those circumstances, you don't accent him you deserve to be a baleful eye, "II, under those circumstances, you don't accept him, you deserve to be a miserable, lonely woman all the rest of your wretched life. That's my opinion if you ask wretched life. That's my opinion if you ask me for it."

Elizabeth looked at the sea in tranquil contemplation for a few seconds. Then she told Patty the story of her perplexity from the beginning to the end.

"Now, what would you do?" she finally asked of her sister, who had listened with the utmost interest and intelligent sympathy. "If it were your own case, my darling, and you wanted to do what was right, how would you decide?"

"Well, Elizabeth," said Patty, "I'll tell you the truth. I should not stop to think whether it was right or wrong."

"Patty!"

"No. A year ago I would not have said

"No. A year ago I would not have said "No. A year ago I would not have said so—a year ago I might have been able to give you the very best advice. But now—but now "—the girl stretched out her hands with the pathetic gesture that Elizabeth had seen and been struck with once before—"now, if it were my own case, I should take the man I loved, no matter what he was, if he would take me."

was, if he would take me.

Elizabeth heaved a long sigh from the bottom of her troubled heart. She felt that Patty, to whom she had looked for help, had bottom of her troubled heart. She felt that Patty, to whom she had looked for help, had made her burden of responsibility heavier instead of lighter. "Let us go up to the house again," she said wearily. "There is no need to decide to-night."

When they reached the house they found Eleanor gone to bed, and the gentlemen sitting on the veranda together, still talking of Mr. Yelverton's family history, in which the lawyer was professionally interested. The horses were in the little buggy, which stood at the gate.

"Ah, here they are!" said Mr. Brion.

"Mr. Yelverton is waiting to say goodnight, my dears. He has to settle at the hotel, and go on board to-night.

Patty bade her potential brother-in-law an affectionate farewell, and then vanished into her bedroom. The old man bustled off at her heels, under pretence of speaking to the lad-of-all-work who held the horses; and Elizabeth and her lover were left for a brief interval alone.

"You will not keep me in suspense longer than you can help, will you?" Mr. Yelver-

"You will not keep me in suspense longer than you can help, will you?" Mr. Yelver-ton said, holding her hands. "Won't s week be long enough?" "Yes," she said; "I will decide in a week.

"And may I come back to you here, to learn my fate? Or will you come to Mel-bourne to me?"

"Had I not better write?"

"Had I not better write?"

"No. Certainly not."

"Then I will come to you," she said.

He drew her to him and kissed her forenead gravely. "Good-night, my love," he aid. "You will be my love, whatever said.

And so he departed to the township, accompanied by his hospitable host, and she went miserable to bed. And at the first accompanied by his hospitable host, and she went miserable to bed. And at the first palestreak of dawn the little steamer sounded her whistle and puffed away from the little jetty, carrying him back to the world, and she stood on the cliff, a mile away from Seaview Villa, to watch the last whift of smoke from its funnels fade like a breath upon the horizon.

CHAPTER XXXV.

HOW ELIZABETH MADE UP HER MIND.

When they were gone, the house was very still for several hours. Elizabeth sat on the verandah, sewing and thinking, and watching the white sail of "The Rose in June" through a telescope; then she had her lunch brought to her on a whitenapkined tray; after eating which in solitude she went back to her sewing, and thinking and watching again. So 4 o'clock—the fateful hour—drew on. At a little before 4 Mr. Brion came home, hot and dusty from his long walk, had a bath and changed his clothes, and sat down to enjoy himself in his arm-chair. Mrs. Harris brought in the afternoon tea things, with HOW ELIZABETH MADE UP HER MIND.

where are they "is a record in a control of the con

I am quite used to commissariat business, and can set a table beautifully." He took some tumblers from her hand, and, looking into her agitated face, said suddenly, "I could not help coming, Elizabeth—I could not leave it broken off like that—I wanted to know why you ran away from me—and Mrs. Duff-Scott gave me leave. You will let me talk to you presently?"

"Oh, not now—not now!" she replied in a hurried, low tone, turning her head from side to side. "I must have time to think—"

"Time to think!" he repeated, with just a touch of reproach in his grave surprise. And he put down the tumblers carefully, got up, and walked away. Upon which, Elizabeth, reacting violently from the mood in which she had received him, had am agonizing fear that he would impute her indecision to want of love for him, or in-

USE OF THE BAMBOO.

It serves More Purposes Than Any Other Cultivated Plant.

It is hoped by the Department of Agriculture that the bamboo may yet be cultivated in this country as it is in China, where it supplies that the country as it is in China, vated in this country as it is in China, where it supplies a large part of the wants of the people, being applied to more than 500 different purposes. In the flowery kingdom it takes the place of both iron and steel. The farmer builds his house and fences out of it, his farming utensils as well as his household furniture are manufactured from it, while the tender shoots furnish him with a most deligious yeartable for him. im with a most delicious vegetable for his

The roots are carved into fantastic im-The roots are carved into fantastic images, shaped into divining blocks to guess the will of the gods, or cut into lantern handles and canes. The tapering culms are used for the props of houses, the framework of awnings, the ribs of sails and shafts of rakes; for fences and every sort of frames, coops and cages; and the handles and ribs of umbrellas and fans. The leaves are sewed into rain coats and thatches. The shavings of umbrellas and fans. The leaves are sewed into rain coats and thatches. The shavings and curled threads furnish materials for stuffing pillows, while parts supply the bed for sleeping, the chopsticks for eating, the pipe for smoking, the broom for sweeping, the mattress to lie upon, the chair to sit upon, the table to eat on, the food to eat and the fuel to cook it with, etc., etc. In fact, its uses are almost without number.—Pittsburgh Despatch.

Member of the Legislature.

Member of the Legislature.

