

ANOTHER MARQUETTE FERRY LOST OFFICERS AND 20 MEN PERISH IN DISASTER ON LAKE MICHIGAN

Car Ferry No. 18 Goes to the Bottom in Mid-Lake Carrying With Her Over a Score of Lives and Cargo Valued at Half a Million Dollars.

Ludington, Mich., Sept. 9.—W. L. Mercereau, superintendent of the car ferry line, received a wireless at 10:30 this morning, stating that only 30 of 50 men on board car ferry No. 18 had been saved. The message came from a passing steamer which was in communication with No. 17, and is accepted at Pere Marquette headquarters as reliable. Twenty are said to be lost, including all the officers.

Ludington, Mich., Sept. 9.—One of the worst marine disasters in the history of Lake Michigan navigation, occurred early today, when Pere Marquette car ferry No. 18, flagship of a fleet of six steel car ferries, owned and operated by the Pere Marquette Railroad Company, sank to the bottom of Lake Michigan, twenty miles off Port Washington, Wis., with an estimated loss of twenty lives. The boat was valued at $400,000, and the cargo, which included 29 loaded cars, at $100,000 to $150,000. The total loss will exceed half a million dollars, which is fully insured in the Lloyds of England. "Car ferry No. 18 sinking—help!" was the C. Q. D. wireless message that brought the first news of the disaster to this city about 5 a.m. today.

The flash was repeated continuously for nearly an hour, but was unsigned. At 7:30 a.m., Superintendent Mercereau, of the Pere Marquette car ferry line, received a wireless from car ferry No. 17, stating that No. 18 sank at 7 o'clock after those on board had been rescued by lifeboats from No. 17.

The lost car ferry carried a crew of 50 men, and had on board two women passengers, said to be from Saginaw.

At the shore the cause of the accident is unknown, and the facts will not be available until No. 17 arrives here late this afternoon. Marine men are utterly at a loss to account for the disaster.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 9.—Thirty-nine of the crew of the Pere Marquette ferry No. 18 drowned. Only three saved.

SANK OFF SHEBOYGAN.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 9.—Pere Marquette car ferry No. 18 sank in Lake Michigan 20 miles off Sheboygan this morning at 7:20 o'clock. As car ferry No. 17 was nearby at the time, it is thought all on board No. 18 were saved.

Ludington, Mich., Sept. 9.—Wireless reports reaching here are to the effect that the crew of 75 on Pere Marquette car ferry No. 18, which was sunk near Sheboygan, were all saved. The loss on the boat is estimated at half a million dollars.

THIRTY-NINE LOST?

Milwaukee, Sept. 9.—Thirty-nine members of the crew of the Pere Marquette car ferry No. 18 were lost and three saved when the car ferry sank in mid-lake about 30 miles off Sheboygan today, according to reports received here.

THIS SAYS ALL SAVED.

Detroit, Sept. 9.—At Pere Marquette Railroad headquarters in this city, it is said that car ferry No. 18 had a crew of 32 to 35 men, and that word from Ludington is that all were rescued by car ferry No. 17. The latter left Ludington at 5 a.m. in response to No. 18's wireless signal of distress, and reached the scene of the wreck at about 7 o'clock.

Detroit, Sept. 9.—A statement issued at Pere Marquette headquarters here, says the information that all the crew of car ferry No. 18 were saved, came from steamer No. 17, after the latter had taken on board the members of the crew of her sister ship.

WIRELESS SENDS WORD.

Milwaukee, Sept. 9.—All the members of the crew hailed from Ludington. The car ferry left Ludington at 11:40 last night, after a thorough inspection before entering the freight-carrying traffic across the lake. The first word of the ferry being in distress was received from the captain, asking for assistance from car ferry No. 17, and for the dispatch of tugs.

First reports received also indicated that the crew had been saved, but a later dispatch at 10:30 brought the news that only three out of a crew of 42 had been saved.

There is absolutely nothing known as to the cause of the sinking.

The Pere Marquette Railway Company carried a full line of insurance on all car ferries' freight, also on the vessels.

The Pere Marquette ferry at Port Stanley is a sister vessel to the one lost in Lake Michigan today, and was, in fact, on that run until the Bessemer sank in a storm last fall. This spring she was transferred to Port Stanley, and has run between Conneaut and the Port all summer. The vessel lost today is a big boat, capable of handling over 30 cars.

HANDSOME OFFER TO CHILDREN'S AID

Valuable Site for a Home Offered by a Stratford Citizen.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Stratford, Sept. 8.—The Children's Aid Society has received another impetus to further action by the offer of a valuable site for a home by Mr. W. R. Marshall, provided the building is erected within one year. The Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. J. M. Gibson, has been asked and has intimated his expectation to be present at the annual meeting of the society. Rev. Hugh Ferguson is the energetic agent.

The Ontario Securities Company, of Toronto, tenders for $122,500 city debentures have been accepted at 41-2 per cent, save the $30,000 local improvements, which bear 5 per cent. The House of Refuge bids fair to be soon equipped with proper ventilation appliances, Messrs. Munroe & Mead having been asked to submit plans and specifications for the October meeting of the committee.

Preparations are under way for the opening of the Normal School, and the desirable boardinghouses are being rapidly taken.

A Jaunt by The Advertiser man through parts of Wellington, Perth and Waterloo Counties show some harvest yet to be done. Cutting of buckwheat has been begun, which seemingly is a fair crop.

Rev. Dr. Hughson, the new Baptist pastor, was formally welcomed to-night, on behalf of the congregation, the city ministerial association, and the former pastors, Rev. O. C. Elliott, St. Thomas, and Rev. Dr. McKay, of Toronto, editor of the Canadian Baptist. Dr. Hughson fittingly responded.

TWO MEN ASPHYXIATED.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Daniel Herphy, aged 45, a molder, and William Coakley, aged 50, an employee of the city, were found dead in a back street hotel early today. Both men were asphyxiated by gas from an unused gas pipe from which the cap had fallen.

Above cut is the Pere Marquette car ferry Ashtabula, No. 18, lost today on Lake Michigan, is built on identical lines, being a sister ship in every respect.

SWITCHMAN MAY LOSE ARM MEMBER CRUSHED BY BUFFERS

G. T. R. Switchman Eli Heatherly, of 186 Richmond street, will, in all probability, lose his left arm as a result of having it crushed between two cars while at work in the yards last night. Heatherly was engaged in switching when his arm was caught between two buffer beams, being crushed to a pulp and fractured in many places. He was hurried to Victoria Hospital in the ambulance, Dr. Seaborn attending him. If complications set in amputation will be necessary.

Only a few weeks ago Heatherly had a wonderful escape from death, being jerked from the running-board of a yard engine, falling between the rails and three coaches passing over his body without injuring him in any way. The fact that he was stunned by the fall saved his life for had he moved in the slightest he would have been caught by the brake beams.

LIBERAL REFORM ASSOCIATION HOLDING ANNUAL CONVENTION

President Mowat Opens the Gathering at Toronto With Address on Present Political Situation—Notes Incompetency of Some of the Local Ministers.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Toronto, Sept. 8.—The Liberal Reform Association for the Province of Ontario today assembled in annual convention. Only the faithful were admitted.

President H. M. Mowat, in his annual address, said the past year had been one of prosperity for the Liberal party. Political pincers at suitable places had never failed to help, and lead to greater interest in national affairs. The address says in part:

President's Address.
The party in power is stronger today than at the election of 1908 because the business of the country recognizes how they have been helped and the citizens realize how contentment and security can be assisted by fearless and farseeing ministers of the crown. Since the passing of Sir John Macdonald, the Conservative party have been prone to stimulate racial and sectional prejudices as a means of obtaining support.

The Liberal party has steadfastly kept in view that Canada, to be great, must be united, and that it is harmful to assail any man's religion or question for party purposes.

The consequence is that Liberals at present have not much to do but intelligently observe the contentions of their opponents among themselves.

The Premier's Trip.

