FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

Thoughtful citizens all over the Province are beginning to open their eyes to the business and moral dangers of the wicked character of the campaign for office-at-any-cost now being pursued by the Conservative party. These dangers, in the United States, have culminated in many places in severed business relations, in sundered neighborly attitudes, in bitterness, insecurity—in a word, in everything that is implied by the word "anarchy," apart from the bombs. It is not any mark of ability, but the opposite, that a politician is able to create irreligious bitterness in the name of the Author of the Golden Rule. The infamous work of kindling religious strife, says the Canada Presbyterian, is always easily done in a mixed community like that of Canada. If it be replied, "Oh! Mr. Meredith does not mean what he is saying on the platform; he is only trying once more, after long years of failure, to get into office on a new tack;"—such an apology only deepens the deep wickedness of his present course. It is one thing to-day, another thing to-morrow. Just now he shrilly appeals against one section of the population—his local organ, with Sir John Carling in the city making no public protest—being now filled every day with open or covert appeals to sectarian bigotry. Yet the Toronto Mail of December 8, 1886, reports Mr. Meredith as saying in his London speech:

"An attempt is being made to make it appear that I am hostile to the separate schools. That is a cowardly attempt on the part of the Globe, in the face of my address, in which I said I am in favor of maintaining the separate schools and increasing their efficiency. The Globe has not the manliness to publish those remarks, but distorts what I have said in order to prejudice those who may not have access to any other means of information than its columns. Who secured the passage of the separate school law? IT WAS THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF CANADA."

To-day, either openly or covertly, according to the constituency, or the ward, or the concession, the Conservative party is seeking the poor success of office-at-any-price by endeavoring to arouse the basest, the most dangerous passions of mankind. What wonder that the Canada Presbyterian says, "Beware of those who try to kindle strife among neighbors." What wonder Rev. Dr. Dewart, editor of the Methodist Christian Guardian, says of Hon. Geo. W. Ross, who is especially singled out for attack, that "the persistent assaults on his administration have been so triumphantly met and repelled that they are now cast aside—like bullets that have been flattened against a granite wall—and are of no further use to their authors?" What wonder that Principal Austin, of St. Thomas, should declare he feels bound, as an honest man, to support Sir Oliver Mowat? What wonder that Principal Grant, a Conservative, should declare, Ontario cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat? The honest, quiet citizen has an imperative call to rally to the support of Sir Oliver Mowat by supporting those candidates who are pledged to support him. Sir Oliver Mowat has preserved the business credit of this Province, while other countries have shaken to the center. Sir Oliver Mowat has fought and won for Ontario 100,000 square miles of valuable territory of which her opponents sought to deprive her. Sir Oliver has kept Ontario out of debt—the only Province of which that can be said. Is it of no moral consequence that our young men should have had before them for all these years the example of a pure-minded, God-fearing, upright statesman at the head of Provincial affairs? Much can be done by the quiet elector, through quiet, uncontroversial and persuasive talk, to discourage all attempts to bedevil the community by the raising of false issues—that community in which all of us, whether Conservatives or Liberals, Jews or Gentiles, have to mingle in friendly business and general intercourse after the 26th of June. As Principal Grant puts it, "Ontario cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat."

Corea Peaceful.

SHANGHAI, June 17.—The Japanese troops which were landed in Corea have re-embarked. No further trouble is feared.

The Plague in China.

HONG-KONG, June 17.—The number of deaths from the plague is growing smaller, only 51 having been reported to-day. Among those who died yesterday was a British soldier.

Up to yesterday more than 1,000 persons had died of the plague.

The Queen's Movements.

LONDON, June 17.—The Queen will return to Windsor on Wednesday. She will not remain there, but will go almost immediately to White Lodge, where she will remain with the Duchess of York for some time.

Twenty-Six Drowned.

ODESSA, June 17.—News of a collision in the Sea of Azov between the Greek bark Egyptos and the Russian steamship Maroussia, has been received. Both vessels sank. Four of the crew of the Egyptos and 21 of the crew of the Maroussia, including all officers, were drowned.

Steamer Ethiopia Damaged.

LONDON, June 17.—The Anchor line steamer Ethiopia, Capt. Wilson, which left New York June 2, for Glasgow, passed Tory Island, northwest coast of Ireland, yesterday with her bow badly stove in. The steamer had been in collision with icebergs. Her water-tight bulkheads saved her from sinking. All on board are well.

Athletic Congress.

PARIS, June 17.—The International Athletic Congress was opened yesterday at the Sorbonne by Baron De Courcel. More than 3,000 persons, mostly delegates, were present. Baron De Courcel outlined the aims of the congress. The delegates, he said, would try to establish international athletic championships. They would endeavor to reproduce the old Grecian games in a modernized form. Prof. Sloane, of Princeton, was among the delegates.

Rates of Discount.

LONDON, June 17.—The rates of discount last week were $\frac{1}{2}$ for three months and $\frac{1}{2}$ for 30 days. Gold was received from America, Australia and India. The small quantity which was exported went to Argentina. Silver was finer under the influence of China's and India's purchases. Early in the week business on the Stock Exchange was dull, but at the close a better tone was noticeable. Investment securities were strong, but there was no revival in speculative stocks. Consols rose $\frac{1}{2}$. Little was doing in American railroad securities.

A Ludicrous Scene.

LONDON, June 17.—The Anglophobe and Gaulphobe craze has gone to such lengths that many persons believe Matchbox will be poisoned before the start for the Grand Prix. All the famous 3-year-olds' food is sent from England and details of police guard it. A ludicrous scene was witnessed at Paris on Thursday when a company of police headed by an inspector, was seen going on a trot toward the track. A curious crowd followed expecting that an important arrest was to be made. When the crowd arrived it was found that the police had gone there to protect Matchbox. When the crowd saw the cause they jeered the police unmercifully.

Married Three Times in 24 Hours.

PARIS, June 17.—M. Ugo Gregorini, son of Col. Bingham Gregorini, of Bologna, was married yesterday afternoon to Miss Grace Connelly, of Augusta, Ga., niece of the Marchioness of Anglessey. The civil marriage ceremony was performed Friday. A Catholic ceremony was solemnized in the Church of St. Pierre de Chailloit at 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning, and the final place in the American Church (Protestant) at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The Rev. John B. Morgan officiating. The bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. Henry King. Count Dion attended the groom as best man.

After the ceremony reception was held and directly afterward the bridal couple started for Bologna. The presents were many and costly.

Will Welcome Yale's Athletes.

LONDON, June 17.—The Oxford-Cambridge and other British athletes are preparing a cordial welcome for the Yale men, and are already beginning to compare the respective merits of the men who will compete in the coming contests. Oxford's hundred yards representative is likely to be Jordan, whose time is 10.3.5. Luytens will be the mile sprinter. His record is 4:19.4.5. Oakley, who will be the hurdler, has a record of 16.3.5. Hickok (Yale) shot putting and hammer throwing quite overshadowed the Oxford records for similar feats, Oxford not having improved in putting the shot in the last ten years. The record of 41 feet 1 inch made ten years ago has never been beaten there. It is thought, also a popular one. Mr. Haldane is to be the long jump. The Evening News praises Woodhill and Cady highly, but criticizes their training as too severe, tending to make the men stale when the time for endurance arrives. But the voyage over is likely to counteract this. Still, the News is inclined to believe that Oxford will win the odd events.

Sir Oliver Mowat

That Anglo-Belgian Agreement.

BERLIN, June 17.—Although the exchanges of opinion between Germany and the parties to the Anglo-Belgian agreement still remain friendly and courteous, there is no question that the German Government has stiffened considerably in its attitude to the new partition of Africa. The Foreign Office has objections to the treaty arrangement as well as to the manner in which it was made. The whole affair was sprung upon the Berlin Government as an accomplished fact which could not be altered. The soreness caused by this surprise has been increased by the growing conviction that the treaty rights and interests of Germany are likely to suffer if the Anglo-Belgian agreement goes into effect. With the Emperor's approval, therefore, the Government is now prepared to insist upon the restoration of the statu quo in Africa.

Crispi's Assailant.

ROME, June 17.—Premier Crispi's assailant is a carpenter named Paul Loga. He is 30 years old. He came to Rome on Thursday to kill Crispi, and expressed regret that he was unsuccessful.

The majority of the European sovereigns and statesmen have congratulated Crispi on his escape.

