SOLDIERS CLEAN OUT LINDSAY'S CHINESE SHOPS

Are Roused To Fury Over Story Told by an Alleged "Woman Slave."

LINDSAY, Feb. 1.—Rioters, including some returned soldiers, last night early this morning, wrecked two Chinese laundries and a Chinese restaurant, the only three Chinese places of business in the town, and knocked down the laundry building, which was a "brick-bat" after he had "laid out" a returned soldier, and bruised the heads of many of the mob with his club.

The trouble started about 11 o'clock last night after a hockey match, and was due to the fact that a Chinese woman, said to be the slave of an elderly Chinaman in the first laundry wrecked, having escaped from the laundry yesterday morning by jumping through the window, carrying the window with her, told her story to residents of the town. Indignation at her alleged treatment had been working up all day and culminated in a raid on the place.

HANG KAISER WOULD BE ONE-THOUSANDTH PART OF JUSTICE

Dr. Hillis Says 58 Hun Leaders Will Be Tried.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 31.—There are 581 German leaders who will be brought to trial, indicted on greater or lesser charges. The Kaiser himself could be indicted on a thousand different charges. However, I want to temper our justice with mercy. I will be satisfied with a thousandth part justice, and the other 999 parts mercy. I just want to see him hanged once for murder, as justice, and let the other counts in the thousand be classed as mercy. I am not vindictive.

This was the closing statement of Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of the Pilgrim Methodist Church, Brooklyn, in concluding his eloquent and interesting address at the First Methodist Church tonight on German atrocities. The audience consisted of men and women from all parts of the city and district, and while there were a few vacant seats, the attendance was a record one.

The speaker made some rather sensational statements in regard to various Hun atrocities, and told of how many have prepared for peace far more carefully than she had prepared for war. She had today, he said, the greatest undeveloped resources on the European continent, the coal mines of Poland, the platinum and petroleum deposits of Russia, and the vast timber tract of Siberia. "Unless we bring in a fifteenth point, forcing Germany to release her stranglehold on the smaller nations of Europe, we have failed hands down," he declared.

Dr. Hillis' long tale of atrocities was backed up by pictures taken by himself on the battlefield and extracts from personal diaries of Germans.

GOVT. DELICATE, SO DON'T SHOVE TOO MUCH ON IT—CALDER

Repatriation Chairman Speaks at Ingersoll Meeting.

INGERSOLL, Jan. 31.—Repatriation was fully discussed by the Hon. J. A. Calder at a meeting in the town hall this evening. Mayor J. V. Buchanan was chairman.

Mr. Calder found a peculiar interest in a visit to Ingersoll as much as he met a number of the town's boys and girls. He told the audience that he left here thirty-six years ago, being at that time a boy of thirteen.

He described the problems of repatriation as the biggest job that had ever confronted Canada as a nation, and emphasized that the Government and the people must keep faith with the boys who had been fighting the battle of democracy. He made it plain, however, that too much of the responsibility should not be shovelled on to the Government.

It was for every municipality and every individual to realize the responsibility that was laid upon them. He mentioned that he had been given a number of technical schools for soldiers, and the technical schools for others. The Canadians on the western front had formed the spearhead in the great push, and they had never ceased going ahead until the boys were now coming home.

He stated that the rate of 20,000 a month, and that probably all would be home by August or September. He said that all friendly societies were lending assistance. But to successfully handle the situation there must be individual realization of responsibility.

Other speakers were James Calder, M.P.P., Kintore; A. T. Lowe, and Don MacSutherland, M.P. On motion of J. A. Calder, seconded by T. R. Mayberry, a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Calder for his excellent address.

PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

No Courting in Business World

Every day ushers more women into the business world. And each newcomer will achieve success or go down to failure along a road of the hardest experience and bitter trials if someone does not stand in the doorway and point the way. Just as the only child, entering school for the first time, must be initiated into the ways of give and take, taught to suppress sulky moods, and enter wholeheartedly into the jolly times that are there, so must the would-be business woman learn the unwritten rules of a business life.

Taking a vice is perhaps one of the hardest things to do in this life. But if the income; business woman would only be willing to recognize the value of the lesson which has been learned in ten years, or even one year's experience, her entry into this new sphere would be so much easier.

Here are some of the things which experience has taught:

Lo, in business life there is no marriage and giving in marriage; there is no courting and bestowal of flowers and candy; and above all, there is no flirting. Men and women enter the business world today on exactly the same standard and once there they cease to be man and woman, and become employers and employees.

