Sum Mentioned in Case of G. C. Langbien—Daylight Time Figures in Proceedings.

Gustav C. Langbien, former secretary-treasurer of the local Longshoremen's Union was arrested last night on a warrant, charged with theft, and was before the police court this morning. Evidence was given by J. J. Donovan, president of the union, who said that the sum of $340.57 was unaccounted for. No further evidence was taken, and the accused was remanded to jail for further witnesses. J. A. Barry appeared for the defence.

Morris Lambert, Joseph Sekolsky and Maurice Kachetsky charged with keeping their places of business, being second-hand stores, open after the time allowed by law on Saturday night, pleaded not guilty. Evidence was given by Policeman Garne, who testified that the stores of the accused on Saturday night at 10.40 o'clock. He had notified each of the defendants previously that the closing hour was nine o'clock on week days and ten o'clock on Saturdays. H. A. Powell, K. C., appeared for the defence, and he called as a witness E. L. Hutchinson, director of the Meteorological Observatory, who explained the difference between daylight and solar time, saying that there was one hour and twenty-four minutes difference.

Mr. Powell contended that the law governing second-hand stores was not affected by the fact that the city had adopted daylight time, and he read the city resolution pointing out that it merely requested citizens to run on this time and was by no means mandatory. He said that he had advised his clients, however, to run their stores on daylight time hereafter.

The magistrate said that he had very little trouble with Hebrews, and that no one had been before him for drunkenness in the whole thirty-two years he had been on the bench, and only five Methodists had been before him. The magistrates desired to allow the defendants to go on condition that they would run their stores on daylight time.

W. H. Shurps, who was released from custody last night, was also remanded to the custody of the police court this morning, following the order of the supreme court giving the custody of the children to the mother. W. R. Scott appeared for the defence, and Cyrus F. Inches for the prosecution.

A CHILD WONDER AT OPERA HOUSE

Dolly Dumplin Delights Audiences by Her Clever Performance—Circus Also Makes Decided Hit—Other Good Numbers.

"A regular child prodigy" was the unanimous opinion expressed by the large throng of patrons, who attended the three performances of the new mid-week programme in the Opera House yesterday after witnessing Dolly Dumplin perform. To see this little child perform and hear her is a treat well worth enjoying. She is one of the cleverest not the cleverest, appearing on a stage that she was a general favorite was evident from the appreciative applause tendered her.

Another act, which is making a big hit is Norris's baboon, dog and pony circus. A number of beautiful and well-trained dogs, a Shetland pony and two cats, which are their various feats are highly entertaining. This act is making a big hit with young and old and is beautifully staged and teeming with interest.

Helena Jackley scored a triumph in her novel singing and acrobatic offering. Her backward diving from an elevated stage is a feat, which gave a real thrill to her offering.

Carlita and Dick Lewis have a high class singing novelty, which is a musical number and gives good singers and their strong and rich voices blend well in their choice number of selections. They also intersperse some comedy in their pleasing and dainty offering, which added to their popularity.

Bert Adams and Clarence Robinson gave a popular entertainment, consisting of piano and brilliant dancing. One member sings well and plays the piano while his partner gives a dancing performance which would be hard to excel. Both are clever performers and their singing and dancing won rounds of applause.

The entire programme is good and is one of the best mid-week bills presented for some time. In addition to the vaudeville there is another episode of the serial drama "Fighting Fate" featuring William Duncan. This programme will be repeated tonight and again on Thursday afternoon and evening.

TRADE TO REVIVE NOW, SAYS FISHER

Yale Economist Sees the End of Depression in the United States.

Washington, June 1.—Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale, who is here to attend the first meeting of the Stable Money League, a new organization of economists, bankers, and business men which is seeking a remedy for the fluctuating value of the dollar, declared that the end of the business depression was at hand and that a general improvement would be seen within the next few months.

Prof. Fisher's deductions are based on calculations of the index number showing the purchasing value of the dollar for the past eight weeks. The index number, which covers the prices of 200 commodities, has been fairly stationary during this period, indicating the steady influence in trade.

Wholesale prices may go a little lower in the next month or two, say Prof. Fisher. "After that there will be a gradual rise, coincident with the rise in the stock market. Retail prices have not yet come down to match the wholesale drop, so that we may see the anomaly of retail prices coming down while wholesale prices are advancing."

