IMPROVEMENTS BY ELEC. LIGHT CO.

Bridgetown Co. Doubling Capacity of Dam and Making Improvements at Power House

The Bridgetown Electric Light Co. have commenced to take time by the forelock and obviate such failures in service as occurred last summer by reason of the prevailing droughts.

The work started last fall of building a dam at the Power House was completed this week and when completed will ensure a supply of water double that contained in last year's dam. A dam is also to be built at Lake Godfrey, about seven miles from town. There are one or two other lakes in the string acquired by the Bridgetown company, all of these being connected by streams. A full conservation of the supplies from these would not likely be needed in many years so that the company is provided with ample potential resources for all possible requirements. There is 215 feet of head. The Power House is being put into first class shape this season, and the company have now arranged for a further sale of current to West Paradise where there are about thirty-five homes to be supplied. The local company there are putting up poles and having wiring done. The Bridgetown Co. sell them the current.

In the course of time it is the intention of the local company when business appears to them to warrant it to have a day service for power users.

BEER CASE TRIED

Some Able Fluids—Decision Reserved

The case against Arthur Sims, charged with keeping beer for sale contrary to the terms of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act, was tried on Monday afternoon before Stipendiary Magistrate F. R. Fay. A large number of witnesses were examined and there was quite an amount of contradictory evidence. It was alleged in one part of the trial that the sale of beer for analysis was not made at the date on which the case was entered.

W. G. Parsons, K. C., conducted the prosecution and O. S. Miller, K. C., the defence. In view of the nature of the evidence his honor took the case in deliberation and announces the decision on Wednesday. The beer analysed is said to have had all the necessary elements which give a kick and a first class jag.

EXTENSION OF TRAIN SERVICE

The Co-Operation of Bridgetown and Annapolis is Requested By the Committee

Mr. W. H. Maxwell, Secretary of the Bridgetown Board of Trade, is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Geo. Thomson, Jr., giving a resume of business done at the Berwick meeting with regard to approaching the Management of the Dominion Atlantic Railway with a view of urging the resumption for the summer of a night and morning train from Kentville to Annapolis Royal. The letter also announced the determination of taking the question up with the Board of Railway Commissioners should the company be unwilling to put on the service asked for.

A resume of proceedings at the meeting referred to above will be found in another column. Mr. Thomson, on behalf of the committee, is seeking the co-operation of the Bridgetown and Annapolis Boards of Trade and the sending of delegates from these bodies to another meeting to be held at an early date. All statistical matter which can be brought to bear on the question to strengthen the case of the petitioners will, in the meantime, be secured. The resumption of the train service which is desired would be a matter of great public convenience in a variety of ways which we may refer to in other issues of THE MONITOR. There is, too, the financial end of the matter, which is, naturally, the great consideration with corporations and business interests generally. All these considerations will be dealt with from all angles in the very near future. It is trusted that a satisfactory arrangement will be arrived at after a conference with the D. A. R. Management.

Mr. Patterson Foster made a visit to Smith's Cove this week and on his return home was accompanied by Mrs. Foster, who has spent some weeks with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster.

FREE DELIVERY OF EXPRESS GOODS

Leading Officials of Dom. Express Co. Look Into Matter, Outcome Still Problematic.

J. J. Murray, Gen. Mgr. Dom. Express Co., Toronto; C. N. Ham, Sec. Dom. Express Traffic Association, Montreal; F. W. Branncombe, Supt., Montreal; J. E. Haycock, Asst. Supt. Eastern Division, St. John, spent some hours in town on Friday looking into matters in connection with the local express business. There have been efforts made to secure delivery locally of goods coming in by express, and some difficulties were presented in connection with the establishment of free delivery of goods. One point was the fact that merchandise carried by express comes into town handled by two companies, the Dominion carrying goods over the Dominion Atlantic Railway and the Canadian National carrying over the C. N. R. One necessary move toward free delivery would be to have express goods come all by the one company, and in that case there would have to be a balancing adjustment made elsewhere at some point where conditions at least approximated those found here.

The officials named above discussed the matter at some length with Mr. W. H. Maxwell, who represents the Dominion people in the sale and handling of Money Orders. Conditions with regard to free carrying service are set forth in the ruling made on July 19th, 1919, by the Board of Railway Commissioners and among other things this stipulates a population of at least 1,000 within a half mile square. Bridgetown has sufficient population to come up to the conditions and considerably exceed them but the distribution of its population is over a wider area and is much less dense than in many places where a free delivery system is carried out.

The matter may be gone into further a little later on. The railway stations are on opposite sides of the town and over a mile apart, so that a free delivery of express goods would be appreciated by many residents and business men. Whether such a condition may be expected in the near future remains still to be seen. It is between the express companies and the rulings of the Board of Railway Commissioners defining where such deliveries must be made.

VICTORY

The Rev. A. W. L. Smith held service here Wednesday.

Miss Eva Darres is spending a few days with friends in Bear River.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Sarah Wagner is recovering from her illness.

Miss Bertha Simpson, of the Kentville Sanatorium staff, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Simpson.

We wish to convey our best wishes for a successful career to the new editor and staff. We see a decided improvement in the paper even at this early date.

TO OUR READERS

County Annual Baptist District Meeting and a large amount of local matter crowded out will appear in our next issue which will contain twelve pages. The time has arrived when eight pages gives too small a paper. Our aim is to please our readers and satisfy our advertisers and avoid any longer carrying over local and outside correspondence.

PLANS FOR THE BRIDGETOWN RINK

Will Be Presented At Meeting on Monday Night. Permanent Directors to Be Elected

On Monday night at eight o'clock there will be a meeting in the Board of Trade rooms of all interested in the proposed skating and curling rink for the town, and it is most desirable that there be a full attendance. Come and boost the movement which is to add the finishing touches toward putting Bridgetown on the athletic map the year round.

Permanent directors will be elected at the meeting. Plans for the building are being completed by architect L. R. Fair and will be presented at Monday night's meeting.

OBITUARY

MRS. HENRY CALNEK

At her home, Granville Centre, Sunday afternoon, May 7th, the death occurred of Annie M. relict of the late Henry Calnek, Esq., and second Mary Ann (Withers) Eaton. Deceased was born August 20th, 1838, and to her was given a pilgrimage in this life of eighty-three years and nine months. With the best of health until two weeks ago, when she was stricken with what proved to be her last illness. All that medical skill and loving hands could do was done, but the life-work was finished, the "Come up higher" was heard. Although she had looked eagerly forward to and made many plans for the summer, when she could get out around, being a dear lover of nature. With her unflinching faith in Christ as one who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask and think. She leaned upon His everlasting arms, and passed submissionally and peacefully into the spirit world to live forever in His presence. She will be much missed in the home, in the church, in the U. B. Church, and W. M. A. S., where for years she has been an earnest member and supporter. She leaves to mourn her loss, one son, Jacob W. Calnek, of Granville Centre, and two daughters, Laura, wife of Rev. A. M. Bent, Rector at Kentville, and Emma, wife of H. W. Longley, of Paradise, who faithfully nursed her mother during her last illness; besides, grand-children and great grand-children; also two brothers, Wm. T. Eaton, Brookline, Mass., and Dr. A. J. Eaton, Montreal.

The funeral was held from her late home, Tuesday afternoon, May 9th, conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. Gibson, assisted by Rev. Mr. Mellor, of the Anglican Church. The music in charge of Prof. Morse, of Annapolis, was most effectively rendered, especially the duet by Mrs. Arnold Eaton and Prof. Morse, "The Christian Good-night." A favorite hymn of the deceased, "Abide With Me," was sung by the choir, also "Asleep in Jesus." Interment was made in the Churchyard of All Saints Anglican, beside her husband.

The sympathies of all are extended to the bereaved family in their sorrow.

FALKLAND RIDGE

Mr. Wm. Veno drove to New Germany May 11th, returning the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. John McMullen drove to New Germany May 8th to see her sister, Mrs. Wm. Estey.

Mrs. Elton Saunders, of East Dalhousie, is the guest of her brothers, A. C. and George Roup.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Marshall and Miss Marion Marshall attended the quarterly meetings at Paradise, May 9th.

Mrs. Emerson Wagner and son, Wilbert, left Wednesday for Halifax, where Wilbert has gone to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Edgar Mason went to New Albany on Tuesday to collect the County rates. On his return on Wednesday he was accompanied by Mrs. Ada Fair.

Bamford Oickle, of Pine Grove, Lunenburg County, is the guest of his brother, Edgar Oickle, and family, Angus Kaulbach, of the same place, accompanied him.

Local Happenings

Hear the Sunflower Quartette.

Next Wednesday, May 24th, being a public holiday, THE MONITOR will be issued on Tuesday. To ensure insertion, advertisers are requested to send in changes not later than Saturday noon. We thank you.

The King's College Varsity Troupe will put on the three act comedy "Ann" at the Primrose Theatre on Friday evening, May 19th. All who witnessed the play "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" last season will not want to miss this one.

Dominion Atlantic train No. 97 leaving Halifax at 3.20 p.m. will run through to Annapolis on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 23rd and 24th, returning from Annapolis at 5.15 a.m. Wednesday and Thursday, May 24th and 25th.

