A. 1 Sir, I am not sure about the time but on that evening I was pressing my clothes and working on my kit when Pte. Hayward came in quite intoxicated. He had a bottle of wine on his person. He asked me to drink some but I didn't, Sir. Later on the different men in the Barrack Room came in and went to bed. He was moving around the room. I had just one light on, Sir. Pte. Trudeau came in, about the last man to come in, and he too was quite intoxicated but at this time I did not notice it.

Pte. Trudeau's bed wasn't made and Pte. Hayward, who was in the room at the time, offered to help him make it - I did not pay any attention to this. After I was through with my work I put out the light and went to bed. In the meantime, Pte. Hayward and Pte. Trudeau were sitting on Pte. Trudeau's bed drinking wine. They were both quite intoxicated by this time.

I went to bed but I did not fall asleep as I usually do until about half an hour later. During that half an hour I couldn't hear anything but imagined at the time that they were still drinking the wine. I would say it was not long after I started hearing moans and gasps and heavy breathing. I paid little attention to it at first until it increased. The light switch in the room is right close to my bed and I leaped out of bed and threw the lights on. When I turned about, Pte. Hayward was finishing getting up from the bed, he was buttoning up the lower part of his underwear. The bed clothes were disarranged, strewed about the floor. I immediately walked over to the bed and told Pte. Hayward to go to his own bed - he did so. Pte. Trudeau was in a semi-conscious state and in a few minutes he started to cry. By this time I was quite sure what had happened and examined Pte. Trudeau and although not being a Doctor I noticed that his rectum was quite red.

Cpl. Hopgood, being the Orderly Sergeant and sleeping in the room, I informed him just what had happened. After talking it over with Cpl. Hopgood we decided that the best thing for him was to talk to Pte. Trudeau by himself.

That is all, Sir, up until the time Cpl. Hopgood took over.

Q. 2 When you turned on the lights how was Pte. Trudeau dressed?

A. 2 Pte. Trudeau was naked, Sir.

Q. 3 Where was he?

A. 3 He was lying with his face down. As you might say - "belly" down, Sir.

Cross-examined by the Defence

Q. 4 You stated a minute ago that the Accused was doing up his underwear - you mean, in fact, he was pulling up his underwear.

A. 4 He was actually buttoning it up, Sir. I couldn't say that I had seen him pull up his underwear, Sir.

Q.5 A man often sleeps in his underwear?

A.5 Very often, Sir.

Q.6 The underwear consists of two pieces. When undressed your belt or trousers are not worn and the bottom part of the underwear could easily slip down?

A.6 Yes, Sir.

Q.7 If either sitting or lying on the bed it is possible that the Accused's underwear had slipped down and what you in fact saw was him pulling it up.

A.7 I saw him buttoning the fly. This in itself would pull the underwear up.

Q.8 You mentioned that the blankets were strewn about. Will you go into more detail.

A.8 They were on the floor - disarranged, by that I mean to say, some at the foot of the bed and on each side of the bed - just a "mess".

Q.9 Supposing two men had been scuffling on a bed - the blankets could have been strewn about?

A.9 Yes, Sir.

Q.10 Have you had any trouble with stealing in the Barrack Room?

A.10 Yes, Sir.

Q.11 Did you not say in the first time you gave evidence when the Summary of Evidence was taken that you had heard whispering from the direction of Pte. Trudeau's bed?

A.11 Yes, Sir.

Q.12 When you heard that whispering you thought it was in connection with stealing that had been taking place.

A.12 I didn't say that, Sir.

Q.13 Is it not likely that you thought that?

A.13 I have suspicion of everything in that regard as money has been stolen practically every pay day.

Q.14 When you heard this whispering?

A.14 Yes.

Q.15 When you heard sobs and moans what you really heard was whispering and you immediately put on the light.

A.15 No, Sir.

Examined by the Court.

Q.16 It has been suggested that the blankets might have been disarranged by reason of a scuffle. Did you hear any scuffle?

A.16 No, Sir.

Q.17 What was the condition of the Accused when you saw him buttoning up his underwear?

A.17 The condition of the Accused was that of being very drunk. When I told him to go to his bed he put on an air of a drunken person and he said, "Sure Bob, sure Bob" and went to bed.

Q.18 Does he sleep in the same Barrack Room?

A.18 In the same Barrack Room but in an adjacent room.

Q.19 Was he able to walk to his room?

A.19 Yes, Sir.

Q.20 You have stated in your evidence that Pte. Trudeau's rectum was red. Was there any blood or anything of that kind?

A.20 No, Sir.

Q.21 You stated Pte. Trudeau was intoxicated but you did not notice it at the time he came in. What do you mean by that?

A.21 When Pte. Trudeau came in I took no notice of him and did not pay much attention.

Re-examined by Prosecution.

Q.22 It has been suggested to you that these two men, Pte. Hayward and Pte. Trudeau might have been scuffling on their bed. In your experience of Barrack Room scrapping do you think it would cause a man's rectum to be red as you say it was?

A.22 No, Sir.

Re-examined by Defence.

Q.23 When men are whispering in a Barrack Room and there is some slight muttering, that whispering will sound like a groan is that not true?

A.23 No, Sir.

Q.24 You say, No, Sir.

A.24 I was positive of the different sounds.

Q.25 It is known that when people are whispering and there is muttering that that whispering will sound like a groan or sob.

A.25 Whispering does not sound like gasps.

(R.W. Menzies)

A. 3003, Cpl. Hopwood, F.H., The R.C.R., C.A.S.F.

Examined in chief by the Prosecution.

Q.26 You were acting as Company Orderly Sergeant on this date.

A.26 Yes, Sir.

Q.27 Do you sleep in the same Barrack Room as the Accused?

A.27 In the same Barrack Room but in an Adjoining room - I was in one room, he was in another.

Q.28 Will you tell the President and Members of the Court what you know of the case against the Accused?

A.28 At 0055 hrs I was wakened by Pte. Menzies. He told me about Pte. Trudeau and Pte. Hayward. I went down and Pte. Trudeau was crying and acting hysterical and he told me his story. I then went to Pte. Hayward's bed and got him to get up and he was wobbling on his feet. Then I told him that I would have to take him to the Guard Detention Room - I found a bottle of wine behind his bed.

Q.29 Did you examine Pte. Trudeau?

A.29 I did not, Sir.

Q.30 Where was Pte. Trudeau when you were aroused from your bed?

A.30 He was lying in his bed.

Q.31 Could you see from conditions then existing how he was dressed?

A.31 Not exactly, Sir. He had, I believe, one blanket over him.

Q.32 Could you see how he was dressed?

A.32 No.

Q.33 Was Pte. Trudeau doing anything else besides crying?

A.33 That is all, grasping the head of the bed with both hands, he had his fists clenched and he was hysterical and mumbling something about, "I'll kill him, I'll kill him".

Q.34 Did you at the time think this man or the Accused to be drunk?

A.34 I wasn't sure, Sir but I was under the impression that he had been drinking. He had been out that night.

Examined by the Court.

Q.35 In your opinion what was the cause of his crying?

A.35 The action that he had claimed had been done against him - he claimed that Pte. Hayward had committed the offence.

Q.36 Could Pte. Hayward hear what was being said in the conversation between you and Pte. Trudeau?

A.36 No, Sir.

Examined by the Defence.

Q.37 You thought that the reason he was crying was because of the offence of sodomy - you only thought that?

A.37 Yes, Sir.

Q.38 Have you ever seen a man who was drunk and had a "crying jag" on - could they be the same?

A.38 They could be the same, Sir.

Q.39 You say that Pte. Menzies woke you at 0055 hrs and then after looking at Pte. Trudeau you then went to the Accused and ordered him to the Guard Room and yet he wasn't admitted to the Guard Room until 0130 hrs.

A.39 It took Pte. Hayward a little while to get ready and he went out to the Washroom.

(F.H. Hopgood)

A. 3147, Pte. Hayes, A.C., The R.C.R., C.A.S.F.

Examined in chief by the Prosecution.

Q.40 I want you to tell the President and Members of this Court what you know about the case against the Accused.

A.40 The night that this thing took place I was in bed at the time when I heard moans and groans coming from Pte. Trudeau's bed. Then Pte. Menzies got up and turned on the lights while Pte. Hayward got out of Pte. Trudeau's bed and Pte. Menzies then woke Cpl. Hopgood and Pte. Hayward returned to his own room.

Q.41 Where is your bed in relation to Pte. Trudeau's?

A.41 Right alongside, Sir.

Q.42 The next bed to it?

A.42 Yes, Sir.

Q.43 Where was Pte. Trudeau when the lights were turned on?

A.43 In his own bed.

Q.44 How was he dressed?

A.44 In his underwear.

Q.45 You are sure he was dressed in his underwear?

A.45 I am, Sir.

Q.46 Where was Pte. Hayward when the lights were turned on?

A.46 Alongside his bed, Sir.

Q.47 How was he dressed?

A.47 In his underwear.

Q.48 As you were apparently lying in the bed next to Pte. Trudeau's bed would you be able to know whether there was anybody in that bed? Did you know that Pte. Trudeau was in his own bed?

A.48 Yes, Sir.

Q.49 Did you know that he was alone?

A.49 I couldn't say that I did.

Q.50 You say that you heard moans coming from Pte. Trudeau's bed?

A.50 Yes, Sir.

Q.51 What was your reaction?

A.51 None whatever.

Q.52 When the lights went on what did you do?

A.52 Remained in bed, Sir.

Examined by the Defence.

Q.53 The first time you gave evidence which was in the Summary of Evidence you stated when the light was turned on you simply turned over and went to sleep again?

A.53 Yes, Sir.

Q.54 Now you say that you saw several things when the light was turned on. Which is correct?

A.54 It is quite natural there would be some time I would observe something before turning over and going to sleep.

Q.55 You saw some of those things happen but not very clearly? Everything is rather vague?

A.55 Yes, more or less.

Q.56 You did say a moment ago that you saw the accused in his bed with a blanket or something over him.

A.56 No, I didn't.

Q.57 You saw Pte. Trudeau in his bed with something over him?

A.57 Yes, Sir.

Q.58 Were the blankets strewn all around, some at the head and some at the foot or were the blankets over him?

A.58 There was a blanket at least over him.

Q.59 And you didn't see any strewn around?

A.59 No, Sir.

Q.60 You were asked a minute ago if you knew he was alone. You were certain in your own mind that there was no one with him in the bed. Are you certain that there was someone with him before the lights came on?

A.60 It is very hard to tell in a dark room whether there are two in one bed or only one.

Q.61 You can't say there were two?

A.61 No, Sir.

Q.62 You stated a minute ago you heard these moans and were asked what your reaction was and you said no reaction?

A.62 Yes, Sir.

Q.63 If you had suspicions of the offence of Sodomy?

A.63 I would have, Sir.

Q.64 But in your own mind you did not then?

A.64 No, Sir.

Q.65 Have you ever seen a man with a "crying jag"?

A.65 Previously that evening he had mentioned the fact of going out and getting drunk and I took it for granted that he was drunk.

Examined by the Court.

Q.66 I understand that on the first investigation of this charge you gave evidence that you did not see anything.

A.66 No, Sir.

Q.67 Had you been asleep before this commotion took place?

A.67 Yes, Sir.

Q.68 Was it this commotion that woke you up?

A.68 Yes, the moans and groans were more or less the cause of it.

Q.69 When you woke up did you turn over and try to forget about these moans and groans and go to sleep again?

A.69 I more or less tried to get to sleep.

Q.70 You said in your examination that you saw Pte. Trudeau in his bed and he had his underwear on.

A.70 Yes, Sir.

Q.71 Was Pte. Trudeau in his bed with a blanket over him?

A.71 Yes but when Cpl. Hopgood and Pte. Menzies got up they removed the blanket and then he had his underwear on at that time.

Q.72 At this time were you wide awake or were you in a half stupified sleep?

A.72 More or less half stupid sleep.

Q.73 Did you see anyone, perhaps not examining Trudeau but looking at him?

A.73 No, Sir, I can't remember.

Q.74 Can you answer this? Did you or did you not see Pte. Hayward getting out of Trudeau's bed?

A.74 No, Sir. I saw him after he was out.

Q.75 Where was he when you saw him?

A.75 Right alongside Trudeau's bed.

Q.76 What was he doing?

A.76 Pulling up his drawers.

Re-examined by Defence.

Q.77 You are quite sure in your own mind that Pte. Trudeau had his underwear on when Pte. Menzies pulled back the blanket?

A.77 I am pretty sure he did, Sir.

(A.C. Hayes)

A. 3325, Pte. Trudeau, G.J., The R.C.R., C.A.S.F.

Examined in chief by the Prosecution.

Q.78 Pte. Trudeau I want you to tell the President and Members of this Court exactly what you know about the case against Pte. Hayward.

A.78 It was pay day night and I came in about 1020 or 1030 and came up to the table and counted my money. Then I went to the washroom. I met Pte. Hayward there. Pte. Hayward produced a bottle of wine and offered me a drink. I had a drink of wine and then we talked for awhile. He stated that I was a bit intoxicated. He stated, "you should have someone help you make your bed". He helped me make my bed.

I got into bed and he gave me more wine. We talked. Then he said he was cold and laid down beside me and after having some more wine I dropped off. When I came in previously at 1030 I had about as much as I could hold without causing disturbance for being drunk.

Pte. Hayward laid down beside me and then I dropped off and when I came to I found him on top of me and felt pain. Then the lights were turned on and I don't know what happened after that.

Q.79 Do you remember any parts of the conversation between you and Pte. Hayward?

A.79 Yes, Sir. Just before I passed out it was impressed on my mind that he said, "if you tell anyone of this George I'll kill you", I am not sure if he called me George by my first name or not but it impressed itself on my mind. He must have repeated it more than once.

Q.80 Was Pte. Hayward on top of you at any time in the bed?

A.80 Only when I came to, Sir.

Q.81 You recovered consciousness and found him lying on top of you?

A.81 Yes, Sir.

Q.82 Did you feel anything?

A.82 Yes, Sir.

Q.83 What?

A.83 I felt pain and think it was that what brought me to.

Q.84 Could you tell the Court what kind of pain?

A.84 A sharp pain.

Q.85 Where?

A.85 In my rectum, Sir.

Examined by the Defence.

Q.86 You say that you went to the washroom where you met Pte. Hayward?

A.86 Yes, Sir.

Q.87 The first time you saw Pte. Hayward was in the Barrack Room?

A.87 Yes, Sir.

Q.88 You asked him for a drink?

A.88 Yes, Sir.

Q.89 You then went into the washroom and had a drink in the washroom?

A.89 Yes, Sir.

Q.90 You state you went into the washroom and had a drink in the washroom?

A.90 Yes, Sir.

Q.91 After you had drunk one or two in the washroom you came back?

A.91 Yes, Sir.

Q.92 You were pretty drunk?

A.92 Yes, Sir.

Q.93 Didn't you roll against your bed?

A.93 No, Sir. I sat down on McKee's bed, the bed next to mine.

Q.94 Did you say your head was rolling?

A.94 No, Sir. I decided to go to bed and Pte. Hayward helped me make the bed.

Q.95 Because you were pretty tight? - that is why he helped you to make your bed?

A.95 Yes, Sir.

Q.96 When you came into the Barrack Room you rolled over and sat on McKee's bed?

A.96 No, Sir. I was steady on my feet.

Q.97 Was your head rolling?

A.97 Yes, Sir. but I was steady on my feet.

Q.98 Have you ever been drunk before?

A.98 Yes, Sir.

Q.99 When your head is spinning you are steady on your feet?

A.99 Yes, Sir.

Q.100 You state the Accused said he would kill you if you told anyone?

A.100 Yes, Sir.

Q.101 He repeated it - didn't it seem strange?

A.101 It did Sir, but I didn't think much of it as I was drunk.

Q.102 What was it he could have killed you for?

A.102 At the time I never thought of it, I certainly never expected that.

Q.103 There must have been some reason for saying it?

A.103 I don't know, Sir. Pte. Hayward was certainly not doing anything he was lying beside me at that time.

Q./04 He helped you into bed?

A./04 Yes, Sir - pulled my trousers off.

Q./05 You got into bed and he sat talking to you?

A./05 Yes, Sir.

Q./06 How long was he sitting there talking to you?

A./06 I don't know. While he was on the side of the bed he talked of nothing except what he did that night and discussed what I did. When he got into bed he talked of nothing but that - how long it was I don't know, Sir but it must have been quite a time after because I had quite a few drinks of wine.

Q./07 After you got back to your bed you had a few drinks?

A./07 While I was in bed.

Q./08 Your head was spinning when you came out of the washroom but you had some more wine?

A./08 Yes, Sir.

Q./09 That particular expression used by the Accused stuck in your mind and yet you can't remember anything else?

A./09 No, Sir. I remember that. I know that he said it just before I dropped off. I can't remember if there was any conversation, I was sleepy and getting dull.

Q./10 When you go to bed you usually sleep in your underwear?

A./10 Sometimes, usually I don't.

Q./11 When you don't sleep in your underwear what do you wear?

A./11 My shirt.

Q./12 Your undershirt?

A./12 Yes, Sir.

Q./13 Just in a shirt?

A./13 Yes. The pants of my underwear were held in my trousers by my suspenders and the whole lot came off.

Q./14 When you came to you rolled the accused off you?

A./14 Yes, Sir.

Q./15 Immediately before that you don't remember anything and immediately after that you don't remember anything?

A./15 I remember the light came on and after that I don't know. I believe Cpl. Hopgood was there but that is about all.

Q./16 You state you were pretty tight so really most of the things were very vague?

A./16 Yes, Sir.

Examined by the Court.

Q./17 You rolled Pte. Hayward off of you when you came to?

A./17 Yes, Sir.

Q.118 How were you lying on the bed?

A.118 Face downwards, Sir.

Q.119 In what position was Pte. Hayward when you had to roll him off?

A.119 Right on top of me, face downwards because I thought I felt his breath.

Q.120 Did you have your undershirt on?

A.120 Yes, Sir.

Q.121 Can you recall any more definitely as to how Pte. Hayward was lying on you before you rolled him off?

A.121 He was holding on to me in some way - I don't know - I was pretty drunk. It seems to me he was holding on to my shoulders. That is all I can say as to his position.

Q.122 Did I understand you to say that Pte. Hayward helped to undress you?

A.122 Yes, Sir.

Cross-examined by Prosecution.

Q.123 How was Pte. Hayward dressed when he was in bed with you?

A.123 He was in his underwear.

Re-examined by Defence.

Q.124 Has this sort of thing that you are giving evidence for ever happened to you before?
Objection by ~~Defence~~ Prosecution - Objection over-ruled.

A.124 It was attempted in London, Ontario but at the time I was sober.

(G.J. Trudeau)

No. 3187, Pte. Hayward, W.A., The R.C.R., C.A.S.F.
Statement by the Court to the Accused.

Pte. Hayward you may give evidence as a witness but if you do you will subject yourself to cross-examination. If you do not wish to give sworn evidence you can make a statement and you will not be cross-examined but you must understand that the statement given without oath will not be considered as good evidence as your sworn testimony.

Q.125 Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?

A.125 Yes, Sir.

Examined in chief by the Defence.

Q.126 Will you tell the Court what you know about this case from the time Pte. Trudeau first met you in the Barrack Room until you were placed in the Guard Detention Room.

A.126 I went to the bathroom. I had a bottle of wine which I had taken with me. I met Pte. Trudeau standing by his bed. He asked me what I had. I told him that I had a bottle of wine. He asked me for a drink. I told him to come into the washroom and I would give him one. We went out to the washroom and I gave him a drink. We came back into the Barrack Room, he told me he was pretty tight. He went over to his bed to make it and he fell over on it. I took hold of his arm and helped him up and told him I would make his bed for him. After I had made his bed I took off his shoes. He had taken off his jacket and loosened his pants about the waist. I took his pants and jacket and hung them on a peg over his bed. He asked me for his pants as he wanted to take his money out. I gave them to him, he took his money and I hung them back again. He asked me to sit down. I sat down on the edge of the bed. He was telling me about being up town and all the gin he had to drink that night. I told him I were going to bed as it were too cold to sit there. He asked me to stay a little longer. I told him I were getting cold. Then he jumped up to a sitting position and called me a "son of a bitch". Pte. Menzies then turned on the lights. He asked me what was going on. I told him nothing. He told me I had better go to bed and I did. Cpl. Hopgood came over and woke me up and told me to get up and get dressed and that I was under arrest.

Q./27 Two witnesses have stated that they heard moans coming from the bed. Can you account for these in any way?

A./27 There were no moans. Once Pte. Trudeau was speaking a little loud and I told him not to speak too loud as he would be waking everybody up.

Examined by the Prosecution.

Q./28 Had you been drinking before you started on the bottle of wine in the Barrack Room?

A./28 No, Sir. I had opened the bottle of wine before we got to the Barrack Room.

Q./29 You were under the influence of liquor at the time the lights went on?

A./29 Not completely, Sir.

Q./30 Were you completely sober, clear minded?

A./30 I wasn't sober, Sir.

Q./31 You were clear minded and could remember details?

A./31 Yes, Sir.

Q./32 That accounts then for the exact details you give from your story?

A./32 Yes, Sir.

Q./33 Were you at any time in bed with Pte. Trudeau?

A./33 No, Sir.

Q./34 When I say in the bed I mean on it under covers?

A./34 No, Sir.

Q./35 Where exactly were you when the lights went on?

A./35 I was standing up ready to go over to my own bed.

Q./36 Your own bed being in the other part of the Barrack Room?

A./36 Yes, Sir.

Q./37 Two men who were completely sober say they heard moans. Yet you did not hear them?

A./37 No, Sir.

Q.137 You were sitting on the bed at one time?

A.138 Yes, Sir.

Q.139 Pte. Menzies got up and turned the lights on as a result of hearing the moans yet you did not hear any moans?

A.139 No, Sir.

Q.140 Later after you had gone back to your own bed who came in and woke you up?

A.140 Cpl. Hopgood.

Q.141 What did he say to you?

A.141 He told me to get up as I was under arrest.

Q.142 Did he say why?

A.142 No, Sir.

Q.143 What did you think you were being put under arrest for?

A.143 I asked Cpl. Hopgood and he said for drinking.

Examined by J.A.G. - Lieut. Col. W.G. Kerr

Q.144 Have you ever had any trouble with Pte. Menzies in any way?

A.144 No, Sir.

Q.145 Are you good friends with Pte. Hayes?

A.145 I have never had any arguments with him, Sir.

Q.146 Have you any reason to think that anyone might have something against you?

A.146 Not that I know of, Sir.

Examined by the Court

Q.147 Who took off Pte. Trudeau's pants?

A.147 I took them off, Sir.

Q.148 You didn't have your pants off?

A.148 No, Sir.

Q.149 It has been stated in evidence that you were standing beside the bed when the lights came on and you were buttoning up the lower part of your underwear. How were you buttoning up your drawers?

A.149 I wasn't buttoning up my drawers, Sir.

Q.150 Then the evidence of the other witnesses is wrong?

A.150 Yes, Sir.

Q.151 How long were you sitting on the edge of the bed altogether?

A.151 Around ten minutes.

Q.152 Did I understand you to say that you were under the blankets?

A.152 No, Sir.

Re-examined by J.A.G. - Lieut. Col. W.G. Kerr

Q./53 After Pte. Menzies turned the light on, as I understand it - you may correct me if it is wrong, he came over to the vicinity of Pte. Trudeau's bed - is that correct?

A./53 Yes, Sir.

Q./54 Pte. Menzies had to come some distance?

A./54 About the width of four or five beds.

Q./55 Did he tell you anything?

A./55 He said I'd better go to bed. I turned around to go to bed.

Q./56 You did not wait until Pte. Menzies got to Pte. Trudeau's bed?

A./56 No, Sir.

Q./57 You had to go which way from Trudeau's bed to get to yours? In the direction of Pte. Menzie's bed or did you go the other way?

A./57 The other way.

Re-examined by Defence.

Q./58 In the cross-examination when two witnesses heard moans you stated there were no moans. Can you account for it in any way?

A./58 The only way that I can account for it is that Pte. Trudeau was talking a little loud at one time and I asked him not to talk so loud as he would be wakening everybody up. This is the only thing I can account for moans.

Q./59 If you had been whispering loudly how would that whispering sound?

A./59 It could have the effects of a person moaning.

Re-examined by the Court.

Q./60 Did you do anything at all with the lower part of your underwear while you were standing beside Trudeau's bed?

A./60 No, Sir. Unless I hitched them up by force of habit which anybody will do.

(W.A. Hayward)

Court adjourned at 1150 hrs.

Court re-opened at 1435 hrs.

Sgt. W.D. Hawkes, The R.C.R., C.A.S.F.

Testimony as to character of the Accused.

Examined in chief by the Prosecution.

Q./61 Will you tell the Court how long you have known the accused.

A./61 I have known the Accused since 3rd October, 1939, the day he enlisted in the Regiment. I have been Orderly Sergeant. I helped him draw his kit, had him on Recruits Drill - right through Recruits Drill. I was Platoon Sergeant and had him in my Platoon and since we have been over here he has been in my Section. I found him a clean, all round good soldier.

Q./62 What have his habits been?

A./62 I have always found him just normal.

Q./63 You state that he was clean?

A./63 Yes, Sir - clean always in habits and everything.

(W.D. Hawkes)

Final Address by the Prosecution.

1. It has been given in evidence by Pte. Menzies who was in the next bed to the scene of the reputed action, that Pte. Hayward was sitting on Pte. Trudeau's bed, talking in low tones or whispering. Gasps and moans were heard by Pte. Menzies, coming from Pte. Trudeau's bed while the lights were out.

2. Pte. Menzies turned on the lights and saw Pte. Hayward buttoning up the fly of his drawers or hitching up his drawers. The Court must decide whether it was right that he should be dressed only in underwear, some distance from his own bed. The Court must decide whether, had he helped Pte. Trudeau to bed, he should not have returned to his own bed or not. It has been stated that it was cold, then why did Pte. Hayward not return to his own bed?

3. Pte. Menzies states that Pte. Trudeau was lying on his bed naked, with the blankets strewn about. It has been given in evidence by Pte. Trudeau that he had his undershirt on. This may account for the fact that Pte. Menzies thought he was naked, seeing his legs bare.

4. Pte. Trudeau was crying hysterically. This may have been from drink or pain. This is for the Court to decide.

5. Pte. Trudeau and Pte. Hayward were both drinking - admitted in evidence. Pte. Menzies stated he had been in the Barrack Room cleaning his kit and had just gone to bed but had not gone to sleep. The Court must therefore decide whether his recollections may be more clear than that of the others who had been drinking. The Court can decide this.

6. Pte. Menzies states he felt a pain in his rectum as he woke up or came to - to find Pte. Hayward lying on top of him.

7. Pte. Menzies states that he examined Pte. Trudeau's rectum and found it very red.

8. Pte. Trudeau claims Pte. Hayward said - "George, if you tell anyone about this - I'll kill you". The Court must decide whether in their opinion Pte. Trudeau would remember this, as an unusual statement, even through the mental fog caused by drink. What made him remember this - if not said why would he make it up in his own befogged mind.

9. In conclusion - evidence shows:

(1) Hayward was in underwear getting out of or standing beside Trudeau's bed.

(2) Should he have been undressed. Should he not have been fully clothed, as he had helped Trudeau to bed. There is no evidence to show he undressed at his own bed and returned to Trudeau's bed.

(3) Pte. Trudeau claims he felt a pain in his rectum and that this pain caused him to regain consciousness, to find Hayward on top of him.

(4) Pte. Menzies states rectum was red.

It is for the Court to decide whether the act of Sodomy has been committed or not. If not, the Court must decide whether an "attempt" to commit Sodomy was made. In this regard the attention of the Court is drawn to M.M.L. Ch. VII, para 39, page 115.

Final Address by the Defence.

At no time by any witness has evidence been produced to show that the offence of Sodomy was in fact committed.

There is some circumstancial, and very vague evidence to show that the offence might have been attempted, but this evidence is completely unreliable and vague in the extreme.

Pte. Menzies states that there had been several cases of theft in the Barrack Room and that when he went to bed this was on his mind. It is quite obvious that when he turned on the light he thought that something of this nature was taking place.

Pte. Menzies states that he thought he heard moans but admits later that this may have been loud whispering.

Pte. Menzies states that Pte. Trudeau was lying naked on the bed but Pte. Hayes and Pte. Trudeau say that he was wearing the upper portion, at least, of his underwear. Pte. Menzies also states that the blankets were all strewn about but Pte. Hayes, Cpl. Hopgood and Pte. Trudeau say that Pte. Trudeau was covered by at least one blanket. The evidence therefore of Pte. Menzies is quite unreliable. He apparently became concerned in a situation and without giving it proper consideration jumped to an unfounded conclusion. The manner in which he gave his evidence points to this.

Pte. Menzies states that the Accused was buttoning up his underwear but Pte. Hayes who was in the next bed states that the Accused was pulling it up. The Accused himself in cross-examination states that he may have been pulling it up but doesn't remember doing anything to it. Under the circumstance it is not likely that he would remember.

The sobbing and crying by Pte. Trudeau after the light had been turned on could easily have been caused by the "Crying Jag" of a man under the influence of liquor as was Pte. Trudeau. Two witnesses say that it could be thus caused.

The fact that Pte. Trudeau was only wearing the shirt of his underwear is not strange because he states that he usually sleeps in the shirt only.

There are only two witnesses, Pte. Menzies and Pte. Trudeau who have given any evidence whatever to support the charge against the accused. But what of this evidence? That of Pte. Menzies has been contradicted on all relevant points by other witnesses and therefore it has been shown that he is quite unreliable and his evidence should not receive any consideration.

The other witness Pte. Trudeau was drunk at the time. He admits that everything was very vague. He even contradicts himself on several points. He states that an attempt at Sodomy has been made against him in the past. Therefore in his vague drunken state he may have thought something of this nature was happening to him. There is no real evidence from him that it was even attempted.

With reference to the evidence given by Pte. Menzies regarding the red condition of Pte. Trudeau's rectum. Pte. Menzies is not qualified in anyway to give evidence on this medical point. When Pte. Trudeau was examined by the Medical Officer the same day the latter stated that there was no evidence to show that Sodomy had been committed. That is why the Medical Officer has not been required by the Prosecution to give evidence before this Court.

The accused has given his evidence in a very clear straightforward way. He has answered all the questions put to him in cross-examination and by the Court in a satisfactory way.

The N.C.O. who has been the Section Commander of the accused since he enlisted has given evidence to show that he is a good soldier is clean and straightforward and that there has been absolutely nothing during his service to show any tendency whatever to homosexuality.

The charge is a very serious one and proof of the accused being guilty must be absolutely irrefutable. It is maintained that there is no proof whatever. The Prosecution has not been able to produce one single trustworthy witness to say that the offence was even attempted.

Actually the facts show without any serious question of doubt that the accused is innocent of the offence and should therefore be discharged as "Not Guilty."

The Prosecution raised the following points:

Pte. Menzies bed was next to that of Pte. Trudeau. Evidence shows that it was several beds away.

He raised the point that it is strange that the Accused should be in his underwear. Evidence has shown that nearly every man in the Barrack Room sleeps in his underwear. Therefore it is not strange that Pte. Hayward should be moving from his own bed to the bathroom and back again in his underwear.

There is no real evidence to show that the statement assumed to have been made by the Accused to Pte. Trudeau, that is, "if you tell any one this I will kill you" has any bearing in fact at all. It is merely the strange mind of a very vague, drunken man talking.

Address by J.A.G.

At this point the J.A.G. addressed the Court giving the definition of the charge and reviewing verbally the evidence.

The Court adjourned to give consideration to the evidence brought before it.

I certify that the above transcript of evidence is a true transcript of the evidence given upon oath and taken down by me to the best of my ability.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

Statement in mitigation of punishment.

My past record of Canada seems to be that I was a very bad soldier and I see that I've been doing wrong and my whole sole opinion is to finish my training so that I can go back to my Unit in the field.

On Monday, the out-burst was caused by the conditions I had to sleep under. It made me sick. The Officer in my defence will speak on that.

The Defending Officer asks the Court permission to call witnesses under R.I. 39 F.

1st Witness for the Defence

Lieut. G.R. Blackadar, C.B.Highrs., on the strength of 5 C.I.R.U.(A.D.)., an Officer in the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

A.4- That is right.
Q.5- You were in the cell of the Accused, A.23274 Pte. Hazelton. Would you tell the Court the condition inwhich you found his cell.
A.5- The condition I found his cell on the morning of Dec. 7th, at approximately 1000 hours, I found it full of dog dung, and I would not consider it fit for human habitation.
Q.6- Mr. Blackadar did you have A.23274 Pte. Hazelton changed to another cell.
A.6- I did not.
Q.7- Had A.23274 Pte. Hazelton,C.R., been changed to another cell before you came.
A.7- To my knowledge he was not.
Q.8- But he was changed to another cell.
A.8- At that time I spoke to Cpl. Starratt and told him to have A.23274 Pte. Hazelton, C.R., clean it out. He replied that he had already spoken to Pte. Hazelton, who had refused. At that time Sgt. H.R. Wade, the Provost Sergeant, came along and said that he would see that the cell was cleaned out.
Q.9- Did you order the Accused to clean out his cell.
A.9- I did not order him to clean out his cell.

2nd Witness for the Defence

D.123043 Sgt. Wade, H.R., 5 C.I.R.U.(A.D.)., a soldier in the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

I am D.123043 Sgt. Wade, H.R., 5 C.I.R.U.(A.D.).

Q.10 Sgt. Wade you are the Sergeant in charge of the Provost 5 C.I.R.U.(A.D.).
A.10 Yes Sir.
Q.11 On Monday, December 7, did you go to the cell of A.23274 Pte. Hazelton, C.R. in company with the Orderly Officer, Mr. Blackadar.
A.11 Yes Sir.
Q.12 What were the conditions of that cell.
A.12 Dirty, Sir.
Q.13 Dirty... was there dog dung there.
A.13 Dog dung... yes Sir.
Q.14 Did the stench in the cell make you gag.
A.14 No Sir.
Q.15 Sgt. Wade, are you responsible for the general condition on the Guard House.
A.15 Yes Sir.

The Prosecution declines to examine the witness.

3rd Witness for the Defence

K.67375 Pte Quickfall, C.F., Westm'r Regt. (M), on the strength of 5 C.I.R.U.(A.D.)., a soldier in the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

I am K.67375 Pte. Quickfall, C.F., Westm'r Regt. (M), on the strength of 5 C.I.R.U.(A.D.).,

Q.16 While you were confined in the Guard Room of 5 C.I.R.U. (A.D.). did you have a dog in your cell with you.
A.16 Yes Sir.
Q.17 Did the dog belong to you.
A.17 No Sir.
Q.18 How many days was it in your cell.
A.18 Two days.
Q.19 Two days.
A.19 Yes Sir.
Q.20 During these two days did you have to clean up after the dog.
A.20 Yes Sir.
Q.21 Did you try to have the dog removed from your cell.
A.21 Yes Sir. I spoke to several of the Guards about having the dog taken out for a run and there was none of them took him out.
Q.22 Then you were forced to sleep in your cell in company with a dog.
A.22 Yes Sir.

Cross-examined by the Prosecution.

Q.23 Do you know if it was on Sunday night that the Accused was put in the cell with the dog.
A.23 I do not know for sure, Sir.
Q.24 You do not know.
A.24 No Sir.

The Prosecution makes the following final address.

Mr. President and Gentlemen:

I would like to point out to you that the Accused was absent from defaulters duties on Saturday night. On that Saturday night was ordered to scrub the Guard room floor and refused. There were no mitig ting circumstances around these charges. The Defending Officer brought out certain facts which the Court will consider, that might have incensed the Accused on Monday morning.

Finally the previous record of the Accused is such that he has been under a charge for practically every month for the past twelve months, and shown a perversity in this charge which the Court will very well see mirrored in his previous conduct. That the Accused is now contrite and has recognized his past wrongs, the Prosecution is glad to hear, and that the Accused is contrite and realises that, the Court will give that such merit as it may demand.

The Defending Officer makes the following final address.

A.23274 Pte. Hazelton, C.F., admits his guilt on all three charges. On the morning of December 7, he arose feeling sick after having all night in this terrible stench and surrounded by the refuse from this dog which was still his companion in the cell.

I feel sure that it was this condition that prompted A.23274 Pte. Hazelton to make his out-burst. A.23274 Pte. Hazelton's past record has not been that of a good soldier,

He has only been in England approximately six weeks. All his past bad record is from Canada. I have had a long personal talk with the Accused and I am now firmly convinced that his sole ambition is to become a good soldier, which I know he can do.

The court is closed for consideration fo the sentence.

(Leon Brousseau) President.

After the above caution the Accused elected to give evidence as follows:-

The Accused, A.23274 Pte. Hazelton, C.R., Perth Regt. (M)., on the strength of 5 C.I.R.U.(Arm'd Div.), Asoldier in the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

On 6 Dec. 42 at 2130 I was placed in the Bull Pen in which they had a drunken man and a dog.a- At about 2200 hrs. they came and got the man. At that time the dog had shit on the floor. Had to sleep in it all night. In the morning at 0630 hrs. the Cpl. gave me a command to clean it up which I refused because it made me sick. Thenafter, they made me lay in it till the Orderly Officer came around. When he came he saw it and made them give me another cell. I asked the L/Cpl. to give me another cell to which he laughed and told me to clean it up in ten minutes. At the time the Orderly Officer came around the Sgt. of the Provost was there, A Cpl. and the R.S.M. and the Sgt. told me ~~IX~~ I should have reported to him and he would have looked into the matter. It would have made any man sick, piss and shit from the door to the bed which I had to sleep in.

C.R. Hazelton.

The Accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of three pages was taken down by me in the presence of the Accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (C), (D), (E) and (F) have been complied with.

