I had no difficulty in fixing upon Lord Ravenspur as the culprit. The rest you know."

The words were quietly and evenly spoken, but the deep ring of sincerity in them was not lost upon Walter Lance. Here was a man who saw his way clearly before him, a man blinded by prejudice and bigotry, who would not hesitate for a single moment, who would laugh contemptuously at the mere suggestion of personal danger.

"What could you do afterwards?" Walter asked.

Silva shrugged his shoulders contemptuously.

"Why go into that?" he said. "The honor of the house would be avenged. I should have done my duty, and have earned the approbation of my friends. There would be a great outcry, no doubt. The thing would be equated into, and probably the child I speak of would have been restored to her mother, though to be sure, I am not quite certain whether the Countess is a proper person."

"So you have doubts on that score?" Walter asked eagerly.

"Now is it not a fact that the Countess Flavio was notoriously a woman of evil disposition?"

"Everybody said so," Silva replied.

"Had I chosen, I might have thrown a different light upon it. Mind you, I am only pleased with my late mistress; but there were excuses plausible enough. I cannot forget that it was a horrible thing for a mother to go off and leave her child all those years. Still, that is no matter. If the time ever came, I could show the world something which would open their eyes as to the doings in his lifetime of Count Flavio. He kept a diary. After his death I found that diary."

"And you did not produce it at the trial?"

"To what good, signor? Popular prejudice was so strong against us that, beyond doubt, the prosecution would have proved that diary to be a forgery. I should have been cast into prison, and my mistress would have been deprived of the one protector whom she so dearly needed. Why, feeling run so high at the time of the trial that it was dangerous for me to walk the streets alone at night, but why discuss this now? Why continue this unnecessary conversation? You have made up your mind what to do. You have only to ring the bell, and there is an end of me."

Silva paused and shrugged his shoulders significantly. He rose as if to take another cigarette. The box slipped from his hand, and some of the little white tubes rolled across the polished floor. With an apology for his clumsiness, he stooped to pick them up. Then he rose again, his right hand shot out in the direction of a figure in the distance, grasping a huge battle-axe in its hand. With the swiftness of an animal, the battle-axe was snatched up, and before Walter could realize what was happening, the Italian had smashed a couple of the heavy plate-glass sheets, thus clearing a way into the garden. Walter yelled at the top of his voice and darted forward but he was too late. He realized the folly of a search in the darkness. No doubt, by this time the man was far away. He opened the studio door, which closed suddenly behind him, owing to a draught which came streaming through the broken panes. He saw Lord Ravenspur standing before him in the corridor, with a white face and agitated manner.

"What is it, Walter?" the latter asked hoarsely.

"I'll tell you presently," Walter said. "Only you must get the women-kind away first. It is quite imperative that Vera should know nothing, though it is the least matter in Mrs. Delahay's case. She knows all about it."

Mrs. Delahay, followed by Vera, was in the corridor by this time. The girl's face was pale. There was an inquiring look in her eyes.

"It is really nothing," Walter said. "Just a little accident on the polished floor of the studio. One of the servants will have to sleep in there tonight in case of intruders. It is a great pity you haven't got one of the dogs from uncle's place in Hampshire."

"It is terribly late," Mrs. Delahay exclaimed, with a significant glance in Walter's direction. "Really, I ought to be back at my hotel long ago. I suppose I can find a cab?"

FARMER AND HIS WIFE PRAISE ZAM-BUK

As a family balm and salve Zam-Buk is unequalled, and should be on every Canadian farm. Mrs. C. E. Tibbs of Oak Vale Farm, Winnipeg, Beach, writes:—We have found Zam-Buk a wonderful healer. I used it for a very bad burn on my hand, and by the next day the pain had gone and the wound well on the way to healing. My husband also used Zam-Buk for a nasty flesh wound on his arm which he healed. In several ways we have found Zam-Buk so healing and soothing that we would not like to be without it in the house. Before we could get Zam-Buk in Canada, we used to write to England for it we thought so much about it. This great skin healer is sold by all druggists and stores at 25 cents a box. A HITCH BETWEEN SCHOOL BOARD AND CITY

Treasury Board Feels the City Should Have Been Consulted Over Purchase of Winter St. School Site.

The action of the board of school trustees in contracting a liability of several thousand dollars by purchasing a site for an annex to the Winter street school without first obtaining the consent of the common council was severely commented yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called to consider a letter from Hon. J. D. Hazen, in which the premier referred to the trustees having applied to the government for permission to issue bonds to the extent of $40,000, and asked if the council had any comment to make. After a lively discussion it was decided to inform the board that no request dealing with the matter had been received from the trustees and to ask them to refer the matter to the treasury board. Ald. Baxter occupied the chair and the mayor, Ald. Frank Pickett, Kelley, McGoldrick, Rowan, Sproul, McCowan were present with the comptroller.