A large number of the young people of the Baptist Church attended the Annapolis Valley Young People's Rally at Paradise, on Tuesday afternoon and evening of this week. They were conveyed there and back by cars, and all report a splendid time.

The proceeds from the annual Tennis Dance of the Bridgetown Tennis and Quilt Club amounted to $50.00. This will greatly assist the Club in equipping their new grounds, which they hope to have completed by May the 24th, or June 3rd at the latest.

At a business meeting of the Baptist Church on Wednesday evening last the resignation of George Dixon as Superintendent of the Sunday School was accepted. Mr. Dixon will be greatly missed in this capacity as he has held the office for nearly thirty-eight years.

The Women's Institute held a very successful Rummage and Apron sale in the J. W. Beckwith store on Saturday last. This is the second of such sales, and we hope it will not be the last for you can generally find just what you want at them and at a very greatly reduced price.

Work has begun on the installation of telephone connections with the Davis Fisheries, New Edinburg. Workmen are engaged in placing poles along the shore road. It is also the intention of the company to put in a radio plant so that communication with the headoffice at Gloucester may be had daily. This firm is now in full operation. They have purchased considerable fresh fish, which so far, this year seem to be plentiful. The company shipped eight crates of lobsters and forty boxes of canned finnan haddies on Tuesday to Boston.

BANQUET IN I. O. O. F. HALL

Baptist Ladies' Philathea Class Tender Banquet to Men's Brotherhood

The banquet given by the ladies of the Philathea Class of the Baptist Church to the members of the Men's Brotherhood and to Mr. Brown's classes will take place on Monday night, May 22nd, at 6.30, in the Odd-fellows Hall. About three hundred persons are eligible to attend this, the biggest affair of its kind ever held in Bridgetown.

Proceedings commence with banquet at 6.30. This will be followed by a sing song. Toasts, with short speeches by a number of prominent citizens of the town, then by a musical program of merit, after which an address will be delivered by Hon. O. T. Daniels, Attorney General of Nova Scotia. The whole programme will be replete with interest and afford ample variety and enjoyment.

A NEW ORCHARD PEST

(By Prof. W. H. Brittain, Truro, N.S.)

The apple sucker is a well-known enemy of the apple in Europe, but has only recently been discovered in Nova Scotia, where its presence in the Wolfville district was first detected two years ago. It was doubtless originally introduced on nursery stock, as the eggs are laid upon the twigs. It is now increasing rapidly and spreading, chiefly in an easterly direction.

The injury of the insect is caused by sucking the juice from leaves and blossoms, weakening them and causing them to shrivel and die in severe cases. In ordinary numbers the insect is not nearly so injurious as many native insects, but as they sometimes become extremely abundant, it is a pest that must be reckoned with by the fruit growers.

The young insects secrete a considerable quantity of sweet, whitish, sticky liquid, which may drip from the trees upon passing objects and is one of the most conspicuous features of their work.

Though hatching occurs as the young leaves are unfolding, control measures have been found impracticable until the "blossom pink" spray, owing to the habit of the insect of entering the opening buds, where it remains immune to the treatment until the flower stalks have spread apart, preparatory to blossoming. At this period they may be destroyed by nicotine sprays or dusts, though this treatment is expensive and it is hoped that more satisfactory methods may be devised.

GREAT GROWTH IN CANADA'S TRADE

A comparison of Dominion trade in the fiscal years 1900-01; 1910-11 and 1920-21 was given to the House of Commons recently in reply to a question asked by G. G. Coote, Progressive member for MacLeod, Alberta. In the fiscal year 1900-01 the total trade was $372,209,837, of which $17,700,694 were imports entered for consumption and $194,509,143 were exports. Ten years later in the fiscal year 1910-11 the total trade had grown to a valuation of $741,745,837, of which $451,745,108 was for imports and $290,000,729 for exports. At the end of the next decade both imports and exports showed a great growth, the total trade then being valued at $2,450,587,001, of which $1,240,158,882 was for imports and $1,210,428,119 for exports.

LORD LISTER & Zam-Buk

Lord Lister's discovery of antiseptic surgery has saved the world a lot of lives, but it has been left to Zam-Buk to bring into millions of homes the full benefits of antiseptic healing. Zam-Buk is the greatest antiseptic healer the world has ever known. Being of a natural vegetable origin Zam-Buk has distinct and positive advantages over old-style mineral ointments.

Zam-Buk is a compact and highly-refined herbal balm with an antiseptic power many times greater than that of any ordinary salve or ointment. Zam-Buk kills and excludes disease germs, and instantly allays pain and irritation. It fits cleanses a sore place and then grows over it new healthy skin. As a first-aid dressing for injuries, and for rooting-out such troubles as eczema, ulcers, ringworm, abscesses, poisoned wounds and piles, Zam-Buk is used the world over. It has the high endorsement of Dr. Andrew Wilson and other well-known doctors, surgeons and nurses. 50c. Box, 3 for $1.25, all dealers.

AMERICANS TO MAKE TEST CASE OF U. S. SHOONER SEIZED OUTSIDE THREE MILE LIMIT

(By Canadian Forestry Association.)

Boston.—The recent seizure by coast-guard cutters of the 24-ton schooner Grace and Ruby, run by the schooner company of Yarmouth, N. S., with 20,000 quarters of liquor aboard, is to be made a test case and carried to the Supreme Court of the United States to determine whether the Government has any jurisdiction over vessels outside the three mile limit. This was announced by a United States attorney, who is acting under special instructions from Attorney General Daugherty in Washington. On the decision he said would depend the release or forfeiture of run-runners seized anywhere in the country.

The Government has asked that the ship be forfeited. The answer of Walter D. Sweeney, of Yarmouth, N. S., the owner, has just been filed. He contends that the Federal courts have no jurisdiction and that the seizure was made contrary to international law and also the laws of the United States. More than three miles from the nearest United States shore, the Grace and Ruby was taken in tow by the cutter Tampa some distance off Salem on February 23rd, and brought here.

Forfeiture proceedings begun by the Government in the cases of a dozen other run-runners, including the Henry L. Marshall, that was captured off the New Jersey coast, have been held pending the decision on the Grace and Ruby. It is understood that instructions have been sent from Washington to District Attorney Harri s, to get the Grace and Ruby case before the high tribunal at the earliest moment.

MOVEMENT FOR BETTER TRAIN SERVICE

That vexed question, the re-establishment of the "Owl" train service between Kentville and Annapolis, and better train service in general throughout the Valley, was the topic of a lively discussion in Victoria Hall last Friday afternoon when a strong committee of delegates from Middleton, Aylesford, Kentville, Berwick, Waterville and Somerset met for the purpose of furthering plans for appealing to the railway for the restoration of this much needed passenger and express service.

Mr. W. P. Parker was appointed chairman of the meeting, and R. W. Harris, Aylesford, Secretary.

Among the prominent and influential citizens of Western Kings and Annapolis Counties who were present and took part in the discussion were A. L. Davidson, ex-M.P. for Annapolis County; W. G. Parsons, F. E. Cox and O. P. Goucher, Middleton; Mr. Reid, Aylesford; F. M. Chute, Waterville; H. G. Harris, Kentville; T. H. Morse, Somerset, and G. P. Raymond, Berwick.

The unanimous opinion of the meeting was that the present railway service in this, the most prosperous and progressive fruit section of the Annapolis Valley, which, by the way, is recognized as being the most productive and prosperous portion of this fair Dominion, is entirely inadequate for present day needs, both as respects passenger and express accommodation.

All of those present felt that they were not appealing for a favor from the Railway Commission to whom the matter will be presented by the following gentlemen named as executive committee to represent the united Boards of Trade, and other sections not fortunate enough to have a Board of Trade in their midst: A. L. Davidson, Middleton; A. E. McMahon, Kentville; J. N. Chute, Berwick; R. W. Harris, Aylesford; F. M. Chute, Waterville.—Berwick Register.

MIDDLETON NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Fales arrived home this week after a month's trip to Boston and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Davidson, of Boston, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelley, Wilmot.

Mr. F. R. Elliott, M.P.P., has received news of the death of his brother, Dr. J. H. Elliott, Chicago.

Mrs. C. A. Mumford was the hostess at an exceedingly jolly ladies' bridge on Friday evening, given in honor of her daughter, Mrs. J. E. LeMoine, of Amherst. Prize winners: Mrs. Feindel and Mrs. Cecil Parsons.

Mayor W. G. Parsons entertained the members of the Town Council and town officers at dinner on Saturday evening, at his residence on School Street. The guests were: Ex-Mayor Durling, Deputy Mayor W. F. C. Parsons, Town Solicitor A. L. Davidson, Town Clerk S. H. Morrison, Kirkpatrick and Power. Two others were unable to be present. The evening was afterwards passed very pleasantly at the Princess Theatre.

Sport lovers in our town will be glad to know that permission has been given by the Town Council to enlarge the tennis grounds. New courts are to be made on part of the old baseball diamond, thus giving a chance for four or five sets to be played simultaneously. The balance of the athletic grounds will be ploughed and then seeded down. We hope, in time, to make this one of the "beauty spots" of the town.

—Halifax Chronicle.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON FORESTRY

(By Canadian Forestry Association.)

