CHRISTMAS CAROLS.

WHAT more charming Christmas custom is there han that of singing Christmas carols? See how Aunt Mary and her little nieces and nephew in the sicture enjoy it. We have filled this number of the RUNBEAM with Christmas hymus and carols, and hope bur little friends will have good time singing them, and that this may be the best and happiest Christmas that ever they have known.

WHAT THEY DID.

- "HALLO!" cried Tom.
- "What is it?" asked
- "Come into the corner ud I'll tell you," said Tom.

Then Rose and Tom put heir heads together and hispered.

"Next Saturday will e Christmas," said Tom.

"We shall get lots of hings," said Rose.

"The poor children over he way will not get anyhing," said Tom. "Just hink, Rose, they never eard of hanging up stockngs."

"Poor little tots!" cried

Then Tom and Rose

whispered many other things. They ran

"We meant to keep them all our lives," aid Rose.

CHRISTMAN CAROLS

"But now we have found something when Jesus comes. o the playroom, and counted their toys, better to do with them," said Tom. "I nd put ever so many of these in a heap on wish that we had money enough for the to be found when Jesus comes. other thing."

The night before Christmas they ran over, be saying when Jesus comes. the way and asked Grandmother Rule to lend them four stockings. They filled the stockings with toys and games and picture-books, and hung them at the foot of the bedstead where the four children were asleep

:= :::: = ::==

"Won't they be glad?" said old Mrs. Rule. "I will waken them at daylight."

"Grandmother I: ile will open her eyes wide when she area what is on the chair," whispered Rose. Mother and father had helped them with "money for the other thing," so that Rose and Tom could buy a big turkey too for the family over the way.

Hurrah for Christmas ! What a glad day it was for all ' But I should not be surprised to hear that Rose and Tom were made more glad by what they gave than by all the fine gifts that came to them.

Rose said, "Mother, I have chosen a beautiful text for the New Yearwhat Jesus said: 'It is more blessed to give than to receive "

RULES FOR TO-DAY.

CHRISTMAS DAY.

O TELL me, children, who have seen The Christmas tree in bloom, Which is the very brightest thing That sparkles in the room?

The candles? No. The tinsel? No. The skates and shining toys? Not so, indeed; nor yet the eyes Of happy girls and boys.

It's Christmas day, itself, my dears; It's Christmas day alone-The brightest gift, the gladdest gift, The world has ever known.

The Sunbeam

TORONTO, DECEMBER 18, 1886

THE SUNBEAM FOR 1887

Will be brighter, better, and more beautiful than ever, with a superior grade of pictures. It is just what the little folk of the primary classes need-full of pretty pictures, poems, etc.

Teachers will please send their orders at once, that there be no interruption in sending the SUNBEAM for 1887.

SUNBEAM every fortnight, when less than twenty copies, 15 cents; twenty copies and upwards, 12 cents.

BE POLITE.

"Hush!" whispered a little girl to her classmates who were laughing during prayer. "we should be polite to God." Dear children, do you ever think how wickedly rude it is to laugh and whisper in your class, or while the superintendent is engaged in prayer? Be careful how you laugh during God's service, lest some time he laugh at you and " mock when your fear cometh."

THE FIRST CHRISTMAN.

"GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST," | gift to you—the gift of his dear Son—and

HARK! the herald-angels sing. "Glory to the new-born King. Peace on earth, and mercy mild: God and sinners reconciled."

Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumph of the skies! With anjelic hosts proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"

Mild he lays his glory by. Born that man no more may die: Born to raise the sons of earth. Born to give them second birth.

Hail the heaven-born Prince of peace! Hail the Sun of righteousness! Light and life to all he brings, Risen with healing in his winga.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

My dear little Sunbeams-for that I hope you all are-bright and cheery, and giving joy and gladness, just like the beams of the blessed sun, I wish you all a very merry Christmas and a very happy New Year. I hope you will have lots of fun during your holidays, lots of presents in your stockings. and plenty of cake and plum-pudding; only don't eat too much of it and forget the poor. who have none of the pleasant things you have; and if you will spare some of your own things to give to some poor boy or girl you will enjoy your own ever so much better. Remember God's great Christmas give him your young hearts, and resolve with the New Year to love him all your lives. Try to let your lives henceforth be like the snow in the fields, pure and spotless, not defiled by sin, like the snow on the roads, all marred and soiled by trampling feet.

I hope, too, you will do all you can for the Mission cause. Ask your friends to give a Christmas present to God to extend the preaching of his Word throughout Canada, and throughout the world.

CHRISTMAS.