Loga is known among his Anarchist comrades as Marat. When being examined before the examining magistrate he said he was a native of Marseilles, and that the first Italian city visited by him was Genoa, from which he was expelled. More recently he had been in France, from where he had been connected with the staffs of several Anarchist journals. He repeated to the magistrate that he came to Rome to kill Crispi, and regretted that he had not succeeded. "Now, kill me and do it quickly," he added. "I would rather die now than live for 30 years in your prisons."

The Achill Disaster.

LONDON, June 17.—Subscriptions have been opened in behalf of the relatives of the Achill harvesters who were drowned in the Bay of Clew by the capsizing of their boat on Thursday. Achill Island would be one of the loveliest resorts for tourists in the United Kingdom, but the extreme poverty of the inhabitants of the island deters tourists from visiting the place. Funds, however, are being collected to build a new hotel, and this enterprise being started, it is hoped to employ more people on the island in making roads and opening up the charming scenery which abounds there. The Achill land is barren. It has never been useful in the way of agriculture, but the island raises a noted breed of ponies. Mr. Wm. O'Brien, M.P., has issued an appeal for aid in behalf of the islanders, and his wife has subscribed £50 to the fund. The drowned men include the best of the working population of the island. These men have hitherto brought back to the island every autumn some £15 or £20 which they had earned in the English and Scotch harvest fields. This money was expended in maintaining their families and helping the old and poor of their friends through the winter.

The Karwin Mine Disaster.

LONDON, June 17.—A Vienna dispatch says: During the 104 years in which the Karwin mines have been in existence there have been many disastrous experiences in them. The last was in March, 1885, when 105 men were killed. The mines are in two sections and have an annual output of 700,000 tons. Most of the coal is consumed in Vienna. All the shafts were provided with the most modern ventilation. Count Von Laroche, owner of the mines, was in the village and personally superintended the work of rescue. The rescue party consisted of several foremen, officials and miners, of whom one of the two head miners, one official and ten miners were killed by ensuing explosions. Those who escaped from the burning mines say the explosion originated through lightning striking by a miner. Such blasting was against the rules, but the rules were disobeyed by miners to save work.

A dispatch from Karwin, Austrian Silesia, where fire broke out in Count Laroche's coal mines on Thursday night, says that when the miners' pay roll was called 204 persons failed to answer to their names. One hundred of the victims were married.

The number of men who perished in the Karwin mines is definitely ascertained to be 231.

A Graceful Act.

LONDON, June 17.—The farewell reception given on board the Chicago on Monday by Admiral Erben was a graceful acknowledgment of the hospitalities which the admiral and Capt. Mahan and all the officers of this American warship have accepted during their ever memorable visit to London. Gravesend, where the ship lay, is an hour's journey from London, and the weather was extremely English. So excellent, nevertheless, were the arrangements that the distinguished company of guests escaped all inconvenience and found themselves comfortably on board the ship by 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The decorations, the welcome, the beauty of the ship and the appearance of the crew all delighted the British visitors, of whom many were ladies and many naval officers of high rank in uniform. The reception wound up with a dance, and the success of the whole ceremony was complete. The Chicago sailed on Wednesday for Antwerp to the general regret of her friends. The University of Cambridge gives Capt. Mahan this week an honorary degree, the first on record, it is said, to any American naval officer.

Effects of Lord Coleridge's Death.

LONDON, June 17.—Lord Coleridge's death opens the doors to various promotions and will probably occasion four elections. No doubt is felt that Lord Russell, better known as Sir Charles Russell, lately made a lord of appeal, with a life peerage, will become Lord Chief Justice. Sir John Rigby, Attorney-General, will be offered and will probably accept the law lordship vacated by Lord Russell. Mr. Reid, the new Solicitor-General, will then become Attorney-General, a swift promotion, but also a popular one. Mr. Haldane is to be Solicitor-General if he cares to be. The Conservatives are in a fighting mood, and their extraordinary gains at the last election in Hackney encourage them to challenge every seat. In each, moreover, there may be a more distinct issue on the House of Lords than has yet been presented.

The Deceased Wife's Sister.

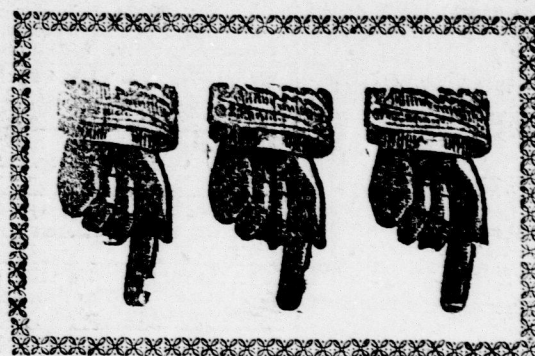

LONDON, June 17.—The rejection of the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill by the House of Lords by a majority of nine is chiefly important because of the bitterness of the resentment felt by the Nonconformists. A good many of them are living in a state, legally speaking, of concubinage with their deceased wives' sisters. The Church of England stands between them and the legalization of these ties. The Lords spiritual, not the Lords temporal, bar the way. There is a small majority of lay lords for the bill. So the London organ of the Dissenters, the Daily News, rails against the bishops and especially against the Archbishop of Canterbury. The bill ought to be passed, but it will hardly be helped by threatening the bishops as a body, or by describing the archbishop as a pitiful figure, a person incapable of understanding the controversy, ignorant of the ten commandments, and probably insane. Nonconformist attack on Lord Rosebery has died away, and the winning of the Derby is no longer daily denounced as deserving damnation. Whether it has done him harm or not may be doubted. The leading Nonconformist divines took no part in it. There was among all the letter writers but one well-known name, and that is known by dint of much advertising. The whole business became ridiculous when these gentlemen seriously complained that Lord Rosebery's speeches were not dull enough to suit, and the Prime Minister of England indulged in remarks which provoked laughter. Then the public turned to other matters.

Britain and Morocco.

Geo. W. Smalley cables from London: "The lively apprehensions to which the sudden death of the Sultan of Morocco gave rise have not thus far been verified. They arose not so much out of expected opposition to the accession of his designated heir, a boy of 14, as from the probability that a disputed succession and disorderly country might supply a pretext for European intervention. It was thought there might in that case be a scramble between three, or perhaps four powers, a race between warships bound for Tangier, landings of European troops, theeditions, then nobody knew what. Long since it was pointed out that peril to the peace of Europe might come from Morocco as easily as from any other point. Spain and France are intensely jealous of any foreign authority but their own at this commanding point. England has long been suspected of designs on Tangier, as if another Egypt at the other end of the Mediterranean were a thing Great Britain was likely to covet. She has, moreover, an active controversy to conduct with France touching the Congo convention, and it is certain she will not readily embark in any further adventure till some satisfactory end to that dispute is in sight.

The tendency is in the other direction—perhaps too strongly in the other direction. Already a scare has been started on this subject. Lord Dufferin has been accused of giving assurances to M. Hanotaux that England does not mean to interfere in Morocco. English critics interpret that as a pledge that France shall have a free hand. No such pledge has been given or will be given. It does not follow that because England does not want Tangier she would acquiesce in the acquisition of it by France. She certainly would not acquiesce nor would Spain, nor would Italy, nor perhaps Germany, nor yet Russia. Each of those powers would see with disquietude France entrenched as a sentinel at the Atlantic end of the Mediterranean. It is not expected that she will in the present circumstances make any such offer.

What Lord Rosebery said at the Trinity House banquet on Wednesday is open to but one interpretation. No prime minister ever spoke more strongly for peace. His words on Morocco were few, but they declared his conviction that the statesmen of Europe were too wise to allow trouble to grow out of the death of the Sultan. Not less significant than this expression of confidence was the Prime Minister's warning to France and her Foreign Minister against violent methods in dealing with the question raised by the Anglo-Belgian convention. These questions are likely to be long and fastidiously quiet, but it is less angry. Lord Rosebery referred to them as questions which have assumed a fictitious importance from language used irresponsibly and capable of giving even a graver complexion to current events. If M. Hanotaux chooses to take that lesson to himself, he will not mistake its intended application. He has put himself in the wrong to such an extent that moderation must now be difficult to him, and the correction of his own flagrant errors more difficult still and more humiliating. The impression left by his language on every diplomatic mind in Europe has grown deeper. More experienced and wary Ministers are asking themselves how he will explain his declaration that the Anglo-Belgian convention is to be regarded as null and void. If he succeeds in covering those words with some diplomatic veil how will he account for his amazing statement that both Germany and Turkey had protested? There was a foundation for the statement about Germany. There was none for the assertion about Turkey except that the French ambassador had telegraphed his chief at Paris that he had asked the Porte to protest. No foreign minister out of his diplomatic teens would have committed himself on that assurance as M. Hanotaux did. He has again caused it to be announced that the Turkish protest had been handed in; it is absolutely certain that it has not. M. Hanotaux's personal position is pitiable, and his consciousness of his errors is one more source of danger. Germany, however, is coming to the relief of France, a fact in which the French may or may not take pride. The German protest is gathering strength and precision, and some pains are taken to make the fact of protest and the grounds public. The German ambassador has laid the views of his Government before Lord Kimberley. The Cologne Gazette has laid them before Europe. They are in part as was first stated—technical; Germany complains that the Congo State has been induced by England to make concessions in violation of treaty rights and of treaties to which Germany was a partner. Germany therefore asks for restoration of statu quo.