After the letter from the premier had been read several aldermen expressed their strong disapproval of the site which the locality was no place to put up a new $40,000 building, and comments were made on the bad drainage and the prevalence of diphtheria in the neighborhood.

Ald. Kelley contended that the trustees would have done better had they bought the Stockton property on Mount Pleasant. Ald. McCowan was also of the opinion that the convent property would also have been more suitable.

The action of the trustees in purchasing the site without consulting the board was severely censured. It was pointed out that they had bought two properties costing $2,200 and had incurred a ground rent of $90 a year, transactions which, when capitalized, put a liability on the city of about $7,000. It was also argued that for school purposes freehold land should have been secured.

The mayor, who is also a school trustee, informed the board that, personally, he was not satisfied with the situation chosen. The matter, he said, should be referred to the board of the ordinary course had not the chairman of the school trustees assured them that it would be unnecessary for the government to give the required permission direct.

Ald. Pickett took the view that as the city was pleased with my late mistress, but there were excuses plausible enough. I cannot forget that it was a horrible thing for a mother to go off and leave her child all those years. Still, that is no matter. If the time ever came, I could show the world something which would open their eyes as to the doings in his lifetime of Count Flavio. He kept a diary. After his death I found that diary."

Fashion Hint for Times Readers

NATTY JACKETS FOR GOLFING GIRLS.

When the golfing girl dislikes a sweater she has recourse to a jacket of some light weight woolen material, such as coarse serge, whipcord or basket cloth. These are quite as carefully tailored as any of the half-fitted, box-fronted jackets and are rich in pockets to hold the handkerchiefs, the gloves and the oft-discarded collar and necktie. Usually the enthusiastic golfer girl prefers a coat of some neutral shade, such as taupe or tan, but she is not averse to brightening it with brilliantly hued velvet collar and cuffs.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

DEWITT CAIRNS IN SONG HIT

DeWitt Cairns, whose singing attracts so many music lovers to the Nickel Theatre has selected a song for the remainder of the week that is expected to make a big hit. It is Alfred Robyn's soulful love ballad "You," a number that is sung by the most noted vocalists in the world with continuous success. It is a favorite encore selection of some of the famous male vocalists. Miss Emerson, whose dulcet voice is as good, will be light and airy in the Irish ditty "When My Girl from Tipperary Tiptoe Me." These two new numbers today with John's popular young people, will be a treat for all who attend the big airy house of modern entertainment with its unequalled music and long program.

The pictures are: The Athletic Woman, The Professor's Discovery and Anti-Hair Powder.

TUG HUNTER SUNK

While coming into the coal shed above Rowan's wharf, Indiantown, at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the steam tug G. D. Hunter was carried by the tide against a scow loaded with deals and was so badly injured that she filled and sank soon afterwards. She now lies with part of the house above water at low tide, and it is thought that she can be raised in a few days time.

The Hunter is one of the best tugs on the river and is owned by William and Andrew Rudick. She has been up river and arrived yesterday with a string of scows. She was approaching the wharf when an extra heavy run of tide struck her and carried her down hard against a scow.

Capt. Urquhart and his men worked their hardest to get her clear, but a hole several inches long was broken in her side and she gradually filled. The crew were able to get their effects out of the cabin and get ashore safely before she went down. Today workmen will be engaged in an effort to float her.

GOSSIP ABOUT SESSION OF SUPREME COURT I. O. F.

H. W. Woods, M.P.P. May be Nominated for an Office—United States Wants Recognition—Officers and Salaries—The Orphans' Home.

(Toronto Globe, Monday.) With the arrival of the Californian delegation this morning the list of delegates to the convention of the I. O. F., which opens on Tuesday, will be practically complete. Australia's lone representative, the delegates from the British Isles having already arrived. In the meantime the special committee of 25, formed from the various standing committees of the order, who have been considering the financial position of Forestry, with direct reference to rates, have practically completed their labors. It is on their proposals that the main struggle will take place, for it is now beyond doubt that they will recommend that the old members' rates should be levelled up with the new. Practically bound up with this will be the fight for the office of Supreme Chief Ranger, for which the Supreme Chief Ranger, Elliott G. Stevenson, will be re-nominated. Mr. Stevenson is the chief advocate of the change, and his most formidable, and probably only opponent, Supreme Treasurer Harry Collins, is opposed to it.

UNION TRUST COMPANY. Another story that is going the rounds is that Supreme Chief Ranger Stevenson is prosecuting a suit, on behalf of the Union Trust Company, and as a result of certain information obtained when the Royal Insurance Commission reported, in which Mr. Geo. W. Fowler, M. P., and Mr. Geo. E. Foster, M. P., are more or less interested, but Supreme Secretary R. Mathison last night denied any knowledge of any such suit.