Business life is absolutely sexless, and the woman who begins to presume upon the fact that she is a woman is out of place. She may get encouragement for a time. Male human nature is just weak enough for that. But after all what did she enter the business world for? To be a hindrance or a drag? To achieve success, or to rush at lightning speed towards failure? Men in the business world may put up with her kitchen ways for a time, may be pleased to find diversion in her deep glances and protestations, that she above all other women and men understands them, but in time amusement gives way to disgust. And then where is she? Just where she was when she came, unless she has been fired completely. And the man who came in with her has spent his time in getting a grasp on the business, and is ready for a responsible position.

And these are the women who entered business earnestly determined to achieve success, but have fallen by the wayside. Perhaps they began by exacting little courtesies from men, such courtesies as they would expect in the social life beyond. It is unfair for a business woman to expect any courtesies outside of those which one gentleman owes to another. The fact that some men will accord her these courtesies is a matter of chance, not of right. In fact, the truly earnest business woman rather resents any treatment which may be accorded her merely because she is a woman.

This is only the beginning of the business world. Men are just as unaccustomed to her presence there as she is to finding them. Men are just as liable to make mistakes in their treatment of her as she is to exacting courtesies from men. But it is not the man who is the problem, it is the woman who is seeking to find a place? If she desires to stay in the business world she must become a business woman through and through, and her relationships toward men and women in business life must be those of business.

But away from business. Ah, that's different. Never must she let herself crystallize into a man. Never must she allow business to crowd out of her life. She is a woman, and she must remain so. She must be a woman in the home, in the social life, in the business world. She must be a woman in the business world, and at the same time preserve those feminine qualities which are peculiar to her sex, then there is no reason why she should not make good in the business world, and be welcomed there, too.

CYNTHIA GREY'S MAIL-BOX

What Was Now?

Dear Miss Grey, I am president of our organized Sunday school class of girls. We have been knitting and doing other Red Cross work ever since the war began. My girls (I say they are mine, because I feel as if I have the responsibility of them) think they would like to undertake some other line of work now. I mean something in the line of making money. We are only ten in number, and the majority of us are all day, so that anything we undertake must be done in the evenings. Can you or any of the readers suggest something that we might undertake? Thank you in advance for any suggestion you might be able to give us. I remain, THE PRESIDENT.

Ans.—I might mention the ages of the girls run from 11 to 13.

Ans.—There are still many things to do for the military convalescent homes, the hospitals for convalescent soldiers, the sanatorium at Byron, even though the cry for socks has ceased to sound. Then there are church needs to consider, your church and Sunday school fully equipped? Or if so, possibly your class might undertake to aid such a need, as the Sick Children's Hospital. As to "making money," afraid I have no new ideas, so will somewhat suggest forward and voice some brilliant plans?

Renovating Leather.

Dear Miss Grey, Could you or any of the readers of this column kindly advise me as to how to renovate leather goods? Would like to clean surface of leather couch and chair without injuring the leather. Your truly, A. K.

Ans.—To rub the leather with a cloth slightly saturated with castor oil, or vasoline has been found a good way to remove ordinary spots. Wipe afterwards with a soft, lintless cloth. Some prefer to rub the leather with a damp rag, scrubbing out of every pore, and then, when dry, with a cloth dipped in white of egg. For light-colored leather a little caustic soda in the water helps to renovate the general appearance.

Two Tested Recipes.

An Interested Reader asks for the foot pattern and sends these tested recipes: Fruit Cake—cups sugar, 2 cups butter, two pounds raisins, quarter pound almonds, half pound citron peel, one cup cranberry sauce, one cup currant sauce, one teaspoon soda, one tablespoon almond extract, three-quarters cup dry cocoa, four to make medium stiff batter; bake for 2 1/2 hours in a moderate oven.

Spice Cake—Two cups brown sugar, half cup butter, one cup milk, two eggs, one teaspoon soda, one cup raisins, one cup cinnamon, one-half of cloves, half nutmeg, 2 1/2 cups flour. This makes a good layer cake.

Will Write Bonnie Annie.

Dear Miss Grey, I would like to correspond with Bonnie Annie Laurie if you will please send me her address in the enclosed envelope. Have you had the flu? I have escaped it so far.

