Lord Cecil's Dilemma

The Picnic

Woodall Forest CHAPTER XIX.

In the golden sunlight, Lady Gladys Howard wended her way, through open dells and many pathways, the birds about her singing the drowsy songs of tropical summer, the pine trees rustling amid their own fragrance, and sighing of the glories of the day. Her soft, red lips were parted with expectancy—her pansy eyes were misty with the deeps of love. In these delicious moments she lived only in the sunshine of her own idyllic dream.

"My lover is coming," she murmured. "My lover—my lover!" And the birds in the treetops sang, "My lover—my lover!" while a lark high in the air repeated the sweet refrain, then darted higher, higher, to stung it to the angels beyond the blue of heaven!

In a sweet sylvan retreat she paused, and sank on the mossy bank among the daisies and buttercups—under the shadow of a hundred trees. She had timed herself to be first in the dell; her lover should not have to wait alone. And how sweet to lie and dream of him—of the present—and the future!

There was the sound of crackling undergrowth, a man's firm steps—and the next moment the lovers were clasped in a fond, ecstatic embrace.

"Gladys, my dear love!" he whispered. "I could stay away no longer—the awful suspense was eating out my very heart. I will end this matter for your sake. I will know the worst, and you shall be my judge."

"Darling, I am satisfied with you as you are. I would go to the uttermost ends of the earth with you. I care for nothing. I know all!"

He started as if stung.

"What!" he cried, hoarsely.

"Lady Marcia has told me. Even had your father been proved guilty, Charles, what difference could that have made to our love?"

Her happy, confiding tones filled him with bitter remorse. She knew all! If she did!

"I ought not to have met you here, Gladys," he said. "It is wrong—it is cowardly of me. I have come to Swinford to answer your father's letter."

"I did not know that he had written to you, Charles. Why are you so strange in your manner? My father could not write kindly!"

Her eyes were big with sudden fear; then she laughed at herself for being afraid.

"Tell me what he has written," she continued. "No matter what it is, our future is unalterable. I would go with my love against the whole world. There is nothing that can part us. In the sight of Heaven we are one forever!"

She was startled by his white, agonized face; by the frenzied way in which he snatched her to him.

"It may be, dear," he replied, in hoarse, unnatural tones, "that you will have to wait for me long years. Can you wait—can you?"

"Forever, if it be God's will," interrupted Gladys. "My love is given; even if it were possible for you to prove an unworthy object, it can never be recalled."

She was no longer a girl, but a woman, with a will of iron. Compared with her, Sir Charles felt that he was weak and contemptible.

We Get Out of Life What We Put In.

If you desire to be an expert in the game of life, you must concentrate on your aim as an expert chess or baseball player concentrates on his play and game. Babe Ruth's skill lies in the fact that he has studied batting and great batters. Napoleon's tremendous power lay in his ability to sacrifice everything which conflicted with the one unwavering aim. Nothing could stand in his way—society, friends, wife and amusements—everything must give way to his mighty ambition. To succeed, we must pay the price and sacrifice—sacrifice a great many things we are fond of for the great aim and ambition in life.

Life is usually what we make it, and we get out of life just what we put in it. Many great men in life have made good and were handicapped from the start. Voltaire, with his many fits in childhood, ill all his life; Pope was sewed up in as many years as jacket each morning, that he might sit up for his work; Caesar with his Napoleon with its and the rich; Kasia, sickly, a consumptive; Poe with nerves that tormented him, yet with all these things against them, they had the grit to persevere until they made good. Gypsy Smith, coming from a gypsy tent, with the use of a Bible and dictionary, has made good as a great evangelist.

A man must play to win and overcome everything that would deter his progress.

Sacrifice makes great men. John Forsythe, who was the owner of a large leather company, was hurt with a number of his men. When the ambulance came, that would only carry three, Forsythe said: "These men must go first," although he was more severely injured. Sir Robert Sidney, on the battlefield, pushed away the cup of water, making a wounded private drink his share. He knew he must die, but he died knowing that even the love of life had not conquered in his soul.

Really great men have self-confidence. It is true, great men will to accomplish what they set out to do, but in the main, they succeed. The timorous man only wags his empty head and says it can't be done. Bill McAuley is a type of man that can't be done. A few years ago there was a riot in a little Texas town. The sheriff sent an S.O.S. call to the Governor to send a troop of Texas Rangers. The Governor wired back: "Rangers en route." The sheriff anxiously met the train. One lone Ranger (Bill McAuley) got off. The sheriff threw up his hands in despair: "Bill, Lord, where is the rest of your outfit?" he cried. "Rest?—!" replied Bill, as he carelessly took a big chew of tobacco. "You ain't got but one riot here, have you?" This is the kind of timber and confidence that it takes to reach the top and win the game of life.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Fashion Plates.

A CHIC AND CHARMING DESIGN. 3801-3793—Here is a very popular variation of the jumper dress—and a pretty design to wear with it. As portrayed, wool jersey embroidered in floss was used. The gumpie is of pongee with self frills and hemstitching for trimming. In duvetyne or crepe a trimming of grosgrain ribbon would be pleasing. The gumpie 3801 is cut in 7 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. The Dress 3793 is cut in 8 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48 inches bust measure. The width at the foot is about 2 yards. This style is good for slender as well as for matronly figures. The dress front is cut with fulness beneath the yoke extension of the back. To make up this style for a 38 inch size, requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for the gumpie, and 3/4 yards for the Dress, of 40 inch material. This illustration calls for TWO separate patterns which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 15c. FOR EACH pattern in silver or stamps.

A DAINY FROCK. 4025. One of the season's pretty models is here portrayed. Convenient pockets are placed under the tab extensions of the waist, which has long lines and girde extensions which close over the back. White linen with frills and bows of organdy would be pleasing. Pongee is a natural shade with pipings of green crepe would be attractive. The Pattern is cut in 7 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size will require 1 1/4 yards of 40 inch material. The width at the foot is about 2 1/2 yards. Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 15c. in silver or stamps.

A PLEASING DINNER DRESS. 3794-3798—Softness and simplicity characterize this model as youthful and becoming. Crepe de chine trimmed with a picot edge and tiny roses and leaves of chiffon would make it very attractive. The roses could be in a

A NEAT AND SERVICEABLE APRON. 4030. Percale with facings of linen is here depicted. Black sateen with cretonne would be attractive, as would also crepe with trimming of a contrasting color or with rick for a finish. The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: Small, 34-36; Medium, 38-40; Large, 42-44; Extra Large, 46-48 inches bust measure. A Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A GOOD APRON. Pattern 3324 made the comfortable model. It is cut in 4 Sizes: Small, 32-34; Medium, 36-38; Large, 40-42; Extra Large, 44-46 inches bust measure. Figured percale in white and black is here illustrated. One could have gingham, seersucker, lawn, alpaca, drill, or satin. A Medium size will require 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 15c. in silver or stamps.

A BECOMING DRESS FOR WORK OR PORCH WEAR. 3848. Neatness and utility are expressed in this model. The closing is at the centre front, the lines are good, and comfortable, and the style has pleasing features. One could have this in checked gingham, with vest, collar, belt and cuffs of white rapp or pique. Other wash fabrics are equally desirable. For warmth, flannel and gabardine are recommended. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 15 cents in silver or stamps.

Why Apologise, Ladies. Every middle-aged woman who has her hair bobbed, explains that "it was just—just—desirable, and had to be cut off in order to make it come in heavy again." Bald-headed men take little stock in such excuses. MINARD'S LINIMENT PREVENTS SPANISH FLU.

Stormy Sessions at the Hague.

Britain and France in Agreement --- Russia Proves Stumbling Block --- Germany Can No Longer Make Payments --- Rumors of New Irish Republic.

HAGUE CONFERENCE BREAKS DOWN.

THE HAGUE, July 12. The conference with the representatives of Soviet Russia broke down to-day with no apparent hope of further meeting. Litvinoff, leaving the Council Chamber, said further meetings were unlikely as the non-Russians insisted upon the Russians making promises with regard to property compensation and giving guarantees that were impossible until it was known what credits and loans are to be granted them. Litvinoff said the peace pact would hold one month after the last meeting.