In addition to the testimony of the Governor of the State of Maryland, U. S. A., a member of the Maryland Legislature, Hon. Wm. C. Harden, testifies as follows: "746 Dolphin St., Balto., Md., U.S. A., Jan. 18, 1890. Gentlemen: I met with a severe accident by falling down the back stairs of my residence, in the darkness, and was bruised badly in my hip and side, and suffered severely. One and a half bottle of St. Jacobs Oil completely cured me. Wm. C. Harden," Member of State Legislature.

Things Worth Remembering.

It is well to remember-

That every promise is a debt. That the average man about town is huge bore.

Why suffer the ills peculiar to females when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will thorougly when Dr. Williams Fink Fills will thoroughy the accumulated mass of hardened faces. The second case was that of a man with suicidal tendencies, who had refused food

A Bit of Scripture.

There's a Presbyterian minister in Detroit There's a Presbyterian minister in Detroit whose wife is very fond of this city as a place of residence. Some time ago the synod to which he belongs was discussing the advisability of sending him away on some important business, occupying a year or so. It was suggested to him, and he went to his wife, as all good husbands do.

"My dear," he said to her cautiously, "what do you think of going away from Detroit?"

"I don't think of it at all," she answered promptly. "Why do you ask?"

"Well, the synod has asked me to go,

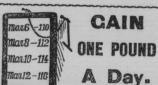

She went over to him softly, and putting both hands on his head in a motherly way, she said solemnly:
"My son, if synods entice thee, consent thou not."

her at the most flourishing age! Widowed at twenty-eight years!"

"At twenty-six," interrupted the widowed, emerging for an instant from her tears and sobs.

Our moon, says Knowledge, is comparatively a very large satellite. It is, of course, absolutely smaller than the largest satellite of Jupiter, Saturn's satellite, Titan, or the satellite of Neptune; but compared with the Earth, which is a small planet (in comparison with Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus or Neptune), it must be considered as really an enormous satellite, and in relative size deserving to rank rather as a small planet accompanying the Earth in its annual journey round the Sun than as a satellite revolving round it.

-A London idea is to insure houses against burglary.

A GAIN OF A POUND A DAY IN THE CASE OF A MAN WHO HAS BECOME "ALL RUN DOWN," AND HAS BEGUN TO TAKE THAT REMARKABLE FLESH PRODUCER,

OF PURE COD LIVER OIL WITH Hypophosphites of Lime & Soda IS NOTHING UNUSUAL. THIS FEAT HAS BEEN PERFORMED OVER AND OVER PALATABLE AS MILK. DORSED BY PHYSICIANS. SCOTT'S EMULSION IS PUT UP ONLY IN SALMON COLOR WRAPPERS. SOLD BY ALL DRUG-GISTS AT 50c. AND $1.00 SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

THE CARE OF THE BODY.

Little Talk on Means for the Preservation

It is now generally admitted, says Youths' It is now generally admitted, says Youths' Companion, that constipation is productive of serious disorders, that it aggravates other ailments, increases the susceptibility of the system to infectious diseases, and produces a state of general physical disturbance. The nervous system is especially affected, and it must be remembered that the nervous contres are in the brain centres are in the brain.

The deleterious effects of constipation were formerly explained by the pressure of the hardened mass on the blood vessels and nerves of the intestines. But a different view is now taken. It is believed that they are due to powerful poisons, which have proved to be developed in the process of incipient decomposition.

There is reason to believe that extreme cases of constinution may result in insanity.

That the average man about town is a huge bore.

That it's no disgrace to be poor, but mighty inconvenient.

That children hear more than grown folks gave them credit for.

That the man who smokes cigarettes is not necessarily brainless.

That the poetry of a girl's feet usually does not mate with the prosaic hoofs of her father.

That the girl of the period knows more than her grandfather—for her grandmother—is dead.—Music and Drama.

Why suffer the ills peculiar to females when Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will therevel.

It took ten daily injections to bring away

After this was done, the bowels began to act regularly, the mind became clear, and the patient entered on full convalescence.

The second case was that of a man with suicidal tendencies, who had refused food for months. He was restored to mental soundness, after being relieved of an immense quantity of accumulated faces.

The third case was that of a young man who had become morose, suspicious and quarrelsome. He was similarly treated and restored.

restored. In some of the worst cases of constipation there is a free passage through the compact mass, the latter adhering in thick layers to the walls of the intestines, while the patient has no suspicion of his real condition.

dition.

That grave diseases do not oftener result from constipation is due to the constant use of cathartics on the part of those affected. But such use is itself injurious. The true course is to establish habits that will effectually remove the tendency to constipation. The muscular vigor of the intestines needs to be increased by invigorating the muscular system generally with proper outdoor exercise.

Singleton. Johnson made the lord and husband quit his abuse and walked on. Singleton slyly followed with a club, assaulted him from behind, broke his nose, mashed his face to a jelly, fractured his ankle and left him for dead. Johnson will recover, but won't be good-looking hereafter—Detroit News. Detroit News.

And She Was Angry. Philadelphia Times: "I am angry at Mr. Muffy. He met me on the stairs just now with both my hands full of dishes so I couldn't help myself."

"And he kissed you, I suppose?"

"No, he didn't."

Employer—Are you not going in the country for a couple of weeks? Clerk—No, sir; it will do more good to sit here and see you work, and know you can't ask me to do

WITH THE SCOTCH SETTLERS.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen Among the Northwest Farmers.

The Country and the People Graphically Described by the Counters.

(From "Onward and Upward" for September.