Ans.—Anne's address has been sent you. Yes, thank you, I've not been a victim yet.

More Help for "Sally."

Dear Miss Grey, This is my first experience in writing to the Mail-Box, but I have read the letters with much interest, and thinking in return I could be of some help to some of the correspondents, I have written a few lines.

Ans.—(1) Louise is feminine of Louis, which means "bold warrior"; Edna means pleasure.

Size 16 will require 3 1/2 yds of 44-inch material.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents silver or stamps.

That your former letters failed to appear in print? Too bad to disappoint you. I am sorry I cannot tell you why they were not printed. Anyway, as this is to be a farewell issue, I will send you a pattern for a pair of slippers, the desired recipe.

Chocolate Cake—Two eggs (save one yolk for icing), one cup brown sugar, half-cup butter, half-cup (scant) cocoa, one cup flour, one cup milk, one teaspoon soda, one teaspoon vanilla.

Chocolate Icing—One and a half cups sugar, half-cup butter, one egg, one cup milk, few grains salt, yolk one egg, half-teaspoon melted butter, confectioner's sugar, half-teaspoon vanilla. Melt chocolate over hot water, add cream gradually, salt, yolk of egg and butter, and mix thoroughly. Spread with a light consistency to spread, then add flavoring.

"Just a Girl."

Dear Miss Grey, I am being a girl like all other girls. I thought I would like to join your circle. I enjoy reading your letters, and I am sure you are finding a congenial correspondent. My home is in the country, and I love to read and write. I am fond of music and of the piano. I am an occasional visitor in the city. Both lives have their advantages. He Misunderstands.

Dear Miss Grey, Being a reader of your column, I noticed two songs, namely, "The Dying Swan" and also a song called "Mother." By sending me the music and lyrics of these two songs, you will oblige me. Yours truly, C. E. F.

Ans.—"C. E. F." proposes two clippings, one an extract from "The Dying Swan," in which she offers the words of a poem, and the other, a request for the loan of words and music of "Mother." You will understand that I cannot give you the music of either piece here, if words are received for which I shall forward.

A Brother in England.

Dear Miss Grey, Will you give me a little space in your next column? I sent this lovely letter to you in January. I think all the papers will be glad to see it. I am sure you will find it a very interesting one. I am a brother in England, and hope he will soon be home. The "flu" has been dreadfully bad here. I have had quite a few deaths from it around here. I am sending a recipe for chocolate cake, which is very nice. One cup of chocolate, 1 cup of sugar, 1/2 cup of butter, 1 cup of molasses, 1 cup of nut-meat, 1 cup of flour.

Somebody Feels Hurt.

Dear Miss Grey, I am writing the third and last time I shall ever write to you. Here a little while ago I wrote a lovely letter and signed myself "Ira Kid." Maybe "Ira Kid" would not have liked it, but I thought you would. I am sorry that I did not write that letter. I am sorry that I did not write that letter. I am sorry that I did not write that letter.

Ans.—I am still a little the dumber as to what the trouble is. Do you mean that the trouble is? Do you mean that the trouble is? Do you mean that the trouble is?

SILKOM RED CROSS.

The Red Cross workers of the Silkom Church, London Township, have been busy this month knitting and sewing for the Belgian children. They sent in to Hyman Hall January 30, thirty pairs of socks and a quantity of under-clothing.

LEAMINGTON KHAKI CLUB.

The members of the Khaki Club held their annual meeting at the home of the president, Miss R. Fuller. The report from April, 1918, until December 31st, showed that the club had earned in tea parties and donations $1,180.48. Checks issued amounted to $1,093, and the balance bank, $87.48. The Border Chapter, I.O.G.E., was given $18.04 as a gift to the Essex Health Association, and the rest of the money was used to back comfort boxes for the Canadian soldiers in France.

Now that the war is over and there will be no more comfort boxes sent overseas, $27 was voted to the Salvation Army, a million-dollar fund, and $10 to the W. A. G. W. V.

WATERFORD W. I. SHOWER.

The last institute meeting took the form of a "shower" for Belgian and French relief. It was held in Mrs. Henry's house, and was largely attended. The results were very gratifying and showed that the sympathies of the waterford women were with those who suffer hardships in these war-ridden countries. The members from the country were given a special treat in this, as they are in all other undertakings. Almost every woman present had a sewing home and a fine shipment has gone forward.