"This rise in price will continue for a year or so, and, taking a long look ahead, there will then be a gradual fall owing to the exports of Europe to contract currency and draw away our gold. I doubt if it will ever again see the price level as low as it was before the war."

THE DUMBELLS TO GO ON A WORLD TOUR

New York, May 31.—(By Canadian Press)—"The Dumbbells," the organization of former Canadian soldiers, which is presenting "Biff Bing! Bang!", at the Ambassador theatre on Broadway, has met with such success that the engagement has been made indefinite, the Shuberts under whose direction they are playing announced recently. The original agreement was for a limited engagement of four weeks only.

Captain Plunkett has announced that an offer for a world tour, to begin at the conclusion of the United States engagement, has been received. Under the proposed arrangement the tour would begin next winter. The company would sail from Vancouver and the first en-

Later they would appear in Manila, Yokohama, Nigasaki, Kobe, Shanghai, Melbourne, Sydney, Queenstown, Bombay, Calcutta, Cairo, Port Said, and then in Europe where they would travel through Spain, Portugal, Italy, France and Belgium. On the return trip they would appear in London, England. Captain Plunkett who manages the company, said the offer was under consideration.

HEALTH IS A WOMAN'S GREATEST ASSET

Contrast the cheerful happy woman with head erect, the glow of health on her cheeks, the elastic step and bubbling enthusiasm as she goes about her daily tasks, with the woman who suffers from backache, headaches, dragging-down pains, nervousness and despondency. Such conditions are undoubtedly caused by woman's ailments which will yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for many, many years has been restoring weak, ailing women to health and strength. Every woman who suffers in this way owes it to herself to at least give it a trial.

The patients at the St. John County Hospital and the staff greatly enjoyed a concert given at the hospital last night by Black's orchestra. The entertainers were heartily thanked.

DOES POLITENESS PAY?

A Frenchman Who Tried it in the Subway Has His Doubts

(N. Y. Times)

The Frenchman who is polite in Paris must "watch his step" in New York, for what is good manners abroad may be considered as eccentricity or worse in a land where hurry and progress exclude the niceties of behavior. This experience is told by a Frenchman in the Gazette Franco-Americaine.

"A countryman of mine, of birth and position, after a few days in New York where he had just arrived, said to me in astonishment: 'How queer people here are. When I enter a street car every one is amused.'"

"Perhaps you do something eccentric," I hazarded. "I do not think so," he replied, "for I always lift my hat to the women in the car, as we do in Paris." And when I remarked that the women considered eccentric, he was incredulous. "It's true, just the same," said I, "and furthermore, your custom may get you into trouble. Suppose one of these ladies sees you raise your hat and thinks you are trying to get acquainted. She may call a policeman and have you arrested for annoying her. The policeman would not believe your explanation, and would give you ample leisure in which to reflect upon American ideas of politeness."

The writer then recalls an experience of his own. "I remember once," he writes, "when I was waiting in line at a railroad ticket office. The lady in front of me looked for a long time in her pocketbook and I was sure she had lost her money. Discreetly passing the necessary change to the clerk I motioned him to give the lady her ticket, which he did. When she saw the ticket, however, she shot me a look that was truly terrifying, and I rushed for my train, swearing that never again would I try to help a female in distress by politeness of that sort."

Officers of the council of the St. John Law Society have been elected as follows: President, J. H. A. L. Fairweather; secretary-treasurer, J. B. Devetz; book and library committee, Judge H. O. McInerney, W. H. Harrison and W. A. Ross.

the predominating merchandising event of the week.

This does not mean that everything throughout the entire store is marked at sale prices. It does mean, however, that every department throughout the store is offering many lines of wearing apparel at radical reductions.

And the reductions are on new, seasonable merchandise. It is not an attempt to get rid of old high priced stocks. We took our loss months ago—got rid of all our high priced lines and freshened our stocks up at the lower price levels; and it is from these lower price levels that the radical reductions for this great selling event are made.

You'll find it greatly to your advantage to come in and look around. There are many good bargains out on the tables that are not advertised.

Strong Delegation at Ottawa This Morning in Matter of Freight Rates—The Argument.

Hallifax, N. Despite original intentions, Mr. Finn continues, the scientific rates basing method was applied to the Intercolonial system by the railway commission under special jurisdiction given it by the government in 1916 under the War Measures Act.

"CAN HAVE PEACE IF WE WANT IT"

Historical Event is Birth of Society of League of Nations—L. P. D. Tilley, of St. John, is Speaker at First Meeting.