HOOPER FOUND GUILTY.

A Dramatic Scene in Court—The Prisoner's Protest.

MONTREAL, June 17.—A special from Three Rivers says: The jury retired at 10 minutes past four, and 17 minutes later returned with a verdict of "guilty." The court room was jammed, but there was no demonstration. His Honor immediately adjourned the court until 2 p.m. on Monday. Then the prisoner said: "Your Lordship, I wish to again state before God, before the court and all the people, that I am innocent of any crime whatever. I have not had British justice, and I hold in my hand the most damaging evidence to show that a Queen's counsel was suborning against me. You charge very strongly against me, but I believe that you did it in what you believed to be British justice, but it was not justice to me. God is a just God, and he would strike me dead if I am not speaking the truth. It is a fact that the woman jumped off the train before I did."

At the close of the sentence the accused raised his voice to an awful pitch, and with his hand upraised was an impressive scene. He added, "My life is gone, and it does not matter to me whether sentence is one day or a lifetime." Before discharging the jury Judge Boies said, "Gentlemen, the verdict you have rendered is according to the evidence." Hooper will make a long speech before sentence is passed on Monday.

Judge Boies said he would pass sentence on the prisoner at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Charlatans and Quacks

Have long plied their vocation on the suffering people. The knife has passed to the quick; caustic applications have tormented the victim of corns until the conviction shaped itself—there's no cure. Patnam's Painless Corn Extractor proves on what slender basis public opinion often rests. If you suffer from corns get the Extractor and you will be satisfied. Sold everywhere.

Giants usually have weak constitutions and are shorter lived than dwarfs. Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

Erie Excursion to New York.

On Thursday and Friday, June 21 and 22, the Erie Railway will run an excursion each day to New York from Suspension Bridge, the fare for the round trip being $8. This promises to be one of the best excursions ever run to the metropolis of America. Everything that is required for comfort in a journey of this kind will be provided by the Erie officials. Tickets can be secured at the Bridge and are good on any train on either Thursday or Friday, and are good for return passage on any train leaving New York on or before Saturday June 30. The coaches will be the latest high-back seat day coaches used. The pleasures to be derived from a visit to New York are innumerable. The wonders of New York should be seen by everyone, and the advantage now given by the Erie Railroad should be accepted by many from this section. Pullman vestibuled sleeping cars and parlor cars will be run on the train. Remember the dates, June 21 and 22. Fare $8 to New York and return from Suspension Bridge, good to June 30. 7c

THE METHODISTS.

Proceedings of the Conference at Toronto—Education and Literature Discussed.

Toronto, June 17.—Education and literature were the topics discussed at the Methodist Conference yesterday, when addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Antliff, of the Montreal College, and Rev. E. M. Baker, of Albert College, while Rev. Dr. Potter reported that Victoria College building was now free from debt. He read the financial report of the college, which was very encouraging. The total subscription to college federation had been $512,360; from the Toronto Conference they had received in cash $335,803.

Rev. Dr. Briggs reported that the net profits of the publications of the Methodist bookroom had enabled them to hand a check for $7,000 to the superannuation fund of the church. A recommendation to reduce the price of the Christian Guardian from $2 to $1.50 per annum will be discussed at the General Conference.

Rev. Dr. Dewar addressed the conference. As editor of the Guardian he deprecated the deference paid to new doctrines.

Rev. Dr. Withrow presented the report of the publications for the Sunday schools, which had a splendid circulation. A resolution, moved by Rev. John Hunt, seconded by Mayor Kennedy and supported by other gentlemen, expressive of approval by the conference of the reports and departments presided over by these ministers, was unanimously adopted. The conference will be continued next week.

LIGHTNING'S DREADFUL WORK.

Three Men Meet Instant Death—Two Others Injured.

MONROVIE, Mich., June 17.—Lightning struck the house of John Anderson yesterday afternoon, killing three men, severely injuring two others. The killed are Peter Rasmussen, Peter Grenon and Neils Berstrom. The injured are Swen Berstrom and Swen Swanson.

The men were raising the house and took refuge from the rain underneath. A woman in the house standing near where the lightning went through was unhurt. A team of horses were knocked down by the shock. All the men were married.

Trox, N. Y., June 17.—During a terrific thunder and hail storm which passed over this city yesterday afternoon a boy named Gillie was stunned by lightning while in swimming and was drowned. William Mullen, of Chicago, was repairing a wire on the roof of the Troy club when he was shocked by the electric current, falling from the roof, dashed his brains out on the sidewalk.

HURON.

Wm. Kennedy, a well-known resident of Seaford, died very suddenly the other evening. He was sitting in his house at the time, and on complaining of illness was given a drink of water. A doctor was summoned, but before his arrival Mr. Kennedy was dead. Apoplexy was the cause. Mr. Kennedy leaves a wife and large family.

Bussells is to have a grand Foresters' celebration on Monday, July 2.

The County Council has decided on the erection of a house of refuge, and the site selected by the committee, adjacent to the town of Clinton, has been secured for the purpose. The scheme has been advocated for a number of years.

LABRETON.

John Gray and Thos. Whitworth, two 15-year-old Sarnia boys, were arrested on Friday morning. It was suspected that they could throw some light on a recent fire which occurred in that place. Both, however, proved that they were innocent. After the alarm was sent in, and were discharged.

During a row on Division street near Yarnold's saloon, Port Huron, the other night, Albert Richards, Sarnia, employed at Howard's mill, was stabbed in the back and now lies at the point of death. Carl Varnier, Al Rogell and Augusta Berker have been arrested, it being claimed that one of them did the stabbing.

HE'S WORKING NOW.

Chester Loomis Was Crippled with Kidney Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—They Were Never Known to Fail.

NEWCOMB MILLS, June 18.—Chester Loomis, a well known farmer living near here, has for years been afflicted with kidney disease, so badly that he could not sit in a buggy to drive to town. As he is 69 years old he despaired of a cure. He tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. He has not had any farm work for years, but he helped to put in this spring's crops, and anyone who goes to see him to-day will find him between the plow-handles instead of laid out on a bed or in an easy chair as he used to be.

War on Tobacco Dealers.

LANSING, Mich., June 17.—The Lansing Board of Education, the superintendent and teachers in the city schools and the Federated Council of Churches have declared war upon tobacco dealers of the city who have been selling cigarettes to minors. A boy was brought before one of the justices of the peace Saturday morning and gave the names of several dealers of whom he had been in the habit of buying cigarettes. Arrests will follow the first of next week.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are especially subject.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Encouraging Reports From the Colleges of the Denomination.

St. JOHN, N. B., June 18.—This morning the reports of the colleges were considered by the assembly. The report of the Presbyterian College at Halifax showed the attendance of students was 40, and appointed Dr. Pellet as principal of the college. Morrin College, Quebec, reported a donation of at least $120,000 from the estate of the late James Ross.

The Presbyterian College, Montreal, Knox College, Toronto, Queen's and Manitoba colleges all gave good reports, indicating progress in nearly every department. Queen's proposes that professors shall be appointed subject to the vote of the assembly, and that no such professor shall begin his work until after the assembly next following the appointment. This was accepted by the assembly, and this matter which has caused a good deal of discussion in past assemblies is settled.