Since Mrs. Hill retired from the presidency, the institute has had without a president. Mrs. Fleming was elected to that position by a unanimous vote. Mrs. Sanderson was then elected vice-president; Miss M. Bowley, second vice-president; and Mrs. Henry, director.

Miss Marion Somers sang a beautiful solo, which was much appreciated, and Mrs. Robinson read a paper about the mode of dress of the French peasants and how they are being clothed. She explained that the Allied governments are supplying the famine-stricken countries with food, but to clothe the people is distinctly the work of women everywhere. At the close of the program a very dainty tea was served.

KINCARDINE R. C. CONCERT.

The Red Cross Society is to be congratulated for having given the citizens the privilege of hearing such a splendid organization as the Kincardine Society, which delighted a large audience in the opera house. The next entertainment under the auspices of the Red Cross is John B. Smith, the famous impersonator.

IF WE PUT GOD FIRST OUR BREAD

For some months past I have been making an investigation into the problems which people have and the sorrows which they bear, and have learned that all the real troubles which people suffer are of a spiritual nature. In harmony with God, and walking in the way of his commandments. When Jesus said, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest," he gave us a cure for all our heartaches, and the solution to all our problems.

FEATURE SCREEN PRODUCTIONS SHOWING AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE ALL NEXT WEEK

Dorothy Gish in "The Hope Chest" on Monday and Tuesday
Next—"Little Women" on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and Bryant Washburn on Saturday Only.

Dorothy Gish, whom the fact that she never has any narrow escapes like so many other screen favorites, and is constantly calling attention to the adventures of other people. She feels that her life is lived in vain. All that has ever happened of much importance to her is her trip across the water to visit the war.

While on the voyage across the steamship, which, by the way, was the same one on which General Pershing went to France, was missed by four torpedoes. On the way back the vessel was shot at three times by submarines. During her stay in England she was in five air raids. At Ham, France, the locality in which the company was based, she was constantly under fire. But still Miss Gish does not feel that she has had any excitement. In "The Hope Chest," the new picture in which she will appear at the Majestic Theatre on Monday and Tuesday next, she has an accident at the opening of the picture, but then it is one we are told not to cry about. She spills the milk. It has lots to do with the story, too, which is a film version of the novel by Mark Lee Luther.

In this photoplay, Richard Barthelmess, long in the support of Marguerite Clark, appears as the juvenile lead opposite Miss Gish. This is Mr. Barthelmess' eighteenth picture in twenty-five months of screen existence. He has the part of Tom Ballantyne, while Miss Gish has the part of Sheila. The picture was directed by Elmer Clifton, and photographed by John Leezer.

Harold Lloyd Comedy at Majestic on Monday and Tuesday.

One of the extra attractions at the Majestic Monday and Tuesday will be the newest comedy of that popular and comic comedian, Harold Lloyd, which is entitled, "Wanted, 500." Lloyd has become one of the greatest comedians of the screen, and his comedies have become noted for the excellent humor, beautiful settings, and pretty women. Or such will be his latest, and it

Some Shows I'd Like To See

I've seen a lot of pictures in my time. For I am what they call a "movie fan"—Dramatic, weepy, humorous, sublime. And every leading woman, leading man—yet there are one or two I'd like to lump. I know that it would fill my heart with joy to see Mary Pickford play the vamp.

And William Hart as little Fauntleroy. I'm sure if some producer only would. Put on a picture such as I suggest. "Wouldn't pack the showhouse in our neighborhood. And really put it over all the rest. There are a lot of plays I'd like to view. My favorite never have been played, in fact. Say, Theda Bara Little Eva do, and Charlie Chaplin Julius Caesar act.

The public likes some novelties in shows. Why don't they give us what the public wants? Producers, put on pictures such as those. Four forth new triumphs from your sparkling fonts. For one the most of us would break our necks. Polly Moran portraying Marguerite. Ivan the Terrible by Francis X. Would take the audience right off their feet.

Let Broncho Billy tackle Richard III. Ben Turpin as Macbeth would be some show. And how the folks would congratulate my word—if Fatty only gave us Romeo. For Shakespeare's not a bit too deep for me; I know that Hamlet much would entertain! And, most of all, I think I'd like to see Doug Fairbanks play the Melancholy Dane.

should be thoroughly enjoyed by the patrons of the Majestic.