Ottawa, June 1.—To make vital the objects and purposes of the League of Nations, the League of Nations Society of Canada was brought into being at a meeting in the Chateau Laurier last night which was attended by many of the most eminent leaders of the League of Nations. Realization of the League of Nations could not become an accomplished fact without the sympathy and support of the common people of the empire and the world was emphasized by the speakers present and with this in view, one of the prime objects of the society will be to educate the public opinion on the principle, aims, organizations and work of the league. Strong appeals were made by the representatives of Canada to forego the sword as a means of settling international disputes to adopt instead arbitration and conciliation.

"It becomes more and more apparent," said His Excellency the Governor General, who presided at the meeting, "that war is the most useless and ineffective method of determining disputes between nations." A statement which was heartily applauded by those present.

"If the world wants peace, it can obtain it," declared Sir George Foster, and those and other pronouncements were received with undivided support. The meeting was a memorable one, and launched in Canada for the first time a movement to make peace permanent and to make the League of Nations a living and practical organ.

G. S. Campbell, of Halifax, moved the following resolutions:—"That the meeting proved to the organization of the League of Nations Society in Canada with the following objects:— 1.—To promote international peace. 2.—To furnish information about the League of Nations, its principles, its organization, and its work. 3.—To study international problems and Canada's relation thereto as a member of the British Commonwealth and of the League of Nations. 4.—To foster mutual understanding.

good will and habits of co-operation between the people of Canada and other countries in accordance with the spirit of the League of Nations.

Officers were elected, Sir Robert Borden being made president, with the promoter Hon. W. J. MacKenzie and Hon. T. A. Cregar, honorary president and Hon. N. W. Rowell and Hon. Dr. Boland, vice presidents.

THINGS LOOKING UP IN AUSTRIA

Sir Wm. Goode, However, Does Not Think Country Will Obtain Foreign Credits Soon—Hard Times are Ahead, He Says.

Vienna, May 12.—(Associated Press, by mail)—Sir William Goode, chairman of the Austrian section of the Reparations Commission which has just gone out of existence, who has made several attempts to obtain financial loans for Austria, sees some signs of improvement in the internal situation of this country, but holds out no hope that the foreign credits the Austrian desire will be granted him in the next few months.

"Trade is better, wages are beginning to approach the internal purchasing value of the crown and the people look healthier," Sir William said to The Associated Press. "The supply of coal is now mainly a matter of money and at the moment can be identified with the question of credits. Raw materials are more easily obtained on long credits and the import requirements for these should be financed without any serious demand upon state funds."

Sir William pointed out that neither the League of Nations nor the Reparations Commission can grant credits to Austria, for they have no money. Neither, he said, can foreign credits be obtained solely by Austria's initiative, since he has no assets to pledge except by permission of the Reparations Commission.

"Only by a combination of all these factors can any result be achieved," he continued. "When the League of Nations have concluded their investigations and made their proposals which are to be based upon private credits, it will still be for the bankers to say if they will put up their money."

These foreign credits, if granted, he said, could not be made available until the claims against Austria for reparation and for relief loans had been postponed and this involved obtaining the consent of several countries who have not yet had an opportunity even to state that question. Therefore, he concluded, that no foreign credits would be available for Austria for the next few

REAL MARRIAGE MARKET THERE

Man Speculates With Wife's Dowry, Realizes Profit and Returns Both Wife and Dowry.

Budapest, May 10-(Associated Press by Mail)-A remarkable story of how a young Hungarian made a profit of 4,000,000 crowns by speculating with his wife's dowry and then sending her and her dowry back to her father, has just come to light here.

Four months ago Joseph Klein, a young merchant of Budapest of small means, married a Transylvanian girl and received with her a dowry of 2,000,000 Rumanian lei (worth at present exchange rates about one and one-fourth cents per lei).

The bridegroom quickly changed his wife's dowry into Hungarian currency and received in exchange 16,000,000 crowns, the crown then being quoted seven to the lei.

After the honeymoon the young husband found that his good opinion of both the Rumanian currency and of his wife had declined and that the crown was now only five to the lei.

Mr. Klein thereupon bought back his wife's dowry for 10,000,000 crowns and sent her and her dowry back to her father. By that transaction Klein made a clear profit of 4,000,000 crowns and a new said to be on the lookout for another wife.

