THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL MEETING

Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Auxiliary Society,

FOR NOVA-SCOTIA, CAPE-BRETON AND P. E. ISLAND.

Held at Windsor, N. S., June 18th, 1849.

Rev. E. Evans in the Chair.

Report read by the Rev. Mr. Smallwood.

Moved by Rev. J. McMurray, seconded by Rev. E. Botterell.

I. That the Report now read be adopted—and that this Meeting expresses its chanks to Almighty God for the measure of success with which he has crowned the labours of this and kindred Institutions during the past year.

Moved by Rev. H. Pope, seconded by Rev. J. Buckley.

II. That as no bject really good can be obtained without the agency of the Holy Ghost—and as He is promised to the Ghurch in answer to prayer—this Meeting, regarding with the highest satisfaction the fraternal spirit which is now uniting the various Branches of the Church in the bonds of one perpetual brotherhood, calls upon the faithful of all lands to unite in the duty of special prayer for the more abundant descent of the promised Comforter, who alone can clothe their Missisnaries with salvation, and make them the means of leading to the Cross and then to the glories of Heaven those among whom they labour.

Moved by Rev. Wm. Wilson, seconded by Rev. T. H. Davies-

III. That as the necessities and tendencies of the age show that all devices merely human are uterly inadequate to meet the wants of the world, it is in the opinion of this meeting obligatory upon all the branches of the Protestant Church to disseminate more extensively the Gospel of the Grace of God, without which it has no hope that the nations of the Earth will have ensured to them that social happiness and moral improvement after which all the kindreds of the world are now seeking. This meeting therefore resolves upon renewed exertions to diffuse more extensively the doctrines of righteousness, and while it pledges itself to increased contributions, it calls upon Christians of all denominations to furnish the necessary means to send the Gospel of Jesus to the ends of the Earth.

heige in low to be about the control of the control of the about the control of the control

Missions to the heathen, and to countries but partially blessed by the religion of Christ, appear to the majority of His professed subjects to be indispensible to the conversion and ultimate happiness of the entire race. Wherever they have been established, and suitably sustained, there, by a changeless Gospel, they have accomplished delightful revolutions in the civil and social systems of the people they were intended to benefit; and if multiplied and properly supported by the older Churches, they will, doubtless, continue to transform barbarous rations into heroes of zeal and piety, and give, by their reflex influence, (as heretofore) a mighty impetus to the religious institutions of lands professedly Christian.

This conviction of their necessity, sealed as it is upon the minds of the godly of all nations,—your Committee regard as a collateral evidence of their entering into and forming one of the principal means by which the unrighteous of future generations shall be brought unto Jesus, and as the pledge given by an earnest Church of their continued support and universal extension.

That the "rightcousness which is of faith" shall yet be possessed by all of the World's population,—is both the doctrine of the Bible and the hope of the Church;—and that the promised period may be accelerated He who gave the one and founded the other is in His providence now opening a highway to different countries in which His ambassadors may proclaim "the truth as it is in Jesus." During the last century He was pleased to grant to many of the disseminators of Christian doctrine a supply of the spirit of Christ, and through the word preached by them He has raised up thousands in our day, who, impelled by the benevolence of their new nature, are anxious to go forth and bring within the limits of the new covenant those who in "the dark places of the earth" are perishing for want of that remedial economy.

As the universal establishment and maintenance of Missions is regarded as necessary by those on whom the duty devolves—as the conviction of their utility burns at present in every pious mind, as God has supplied the means necessary to dispread the Kingdom of his Son—as He has given us His word in various languages—and men, adapted to the genius of the enterprise and polished in the schools of science to carry it forth—as His Spirit, whose influences are necessary to success, is waiting to enkindle in the breasts of idolaters the extinguished flame of love to the blessed and only Potentate—we again call upon the friends of Wesleyan Missions in this District to help the Church by their prayers and example against her avowed opponents, and her Divine founder by their influence and property against the errors of the times.