—Don't quarrel with your neighbors over the election, counsels the Canada Presbyterian. Above all things, don't quarrel with them at the bidding of some miscreant who may be earning a dirty dollar by stirring up strife among neighbors. Morally, there is no difference between the Anarchist who makes war against capital with dynamite and the man who uses the Bible to make Protestants and Catholics take each other by the throat. In fact, the Ontario Anarchist is the worst of the two, for he adds a veneer of hypocrisy to his crime. The infamous work of kindling religious strife is always easily done in a mixed community like ours. An idiot with a torch can burn down Toronto quite as easily as a sensible man. In fact, an idiot is much more likely to burn the city than any sensible man would be. The most abandoned political profligate that ever wagged his lying tongue or drew a venal pen can stir up the most deadly sectarian strife as quickly as the ablest man in the country. Therefore we say to every reader, beware of the tramp who tries to kindle strife among neighbors. The tramp will go back to his lair on the 26th, but the neighbor remains and must be met every day. Many of them are good neighbors who have helped many a time in the past 30 or 40 years. More's the shame to quarrel with them at the bidding of scamps who may be earning a few dollars a day by stirring up the worst passions of human nature.

Prostrated by Sunstroke in Toronto.

TORONTO, June 17.—Edward Lawrence (unmarried), a painter out of work, got a job on the asphalt paving contract on Bleeker street yesterday morning. The hot sun was too much for him, and he fell exhausted when he was returning to work at noon. Prostration from the effects of the sun was the cause. The ambulance removed him to his home and his condition is serious.

The Medicos.

TORONTO, June 17.—The Ontario Medical Council concluded its session yesterday. The council was then dissolved, and with a clear sheet the members will appeal to their fellow-practitioners throughout the Province for a safe return to the 30th of October. The matter of doctors accepting the position of lodge physician for different societies was before the council, and the recent resolution of the Medical Association was cited, but the council decided that the question was not within its jurisdiction for action.

An Actress With a Pistol.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 17.—Martha Conway, an actress, until recently connected with the Minnie Seward Company, which has been playing here, shot herself with a revolver in her room at the Hotel Atlantic early yesterday morning. The would-be suicide is a handsome young woman. According to members of the troupe she had become infatuated with Fred Seward, the husband of Minnie Seward, and becoming despondent decided to kill herself. The physicians say the wounds are not necessarily fatal, though the bullet entered her left side under the heart and striking a rib, glanced on to her left arm near the elbow. When assistance reached the woman she implicated Mr. Seward as the one who shot her, but later admitted it was her own deed.

The Undesirable Vi-tor.

You know her. She appears late and untidy at breakfast, nervous, and listless; that she is dissatisfied with the food that is set before her. Her room is very untidy, and she annoys the servants by asking favors of them when they are busiest. The children in the house worry her, and she invites people who are strangers to you to pay visits at times that are most inconvenient to her hostess. When you are going to take her for an outing she is late and appears overdressed. Then she makes one of the girls of the family unhappy by attempting to attract her sweetheart from her and prove how fickle he is. She is never satisfied, and she is always telling you about the place where she stayed last and how differently everything was done. She is surprised that you have your dinner at the hotel, that you do not hesitate to say she isn't hungry at that time. When you have taken a deal of trouble to make the parlor dainty and sweet, and shut out the glaring sun, she elects to write her letters there, and fails to see why you shouldn't prefer the brilliant daylight to stream in at all hours.

She is the guest you certainly are willing to speed. And she is the guest that I do not wish my girls to be like. She doesn't hesitate to borrow your belongings, she uses your letter paper, and she never has any stamps, but counts on the men of the family buying them for her. Without speaking to you she invites people to visit her whom you do not wish to know, and she places you in such uncomfortable positions in regard to these people that you wish you had never met her. She tells you that she knows you wish her to feel as she does at the moment, and you wish her to be so, and she says, "Nobility should feel that she is away from home, and that, while it is wished she should enjoy herself, still she has no rights in the household, only those privileges which her hostess grants her, and these she must respect."

This is the girl you are not to be like.—[The Ladies' Home Journal.]

—BROWNING.

We thought this general election would hardly be allowed to pass without revival of sneers at Sir Oliver Mowat as a "Christian Statesman." And yet it may be that the fact that Sir Oliver Mowat is a Christian statesman has been his arm of power in standing up for the right and in saving for the Province 100,000 square miles of territory of which Sir Oliver's opponents would have robbed her. That Sir Oliver Mowat is well grounded in the "fundamentals" may have had to do with that prevention of robbery and jobbery (not unknown in other political centers) which has left Ontario with a surplus, the only Province of which that can be said.

We tell those who are sneering at Sir Oliver Mowat as a Christian statesman, that his thousands of friends instead of denying the imputation honor him the more and adhere to him the more because of such sneers. It is a curious thing that nearly every agnostic, every enemy of religion, every open advocate of the desecration of the Sabbath, is against Sir Oliver Mowat; but the great mass of the people of Ontario have for 22 years shown Sir Oliver that they "love him for the enemies he has made." Mr. Gladstone has never been ashamed to humbly confess his Divine Master as his guide, his source of strength and consolation. Neither has Sir Oliver Mowat. And the fact that the foremost clergymen of the Presbyterian, the Methodist, the Baptist and the Congregationalist bodies are supporters of Sir Oliver Mowat, is clear evidence that with them it is no crime in the veteran Premier that in addition to being the greatest constitutional lawyer and ablest administrator of Canada, he is also a Christian Statesman.

—Our city contemporary, in its despair, now accuses Mr. Hobbs of being responsible for the operations of the "N. P." Mr. Hobbs has never supported the "N. P." He never supported the tax exemptions bylaw. The Toronto candidate's organ and its friends have steadily supported both. If the stupid accusations against Mr. Hobbs keep piling up it need surprise no one to find his opponents attributing to him the prevalence of the black death in China!

—Last election "the Mowat-Lynch concordat" was circulated to unfairly prejudice Protestant electors against Sir Oliver Mowat. This election an even more unscrupulous sheet has been sent around. It is called "The Eye Opener." The sectarian cries signally failed in 1890. Nothing has happened since then to shake the confidence of the people in the Grand Old Man of Ontario. The present attempt to stir up a war of religions will fail this time also. It deserves to fail.

—Mr. Hobbs, the London citizen candidate in this contest, gave the first Parliamentary vote he ever polled for his fellow countryman, Mr. Peddie, the workingmen's nominee for the Legislature. It is not generally known, but a member of the united organization that brought the workingman's candidate out informs us that Mr. Hobbs contributed a handsome sum to pay the expenses of Mr. Peddie's election. The workers do not forget this fact. On the other hand, Mr. Meredith secured the defeat of Mr. Peddie by raising the cry against him that he lived just outside the city limits!

—In a recent address, Hon. G. W. Ross said:

"The main objection of the Opposition on the temperance question is not to the policy in the past, but in the appointing of license commissioners. I claim the commissioners have done their duty well. No temperance body, synod nor conference has ever objected to the appointment of commissioners by the Government."

This is correct, so far as it goes. Mr. Ross might have added, however, that not only is there no demand made by any temperance or church body for the transference of the selection of license commissioners, but the license holders themselves are known to be generally opposed to the change suggested by Mr. Meredith.

—Our city contemporary with that fairness towards a political opponent for which it has long been characterized, refused to publish the letter of Mr. James Carter, Past District Deputy of the Sons of England, in vindication of Mr. Hobbs' connection with that order. In doing so it followed out the treatment extended to the Trades and Labor Council, whose decisions it refused to record because they were hostile to its party friends. Now it calls in the assistance of a Toronto paper, edited by a bitter Conservative, to aid in its crusade against Mr. Hobbs, Mr. James Carter and a large number of their fellow Englishmen, who will never condone the un-British conduct of that journal and those for whom it acts. This Toronto journal also emulates a letter written in support of Mr. Hobbs by the district deputy of the order in London, thus following the un-British example of Mr. Meredith's advocate here. The animus of the Toronto paper is as apparent as that of Mr. Meredith's London advocate, but the Toronto candidate cannot make friends among Mr. Hobbs' fellow Englishmen by any such methods.

GRAVE CHARGES WITHDRAWN AND REMAINING.
The Opposition platform is narrowing down.
Mr. Marter has withdrawn the plank which was made up of Dr. Buckle's shirt washing bill.
The Toronto Empire has withdrawn the tuberculosis calf plank because it is found that the Duchess is alive and kicking in perfect health at the Guelph farm.
Mr. Bartlett has withdrawn the great coal purchase plank, because he finds that coal for public institutions is purchased by tender.
The tomato catsup plank has also gone by the board because it has been discovered that the brand of catsup which could be purchased for one cent a gallon less than the Toronto Asylum authorities bought it for was scarcely good enough to feed to the nation's wards.
Two great issues remain and will remain till the end of this memorable campaign. Sir Oliver Mowat refuses to obliterate the St. George's Cross—the English national emblem—from the roof of the new Parliament buildings, and some people must condemn the Premier for this most Popish pandering!
The Ontario Government has also declined to let the electors mark their ballots by some other sign than an X, thus showing Sir Oliver's determination to be the general agent for the promulgation of suspicious signs of this kind in Canada!
These are perilous times for politicians who take any stock in crosses.