The face to face meetings of the Prime Minister and his colleagues and friends with the people of the western provinces have been followed with interest by Ontario men, and his clear and complete utterances have braced his supporters, not only in the provinces visited, but throughout the whole of Canada. We cheer in his state-ment of the duty of Canada to the empire.

Our Liberal representatives in parliament have increased their status during the past session, and the ability shown in debate and in committee work shows that we need not fear a want of competent leaders in the future.

The Opposition in the Legislature did their work with industry and incision, and while we must be content for a while to remain in the cool shades, it is quite manifest that the competency of the present ministers is being rudely questioned by the people who may be counted upon to take the opportunity to place in power representatives of that party who for so many years gave Ontario, able and honest government. We note by recent utterances of the local Premier in England that he shows a disposition to express himself upon topics of a federal nature rather than to inform the British public upon subjects with which his work has been connected. If this betokens translation to another place Liberals will note the change with some interest.

NEW COLBORNE SCHOOL TO BE FINE BUILDING

Will Be Called the Alexandra and Will Be Up to Date in Every Way.

At the meeting of the board of education held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to call for tenders for the construction of a school to replace the present building on Colborne street. It will be known as the Alexandra and will face King street.

Dr. Wyckoff, chairman of No. 2 committee, stated that the plans of City Architect Nuttall had been accepted, and he recommended that the school be built.

The new school will contain nine classrooms, kindergarten, principal's room, teachers' room, library, toilet, heating chamber, two playrooms, and four rooms in the basement. These basement rooms can be used either as domestic science or manual training rooms.

The main front and entrance will be on King street. Eight of the classrooms will have a north view, while one classroom and the kindergarten will have a southern outlook.

The kindergarten will be on the ground floor, with sliding doors, throwing fourteen feet corridor into the room, to be used as an assembly hall. There will be separate entrances and exits for the kindergarten. Each room will have a separate and inclosed cloakroom.

There will be four exits from the ground floor, and the staircase will be fireproof and inclosed.

The classrooms will have 12-foot ceilings, and will be 23 by 30 feet. The basement will be 11 feet high.

All classroom lighting will be unilateral. The glass area will be one-fifth of the floor area. Sanitary arrangements and fixtures will be confined to one part of the building. The toilet-rooms will be isolated from the rest of the school, and separately ventilated.

All corridors, staircases and heating chamber will be absolutely fireproof.

FIRST TIME IN CENTURIES

Investure of Heir to British Throne Will Take Place in Wales.

London, Sept. 9.—For the first time in hundreds of years the investiture of the Prince of Wales will take place in Wales. After a keen competition between Cardiff and Carnarvon for the honor, the King has decided in favor of Carnarvon. The ceremony will occur in July.

All West—Fine, with rising temperatures.

WEATHER NOTES.
The depression which was over Lake Superior has now reached the Lower St. Lawrence Valley, while the cool wave is now centered in the Northwest States; showers and thunderstorms occurred during the night in many portions of Ontario and Quebec, and frosts were general in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

A FREAK FATALITY.

The electrical storm last night was fairly severe in the neighboring townships. On the farm of W. S. Scott, in Delaware, lightning frightened a valuable horse with the result that the animal made a bad jump over a barbed-wire fence, and was found this morning with its neck broken.

NIAGARA FALLS MAN IS HEAD ENGINEER

Board of Works Selects A. H. Van Cleve at Salary of $4,000 Per Annum.

At the regular meeting of the board of works last night it was decided to engage Mr. A. H. Van Cleve, Niagara Falls, as head engineer for the city. The matter was brought up by a communication from the water commissioners to the effect that they would agree to pay 40 per cent of Mr. Van Cleve's salary if he were appointed.

"I move that we name Mr. Van Cleve," moved Ald. Pocock. "I move, in amendment, that we engage Mr. Parsons, of Ottawa," said Ald. Saunders. "I know that Mr. Van Cleve is a first-class engineer, so far as electricity is concerned, but I do not think he is strong enough on roads and streets for our purposes. Mr. Parsons would be a better man for us."

Ald. Tancock favored Mr. Van Cleve, and when the motion was put, it carried. Ald. Tancock, Ald. Pocock, Ald. Morgan and Mayor Beattie voting for it, while Ald. Saunders voted in favor of Mr. Parsons.

The salary was made $4,000 per annum.

CRIPPEN IS CHEERIER BUT GIRL IS TROUBLED

Trial Delayed While the Experts Examine Body Supposed To Be Belle Elmore's.

[Associated Press.]

London, Sept. 9.—The crown prosecutors are slowly unravelling a chain of evidence with which they expect to convict Dr. Hawley K. Crippen of the murder of his wife, the music hall singer, Belle Elmore, and Ethel Levene as accessory after the fact.

It was expected that important medical testimony would be given in the court proceedings, but its presentation has been delayed until the experts for the defence have had an opportunity of viewing the remains. The trial, therefore, has been adjourned to Sept. 14.

A marked change in the demeanor is noted in Crippen, who is less downcast. He carried on a whispered conversation with his former stenographer in court yesterday. Miss Levene replied in monosyllables, keeping her eyes on the ground. She was much agitated throughout the hearing and had trouble in controlling herself when the witnesses attending the finding of the remains were narrated by Inspector Dew. The inspector brought out a new point, testifying that he found in the garden, under a heap of rubbish, some clay similar to that in the cellar.

MR. GEORGE NIXON DEAD

Was One of the Oldest Residents of London Township.

Mr. George Nixon, the oldest resident of London Township, died last night at the home of his son on the 9th concession. Mr. Nixon was 95 years of age, and had lived in London Township continuously since 1827, when he came to this country with his father from County Down, Ireland. At that time the country was an unbroken wilderness in the district in which the Nixons settled, and they experienced all the hardships of pioneer life. Save for an illness with pneumonia five years ago, Mr. Nixon had never known what it was to be ill. He was the eldest of a family of five, and the last to survive. His wife died seven years ago. Mr. Nixon was a life-long Liberal, and a member of the Presbyterian Church. He leaves two sons and one daughter, Emerson, of London Township, and Walter W. and Miss Elizabeth at home. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon.

MR. ROBERT MANTLE, Aged 101 Years, the Oldest Mason in Canada, Who Was in Business Here Seventy-Five Years Ago.

THE WESTERN FAIR EXHIBITS BIGGER, BETTER THAN EVER

Entries in All Departments Are Pouring in and Space in All the Building is at a Premium—Live Stock and Horse Show Will Be One of the Largest Ever Held.

Today is the official date for the opening of the Western Fair, and the grounds presented a scene of hustle and excitement.

It is move-in day, and as the preparatory work of getting the exhibits in shape must be concluded at once, there is a large staff of men at work. From all appearances the Fair will undoubtedly be the best ever held in this city. The entries in every department are larger than ever before, and the classes being exceptionally well filled.

The Main Building. The Main Building has been transformed. In other years it has been impossible to get enough exhibits to fill the big hall. Now the problem is how to get them all in. Mr. William Moore, the chairman, has been most successful in this department, and the Main Building when completed will be a revelation. The merchants of the city have been particularly interested in this work this year.

The Live Stock. As for live stock, it will be a great show. Dr. G. A. Routledge, chairman of the horse committee, wired from Toronto last night asking the secretary, Mr. A. M. Hunt, to reserve 36 stalls for two exhibitors. That shows how popular the Western is, and the committee today are at their wits' end to find accommodation for the horses. The same is true of cattle, sheep and swine. As Secretary Hunt put it, the directors are literally swamped with entries.

The chicken show is expected to outclass even that held at Toronto. Ald. Saunders, superintendent of the building, Mr. William McNeil and Mr. Richard Oke are unanimous in declaring that the poultry exhibit will be the finest London has ever seen.

Fruits and Flowers. The fruits, flowers, vegetables, grains and seed display, will be excellent.

MR. F. E. LEONARD MAY GO ON COMMISSION

Consent to Having His Name Go Before the City Council.

Mr. F. E. Leonard has consented to his name going before the city council for the position of water commissioner made vacant by the death of Mr. A. T. McMahon.

It is expected that at the next meeting of the council he will be chosen for the place. "He will be an excellent man for the place," said the mayor, "and I am certain that the city will profit by his services. I am pleased that he has given his consent."