The Committee of this Auxiliary of the Parent Society contemplate with unfeigned pleasure the progress made by the different reforming bodies of the day, all of which professedly aim at the social and moral improvement of the species: and which, successful to some extent, are now sanguine of achieving in their separate and independent operations all those glorious and extensive changes for which the Gospel of the grace of God was at first given. They apprize the subscribers to the funds that the world still "lieth in wickedness" and that many professors of godliness are remarkable only for their attachment to a congeries of metaphysical clouds, misnamed Scripture verities, which resolves all religion into mere speculation or sentimental feeling. The Committee admit that the Church has not yet acquired all the influence which she is intended to wield, and as a consequence does not control kings and cabinets, and dictate the creeds and practices of all nations as she is yet to do. The opposition of her foes is determined and deadly, and their endeavours to continue among us their gigantic and fatal delusions are strenuous and grim. All her members are not cordial and abiding in their attachment to her doctrine and discipline—they too frequently but half approve the holiness to which she is called-and of course their help is not more than a tithe of what it should be, -seeing that she is the Church of their salvation and vows. But we spurn the idea that the government of man and nations finds its basis exclusively in the civil contract—that a ruined world can ever be happy separate from Godor that human devices can accomplish that for which, in the opinion of their abettors, a celestial mechanism has proved itself inadequate.

The Committee believe that the Gospel has never yet had upon a large scale the opportunity of demonstrating its elevating and transforming tendencies, and they now mourn over the spirit of warfare and anarchy which seems to pervade the entire family of nations-over the almost incredible waste of property, intellect and life, occasioned by the drinking usages of society-over the prevalence of idolatry, infidelity, and various errors, endowed, and otherwise fostered, by the time serving expediency of civil governments—as well as over the disunion and sluggishness of a Church called on by God and her martyre blood to battle and victory. Yet, while they rejoice in the good done by Peace— Temperance—Evangelical Alliance—and other Societies, they declare their belief that the Gospel of Christ, as the ordination of Heaven, has alone the power to raise their fellow men to the Divine favour, and to change the dispositions and practices of whole nations-that all instrumentalities merely human, because based on other principles, and unhelped by those of the Gospel, will deplorably fail to effect extensive changes for good in the cast of society in general, or to benefit permabe blott Gospel shall ul hently even those who now uphold them-and that the name by which our world is known and designated in the dialect of Heaven can never be blotted from the rent roll of the arch apostate but by "the glorious Gospel of the blessed God," which is the antagonist of Satan, and which shall ultimately effect his downfal:

The Committee therefore take this opportunity of declaring their entire confidence in the Gospel, and their unswerving attachment to its great principles-they regard it as the only remedy for the world's woes, and as the only instrument by which its inhabitants can be levered up to their former happy position. And while they offer their support to subordinate agencies, they dissent decidedly from the opinion which in this day appears to be gaining currency in different parts of the earth, that the Gospel scheme is discarded by God, and is to be regarded by man as an almost obsolete institution. The Committee's conviction of its efficiency to accomplish all the purposes for which it was given is strengthened by the memory of its past achievements. Nowhere did the legions equipped and sent forth from the banks of the Tiber gain victories so glorious as those won by the fishermen of Gennesareth in the early days of our dispensation. The dominion of Casar suffered almost daily abridgment, while that of the despised Nazarene rapidly spread, fixing in the breasts of its foes incontestible evidence of its divine character, and potency. The nations, from India on the east, to Britain on the west, submitted to its laws,-Christian Churches were formed on the shores of China, and some of their members traversed the continent of India, while others took up their abode on the Islands of its Archipelago, lifting their testimony against the idolatry and crimes of their inhabitants—the Gospel flourished upon the ruins of the Babylonian and Medo-Persian Monarchies-spread to the deserts of the sons of Ishmael, and over Asia Minor, dispelling "the superstitions and restraining the licentiousness of their wandering tribes-it built its Churches amid the mouldering temples of Egyptian mythology—controverted the philosophy of Greece—triumphed over the idols of Rome and then spread northward, taking their original savageness from barbarous hordes, and enlightening those who sat in darkness and the shadow of death. In later times its victories have been extensive and glorious—it has showed its adaptation to the wants of man in every clime while Methodism, as one abstract of the Christian religion, has taken the precedence of some of the older bodies, and is now sending to heaven a revenue of souls amounting to thousands per annum.