Q. Is there such a thing as a scientific fire finder used in Canadian forestry services for the detection of forest fires from lookout towers?

A. In several parts of the Dominion our government forest services utilize what is called the Osborne forest fire finder. This is a most interesting device mounted in lookout towers whereby the ranger in charge can quickly and exactly locate from a whiff of smoke on the horizon the position of the fire and with that knowledge can direct his men where to go. The fire finder cannot be described in much detail but roughly consists of a metal disc on which is mounted a map of the district. The lookout station represents the centre of the disc. By swinging the disc so that the fighting device is leveled directly on the fire, the observer is able to fix the location of the trouble with precision and then proceeds to telephone to the rangers nearest the fire giving them instructions where to go.

Q. How much of Canada's forests is denuded each year for the manufacture of pulp and paper?

A. About four million cords are cut each year in this country, valued in the rough at forty-five million dollars and from which pulp and paper products are produced to the value of over two hundred million dollars. More than ninety per cent. of these values is furnished by the wood of four kinds of trees of which spruce is chief.

Q. Is there any reliable information as to how much of our Dominion forests has been sacrificed to forest fires in the past century?

A. Dr. C. D. Howe, head of the Forest School of the University of Toronto, estimates that from one half to two-thirds of the forested area of Canada, or, in other words, around one million square miles has been burned within the past fifty years. Dr. Howe further estimates that the forest areas have been so denuded of the larger-sized timbers that to-day less than twelve per cent. of the land area of the country contains timber of the size demanded by a modern lumber mill.

Dr. Howe's comment as to the effect of forest fires is highly interesting. He says that "of the million square miles of our forest inheritance that has been devastated by fire, much has been burned not only once but two, three, and even half a dozen times. These repeated fires on the same area render abortive Nature's attempt to reclothe the old burns with commercial valuable trees. Whole townships that once supported magnificent forests of pine or spruce are now, because of repeated burning, covered with worthless brush or trees of no market value."

PORTRAIT OF PRINCE
BY MRS. McAVITY

Talented Lady a Farmer Resident Executes Commission With Rare Fidelity.

For some little time back English and Canadian magazines have carried photo cuts of Mrs. H. H. McAvity, daughter of Mr. John Irvin, K. C., of Bridgetown.

To this talented and versatile artist was accorded the honor of painting the portrait of the Prince of Wales and commissioned to do so by the Nova Scotia Government. The portrait was recently presented to them. Mrs. McAvity, owing to the great demands upon the time of his Royal Highness, had only two sittings, but the features of the Prince are delineated on the canvas with rare fidelity. The painting has received a very considerable amount of well merited praise.

At a very early age she showed talent for artistic work sketching on flat stones, trees, boats or whatever else caught her fancy. Then she commenced work in painting. Her first commission was given at the age of sixteen when she painted the portrait of the little child of a local shipbuilder who was so pleased with the likeness that he at once secured the picture.

The portrait of the Prince recently acquired by the Government of Nova Scotia now hangs in the Council Chamber of the Province building in Halifax.

Mrs. McAvity, though born in Halifax, spent a large proportion of her life in Bridgetown where she enjoyed a high degree of popularity and it is a source of much satisfaction to her friends to note the splendid progress she has made in her chosen profession.

THE TESTIMONY OF A BOOK LOVER

Books are not made for furniture, but there is nothing else so beautifully furnishes a home. The plainest row of books that cloth or paper cover ever covered is more significant of refinement than the most elaborately carved sideboard. Books are the windows through which the soul looks out. A home without books is like a room without windows. No man has a right to bring up his children without surrounding them with books. If he has the means to buy them. It is a wrong to his family. The love of knowledge in a young mind is almost a warrant against the interior excitement of passions and vices. Let us pity these poor rich men who live barrenly in great bookless homes. A little library growing larger every year, is an honorable part of a man's history. It is a man's duty to have books. A library is not a luxury, but one of the necessities of life.—Henry W. Beecher.

FISHIN' EELS

Gigging eels seems to be the order of the day around South Harbor, C. B. They do not use spears, as are generally used for that purpose, but have a small pole with several fish hooks on the end and is locally known as a "gigging pole". A hole is cut in the ice in a cove where the water is shallow and the eels are known to be plentiful. The eels come swimming around and are gigged. The eels are very plentiful this year. There have been at least five thousand eels caught during the last fortnight. Five hundred eels is a good day's fishing for one man. This may seem quite fishy to some people, but nevertheless it is a fact. Fishing trout or salmon may be sport, but the fisher believes it isn't in it with gigging eels.—Victoria News, Ed-deck, C. B.

Amherst is to help her poor to help themselves by giving them seed instead of crops. Such was decided at the meeting of the Town Council held last night, when a motion was passed to grant the sum of $200 for the purchase of seed potatoes, seed and fertilizer for the poor of the town. An equal quantity of potatoes and seed will be given to people recommended by the Poor Committee, who will take up vacant lots and cultivate them.

Rev. Wm. Idason, who resigned the pastorate of the Baptist Church, Mahone Bay, several months ago, left Wednesday accompanied by his wife and two children for Isaac's Harbor, where he has accepted a call.

OVERSEAS MAN COMES OUT IN STRONG REPORT

Health Broken on Flanders Field in World War, But He Was Entirely Made Over By Tanlac, Says McInnis.

"I have gotten my health back and gained twelve pounds besides by taking Tanlac," said Roddie McInnis, 164 Argyle St., Halifax, a veteran of the world war, having been with the 2nd Pioneers and 5th Engineers, C. E. F., in France.

"While I was in France my stomach became so disordered it gave me no end of trouble. I thought I would be all right when I got back, but I was very much disappointed. I had no appetite and the little I did eat caused me to bloat until I had terrible smothering sensations. I was nervous and upset for hours.

"Everybody was talking about Tanlac so I tried it. Four bottles fixed me up in fine shape. I have such a big appetite I want to eat everything, and I have no pains and no other troubles. I can't say enough for Tanlac."

HOUSES FOR EX-SOLDIERS

(By the C. W. V. A. News Service) Ottawa.—During the past three years the C. W. V. A. has constantly pressed upon the government the need of special housing legislation in order to assist in the re-establishment of ex-service men and dependents. This has been opposed from a number of sources, principally by the statement that any housing benefits decided upon by the Federal authorities should be open to all citizens. The Veteran, the official organ of the C. W. V. A., in its issue for April 29th, publishes a statement setting forth the views of ex-service men on the subject, and pointing out that while 100,000 marriages took place in Canada last year and some 100,000 immigrants entered the country, only some 12,000 houses were built. Nearly 9,000 homes were destroyed by fire so that less than 3,000 were available for the additional demand. The Veteran points out that owing to absence overseas, soldiers as a group were most adversely affected by the lack of homes on their return and, therefore, should be first considered in any effort put forth to remedy conditions. The Veteran considers that by instituting a special housing measure for ex-service men more homes would be made available for the non-veteran population. The statement of the soldier magazine in part follows:

"To-day there is urgent need of more homes and a large proportion of those affected by the lack of homes are ex-service men. It would, therefore, be as logical to provide a special housing measure for ex-service men as it was to enact the special settlement plan. While some 21,000 men were able to qualify under the Soldier Settlement Act, a conservative estimate of those who are ready to take advantage of a housing act would be at least four times that number.

Housing benefits for ex-soldiers at the present time would bring widespread advantages. Many branches of industry would be stimulated, thus alleviating in a considerable measure unemployment and business depression; the opening of new homes would relieve congestion in existing housing facilities, thus permitting more comfort to the non-veteran population; more houses would mean lower rentals; under less congested conditions the general health of the nation would improve and there would be less hesitancy towards bringing children into the world. Practically every new home means that many men who could not qualify as soldier settlers would be stimulated much-desired production from the soil in their spare hours. Adequate housing also means stability of population.

Last year the net total housing facilities were increased by a doubtful 3,000 homes. Where did the 150,000 new families find quarters?

Private enterprise has failed to keep pace with growing need for new homes. It is time that the government of the people in the interests of the nation as a whole and in the interests of the individuals who comprise the nation, should take more comprehensive steps to meet this need. A special housing measure, looking primarily to the requirements of ex-service men, will provide the solution."

LIFE OF WOLFE IN WORD AND PICTURE

Splendid Address by Dr. Webster Before Annapolis Historical Society.

A splendid illustrated lecture was given in the King's Theatre at Annapolis on Tuesday night by Dr. John Clements Webster, of Shelburne, N.B., on James Wolfe, the famous British General, who captured Quebec. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Annapolis Historical Society, President L. M. Fortier presiding. The attendance was good and previous to the lecture Miss Vera Langille sang in splendid voice the solo and an encore "Lilac Tree". The lecture itself was illustrated by many rare pictures portraying leading events in the life of this one of Britain's foremost military geniuses, an adjutant at the age of sixteen rising rapidly by steady promotion to the rank of general.

A running sketch was made of the chief historical events and general conditions of the period. Many prominent public men of the time were shown in the pictures in many cases being from many rare copies which the doctor has spent years in collecting. The career of Wolfe was followed from his early years to his death on the plains of Abraham and references were made to and pictures shown of Quebec House in Westham, Kent, where a yearly commemoration of his career is held and where Wolfe spent the first twelve years of his life. This was bought by a patriotic Canadian of Montreal and offered to the Canadian Government but refused on the groundless fear of antagonizing French speaking people. It was then presented to a National Trust in England.