HAMMERSTEIN'S SCHEME

Will Build a New Grand Opera House in Old London.

New York, Sept. 9.—Debarred by the terms of his contract with the Metropolitan Opera Company, of this city, from the production of grand opera in New York and Philadelphia, Oscar Hammerstein announces that he will build a new grand opera house in London.

He has chosen a site on the King's Way between Keeley and Kimbel streets. He will dedicate two boxes to the exclusive use of the lord mayor of London and the King.

To carry out his plans, Hammerstein will leave for England at the end of this month.

LEPER AT LARGE

Escape of Greek From Quarantine at Salt Lake City—Off For New York.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 9.—John Kokas, a Greek, in an advanced stage of leprosy, who has been under quarantine here for the last three days, was missing yesterday from the tent in which he was quarantined, and it was learned that he had taken a train on Wednesday evening, intending to go to New York, and thence to Greece. Funds for the journey were provided by his countrymen here.

His friends would not divulge the route he has taken. The left hand, it is said, is almost ready to drop off.

Freak Runaways With a Thrill

A picturesque runaway, which fortunately was not attended by serious results, occurred on Waterloo street yesterday afternoon, when the horse drawing the contagious ambulance to Victoria Hospital took fright at a passing yard engine and bolted.

At the time one of the lines was under the animal's tail, and the driver, Roy Smithson, of Barrows' livery, after trying vainly to extricate it for a few seconds coolly pulled on the remaining line and turned the horse in against the high board fence on the west side of Waterloo street. Here it commenced kicking, and getting one of its hind legs over the dashboard was unable to move. It took some little time and considerable ingenuity to pry the animal free. When finally loosened it was sent back to the barn, and a man who happened to be passing loaned his horse in order that the patient might reach the hospital. The ambulance suffered to the extent of a broken dashboard and smashed shaft.

A large part of the exhibits have already been placed, and from the standpoint of quality, as well as quantity they leave little to be desired.

On the Track. The speed events have filled wonderfully well. There are a score or more fast horses already on the grounds, and more are expected. The entry list will be a long one and the races should be keenly contested.

Mr. R. A. Carruthers reports that the Machinery Hall, and the new cement building are filled. In spite of the fact that a very large amount of additional floor space has been given to these exhibits, there is still none too much room.

The Dairy Building. The Dairy Building, the most popular of any with the farmers, is well equipped this year, and a number of new tests will be added to the programme.

As a matter of fact progress can be seen everywhere. The entry list is much larger, the quality of exhibits much larger, and there is an enthusiasm and confidence in the success of the institution that cannot be discounted.

Superintendent James H. Brown has the grounds looking well. He has given them a great deal of care, and they never looked prettier.

"We are literally swamped for space," said Secretary Hunt. "This is particularly true of the live stock. The grounds looking well. He has given them a great deal of care, and they never looked prettier."

It is expected that all the exhibits will be in readiness by tomorrow. The horses and other live stock will be placed Saturday afternoon.

LAST COAL STRIKE COST $27,000,000

The Illinois Operators Lost Over $15,000,000—Miners Out $12,000,000 Wages.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The strike of 44,000 coal miners in Illinois, which was settled yesterday, is estimated cost the miners $12,000,000 in wages.

The loss to the operators during the five months shutdown is placed at $15,000,000.

The annual production of coal in Illinois amounts to 50,000,000 tons, and the shortage this year, due to the strike, will be in the neighborhood of 20,000,000 tons.

The strike of Illinois coal miners lasted 23 weeks. It was brought to an end by the signing of an agreement adopting the wage scale outlined by the Peoria miners' convention. The men will return to work Saturday morning.

The agreement carries a general increase of three cents a ton throughout the state, an increase of five cents in the northern fields, and six cents in Franklin and Williamson counties. The operators also agreed to an increase of 5.5 per cent for all day laborers. This will increase their cost between two and three cents for each ton.

IN DREAD OF CHOLERA

Washington Authorities Take Special Measures For Inspecting Immigrants.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The ravages of Asiatic cholera in Russia, Germany and Italy, and the possibility of the plague being brought to this country by infected immigrants, has alarmed the public health and marine hospital service.

Surgeon-General Wyman has detailed Surgeon H. R. Carter to visit the plague centres at once and report by cable.

Rome, Sept. 9.—The action of the municipality of Ascoli Satriano in allowing two persons from the cholera-stricken district to enter the town has provoked a great rage here. In a riot yesterday the authorities were stoned, and two were seriously injured.

MR. W. W. GAMMAGE AND MR. G. N.

Weeks had a thrilling experience in a runaway while returning from the funeral of the late A. T. McMahon yesterday afternoon. As the coupe in which they were riding was coming down the hill on Brick street, the horse took fright. It plunged, reared, and kicked desperately, and fearing that there would be a collision, the driver called to the cab in front, in which were seated Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons, K.C., Mr. James Granger, and Mr. William Wyatt. The rig was pulled out of the way, and the occupants hustled on.

In the meantime, the horse had continued kicking, and in some manner caught both legs over the shaft bar. It hobbled for some distance down the hill, with its rear feet in the air, but soon had to stop.

The animal had to be unharmed, and the shafts removed from the rig before it could proceed.

"It was rather exciting," declared Mr. Gammage. "I had enough thrill for one day."

ESTIMATE OF CROPS IN SASKATCHEWAN

Total Yield Placed at 161,912,790 Bushels—Suggestion as to Naming Western
Wheat.

Mr. Peart, a hardware merchant of Regina, Sask., is in the city, and in conversation with an Advertiser man drew attention to some misstatements that have appeared in the eastern press in regard to the crops of Saskatchewan and Southern Alberta. The following table will effectually refute the reported failure of Saskatchewan's crops.

The Saskatchewan department of agriculture has issued its official estimate of the total grain production of the province for the year 1910. The information, which is compiled by the department, based on returns from between six and seven hundred correspondents, indicates that the total grain production this year will amount to 161,912,790 bushels, divided as follows:

Wheat—Estimated acreage, 4,642,000; average yield, 14.7; total production, 68,416,000

Oats—Estimated acreage, 2,103,000; average yield, 39.7; total production, 83,500,000

Barley—Estimated acreage, 237,100; average yield, 26.1; total production, 6,199,200

Flax—Estimated acreage, 392,100; average yield, 9.66; total production, 3,797,590

Hon. W. R. Motherwell expressed satisfaction at the splendid showing the province was able to make under unfavorable conditions, the chief of which was the entirely unsuitable tillage methods followed in most of the newer settlements. The fact, he said, that good fields of wheat, ranging from 15 to 20 bushels to the acre, could be found throughout the entire province wherever grain was being grown went to show that the man and the methods had a most important bearing on results. Invariably the man is all right, but it is with the greatest reluctance that many settlers discard the old methods that may have been suitable enough from whence they came.

Farming Western Wheat. Mr. Motherwell expressed his opinion that this year's experience would produce more good farmers, and do more for the cause of sound farming principles than a dozen bumper years, such as 1909. The minister suggested that, now that Saskatchewan has approximately between 65, and 70 per cent of the entire wheat output of the west, the time seemed opportune to rechristen the chief staple export Alberta, with a total estimate of some two million bushels of winter wheat, carries the name "Alberta red." Manitoba, with an estimate of 30,000,000 of spring wheat has her name re-christened.

to the entire western spring wheat product. Saskatchewan, on the other hand, with her 69,000,000 bushels is permitted to look on modestly, and produce the goods. Concluding his interview, Mr. Motherwell advanced the following suggestion: "Since the interests of all Canada are more or less identified with the name of Dr. Benedette de Angelis, of Hoboken, N. J., has been arrested here on the charge of having defrauded several druggists. He represented himself as having been connected with a large American Chemical Company, and has been entertaining the members of the local Medical Society lavnaples, Sept. 9.—A man giving the name of Dr. Benedette de Angelis, of Hoboken, N. J., has been arrested here on the charge of having defrauded several druggists. He represented himself as having been connected with a large American Chemical Company, and has been entertaining the members of the local Medical Society lav-

LONDON, FRIDAY, SEPT. 9.