PLEA IN MITIGATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER NOTE E-3

Mr. President:

I propose to speak only in mitigation of sentence on the accused. Tpr Hazlewood, twenty-nine years of age, married with three children, was a hard rock miner in Northern Ontario. He joined the Army in June of 41, which I may say from my own knowledge was when recruiting was first opened in that particular part of the North country. Upon attestation he commenced his service with the 6th Hussars and served with that Regiment until the 10th of May this year, a period just short of three years. Tpr Hazlewood has a clean civilian record. His Army record as you can see is to all intents and purposes also clean. You will notice he is wearing a good conduct stripe. On the 10th of May of this year he was admitted to hospital where he was held until the 20th, on which date he was discharged to No 2 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit, having been medically boarded Category S-3. After reporting to No 2 CACRU he stayed one night there only. The following morning he made enquiries and was told, I submit inaccurately but it is not of any particular import, that his category would remain S-3 thereby rendering him unfit for service with his Unit for a period of six months. He applied for and received a pass to Milford. Mr. President, this absence is of rather a new type. It is the absence of a man who has no desire to avoid service, but rather of a man who has only a desire to seek service. Hazlewood's Unit was among those which crossed to France before H-Hour on D-Day. He had been with the Unit for three years, all his friends in the Army were with that Unit. You will recall that the day of the invasion was the 6th of June. When Hazlewood went to the unit area about ten days before D-Day his intention was to get himself smuggled to France where he could rejoin the unit. Security regulations were very strict. He was unable to effect entry into the regimental area. He stayed with friends and finally immediately after D-Day, knowing that the Echelon vehicles would be going at a later time, he went to New Milton where the unit had previously been stationed and encountered a number of his friends who were also, as he himself was, drivers of wheeled vehicles. He endeavoured to persuade them to take him back with them inside the enclosure. They refused to do so, saying that not only would he be caught, but they would also be in trouble. Two days later he returned to Gosport which was where the unit had last been and effected an entry inside the enclosure by concealing himself in the under part of a military lorry. Seeing an LCT standing just off shore he swam out to it and endeavoured to get aboard. He was unable to do so. He then swam back, was wet and cold, and extricated himself from the enclosure by wriggling through the wire. He then went back to his friends who gave him a hot drink and put him to bed, where he stayed for a couple of days. Hazlewood then again returned to New Milton where the friends with whom he had been staying there endeavoured to persuade him to return to the Reinforcement Unit. However he was still determined that he would rejoin his Regiment. I could not submit it as evidence but I have seen correspondence showing the effort he made to rejoin. Tpr Hazlewood went next to Poole where he understood a number of ships were loading. He stayed there for three or four days during which time he could have had and was promised transportation aboard ships to Canada, the United States and many other parts of the world but not to France. He could not get a ship at that point which would take him over to the Normandy coast,

He stayed there for three or four days during which time he could have had and was promised transportation aboard ships to Canada, the United States and many other parts of the world but not to France. He could not get a ship at that point which would take him over to the Normandy coast.

Realizing by now the impossibility of effecting a successful crossing of the channel and rejoining his unit he returned to New Milton to his friends. He appreciated that now the only sensible thing to do was to give himself up. However, I am sure, Mr. President, as you have encountered in many other cases he was afraid of the consequences, hesitated, and was unable to screw up sufficient courage. About a fortnight after that time he was sitting in a public house on the evening of the 23rd of August when he looked up and saw two civilian police talking among themselves outside the pub. A sudden force of resolution came to him. He got up, went out, and said I am a deserter, will you please take me away. Now that, Mr. President, is a story of his absence. I submit it is a very different type of absence than that which has undoubtedly been encountered in the Canadian Army for the last five years. I am not suggesting for one minute that Tpr Hazlewood should not be punished. He has committed an offence against the Army Act and did not behave as a soldier should behave. On the other hand I submit very strongly in mitigation of sentence that this man showed most exemplary spirit, a desire and ambition which undoubtedly is not as unsatisfactory as it might be. I would suggest, Mr. President, having taken into account this man's medical category, his military history, his personal circumstances, and the story which I can assure the Court is entirely correct, I have checked it very closely myself, that a punishment of a relatively minor nature would well suit the ends of justice in this case.

Questioned by the Defence

Q.1 Did the Coy follow the track all the way to the objective?
A. No, we followed the track until 5 or 600 yds from the objective?

Question by the Court

Q.1 In your evidence you state that you saw Pte Head at 1830 hrs 5 Sept 44. Did he report to you?
A. Yes, sir.

The accused having been duly sworn states:

On the night of the 1st of Sept, we had orders to go into attack, on MONTELERO. Our sec leader then told us, but did not show us definitly our objective and we could not see it from where our platoon was. We advanced down the hill at approx 1830 hrs. Just before the Coy took the bend to the hill around the point I dropped out to have a bowel movement. When I was finished I put my wet equip on and continued around the point and bumped into Pte McEwan. We continued on down into the valley and could not find our Company. It was getting dark. We came up to the top of the hill and met Mr Brown at approx 2100 hrs, on the road. He told us to go over and wait behind the wall. From there we went down to fill up our water bottles at the well. We waited for over an hour before we got out bottles full and from there we went into a dugout and went to sleep and did not wake up until noon the next day. There was nobody around and we did not know where to Regt had gone to. We went back to the river to see if our Coy cook truck was still there but it had moved. We stayed with an English Regt that night and on the 3rd Sept we came on up and stayed with the RCASC. We left then about 10 o'clock the following morning and proceeded forward to an Ammo point and stayed there that night. We.

"JM" met a Hasty P. and found the direction from him to the Regt, and we came on up to the Regt on the 5th of Sept. We did not know whether to Regt was in action or in rest. On reaching the regt we reported to CSM Murray, our CSM.

Cross-Examination:

Q.1 Mead, Do you consider yourself a trained soldier?
A. Not in one respect as I was a driver for 3½ years with the Calgary Highlanders before I came to the Edmontons.

Q.2 When did you come to the Regt?
A. On 25 July 43 in Sicily.

Q.3 Have you been in action previous to MONTELERO?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q.4 Were you actually acting Sec Comd at one time?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q.5 How long did you take to move your bowels?
A. 10 to 15 mins approx.

Q.4 You are considered a trained soldier and have been a Sec. Comd, why did you not continue forward instead of coming back?
A. We did continue forward but got mixed up in our directions.

Q.5 Did you know that there were two Coys attacking ahead of your coy?
A. Yes, Sir.

Q.6 On the 2nd, 3rd or fourth day you could not possibly have been more than a few hrs. March from the Regt at any time. Why did you not make an effort to go as far forward as possible in the shortist possible time?
A. We did but we did not know which direction the Regt had gone or their line of advance.

Court:

Q.1 When did you meet Mr Brown?
A. At the starting point.

Q.2 Where was the well and how far was it from the place where you met Mr Brown?
A. Approx 150 yds, back from the start point.

Q.3 Mr Brown told you to wait by the wall, you then went to fill your water bottles, did you then go back to the wall?
A. No sir, we crawled into a dugout, and wnet to sleep.

Q.4 Why did it take an hour to fill your water bottle?
A. There was a big line up there of reinforcements for the Bn and also some men from the tanks.

Q.5 Did you make any inquirys as to where these reinforcements were staying or when they were going to proceed forward to their coys?
A. No we did not sir.

Q.6 Did you tell anybody that you going into the dugout?
A. No we did not.

Q.7 How far was the dugout from the well?
A. About 10 yds.

1st Witness for Defence

Lieut C R Brown, having been duly sworn states:

On the evening of Sept 1st shortly after dush when B Coy had begun their attack, I was with "TAC" Hq., which was then in the Cemetry overlooking the axes of advance. In between 2030 and 2100 hrs. the two accused whom I did not know but the one whom I now recognize came to me reporting that they were from B Coy and had lost their Coy, having stopped for a bowel movement. They asked me where the Coy was and how they could get to it. I told them the Coy was in the middle of the attack and being dark it would be difficult to find and ordered them to remain at "tac" Hq until success, when they would be either taken or directed to B Coy. I sent them to the wall of the Cemetry to remain and did not see them again during the attack or during the next few days.

Cross-Ex

Q.1 Were there many vehicles and trps in tac Hq area?
A. There were the normal F Ech vehicles included in which were the Command tanks.

Q.2 Did you give the accused any indication as to how long it would be before they would be sent forward?
A. Yes, I told them quite definitly they would not go forward unit the completion of the attack, as to the time in hrs. Nobody could forcast to it.

Q.3 Did you say or inform definitly to the accused that he must hold himself ready to go forward?
A. Yes.

Q.4 When tac Hq moved did all personnel vehicles and tanks move with you and was there considerable noise during the departure?
A. No., one carrier and two Jeeps were the only vehicles that went forward at this time.

Q.4 Do you know approx when the rest of the vehicles moved out?
A. Approx 2 to 3 hrs later, just before and during first light on the morning of 2nd Sept.

Q.5 Did B Coy have any time for rest previous to going forward in attach at 1830?
A. Before 1830 each Coy had approx. 2 hrs rest.

By the Court

Q.1 What is you appointment in the Bn?
A. I am the I2C. of the Loyal Edmonton Regt.

Q.2 Did you make any effort to contact accused by the wall before you moved off?
A. No.

Defence Rests

Closing Address.

The accused was trying to reach his Coy, according to Mr Brown's Evidence, The accused was given direct orders not to move forward until told to do so. The accused never did receive orders to move forward.

Closing Address (Prosecution)

Evidence established.

1. The accused was warned to rejoin his section.
2. The objective was indicated to the accused and according to his own evidence he could not have been out of sight of it as he did advance when he had finished moving his bowels.
3. Accused was less than ½ distance from D.L. when he moved his bowels.
Accused had ample time to rejoin his section during the 2 hours of the attack.
Accused took four days to return to his Regt which could not of at anytime been more than a few hrs march away.

Ex "B" "DC"

Plea of Mitigation Pte Read

1. The accused did, according to Mr Brown's evidence, make an attempt to locate his Company.
2. Although absent for several days he was trying to re-establish contact with his regt, and finally did so on Sep 5.
3. He has been in Action before and must have been fairly reliable, as he had been a section leader. This is the first offence of this nature that he has committed.
4. His failure to report back was due not to deliberately deserting, but carelessness in not letting anyone know where he was, and in falling asleep when he should have remained awake, ready to move off when he was told where to go.

Prosecution

The Prosecutor makes no opening address but proceeds to call witnesses

duly sworn states:

I have been acting as transport officer at No 5 (Battle Wing) C.T.S. for the past month or approximately the past month, carrying on my other duties as instructor. As the result of a report made to me I checked through the work tickets for Oct 14th for the sedan in question C.M. 195193 and found none. This car was in charge of my unit. On the 14th of Oct I had been employed at field firing & I did not know whether the car had gone out or not. I checked and found that there was no authorization given for this vehicle being on the road on October the 14th. The accused was on October 14th ~~in charge~~ transport corporal and as such he was authorizing the use of transport for the school and I was counter signing the work tickets. To my knowledge he had the right to authorize the use of transport all requisitions for transport are supposed to be given the day previous but in all cases this has not happened - that is to say in all cases requisitions have not been made the day previous. There was no express sanction for not following this regulation. (The witness produces Pt. 1. Daily Order 106 dated 28th August 1942 by Lt Col D Fletcher O.C. No 5 Battle Wing Canadian Training School - attached as exhibit "C".

Cross examination:

When I took over the accused had been in full charge - there had not been a transport officer. There were a total of 18 vehicles plus 2 M.C.s a total of 20. He did not have any other N.C.O. to help him. That means he was looking after the administration part of it as well as the repairs because he is a mechanic. As these vehicles move practically every day while the courses are on I believe now it is a big job for one N.C.O. I took over about the 3rd week in Sept.

The previous transport officer had left the school about one month previous to the time that I assumed the position. Ever since the school started I have been a Platoon instructor in charge of an officers class. Right up until about 9 days ago. that is to say Oct 14 th I was After this incident on made full time T.O. ~~about 9 days~~ and relieved of my instructional duties. ~~Since then I have~~ Before this ~~that is about the~~ that is to say prior to 9 days ago I gave about 2 hours a day in the evenings to the duties of Transport officer. All other times Corporal Heard was in full charge. I countersigned in some cases work tickets for the day which covered trips already made + prepared a few work tickets for the previous day. All other duties regarding transport were carried on by the accused. Sometimes when we were on night exercises work tickets for a few days trips would accumulate so that I would have a batch of slip work tickets to condemn, but there were always the tickets that had been properly authorized - I mean by this that the tickets were properly authorized by Corporal Head. There is a place on the work ticket where Cpl Head signs the authorization. For practical the accused authorized the tickets + I confirmed them when I got time to do so.

I asked the adjutant to make an order similar to exhibit C. so that I would know in advance what calls would be made for transport so that I would have some advance notice in allotting the limited number of trucks to the jobs assigned.

I found the accused very efficient

To the Court: If Sedan WD Vehicle C.M. 195193 had been driven on Oct 14th 1942 a work ticket should have been made out by Corporal Head - signed by him in the authorization space provided + later presented to me by Cpl Head for countersigning. No such work ticket for any such trip was presented to me for signature for any such by this vehicle made on Oct 14th 1942.

In answer to a question requested by the Defending Officer

Q. If the accused had presented a ticket showing a test run for say 6 miles would you have signed it?

Answer. I will put it this way If the accused had presented the ticket before the test run I would have signed it as he is a mechanic + if he had made a test run in the day time + later presented me with a ticket I would have taken his word for it + signed it.

RP 83(b) complied with.

2nd Witness for Prosecution B-76302 Pte Charles Maguire Toronto Scottish Regiment (M.G.) posted to C.T.S. duly sworn.

states:-

I am a driver. On the evening of Oct 14/42 I drove the Colonels car No. CM 195143 belonging to #3 Battle Wing C.T.S. to Worthing. En route I gave the accused Cpl. Heard a ride. He had been working on the car previously that day making some minor adjustments as Colonel Fletcher was not using it. I had no authorization only that Corporal Heard said we could test the car. I am the regular driver of this car. I let the corporal out at a roundabout outside of Worthing. This roundabout is between Findon & Worthing. Worthing is about 7 miles from camp & Corporal Heard got out about 3 or 4 miles from camp. I have been punished for making this trip with the car.

Cross exam. The car had been giving trouble & asked the accused to check it. When I came back about 4 P.M. the corporal was still working on the car checking the ignition & he worked on it until 4.30 when we went to mess. After supper some time after 1800 hours I took the car out on a testing run. We were going to test it earlier but supper was on so we decided to test it after supper. We always test any vehicle after making repairs. I did not have any written authority for this test run & that is what I meant in the summary when I said without authorization.

When corporal Head got out at Farden I was supposed to take the car right back to Camb. The Cpl Head said to me you are going to go back to Camb and I said yes I considered this question to be in the nature of an order.

The next day Cpl Head asked me if I had gone to Worthing the night of the 14th because the Provost were checking up to know if it had been to Worthing. I told Cpl Head "no" whereas the fact is I had been to Worthing.

To the Court. I cannot say that anyone suggested the test run. It is the normal thing to do and now I could not state if it had been mentioned by Cpl Heard & myself. On going out for tests we almost always go on the road going towards Wathen. The road is on an incline going up that way & it is better to test the ignition on an incline than on a decline. It is normal to take the mechanic who has been doing the work along on the test run. It would be normal for me the driver to do the driving on a test run because I knew what it felt like before & could compare its performance after. The Provost came on next day to investigate because they claimed that on the evening of Oct 14th they had waved my car down in Wathen & I had not stopped. It was raining & I did not see any provost waving me down. They say they hollered but I pay no attention to people hollering after dark

Jo't Jo Prosecutor:

The occupants of the car in the test run were myself, the accused and two other drivers and Sgt Gibbs. There of us that is the other 2 drivers & myself went to a dance in Worthing
The accused got out when Cpl Heard got out. The three of us went on but before getting to the Round about where we would turn around to come back to camp
Pte Lomas one of the accused's said something about going on to Worthing & I said alright.

(Reading the evidence back to the witness the witness by way of correction or explanation refers to a statement near the beginning to the effect that Cpl Heard said we would test the car & explains that he is not sure whether it was Cpl
Heard or he the witness McGuire who said this.

He then passed 4 other cars during the check,on the offside of the road.There are a number of T roads both on the offside and nearside of Brighton Road.There was a moon at the time but a number of dark clouds partially obscured the moon.It was fairly light at the time. Head travelled along Purley High Street into Godstone Road where he stopped.I went up to him and pointed out his manner of driving and excessive speed and he replied "I was hurrying to get back so as to get an hour's extra sleep". I repeated to him the warning formulas for dangerous driving,speed dangerous and excessive speed and he said "Don't be too hard on me".There was a speedometer fitted on the Ford car but not illuminated.The road was dry, traffic light.Police car speedometer was tested at 7.15 a.m. on 7-8-41 by P.S.97"Z" Moffatt and found correct.Black-out time 10.25p.m. to 5.47a.m."

PLEA OF MITIGATION
in the Case of
D.105738 PTE THOMAS HEMPREY HEAD (RCASC)

Gentlemen of the Court

You have in front of you the case of a soldier who went AWL on special circumstances. As he declared under oath, he had a leave to Brussels and a left with one of his officer for going in and out. When he left the Jeep, this officer instructed him to be at the rendez vous on Sunday the 4th Feb between 1000 to 1100 hrs at ~~Turnabout~~ TURNOUT near Antwerp.

Pte Head had some business in Brussels so he went and there he enjoyed his life, but drank too much for returning on Saturday and he done so because he had the protection of his superior who neglect making the necessary Corrections on his Past but he had the word of his officer. He went in Antwerp because it is only a few miles from ~~Turnabout~~ Turnout and he was going to purchase a radio tube for a civilian who he was billetted with.

Why he overstayed 6 days?
only for one reason, the C.O. has told the men that no 7 days leave will be granted to A.W.L cases.
He realized by having extended his foss, he had lost his leave so he didnt go back, but intended doing so on his own.
Pte Head enlisted 11th May 40 left Canada aug 40 and he is in France july 44
He is A° Categorie, 35 years old and well trained. His past record is not bad for a 5½ years soldiering and I recommend him to the Court.

Statement of D. 105738 Pte HEAD
Thomas Humphrey

I have been cautioned by Sgt. Maddens of S.I.S. 1 Can. Div. Canada, that I need not say anything, but that anything I do say, will be taken down in writing, and may be used as evidence. To show that I understand this caution I sign my name here. Signed. J Thomas Hd. Head.

I am 35 years of age, married, my wife resides in Montreal, Canada. I enlisted in the Can. Army on 23rd May 1940 and came to U.K. on 11th Aug 40, and remained in England until I crossed to France on 5th July 44.

On 12th Sept 44 at 15.00 hrs I was given a daily pass from my unit, 2nd Bn. Lincs Regt. which was then stationed in Nijmegen. My pass expired on 3rd Sept 44 at 17.00 hrs and was for the purpose of proceeding to Brussels.

I was 3 officers from the H.Q.S. Lincs at Nijmegen were going to Brussels via Jeep and I was able to get a ride there with them. I arrived back the Officers in Brussels at 23.00 hrs on 2nd Sept 44 and it was all agreed that if I got back to Turnhout, that I would be able to travel from there by the same jeep as the time my leave was up.

I remained in Brussels for a day and a night in digress to the extent that I do not remember leaving that city. The next thing I do remember is being awakened in a civilian home, and asking where I was, & how I got there. The civilians told me that I had been brought in off the street, I asked what day it was & they told me Tuesday, also that the city was Antwerp. I then figured out that I must have left Brussels & got a ride to Antwerp, intending to get through to Turnhout to meet the jeep as arranged.

Now that I found I was three days over my pass, and was aware that this automatically cancelled my leave for 7 days leave to U.K. I decided to remain the balance of 7 days at Antwerp.

On 10th Feb. 45 I decided to return to my unit, I was to phone there a radio telephone message for a civilian [illegible] in Nijmegen whom I had stayed with sometimes. I had the priority telephone with me and was proceeding to a radio check when I was [illegible] by members of the Can. Provo. Corps. I figured they might check me, so I threw it off into a side

J.H.H.

Street, because I wanted to attend to my unit voluntary, however the Provost fellows one and found that I was A.W.L. I was arrested by them at 11-30 hrs on 10th Feb. 45.

When I was apprehended I had the following Belgian money in my possession:

13	500	Francs notes
4	100	Francs notes
2	50	Francs notes
2	20	Francs notes
2	10	Francs notes
14	5	Francs notes
4	5	Francs pieces.

I also had in my possession at this time the following Dutch money:

84	One	Guilders notes
47	2½	Guilders notes
8	10	Guilders notes.

I also had the following Postal notes in my possession:

16 Postal notes of 20/- each.

When I went on leave on 1st Feb. 45 I had in my possession approximately 600 guilders, 2,250 Belgian Francs, and 16 Postal notes for 20/- each.

I had the 2,250 Belgian Francs in my possession since my previous leave in Dec. 44.

The 600 guilders and the 16 Postal notes were won by me playing Poker and crap games at my unit. It will be noted that the Postal notes are all stamped with the same Field Post stamp, & all the same date. The reason being that on occasions we were able to purchase either one or two of these Postal notes from the Field P.O. & several of the boys in the Poker & crap games were there for money, this accounts for my having this amount, and issued on the same day, & by the same Field P.O.

I obtained the Belgian francs in my possession on 2 occasions by exchanging the Dutch guilders for Belgian Francs & were in a Café in Brussels & produced some of the Dutch

J.L.H.

I paid Jan 1 was told that there was a fee by them to convert change the currency for me, because he did business in Holland, I changed approximately 320 Dutch guilders with the Belgian civilian for Belgian Francs, the rate of exchange being 16 Belgian Francs to the Dutch guilder.

I have a credit balance in my pay book of ₣ 172.85, the last entry in which is deposit of a ₣ 18.00 cheque on Jan. 15th 45 which I received from my wife for Christmas. The previous cheque from my wife was deposited in Sept. 44. I have a credit balance in my pay book of about ₣ 65.00, I have in France a new book at present, since on Jan 1st 45, and I have not seen the Paymaster in Feb 45 to receive pay of present day, or my pay since 1st Feb.

The total period of my A.W.L. amounts to 8 days
18 hrs and 30 mins. viz. from 17.00 hrs on 3rd Feb 45 until approximately 11.30 hrs on 10th Feb. 45.

I would like to add that I was drawing pay & Dep.
Field Cashiers Office for 14 months in England, & that I have a deposit in my favour, since the Field Cashier & myself always proceeded alone twice per month & drew cash for the entire Unit Div. I add these points to show that I have had no dishonest dealings, and that the cash I have in my possession on 10th Feb 45 was obtained by me in the manner stated.

I have read over the statement, made voluntarily by me this date, & it is a true account of the circumstances surrounding my A.W.L. and arrest.

The order convening the Court, the charge-sheet and the summary of evidence are laid before the Court.

At 10:30 o'clock the trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused, and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members of the court are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Fidler, S., C.M.H.C., acting as court stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President, marked B-2 and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above-mentioned charge-sheet.

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Not guilty of desertion but guilty of absence without leave.
Q4 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the second charge against you, which you have heard read?
A4 - Not guilty, sir.

President - After having heard the evidence and the court finds there is no evidence of desertion, the court has the power to reduce the finding from desertion to absence without leave.

Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence.

Prosecutor - I haven't anything to say except to submit documentary evidence which is all we have. I call on Mr. Fullerton to submit these documents which are marked Exhibits A, B and C.

First witness for the prosecution, Lieut. R.E. Fullerton, No. 1 Cdn. (M.G.) Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q5 - I have here a letter from Col. Christie and a certificate purporting to be the time and place and date the accused gave himself up. Do you recognize the signature of Col. Christie?
A5 - I do, sir, yes sir.
Q6 - Exhibit "B". I show you a declaration of a Court of Inquiry as to shortage of kit, signed by Col. Christie and certified a true copy by the captain and adjutant. Do you recognize that as a true copy.
A6 - Yes, sir.
Q7 - Exhibit "C". A certified true copy of an entry in the registry of deserters. Do you recognize that as a true copy?
A7 - I do, sir.
Q8 - And now an Exhibit "D". I have here a declaration of shortage of kit. Do you recognize that?
A8 - Yes, sir.

Defending officer declines to cross-exam ne this witness. Rwb

Second witness for the prosecution, C.Q.M.S. Bielder, A.G., F-34627, No. 1 M.G. Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q9 - Did you make an inventory of the clothing he was short when he came to the M.G. Holding Unit?
A9 - Yes, sir, I checked the list sent from Coulsdon and found him short three articles.
Q10 - What were they?
A10 - Ground sheet, balmoral and jacket sweater.
Q11 - That is all you found him short in his kit?
A11 - That is all, sir.

President -
Q12 - Other than those three articles his losses were made up?
A12 - Yes, sir.

Prosecutor - That is the case for the prosecution, sir.

Q13 - Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness?
A13 - Yes, sir.
Q14 - Do you intend to call any other witnesses in your defence?
A14 - No, sir.

First witness for the defence, B-76325, Pte. Head, William Allan, No. 1 Cdn. (M.G.) Holding Unit, being duly sworn is examined by the defending officer.

Q15 - Will you tell the court what happened to these articles of kit?
A15 - The sweater, when I left the camp, I loaned to one of the fellows, and the ground sheet was left over an ack-ack gun post. The balmoral was stolen and I had signed for another one but I never received it.

President -
Q16 - On the 12th September we presume you left the Toronto Scottish and you say another chap had your sweater. Did you attempt to get it back?
A16 - No, sir, I have been unable to get down there.
Q17 - The ground sheet was over an ack-ack gun you say?
A17 - Yes, sir.
Q18 - And your balmoral?
A18 - It was lost or stolen and I signed for another one.
Q19 - You got another?
A19 - No, sir.
Q20 - What did you wear?
A20 - My glengarry.
Q21 - Have you a balmoral now?
A21 - No, sir.
Q22 - You are still short a balmoral?
A22 - Yes, sir.
Q23 - And you never have been charged with one on your pay book?
A23 - No, sir.

Defence Counsel -

Q24 - The accused admits absence without leave and wishes to explain. Will you tell the court?
A24 - I tried to get leave as I had been over here since December 17th, but I couldn't get it. Fellows who came over in August were getting leave and I had only five days. I had money sent from home so I took it into my head to have a leave anyhow. I went to London and got into trouble with a girl and didn't want to come back until I got fixed up or what I thought was fixed up. When I came back I went to hospital for seventeen days.
Q25 - Did you have any intention of deserting?
A25 - No sir, I never even had my tunic off, I never tried in any way to get out.
Q26 - Did you return voluntarily?
A26 - Yes, sir, no escort brought me in.

Rwh

President -

Q27 - You would leave on the 12th September, 1940?
A27 - No, sir, I would leave on the 11th, I was on guard duty until eight o'clock and then left.
Q28 - You surrendered yourself at one o'clock on the 15th October?
A28 - Yes, sir.
Q29 - You would be absent thirty-four days. You have been in close custody since then, how long?
A29 - Sixty days.
Q30 - How long in hospital?
A30 - Seventeen days.
Q31 - For what?
A31 - gonorrhoea.
Q32 - Are you cured now?
A32 - Yes, sir.
Q33 - You say you were here since last December and had only five days landing leave. When?
A33 - New Year's, last year.
Q34 - You were in Aldershot until you moved out in the field?
A34 - I went to France as a transport driver.
Q35 - Why didn't you get leave before you went to France; did you apply for leave?
A35 - Yes, sir.
Q36 - Why didn't you get it?
A36 - I don't know, sir.
Q37 - After you came back what happened?
A37 - I applied again. Two days before I went away on the 12th my leave was cancelled again.
Q38 - Why?
A38 - I don't know. They closed off all leave. I had booked a ticket to go to Birmingham and wrote the people and told them I was coming and then they turned down my leave and I am guilty of going away without leave.
Q39 - You didn't go to Birmingham?
A39 - No, sir.
Q40 - Thenhaving written you didn't go; why?
A40 - I didn't have the address with me when I left.

The court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused B-76325, Pte. Head, William Allan, No. 1 Cdn. (M.C.) Holding Unit, is NOT GUILTY OF DESERTION BUT IS GUILTY OF ABSENCE WITHOUT LEAVE; and,
He is NOT GUILTY of the second charge against him under A.A. Sec.24(2).

President - We have found you not guilty of desertion but have considered your plea of absence without leave. On the second charge we have found you not guilty of the loss of the rubber groundsheet and the cardigan jacket which may be recovered, and you have already signed an application for a balmoral; so that if you do not get your cardigan jacket back together with the groundsheet, that can be issued to you on repayment.

President -

Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused.

The prosecutor, with the approval of the defending officer, submits the M.F.M. 6 and A.F.B. 296 of the accused.

Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A - He is, sir.
Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A - I have, sir.
Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheet a fair and true summary of those entries?
A - Yes, sir.

At 1000 hours the Trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 - Do you object to be tried by me as President, or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 - No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 - Do you object to M-15577 Sgt. Stanley Fidler, The Edmonton Regiment, C.W.H.Q., acting as Court Stenographer?
A2 - No, sir.

The Court Stenographer is duly sworn.

The charge-sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused is arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge-sheet

Q3 - Are you guilty or not guilty of the charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 - Guilty, sir.

R.P. 35(B) is complied with by the Court.

Q4 - Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment?
A4 - No, sir.
Q5 - Do you wish to give any evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to character?
A5 - No, sir.

Lieut. J.M. Prescott, No. 1 Arty. Holding Unit, is duly sworn.

Q6 - Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused?
A6 - Yes, sir.
Q7 - Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read?
A7 - Yes, sir.
Q8 - Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books?
A8 - Yes, sir.
Q9 - Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A9 - Yes, sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine.

Q10 - Do you wish to address the Court?
A10 - (Defending Officer) Head has admitted that he is guilty of a.w.l. It seems that Head just got out of detention a couple of weeks before this happened and looked at his pay book and found he was a hundred and eighty-odd dollars in debt and I think that discouraged him. I have taken the matter up with the paymaster and it has been proved wrong and he is a matter of only forty dollars in debt. Head believed he would have no money to draw and it would take months and months to get out of the hole when actually he was only forty dollars in the hole and that fact discouraged him and he went absent.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. .....(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

- PROSECUTION -

First Witness

Capt FH SELBY, 1 VRD, 1 CCOD, MCOC, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. On 17 Sep 43 were you the offr in charge of a convoy travelling from Liverpool to Bordon?
A. Yes, Sir. The accused was driving a pontoon carrier. I did not see the accident take place although I was on the convoy at the time. The accident took place at Apley Castle Staging Camp, Wellington. I saw the accused driving the truck about 5 mins before he had the accident. He was feeding in with other of the convoy to refuel at the time I saw him and the truck I would say was travelling at 2-3 miles per hour. This as far as I can remember was between 1920 and 1925 hours. I heard the crash of the accident. I went over to the scene of the accident, and I can't remember whether the accused said anything to me or not. Two of the four uprights on the pontoon carrier were bent over. I saw quite a large tree near the truck with an overhanging limb in such a position that the truck could have hit it. At this time the sun was just beginning to set and visibility was good. There was no traffic in the immediate vicinity.

Defending Offr cross-examines.

Q. The vehicle did not hit the tree itself?
A. No, just the overhanging limb.

No re-examination.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(b).
THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

Second Witness

A.35478 Pte Rejesky CR, 1 CCOD, MCOC, having been duly sworn, states:

On 17 Sep 43 I was on duty as a spare driver with the accused in a Diamond T pontoon carrier in convoy from Liverpool to Wellington. We reached Wellington about 1900 hrs, refueled and were going to park in the parking lot. We were coming around a tree and there was a low overhanging branch. I thought there was plenty of room to go under this overhanging branch. I did not feel anything and I did not know anything had happened until some English soldiers hollered at us. I got out and noticed that two of the uprights had been bent on the right side of the vehicle and this must have been caused by the overhanging branch. I can't remember any conversation between myself and the accused at this time. The rate of speed at the time was about 4-5 miles per hour in low gear. It would have been difficult to have got through by going around the branch as an English convoy was parked there. I estimate that the diameter of this branch where it leaves the trunk of the tree would be about 9 or 10 inches. I noticed this branch when we were coming towards it and in my opinion there was room for clearance. The branch was quite high. I did not notice whether any of the other trucks in the convoy had gone under this branch or not.

Defending Offr cross-examines.

Q. You thought at that time that you could clear that branch with the vehicle?
A. Yes, Sir, I did.

Q. Did you ever drive a pontoon carrier before?
A. No, Sir, I never have.

No re-examination

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(b).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

Third Witness

Capt MH DARLING, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

I examined CMD 52916 about the middle of Sep 43. At that time I was the EME at 4 SD CBOD. I was asked to make an estimate on the cost of repairs to this vehicle and I estimated it to be £7/4/0. There were two uprights bent over. The tips of these uprights are very high, approximately 10 feet, but that is only an approximation. The manner in which these uprights were bent was consistent with the tops of the uprights having met with the branch. They were bent backwards and inwards. At that time we were working under very high pressure here and these vehicles were being moved from an assembly plant down here in large numbers. Compared with the personnel we had to move them the men were working very long hours and at the assembly points where these vehicles are picked up there would be a considerable amount of confusion and an accident of this type could very easily happen. It would be a matter of judgment.

No cross-examination.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MADE A SUBMISSION THAT THE PROSECUTION HAS FAILED TO MAKE A PRIMA FACIE CASE AND THAT THE CHARGES SHOULD BE DISMISSED BECAUSE THE ACCUSED IS CHARGED UNDER SEC 40 OF THE AA WHICH DEALS WITH NEGLIGENCE AND DUTY, AND SAID THAT IN THE EVIDENCE GIVEN SO FAR NONE OF THEM HAVE POINTED TO ESTABLISH NEGLIGENCE.

THE PROSECUTOR REPLIED THAT AS FAR AS WITNESSES ARE CONCERNED HE HAD ONLY ONE PTE REJESKY AND FROM HIS EVIDENCE THE COURT MUST DECIDE WHETHER THE ACCUSED WAS NEGLIGENT IN NOT STOPPING HIS VEHICLE AND NOT GETTING OUT TO CHECK TO SEE IF HE HAD SUFFICIENT CLEARANCE. CAPT SELBY DID NOT SEE THE ACCUSED BUT FROM HIS EVIDENCE IT WAS THE ACCUSED WHO DROVE THE VEHICLE WHEN IT WAS DAMAGED.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

THE COURT IS REOPENED

THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION MADE BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER IS DISSALLOWED.

-DEFENCE-

The accused, L.110070 Pte Headrick IJ, 4 VRD, 1 CCOD, having been duly sworn, states:

Q. Did you think that you could clear that branch?
A. Yes I did, Sir. There is a big windshield in this vehicle and vision is good from it. I saw the branch before I came to it and took a good look at it and I figured I had lots of room to clear it. I have never driven one of these pontoon carriers before however, and I had been driving it all day from the time we left Liverpool in the morning. When we first started out I looked the veh over including the uprights. I had not noticed whether anyone else had gone under the branch I did, but if my memory is correct this convoy was a mixed convoy. I came around the tree because there were vehs on the other side. I did not intend to park there, and I would say that the truck was moving about 4-5 miles per hour in low gear. I had no conversation with Rejesky before I hit the branch. I felt no sensation or bump whatever when the truck went under the tree. As a matter of fact I did not know anything had happened until some British soldiers hollered at me. I then got out and looked at the uprights, the back one being bent more than the front ones. I could not see any mark on the branch, but it must have been the branch which touched the uprights. I have xxxxx driven Diamond T's before, but never a pontoon carrier. There was no one shouting to us to hurry in this refuelling business.

Cross-examined.

Q. While your veh was being refuelled did you look over or walk over to the tree?
A. No, Sir, I could see it from where I was. It was not far away.

No re-examination by the Defending Offr.

Questions by the Court:

Q. This is the first time you have ever driven this type of truck?
A. Yes, Sir, and I was handling it very carefully. I had a spare driver with me. I did not send him out on the ground to see the branch because I figured there was enough room myself. I was as careful as I could be. I looked at this branch when my truck was being refuelled, and I estimated then I had enough room to clear it.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

THE PROSECUTOR IN ADDRESSING THE COURT ON THE FINDING SAID HE HAD NOTHING TO ADD TO WHAT HE HAD SAID IN REPLY TO THE DEFENDING OFFICER'S SUBMISSION.

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT.

The accused is charged under Sec 40 of the AA. This is negligence. He had never driven a pontoon carrier before and had been driving all day long up until 1900 hrs. This is only a case of judgment concerning the branch rather than negligence as from the evidence given by his spare driver he also thought that the vehicle could clear it. This could easily have happened without neglect to duty.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE FINDING.

STATEMENT IN MITIGATION

The Court should not assess the accused at all. We have a great amount of work going on and being done by drivers, and they are the hardest worked people here as they were doing this day, and by sheer hard luck had an accident and a court-martial for it. Well then, we won't have the drivers very long, as this case was not due to Pte Headrick's fault at all, but was a pure accident.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

L-110070 Pte. Headrick, I.J., on strength of No. 4 V.R.D., 1 Cdn C.O.D., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By Direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the prosecution

A-35478, Pte. Rejesky, C.R., on strength of Convoy Section, H.Q., 1 C.C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On the 17th September 1943, I was working for Transit Park, No. 4 Sub-Depot, 1 C.B.C.D., as a driver. I was on duty as spare driver with Pte. Headrick who was driving a Diamond T pontoon carrier in Convoy from Liverpool to Bordon. We reached Wellington about 1900 hours, refuelled and pulled into the parking lines. We swung out around the tree in front of the lines, we saw the overhanging branches and both thought there was plenty of room to clear. We didn't know our vehicle had been damaged until some English convoy drivers waved and shouted for us to stop, at the time of the accident the truck was in low gear and we were doing about 4 to 5 miles per hour.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

C R Rejesky

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution

Capt. F.H. Selby, on strength of No. 1 V.R.D., 1 Cdn C.O.D., R.C.O.C., an Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On September 17th 1943, I was the Officer in charge of a mixed Convoy of vehicles proceeding from Liverpool to Bordon. In the convoy were several 40 ton tank transporters and several pontoon carriers. Our itinerary called for an over-night stop and refuelling at Apley Castle Staging Camp, Wellington, Shropshire. We arrived at the Staging Camp at approximately 1900 hours and commenced refuelling of all vehicles. During this operation, Pte. Headrick, driving one of the pontoon carriers, having refuelled, was turning around in order to return to the parking area. While making the turn, he drove too close to a large tree catching the high uprights on the offside of the vehicle on a stout branch and causing damage to both of the uprights. At the time of the accident, Pte. Headrick was driving very slowly. When the accident occurred, I was standing near the fuel pumps seeing that traffic was controlled, and would be approximately 200 yards from where the accident occurred.