PRESENT OFFICE HOLDERS. Seven officers have to be filled by the Supreme Court, and the present officers who form the Executive Council are: Mr. Elliott G. Stevenson, Toronto, Supreme Chief Ranger; Mr. Victor Morin, B.A., LL.B., N.P., Montreal, Past Supreme Chief Ranger; J. D. Clark, Dayton, Ohio, Supreme Vice-Chief Ranger; Mr. R. Mathison, Toronto, Supreme Secretary; Mr. H. A. Collins, Toronto, Supreme Treasurer; Dr. F. Millman, M.R.C.S.E., Toronto, Supreme Physician; Mr. W. H. Hunter, M.A., Toronto, Supreme Counsellor.

PROPOSED COMPROMISE. In their proposals that the rates for old members should be increased, however, they have not gone all the way with the Supreme Chief Ranger, and will not recommend that the old members should be penalized to the extent of the difference between their old low rates and the new, but will favor that such difference should be charged up to loss and gain. This will remove the objection which many delegates had to the earlier scheme, and solidify a large body in favor of the proposed change.

MR. STEVENSON SUPREME CHIEF

Old Executive Re-Elected by Foresters Supreme Court—Some Changes Made in the Regulations.

Toronto, June 17.—The principal business at today's session of supreme court of Independent Foresters, was the appointment of a committee to prepare a suitable memorial to the late supreme chief Oronhyateka. Two or three reports were presented.

The committee on constitution and laws reported by W. H. Hunter, the total disability department is done away with and the work of that department is transferred to the mortuary department.

It is now definitely provided that the offices of financial secretary and treasurer in local courts shall not be combined in one person.

LAURIER SILENT ON ELECTION BILL

Expected Statement About the Ayiesworth Bill Withheld in the House.

Ottawa, June 17.—The expectation of a deliverance today by the prime minister on the government's position in regard to the Ayiesworth bill was doomed to disappointment. Ministerial measures were under discussion during both sittings of the house and some advance was made, but Sir Wilfrid maintained silence upon the subject that evidently was uppermost in the minds of members.

It was the subject of discussion at the opposition caucus in the morning, when Mr. Borden explained the course of negotiations, and Mr. Byles of Algoma enlightened his colleagues upon the possible effect of the clause dealing with the organized districts.

This afternoon the house again turned its attention to law making and succeeded in disposing of two bills, fathered by the finance minister, namely a bill respecting government-guaranteed bonds of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway and a bill providing subsidies for dry docks.

Mr. Ames wanted to know if these subsidies would be available for municipalities constructing dry docks. Mr. Fielding did not seem enthusiastic over municipal ownership but stated that a municipality would receive the same consideration as a private company.

Leighton McCarthy (North Simcoe), evidently had Collingwood in mind, when he expressed a view that existing companies should be protected against municipal competition. No municipality should be aided in close proximity to a private company's dry dock, he argued. Both Messrs. Fielding and Ames took the same view and this principle, the finance minister added, would apply to a new company seeking to compete with an existing company.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE

Many Probationers Desire to Enter the Ministry—Preliminary Station Sheet Shows Many Changes.

Moncton, N. B., June 17.—The ministerial sessions were continued in the N. B. and P. E. I. conference today and the first public meeting was held tonight. Rev. Dr. Garman, general superintendent, presided. The greater part of the session and the principal business to engage the attention of the ministers was the standing of probationers and the accepting of candidates for the ministry.

Harry Strothard, son of Rev. James Strothard, Moncton, was recommended for ordination and will be ordained Sunday morning. Candidates accepted for the ministry are as follows: Fred Crisp, James W. Howe, George W. Tilley, H. W. Holmes, Percy A. Fitzpatrick, Frederick T. Bertram, Willis B. Laird.

Tonight a public meeting was held in the interest of the sustentation fund. Rev. J. K. King presided. Rev. A. C. Bell, secretary-treasurer of the fund, submitted a report showing the total amount contributed $15,721 compared with $1,880.79 last year. A decrease of $34.88. The districts contributed as follows:

EAT ORANGES

IF YOU WANT TO KEEP WELL

Careful tests have proved beyond question that orange juice has clearly defined medicinal virtues. Those who suffer with indigestion—are compelled "to diet"—find that after eating oranges regularly for breakfast there is no distress, no palpitation.

Where there was a tendency towards constipation, the eating of oranges regulated the bowels.

In skin troubles, those who began the morning meal with an orange were noticeably improved.

There is, however, a quicker way to get better results. This is to take one or two "Fruit-a-tives" tablets at bedtime in addition to the juice of an orange before breakfast the next morning. "Fruit-a-tives" are the juices of oranges, apples, figs and prunes, in which the medicinal action is many times intensified by the special way of combining them. Valuable tonics are then added.