It is true that the Gospel, which once spread over so many lands. and received the homage of such powerful nations, has receded from its ancient limits-leaving portions of the space it once occupied to be covered again with disgusting heathenism under the name of Christianity. The earlier Churches, with the lapse of years, ceased to be Missionary. A love of ease spread its malign influence among their members—the bishops became worldly and sensual, even to a proverb-and while the Churches fell by calm and deliberate concessions into the manners and maxims of the world-the sturdy idolaters of the north elevated to the supreme throne of Christendom a pastor of Rome, whose decretals were subsequently regarded as more authoritative than the announcements of God's revelation. But believing that the Eternal will still honour a simple and entire reliance on the innate and omnipotent power of His own truth-vindicating its divine origin and exhibiting to friends and foes its legitimate results, when unimpaired by the intermixtures of human inventions—we, while thankful for past approval and support, still bespeak the countenance and co-operation of the subscribers in this noble enterprise. Never in the opinion of the Committee was there a time when Missionary effort was more necessary or more deserving of pecuniary assistance. Society in all countries is in a transition stateall are prepared to receive, yea, are asking for a something which may contribute to their advantage—the throes and fetches of man everywhere show an inward restlessness, and a dissatisfaction with present possessions—the revolutions which are now being effected in existing empires, either in a noiseless or turbulent manner, mark this as the time when the Church through her different Societies should offer to man, who, the world over, is alternating between idolatry and a nominal Christianity, a vital Godliness, which only can satisfy his thirst for happiness, and transform him into a gracious ruler or an obedient sub-

That the Gospel may be effectual to the pulling down of the strong holds of sin wherever preached, the Committee urge upon the subscribers the duty of earnest prayer to Almighty God for the descent of the Holy Spirit—and the necessity of maintaining in their social sphere that purity and consistency of character which will elevate the tone of society to a higher pitch than it has yet attained in these provinces.-By each becoming a fresh centre, an influence for good will be created. which will stream forth with certain effect to the outermost limits of the social circle. A Church composed of such members would project a power which would soon reach to the ends of the earth. And why should not the Wesleyans of this District, standing as they do among the first fruits of our Missionaries' labours, become its germ and nucleus? The balance of influence, both natural and moral, is much more nicely adjusted in this world than is generally supposed. The addition of a single ounce to the one might change the motion of the entire system—and a high toned and generous piety generally diffused through this District might spread on to the limits of Methodism, and thence to other Christian bodies, blending into one harmonious union the present jarring and selfish contrarieties of a divided church. Such an ascending movement as we desire to see must have a beginning some time, and a starting point somewhere, - and though the Province may have been visited in judgment, and the people therefore may be unable to present sums so large as those given from their surplus possessions by Christians of other lands, yet, it is, we conceive, the principle of sacrifice in which God delights, and if with such an offering our friends would but lay upon the altar a whole life conformed to the Saviour's precepts, signs and wonders would certainly follow, and then go on producing their blessed effects to the end of the world. The recent convulsions of Europe may have been felt like the shock of an earthquake over the civilized earth—but they were less violent than they would have been, in all likelihood, had not the powerful religious influence previously granted to the church on this continent renched across the broad Atlantic, kindling into a flame almost indefinite the already expiring zeal of some of the European Christian bodies, while the fer-vour of devotion, and the pecuniary sacrifices of the British Churches, extended to America, raising to a higher temperature in zeal and liberality the disciples of Jesus in these lands. There is obviously that liberality the disciples of Jesus in these lands. There is obviously that in individual or combined action which may retard or prevent the ruin of our fellow men. Ten righteous would have saved the cities of the plain from the threatened destruction, and if the Wesleyans of Nova Scotia will resolve upon increased devotion and liberality in the cause of Christ, then in a few years their influence may be felt even to the extremities of the Methodistical system, and there communicate itself to surrounding Churches, lighting up one orb after another, and giving to all a wider circumference, till the Church universal shall beam with spiritual radiance, and fill all dark places with a blaze of glory.

The Committee close their report with a few extracts from the one last issued by the Parent Society:—

IRELAND.

We are thankful to the great Head of the Church for those indications of His presence with which we have been favoured, during the calamitous year through which we have passed. Not a few have been called from the Church militant to the Church triumphant, and have in death, as well as in life, afforded the most unequivocal evidence that they had redemption in 'the blood of Christ, even the forgiveness of sins.'

WINNENDEN IN THE KINGDOM OF WIRTEMBERG .- The Society's faithful Agent in this country has been greatly encouraged by a gracious Religious Revival, which at the date of his last letter, published in the Missionary Notices for the month of May, had extended to at least Forty villages and neighbourhoods. In the peculiar circumstances of France, at the present period, the Committee would not so much dwell upon the actual condition of the Society's Mission in that country, as report what was its state and prospects, on the eve of the mighty changes effected by the recent Revolution. It behoves all who wish well to the cause of evangelical truth on the Continent of Europe, to be carnest and persevering in prayer, that the course of affairs in France may be so directed as to prove subservient to the spread of pure and vital Christianity.