"Little Women," an Artercraft Special Production, Showing at the Majestic Next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Filled with humor, pathos and delicate sentiment, "Little Women," the famous novel of Louisa M. Alcott, which has been picturized and released as a Paramount-Artercraft special picture, will be shown at the Majestic Theatre on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. This will be an event in which every woman and child in the city, and men too, for that matter, who have read this immortal story, will be intensely interested.

It is a lavender-scented picture of New England during the days of the Civil War, and its numerous touches, its bits of romance and its gentle pathos are as effective in the photoplay as they were in the pages of Miss Alcott's wonderful book. One follows the career of Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy with solicitude and one laughs when they are joyful and weeps when sorrow overtakes them. Who does not recall Jo's sublime and useless sacrifice when she sells her hair to provide money for her mother's trip to Washington where her husband lies seriously ill? Who can refrain from weeping at the pathetic death of Beth, nor marvel at the wealth of love which bound the girls to "Marmee" and father, and to one another?

This splendid photoplay is of unusual historic interest inasmuch as

At the Majestic Theatre Next Saturday Only.

The scenes were filmed in and about the home of Miss Alcott in Concord, Mass. Every attention was paid to the details of production by Harry Knoles, the director, and Rene Giesart, the photographer. The four little women are portrayed by Isabel Landon, Dorothy Bernard, Lillian Hall and Florence Filini. Kate Lester, Julia Burley, George Kelson, Conrad Nelson, Henry Hull and Lynn Hammond also are in the cast.

Bryant Washburn Has Great Part in New Play Showing at the Majestic Next Saturday Only.

That versatile young screen star, Bryant Washburn, has a human interest comedy in "The Way of a Man With a Maid," and the story originally appeared in "The Saturday Evening Post," where Bryant himself read it and set about securing screen rights. It is a Paramount picture and will be shown at the Majestic Theatre next Saturday only. It introduces Arthur McArney, a $21 dollar a week clerk, as the chief figure, and shows his romance with Elsa Owensom, an extravagant, blonde little stenographer. Arthur McArney is shown as a very ordinary young man, satisfied with his weekly wage until the expensive Elsa comes into his life. Then he has to hustle to corral enough money to show her a good time and from this situation the story develops to a charming and unexpected ending.

Bryant Washburn is said to be at his best as the young clerk. Wanda Hawley plays Elsa Owensom and Fred Goodwin, who has done excellent work in recent Paramount pictures, appears as Bick Olsen, McArney's chum. Others who play important roles are Jessie

When they both fall in love with the same woman and find that they have a rival in his burly Tom Kennedy, who resents their interference, events happen every minute. EXCELLENT CONCERT

IN CENTRAL FIRE HALL

One of the best concerts of the season was given in the central fire hall Thursday night to a very large gathering of firemen and their friends. It was under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., with R. P. Liddle as chairman. Miss C. Oxley and Miss Ruth Fitzsimmons accompanied at the piano for community singing during the evening. Miss Allen, soprano, with Miss R. Fitzsimmons, piano, and A. P. G. Stedman, violin, gave an excellent rendering of "The Rosary." Pte. Thompson gave an exhibition of club swinging. Pte. Edwards, at the piano, and Sergt. Johnson, with the bones, gave two very delightful numbers. Corp. Depierre gave two solos. Miss Cameron, song, "Garden of My Heart"; Pte. Edwards, humorous song, "Where Did You Get That Hat?" Mrs. Edna Frost, song, "The Star of Bethlehem"; Pte. Alexander Belland, London's greatest child impersonator, delighted the audience, and as an encore gave a recitation entitled, "The Baggage Coach Ahead." Miss Annie Grant, song, "My Little Grey Home in the West"; Miss Lula Somerville, song, "When the Bonnie Heath is Blooming"; Miss Patterson rendered two very pleasing solos. Miss Ruth Fitzsimmons showed great skill in the playing of a pianette solo.

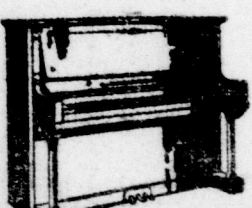

Captain Scott of the fire hall, in a few words, thanked those who had contributed to the program on behalf of the firemen.