FATHER VAUGHAN AND PROTEST-ANTISM.

Father Vaughan's tactless references
to Protestantism have created more excitement than is seemly or prudent.
They would have attracted less notice
if Father Vaughan himself had been less noticeable. The Eucharistic Congress, at which he is perhaps the most picturesque figure, chances to be very much in the eye of the Canadian people just now. Perhaps there are anti-Catholics looking for cause of offence,
and rather pleased to find it. Catholic dignitaries, therefore, ought to be careful not to furnish it. The Papal Legate and the Archbishop of Mon-real appear to appreciate this. Their utterances have been gracious and studiously conciliatory, as though they were anxious to atone for Father Vaughan's indiscretion. His attack was not more bitter than that frequently made upon Roman Catholicism
by Protestant zealots. It is one of the privileges of living in an empire which prides itself upon free speech.

Father Vaughan complains that Protestantism is a "soulless religion," because, as he says, it lacks the element
of sacrifice incarnated in the Eucharist. Precisely the same reproach is levelled at Roman Catholicism by many Protestant polemicists, who argue that the soul of religion in the ancient church is smothered under rites and forms and priestly dictation. In either case such a charge is meaningless.
It is refuted by the earnest, pious souls
among the adherents of all Christian churches. These souls are not the products of "soulless" religions. A creed is not necessarily religion; there are many who embrace a system of theology to the last letter, but miss the spirit of Christianity. A creed or dogma may be, and in most cases is,
a means of grace, an aid to salvation,
when it is implicitly believed; but it is a means, not an end. The sacrifice
most acceptable on high is service
here below. Father Vaughan is better employed when he is fearlessly attacking the vices of English smart society
—in which he has done real service—
than in inveighing against Protestantism, which, whatever its defects, is not intolerant in countries where it prevails. At the same time one cannot help suspecting that many who are railing against Father Vaughan are not the most eminent exemplars of Christian charity. It was a Catholic poet that wrote:

For modes of faith let graceless
zealots fight;
His can't be wrong whose life is in the right;
In faith and hope the world will disagree.
But all mankind's concern is charity;
All must be false that thwart this one
great end;
And all of God, that bless mankind or
mend.

POPULATION AND PRICES.

There is much that is interesting in the preliminary figures of the United States census taken the present year.
They tend to confirm the impression that the population of the cities during the last decade has increased in much greater proportion than that of the country. The gross increase of the republic's population in the past ten years has been from 75,693,734 to about 90,000,000, or about nineteen per cent. No detailed exhibit is needed to prove that the urban increase has been much greater than this.

Another fact elicited by the census
is that more than one-thirteenth of all the inhabitants of the United States are living in one or other of its
two largest cities—Greater New York,
which is given a population of approximately 4,500,000, and Chicago, which is credited with about 2,400,000. The growth shown by these two communities is out of all proportion to what might be considered the natural and inherent ratio of development of large cities. They have outstripped the great fertile fields of the west in percentage of growth and development and dwarfed into insignificance the normal expansion of the smaller cities.

Another impression confirmed by these statistics is that the increase of city population at the expense of the rural districts is one cause of the increasingly high cost of living. There are today relatively fewer producers
of agricultural products to consumers than ten years ago. It cannot, however, be fairly said that it is the sole cause of the great advance in prices, because it is shown that production has also increased. This increase, it is true, is not steady, for there are years of crop failures, when

there is a great scarcity of grain, and again years of bumper crops, when
the production outbalances the consumption, and there is liable to be a lowering of prices. An equally important contributing factor to high prices undoubtedly is that with the increase in prosperity during the last decade the individual consumption of agricultural products has correspondingly increased; so that in order to maintain the balance of relative values
the farm products must increase not only in proportion to the population increase, but also to the increase of average consumption. It would therefore appear that the cry "Back to the land," has not lost its force.

BRITISH INVESTORS IN CANADA.

Mr. C. Keith Morris, investment editor of the Canadian Gazette of London, has been for more than two months in Canada, spending the greater part of the time in the prairie provinces and British Columbia. While there he has been in close touch with a number of wealthy Englishmen, who have invested heavily in western lands
during the summer. He says that old country capitalists who have come to Canada this year are no longer seeking for speculation, but for investment.
They are not buying for the purpose
of holding for speculative increase in values, but with a definite plan for colonizing the lands acquired. This is a new not in Canadian land investments by moneyed men of Great Britain, and one which is gratifying to Canadians. It is the spirit shown by these British investors that does more towards the peopling and development of a new country than all the "speculators for a rise" in the world can ever accomplish.

Mr. Morris, who is in a position to speak with some authority, declares
that those who have come to Canada
this year are but the forerunners of a certainly increasing number who will come later on. In the old country it is more than ever recognized that Canada presents a field for investment
that no other country in the world offers at the present time, and the movement is hardly yet under way. The British investor is realizing the opportunities that Canada has for the man who investigates for himself, and who plans wisely. The better class of English farmers will be aided and looked after in moving to the new land. In some cases ready-made farms will be provided, and in others
the plan is to put farmers on the land
on half-crop payments or some similar arrangement. There will be little more of the pitchforking of men into Canada
and leaving them to sink or swim,
looking only for yearly payments on land which they take up. In future
they will be looked after, assisted until
they learn the ways of the new life,
and given every chance and aid to make a success.

Mr. Roosevelt is on the rampage again, making speeches, trouble and newspaper copy at every stopping place.
The Hague tribunal set another
good example: it reached its decision
in less time than many minor courts
consume in minor cases.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier covered 10,000
miles in his western journey, and finished strong. It is a proof that Sir Wilfrid's finish, in a physical sense, is probably a long way off.

Among the prominent men of London, death has been very busy of late.
The list of foremost citizens who have passed away in the past two or three years is more than usually impressive. Few of the men who were leaders in the community less than 25 years ago are left. It is a melancholy
reflection, but not without its uses.

General French's report on the Canadian militia is commendatory in many respects, and its criticisms are constructive. It will be disappointing
only to those enemies of the militia
department who prematurely crowded
over a misleading forecast of the report, in which the system was torn to pieces.

Australia has just projected its first transcontinental railway. Canada has one built and two nearly built.
Australia's latest enterprise will mean
an increasing bid for immigration;
but Canada is in a stronger position
than ever to stand the competition.
The process of filling our vacant
lands is a source of general prosperity, but when these are filled Canadians will be no happier or better off,
and conditions here may begin to approximate to those in the crowded old world. This is Canada's golden age.
Happily it is likely to be a long one,
as there is a good deal of room yet to be filled.

SUMMER SCIENCE.
(Lippincott's.)

They say that water, freezing, will expand. I know it, bursts a pitcher in a trice. This is a hundred pounds of water —and

This is about
those hundred
pounds of ice.

QUALIFIED.
(Independent.)

A prominent western attorney tells of a boy who once applied at his office for work.

"This boy was bright looking and I rather took to him.
"Now, my son," I said, "if you come to work for me you will occasionally have to write telegrams and take down telephone messages. Hence a pretty high degree of schooling is essential. Are you fairly well educated?"
"The boy smiled confidently.
"I be," he said."

WISE PRECAUTION.
(Success Magazine.)

The day before she was to be married
the old negro servant came to her mis-

treas and entrusted her savings in her keeping.

"Why should I keep it? I thought you were going to get married," said her mistress.
"So I is, missus, but do you 'spose
I'd keep all dis money in the house wid
that strange nigger?"

TAKING HIM DOWN.
(Washington Star.)

"The way to run this country," said the economist, "is to put thoroughly wise, alert,
and honest men in control of all affairs."
"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne, "but what are we going to do? There's only one of you."

EDITION EXHAUSTED.
(Everybody's Magazine.)

A western bookseller wrote to a house
in Chicago asking that a dozen copies of Canon Farrar's "Seekers After God" be shipped to him at once. Within two days
he received this reply by telegraph: "No seekers' after God in Chicago or New York. Try Philadelphia."

COMMERCIAL TEST.
(Washington Evening Star.)