This is an example of how the marriage market here has been affected by the fluctuation of exchange values. When the Hungarian crown sank very low, the value of Transylvanian, South Hungarian and Slovak girls backed by good

BALTIC STATES ARE HOLDING ALLOF

Foresee Period of Anarchy in Russia.

Ethnographic Units Will Form Separate States, Diplomats from Moscow Predict.

Riga, Latvia, May 13-(Associated Press)-Even were the Russian Bolsheviki regime to collapse immediately, the dream of a new united Russia is impossible of realization for decades to come, in the opinion of political students, Government officials, and business men in the three Baltic states, Estonia, Let-onia and Lithuania, having diplomatic missions at Moscow. These men disagree on the number of years essential to build up a new Russia. Some say it will take 150 years and some make it only fifty years. All agree, however, that the fall of the present empire will be followed by a long period of anarchy, during which time ethnographic unit after ethnographic unit of the millions who break away and form separate states.

This opinion was expressed to the Associated Press correspondent by Prof. Affairs of the Estonian Minister of Foreign Affairs, a lecturer at Dorpat University on political and historical subjects. M. Schumann, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs of the Latvian Government. Dr. Kasimir Grinluis, Minister President of Lithuania, and dozens of other students who are in a position to view the Russian situation at close range take a similar view.

"After Lenin-what?" is the query that distinguishes those guiding the political destinies of the infant Baltic states. Men in the Foreign Office of each state admit the economic dependence of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania upon Russia. Some of them admit the possibility, but at some distant date, of some kind of a loosely woven Russian federation which these states might join. But that is so far in the future, these men say, practically all the ethnographic units of Russia would have to go through anarchy into independence before the three states that have a two years' start on the others would consent to join in a United Russia.

Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia contend, as governments, that in the short period of time since they overthrew the Bolsheviki and launched new nations, they are gaining day by day the stability that will take the rest of Russia, still under the Bolsheviki regime, years to attain.

M. Martus of New York, a Lithuanian-American at the head of the Baltic States League, which is promoting a Baltic alliance, recently returned from a month's investigation in Moscow. He summed up the situation by saying:

"Russians in America, Paris, and elsewhere who are still contending a united Russia would be possible immediately after the fall of Bolshevism are cherishing a tall dream. I was recently in Moscow. It will take 150

Possess Good Health By Looking After THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of every one, as half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system.

If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath; the nasty irritating bleeding, itching and protruding piles you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to remove its proper functions, thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system.

Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfield, N. S. writes: "I was troubled with sick headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them."

Milburn's Lax-Liver Pills are 25c a vial, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE CLOSE OF A QUIET CAMPAIGN

Nominations for Saskatchewan Legislature Tomorrow.

Independents Will Likely Offer Strongest Opposition to the Present Liberal Government — Non-Partisan League Candidates — The Platforms.

Regina, Sask., June 1—(By Canadian Press)—The quietest campaign in the history of the province of Saskatchewan is now drawing to a close with nominations tomorrow and polling one week later, on June 9.

The election will terminate the Fourth Legislature of Saskatchewan, which was chosen on June 28, 1917. In this house, composed of fifty-nine members, there were fifty-one supporters of the Liberal administration headed by Hon. W. M. Martin, K. C.; six Conservatives and two Independents. In addition three members at large were chosen by soldiers overseas. In the new legislature there will be a total of sixty-three members elected. By a re-distribution bill passed during the recent session three cities—Regina, Moose Jaw and Saskatoon—are given two representatives instead of one, and the new constituency seats will disappear, the change merely adds one seat to the house.

Owing to the fact that there are no constituencies in the province without more than two members, proportional representation could not be tried out without radical changes in the borders of the constituencies.

Present indications point to the government running candidates for all seats. The movement for independent political action will undoubtedly supply the greatest opposition the Martin government will experience. The Conservative party, at present without a leader, Donald Mackenzie having resigned, this post on April 27, and announcing he would not be a candidate for re-election, is not likely to put up a serious fight.

The Non-Partisan League will place candidates in a number of constituencies, mainly where there is a large proportion of voters of foreign birth.

The platform on which the Martin government is appealing to the electors is based largely upon a further development of the co-operative movement, which the government has strongly supported during its four years of office. In the manifesto issued by Premier Martin, on May 16, the following are the principal policies which the government pledges itself, if returned to power, to carry out:

To continue the application of the principle of co-operation between government and people in the solution of the economic problems connected with production and marketing; as far as possible to co-operate with the farmers in any practical method of improving the system of marketing grain and farm products generally to continue the fight against the government's policy of assisting farmers in the purchase of live stock, encourage the work of the Farm Loans Board, and continue the policy of assisting financially the Saskatchewan Co-operative Elevator Company, the Saskatchewan Co-operative Creameries Company and the Saskatchewan Co-operative stockyards.