BRITISH AND FRENCH IN AGREEMENT.

THE HAGUE, July 12. Two stormy sessions of the conference on Russian problems to-day apparently ended all chance of agreement between the Russians and other powers. The chasm between the Russians and the other powers is apparently wider than at Genoa and the non-Russian group is not divided. The British and French are acting in agreement on the demands concerning nationalisation of property which the Russians say practically amounts to insistence on absolute restitution.

GERMANS ASK FOR MORATORIUM.

PARIS, July 12. The German representatives to-day submitted to the Reparations Committee a formal note requesting a moratorium. The thirty-two million gold marks are ready for Saturday, if insisted upon, and they ask that its payment be waived.

REPUBLIC PROCLAIMED.

LONDON, July 12. The morning papers print an unconfirmed rumour that an Irish Republic has been formally proclaimed in Cork. The isolation of South Western Ireland is practically complete, and as both parties are exercising a strict censorship, the details of the situation are meagre.

GERMANY DEFAULTS.

PARIS, July 12. Germany served notice on the Allied powers, through the Reparations Commission, to-day, that she could no longer meet cash obligations of any sort, whether growing out of the Versailles Treaty, the stipulation undertaken by acceptance of the London ultimatum of May 5, 1921, or arranged by the schedule of payments drawn up by the Reparations Commission on March 21st, 1922. Depreciation of the mark on foreign exchanges was given as the reason for the impossibility of Germany to pay and for the request that she be relieved of cash engagements, including payment of the thirty-two million gold marks on Saturday as well as all subsequent payments in 1922, 1923 and 1924. The German note makes no mention of Germany's intention regarding cash payments after 1924, but asks that negotiations for a foreign loan interrupted at Paris last month, which Germany blames for the continued fall of the mark, be resumed at the earliest possible date, or financial.

as a souvenir and was believed to have been dead.

ICEBERGS ON NFLD. COAST.

SYDNEY, July 12. Between Cape St. Francis and Burr's Island the steamer Bethlehem, from 'Botwood' for Sydney, passed thirty-two icebergs varying in height from fifty to three hundred and fifty feet, Captain E. Perry stated.

"Wings of Pride" is Unusually Interesting

NICKEL PATRONS PLEASSED WITH EXCELLENT PICTURE.

Olive Tell's latest production, "Wings of Pride," was the outstanding feature on the Nickel program last night. The picture presents a story of New York social life and underworld life in the big city where a crooked political boss determines to get rid of the young District Attorney and "get the girl for himself." The picture is strong in dramatic moments, swift action, exciting events and holds attention from beginning to end.

Olive Tell's wonderful cast includes John O'Brien, a leading man who gives an excellent performance of a young District Attorney fighting the political boss; and his gang, Ed. Davis enacts the role of the political leader and makes it stand out strongly. Denton Vane also has an important part while others in the cast include Raye Dean, Margaret Seddon, Ida Pardee and others. The remainder of the programme consisted of a Pathé News and roaring Christie comedy.

Irishmen of To-Day.

SIR THOMAS GRATTAN ESMONDE.

Sir Thomas Henry Grattan Esmonde, Bart, has at least three titles to distinction. To begin with, he is possibly the most "travelled" living Irishman. His caravan has rested, at one time or another, in every one of the five continents, and his experiences as a hunter of game, big and small, throughout the globe have given him a wide knowledge of world affairs. Again, he is one of the leading Roman Catholic laymen in Ireland to-day. He has been a Chamberlain of the Vatican Household for the past twenty-five years, is a Grand Officer of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre, and the representative of that Order for Ireland. Finally, he is a direct descendant of the great Henry Grattan.

Sir Thomas Esmonde was born in France just sixty years ago, and has been travelling for the greater part of his life. He shot his first deer before he was twelve years of age, much to the delight of one of his father's keepers who was his instructor in marksmanship. Since that time he has shot many deer in many lands. He has hunted every animal from an Irish fox to an American wapiti, and is just as familiar with the giant peaks of the Rocky Mountains as he is with the slopes of Errigal or the grandeur of the Magilluddy Reeks.

He began to travel almost as soon as he could walk. A great part of his childhood was spent in the South of France, where he learned to speak French like a native, and, as his family had intimate connections with the Eternal City, his young ear gained early acquaintance with lingua Toscana in bocca Romana. Thus were laid the foundations of Sir Thomas Esmonde's linguistic attainments. To-day he can speak half a dozen languages, as well as several patois and a variety of aboriginal tongues. He has held converse with all sorts and conditions of men, from Popes of Rome to South Sea Island kings, and from Claddagh fishermen to Dominion Premiers. He will talk of an approaching trip to America in much the same way as the average Dubliner will refer to his next Saturday's visit to Delgany. In his eyes the Atlantic is merely a superior sort of Irish Sea, while the journey from Dublin to Auckland is what the Germans would call a Katzenprung.

Sir Thomas Esmonde looks a traveller, and as a conversationalist he excels. He has lived in so many lands and seen so many strange things in his wanderings that he is never at a loss for a topic, and can keep you interested for hours on end with tales of his adventures. He is a walking gazetteer of the world. Even now, although he has reached an age when many men begin to think of settling down, and most have finished thinking of it twenty years since, Sir Thomas Esmonde pays a flying visit every year to Canada, Australia, or some other country at the back of beyond. Last year, for instance, he suddenly came to the conclusion that there was a certain animal in the Rocky Mountains which he must shoot, and he promptly proceeded to shoot it. The fact that the animal was somewhere in British Columbia, while he was a few miles outside the town of Gorey, did not bother him at all, and he covered some twelve thousand miles in six weeks. But he got the beast when he wanted, and carried the antlers safely back to Ballyvastrah.

Years of travel have made Sir Thomas Esmonde a connoisseur in climates and scenery. Newfoundland he declares to be his favourite country. It reminds him of Ireland, he bears marked resemblances to Switzerland, Mexico, and Greece, while, in some of its moods, it recalls to his mind his more intimate glimpses of South Africa. If Newfoundland is like this, no wonder that Sir Thomas Esmonde is so fond of it. Here he has hunted the caribou, pitched his night-tent on the shores of Indian Lake. Here, also, he has had some of the best salmon fishing for which the heart of an Irishman could yearn.

For fishing purposes New Zealand comes next to Newfoundland. Sir Thomas Esmonde knows every acre of its glory and has caught "whoppers" in the remotest of its streams. In Australia he has hunted kangaroos before breakfast, chasing an "old man," as the natives call it, across miles of arid desert, and coming back to camp with nothing more than a healthy appetite to show for his morning's work. For he does not believe in killing kangaroos; they are becoming too scarce, and he wants to hunt them again before he takes to milder pursuits. During the past few years he has been going to Wyoming, where he has discovered some particular kind of deer that pleases him; but next year it may be New Zealand again, or perhaps South Africa, or, for that matter, the South Sea Islands. He is a man of sudden impulses and goes where the spirit calls him.

He is very fond of the South Seas, by the way, and in the old days used to be a frequent visitor to Samoa, where he had a great friend named "George." "George" was a "big chief" in the land, and Sir Thomas used to stay with him regularly when he visited the islands. It was while he was on one of these visits that Sir Thomas Esmonde met Robert Louis Stevenson. "R.L.S." had gone to the South Sea; by sea, and Sir Thomas was staying near the coast, waiting to be picked up by a schooner which was due to call at the island in a few days time, when one morning he saw a cavalcade coming down from the interior, and discovered that its leader was Stevenson, who, having heard that another white man was on the island, had come to invite him to share his civilised quarters. The poet was accompanied by his wife, who was anxious that he should have a companion; but Sir Thomas could not risk missing his schooner, and was compelled to forego an experience which, probably, would have lived in his memory for ever. Stevenson and "George." What a contrast! The one inspired with immortal genius, the other attired in a joint cloth and a blackthorn stick, a birthday present from Sir Thomas.