PARIS, French.—The blessing of God has been upon us; many Christians of other denominations have been henefited by our Ministry; the piety of others has been revived, a narrow spirit has yielded to a brotherly affection, and prejudices have been destroyed. Several of the meetings of the Evangelical Alliance have been held in our two Chapels. Besides this, many persons of ill fame have been withdrawn from the abyss of misery in which they were plunged, a large number of papists have heard the truth, and some have abandoned their ewors. We may mention, among others, two remarkable conversions. The first is that of a youth, who after some training and instruction in the things of God, has been admitted to the Lord's Supper. He is now employed as Colpor leur by the French and Foreign Bible Society, and sells mearly One Hundred and Twenty copies of the Scriptures monthly. The other conversion to which we have alluded is that of a Jew, who, after having sought in almost every creed rest for his soul, has for the last eight months become a constant Member of our Church.

Several have testified their approbation of our doctrines and Religious Services, and their intention of continuing to be regular attendants. Many come to fetch books to read; a few openly profess Protestant principles. Two persons, formerly Roman-Catholics, who appear to be truly converted, have become consistent Members of Socrety, and we have now Six Members and one on trial.

At CoDORNA our Congregations are small, but the happy influences of Divine grace are often felt, and are welcomed as pledges of good to come. Several persons have been awakened; one of them a Roman Catholic woman. At the CAYLAR, the good cause prospers. We have had to rejoice in many conversions, and an increase of Members. One brother has died in peace. At ANDUZE, there has been lately a revival of the work of God, and Twenty-four Members have been received on trial.

DROME AND UPPER ALPS .- Mr. Massot, who labours in the UPPER ALPS, continues to be encouraged in his large and arduous field of labour. An important opening presents itself in the Town of Embrus, where in connection with the Pastor of a neighbouring Church, a place of Worship has been fitted up. Thus, the very Town, from whence in former times the Popish Archbishop of that diocese sent to convert the people of DORMILLEUSE, in the valley of Fressimieres, is now open to our evangelical labours!

Nyons, &c.—In addition to Nine Sabbath Schools, centaining about 300 Children, we have an Infant School at Nyons, conducted by one of our Class-Leaders. The number of Children under her care averages Forty.

SWITZERLAND.

SWITZERLAND.

The position of the Society's Missionaries, with the people under their pastoral care, and of the other more numerous Ministers and disciples of Christ in the Canton de Vaud, is still such as to render eminently necessary and seasonable, on the part of all the friends of Missions, united prayer that God will graciously interpose in behalf of his afflicted servants, and secure the ultimate triumph of His own cause. The Rev. Mr. Gallienne, of Lausanne, writes:—

"We have not allowed ourselves to be overawed, and have met as formerly; only the difficulty of finding a sufficient number of Preaching-rooms has led us to imitate the persecuted Christians of former times, that is, to resort for prayer to retired places in the neighbouring forests! On the 2nd instant, we assembled in a wood on the borders of the lake. Here we met in peace, and had a very solemn Service. The place and circumstances of our Meeting gave it a character peculiarly solemn and interesting. My mind naturally nad a very solemn Service. The place and circumstances of our Meeting gave it a character peculiarly solemn and interesting. My mind naturally reverted to the meeting of our blessed Saviour and his disciples on the borders of the lakes of the Holy Land, and, in particular, to their interview after his resurrection, near the sea of Tiberias. The question of our Lord to Peter,

"Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me?" seemed to come home to our hearts, with peculiar force; and I trust, that while meditating on this important subject, our love and devotedness to the Master was strengthened and increased. The Sabbath following, our Meeting took place in a forcest situated in another direction; and here also we met without the least molestation. We are, of course much exposed, but 'we rest beneath the Almighty's shade.'"

SPAIN.

GIBRALTAR.—The English Congregations here are subject to constant fluctuation, by the removal of Regiments from this Garrison. We have, within the last few days, given notes of removal to eight of our Members belonging to the 66th, who left Gibraltar for the West Indies on the 25th of January. The day previous to their embarkation, we held a Special Service, by administering to them the memorials of our Saviour's dying love. The season was solemn and impressive. We are happy to say that they were brought to a knowledge of the truth under the ministry of our beloved predecessor, Mr. Hull. Both our English and Spanish Congregations are considerably increased, and we are expecting to see better days.