Now in with you, if you do not want to be left behind! And please remember that you have to keep your wits about you during this journey when you get out at railway stations. We have left the whistles behind us in the old country, and in their stead you hear a bell, which at first reminds you more than anything else of the bell of a country church or school, and when you hear that bell, scramble in as best you can, for there will be no slamming of carriage doors, no crying of "Take your seats," no guard's whistle as a last warning. The conductor calls "All aboard," but if the train is a long one, you are as likely as not to miss hearing him. And at every station where we stop you will see after the train has actually started a rush of stragglers scrambling up on the "platforms" at either end of the long cars. Of course you know that trains in America are not at all like those in this country. " "

like those in this country. * * * *
We thought we had chosen quite the best time of year for our trip although it might be considered a little late by some, for time of year for our trip although it might be considered a little late by some, for when we woke up the first morning after leaving Ottawa we found ourselves passing through roads, all flaming with the gorgeous autumnul tints of the maple and other trees, and underneath the trailing leaves of various berry-bearing plants made a carpet of rich yellows, and reds, and browns. I think, if I am to be truthful, I must admit that this scenery would have browns. I think, if I am to be truthful, I must admit that this scenery would have borne rather a forbidding aspect if it had not been for these rich colorings, and we can scarcely wonder if newly-arrived emigrants bound westward and we can scarcely wonder if newly-arrived emigrants bound westward feel rather depressed at passing through a stretch of such apparently sterile country of the outset of their journey. The trees are stunted, the vegetation allows us to see the stony character of the soil below; some of the telegraph-poles even have to be unheld by heaps of stones around to see the stony character of the soil below; some of the telegraph poles even have to be upheld by heaps of stones around them, and the desolation is often rendered greater by many of the trees having been the prey of forest fires, the result either of the carolessness of settlers or Indians, or arising from sparks from the engine, falling on the dry inflammable substances all around. And yet this region has charms of its own—the fishermen can tell of the wealth to be found in the rivers and lakes, the geologist and the miner will tell you of the yet comparatively unexplored riches arising from sparks from the engine, falling on the dry inflammable substances all around. And yet this region has charms of its own—the fishermen can tell of the wealth to be found in the rivers and lakes, the geologist and the miner will tell you of the yet comparatively unexplored riches of silver and copper and other metals which are stood up for Canada's children beneath the unpromising looking surface, and the artist will revel in the wild grandeur of the mountain and lake scenery all along the coast of Lake Superior. A succession of magnificent promontories, frowning rocks and crags, surrounding the lavely bay of that vast expanse of water calling itself a lake, meet your eye as the train bears you along, and you lay down your pencil and brush in bewilderment as to which point to seize amidst so much beauty, and instead you revert to the faithful rapid Kodak to record your memories of Thunder Bay, and Jackfish Bay, and the Lake of the Woods, and many another spot of beauty. And then one day as you wake up and peep out benind the blind of your car the mountain and the lake, and instead you behold a vast stretch of grassy country and you realize that you see before you the far famed wheat lands of Manitoba and that Winnipeg, the City of Prairies, lies hard by.

At Winnipeg we felt almost as if we had a home awaiting us, for our friend, Sir

Manitoba and that Winnipeg, the City of Prairies, lies hard by.

At Winnipeg we felt almost as if we had a home awaiting us, for our friend, Sir Donald Smith, about whose generosity to his native country I have told you before had written to us even before we left England, and had bidden us to come to his house at Silver Heights and to make ourselves at home. And so, on the steps of Silver Heights you now see Lord Aberdeen and my brother (who met us here), and Mr. Traill, Sir Donald's manager. Here, too, see Sir Donald's buffaloes, the last remaining in Canada of the millions who used to inhabit the prairies, and whose bones you will see in dismal heaps as you pass along.

And now what am I to say about Winnipeg? It is 700 feet above the sea level, it has a population of 28,000 (twenty years ago there were only 215 inhabitants), it has some fine buildings, wide streets, it is lighted with electric light, it is a great railway centre, and is destined to become a great capital. You still, however, can see how recent is its birth for interval and on the trails driving on the prairies and on the trails driving on the prairies and on the trails running through the prairies is unlike any other driving. The soft elasticity of the ground carries ove over all the bumps, and jurism, and ruts; and rotts and hillocks are all passed over as the most natural things in the world. But with all this, I am not going to rave about Manitoba. Oh, the form in the world. But with all this, I am not going to rave about Manitoba. Oh, the form in the world. But with all this, I am not going to rave about Manitoba. Oh, the winding through them:

Of course, to-day, we have been going through them!

Of course, to-day, we have been going through them!

Of course, to-day, we have been going through them!

Of course, to-day, we have been going through them!

Of course, to-day, or in the same the world. But with all this, I am not going to rave about Manitoba. Oh, the course, the world in the world. But with all this, I am not going to rave ab Prairies, lies hard by.

At Winnipeg we felt almost as if we had streets, it is lighted with electric light, it is a great railway centre, and is destined to become a great capital. You still, however, can see how recent is its birth, for side by side with a fine house stands an old Red River settler's log hut, the wide streets are still mostly unpayed, and on a wet day still mostly unpaved, and on a wet day serve as admirable illstrations of the richness and the blackness of Manitoba soil, and you still see passing through the city by the side of a carriage and pair, the old Red River carts made entirely of wood, creaking as they go. The rate of progress amazes the inhabitants themselves, and it is very pleasant to hear stories of things as they were and as they are. For instance, look at this dog carriage: that is the vehicle in as they go. The rate of progress amazes the inhabitants themselves, and it is very pleasant to hear stories of things as they were and as they are. For instance, look at this dog-carriage; that is the vehicle in which the Governor and his wife used to be transported to Ottawa not so many years ago. Rather a different business nowadays is it not? We must not linger long here, much as I should like to tell you of the many impressions left on our minds by Winnipeg, its inhabitants and its surroundings and of all the truly Scotch hospitality.

