Town and County News.

BOW BELLS.—Mr. J. Anderson has received Bow Bells for December—a capital number.

PERSONAL.—Mr. D. E. McMillan, formerly of this town, will shortly take his departure for the "Sunny South," in order to avoid the rigors of our Canadian winter, and recuperate his health. We wish him a safe and speedy return to the land of his nativity.

BOW BELLS AND SUNDAY AT HOME.—Mr. T. J. Day has sent us Bow Bells for December, nicely illustrated as usual, and containing a large amount of reading matter; also Sunday at Home, which contains some choice reading. Both periodicals for sale at Day's.

BELGAVIA ANNUAL.—Mr. J. Anderson has sent us the Belgavia Annual for 1873. It is edited, and contains several tales by Miss M. E. Bradton, author of "Lady Audley's Secret," &c., besides several other tales by well-known authors. It is splendidly illustrated. Copies for sale at Anderson's.

EAST PUBLISHING.—We understand that the Presbyterian Congregation of East Pauline has agreed by a large majority to moderate in a call to the Rev. Mr. Urquhart from the Presbyterian of Coburg. The names of two other ministers are in favor with a minority of the congregation, but we have no doubt that should it be decided to go with the call to Mr. Urquhart, all predilections will be merged in the common weal, and a hearty feeling of unanimity be displayed by all parties in the settlement of this gentleman over the important and flourishing congregation of East Pauline.

KEMP.—Availing ourselves of an opportunity presented by a visit of the County Council, at its recent session, to the goal, we inspected the quarters where Kemp is confined, and found them exceedingly clean and wonderfully comfortable. Kemp seemed to be dreadfully restless, both in manner and look, and pled hard with Chief Constable Kelly to obtain him permission to get into the prison yard occasionally, a request that the Chief told him he thought was very unlikely to be granted. He evidently dislikes his close confinement, and bemoaned to several of the visitors the hardships he considered he was undergoing in this respect. After seeing Kemp, we can readily understand why precautions are so necessary in his case as he thoroughly impresses one with the conviction of his possessing in no slight degree the evil devices of the cunning artifice in goal-breaking.

POLICE COURT.
Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., P. M.
Monday, Dec. 9.
Catherine Ogilvie charged by Chief Constable Kelly with being drunk on Macdonell-st. Fined $1 and costs, or 15 days in jail. (dv)

GHEBLET'S HEART BROKEN.—Rev. H. W. Beecher, Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, in alluding last Sunday to Mr. Greeley's death gave utterance to the following remark:—To-day a pall hangs over the nation, and all men's thoughts are turned towards a man who not long ago shone as the light in all our dwellings. A man whom I knew intimately; a man of great and varied power; a man of noble ambition, even if not the most wise; a man of enormous industry; a man that never undertook to do anything except that which was for the good, in his judgment, of the community in which he lived; a man that has gone successfully through a rough and stormy life, and then would have grasped a world-perishing honour, though not ignobly, but fell below it and died—broken-hearted. If you should write of him you should say: "A man that lived in stormy times and threw his heart and soul into what he thought the best interests of the community; who sought a yet higher honor, missed it, and died broken-hearted," for if ever a man died of a broken heart Horace Greeley was that man.

SIXTY PERSONS POISONED IN WATERFORD.—A few nights since Waterford was the scene of the wildest alarm and confusion. From the facts that came to our knowledge, it seems that Robert Weldon the day before had manufactured for the market a large quantity of head cheese. As it was the first of the season, the citizens bought it liberally, and many of them partook heartily of it for their tea. At about nine o'clock that night the alarm was given, the proprietor and inmates of the Howard House, one after another, being taken alarmingly ill. Physicians were summoned in hot haste, and from that time until morning the greatest panic prevailed. Altogether about sixty persons are poisoned. It is but fair to state that no blame is attached to Mr. Weldon. It is a mystery how the cheese became impregnated with the poison.