Capt. H.H. Darling, on strength of No. 2 V.R.D., 1 Cdn C.O.D., R.C.O.C., an Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

On September 21st 1943, I was the E.M.E. Officer in charge of Headquarters Workshops, No. 4 Sub-Depot, 1 C.B.O.D. On that day, a Diamond T pontoon carrier, C.M.D. No. 52916, was brought to the Workshop for repairs. The vehicle was inspected and the estimated cost of repairs set at 48 hours @3/- per hour or £7-4-0

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused, L-110070, Pte. Headrick, I.J., on strength of No. 4 V.R.D., 1 Cdn C.O.D., R.C.O.C., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, states as follows:

"On 17th September 1943, I was on duty with Transit Park, No. 4 Sub-Depot, 1 C.B.O.D., driving a Diamond T pontoon carrier from Liverpool to Bordon. Shortly after 1900 hours, we arrived at the Staging Camp in Wellington, where we were to spend the night. I refuelled my truck and turned around to park it for the night. There was a tree on the parking lot and after I passed under the tree, some drivers from another convoy shouted me to stop. I stopped the vehicle, got out and found the 2 uprights of the body on the right side had been damaged by branch of the tree. When turning, I judged that I had sufficient clearance unde the tree for my truck. My speed was not more than 4 to 5 m.p.h. I had driven Diamond T's before, but this was the first occasion on which I had driven a pontoon carrier.

Headrick I.J.

Questioned by the Court

Q-89 Was there a vehicle going close in front of you
A-89 No sir, the traffic was well spaced out

Q-90 Can you tell me the distance between your vehicle and the jeep which was in the accident when you passed, were they close to scraping
A-90 No, there was sufficient room to get through

Q-91 Were you running on the verge of the road
A-91 Well I was sitting more or less in the middle of the road and the driver was near the verge

Q-92 You cannot tell me whether you were on the verge or not A-92 No, I cannot tell

Q-93 Can you give us an idea of the speed of your jeep
A93 As I said before it was very foggy - you could not speed - about 15 m.p.h.

Q-94 Can you give an idea of the speed of the jeep involved in the accident
A-94 I would say about 20 m.p.h.

Q-95 You mean to say he was passing that tank at only about 20 m.p.h.
A-95 Yes, I would say that was about the speed

Q-96 How wide would you say the road was
A-96 It is wide enough for a tank and two jeeps to pass with safety

Q-97 Did you see how far away from the tank the other jeep was when it started to pass
A-97 No I could not state that, the visibility was very bad

Q-98 Can you tell if it was going down the middle of the road or pulled out from behind the tank to pass
A-98 When I saw it it was in the middle of the road

Q-99 How far were you from the tank at that time
A-99 We had passed the leading tank

Q-100 The tank involved in the accident was it the second one in the column
A-100 No sir, the first tank, the one leading the column

Q-101 How was the visibility in the fog, how far could you see
A-101 About 80 yards

Q-102 Was there anybody immediately behind you, did you look behind and see anybody following you
A-102 There was no one immediately behind when we stopped the jeep

Q-103 And the oncoming jeep had lights on
A-103 Yes sir

Q-104 Would you say the jeep had a chance to pull in behind the tank at the time he saw you or not
A-104 No, he did not have a chance, the column on the other side of the road was more or less nose to tail and the driver apparently tried to pull in ahead of the leading tank

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE. The accused B-72079 Gnr R.J. Healey, 2 Cdn Svy Regt, RCA, being duly sworn, is examined by the defending officer:

Q-105 Will you tell the Court what happened on the evening of the 15th February
A-105 On the 15th February I was driving Lieut Fargey back to Nijmegen following a recce near Cleve. About 1800 hrs we overtook a convoy of four tanks going in the same direction. For about ten or fifteen minutes I followed in behind the four tanks thinking they might turn off the road, enabling us to go ahead. It appeared they were going right into Nijmegen and since I knew that Mr Fargey had an officers' meeting to attend that evening

A-105 (cont) and I knew he was very anxious to get to Nijmegen as quickly as possible I decided to try and pass the tanks. Before deciding to pass these tanks however I was watching them going around a very wide bend in the road. I could see there were four tanks and a good space between each one, so I reasoned if I did meet any traffic coming in the opposite direction before I got to the head of the line of tanks I would be able to swing in between any two of them. However I did not meet any traffic coming in the opposite direction until I had reached the lead vehicle. Just as I was abreast of the leading tank I saw a jeep directly in front. This jeep when I saw it was not turning out and I was under the impression it had not seen me; accordingly I swerved to the right cutting in front of the lead tank in an endeavour to give the approaching jeep as much room as possible. The jeep passed me but the left hand side of the tank struck the right hand side of my jeep and Mr Furgey was killed in the accident and I was not injured

Q-106 Can you state the distance between yourself and the approaching jeep when you first saw it
A-106 I would think about thirty yards

Q-107 About how far could you see
A-107 I believe I could see 100 yards when I turned out to pass the vehicles because I could see the lead tank and the tanks were spaced

Q-108 Can you state if there were lights on the approaching jeep
A-108 They were not on

Q-109 Do you remember at what speed you were travelling
A-109 I did not look at the speedometer - I think about 15 or 18 m.p.h.

Xxd

Q-110 Was there any light at all visible on the tank itself that you were overtaking
A-110 No sir

Q-111 Was there any on the rear of it
A-111 I did not notice any

Questioned by the J.A.

Q-112 You have told us when you were abreast of the lead tank you saw the jeep. Why did you not see the jeep before this?
A-112 One thing I was keeping an eye on the vehicle I was passing, and the fog was in banks

Q-113 Did you try to pass the tank without first ascertaining that the road was clear
A-113 I did not see the jeep until I came alongside the tank, as I was passing the tank it appeared to be safe I did not see the approaching jeep until I was alongside the tank

Q-114 Then it was not safe to pass
A-114 I thought it was, it appeared to be when I approached the tank there was nothing in front of me

Q-115 You say you were passing the tank at about 15 to 18 m.p.h., why that slowly
A-115 There was a fog

Q-116 When you thought the road was clear why did you not try to pass the tank as rapidly as possible
A-116 I thought I had sufficient margin to pass him

Q-117 You thought in spite of the fog you could pass the tank which was going 12 m.p.h. at a speed of 15 to 18 m.p.h.
A-117 I do not know exactly the speed I was travelling, I do not think it was over 20 ,.p.h. There was quite a difference in our speeds

Q-118 Do you always pass vehicles as slowly as that
A-118 It depends on conditions

Q-119 When would you pass a vehicle quickly
A-119 I would pass a vehicle quickly if there was no possibility of getting in behind it and saw a vehicle approaching

Q-120 Are you in the habit of passing vehicles without knowing if the road is clear
A-120 No sir, visibility was poor on this occasion

Q-121 You thought it was safe to pass at around 15 m.p.h. rather than go quickly
A-121 No sir, I had maintained a speed which was considerably faster than the speed of the tank, but I did not wish to travel at too high a speed because if I met vehicles coming in the opposite direction I could put on my brakes and swing in behind the vehicle I was passing. When I saw the jeep approaching I speeded up somewhat in order to pass the leading tank

Q-122 Had Mr Fargey told you he was in a hurry
A-122 No sir, he did not say so in so many words, but I knew from remarks he did make he was in a hurry to get to Nijmegen

Q-123 Were you cautioned at all by Mr Fargey on the drive
A-123 No sir

Questioned by the Court

Q-124 You say that you started to pass the tanks on a wide sweep of the road, on a curve
A-124 No sir, I trailed the tanks and I watched them going around and saw them spaced, but I did not try to pass them there

Q-125 How far would you say the tanks were apart
A-125 About 20 or 25 yards

Q-126 You could see them all
A-126 When I saw them on the turn I was making no attempt to pass them - driving at the same speed - It was while the tanks were on the turn that I watched them, but I did not a ttempt to pass them at that time

J.A. What you are saying is "you saw them on the turn and passed them on the straight
Wit. I saw them on the turn and passed them on the straight

Q-127 Would you say the fog was any thicker when you passed the leading tank than when you saw the whole four of them
A-127 Yes sir

Q-128 You passed the four tanks all with one sweep you did not come behind the leading tank at all
A-128 No sir

Q-129 You were on the left hand side of the road the whole time
A-129 Yes sir

PROSECUTOR'S CLOSING ADDRESS

I feel I am in rather a bad position in being prosecutor on this and that my heart is not in the work.

I feel that this is one of the actions of war which is inevitable, and this may be one of them.

As prosecutor I am supposed to bring out all the facts both for and against the accused. This is my first attempt at this, and with the help of the Court and the J.A. I believe the facts have been brought out.

I do not wish to point out the accused as to blame for anything, and I believe his statement has helped the Court to an opinion to a great extent.

I cannot give any opinion, and I think the Court should bear in mind that there is a war on, such things as this could happen and this did happen.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S CLOSING ADDRESS

In this case the accused is charged with manslaughter, and certain facts must be brought out in the evidence in order for the Court to convict.

On p.117 MMG it states: "Where death results from negligence it must be shown, in order to justify a conviction for manslaughter, that the negligence was so gross and culpable and showed such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the state and to conduct deserving punishment".

Now first of all the facts must show that there was any negligence at all. The facts are not controversial, and from these facts which have been given before the Court, I would submit that taking into consideration the nature of the accused's duty that the accident occurred more from an error in judgment on his part than from any negligence,

In the evidence which was given it was brought out that when the approaching jeep, the accused's jeep and the tank, were passing, that there was room on the road for all three at the same time; and it was a second or a fraction of a second after that that Gnr Healey's jeep was struck by the tank, which would seem to indicate that had he kept it going straight there would have been no accident at all, and that his swerving to the right was simply an error in judgment on his part and showed no actual negligence.

I think the evidence has also shown that in passing the tanks, in starting to pass the tanks, the accused was in no way negligent, there were gaps in the oncoming traffic which permitted passing without any unnecessary risks, and from the accused's own statement it would seem that owing to weather conditions visibility was considerably worse when he was alongside the leading tank than it was when he had decided to pass the whole troop.

I think the passing of tanks on any highway as wide as this one is not in itself something of a dangerous nature, it is quite a common everyday occurrence; therefore I think that the mere fact of Gnr Healey passing these tanks was not itself a negligent thing.

On this particular occasion I do not think it can be said that it was any more dangerous, but it became more dangerous, and is more in the nature of an accident than any negligence on Gnr Healey's part.

Now if from the evidence given it is decided that the accused was negligent I submit that there is certainly no negligence of the nature required to constitute the crime of manslaughter.

It is a well known principle that the evidence must prove beyond a reasonable doubt the guilt of the accused, and in this case in order to convict the Court must feel beyond any reasonable doubt that Gnr Healey was grossly and culpably negligent. This I submit was not the case.

SUMMING UP BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE.

Mr President, Gentlemen:

As you are aware, this is a very serious charge, a charge of manslaughter, and I would like to direct you on the law involved as much as I can.

If I do happen to touch upon the facts I want you to remember that any opinion I give on the facts is purely my own opinion. I am only concerned with the law. You are concerned with the facts.

The charge is laid under A.A. Sec 41, charging the accused with: (Reads charge sheet).

Now you have heard the evidence this morning; what you have to do first of all is to find whether or not the particulars of the charge have been proved, and then you will have to decide whether these proven particulars constitute the offence of manslaughter under the law as now given.

I will read from Archbold, one of the most prominent Criminal Law authorities 31st Ed. 1945, p.859: "Manslaughter is the unlawful and felonious killing of another without any malice either expressed or implied". That is the general definition of manslaughter.

The Army Act on the same question states on p.116 #11: "It may be taken generally that in all cases where a killing though not with malice is nevertheless incapable of justification or excuse, it is manslaughter".

With these two definitions you will have to decide if the facts proved to amount to manslaughter.

As the Defending Officer has pointed out, before a Court can find the accused guilty of manslaughter, they must be satisfied the accused was guilty of negligence, and, in addition, must be satisfied that the accused was guilty of the very highest type of negligence.

The negligence necessary for a conviction on a charge of manslaughter is much greater than that required to prove careless driving or reckless driving. I will read again from Archbold, same exition, p.882: "Where death results in consequence of a negligent act, it would seem that to create criminal responsibility the degree of negligence must be so great as to amount to recklessness. Mere inadvertence, while it might create civil liability, would not suffice to create criminal liability. Simple lack of care such as will constitute civil liability is not enough. For purposes of criminal law there are degrees of negligence, and a very high degree of negligence is required to be proved before the felony is established. Probably of all the epithets that can be applied "reckless" most nearly covers the case though it is probably not all-embracing. In explaining to juries the test which they should apply to determine whether the negligence in the particular case amounted to or did not amount to a crime Judges have used many epithets such as "culpable" "criminal" "gross" "wicked" "clear" "complete". But whatever epithet be used and whether an epithet be be used or not, in order to establish criminal liability, the facts must be such that, in the opinion of the jury; the negligence of the prisoner went beyond a mere matter of compensation between subjects and showed such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the State and conduct deserving punishment".

You will find the same principle laid down in MML p.117 reading as follows: "Where death results from negligence it must be shown, in order to justify a conviction for manslaughter, that the negligence was so gross and culpable and showed such disregard for the life and safety of others as to amount to a crime against the state and to conduct deserving punishment. This agrees completely with Archbold.

There you have the legal definition of manslaughter. There must be neglect on the part of the accused, and you must be satisfied that the negligence was so great that it shows a disregard for the life and safety of others and amounts to a crime against the State. That is the question you have to decide from the evidence

Upon the evidence there is no dispute on the facts at all. The accident happened. I think you have a good picture how it happened. The facts are, the accused was driving this jeep, was passing some tanks. It is for you to decide, if, whether or not, in passing these tanks, in view of the visibility, this constituted such negligence as is essential on a manslaughter charge.

Before closing I must again direct the attention of the Court to Archbold, p.900, where it is provided that where alleged manslaughter is connected with the driving of a motor vehicle the accused may be convicted of the offence of reckless or dangerous driving under Section 11 of the Road Traffic Act; and, as I have already stated negligence must also exist to convict for reckless or dangeroud driving, but the negligence necessary here is not of so great a nature as that necessary for a conviction on the count of manslaughter.

Most of you are probably familiar with the term, but I will now define "reasonable dount" as it is understood in the law. Reasonable doubt is a doubt that arises out of the evidence or lack of evidence. It is such a doubt as would make a reasonable man in the conduct of his own affairs and in a matter of importance to him, pull up, hesitate, and seriously consider whether the thing he thinks of doing is right and wise. It must, however, be a real and substantial doubt; not for instance the idle reflection that nothing is perfectly certain in this life, It is a doubt that bases itself on serious gaps or loopholes in the evidence, that persists actively and positively. It is the doubt of a man who has heard and considered all the contentions of the prosecution, and yet who is not satisfied that the accused must have done what he is charged with doing.

If you feel such a doubt about the guilt of this soldier it is your duty to give him the benefit of your doubt and to acquit him. If, on the other handm you find no good grounds for doubt, if what you have heard results in your abiding conviction of his guilt it is equally your duty to convict.

If you have any question, either the prosecutor or defending officer on which you would desire me to advise the Court further please let me know.

While proceeding with my vehicle in the direction of Work we were travelling in a troop Block of four tanks, 60 yards between each of them. Because of a dense fog I was guiding my driver on his offside keeping him as close to the verge as possible. Previously I looked behind and noticed a jeep tailgating me. a few moments later the crash occurred without my seeing it. The driver of my vehicle pulled up immediately.

Q: Did you see the jeep alongside of the tank before
A: No.
Q: Could you see the other jeep approaching.
A: No, I never saw the jeep at all.

R. McCulloch Sgt.

Second Witness: 983194 L/Bdr. Collen, B. of the 63rd. Anti Tank Regiment R.A., Grove Park.

At 1800 hrs. on the 16 Feb 45, I was driving tracked Work Carrier on the right hand side of the road as much as possible under the assistance of my No. 1, 2983812 Sgt. McCulloch. I was driving at approx. 12 m.p.h. when I saw a jeep coming towards me on the other side of the road and suddenly from nowhere I saw the right hand wing of the jeep who was trying to overtake us. I immediately pulled on my brakes as hard as possible thus stalling my engine in stopping my vehicle.

Q: Was my vehicle not pulling ahead of the tank when you saw me.

A: As the light was poor, I saw the wing of the jeep very close to the wing of my track and I immediately stop my track. It was very hard to say whether the accident happened before or after I saw the jeep wing of the jeep.

Third Witness: T 60581 L/Cpl. Smith J.W. of R.A.S.C., 17th Highland Field Ambulance, sworne state:

At 1810 hrs. on the 15th. of Feb 45 I was in charge of a jeep WD 5826852, 5 cwt., proceeding along the Mook - Gennep Road in a southerly direction when I saw a tank coming in the opposite direction. I also saw a jeep coming in the opposite direction alongside the tank. The driver of my vehicle pulled into the side of the road as far as possible to allow the other jeep to get through. Then I heard a crash, the driver stopped and we got out to see what had happened. I saw that the near side tank had badly damaged the offside of the jeep, killing the passenger who was riding in front of the jeep. The visibility was very bad on account of a heavy fog.

The accused declines to cross-examine this Witness.

J. D. Smith.

Fourth Witness: Capt R.C. Wyld, of the 2nd Canadian Survey Regiment R.C.A., sworne. State:

On the 15 Feb 45 at 1300 hrs. Mr. Fayley received in my presence a written order to deploy an advance C.C.. Lieut Fayley told me he would leave immediately to deploy same and also that after his return from establishing the advance C.C. he had to report to a C.R.A's "O" Group.

At 1500 hrs. Lieut Fayley had not yet returned from establishing his advance R.C.. Knowing the distance he had to travel I did not then expect to see him until after C.R.A's "O" Group.

Mr. Fayley's own vehicle was in L.A.D. for repair and he had Gnr. Healey drive him on this duty.

At about 2015 hrs. Gnr. Healy reported to the Bty Orderly Room where I was on duty, that he had been in an accident and that Lieut Fayley, W.W. had been killed instantly.

I dispatched a party immediately, under Lt. G. McRae to return to scene of accident, and bring back to camp the body of Lieut Fayley.

The accused declines to cross-examine this Witness.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans no.(5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ~~C~~, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

(See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly, see RP 61.)

having been duly sworn states.

When I was in Hengelo, Holland with 46 Coy 13 Bn. 2 C.R.R.C. I went A.W.L. from this Coy in Holland to pick up personal belongings. I had the intention of returning the next morning but when I had got there the unit had left. I enquired at the Info Bureau & I was told that 46 Coy had moved back to Ghent. I hitched back to Ghent and was told 46 Coy were never here. Therefore I went back to Holland, went to several camps & enquired as to the whereabouts of 46 Coy — No one knew where it was. I then turned myself in to the C.H. of C. - H.Q.; the adj. turned me over to the 11th Provost Coy & they brought me back to 13 Bn in Ghent.

Question by Court.

Q Where was your Kit
A In Ghent at 2 C.R.R.C.
Q.A I had been 2 weeks at 46 Coy,
Q.A I was in Ghent about 4 hrs the first time I got my kit & went back to Holland the arrival at the unit he needed some second clothes which he had left in hospital back a day off unit on returning the following day found the unit had left.

He inquired as to its location, after going from one to the another he finally learned where the unit was located. Road conditions were terrible and traffic was limited

For his long total service he has still on his A.F.H.6

He asks the Court to be lenient in passing sentence so he may rejoin his unit as soon as possible

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No, sir (5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any pleas standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such pleas and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 90(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12346 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) (ii) At option of accused, statements by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-examn by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fns 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than on mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given on to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 865(a).)

The president having read to the accused para B2 on record form "B", the Judge Advocate addresses the accused:

I will endeavor to explain to you the effect of a plea of "guilty".

This court and the superior authority who convened this court are most anxious that your trial be fair and just beyond all possible doubt. If, therefore, you have been forced or induced to plead "guilty" by any threat of what would happen if you did not or any promise of a lighter sentence, then it is vital that you now understand that this court has no instrs as to what sentence to give you. If you have been led to think that your sentence would be less if you pleaded "guilty", I must advise you that such is not the case. In fact if you pleaded "not guilty" and witnesses were called, it is possible that facts might be adduced showing extenuating circumstances.

Now if you plead "guilty", no witnesses will be called by the prosecution but the summary of evidence which was taken in your presence will be read to the court so that it will know the circumstances surrounding the offence to which you have pleaded "guilty" in order that it, the court, may be helped in deciding what sentence they will award. Anything that you wish to say or any witnesses you wish to call will be heard and your defending officer may address the court on your behalf, but the whole proceedings will merely be a question of what sentence you are to be awarded.

You have pleaded "guilty" to "misbehaving before the enemy in such a manner as to show cowardice". This is a very serious charge and the court will have failed in its duty if it allows your plea of "guilty" to stand without being convinced beyond all possible doubt that you understand the charge and the effect of your plea of "guilty". This charge is constituted of four distinct elements. The prosecution alleges that all four elements were present when the alleged offence was committed. If you plead "guilty" you admit that all these elements were present, and if any one were not present then you should plead "not guilty". Those elements are:

(a) Misbehaviour: That means that you did something which you should not have done, something which, even if it had not been accompanied by the presence of the enemy or by cowardice, would still be misbehaviour.

(b) Before the enemy: The prosecution further alleges that that misbehaviour happened in a place in which the enemy was substantially making his presence felt. To be "before the enemy" either you must be a member of a body in direct contact with the enemy, e g, making or repelling an assault or a raid; or you must be in an area in which the enemy is substantially making his presence felt, e g, by close shelling or action by aircraft.

(c) The prosecution alleges cowardice. I doubt if there is any need for me to endeavor to define cowardice. The particulars of the charge allege that "from an unsoldierlike regard for his personal safety in the presence of the enemy (you) failed to obey an order to attack with his pl". If you plead "guilty" you admit to this.

(d) The fourth element is that the cowardice was shown. This means that the prosecution alleges that your actions were seen either by the enemy or by our own troops and that those actions were of such a nature that, if seen by the enemy, it was encouraging to the enemy; or, if seen by our own troops, were discouraging and demoralizing to our own troops. The prosecution alleges that not only were your services lost through the cowardice but that it was of such a nature as to be demoralizing to our own troops who were present.

Now if you plead "guilty" you admit that all of these elements were present. If you do not understand anything that I have said or if there be any point of law that you do not understand, the court will close and you may consult me as judge advocate. Do you wish to consult me and do you wish to make any statement now?

Answer: No, sir.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans No, sir (5)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS : When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows :

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states :

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam : He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam : None.

Exam by Court : He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 81.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 865(a).)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked " Confidential ", or as otherwise directed.

The president having read to the accused para 82 on record form "B", the Judge Advocate addresses the accused:

I will endeavor to explain to you the effect of a plea of "guilty".

This court and the superior authority who convened this court are most anxious that your trial be fair and just beyond all possible doubt. If, therefore, you have been forced or induced to plead "guilty" by any threat of what would happen if you did not or any promise of a lighter sentence, then it is vital that you now understand that this court has no instrs as to what sentence to give you. If you have been led to think that your sentence would be less if you pleaded "guilty", I must advise you that such is not the case. In fact if you pleaded "not guilty" and witnesses were called, it is possible that facts might be adduced showing extenuating circumstances.

Now if you plead "guilty", no witnesses will be called by the prosecution but the summary of evidence which was taken in your presence will be read to the court so that it will know the circumstances surrounding the offence to which you have pleaded "guilty" in order that it, the court, may be helped in deciding what sentence they will award. Anything that you wish to say or any witnesses you wish to call will be heard and your defending officer may address the court on your behalf, but the whole proceedings will merely be a question of what sentence you are to be awarded.

You have pleaded "guilty" to "misbehaving before the enemy in such a manner as to show cowardice". This is a very serious charge and the court will have failed in its duty if it allows your plea of "guilty" to stand without being convinced beyond all possible doubt that you understand the charge and the effect of your plea of "guilty". This charge is constituted of four distinct elements. The prosecution alleges that all four elements were present when the alleged offence was committed. If you plead "guilty" you admit that all these elements were present, and if any one were not present then you should plead "not guilty". Those elements are:

(a) Misbehaviour: That means that you did something which you should not have done, something which, even if it had not been accompanied by the presence of the enemy or by cowardice, would still be misbehaviour.

(b) Before the enemy: The prosecution further alleges that that misbehaviour happened in a place in which the enemy was substantially making his presence felt. To be "before the enemy" either you must be a member of a body in direct contact with the enemy, e.g., making or repelling an assault or a raid; or you must be in an area in which the enemy is substantially making his presence felt, e.g., by close shelling or action by aircraft.

(c) The prosecution alleges cowardice. I doubt if there is any need for me to endeavor to define cowardice. The particulars of the charge allege that "from an unsoldierlike regard for his personal safety in the presence of the enemy (you) failed to obey an order to attack with his pl". If you plead "guilty" you admit to this.

(d) The fourth element is that the cowardice was shown. This means that the prosecution alleges that your actions were seen either by the enemy or by our own troops and that those actions were of such a nature that, if seen by the enemy, it was encouraging to the enemy; or, if seen by our own troops, were discouraging and demoralizing to our own troops. The prosecution alleges that not only were your services lost through the cowardice but that it was of such a nature as to be demoralizing to our own troops who were present.

Now if you plead "guilty" you admit that all of these elements were present. If you do not understand anything that I have said or if there be any point of law that you do not understand, the court will close and you may consult me as Judge Advocate. Do you wish to consult me and do you wish to make any statement now?

Accused: No, sir.

The Commanding Officer directs the evidence be taken on oath

1st Witness for the Prosecution

A71032 Sjt Collings G A, 1st Bn The QOR of C, CAO, BWEF having been duly sworn states:-

I am pl sjt of 10 Pl, B Coy. I attended a briefing by Capt Elliott, my coy comd, about 2230 hrs 20 Sep 44 in connection with a platoon attack that night on an enemy position. All the platoon NCOs were there and afterwards the section leaders returned to their sections to brief them. The section leaders then brought their sections to pl HQ for pl briefing by me, and to leave their equipment. While I was briefing Rfn Dobson said he would not go into the attack and other men appeared very nervous. I reported this to Captain Elliott and he told me to ask for volunteers. There were insufficient so Capt Elliott told me to order the whole platoon to proceed on the operation. I did so. As I could see that Rfn Dobson and several others were going to refuse and as I wanted to get started, I asked if there were any who absolutely refused to go. B155177 Rfn Heastont J N D whom I recognize as the accused said he refused to go. I don't remember his exact words. A number of others also refused so I took their names and after consulting Capt Elliott placed them under close arrest. I then proceeded on the operation with the remaining part of the platoon. attack on an enemy position that night. The accused told me he was too nervous and shaky to go and would do more harm than good to the section. When Sjt Collings at the pl briefing told us that the entire pl would proceed on the operation and asked if there were any who absolutely refused to go, the accused turned in his name as so refusing.

ADDITIONAL SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case

B155177 Rfn Heastont, J H D, 1st Bn The Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, CAO, BWEF.

The Commanding Officer directs the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION

Capt H C F Elliot, 1st Bn The Q O R of C, CAO, BWEF, being duly sworn states. I was temporary comd of B Coy, 1st Bn The Q O R of C on the night of 20 Sep 44. My coy had taken up positons in partly demolished buildings approximately 100 yards from an enemy strong point . The coy had been under spasmodic fire from the position for approximately 24 hours. The platton to which the accused belonged had the day before been detailed along with supporting arms to attempt to enter the positions. The A.V.R.E.s were unable to make a gap in the wall surrounding the strong point, so the attack was called off. About 1600 hours 20 Sep 44 there were violent explosions in the enemy positions causing a portion of the wall to be blown away. I ordered the beforementioned platoon to enter the enemy position by night through the gap to obtain a foothold and fire the rest of the coy in. The operation was a complete success.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or give any evidence? You are not obliged to do so, but if you do it will be taken down and may be used in evidence." The accused declined to make a statement or give evidence.

I certify that the foregoing additional Summary of Evidence consisting of two pages was taken down by me in the field in the presence of the accused and that all relevant Rules of Procedure were complied with:

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence

I am going to ask all of you to consider all the points that have been brought to you by the several witnesses and before you come to a decision I will ask you to have mercy on B/155177 Rfn J M D Heastont, a soldier of "B" Coy QOR of C. I had an interview with him yesterday and he admits that as soon as he gets under fire or shelling he does not trust his nerves at all. He should be brought in front of a M C for a board. This is no chance to take because a man without nerves is a danger to his friends and you know how important in this war it is for a soldier to have good nerves. I ask the mercy of the court to consider all the facts brought to you before you come to a decision.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 42 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades."

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than on mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 9-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 60 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 48(E), KR Con 562(a).)

Plea in Mitigation

This soldier on application to the Padre for marriage was told that the unit (1 CKD) was not holding anyone back from draft for marriage.

He has been an E.P.O.W. for 4 mths and has been in the army 4 years or very nearly

After he was told by the Padre that he probably would not be able to stay in the U.K. he went to E.P.O.W. Wing 1 CKD to see if he could get a job in the Provost of this unit. The Sergeant he saw said he would see on words to that effect.

Nothing happened however and the next day he was led to believe that he would be going out on draft the next day.

This soldier's record is good. Any crimes he has had have been minor as is shown in the evidence for the prosecution. For this reason, his good service, and his desire to get married a very human feeling and desire when one meets the person he loves I request that the court show leniency in awarding the punishment.

(a) He is in possession of a properly completed work ticket.

(b) He is in possession of MT Drivers Regulations.

(c) He is a qualified driver and has been entered as such in Unit Orders or Casualty Returns.

(G. W. Cote) Captain and Adjutant.

Note 1

Closing Address by the Defending Officer:

I am Capt W.D. HUMPHREY, 27 Cdn Armd Regt. I have known the accused since he was recruited in 1940 and was in the same squadron for almost a year. He was a good soldier a hard worker with a good sense of respensibility and I would trust him in all circumstances for any duty expected of a troop serjeant.

Note 2

W. A. Lamb Pvt.

Statement by the Accused:

I don't really think there is very much I can say. I am guilty of this charge. You see it was Christmas day and we had been having a few drinks, so we decided to take the veh and I drove it. It is the first time since I have been in the Army I have been on any charge, and I can assure you that this accident was purely accidental. But so far as the charge is concerned I guess I am guilty.

Closing Address of Defending Officer

Defending Officer submits that this is not a case where the Mosaic Law of "an eye for an eye or a tooth for a tooth" should be considered by the Court. The Accused has stated, and it is reasonable to believe him, that there were serious queries arising from his act the gravity of which were inconceivable at the time of its ~~commission~~ commission.

The Accused is a young soldier of the Canadian Army — 23 years old with 3½ years' record of service. He came Overseas in 1941, rejoined his Regiment in 1942. He is a Troop Sergeant in his Squadron and his record is clean up to the present.

In no way lessening the gravity of the charge but in mitigation of punishment, it should be pointed out that the accident out of which the charge arose occurred on Christmas night, after the traditional Army Christmas, at which free beer ~~etc~~ is liberally distributed. The Accused drove the vehicle in question, but he was in company of two older and senior sergeants, who, if they had done their duty, would have ensured that the Accused did not commit such a breach of Standing Orders. Charges against the two Sergeants in question have been dealt with.

From the view point of pure justice, there is no question but that any punishment this Court, or any other Court, may deem to mete out to the Accused, will fall far short of the punishment his own conscience is inflicting and will continue to inflict upon him. He knows that he is responsible. (But, it is submitted, the responsibility is not entirely his) for a mishap, the result of which a comrade in arms has lost his life. The Accused will have an opportunity in the near future, of expiating his crime against his conscience, on the field of battle.

In view of the clean record of the Accused, it is submitted that K. R. & O. (Can), Par. 412, is applicable.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

D-46231 Sergeant Harold Mottram HEATH

27 Cdn Armd Regt (SPR)

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: D-11663 SERGEANT LEITH, S. P., 27 Cdn Armd Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am D-11663 Sgt Leith, S. P., of the 27th Cdn Armd Regt and on the evening of 25 Dec 45 I was in the bar of the Ashley Hotel having a drink with some friends. I left the hotel bar shortly after closing time at 2200 hours. I went out and got into the cab of a 60 cwt truck. I heard some men get into the back of the truck, but I couldn't identify them at the time owing to the darkness. I was riding as co-driver and we started for New Milton. We had only gone a short distance when two men waved us to stop. I could not identify these men because of the dark. We started off again, travelled a few hundred yards and we started down a hill. We were travelling at approximately 15 m.p.h. I would judge then Sgt Heath, who was driving, geared down. There was a number of pedestrians walking on the road to New Milton, who I think had come from the pub. We were still travelling about 15 m.p.h. when we reached the bottom of the hill. Due to pedestrians the truck was so far over to the right of the road that we could not make the turn and hit an electric light pole which was situated on the right edge of the road. I did not see the corner myself until it would have been too late to turn the truck, as the night was very dark and visibility was poor because of a mist. The driver stopped the truck for a moment and then he went on again as if to get back on the road and then stopped again. Someone shouted that somebody was hurt in the back and we got out of the truck. While Sgt Heath was talking to Sgt Beardsley, I looked over the truck. Sgt Heath came over to me and told me that Sgt Beardsley was taking charge of the situation. A crowd began to gather and at that time Sgt Heath and I started to walk home.

Q. Do you know whether or not Sgt Heath had a properly authorized work ticket ?

A. He did not have a properly authorized work ticket.

Q. What was the condition of the road ?

A. Slippery owing to the mist.

Q. Were the lights good ?

A. As far as I remember, yes.

Q. Was the night very dark ?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you see Sgt Heath drink on the night of 25 Dec 43 ?

A. He was in the pub with us but I do not remember having seen him actually drink.

Q. Did you go up to the pub with Sgt Heath ?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. When Sgt Heath was driving back from the pub was he driving recklessly or was he driving carefully in regards to the slippery road and the dark night ?

A. I would say he was driving very carefully.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(D-11663 Sgt Leith, S. F)

SECOND WITNESS D-46374 SERGEANT BEARDSLEY, R. R., 27 Cdn Armd Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am D-46374 Sgt Beardsley, R. R., 27 Cdn Armd Regt. I arrived at the Ashley bar on the evening of 25 Dec 43 shortly after nine with some friends. At the bar I had a few drinks of beer. We left the Ashley bar a little after 2200 hours and came out into the yard, and while in the yard I saw a truck in the darkness. I asked where it was going and when I found out it was going to New Milton I got in. The truck left the yard and started towards New Milton at 2215 hours or 2220 hours. A minute or two after we left the hotel the truck slowed down and somebody got aboard. There were two people. I did not recognise them as it was dark. We then proceeded down the road at a moderate speed for a short distance and I knew we were going downhill from the feel of the truck. I heard the driver gear down and the truck slowed down. Almost immediately the truck left the road and we struck something. After the truck stopped it started again and ran for a short distance over very rough ground and stopped again. I got out of the truck at once and there seemed to be a commotion in the back and I heard someone say that a man was hurt and they called for a light. Someone flashed a light in the back of the truck and I heard someone say that Tpr McPhee had been hurt. Several people had gathered around the truck and I told a soldier to go and phone for an ambulance or to get a doctor and I was told that someone had gone. I had seen that Tpr McPhee had sustained head injuries and was bleeding profusely and I told the man in the truck not to attempt to move him until the ambulance had arrived. As soon as the ambulance arrived I asked the crowd to give them room to get the man out onto a stretcher. After the man was placed on the stretcher I told Tpr Mallard to accompany Tpr McPhee to the hospital and turn in a report to our office as soon as he found out how badly he was injured. The police were there by this time and I asked permission to move the truck to our lines. This was granted and I brought the truck home to our lines. I reported the accident to Lieut Grainger at the squadron office.

Q. Do you know who was driving this vehicle ?

A. Sgt Heath.

Q. Did you see Sgt Heath drink on this night of 25 Dec 43 ?

A. I do not remember having seen him actually drink.

Q. Did you see Sgt Heath in the pub ?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. At about what time ?

A. Sometime between 2115 and 2200 hours.

Q. When driving back was the vehicle being driven recklessly or not ?

A. In my opinion it was not being driven recklessly.

Q. Was the night very dark ?

A. It was, Sir.

Q. Were you with Sgt Heath in the pub ?

A. Yes, Sir.

Q. Did you speak to Sgt Heath before you started back from the pub ?

A. Yes, Sir. I was talking to him in the pub at various times.

Q. Did Sgt Heath appear to have been drinking and intoxicated ?

A. No, he did not appear to have been drinking to excess, and he was not intoxicated.

Plea for Mitigation in the case of D-125098 Pte. Heath J.

The Defence wishes to draw the attention of the Court to the following facts which appear relevant to Pte Heath's plea.

Firstly. Pte Heath has served in as a rifleman with the 42nd Lincoln Regiment of Canada on the Italian theatre where he was taken prisoner of war on 20th Dec 43. During his connection as a prisoner of war in Germany, which it will be noted took place in the middle of winter, Pte Heath underwent an harrowing experience. Due to allied bombing, the prisoner of war train was found it necessary in a railway tunnel for seven full days. The prisoners were crowded to the extent of fifty men to a small continental box car. For seven days in complete darkness & freezing cold with little food & water & under fear of the destruction of the tunnel by bombs many of the prisoners became hysterical & out of hand. On many arrival at Weimar many of the prisoners were transported for first aid. It is felt that this experience has quite likely influenced on the accused a nervous strain which will require a considerable time to eradicate Secondly. On return to the United Kingdom in April 1945 Pte Heath went through a period of frustration. At that time due to the fact that he had not been a prisoner for six months he was not allowed to return to Canada. Next, he had some difficulty in obtaining furlough to marry. When this was finally settled to his satisfaction, he was refused permission to return to his Regiment which was then in North West Europe. Instead he was placed on a Base Camp; a course in which he had not the slightest interest.