Dr. Webster has made special study for years of historic matters and his collection of rare pictures is a very fine one. He came to Annapolis at his own expense and in Moncton he offered $100 if the city would raise $200 for placing historic pictures in the schools. His offer was at once accepted. At Annapolis he offered $100 to devote to this. The Historical Society had already made a move in this line but will see to it that the generous offer of Dr. Webster can be carried out. The doctor referred to the neglect in Canada of preserving thoroughly old historic spots and of preserving the memory of these and the events connected with them in the minds of the rising generation. The American attitude in this matter was a marked contrast and made out of a heterogeneous mass of foreigners, patriotic Americans in them and in their descendants.

At the close of the lecture a hearty vote of thanks was extended the doctor for the splendid address which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

A COOL SUMMER, PREDICTED

The cold weather of late seems but the fulfillment of prophecy, or rather that of a certain weather prophet who has been given publicity in a Toronto paper. This weather man says that "beginning April 15th and continuing until the end of August there will be cold winds, rain, snow and sleet. It will be the coldest summer since 1879, when the corn ears were frozen on the stalks and never fit for food." The dismal forecaster is probably encouraged in this guess by the chilliness of the weather since March 21st. But the people who look for a warm, bright summer may take courage from the utter confusion that attended all the predictions of the woods-men respecting last winter. They were almost unanimous in forecasting a bitter, severe winter.

AINSLIE HOSPITAL PURCHASED BY HOSPITAL TRUST

There was a good attendance of the citizens of Truro at the Hospital Trust adjourned meeting in the Town Hall Friday evening.

The report of the special committee in regard to the location of a hospital and buildings and properties suitable for the same was well discussed and in the end by a unanimous vote it was decided to purchase the Ainslie Hospital, grounds and equipment. The consideration is, for the Ainslie Hospital property $10,000 equipment $4,000.

We have only time today, as this is our Daylight Saving season, to say: "Well done, Hospital Trust; the great mass of tax-payers are behind you in this deal." Good.—Truro News.

POST OFFICE QUESTION

The question of providing money for the erection of a new Post Office in Bridgetown is one of the live matters which is engaging the attention of the citizens of the place, at the present time, and irrespective of any political affiliations whatever the MONITOR feels certain that Mr. L. J. Lovett, the Federal Member, has practically every citizen behind him on this question.

The move is now on and the citizens of the town should never lose sight of the fact that these just and reasonable demands must, in the interests of the community, be kept in the foreground, till the Government examines fully into the situation, and accedes to the general wishes of the citizens in securing for the town what it should have secured long ago.

The question of site, is, of course, an important one, and should never be allowed to degenerate into a political football. Let the Government, in selecting a site, get the very best available location. We do not know if it is the case in Bridgetown or not, but we believe, if not, the place stands as a remarkable and shining light, if it has never viewed the spectacle of rival lot holders all anxious to dispose of their holdings at a good price to the Government. Too frequently in the case of all Government movements for the general good are held up on the ground of political expediencies with the result that nothing at all is done, the wheels of progress are blocked, and golden opportunities pass away which are difficult to recall in more unpropitious periods.

Not many people will deny that a town with the business connections and mail business of this centre is entitled to a Post Office building adequate and suitable to its purposes. The fact that Post Master Brown and his efficient staff are able to transact business in a manner at all satisfactory in their present quarters speaks volumes for their tact and ingenuity. The present building is a relic of an age that is gone by, and the discomfort which such a building inflicts upon the citizens of the town is extreme. It is a travesty on public service.

Annapolis town has had a very good Post Office for many years, and The MONITOR is pleased and gratified that the citizens of our neighboring town have this essential. They deserve it and are in every way entitled to it. Bridgetown, with a larger population, more business, both local and country, with its central position surrounded by a thickly settled and prosperous country, and sharing with its sister town centre business which pertains to a County town does its postal business in a miserable shack. There are towns through the Province which do not do half the business through their Post Offices that is done through Bridgetown Post Office, yet they have public buildings the very photos of which would make our citizens sit up and take notice.

Business here is increasing rapidly, and last year was the largest in the history of the town in Post Office circles. In the matter of mail distribution through this office, besides the centre is an important one, for local mails, matter is assorted and despatched to nine important country offices within a radius of several miles. Business has increased twenty per cent. in the past six years, and is steadily growing. The town needs, and deserves, a public building suitable for its needs.

The MONITOR proposes to refer to this matter from time to time till the results desired are fully secured.

Arrangements have been completed with Middleton for a series of five exhibition games with Yarmouth this season (home and home). This will prove interesting and will furnish some idea of the relative strength of the two teams.—Yarmouth Light.

BELLEISLE

Mr. Hugh Troop had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse on Monday. Mr. Harry Bent and Lorne Young spent a few days in Halifax last week. Mr. and Mrs. Avar Hudson spent Sunday with friends at Parker's Cove and Hillsburn.

Miss Josephine Willett spent last Tuesday in Clarence with her friend, Mrs. A. E. Marshall.

Miss Margaret P. Troop recently visited her sister, Mrs. William Amherst at Granville Ferry.

The many friends of Mrs. Alex. Fraser will be sorry to know she is confined to her home by illness.

Miss Bessie Young, of Granville Centre, spent a few days last week with her cousin, Mrs. E. M. Bent.

Mr. Eugene P. Troop who spent the winter in Boston returned home last week, bringing an auto with him.

Mrs. John H. Bent spent a few days at Granville Ferry this week with her sister, Mrs. Rhoda Mills, who is ill.

Mrs. Hiram Young went to Halifax two weeks ago for medical treatment. Her many friends will be glad to know she has returned much improved.

Mr. Seth Young went to the V. G. Hospital, Halifax, a week ago for medical treatment. The doctors found an operation necessary. Latest reports were favorable.

Purity Ice Cream Made Without Air!

When you preserve peaches you shut the air out to keep the flavor in. So it should be with ice cream—air contaminates; air soaks, air steals away the flavor.

That's why Purity Ice Cream is made without air. It's carbonated by the new Heath Process—and comes to you cleaner, creamier, colder.

A revelation in ice cream. Tell your dealer you want to enjoy it.

CANADIAN WRITERS

(By Blanche Gertrude Robbins)

The introduction of "Canadian Book Week" last November created a stimulus in interest both in reading and buying the works of Canadian writers.

The name of Judge Halliburton has become immortal as a humorist. The author of the famous "Sam Slick" stories, he became known as the greatest American humorist of his day and inspired Mark Twain also to write humor.

Joseph Howe, as statesman, essayist, and journalist, added lustre to Nova Scotia's early contribution to literature. Attorney General J. W. Longley, who so recently died in Halifax and who was born in Annapolis County, wrote a most excellent work on the life and achievements of Joseph Howe.

Priceless jewels were contributed to Canadian literature by Dr. Silas T. Rand, the Micmac missionary, who, born in Canada, now sleeps on the hillside of the cemetery of Hantsport. In addition to compiling a Micmac dictionary and translating many portions of the Bible into Micmac, he produced a book of Micmac Legends—gems of Indian folk-lore.

Bliss Carman, recognized as Canada's laureate poet and a cousin of the gifted Roberts' story-writers and poets—has sung the beauties of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick in poems exquisite with melody.

T. G. Marquis, a native of New Brunswick who now resides in Toronto, who has written several historical works, attributes his awakening to an interest in literature to the influence of Charles G. D. Roberts, once his school master.

Another New Brunswick "ectory study which is responsible for prose outside of sermons is that of St. James' Church, St. John, where Rev. H. A. Cozy writes many novels.

Basil King, whose novels have proved immensely popular and especially so in the United States, where he has lived a great many years was born in Prince Edward Island, and proudly claims that he is still a Canadian. The name of W. A. Fraser, which is linked with sensational adventure stories of the Canadian North West and India is a Nova Scotian by birth.

A new Maritime Province writer, whose book, "Miriam of Queens", published last fall, and which has had most favorable reviews, is Lillian Vanx McKinnon, who weaves not only into the story the charm of the "Provinces by the Sea" but the glories of the college city, Kingston, Ontario, which is now her home city.

Every anthology of Canadian poetry is well represented by Maritime Provincial writers of verse, and one of the best anthologies compiled is "The Canadian Treasury of Verse" by Dr. Theodore Harding Rand, of Wolfville, for many years a professor at McMaster University.

Nova Scotia has produced numerous editors and journalists and among them, Aubrey Fullerton, now writing in Edmonton, Alberta, and belonging to Annapolis County. Dr. Carson, editor of The Presbyterian Westminster, Toronto, and Mr. P. M. MacDonald, a Presbyterian minister in Toronto, a writer of editorials and religious articles, are both proud of their Nova Scotia birth.

The romance of the rugged coast of Nova Scotia has proved an inspiration to many writers and particularly to William Frederick Wallace, Montreal, whose fishing and sea stories are among the best produced in Canada. A sailor, himself, Captain Wallace's son of a sea-captain, who sailed mates with many Nova Scotian captains.