Local and Other Items.

Snow Storm.—A fall of snow to the depth of about two feet occurred in Bruce on Thursday evening, and the trains on the W. G. & B. Railway were in consequence considerably delayed.

RAILWAY BY-LAW CARRIED.—The by-law in Glesford for aid to the extension of the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railway from Clifford to Durham was carried on Saturday by 893 majority.

MURDER NEAR BARRIE.—James Carruthers, residing near Ivy, in the Township of Essex, killed his wife on Friday by knocking her brains out. They have had an unhappy life for some years.

A DELEGATION has been appointed to wait upon the Quebec Legislature to urge upon them the necessity of increasing the land grant in aid of the Northern Colonization Railway from Aylmer to Deep River.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE will shortly publish a memorial volume, containing an obituary notice of Mr. Greeley, and an account of his last illness, the popular honor to his remains at the City Hall, the final obsequies, and some of the more careful editorial tributes from the Tribune and other journals.

ACCORDING to last week's Canington Gleaner, the editor of that paper was brutally assaulted by a man named John Brown, on Monday week last. The fellow's brother, Neil Brown, was lurking near, to assist if necessary. The man was taken into custody and committed for trial at the General Sessions to be held next week.

TORONTO, GREY AND BRUCE RAILWAY.—Track-laying is being vigorously pushed forward on the Grey extension of this line. On Saturday Mr. Shanly, the contractor, had the track laid as far as Eleebrother. At the Owen Sound end Messrs. Mackenzie & Co., have now nearly completed 20 miles of track-laying, and by Christmas a junction will be made with Toronto and Owen Sound to be united by rail.

CLIFFORD.—In this neighborhood there is now excellent sleighing, and large quantities of farm produce are being brought into the market there, and which meet with a good and ready sale by the produce merchants of the village. We have no doubt that the same good fortune awaits sellers and buyers along the various market towns on the railway route.

UNDER the Free Grant Act of 1872, the Government of New Brunswick offer 142,000 acres of the public lands of that Province to intending settlers. Any ten persons, residents in the Province or non-residents, forming an association and applying together, can obtain 100 acres each, and on clearing two acres each will receive from the Government $15 a piece, and have roads located to and through the Township.

Following the dinner given by the leading, commercial and railway men of Hamilton to Mr. Geo. Lowe Reid on Thursday evening last, that gentleman himself last night entertained at dinner his friends and fellow-workers of the G. W. R. engineers' staff to the number of about 70. In the course of the evening the members of the staff presented him with a silver fruit stand, handsome album, two bronze statuettes, also a set of valuable jewellery to Mrs. Reid.