OUTBREAKS RESEMBLING MEASLES.

Another man, well known, who has hitherto not taken an active part in politics, and has been known as a Conservative, has declared for Sir Oliver Mowat. We refer to Dr. Hare, principal of Whitby College, a skillful educationist, a most interesting lecturer on natural science, and a stalwart Protestant. At no previous election have so many of the genuine leaders in the Protestant bodies been at the back of Ontario's Grand Old Man. This fact in itself supplies an answer to all the nuances of the professional Protestants who desire to get offices for their friends by raising sectarian cries in this campaign. You do not find any recognized Protestant leaders in the fray against Sir Oliver because of his alleged anti-Protestant tendencies. The Protestant Church leaders have learned to look upon these periodical outbreaks of Mr. Meredith and his friends much as the doctors look upon measles—largely harmless, if the patients are properly taken care of. The great mass of the people of Ontario, who do not believe in the unnecessary dragging of sectarian issues into Provincial campaigns, will apply the remedy on Tuesday, June 26, when they send the professional Protestants once more back to their law books. Then we will hear nothing more of these men for the next four years—until another Provincial general election rolls round, when, if history repeats itself, we will hear the complaint changed round to the cry contained in "Facts for the Irish Electors," which was issued to help one of Mr. Meredith's late campaigns. Now the cry is the Protestants are not getting enough; then it was that Sir Oliver was traduced by these same professional Protestants, because, as their precious document made out, he had ill-treated the Catholics and pampered the Protestants, particularly the Presbyterians and the Methodists!

THE ELECTION.

Nominations for the Ontario Provincial elections takes place to-morrow, and in eight days from now the fate of the Province, politically, for the next four years, will in all probability be definitely decided.
The campaign is proceeding with comparative quiet. Everywhere Sir Oliver's friends are making an excellent record. The fact that no issue worthy of the name has been raised in this fight that was not raised and effectively met before the election of 1890 has decidedly weakened the opponents of Sir Oliver. The electors do not relish the perpetual thrashing over of old issues or the attempt by the opponents of the Government to procure its defeat by sectional and sectarian cries.
While the Government has candidates in nearly all the constituencies, there are no regular Conservative candidates in over one-third of the ridings. In the important city of Hamilton the Conservatives have nominated no candidates, though they boast that Hamilton is a Conservative city. They do not have the courage of their convictions, and they are contented to be dragged at the tail of the P. P. A. In Ottawa, while two strong Liberals have been nominated, their opponents are fighting among themselves, and may not put up any more than one man.

In Toronto it is generally conceded that two of the four seats will go to the Liberals, and it may be three will be carried by the strong candidates running in support of Sir Oliver. Coming west to London, the citizen candidate will in all likelihood defeat Mr. Meredith, who has been six years a resident of Toronto, and is now a paid officer of that city. Mr. Hobbs is popular, energetic, progressive, a leading merchant and manufacturer, and devoted to the welfare of the city.

Down east several of the Opposition leaders are also in jeopardy of their seats, and there is a strong opinion abroad that no matter which of the parties triumph in that locality, the opposition to Sir Oliver is far from strong in Eastern Ontario.

In the west there are many counties without so much as one regular Conservative candidate. Liberal nominees who are not ashamed of their party name or their Liberal principles are in plenty, but the recognized Conservative nominees can be almost counted on the fingers of one hand. Let us briefly show how the western constituencies stand at the time of writings.
In Brant North, W. B. Wood is opposed by S. G. Kitchen, P. of I., but Mr. Wood will be elected.
In Brant South, after an ineffectual attempt to get a Patron to run against Hon. A. S. Hardy, the Conservatives had finally to fall back upon Mr. Hopkins, a Brantford P. P. A. It would be poor recognition of statesmanship to listen to Mr. Hopkins' pleadings.

In North Bruce, Mr. McNaughton, who has for six months been Patron M. P. P., seems to have displeased many who voted for him, and he is opposed to Mr. A. McConnell, a well known farmer and a Liberal, who will likely be elected. In this riding there are also two other candidates—Mr. Wm. McIntosh, nominee of the Conservative Convention, and Mr. D. M. Sutherland, a Conservative without conventional indorsement.

In South Bruce there is no Conservative candidate, and the fight will be between Mr. R. Truax (Liberal), and W. Valens, a P. of I., who has Conservative support.
In Center Bruce, Mr. Dack, the sitting member, will be re-elected if his friends get out the full vote. His opponent is Mr. J. S. Macdonald, P. of I.
In East Elgin there are three candidates—Mr. Dance (Liberal), Mr. Ford (P. of I.) and Mr. Bower (Con). Mr. Dance is the favorite, but in a three-cornered contest it is hard to prophesy.

In Elgin West, Mr. D. Macnish will defeat Mr. McColl, the late member. West Elgin will have a good member in Mr. Macnish. He is a representative farmer.
In Essex North there are four candidates, though one or more may drop out. The fight is really between W. J. McKee and Sol White, but the candidature of Mr. Wintemute (P. of I.) and Boutellier (Canadian Independence) complicates matters. Mr. McKee will probably be elected.

In South Essex Mr. Balfour has no straight Conservative candidate against him, but he has Mr. Dodson (P. of I.) and J. A. Buchanan (P. P. A.), who has the indorsement of the Conservatives. Mr. Balfour will be elected.
In North and Center Grey, there are three candidates. Both of the ridings are likely to return the Liberal nominees. In South Grey, Mr. McKechnie, Liberal, is opposed by Mr. McNicol, P. of I.

In Haldimand there is no straight Conservative candidate, and the same holds good of both divisions of Lambton. All three will likely return Liberals.
In all probability the Liberals will hold the three divisions of Huron, where they have popular men running, as well as East Kent, where the veteran Mr. Ferguson is again their candidate.

In East and North Middlesex the regular Conservative candidate has been scared out of the field, and the contest is between Liberal Patrons and Conservative Patrons. The Conservative Patrons are P. P. A.s and are supported by that secret organization. There are good reasons for the belief that both Messrs. Taylor and Jackson will be elected. Many Conservatives are supporting them.

In West Middlesex so far, the fight is a triangular one. Whether all three remain in the field till election day or not, Hon. G. W. Ross will be re-elected.
The opponents of Sir Oliver put up a P. P. A. candidate, who is also a Patron, in North Oxford, but the Premier will be re-elected by a large majority. His friends will see that the full vote is polled. In South Oxford, Dr. McKay will be re-elected.

In West Kent Mr. Pardo, a popular Patron and a strong Liberal, will defeat Mr. Clancy, who was only elected by a few votes four years ago.
From the Perth comes the news that Mr. Race has retired in the south riding, leaving the contest to Mr. Ballantyne and his Patron opponent. Mr. Ballantyne will be elected.

From Welland, from the Wellingtons and the Waterloos the intelligence all points to the return of candidates who favor the upholding of Ontario's Grand Old Man. The result in the whole Province will likely be the sustaining of Sir Oliver Mowat with a good working majority, the return of several Patron candidates, but not enough to make them the balance of power, and the further reduction in size of the Conservative Opposition in the Legislature.

Sir Oliver will not go, because the people wish him to stay.

St. HENRI DE MASCOUCHE, Que., June 17.—An accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific Railway at 5 o'clock Friday evening midway between Mascoche and Lehigh, caused by the breaking of an axle of a tender on a freight bound west. Eight box cars were derailed and thrown upside down into the ditch, but fortunately no lives were lost.

The Toronto Candidate

His Turnings and Twistings on Public Questions.

On Both Sides of Almost Every Matter Before the Legislature.

He Opposed Mr. Peddie Because He Lived Just Outside the City Limits, But Wants Election Himself, Though the Paid Servant of Our Rival City.

Mr. Meredith has favored municipal log rolling with regard to the license system. Mr. Meredith has supported the McCarthy Act, which put the licensing system under the control of the Dominion authorities.

Mr. Meredith last year voted against the plebiscite as un-British and vicious. Mr. Meredith this year forgets last year's arguments, and maintains that the country should have another plebiscite on the same subject within the next year.

Mr. Meredith has said that too much money was being spent in developing new Ontario.

Mr. Meredith has voted that not nearly enough money is spent in Northwestern Ontario.