Thirdly Thirdly it will be noted that prior to his return as released prisoner of war Pte Heath's infractions of military regulations have been of a comparatively minor nature. In addition while in a theatre of operations the accused was guilty of no serious infractions of discipline.

In summing up the Defence respectfully urges the Court to do so with a view to ~~Summary~~ Leniency take into consideration the above noted facts.

(Referred to throughout CF A 94 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 89(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 85(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 46 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

Statement as to Character of Lt. Heath

Attached letter states that Heath, while a pte, was doing work normally assigned to an officer. He was inspecting & reporting on the efficiency of Italian personnel employed by A.M.G., and investigating the availability of certain materials to be requisitioned by the A.M.G.

Heath was, in fact, acting as a personal representative of Major Sutherland* doing much of his work for him. He held the position for about a year.

Since he was doing an officer's job, & was considered capable of doing this for ten months, there can be little doubt that Heath was a responsible man, a man who can be trusted & very definitely a soldier of excellent character.

* Major Sutherland was chief of the Agricultural Labour Section, Allied Control Commission

SUBJECT : Forestry Inspection Trip.

1. The bearer, W-16178 Pte Heath, W.F. R.E.C.M.P. accompanied by Dott. Dino Crivillari of the Ministry of Agriculture & Forests, will visit your province during the month of September to inspect and report on the availability of fuel-wood and charcoal, and the efficiency of Italian office personnel in the Forestry Department of the Ministry.

2. It is realised that a private soldier carrying out duties normally assigned to an officer may be at a disadvantage in making certain contacts. It is therefore requested that you give Pte Heath, who is an experienced forester, the necessary facilities to carry out his task.

Excellent record of service:—

5½ yrs in army – gave up good position to enlist at outbreak of war.
5 yrs 4 mos overseas
Was in original landings in Sicily
Was wounded in Sicily, returned to regiment & fought all thru the Sicilian campaign & up thru Italy until after Orvieto was taken.
He has participated in some of the hardest fighting of the war.

Since February of last year he has served with the HLI as Company Commander in a very responsible position, & strong testimonials as to his good character.

∴ This man has had a long & excellent record of service & has certainly taken a long & hard part in the war.

In all this 5½ yrs served, he has never had a serious charge laid against him — only 3 very minor offences!

Other Extenuating Circumstances:—

1. Married, ∴ will suffer if pay cut
2. Mother died shortly after he joined army
   Father died in Jan. 44
   Asked for compassionate leave at the time but did not receive it.
3. When with the H.C.C. he was the only Canadian among many Americans & English & consequently was made to feel an outsider among them.

He was the only pte among many officers of the Coy because he had also many of was of a lower rank he could not associate with the other on an equal footing, even tho he was doing equally responsible work.

As a result of these acts, Heath reported & asked for a transfer, to be returned to the unit, the P.P.C.L.I, but was not transferred

4 He did not go absent from the line, but found a less job — a much less serious affair

5 Has already spent 61 days in military confinement

In view of Heath's very fine record both in action & in other work, & considering his clear crime sheet & other extenuating circumstances I regret that court is unable to deal any more leniently with him.

(Documents read, marked "Y" and "Z" respectively, signed by the President, and attached to the proceedings).

No cross-examination.

The accused does not desire to give evidence or make a statement in mitigation or to call witnesses as to character, but desires that the Defending Officer make a plea in his behalf.

Defending Officer:--The accused has been fit to acknowledge all that he has been charged with, both on the present occasion and his past record, as read by the Prosecutor.

The case of the accused is this: I have known him for a period of time as a good workman, but one who possesses very little will power, he is easily led. This may account for the fact that his record shows he has been in trouble frequently. Recently he has been ill, partially due to his work in hot kitchens for which he had to receive medical treatment for his legs. From my experience with the man I would say that while his work is good he suffers from what we call "browned off". A cook in the Army is not usually looked upon as a very intelligent person, but there has never been any question regarding the accused's work, only his conduct, while on duty. This particular charge against him he doesn't deny, he doesn't even wish to question it, or the officer who states that certain property is missing from the mess.

It is possible that on that night prior to the commission of this offence that he had been drinking, he had been down in Horsted Keynes. If you look over his crime sheet you will see that periodically he has to get relief due to his nature and his work, and being of a weak nature and possibly not possessed of as great an amount of will power as others he lets himself feel the strain.

There is no option for the court, he has pleaded guilty, but what can the court do with this man, We frequently have clinics before which men are brought to take them from one job to another with the idea of making him a better man. This man is a cook and has been kept at it; each time he has committed an offence he has had to go back to it, it is the only job he knows. Nevertheless for his type it doesn't allow him that freedom the ordinary tpr will get.

You have this man, you are about to render your decision as to what should be done with him. The Judge Advocate has stressed the maximum sentence and also the lesser amount. No matter what you do in the way of sentence I suggest that you consider carefully what you are doing and do the right thing by him. In sentencing him to a severe punishment whathave you accomplished? He is of no use serving a heavy term of detention, and in all probability he will come back to a cooking job and all will have to be done over again. I suggest that when his sentence expires he be taken and given a different type of work, that should complete part of his punishment because he would be learning a new trade, would add to this man a certain amount of hardship. Therefore I ask the court to consider what he has done in the past and why he has done it, He must h have some reason to make him periodically break away from his duties. He himself doesn't want to get up and say he was intoxicated, he doesn't dery it, his guilt he admits. I am asking the court to consider the possibility of changing this man's character by their sentence. As I have already stated, to send him to detention for a stated length of time and bring him back to the same work is only reopening this case at a future date, therefore you gentlemen have the power to do justice to the accused when I ask you to take into consideration the points brought out.

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

SENTENCE

The court sentence the accused, B-109,Tpr.Donald Ernest Heather, Div Hq Sqn (6RCH) 5 Cdn Armd Div, to undergo detention for 150 days and to be put under stoppages of pay until he has made good the value of the following, the property of Div Hq Sqn (6RCH) 5 Cdn Armd Div Officers' Mess:--

FIRST WITNESS — L-55688 Tpr Frape, H.V., Div HQ Sqn (6RCH) 5 Cdn Armd Div, Cdn Army Active Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

"Sir I am a Trooper in the Scout Car Troop, Div HQ Sqn (6RCH) 5 Cdn Armd Div, stationed in the Field. On the night of the 13/14th Jan 43, when on duty at the 6th Hussars Officers' Mess as guard and for the purpose of answering the telephone, also for the purpose of checking the fires. At approximately 0130 hrs Tpr Heather came into the Officers' Mess and told me the blackout was shining. I looked at it and said there was nothing I could do about it and then he asked me to go into the kitchen to have a cup of tea. I thought it was a good idea because I felt cold and tired. I went into the kitchen with him. When I got to the kitchen Tpr Gibson was there and between the two of them I had a cup of tea and a sandwich. When I was eating the sandwich and cup of tea Tpr Heather went out of the kitchen and he came back in shortly after. He went out again immediately and I followed him to fix the fires which tooke me about five minutes. After fixing the fires I went immediately into the mess. When I got into the mess I found Tpr Heather with the bar door open and inside the bar. I asked him why and exactly what he was doing and he told me that he was starting to pack up for when they moved out in the morning. I did not think anything wrong in that so I let him go along with what he was doing. I did not see him carry anything out and that was the last I saw of Tpr Heather and Tpr Gibson.

The accused declined to cross-examine.

On the morning of the 14 Jan 43 I arose at 0630 hrs and woke the batmen for duty. I then proceeded to call the cook, Tpr Heather, who I found to be absent and his bed had not been slept in. I reported these facts to the Orderly Serjeant. At about 0900 hrs I went to open the bar at the Officers' Mess but could not turn the lock. I noticed that the door to the bar had been jimmied so I got in touch with Mr Lennox at the Camp Comdt's Office and reported these facts to him. I then waited until the Officers returned at lunch time also reporting the state of the lock to them."

The accused declined to cross-examine.

The following morning, 14 Jan 43, at 1000 hrs I went to get my vehicle from the car park and discovered it was gone. Sir:

1. At Haywards Heath, Sussex, on 15 Jan. 43 I was N.C.O. i/c of town patrol. At about 0030 hrs. I was standing near the Civil Police Station when a 5 cwt utility car drove up and the driver asked L/Cpl. Cowan, No. 5 Provost Coy., who was with me, the road to Woking, Surrey. I asked the driver for his work ticket which I saw was out of order and made out to D-121211 Tpr. Beaul[illegible], H.Q. Sqn. 5 C.A.D. I then asked the driver for his name and number which he gave as B-108 Tpr. Gibson, G., H.Q. Sqn. 5 C.A.D. The other soldier in the car was B-109 Tpr. Heather, D.E. of the same unit

B1. The President ~~and JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. Nil (5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accsd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accsd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 41.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 66(E), KR Can 565(a).)

Statement, UNDER OATH by. FARMS Dict

D-139697 Pte Arthur HEBERT.

At approximately 1900 hrs 14 Nov. 44. I was on duty in a slit trench on the front line. I was very nervous + shaking and realized that I could not stand it any longer. I asked a comrade Pte Boudreau J. to take me back to Pl HQ to see the officer. I stayed there about half an hour. Then Capt Ansell ordered me back to my slit trench. I told him I was unable to do so. He then called for Sgt Gagné and gave me an order to get out and go to my position. I kept silent and after a while Capt Ansell said: "Are you going back." I answered: "No" I stayed there. At that stage the enemy started to infiltrate through our lines and I got more nervous. Capt Ansell told me to stay where I was and that he would send me back the following day. At breakfast time the following morning Sgt Gagné was leaving the Pl. duty area when Capt Ansell told me to go with him. I went back to the kitchen 200 or 300 yards back and stayed there. I was still dark after breakfast so I decided it was No use to go and see the M.O. at that time so I decided to wait I went to the M.O. around 9 a.m. (0900 hrs) 13 Nov. 44. The M.O. gave me 4 pills and told me to ask my Captain to let me rest for the day. As the Captain was I in front and nobody could proceed from the Kitchen to the front line in daylight because of the open ground I decided to go from A the R.A.P to A ech. as there was no hope to rest at the kitchen in day time. I had lunch at A ech and I asked for a soldiers to lend me his blankets and was fixing myself to bed when the afternoon parade was called After parade I went to sleep I got up for dinner and the C&M told me I was on guard duty the night. I never at any time had the intention to desert and had had that intention I would have gone away for good and would not have stayed at one A ech

I gave him time to recuperate as he was nervous and shaky, after about 30 minutes, I thought that this would be long enough to recuparate from the shock, I ordered him to return to his slit trench and he refused to do so, I gave him this order in the presence of E-10289 Sgt Gagne L. (who is evacuated now as a casualty). I explained to Pte Hebert A. what the consequences would be if he refused the order and still he refused to go back, he stayed in my Pl.HQ. dugout all night and he was shaking through the night. The next morning he went out for breakfast and did not come back. I did not give him permission to stay behind at the kitchen and he never asked me to goto see the M.O.

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution. See schedule being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Witness in the case of E.5391 Pte. Azade HEBERT, R.22e R.

FIRST WITNESS: E.5898 Sgt. M. Asselin R.22e R. having been duly sworn states:- I am Platoon Sgt in #7 Platoon of A Coy. My Plt Comdr went with the Sec Leaders to make a recce at approx 1830 hrs 14 Mar 44. This recce was made to find out the sections positions prior to the attack; the attack was to capture a group of houses known as Kingbird. The accused, whom I now recognise, was part of the recce, as Platoon runner. I formed up the Platoon at approx 1840 hrs to meet the recce. When the recce arrived I am not sure if the accused was present. We attacked at approx 1945 hrs. After the attack we occupied a position to the left of Kingbird. I asked my section Cmdrs if there were anybody absent in their sections and I personally checked my Plt H.Q. There were a few absent in the sections and Pte Hebert was absent from my H.Q. I saw him again the following morning when, we returned to our billets at approx 0600 hrs. I am sure that the accused was present on the recce and that he knew of the impending attack. I was present when the Platoon Comdr warned them of the attack.

Cross examined by Defence

Q. Did your Platoon Cmdr come back to the F.V.P. after his Recce?
A. Yes, he came back.

Q. Was Pte Hebert with him?
A. I am not sure if he was with him.

"R.McD.H"

(The Judge Cmdg)

Q. When you attacked was the Platoon Cmdr near you?
A. He was approx 50 yds ahead.

Q. Was Pte Hebert with him?
A. I am not sure.

Q. Was it dark?
A. Yes, it was dark.

Q. Was it possible that Pte Hebert could have got lost?
A. Unless the officer sent him on a special errand it would have been impossible to lose himself had he followed the others.

Q. Could Pte Hebert's absence be explained by the fact that he had become a casualty?
A. No, it is impossible, because there were no enemy shells fired at us, nor, H.G. till we reached the objective.

R.P. 83'b) complied with.

Court adjourned 1105 - resumed 1325.

Instruction. † In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

ADDRESS BY DEFENCE

Mr. President
Gentlemen

It is clear that the prosecution has failed to prove it's case against the accused K.5393 Pte. Hebert, A. The prosecution's only witness has stated that the accused was seen performing his duties as runner prior to the attack and cannot definitely state that the runner was not accompanying his platoon commander when the platoon left for the attack. Furthermore the accused's absence was discovered only after the attack was over together with that of many others. Was it not possible that the Pl Cdr. had sent his runner in an errand, to report to Coy H.Q. for instance and that the said runner got lost in the darkness? There again the prosecution's witness cannot deny that. He admits it himself that this is a possibility. The accused was not a trained runner and was not trained or familiar with the duties and responsibilities of a runner. If he lost his way, rather than risk ending up in enemy lines he took the wiser course of going back to his billets and await the return of the platoon. To find a person guilty of desertion one must prove the intention of leaving his Majesty's Service. This is not the case. The man was definitely on the job. Pte Hebert has a good record. He landed in Sicily and Italy with his unit and took part in all his unit's operations. His conduct sheet shows but minor offences committed during non-operational periods. With these facts in mind I move that this court find Pte. Hebert not guilty of the charge laid against him.

"L. DesRosiers" Lieut.
Defending Officer.

Finding.*

*To be struck out except in cases where trial has taken place on a plea of "Not Guilty."

The Court is closed for the consideration of the finding.

The Court find that the accused E.5393 Pte Agade HERBERT R.22R guilty of the charge.

Proceedings on Conviction before Sentence.

*When the Court is already open this sentence will be struck out. Evidence of character, &c.

*The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it.

Lieut P.A. Trembley is duly sworn.

Question by the President.

Have you any evidence to produce as to the character and particulars of service of the accused? Answer by the Witness. Yes

The above statement (with the schedule of convictions and of cases in which trial has been dispensed with) is read, marked D&E signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Question by the President.

Is the accused the person named in the statement which you have heard read? Answer by the Witness. Yes

Question.

Have you compared the contents of the above statement with the regimental books? Answer. Yes

Question

Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and is the statement of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries? Answer. Yes

Cross-examined by the accused.

No

[Observation.—If in respect of the nature of the service of the accused in a supplementary charge or otherwise the finding of the Court imports the liability to any exceptional punishment on the ground that it be assented by the Court the prosecutor must call the attention of the Court to the fact, and the Court must enquire into the nature and amount of that additional punishment.]

Question to the accused.

Do you wish to address the Court? Answer. No

The Court is closed for the consideration of the sentence.

Mr President addressing by Defence

Gentlemen

It is clear that the prosecution has failed to prove it's case against the accused E 5393 Ck H Ghat A. The prosecution's only witness has stated that the accused was seen performing his duties as runner prior to the attack and cannot definitely state that the runner was not accompanying his platoon commander when the platoon left for the attack. Furthermore the accused's absence was discovered only after the attack was all together with that of many others. Was it not possible that the pl. cdr. had sent his runner on on ward, to report to Bde Coy H.Q. for instructions and that the said runner got lost in the darkness? Then again the prosecution's witness cannot deny that. He admits it himself that this is a possibility. The accused was not a trained runner and was not trained as familiar with the duties and responsibilities of a runner. If he lost his way, rather than risk ending up in enemy lines he took the most course of going back to his billets and await the return of the platoon. To find a person guilty of desertion one must prove the intention of leaving His Majesty's forces. This is not the case. The man was definitely on the job. Pte Hibbert has a good record. He landed in Sicily and Italy with his unit and took part in all the unit's operations. His record sheet shows but minor offences committed during non-operational periods. With these facts in mind I move that this court find Pte Hibbert not guilty of the charge laid against him.

EXIBIT "A"

In the case of E.5393 Pte. Hebert A., Royal 22e Regiment.

Lieut. F. de St-Victor, Royal 22e Regiment.

" I am the platoon commander of no. 7 pl. of "A" Coy, Royal 22e Regiment. On 14 Mar 44 at about 1800 hrs, I warned E.5393 Pte. Hebert A. that he would act as my runner during the attack on Kingbird that night. I told him he was to follow me wherever I went. I made a recce of the objective with my section comdrs and returned to Coy HQ. E.5393 Pte Hebert A. followed all the way. When I went to the F.U.P., to inspect my platoon, Pte. Hebert A. came with me but left me at this point as when we moved forward for the attack. He was nowhere to be found. I did not see him until the following morning at about 0900 hrs.

EXIBIT "B"

E.5898 Sgt. Asselin M. Royal 22e Regiment.

" I am platoon sergeant of no. 7 pl. at about 1830 hrs on 14 Mar 44, Lieut de St-Victor my platoon commander, made a recce with the section commanders with a view to attaking Kingbird (an enemy outpost). E.5393 Pte Hebert A. acted as runner and went with the pl. comd on the recce. I brought the platoon to the F.U.P. at about 1845 hrs and when my officer returned with the section commanders, Pte. Hebert A. was with him. At about 1915 we attacked, then occupied a defensive position on the left of Kingbird. Lieut de St-Victor then checked the platoon and asked me if I had seen [illegible] E.5393 Pte. Hebert A. as he was not with the pl scout, I answered no, as he was not with me nor had I seen him since the time we left the F.U.P. I did not see him until I returned to the Coy billets the next morning at about 0900 hrs.

Witness states that he sent accused to relieve Pte Starr and to take over duties from approximately 1730 hrs until 0800 hrs the following morning.
Witness stated in reply to question that he did not personally warn the accused; sent a man to inform him - told him to get an early meal and take a haversack ration.
Witness states in reply to question that he forgets who it was whom he told to to warn the accused, and then states: "No; it was Pte Stoddard".

Witness not questioned by the defense.

K29114 Cpl Redge, T. L. 4 Cdn Provost Coy, having been duly sworn, states, when questioned by the prosecution:
" My duties on the evening 31 Mar 44 were to patrol Newport, ICW".
" At approximately 2330 hrs 31 Mar44 I checked a Cdn veh parked near a house on Hunny Hill, accompanied by my patrol. I went to check the veh and at the same time two civs emerged from it. I asked them what they were doing in the veh; they replied that they had been picked up approximately half the way between Brock and Newport. I asked the dvr for his work ticket, which he could not produce . I then had two of my patrol escort the dvr and veh to the police stn at Newport; L there checked his identity and phoned his unit for escort to come and get him".

" I definitely saw the civs getting out of the veh".

" I asked the civs right then and they replied that thaey had been picked up as stated".

The witness identifies the accused.

Witness questioned by the defence:

Witness states he was travelling in a 15 cwt vehwith his patrol.

Witness states, when questioned regarding a slight difference between his verbal evidence given here in respect to the place where the veh driven by the accused was parked when checked, and that given in his documentary evidence, that he has since seen the place where the veh was parked by day, and that there is only one house there; therefore it is correct to state that the veh was parked beside a house and not between two houses.

"No, it was not particularly dark that night".

"The civs were just getting out of the veh; the dvr was in the veh at the time".

Witness questioned by the president:

Witness stated that the civs were identified as civs by civ police; they were young lads of about 15 to 16 years of age.

A7o217 L cpl Gailus, J.P. , 4 Cdn Provost Coy:having been duly sworn, states,

"At Newport, IOW, at approximately 2330 hrs 31 Mar 44 we were proceeding home from patrol; we stopped at a cafe to get two of our boys, and as we did so, noticed a civ enter a WD veh parked in a lane; Cpl Hedge and myself noted the veh and I asked the dvr what he was doing with civs in his truck. He replied that he was giving them a ride into Newport. I then asked him for his work ticket which he could not produce. His breath was strong with alcohol; I asked him if he had been drinking and he said 'NO'. I then escorted him to the police station. As I got out of the veh I kicked two bottles of beer, one full, one half-full. When asked whose they were, the accused replied that they were the civs'. An escort was then arranged for the accused and a receipt obtainedon arrival of the escort.

Witness questioned by the prosecution:

Witness states he definitely saw civs enter the veh.

Witness states that he ordered them out of the veh.

Witness has no idea where the petrol pump is that the accused was to have served.

Witness,questioned by the prosecution, states:

" We were proceeding home to Yarmouth at approximately 2330 hrs. Going up the hill, we saw the veh parked in a lane near the tea shop".

"Identified the persons as civs by their clothing as seen from a distance. Definitely saw one get in the veh".

G42644 Pte Stoddard, G. HQASC, having been duly sworn, states, when questioned by the prosecution:

"I am att to 14 Cdn Fd Amb".

"I was ordered by Cpl McPeake to warn Pte Hebert that he was to be in charge of the petrol pump".

"I was warned at about 1730 hrs that the accused would have to take the duty; I took the accused to the pump and showed him how to run it and told him he would be relieved at 0800 hrs the next morning".

"I did not warn the accused that he was not to leave the pump under any condition".

"I told him he was to be on duty during the hours stated".

"I told him he was there for the purpose of dispensing petrol during his hours of duty".

Witness questioned by the defense:

"I do not recall for sur what night it was that I took him (the accused) to the pump".

"I went to the pump on a MC; the accuse followed in an ambulance".

The witness identifies the accused, Pte Hebert.

In reply to question by the president, the accused states that he does not wish to make a statement or to give evidence on oath. The accused does not wish to call character witnesses.

At this point the accused was given an opportunity to have the court adjourned to call witnesses or character witnesses. The accused refused.

Statement in mitigation of sentence by counsel for defense:

"President and Members, the accused in this case, whom you see, is a young man 22 yrs of age; he enlisted 13 Mar 42. He is not the type of man who would with intent knowingly commit such crimes as he is charged with. He had been on duty several hours at the pump and only a small amount of petrol had been drawn during his period of duty. The pump is situated very near a public house, and the accused was informed that he must not leave the pump or the veh provided; he could have gone into the pub and gotten very drunk or had a party in the veh without being detected. He could have left the veh for the purpose of ablution and even for that purpose might have been considered AWL. At such an hour of the night the average man desires food; the accused unthinkingly entered the veh and headed for Newport. He saw two civs walking on the rd and the thought entered his head of being a good fellow and he offered them a lift. His record of service as shown on his Mfm e definitely proves him a good soldier and had he thought that he was doing wrong he definitely would not have left the area assigned, nor would he have used the WD veh for the purpose which he did."

"To sum up: The human desire for something to eat in his mind is no different from the fact that in this camp many men leave the camp area twice a day to visit tea shop some distance down the road. The fact of his having taken a WD veh is most unfortunate - in that he happened to be the one caught. In view of the youth and record of the soldier, I ask the leniency of the court. The accused had no intention, of committing crime".

Re second charge: Statement by the accused.

" When I took the veh, I had no intention to do wrong - only to go to lunch and get a cup of coffee".

After I had washed and shaved I went to get my jerkin to put it on and found it missinf. Looked around for it and reported to CQMS Staunton. At approx a quarter to 1100 I reported it missing. He told me to look around and see if I could find it. I did look around and couldn't find it at all. A short time later, as a result of a conversation with L/Cpl Jones, I went down to the borrom of the blvd where we had out mc's parked. There was a man digging in a garden and I spied a leather jerkin lying just inside the fence. I picked it up and looked at it and found it was mine.

A. 4. Yes, I said approx 1030.

Q. 5. At what time later on did you first miss the jerkin?

A. 5. I imagine it would be around 1030 after I had washed and shaved, approx 1000 hrs when I took it off.

A. 6. CQMS Staunton.

Q. 7. Did you inform anyone else other than he?

2d WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION D-1527,L/Cpl.L.C.Jones, No 5 Coy Cdn Pro Corps, sworn, examined by Prosecutor:-

Q. 12. Will you tell the court in as few words as possible just now you found a leather jerkin on 14th Mar?
A. 12. On that day I was walking down the street a gardener digging in a garden, he said "I have another shovel" I proceeded over to give him a hand. On getting there i saw a leather jerkin laying against the fence. I then made my stay as short as possible, went back to the coy and found L/Cpl Bell had lost his jerkin. I took him to where the jerkin was and he said it was his. I then contacted CQMS Staunton and he took over the jerkin.

Q. 13. What time did this take place?
A. 13. Right after dinner.

Q. 14. What time was dinner?
A. 14. Somewhere after 1100 hrs because we were going to church and we were eating at 1100 or shortly after.

Cross-examination:

Q. 15. In the summary you mention: "I did see the accused in the vicinity of the garden where the civilian was digging" Is that correct?
A. 15. Yes.

Q. 16. In what direction was he going when you saw him?

DOCUMENT J

Closing Address by Defending Officer:

On the evidence brought out, both by the Prosecutor and myself, the jerkin was in the possession of the owner up to at least 1000 hrs, and it was discovered by L/Cpl Jones directly after dinner.

During that time we have the testimony of various witnesses which shows that the accused was working in the kitchen and left at approximately 8.30, which was long before the jerkin went missing. He didn't leave again until some time between 10.00 and 11.00. We have the testimony of L/Cpl Webb that that was the only time he left the kitchen, until again for a few moments only when Cpl. Somnerville says he was only down at the gate for two or three minutes, had him under observation all that time and thinks it impossible for him to get away and acqui e a jerkin.

He went back to the kitchen and didn't leave until some time after lunch was served, which was at 11.00 o'clock, at which time he went down to see these women. From his testimony and that of these women and Cpl Webb he had a logical reason for going down. Know he could not have gone down before dinner finished, which we know from Cpl Webb was at 11. 20. Certainly no time to get down and conclude a transation, therefore I feel the testimony discloses the fact that he did not have an opportunity of acquiring the jerkin, or of dispensing with it, in addition to which the evidence of the accused shows that both Pilgrim and Thorneycroft displayed a definite interest in acquiring a leather jerkin. They did this to the extent that Pilgrim spoke to the accused the afternoon before. They both came up to speak to him on the Sun morning and after that I know nothing, am not prepared to state anything, but certainly Thorneycroft ended up with the jerkin. I am not prepared to state any reason by which he acquired that jacket, but will say that the accused has accounted for his whereabouts minute by minute, and I don't think there is any evidence which will support the premise that the accused was able to get hold of the jerkin or dispose of it.

DOCUMENT K

Closing Address by Prosecutor:

As you all well know we had finished a big exercise in the midst of trials in an obvious area where a man cannot possibly account for every minute. He was in the kitchen, knew that his duty was to clean pots and pans, which he admits of doing from 8.30 to 9.00 o'clock, and then again after lunch. During that time quite positive he was in the vicinity of the kitchen, therefore nobody could be in that enclosure without accounting for their movements.

It has been definitely proven that the civilian picked out the accused from some 60 odd soldiers, picked out without any hesitation. Do you think a civilian would have a grudge against anybody he barely knew as inferred by the defence. I think there is enough evidence to establish the guilt of the accused.

DOCUMENT L

Summing up by Judge Advocate:

Here the first charge is a charge of theft under Sec 18(4), A.A., and I shall read to you the deinition of theft as it appears in para 50, page 118, MML, (which reads). Now, there is your definition of theft. I don't think there is any question in this case seriously disputing that L/Cpl Bell lost a leather jerkin on the morning of 14th Mar, and that later that same jerkin was found in the possession of a civilian.

You have heard the explanation of the civilian Thorneycroft as to how he came into possession of the jerkin, and here you have a direct contradiction between the civilian and the accused. The accused denies all knowledge of the theft or the sale to the civilian and it becomes pretty much a matter of which one you believe. If you believe the civilian then the accused was on that day in the possession of the jerkin belonging to L/Cpl Bell, and there is a principle of law that if a person is found in possession of goods recently stolen it is up to him to give a satisfactory explanation of his possession, otherwise he may be convicted of theft, i.e., assuming that you believe the civilian; it is for you to say whether you believe him or not.

In making up your mind as to who you think is telling the truth you will take into consideration the other evidence that has been produced, both on the part of the prosecution and on the part of the defence. You will consider the evidence to find out if the prosecution's evidence contains any possible corroboration of the story given by the civilian. The defence did call witnesses to show that the accused on the date in question did not have an opportunity of selling this jerkin to the civilian. You will take the evidence of these witnesses into consideration and consider carefully the question of whether or not the accused did have that opportunity.

I am sorry that I cannot be of a great deal more help to you. It seems to me that this is either a case of theft or nothing. I cannot see that the second charge (the alternative) needs much consideration from the court; as the evidence has developed it seems the court will have to consider on the basis of theft only.

It is the duty of the prosecution to prove the accused guilty beyond any reasonable doubt, and if you have any such doubt it is your duty to resolve it in favour of the accused.

1st Witness for the Prosecution

Reg. Nos. H-32059, C.Q.M.S. Staunton, John Hugh, having been duly sworn, states:
STATEMENT BEGINS:-

At Green Norton (Northants.) on the 14th Mar. '43, at approx. 10.30 hrs., L/Cpl. Bell reported to me that his leather jerkin was missing. I told him to look around the quarters to see if he could locate it. At about 11.45 hrs., L/Cpl. Bell reported to me that he had located the missing jerkin and that it was in the possession of a civilian. As a result of information I received, I asked J.THOMPSON, a civilian if he would accompany me to an identification parade of our unit. He agreed to do this. Ithen paraded the coy. on two lines and the civilian, without hesitation, identified the accused. I might also add, when I went down to interview the civilian, I recognized the accused going around the corner of the house in the vicinity where the jerkin was found. I queried the accused and asked him if he had been down in that vicinity, he stated that he had but has been to a nearby house drinking tea with some people that he knew.

STATEMENT ENDS.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

At Green Norton, on the 14th Mar. '43, at about 10.30.hrs., I removed my leather jerkin to wash and shave. I laid it down on my M/C coat in front of our section truck on the ground. After shaving, I went to get my leather jerkin but could not find it. I reported the loss to C.Q.M.S. Staunton. He told me to look around and see if I could find it but I could not find it. At about 11.30 hrs., L/Cpl. Jones came to me and asked me if I had lost my jerkin. I told him I had. He said:"Come with me. A civilian has one down here in his garden". I accompanied Jones to where the civilian was digging in his garden and found my leather jerkin inside the fence lying on the ground. I identified the jerkin by green ink markings made by me.

STATEMENT ENDS.

(signed) F.E.Bell.....

Cross-examination by the accused:
1st Question: What time did you find out your leather jerkin was missing?

Answer: Between 10.45 and 11.15 hrs.

3rd Witness for the Prosecution

Reg. Nos. D-1527, L/Cpl. Jones, Leonard Charles, having been duly sworn states:
STATEMENT BEGINS:-

At Green Norton on the 14th Mar. '43, at about 11.20 hrs., I was walking down the street, when a civilian, who was digging in his garden shouted to me: "I have another spade here". So I proceeded over to him to give him a "hand". On doing so, I noticed laying against the fence a leather jerkin. I then made my stay as short as possible with the civilian because I had a feeling that the jerkin belonged to one of our boys. I then proceeded back to the camp and went to L/Cpl. Bell. I took him up to where the jerkin was against the fence. The civilian was still there. L/Cpl. Bell identified the jerkin as his. Bell stayed with the civilian while I went to fetch C.Q.M.S. Staunton, who took over the entire proceedings. I did see the accused in the vicinity of the garden where the civilian was digging STATEMENT ENDS. (signed) L. C. Jones.....

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

He then told me that he was thinking of selling his leather jerkin. I told him that he'd better not do it. Pte. Hebert then said: "No, I guess I won't sell it".

STATEMENT ENDS (signed) Walter Ralph Webb.....

Moon of the #1 Provost Coy., R.C.M.P., I made a tour of all hutments and saw that all Soldiers Undergoing Field Punishment were present. I locked the doors and then handed over to the night guard."

Q. Did you personally call the roll?

A. I did not call names, but checked the number of men in each Hut and compared the figures with the night Guard Commander. These figures agreed.

He compared the numbers he had counted in the Huts with mine; the figures were the same.

At about 1955 hours, L/Cpl. Moon came to me and said that the rear door of # 4 Hut had been removed. I immediately sent word to the Camp S/M and to my own Orderly Sgt. I then proceeded to the concerned Hut and found that the screws in the hinges of the rear door had been removed allowing the door to be opened. This had been done with the aid of a button stick (See Exhibit A) which was later found in the haversack of Pte. Gfroerer. 5th Witness

C.41972 L/Cpl. Allen, A.R., #1 Provost Company, R.C.M.P., having been duly sworn states:

"On the night of 3/4 March 1941 at about 2200 hours, while in Caterham, Surrey, on investigation duty I received word from the 1 Cdn Provost Coy., R.C.M.P., that 2 men had escaped from the 1 Cdn Div Field Punishment Camp, Nutfield, Surrey and that also a W.D. vehicle had been stolen from the Royal 22e Regiment. Investigations were carried out in the Caterham area and as a result Privates Despres and Fleurant "B" Coy., Royal 22e Regiment were arrested at 0330 hours, 4 March 41, for being Absent Without Leave. Circumstantial evidence showed that these two men had stolen the above-mentioned missing W.D. vehicle.

On the afternoon of 4 March 41 I checked the personal effects of Pte. Hebert wherein the following was found:

EXHIBIT "B" (Photo of Pte. Hebert in artillery uniform) taken at Jerome Studio, Glasgow, 20 Jan 40.

Acting on the above information I proceeded to the "French House" Dean Street, Soho, London. On entering I saw the accused (about 2155 hours 5 Mar 41) dressed in civilian clothes sitting with an officer of the Royal Air Force. I immediately identified the Accused as Pte. Hebert from the photographs I had found in his personal effects, approached him and asked him the following questions:- I asked him if he was Pte. Hebert. He replied "no". "My name is Jean Taillefer". He then produced a M.F.M. 7 (R.E.) Discharge paper (see exhibit E). However, having previously seen in Pte. Hebert's personal effects, a letter addressed to Jean Taillefer, I was of the opinion that he was Pte. Hebert. I placed him under close arrest and escorted him to #6 Provost Coy, in London where he was detained. In the Guard Room of the Military Police, H.Q., London while I was taking down the particulars of the case, the accused, Pte. Hebert made an attempt to forcibly remove an M.F.M. 7 (Discharge Paper) saying that he did not want to lose it.

The next morning 6 Mar 41, I questioned the accused as to where he had obtained the civilian clothing in which he was dressed at the time of his arrest. He replied that he had obtained the clothing from the home of Philip Harris, Brixton. He gave me every assistance possible in recovering his uniform and equipment, which he had left in the house of Philip Harris (who is being investigated by the Metropolitan Police). At about 1500 hours 6 March 41 I escorted the accused back to the 1 Cdn Div Field Punishment Camp and handed him over to the Orderly Sgt., #1 Provost Coy., R.C.M.P.,

5th Witness

C.41972 L/Cpl. Allen, A.R., #1 Provost Company, R.C.M.P., having been duly sworn states:

"On the night of 3/4 March 1941 at about 2200 hours, while in Caterham, Surrey, on investigation duty I received word from the 1 Cdn Provost Coy., R.C.M.P., that 2 men had escaped from the 1 Cdn Div Field Punishment Camp, Nutfield, Surrey and that also a W.D. vehicle had been stolen from the Royal 22e Regiment. Investigations were carried out in the Caterham area and as a result Privates Despres and Fleurant "B" Coy., Royal 22e Regiment were arrested at 0330 hours, 4 March 41, for being Absent Without Leave. Circumstantial evidence showed that these two men had stolen the above-mentioned missing W.D. vehicle.

On the afternoon of 4 March 41 I checked the personal effects of Pte. Hebert wherein the following was found:

EXHIBIT "B" (Photo of Pte. Hebert in artillery uniform) taken at Jerome Studio, Glasgow, 20 Jan 40.

Acting on the above information I proceeded to the "French House" Dean Street, Soho, London. On entering I saw the accused (about 2155 hours 5 Mar 41) dressed in civilian clothes sitting with an officer of the Royal Air Force. I immediately identified the Accused as Pte. Hebert from the photographs I had found in his personal effects, approached him and asked him the following questions:- I asked him if he was Pte. Hebert - He replied "no" . "My name is Jean Taillefer". He then produced a M.F.M. 7 (T.E.) Discharge paper (see exhibit E). However, having previously seen in Pte. Hebert's personal effects, a letter addressed to Jean Taillefer, I was of the opinion that he was Pte. Hebert. I placed him under close arrest and escorted him to #6 Provost Coy, in London where he was detained. In the Guard Room of the Military Police, H.Q., London while I was taking down the particulars of the case, the accused, Pte. Hebert made an attempt to forcibly remove an M.F.M. 7 (Discharge Paper) saying that he did not want to lose it.