Who cares if Bacon's mental flights
Inspired those plays of lofty rank?
We know that Shakespeare owned the rights,
And put the profits in the bank.

MADE A MISTAKE.
(Louisville Courier-Journal.)

"I guess I made a mistake. I wouldn't paint a doorman for the old tenant."
"Well?"
"And now I've got to paint the entire
house for the new tenant."

A MODERN MERMAID.
(Charles F. Lester, in Brownings.)

From social failure she's secure,
This lass of figure trim
For while among the heavy swells
She's always in the swim.

Old Neptune has adopted her.
At least, that is my notion;
A mere maid she upon the land,
A mermaid in the ocean.

Like Thetis, goddess of the sea,
She queens it o'er the wave,
Perhaps it's natural, though the surf
Should be to her a slave.

Upon the breakers' tossing crest,
She floats like any sprite.
I never knew that a brunette,
Could be so very light!

Now, I'll confess that, as the moon
Draws up the tides of ocean,
E'en so this maiden of the surf
Has drawn my heart's devotion.

Oh, would that, when I take the plunge,
(Although I don't deserve her),
She'd smile upon my bathing suit
And be my life preserver!

LIFE IN CAMP.
(Detroit News.)

Dreaming he lay beneath the stars,
Till the crimson of the dawn;
But when the sun got in its work,
He crawled beneath the awning.

Speed of English Express Trains

(From the Manchester Guardian.)

In last night's Westminster Gazette,
Mr. H. G. Archer publishes a useful analysis of express running on British railways, from which it appears that so far, at any rate, the new policy of railway combinations and alliances has not led to a reduction
either of speed or of long non-stop runs. Indeed, Mr. Archer shows that our railways go on improving in speed.
The total mileage of 56-mile-an-hour
runs in this year is 6,675, compared with 5,160 last summer. The Great Western total having been increased from 1,919
to 2,239 miles, the Midland from 816 to 1,208, and the Great Northern from 825
to 1,225. The Northwestern's 1,624
miles is the same as last year, but this company is easily first in the number of its long non-stop runs,
daily performing 30 runs of 100 miles
and upwards. Of these 27 exceed 140 miles in length. Mr. Archer gives two lists, the first of which shows the fastest train on each of 16 railways, and the second the longest non-stop run
on each of 17 railways. We have no longer the fastest train in Europe for the Northern Railway of France has since May 1 timed its crack Berlin express to the Belgian frontier at speeds of 61.8 miles an hour from Paris to St. Quentin (95½ miles in 93 minutes) and 62.9 miles an hour from St. Quentin to Equennes (52½ miles in 51 minutes). England and Scotland, however, remain the only European countries in which the third-class passenger can travel from start to stop at over a mile a minute. Our fastest train is still the 1-2-3 P. M.
from Darlington to York on the North-Eastern—44½ miles at 61.7 miles an hour. The next is on the Great Cen-

MISS ELKINS' FATHER
DENIES THE RUMORSSays His Daughter is Not to Wed the Duke of Abruzzi.

Elkins, W. Va., Sept. 8.—Emphatic
denial was made today by Senator Stephen B. Elkins of the rumors that he is preparing to go to Paris, or that his daughter, Katherine, will marry
the Duke of the Abruzzi in February
or at any other time, or that his family is to be presented to the Italian court.

With some impatience the senator
declared that he has denied rumors
until he is worn out, and that he would like to have it accepted as a fact that there is no contemplated
union between his daughter and the Italian duke.

"All these things were denied two years ago, and there is no more truth
in the rumors now than there was then," said Senator Elkins.

BONFIRE BYLAW
TO BE AMENDEDMeasure Taken to Insure Greater Safety to Buildings.

The bylaw relating to bonfires will
be amended.

At the meeting of the board of works last night, City Architect Nutter brought up the matter. He stated that he had summoned a businessman for burning rubbish in the rear of his store on Dundas street. It was ten feet from a board fence, and very close to a number of inflammable buildings. No person was in charge of the fire. The case was dismissed, on the grounds that the man had been in charge, although he remained in the building practically all the time to say why I shouldn't seek y' th'

limit?

Prisoner—Well, judge, it wasn't your boss I stole!

SHERLOCK HOLMES IN PARIS.

The subjoined item appeared in a French newspaper:
"There was found in the river this morning the knot of a soldier's belt,
pieces and sewed in a sack. The circumstances seem to preclude any suspicion of suicide."

ORIENTAL IMMIGRATION.

[Ottawa Free Press.]
British Columbia has evidently come to its senses at last upon the question of Oriental immigration, which was made
the great issue in that province in the last
federal elections, and which by careful manipulation and unscrupulous misrepresentation was responsible for the practical wiping out of the Liberal delegation from that province. Plain speech of Sir Wilfrid Laurier both in Vancouver
and in Victoria, has had its effect.

ANTI-CONSUMPTION.

[Manchester Guardian.]
The Association for the Prevention of Consumption has been greatly encouraged in its new educational campaign by Mr.
John Burns' letter. Mr. Burns was impressed by his visit to the recent Whitechapel exhibition, and he now writes to enforce his belief that one of the chief factors in the spread of consumption is a lack of knowledge by persons specially liable to the disease of the best methods
of avoiding infection and of warding off consumption. The association just now is busy with an effort to collect £25,000 annually in spreading knowledge.
Money is coming in well, especially from workingmen's clubs and societies. A big new poster is being prepared with an effective design for the hoardings of every town and the Billposter's Association will help by posting thousands of them free of charge. Consumption kills sixty thousand persons every year in the United Kingdom—one person out of every ten
dies of it—and it is reckoned that the direct loss to the country is something like
three millions a year in money, while the indirect loss is put at eight millions.
The point of the whole
movement is, of course, the belief that tuberculosis could be almost abolished by
the full application of medical knowledge,
just as typhoid and smallpox have been almost abolished.

TORONTO VARSITY
HAS LADY SENATORS

All Three Were Elected Without Any Opposition.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 8.—For the first time
in the history of its existence the senate
of Toronto University now has women
among its members. They are: Miss Gertrude Lawlor, of Harbord Collegiate Institute; Miss Ross and Dr. Augusta Stowe Fallon, and all three have been elected by acclamation.

The Misses Lawlor and Ross represent the graduates in arts, and Dr. Fallon the graduates in medicine. Nominations for the senate elections closed yesterday, and James B. Bickner, registrar of the university, will send out the ballots next week. For representatives of high school and collegiate teachers only three candidates have been nominated, while at least four are required. This has created a situation for which there is no precedent.
Any nominee who wishes to enter must notify Mr. Bickner in writing inside of four days.

MAKE SUN DO WORK.

London, Sept. 8.—Professor Essen-
den, at the British Association meetings, outlined the possibilities of harnessing the wind and the sun to produce electrical energy.

He said that a number of windmills
around the coast could give power
enough to run all the railways, factories, and electric light stations in Great Britain, but he thought, hu-morously, that with solar energy
Great Britain could not do so well. Sir
W. White doubted the practicability of the scheme.

Striking Hat Is New "Zebra"

This striking and novel "zebra" hat, just over from Paris, seems certain to have considerable vogue this fall. It is a small hat of the toque order, with a black velvet brim. The "mound" crown is of black and white striped taffeta. A black and a white ostrich feather, placed one on each side of the crown, are set well back and "piled" high. There is a flat, pleated bow of black taffeta directly in front. Very smart and one of the prettiest of the early fall showing, is this "zebra" hat.

A new employment for women has appeared in Paris. It is "radium carrier," the duties of whom is to carry a precious package of radium from one point to another, where there is a demand for its use.

The lily is extensively eaten in China. Among the edible flowers of the Occident are artichokes, cauliflower, cloves, capers and chrysanthemums.

ADVERTISER PATTERNS
BEAUTY PATTERN COMPANY.

These little suits are so simple and easy to make that no home dressmaker need fear to attempt the sewing. The design here shown has double-breasted fronts and a sleeve that is pleated over the wrist. Linen, chambray, flannel, or cloth may be used with equal good effect. The pattern is cut in 3 sizes, 2, 4, 6, years, and requires 3 1/2 yards of 27-inch material for the 4-year size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in stamps or silver.