Mr. Meredith has said that Sir Oliver Mowat's Government was absolutely clean. Mr. Meredith has more than insinuated that members of the Government were shockingly corrupt, but when called upon to indite them in the Legislature, he has declined to do so.

Mr. Meredith has been entirely opposed to the use of the ballot in Ontario.

Mr. Meredith, while afterwards conceding the use of the ballot in part, strongly opposed its use in public school elections, because of his belief that thus politics would be introduced into school management.

Mr. Meredith has opposed the use of the ballot in either separate or public school elections.

Mr. Meredith has declared that he would not for one moment force the ballot on separate school supporters, though willing to have it extended to the election of public school trustees.

Mr. Meredith has contended that the electors whether for public or separate schools, should be compelled to hold their elections by ballot whether they wished to go to that expense or not. At present it is optional, and all but the demagogues are satisfied.

Mr. Meredith has boasted that the Conservative party set up separate schools in spite of the Liberals.

Mr. Meredith has permitted his supporters to keep in circulation for years the assertion that the Liberals were responsible for the establishment of separate schools.

Mr. Meredith's campaign (a few years ago) was run on the cry contained in "Facts for the Irish Electors," to the effect that Sir Oliver Mowat is the enemy of the Irish Catholic race, and that he has treated them most unfairly.

Mr. Meredith's last two contests have been run on the cry that Sir Oliver Mowat had sold himself to the Pope, and that all who support him vote for Rome, though between the two elections in which these two diametrically opposite cries were made to serve, no change was made in the policy of the Ontario Government.

Mr. Meredith has professed to be eminently fair in his methods.

Mr. Meredith was one of the first to condone the stealing of Mr. Hyman's seat.

Mr. Meredith has professed to be in favor of promoting the prohibition of the retail liquor traffic.

At last bye-election Mr. Meredith canvassed from door to door in promotion of the election of Mr. Carling, who is understood to have over $100,000 invested in the manufacture of intoxicants. And now Mr. Carling is canvassing from door to door for Mr. Meredith.

Mr. Meredith and his friends argued strongly against the election of Mr. Peddie, the working man candidate, on the ground that, while he worked in the London furniture factory, he lived just outside the city limits.

Mr. Meredith and his friends now insist that though he is the well-paid agent of our rival city of Toronto, and has lived in Toronto for six years, he is better entitled to represent London than a successful merchant and manufacturer, who has devoted his energies to building up London.

Struck by an Iceberg.

GLASGOW, June 18.—The Anchor Line steamship Ethiopia, which sailed from New York on June 2, arrived here this noon. Capt. Wilson signalled off Tory Island yesterday that she collided with an iceberg in the Atlantic and stove in her bow at and above the waterline. The shock was terrific. Everybody who was standing was thrown to the floor. The women were hysterical. The cargo was shifted from the bow and temporary repairs made, which successfully floated her, though it is marvelous that she did not sink. The passengers were so pleased with untiring efforts of the crew that they subscribed $270 for the sailors.

The Workers Know Their Friends.

Is the man whose firm pays over $1,000 every week in wages, to be spent in London, not more likely to make a good representative for the city than the man who is the paid servant of Toronto? While Mr. Meredith rarely comes to London except to take money out of it, Mr. Hobbs is steadily working to increase London's factories and add to the employment of its people. The Hobbs company not only employs a large staff of workmen, but buys for shipment to all parts of Canada nearly $50,000 worth of products of other London factories. The London workmen know who are their best friends.

The following is from Mrs. J. W. Tillbrook, wife of the Mayor of McKeesport, Penn.: "My little boy Willie, now six years old, had a bunch under one ear which the doctor said was Scrofula. As it continued to grow he finally lanced it and it discharged for some time. We then began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla and he improved very rapidly until the sore healed up. Last winter it broke out again, followed by Erysipelas. We again gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla with most excellent results and he has had no further trouble. His cure is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla."

THE WHEEL.

AFTER THE RELAY RACE. MONTREAL, June 17.—A crowd of about 500 persons witnessed the finish of the great Sarnia-Montreal bicycle ride. It is safe to say that thousands missed the finish through not anticipating so great a disparity in the time of arrival and the schedule time. About 1:20 the spectators near the Windsor Hotel caught the first glimpse of the riders, and at 1:26:38, Courier Harvey, dressed in white, preceded by Kunsenstein, and flanked by half a dozen wheelmen, dashed up to the finishing line and handed the packet to Acting Mayor Costigan amidst wild enthusiasm. The packet was formally presented to Mr. Lane, the president of the C. W. A., by the acting mayor in a neat speech, in which he congratulated the wheelmen and praised them for their pluck and endurance. President Lane replied in a few words, and was followed by Lieut.-Col. Houghton. Sir Donald Smith and other distinguished citizens failed to be present at the finish, doubtless owing to the surprisingly quick time made in the Montreal division.

Official time at the finish was 1:26:38, which is a fraction more than 33 hours from the time it left Sarnia, 4 hours 9 minutes and 22 seconds ahead of schedule time.

The following, printed in gold letters, was on the pouch: Sarnia to Montreal, Eastern Division. The message in the pouch was as follows: "The swift and trustworthy wheelmen convey our hearty greetings from Toronto. (Signed) ABERDEEN, Governor-General."

Messages to Sir Wm. C. Van Horne and Sir Donald Smith were also in the pouch, also one to the president of the C. W. A., signed by the mayors in the towns on the route from Sarnia to Montreal.

THE WANDERERS.

TORONTO, June 16.—The Wanderers' bicycle meet at the new Rosedale track yesterday afternoon was very successful in every way. Fully 5,000 people were present. The day was fairly free from casualties. Only in one instance did anything of an unfortunate nature occur. In the two-mile handicap Rowen, of Guelph, in trying to avoid one of the competitors who fell, ran into the fence at the northern corner and badly injured his shoulder and leg.

WHEELER WINS.

FLORENCE, June 17.—In the international bicycle race here to-day Harry Wheeler won the first prize of $400.

LACROSSE.

The lacrosse match between Montreal and Cornwall resulted in the defeat of the Cornwall team by a score of 5 to 4. The Junior Shamrocks and the Crescents met in Montreal on Saturday afternoon, when the latter were defeated for the third time this season in the international championship series. Score, 7 to 3.

THE TURF.

MATCHBOX WAS SECOND. PARIS, June 17.—The grand prize of Paris which was run to-day was won by Baron A. De Schickler's Dolma Baghtche, Sir F. Johnstone's Matchbox was second, and Count Clermont-Tonnerre's Mansour was third.

Eleven horses ran. Dolma Baghtche won cleverly by a neck, amid demonstrations of the wildest enthusiasm. The betting was 6 to 1 against Dolma Baghtche, 7 to 1 on Matchbox and 20 to 1 against Mansour. The conditions include: 150,000 francs given by the city of Paris and 50,000 francs by the five great railway companies for colts and fillies foaled in 1891, of every description and country, added to a sweepstakes of 1,000 francs each, the second to receive 20,000 francs and the third 10,000 francs out of the stakes; distance 3,000 meters. Just before the finish Dolma Baghtche drew a neck ahead; Matchbox finished two lengths ahead of Mansour, and the latter one length ahead of Gospodar. Time, 3:25 2-5.

TIPS.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Next Saturday at Washington Park the American derby of 1894 will be run. The race will be for 3-year-olds a mile and a half for a stake of $25,000. The field now is practically narrowed down to eleven starters.

Two weeks from Monday the first regular meeting of the Windsor Driving Park Association will take place over their new track and everything points toward a big success.

On Saturday Corrigan's Vassal won the Chicago Derby at Hawthorne in the presence of 6,000 people. The stake was worth $5,360 to the winner.

THE OAR.

CORNELL VS. PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE. PHILADELPHIA Pa., June 16.—The four-mile eight-oared shell race between the colleges of Cornell and Pennsylvania on the Delaware River this evening was won by five lengths in 21 minutes and 12 1/2 seconds. Pennsylvania's time was 21:24 1/2.

A DRAW.

BUFFALO, June 17.—A ten-round contest here last night between Geo. Siddons, of New York, and Frank Earne, of Buffalo. Another match is being arranged.

The General Elections

East Algoma Will Be Redeemed by the Liberals.

Liberal Prospects Good in Kent and Essex.

Rev. Principal B. F. Austin's Strong Testimony.