The next morning 6 Mar 41, I questioned the accused as to where he had obtained the civilian clothing in which he was dressed at the time of his arrest. He replied that he had obtained the clothing from the home of Philip Harris, Brixton. He gave me every assistance possible in recovering his uniform and equipment, which he had left in the house of Philip Harris (who is being investigated by the Metropolitan Police). At about 1500 hours 6 March 41 I escorted the accused back to the 1 Cdn Div Field Punishment Camp and handed him over to the Orderly Sgt., #1 Provost Coy., R.C.M.P.,

PROSECUTION

1st Witness for the Prosecution

Cpl M L Goldberg, 7 Cdn Salvage Unit RCOC, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. Corporal Goldberg, do you recognize the accused?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. On the day of 11 November 1942, at about 1800 hours did you detail any special duties for him to perform?
A. I did, Sir.
Q. Can you define the duties?
A. I detailed Pte. Hebert to be hut orderly at 0630 hours to 0630 hours November 13.
Q. Were you perfectly satisfied that he was familiar with his duties?
A. Yes, Sir, when we left for the Salvage Depot Pte Hebert was carrying out his duties.

Cross examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Corporal Goldberg, just how is a man detailed for his duties.
A. Well Sir, I detail them, I tell them.
Q. Did you detail his duties in detail?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Can you for the benefit of the Court, tell us what those duties are?
A. The duty of a hut orderly is to have his place clean inside and outside and to take care of the backhouse and to stay in at all times until he is relieved. The only time a hut orderly is relieved is 15 minutes before field parade.
Q. You actually detailed this man verbally prior to his taking over his duties as hut orderly?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. There is no other instructions as to what times he must remain there?
A. He must remain there at all times, Sir.
Q. When do you usually detail these men?
A. Well generally, Sir, after supper or the night before.

Prosecuting Officer declines to re-examine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).
The Witness withdraws.

2nd Witness for the Prosecution

Capt D. Sigler, OC 7 Cdn Salvage Unit RCOC after being duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. Capt Sigler, do you recognize the accused as Pte L J Hebert?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. On the 12 day of November 1942 as you were making your rounds did you find everything to be in order?
A. I did not.
Q. What did you find to be out order?
A. At 1325 hours on November 12 I visited my men's quarters, Hut No Spider "C" Wing 18, I did not find the hut orderly there. I examined the quarters and found them untidy, the work had not been done. I made a thorough search of the premises and made inquiries to ascertain if Pte Hebert was there and I failed to find him.
Q. You are satisfied that the time was 1325 hours. Have you any reason for making note of the time?
A. When I found Pte Hebert absent I realized the time of his absence would be an integrable part of the charge which would be laid against him and I confirmed the time with my time piece. I visited the Trust House Inn and there I found Pte Hebert at approximately 1400 hours and I ordered my Sgt to place him under close arrest.

DMB

Q. Was the accused alone?
A. The accused was sitting at a table with a Corporal.

Cross-examined by Defending Officer.

Q. Capt Sigler, did you find anyone in the hut who could possibly be taking the duties of hut orderly at the time in the hut where Pte Hebert was detailed for duty?
A. I found Pte Forsythe leaving the doors of the building himself.
Q. Would you consider it normal for a hut orderly to leave the confines of the building himself?
A. No, I have told my men on numerous occasions that I do not permit men to exchange duties without permission of the Sgt or myself.
Q. That was not the question Capt Sigler. Would it be normal for any man to leave the confines of the building when on hut orderly duty?
A. None that I can think of. There are only the occasions on which he goes for his meals and on these occasions he is officially relieved by a person so designated by the Sgt.
Q. You have specifically informed members of your unit that duties will not be exchanged?
A. I have.

Prosecuting Officer declines to re-examine.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).
The Witness withdraws.

DEFENCE

(Judge Advocate to Accused) At this point there are three things that you can do. You have the right to sit pat and say nothing at all, letting the Prosecution who have certain things about you, prove it. Secondly, you can give evidence under oath, in which case you are exactly the same as any other witness. You can be cross-examined or asked any questions. Your third right is that you can get up and make a statement, not under oath, and on which they can ask you no questions at all. Now do you understand the three rights you can have?

A. Yes, Sir, I have no statement to make.

1st Witness for the Defence — G16152 Pte H L Moffatt, 7 Cdn Salvage Unit RCOC, after being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Pte. Moffatt do you recognize the accused as Pte Hebert L J?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. On the 12 day of November 1942, you were present in the hut?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Was there any other person there at 1345 hours?
A. Yes, Sir. Pte Forsythe, Sir.
Q. Pte Forsythe was there at that time?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Was there any conversation carried on between Pte Forsythe and the accused?
A. I could not say, Sir, I wasn't paying much attention, I was on guard the night before and I was getting ready to press my clothes.
Q. You saw Pte Hebert leave the hut?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Can you give the time?
A. At approximately a quarter to two, Sir.
Q. Have you any way of confirming that time?
A. I went into the other side of the hut and I found out the time, and it was then 10 minutes to 2 and it was 5 minutes before that he left, Sir.
Q. It was 5 minutes before that he left?
A. Yes, Sir.

Cross-examined by the Prosecuting Officer.

Q. Pte Moffatt, in the connection of time, you have no way at all of verifying whether it was 1330 hours, or 1345 hours or 1355, or even 1325 hours, when you left the hut? Have you got a watch?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Therefore the statement of time of 1345 hours is merely a guess that has come into your mind. What brought the time of 1345 to your mind?
A. I asked the hut orderly on the other side of the hut, Sir.
Q. But the time factor is not by any means sure, and that was when you were going in to press your trousers?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. You just started pressing your pants then at 1345 hours?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. What did you do after you pressed your trousers. How long did that take?
A. About 8 minutes, Sir.
Q. Therefore, you started pressing them at about 1345 and it would take you 8 minutes to press them, and that would be about 1355 by the time you finished pressing them?

D7713

A. Yes, Sir.
Q. What did you do after that?
A. I went back and stayed around the hut and on my own side, Sir.
Q. Did you leave the hut at all?
A. I think I did, Sir. I think I went to the QM Stores.
Q. Where was the accused while you were wandering around the hut?
A. I don't know, Sir.
Q. Did the accused go alone? A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did you accompany the accused?
A. Well, Sir, he and I went out through the door together, Sir.
Q. What do you mean by that?
A. Well, Sir, to go through our side of the hut, you have to go through one door and you go through a hallways and then you enter another door to go through another door, and I went beyond that to the other side of the hut, and that was the last time I saw him, Sir.
Q. It was during the first part that you accompanied Pte Hebert?
A. Yes, Sir.

Defending Officer declines to re-examine.

Court:

Q. Were you ever a hut orderly?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did the Corporal on each occasion, detail the functions of a hut orderly - are you told that your duties are so and so or are you just told you are hut orderly tomorrow?
A. We are just told that we are hut orderlies tomorrow, Sir.
Q. Is there any other order that you know of detailing the functions of hut orderlies.
A. I am afraid I can't answer that, Sir.
Q. When did you go into the hut at noon that day?
A. Right after dinner after 12 o'clock.
Q. Were you continually in the hut until you pressed your pants?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did you see Captain Sigler in the hut that day?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Was that before or after you pressed your pants?
A. I had just laid my pants on the table when he entered.
Q. And by that time the accused had left?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Do you know the Trust House Inn?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. How far is that from your hut?
A. Well, Sir, it is not more than 3 minutes walk, Sir.
Q. What are the duties of hut orderly?
A. To sweep the room out, take and check over the beds, sweep the hallway and half way down towards the wash-room, pick up any matches or clothing that happen to be outside the windows. In the afternoon after the boys go out you are supposed to tidy up, and sweep up under their beds.
Q. Nothing about fire watch at all?
A. Nothing about fire watch, but I think that is automatic.
Q. What about relief?
A. There is a man who comes down for relief and he stays there until you get back.
Q. Those are the duties as you a soldier recognize them?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. What source did you get this information to do these duties from?
A. All through the army, Sir, as a hut orderly, you practically do the same thing. Everybody knows as a hut orderly, what is his job.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

The Witness withdraws.

2nd Witness for the Defence

G53766 Pte E S Forsythe, 7 Cdn Salvage Unit RCOC, after being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Pte Forsythe, do you recognize the accused as Pte Hebert L J?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. On the day of 12 at approximately 1330 hours were you present in your quarters?
A. I was, Sir.
Q. Was the accused there at that time?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did he ask you anything?
A. He asked me if I was going to remain in the hut for a few minutes, Sir, and I said I was.
Q. Was that all the conversation that occurred between yourself and the accused?
A. Well I informed him that I would remain there until he came back, Sir.
Q. You told him that you would remain there until he came back?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. What were the details of your conversation - exactly as you carried out your conversation?
A. Well, Sir, I was in the hut there and he simply asked me if I would be there for a few minutes. He said "are you going to be here for awhile?"
Q. What did you unsterstand that to mean?
A. Just for a short period, Sir.
Q. What was the reason for that question?
A. Just as a favour to remain there for him.
Q. Were you present when Captain Sigler entered the hut?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did you make your presence known to him?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did he ask you the whereabouts of the accused?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Did you tell him the whereabouts of the accused?
A. I told him I did not know, Sir.

Cross-examined by Prosecuting Officer.

Q. Pte Forsythe when the accused asked you if you were remaining, did you feel it involved anything. Did you feel that you were taking over any duties on that question?
A. Well there were no duties attached in the afternoon Sir.
Q. What was the accused detailed for?
A. To remain in the hut, as hut orderly, Sir.
Q. Is there any order laid down as to substitution of details or can you handle them as you see fit yourself?
A. I have not heard of any, Sir.
Q. When a person is detailed by an order does that mean that he will carry out that order or that anybody can carry it out?
A. Anyone can carry it out, Sir.
Q. Therefore, it is not a custom to get anybody to take over duties for you at random then?
A. No, Sir.
Q. Have you any idea what time Capt Sigler was making his rounds and came into the hut?
A. Between 1.30 and a quarter to two, Sir.
Q. And what happened when Captain Sigler came in?
A. He asked me if I was hut orderly, and I told him that I wasn't, but was staying there for a few minutes for Pte Hebert. He asked me where he was and I told him I did not know.

Defending Officer re-examines.

Q. Have you ever received specific instructions as to transfer of duties on your own initiative?

A. Not up until that time, Sir.
Q. Have you ever acted as hut orderly before?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Since you have been here in this country?
A. Yes, Sir.
Q. Do you recall how you were detailed for that job?
A. Yes, Sir, the Orderly Corporal?
Q. How did he detail you?
A. He warned me the night before, just telling me I was hut orderly, and he told me my duties then.
Q. Do you remember him specifically telling you that one thing you could not do was to get a substitute.
A. No, Sir.
Q. Were you ever told that you could get a substitute?
A. No, Sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with R.P.83(B)

RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:
First Witness for Prosecution.
A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:
I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 45 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.
Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)
Re-exam: None.
Exam by Court: He said—" I've had enough parades ".
RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 86(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)
(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

Statement by Hebert in mitigation of punishment.

Je suis dans l'armée depuis le 13 sept 1940. J'ai toujours fait mon devoir et pour ainsi dire je n'ai jamais eu de charge contre moi. J'ai été blessé et retourné en Angleterre et à mon retour j'avais encore des douleurs dans la jambe où j'avais été blessé. C'est ce qui m'a décidé à partir, et toute humidité occasionne ces douleurs dans ma jambe. J'ai été environ un mois en action avant d'être blessé, et je suis retourné après pour environ 4 jours avant de m'absenter. Je suis célibataire, catégorie A, et 23 ans. Je désire retourner à mon unité.

F.G.C.M. IN THE CASE OF

D 62132 Gnr HEBERT, O., 2 C.A.R.U.

21 JUNE 1944

When the Defending Officer was asked the question in record form D-1 he said:

There is a witness, which my opinion may be very important to the defence. He is a man who was absent with the accused and has since went absent again, I do not know when he will return or be apprehended.

The Prosecutor stated that he had five witnesses from a field unit and that in his opinion it was important that their evidence should be taken so that they may be returned to their field unit.

It was decided with the approval of the Prosecutor and the Defending Officer that the Court would proceed to take the evidence for the Prosecution and would then listen to any further application the Defending Officer wished to make.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PROSECUTION NOTE D-3

1st WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Lt R.M. BEGIN, on strength 4 Cdn Med Regt, having been duly sworn states:

I am Lt R.M. Begin of 4 Cdn Med Regt, I know Gnr Hebert whom I recognize as the accused (pointing to accused) in this Court room. At approximately the 1st of May 44 Bdr Brolt reported to me that the mail room had been broken into and that some cigarettes were missing so I went down and inquired and made an inspection of the kit in the billets around the place, but did not find anything so I reported the matter to the Battery Commander. Upon investigation of the mail room I found that it had been broken into and the cigarettes had disappeared. Later on during the month around the 9th or 10th of May Sgt Stirret, my troop sgt reported to me that some cigarettes were missing from "C" Troop lines. I authorized Stirret to take a vehicle and he and I proceeded to investigate. We went down to Croydon and searched all the pubs but there was no trace of any of the missing cigarettes, that might have been sold or otherwise, so we went to the YMCA to see if a man who we suspected was there, that man was the accused. We found out that Gnr Hebert had not stayed there over night. We went over to the other YMCA in Croydon, known as the Homestead. On our way up there the driver pointed out a man to me on the corner and informed me that it was Hebert, the accused, the truck was pulled in and apprehended Gnr Hebert. Upon asking him if he had seen certain cigarettes (Defending officer stated that he did not object to the answer being given) the accused said that he did not know anything about the stolen cigarettes. Then I asked Berube, who was with the accused, he also didn't know anything about stolen cigarettes. I asked one of them where they were staying and (At this point the Defending Officer objected to the remainder of the conversation on the ground that the questions were asked by a person in authority without the usual caution being given) (Court ruled that remainder of the conversation would not be admitted)(Witness continues)- I then proceeded to the Homestead YMCA Hostel to find out if Hebert had been living there. I found out from inquiries that Hebert had been living there, upon getting permission to search the place for missing cigarettes I found an empty box in the corridor on which the name of Hebert was marked in pencil, "Hebert/RCA". On the day following I returned to the Homstead where I interviewed Mrs Robinson, the Manageress, she handed me another parcel containing 5,00 cigarettes. On the previous day Gnr Hebert had been brought to the Regimental Guard Room.

Q Do you recall what cigarettes were missing on or about 1 May from the mail orderly room?
A 2,000 British Consuls, I do not know how many separate packages there were. I investigated in the Mail room myself, Gnr Ruest and Gnr Noel had lost cigarettes on the 1 May 44, Gnr Ruest lost his cigarettes on the 1 May and Noel lost his later.

Q What time were Noel's cigarettes that were missing reported to you?
A The time that Noel's cigarettes were reported to me as missing was around five or ten minutes to one o'clock in the afternoon, it was on a Monday, around the 9th or 10th of May, I do not remember the date but I am sure it was on a Monday. (Prosecutor said the nearest Monday to 9th or 10th May 1944 was the 8th May, as will be evident in the calendar).

Q Can you identify this empty box you found in the Homestead?
A I can, my initials are on it (Prosecutor shows witness a card board box, witness examines the box) This is one of the boxes that I found in the YMCA Hostel in West Croydon, it is the one that I found in the corridor. I can tell it by the serial No, by the scratches on the top as though someone had torn off the name and any traces of the owner, I also recall the name "Hebert/RCA" written on it with a lead pencil. (Carton marked Exhibit "1" by the Court). The serial No, I believe is E 88651. This box was full of papers which I took out and when I had the box empty I found the card that accompanies the cigarettes, it is called the acknowledgement receipt, it was torn up I put it together and found it to be sent from Mrs Ruest, from some place in Quebec. (Witness is shown the pieces of a card, and continues) Those are the pieces. (Pieces of card marked Exhibit "2" by the Court - from examination of Ex "2" it appeared that it was addressed to"Madame Paul Ruest, St Anaclet, Co Rim, Quebec, Canada")

Q This second parcel that you picked up the following day at the Homestead, can you identify that?
A Yes, it was a card board box with 500 Sweet Caporals in it. It was not addressed to anyone, but I found the serial No on the register to whom it was mailed. There was a No and the "XXL" on it. That is the box that my initials "Lt RMB" are on, I put them on it, on the flap. I put my initials on at the Provost's advice when they arrived. The serial No on this box is"9487 XXL" (Box is produced by the Prosecutor and shown to the witness) That is the box (Box marked Exhibit "3" by the Court)

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I made a check-up on the 1st of May, the date that the unit post office was broken into, and I inspected the kit of the men and found no trace of the articles.

Q You have had a lot of thefts in the 4th Med Regt have you not?
A We have two thefts and no more that I know of. I can't say how many there has been, I have been there since Jan 44.

Q I submit to you that it is pretty common knowledge in that regiment that a lot of cigarettes are stolen and you are just quibbling around the issue, it is common knowledge that a lot of cigarettes are stolen there, or do you know?

A I do not know.

Q And a lot more stolen since the arrest of the accused.

OBJECTION BY THE PROSECUTOR

OBJECTION OVER-RULED

A They have not been stolen to my knowledge.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q Did you check at the Homestead Hostel at Croydon to see if Gnr Noel had stayed there at any time previous to the time that you found the cigarettes and the empty carton there?

A I checked the register at the YMCA Hostel and found that Gnr Neel, whose cigarettes had been missing, had not stayed there around the time that his cigarettes had been found missing. I did not check with respect to Gnr Ruest.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

2nd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mrs A.P. Robinson, Homestead YMCA HOSTEL, 42 Wellesley Road, West Croydon, having been duly sworn states:

I am Mrs A.P. Robinson, I am living at the Homestead YMCA Hostel, 42 Wellesley Rd, West Croydon. I would know Gnr Hebert if I saw him (Witness looks around the Court room) that is Gnr Hebert, (pointing to the accused). The first time I saw him I booked a bed for him, I can not remember what day it was, about the 1st of May, I believe. He handed me a box and asked me to look after it for him, I put his name on and a stroke and under that "RCA", it was the next day I believe he asked me for it and I handed it back to him. I did happen to look into the box, the lid was sticking up and I saw cigarettes in it. The box was found in the first lounge by the night porter, it happened to be kept not for any reason (witness is shown a box Exhibit "1") that is the box, it has my writing on it, I observe the name "Hebert/RCA" is on it, I wrote that name.

The second box I took in from him I did not put his name on it. I did look into the second box and saw cigarettes in it. (Witness is shown Exhibit "3") This looks like the second box, that the accused gave me which had cigarettes in it, I have no definite way of identifying it. The second box did contain cigarettes, I was closing up the lid that was open and I saw cigarettes.

Q Do you remember the day the second box was given to you?

A No I do not remember, it was not a long time between the first box and the second box, I don't think I handed him back the second box to take away. The first one I remember quite well, I did not hand him the second box to take away.

I can not remember handing the second box back to Hebert or to anyone else, another man was with him and he handed them in. An officer came later and picked up this box, I do not remember his name (Prosecutor brought in Lt Begin and allowed the witness to look at him) I know this officer, it is the one to whom I gave the box, Exhibit "1". I do not recall giving the second box to anyone, Exhibit "3". I knew Gnr Hebert by sight, he stayed at the Homestead quite a lot, he was there for several days before the 5th May and after that. I wrote his name down and he remarked that I had remembered his name, but I can't remember the exact dates that he stayed there.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q Are you very busy?
A Yes, very busy.

Q Can you remember if you were busy, fairly busy when this transaction took place?
A No I was not, I just went into the office when he came. We do have a lot of soldiers in and out.

Q This statement you made in the summary, you made that with the Prosecuting Officer, will you just give the circumstances did you more or less figure out the details.
A It was very clear to me when the officer came, I remembered the man's name, I remembered the box, I remembered the box being found, it was just an accident.

Q I am only suggesting that there were several exact dates that you have stated and yet this morning you were a bit hazy on them. I am going to suggest to you that your evidence is clear in some respects, you recall the facts about the box perhaps because the thing has been discussed and reviewed since the affair happened?
A No it would not make any difference. I remember the man, I remember him giving me the things. I can not remember the dates, but as the officer came in quickly after the affair, and the man had only slept there a day or so.

Q When you identified this man I noticed you looked around the room, you looked at this man twice, I am going to suggest that you would not know him if you saw him in a group?
A I knew him immediately I saw him.

Q Do you know any of the accused brothers?
A No. I know the name "Hebert" and that name brings this person to mind.

Q Why did you not put any name or initials on the first box?
A We never take a man's initials, if we have his number, name and regiment, I just put his name down for saftey sake. We are not supposed to take them in like that but we can not put it in the cloak room and just to oblige them we put that sort of thing in the office just for safty's sake.

Q Do you remember this man being in there before?
A I knew him and I get to know these boys quite wellbefore the first of May or the latter part of April. I can not tell the last time he had slept there, I knew him this time andknew that he had been there before. I can not tell you how long it had been before this occasion. I am not the only person who books beds. There are several voluntary workers there, but I live there and get to know the men who come better than most of the other people who work there.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

3rd WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
A 35520 Sgt STIRRET, F., No 2 CARU, having been duly sworn states:

I am A 35520 Sgt Stirret, F, on strength No 2 CARU, I know D 62132 Gnr Hebert, C., he is in this Court (pointing to the accused) that is he. On the 8 May I was passing through 192 Burntwood Lane and on my way back from lunch about five minutes past 12:00 o'clock, noon, I happened to look around and saw Gnr Hebert and Berube sitting on the back step, they spoke to me and asked when the drivers would be back, I said I did not know and continued on my way, and went to my own billet which was about two miles away. I came back and found Gnr Noel who reported that he had lost 1,000 cigarettes I went with Noel up the street to see Sgt Maj Laporte, where we tried to arrange for a vehicle to make investigations, we got a vehicle. I had a parade to take which I took and left the room with Noel and I went to the parade. I met Lt Begin and reported the incident to him, we did not get the vehicle the first time I tried, however Mr Begin arranged for a vehicle which we got. After the parade was over Lt Begin, myself, and Gnr Noel went to West Croydon in the vehicle that Mr Begin had obtained for me. We searched the pubs to see if we could find the two men we suspected, the accused and Gnr Berube, we did not find them and went to the YMCA and asked if they had checked in there and found that they had not checked in. From the YMCA we went to the Grey Hound Pub which was themost likely place for them, we left there at closing time and returned towards the YMCA. We saw Gnr Berube and the accused near West Croydon Station, we ran after them and stopped them on the street, they made no attempt to get away. About a minute after we had caught them the vehicle with Lt Begin followed up and they were asked to get into the vehicle. We went to the YMCA, the main one on London Road and tried to find any stolen cigarettes or any kit that was left there, we found nothing and nothing was said by the accused. From there we went to the Homestead YMCA Hostel which is on Wellesley Road, we went in and made a search of the building and also inquired if the accused had been registered there and found that he had on several occasions, Berube had also been registered there. On the first floor in a dust pile we found an empty carton, a cigarette carton, which we surmized to belong to Gnr Ruest. After that we also found 500 Sweet Caporals behind the bar, in an open box, then Lt Begin told me to take the accused and Berube back to 4 Med Regt. When we got them back to the guard room at the 4 Med Regt we searched them and we found four packages of Sweet Caporals on Gnr Hebert and thirteen shillings. The day we searched these two men was the 7th or 8th May. I returned from my billets about five to one o'clock when I returned and saw Gnr Noel as I was on my way to the parade. I could identify the empty carton that I found in the Homestead, it had the name "Hebert/RCA" on it (Witness is shown a box, Ex "1") This is the box that we found, I can tell by the way "Hebert/RCA" is written on it, it was written on it when we first saw it.

Q Was anything else found with this box?
A Nothing at all.

Q Did you know Hebert and Berube, had you seen them around the regiment at any time previous to this incident?
A I knew them, I had seen them off and on, I would say that I had seen them three times before the incident, I saw them about five of six days before Noel reported the missing cigarettes.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q You have know the accused for some time?
A yes Sir.

Q What sort of a fellow is he?
A I had him on my gun crew and he was the best man I had. For work and morale he was the best, he was always cheerful and when times went badly on schemes he stood up very well. He was the best gunner I had, I had recommended him for a stripe.

Q Do you know anything of him being involved in any thefts in the regiment previous to the affair under review?
A No Sir.

Q Is it true that there are lots of theft in the 4 Cdn Med Regt?
A Yes Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

A Yes Sir, after he left the regiment and went to the hospital, it was about two weeks ago that I forwarded a carton of Winchesters to the accused.

Q Was he in hospital two weeks ago?
A I have the address as the hospital, I can't give you an accurate idea of the date, the card still shows him in the hospital.

I reported this loss to the battery sgt major. I have never stayed at the Homestead YMCA and have never registered there.

Q How far is it from Caterham to West Croydon?
A I do not know.

I could recognize the box of cigarettes that I lost if my name was still on the lid. (Witness is shown Exhibit "3") I can not recognize that as mine, my name is not on it, it was a box like that and it had SWeet Caporals in it.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q When did you last see the box before it was missed?
A I saw it 20 minutes before it was lost.

I know Gnr Hebert, I roomed with him for a while. I never missed anything around the room while I was living with the accused. I have known him for six months and I lived with him in the same room for two months. During that time I never missed anything or had any complaint aginst him.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(8)

A Yes, about 15 days before I lost my cigarettes. (Witness is shown Exhibit "1", his attention is directed to space for the name of sender where under each other are the letters "M", "S", "Q", witness continues) this could be my package, the first line beginning with "M" could be "Madame Paul Ruest" there being a "T" at the end of the first line, the remainder of the name has been removed. The "S" in the second line might mean "St Anaclet, Co Rim". The "Q" in the third line could be only "Quebec, Canada." (Witness is shown Exhibit "2") It is addressed to "Madame Paul Ruset", that is my mother's name and address.

A I am not sure.

Q When did you get your last thousand British Consuls?
A About ten days ago, in June.

7th WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION
C 10377 Bdr RAYMOND, V.J., on strength No 2 CARU, having been duly sworn states:

I am C 10377 Bdr Raymond, V.J., NCC in charge kit stores, 2 CARU. I recognize Gnr Hebert as the accused (pointing to accused) I examined his kit against his Part III of his pay book and made a list of deficiencies that I found in his kit. (Witness is shown a list) That is the list that I prepared. (List is marked Exhibit "A" by the Court) The list that I prepared is a true and correct one.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

I checked his kit with his Part III of the pay book. I can not remember the exact date that I checked his kit, it was brought into the office and I checked it.

Q You made two checks of the accused kit did you not?
A No Sir, we did not make two checks.

Q I submit that you made a check that you gave to the Court of Inquiry this check was made and the accused said it was not correct and you went back and made another check in company with him, is that right?
A Yes.

Q On the second check you found certain items you had not found on the first check, where were these items?
A This man was AWL and we checked his kit against a blank form of Part III of a pay book, when he came back we went back and re-checked it in his presence and did not find the missing articles. I had checked his kit against a blank form or the blank Part III, Pay book and charged him for the deficiencies of kit that he should have had.

Q Was his kit marked when it came into the quartermaster stores, was there any name on it?
A No Sir.

Q Was it locked?
A There was a lock inside the kit bag. We keep files of every man whose kits are liable to be opened. We do not open the kit bags until the owner is present, or the RQMS gives us permission. As far as I am concerned it came into the QM stores unlocked.

BY THE COURT

Q Did you have the Part III of the pay book of the accused when you made the final check or inspection on the 12 Jun?
A Yes Sir. It came back with him and I checked his kit against his own Part III then.

In the opinion of the Court it is unnecessary to comply with RP 83(B)

CASE FOR THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

The Defending Officer requests an adjournment on the grounds that a witness, who is material, namely Gnr Berube is at present AWL and can not be brought here to testify, and requests adjournment so that an effort may be made to apprehend this man and have him brought before this Court.

Application is granted and the Court is adjourned; to be re-assembled on the call of the President.

COURT RE-ASSEMBLED AT 1100 HOURS ON THE 24th DAY OF JUNE 1944

EVIDENCE FOR THE DEFENCE NOTE D-5

1st WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

Accused (D 82152 Gnr Hebert, O) on strength 2 CARU Having been duly sworn states:

With respect to my kit, the Captain who took my evidence at the Summary is here in the Court room this morning. First there was nothing mentioned about it, that is kit deficiencies, until a couple of days after when the same officer took my evidence then a Bdr of the kit stores was there with him, he came in with a list of the stuff. I asked the Bdr, who was Bdr Raymond, how could he check my kit before I was present?

He never answered that question, then I told him that when I left my kit bag was locked, and how could he check it? He said that I was there with the RP, I asked him what RP and he said nothing. Then the officer who was Capt Boyd said that we would leave it like that, then the Bdr came back and took me to the kit stores and asked me if the lock was broken and we had another kit inspection and he made another list which is in the present charge, the other list, the first one was much bigger than this one. I had drawn my kit when I came out of 12 Cdn Gen Hosp on the 7 Apr, they gave me the kit that was turned into stores, it was not a complete kit, a lot of articles were missing when I left the stores I had a complete kit. I had it in the hut with a lock on it. I am positive that everything was locked in my kit bag, everything that I did not have on my back and great coat which was in my big pack. I did not lose anything when I went away, I had nothing with me when I went away.

When I went to stores my kit back was open, the lock was broken and off the bag, I found the lock outside my kit bag and it was broken, I could see the break. I asked why the storeman had gone into my kit bag before I came back, he never answered that.

My fork was in my hold all and was in my kit bag.
My house wife was in my kit bag.
My knife was in my hold all and in my kit bag
My drawers were in my kit bag.
My Cape Anti gas was in my kit bag
My Braces were in my kit bag
My belt was in my kit bag
My strap shoulder was in my kit bag

I was in Croydon between 22 Apr and 8 May 1944. While I was in Croydon I stayed some of the time in the Main YMCA and some of the time I slept at the Homestead YMCA Hostel.

I did not take any parcel of any description into the Homestead YMCA Hostel or the other one at any time. During the time I was in Croydon I visited my old unit, 58 Battery, 4 Cdn Med Regt to see some of the drivers was why I went to the Unit. My visit was on the 8 May, I noticed that no one was around and I waited around out of doors for the drivers to come back but after waiting for a while and they didn't come I returned to Croydon. When I left the unit I went back to Croydon, that was around 1230 hours or 1300 hours. After we got back to town we walked the street for an hour or so, Berube was with me. Then I went down for a shave down past the YMCA in a barber shop. Then I saw Sgt Stirret and Gnr Noel and they stopped me on the street. Sgt Stirret told me that he was putting me under arrest, open arrest, I asked him why and he told me that I would find out why. We got into the truck went to the YMCA on the main street. At the YMCA was Lt Begin of the 4 Cdn Med Regt. We went in here and Lt Begin make some inquiries at the wicket then we returned to the truck and went to the Homestead YMCA. They went in here. I do not know what happened there but Sgt Stirret came out to me, I had stayed in the truck, and told me that I was under close arrest. Then they brought me back to the 4 Cdn Med Regt and put me in the guard house. In the guard house I was searched, they found four packs of Sweet Caporals on me, my pay book, and 16 shillings in money. I had received some Winchester cigarettes while in the 12 Cdn Gen Hosp, they had been forwarded to me from the unit to thehospital, they had been sent by my wife. I never smoked very much while in hosp and still had them when I came out. When I got to 2 CARU I asked for a 24 hour pass, it was refused and I went AWL, while I was in Croydon I met a fellow by the name of Goss, who I have known for about six months, I took out my pack of Winchesters and he asked for one, and asked if I had any Winchesters to trade, he said that he always smoked them but had had Sweet Caporals sent the last time. I had four or five packs on me and I traded with him, the Winchesters for the Sweet Caporals.

During the time, from 22 Apr to 8 May 44 while I was in the Croydon area I spent most of my time right in Croydon. I had a girl there in the next town, Pearly and apart from the 8 May when I visited the unit I stayed right in Croydon and the place where my girl lives I only visted the unit the once. I was in Croydon on the 1st May which was on a Monday and was the Monday previous to the 8th May, I did not go to the regiment that day, I only went on the 8th when I heard that they might be going away soon. I usually fooled around town I would go to the pictures in the afternoons and I would often see some of the boys to fool around with. I do not remember anything special that happened on the Monday previous to the day I visited the unit.

When I left the hospital I had £4 10/ then when I came back to No 2 CARU I drew £4 10/ giving me a total of £9 when I went AWL. I have my pay book here, I show you an item on the 21 Apr 44 where I drew £4 10/ on a casual pay parade.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q You claim your kit was broken into?
A Yes Sir.

Q Did Bdr Raymond say that he had broke into your kit bag?
A No Sir.

PROSECUTOR stated to the Court

For the purpose of record, Sir, and the Capt QM, may I ask the accused what Bdr Raymond said with respect to the Kit bag?

COURT - Yes

Q What did Bdr Raymond say had taken place with respect to your kit bag, what did he say was the normal procedure in cases like that?
A Nothing.

Q Did he not say that he never broke the lock.
A He says "I was there and I had your kit inspection".

Q You were right there when he said that?
A Yes.

Q What did he say with respect to the procedure of examining kit bags of personnel who were AWL?
A He said he had authority to go into anybody's kit bag.

Q I suggest to you that this is what he said, "Anyone away over 21 days must have their kit inspected, personnel whose kit was locked and had been away 21 days Capt Merchant, the QM, would come down and supervise the opening and inspecting of the kit", is that something like it?
A Yes Sir.

Q Perhaps that accounts for the opening of your bag?
A He never said that at the evidence that day.

Q I am asking you what you remember of the conversation.
A I said I was not away 21 days, and that I am not a deserter.

Q Had you not been away 21 days?
A I had been away 17 days.

Q Did Bdr Raymond say he had broken open your lock?
A No Sir

Q Tell us some more about the 8 May, what time did you arrive at the unit?
A I left Croydon at about 1130 hours and took a bus, we got there about 1145 and walked up the hill. From the bus stop to the billets is about 10 minutes walk, it would bring us to the 58 Bty lines at about 1200 hours. I went to the drivers quarters, I do not know the street it is on. Sgt Stirret saw us while we were sitting outside the house. I left between 1230 hours and 1300 hours. I have stayed at the Homestead YMCA prior to the 8 May about seven or eight times. Every time that I slept there it was a man who took my name and number. I cannot say whether Mrs Robinson registered me or not.

Q But she could recognize you and referred to your name?
A Every time I went in there I showed her my pay book.

Q You just told me that you had never had her register you?
A I showed her my pay book. I just put my book in I never recognized who was in the wicket.

Q How do you account for your name being on the cigarette carton, Exhibit "1"?
A I never left it there, anyone could go in there and anybody can go in there and hand a carton of cigarettes and say to whoever is behind the wicket, "this belongs to Hebert". I do not know how it got there, or how my name got on it, I never left it there.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER TO THE COURT NOT BEING A QUESTION UNDER RE-EXAMINATION

Q I wanted to find out what happened in the anti room of this court martial when it sat the first day?
A When Mrs Robinson entered the anti room we were all sitting around, she sat across from me and opposite the window, Lt Begin went over to her and he talked to her for a while and with his head he pointed my way, what he said to her I do not know.

2nd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE
K 72015 Gnr Goss, RA., on strength 2 CARU, having been duly sworn states:

I know and recognize the accused as Gnr Hebert (points to the accused) I was in Croydon and saw the accused there. He had some Winchesters, I usually get Winchesters from home and the last cigarettes I had received were Sweet Caporals and I wanted to trade for some Winchesters, when I saw Hebert he had some Winchesters and I asked him if he would trade me some, he said he would and we traded, there were four or five packages traded, it was all he had. I think it was around the 17th or 19 of May.

3rd WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE
E 14285 Gnr Berube, R., on strength No 2 CARU, having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused, I was with him in Croydon earlier this spring. I also visited the 4 Cdn Med Regt with the accused, that was about the 6 May, on a Monday. We saw Sgt Stirret that day. We had left Croydon about 1130 hours and went to the regiment to see the boys. We went to a house in which soldiers were billetted and were sitting on the steps waiting until they came back when Sgt Stirret walked by and stopped and talked to us for a few minutes then went away. When the fellows didn't arrive we went back to Croydon. When we got back to Croydon we returned to the YMCA and remained there for a short while. Sgt Stirret and some others arrested us and took us to the guard room. I remember being registered at the Homestead and the accused was registered there also, at this time we registered together, the accused did not hand in or check any parcels, as far as I know he never did check anything there. We spent all our time between the 20 Apr and 6 May together, we were always together.

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE PROSECUTOR

On the 6th May we visited the regiment to see our old friends we figured they would be going away and we were waiting for the drivers to come back. I have belonged to the 4 Cdn Med Regt but not at the time of the 6 May. I left the regiment on 3 Mar 44.

I was with the accused all day on the 6 May. I did not see the accused hand in any parcel that day or anyother day at the YMCA. I did not hand in any parcel to the YMCA for keeping, and I've never taken any parcels into the YMCA neither has the accused, I have never seen him in any case.

A woman registered us in at the Homestead, it has always been a woman, but not always the same woman. We always registered in together.

4th WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE
E 19220 BSM (WO II) BEGIN, M., 4 Cdn Med Regt, now on strength 4 CARU, having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused, I have known him for over a year. He was in my troop during that time. He was a good gunner, he was devoted to his duty, I never had to lay a charge against him. In the hut where the gun crew lived he was there and got along very well. In this hut there had been some stealing, we searched the kits of all the men and we found the two men that had done the stealing and it was not the accused. To the best of my knowledge he has always been honest, and reliable. I know that he has been a good soldier and think he still is.

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

CASE FOR THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

DEFENDING OFFICER ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Mr President and Members of the Court,

I am not going to say much about the shortage of kit, he has told a straight forward story concerning it that I believe the Court will consider to his benefit.

The principle charges against the accused are the two cigarette charges, i.e. being in improper possession of cigarettes and a carton, addressed to some one else. One article was taken on the 1 May, the other on the 8 May 44. From the evidence it has been clearly established that the theft occurred on the 1 May, there is no evidence before the Court that could convict the accused of stealing anything on the 1 May, he was merely in the area, he was no where near the unit. It was generally known that he was AWL and those concerned with the investigation should certainly take that into consideration.