This great traveller's life has been full of such incidents; so full, indeed, that he relates them as if they were the most natural things in the world. He will tell you in a breath of conversation which he had with Pope Leo XIII. (of whom he was a personal friend) about the Irish question, and a funny story which he heard from a Rumanian Hospodar, while he was bear-hunting in the Balkans. In spite of his wanderings about the globe, however, Sir Thomas Esmonde has been able to take quite an active part in Irish public life. At present, for example, he is Chairman of the Dublin and South-Eastern Railway, in the development of which he is taking a keen personal interest, and also of the Irish Directors' Board of the National Bank.

He has been a politician into the bargain. In 1888 he was elected to the Parliament of Great Britain, and sat in the House of Commons as a member of the Irish Party. In 1891 he transferred his affections to Kerry for nine years, and finally settled down in Parliament as the member for North Wexford. He remained Nationalist in politics until the Irish Party went down before the storm of Sinn Fein.

Sir Thomas is an interesting and clever writer. His books on travel are written in a good, straightforward style, and he has made many valuable contributions to the literature of Irish folk lore and antiquities. As a judge of a horse he has few superiors; as a judge of a man he would be hard to beat. He rides straight and shoots straight. He is as punctual in his annual duties at Rome as he is in his appointments with the Great Moose in New Brunswick. Courtier and hunter, globe-trotter and man of affairs, a good Irishman and a good sportsman, Sir Thomas Grattan Esmonde represents a type that is becoming rarer in Ireland every day.—NICHIEVO, in the Irish Times.

ERNEST MOUNIER.

The body of Mr. Ernest Mounier went out by to-day's express en route to Boston for interment. Mr. Mounier came here from Boston about three months ago on a health trip, but unfortunately, the dread disease—cancer—had sapped his vitality to such an extent that a cure was impossible. Whilst here the deceased underwent treatment at Southcott Hospital, and was attended by Dr. Macpherson with whom he was on intimate terms. Mr. Mounier is a native of Boston and was born 80 years ago. The body was taken home by Mr. Jacob A. Barbey, son-in-law of the deceased.

A large number of people were on the pond last evening watching the different crews practicing. It will be time to get the band down.

The truckmen's crew who rowed the "Celt" to victory in this race for two seasons past, were not rowing the year and have joined the Boat Club accordingly. It is regrettable that Kearney and his strapping crew are not competing.

The press race will be on the programme again. The Telegram crew will have their first practice tonight and will row the "Celt" on Regatta Day. The News have had several practice already and are showing up well.

When a famous Arctic explorer came back from the North Pole a group of newspapermen chartered a tug and steamed up the coast to meet him.
In the party was one correspondent who spent three days framing a highly scientific and involved question which was designed, as he thought, to bring out the exact truth regarding the explorer's achievement.
The newspapermen boarded the returning ship, and after the first exchange of greetings the spokesman for the interviewers cleared his throat. He said: "Sir, this gentleman has a very important question to ask you." The explorer turned aggressively upon the man indicated. "What do you want to know?" he demanded, briskly.
The newspaperman was seized with confusion. He fumbled in his pockets and produced a cigarette.
"What is it you want to know?" replied the explorer, sharply.
The correspondent swallowed hard: "Have you got a match?" he inquired.

Salting Birds' Tails.
My four-year-old son rushed into the house the other day and excitedly asked me to give him the salt cellar as he saw a pretty bird he wanted to catch by putting salt on its tail. I let him have it. He came back, defeated but not crestfallen. He said that one had flown away, but he would try again. Foolish? Yet it made me ponder why a good many of us don't try to catch birds by putting salt on their tails. Aren't most of us given to chasing will-o'-the-wisps, impossibilities?
For example, don't a lot of us who are in business sprinkle a little advertising salt and expect to catch "birds" of orders? Don't some of us force down wages and salaries to unfair levels and then expect our people to render us loyalty, efficiency and enthusiasm in return? Or, don't many employees shirk work and expect considerate treatment by their employers? Again, haven't a lot of mortals acted on the principle that they could catch the Blue Bird of happiness if only they could accumulate barrels of money? Isn't promotion often sought without proper preparation? We know that many thousands delude themselves into believing that they can get rich quickly by buying some glittering stock for a few dollars a share.

Sit down and reason it out with your self whether or not you are trying to catch birds by putting salt on their tails.—Forbes Magazine.

He Preferred the Bear.
Some salesmen were talking about a sales manager who refused to accept excuses. The only thing that would satisfy him was orders.
"He reminds me of a Southern Col." said one of them. "The gentleman from the North was enjoying the excitement of a bear hunt down in Mississippi. The bear was surrounded in a small cane thicket. The dogs could not get the bear out, and the planter who was at the head of the hunt called to one of the negroes:
"Sam, go in there and get that bear out."
The negro hesitated a moment and then plunged into the cane. A few moments later, the negro, the bear and the dogs were rolling upon the ground outside. After the hunt was over the visitor said to the negro:
"Were you not afraid to go into that thicket with that bear?"
"Cap'n," replied the negro, "it was jest dis way: 'I nebber had met dat b'ar, but I was pussenly 'quainted wid de old boss, so I jest naturally took dat b'ar."
Caught the Curate.
The bachelors of a certain town were greatly scared by the advent amongst them of a fearsome type of the desperate husband-hunting spinster.
After throwing each of the local bachelors into spasms of terror lest he should be the recipient of her attentions, she managed to capture the curate.
Local bachelordom was so relieved at its escape that it united in presenting the curate with a wedding present in the shape of a costly dinner service.
The curate was overwhelmed.
"Such a magnificent service!" he gasped.
"Well, you see, my boy," explained the chief of the local bachelors, "it is really a thanksgiving service."
The Short Cut.
The old man had come up to London to see a football match, and thought he would improve the occasion by seeing some of the sights.
He buttonholed a man on the pavement and sought his advice.
"Can you help me?" he asked.
"What's wrong?"
"I would like to get to Bow Street."
"You would?" exclaimed the Londoner, who was a doubtful-looking character. "Well, I've just come from there."
"Ah, then you're the very man I want! Tell me, do I have to take a motor-bus to get to Bow Street?"
The other man smiled.
"No, gov'nor," he replied. "A silver watch will do."

Reducing the Service

Some days ago the Telegram had occasion to refer to the removal of s.s. Portia from the Western Coastal route, St. John's to Bonne Bay, and characterised it as an act that would not by any means assist in increasing trade between the ports thus neglected and St. John's. If economy was the object, then the pruning knife should have been applied nearer the roots of growth on the tree of Government extravagance, and the whole Shipping Department abolished altogether. Of what use is this department anyway? At present it serves no good purpose, excepting to give large salaries to friends of the administration. The coastal boats could very well be handled by the Marine and Fisheries Department, and perhaps give as efficient service as they have been, without having a Minister of their very own. One steamer plying from Argentina to Port aux Basques cannot serve the needs of the West Coast, and what will really happen is that the trade of that section of the country will be diverted to Halifax, which has already extensive commercial connections with the people. The cry of economy comes with poor grace from men who are squandering thousands of dollars on trips abroad. The lame excuse that the Portia was not paying will but illy serve to placate the people of the many ports of call on the Western schedule. They have been accustomed to having the Portia for so long, that it will indeed be strange if they do not enter a strong protest, and demand that the ship be replaced on the route. The quality of the economy that puts thirty men or more out of a means of livelihood is doubtful. Apart from that there is the injustice to those who have worth themselves out in the coastal service. No pensions for them! No fat jobs to fall into their hands like ripe plums! They have to get out and hustle at a time of year when every avenue of employment is closed. But the Economists of the Government say so and their edict must be carried out. The letter from "Traveller," published in this column, makes a strong plea for the continuance of s.s. Portia on the Western route. Freight in plenty will be offering during the coming months, so he asserts, and knowing the gentleman personally, we can state that he is thoroughly conversant with the conditions about which he writes.

TRAVELLER CONDEMNES REMOVAL OF PORTIA.