Ontario's Ballot is Proof Against Stulting and Good Enough for England.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

No one who knows Rev. B. F. Austin will accuse him of any extreme partiality for the Church of Rome. In fact, he has felt it his duty on more than one occasion to take strong grounds against certain acts and institutions of that church. So pronounced have been his views on these matters, indeed, that he has come to be regarded by certain classes in this community as an especially vigorous and watchful champion of Protestantism. He has entered the polemical lists against the Roman Catholic clergyman in this city, and has taken an active part in Orange meetings and in others of a similar character. In a word, his loyalty to Protestantism is unquestioned. He is the last man in the city of whom it might be said that he will shut his eyes to the faults of his own party. He was one of the most trenchant opponents of the Jesuit Estates Act, and was an active member of the Equal Rights Association.

This gentleman is now on record as being heartily in favor of the return of the Government of Sir Oliver Mowat.

Is there a voter in the city who could imagine Mr. Austin supporting any Government which he believed or suspected was trucking to the Roman Catholic Church?—[St. Thomas Journal.]

EAST ALGOMA WILL BE REDEEMED BY MR. FARWELL.

The sensible wing of the Conservative party was strongly opposed to bringing out a candidate in opposition to Mr. Farwell, as they admit the policy of the Mowat Government has been beneficial to Algoma, but party exigencies have compelled them to submit to Mr. Hearst's candidature. The almost entire absence of any attempt at being in earnest is plainly visible to everyone. It is conceded on all sides that Mr. Farwell will be returned by a large majority.

BRITISH BALLOT THE BEST.

In his address to the young men of South Essex about to enjoy their privileges for the first time, Dr. Samson, at Amherstburg on Tuesday night, discussed the charge that the Ontario ballot was not a secret ballot and reminded the audience that it was the only ballot that was proof against the crime of stuffing the ballot box. "Ours is the ballot of the greatest of all nations that has done more than any other in advancing the political and commercial progress of the world, and a ballot that is good enough for England and Englishmen is good enough for us."

THAT CASE.

Dr. Ryerson is at fault either in his diagnosis or in his respect for truth. After all the fuss about "the calf with a cough" the Guelph Experimental Farm, it turns out that the suspected animal is in excellent health. Thus another "very" is blundered.

GOOD PROSPECTS IN KENT AND ESSEX.

Our information respecting the elections in Kent and Essex is that the prospects are very good for the return of the Government candidates in both counties. In East Kent Mr. Ferguson's election is beyond a doubt. In the west Mr. Pardo will secure a majority. In North Essex Mr. McKee has developed great strength and will come out at the head of the poll. In South Essex Mr. Balfour's re-election is assured. Western Ontario will send a solid body of members to support Sir Oliver Mowat. (Tilbury News.)

NOTES.

Opponents of the Government in the South-East district distrust their candidate because he admitted the Liberal nominee was better qualified to represent the constituency than himself.

The Ridgeway Standard advises its Conservative friends to support Mr. Ferguson (Liberal) in East Kent. Thus it goes.

Grand Trustee Wilson, of the Patrons, speaking in Wellington, strongly condemned Mr. Mowat's persistent opposition to the Guelph College and experimental farm as a blow at the interests of the farmers. They all understand that fact.

Sir Oliver Mowat will speak in Simcoe town on Thursday next.

Thos. Young is the Patrons' candidate for Wellington in the Commons.

Hon. S. H. Blake will speak at Markham on Wednesday next in the interest of Mr. Richardson, the Liberal candidate. A great meeting is expected.

The great event of the campaign will be the Liberal meeting at the Massey Music Hall, Toronto, on Monday night. The speakers will be Mr. B. B. Osler, Q.C., Mr. S. H. Blake, Q.C., Mr. John Bertram, Mr. J. K. Kerr, Q.C., Mr. Charles Moss, Q.C., Mr. Joseph Tait and Mr. G. G. Lindsey.

MR. TAIT AND PROHIBITION.

Mr. W. H. Orr writes: "Editor Templar, Hamilton—I am astonished that you should have 'in the last days of an election campaign' made such an attack upon our staunch prohibition friend, Mr. Joseph Tait, as found in the second column, page 2, of your last issue. To those who have lived even for a few years in Toronto it must seem startling to have a temperance paper, printed within 40 miles of this city, questioning the soundness of Mr. Tait as a prohibitionist. Everybody here who has been in touch with the prohibition work knows that it is entirely unnecessary for Mr. Tait to open his mouth in further declaration of his faithfulness to prohibition for years to come."

The United States Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—The Senate made very fair progress in the consideration of the Tariff Bill Saturday. The wool and the silk schedules were disposed of, except as to the first two paragraphs of the latter, which were reserved until Monday.

The Strike Situation

Leaders Said To Be Quarrelling Among Themselves.

Large Sections of the Men Ready to Go to Work.

Some of the Hothouse Still Bent on a Policy of Violence.

SCOTTSBURGH, Pa., June 17.—Secretary Darby, of the Coke Workers' Union, has resigned. The leaders are quarrelling, and there are indications that the strike will not last much longer in the coke region.

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—Seventy coal operators of the Pittsburgh district met yesterday afternoon and ratified the action of their committee at the Columbus conference. They decided to start up their mines on Monday next.

The district convention of miners concluded its work at noon yesterday, finishing up matters pertaining to the wage scale and considering ways and means of supporting the miners who will be locked out by the operators who refuse to be governed by the terms of the agreement. There are 5,000 miners who will require support.

At Uniontown, Pa., the jury in the case of the 67 Stickle-Hollow strikers charged with riot at Washington Run mines, returned a verdict of not guilty, but the accused to pay the costs. The costs amount to about $8,000 which will be raised by friends of the prisoners. Two of the strikers charged with the murder of Supt. Raddock have been found guilty. The remaining 26 men will be tried together.

At Greensburg, Pa., Friday night the strikers overpowered the deputies who were on guard at the Central works at Tarr station, that have been running for some time, wrecking the tipples with a bomb. Then they went to the fan house and blew it up, thereby causing a suspension of work as well as considerable loss.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 17.—At the called State convention of the National Federation of United Mine Workers held in this city yesterday, it was decided by almost a unanimous vote to reject the Columbus compromise and continue the strike until the demand for 70 cents per ton is conceded. A resolution was adopted bitterly condemning the officers of the federation who signed the scale and demanding the immediate resignation of State President Joseph Dunkerly and all national officers who signed the compromise. President Dunkerly complied with the request and tendered the desired resignation, and G. W. Parcell was chosen. It is believed that the action of the miners in voting to reject the compromise and continue the strike means that conflict will be fiercer than ever, as the ranks are divided and some of the men desire to return to work at the proposed 60-cent rate.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—At the session of the Supreme Lodge of United Workmen yesterday Atlanta, Ga., was chosen for the next convention. The session was largely devoted to secret work and to auditing accounts. A proposed new ritual for the order was defeated. A ritual for the use of the grand lodge of honor was adopted. The installation of officers will occur Monday.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 17.—The belief is general among mine owners and operators in this city that 90 per cent of the miners will go to work Monday morning under the Columbus scale of wages. Telegrams from Pennsylvania, Ohio and parts of Illinois verify this prediction.

It is estimated the total loss by the strike in wages of miners, loss to operators and manufacturing industries will reach $20,000,000.

Another fatal fatality has occurred at Comber. A little child, the daughter of Cyrus Roadhouse, was crushed to death Saturday. She was riding with her father on the heavy log roller, when the implement in passing over a furrow jolted and the child was thrown forward. The ponderous roller passed over the body of the unfortunate girl. Death was instantaneous.

Jersey City Has a $1,000,000 Blaze—
Fires in Montreal and Elsewhere.

MONTREAL, QUE., June 17.—A fire which took place Saturday night on the premises of H. O. & E. B. Edy, manufacturers agents, Gill street, did considerable damage. The fire spread to the building occupied by Bushnell and J. H. Nagle, tinner, which suffered considerable injury. The total loss is estimated at between $5,000 $6,000.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., June 17.—The old but extensive abattoir of the Central Stock and Transit Company in Harsimus Cove, just south of Pavonia avenue and the Erie grain elevator, was totally destroyed by fire last evening, the total loss reaching almost $1,000,000. Built on piles, the structure of two stories was entirely of wood,
but the machinery for the various utilitarian purposes of the company was costly and extensive, while the amount of stock, including dressed beef, mutton and upwards of 5,000 live sheep and lambs went to swell the loss, which F. Lambert, a prominent official of the company, insisted might reach $1,500,000.

JACKSON, Mich., June 17.—The Michigan
Center flooring mill was burned yesterday, causing a loss of $15,000.

NOMINATION TO-MORROW.