There is no further evidence until the 8 May. We have his own sworn evidence on that and the evidence of his pal who accompanied him that they did not at any time pass in a parcel at the YMCA Hostel. We come along to the 8 May, they were seen in the area outside the billets, there is no evidence at any time that they entered any building, they were seen by Sgt Stirret at that time. Sgt Stirret was talking to them, and there was no evidence of them having any parcel in their possession at that time. I suggest to the Court that it is extremely unlikely for two men to be identified on the steps of the house and then to go in and rob it.

Mrs Robinson, the chief witness against the accused gives evidence that is the only evidence against the accused, as he is charged. I submit to the Court that this witness' evidence is not as convicting as it sounds. She is definitely a very positive person and I suggest that she is the type to build up a story in her own mind, there is no doubt at all that she came into the Court quite honest, but I submit that she has acquired information here and there and then she has adopted it for her own and believes it. The Court heard that the Accused was pointed out to her by Lt Begin in the anti room, besides that at no less than eight or ten times she heard "accused and escort fall in, right turn quick march" and "accused and escort halt, break off", her attention would have been drawn to this man a dozen or so times before she came into the Court, she was certainly able to identify him. I submit that the identification of the accused was poor and if she were to be called upon to pick him out of a company of men she would have been unable to do so. I do not suggest that she perjured herself, I suggest that she gathered bits here and there, reviewed it, discussed it, built herself her own story and told it here, I do not think it should be accepted.

The cross-examination of the accused. The Prosecutor brought one possible explanation, the defence does not maintain that this is the true explanation regarding the accused name on the box, the defence says there was a mistake made, how? we do not know, we do not have to explain, the possible suggestion that he gave was that somebody came up to this wicket and passed a box into the office and said this belongs to Hebert. We submit that in a busy hostel anyone could have done that and never have been noticed.

The character evidence of the accused has been most strong, every witness for the prosecution and every witness that has been questioned has given this man an "A 1" character. For six months this man lived with these witnesses and there was not the slightest doubt in their minds regarding his honesty.

In the 4 Cdn Med Regt there has been considerable stealing of cigarettes, it has been going on for a long time not only before this man was arrested but since that time. It is quite obvious that some theives are still loose, they did not stop when this man was put under arrest, and those people, whoever they are, may have been concerned in this case.

The accused was not short of money, he had plenty as has been proven, and there was no insentive to steal for money, he had cigarettes, as has been proven by LaRoche and the accused testimony.

The accused and the man who was AWL with him have both given straight forward evidence, the accused has been a bit nervous, but his story must have impressed the Court, I would also mention the witness who traded cigarettes with the accused which accounts for his having some Sweet Caporals, I am sure that the Court can believe nothing about the accused except his honesty and his good intentions on his visit to his old unit when he thought they were going away. There is only one material witness against the accused and I suggest that that evidence isn't very strong, and against that evidence we have that of two gunners, I am sure there is no doubt in the minds of the Court as to this man's innocence and the finding should go in favour of the accused.

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSES THE COURT ON THE FINDING

Mr President and members of the Court:

In regard to the deficiencies of the kit, the first check took place on the 12 May while he was in hospital, that as I understand it is the normal procedure. RH Q requested a list of deficiencies and it was submitted. It was first presented to Gnr Hebert, but it was not made in the presence of the accused. The accused has attempted to say that Raymond said the kit was checked in his presence, Bdr Raymond checks a half a dozen kits a day and it is impossible for him to remember the second check he made . However it was the second check and the correct one that resulted in the list that is before the Court today.

The Defending Officer has attempted to state that Lt Begin did point to Hebert, as the accused, to Mrs Robinson, I think that Mrs Robinson gave her evidence without a doubt in her mind and without the aid of anyone else, her statements are straight forward.

In the second charge the accused is only being charged with improper possession of an empty carton on which appears the name "Hebert/RCA" I suggest that the defence has failed to explain that coincidence to the satisfaction of theCourt. The accused and Berube had been seen in the vicinity where the cigarettes had been stolen, and there is no evidence of these cigarettes ever having been issued to their rightful owner, Gnr Noel.

With regard to registering in the Homestead, Hebert is in some doubt about where he had registered, or who registered him. First he said that Mrs Robinson had never registered him, first he said a "he" had always done it, then a "she" then he didn't know. I suggest that it was Mrs Robinson who registered him in in a great many cases and she therefore has very little doubt about the identity of this man. Both the accused and Gnr Berube have stated very definitely that they never left one another's company at any time from 20 Apr to the 8 May, that seems a little far fetched to me that they should stick together like a pair of Siamese twins.

I suggest that the statement of both these two witnesses be considered lightly and not very seriously in that respect. I also would suggest that the statement to the effect that the accused is being made a scrape goat for this offence is merely a matter of conjecture on the part of the defence only.

The Part II of the accused pay book which was produced and shown to the Court, I notice the date was 21 Apr 44 on which the entry was made, paying the accused some £4 10/-, Hebert was AWL on the 20 Apr, I think that this fact or incident should be accounted for.

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE FINDING

COURT IS RE-OPENED

The accused found not guilty on the 1st Charge and not guilty on the 4th Charge.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT NOTE D-3

Sir,

The accused would like to make a statement.

STATMENT BY THE ACCUSED

Sir,

I am still not guilty of the 2nd Charge, I did not come over here to steal anything, I came over here to fight or at least help fight a war. I am still not guilty. There is no proof that I did it, I did not do it, I have never stolen anything in my life, I never took anything from anybody. I was AWL, when I was in the hospital I had no pass, I had had no pass or leave for a year, and when I came to No 2 CARU I asked for a 24 hour pass, it was refused by the sgt major, I just went absent.

BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Sir,

On the second charge I am not prepared to say much, I came here with the idea that the man would be acquitted. I would like to call the Court's attention to the fact that the charge is "improper possession of a carton, "addressed to another peron, the Court will re-call to their minds that there is absolutely no evidence what-so-ever of cigarettes having been in this carton. Further there is no evidence whatsoever to connect the man with the theft, and the only thing that this charge alleges then has been struck out because I think it appears obvious to the convening authority who found no evidence to support that in the summary.

Every man who has spoken of the accused has had a good word for him. Would the Court please refer to his MFM 6 it shows two small crimes - AWL. The last on the 15 Dec 42, one year and a half ago. On the present AWL, he came out of hospital and asked for a pass, he had not had one for a year, his request was refused, so he went AWL.

The main submission is that this man has had an extremely good character and good record throughout his army career and is a very capable soldier and the charge here, and the finding here is that he was in possession of a carton which despite the finding of the Court not on too strong evidence, the Court weighed the matter very carefully and found that he was in possession of that carton, it can not infer anything further. I submit that it is a minor offence and he should be dealt with very lightly. He has been in close arrest awaiting trial since 8 May, almost two months, which is itself a disgrace.

SECOND WITNESS for the prosecution

A 35520, Sgt. Stirrett, F., on strength of No 2 C.A.R.U., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

"On the 8 May 44 at Caterham-on-the-Hill, I was a Sgt at HQ of the 58 Bty, 4 Med Regt, R.C.A. On this date at 1205 hours, I was passing through the yard of the house at 192 Burntwood Lane and saw Gnr's Berube and Hebert behind the house sitting on the stone verandah. They did not appear to be doing anything. I asked them what they were doing and they replied that they were waiting for the drivers and asked me when would they be back. I said after lunch. I then continued on to my own billets. On my way back to parade at approximately 1300 hours, I saw Gnr. Noel in the back yard of the aforementioned house looking around in the long grass. He informed me that he had just lost 1000 cigarettes. I helped him look for a couple of minutes and then continued on my way. Realizing that everyone had been at lunch at the time of the loss of the cigarettes, I returned to ask Gnr. Noel if he had seen Hebert and Berube. He informed me that he had not but immediately became suspicious of them. This also aroused my suspicions, and on the way to the parade ground I ran into Lieut. Begin and informed him of the above circumstances. He obtained a vehicle and Lieut. Begin, Gnr. Noel and myself went to Croydon in search of Hebert and Berube. At approximately 1440 hours we found them on the street and placed them under open arrest. They then said that they wanted their kit, but afterwards said that they only had a razor and did not want to bother with it. We became suspicious and went to the Y.M.C.A. on London Road Croydon, but could learn nothing there. We then proceeded to the Homestead Y.M.C.A. Hostel in Croydon. We found that they had been registered there on several occasions, and also found an empty cigarette carton of British Consols, which had contained 1000 cigarettes. This carton had "Hebert" written on the outside in pencil. I then took Hebert and Berube back to the Regimental Guard Room. Upon searching them I found amongst their personal possessions, four unopened packages of Sweet Caporals on Gnr. Hebert, and one package on Gnr. Berube."

Lieut. R.M. Begin, on strength of 58 Bty, 4 Med Regt, R.C.A., an offider of the Cdn Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:-

"Between 1200 hrs and 1300 hrs 1 May 44, two gift cartons of cigarettes each containing 1000 cigarettes addressed to Gnr. Ruest and Gnr, Lunny, W.P. were missing from the Unit Mail Orderly Room. When this theft was reported to me by Bdr. Broult of BHQ, I immediately held a kit inspection of all billets within the immediate area but no trace of these missing articles could be found. A Court of Inquiry was held on which I was a member and the findings of the Court were "that the Mail Orderly Room had been broken into and two cartons of cigarettes Serial Nos E 88651 and E 85405 addressed to Gnr's Ruest and Lunny respectively had been stolen. On 8 May 44 at approximately 1315 hours Sgt. Stirrett reported to me that G 3501 Gnr. Noel, E. was missing a carton of 1000 Sweet Caporal Cigarettes from his billets at 192 Burntwood Drive, Warlingham. Sgt Stirrett also informed me that he had seen Gnr's Hebert and Berube in the vicinity of the billets from which the above mentioned cigarettes had been stolen between 1200 and 1300 hours 8 May 44. At approximately 1400 hours 8 May 44, accompanied by Sgt Stirrett and Gnr. Noel, I proceeded to Croydon, where I thought Hebert and Berube might be found. At 1500 hours 8 May 44 I apprehended Hebert and Berube at Croydon. I asked them if they had any kit and one of them stated that they had some shaving kit at the Y.M.C.A. London, Rd. There was no kit at this Y.MC.A. and so I visited the Homestead Y.M.C.A. Hostel at 42 Wellesley Rd, Croydon, where after making numerous inquiries I discovered that they had been staying there on different occasions. At this Hostel I discovered an empty carton of British Consol Cigarettes bearing the Serial No. E 88651 with a torn acknowledgement card inside from Mrs Paul Ruest, bearing also the Serial No. E 88651. On this empty cigarette box was writtan in pencil the name Hebert. I immediately asked the lady in charge of the Hostel if she recognized the hand writing. She said that it was the Supervisor, Mrs Robinson, handwriting, who was not present at the time. In the meantime Gnr's Hebert and Berube had been taken to the Regt'l Guard Room. The following day 9 May 44, I returned to this Hostel and Mrs Robinson certified that the parcel bearing No E 88651 was checked in by her, and that she had placed the name of Hebert, RCA on the parcel. She then handed me another parcel containing 500 Sweet Caporal Cigarettes, which had been handed to her also by Hebert. The Serial No of this parcel is MAC 9467. I took this parcel to the Bty Mail Orderly Room and found that the package had been addressed to G 3501 Gnr. Noel, E.

Mrs A.P. Robinson of the Homestead Y.M.C.A. Hostel 42 Wellesley Road, West Croydon, having been duly sworn states:-

"I am Supervisor at the Homestead Y.M.C.A. Hostel. On Friday 5 May 44, two Canadian soldiers came in and booked two beds. They each had a pass and gave their Regt'l No's and names as D 62152 Gnr. Hebert and E 14886 Gnr. Berube, Unit R.C.A. Gnr. Hebert gave me a box and asked me if I would look after it for him. This box had been opened and there was something inside of it. I did not examine the contents, but by the weight I judged them to be cigarettes. I wrote "Hebert, RCA" on this box and placed it on a shelf in the office. A day or so later, I cannot remember the date, Hebert came and asked me for the box, I gave it to him. This box was later found in the Lounge, empty behind one of the chairs, by the night porter. This same box was later picked up by Lieut. Begin, 4 Med Regt, RCA, who came to the Homestead, making inquiries for Hebert and Berube. These two soldiers stayed at this Hostel on 23rd, 26th, 28th April and 5 May 44. On the 8 May 44 Hebert came and handed me another cigarette box, and asked me to look after it for him. This box had been opened and I could see some packages of cigarettes inside but I do not know how many. I did notice that the paper which bears the name and address of the person to whom the box was addressed had been torn off. The following day 9 May 44 Lieut. Begin called and I gave this box containing the cigarettes to him. I could recognize both these soldiers again if I saw them.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Summary of Evidence in the case of H-41588 Pte. Hebert O.J. of the Saskatoon Light Infantry, a soldier of the Canadian Army (Overseas) R.C.A.F.

By direction of the Group Commander the evidence is taken under oath.

First witness for the Prosecution

Lieut. C. H. Ogg, the Saskatoon Light Infantry, having been duly sworn states:-

I am the platoon Commander of number 2 platoon of 1 A.A.A. Company, 1 Can. Div. Sp. Bn. (S.L.I.).

At approximately 1800 hours 31 May 1944 I ordered my platoon to move to the road. Pte. Hebert, Pte. Schroeder and Pte. Robertson were missing. Before the carriers were turned up these three soldiers appeared each carrying a bottle of wine. I ordered Schroeder and Robertson to give me the wine they carried. They did so and I threw it into the ~~same~~ bush. I ordered Pte. Hebert to give me the wine he was carrying. He replied "why should I". I then took the wine from him and threw it into the bush. Pte. Hebert said to me, "If you can't get girls why can't I drink wine". Pte. Hebert is a driver in my platoon. He was under the influence of alcohol. I ordered him to his carrier. He replied "No". I said, "are you going to your carrier". He again replied "No".

I placed him under arrest.

As the carriers were moving he was forced to go to his carrier. He drove it about fifty yards in a direct soldiers partition, and then slammed on his brakes. This threw Pte. Fraser who was riding in the back of the carrier violently against the front of his compartment.

I decided Pte. Hebert out by the stream seat as he had obviously been drinking, I could not properly observe the carrier, and never head it been reported on the road that which we were to pass. He was not drunk, but had drunk enough so that I did not consider him capable of the necessary care and caution. I told Cpl. Mayhew to relieve the carrier.

When we arrived at our location I spoke to the platoon which I was doing this Pte. Hebert, who appeared to be getting more incapacitated, interfered. My Asst. Sergeant took him away. I subsequently returned Pte. Hebert to Coy. H.Q. where he was kept.

L Hogg Lieut

The accused declined to cross examine the witness.

Second witness for the Prosecution

L-1194 Sgt. Hallonen, H.B., the Saskatoon Light Infantry, having been duly sworn states:-

I am the platoon sergeant of 2 Platoon 1 M.M.R. Company, 1 Can. Div. Sp. Bn. (S.L.I.)

At approximately 1900 hours 31 May, I was ordered to line up the platoon carriers prior to moving to a new area. Pte. Hebert, who drives No 1 of the carriers was absent. I drove his carrier onto the road. Before we left Pte. Hebert returned he had a bottle. The platoon Commander, Lt. Hogg, took the bottle from him and threw it into the ditch. I did not hear their conversation as I was down the road a certain distance and the engines of the tractors were running.

When we arrived at our post near the platoon commander called the platoon together to speak to them. Pte. Hebert interrupted the officer. Pte. Hebert had obviously been drinking. He ordered him to be quiet. He subsequently interrupted the officer again. Pte. Hogg told me to please have him under escort. I did so.

In my opinion Pte. Hebert was in no condition to drive a car and I had previously reported him, and where position and last parade he was to be released. Pte. Moreno drove Pte. Hebert's carrier to the rest area as Pte. Hogg would not allow Hebert to drive."

F.B. Killoran Lt.

Cross-examined by defence

Q1. Did you see the officer take the "vino" away from me.

A1. Yes. I saw him take a bottle from you.

F.B. Killoran Lt.

Third witness for the Prosecution

"I am retired in the capacity of motor commander in 2 platoon 1 M.M.G. Bty, 1 Can. Div. Sp. Bn. (S.L.I.). At approximately 17.45 hrs 3 May 1944 the platoon was ordered to move. Pte. Hebert was driver my carrier was absent. Lt. Killoran then came to me and ordered my carrier to the road. Pte. Hebert returned before we moved off. I heard him arguing with the officer. Pte. Hogg. I did not hear what was said as the carriers had their engines running.

Hebert came to the carrier and got into the drivers seat. Swerving into line he drove very quickly for about fifty yards, and then clambered of the tanks. Private Fraser, who was riding in the back, violently opposite the front part of the compartment.

Pte. Hebert appeared to me to be under the influence of alcohol. He was not drunk, but could not have driven carefully through a mine field. Mr. Hogg declined me to drive in Hebert's place. I did so.

When we arrived at the rest area Mr. Hogg spoke to the platoon. Pte. Hebert interrupted him. Mr. Hogg asked him removed under arrest.

F. S. Moreno Capt.

The accused declined to cross-examine the witness.

Fourth witness for the Prosecution

L16660 Pte. Fraser, A., the Saskatoon Light Infantry, having been duly sworn states:-

"On 31 May 1944 I was riding in back of a carrier being driven into line by Pte. Hebert. I was standing up straightening out. The carrier pulled out fairly fast and stopped quickly. I was thrown forward against the front of the compartment and sort of fell into the drivers seat. Pte. Hebert appeared to have been drinking. I do not know if he had been, or not, as I only saw him a short time"

Prosecution opening address.

Sgt Ryan and Pte Carr have since been evacuated to UK and are not available as witnesses.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION Capt S. Young, RCAMC, staff 2 Cdn Gen Hosp, being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I examined the accused to-day. Found a healed through and through wound between the 2nd and 3rd toes of the right foot. There were no complaints. No disability and his future efficiency as a soldier is not impaired. The wound was in a vertical direction and there was no indication of a fracture. The wound could have been made by a bullet.

Cross-examination

The accused is physically fit to go back to the front line.

R P 83(B) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION Lt J R Barre SIS Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech 21 A Gp being duly sworn is examined by the prosecution.

I recognize the accused, when I interviewed on 13 Sep 44 at No 7 Cdn Gen Hosp. I told him who I was and that I was investigating the circumstances pertaining to his wound. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to say anything unless he wished to do so but anything he said would be taken down in writing and may be used in evidence. He appeared to understand the caution and made a statement in French which was reduced to writing by myself and then he signed it after the statement had been read over to him and he read it. The statement is in the same condition as when signed. The accused was not under arrest at the time.
There is no objection by the defence to the statement.

The statement was admitted as Exhibit "A".

Cross-examination

The defence declines to cross-examine this witness.

Rule 83(B) complied with.

D5
FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE The accused G 63376 Pte Reginald H HEBERT R Shore R being duly sworn is examined by the defence.

This particular affair on 18 Jul 44 happened afterI had been in action. I had been in the battles of CARPIQUET and CAEN URG. I was not in a trench at the time the accident happened. I was near a factory.
I started to clean the top of my rifle and take off the mud with a branch. I was sitting on a big pipe at the time. I did take off all the mud off the top and then I took off the magazine. I placed the magazine on the pipe. I started to pass the brush in the chamber. The gun I had was not made like this one and the cocking piece was a round knob. The sights were different also to this one. You put them up and down. (The rifle being used is a US M 1) I do not know the mark of the US Rifle which I had. I took off the mud around the knob. I stood up turned my rifle muzzle downwards. My left hand was holding the rifle with my first two fingers in the trigger guard. With my right hand I began to open the Butt trap to get out my oil bottle and pull through. The trap lid was tight and the weapon fired. I had cleaned my rifle previously the day before. It was necessary that I clean my rifle on this occasion because there was lots of mud on it.

That morning I had done nothing. The day before I had been digging a trench for myself and one for my officer. The day before that I was in an attack and I saw no Germans. Up to that time I had accounted for approximately 25 Germans. I explain my wound as I was demonstrating with my rifle. That is the only explanation. I can give. Oh no I did not mean to do this on purpose. I came into action two or three days after the day. I was with my regiment throughout up to the time this happened. I had no previous trouble. I had never asked to get out of action. Neither my officer nor my NCOs had complained of my work in any way.

I was called up for service in March 43. I had no reason for not volunteering before that. I had not very much training with my rifle. Always route march. It is correct as I said in my statement that after three months basic I was sent to Edmondston where I took my advanced training for five and a half months I always had a rifle. I passed my TOETs. I had the rifle with which I received my wound since the 6 Jun 44 before I left England. It was in good condition mechanically. I was not in a building at the time I received my wound I was not in a trench. I was outside. My regiment had been in a defensive position for two days before I received my wound. By defensive position I mean about in the front line. We were holding the front line. We were holding the front line I don't know how far away the enemy were. I have said in my statement I used the toe h brush to clean the breech. That is true. We keep our rifles loaded and a round in the chamber always when we were in the front line. The first thing one does when one cleans a rifle is to take off the bolt and then use the pull through. And then pass the "pull through" through. dont know why I did not do it this time. I did not think of cleaning it on the inside, when I started. I did not know my rifle was loaded because when I cleaned it in the morning I take off the magazine and round out of the chamber. During the day my Canadian friends were looking at my rifle and wanted one like it. I did not pay much attention to them and those who were looking at it put it away.

I have said that in the front line I always keep the magazine loaded and a round in the chamber. That is correct. I left the round out of the chamber in the morning. The same morning I was wounded. I thought it was too hard on the spring to leave a cartridge in the breech. I do not know that a round in the chamber has no effect on the spring. I had a good opportunity while cleaning the breech of seeing that the rifle was cocked. I did not notice if the safety catch was on or off. I do not know why I put two fingers in the trigger guard. It was just an idea I had in my mind. It is true as I said in my statement that I did not take the precaution of seeing my rifle was loaded before I started to clean it. I admitted I was negligent. I remembered a Pte Carr. He was there at the time. I do not remember borrowing a pull through from him.

The accuse takes off his boot and indicates where he was wounded between the second and third toes of the right foot.

Those who were near me at the time came around me but they did not do anything or say any thing. I don't know why they didn't. My officer came right away in about a minute.

Cross-examination by The Court. When I say I was cleaning the breech I mean the chamber of the magazine. I mean the inside with the magazine out.

Q. When you were cleaning your rifle you pulled out the cocking handle to clean out the dirt behind it.
A. I pulled it out to the half-cock position.
Q. Are you sure you did not have it fully cocked.
A. I did not pay any attention.
Q. The rifle wouldn't fire if it were half cocked would it?
A. No sir.
Q. When did that round get in the chamber and when did the rifle become cocked if you had released the cocking spring in the morning.
A. I do not know.

(Rule 83(b) complied with.

Address by the prosecuting Officer

This case res s principally on how you consider the credibility of the accused. Whether you can believe him or not; whether what he has said is reasonable; whether reasonable men can accept his statements. We have very little background. There is the incident of being c lled up but many have done that and wai ed. Those who were near did not do anything but his officer did arrive quickly. The regiment had been in a defensive position for two days. I think the evidence finally got down to the fact that the accused had cleaned his rifle the morning he was wounded. He apparently had not been doing anything that day. He says he cleane his rifle again at 1830 hrs that night. There is nothing to show that he was warned for guard duty or going forward. Nothing unusual. Once again it is the question of this explanation being used to cover up his wounding with intent. Another factor is where is the wound. A person intending to wound himself to get out of action and to do the least harm could not have made a better success of it than the accused. It was between two toes and no fracture. Coming to the actual happening what do you find him doing. He said he did not take the precaution of seeing the rifle was loaded. We know the first thing one does in cleaning his rifle is to open the breech but this accused does everything but that one act. He demonstrated how he had carefully cleaned all around the cocking piece with a tooth brush and yet he stated he did not know the rifle was cocked or that the safety catch was not on. I suggest that was the only way he could explain how he received a perpendicular wound between the toes of the right foot. There is for a trained soldier and an intelligent one like the accused in apparently quiet surroundings no excuse for shooting himself. I submit he has given no reasonable explanation whatever and should be found guilty in the first charge.

On the second charge the facts already mentioned apply and in his own statement he admits neglect.

Pte HERBERT Reginald G 63376 Defence Address 2359 hrs 9 Dec 44.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY DEFENDING OFFICER

This accused left the UK with an American rifle just issued to him - on the 8th of June - two days after "D" day. He was with the North Shore Reg't.

He landed in France and kept going for fourty days with his Regiment until this incident happened on the 18th of July.

During that time he fought at CABOURG and CARPIQUET and killed at least twenty five of the enemy, himself. He had never asked to be relieved- he had never had any complaints from his NCOs or officers.

After going through all this heritable hell he finds himself with a short breathing spell and a chance to remove the mud and grime from his rifle. Surely this case speaks for itself. The prosecution have produced absolutely not evidence even of a circumstantial nature which would indicate the guilty mind on this boy's part. (They have in fact only produced a statement he made himself which gives his explanation). When one considers such a record as his, I say all other considerations vanish.

If anyone was ever entitled to a benefit of a doubt here is that case.

It would not be feasible to convict him in the first charge - it may be on the second. But even then, I say, under such a set of circs can you say he is blameworthy?

I say dismiss both charges and let him return and kill 25 more boshes!

Pte HERBERT, Reginald

THE ACCUSED

I was born on 14 Jun 1923. In school I went to grade V leaving school at 16 yrs of age. When I enlisted I was a fisherman and farmer. If given a chance I would feel I want to go back to my regiment. With the experiences I have had I feel I am better equipped to go back now. My father is living. He is dependent on me and I assign him 25 dollars a month. I have five sisters and two brothers, one brother younger and the other older. My father was not in the last war. My mother is dead. She died when I was 19 years, just about the time I joined the army.

PLEAS OF MITIGATION

In my plea of mitigation for the accused there is a good deal to be said for him. One must remember there are a great number who back home have not done a top. When he enlisted he had just lost his mother. He has seen service with the North Shores, one of the finest regiments in the 3 Cdn Div. His battle record is before you. He has told you how anxious he is to get back. All I want to say on his behalf is give him credit for what he had done; give him a chance to return I am quite sure I can say on his behalf, having talked to him and my co-defending officer Lt Cardinal that he will do his best to uphold the hihg traditions nay only for the Province of New Brunswick but of the country of our beyond the seas, which we are proud of today but will indeed be very much prouder of in the days to come. I recommend suspension of sentence. Please do everything you can to see this his last wish is carried out.

ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF: 7 Can. Gen. Hosp.
23 Sept 44.

STATEMENT OF: Nav.No. 63376, Pte. Reginald HEBERT, of the North Shore Regiment, (N. Brly.) 3 Can. Inf. Div., attached 7 Can. Gen. Hosp., taken 23 Sept 44.

WHO STATES: I have been cautioned by Lieut. J.R. BARNE, R.C.A.S., Can. Provost Corps, as follows: "Do you wish to make a statement? You are not obliged to say anything unless you wish to do so but whatever you do say will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." I understand the meaning of this caution and make the following voluntary statement without threat, promise, or favour.

(Signed) Reginald Hebert.

I am Nav.No. 63376, Pte. Reginald Hebert, of the North Shore Regiment. I am 21 years of age. I was called up for Military Service in March 43 and went for training at the Fredericton Depot for three months. After completing my three months training I was sent to Debert for five and a half months completing all my training. I arrived in England 8 May 44 as an Infantry Reinforcement and I joined the North Shore Regiment. I arrived in Italy 20 Jun 44 with this Regiment and we took up a defensive position at Lyon for Mar. I had thirty seven days of action with my Regiment and took part in two attacks, one at Carpiquet and the other at Caturns.

I wounded myself on the 10 Jul 44. at night, and this is how it happened. We were a few miles beyond Carpiquet and were in a defensive position where we stayed for two days. At about 10.30 hrs. 10 Jul 44 I started to clean my rifle. I placed my rifle on my knee and with a toothbrush I took all the mud off. I then took the magazine and used the toothbrush to clean the breech. I was then in a sitting position - I stood up and holding my rifle with my left hand, with two fingers, the index and the middle, across, on the trigger and my thumb right above the sight. With my right hand I tried to open the bolt to put my cellophane roll pull-through, and in doing so made the rifle go off as I had two fingers on the trigger. The bullet penetrated between my two toes of my right foot. I did not take the precaution of seeing if my rifle was locked before starting to clean it. I had an American rifle and it was issued to me before leaving for Vernon. As soon as I had wounded myself I started to yell and my officer arrived. I don't remember his name. There was a Sgt. and a Cpl. and two other Italian Cdns soldiers near me and they didn't help me or ask me what had happened. My officer took my belt and sock off and the stretcher bearers arrived and put me on it and took me to the Field Aid Post. [illegible] my foot and gave me some injections and I be taken to an Italian hospital [illegible] where I [illegible] an English-speaking nursing sister that was [illegible] ok. I stayed at that hospital for two weeks and was later transferred to No.7 Can. Gen. Hosp. and have been there since then.

I am sorry I wounded myself and I am anxious to return to my Regiment at the Front. I admit that I was negligent in not taking the necessary precaution before cleaning my rifle, but it was purely an accident.

This statement is voluntary, without threat, promise or favour. I have had the opportunity to add or delete anything I wish from my statement after it had been read to me and I am satisfied it is correct as read.

(Signed) Pte. Reginald Hebert.

Plea in Mitigation of Sentence
in the case of M 365 89 Pte. HECK, J.
Lth. C

Sir:

You have heard the story of Pte. Heck from the accused. I wish merely to emphasize the main points in that story.

I am convinced, and I am sure the court will agree, that Pte. Heck bears a very sincere and deep affection for his mother. He considers that his mother has received a "raw deal" from life, due to the separation of his father, and his lengthy illness. Quite naturally then, being the eldest in the family he considers it his duty to look after and protect her.

After coming overseas, as the accused has told you, he received a series of letters telling of his mother's worsening health. Feeling his responsibility for her, he did attempt, through official channels, to return to Canada, if only to re-assure himself that she was being properly cared for.

After coming to Italy, in July or Aug 44, the accused again had news that his mother's condition was becoming worse. Brooding over this news, and his own inability to do anything about it, the accused, as many of us do, turned to drink for forgetfulness. This, as his A.F.M.C. shows, involved him in several petty crimes.

In Sept 44, Pte Heck again tried, through official channels, to return to Canada to see his mother. This attempt, too, failed.

Mr Heck, now convinced that (if) the Army would never consent to his return to Canada, once still determined to see his mother. As to how that he could, during his 7 day leave in Dec 44, he attempted to get on board a ship at Naples. Failing in this attempt, he determined to keep trying. When his leave ended, he remained about without leave, with the sole purpose of trying again and again to obtain passage to Canada. Fortunately for himself, though he still refuses to acknowledge it, he failed.

He earnestly insists that he had no intention ever to ~~commit any~~ desert His testimony is clear. To Heck's mind, his first duty was to his mother — and in any other time but these abnormal years in which we live, who would condemn a man for thinking thus?

I am sure the court will keep these facts in mind when considering the actions Mr Heck is to answer.

NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 93(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 93(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 80(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 2, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 565(a).)

F14198 Gnr Joseph Reuben HECKBERT

Service

2 Sept 39 joined 1 Med Regt RCA at Charlottetown PEI
9 Feb 40 landed in England
Served as driver mech.
Went with 1 Med RCA to Sicily and Italy. In Jan 45 he became sick and left his Regt.

After passing through hospital convalescent camp and holding unit in Italy he came to this unit (9 Bn). It will be seen that during this period of long and faithful service his crime sheet is clear. His last leave was nearly two years ago. Since leaving convalescent depot in Feb 45. Gnr Heckbert has had no mail from home. This lack of news has had to considerable worry because of the situation existing in his family.

He himself is married and has three children, his sister, a married woman with four small children has lost her husband at sea. She is at present almost completely dependent on her family for support.

Gnr Heckbert's mother is dead and his father's advancing age makes proper support of the family difficult.

Already the family farm has been lost though these financial troubles.

His actions can not be excused on these grounds, but it is only proper that due consideration be given these factors contributing to what might otherwise be termed on irresponsible failure of duty.

On the whole Gnr Heckbert has served his country well.

Opening Address by Pros.

I wish to state some of facts I will endeavor to prove:

1. Accused som time between 28 Aug 45 and 1 Sep 45 took or helped take a lorry from 5 CAT Wksp without authority, and that he then helped to take lorry to Hague where he attempted to dispose of truck.

2. The truck was found in the yard of civilian in Hague and accused identified as man who placed it there.

First Witness/Supervisor T H Bullock Aux Ser 5 CAT Wksp RCEME having been duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:-

I am as above. I had occasion to turn in my 60 cwt lorry to 5 CAT Wksp for repair on 29 Aug 45. The no of the veh is ending in No 801, but I forget the first 4 nos. The truck I have now is the one that I put in Wksp. I went back to wksp to look fot truck after putting it in wksp on 3 Sep 45. I looked for it thro shop and looked everywhere in general. I couldn't locate it. Next morning I reported to control Office and I checked and it wasn't there. My Corp Cpl Snider, is the dvr-- he is the only dvr of veh at no time did I give authy to any one to remove veh from 5 CAT wksp. I next saw veh on Monday this week. ie 24 Sep 45. I saw it back in shop. At no time before 24 Sep was veh there in 5 CAT wksp to my knowledge.

Capt D C Little Control Offr 5 CAT Wksp RCEme
Second witness for the PROSECUTION/ been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

I am as above. I am wksp Control Offr. I am i/c of all vehs coming into wksp for repair. WD Veh No. 5927801 was brought into wksp for mech repair on 29 Aug 45. Repairs were made on 30 Aug 45. The normal procedure is when a veh is repaired it is put in completed veh park to be picked up by the unit. The veh was put in this park on Morning of 31 Aug 45. The unit concerned did not come to pick it pu. On a report being made on morning of 4 Sep 45, I made a search of the unit lines and the veh was not there. I had other men search Arty lines but without result. I know veh was brought back 24 Sep 45 or 25 Sep . It was brought from Helversum from #3 Cdn Pro Coy. When vhh is repaired, the person taking it away must sign work card before it can go. It is possible for someone with a wrecker to come in park and tow veh out Recovery vehs are not checked at gate normally, because they are in and out all day.

XX First time I knew veh was missing was 4 Sep 45. It is quite possible for anyone with a [illegible] to drive in and tow it out. Recovery veh never takes a completed veh out. Recovery vehs wouldn't take completed veh. There is a check on completed vehs going out. The only way a 3 tonner could get out would be suspended on a recovery veh or with a "On test" sign driven by one of our own NCO's. In compound of that size possible for wrecker to go up to a completed veh and suspend it without anybody knowing it. The picket on the gate of whole compound not on gate of completed veh park.

Court. There is no fence between completed veh park and other parts. Vehs wether completed or backloaded would go out same gate. I gave no authority for this veh to leave the Part at all. All come out same gate.

R P 83(B) complied with.

Third Witness for the PROSECUTION Lieut J E A Thomas 2 Cdn Lt Rec Sec RCEME having been duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:
(Notice given to acc) (No objection to witness)

I have 8 breakdown vehs in my sec. 7 Cdn Lt Rec Sec Cfn Young HA is one of the drivers. of one of my breakdown vehs. The acc is a co-driver. This is a work ticket for Cfn Young's veh. Breakdown No. CH 4246259 Either I or my 2 i/c Mr. Piercy sign the work ticket. The veh was not authorized for use on 31 Aug 45. There is an entry but no signature and so not authorized.

Work ticket referred to by witness produced to Ct and marked exhibit "A" and initialled by Pres.

On 31 Aug 45, there were no vehs sent out on recovery work. No veh was authorized to go to 5 GAT wksp I did not look for Young's veh or know it was away that day, ie 31 Aug 45.

Court. It is possible for someone to take a breakdown out without someone seeing them.

JA Acc was co-driver with Young on occasion but I don't know if he was on 31 Aug 45 or not. They shift around. Normally he was co-driver with Young. There must be two men on wrecker Should be two men who can drive, but maybe one doesn't. Need two to do the work. The acc is a co-driver.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Fourth Witness for the PROSECUTION F de Bruyn Buygenspark #6 The Hague having been duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor.

I am as above. At end of Aug 45 I had occasion to put two Canadian soldiers in the Hague. This was about 23 or 24, 25 or 26 Aug 45. It was during last week of Aug. I met them in Polly Bar Cafe, Wagenstraat in Hague. The accused is one of these two soldiers (indicates acc. I asked the two soldiers if they could sell any tires for my truck and then the accused said he was a mchanic I referred to acc as Andy. He told me his name was Andy. The acc said I can supply you with a whole truck next week. He asked me what price was of truck. I said "5 or 6 thousand guilders". There was no further conversation that day. I next saw accused on Friday 31 Aug when he brought the truck It was the Queens birthday. I was at corner of Groneweg and Wagenstraat when I saw accused that day. I was standing on street. The accused came walking up. He was with another soldier One of them said "I have brought a truck for you." Then we went together the 3 of us, to the truck, which was 300 metres away along the canal. It was about 230 or 3 pm. The truck was behind a recovery truck. It was handing to recovery truck, just back wheels on ground, the others were suspended. I was interested in buying truck. It was understood that I was going to buy the truck. I don't remember if anybody said "This is the truck or not". Then we went with two trucks to 170 C Zuid Oose Buitensingel. I was in recovery truck The accused was in cab with me. Harry was driving the recovery. The accused was not driving. The other truck was towed to above address. We went to that address because it was an acquaintance of mine. A week before I went to that adress and asked if I had a veh, if I could leave it there. We towed tuck to front of house. There the truck was unhitched The colored soldier unhitched the truck and the accused drove it into the back yard through an archway. There was nobody with him when he drove it into back. Then we went [redacted] the three of us went to Zukske near the bridge on Wagenstraat where we left the recovery truck. We left other truck in back yard and three of us drove in Recovery truck. The two Canadian soldiers one being accused was with me in recovery truck. After getting out of recovery truck we, three walked to "Het Wapen Van Dordrecht". We went inside and 2 soldiers sat down at table and I stood and ordered the beer.