Dear Sir.—As one who is very much interested in the coastal service on the South Coast, I was more than surprised to note by the Daily News of even date that the s.s. Portia was to be laid up instead of taking up that service again.

It appears to me this would be a great injustice to the people who are doing business between Marystown and Bonne Bay covering such a large territory, and depending for the most part on the steamers for everything they use.

As one who has been lately in that section, and hearing the complaints that the s.s. Glencoe is unable to take all the freight offering, having full loads when leaving Argentina, and leaving large quantities behind, I feel sure that our business friends will very much resent this treatment.

This to my mind is also a matter for the merchants of St. John's to be interested in, as if they know it or not, there are steamers running from Halifax and North Sydney to that coast, and trade that should be done with St. John's is going elsewhere unless service is given from this end; it is therefore up to the Coastal Department to protect the interests of the trade here, and at the same time look after the merchants on that coast, by giving them sufficient service to look after their requirements.

There is also the consideration that from August forward there will be much larger quantities of freight required for the fall trade as well as more inward freight moving.

We should all like to see economy practised by the powers that be, but let it not be done at the expense of that most enterprising coast.

Yours truly, TRAVELLER.

Manoa Arrives.

S. S. Manoa, 44 hours from Charlottetown, arrived in port this morning after a splendid passage. The ship brought the following passengers from Montreal most of whom are round trippers:—E. L. Baker, Mrs. Baker, C. P. Bingham, Claire Bingham, Mrs. F. Cresser, Sabina Birka, V. Broadhead, S. Carew, A. M. Crammond, Mrs. Crammond, Mary Ellard, Joseph Ellard, H. J. Forget, Mrs. Forget, J. A. Gordon, Mrs. Gordon, Miss Irving, J. C. Langston, Mrs. H. E. Maunder, C. Maunder, C. W. Morris, Mrs. C. W. Morris, Miss Morris, L. A. Orne, A. P. Pigeon, Mrs. Pigeon, Mrs. W. Playter, Miss A. K. Rennie, Miss I. Soper, J. W. Smith, J. W. Tatley, E. Thomas, A. R. Warhurst, J. J. Walsh.

The Speed Limit.

A HARDY ANNUAL. The question of the speed limit for motor cars in the city is a hardy annual and the cases heard in the Police Court to-day again bring it before the public. It is generally conceded by motorists that the 10 mile per hour limit is ridiculous. A prominent motorist told the Telegram to-day that he kept to a maximum speed of 10 m.p.h. in the city or anywhere else, is a physical impossibility. It is not good for the car and the machine is no better under control than when doing 15 m.p.h. Motorists are of the unanimous opinion that the speed limit in the city should be at least 15 m.p.h. and it is believed that efforts will be made to have it brought to this maximum.

M. G. BAND CONCERT, Bannerman Park, 8.15 to-night. Good programme.—July 13.

Motor Car Accident.

CAR DITCHED BY COW. Two motor accidents occurred on the Topsall Road yesterday, but none of the occupants of the cars were injured. Mr. J. R. Parsons, while trying to avoid a cow, turned towards the side of the road, and the bank giving way, he went into the ditch. The steering gear and other parts of the car were damaged. A Ford car, while coming out the Topsall Road, lost a wheel and was ditched. A car driven by Dr. Brehm, went through a bridge on the Middle Cove Road, and was badly damaged.

"SPORTING NEWS" will be issued from "Saturday Night" Office, 310 Water Street, to-morrow, Friday, at 1 p.m. Boys wanted.—July 13.

Loquacious Drunk.

WANTED BENEFIT OF DOUBT. "If there's any doubt, Your Honor, you had better give me the benefit of it," said a prisoner in the Police Court to-day. Accused was charged with being drunk and breaking a shop window. He was found some distance from the shop, sitting in a doorway, and with his hand cut. Accused was very loquacious and laid stress on the fact that he could not remember whether he had broken the window or not. Mr. McCarthy, J.P., ordered accused to pay $7, the cost of the window.

EXPRESS LATE.—The incoming express with the Kyle's mails and passengers, is due in the city at 4 p.m. The train is heavy, and lost some running time as a consequence.

In the Realms of Sport.

The Cubs and B.L.S. will play off tonight for the Kilbride Cup which is on exhibition to-day at McNamara's. An exciting clash is assured and undoubtedly, there will be a large attendance. The Harps will have aspell on the mound, while Joe Murphy will do box duty for the Cubs. The game starts at 7.15 sharp with Mr. Cheeman in control.

Perfect holiday weather made the various athletic meets yesterday all the more enjoyable.

Because of the fact that it embraced all the favorites the chief interest centered around that held by the G.W.V.A. and with Mr. Charlie Ellis as Field Captain everything went off without a hitch.

It was necessary to run the hurdles in heats. Leading seaman Purnell won the first in 18 3/4 with Charlie Eagan second. Freddie Phelan (A.A.C.) got the second in 14 seconds with young Nikosey trailing him. The final was won by Phelan in 13 1/2 with Eagan second and Nikosey third. Purnell who is a really fine hurdler came a cropper at the second frame in the final.

The Newfoundland record of 10 1/2 for the hundred, held by George Knight was smashed yesterday by Fred Phelan when he led the field by a large margin in 10 seconds flat. This feat is all the more remarkable when it is considered he had just finished football sixes for the Governor's Cup. Butler finished second.

Harvey Skirving lined up with seven aspirants for mile honors. He took the lead right at the start and at no time was he pressed. Hampton from Bishop's Falls trailed him for about three parts of the distance when Skirving broke away from him. This was Hampton's first attempt on turf and he made a very excellent showing, finishing second with Lieut. Mack third. Skirving's time was 4.52 or two seconds short of the record held by Fred Marshall.

The Guards' tug-of-war team ably upheld their laurels when they disposed of a picked crew from H. M. S. Valerian in short order. The Navy lads claim that they were not familiar with the cleated boards and could not get the drop.

The scooter race was amusing and was won by Nikosey and McNamara (St. Bon's) with Cox and Barrett from the Valerian second.

Fred Phelan won the 440 in 58 secs., with Farrell second.

Five teams entered the Field Regatta and Ayre & Sons won it easily with the Guards second.

The 220 was won by Fred Phelan in 26 seconds, with Gordon Halley second.

The highest attained by Halley and Eagan in the pole vault, 8 ft. 11 inches was disappointing in view of their efforts last week. Halley was the winner.

Harvey Skirving won the half mile in 2.17 1/2 with Spurrell second, Farrell from Bell Island showed up splendidly.

In the football sixes for the Governor's Cup the cadets defeated the Guards and the B.L.S. the C.L.B. In the play-off the Cadets hit the dust at the hands of the Irishmen.

No one had nerve enough to face the Feltidians' relay team and they therefore secured the beautiful silver cup.

The chief athletic event yesterday was the War Vets' 10 mile road race. Dusty roads and a broiling hot sun were very trying to the runners, but Jack Tobin and Bob Stick did yeoman work in regulating the traffic, thus ameliorating conditions. The judges were Messrs. Mark Chaplin, G. C. Harvey and Reg Harvey. The race started from the Octagon and the 16 competitors, viz: O. Avery, F. Foley, R.P. Redmond, T. Furlong, A. Taylor, E. Robinson, J. Willard, D. Phelan, J. Woods, G. Kelly, F. G. Fleming, J. Thompson, J. Jacobs, G. Clarke, P. Dunphy, W. Thompson, all got away together. Foley took the lead at the start, but after a mile he gave out and Taylor who was running well set the pace, closely followed by W. Thornburn. Taylor held his lead till Donavan's was passed, time to his point being 14 minutes, when he took a wrong turn and was obliged to walk some 250 yards. This allowed Thornburn to catch him and he was leading up to Mount Pearl Road, when Taylor again came to the front, and it was then seen that the race was between Taylor and Thornburn. Taylor increased his lead as he came along and at the Sanitarium had gained 300 yards. Along Cornwall Avenue Taylor was going well, but the pace was beginning to tell, but the pace was beginning to tell on him, and on reaching the field he was barely running. He, however, kept pluckily on and was given a tremendous ovation as he entered the enclosure and started on his final lap. After completing a round of the field Thornburn, who was running well came in sight, and like Taylor was also given a big reception. He was running splendidly, but failed to overtake Taylor, who finished the course in 1 hour, 4 minutes and 37 seconds with Thornburn but three quarters of a lap behind. Thornburn squarred on his last lap and his time was 1 hour, 5 minutes and 17 seconds. Tommy Furlong who finished third was remarkably fresh and the long jaunt apparently did not bother him any.