NEWS ITEMS
One of Mr. Gladstone's critics writes that in can say less in a larger space than any other man alive.
Sir Hugh Allan and others propose to establish a beet-root sugar refinery at Montreal.
Good news! A general decline in iron is reported in England and the United States.
Ottawa telegrams announce that the grand tower of the Parliament Buildings is to be ornamented with an illuminated clock.
Last week 1,147,000 pounds of cheese were shipped from New York for Liverpool.
A queer country is China; a country where roses have no fragrance and women no petticoats; where laborer has no Sabbath and the magistrate no sense of honor; where the roads bear no vehicles and the ships no keel; where old men fly kites and the needle points to the south; where the place of honor is on the left hand and the seat of intellect in the stomach; where to take off your hat is an insolent gesture, and to wear white garments is mourning; which has a literature without an alphabet and a language without a grammar.
London burglars have hit upon a dangerous experiment to draw off the scent from their exploits. It appears that, after entering and ransacking a house they upon leaving set it on fire in three or four places, without any regard for the lives which they thus jeopardize. A discovery has been made at the Marquis of Granby Tavern, Chandos street, which seems to afford conclusive proof of the existence of this practice, and several cases of a precisely similar nature have also been called to mind by the discoverer.
We say THEY ARE GOOD.—The Shoshonees Pills are manufactured with the utmost care, scrutiny, and exactness, from the very active principles, doubly refined and purified, of such of the vegetable kingdom as to possess them of properties that only meet in harmony the exigencies of every ingredient entering into the composition of the Shoshonees Remedy, and also that gives the Pills themselves more desirable qualities for general use, than any family pill before the public. On account of the extreme mildness and yet great certainty in action of the Pills, as well as their strengthening and healing effects on the stomach and bowels, and in fact the whole system; along with their purgative and restorative action on the liver, kidneys, skin, &c., &c., we say on account of their superior qualities, the Pills are placed on sale as a Family Medicine.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT IN ACTON!
MAN BURNED TO DEATH IN HIS HOUSE!
(From our correspondent.)
Any person acquainted with Acton and its vicinity will have observed a shanty by the side of the Grand Trunk Railway track, on the western approach to the village. In this shanty Patrick Powers has lived for a number of years, being engaged as a labourer on this section of the railroad, and, notwithstanding they have had a large family to support, he has, by the assistance of his wife, saved some money, and they have been noted for their industry and frugality. Mrs. Powers managing, by her labours throughout the village, to support the family and save nearly if not the whole of her husband's earnings. They have thus been occasionally enabled to let out a few hundred dollars on interest. Being quiet people and industrious they had the well wishes of the people, and many a wayfarer who has been shown the cold shanty because of apparent poverty by others, has found a shelter and a welcome in Patrick's shanty; and, indeed, the calamity we are about to chronicle may possibly be attributed to his charity and characteristic warm-heartedness. The facts as near as we can learn are as follows:—
An old woman sought shelter on Saturday night, which was stormy, and obtained permission to sleep on the floor. Between four and five o'clock on Sunday morning, the 8th inst., one of the children happening to awake, aroused the mother, who at once discovered their dwelling to be in flames and so close upon them that they barely had time to escape in their night clothes. Powers first got his children out and then the old woman referred to, who had to be dragged out in an apparent state of insensibility, and which is thought to have been occasioned by liquor, which she had brought with her. After the escape of Powers and his family they were proceeding to a neighbor's house for shelter, when he observed to his wife that he had forgotten to let the cow out of the stable (which was adjoining the house) and then asked her if she had thought to save the money, to which she replied no; he at once returned and released the cow, and then rushed into the flaming house to lay hold of a box containing the money, about $600. What occurred at this moment of attempt no one knows for no one was near; but at six o'clock when the flames had spent their fury, the lifeless and charred body of poor Powers lay among the ruins scarcely recognizable as a human being, his legs and arms and part of his head being off, and the rest of his body burnt to a cinder. Various surmises are afloat as to the origin of the fire, the general opinion being that it was caused by the old woman referred to smoking. The remains of Powers were conveyed to the freight house, there to await an inquest or interment to-day (Monday.) It is needless to add that the utmost sympathy is felt for

Mrs. Powers and her family in this their sad affliction.