CYNTHIA GREY'S CORRESPONDENTS

Sensible or Foolish?
Dear Miss Grey: I am a young girl 19 years old. I am not pretty, but try to fix my hair and clothes in a becoming manner, and always act in a dignified manner. The girl I go with is rather pretty, but does not care how she behaves on the street. She gets all the nice young men, while I never have any. I am of jolly disposition, but cannot push myself. Can you tell me why this is? Do men like girls who try to act cute rather than those who are more sensible?
E. B. V.

As you grow older you will find that men who have a better knowledge of the everyday world like young women who are sensible and always natural. The girl who does not try to win a man's attentions by forgetting her maidenly dignity is much more admired than one who has numerous men acquaintances just because she ignores conventionality.

Letters From a Stranger.
Dear Miss Grey: I have been exchanging postcards with a young man in a city, and this young man has a very good friend who has seen some of the cards that I sent and he claims he was taken by my writing, and therefore he has written to me. I do not know him personally and I want to ask you if it would be proper for me to answer his letter? What do you think of my penmanship?
JEAN.

I do not advise a continuance of a correspondence between persons who have never met. Your penmanship meets the first requirements of good handwriting—it is legible. Any writing that combines this with speed and a lack of all silly flourishes or peculiarities is desirable.

Answering Invitations.
Dear Miss Grey: Please advise me how to respond to a wedding invitation. Tell me the correct words to use.
CURIOUS.

It is not necessary to send a written reply to a wedding invitation unless the cards include a breakfast or luncheon at the home of the bride, or the letters R. S. V. P. appear. An invitation is always answered in the form in which it is sent. If you are the recipient of the usual style of invitation (which calls for an answer), the following may be used as a guide:

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brown accept with pleasure the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. White to the wedding of their daughter, on Monday afternoon, July fifth, at three o'clock.

Regrets may be expressed thus: Mr. and Mrs. John A. Brown regret their inability to accept the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. White to the wedding reception of their daughter, on Monday afternoon, July fifth, at three o'clock.

The Term To Use.
Dear Miss Grey: Is it considered good form for parents to teach their children to say, "yes, ma'am," and "yes, sir"? In the basement where I am employed I am the only woman under 25. In speaking to the women of 30 and 40 should I say "yes, ma'am"? My mother always taught me to say it to persons older than myself.
E. J. A.

It would be better to say yes or no and mention the person's name with either word. For instance: "Yes, father," "No, mother," "Yes, Mrs. Jones," etc. The term "yes, ma'am," is objectionable to the women. After all, the tone in which a reply is given means more than the words uttered.

When a Man Marries
By Mary Roberts Rinehart.

Copyright, 1910, The Bobbs-Merrill Co.

"Eat a piece out of your hand," Max scoffed in a whisper. We waited a little longer, but it was too painful. Aunt Selma demanded a hot lemon-mustard foot bath and a hot lemonade and her back rubbed with liniment and some strong black tea. And in the intervals she wanted to be read to out of the prayer book. And when we had all gone away, there came the most terrible noise. Aunt Selma's room, and everyone ran. We found Betty in the hall outside the door, crying, with her fingers in her ears and her cap over her eye. She said she had been putting the hot water bottle to Aunt Selma's head and it had been too hot. Just then something hit against the door with a soft thud, fell to the floor and burst, for a trickle of hot water came over the sill.

"She won't let me hold her hand," Betty wailed, "or bathe her brow, or smooth her pillow. She thinks of nothing but her stomach or her back. And when I try to make her bed look decent, she spits at me like a cat. Everything I do is wrong. She spilled the foot-bath into her shoes, and blamed me for it."

It took the united efforts of all of us—except Bella, who stood back and smiled nastily—to get Betty back into the sick room again. I was surprised that the nurse at that time had not drawn the nurse's slip. With dinner ordered in from one of the clubs, and the omelet ten hours behind me, my position did not seem so unbearable. But a new development was coming.

While Betty was fussing with Aunt Selma, Max led a search of the house. He said the necklace and the bracelet must be hidden somewhere, and that no crevice was too small to neglect.

We made a formal search all together, except Betty and Aunt Selma, and we found a lot of things in different places that Jim said had been missing since the year one. But no jewels—nothing even suggesting a jewel was found. We had explored the entire house, every cupboard, every chest, even the inside of the couches and the pockets of Jim's clothes—which he resented bitterly—and found nothing, and I must say the situation was growing rather strained. Someone had taken the jewelry; they hadn't walked away.

It was Flannigan who suggested the roof, and as we had tried every place else, we climbed there. Of course we didn't find anything, but after all day in the house with the shutters closed on account of the river, the air was glorious.

It was February, but the day was sunny, and we could look down over the river, and the Hudson, and even recognize people we knew on horseback and in cars. It was a pathetic joy, and we lined up along the parapet and watched the motor boats racing on the river, and tried to feel that we were in the world as well as of it, but it was very hard.

Betty had been making tea for Aunt Selma, and of course when she heard us up there, she followed, tray in hand, and watched the motor boats racing on the river, and tried to feel that we were in the world as well as of it, but it was very hard.

gan did not give me the bracelet; instead it struck me his tone was suddenly severe.

"Now, look here, miss," he said; "you've played your trick, and you've had your fun. The Lord knows it's only folks like you would play April fool jokes with a fortune! If you're the sensible little woman you look to be, you'll put that pearl collar on the coal in the basement tonight, and let me find it."

"I haven't got the pearl collar," I protested. "I think you are crazy. Where did you get that bracelet?" He edged away from me, as if he expected me to snatch it from him and run, but he was still trying in an elephantine way to treat the matter as a joke.

"I found it in a drawer in the pantry," he said, "among the dirty linen. And if you're as smart as I think you are, I'll find the pearl collar there in the morning—and nothing said, miss."

So there I was, suspected of being responsible for Aunt Selma's loss, as if I had not enough to worry me before. Of course I could have called them all together and told them, and made them explain to Flannigan what I had really meant by my delicious speech in the kitchen. But that would have meant telling the whole ridiculous story to Mr. Harbison, and having him think us all mad, and me a fool.

In all that crowded house there was only one place where I could be miserable without comfort. So I stayed on the roof, and cried a little and then became angry and walked up and down, and clenched my hands and babbled helplessly. The boats on the river were yellow, horizontal streaks through my tears, and an early searchlight sent its shaft like a tangible thing in the darkness, just over my head. Then, finally, I curled down in a corner with my arms on the parapet, and the lights became more and more prismatic and finally formed themselves into a circle that was Bella's bracelet, and that kept whirling around and around on something flat and not over-clean, that was Flannigan's palm.

CHAPTER X.

On the Stairs.
I was roused by someone walking across the roof, the creaking of tin under feet, and a comfortable and companionable odor of tobacco. I moved a very little, and then I saw that it was a man—the height and erectness told me which man. And just at that instant he saw me. "Good Lord!" he ejaculated, and throwing his cigar away he came across quickly. "Why, Mrs. Wilson, what in the world are you doing here? I thought—they said—"

"That I was sulking again?" I finished disagreeably. "Perhaps I am. In fact, I'm quite sure of it."

"You are not," he said severely. "You have been asleep in a February night, in the open air, with less clothing on than I wear in the tropics."

I had got up by this time, refusing his help, and because my feet were numb, I sat down on the parapet for a moment. Oh, I knew what I looked like—one of those "Valley-of-the-Nile-After-a-Flood" pictures.

"There is one thing about you that is comforting," I sniffed. "You said precisely the same thing to me at 1 o'clock this morning. You never startled me by saying anything unexpected."

He took a step toward me, and ever in the dusk I could see that he was looking down at me oddly. All my bravado faded away and there was a queerish ringing in my ears.