Madge MacBeth, of Ottawa, several years ago wrote a book with a Yukon setting, that created considerable interest. Peter MacArthur, a farm humorist, has long entertained the public with his sketches and books—one one book relating to one "Red Cow". J. W. Bengough, poet, cartoonist and lecturer, has recently produced a book in which appears a collection of his chalk talks, which illustrate in cartoons his most original lectures.

Agnes Maule Machar, Kingston, Ontario, wrote a number of books of fiction. Lacey Amy, who came into prominence during the war as an overseas correspondent, has published under the pen name of "Luke Allan", a racing, mystery novel, Robert Knowles, as a writer of religious novels became well known some years ago. His stories generally were picturesque with their western atmosphere.

William Brinton, of Bridgetown, completed treatment at the Sanatorium, Kentville, and was discharged last week.

born in Prince Edward Island, and proudly claims that he is still a Canadian. The name of W. A. Fraser, which is linked with sensational adventure stories of the Canadian North West and India is a Nova Scotian by birth. He has tasted much adventure and spent many years in India and other foreign countries.

Lacey Amy, who came into prominence during the war as an overseas correspondent, has published under the pen name of "Luke Allan", a racing, mystery novel, Robert Knowles, as a writer of religious novels became well known some years ago. His stories generally were picturesque with their western atmosphere.

the naturalist and writer will doubtless fall, is a Torontonian by birth and accompanies Bonnycastle Dale on his pilgrimages to Nova Scotia.

These men and women, proud of their birth in the "Provinces by the Sea", who have shared in the honor accorded the producers of Canadian literature, are linked in a strong tie of friendship with the host of other contributors—poets, essayists, journalists and novelists scattered throughout Canada.

Ontario is rich in its field of writers and among those who have been the widely recognized is Marion Keith, now Mrs. MacGregor, living in London, who as a writer of community novels has idealized the little Scotch Presbyterian settlement, "Glenora". Jean Blewett, poetess and short story writer, who is frequently referred to as "Canada's sweetest woman writer", has written many poems that are treasured because of their heart throbs.

Archie McKiehnle, also a resident of Toronto, has woven his love for the wild and his knowledge of nature into stories and several books. Isabel Ecclestone MacKay, now a resident of British Columbia, has contributed several books, the story of which depicted Ontario village life in a charming picture.

Marjorie L. C. Pichall, whom all lovers of Canadian literature to-day mourn because of her recent death in Vancouver, which has meant a tremendous loss to Canadian letters, belonged to Toronto. An outstanding poet of rare gifts, Marjorie L. C. Pichall produced several volumes of poetry, and a recent novel, "The Bridge"—a story involving the Great Lakes showed a remarkable power of imagination.

Emily P. Weaver, Toronto, who has written several historical books of study for young people is a regular contributor in building up Canadian historical letters, and the writer of this paper understands she was born in New Brunswick. Anlaon North, who in reality is May Wilson of London, Ontario, is gaining recognition as a writer of historical novels. There are few Canadian stories more fascinating than her "Forging the Pikes"—a story of the War of 1812.

Another regular visitor to Nova Scotia sea parts in quest of story material is Bonnycastle Dale, the eminent naturalist whose articles on bird life appear in both Canadian and United States magazines. Only last summer the writer of this paper had the good fortune to discover Bonnycastle Dale and the boy, "Laddie", who figure prominently in the fishing and bird stories, camping out on The Hawk, Cape Sable Island, where he was gathering material for a volume of bird stories. Bonnycastle Dale belongs to the old Bonnycastle family who were historians and road surveyors in the early days of Ontario.

"Laddie" upon whom the mantle of the naturalist and writer will doubtless fall, is a Torontonian by birth and accompanies Bonnycastle Dale on his pilgrimages to Nova Scotia. These men and women, proud of their birth in the "Provinces by the Sea", who have shared in the honor accorded the producers of Canadian literature, are linked in a strong tie of friendship with the host of other contributors—poets, essayists, journalists and novelists scattered throughout Canada.

WILD GESE AT HOME

Hamilton M. Laing, writing in the Toronto Globe a short time ago, gave the following interesting description of the wild goose: "Cypress Lake, in southwestern Saskatchewan, lies in a narrow valley in the open, bald plains and is one of the many Canadian plainland lakes where the waterfowl abound during the summer. The lake is nine miles long and averages about two miles wide, has a large island in the centre and terminates in a marsh at both ends, the one at the eastern end being of very considerable extent. It was a reservoir of aquatic life, the ducks, grebes and coots being especially abundant, and here also some wild geese were found at home.

The Canada goose, the largest of the geese, once nested commonly over a good deal of southern Canada and throughout the northern States as well, but civilization has driven the bird constantly back until now he nests only in the most unfrequented localities and in the North, Cypress Lake, lying lonely in the plains, seemed to meet the conditions dear to the goose heart, and to our knowledge half a dozen families were raised here. In fact, it is probable that there were several more families that we did not meet, as the Canada goose is a wise guardian and very clever at concealment.

GUARD HONKS ANXIOUSLY This bird seldom builds the nest in the marsh or on the water as some of the ducks and the grebes do, but rather builds on dry ground near water and, though we were too late actually to find the nests it is probably that they had been located in the sedgebrush clumps back a short distance from the shore. By the first of June the tiny yellow downlings were following the parents on the water. At one point of the shore where several times passed by boat, a big lone bird, presumably a gander, was always standing on guard. He hopped anxiously as though in warning, but though we watched closely for the mate to appear, she always managed to outwit us.

There were coyotes here, and how the geese managed to protect herself from such a marauder during her month of incubation seemed a mystery. The vigilance of the valiant old gander might serve by day, but one would think that at night the grey prowler could steal up and pounce upon the nesting bird. That geese manage so well to outwit such a foe speaks well for their sagacity. No small marauder, of course, could molest the birds, as the geese is a courageous and able fighter, using the "knuckles" of his wings with telling effect; a compelling argument that no small foe could withstand.

THE MOULTING PLACE

The island in mid-lake, with its little lagoon in one corner, was an admirable spot for these birds. Here the ducks congregated to sit about in the sun and moult their spring plumage—these companies were composed for the most part of idle drakes—and here the old geese pair could come ashore without fear of land foes and walk about while the tiny yellow peepers gobbled up the tender green herbage that constituted their food. Here they had only foes of the air to guard against, and it is likely that such were not numerous. We at least saw no enemy attempt to molest them.

The wild geese and ducks, of course do not feed the young. The latter come from the egg with complete instinctive knowledge in regard to what they must eat, just as they know instinctively how to peep or run or swim or dive. The parents are merely guardians and guides, leading the young into the safest and greenest pastures. And how the peepers improve their time! Every day marks an advance in their size and strength. A week is a whole chapter of their adventurous young lives. They have nothing to do but grow. In about ten weeks they must do the impossible: develop from downlings to fully-fledged, fully-winged birds, able to go off on the wing with their parents.

A PERFECT TYPE OF PARENT

The wild goose is one of the most perfect types of parent seen in the wild; he is full of devotion, sagacity and courage. In an endeavor to photograph these families we several times ran them down by boat. Though very strong swimmers, they had no means of escape from the powerful little outboard motor. Their first impulse in the face of danger from the man foe was to retreat toward midlake. They had a way of cleverly escaping observation by swimming low and only by the unfair aid of our field glasses could we pick up these family parties. The parent birds not only swam with the body low in the water, appearing about duck size, but they thrust the head down and extended the neck along the water as though they knew that their long, black necks must be the tell-tail mark to their identity.

Their combination was quite perfect. Usually the big gander led the family and they swam in single file. First came the gander, then two or three peepers and then the geese followed by the remaining young. The young plainly swim more easily in this way, it is the way of all the waterfowl while conveying young. When approaching closely the old birds honked in alarm, protestingly, but would not desert the young until forced to do so. Usually the gander broke away first, flapped off for fifty yards and alighted to call and call and attempt to divide the family. The mother geese would stick to her young until almost run down.

YOUNG SHOW STAMINA

When cornered near shore the birds would take to the prairie. They seemed to have a vague sort of certainty that the boat could not follow there, but at the first sign of a landing they were ready to take to the water again. When overtaken on the water it finally became a case of every one for himself and the family scattered, the young diving expertly and swimming far under water before reappearing. The stamina of these little fellows was remarkable; they had some of the underwater prowess of the grebes; and it was wonderful how quickly the family would reassemble after such a scattering.

The devotion of these parents was truly touching. Every goose knows all too well his man foe, almost his only foe, and knows that close approach means death. At no other time of the year could these birds have been approached in the open to within even rifle shot. Yet here they cheerfully faced death in the cause of their young with a fearless ardor that had in it something grand and pathetic. But in closing it must be told that not all the geese that summered here were so wrapped up in family affairs. There are twenty-five or thirty that we saw almost daily that apparently had no ties of kin. They were a mere bachelor and spinster club, non-breeding birds that swam on the water or sunned on the shore, picked gravel and prairie grass and idled away the hot summer days, awaiting no doubt, the call of the wheat-fields in September.