STAR

Famous Lee Kids at Star Theatre. Be prepared, all ye who enter here, to leave the gloom behind. This is the door of the Star Theatre next Monday, when those two famous starlets, Jane and Katherine Lee, make their first appearance in "Swat the Fly." All that vast host of fun lovers who recall the Lee children's other wonderful productions—"American Buds," "Two Little Imps," "We Should Worry," "Doing Their Bit," etc.—cannot afford to miss this capstone to the hall of fame and fun which they have created. Even their most guilty pranks are thoroughly enjoyed by the most fastidious, because they are so natural, spontaneous, and free from malice. WILL BE ALLOWED TO SET UP GOVERNMENT UNDER LEAGUE DIRECTION

Paris, Jan. 31. — The agreement reached by the Allied council of ten on the colonial question, says a Havas Agency statement today, provides that territories which are sufficiently civilized to give an expression of their wishes as to the form of government will be permitted to set up such a government under the auspices of the League of Nations, obtaining either national independence or living under a protectorate of one or the other of the foreign powers. Arabia and Mesopotamia are expected to be examples of this class.

In the case of peoples insufficiently developed for self-government, the statement explains, the league shall ensure the power most suitable to govern under certain guarantees to be fixed either by the peace conference or the league. Provisionally African and the far eastern colonies shall be left as they are in control of the powers now occupying them.

As regards Asiatic Turkey, the statement adds, the four great powers are to undertake its administration at once, and the council of ten has asked the Versailles war council to submit a report as to the best troops available for the occupation of this Turkish area.

NAZIMOVA IN HER GREATEST PLAY "EYE FOR EYE" A STORY OF ORIENTAL LOVE AND HATE

Superb Motion Picture Star Appears at the Grand Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday Next in a Photo Play That Vibrates With Life and Action.

At the Grand today for the last time, showing four times, at 1:30, 3:30, 7 and 9.

Dashing, brilliant Nazimova—the radiant star in a score of entrancing photoplays—outshines all previous performances in the thrilling, vibrating, distinctive play, "Eye for Eye," which will be shown at the Grand, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next.

The picture was taken from the famous play, "L'Ocident," written by the noted Belgian dramatist, Henry Kistmaecker. Greater than "Carmen," more titillating than "Salome," the story is that of an Arabian girl, fiery and beautiful, who lives with her tribe in a city of tents on the edge of the desert. Duty takes a young French naval officer to their encampment, and here he is made prisoner. Hassouna, falls in love with him and releases him, later aiding him in his escape. When the loss of the prisoner is discovered she confesses to her love and is sentenced to death. Duty is condemned to death, and for this act of desertion and dishonor, she is sentenced to the desert to perish from thirst and starvation.

The beautiful girl is rescued, but faces a fate worse than death. She is sold to a traveling circus as a dancer, and finds herself in the hands of a brutal master. The story is vital and absorbing—following the life of this desert girl, who becomes a member of the family of the man whose life she saved, and becomes involved in the intrigues which is life in the family. All the passions of human nature are displayed in this stirring drama of oriental love, hate, jealousy, treachery, and revenge—all have their turn in this gripping and amazing play. Nazimova rises to the heights of dramatic art in this gripping and amazing play. The east which surrounds the distinguished actress was carefully chosen by the director with view to their real called upon to play. This extraordinary attraction comes to London direct from the Regent Theatre, Toronto, where it was held over for a second week in order to accommodate the large crowds which were desirous of seeing it. The Grand Orchestra will render suitable musical accompaniment to this remarkable photoplay.

An excellent comedy and an interesting feature film will also be shown in conjunction with this remarkable photoplay.

Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms" at the Grand Today.

"Shoulder Arms," the greatest comedy and the latest that Charlie Chaplin has produced, will be presented at the Grand for the last time. Four performances will be given, at 1:30, 3:30, 7 and 9. The picture is a travesty on the life of a soldier in the front line trenches. The humor and Chaplin has taken full advantage of them.

EMPIRE CLUB DID FINE PATRIOTIC WORK

The Empire Club (McClary girls) held a meeting Thursday at the club room, Lenmore, presenting the annual statement, which showed an excellent year's work done. The club has returned 395 finished articles, which included towels, bed socks, day socks, trench caps and property bags, to the Red Cross, and given five concerts at the sick institutions of the city. The financial statement showed receipts of $107.44, with a balance of cash on hand.

Miss K. Archibald, organizer of the industrial work of the Y. W. C. A., was the recipient of "Shakespeare's Sonnets," in a beautiful leather binding, and a bouquet of Enchantress carnations, as a work of appreciation for her encouragement in their endeavor, and whose perseverance and kindness at all times have enabled the club to realize the fourfold development of spiritual, mental, physical and social, for which it stands.