THERE is no part of the world in which Christmas is not kept. Even in pagan lands are found some Christians who do not forget when the day comes which celebrates the birth of Christ. Though doubtless everywhere there are those who see in it only a day for feasting and merrymaking, yet many others in the midst of the feasting remember what the day means. and thank God for the heaven-sent Rabe and for the angels' song. Let every heart unite in the chorus of "Glory to God in the highest."

A SCHOOLMISTRESS, while taking down the names and ages of her pupils at the beginning of the term, asked one little fellow: "What's your father's name?" Oh, you needn't take down his name! was the reply; "he's too old to go to school this year.'

BY MRS. HELEN E. BROWN.

TELL me, why is Christmas day
The day for songs and mirth?
It calls to mind the happiest
That ever dawned on earth;
The day when God sent angels down
To sing the Saviour's birth.

What's the song for Christmas day,
The glad, the sweet refrain?
"Glory to God" in heaven above,
"Peace and good-will to men;"
Let all the joy-bells peal it out
Again, and yet again.

How shall children keep the day
To please their Lord above?
By singing songs of thankfulness,
And doing deeds of love;
By bearing high the olive branch
Of peace, like Noah's doye,

Will he let such little ones
His wondrous mercy tell?
Yes, we may carry wide the news,
And this will please him well—
The blessed news that Jesus came
To save our souls from hell.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

A MERRY Christmas to all the boys and girls! May the joys of this happy time last all the year, and grow deeper, and stronger, and sweeter, with every new day!

This can only be the case where the true Christmas spirit is found—the spirit of love and helpfulness.

What but this sent the Holy Babe, whose birth we celebrate at this glad time, into our cold, sad world? Surely, if he had not loved us very dearly, and wanted to help us, he would not have left his bright home in the skies to be born in a manger, and to grow up to suffer the scorn and ill-treatment of wicked men!

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

LISTEN, children, to the music

That the old church bells do make,
Ringing out this Christmas morning.

For the dear Redeemer's sake.

Tis his birthday, and we keep it
In this lovely land of ours,
In the farm-house, cottage, mansion.

Pleasantly we pass the hours

Long ago, in Bethlehem's stable.

Christ was born, the baby King;

"Peace on earth," the watching shepherds
Heard the holy angels sing.

And the music has not ceased,
But has through the ages rolled.

And "good will" among the nations
Has increased a thousandfold.

Let our hearts be full of sunshme,
Though the frost is on the pane,
And old Winter, keen but kindly,
Comes to visit us again.
As with snowy robe he covers
All the bleak and barren ground,
And makes fairy forms of beauty
Where the leafless trees abound.

Ring, ye bells! 'tis sweet to listen;
Sing, ye waits, outside the door,
Echoes of that wondrous music
That was heard in days of yore.
Decorate the house with holly,
Let the bright red berries shine,
While we celebrate the birthday
Of our loving Lord divine.

CHRISTMAS TREES

MERRY Christmas! Why do we keep it with so much joy and gladness? Is there a little child anywhere who does not know that it is the day when our dear Lord was born? "Christ the Prince of glory slept on Mary's knee." The whole beautiful story is familiar to every one of us, and the sweetest thing about Christmas is that it belongs to every one of us, to the poorest as well as the richest, for the infant Jesus came to save the whole world.

The custom of hanging gifts on Christmas trees comes to us from Germany. There for days beforehand, great preparations are made, and when the eve of Christmas arrives, the tree is lighted with tapers, and its boughs are loaded with presents for parents, children, teachers, friends and servants. We are glad that many of our Sunday-schools follow the pretty home idea of the Fatherland to a wider conclusion, and have Christmas-trees in the Sunday school.—The Child's World,

CHRISTMAS IS COMING.

THANK God for Christmas! It has a fac so cheery that our own faces brighten as look into it. It is so merry with bell-mus and carol-singing that we find oursely joining in its songs. And it is a friend true and warm that we welcome it with our hearts.

Christmas is coming; let us make it merry one. Let sorrow chasten and su due, but not render us selfish and ha Rather let us be more tender because of presence-more anxious to lighten the bu den of it for others. Let us do without something that a sick child may be fed, a cold room warmed. Let us invite as guest of the festival some solitary in vidual; let us send parcels to the poor, a greetings to the aged. Let us think wh he whose birthday we celebrate would if he were in our place, and then let us it joyfully and for his sake. What did do? Feed the hungry? Heal the sid Yes; and when he could no longer do he said, "Nevertheless, not myj will, thine be done."

Dear friends, God give you a har Christmas i