Acton, Dec. 9, 1872.
Wellington County Council.
Saturday.
The Council met this morning at nine o'clock. Present, the Warden in the chair, and all the members.
The minutes of previous meeting were read and confirmed.
On motion of Mr. Connell, the By-law to incorporate the village of Harrison was read a third time and passed.
On motion of Mr. Robinson, the By-law erecting Mount Forest into a High School District, with the names of the Trustees already mentioned, was read a third time and passed.
Mr. Stevenson read the report of the Commissioners of Arthur and Mount Forest Road for 1871, showing that $9,196.20 had been expended, leaving a balance of $27.17, which Mr. Gordon, late Reeve, will hand over to the proper official on demand.
Mr. Leslie read the report of the Committee on County Roads. Adopted.
The report shows, as already detailed in the various Road Commissioners Reports, that the cost of repairs has been $6,241.13; Commissioners services $413.64; total expenditure $6,654.77. The sum realized by the sale of Toll Houses, and appurtenances has been $667.13.
The Committee recommended that the account of Mr. John Molloy, P. L. S., be sent to the several Road Commissioners who authorized the work; they also recommended that any unexpended balance of $60 per mile on any of the County Roads should remain at the credit of such road until next season.
Dr. Orton presented an account from the House of Industry Committee, showing that $14 were due the Committee for attendance of its members; and $3 for postage. Recommended to be paid.
Mr. Leslie presented the report of the Finance Committee. Adopted.
The Committee recommended the payment of the various accounts as presented; and recommended no action upon Dr. Henry's communication; with reference to the communication of Mr. Thos. Rose, Deputy Reeve of Peel, recommending that the matter be arranged between the Warden and Mr. Rose; also recommended no action in the matter of funeral expenses of Michael Kelly, (a vagrant who died in the County gaol) as applied for by town of Guelph.
Mr. Massie read the following report of the County Property Committee, and which was adopted.
The report states that they have had the necessary repairs made to Guelph Registry Office and Court House at a cost of $131.43. They found the roof not sufficiently strong to carry a covering of slate, and it being difficult to get a satisfactory roofing of iron, they had it covered with shingles, well laid in mortar. The Solicitor reports that he has now obtained a satisfactory title to the land purchased for the North Riding Registry Office; the architect reports that the Registry Building will be ready by the 20th inst. The cost is as follows:
Land and expenses connected therewith..... $336 00
Contractors tender for construction..... 3320 00
Architect, commission and expenses..... 186 00
Printing and advertising..... 19 50
$3861 10
The Committee's expenses are $150.25, and the following accounts are recommended to be paid:
Mills & Goodfellow, repairs at jail, $33 50
Wm. Nichols, extra work at Court House, whitewashing, &c..... 35 00
J. F. Holtinger, rent of house for N. R. Registry Office in Arthur, 73 00
They also recommend that the matter of building a vault in Master of Chancery's office be laid over till the January meeting, as the work of constructing a vault cannot be done satisfactorily at this time of the year, and as the Clerk of the County Court desires some alterations in his office, the whole can be reported on at the same time.
They have ordered the jail wall to be repaired, and would invite the attention of the Auditors of Criminal Justice to the account for payment of Turnkey, since the Government ceased to furnish said Turnkey's salary.
Mr. Darby was then moved to the chair, when the following resolution, moved by Mr. Leslie, seconded by Mr. Vanstout, was cordially and unanimously passed:
That the thanks of this County are due and hereby tendered to the Warden for the courtesy and impartiality with which he has presided over the deliberations of the Council during the present year, and for the close and careful manner in which he has discharged the duties of his office, and that the sum of one hundred and forty dollars be granted to him as part compensation for the expenses incurred by him in attending to the various matters throughout the County. (Applause.)
The Warden briefly and heartily thanked the Council for their kindly expressions of feeling towards him—a feeling he just as heartily reciprocated towards them—and hoped that the same harmony would characterize the future Council, as has been the case in the one now expiring.
This closed the business, and the Council rose.
A wonderful invention in telegraphing has just been perfected and is now in operation in Toronto and Montreal.—By its aid messages can be sent and received over one wire simultaneously.—Hitherto this was regarded as impossible, but by means of the new instrument, which is called Siemens' Duplex, it is shown to be quite practicable, and must prove most valuable, as it will double the capacity of telegraph lines. This invention will be of great advantage to the telegraph companies and the public generally.

The Railway Embroglio.

The Pacific Railway scheme, which many thought would have strengthened on the present Dominion Government, and give it a renewed lease of life, threatens to be the rock on which it will split and fall to pieces.

During the past week a number of speculators, capitalists and members of Parliament, who belong to either of the two companies who have induced the Government to give them the contracts for its construction, have been in Ottawa, attempting to make an arrangement by which their rival interests may be united, and by which they can present a united front, in maturing and executing their plans for extorting as much money as they possibly can, in carrying out this gigantic enterprise.