One of the soldiers had asked for money when I saw him first that day He asked for money on the corner where I met them before I saw the truck. I did not sit down nm I gave money for payment of truck I gave him the money because I thought that If I sold the truck I would deduct the 700 Guilders I gave 700 Guilders. I was going to sell the truck. I gave the 700 Guilders to the accused. He didn't notice what he did with money. He took the money from me. He said he would come back the next day at 5 pm. That is the accused said that. He said it would be back for settlement of the payment of hte truck. I was going to try to sell it, and I would settle the affair next day at 5 pm I would give the money to tne soldiers. I was to meet them at the Polly Bar. Then I went toMr. Van der Pol in Schevinger and asked him to buy the truck. Then Van der Pol went with me to look at the truck, where we had left truck and the police were there and Canadian police and I was arrested. I was taken to Cdn Provost HQ There were about 4 Cdn soldiers there. I went back to Prov HQ next day, and there I identified the two soldiers ie the accused and the other soldier. There is no doubt that the accused is the man who took the700 Guilders. There was no other man in deal about truck. A man named Zanderbergen had nothing to do with it. He is an acquaintance of mine. On Friday on noontime I had dinner mmm at his house. I am a driver of a delivery truck. I drive for anybody. I have not been convicted of any crime or been in jail.

I met accused first approx 23 or 24 Aug. I can't remember what day. I think it was at end of week. I think it was Saturday or Sunday. I don't remember exact date. I do think it was end of week. I didnt see any nos of signs on it. 170c Buitensicil St is where De Jorges Live. They are not friends of mine, but I have had some business with them. They areacquaintances. I was apprehended on Friday 31 Aug by civilian police. I was taken to Cdn Pro HQ. They took a statement from me there and then I was taken to police HQ at Alexander plat. A Cdn Pro took the statement from me. Next day I came back to Cdn HQ Pro When I went there I was asked to identify somebody. There were four of five there. I can't tell for sure, maybe six. The Pro asked me if I knew any of them, and I said yes. mmm The people there were Dutch police and soldiers, there were 4 or 5 or 6 Canadian soldiers. 3 or 4 Cdn soldiers had tunics on. One of them was in shirt sleeves. I did not know person in shirt sleeves. I identified the two I did business with. That is only place I saw accused on Saturday. After I left Pro HQ I went to Dutch gaol. I saw 2 Cdn soldiers on Polly Bar on approx 23 or 24 Aug. I asked them if they had tires to sell. I understood I was doing wrong. I am being charged. I am out on bail. I have never been in trouble before, never been in jail before. Never been arrested for speeding. I was in gaol when statement was made. I know man called Zanderbergen He is a good friend of mine. He is a business relation, He is a business relation rather than friend.

I don't know if they asked me ie the person who took the statement from me. I was questioned. I can swear I saw accused on 25 Aug 45 if 25 Aug is Sunday preceding 31 Aug. I saw him in Polly Bay. De Buyn doesn't speak English. Maye a few words. The accused didn't speak Dutch. De Buyn only one spoke Dutch. De Buyn said about 5 ot 6 thousand guilders. I dont know exactly what he said. I am as above. I am stationed in the Hague. In view of infm recd at 1625 hrs 31 Aug 45 I proceeded with two civilian police to 170c Bitenszi in the Hague. I observed a 60 cwt in back yard of this address. The veh was 5927801. It was a 60 cwt Chev. It was an army veh WE property I waited by veh for somebody to come. Two civilians came back, one was De Buyn and the other was Zandbergen. I did nothing further that day. On the follwowing day at approx 1700 hrs 1 Sep 45 I proceeded to Polly Bar in company with 2 civ police Schouloff and Praamsta and Zandbergen We waited for wuite some time. I waited on street. Zandbergen and Schoutoff. I think tried to locate two Cdn soldiers. They wa ited around Polly Bar. I did not go out with them. They came back and said somethi g In view of infm rec'd went to Metro Bar. a short distance from Polly Bar. We entered Bar and Zandebergen identified 2 soldiers. He pointed out 2 soldiers, one colored and one taller one. The acc is one of the men pointed out. I asked the soldiers to come down to HQ. I did not place them under arrest. They came. At HQ, De Buy was brought down and when he came in. I asked him if he knew soldiers or not. There were maybe 2 or 3 other lads there. approx 5 soldiers on room altogthere. I asked De Buyn if he knew soldiers. He said yes. He pointed out dark colored lad as being the driver going by name of Harry, and the other lad white, as a mechanic going by name of Andy. There was one soldier no acc in shirt sleeves, and others in battle dress. The accused and other soldier were on couch together. De Buyn might have looked around room first. I didn't ttake De Buyn in as an identification parade. I just asked him if he recognized these two men.

XX.

I did not see any recovery truck on Friday or Saturday. Not usual to conduct an identification parade in this manner. I just asked De Buyn if he knew these two men. I might have looked at them and he followed my look. In identifiaction parade you bring in several soldiers usually. I didn't line anyone up. I didn't follow usual procedure. One acc is colored. No other colored person there. I accompanied an offr and acc when summary was being taken. DeJonys came down to our HQ. There were 10 or 11 soldiers lined up in presence of offr. taking Summary. Not lined up but lounging around room. Then Mrs. De Jong was brought into room. She identified accused. not first time she came in. She only came in once. It took her ½ minute or so to identify acc. I don't know what she said. At first she kind of stated he wasn't in room and then she looked around and said he was. She had a little time to look about room. The colored chap was not in room at time. There weren't any other colored chaps around to get. I wasn't with Zandbergen Policeman all the time on Wagenstraat. I was present when identification was made in Metro Bar. Mr. De Jong didn't attempt to identify accused. De Buyn kind of gave me a rough idea of how they looked. About Young he described as about medium built, then thin face. He did say he had a moustache. He identified Bedstrum about built and features - no particular feature or characteristic. No identifiaction was held in usual identification parade. I searched the acc next day. There was no large sum of money.
Young had a few guilders.

Re-Exam.

I was inside Metro Cafe when Zandbergen identified acc and young in Metro Bar. There were several other soldiers there also there was another colored soldier in Metro Zandbergen just walked in and pointed out acc and other.

Statement by the accused K-75516 Cfn Hedstrom E A 7 Cdn Lt Rec Sec RCEME

In answer to the charges made against me I sates as follows:-

That I was never in possession of a Chevrolet 60 cwt Lorry WD No 5927801 and therefore am not guilty of stealing same or being improperly in possession of same.

That on the 31st day of August 1945 I was marked present on the roll call that day and was not absent from the lines of 7 Cdn Lt Rec Sec and therefore was not nor could I have been present in the Hague as alleged.

On the 1 Sep 1945 in company with Cfn Young I went to the Hague in a Liberty Truck supplied by our Unit. It was on this day that I first saw Franciscus de Bruyn and Cornelia Zandberger and only after I had been apprehended and taken into custody by 1/Cpl Kallenberger of the Cdn Provost Prior to that date I did not know these two men nor did I have any dealings with them.

I further state that the methods of identification used were most unjust any very slip-shod and not at all in the usual manner. That at no time when identifications wer being made was there more than four or five other Canadian soldiers present. I further state that when De Buyn was asked to identify young and myself, 1/Cpl Kallenberger pointed us out and asked "are these the men"? When Mrs De Jonge was brought to Provost HQ in The Hague to give evdience for the Summary of Evidance in this case she was brought into the same room in which only young and I were present then she was withdrawn and four or five more soldiers were brought i to the same room Mrs. de Jonge then came back into that room. Mrs.de Jonge then came back into that room and on being asked on two separate occasions if she knew anyone there she stated "I do not know".

I therefore submit that I am not guilty as charged and ask that I be acquitted by this court.

Signed 27th day of September 1945.

"E Hedstrom"

Argument presented on behalf of K-75516 Cfn Hedstrom E A 7 Cdn Lt Rec Sec RCEME.

In order to support a charge of theft it is absolutely necessary that the article stolen be strictly identified. The evidence in this trial does not in any respect prove that the accused was ever in possession of Chrvrolet 60 cwt Lorry WD No 5927801. Even admitting that the evidence for the prosecution is true (which is denied) the only fact proved is that a Canadian soldier was in possession of a Canadian Vehicle in a yard on a street in The Hague. No witness has been produced for the prosecution who in any way identifies this vehicle other than that it was a Canadian Truck - no WD numbers or Tactical signs are mentioned by any witness. The only witness who identified the vehicle is L/Cpl Kallenberger who locates a 60 cwt Lorry WD No. 5927801 in a certain yard in The Hague but the accused was not present and there is no evidence linking him with the vehicle identified by L/Cpl Kallenberger.

The prosecution has failed to produce a little of evidence that the accused was absent from his unit on or about the 24th or 25th of August nor is there any evidence that the accused was August absent from his unit on the 31st but on the contrary the accused states that he was marked present on the roll call that date and was in his unit's lines that day.

Evidence has been given for the prosecution that a recovery vehicle purportedly on charge to Cfn Young did not have a work-ticket signed for 31st Sep. This is inconsequential and has no bearing on the charge as no witness was produced to prove that a recovery vehicle was absent from the unit lines on the 31st September. Several witnesses say that they saw a recovery veh in The Hague but not one could identify it to the Court.

Capt Little, witness for the prosecution, states that the Chevrolet Lorry in question was not reported missing until Sep 4th and he also states that the only way a vehilce could be removed from the completed vehicle Part was by Means of signing a work order or by putting a sign on the vehicel "on test" He also states that a vehicle on two by a recovery vehcle without being checked. This latter statement is a bit difficult to understand simply because it would be senseless tohave a picquet unless he did check out going vehicles.

The whole process of identification of the accused on the taking of the Summary of Evidence has a disagreeable odour to it. The accused was never justly treated at anytime during this process. At no time were the usual methods of personel identification used, no parades or line-up of other Canadian soldiers were used. Witnesses giving evidence were merely called into a room in which the accused was present along with three or four other soldiers and was actually pointed out by hand or by glance to the person attempting to make the identification. Mrs. de Jonge a witness for the prosecution was unable toin two tries to identofy the accused. The only conclusion that can be reached is that the witnesses on the Summary of Evidence had no choice other than the accused and that when they (the witnesses) appeared at this trial they readily identified the accused simply because they had a splendid opportunity to see during the time they gave the evidence on the Summary and not because they recognized the accused as being the soldier they saw in possession of the MD vehicle purportedly stolen.

De Bruyn a star witness for the rprosecution was relied on to identify the accused as one of the soldiers. He had been dealing with. The evidence shows that De Bryn was an accomplice of the perons charged with stealing government property and therefore the Court must be very wary. It is as if a Red Light was suspended on this evidence and the Court is therefore obliged to receive such evidence with very great caution. Zandbergen is in exactly the same position as De Bruyn despite the fact that the prosecution attempted to establish that he was an independent character and had nothing to do with the attempted purchase of the stolen properlty. It is like saying that a man accompanying another man that robs a bank is not an accomplice even though he does not assist the other one in the robbery. Zandbergen was with De Buyn or close by during all negetiations. Therefore his evidence also must be treated by the court with great caution.

It is a principle of English Law that the accused is presumed to be innocent until he is proved guilty and that the burden of proff rests upon the prosecution unless, therefore, the guilt of the accused has been established beyond reasonable doubt, the accused must be acquitte as the prosectuion has failed to sustain adequately the burden of proving his guilty. Thus the prosecution must not only prove the accused guilty but is must prove the accused guilty beyond reasonable doubt. If there is any doubt as to the accused's guilt he must therefore be allowed to go free.

In this Court-Martial the prosecution has failed to prove the accused guilty beyond a reasonable doubt and therefore he must be acquitted.

I am K45561 L/Cpl. Kallenberger, J.G. No. 3 Cdn Provost Coy. At approx 1625 hrs. 31 Aug 45 it was reported to this HQ by the Civilian Police, The Hague that some Canadian Soldiers had delivered a truck to the backyard of 170 C Buitensingel, The Hague and the soldiers were accompanied by a civilian. I proceede to this address in company with two civilian police J. Schatheff and P.J. Praamstra to investigate. I found one 60 cwt WD No. 5927801 and one electric generator No. P.R. 398289 in the back of the truck at 170 C Buitensingel, The Hague. From my investigation I learned the soldiers would be returning, who brought the vehicle I may have waited for about an hour and two civilians returned one named De Bruyn and the other Zandbergen. These two persons were questioned by the civilian Police and arrested. As a result of investigation of these two civilians I went to the Polly Bar, Wagenstraat on 1 Sept 45 about 1700 hrs in company with the two civilian police and the Civilian Zandbergen. After waiting for quite some time, the people we were looking for failed to show. Zandbergen noticed the two soldiers were across the street at the Metro Bar. We entered the Metro and he pointed out two soldiers whom I now recognize as Cfn. Young and Cfn. Hedstrom. I went up to the soldiers and asked them to come down to the Sec H.Q's. I Told them that I was investigating a sale of an Army Veh and that they were under suspicion. From Sec HQ, I went to the Civil Jail and brought De Bruyn him to our Sec HQ. I asked De Bruyn if he he recognized Hedstrom or Young and he said that they were the two soldiers who had sold him the truck. He said the driver was the Soldier I now recognize as Young who went by the name Harry and the other went by the name "Andy" who said he was a mechanic whom I now recognize as Hedstrom.
De Bruyn said he recognized Young because he was colored. I asked the Soldiers if they knew anything about what De Bruyn had said and their reply was they knew nothing about it.
I asked the soldiers if they wished to make a statement and they refused.

2. Exhibit "B"

Statement by G. Zandbergen

- Statement of Franciscus de Bruyn
Huygenspark No. 8,
The Hague

I voluntary state, that on the 22 or 23 Aug 45 I was in the Polly Bar Wagenstraat the Hague drinking beer, two Canad an Soldiers were in this cafe and I sat at the bar next to the soldiers. After sitting at bar a few minutes, I aksed the soldiers what their profession was? Then the one soldier said that he was a mechanic and the other said that he was a truck driver.
The soldier that said to me that he was a mechanic, was a tall, light coloured, thin-faced and calling himself by the name of Andy, the other soldier was a negro, being a medium - sized soldier and calling himself by the name of Harry.
I then asked the soldiers if they had any tyres to sell, I then started to explain to the soldiers what size of tyres that I wanted, then Andy said that they had no tyres but that they could supply me with a car, Andy then asked me how much money could we get for a car?
I then said that they could get about 5000 or 6000 guilders Andy then said that the following week on Tuesday, 28th of August or Wednesday 29th. or Thursday or Friday, the 31st. that they would bring a car to The Hague for me.
The soldiers then said O.K. and so I left.
Then on Friday, the 31st. of August at about 1500 hrs. I was waiting for my friend near the bridge on Wagenstraat when the two soldiers walked by, the soldiers stopped and came back to me and said to me that they had brought a car with them for me.
I then called my friend who was in a house and told him that I was going with these two Canadian soldiers and that he should take my car to my home.
I then went with the soldiers and they took me to the Zuidwal, alongside of the canal, to where a recovery-truck and another truck were parked and then Andy said this is the car which was standing behind the recovery-truck.
We then got on the recovery-truck and I told them where to take the truck which was to the back-yard of 170 C Zuid Oost Buitensingel. The truck, which I was buying, was towed by the recovery-truck and arriving at the mentioned address the truck was unhitched from the recovery-truck and Andy drove the truck into the back-yard of the above mentioned address. After doing this we all got on the recovery-truck and drove to the bridge on wagenstraat, leaving the recovery-truck parked at the bridge, we walked over to the hotel "Het Wapen van Dordrecht" and entered.
I then said to the soldiers that I would try to sell the truck, the negro then asked me for a payment on the truck, so then I paid Andy 700 guilders and then Andy said that on Saturday 1 st. of September 1945 we would meet in the Polly Bar to finish the bargain if I had sold the truck, so after this agreement we departed.
I then went to see Cor van der Pol of No. 38 Hemmingstraat and asked him if he wanted to buy a car, he then went with me to where the truck was parked and then arriving at this place, we were apprehended by the civilian and Canadian Police

This statement was made on the 2nd. of september 1945

Statement of Cornelid Zandbergen, Bouwstraat 36, The Hague,

I voluntary state that at about 1400 hrs. on Friday 31 August 45 Franciscus de Bruyn came to my home and that after some time we left and went to a house on Wagenstraat and I went in to deliver a message.
When I came out there were two soldiers talking with de Bruyn, one of the soldiers was a negro, medium built, fairly thin face and the other soldier was fairlie tall, large mouth and fairly thin face and blond hair. After talking with the soldiers for some time de Bruyn said to me that they had brought the car for him.
De Bruyn then asked me if I would take his car (which he had been using) to the Hotel Het Wapen van Dordrecht", I then went to the hotel after a short while de Bruyn and the two soldiers came into the hotal and sat down at a table and de Bruyn ordered some beer.
After doing this, he took a large pile of money out of his pocket and gave it to the soldiers.
He gave them quite a large amount which I noticed to be in bill-notes of 1 and 100 guilder notes.
After receiving the money the soldiers departed.
Later de Bruyn told me that the soldiers were going to return the following day at 1700 hrs. on Saturday 1 September 1945 in the Polly Bar to finish the bargain.
I would recognise these soldiers at any time, if I saw them.

Witness — No sir.

Defence — You stated in your cross-examination that you have a habit of misplacing tools?

Witness — Yes sir, a bit.

Defence — If you do it around the car would you not do it around the hut?

Witness — No sir, it is just when working.

Prosecutor — Do you content that you are absent minded only when working around the car and it is only the tools that you misplace. You have no trouble like that with your personnel kit?

[illegible] trouble with my kit.

[illegible] other witness to refer to. Britton's absent mindedness. But, although I may not [illegible] Britton soliciting is absent minded when working around the car, I do not think it necessary for [illegible] witness box, Sir.

Prosecutor — If you wish, the Court Orderly, Sgt. Mulcahy, knows Cpl. Britton well.

President — I do not think his evidence is necessary.

Prosecutor — [illegible] the Court, in view of the evidence [illegible] prosecution in this Court, if Cpl. Healey not be discharged for the following reasons:

[illegible] connection with the possession of tunic and belonging to him.

It can be stated in the evidence and not denied, that the tunic belongs to L/Cpl. Britton.

It has not been denied that this tunic was found on Cpl. Healey.

The admission of honest mistake has not been proved.

There has been a suggestion that Cpl. Britton may be absent minded. It is much too much to expect any person to believe that a soldier, while he might drop his tools going from one job to another, that he would drop his tunic anywhere or allow some one to hang it up.

I submit that Cpl. Britton, having missed the articles on the 17th May, did all he could in reporting it and that he received information one way or another, that led him to believe that the tunic might be in the hut, that he therefore did the right thing in reporting it to his troop officer.

I also suggest for the consideration of the Court, that despite the shapelessness of a suit of battle dress, that a man having worn one for some time, could very well tell by the fit that a tunic was or was not his own.

But I repeat that the cross-examination of Cpl. Britton as to whether or not he had a tendency towards being absent minded, is not a main point. I suggest that the Court not be swayed by this.

I submit that Healey has not satisfactorily explained the possession of that tunic.

Defence I might point out that this tunic apparently was missed on the 17th of May but the prosecutor has not been able to say as to where it was between the 11th of June and the date it was missed. These men lived together and if he was wearing the tunic all the time, he would have noticed it. He admits himself that the tunic could not have been hidden in his kit without him noticing it.

I submit that the prosecution should prove where the tunic was between these dates. The Bar. states that if it had been in the hut, he would have noticed it.

If a man is absent minded at one thing, he could be with another. It is always possible that a man might throw the tunic on the bed next to his, specially if he is a little absent minded. The Room Orderly, when straightening up in the morning, finding the tunic on one bed, may have hung it up on the opposite side of the bed.

It is quite an easy thing for one man to put on another man's tunic and not notice the difference. If the Court like examine the sleeves where the stripes were sewn on, they would not be noticed closely examined, they would not be noticed.

I submit that the Court should be very cautious in this case as he will be proved as a man who stole articles from his own hut and to do this there could be sufficient evidence brought here to prove this.

I draw your attention to the Manual of Military Law, [illegible] which states as follows:

"If a person is found in possession of [illegible] stolen, there is a strong presumption that he stole them or received them with knowledge that they were stolen. The onus of proving the guilty knowledge always remains upon the prosecution, and upon the prosecution establishing that the accused was in possession of goods recently stolen, a [illegible] conviction may follow, if the explanation offered by the accused is disbelieved by the Court, and which is consistent with innocence, although it may be true, and which is consistent with innocence, although it may not be disbelieved, if its truth, the accused is entitled to be acquitted, however the prosecution has failed to discharge the duty cast upon it of satisfying the Court beyond doubt of the guilt of the accused."

We admit that the tunic was found in his possession, then he have to explain how it got into his possession. The accused gaves reasonable explanation for this, therefore the Court may find him innocent.

A finding of guilty on the evidence here would be a very serious thing. According to Mr. Britton, the Sgt. put on the tunic for the purpose of catching a thief. They do not charge him of theft, however, but with being in improper possession of the tunic. If the man in coin to be proved a thief on this evidence, I would say that it is not a proper Ly.

Prosecutor While I am here in the role of Prosecutor I am not seeking [illegible] convictions. I do not want to see the man carried [illegible] as possibly the man responsible for the articles which disappeared.

Defence I might point out that it certainly was not the action of a guilty man if he took the tunic and the articles in it and then were it in the same hut as the man he took it from and left it hanging openly beside the bed of the man he took it from.

Sgt.

President Perhaps the prosecution or defence could advise us as to the manner of laying out the kit in the rooms.

Prosecution Sgt. Waldrum could probably explain it better.

37062 Sgt. Waldrum, C. F.

Prosecution Sgt. Waldrum, how is the kit laid out?

Witness The kit must be laid out on the bed in an orderly fashion but the uniforms may be hung at the head of the bed.

President Are all the uniforms hung on the wall or are some folded and laid on the bed?

Witness Either way is acceptable but sometimes hang their uniforms on the wall & others fold theirs on the bed.

President When was the last kit inspection held?

Witness [illegible]

[illegible]

Witness It would be possible but it is contrary to rules laid down [illegible]

Court closed to consider finding proposed. C.A.C.

President Do you wish to call character witnesses?

Defence No sir, there has been no evidence here that the accused is not of good character.

Prosecution I have [illegible] Cpl. Healey's brief sheet.

President Mr. Prosecutor, have you any record of previous service of Cpl. Healey?

Prosecution Yes sir, I produce Cpl. Healey's A.F.W. 6, certified as correct.

President Cpl. Healey, do you wish to question the contents of your A.F.W. 6?

Accused No sir.

President Cpl. Healey, do you wish to make any pros-examination?

Accused No sir.

President Cpl. Healey, you will be informed of the findings of the Court in due course.

Certified a correct transcription of the evidence given at the trial of Cpl. Healey, F. on the 4th & 5th of June, 1941.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of No. B7099 Gnr. Heeley, F., 9/15th Field Battery, R.C.A., 11th Army Field Regiment, C.A. Os., taken down by Major K. N. Lander, 11th Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., C.A. Os., at Field Camp, on the 23rd day of June, 1941.

First Witness for the Prosecution

B7115 L/Bdr. Brittain, F. V., 11th Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., C.A. Os., states: I have lost several articles from time to time including, money, pocket book, clothing, Pay Book (Part I and II) and personal belongings. When I woke up on the morning of 17 May 41, I found my tunic, trousers, money, pocket book, Part I and II Pay books, fountain pen and personal papers had been stolen. I reported the loss to Sergt. Campion and to Battery Sergt. Major Gazell, who sent me around with the Orderly Sergeant (L/Sgt. McKeever) to inspect the clothing of each man. We failed to locate any of the missing property, and I heard nothing more about it until the 11th of June, when two of the men said they had seen Gnr. Heeleywearing a tunic which looked as though it had had a stripe on it. I saw a tunic over Heeley's bed, which I examined and recognized as my tunic. I reported this to Troop Sergt. Major Rawlings, who told me to come to the hut whilst Heeley's kit was being inspected. None of my belongings were in his kit, except my tunic, which he was wearing. I told Sergt. Major Rawlings that my tunic had a blue cross on the inside pocket. When Heeley took the tunic off, it had an indelible cross on the inside pocket and there were stitch marks on the sleeve where the stripe had been sewn on and where the crossed hammer and tongs had been sewn on.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

F. V. Brittain .....L/Bdr.
11th Army Field Regiment, R.C.A.,

Second Witness for the Prosecution

B6139 T.S.M. (W.O.II) Rawlings, L. J., 11th Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., C.A. Os., states: On the morning of 17 May 41, L/Bdr. Brittain reported to me that a complete suit of serge battle dress, containing various articles, including money, had been removed from the peg in his hut. I, accompanied by Sergt. Campion, searched the hut and could find no trace of the missing articles. As there had been previous thefts from this hut and as it is so difficult to trace these thefts, I advised my men to keep quiet and watch. The theft was reported to the Battery Office. On the morning of 12 June 41, L/Bdr. Brittain reported to me that he suspected that Gnr. Heeley had in his possession the blouse of his suit. I reported this to Capt. Tate and Lieut. Lownsbrough and Capt. Tate told Lieut. Lownsbrough to accompany me and make a search. Acting on this order I notified Sergt. Campion and ordered two gunners to accompany me to the hut. Lieut. Lownsbrough explained to Gnr. Heeley that there was a suspicion of his having stolen property in his possession and he proposed to search Gnr. Heeleys Kit. The Kit was searched and also articles of clothing hanging on the pegs. Nothing was found corresponding with the stolen property. The blouse that Gnr. Heeley was wearing was then examined and stitches corresponding with the position of a single stripe and an Artificers badge were found on the tunic.

Second Witness for the Prosecution

Gnr. Heeley explained that these stitches were where he had been carrying flags. L/Bdr. Brittain then stated that if the blouse were his, there would be on the inside of an inside pocket a private mark, being a cross in indelible pencil which he had placed there before. This mark was found to be on the garment, which L/Bdr. Brittain identified as his in the presence of Lieut. Lownsbrough, myself, Gnrs. Heeley, Wylie and Olohan. I removed the garment and placed it in Battery Office to be held as evidence pending investigation, and laid a charge against Gnr. Heeley.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

11th Army Field Regiment, R.C.A.,

Third Witness for the Prosecution

B6006 Sergt. Campion, W. H., 11th Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., C.A. O., states: A number of thefts have been reported in the hut occupied by my sub-section, L/Bdr. Brittain having lost money on three previous occasions before reporting the loss of his uniform. The loss of his uniform, which contained money and other personal articles was reported to me on the morning of 17 May 41. Along with T.S.M. Rawlings, I inspected the kits in the hut and found no trace of the missing articles. It was reported to me on 12 June 41 that a tunic which L/Bdr. Brittain identified as his, had been found in the possession of Gnr. Heeley.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

.....Sergt.

FIRST Witness, Sgt. George Alfred Douglas Hibbert, Police Sgt. in the Breconshire Constabulary in charge of the Builth Wells section, for the Prosecution, duly sworn, states:

Cross Examination - Prosecutor:

Q1 Would you tell the Court about any circumstances you know of during the period of 1 - 2 Oct?

A1 At 12.15 on the 2 Oct I was in Market St., Builth Wells in company with W.R. Pritchard. Just below the Globe Hotel, standing on the pavement near a telephone post, I saw three Canadian soldiers. They were standing around a case containing some bottles of Ridlers Cider the case being on the pavement. Some of the soldiers had bottles in their tunics, I counted ten bottles in all. I said to them, 'Hello boys, what have you got here' and a big tall man, who I know now as Gnr. O'Brien said, 'We are having a drink. We bought these from a store.' I asked what store and Heeley replied the store opposite the Starr Supply. O'Brien said, we paid 28 shillings for it. I reckoned this up in my mind and I thought it would be somewhere about the price a person would have to pay for a case of cider and the money on the bottles and the case would be somewhere about that. The one man was very sick on the road and he had his hat down over his face and as soon as we came along he walked away down the road, I had no opportunity of identifying him. O'Brien was very talkative and quite jovial and in his conversation he mentioned to me who his Sgt. was and named him as Sgt. Black.

JA Was the Accused present?
A Yes.

While this conversation was taking place, Heeley was leaning against a telephone on the street, right by us, then he slipped down to the pavement. W.R. Pritchard put his lamp on him and helped him up. I then advised these men to place the bottles back in the case and carry them down to the camp as it would be better for them to take them there than have them on the street. They placed the bottles in the case and Heeley and O'Brien took the case and they went in the direction of the camp. I had received no complaint at all up to that time. At 9 a.m. on the 2 Oct, I received a telephone message from Mr. Pugh, landlord of the Plough Hotel. He mentioned that he had a complaint to make. I went to the Plough Hotel and I examined the premises there. I could find no trace of breaking and entering the premises at all but in the bar I noticed there was 2 scratches across the counter top as if some heavy thing had been dragged across it. Later I went to North Road, Builth Wells where

I saw an officer of the regiment and he pointed Sgt. Black out to me. I had a conversation with Sgt. Black subject to which he handed me certain property, a box of English Glory Matches and 4 Players cigarettes.

JA Individual cigarettes or 4 packages
A Individual cigarettes

I gave him a description of the men I was looking for and who I had seen in possession of the case and ten bottles of cider and we went to see BSM Gazelle and we went to a hut on the left hand side of the middle road of the camp to look for these men but we could not find them. We went out into the town and near Lewises Garrage, I spoke to one man whose name is Frigault. He looked something like the man who was seen but I could not swear to him so he came along with Sgt Gazelle and Sgt Black. We walked up the road into Market St. and near the spot where I had seen these men at 12.15 that morning, I picked up a packet of 5 Woodbine cigarettes which had been tramped flat on the road. We looked in practically all the pubs and places likely to find these men but could not find them and then a parade was arranged for 1.30 p.m. that day, a troop parade. I reported down at the North Road at 1.30. I saw two troops at work on their guns and in the second troop I saw Gnr. Heeley. I went up to him and told him that he was the man I was speaking to and who was in the company of two others with a case of cider in the early hours of the morning. I asked him if he remembered speaking to any policemen. He replied, I have not been speaking to you or any policemen. I then cautioned him and told him that anything he wished to say would be taken down in writing and may be offered as evidence. I asked him what he had in his possession and he handed me a package of English Glory Matches. These were similar ones to the ones that I had a complaint about. I asked him how much money he had and he produced a few coppers. He stated that he had loaned a pound to one chap and ten shilling note and silver to Sgt. Battersby and that he had also loaned a pound note at 7.30 on the first day at the camp to Sgt. Craig. He was then told by S.M. Gazzelle to go where he liked and to work again. I then went to the corner of North Road and sent P.C. Mayne, one of my officers to the Church Hall to fetch W.R. Pritchard. Pritchard came to the corner of North Road and came towards me. When he got to the centre of the road I called out to him "Don't come near me, go and do your work". I think that ends the evidence with regard to Heeley.

JA You recognise Heeley?
A Yes sir.
JA Do you recognise him to-day?
A Yes, there he is there (pointing to Accused).

Q2 I have here a box of matches, are these similer to the ones you took from Gnr. Heeley?
A2 Yes.
Q3 Does this particular box of matches differ from the Old Glory matches being sold now?
A3 There is a marked difference, these are the old kind of boxes and instead of the white fringes it is now a buff colour. These are old stock.
Q4 This was handed to me as a exhibit as taken from Gnr. Heeley and I would like to submit them as Exhibit "D".

JA to Witness
Q5 This is the box of matches you mentioned in your evidence?
A5 That is the box of matches.

Box of matches marked "D", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Q6 Pros to Witness:
Have you any other evidence to offer?
A6 I took a statement from Sgt. Battersby and as a result of what he told me I went to the Power Station, Builth Wells and recovered a ten shilling note. It was a broken note and I found it had been gummed to-gether. It had been ripped across twice.
Q7 Can you identify this 10 shilling note?
A7 That is the 10 shilling note sir.

Q8 I would like to submit this 10 shilling note as Exhibit E.

Ten shilling note marked "E", signed by the president and attached to the proceedings.

Q9 What time was it when you first saw the accused?
A9 At 12.15 a.m. on 2 Oct.
Q10 On the street in the proximity of the Plough Hotel?
A10 Yes. I might say that when I went up, O'Brien said to the others, Stand around and they won't notice us. They stood with their faces to the wall and the one man got sick.
Q11 In what manner were they standing?
A11 As if they did not want us to see them and as if to hide the case.
Q12 When you interviewed Heeley the following day, you stated that he had told you that he had not seen a Police Officer or been in the particular spot mentioned on the preceding evening?
A12 He did not say anything about the spot, he said he did not know where it was but he told me he had not spoken to me or any other policeman.
Q13 After you had warned him, did he make a statement?
A13 Only what I said sir, that he had loaned his money to Sgt. Battersby and Sgt. Craig and he produced the box of matches. He did say then that he had bought the box of matches in Brecon.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer:

Q14 Just how far from the Plough Hotel were these three men?
A14 About 50 yds below, on the opposite side of the street.
Q15 You say it was nine o'clock the next morning as the time you received the call satating they had a complaint to make?
Q15 Yes, as near as I could say.
Q16 You never had any communication with W.R. Pritchard regarding the description of Heeley, before you sent him down?
A16 Only what he saw himself.
Q17 It was Constable Pritchard who shone the line on the man in the street?
A17 Yes.
Q18 Would you say the men you saw was drunk or incapable?
A18 There was none of them drunk, they had been drinking but I would not say they were drunk.
Q19 Did you give a description to Sgt Black of the men you claimed to be Heeley as well as O'Brien and he could not say who they were from the description?
A19 He said, I know the men you want but we will have to go back to the camp to find them.

Questioned by the Court -

Q20 You said that when you first encountered these men at 12.15 you asked them various questions and that one of them stated they had purchased the cider for 28 shillings. Was that a voluntary statement or was it mentioned in reply to a question?

A20 They just said it after I asked where they got it from.
Q21 It was absolutely a voluntary statement and not in reply to a question by you or anyone else?
A21 That is right sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

SECOND WITNESS - War Reserve Police Constable Leonard Granville Pritchard, Breconshire Constabulary Builth Wells section, for the Prosecution, duly sworn, states:

Cross Examination - Prosecutor:

Q22 Will you tell the Court what you know about what happened on or about 1 - 2 Oct?
A22 On the 2 Oct at about 12.15 a.m. I was in company with Police Sgt. Hibbert and we were going up Market Street, Builth Wells when we saw three men standing on the left hand side of the road on the pavement leaning against a telephone post around a case of flagons. We approached these men and the Sgt. spoke to them and I put my light on and saw they were flaggons of cider and that the men were under the influence of the drink. They had several flaggons out of the case, some on the street and some flagons in the front of their tunics. The Sgt. asked these men what they were doing and they said they were just having a drink and he asked them where they had got the flagons from and they said they had bought them from a store near the Starr Supply shop and it had cost them 28 shillings. I noticed one of the men who was leaning against the telephone post had slipped to the pavement and I put my light on him and helped him up. We told them the best thing was to collect the flagons and take them down to the camp with them. We did not know anything had been wrong at that time. They put the flagons in the case and took them away. Early in the morning we had a report that the Globe Hotel was broken into. I was notified to meet my Sgt. at a certain place at 1.30 p.m.
Q23 You saw three men with the case of flagons, can you recognise anyone of the men in this room?
A23 Yes, there is one of the men (Pointing to Accused).
Q24 How did you recognise him on the night in question?
A24 He was leaning against the telephone post and I put my light on him. A few minutes later he fell down and I again put my light on him and helped him up.
Q25 Is that the man you saw and helped?
A25 He pointed to the Accused and stated that the Accused was the man he saw and helped up on the evening in question.

Q26 Go on with your story.
A26 Later on in the day, about 1.30, I was told to look around the lines and see if I could identify either of the men I had seen early that morning. I did so and identified the Accused as one of the men I saw early in the morning.
Q27 The man that you selected, is he here?
A27 Yes sir, sitting there, (points to Accused).
Q28 What is his name?
A28 Gnr. Heeley sir.

Q29 Is that all you have to say?
A29 After I picked out my man I was told to search for any of the property. later I found a cider case containing one emply flagon in the sports field which I picked up with another constable, and took to the station.
Q30 Could you identify that case?
A30 Yes sir.

Case Produced.

Q31 Is that the case?
A31 That is the case I found and returned to the station. That case is similar to one I saw with the three men but it was not broken at both ends when I first saw it.
Q32 I would like to enter this as a exhibit

Judge Advocate to Witness
Q33 Howdo you identify that case, it looks like an ordinary case to me. You say it was broken when you first saw it, what are the marks or characteristics?
A33 The case I saw was similar to that but was not broken at the ends but this is the case I found Q34 Would you say you first saw it in the evening at 12.15 hrs?
A34 Yes.
Q35 That case you saw was not broken then?
A35 No
Q36 Is it the same as when you found it in the field?
A36 That is the case that I found in the field.

Case marked "F", signed by the president ~~and attached to proceedings~~.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer:

Q37 Can you tell me how you were able to identify the accused on that night?
A37 It was very dark but by putting the light in his face and looking at him and later when he fell I again put the light in his face and looked at him and assisted him to his feet.
Q38 For what reason did he fall down?
A38 He was under the influence of drink, leaning against the post and his feet slipped out from under him.
Q39 Possibly because of the steel plates on his shoes?
A39 Yes.
Q40 Is it your opinion that the man was incapable?
A40 I was not making any charge that the man was drunk.
Q41 What indication did you get that there was to be a parade of identification?
A41 At 1 p.m. when I reported in.
Q42 Did you communicate with Sgt. Hibbert?
A42 I did not see Sgt Hibbert between the time I finished my duty until I went down for the inspection.
Q43 When you got to the camp, Sgt. Hibbert did not help you in any way?
A43 No, I was on duty in West St. and I was beckoned by another police officer to appear at 1.30 and I went to walk towards Sgt Hibbert and he said Go on about your work and I walked up the lines until I identified the man. There was no assistance from anyone when I got to the lines.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R&P. 83 (B).