The non-partisan provincial platform is practically a duplicate of the platform of the Non-Partisan League in North Dakota and proposes: Provincial terminal elevators, flour mills, stockyards, packing houses and cold storage plants; direct legislation, provincial purchasing of machinery, provincial grading of all grains according to milling values, a banking system whereby the public credit can be used for the public good; proportional representation, provincial compulsory insurance laws.

Platforms of other candidates opposing the government vary widely, the majority having one or more of the planks in the Non-Partisan League platform. The following are a few of the planks from some of the independent platforms: Provincial encouragement of co-operative abattoirs, tanneries, manufacturers of leather goods and woolen mills; a land settlement scheme based on a regulating influence in the price of land, owners of idle land obliged to file selling price on their lands, that price also to be regarded as an assessable value for the purpose of taxation; direct legislation with the initiative, referendum and the recall; it is also proposed that the whole system of selecting the premier and cabinet be changed and that the men filling these offices be elected by the members of the legislature from the floor of the house.

THE CENSUS

The work of taking the census begins here this morning when the staff of thirty-six enumerators started out in their respective wards to assemble the mass of data required. W. S. Claverton, who is in charge of the St. John-Albert district, wishes to assure the public that all information will be treated as strictly private. There are three forms to be filled out as follows:

The main form to be filled out is called the Population Chart, in which each individual will have a place. Thirty-five questions are asked on this form. They are: 1, dwelling house; 2, family, household, or institution; 3, name; 4, parish or township; 5, municipality; 6, home owned or rented; 7, if rented rent paid; 8, class of house; 9, materials of construction; 10, rooms occupied by this family; 11, relationship to head of family or household; 12, sex; 13, single, married, widowed, divorced or legally separated; 14, age at last birthday; 15, (activity) person; 16, father's nativity; 17, mother's; 18, (citizenship) year of immigration to Canada; 19, year of naturalization; 20, country to which this person owes allegiance; 21, racial or tribal origin; 22, ability to speak English; 23, ability to speak French; 24, language other than English or French spoken as mother tongue; 25, religious body, denomination or community to which this person adheres or belongs; 26, months at school since September 1, 1920; chief occupation of trade; 27, employer, employee, worker, or worker in a household; 28, if employee, where employed, (example, "farm, factory, foundry, etc."); 29, on own account, nature of work; 30, total earnings in past 12 months; 31, if out of work on June 1, 1921; 32, number of weeks unemployed in past 12 months; 33, number of weeks unemployed in past 12 months owing to illness.

The second form to be filled out is for animals, animal products, fruits, etc., not on farms. There are no less than fifty-two questions asked on this form. One must state the situation of the barn, garden, etc., number of horses, colts, mares or mules, calves (under and over one year of age), heifers, pigs, hens, geese, milk produced, butter, home-made, number of eggs secured, honey and wax obtained, thoroughbred stock, number of square feet of hot-houses, vegetable values, flower values, apple trees, with quantity of fruit secured during 1920, peach trees, pear trees, plum trees, cherry trees, other fruit trees, grapes (pounds), strawberries, raspberries, currants and gooseberries, other small fruits.

Special forms. For business houses there is a short special form containing only four questions, namely, the name of the firm, the address, the class of business, i.e., whether wholesale, retail or manufacturing, and the kind of business, i.e., grocery, foundry, etc. The form to be used in taking the agricultural census is a very comprehensive schedule containing no less than sixty-five questions, many of which have several sub-sections, relating to farm values, crops, live stock and so forth. There is also a special schedule for blind persons and deaf mutes which is confined to questions relative to their ailments. It is understood to be the intention of the federal department of health to get in communication with these people with a view to helping them.

CORPUS CHRISTI IN MONTREAL

(Montreal Herald.) The feast of Corpus Christi service conducted in the open air by the Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament, Mount Royal avenue east, yesterday, was attended by some 15,000 persons. The procession extended more than a mile and passed through decorated and densely packed streets. Preceded by mounted police the van of the procession consisted of several hundred little boys and girls, the latter wearing long white veils and the boys carrying banners. They were followed by the cadets of St. Pierre Academy, marching in slow time with bayonets fixed. Then came the Verdun Harmony Band, playing sacred music, and after them several hundred women.