To-morrow (Tuesday) will be nomination day for the Provincial elections. The supporters of the candidates who endorse the general policy of Sir Oliver Mowat's Administration should turn out at every hustings, and give their candidate an earnest of the enthusiasm that they will display on voting day a week afterwards.

Every Liberal and Conservative who are supporting Mr. Hobbs in London that can spare the time should attend the nomination in the City Hall at 12 o'clock noon.
The friends of good government in East Middlesex should also attend the nomination in London West.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

"Where is he?" he said, with a roar and a stamp.

"That reporter; I'd like to get at him!"
I gave him an interview once, and the scamp reported my grammar verbatim.

"Hotter and hotter—everybody shuts the door now."

"Tramps are becoming a daily nuisance in many parts of the city."

"Wanted—A new idea; price no object.
Apply 'Snap Shots,' 'E. Press.'"

"Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Galt, city, were registered in London, Eng., last week."

"Miss Rea, of Winnipeg, Man., is visiting at the residence of Mrs. Macklin, Talbot street."

"The London Hunt will hold their annual reception to the farmers on Friday, June 29."

"The electric storm last night interfered considerably with the telegraph and telephone wires."

"The Alerts have returned from Hamilton. They complain of unfair treatment by the umpire there."

"John Ranford, wife and child, and Miss Murray, Clinton, were registered in this city yesterday."

"Mr. Lewis Clark, of the ADVERTISER, accompanied by his wife, is spending his holidays in Cleveland."

"N. Clarke Wallace, Controller of Customs, was shown over the city by Mayor Easson on Saturday afternoon."

"Postoffice Inspector Spry, of this city, has been making a tour of inspection of the postoffices in the London district."

"Mr. Thos. Howe, manager of the London Bank of Toronto, has engaged a cottage at Gananque for the month of July."

"The water in the reservoir at Spring-bank became so low on Saturday that it was necessary to run the steam pumps."

"Miss Mabelle Macbeth, of this city, is passing several weeks with her aunt, Mrs.
Margaret Macbeth, No. 941 Vinewood avenue, Detroit."

"Mr. Wm. Bishop, jun., has left for London, where he has secured a good position and will remain for the summer."
[Aylmer Express.]

"Let your advertisements ring with a genuine tone of truthfulness; such ads convince the reader that there is reliability in you and your wares."

"The City Council meets to-night, and it is expected will either ratify or throw out finally the London street railway's order for the electric light pole."

"A switch box on an electric light pole at the corner of Pall Mall and Richmond streets caught fire during the rain on Saturday night and was burned out."

"A large number of Londoners are going to Woodstock on Saturday to attend the annual picnic of the C. P. R. employees. A good programme of sports is being arranged by an energetic committee."

"The nominations for the Local Legislature take place to-morrow. The city nomination will be held at 12 noon in the City Hall, and that of East Middlesex at 11 o'clock in Collins' Hall, London West."

"The hot weather of the last few days has been especially hard on horses. A Pall Mall street car horse dropped dead on Saturday. George Leith, of the east end, lost an animal from inflammation on the same day, and several horses were overcome on Dundas street."

"There was a pretended demonstration of the labor party in London during the visit of Mr. Meredith, but the 'Industrial Banner' (labor party) 'failed to see one single individual in the procession who was a member of a labor organization.' Another deception exposed.—[Kingston Whig.]

"You can trace a resemblance between the merchant who, when hard times bear him down, seeks safety by withdrawing his name from the public gaze and the ostrich who, when it is in danger, considers itself safe when its head is buried in the sand.
The man who buries his business prospects by refusing to advertise should bury himself and have done with it."

"For 22 years London has been in the cold shades of opposition to the best Government that Canada has ever possessed, according to the verdict of Grand Old Man. Sir Oliver will be kept in power.
Let us vote for the Government candidate and see how much he can do for the city.
We cannot expect much from the paid agent of a rival city. He cannot serve two masters, and London is not able to match Toronto's income of $13,500 which is paid to Mr. Meredith. He can easily find a seat in the place which has been his home since 1888."

Be on the Winning Side.

Can anyone supply a legitimate reason why Toronto should not give one of her four seats to Mr. Meredith now that he is the paid agent of that city, and thus let London send an independent member to represent her in the Legislature? Sir Oliver Mowat will be again sustained at the polls. Let us be on the winning side.
It is the right side, and it will profit the city to elect Mr. Hobbs.

He "Exiled" Himself.

It is now plaintively asked, "Why should
Mr. Meredith be exiled from London?"
Blame their innocent hearts! No one in London has exiled him. He shook the London dust from his feet six years ago, and he has completed his "naturalization" in Toronto by becoming the paid servant of our rival city. Now that Mr. Meredith is city solicitor of Toronto no one need ask,

"Why exile him from London?" All Mr.
Meredith wishes is to hold on to London for a seat in the Legislature, while giving his time and money to Toronto. The fairer plan would be for him to seek a seat in Toronto, as Mr. Marter has done, and give his whole talents to the city that pays him.
Toronto is our rival. Why should that city have five city members, while London has none? We deny that this city is so bankrupt of representative material, as Mr.
Meredith's friends assert, and that we need borrow a Toronto corporation official to represent us.

CAMPAIGN CRIES EXPOSED.

Some Reasons Why Mr. Hobbs Should Be Elected, and the Toronto Candidate Left to Seek a Seat in Toronto.

While unscrupulous friends of the Toronto candidate are canvassing one section of the community against Mr. Hobbs with the story that he is not a good enough Englishman to meet their views, emissaries of Mr. Meredith in another part of the city are using every effort possible to persuade unthinking electors that because Mr. Hobbs is a member of the Sons of England he should be defeated. Out upon such sectional cries. Mr. Hobbs should be elected because he supports a good Government, which will be again returned to power. Mr. Hobbs should be returned because he is an able business man, devoted to the welfare of this fine city. Mr. Hobbs should be returned because his opponent deserted London and accepted the position of paid advocate of a rival city. Mr. Hobbs should be elected because his opponent cannot serve two masters, and his heart naturally will be where his interests are and where he makes his living. That he was born in England should be no bar to his preferment. What the public desire of their representative is that he shall be constantly looking after their interests. Mr. Meredith has had several terms. Now that he has deserted London let us give a live Londoner a chance to see what he can do for us. He has been successful thus far, and no doubt could do much for London by co-operating with the Government of the day. Mowat will be sustained, never fail.

Ken. Sam Blake on Some Stories.

That treacherous speaker, Hon. S. H.
Blake, Q.C., had something to say in his address in behalf of Mr. Chas. Mowat, the Liberal candidate in South Toronto, in the auditorium on Wednesday night, which is of wider interest than merely to the electors of that constituency:

"I would like to take another department for a moment or two, for stories have been told about it that have been so absolutely wicked in their untruthfulness that I have spent a good deal of this evening in trying to see just where we stand in regard to it, and I have some figures in respect to that department—the Department of Education. Now it has been said that the cost has been increased; that there has been great additional trouble and expense caused by the mode in which that department has been dealt with. Now, you will be surprised when I tell you that in 1883 there were authorized eleven different grammars, nine different geographies, five different histories, and that our children had to buy 53 different books to go through the course. To-day we have only nine. I was amazed as I read through the pages of the blue book, which no one can contradict—if it could be contradicted you would have had Forster Clancy or Ferret Marter with his muzzle up to it before this —I was amazed to find that there had been such a marked improvement and such wonderful progress in that department.
It required in 1875 $10 83 to get the books needed for the school education; the cost to-day is only $4 06. Why, it has been promulgated from one end of the country to the other, not only that there was an increase, but that it was for nefarious purposes, that it was in order to benefit and assist friends, that there was a manipulation in the Education Department. The story is absolutely untrue, as these figures show. Listen, please: The drawing books and there are 297,723 pupils in our public schools who are compelled to take drawing —cost 15 cents each; they cost 5 cents now.
In the writing books there is a saving of $14,886. Comparing the prices of the school books to-day with what they were ten years ago the Province of Ontario saves $100,000 per annum. (Applause.) Further than that: In 1883 there were 22 books that were non-Canadian; to-day they are all Canadian but one. In 1883 there were 6 public school and $1 high school textbooks imported, and now there are only two imported. I tell you, any Canadian may be proud of the progress that has been made in our school management within the last ten or fifteen years.
(Applause.)" Mr. Blake, in discussing the fees question, commended the recent action of the Legislature in limiting the salaries of certain officials, and allowing them only a percentage of the returns.