"I would like to," he said tensely. "I would like, this minute—put a foot, Mrs. Wilson," he finished miserably. "I ought to be drawn and quartered, but when I see you like this I—I get crazy. If you say the word, I'll—I'll go down and—"

Reds Got Past the Czar's Guards

Berlin, Sept. 8.—German officialdom has been given a shock by the latest attempt on the life of Czar Nicholas, one of the cleverest yet made. The authorities today connect the plot with the plans of anarchists now armed in secret international convention at Zurich, Switzerland.

ATTACKED BY JELLYFISH

New York, Sept. 8.—The appearance of great numbers of jellyfish in Long Island Sound and the ocean in the vicinity of bathing places near New York city has made bathing unattractive.

thrown around the castle, where the Czar and Zarina are visiting at Friedberg, failing to reach the emperor only because they lacked the passport at the palace gates.

Their detection is believed to rest with the protective agents among the extreme radicals, rather than with the police, though strenuous efforts are being made to trace them and learn where they secured the uniforms, which were those of a captain and a lieutenant.

THREE DEAD, NINE HURT
IN WARSHIP EXPLOSION

Fatal Accident During Test of Oil Fuel on U. S. Battleship.

Fort Monroe, Va., Sept. 8.—Another of those tragedies which go to show that the sailor offers his life to his country in time of peace as well as in time of war occurred this morning on the Dreadnought North Dakota when about 12 miles from Old Point in Lower Chesapeake Bay by an explosion of fuel oil, and the ensuing fire cost the lives of three men and injuries to nine others, including Chief Lieutenant Orin G. Murfin.

The accident happened far from any shore and for several hours the wild rumors were circulated through the communities; that having widest circulation being to the effect that the Delaware, sister ship of the North Dakota, had been blown up. The three men killed were coal passers. They were Joseph W. Schmidt, Robert Gilmore and Joseph Strait. Strait enlisted in Grand Rapids, Mich., in June, 1907.

PRIEST CONDEMNS
FRIVOLOUS LIFE

Father Vaughan Calls World Back to the Church.

HIGH IDEALS PASSING

Says We Are Living in Age of "Head-lines, Snapshots, Taxicabs and Music Halls."

Montreal, Sept. 8.—"The eucharistic life, the antidote for modern life," was the subject of an address delivered today by Rev. Father Bernard Vaughan, of England, before the eucharistic congress here, in which the speaker painted a vivid picture of modern conditions as he saw them and pointed to the church as the refuge from the direful consequences he foresaw resulting from what he described as a "tidal wave of paganism" now sweeping over the world.

"We are living in a day of head-lines, snapshots, taxicabs and music halls; in a day when the scramble for the prizes of life has become a mad passion. It is a day of fever, fret and pain, when competition for earthen toys is so keen, and the margin of profit in commerce has become so fine that the one cry beating through the air is 'hurry up.' No one seems to have time for pause till, worn out in the pursuit of gewgaws and vanities, a rest cure becomes imperative, the clock is stopped and all action, mental as well as physical, must be prescribed as prohibitive for an eighth part of a year.

Ideals Yielding. "We are living in a day when the high ideals of old are fast yielding to the pressure of creature comforts, when principle is being exchanged for expediency; in a day when self-sacrificing Catholicism is being bartered for self-centered materialism, when the Christian sense of sin is being regarded as a by-gone superstition; in a day when it matters not what you believe, only what you do, and when you may do what you like, provided you are not found out; in a day when the relations between the sexes takes one back to pagan times, while the garbage on which men and women feed is as foul and loathsome as the stuff over which they glow and chatter; in a day when marriage has become so debased and defiled that not even the pledged truth can make it long and endurable without change of prospective partners in a life of legalized vice; in a day when there is no empty place left in the cradle, no room in which to move but in the churches.

"Observe that the cleavage today, as in no previous time since the dawn of Christianity, is between Mammon and mammon; or shall I say, in language more definite still, between Catholicism and agnosticism, if not evolutionary materialism itself.

"For confirmation of my strong assertions read the story of present day life, as it is reflected in society, as it is mirrored forth on the stage, as it is shown up in the law courts, as it is writ large on our book stalls, or, if it will, as it is published in society journals, in the monthly magazines, in the weekly pictorial and in the daily press."

The French Section. Mgr. Rumeau, Bishop of Angers, France, presided over the French section, whose discussions partook largely of an historical character. The eucharist in its relation to various phases of history and in different countries was the theme of papers presented by Abbe Gosselin, Abbe Bishop Emard, Valleyfield; Mgr. Gagnon, Quebec; Abbe Prudhomme, St. Boniface; Father Balter, Abbe Porches, Mgr. Laurent, of Rome, and others.

The history of the eucharist in Canada, the eucharist among savages, the devotion of the Spanish people, the devotion to the blessed sacrament in Quebec, etc., were recounted.

Cardinal Gibbons will try to obtain the congress for the United States some time in the near future, and his point will be settled before the congress closes.

Archbishop Bourne, of Westminster, arrived today from the coast, and is the guest at Lord Strathcona's house. His grace will address the English section of the congress tomorrow.

A Monster Reception. Tonight Cardinal Gibbons was, with Cardinal Vanutelli, the central figure at the monster reception tendered by the mayor and aldermen at the city hall. This was the greatest event of the kind ever held here, and thousands thronged the council chambers and were presented to Cardinals Vanutelli, Logue and Gibbons.

The congress proper opened today, with the English and French sections meeting to discuss doctrinal issues.

Rennie's
Bargain Day

This store has inaugurated a Saturday Bargain Day. We are satisfied by giving special bargains for one day we can do double the business, "make as much money" as if we sold half the quantity at ordinary prices, and thereby sharing the profits with the customers. We are going to make this store the store where your dollar will buy the most groceries on Saturday. Your telephone orders will get you the goods delivered to your kitchen at the same bargains as if you came to the store and selected them yourself.

Below we quote you a few of the many bargains that will be here for you on Saturday morning:

Choice Dairy Butter, in one-pound prints, per pound ..... 25c
Choice Creamery Butter, pound 25c
Strictly Fresh Eggs, per dozen 20c
Best Lard, pound ..... 15c
Special Bargain—40c Tea for .30c
Potatoes, per peck ..... 15c
Choice Apples, per peck ..... 30c
Rolled Oats, seven pounds for 25c
Wheat Germ, seven pounds for 25c
Bananas, per dozen ..... 15c

One hundred baskets of best free-grown Peaches; a quantity of Plums; 75 baskets of best Tomatoes, all to be sold at bargain prices on Saturday. It will pay you to be here early, Saturday morning, and get the choice of this lot. Prices will surprise you.

Remember, our store is fitted throughout with all the most up-to-date dustproof fixtures, making it one of the most sanitary stores in the city. The latest improved meat slicer is what we cut all our meats with.

WANT DRUGGISTS THERE

Should Preside Over Sale of Patent Medicines Says Association.

Toronto, Sept. 8.—When the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association meets in Halifax next week an effort will be made to put through some of the things that were eliminated from the Dominion act, which compelled all proprietary medicines to be registered and numbered.

The druggists will go further this year and introduce a resolution to have the Dominion act amended so that all laboratories and warehouses where proprietary medicines are made shall be under the charge of registered druggists, as a protection to the public against frauds.

Another amendment sought will be the placing of the chemists and druggists in the army and navy upon a proper basis. At present he is regarded as too much of a flunky, and the druggist wants his status made more dignified and in keeping with the profession.

The Proprietary Medicines Association will oppose the druggists when the matter comes up before the Federal Government.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Date Will Probably Be On a Monday, Oct. 17 or 24.

Ottawa, Ont., Sept. 8.—There will be a meeting of the Government this afternoon, and one of the things which may be done will be to fix the date for Thanksgiving Day. It will probably be on a Monday, and probably either on Oct. 17 or 24.

MISSING THE CHANCE

English Capitalists Not Aware of Openings in the West.

Toronto, Sept. 8.—That British capitalists are missing a wonderful opportunity in not seeing more of Canada is the opinion of Harry E. Brittain, of London, England, who reached Toronto today after a lengthy tour of the west, whether he was accompanied by the Earl of Dunsmore, Mr. J. Norton Griffith, M. P., Lord Clinton and Hon. Stewart Elphinstone. The party were looking for investments and observing what openings there are in Western Canada for British capital.