After seven or eight miles we came to the yet they contrive to throw themselves into Christian work, and to take charge personally of the orphans and the aged poor, and to befriend the stranger in a way which may well push us to shame. One of their latest organizations undertakes to send out monthly parcels of literature to settlers in Manitoba and the Northwest. It is difficult for those at home to realize the isolation of such settlers; everything has to be begun and carried on by the work of their own hands, and their whole thoughts are absorbed by the desperately hard work which is an essential for success. Church is far away, there are no libraries or reading-rooms or means of self improvement at hand, and the temptalibraries or reading rooms or means of self improvement at hand, and the temptaself improvement at hand, and the tempta-tion must be great in such lives to forget mind and soul in the struggle for material prosperity. Those who stay at home and have friends in these distant parts should remember that no greater kindness can be shown them than by send-ing out good weekly newspapers and magaparts should remember that no greater kindness can be shown them than by sending out good weekly newspapers and magazines, perhaps a picture now and again to it brighten up the walls of the wooden house, perhaps some flower seeds from the garden at home, which will bring tender thoughts to the minds of those now so far away, and who will teach their children to tend the little plants sent by "grannie" or "auntie," and to make them think of doing their best to make their homes beautiful and home-like. Frugality, and self-denial, and strength of character are developed by the settler in Manitoba who means to prosper. It is our part to do our best to prevent the possibility of their sterner virtues from becoming too stern, and from becoming a mere passion to get on and to make money. And if you have no friends in Canada yourselves, may I ask those who are willing to do so to save up their papers, and pictures, and magazines, and to send them to—Madame Gautier, Ladies' Union for Distributing Literature to Settlers, Winnipeg, Manitoba, per Dominion Line and C. P. Railway. And add to this address—"Carried free by special permission of the Directors of Dominion Steamship Line and C. P. R." For we have special permission to send parcels of literature free of expense of carriage, and so I hope that the readers of "Onward and Upward" will send many contributions, helpful for mind and heart and soul, and tending to give thoughts which would other-helpful for mind and heart and soul, and tending to give thoughts which will uplift the common daily work which would otherwise be drudgery.

Now let me tell you of a visit we paid to some new settlers from Scotland who are amongst those who need help and sympathy to be shown in this way.

Mr. Scarth, Dominion member of Parliament for Winnipeg, took great personal trouble in the settling of these Highland crofters, and he and Mrs. Scarth lived amongst them for the first few weeks, when they arrived as strangers, without friends, 15 children to attend, and the teachers are not badly paid. We went into one of these schools to-day, there were about 20 children, and a pleasant-looking young man, an M. A., who has also a farm in the neighborhood, was teaching them. He said the great difficulty was the irregularity of attendance, which made his work resemble that of Sisyphus and resemble that of Sisyphus and become real drudgery. Such country schools are shut up during the winter, and in the autumn the children are kept away for har-left on our minds by Winnipeg, its inhabitants and its surroundings and of all the truly Scotch hospitality with which we were entertained whilst there, and again on our return journey, not only by Sir Donald Smith, and the Lieut. Governor, Mr. Schultz and his wife, but by many other friends of whose kindness we cherish grateful memories.

One of the impressions most strongly left on our minds by our stay in Winnipeg was the strongly marked religious tone of the community. This is not only shown by the number of churches and religious statiutions, but in the evident earnestness of purpose, which causes people who have but little time in this young city to devote themselves to active works of religion and benevolence. The great scarcity of servants throws a great part of the household work on the ladies themselves, and wife and children, in whose cottage also was old Mrs. Macleod, whose husband holds meetings while the missionary is away in the winter, Mrs. Macdonald, Peter meetings while the missionary is away in the winter, Mrs. Macdonald, Peter Graham and his wife, a tidy, capable-looking woman with five bonny bairns. We photographed some of the people and their places, though some were rather unwilling, being in their working clothes. One requires to think of what these people were before they came out, to appreciate their present position and prospecss. Some who came knew nothing about agricultural work, one had never used a hay-fork in his life. And that they should have got on so well as they have done is very creditable, both to themselves and their neighbors. After leaving the should have got on so well as they have done is very creditable, both to themselves and their neighbors. After leaving the crofters we came in sight of Pelican Lake, and then, descending a steep brae, the sight of which rejoiced our hearts, we came upon a prosperous-looking farm of 640 acres owned by a man whom we passed, ploughing. We stopped to ask our way, but, after all, got rather astray, and went a good bit out of our way up a rough hill, which landed us on the edge of a ravine, on the other side of which was the house where we were to have luncheon. A young English farmer of cheery and hopeful aspect, and newly married, put us right again, and we were then ready for our 4 o'clock luncheon at Mrs. Darough's, at the farmhouse of Glenfern. The threshing was going on there, and they had had a busy day, with 16 or 17 men in to dinner. The yield had not been so good as was expected, and one field, from which they had expected twenty-five bushels per acre, had only fifteen. They were doing better to-day. That same field in 1887 yielded 40 bushels per acre (sold at 48 cents), in 1888 it was down to five bushels per acre (sold at 84 cents), in 1887 I forgot what she told me the number of bushels were, but the price was 64 cents. The Daroughs came from Ontario. bushels were, but the price was 64 cents. The Daroughs came from Ontario. and are of Scotch extraction. There are five sons, three working, the eldest just married to one of the crofter girls living on a section of his own, and two daughters, who gave us proofs of their prowess in the home-made bread and jam and pumpkin pie. But Mrs. Darough said that sugar had been too dear to make much jam. All the small kinds of fruit do well, and wild berries abound. Potatoes, cabbages, caulithe small kinds of trait do well, and berries abound. Potatoes, cabbages, cauli-flower and other vegetables grow magnifi-reformer and other vegetables grow magnificently. Apples are not yet a success. Coutts left us here, and we drove on to Glenboro, about twenty-one miles turther, calling in a two of the Harris crofters en route, Morrison and Donald Stewart. Only saw the wife of the latter, who worked for Lord Dunmore until he sold the island. Many messages sent to Dunmore.