Next in the line of march were the Men's Congregation, carrying their banners. The Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament, marching as an immediate guard of honor to the Host, came next preceding Mgr. Dubuc of St. Jean Baptiste parish, who carried the Blessed Eucharist, assisted by Rev. Father Lault and Rev. Father St. Jean. Following up the rear, with bayonets fixed, marched the Mount St. Louis Cadets, adding an even more brilliant touch to the scene with their scarlet uniforms and caps. A further guard of honor was supplied by Pontifical Zouaves in their quaint picturesque costumes.

MISSING 90 HOURS, FOUND IN A CLOSET

Boy 7, and Girl 5, Discovered in Vacant Flat Where Brother Goes to Play Cards—Locked in by a Playmate.

(New York Times)

They missed Stella Weiner, 5 years old, and Henry Faber, 7, from their Paterson (N. J.) homes, not far from the Passaic River, about 6 o'clock last Monday evening. Neighbors remembered having seen them playing near Stella's home, at 5 Tyler Street, but no one could give a clue after that when the youngsters failed to return to supper. By Tuesday their parents were filled with forebodings of the river, the Paterson police were baffled and Boy Scouts and members of the American Legion were joining the ranks of the searchers who hunted in all sorts of impossible places.

On Wednesday the parents despaired. The body of little Archie Northrop of Arlington had been found in the Passaic and they were sure the same fate had overtaken their own children. Appeal was made to Chief of Police Hamilton of Glen Rock on Thursday and he put Witch, his famous police dog who has found half the little wanderers of that part of New Jersey, on the trail. So great a crowd followed that the dog was hampered in its efforts. At midnight Witch again was put on the trail and led the searchers to a trestle over a coal pile in John Agnew's coal yard, half a mile from the neighborhood of the children's home. Then everyone was sure the children had fallen from the railroad trestle and were buried deep in the coal.

At noon yesterday nineteen-year-old Joseph Weiner, brother of the missing Stella, left his home to play a game of poker with his chum of the same age, Samuel Miller of 14 Tyler Street. The boys left the Miller flat, on the ground floor of the two-family house, and went softly to the dining room of the empty flat above. Weiner was dealing the first hand when the boys were started by a noise. "In there," whispered Weiner, pointing to a closet. Miller went to the door. There distinctly was tapping. He jerked open the door. Henry Faber tumbled out. Stella sat huddled in a corner, tears trickling down her cheeks. She could not talk. Faber, his throat parched, just could whisper that they had been playing hide-and-seek with 4-year-old Ethel Blinofsky Monday afternoon and had secreted themselves in the closet when Ethel came along, shut the door and held it fast.

The door was badly tilted, and the children got air, but were denied water intake. They cried awhile. Then they beat and kicked the door. Then they slept. They had no idea how long they had been there. The boys carried the children to their homes, where physicians found them in a state of physical exhaustion, but mentally in good shape. Orange juice and other liquids were fed to them, followed gradually by more nourishing food. Late last night the prognosis was that a night's sleep would remove about the Ryan giving statements of the C. B. Lochart, Collector of Customs, Sub-liquor inspector Crawford, and Chief Inspector Hawthorne in connection with the matter. It was said by the latter that there had been no request to him to inspect and approve the sites chosen for warehouse purposes.

The ground was taken in connection with the granting of the injunction, by Dr. Wallace that the attorney general in his official capacity could not be joined, that he was not a necessary and proper party to the suit as there had been nothing in the affidavits presented by the liquor companies to show he was attempting to do anything in the matter. It was also contended that notice of action must be given to the inspector, and that no injunction should issue as the question was simply hypothetical and there was no issue to be tried. He said the right to establish a bonded warehouse was not denied by the province to the dominion but the province was not forced to accept any condition precedent. An affidavit was read in reply by J. D. P. Lewin. Counsel for the liquor companies include Dr. J. E. M. Baxter, K. C., M. G. Ford, K. C., Dr. F. J. Porter, K. C., Mr. Lewin, and W. G. Pugleley.

THIS MORNING AT METHODIST W.M.S.

Talks on Subjects Relative to the Work—Reports From District Superintendents.

Short talks on subjects relative to the work of the society were given this morning at a meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society, N. B. and P. E. I. branch, in session in Exmouth street church. At the close of the business session district rallies were held under the supervision of district superintendents.