During the past year, two of our oldest Members have exchanged mortality for bliss. Both were eminently holy. An aged Member, also belonging to the Spanish class, was suddenly removed from us by death on the 21st January: he had been an exemplary Member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society at Gibraltar for upwards of Twenty years.

CEYLON.

The Mission in South Ceylon continues to exercise an important influence upon the various classes of people within the sphere of its operations.

The Native Ministers are beginning to occupy with efficiency their rightful position as Christian pastors, and some of the most pleasing features at present exhibited in the island, are the result of their efforts under the Divine blessing. Several new Chapels are either in the course of erection, or have been recently opened; the Societies increase in health and vigour, and manifest more of the power and purity of the Christian profession. Within the last few months, there has been an entire separation of the Government from all official patronage of heathenism, by which a great hindrance to the spread of the truth has been removed, and the atheistical teachers of Budhism have been deprived of one of their greatest holds upon the minds of the people.

PRESIDENCY OF MADRAS, AND MYSORE.

At NEGAPATAM, MELNATTAM, and MANAARGOODY, and their sub-stations, the work is making favourable progress: the native mind is opening to the conviction of the truth of the Gospel; and we hope soon to witness its saving conviction of the truth of the Gospei; and we nope soon to witness its saving reception on an extended scale.

Connequal, itself a town of some 10,000 inhabitants, is the centre of a very thickly-populated rural district. The Missionary preaches every day to large assemblies of heathen people, who hear him gladly. The Schools are in a most promising state; and this important scene of Missionary labour is, in many respects delightful and promising.

The Wesleyan Missionaries in the Mysore are not labouring in vain. They are cheered by continued indications of the Divine blessing, and the hopefulness of their work. The Mission-School is conducted every day; and the Casmal is frequently preached in the honse of the idol that the people used to Gospel is frequently preached in the house of the idol that the people used to fear, but now abandon, and permit their better-taught children to ridicule.

In New South Wales, the Society has now 40 central Stations, 54 Chapels, and 107 other Preaching places; 40 Sabbath-Schools and 24 Day-Schools, in which religious instruction and secular education are combined. The number of full and accredited Church-Members, amounts to 1641 being a net increase of 150 upon the preceding year.

AUSTRALIA FELIX.

Through the furthering blessing of the great Head of the Church, the total number of Church-Members has been increased from 390 to 422; while the spirit of religious inquiry which prevails affords ground to hope for more extensive good.

NEW ZEALAND.

The Missionaries have cause to rejoice in the good conduct of their people generally, and in the addition of new converts from the ranks of Heathenism-This favourable view of the present state and prospects of the Society's Mission in New Zealand is confirmed by independent testimony given upon the spot. At the Annual Meeting of the "New Zealand Branch of the Wesleyan" Missionary Society" held at Auckland, in October last, Alexander Shepherd, Esq., the Colonial Treasurer, who presided on the occasion, said-" This country stands greatly indebted to the exertions of the Wesleyan Missionaries: no denomination of Christians has done more than they for the spread of the Gospel among the Native inhabitants, and I feel pleasure in being able to bear witness to it."

In the prosecution of their important undertaking, the Missionaries do not confine themselves to oral instruction, but also largely avail themselves of the use of the press. During the year, there had been printed at the Society's press Ten Thousand copies of the "Rongo Mau," a Tract in the Native language, on the Evils of War and Blessings of Peace. This excellent production, written by the Rev. John Whitely, is well calculated to change the native propensity to war. Ten Thousand Tracts on the Nature and Constitution of a Christian Church, had been printed during the same period.

A young man who died lately at Mokau and whose parents were heathens, A young man who died lately at Moham and whose parents were neathens, absolutely forbade them, and all around him, to utter any other cry in his presence than the cry of prayer. He was an only child, and his parents inquired of him, just before he expired, if all should go together, (meaning to destroy themselves,) or what he would have them to do. 'Believe in God,' was the yeply. He joined in singing a hymn a few hours before he died, and continued praying to the last, which produced a happy effect upon all who were present. The parents said at a Class-Meeting, 'We have long been deaf to the call of the Gospel, but we now hear, and are going to our child and Jesus Chaist.' Christ.