And the last part of the drive which passes through rich wheat land and past a prosperous Scandinavian settlement was lost on us, for it had become quite dark, and our attention was concentrated on our driver avoiding the many vehicles returning from Glenboro Fair, waggons, and carts, and buggies, and gigs, and droves of cattle and horses. He managed very creditably, and the demeanor of the home-going folk contrasted favorably with what it might have been on a similar occasion at home.

Another New Move.

Another New Move.

The National Anti-Nuisance League, with W. Jennings Demorest behind it as a promoter, is the name of a new organization at New York, whose work will be the proving before the courts, by suits in equity, injunctions and for damages, "that the fascinating, acrid and deadly poison of alcohol is the most dangerous enemy of our health, homes and country—a public nuisance, and as such to be abated."

This declaration of purpose has the merit of novelty as well as truthfulness, for it is proposed by Mr. Demorest and his followers to cause the outlawing of alcohol, both as to its manufacture and sale, on cause the outlawing of alcohol, both to its manufacture and sale, on e ground solely of its being a ison. It is said that the society expects the courts by arguing to influence the courts by arguing that the investigations of Pasteur, Baron Liebig and other eminent chemists demonstrate that alcohol is the excrement of strate that alcohol is the excrement of microbes; that it is a deadly poison, and that it should be legislated against just as opium and other poisons are when used except by order of physicians. There is a good legal backing for this sort of crusade against alcohol found in the recent decision of the Survey of the survey. of the Supreme Court of the United States which declared in the Kansas case :

"No Legislature can bargain away thiblic health or the public morals. Th public people themselves cannot do it, much less their servants. Government is organized with a view to their preservation and can-not divest itself of the power to provide for them."-Exchange.

Dain't "Queer" the Preacher.

A clergyman well known to Buffalo people says that when the Lord model is A clergyman well known to Buffalo people says that when the Lord made him he forgot to put any pegs in his mind on which to hang the names of his acquaintances. He can remember faces, but not names. He became pastor of a large church a few months ago, and after discharging his duties long enough to know his sheep by sight he was visited one evening by a lady whom he knew well, but whose name he could not, for the life of him, recall. Wishing to be reminded of it without exposing his ignorance he said:

"Let me see, ah—how do you spell your name?"

To which she replied, with repreachful dignity:

For a moment the clergyman was floored, but he rallied quickly and escaped rebuke by rejoining:

"Oh, then you don't spell it with a y?"Philadelphia Call.

HOMING PIGEONS.

me of the Peculiarities of the Wonderful

"I cannot tell what it means," observed a Detroit bird fancier this morning, "but the instinct or the intuitive knowledge, or whatever you may call it, which characterizes homing pigeons is something wonderful in nature. No matter what distance they may be carried they will return to their lofts, and it must be understood that they do not possess a knowledge of the country through which they fly. As a rule we send through which they hy. As a rule we send them by rail in an express car. They can-not possibly see outside of their prison, but the moment they are liberated by the station agent of the town we intend flying them from, they usually make directly for Detroit.

Detroit.

"Instinct, it is claimed, is unerring, therefore, I would infer that homing pigeons have not this characteristic as a guiding element in returning to their lofts. guiding element in returning to their lofts.

If the power which they exercise is some mental force or magnetism unknown to mankind. Take, for instance, the action of some of our birds which were liberated in Indiana, a few hundred miles from there, some time ago. Immediately on regaining their freedom they circled around the railroad depot, and after taking a view of the country departed westward instead of northeast toward Detroit. The station agent watched their movements, until they ago the vidently held a council of deliberation, for they soon took wing again, this time directly again, and I was far from understand.

What I am. There was a time when I reit I wanted to be somebody else, but now I thank God for being what I am and nothing less. It's a grand thing to be that way, and it took me some time to find to unnatural, and God does all things naturally. I am not a man of great education. I have had no tutors. God has been my teacher, and I stand here to-day independent of any man, any "ism," any doctrine—just as I am and what I am. I say it boldly. I must say it; for God has said in his precious word, 'He that loveth me shall cast out all fear of men.' The trouble is there are too many afraid of men. I have been 32 years in the hotel business with those who knew nothing of God's teachings, and I was far from understand. they soon took wing again, this time directly for Detroit.

for Detroit.

"It is no uncommon thing to see pigeons fail at the first attempt to fly homeward, but their second effort brings them on the right course. They have an inordinate love of home, and a bird will fight to the death rather than give up its perch. Sometimes it happens that while some of the little flyers are absent from the loft on a long race, an old cock bird takes a fancy to another's coop. He remains only until a long race, an old cock bird takes a fancy to another's coop. He remains only until the owner's return, however, for the latter will battle to the bitter end for his rights.

'The homing pigeons are very punctual regarding time in sitting on the nest. The female bird will remain on the eggs from 2 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 next morning, and then the male bird takes his turn. They can bring out broods at his turn. They can bring out broods at all seasons of the year. At the present time there are upwards of 400 homing pigeons in Detroit."—Detroit News.

Effects of Alcohol.