Mrs. W. S. Corbett led in prayer and reports were given by district superintendents. These covered the work of the year in the districts. Mrs. H. A. Goodwin, superintendent of Christian stewardship, reported for her branch. She advocated systematic giving. She also spoke of the use of literature and said posters were also effective. The report was adopted.

Miss Mary Fitzpatrick, missionary-elect, gave a talk on Time, using as an illustration a poster on which was printed the words "Invested, Millions Enlisted," the initial letters of which made up the word Time. She said all life was a stewardship and all things belonged to the kingdom of God. Each day was a link and we should strive to make the most of every day as it came. God wanted lives as well as souls and we should pay our debts to Him.

Mrs. J. J. Pinkerton dealt with the subject of "Talents." Everyone had some talent and it was the duty of everyone to use his or her talents to the limit that nothing might be lost to the world.

A quiet half hour was conducted by Mrs. G. A. Sellar.

The reports of circles and bands as submitted by the treasurer, Mrs. F. S. Williams, showed that the circles had raised $4,918.73 and the expenses were $129.61, leaving $4,789.12, an increase of $495.46 over last year. In the bands the amount raised was $5,225.25, an increase of $446.28.

District superintendents reported. For St. John district it was shown that the auxiliary had a membership of 860, the circle 876 and the band 536. The amount raised by the auxiliary was $3,376.46 and by the circles and bands $6,140.42, a grand increase of $394.

In Sackville district there was a total membership of 464 in all three and the total amount remitted was $1,618.97, a decrease of $109.29 from last year.

Chatham district showed 424 members and $1,615.83 raised, an increase of $92.31.

For Moncton district it was reported that the membership was 944, an increase of 122. The amount remitted was $2,612.88, an increase of $166.42.

In Summerside district the total auxiliary and band membership was 1,062 and the total amount remitted was $6,801.48, an increase of $362.14.

Federicton district had a membership of 664 and had remitted $1,912.70, an increase of $819.48.

St. Stephen showed a membership of 248 and money remitted $683.72, an increase of $93.77 in remittance and a gain of forty-six in members.

The report for Woodstock was not submitted.

INJURED DOG ATTACKS OWNER

Miss Goodrich, Attempting to Pet Dog Struck by Car, Receives a Badly Lacerated Hand—Accident at Fair Vale Station.

Maddened temporarily by several injuries received when it was run over by an automobile at Fair Vale last evening, a large dog attacked its owner, Miss Catherine M. Goodrich, and caused two severe lacerations to one of her hands. She was attended by Dr. Peters of Rothesay, and it is not expected that any serious results will follow.

When Miss Goodrich, who is a daughter of R. F. Goodrich, of the city public works department, and who resides at Fair Vale, arrived at Fair Vale station last evening she found her dog, as was his custom, waiting for her. Just as she started away from the station a large automobile, passed by and, the dog placed in front of it, was run over. Miss Goodrich went to comfort her injured pet, when, in his pain, he suddenly turned on her and before she could draw away, he caught her twice by the wrist, cutting two deep gashes, which bled freely. Miss Goodrich was taken in the car to the home of Dr. Peters where the wounds were dressed and she returned home.

END OF NEWMAN BROOK CONTRACT

Preparations are Now Being Made to Place Culvert, Which Will Make Possible Removal of Bridge.

Saab and Swanton, contractors on the work of deepening Newman brook, completed their work yesterday. This firm had the first contract on this work, their job covering a distance of 450 feet from the rear of the Shamrock grounds to just below the bridge across the brook at Adelaide street. The estimated cost of the work was $3,500.

A. George Moses, who has the contract for a further deepening of the brook of between six and seven feet, which will give it about a one per cent grade, expects to complete his contract in about a month. The distance covered by this contract is about 900 feet.

Preparations are now being made by the water and sewerage department for the placing of a concrete culvert, 180 feet in length, across the brook, which will eventually result in the removal of the Newman brook bridge.

Underwriters Condemn Second Oil Tank Site

The board of fire underwriters, in a letter to the city, has declined to approve a proposal made by the Imperial Oil Company, Ltd., to establish a floating station for fuel oil at the head of Roney slip, West St. John. This is the second site which the underwriters have condemned, asked for by the Shell Company of Canada. It is intimated, however, that they will be favorable to land storage, provided a suitable site can be obtained.