WAIMATE .- The Lord has smiled upon this extensive Circuit, during the past year. A gracious influence has rested upon the people in the public means of grace at the different Settlements. Those who have believed and means or grace at the different Settlements. Those who have believed and found peace are adorning their profession by an upright walk and conversation. Religion is the theme in the house, in the field, and in the way; and their leisure time is employed in searching the Scriptures, which they delight to understand. They continually apply to me and to my assistant at Palea, to explain portions of the Word of God. Their faith has been tested during the year by a very distressing event. Two of their relations were cruelly murdered at a Heathen Settlement at Taupo; but, instead of seeking revenge, earnest prayer has been poured out for their murderers, that the Lord would turn their hearts. turn their hearts.

POLYNESIAN MISSIONS.

The Official Reports from this District furnish gratifying details of a gracious revival of pure and experimental Christianity. The result is seen in an increase of upwards of 700 Church-Members in the three principal groups, and in the generally improved religious feeling of our people. A Chief of high rank has been recommended to the Committee, as a suitable person to be employed as a Native Missionary among his countrymen.

joyous tant lsreduced Vavau Circuit.—It gives us much pleasure to report a more favourable state of the Society at present than it has been our privilege for some years past. Our days of sorrow and mourning have been turned into joy and thanks-giving for the great mercy which God has bestowed upon us. He has poured out His Holy Spirit in a very gracious manner, so that the moral aspect of the people has been greatly changed for the better. At the examination of our Schools in January, the Lord poured out His Holy Spirit upon the people assembled at Neight: on their return to their respective places, the blessing of God accompanied them; and in a few days, the whole of the islands of this group were blessed with a gracious Religious Revival, and persons of all ranks, ages, and conditions, were seen crying to God for mercy. In less than three weeks, more than Five Hundred persons made application for admission into our Classes.

FEEJEE.

All is well both in the Tonga and Feejee Districts. The work in both groups is progressing in a most cheering and satisfactory manner.

SOUTHERN AND WESTERN AFRICA.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE DISTRICT.—This vast District, extending from Cape-Town to the tropic of Capricorn, presents a very important field for Missionary labour; and none except such "labourers" as the "Lord of the harvest" Himself prepares, would be able successfully to engage in its enlivation. Only those who are sustained by a quenchless zeal for the glory of their Divine Saviour, and the most tender and compassionate love for the souls of the perishing Heathen, could endure the privations of a work, which in the remoter parts of the field, must be prosecuted amid arid deserts, far away from all civilized society. The Society has a few such noble-minded and devoted Agents already engaged in this arduous undertaking, although far too few for the work.

KAFFRARIA.

The Reports from the Annual District-Meeting, held at Graham's-Town, afford an encouraging view of the steady progress of the work in those parts of the District which were not included within the theatre of the war. A net increase of 87 Church-Members, is reported; 200 had been admitted as Candidates for Membership; so that the whole number now included in the Classes amount to 2,000 persons, half of whom, only a few years ago, were in a state of heathenish darkness.

SIERRA LEONE

In every department of this important Mission, the promised blessing of the great Head of the Church has been vouchsafed to the ministry of the Word; and an increase of 159 full and accredited Church-Members has been realized; while upwards of 600 remain as Candidates for Membership. The number of our people in Free-Town alone, is now 600 more than we had in the whole Colony Ten years ago. Is not this cause for gratitude; particularly, when we recollect that among them is the flower of the coloured population?

THE GAMBIA

The interests of this Mission have suffered much from the prevalence of sickness in the Mission-family, and other unfavourable circumstances. For some time, Mr. Parsonson was left almost alone. The Committee lost no time in sending to his aid two Missionaries from this country, and Mr. Badger from Sierra Leone. Mr. Badger's wisdom and experience warrant the hope that the existing difficulties will be surmounted; and that the District, under the blessing of God, will be raised again into a state of prosperity.

THE GOLD-COAST.

The state and prospects of the Mission-work at Cape-Coast and the other FANTI Stations, are generally satisfactory. The influence of Christianity is extending; and its beneficial effects, in the improvement of the temporal condition of the Natives, are becoming more evident.

dition of the Natives, are becoming more evident.

(Apr.-Coast.—Although many of our Members, during the past year, have removed from Cape-Coast to various parts of the District, and many others have been removed by death, some of whom, we have the happiness to know, have died in the Lord, still we have an increase of Twanty-circle.

have died in the Lord, still we have an increase of Twenty-eight.

Dixcove.—During the year, we have had an increase of Five Members; and, recently, Nine more have been admitted on trial.