Editorial Items.

An Indian war has broken out in Oregon, where probably the ill-starred aborigines suffer more cruelty and injustice from the pioneers of civilization than in any other portion of the United States.

The revenue of the Dominion for the month ended 30th November—from the following sources: customs, excise, post office, public works including railways, bill stamps, and miscellaneous—was $1,862,697.81; the expenditure for the same period was $1,770,546.84.

The appointment of Mr. S. H. Blake as Vice-Chancellor grinds hard upon some of the true-blue Tories. The fact is that Sir John had little or no choice as between Reformers and Conservatives, and, therefore, did the next best thing, viz., selected a thoroughly competent man, and one the appointment of whom, outside of political feeling, would be likely to give satisfaction to the legal profession.

A CALL TO ARMS.—We notice that the Brantford Tories are doing their best to follow out the advice of the Mail in regard to the Municipal elections. Some two or three meetings of the faithful have been held, a genuine Tory ticket has been formed, which the Courier parades in its biggest type, with very significant and sensational headings, and the rank and file of the party are advised to work as one man for the support of the gentleman named. The Courier gives additional emphasis to this appeal by frantically calling on all true followers of Sir John to mount the breach, even though the attempt is only a forlorn hope, so that these horrid Grits be kept out of office.

Next door to J. M. Bond's Hardware Store, when you want Clothing, just walk in and see our immense stock. W. GALLOWAY Guelph, Dec. 2, 1872 likely that such will be the result of the Mail's foolish and wicked advice, which the Brantford Tories have been equally wicked and foolish in acting on.

Manitoba as a Field for the Emigrant.

Mr. R. W. Hermon, surveyor, who has been in Manitoba for two years, and travelled through a great part of the Province, thus writes to the Guelph Herald.—From the 1st of May till, say, August 1st, the rain falls abundantly. The value of the crops is an estimate of the agricultural wealth of the country, cannot be too highly prized. All the leading cereals of vegetation are thus made complete, viz., potatoes of soil, warmth of summer, and plenty of moisture. The result is that all grains yield incredibly; wheat, oats, rye, barley, often from 40 to 50 bushels on 50 bushels from the acre. The hay crops are still more remarkable. The finest potatoes we ever saw are grown there. This quantity and quality are unsurpassed in America. Turnips, mangels, carrots and parsnips thrive excellently and with very light labor.

The soil is mostly a rich, black, clay loam, very mellow when once fairly broken and cultivated.

Towards the western part of the Province the soil is more sandy but of good quality. About one-half of the entire Province is timbered and the other half beautiful prairie. The wooded belts and islands vary in size, from a few acres to thousands, according to the amount of protection from fire. Elevated portions are usually wooded. All lakes and rivers have more or less timber in their vicinity. The prevailing notion which people unacquainted with the country have that there is a general scarcity of wood, is a great mistake. There is abundance for all practical purposes for the next thirty years—and long ere that time the great coal fields will be developed. The means of access by rail and otherwise will also be provided. The line of the Canada Pacific Railway will pass through the great pineries to the North and East. Thus fears on the ground of fuel and lumber are groundless.

For stock-raising the country offers some of the finest opportunities in the world. There are great meadows extending sometimes for many miles, where thousands of tons of hay may be had merely for the gathering. These also afford good pasturage. It is a country in which any industrious person or family may do well.

The soil is rich and productive beyond description. The climate is salubrious and pleasant—somewhat colder perhaps in winter than Ontario, but warmer in summer, while the spring and autumn are delightful. Summer frosts are not frequent. The air is clear, the sky blue and the sun shines brightly for weeks in succession—without a cloudy day.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN OSHTAWA.—A fire broke out in Oshawa on Sunday evening, which consumed a number of stores with their contents. Had it not been for the timely aid of the Whitty fire brigade much more damage would have been done. The loss is roughly estimated at about $40,000.