OLD LANDMARK DESTROYED

A very interesting landmark was destroyed by fire, the old residence on what is known as the "Bayard Estate," situated about three miles from Middleton. It is one of the oldest and most interesting estates in this vicinity. About 150 years ago a grant of land was given to Colonel Bayard, an officer in the Imperial Army—a beautiful home was erected, among the magnificent pines, for which the place is famous. About 100 years ago the original home was destroyed by fire. Another one was immediately erected, and the direct descendants continued to dwell there for more than fifty years. For many years after Colonel Bayard took the place there was no thoroughfare, nothing but a trail over which the soldiers passed on their military expeditions. Generations later a regular road was opened up and the approach to the home was guarded by a wonderful avenue of pine trees. About forty years ago the estate came into the possession of Captain Spain; an officer in the British navy, whose wife was a direct descendant of Col. Bayard.

In the last decade the place has changed hands several times, and the "former glory" has departed. It stands today a heap of ruins, with only its traditions to link it to the past. One of the most interesting of these traditions is that the original owner, who was laid to rest in the family burial grounds situated on the estate, was buried in full military uniform, with sword and jewels. Another deals with buried treasure and flitting ghostly lights. The fire was caused by the upsetting of a lamp, so it is said, and destroyed not only the house but the barn nearby. The dwelling was occupied at the time by George Van Buskirk and wife—Chronicle.

A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

When the Blood is Out of Order the Nerves are Starved

The nerve system is the governing system of the whole body, controlling the heart, lungs, digestion and brain; so it is not surprising that nervous disturbances cause acute distress. The first stages of nervous debility are noted by irritability and restlessness, in which the victims seem to be oppressed by their nerves. The matter requires immediate attention, for nothing but suitable treatment will prevent a breakdown. The victim, however, need not despair, for even severe nervous disorders may be relieved by improving the condition of the blood. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enrich the blood that this medicine has proved beneficial in nervous disorders. The nerves thrive on the better blood made by these pills; the appetite improves, indigestion is better, sleeplessness no longer troubles the nerve-shattered victim, and life generally takes on a cheerful aspect. The value of these pills in cases of this kind is shown by the experience of Mrs. John W. Macdonald, Cardigan, P.E.I., who says: "I have much cause to be grateful to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was suffering from nervous breakdown, and my condition gave alarm to both my friends and myself. I suffered almost continuously from nervous headaches, my appetite was poor, I hardly got any sleep, and in every way I was badly run-down. A friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after I had taken them for a while there was a noticeable improvement in my condition. I continued using the pills until I had taken twelve boxes, when every symptom of the trouble was gone, and I have since enjoyed the best of health."

AT THE VENDOR'S

A doctor told us the other day that he had prescribed a small quantity of whiskey, as a stimulant, to an aged lady. The amount required was only a few ounces. On going to the vendor he found that the smallest amount that could be secured was twelve ounces. His patient did not require that amount and did not feel able to pay for it, and so did without. The ostensible reason for the establishment of a vendorship is to have liquor available for medicinal purposes. The ostensible reason should be justified by making liquor available in small as well as in large quantities.—Pictou Advocate.

Wait for the Sunflower Minstrels Tuesday and Wednesday, May 23rd and 24th. Prices 35 and 55 cents.

Omission from grading list of Grade XI, History, First Div., George Foster.

Kenneth Leslie has purchased the George Salter farm and expects to move some time in the near future.

The will of the late Norman Chute contained a bequest of $500 to the Masonic Lodge of Bridgetown, and $500 to the Oddfellows' Lodge of Bridgetown. Mr. Chute was a member of both lodges.

Frank Covert, Karsdale, has disposed of the place upon which he has been residing and will move on the place he has recently purchased from A. O. Parotte. Mr. Parotte and family leave for Lynn, Mass., next week.

A "Craig" night was held by the members of Friendship Lodge, I.O. O.F., of Bear River, Thursday night. The members of Elta Robekah Lodge were also invited to attend. During the evening Mr. Craig presented William Brinton, Past Grand, with a Past Grand's jewel.

Percy Tibert, of Bridgewater, has accepted a position with the Colonial Motor Car Company, in their garage on Granville Street for the summer months. He has with him a racer which he built himself, containing a 400 model Chevrolet motor, and equipped with racing gears.

Bridgetown does not intend to lag behind in baseball circles this summer. The local team are doing a lot of practising already and are looking forward to some fast games this season. The grounds are in a good condition, and it is hard to find better ones in the Province.

Mr. Kenneth Leslie has been successful in obtaining Miss Helen Starr, of Wolfville, as cello player for his orchestra which will play at "The Pines" during the summer season. Miss Starr is well known in musical circles in Nova Scotia, and is a sister of Evelyn Starr, who is quite a noted violinist.

Miss Marion Crowe and Miss Flora Cole have both been accepted to enter for training at the New England Baptist Hospital. They will probably enter some time in September. We think Bridgetown will be well represented at this hospital, as this makes at least seven from this town now at the hospital in training.

The outlook for another good apple crop is very encouraging. Some of our leading orchardists in this section of the Valley say that the trees are showing a wonderful promise of bloom. Weather conditions of the past few weeks, which have been somewhat backward, have favored the orchards.

Mr. A. Gardener has his wireless apparatus in first class working condition, and is getting some splendid concerts from Schenectady and other places in the States every night. Mr. Gardener is always ready to receive visitors and demonstrate to them the wonders of the apparatus. He has enjoyed a pleasant evening at his home.

On Monday evening, the 22nd, a very nice play entitled "The Colonel's Maid" will be put on in the Recreation Hall of the County Institution, proceeds for the Institution. The play is put on under the auspices of the Methodist Church, Tupperville. Besides being for a worthy object it will be well staged and well worth seeing.

LeMoine Ruggles has his house in the West End well under way and will soon have it completed. It is to be a semi-bungalow, and will add greatly to the looks of that part of the town. J. H. Hicks & Sons are building three small houses on the opposite side of the street, one of which is already completed. These will be used for rental when finished.

Mr. J. R. Skinner, Granville Street East, who recently lost his house by fire, has disposed of his farm to Messrs. Cyril and Vernon Marshall, who will shortly erect a dwelling house on the property. They have also taken over the milk business formerly conducted by Mr. Skinner, and this week there was completed a thoroughly up-to-date milk house with concrete floors. The building is about 16x20 and constructed in the manner best adapted for its uses. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner remove to Berwick and Mr. Skinner will purchase a farm in that vicinity. Their many friends regret their departure from town, but wish them all success up the Valley. The real estate deal by which the property was transferred to Marshall Brothers, was put through by the Lloyd Real Estate Agency of this town.

Wait for the Sunflower Minstrels

Come and see the Buck and Wing dancers with the Sunflowers.

The first local baseball match of the season takes place on Wednesday, May 24th at 2:30 between Bridgetown and Middleton on the Bridgetown Athletic Grounds.

Mrs. Fred R. Fay entertained her group of C.G.I.T. girls at the home of Mrs. Henry Hicks on Friday afternoon. The entertainment took the form of a lecture on "Classical Opera", accompanied by selections from the various operas on the Victrola. Mrs. Fay having seen many of the leading operas was very capable of making this a most interesting afternoon for the girls.

On Thursday, May 25th, at nine a.m. in Clinic room, Bridgetown, there will be a Clinic held by Dr. Phinney who will give an address on the care of throat, ear and nose, and examinations will be made of adults and children requiring attention. At Annapolis on Thursday afternoon a Clinic as above will be held in the School Assembly room. Don't forget the throat, ear and nose Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Marshall, who have had charge of Mrs. Atherton Marshall's farm at Clarence for the past winter, have removed to Bridgetown, also Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Marshall. The Marshall Brothers purchased the farm and milk business of Mr. J. R. Skinner and took them over on the 11th ult. They have purchased also the farm of Mr. Stanley Marshall, of Beaconfield, and have taken possession of same. It is the intention at an early date to erect a house on the Skinner place probably of the bungalow style.

The concert given in the Primrose Theatre by local colored talent under direction of F. W. Franklin was rather slimly attended. Had Mr. Franklin arranged his programme to embrace the old and favorite melodies, the entertainment would have been much more popular and better received. It is understood to be the intention of the colored people of the town and of Ingleswood to put on, some time in the near future, a concert which will include the old old favorites. Quite a number who will take part have excellent musical talent and an enjoyable evening may be looked for.

Cedar Lodge, a splendidly fitted-out and equipped camp about seventeen miles from Weymouth, was destroyed by fire, presumably on Sunday morning, May 7th, or possibly a day or so earlier. Messrs. George H. Pears, Frank Anderson, Arch. Dunn, accompanied by James Sullivan, the well known guide, were returning from a successful fishing trip when their attention was caught by the smoke rising in the vicinity of the camp. On approach they found it burned to the ground. This famous camp has, for years, been the rendezvous of Canadian and American fishermen, and was built some twenty years ago by George Foster, of Boston, at a cost of $2,000, and after his death was purchased by a number of Diebmen and Ed. Sullivan, the well known guide. Ralph Bell and associates bought out the interests of the Americans afterwards, but recently it is said, sold to other Americans. The camp was fitted out in fine style. The origin of the fire is not definitely known, but presumably it was from a brush fire which had been burning for two or three days. It may be rebuilt.

DO YOU KNOW

That the reports on the cotton crop are very unfavorable? That cotton advanced over $10.00 a bale in four days? That the Mississippi River overflowed and destroyed one million acres of cotton?