The Reichstag, at its last session, appointed a Commission of Inquiry as to the effects of alcohol, and the facts brought to light in hospitals, prisons and courts are startling staid old Germany. The returns give the use of spirits as a leading factor in crime, and the chief cause of suicide, of which there were 147 cases in Berlin alone, during the first half of July. The Emperor is willing to take more advanced ground than his ministers. Under their manipulation, his bill for the repression of drunkention, his bill for the repression of drunken ness has become merely a proposal to increase the penalties for the offense. The ministry think the people would not tolerate egislative interferance with their drinking stoms. The Kaiser thinks differ ly. He is under the delusion to the evil influence is not in the alcohol, but in the adulterations. He hopes alcohol, but in the adulterations. He hopes to effect reform by attaching heavy penalties to the sale of "bad liquors." Long before William has reigned as many years as his illustrious grandfather, we predict he will first learn that all liquors are bad, and then, that the only way to prevent saloons from selling bad liquors, is to prevent their selling any liquors. The morning is at hand when Germany wakes to the evils of intemperance. Whenever the Teuton mind deals seriously with any problem involving scientific soundings, it is apt to bring truth to the top. When it starts in quest of the effects of alcohol, the sociological facts will prompt to physiological largest of the enects of alcohol, the social logical facts will prompt to physiological research, and we shall hear better reasons for total abstinence than have ever yet been given. - Exchange.

Saving Drunken Sailors.

A lady who has been a missionary for ter years on the coast of China writes to friends at home: "If our American women knew how much the American sailors on the coast of China need their help to save them from intemperance, they would come to the rescue." Another missionary says that no more effective work can be done for foreign missions than holding gospel temperance meetings among sailors who are to visit heathen ports. Each drinking sailor who visits such a port, by his example undoes the work the missionary is doing, while every sailor converted to God and total abstinence in the gospel temperance meetings of America or England is a missionary for good at every port the keel of how much the American sailors on the meetings of America or England is a missionary for good at every port the keel of his ship touches. An illustration of this fact is given in the story of Sailor Jack, converted in a gospel meeting of the Chicago W. C. T. U. many years ago. After his conversion he "sailed the wide seas over," an unconscious forerunner of Mrs. Leavitt and Miss Ackerman. At every port he stopped, his first inquiry was for the W. C. T. U., and if he did not find one—as he seldom did—he told the people they ought to have one, and did what he could to start it. He wrote us from an American port, "I it. He wrote us from an American port, "I have organized a W. C. T. U., only it is all men. I could not find any women to go in.

Safer Than Any Safe.

Wishlets—These summer resorts are so full of all kinds of crooks, that, for fear of being robbed, I always leave my money in the hotel safe.

Bishlets—I have a much better plan.

Wishlets—What is it?

In the Ash Barrel.

New York Herald: "What brings you here?" the needle asked the pin when they met in the ash barrel. Oh, they said I was crooked, and threw out. But how does it happen you are me out.

here ?"
" I'm broke !"

The way to tell a well-bred dog, according to a canine fancier, is to grasp him by the back of the neck and hold him up. If a cur, he yelps; if a well bred, he never utters a whimper.

"THE TWO MASTERS."

Samuel Grigg Tells the Londoners How He Served Both.

STORY OF AN EX-HOTELKEEPER.

(London Advertiser.)

"In all my life I have never had such an honor conferred upon me as I have to-day," said Sam Grigg on Sunday afternoon as he faced several hundreds of people in Victoria Hall, both auditorium and gallery being crowded with men of all ages. Hall, both auditorium and gallery being crowded with men of all ages. "There is no person who does not recognize me and does not know what I have been. There is no denying the fact that I am just what I am. There was a time when I felt I wanted to be somebody else, but now I thank God for being what I am and nothing less. It's a grand thing to be that way, and it took me some time to find it out.

me shall cast out all fear of men.' The trouble is there are too many afraid of men. I have been 32 years in the hotel business with those who knew nothing of God's teachings, and I was far from understandhis precious word. Now I find it very easy. I have often made the remark that a little good whiskey would do a man's heart good. Well, so it does for a time; I believe it saved my life once. But the religion gives peace. The other unrests you—you don't feel well next day; but this is as if you had gained a victory.

as if you had gained a victory.

"You can't serve God and mammon. It's all right to have plenty of the world's goods, but if they make a slave of you then it's wrong, and there are lots of men in that fix. I wish I could burn into the heart of every man, here the test of the servery man, here the test. that fix. I wish I could burn into the heart of every man here the text that first caught me. I bless God for the catching, for it stuck into my heart. 'But seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.' Some people have not time for religion week days. They display it all on Sundays and cry 'Our Father' while the rest of the week they go about orphans.

"There are men who don't believe in sudden conversion. Some of my old friends won't speak to me since I took this stand. They point me out on the streets as a

They point me out on the streets as a hypocrite. 'Did you hear the news,' others hypocrite. 'Did you near the news, others say; 'Grigg's gone out of his mind: he's crazy—he's turned to be a crank.' I thank God for the crank if serving the Lord Jesus Christ is to be a crank! I am satisfied. Christ is to be a crank! I am so Things I used to like I dislike now. to testify that once I was blind and now I

"I carried on the hotel business honestly, and there are many in my trade that deserve a great deal more credit than they get while endeavoring to raise their families properly and do what is right. By some people they have been injured in many respects, not with intention, but for want of knowledge of the nature of the business. I served one master—the world—for 43 years, and the last two years I have been endeavoring to serve the Lord carried on the hotel business have been endeavoring to serve the Lord Jesus Christ. He took me out of that business, but it took me some time to realize his way of doing things. The two years I have served the Lord have been worth to me more than all my life—and I have had some trials, too.

worth to me more than all my life—and I have had some trials, too.

"If you start out for Hamilton you can't go to Windsor; yet there are many people with their mouths one way trying to go the other. There are some who pat me on the back and say, 'Go on, Grigg, you're doing well,' and at the same time run back and hide behind a stump while others do the fighting. I have spent $5.000 getting and fine benind a sump while others do the fighting. I have spent $5,000 getting out of the hotel business, although I strove hard against it. I do wish I could tell you the joy of this glorious religion. Some one has said: 'If all the water of the earth were ink, if all the feathers were pens, and all the people writers, they could not tell the blessed love of our Lord Jesus Christ.' 'Like others, I had my worldly aspirations. I was going to be the richest man in this city; but God ordered otherwise. I lost a good deal of money, and it was the best thing ever happened me, otherwise I might not have been here. Don't let whiskey, cigars or money run you and make a might not have been here. Don't let whis-key, cigars or money run you and make a slave of you. God wants to honor you and then you will be an honor to him. I don't know that I have carried his message. I hope to say something in future, and I am thankful to meet those who are here."