Take the juice of an orange before breakfast—take "Fruit-a-tives" at night—and you will quickly be rid of indigestion, stomach troubles, constipation and biliousness. "Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 25c a box of 12, or $2.00, each on receipt of price by "Fruit-a-tives," Limited, Ottawa.

GOVERNOR'S DAUGHTER IN RUNAWAY MATCH Miss Mary R. Tweedie Weds Her Father's Coachman.

Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Tweedie, who were in the city yesterday attending a fashionable wedding at St. Paul's church, met with a most disagreeable surprise soon after they left the church when the lieutenant governor learned by telephone that his daughter, Miss Mary R. Tweedie, had made a runaway match at St. Stephen, eloping with David McEwan. Mrs. Tweedie was utterly prostrated by the news and the lieutenant governor was greatly disturbed. They will receive widespread sympathy from a host of friends because of the unfortunate affair.

THE MAN IN THE CASE was employed as coachman by Governor Tweedie up to ten days ago. He left then and another coachman was engaged. Miss Tweedie for some days past had been visiting friends in St. Stephen. McEwan evidently had followed her to that place, and yesterday they were married, subsequently leaving for Montreal, probably to sail for the Old Country, of which McEwan is a native. Tweedie is nineteen years old and the man a few years older, nothing could be done by the grieving parents of the young lady.

McEwan had been in the lieutenant governor's employ for ten months, having been hired soon after he came to Canada.

Mr. Cody says that the size of the Star will be built for next summer's trade. Mr. Cody says that his company is determined not to abandon the route.

POLICE COURT

M. M. Budawich appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge of driving under the gates at the Mill street crossing and refusing to back his horse when ordered to do so.

The defendant, who stated that he was unable to stop his horse in time, was cautioned allowed to go.

His honor observed that he hoped that the police would make it a point to report everybody who drives under the gates at the Mill street crossing faster than a walk, as at that point care must be exercised until an overhead bridge has been placed there.

Michael Weizel, who happened to be in court, was called forward and informed that he owed $5 on a fine and was detained until he could arrange to get the money.

Joseph McDermid was brought into court from the jail to give evidence against Louis Green, proprietor of the Ottawa Hotel, who is charged with illegal liquor selling. McDermid refused to be sworn, and for the present was sent back to jail.

One drunk forfeited an eight dollar deposit.

Members of the club occupied seats in the pit and gave Miss Emerson such a hearty reception that she and her manager Mr. Samuel Lewis were obliged to respond by speeches at the close of the third act.

During the evening Miss Emerson was presented with a handsome bouquet by Mr. T. H. Bird and the club members.

EVERY DAY CLUB GROUNDS.

There must have been seven hundred people at the Every Day Club grounds last evening, including men, women and children. The attendance at the ball games is much larger this season than for years past, and the children's playground is a great attraction. The Every Day Club has constructed new sanitary conveniences for the children, and the old pavilion is being given a coat of whitewash. Last evening the running track for the 100 yards dash was given some attention.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS.

There is much interest in the high school sports which take place at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The necessary preparations will be made on the grounds this evening, in readiness for the event.

BIG FIGHT WILL BE TOMORROW

Question of Change in Rates Will Then Come up in Supreme Court of Foresters.

Toronto, Ont., June 18 (Special).—Report of Dr. Millman, physician to the Foresters' Convention last night, presents some unusually interesting features. He states that tuberculosis is responsible for 7.58 per cent. of deaths regarding intemperance. He adds that he tries to impress upon the minds of organizers and medical examiners that applicants for membership who use intoxicating liquors steadily, though not to excess in the ordinary acceptance of the term, are not safe risks. He regretted to report that there were many in the order, however, who came within this category.

THE SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

An educated blind person is as a rule self-reliant, self-supporting and an inspiration to those with whom he comes in contact.

An uneducated blind person is a burden to himself and to his friends.

Education is free to every blind boy and girl in the maritime provinces and Newfoundland but the fact is not always known to the parents of such children.

Public-spirited citizens, boys and girls as well as grown-ups, to help forward the work of the School for the Blind at Halifax can best do so by sending to the superintendent, the names, ages and addresses of all blind persons under twenty-one years of age.

Address to C. F. Fraser, superintendent School for the Blind, Halifax, N. S.

A CITIZEN PROTESTS.

Sir,—I would like to inquire if there is any by-law or ordinance in this city, prohibiting merchants, hotels, etc., from washing their sidewalks at eleven o'clock in the morning.

On King street, this morning, an employe of one of the leading hotels, was engaged in washing the sidewalk at 11.15, much to the discomfort of pedestrians. I noticed several ladies get their shoes and skirts in a most lamentable condition, from the small boys' untimely deluge.

I think the proper authorities should look into this matter and take steps to regulate the time for cleaning the sidewalks.