This will cause cotton prices to advance, and you will be wise to purchase what you require at once.

I have on hand a large supply of Men's and Boys' Work Shirts, Dress Shirts, Overalls, Underwear, etc., which I ask you to buy now, so that I can get another stock before prices advance.

The Straw Hat Season will be with us in a few days, and you will be wanting a new hat. I have a nice line to offer, and my prices are right.

Rev. and Mrs. L. F. Wallace, of Lawrenceville, leave on May 15th for Vancouver, where they will visit Dr. D. G. Morse. Mr. Wallace has a three months' leave of absence and will do Evangelistic work in B. C. during summer. They go west via C.P.R. and return through Southern States.

FAVORITE ORCHESTRA COMING

The famous orchestra 5 Melody Men, of Boston, now Judd Rees and his "Copley Plaza 5" is coming to Bridgetown next week and will be at the Bridgetown Court House on Tuesday evening, May 23rd. The orchestra consists of Judd Rees, Saxophone; Harry Missey, Xylophone; Art Parent, Piano; Harry Stride, Banjo. This aggregation played at Middleton on Monday night and the music furnished was greatly enjoyed by the large number present. No doubt on their appearance in Bridgetown next Tuesday they will be greeted by a bumper house. See adv. in another column.

TENNIS CLUB DANCE

A BIG SUCCESS
Held Last Tuesday Evening in Court House—Large Crowd Have Most Enjoyable Evening.

The dance held last Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Tennis Club was an unqualified success, and about fifty couples were present. The excellent music furnished by Leslie's orchestra was greatly enjoyed by all who tipped the light fantastic until the wee sma' hours of the morning.

The committee in charge of the dance consisted of Miss Elizabeth H. Ruggles, Mrs. F. A. Fay, Miss Marion Crowe, and special credit is due them for the excellent manner in which the dance was arranged. Programs were used for the first time in Bridgetown, and we believe that all future dances of a high order will adopt this method which has been started by the Tennis Club committee, and which has been recommended by all those present as being a start in the right direction, and greatly appreciated by all those who attended.

The chaperones were: Mrs. Francis Graves, Mrs. Harry McKenzie, Mrs. Ralph Donaldson.

The following were among the ladies present and the gowns worn:

- Miss Allison FitzRandolph—blue silk.
- Miss Ruth Fowler—pink crepe de chene.
- Mrs. Harry McKenzie—black silk.
- Mrs. Francis Graves—Copenhagen blue.
- Mrs. Ralph Donaldson—pink silk.

ATHLETES WANT NAMES CLEARED

The Herald has been informed through reliable sources that several Maritime athletes who were classed as pseudo amateurs some time ago, and whose names appeared in the leading dailies of Canada, will shortly send a petition to President Covey, asking that their good names be cleared of the charges against them. It has also been learned that the petition was drawn up last week.

The athletes feel that they have been done an injustice by promoters who want to have them drawn into the professional ranks and that, although they intend to sign the affidavit, the onus of crime will still be on their shoulders. They feel that President Covey will, in the best interests of sport, publicly clear the names of the amateurs involved.

One of the men, instrumental in having the petition drafted, says: "Despite the fact that I will sign that affidavit, some of the would-be sports will still believe that I am a professional hiding behind the cloak of amateurism. My name, with many others, was sent to all parts of Canada, and I feel that the amateur authorities who did not investigate the charge, but allowed the public to think that I was guilty, will stand back of me and declare their faith in my integrity. I for one would gladly welcome an investigation on the charges against my good name, and the sooner it is held the better for all concerned."

Another athlete says: "Whenever I go to Halifax I am kidded about receiving large sums for my athletic ability. This is all a joke and I feel safe in saying that the charges made against at least twenty-five athletes cannot be proven by those who made them. President Covey will say that we will be cleared when we sign that affidavit, but some fans will consider us guilty until the M.P.B.A., A.V.C. publicly declare us to be in good standing. The officers of the M.P.B.A.A.V.C. owe us that much if they expect to have the support of the public."

One of the athletes who intend signing the petition says that other Maritime athletes are anxious to clear themselves and will be given the opportunity to sign.—Halifax Herald.

MOTHER SAVES DAUGHTER'S HEALTH

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Both Mother and Daughter

Lumsden, Saskatchewan.—"My mother had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and when I needed something for my periods I took it and got good results. I recommend it to women with any female troubles and I know other women who have been helped by it and do the same."—Mrs. Max Ritzke, Lumsden, Saskatchewan.

Many cases like this come to our notice. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is often recommended by the mother and the grandmother too, for bear in mind, it has been helping women for nearly fifty years.

Women Tell Each Other in their own neighborhood are women who know the value of this wonderful medicine and they talk to one another about it. So if you are troubled with pains and irregularities, a tired feeling, nervous and sleepless spells, or have other annoying symptoms caused by some female trouble, you have only to ask some neighbor what she thinks of your taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

MRS. STEPHEN MACDONALD, 103 YEARS OLD, LIVED UNDER SIX SOVEREIGNS

Bright and alert, Mrs. Stephen Macdonald, of Castle Bay, grandmother of Mrs. W. MacKenzie, 15 Louisa street, and of Kenzie Macdonald, of the local staff of the Canadian National, has left the century mark in life well behind and on May 24th she will celebrate her 103rd birthday.

Born in Barra, Scotland, in 1819, Mrs. Macdonald has lived under six British sovereigns: George III, George IV, William IV, Victoria, Edward VII, and George V.

Mrs. Macdonald came to Canada from the Old Land when a girl of seventeen, so that nearly all of her very long life has been spent in this country. At Castle Bay she has been for many years one of the most highly esteemed people of the community, and there is to-day much satisfaction that despite her great age her health continues to be good.

Mrs. Macdonald's husband died some years ago. One of her sons, Charles, is now resident in Alberta and a second son, Neil J., in Castle Bay, Mrs. Hector J. McNeil, of McKinnon's Harbor, and Mrs. Vincent McPhoe, of Eskasoni, are daughters of Mrs. Macdonald who also has twenty-eight grandchildren and twenty great grandchildren.—Sydney Record.

SATISFIED MOTHERS

No other medicine gives the same satisfaction to mothers as do Baby's Own Tablets. They are equally good for the new-born babe or the growing child and are absolutely guaranteed to be free from opiates or other harmful drugs. They are a mild but thorough laxative and cannot possibly do harm—they always do good. Concerning them Mrs. Jos. Ache, Coteau Road, N.B., writes:—"I think that Baby's Own Tablets are a marvelous medicine for little ones. I gave them to my little girl with such good results that I now strongly recommend them to all mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FIFTEEN YEARS FOR ATTEMPT TO WRECK EXPRESS TRAIN

On Tuesday William Wentzell was sentenced by Judge Patterson to serve fifteen years in Dorchester penitentiary for attempting to wreck No. 11 express at West River two weeks ago. Wentzell was taken to Dorchester and officials there recognized him as George Snow, old-time convict, originally hailing from Yarmouth, and who as a ticket-of-leave man was released a few years ago after completing a ten-year sentence. He was sentenced at Lunenburg in 1910 for assaulting a man there with an axe handle.—Pictou Advocate.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE OF VALLEY LEAGUE

Season Opens May 31st—Eastern and Western Sections as Last Year.

The meeting of the executive of the Valley League was held at Kentville with the following delegates present: A. L. Davidson, President, Middleton; W. S. Prince, Secretary, Kentville; J. H. Cunningham, Bear River; H. T. MacKenzie, Bridgetown; C. Messenger, Lawrencetown; G. L. Andrews, Middleton; George Cox, Berwick; Dr. McGrath, Kentville; H. G. Evans, Wolfville, and W. Singer, Windsor.

On motion, Bear River was admitted to the Valley League, thus making eight teams. It was voted to divide the league into two sections as was carried out last year with Windsor, Wolfville, Kentville and Middleton in the eastern section, and Berwick, Lawrencetown, Bridgetown and Bear River in the western section.

Each team is to play home and home games with the other teams in that section, the two sections to complete games by July 19th.

Following are the schedules drawn up with the last named as the home team:

- EASTERN SECTION
- June 7th: Kentville vs. Middleton.
 - June 8th: Wolfville vs. Windsor.
 - June 14th: Middleton vs. Wolfville.
 - Windsor vs. Kentville.
 - June 21st: Windsor vs. Middleton.
 - Kentville vs. Wolfville.
 - June 27th: Middleton vs. Windsor.
 - June 28th: Wolfville vs. Kentville.
 - July 5th: Wolfville vs. Middleton.
 - July 6th: Kentville vs. Windsor.
 - July 19th: Middleton vs. Kentville.
 - Windsor vs. Wolfville.

WESTERN SECTION

- The schedule for the season was drawn up as follows for Western Section. Home games of first mentioned team:—
- Wednesday, May 31st: Bridgetown vs. Berwick.
 - Bear River vs. Lawrencetown.
 - June 7th: Berwick vs. Bridgetown.
 - Lawrencetown vs. Bear River.
 - June 14th: Bridgetown vs. Lawrencetown.
 - Bear River vs. Berwick.
 - June 21st: Bear River vs. Bridgetown.
 - Berwick vs. Lawrencetown.
 - June 28th: Winners of May 31st play and losers of May 31st game also play.
 - July 5th: Bridgetown vs. Bear River.
 - Lawrencetown vs. Berwick.
 - July 12th: Lawrencetown vs. Bridgetown.
 - Berwick vs. Bear River.
 - July 19th: Lawrencetown vs. Bridgetown.
 - Berwick vs. Bear River.