On the cinder path at the Ayre Athletic grounds yesterday Tommy Butler won the 100 in 19 1/4 with Jimmy Herder a good second.

Burnell bung up a new record for the 1 mile walk, doing it in 8.09 1/2. Dug Muir was second. He lost his shoe early in the hike and had to finish with one foot bare. Max Moore pushed him hard for second place.

Jimmy Herder won the 250 in 27 seconds with Halley close behind him.

In a minute flat Gerry Halley romped home a winner in the quarter mile with Johnson number two.

Eagan was first in the 1/4 mile in 2.21 1/2 with J. Angel second.

Eight starters opened the 5 mile race, but at the third mile Halley and Jennings had full control. In the last mile Halley got cramped and had to retire. At the finish Jennings gave a magnificent burst of speed and was remarkably fresh. Slow time was made, however, 32.25 1/2.

Baird's speedy five won the football, hopelessly outclassing all their opponents.

The Feltidian relay team (Albert and Ron Martin and Eric Jerrrett), copied the silverware here as elsewhere.

The Pony Race was exciting and was won by Cowan's pony with Baird's a good runner up.

The sports card at St. Patrick's Garden Party was most interesting. The C.L.B. won out in the five, while St. Patrick's handed out a better brand of ball than did the Holy Cross and carried off the honours.

The three mile road race was the chief item at the program. O'Toole taking the lead at the start held it to the finish. C. Stone was second.

Motor Cases.

FINES FOR EXCESS SPEED. Three motorists were fined in the Police Court this morning for driving at a dangerous speed. A Ford owner was represented by Mr. P. S. McGrath who said his client had only been doing 14 miles per hour and that he had put on this speed to take a hill. Accused was fined $5.

Another car owner was charged with driving at a dangerous speed and with turning a corner on the wrong side. Mr. C. E. Hunt appeared for accused. Police Sergeant Stapleton said that he saw accused driving at a fast rate and stopped him. The motorist said he might have been doing about twenty miles per hour; a fine of $5 was imposed.

In the third case a car owner of Portugal Cove, was fined $5 for exceeding the speed limit, in town.

Wretched Condition of Road
AND HUNDREDS SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir:—The Telegram has recently commented on the very bad condition of the main line of road around Conception Bay, and from motorists and others I learn that it has never been in worse condition. That portion between Seal Cove and Holyrood, "The Cow Path," (mis-called now as even the cows take to the bush there) is a disgrace to civilization. Here we have about five miles of a rocky water course too narrow for two teams to pass and virtually impassable, and called a main road. The main road around this bay is probably one of the oldest and certainly the most travelled outside St. John's District. Besides the very large local or harbor traffic it carries it is the main artery of motor traffic between Carbonear and St. John's. A motor trip around Conception Bay is one of the finest short excursions available, the magnificent and varied scenery and the interesting towns and villages on the way furnish a novelty not found elsewhere. The ordinary road grant for this road was never sufficient to keep it in repair and as a consequence through year by year deterioration the very foundation of the road bed has been worn away and the road will have to be rebuilt. This being so no better opportunity will occur than RIGHT NOW, during the summer months.

Right around the Bay at this moment there are hundreds of men out of work. In this district over six hundred do not know where they are to get food, not alone for the winter, but for the immediate future. Many have made several futile trips to Bell Island and St. John's and are now worn out with anxiety. Some have very reluctantly been forced to take poor relief, which has been just as reluctantly given. Considering that only eight or ten weeks work was obtainable last summer our people have stood against conditions remarkably well, but for the future when they cannot get work or they and their families will starve next winter. No better avenue of employment offers than the rebuilding and widening of this road, and if done from one end to the other it would afford employment to men of all the bay districts giving them work at their own doors where one dollar earned is worth two earned away from home, and make a permanent national thoroughfare. Last spring in discussing the matter of work during the summer with Hon. Dr. Campbell he intimated that if necessary the Government would, after the fishermen had gone to Labrador, undertake the rebuilding of this road. Recently I reminded him of this stating the urgent necessity for doing so now. So far I have had no reply though I presume the matter is receiving the consideration of the Government, for it is inconceivable that the present state of the people is unknown as it is also inconceivable that if known the Government is indifferent.

Certainly no time should be lost as soon as the short wet days will be upon us when men cannot efficiently or comfortably work in the open. Paper relief is hateful to our people. They do not want it and only ask a chance by hard work to earn enough to keep their families. This can be furnished them by immediate rebuilding of the main road around this bay.

Yours truly,
W. E. JONES.

FATHER RECOVERS BODY.
The body of Stan Bove, for which a number of people were searching since the drowning fatality at Shoal Bay on Monday last, was recovered yesterday morning by the father of the deceased. The tug John Green with diver Whitemarsh, was at the scene having been sent by Sir Michael Cashin. The corpse was brought to the city by the tug and prepared for burial by Undertaker Martin. The funeral took place at the Goulds this morning. The place where the fatality occurred is known as Hart's Cove near where the Regulus was lost.

Good Fishing at King's Cove.

SCARCITY OF SALT REPORTED.
Special to Evening Telegram
KING'S COVE, July 12.
Since the fish market, the fishery has been very good in this section, with traps and trawls. On yesterday one trap at Stock Cove took sixty quintals. At Broad Cove another took ninety in one haul. The fish are of very large size and the prospects are bright for a good voyage. While this is the case there are some few traps doing but little or nothing. The fish are running close to shore and traps set in deep water take very little. Unfortunately there is a scarcity of salt and if a supply is not sent soon there will be much fish lost.

Dried Fish.

The most interesting incident in connection with the dried fish market during the last ten days, was the "scare" message from Lunenburg which appeared in the daily newspapers regarding the prospecting of the summer trip of the Lunenburg bank fleet. We doubt, however, if disturbing, as it seemed to be, it raised much goose flesh on the shoulders of the local exporter. As a matter of fact, we are compelled to think that perhaps it merely occasioned a lifting of his eyebrows and the birth of a cynical smile. We suspect, too, he thought that the writer of the report was guilty of something more than "cold feet"; in fact that he was doing what they do in Wall Street—attempting to "bull" the market.

We must say that the reports received by us have been more reassuring. Our news indicates that fish are plentiful on the Grand Banks, and also that caplin (bait) is obtainable in Newfoundland. The Bank of Commerce report from St. John's of a vessel just days ago, says that one vessel had in from the Grand Banks on a short trip, had 2000 quintals, and reported fish plentiful. Advice to local exporters here also state that caplin is obtainable in Newfoundland, and that the "shore" codfishery along the Nova Scotia coast is quite good at the present time. But of course it is much too early as yet to say what the summer catch of the Lunenburg fleet is likely to be. One might as well try to predict on the first of May what the hay crop of the country would amount to in July. It may of course prove to be that the summer catch will not be a large one, but no one can say this definitely to-day, and it is foolish to indulge in predictions that seem unlikely to come true. All the news so far received from Newfoundland is of a most hopeful character, though of course, like ourselves, Newfoundland will have to take the fish before she starts to count them.—Maritime Merchant, July 11, 1921.

High and Low Test Gasoline at MCKINLAY'S, Lime Street.

Labor Being Badly Led.