Mr. Brittain formed an acquaintance with many leaders of thought all over the empire.

"I find," said Mr. Brittain tonight, "that those British men of commerce, and particularly the heads of firms, who are over here to personally look after their own investments, are in every case doing good business. It occurs to me that what is wanted more than anything else is to bring over a really representative party of leading Britishers connected with commerce and finance to look over the openings in the west, particularly those of a large commercial nature on the coast, where the Americans have already received a strong foothold."

SUGGEST CHANGE IN THE MILITIA

Sir John French, the Imperial Inspector-General, Submits
His Report.

MORE ARTILLERY NEEDED

Divisional Organizations, With Three
Brigades of Four Battalions
Each Proposed.

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—The report of Sir John French, imperial inspector-general, on the Canadian militia, was made public today, having been placed in the hands of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The report on the whole approves of the retention of the voluntary system for Canada. Sir John French approves the numbers aimed at by the existing Canadian system, viz., a first line of 100,000, with provisions for the ultimate organization of a second line also of 100,000 strong.

With regard to organization the report favors the adoption of a divisional organization instead of the present system of "commands."

Sir John's proposal is that the militia be formed into a series of divisions on the British model, each with three brigades of four battalions each, with a proper proportion of cavalry and artillery. He also notes that to do this there is not more than half enough of field artillery. Further, he urges the need for drawing up extensive mobilization plans, and the formation of a mobilization staff.

In regard to the headquarters and district staffs, Sir John says that the present staff is inadequate in point of numbers. He declares that the officers who now compose the staff on the whole are capable. They are strong, he says, on the administrative side than on that of higher military education, and he makes some recommendations for their improvement in this respect.

As regards officers and non-coms, he says the list prescribed are satisfactory, provided they are carefully selected. This he is disposed to doubt, and declares emphatically for obliging every man who joins the militia as private, non-com, or officer to render the full service for which he contracts.

As for the training of the troops in camp, he complains that commanding officers keep their squadrons and company officers too much in leading strings, so that their company and squad work, which he describes as "the foundation of efficiency," is imperfectly done. Among other things, he insists that city corps should be trained in camp, once each year.

Sir John favors the howitzer for Eastern Canada, as against 4.7-inch guns with which the heavy artillery are armed.

With regard to the Ross rifle, he points out the need for keeping ammunition interchangeable with that used elsewhere in the empire. The report is a long and detailed one, and is being widely read.

LOCAL ITEMS.
An Excellent Record.
In Partridge Wyandottes, Adams Bros., of this city, scored heavily at the Industrial Exhibition in Toronto. With thirteen birds, they won four firsts, four seconds and three thirds, an excellent record.

Off to Europe.
Mr. Joseph Thornicroft and Mr. John Forbes, of Kertch, Lambton County, left on Thursday afternoon for a trip to Scotland via Montreal, and the Allan Line. Both passengers were booked by Mr. de la Hooke.

Should Be Good Game.
A picked team from McClary's will meet the Ramblers, the champions of the East End Baseball League, in a match for the city title at St. John's A. C. diamond tomorrow afternoon, and as the teams battled to a 1 to 1 tie in twelve innings at Queen's Park last Saturday, the contest should be an interesting one.

A Jewish Wedding.
There was a great celebration among the Hebrew residents of the city last night on the occasion of the wedding of Miss Sarah Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Taylor, of 180 Simcoe street, and Mr. Jacob Silverstein. The ceremony was performed by the Rabbi Haskan, of Toronto, and the celebration took place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Taylor.

Hodges—Phillips.
Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, of Minneapolis, Minn., will announce the marriage of their daughter, Harriet Caroline, to Mr. Frederick C. Hodges, formerly of London, on Thursday, Sept. 1, 1910. Mr. Hodges is a son of Mr. George Hodges, of 374 Central avenue, this city, and for a number of years was with Robinson, Little & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Hodges will reside at 25 Kenosha Apartments, 1204 Harmon Place, Minneapolis.

A Presentation.
On the eve of her departure to join her husband, Mr. George E. Gosling, at Annapolis, a reception was given at the home of Miss MacLeod, 594 Talbot street, to Mrs. Gosling. Mr. Gosling was organized at the First Congregational Church, over four years ago, a very large representation from the church was present on the occasion, when Mrs. Holt, on behalf of those present, read a beautiful and touching address to Mrs. Gosling, expressing the regret and deep sorrow at her departure from their midst, as well as their appreciation of her past services and usefulness in the church circles, where she would be sadly missed.

She called upon Miss MacLeod to make the presentation, and consisted of a beautiful and costly gold brooch, studded with rubies. Mrs. Gosling replied in a very feeling manner. Vocal and instrumental music followed, and refreshments were served.

BOY SHOT DEAD IN A SIDESHOW

Was Working in Booth Near Shooting Gallery—Killed by Rifle Shot. St. John, N. B., Sept. 8.—A fatal accident happened yesterday on "The Pike" at the Dominion Exhibition.

Harry Brandage, a boy 12 years of age, was attending to a booth near the shooting gallery, when a man in the gallery picked up a rifle that had not been discharged, and began to examine the weapon. In some unexplained way the rifle was fired, the bullet entering the boy's heart. Death was almost instantaneous. The lad's mother is a widow.

HAMILTON ROAD FOLK AT ODDS OVER SEWER

Work Has Been Initiated, But Strong Deputation Declares It Unnecessary.

Deputations before the meeting of the board of works last night were numerous, and considerable time of No. 2 committee was taken up listening to arguments on a variety of subjects.

The largest deputation was that regarding the Hamilton road sewer. When this work was initiated at the request of a large number of the rate-payers, there was no opposition, and the bylaw was passed. Since then, considerable opposition has developed.

Mr. C. G. Jarvis represented those opposed to the sewer. He stated that there were 27 residents of the street, owning nearly half the property, who were opposed to the improvement. They felt that at the present time they could not afford to pay for it. He asked the committee to quash the by-law.

Several others spoke in the same strain. On that street, he declared, those present who favored the sewer. Mr. J. Homister, W. Gray and J. Summers declared that one was needed, and they were willing to pay their share. Some of them had gone to considerable expense making preparation to tap the sewer on the strength of the bylaw passing.

After some argument, Ald. Saunders moved that the matter lay over for one week, and in the meantime City Engineer Wright will report on the property benefited, the direction of the sewer and his opinion as to its necessity.

Wants Street Improved.
Mr. John Forristal, of the Petrolia Barrel Works, appeared before the committee and asked that something be done to Simcoe street in front of his property.

"I have been living here for over thirty years, and not $25 has been spent on that street," he declared. "We have paid out over a million dollars in wages, besides heavy taxes, with practically no fire protection, and have received nothing in return. I sometimes feel like moving out."

"You were not like some aldermen—fix up in front of your own place when in the council," declared Ald. Saunders. "His claim is a proper one, and I move that the street be put in the best possible condition at once."

The motion carried.
City Architect Nutter was instructed to confer with the water commissioners as to the best method of closing up half the arcade in order to provide room for the electrical department. The board of works will also look into this matter.

The suggestion of Mayor Beattie that a paving plant be secured, was laid over for two weeks, and it is expected that an investigating deputation will visit Toronto and Hamilton. A new petition to open up Lorrie avenue will be prepared, and in the meantime the committee will endeavor to settle the points of difference between the residents.

The Finances.
City Treasurer Bell presented a statement of the finances of the committee up to Sept. 8. The estimates for the year amounted to $62,930, of which the sum of $41,434.91 had been expended.

Those present at the meeting were Ald. Tancook (chairman), Ald. Saunders, Ald. Morgan, Ald. Pocock, Mayor Beattie, Engineer and Secretary Baker.

THE COTTON SUPPLY.
Washington, Sept. 8.—The number of bales of cotton ginned to September from the growth of 1910, was 356,824 bales, round bales counted as half bales, according to the report of the census bureau made at 10 o'clock this morning. The 1909 total was 388,242 bales; the 1908, 402,229 bales, and the 1907, 200,278.