A good season is anticipated in baseball circles. If each team is not on the field within fifteen minutes of the time set, the game is to be forfeited if a reason for the delay is not offered. All disputes in this matter are to be settled by the President.

A fixed entrance fee of 25 cents is to be charged for all league games, with an additional charge for grandstand if so desired by the home team. The resignation of W. S. Prince as Secretary of the League was accepted, and F. G. Wark was appointed in his place.

UNWILLING FOR SINGLE WOMEN UNDER THIRTY TO VOTE

Senator David's resolution to restrict women's franchise was defeated in the senate at Ottawa by thirty-three to nineteen. Senator David proposed that unmarried women must be at least thirty years of age before being entitled to vote. Girls between twenty and thirty were not mature in judgment, he declared. Electoral lists under the present law were loaded with an unintelligent vote. Thousands of girls had voted last election without knowing either the party leaders or their platforms. The English law was less objectionable. The resolution went down in a non-party vote.

WILLIAM M. THOMPSON KILLED IN MILL

Middleton.—William M. Thompson, Bloomington, lost his life at his mill last week. Missing him for half an hour, one of the men went below and found that he had been caught in the shaft and was then dead. He was unmarried, about forty years of age and supported his mother with whom he lived. Mr. Thompson was a man of excellent habits, industrious and highly respected.

POTATO CULTURE

(Experimental Farms Note.)

Potatoes are easily grown. They are a very valuable, cheap food. In one form or another they are wanted on everybody's table, every day, everywhere throughout the civilized world.

SOIL

Potatoes do best in a warm, rich, deep sandy loam soil. They require a lot of moisture and should have good, well drained soil.

SEED

Like begets like. The seed potato trade asks for Irish Cobbler and Green Mountain. They are recommended as among the best. Grow the potatoes that people want. Get seed free from disease. It is obtainable.

SEED BED

Potatoes require a lot of work and attention and like other worth while things, pay back most when they receive it. Plow and work the soil, make it friable, work it thoroughly until the necessary tilth is obtained.

PLANTING

Plant as soon as the land is warm enough. Do not allow the seed to get chilled before covering. Planting machines are satisfactory. Make the rows straight and from 30 to 36 inches apart.

CULTIVATION

Harrow the potato field with something harrow before the young plants appear and once after they are up. Cover the plants with three inches of soil when three inches above ground. The rear discs on the potato planter do this best.

SPRAYING

Spraying is safe insurance that pays its own premiums. Start spraying in July and keep all the foliage covered with Bordeaux and poison or dust fungicides throughout the season until the first frost kills the disease spores.

HARVESTING

Harvest immature plants for seed. Dig potatoes in dry weather. When disease is present leave them in the ground until a frost occurs if possible. When the soil is very dry have the digger move a lot of clay so that the potatoes may not be injured by the machine.

SILENT TEACHINGS

Sunlight! tell the hidden meaning Of the rays thou lettest fall; Are they lessons writ in burning, Like God's warning on the wall?

Stars! what is it ye would whisper With your pure and holy light? Looking down so calm and tender From the watch-tower of the night.

River! river! singing gaily From the hillside all day long. Teach my heart the merry music Of thy cheery rippling song.

WHAT CAUSES SO MUCH SICKNESS

Constipation Responsible for 90% of Disease

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Corrects It

It is generally recognized among the medical profession that Constipation or Insufficient Action of The Bowels, produces more disease than any other one cause.

As you know, it is the duty of the bowels to carry off the waste matter in the system. If the bowel muscles are weak or the liver inactive, then this waste matter remains in the body and poisons the blood.

"Fruit-a-tives" has been wonderfully successful in relieving Stomach Troubles, Nervous Troubles, Liver Troubles, Kidney Troubles, Skin Troubles and Blood Troubles.

MONTREAL PORT HAS NEW YORK WORRIED

"I heard nothing but praise for the port of Montreal from all with whom I came in contact during my trip, and I come back with a cleared realization that ever of the great honor the Government has done me in making me head of the administration of Canada's national port."

"Many well-informed men on the other side do not look for any general revival in business conditions for a year or eighteen months to come," said Dr. McDonald, "but in spite of this, all indications point to a big season ahead of us here in Montreal harbor, in fact to a bigger season than the record one of last year."

"New York shipping men are obviously nervous regarding the increasing importance of Montreal as a world port. They are afraid of our competition and very anxious to co-operate with us in every way possible."

"I had an extremely comfortable trip on the Aquitania, and the service could not have been better," said Dr. McDonald, "but nevertheless I should have liked to travel on the Empress of Scotland and come via the St. Lawrence, but I was unable to get accommodation on her."

Mr. J. W. Dimock, Denomination Treasurer of the Baptist Church of the Maritime Provinces, informs us that the "Save the Children Fund" had passed its objective $250,000 set by the Dominion. Up to May 5th the Baptist denomination of the Maritimes had contributed $8,500.

WORK ACCOMPLISHED BY COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES

(Issued by the Department of the Public Health, Nova Scotia.)

The fifteen public health nurses on duty in most of the counties in the Province of Nova Scotia have, during the last seven months, examined 29,411 pupils. Of these 17,947, or 61.0 per cent, were found to have dental caries; 7,327, or 24.9 per cent, enlarged tonsils; 2,593, or 8.8 per cent, defective hearing; 693, or 2.4 per cent, skin disease; 1,283, or 4.4 per cent, scalp disease; and 965, or 3.3 per cent, enlarged glands.

In addition to notifying the parents of dental defects, the nurses gave the pupils 1245 health talks and 558 tooth brush drills. They also made 3055 home visits in the interest of child welfare and tuberculosis work.

By means of tooth brush drills the pupils are impressed with the importance of preserving the teeth, and they are gradually being taught the value of a well balanced diet and of acquiring health-giving habits.

One of the outstanding discoveries found through the efforts of the nurses is the large number of pupils who require dental work. In several of the counties a large percentage of all defects are being corrected.

"On account of the large population and territory that each nurse is expected to serve, it seemed that the best service could be given the greatest number of having the nurses pay special attention to child welfare and tuberculosis work."

"A large percentage of the young people from the most remote districts migrate to the towns and cities. Many of these are handicapped to compete in the industrial centres. The towns and cities will therefore eventually benefit from the rural districts."

"The health nurses have given assistance to all movements that are of importance to the health of the communities they serve. They have organized and instructed several classes in Home Nursing and First Aid to the Injured. They have assisted in emergencies, and have given instructions to families in the preparation of suitable diet and how to give proper nursing care to infants and invalids."

"The intention of public health nursing in our Province was greatly facilitated by the generous offer of the Red Cross Society (Nova Scotia Division) to maintain a nurse in each county for a period of one year. In eight of the counties, the period of Red Cross support has expired and the nurses in these counties are now being maintained by the Municipalities and towns jointly."

The Gloucester schooner Acushla, Capt. Iver Carlson, has done well on her last two trips in the fresh halibut fishery, stocking the sum of $12,320. The craft left here March 27th and was at Portland on April 13th. She left there the following day and back again at Portland, May 2nd. The crew shared $302 as their part of the proceeds.

Schooner Joffre, Capt. Wallace Bruce, halibuting, stocked $4,750 and the share was $105.—Herald.

Advertisement for 'THE PLACE TO PARK CARS NEED'. Text: 'THE PLACE TO PARK CARS NEED. Girl's Narrow Escape Calls Attention to Need of Regulation Strictly Carried Out. What might have resulted in a very serious accident occurred Thursday afternoon about four o'clock when little Phyllis Lane, niece of Gilbert Lowe, Granville Street, was coming along Queen Street, her way home from school. She ran across the street, and was knocked down by a car. Fortunately on account of the traffic just at that moment, the driver proceeding very slowly and she right between the wheels, and car passed over her without injury in any way outside of a bruise and a bad shaking up, came out from under the car to the opposite way from which she went under, badly scared but injured to any extent. Forrest, well, the tonsorial artist, ran out took the little girl into his establishment, washed her face, and sent her on her way home. The incident, attention to a matter which, in interests of public safety, calls definite regulations carried out out fear or favor. The owner of car was in no way responsible for the mishap, and his auto was proceeding with the utmost care and caution. The child, after the manner of small children intent only on thought uppermost in her mind, the time, started from behind a parked car and directly under the moving car. A similar occurrence likely to happen at any time, and it may not result so fortunately. Cars at present park on both sides of the street, and this practice, as it is a menace to public safety, it is said that a move is to be made to have a proper place selected for park cars. This is necessary at times, but particularly on Saturday nights, when traffic is at its height. There is still much complaint of "speed fiends" operating in the neighborhood of the schools, a particularly dangerous place for less driving. A few round-ups will still fine would regulate this matter. Prevention is better than punishment. It is the duty of the community to see that the lives of its children are protected. G. G. I. T.