Baccarat of Tranby Croft.

A dog with a historic pedigree has turned up at the Dundee dog and cat show. The animal, which has taken the first prize in the Bedlington class is named Baccarat, and belongs to a Glasgow gentleman. The catalogue states the pedigree thus: belongs to a Glasgow gentleman. The catalogue states the pedigree thus: "Baccarat, date of birth, 6th August, 1889. Breeder — By Scandal, off Tranby Croft." Visitors may be inclined to regard this as a joke, but we are told that the pedigrees of all animals are revised, and if any mistake occurs, the dog concerned is struck off the list—a probability which the owner would not be likely to risk.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Alluminum Bicycle.

A well-known manufacturer of Paris has been experimenting with aluminum in the production of bicycles. In order to make it the hotel safe.

Bishlets—I have a much better plan.
Wishlets—What is it?
Bishlets—My wife carries the boodle in her dress pocket.

production of bicycles. In order to make it applicable it was found necessary to alloy it with copper, as it can only be used in its pure state for guards and cranks, where its extreme lightness gives a distinct advantage over steel.

At Marienbad, Mr. Joe Rosenberg, of Chicago, has died, aged 40. He was the principal heir and executor of the San Francisco millionaire, Michael Reese, who left $10,000,000. Reese had gone to his native village to visit the graves of his parents. To save the 2 cents charge for opening the cemetery gate he climbed over the wall, fell, and died in consequence.

A man named Gilbert, arrested in Mar-seilles as a tramp, turns out to be the Com-munist who gave the order to the squad which shot Monsignor D'Arbey, Archbishop of Paris, in 1871.

CHEAP EXCURSION

Detroit, Chicago,

---AND---

POINTS WEST !

--- LAST---

Farmers' Excursion

To Manitoba and the Northwest Sept. 22nd, return on Nov. 1st, at the usual places and fares.

For Particulars and Tickets come to

J. A. HACKING.

Railway and Steamship Agent, LISTOWEL, ONT.

Country Talk.

Miss Verner, of Stratford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Holmes, Newry, this week.

Remember J. S. Gee's auction sale of dry goods, boots & shoes, etc., in Newry, next Tuesday, Oct. 6th.

Potato digging has commenced and in some places complaints are made that the rot will affect the otherwise heavy crop very materially.

W. F.1 been specially when the "Sunnyside Farm," Sth con., has fall wheat measuring 27 inches in height. It is of the Scott variety ity. He day last.

and was sown on Aug. 26, 1891.

J. H. Thompson, 6th con., has on exhibition in the Atwood drug store, two turnips measuring 42 inches each in circumference, and the two weighing 45 pounds. They are of the Greystone variety

Henry Wieben, lot 9, con. 15, had threshed for him by Geo. Golightly's machine on Sept. 21, 1,100 bushels of grain in 7 hours, which includes 175 bushels of wheat threshed in one hour. Beat this who can.

bushels of wheat threshed in one hour. Beat this who can.

John Leslie killed a young wild cat in Robt. Leslie's field, 8th con., on Saturday forenoon. It is the first wild cat's kitten we have seen, and with the exception of its unusually large head and short, stubby tail, it wou'd pass for a fame kitten. Its legs are rather longer than the domestic cat.

School Report.—The following is the standing of the pupils in S. S. No. 4, for the month of September. Names in order of merit:—Junior Fourth Class—Harben, Leddie Code, Emma Shannon, Edith Harris, Junior Third Class—Maggie Lentz, Flossy Oliver, Bertha Witmer, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, Lottie Adams, Eliza Wilson, John Edgar, John Gaynor, Bella Laidlaw, James Gaynor, B were "taken in."

Messrs. Petch & Springsteen have formed a partnership and will buy are a reliable firm.

On the whole the farmers are unanimous in saying that Mr. McKenzie has this year done their threshing in a better nanner than they ever before had it done. The grain, in spite of much of it being wet, goes through speedily, and comes out as clean as many fanning raills would leave it. Success to him.

John Love, returned the other day from a wint would leave it. Success to him.

Messrs. Petch & Springsteen have formed a partnership and will buy grain on the streets this winter. They are a reliable firm.

On Tuesday, Sept. 22, Mr. and Mrs. A. Foerch lost their youngest daughter. Ruby Allan, 6 months old. The child was sick but a few hours.

The entertainment "The Queen of Fame" which is being prepared by the ladies of Knox church, will be given, it is expected, in the rink on Thursday evening, Oct. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Fortune, and Miss Fortune.

the spent of the grain, in spite of much of it being wet, goes through speedily, and comes out as clean as many fanning rullis would leave it. Success to him. Join Love, returned the other day from a visit among old friends and acquaintances in the vicinity of Virden, Manitoba, and speaks enthusiastically of the magnificent fields of wheat to be seen through the country. At the time of his visit, the latter part of August evening of the magnificent fields of wheat to be seen through the country. At the time of his visit, the latter part of August even of the seen through the country. At the difference of his visit, the latter part of August even of the seen through the country. At the difference of his visit, the latter part of August even of the magnificent fields of wheat and the seen through the country. At the souris, where he visited his old fields and John and James Shaffer, at Pipestone, then to Charles Schaffer, at Pipestone, then to Charles Sc

Wallace.