DRAMATIC CLASS TO STAGE AMBITIOUS PLAY

The dramatic class of the London Conservatory, which did such fine work last year in dramatic production, will stage the most ambitious production it has so far undertaken when "Maggie Pepper" will be presented next Tuesday evening. Many Londoners no doubt remember the Rose Stahl production of "Maggie Pepper" when it was here some eight years ago.

The scene of the play is Holbrook & Co.'s department store which is being managed archaically by a certain John Hargon during the absence of Paris of the owner, young Holbrook. Holbrook returns and is impressed by the cleverness of Miss Maggie Pepper, the assistant head of a department. Holbrook overrules Hargon and takes charge, availing himself of Maggie's ideas; he builds up the business and inaugurates an era of prosperity such as the store has never known.

The play abounds in excellent studies of types. The character studies are excellently portrayed by the students taking the various parts. The seat plan is now open at the office of the London Conservatory. The play will be presented in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium under the auspices of the Alumni Association next Tuesday evening, February 4.

IN BUYING DIAMONDS

One of the first considerations in the buying of a Diamond is the dealer you patronize. A person who does not understand Diamonds might easily be misled as to the value of a stone.

You can absolutely rely on us to tell you the truth about a stone—at least, hundreds of people in our quarter century in the business have relied on us and have been pleased and satisfied with both the value and quality of the stone they have bought.

All our stones are bought loose by our own workmen in our own workshop. We can, therefore, at very short notice, mount any stone you wish in any setting you may choose.

STANLEY MEREDITH EXCELLED HIMSELF IN LATEST PLAYLET

Last of War Benefits Best of Eight Offerings.

RAISED LARGE AMOUNT

With Devoted and Clever Company, Had Donated $5,000 To Patriotic Causes.

London has flocked to the Majestic Theatre this week to witness three daily performances of the last of the tabloid musical comedies staged as war benefits for many worthy causes by S. J. Meredith and company, and has accorded to the clever producer and his loyal and talented support an ovation such as must have made them feel that their worthy efforts have not gone without the warmest appreciation. With the co-operation of Manager T. W. Logan and a company of the brightest young minds in the city, Mr. Meredith has written and produced no less than eight benefit playlets since January, 1916, pieces that from every angle have shown merit to lift them beyond the banal designation of "amateur theatricals." Words and music, direction, settings, costumes and management have been worked over and perfected, the little company has shown a devotion and aptitude to the tireless leadership of its producer, such as to make the flawless and traceless was in the hands of Messrs. Fletcher, Maloney, Dean and Leckie. The singing of Carman Learn with Miss Skinner was most pleasing. The other speaking parts were artistically taken by Misses Florence Line, Rita Brown and Madge Wood. Mr. Meredith has never been supported by a more capable or handsomely-governed chorus than the one made up by Mrs. Clay Gibson, Misses Wood, Colbert, Blanchard, Vincent, Sutherland, Grimshaw and Lewis.

R. E. O. A. WANT FLAX FACTORY FOR LONDON

At the Real Estate Owners' Association meeting last night the following resolution was passed: "It has always been a matter for regret to this association that the flax industry, which is so important in Western Ontario, should never have got beyond the preparatory stage, and the association believes that steps should be taken to start in London a factory to complete the manufacture of flax, which is now shipped to United States and England, and comes back to us as a finished product."

You Never Tire of Parnell's Bread

Because there are so many varieties, each of such fine texture, rich flavoring, delicious crust and general goodness, day by day, you can have a change whenever you desire.

The difference between Parnell's and other breads is that which exists between pure wool and cotton and wool mixed.

We realized, long ago, that people eating bread for every meal, every day in the year, would tire of it, no matter how well made, so we set about manufacturing different varieties. Each variety had to reach the high standard maintained in Parnell's Breads. That it did, is evidenced by the enormous sale throughout London and Western Ontario.

CAPACITY CROWD AT I.O.F. CONCERT; FINE PROGRAM WAS GIVEN

Plans For Membership Campaign Outlined.

WANT 100 NEW MEMBERS

Fred J. Darch, Supreme Secretary, Formerly of London, One of Speakers.