PROVIDENCE.—During the year, Nine have abandoned the gods of their forefathers, and embraced the Christian religion.

Sekundi.—Here our little Society is doing well; we are able to report an increase of Sixteen Members. The School also is prosperous.

ASHANTI.

The usual Annual Report from this extensive portion of the Mission-field in Western Africa has not come to hand. The Committee, however, have been thankful to learn that the Gospel is silently working its way, and undermining the sanguinary supersitions of the country.

THE SLAVE-COAST.

Our operations at Badagry still command the respect of the Heathen people and Chiefs, throughout the neighbouring country. By all parties, with the exception of the Slave-dealers and their agents, we are regarded as the friends of all, the enemics of none; so that both Chiefs and people respectfully listen to our advice. Though during the year we have lost five or six Members by removal and death, our number is the same as last year. We are not called to sorrow as those without hope for our Members who have died. There is reason to believe that they have 'found the rest we toil to fand.' One of them, an old woman, a 'widow indeed,' was remarkable in her affliction for resignation to the will of God. 'If I die,' said she, 'I die in his hand, and if I live, I live in his hand.' When asked how she felt, in prospect of approaching death, she said, 'I glad to die; I glad if God call for me this night; I go to Jesus, who die for me.' When questioned whether she felt that God had for Jesus' sake pardoned her sins, she replied, 'Yes, I feel Him.' In her case, then, we may hope that the great end of Missionary operations is accomplished—her soul is saved.

WEST-INDIES

Some of the West Indian Stations are suffering severely from commercial depression, and the reports of their religious state are not as satisfactory as at some former periods. Yet, there is much to excite to gratitude and fervent prayer in reference to this important section of the Wesleyan Mission field.

THE ST. VINCENT'S AND DEMERARA DISTRICT!

In this District the great Head of the Church has been pleased to crown the endeavours of His servants with considerable success. After supplying the vacancies occasioned by removals, deaths, and other causes, there has been a net addition of 304 to the number of Church-Members reported last year. A state of things has now set in which does not afford much encouragement for the future. The temporal circumstances of the people are undergoing an unfavourable change, which, in various ways, affects also the prospects of the Mission. The following extract from the official District Letter should prompt to continued effort:

"We have, however, with all our might and by every possible means, opposed the tide which has set in against us. The great majority in our several flocks have, we rejoice to say, proved faithful; have endured the trial, and will, we hope, be our 'joy and crown of rejoicing at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

JAMAICA.

The tide of prosperity, on which the Mission in Jamaica was for some time borne onward, has received a check; and new claims upon the sympathy and support of its friends consequently arise. The scene, however, is not altogether dark and cheerless. A large amount of true religious feeling is found among our people; and the force of the religious principle by which they are generally actuated, is strikingly manifested by their consistent conduct in their domestic and social relations.

The Committee are thankful to state, that an increase of upwards of 680 Scholars in the Mission-Schools is reported.

HAYTI.

The Hayti Mission continues to present an encouraging aspect. The Word* of the Lord has "free course" throughout the Republic, and is "glorified" in the conversion of several from the error of their ways.

GONAIVES .- Our young Catechist has been well received at this hitherto apathetic place, many have already listened to his instructions, who had never before heard the Gospel; and there is great and good reason to believe that the dry bones in that valley are about to stand up, and to be filled with the breath of spiritual life.

CANADA WEST.

The Mission at Alderville continues to exercise a tavourable influence on the Indian and White Settlements. The Society has suffered a great loss in the death of two pious Members. Both died in great peace and triumph, and are added to the Church above. Religious impressions are at times manifest on the minds of the Children attending the School. The Indians have contributed £100 for the support of the Manual Labour School, as also private subscriptions to the Missionary Society; so that the whole amount furnished by them for Religious, educational, and benevolent purposes, during the year, is about £200.

It was stated last year, that great good has resulted from visits made, at different times, by the St. Clair Indians to the Indians of Michigan. That good is extending in the United States, and it is believed that there are now in the Methodist Church there about Three Hundred regular Indian Communicants, the fruit of the religious movement which originated with the St. Clair Indians, and has extended to places where, six years ago, there was not one convert to Christianity amongst the Indian tribes.