The weather has taken a turn for the better and farmers are having nice weather to finish the harvest.

Robert and Bertha Traviss have gone on a visit to their parents at Queensville.

M. C. Burns and Harvey Eollis attended the Toronto exhibition and say it was a grand success.

One of our farmers has been foolish enough to buy two binders this season and is consequently in difficulty over the matter.

Miss Mary Smillie, daughter of Jas. Smillie, has been engaged as teacher in Button's school house, 8th line, for 1892. She is attending the Model school at Clinton at present. We wish her success and feel satisfied she will do well. Mr. Morrison's certificate expires.

Trowbridge.

James McRae and bride are away on their wedding tour.

Hugh McRae is spending a few days at Seaforth this week.

Hilliard Code and his sister are visiting friends at Tuckersmith. Rev. H. A. Baylis left here Monday morning for Belleville where he pur-poses attending Albert College.

W. F. Mann, of Minnedosa, Man., has been spending a few days in this vicinity. He returned to his home on Monday last.

On Wednesday evening of last week a very successful garden social was held in the parsonage grounds. Rev. Mr. Rogers, of Atwood, and Rev. Mr. Amy, of Listowel, were present and delivered two excellent addresses. The evening was fine and a goodly number were present, all of whom appeared to enjoy the social. The amount of money required to pay the debt on parsonage furnishings and repairs was raised.

School Report—The following is

J. G. Skene has removed into his new shop.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Western Fair last week.

Rev. J. L. Kerr has been away at Toronto for a little over a week, having a cataract removed off his eye and is progressing favorably.

During this year seven stores, one livery stable and one hotel have been erected. The buildings are all brick, two stories high, and the stores have plate glass fronts. There are only five wooden shops on Front street, ing at London this week.

Some peculiar experiences often crop up in one's travels, the latest is that of a man who deducted 30 cents from flax pullers for three stumps found in the three acres of flax. Ten cents a stump.

On Sept. 17th as John Colclough, who works for Wm. Ward, 12th con., was passing lot 30 heard unpleasant screaming of a wild cat. He soon took to his heels and was quite poorly for some time after from fright.

Miss Mary Smillie, daughter of Levisian description of evidence.

Geo. Henderson, of Seaforth, is here this week shipping apples, having purchased quite a quantity in this locality, in fact more than any one thought was to be obtained here this year, as the crop is very light as well, and the price is only 75c. to $1 per barrel.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Alex. Dingwall, of Stratford, won 2nd prize on Black Leghorps at the Tork.

exhibition.

R. S. Stevenson, Woodstock, has a cu-cumber vine that has upon it twins, the pair measuring 21 inches in length and about 7 in circumference. The two ex-tend longitudinally from the same flow-er and are a curiosity.

I have a positive remedy for the above disease; by its use thousands of cases of the worst kind and of long standing have been cured. Indeed so strong is my faith in its efficacy, that I will send TWO BOTTLES FREE, with a VALUABLE TREATISE on this disease to any sufferer who will send me their EXPRESS and P.O. address. T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 186 ADELAIDE ST., WEST, TORONTO, ONT.

Tenders for Drain.

Township of Elma.

EALED Tenders (marked) will be received by the undersigned up to 12 o'clock, noon, October 17th, ivered two excellent addresses. The evening was fine and a goodly number were present, all of whom appeared to employ the social. The amount of money required to pay the debt on parsonage furnishings and repairs was raised.

School Report.—The following is he report of the weekly examinations held during the month of September. Names in order of merit:—Fifth Class—Minnie Love, Fred Collins. Senior Total o'clock, noon, October 17th, 1891, for each section separately, for digging, grubbing and all work in connection with a Municipal Drain (known as Western Drain) running through Elma from 8th to 11th cons. Contract or stotender by rod; name (2) responsible securities in tender. Plan, profile and specifications can be seen at my office from 9 till 5 o'clock each day. The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

accepted. THOS. FULLARTON, Clerk of Elma, Atwood P.O. Sept. 30, 1891. 36tf

AUCTION

MEWRY.

Oct. 6, 1891.

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

-AT THE-

GOLDEN LION, LISTOWEL

the matter.

Jacob Walter, one of our leading agriculturalists, has gone into the mercantile business in Listowel. We hope he may be successful.

Grey.

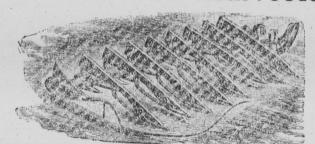

Gre

Our Millinery

Is decidedly Handsome. Miss Wilcott has beaten Alex. Dingwall, of Stratford, won 2nd prize on Black Leghorns at the Toronto Exercise the records in her selections for the Coming Season. Every Lady Invited to Call.

CARSON & McKEE.

Richmond Pea Harvester!

HIS attachment is greatly improved for 1891. It is the best, simplest and cheapest device for harvesting peas ever invented. It can be attached to any ordinary mowing machine, and will work well on any field where a Mower will cut grass. I have the sole agency for Elma township. Price of pea harvester, com-

I also manufacture first-class Buggies and Wagons.

HORSESHOEING AND REPAIRING. I keep road carts, all makes. Anyone requiring a cart should call and get prices before purchasing elsewhere. HENRY HOAR, Atwood.

New Goods!

HIS week we open up our 66666666666

In Dry Goods, we have new Dress Goods, new Flannels, new Shirts and Drawers, new Blankets, new Yarns, new Canton Flannels, new Planing Wills. Cottonades, new Shirtings. Everything New and Cheap.

A very large BOOTS & SHOES

JUST OPENED UP.

All lines in men's, women's and children's wear. The celebrated GRANBY Rubbers and Overshoes ahead of all others and at the same price. Our cheap sale of Dress Goods, Prints and all summer goods still going

Jas. Irwin.