During the latter part of his life, Dickens made from $40,000 to $45,000 a year.

CHAPTER XXIX.

FRIENDS IN COUNCIL—EVIL NEWS FROM AND-
GOWAN—THE SUDDEN JOURNEY.

The three friends entered the room below, and, as if by magic, the scene from which they had just come—the scene of Walley's death. The last moments of a fellow mortal have a very seducing effect, even though the grief of friendship or relationship be not added to deepen it. This personal grief was absent in the present case, for Walley was known to them only by his dark mental eclipse and by his connection with the parents of George. There was no past intercourse to be remembered, yet their knowledge of his sad history and faithful devotion awoke their pity and gratitude, and increased the solemnity of the spectacle and the awful mystery of death. Even Dr. Manby, who was familiar with the sight, and had come to look upon it with the usual professional indifference, was greatly moved, and was as silent as the others for some moments after they entered the sitting-room.

Harry was the first to speak, and his mode of breaking the stillness was for an instant astonishing to both. He had been looking steadfastly at George from the time they came within the threshold, and the expression on his face was that of agony and crushing shame. "Oh, George, George!" he cried with a groan, "how can I look you in the face?"

And he sank down on the sofa and buried his head in the cushion. They turned round and regarded him in mute amazement, utterly unable to comprehend the cause of his singular conduct.

"My gracious, Harry! what's the matter?" exclaimed George, running towards him and pressing his hand on his shoulder.

"If you cast me from you, if you spurn me away with loathing and contempt, I have no right to complain."

In serious alarm George took a firm grasp of Harry's shoulder, and with gentle yet resistless force turned his face towards him. Then he saw the terrible state in which his friend was, and in the utmost anxiety and consternation cried out—

"Harry, in heaven's name what is this? What is the cause of such distress?"

"Who am I?" asked Harry looking at George, with heavy bloodshot eyes. "Who are you? My friend, my brother."

"Ay, once I was—once I enjoyed that blessing; but now, now I am—"

"Who—what?"

"The son of Captain Gibson," burst forth Harry, with wild abandonment. "The son of the man who has wronged you so heavily, who has defrauded you of your inheritance, doomed you to poverty and obscurity, robbed you of your name and your family, done you all manner of foul injuries; I am the son of that man, and can no longer be called your friend."

"Hush—hush! No more of these wild words. You are, you can be to me no other than you were, Harry Markham—the friend of my heart, the husband of Caroline, the brother of Lillias—"

"And the cherished friend of Lister Manby," cried the doctor, coming forward and taking Harry's hand. "What nonsense, Harry, to give way to such an idea as this. Why, it is the greatest wrong to George that could be done him to imagine that this discovery would make any difference in his feelings towards you. Compared with such a thought on your part, your father's behavior is ungallant."

"Oh, Manby, you cannot know or imagine the state into which I am thrown. I could grovel the very earth, at the remembrance that I am the son of such a man."

"Pah! we don't live under the old law when the iniquities of the fathers were visited on the children. You are not responsible for the doing of Captain Gibson."

"Still he is my father, and the disgrace clings to me."

"No more of this, Hal, if you love me," said George. "Your father may have yielded to temptation, but the tempter—the arch fiend, is Nathan Garret. But for his diabolical imposition Captain Gibson would not have entered on the evil course."

"A man of honor and integrity would have scorned the temptation," rejoined Harry, bitterly. "Don't seek to palliate his crime, George, for it admits of no excuse. My only source of consolation lies in the fact that exposure and punishment will soon overtake them both. Little do they know the Nemesis that approaches them—open dishonor, social ruin, beggary, and worse. Oh, I glory at the thought of it."

"Gently, gently," rejoined George, "we must not be blindly vindictive. The father of Lillias Gibson cannot be proceeded against by me."

Harry started up in breathless and indignant astonishment.
