SUSSEX SOCIETY WEDDING.

SUSSEX, N. B., Dec. 27.—Sussex had another society wedding this evening at the home of the bride's parents when Miss Annie I., youngest daughter of Edward White, was united in mar-riage to H. A. White, insurance agent. Rev. Scovil Neales performed the cere-

The bride, who was given away by her father, was beautifully attired in a silver gray chiffon broadcloth, and wore a bouquet of white bridal roses. At the close of the ceremony refreshments were served, when the happy and very popular couple retired to their future home on Church avenue. The bride received many costly gifts, the future home on Church avenue. A report received at the office of the secretary of the State board Tuesday, from the inspector, Dr. M. L. Young of Vanceboro, states that large crowds had been going east into the provinces, owing to the Christmas season, and that owing to the heavy travel the trains had been running in two sections. He also states that during the tions. He also states that during the past week the number of people who had been inspected was over 300 daily. After the holidays are over the crowds will be returning, and Dr. Young states that when that time arrives his inspection station will be guarding the whole of the New England states, and that it will be necessary to have an assistant inspector for a short time.

As a rule the Canadian health officers are very efficient, and act in the content of the hearty cooperation with the American officers, but it is reported that in some of the towns on the Canadian side of the line the local boards have been lax stance is known where a person has remained over night in a house which remained over night in a house which for St. Martins; Sch. 1 ... DAY DECLI DER 28, 1905.

Declines to Account to the Investigating Committee for His Legislative Expenditure

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.-Andrew Ham liton, the legislative agent for the New and heavy wood at $1.00 per load. York Life Insurance Company, who, according to testimony, was entrusted with hundreds of thousands of dollars by that company and has not account-ed for $235,000, has been heard from by the legislative insurance investigation committee, but has declined to make an accounting.

A statement by Mr. Hamilton was read for the record today. It was presented by Secretary John C. McCall of the New York Life, who went to Paris to secure an accounting from Hamilton. In his statement Mr. Hamilton says that he is unable to produce any books or accounts because he undertook the legislative matters for the life insurance companies with the express understanding that he was to make no accounting. Absolute secrecy was necessary in retaining assistants,

"You can't. Those dependent upon you would starve. I'll attend to that "And you will let me go without—" "That sounds strange," Allis commented, wonderingly.
"My God! I'm to be prosecuted?" "What I am going to say to you can stay in the bank. I don't think you'll ever listen to the voices again; it's bad business."
Cass sat and stared at the strange man who said these things out of stilly expressionless eyes that were blurred expressionless eyes that were blurred expressionless eyes that were blurred expressionless eyes that were distance of plant and he company.

A list of expenses from 1995 to 1904 was appended to the statement. The sum of $255,000 unaccounted for, he sayns, would be greatly reduced by his running account, still unsettled and open, and, as a matter of good faith pending a set than the offers to deposit $100,000 with the company.

port. While he is now enjoying good health after a long and precarious ill-ness he has no intention of straining his system with hard training, and exhausting it with such performances as he went through at the championships of 1904, when he skated in seven events, hand running, breaking records and winning right and left. Parker has be-come wise in his day and generation, winning right and left. Parker has become wise in his day and generation, and believes an ounce of robust health is worth a hundredweight of medals and pewter mugs. He may enjoy a few spins on the ice, however.

Jimmy Price, the little lightning man, the wisp. At present he may be in some backwoods hamlet going his rounds. Price said a short time ago that he would write to Montreal and find out just what the association's find out just what the association's proposition was, but apparently he has proposition was, but apparently he has not done so. He still has a hope of meeting Morris Wood, Robson and that bunch this season, but when and where he does not know. Verona Lake would be a good place to fight it ont again, he thinks, but business may interfere. Whatever Price's personal opinion may be in the matter of his meeting the American flyers again there seems to be no lack of confidence in him on the part of his townsfolk and Canadians in general. Montreal A. A. A. wants him as their very own, to skate with their colors on him, and St. John people will undoubtedly chip in to send him away again—all that is needed is the little fellow's assent. The championships take place in February.

MEW FISH STORE

A new fish store was opened this afternoon on Sydney street, opposite the old burial grounds. The store is a large one, bright and clean, and up-to-date in every respect. In the opinion of the proprietors it is the finest in the maritime provinces.

The store will be known as Smith's Fish Market, J. E. Smith being the proprietor, while P. A. Smith will be manager. The new manager has already had a life-time experience in the fish trade, so that it is probable that the new store will meet with success.