The Masonic Temple was crowded to capacity and many were turned away last night when the Independent Order of Foresters gave a complimentary concert. An excellent program was given by the Elgar Ladies' Quartet, which was enthusiastically received in every number. Donald McGregor and Harvey Lloyd, both of Toronto, received a great ovation when they made their appearance, introduced by Chairman J. H. Loughton, high chief ranger of the I. O. F. in Western Ontario. Donald McGregor in a fine baritone voice sang several of the old Scotch favorites, and was in each case complimented to respond to an encore. His rendition of "In Flanders Fields Where Poppies Grow" was especially good. Harvey Lloyd appeared on the stage several times in costumes evoking rounds of applause from the audience. He introduced a number of new comic and popular songs, dressed in a suitable costume each time.

Asst. Supreme Chief Ranger George A. Mitchell outlined the plans for the campaign to be launched by the I. O. F. in this city, the objective to be one thousand new members.

"In getting protection it is best to get the best protection while you are at it, and one of the best fraternal and insurance orders on this continent is the Independent Order of Foresters," said Mr. Mitchell. "What has been the influenza epidemic could not be told in any number of volumes. Many children who have been left orphans through the epidemic are housed in one of the most modern and best equipped orphanages in the country. Here they will be cared for till they reach the age of 16. This is what is being done for dependents of members of the I. O. F." Mr. Mitchell cited several instances where persons who had been victims of Spanish influenza had joined the Foresters since the outbreak of the disease and had died after making only one payment. A check for a thousand dollars, or whatever amount they might have been insured for, was handed to their dependents without delay and the usual red-tape through which many are obliged to go before receiving their insurance.

FEAR SARNIA LAD IS DEAD

LIEUT. T. DOUGLAS HAZEN of the Royal Air Force, believed by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hazen, 123 Proctor street, Sarnia, to be dead. Word was received from the Red Cross authorities that the Germans reported a "J. D. Hazen" brought down dead in August, 1918. He had been previously reported missing and later a prisoner of war.

Work of the I. O. F. Fred J. Darch, supreme secretary of the order, and a former merchant of this city, outlined the work of the I. O. F. generally. "An I. O. F. policy," he said, "protects the individual in loss of health, in old age, and the family in case of death. It also protects children as well as adults. No orphan of a deceased Forester ever wants for a home. At an I. O. F. orphanage in Oakville over 600 orphans are now being helped. There are also two free sanatoriums, one in the Adirondacks and the other in the vicinity of Los Angeles, for all members who become afflicted with tuberculosis.

"There is no other policy which so effectively protects the home as that of the I. O. F. These are just a few of the important things which the people of London should know about the Independent Order of Foresters."

Mr. Darch remarked that he was proud to be able to say that he was born in the city of London, the birthplace of the I. O. F. "If you want the best future has to give in fraternal benefits, look for them from the I. O. F.," were the closing words of Secretary Darch.

Amounts Paid Out.

The following amounts were paid out by the order in 1918: To beneficiaries, $2,534,796.97; paid in disability

J. H. Loughton announced that Thos. Ball of this city had been appointed successor to H. Merryfield, now of Nebraska, as superintendent of organization in London. George Mitchell of London announced that 1,200 candidates were initiated in the month of January, when a campaign was launched.

DID LONDON WOMAN OFFER MAN $20 TO BUY POISON FOR HER?

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 31.—One afternoon this week the G. T. R. depot here was the scene of an alleged attempt at suicide, when a London woman, aged about 45 years, is said to have offered a switchman $20 to go uptown and buy her chloroform for suicidal purposes. The switchman, however, according to the story, declined to be a party to the tragedy, and instead escorted the woman on the next train to her home at London. The woman is claimed to have stated that she was miserable, and was on her way from Port Dover to London.

"Falling Thrones and Rising Nations"

THE nations are "in the melting pot" just now. The world knows not in the morning what new danger may be threatening it by night. Amid all these uncertainties in which individual fortunes are at stake, we look anxiously for permanence, and we find it in life insurance companies.

Canadian, British and American life companies have defied war and pestilence, and continue day by day on their courses unmoved.

What is it that gives to life insurance its solidity? The first is: the theory of life insurance agrees with the facts of experience. And then unity: life insurance embodies as nothing else does the principle that in union is strength.

A large group of men united for a single purpose are irresistible, so, amid the chaotic conditions in the world to-day, swept by war and plague, and threatened with social revolution, the life company holds on its way. The wise man will put every available dollar into sound life insurance.