The state of the work throughout Canada generally, is encouraging, and the prospects of future usefulness truly promising. The Reports respecting the Day and Sabbath Schools connected with the Missions are most satisfactory.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

In the Newfoundland District, the Missionaries continue to devote themselves with zeal and diligence to the performance of their self-denying labour. Cheered by the presence and blessing of the Lord of the vineyard, they preach the Word in the remote and thinly-settled, as well as in the mote central and populous portions of the Colony; and God gives testimony to the word of His grace.

HUDSON'S BAY TERRITORY.

From the great distance at which the Stations occupied by the Society in this District are situated with respect to each other, and from the infrequency of communication, it is impracticable, on this occasion, to present an adequate and satisfactory Report of the general state of this District; but the Letters and Journals of the Missionaries afford evidence of the successful prosecution of their labours.

NEW-BRUNSWICK DISTRICT.

The state of the work in this District exhibits signs of steady improvement. By the last Reports we have intelligence of cheering revivals of the work of God on several of the Circuits, compensating the brethren for their arduous toils amid much discouragement, occasioned by agricultural and commercial depression, and by extensive emigration. The Wesleyan Academy at Mount Allison, Sackville, fully sustains the deservedly elevated character which it so early acquired, and is conferring upon the two Districts, under whose joint patronage it is conducted, substantial benefits, by imparting at a low remuneration a sound literary education, in connexion with religious principles and highmoral training.

NOVA-SCOTIA DISTRICT.

The Committee deem it unnecessary to enter at large upon the present state of this District. The year just closed has been one of temporal trial to the population at large. But God has been pleased to favour his servants with gracious spiritual influences on many of the Circuits, and a net increase of sixty members, with 253 remaining on trial, excites them to gratitude and persevering effort. There remaineth, however, much land to be possessed, and it is imperative upon our Societies and Congregations, in this long-occupied field of Wesleyan Missions, to increase their pecuniary efforts to place the District in a more self-sustaining position, as also to extend into the remote settlements of Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island, and Cape Breton, the advantages which the older stations have long enjoyed, by having among them a Divinely-sanctioned ministration of the word and ordinances of God.

CONCLUSION.

In the state and prospects of the Society there is obviously enough for sober reflection. But the consideration is cheering, that there is nothing calculated to produce discouragement. The friends of Christian Missions are privileged, in times of trial, to fall back upon great first principles which, like their Divine Author, remain unchangeable amidst all the mutations of human affairs. They know that the cause of the world's conversion is pre-eminently the cause of God; that, however deeply they are interested in its welfare, it is infinitely dearer to the heart of God than it is to them,—for He it was who planned it in the counsels of eternity before all worlds, and gave His only-begotten Son in the ages of time to secure its accomplishment. They rejoice to think that the "God of all grace" is also the God of Providence; that he has all influences in both the natural and moral worlds at His command, and is able to render events the most unlikely—the most unpropitious to the eye of human reason—subservient to His own merciful purpose of saving lost mankind.

Reposing upon these imperishable principles, the devoted followers of Christ will feel that the present "signs of the times," instead of warranting despondency, only invite to loftier exercises of faith and liberality. In the present juncture, it is alike the bounden duty and the high privilege of all the friends of Christian Missions, although placed, as some of them may be, in more straitened circumstances, to throw themselves more fully than ever into the spirit of their Master's work, and think no sacrifice of time, or labour, or property, too great, if, by anything they can do or suffer, existing opportunities may be improved for the advancement of the cause of "pure and undefield religion." And, while earthly kingdoms are seen to totter to their fall, it is especially incumbent upon all who know and love the Lord Jesus Christ to send forth with greater fervour, and more earnest importunity, the inspired cry—"Thy kingdom come;"—and to plead, with greater intensity of hallowed desire, for the accelerated advance of the Gospel of their Divine Redeemer throughout all lands, so that prophecy may speedily receive that more glorious consummation for which eternal truth is pledged, and a regenerated and happy world unite to "crown Him Lord of all."

THE WESLEYAN.

A Family Paper, bearing this Title, and devoted to Religion, Literature, General and Domestic News, &c., &c., is now in course of weekly publication, for the Districts of British North America. Terms only ten shillings per annum, exclusive ofpostage-half in advance.

This Paper has obtained a wide circulation, and is decidedly popular,—sup-plying a medium of communication, the necessity of which has been long felt by the Provincial population.

The patronage of Wesleyans and others, who are desirous of introducing into their families a cheap and useful periodical is solicited. Orders may be forwarded to the Editor, Halifax, N. S. direct, (post-poid, and with the advance) or through any of the Wesleyan Ministers in the Provinces.