We are all judged by results. Many labor leaders have been falling down badly. Instead of frankly recognizing economic conditions and trends, and advising their followers to accept the inevitable, too many labor agitators have struck defiant poses, refused to listen to reason, have blustered and bullied and threatened—and then been overwhelmed by currents more powerful than either labor or capital. The sobering truth is that not one nation-wide strike, either in this country or in Britain, has been won by the men since deflation set in. The British engineering trades are extremely highly organized, yet their revolt ended just as the railway workers' strike and every other national strike in Britain has resulted. The last time a widespread railway strike was attempted here, it was promptly defeated by the power of an aroused public opinion. There never was the remotest possibility that the coal miners would be granted the extraordinary demands they made when their working agreement expired. The railway workers have likewise failed to win the sympathy of the public. Incidentally the prolonged textile strike has followed the customary course, the workers having gravitated back to work without obtaining what they demanded.

Even the most brilliant general sometimes find it necessary to retreat, the better to watch their campaign. If labor leaders, diagnosing and recognizing economic trends had given ground to a reasonable extent, they would have served their followers infinitely better. But by foolishly deciding to defy everybody and everything, these leaders have brought defeat upon their armies and have lost the moral support of the public. Nevertheless, employers would do well to act with the most scrupulous moderation, even magnanimity. The whirling of the wheel will again bring on top, so to speak. The Biblical injunction is "Agree with thine adversary whilst thou art in the way, with him." It is recommended for the serious consideration and reflection of employers.—Forbes Magazine.

FRECKLES AND TAN. Freckles and tan, freckles and tan, Give me the nose, Turned upward and spotted, Fudgy as roses, And sunburned and dotted; As brown as the berries, Wearing the grasses, God gives to the cherries; Give me the grin and the glorious span Of the mouth that is bordered with freckles and tan.

Freckles and tan, freckles and tan, Badge of a boy since the world first began. Hair that is tousled, And matted and wiry, Frequently frizzled, And stubborn and fiery; Eyes that are never, Dull-colored or teary, Mouth that forever, Is mirthful and chery; Signs may rest him, but I never can, The boy that God blesses with freckles and tan.

Freckles and tan, freckles and tan, Field of a youthful and glorious clan! Give me the grinning, And mischievous faces, Winks that need pinning In several places, Give me the snickers, Of boyhood and chuckles, Ill-fitting knickerbockers, And scarred knees and knuckles, There's where the future may look for its man. For there's a weaking wears freckles and tan.

News From Spain.

Prospects are fair for new crop raisins in Spain, according to advices from that country. The weather was ideal during the period of enfloracion and setting, so that hopes are entertained of an excellent crop return. It is not believed, however, that the yield will exceed that of last year, because while it is certain that some vineyards will have an increased output, the vineyards which suffered so much last year by the ravages of the phylloxera will show a shortage, thus counter-balancing the excess in the newer vineyards. Whether the old-time interest in Valencia raisins will be manifested this year, when the time for placing orders comes is a question, much will depend upon the price, but the fact that some of last season's shipments turned out rather badly is a factor that may make buyers a bit shy. Of course it does not follow that in one year, it will do so again, but the trade and consumers in this country have now become so used to California raisins and so well-likes the way in which they are put up, that the memory of last year's poor keeping quality in Valencia stock may be a factor of some importance in determining the amount of interest importers will take in Spanish raisins this year.—Maritime Merchant.

WHAT AGE IS BEST?

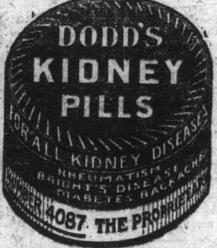

At what age is a woman at her best? What they consider is the answer to buy it, so my alfalfa seems quite weird to those who chance to spy it. I will not to the neighbors go to borrow this or that; I'd rather let my white hair grow until I'm another. The borrower is lacking friends, whatever town may lodge him, and wearily his way he wends, while moral people dodge him. I used to borrow Maltese cats and howitzers and sabres; revolving spurs and Sunday hats; from my afflicted neighbors. And though I had a heart of gold, and manners frank and pleasing, the atmosphere soon grew so cold I felt that I was freezing. Men couldn't see my sterling worth; they said, "The gent is silly, who borrows everything on earth nor fears a welcome chilly." Men can't be happy when he's shunned, by all his friends forsaken; and so I organized a fund to buy my beans and bacon. I ceased to ask my wearied friends to lend me shirts and mittens; I bought my wigs and Grecian bands, my grindstones and my mittens. One rule of life I have to-day, I'll have the same to-morrow; I'd rather do without my hat than go around and borrow.

BORROWING.

I need a scythe to trim my beard, but can't afford to buy it, so my alfalfa seems quite weird to those who chance to spy it. I will not to the neighbors go to borrow this or that; I'd rather let my white hair grow until I'm another. The borrower is lacking friends, whatever town may lodge him, and wearily his way he wends, while moral people dodge him. I used to borrow Maltese cats and howitzers and sabres; revolving spurs and Sunday hats; from my afflicted neighbors. And though I had a heart of gold, and manners frank and pleasing, the atmosphere soon grew so cold I felt that I was freezing. Men couldn't see my sterling worth; they said, "The gent is silly, who borrows everything on earth nor fears a welcome chilly." Men can't be happy when he's shunned, by all his friends forsaken; and so I organized a fund to buy my beans and bacon. I ceased to ask my wearied friends to lend me shirts and mittens; I bought my wigs and Grecian bands, my grindstones and my mittens. One rule of life I have to-day, I'll have the same to-morrow; I'd rather do without my hat than go around and borrow.

A Good Era for Women.

The swiftness of woman's blooming, the long period of her decline, has always been one of the biggest tragedies of her sex. If she can come to a slower maturity of charm her life is going to be more happily balanced. The age limit for women as a worker and as an active partaker in pleasure has been greatly extended—witness the vanishing of the grandfather, in the old understanding of the word, as a person who wore caps, sat by the fire and was interested only in children and children's children. And now, if the age limit in this direction is becoming more elastic, women certainly have reason to be glad they waited to this age to be born. Household Notes.

Serve baked rice omelet with cheese sauce. Eggs are delicious stirred on creamed ham. A potato riser is excellent for extracting beef juice. A clothespin is excellent for securing aluminum ware. Never serve a white pastry gravy with a roast of any kind. Wrap heads of lettuce in waxed paper to keep them crisp. Food tomato bouillon is delicious served with whipped cream. If new lamp wicks are soaked in vinegar they will not smoke. When cooking beef in a stewed cooker, do not salt until done. Use soda on a damp cloth to clean the nickel on the kitchen range. In making candy, a teaspoonful of vinegar will prevent stickiness. Serve shrimp cutlets on a bed of lettuce leaves with Hollandaise sauce. Bass is nice split and baked in milk. Garnish with radishes and parsley. To improve salty bacon pour boiling water over it just before frying. Cream sauce flavored with peanut butter is nice served with a nut loaf. Thin slices of buttered toast are the correct accompaniment for a fruit soup. Carrot jelly is nice served as a dessert, or on lettuce with mayonnaise. While canning by the cold-pack method, wear a pair of 10-cent cotton gloves. Hot bouillon is delightful on the picnic lunch. Carry it in the thermos bottle. A little corn scraped from the cobs gives waffles that are really "different" flavor. Carry a bag of charcoal with you when you go picnicking. A quick fire is easily made.

When cleaning spinach, soak it up and down, as pouring of the water doesn't rinse the sand away. Left-over pie crust can be used for tartlet shells, which can be filled with fruit or jam as needed. Children will often eat vegetables in a savory soup when they cannot be induced to eat them otherwise. Paraffin cups come in handy in packing box lunches. They can be used for Boston baked beans, salad, etc. Paint several cloths black or dull blue and use them to hold into the ground the picnic cloth fast. Toasted cheese sandwiches served with cream of tomato soup make an excellent luncheon or Sunday night dinner.

A Glorious Holiday.

MANY GARDEN PARTIES HELD.

A blazing sun and a clear sky greatly contributed to the success of the many garden parties held yesterday afternoon. Many people took advantage of the special excursion rates to spend the day at the seaside, while a continuous stream of buses plied between Bowling Park and the city. The garden parties, of which there were three, were exceedingly well patronized. White was everywhere the predominant color and the grounds in which these popular events were held, with their draped stalls, white tents and colored bunting, presented a very gay appearance.

AYE ATHLETIC GARDEN PARTY.

The Aye Athletic Garden Party, an annual event, was held yesterday in the new Methodist College playing field, which it has helped to make. These grounds were presented to the Methodist College by Mr. C. P. Ayre, and the task of making them into an ideal recreation ground was undertaken by a special committee of ex-pupils. The ground contains courts for basket ball and tennis, a cinder track, a football field and pavilions, fully equipped. The tennis courts are particularly good, and the clay ones are the best in the country. There were several sideshows and a special athletic programme to entertain visitors to the garden party. Teas were served by lady friends of the college who found it a difficult task to cater to the large number of people who wished to patronize their tables. After tea was over a quantity of goods was put up for auction and Hon. S. Milley and Sir John Crosbie made efficient welders of the hammer. One bouquet of beautiful flowers fetched $500 and altogether, the auction realized $1200. The proceeds of this went to the Methodist Orphanage. The results of the athletic programme were: 100 Yards—1st, T. Butler, 10 4-5; 2nd, J. Herder, 2nd; 200 Yards—Herder first, 27 sec.; 3rd, Halley, 2nd; 1 Mile Walk—Burnell, 1st, 8 9 2-5; 2nd, Muir, 2nd. In the mile walk Muir's shoe lace came open and he kicked off the shoe and pluckily proceeded in his bare foot on the cinder track, finishing a good second. Moore pushed him hard for second place but could not keep up with him.

Quarter Mile—Halley, 1st, 1 min.; Johnston, 2nd.

Five Mile Race—The five mile race started with eight competitors and proved highly interesting. After running for a while the pack dwindled down until the race centred on Bailey and Jennings. These two young lads kept together all the way round and gave promise of an exciting finish. When within six laps of the end Bailey was stricken with a stitch and had to retire. By this time the only runners left were Jennings and Bernard Evans, who, notwithstanding that he had been lapped twice was quickly determined to finish. At the 20 yard mark of the course Jennings surprised the spectators by putting on a snort which would have done well in a hundred yards. Evans completed the two laps. Jennings' time was 32:30.

Half Mile—This was won by Eagan, 1st, 2:21 1-5; Angel, 2nd.

Football—Baird's team won the football five after playing all over their opponents.

Pony Race—The Pony Race was most interesting, and was won by Cowan's pony with Baird's a good second.

League Relay Race—The Felidian team, R. Martin, A. Martin and T. Jerrett won the League Relay Race. With the exception of the first, the 100 yards dash, the races were run on the cinder track. The prizes were presented by Mr. C. P. Ayre. Sir John Crosbie, Hon. S. Milley, C. E. Hunt, Jas. P. Ayre, Chas. R. Ayre were starters and E. Snelgrove was time-keeper. Amongst the distinguished visitors present was Rev. Dr. Chown, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church. The Methodist Guards Band was in attendance during the afternoon and its selections were much appreciated.

ST. PATRICK'S GARDEN PARTY.

A very large number of people attended St. Patrick's annual Garden Party, which was held in Lester's Field. The sideshows were many and varied, and the ladies who presided over them and over the refreshment tables, were kept busy. Excellent teas were served in the evening and were greatly enjoyed. A Sports programme added greatly to the success of the afternoon. It was under the capable management of Mr. J. J. Rosister, and was carried through without a hitch. All the events were keenly contested. The road race was very close and was won by R. O'Toole. The complete results were: Baseball—St. Patrick's vs. Holy Cross. Won by the former. Three Mile Road Race—1st, R. O'Toole; 2nd, C. Stone. 100 Yards—1st, Peter Murphy; 2nd, Jas. Hesley. 200 Yards—1st, S. Parsons; 2nd, P. Murphy. One Mile—1st, C. Stone; 2nd, E. Piercey. Football Five—Won by C.L.B. Pony Race—1st, Cowan's; 2nd, T. J. Kennedy's; 3rd, W. Casey's.

The drawing in the Derby Sweep resulted as follows: 1st prize, $50.00, ticket No. S 304, Miss Margaret Molloy; 2nd prize, $30.00, ticket No. R 590, John Mallard; 3rd prize, $10.00, ticket No. N 248, Mr. Puddicombe. The C.C.C. and Empire Bands were in attendance during the afternoon, and furnished the musical program. The receipts will exceed last year's amount which was a record, and it must be gratifying to Rev. Dr. Kitchen and the committee in charge on the unqualified success attained.

N.B.S. GARDEN PARTY.

His Excellency the Governor opened the annual Garden Party of the N.B. British Society yesterday afternoon. The event was held on Woodley's Farm. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded His Excellency on motion of Mr. Henry Cowan, Vice-President of the Society, seconded by Mr. H. R. Cook. The Garden Party was very successful and the various stall-holders did well. The mercantile football game was won by Baird's. The various other items on the athletic programme were keenly contested. The evening's entertainment was added to by the music discoursed by the C.L.B. Band. The usual sideshows were in evidence and helped greatly to the enjoyment in particular, the dancing gallery accounted for a goodly share. The total proceeds of the day exceeded the expectations of all concerned.

A large number of people attended the annual outing of the T. A. and B. Society yesterday afternoon. The gathering left the city by special train at 2:30 yesterday for Donovans'. On arriving at the grounds, which were gaily decorated by an energetic committee, a splendid series of sports were run off. After supper had been served a grand dance was held, music being supplied by the C.C.C. Orchestra. Return to the city was made at 2:30 a.m. The outing was voted one of the most successful yet held.

Starving Man Found on Wreck.

A 30-foot schooner, battered and mastless, was discovered on June 20 ashore on West Island, in the outer harbor at New Bedford, Mass. On board the hulk was Osmund Erickson, who said his address was the sea. When Edward Egbert, a summer resident, found the wreck, Erickson, he said, was eating grass. Erickson, who was suffering from starvation, was unable to tell where the vessel had come from. The name of which could not be determined, carried a crudely-arranged jury mast to replace two masts that had apparently been carried away by a storm. The mast was about six feet high, and pieces of old clothing had been used for sails. The hull had been mended in several places with bits of zinc and tin.

A Budding Politician.

One year the youngsters of a certain Connecticut village met for the purpose of electing a captain of their baseball team for the coming year, and, since there were too many candidates for the post, trouble was expected.

Youngster after youngster presented his qualifications for the honor, and the matter was still undecided when the son of the owner of the ball field stood up. He was a small, snub-nosed lad, with a plentiful supply of freckles, but he glanced about him with a dignified air of controlling the situation.

"I'm going to be captain this year," he announced, convincingly, "or else father's old bull is going to be turned into the field." He was elected unanimously.

HIS DIARY.

July 12.—The warmest day in many months, and I nigh o'erwhelmed with the heat. Divers garden parties held but I will not go to them, being that I like a quiet holiday, and so did lay me down at home with a book, nor could my wife move me from the house. And it is, I think, the wisest thing a man could do, to remain in the peace of his own home on a holiday.

Orangemen Celebrate.

BANQUET AT VICTORIA HALL.

A large gathering of brethren of the city lodges of the Loyal Orange Association assembled at Victoria Hall last night, when the annual banquet in connection with Orangemen's day, July 12th, was held. A pleasing feature of the gathering was the presentation of a Past Master's Jewel to Brother Gordon Bradley, Immediate Past Master of Royal Oak Lodge. The presentation was made by Grand Master Bro. A. W. Piccott in a complimentary speech, to which the recipient very neatly replied. Following was the Toast List:—"The King"—Prop. The Chairman; resp. "God Save the King."

"Our Country"—Prop. G. W. Gushon, P.D.G.M.; resp. W. H. Cave, P.G.M.

"The Grand Orange Lodge of Newfoundland"—Prop. J. C. Puddister, P.G.M.; resp. A. W. Piccott, G.M.

"The Grand Black Chapter of Newfoundland"—Prop. F. G. Bradley, D.G.M.; resp. T. F. Butt, P.G.T.

"Royal Oak and Leeming Lodges"—Prop. C. T. James, P.M.; resp. N. Andrews, P.M., Royal Oak; W. H. Pike, P.M., Leeming.

The banquet prepared by a Committee of Royal Oak and Leeming Lodges was thoroughly enjoyed. W. M. Brother Nosworthy of Royal Oak Lodge acted as Chairman during the evening, and conducted the proceedings in a highly creditable manner.

Romance of Lost Treasure.

THE PIRATES' HOARD—AND THE PIRATE'S GHOST.
By B. L. HADFIELD.

It is a common thing for the youth of the city of New Orleans to be seen in the Gulf of Mexico to be searching for lost treasure. A small sailing boat is hired, well equipped with provisions, and the crew is exploring the waters of the Gulf. There are not wanting "salts" of the coast who have charts and maps which are obtained for a few dollars. The search for a treasure is a most exciting and profitable business. A treasure hunter, who has been successful in his search, has been known to obtain in a house, well through the dock district in no way all the treasure seekers, for, says the old, somewhere in those seas lies the hoard of the notorious Jean Lafitte.

Lafitte is numbered amongst the pirates, but, strictly speaking, pirate never was. His reputation was due to the nature of his receiver of stolen goods, and clearing-house for the jewels and miscellaneous property which the real pirates of the Gulf of Mexico had to dispose of. Lafitte was a Frenchman, by the name of Jean-Baptiste, who, after a short stay in the United States, had set up an establishment in Bourbon Street, New Orleans, as the friend of pirates.

It so happened that the location had been chosen for his forge brought him contact with seafaring men, and with the pirates, who were in the habit of smuggling themselves ashore the lookout for someone to buy the goods they had appropriated at sea. It occurred to the nimble-minded Lafitte that there was an opening for a regular pirate's receiver, some man whom the criminals of the ocean might come, knowing that they had organized for turning their goods into cash. From the first, this project was successful. Lafitte was soon deluged on as he could be trusted implicitly, and he proved himself a past master of the art of smuggling. His gains paid the eyes of the watchful authorities.

Soon Lafitte gave up his blacksmith's business altogether, and moved out of New Orleans, set up headquarters at Terre in a region known as Barataria, and quite near New Orleans. Here he prospered exceedingly. His settlement of pirates rose around him, in which he was looked upon as "king." In the bay, near his fortified house, could be seen any number of piratical craft, and Lafitte had in an instant call to his aid a midable army of cut-throats ready for the most desperate enterprises. Naturally, such an organization of men could not escape the notice of the authorities, and in 1814 an expedition, under Commodore Patterson, was sent against him, and bombarded his settlement, not without some effect. At that time the Americans and British were at war, and Captain Pickens, of His Majesty's Navy, heard that the renowned Lafitte, had fallen from the country of his adoption, and he resolved to him under a flag of truce, and offered him $20,000 dollars if he would join the British service.

A PATRIOTIC PIRATE.
But, criminal though he was, Lafitte was true to his friends; he indignantly refused to parley with Lockyer, and named the Governor of New Orleans General Jackson what had occurred at the same time offering his services and that of his army, to the American cause.

General Jackson, in command at New Orleans, had referred to in very strong terms the idea of the British attempt to enter the Gulf of Mexico, and Lafitte, as called them—and was therefore against the acceptance of Lafitte's offer.

But the people of New Orleans, who thought their city was to be attacked, and honouring Lafitte for the part he had played, brought such pressure to bear on General Jackson that he was forced to accept the offer of the "hellish banditti," and to give their great bravery at the subsequent siege of New Orleans. Lafitte, in spite of a pardon from General Jackson, felt that he had been deceived. General Jackson had also sought his information, and when he learned that Lafitte had been granted a pardon for his crimes, he felt that he had been deceived. Lafitte, in spite of a pardon from General Jackson, felt that he had been deceived. Lafitte, in spite of a pardon from General Jackson, felt that he had been deceived.

LEGENDS OF RICHES.
It is not surprising, from the day that Lafitte sailed from New Orleans down to the present time, belief has been expressed that somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico lies his hoard of the discovery of a tenth of which would make a man rich for the remainder of his life.

"SEA" FOAM RING RUBBERS—These are thigh length and recognized for their superior quality; we have had numerous inquiries for these; they're here now. Friday, Saturday and Monday $7.75.

day that Lafitte sailed from New Orleans down to the present time, belief has been expressed that somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico lies his hoard of the discovery of a tenth of which would make a man rich for the remainder of his life.

About three years ago, one of the most determined efforts to find this treasure was made. Two young Americans—Meyer and Starke—with an experienced sailor, hired a cutter and set out to explore some of the islands.

They had made great research throughout all the records dealing with Lafitte, and, scoring the assistance of charts (many of which, duly signed by the great Jean himself, had been offered them at various prices from ten to a thousand dollars), decided that a certain Hunter Island should be their first objective. Most of the smaller islands in that neighbourhood are swampy and unlikely places for the secreting of treasure; Hunter Island, on the other hand, turned out to be, though desolate, a fairly commodious spot, with a good anchorage and plenty of fresh water. Had it been chosen simply as a resort for a sporting holiday, it would have suited the Americans splendidly; its desirability was enhanced by the fact that, perhaps, here would be found the treasure of Jean Lafitte.

A FIRST CLUE.
After spending about a week on the island, prospecting and looking eagerly for anything that might give them a clue, they did actually find an object of some interest, and one that certainly gave colour to their theory that Hunter Island was the right spot.

Whilst making preparations to dig on a shore beneath a small cliff, they found a rusty sword of an old pattern, and just the sort of thing that the pirates might have left behind them. This find cheered them immensely. They had begun to have visions of the chests and their glittering contents which now they were certain Lafitte had put upon the island for them to find.

Near where the sword was found, they started digging, running trenches at right angles across the flat in which they thought the treasure lay. For two weeks they continued this work, taking occasional spells off for fishing and bathing in the sea. At the end of that time, they made another discovery that set them digging all the harder, and drove all holiday thoughts for the time from their heads.

Meyer suddenly felt his spade strike some hard object. He shouted to his two companions, and, all feverishly digging in the same spot, they soon unearthed the object Meyer had located. Alas! it was not a chest of gold, nor was it anything of any great value to them. It was the skeleton of a man.

THE DEAD PIRATE.
Although it had been lying in the earth for many years, the skeleton was in a good state of preservation, and, still hanging to it was a leather sword-belt—doubtless that which had once held the weapon already discovered.

The finders of this gruesome object could place no date upon its burial, but were quite convinced in their own minds that here before them lay the remains of a pirate, and took courage. Pirates, they knew, were in the habit of burying their treasure beneath the bodies of one of their number. This was done with the object of marking the spot and also preventing people discovering the treasure should they happen to dig in the exact locality.

They reckoned that anyone digging and finding a body would have had merely opened a grave and cease their labours.

Both Meyer and Starke had read of this supposed habit of pirates, and instead of being thus bluffed out of their reward, considered that at least they were about to realise their fondest dreams, and bring forth out of the ground such wealth as would dazzle the world and put an end forever to searches for the hoard of Jean Lafitte.

THE GHOST OF LAFITTE.
During the night Meyer was roused from sleep, and declares that he saw the pirate's ghost rise from where they had been digging. After glaring at him fixedly for a time, the figure suddenly vanished.

Of course, the finding of the treasure ought to have followed this dramatic incident as a matter of course. In fiction no other chain of events would be possible; but, beyond finding an excellent spot for a summer's holiday, Meyer and Starke, found nothing—not a ducaat, a doubloon, or a diamond.

Last year, however, others were more fortunate. On September 26, 1921, this news item went the round of the papers:—"Some of the treasure which Jean Lafitte, the pirate, was supposed to have buried near Jefferson Island has been found. A New Orleans message states that several gold coins of ancient date have recently found their way into circulation, two of them bearing the date 1754. Two pots of gold are said to have been unearthed."