Court Adjourned, 5 minutes.

THIRD WITNESS, Edmond George Pugh, Plough Hotel, Builth Wells, licensee Plough Hotel, Builth Wells, for the Prosecution, duly sworn, states:

CROSS Examination - Prosecutor:

Q44 Will you describe to the Court any facts that you remember of the night of 1 - 2 Oct?

A44 There had been a few Canadian soldiers and some Polar Bear soldiers in my house and about 5 minutes to 10 three Canadian soldiers came in the front bar. They asked for 2 pints of cider and a pint of beer. I served them and after that they wanted one more drink and I said it had just gone ten and I must close the house. They then left the house at about ten past ten or went out of the bar at that time. I stood for a time talking to an old friend of mine in the bar, then went to the front door and wished him good night and barred the door. I then went back to the kitchen and sat down by the fire till about 25 minutes past 11. Before I went to bed, about 11 o'clock, a soldier came to the door and wanted to have a drink. I refused and told him the place was locked up. I then went to bed about 25 minutes past 11 or thereabouts. I heard no sound during the night.

Q45 You said shortly before closing time three Canadian soldiers came in?

A45 Yes

Q46 Can you recognise anyone of them here?

A46 He indicates the Accused and said This man.

Q47 You said that t hey left the bar, did you see them leave the building?

A47 No I did not see them leave, there was no light in the passage and I could not see from where I was.

Plan of Ground Floor, Plough Hotel, Builth Wells produced by the witness, marked "G", signed by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Q48 Could you show the Court on that plan, how anyone wishing to leave or enter you house or go to any part of the house, could do so?

A48 In t hrough the front door or through the door in the kitchen off Brecon Road or around through the back door leading from the stables into the passageway.

Q49 How would they leave?

A49 They could go out the front door or out through the passage and out the back door.

Q50 How would anyone gain access to the cellar?

A50 The door is in the passageway. I lock it but always leave the key in the door as I often have to go down during the course of the evening.

Q51 How would you know if anyone left the bar did leave the hotel?

A51 I would not know unless I was in the passageway to see him go out the front or back door.

Q52 You s aid that you let a friend out the front door and bolted it and then went to bed?

A52 I sat in the kitchen for a while and then went to bed.

Q53 Did you open the door when a person knocked?

A53 No, I asked who it was and he said a Cdn soldier.

Q54 What happened ~~faikax~~ the following day?

A54 As a result of a message I received about ten o'clock on Oct 2 I returned to the hotel. I found the till empty so I went straight to the phone and rang the police up. I reported to the police that I had been robbed. The Sgt came up in about a quarter hours time and I reported the loss.

Q55 What did you losses consist of?

A55 Roughly about £20, 2 silver whiskey measures, 1 silver mug, 1 crate of cider, my wife's handbag, about 500 Woodbine cigarettes in packets of 5, about 150 Players Cigarettes in blue paper packages of 20, a Barclays Bank savings box and part of a dozen boxes of English Glory matches were missing from under the till.
Q56 Where do you purchase your supplies?
A56 David Williams, Brewers.
Q57 What does he supply you?
A57 With everything besides matches and I buy draft cider from the farms.
Q58 What brands of cider?
A58 Ridlers & Bulmers.
Q59 Can you tell me what kind of a case Exhibit F is?
A59 Ridlers case, similar to what we get.
Q60 Are there any other places where it is sold?
A60 There are several other public houses that sell it in Builth Wells.
Q61 What retail stores sell that brand of cider?
A61 Perhaps the Starr Tea Co, I am not sure.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer

Q62 When you went to bed on the night of Oct 1-2 you say the house was entirely locked up. Can you tell me how it is locked?
A62 The front door is locked with a bar which goes right across the door, the rear and side door are the same.
A63 If a person is inside all they have to do is lift the bar to get out?
A63 Yes.
Q64 The next morning you say you got up and went to work, how many doors did you see?
A64 Only the side door.
Q65 Was the bar properly fastened then?

A69 Yes, after I came back.
Q70 Was it closed or open?
A70 The bar, instead of being down in the hole, was partly out of one side.

A76 Like Exhibit D

FOURTH WITNESS - B7009 TBSM (WO II) Black, G. H., 11th Cdn Army Fd Regt, R.C.A., for the Prosecutor, duly sworn, states:

Cross Examination - Prosecutor:

Q93 Will you tell the Court any facts that you know about the night Oct 1?
A93 On the night Oct 1 I was returning to camp in Builth Wells at approximately 2230 hrs. I heard voices and recognised them as men from my own troop. I walked across the road to see what it was about and there I met Gnr. O'Brien, Gnr. Frigault and Gnr Heeley.
Q94 Is anyone here that was in that group that night?
A94 Indicates Accused, Yes Gnr Heeley sir.
Gnr. O'Brien was rapping on the door of a hotel which I have since found was the Plough Hotel, to askfor a drink. While I was talking to Gnr. Frigault and Gnr. Heeley I heard a womens voice answer the knock on the door but could not hear what she was saying. I then told the three of them to return to camp. I returned to camp and visited the hut Gnr Heeley was staying in. I spent about 10 minutes there talking to one of the men. Heeley did not arrive at the hut nor did the other two. I then went to my own quarters, spoke to the Orderly Sgt and turned in.
Q95 What happened on the 2 Oct?
A95 Shortly after our morning troop parade I was approached by Sgt Hibbert and in was in conversation with him for a few minutes. We then went looking for Heeley and O'Brien and Frigault. When we arrived in the camp we went and got S.M. Gazelle. He accompanied us while we were looking for the three men. They were not in camp. We went outside to go into town and on the way we came across Gnr Frigault. We kept him with us and visited all the pubs in the town but the other two could not be found. We also visited the place which had been broken into the previous evening and we then returned to camp. On the 1330 parade the police Sgt. asked permission to attend that parade. After the parade was over he identified Heeley as one of the men he had spoken to the night before. The police Sgt questioned him and he denied seeing the police or seeing or talking to me. Then he was taken outside by the police Sgt. The police Sgt came back with Heeley and informed S.M. Gazelle that he was certain Heeley was the one he was speeking to on the previous night. On t hat information S.M. Gazelle had Heeley placed under close arrest.
Q96 You say that you met three men down near the Plough Hotel?
A96 Yes.
Q97 How much drink was there in evidence?
A97 None that I could see.
Q98 You did not see anything?
A98 No sir.
Q99 There wasn't a case like this in evidence?
A99 No.
Q100 You said you arrived there and O'Brien was attempting to get in the Plough Hotel rapping on the door?
A100 He was rapping on the door.
Q101 For what purpose?
A101 To have a drink.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer:
Q102 When you came up to the Plough Hotel, you say the three men were already there?
A102 No sir, the two men were 25 to 50 yds away from the door which O'Brien was rapping on, across the road and around a corner.
Q103 This is exhibit G. This is Market St., there is the front door, side door and rear door, which door was he at?
A103 At the side door leading into the kitchen.

Q104 That was at 10.30, when was it you last saw them?
A104 About five minutes later.
Q105 You could tell they had been drinking somewhat?
A105 Yes they had been drinking.
Q106 Did you hear or seen anything of their whereabouts after that?
A106 No I was returning to camp. Heeley was insisting on O'Brien returning to camp when I left.
Q107 That was on the night of the first day the 11 Cdn Army Fd Regt arrived in Builth Wells?
A107 Yes.
Q108 What did you know about the possible state of Heeley's finances on the night 29th Sep?
A108 I had occasion to visit one of the rooms in our building at Woldingham to check blackouts and there had been a gambling game which had just broken up and Heeley had very much money in his hand.
Q109 Was there any notes?
A109 Yes and a handful of silver and I took it that he had won it.
Q110 This was on the night 29th Sep, the night before the Battery left for Wales?
A110 Yes sir.

Questioned by the Court -
Q111 You stated in your evidence that the night was very dark?
A111 Quite dark.
Q112 How then, did you identify the tree men?
A112 I know them by voice, I spoke to all three men personally.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

FIFTH WITNESS Mrs. Dorothy May Pugh, Plough Hotel, Builth Wells, for the Prosecution, duly sworn, states:

Cross Examination - Prosecutor:
Q113 Will you tell the Court, any and all the circumstances that you remember of the evening of 1 Oct?
A113 I was in the bar till about a quarter to ten and left to go for my supper and while I was having my supper in the kitchen, I heard the cellar door b eing tried.
Q114 Would you tell the Court exactly what door that was?
A114 The cellar door in the passageway, it was about ten o'clock.
Q115 Go on please?
A115 Nothing really happened till next morning when I found the till had been robbed.
Q116 You said you were serving in the bar?
A116 I was serving the kitchen customers. My husband was in the front bar.
Q117 How did you serve the customers in the kitchen?
A117 I have to walk through.
Q118 Did they pay you?
A118 The customers in the kitchen paid me.
Q119 What kind of money did they offer in payment?
A119 On the night Oct 1?
Q120 Yes.
A120 I don't really remember with regards to that night. I had been given a broken 10 shilling note a day or so before, we had two or three days takings in the till.

Q121 You say a broken 10s note?
A121 It had been ripped in half and joined to-gether with white gum paper.
Q122 Did you see the note again after the robbery?
A122 Yes, Sgt. Hibbert showed me one that was the same as I had had. It had been gummed to-gether ag in with brown paper whereas it was white paper at first.
Q123 I show you exhibit E. Will you tell the Court if there is any similarity between that and any you have seen before?
A123 I don't think the paper was so wide as this.
Q124 The 10s note you were referring to was torn, will you e xplain to the Court how it was repaired?
A124 With white gum paper.
Q125 How many times was it torn?
A125 Once, first of all.
Q126 When you first saw the note?
A126 Yes.
Q127 You a gain saw the note?
A127 Yes and it had brown paper on it when Sgt Hibbert showed it to me.
Q128 How many torn 10s notes did you have in the till?
A128 I only noticed one but I was terribly busy.
Q129 Going on from the evening of the alleged robbery, will you tell the Court what you saw the next day?
A129 When I came down I found the cellar door, inside the passageway, open and as it was never left open I wondered about it. My husband and children had gone off, my son using the kitchen door and my husband through the back door and a gentlemen came in to ask if I would ring up the police for him and he gave me 2 shillings to pay for the call. I went in to get the change and found the till had been robbed. I went out then and found that the front door onto Market St. was unbarred. I told my little boy to go and tell his Daddy to come home as someone had robbed the till.
Q130 Can you tell the Court in your opinion, how many people had been near the front door up to the time you discovered it unbolted in the morning?
A130 No one had been near it.
Q131 Could you enumerate to the Court the things that were taken?
A131 A package of Players 20s in soft blue wrapper and 1½ dox matches, 2 small silver spirit measures, 1 silver money box, my handbag and 1 case of cider flagons.
Q132 At the time of closing, how many bottles of cider were there in the case?
A132 Ten
Q133 It holds a dozen?
A133 Yes.
Q134 Tell the Court what difference there was between the matches you had behind the bar and the matches supplied to-day?
A134 I have not had any of that kind since.
Q135 What type of box was it, it is similar to the exhibit in front of the Court?
A135 Yes.
Q136 Could you tell the Court the number of places they are generally sold?
A136 I got them from Hilford.
Q137 Any other place in Builth Wells where they are sold?
A137 I could never get any.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer

Q138 You do not recognise this 10s note in any way other than it is torn?
A138 It is very old.
Q139 Could you tell me the difference between the two of these if this one was torn?
A139 No, just the fact that it is torn.
Q140 You cannot say for sure whether there were other torn notes in the till?
A140 I did not notice any and I am sure I would have.
Q141 I will draw a rectangle on this black-board, will you draw a line representing the first tear as you remember it?
A141 Yes, torn close to the centre on the left half.
Q142 You say it had white gum paper on it?
A142 Yes.
Q143 There is a box of matches, exhibit D, can you identify them?
A143 They are the very same matches.
Q144 That does not say that any other pub keeper could not have had these matches or anyone travelling through could not have had them?
A144 I could not say that.
Q145 What time was it on the morning of Oct 2 that you found the till was empty?
A146 After nine.
Q146 You did nothing until your husband came home?
A146 No.
Q147 What time did he get home?
A147 About 10 minutes after I found the till empty.
Q148 About what time would it be when he got home?
A148 About 9.15.
Q149 You say that in the morning, no one in the house having gone out that way, the bar was off the front door?
A149 Yes.
Q150 When were you last in the room that you describe as the cellar?
A150 I have never been in the cellar but the door was open when I came down stairs.
Q151 On the night of the 1st, do you remember any people coming to the door after closing time?
A151 I heard someone but we did not open it.
Q152 Did you answer or your husband?
A152 We both called, it was the kitchen door.
Q153 You left the bar at a quarter to 10 and went to the kitchen to prepare supper, did you notice if that door was shut?
A153 I did not pass it.
Q154 Is there an entrance to the bar through to the kitchen without going into the passageway?
A154 Yes.
Q155 Taking in consideration that when your husband went to bed that night he suposedly locked all the doors the only possible way that a person could have taken anything from your premises was to be inside the house when it was locked?
A155 Yes.
Q156 He must have been in before ten to have stayed in?
A156 We were late in barring up the front door as my husband was talking to a friend of his and the front door was open until this friend left.
Q157 Ordinarily you closed at ten and you don't serve anyone after ten?
A157 That is right.
Q158 Then if the door was open and your husband was in the front bar, if someone came in he must have heard them?
A158 Not necessarily, if someone came in quietly. He had the bar door shut and could not see into the passage.

RE- Examination - Prosecutor

Q159 You have put a line representing a tear on the diagram on the board. You state you saw the note twice. The first time it was torn once, the second time torn twice. Could you show the second tear?
A159 Line put in for second tear, right in centre of diagram.
Q160 Which way are you looking at that note?
A160 So that you can read it.
Q161 In this manner, the first tear to the left and the second in the middle?
A161 I cannot just remember for sure but that is as near as I can r emember.
Q162 Will you describe to the Court the type of cider?
A162 Ridlers.
Q163 It was contained in a case, was it similar to this?
A163 Yes, but not knocked about so much.
Q164 You stated there was ten bottles in it?
A164 Yes.
Q165 Do you know where else this cider is sold?
A165 All the houses belonging to Mr. Williams.
Q166 Do you know what retail stores cider is sold in?
A166 I don't think there are any.

Questioned by the Court -
Q167 Is there an Off License Store in Builth Wells?
A167 No.
Q168 Is there any other means of getting cider in Builth Wells, other than a public house?
A168 No.
Q169 How many public houses in Builth Wells?
A169 About 13.
Q170 How many of the others would sell that cider?
A170 About nine of them.
In the opinion of the Court and J.A. it is unnecessary to compy with R.P. 83 (B).
Court adjourns 5 minutes.
Re-opened.

Court -
During the recess the Court has considered various points that have come up and it is the duty of the Court to see that all the evidence referring to the charge is brought out. In other words, that if either the Prosecutor or the Defending Officer are missing essential points, it is the Courts duty to direct them. Thus, the points which the Court want brought out exhaustively are: Information as to the possible sources of supply of cider of this type in Builth Wells in a retail manner. In other words, apart from consuming cider in a public house by the glass. We feel that the witnesses are available to supply that information. Secondly - Would it be likely for a case of cider to be sold in Builth Wells at a public house, not possessing an Off License, over the bar.

Pros I would like to call Arthur Price to give this information.

SIXTH WITNESS - Mr. Arthur David Price, Locheber, Builth Wells. Brewery Manader, David Williams Co., for the Prosecution, duly sworn states;

Cross Examination - Prosecutor

Q172 How many David Williams houses are there in Builth Wells?
A172 We have 10 houses in Builth Wells.
Q173 How many houses are there in Builth Wells not supplied by you?
A173 Three, all Hancock houses.
Q174 What houses handle cider?
A174 I supply all our houses with cider.
Q175 What brands do you carry?
A175 Aidlers, Bulmers and Evans.
Q176 How many supply houses carry these brands?
A176 We are the only Brewer except for Hancock who sends supplies from Cardiff
Q177 Do they sell cider?
A177 I don't know.
Q178 How many Off License houses are there in Builth Wells?
A178 Starr Supply and Jenkins the Chemist but I don't think they sell cider.
Q179 Do you supply these houses?
A179 No.
Q180 You do not know of any other Brewer supply that supplies cider to Builth Wells?
A180 No, I don't think there is anyone.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer:

Q181 You say you don't think these two places sell cider?
A181 I don't know.
Q182 What time do these shops sell beer etc?
A182 I beleive from about 9 to 7.
Q183 You only imagine their hours to be 9 to 7?
A183 Yes, that is the time the shops are open.

Cross Examination - Judge Advocate

Q184 I understand that your houses are supplied with three different brands of cider?
A184 Yes.
Q185 You have not any main brand of supply?
A185 No we get our monthly allowance from these different places. We get anywhere from 20 to 36 cases alike that from each firm about every month.
Q186 Do you distribute these to the 9 or 10 houses you have?
A186 Yes.
Q187 I you had a shipment on the 1st Nov of 36 cases, you divide them among the 9 or 10 houses?
A187 Yes
Q188 Would you give one house all Aidlers?
A188 Not unless they asked for it or we had sold out of the other brands.

Q189 It might be Ridlers in each public house at one time?
A189 No, as some houses prefer certain cider.
Q190 What licensee always has Ridlers?
A190 The Plough and several others.
Q191 Do you ever supply them with anything else?
A191 Not unless we are out of Ridlers.
Q192 Some houses always ask for Bulmers?
A192 Yes.
Q193 Could you say how many houses to-day would have Ridlers on hand?
A193 I don't think there are any as we are right out.
Q194 Say on the 1 Oct?
A194 There would not have been a lot.
Q195 Half of them?
A195 Possibly. As I say when we get short we might make them up of different makes. We always send out two cases as a minimum sale, it is a government order that the minum sale be 1½ dozen.

Questioned by the Court -

Q196 I believe there are 12 to 13 public houses in Builth Wells?
A196 Yes.
Q197 Nine belong to you?
A197 Yes.
Q198 Is there any possibility that Ridlers cider would be sold at any of the other public houses not belonging to you?
A198 I cannot say.
Q199 Do any of the public houses in Builth Wells have an Off License?
A199 No, all our houses are Tied.
Q200 No one then, can buy a bottle or two of beer or cider over the counter and take it away with them from any of your houses?
A200 There is nothing to stop them from doing that.
Q201 He can sell a case over the counter?
A201 Yes, he doesn't require an Off License for that.
Q202 Do you sell beer the same way?
A202 Yes you can take beer away in flagons.
Q203 What is an Off License?
A203 It is like the Starr Supply Stores, merely for bottle sales, you cannot consume it on the premises.

Re-Examination - Prosecutor:

Q204 Is the supply of cider in Builth Wells sufficient to warrant the sale of a case?
A204 In normal times yes, but not now in Wartime.

Questioned by the Court -

Q205 During the course of a month, how many cases would you supply Mr. Pugh on an average?
A205 About two cases in the whole month.

Re-Examined - Prosecutor

Q206 During your tour of duty has any house reported to you the loss of a case?
A206 Only the Plough.
Q207 No other reports?
A207 No other reports of anything else anywhere.

Questioned by the Court:

Q208 Do you keep a check on the return of these cases?
A208 Yes.
Q209 During the period immediately after 1 Oct when presumably this case would have been returned to you, was there any shortage in the returning of cases to you from any house in town aside from the Plough?
A209 That is a strange question as they may not have sold out and may have some full bottles still in the case and we always wait until they have a case full of empties before taking the case.
Q210 Someone might buy a case and not return it for three months?
A210 That is right.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is unnecessary to comply with RP83B

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution - Sgt. G.A.D. Hilbert - RECALLED

Cross Examination - Prosecutor

Q211 How many Off License Houses are there in Builth Wells?
A211 Two
Q212 Who are they?
A212 Starr Supply Store and the Chemist shop which only sells wines so actually there is just the one.
Q213 What are the hours of these shops?
A213 From 1130 in the morning till 3 and then from 5.30 until 10.
Q214 Are these the hours they stay open?
A214 No the shops close early, the only way to get anything after the shops close is by ordering it for delivery at a later hour.
Q215 How many places can Ridlers sider be obtained?
A215 From information I have, Ridlers can be bought from 9 out of the 12 public houses in Builth Wells.

Questioned by the Court -

Q216 To your knowledge, is it possible to get cider at the Starr Supply Store?
A216 I wouldn't like to say.
Q217 In your former evidence, you said that the Accused was one of the people who told you that they had bought the case of cider from a store opposite the Starr Supply. What store did you take that to be?
A217 The White Hart public house. That is one of the Williams houses.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

SIXTH WITNESS for the Prosecution - Mr. A. D. Price - RECALLED

Cross Examination - Prosecutor

Q218 Among other houses in Builth Wells, do you supply the White Hart?
A218 Yes.
Q219 Can you give us the dates of when you supplied the White Hart with cider?
A219 (Witness consults his records)
On the 29th Sept I supplied no cider but picked up 1 doz empty flagons. On the 22nd Sept I picked up a doz flagons and did not supply them with any. Supplied them with 2 doz flagons cider on 15 Sept. I picked up on that date 1 doz and 11 flagons. Supplied them with 2 doz Bulmers cider on 8 Sept.
Q220 From the 8th to end of Sept you supplied them with 4 dozen and picked up 4 dozen empty flagons, less one.
A220 Yes.

Q221 Are these public houses in the habit of keeping a supply of empty flagons on hand?
A221 No I collect all the emply flagons every Tuesday.
Q222 Do you know of any supply of cider in the White Hart on the 29th when you took the last order?
A222 I cannot say as I do not look behind the bar.
Q223 What type of cider is normally supplied to the White Hart?
A223 Bulmers and some Ridlers.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer

Q224 You say on these dates, 22 and 29th you picked up a dozen flagons, does that necessarily mean cider flagons?
A224 Yes as we have not been supplying flagon beer for 8 months or more.
Q225 The fact that you picked up empties on the 22 and 29 and did not leave any only leads to the fact that they must have had some on hand?
A225 Quite possibly.

In the opinion of the Court and the Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

SEVENTH WITNESS B70888 Sgt. Battersby, R., 11th Cdn Army Fd Regt RCA, for the Prosecution, duly sworn, states:

Cross Examination - Prosecution

Q226 Will you tell the Court any facts of interest that you might know of the period 1 & 2 Oct?
A226 On Oct 2 about 1345 hrs I had occasion to borrow a 10s note from Gnr. Heeley.
Q227 Do you see Gnr. Heeley in this Court room?
A227 Yes. Points to Accused.
Q228 After that?
A228 After borrowing the 10s note I went to the Electrical Co in Builth Wells to purchase some electrical fittings to be used for Army Equipment. I also had a 10s note which was given me by Capt. Stoddard, my Bty Capt.
Q229 Were there any identifying marks on the bills?
A229 I never examined the one closely but the one I got from Heeley was torn.
Q230. How do you mean torn?
A230 Torn in half, down the centre of the note.
Q231 Had any attempt been made to repair it?
A231 There was some white substance on one side of the note as if someone had attempted to fix it. I obtained some brown gum paper and stuck it to-gether. When I was straightening it out it tore again making it three pieces.
Q232 This is Exhibit E, can you recognise it?
Q233 This is the note I obtained from Gnr. Heeley as when I put the brown gum paper on it I had nothing to cut it with and just tore it off with my fingers leaving a ragged edge.
Q234 Did you see it again?
A234 Yes in the possession of the Police Sgt just as it is now.
Q235 Where was the original tear on this note?
A235 Right in the centre.
Q236 You tore it again?
A236 Yes on the left side.

1002

Q237 You are quite certain?
A237 Yes sir.
Q238 You turned that note into the Electrical Supply Co?
A238 Yes.

Cross Examination - Defending Officer

Q239 I have no doubt whatever that when you say you can identify that note but there is one little point. I will draw a rectangle on this blackboard representing the note. Will you draw in a line where the first tear was, also where the second tear that you made, was and number them 1 and 2?
A239 (Draws lines in 1st in centre, second to the left but closer to centre than end)
Q240 What time did you borrow this money?
A240 About 1345 hrs.
Q241 Did he have any other money at that time?
A241 Some silver.
Q242 He quite willingly just said that you could have the money as though it wasn't very hard for him to part with it?
A242 Yes sir.

Cross Examination - Judge Advocate.

Q243 Why did you tear the note?
A243 I did not tear it purposely, it was when trying to straighten it out it tore at the top, again at the bottom and finally right through. The note was torn into two pieces, right in the centre. There was some white substance on it of which I took most of it off. I then turned the note over and stuck it at the centre. As I pulled it out I ripped it.

Defending Officer called upon to make closing address:-

We have heard the evidence of both sides put forward now, for the Prosecution and for the Defence and if you will just allow me a few minutes I might just run through the evidence. First the evidence for the Prosecution. The first person called, Sgt. Hibbert, started at the beginning of time and gave every detail till his evidence finished. He claims he saw three men in the road at Builth Wells, that one of his very competent fellow officers shone a light on one of the men after he had fallen down and next day did pick out the man who he said resembled him. Sgt. Hibbert states that he received a message from one Mr. Pugh, the lisensee of the Plough Hotel at 9 o'clock on the morning of Oct 2. If you will go through the evidence it shows that Mr. Pugh never phoned the police till 10.30 and that his wife states that he came home between 9.10 and 9.20 and phoned. There we have three statements which show a descrepancy of 1½ hrs. You have been given a list of things alleged to be stolen, quite some 500 cigaretts, a grand sum of £20., some silver whiskey measures, a crate of cider and many boxes of matches. The good woman says 1½ dozen boxes and the pub keeper says a dozen but I won't bother with that. When Sgt. Hibbert came around on the morning of Oct 2 on a tour of identification, you will remember from his and others evidence that on being questioned, Gnr. Heeley voluntarily produced a package of matches, some change which he had in his pocket. Now then, if all this stuff was stolen as reputed to have been stolen and the Accused had anything to do with it, you can see that whoever did this job made very smart work ot if and he would not be fool enough to carry around evidence to give him away much less a box of matches with a name on it. If someone can get these matches, why couldn't others get them and there is no evidence given to say that they could not have been procured in Builth Wells or on the way to Builth Wells. The people trying to describe the matches were very much confused, if you will remember it took some time to get two witnesses straight on that one point. Still keeping with the evidence of Sgt Hibbert, there is one other exhibit which he produced having got it from a merchant in Builth Wells, the 10s note. This is just about the most fanciful piece of evidence I have ever seen. From the diagram I submitted it will be seen that the person who allegedly owned the note in the first place says it was torn in one place first, yet the note which Heeley gave Sgt. Battersby was not torn anything like that. It was taken from other notes that he had and it was torn directly in the centre. You have heard that he was in a crap game and you know how notes get crushed up and torn in a crap game or, perhaps the note had been torn for a long time. Sgt. Hibbert goes on to say that he saw three soldiers about 0015 hrs on the 2 Oct. He claims to recognise one, he cannot recognise the third. He states that these three men were grouped around a case of cider and he also stressed the evidence that they were grouped around it as if they did not want to be seen. Now, just what person wants to be seen in the middle of the night on the main street with some drinks around him. Mr. Pugh states that one man whom he claims to recognise as the Accused, came into his pub before closing time and was there until the pub closed. You have also heard that 4 other people gave evidence to the effect that they were with the Accused in a pub 400 yds awa until that pub closed. There must have been a case of mistaken identity on the part of Mr. Pugh because 4 men would not get up and say that if it were not true. So, isn't it reasonable to suppose that Sgt Hibbert and his fellow officer could have made the same error. Mr. Pugh says that 3 soldiers came in and he recognised one to be Heeley, he gave no description of the others, none whatever. He says he stood talking to a friend for some time after which he saw him to the front of the hotel, locked it up and went back to the kitchen and then shortly went to bed. But before going to bed, about 11 o'clock, a soldier came to the door and on being asked said he was a Cdn soldier. Now you have also heard a witness for the Prosecution and again brought back by the Prosecutor, say on both occasions that he saw Gnr Heeley at 1030 that night and at that time Gnr. O'Brien was at the pub door, yet these other witnesses say that a soldier came to the door at 11. Then he goes on to say that he went to bed and he sleeps above the bar and across to the rear next but one room to it and there is the stairs leading down to the passageway. Is it reasonable to suppose that if there were people in that pub and they stole all these things mentioned, a great deal of noise must have been made forcing the cash register and as the evidence of several people show, a full case of cider was dragged across the counter,,at least the Prosecution presume that it was a case of cider that scratched the top of the bar, is it reasonable to suppose that two people would sleep through all that. Now then, we come to the good man's wife. She states she was in the bar till 9.45 when she went back to the kitchen and it was about that time, between 9.45 and 1000 she heard the cellar door being tried. Mr. Pugh said that he had not been in the cellar all that night. Mrs. Pugh said she never goes in that cellar. There must have been someone in there at that time which was between 9.45 and 10. Now, 4 men say that the Accused was away in another pub at that time. Also, at 1030 S.M. Black was with the Accused and the Accused was not in possession of any cider at 1030, which means that at 1030 the Accused was outside the pub and it closed at 1010. We do not know whether these three soldiers who had been in that pub were still in it when it was locked up or not but it is definitely proved that Gnr. Heeley was not near the pub until 1030. I did, with 2 witnesses of the Defence and 1 of the Prosecution, prove that Gnr. Heeley had all kinds of money in his possession, both in Woldingham and again in Wales in fact he had enough to buy his friends drinks. What man, with all that money, would want to go around stealing a few cigarettes, a case of cider, matches etc. As far as the case of stealing goes, there must be conclusive proof that the man stole things and that those things were in his possession when apprehended. The Accused is charged with stealing a 10s note, 10 flagons of cider, 1 box of matches. As I have already pointed out, the matches could have come from any number of sources, he may have had them on arrival at Builth Wells. Then the 10s note, Heeley had money of his own and I can conclusively prove there that the 10s note that Mrs. Pugh said was stolen, was definitely not the one that Heeley had. For a considerable time this afternoon, we heard a discourse on how you can get cider and where, which lead to nowhere. The fact remains that there are 12 to 13 pubs and 2 Off License places in Builth Wells. Mr. Price tells us cider of the Ridler manufacture is sold to 9 of these pubs, that is 8 besides the Plough. He also admits that there is no record kept of these empty cases. A constable goes to the park and finds the missing cider case but, does he find the man with it? He does not, he just finds the empty case and as I have already pointed out, it is not proof that a man stole it or was even in improper possession because to be in improper possession the constable must have taken the case from the man. Pritchard says that he saw someone he thought to be Heeley with a bottle of cider stuck inside his tunic. If the bottle was inside his tunic, how could he tell it was cider. You have also heard the evidence of Sgt. Black to the effect that Heeley was telling Gnr. O'Brien that he was going to go home. As far as the Defence sees, there is absolutely no case of stealing or of improper possession of stolen goods as they were not found on the man and the box of matches, merely because they were similar to some which had been stolen, does not mean that they were those matches and as I have said before, the men who pulled this job off were too smart to be caught with evidence of that nature on their possession. From the Defences side I can clearly see that the person or persons who did receive or steal these goods was not one Gnr. Heeley. I ask you, in the cause of justice, to acquit this man.

Prosecutor - Closing Address

The opinions of the Defending Officer were quite interesting but, there has been no evidence brought out by the Defence, with the exception of these 4 friends of the Accused who stated that they saw him there definitely at closing time. That introduced one or two facts. They were shooting crap close to a half hour before closing time until the pub closed. One man said they had some women, the other says they did not. One man says they both had women and then remembers that that was another night. Firstly we have a reliable soldier, a S.M. who made a definite statement. We have secondly the evidence of a pub keeper, an honest man, who said that these men were in the proximity of the Plough Inn up till 1030, without a drink or a case of cider. At 12.15 at night we have a definite legal identification of Heeley as being near the Plough in at 12.15 selected from a group of other men the following day. At the time he was seen at the Plough Inn, he, in company with some others, had a case containing 10 bottles of cider of the brand missing. Now, that is definite evidence that has been sworn to and taken down as evidence. Where did they procure that cider? The Defence have not offered one concrete explantion as to where that cider came from. We have the proof that the cider was in the possession of the Accused, we have nothing whatever to contradict that evidence given by a reliable police officer. Now it is for the Court to decide whether or not that case of cider which was missing from the Plough Inn and the case of cider seen with Gnr Heeley, O'Brien and the other chap were one and the same. I contend that they were the Defence having offered not one scrap of proof to the contrary. Now, in connection with the 10s note Sgt. Battersby claims he got the 10s note from the Accused. There is nothing to prove that he did not. We have got an identification of that 10s note The Defence have put up the argument that this note is not the same one as the one that was stolen from the Plough Inn and the reason for this is on account of the tears. When Sgt. Battersby was showing the Court how he was repairing the note, I asked the Court to pay particular attention as to how he was doing it. He had it face upwards and he smoothed it out then he turned the note over and said there it started to tear the same way and that tear was on the left hand side of the note. Now these identifications of the note, in so far as these two tears were concered, are identically the same and the Defence have offered no proof to the contrary. The Defence here mention a diversion of times. I don't think that the question of time enters into the informing of the police. The police state that they were notified, that fact of notification is co-oberated by the Pughs who state they notified the police. Time does not enter very much as it was a month ago when this happened and these people cannot be expected to remember minute details. The goods taken, we have a long list given by the Pughs, were matches, cigarettes, meesures, handbag and cider. The Accused produces a torn note that is identical with the note taken from the Plough Hotel. He produces, voluntarily, a box of matches which were identical to the boxes taken from the Plough Hotel. He was seen in possession of a case of cider, as the evidence brought out that he picked up one end of the case, which was identical to the one stolen from the Plough Hotel. The Defence state that Heeley had a lot of money, he was shooting crap, he has produced 4 people who claim Heeley was buying drinks yet when Heeley was arrested, he did not have 10s in his possession. Now these vast sums of money he was supposed to have was not in his possession when he was arrested that can be proven by Court by asking for his belongings. In so far as the cash register is concerned I would suggest that the Court go and look at the Plough Hotel. It is a drawer, held in place by a wooden block, and would not have to be forced. We do know then that at approximately 1030 that Heeley had no cider. We do know that at 12.15 he was in possession of 10 bottles or part of it, in company with two other men. We do know that the Plough Hotel was robbed. We do know that amongst the stuff stolen was a 10s note identifiable by a tear and a box of matches. We know that Heeley produced a 10s note and an identical box of matches and there is one important point to be brought out and that is that the Defending Officer dare not put the Accused on the stand, either to make a statement or to make a statement under Oath.

Judge Advocate sums up -

Now, at the outset, I would like to emphasize the fact that the facts are for the members of the Court alone and if I do make any observation on the facts of this case, they may or should be disregarded by the members of the Court. I am only here to assist the Court on questions of law. The second point I would like to make is that the Court must decide this case on the evidence before them, that is, evidence that has been introduced here by the witnesses. They, of course, being officers, can take notice of certain other facts such as rank in the army, duties and matters of that nature but in this case none of that arises. We have to consider two civil offences so the Court should limit themselves to the facts produced before them. Now it is a cardinal principle, a fundamental principle of English Law that a man is assumed innocent until he is proven to be guilty, the onus of proof is on the Prosecution. The Guilt of the Accused must be established beyond reasonable doubt and unless it is so established, he is entitled to be acquitted. Now, reasonable doubt is not just any doubt, a whim or caprice or some hypothetical state of circumstances what might or might not have occured, it must be a reasonable one which you generally would act upon in ordinary affairs of life. I think you know what I mean by that, if you have reasonable doubt of this case the Accused must be acquitted. Now, taking up the charges, we have 2 charges, one of stealing and the other of receiving. These charges are an alternative. In other words the Accused can be convicted on only one of them. Now stealing is defined; a person steals who, without the consent of the owner, fraudulenty, without claim of right made in good faith, takes or carries away anything capable of being stolen with the intention at the time of such taking permanently to deprive the owner thereof. Receiving; everyone who receives any property, knowing it to have been stolen, is a receiver. In both these charges the intention of the mental attitude of the Accused is made. As we all know, every day we are in possession of other peoples property. They have borrowed it but we lack the intention to deprive the owner of it permanently. Now it is not necessary to have direct evidence in cases of theft and receiving. By direct evidence I mean it is not necessary to produce witnesses who actually saw the things being stolen or received. We have what is know in law as the Doctrine of Recent Possession. That is, if a person is found in possession of goods recently stolen, there is a strong presumption that he either stole or received them with the knowledge that they were stolen. Whether it is stealing or receiving depends upon the time. To give an example, if goods were stolen and in a few minutes were found in a persons possession, you might say there was a strong presumption of theft but if it was three days later it would more likely be receiving so that it depends upon the circumstances whether or not it is stealing or receiving.

Now from the fact of recent possession, the Court can infer the necessary intention to support theft or receiving. You do not need to prove what was going on in the man's mind if you find him in possession of stolen property you may assume that he has either stolen or received it. There is a prima facie fact in being in possession which the Accused must explain. If he gives a reasonable explanation or an explanation that leaves some doubt he is entitled to an acquital. He does not have to prove that he is innocent. It strikes me in this particular case that the real issue is whether the accused was in possession of these stolen goods. That is, it is not a case in which it is admitted that he was in possession of the goods and he is trying to explain the possession away so that is the crux as I see it but as I say, the facts are really up to the Court. Was the accused in possession of stolen property on that evening? The possible finds are Guilty on one charge, not guilty of the other. Not guilty of both charges and in addition the Court may make a special finding, that is, if they are satisfied that let us say a box of matches was stolen but not the cider or the note they may find the accused guilty as charged but that he is not guilty of the cider and note. I just point that out that the court have that right, there are three or four possible ways. I wish to emphasise again that the onus is upon the prosecutor and you gentlemen must satisfy yourselves beyond reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty before you find him guilty. Is there any question that you would like me to deal with in the question of law?

Court is closed for consideration of findings.

Court is re-opened. Accused is brought before the Court

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate, it is unnecessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

Defending Officer - Plea of Mitigation -

What I have to say is very short and to the point. Gnr. Heeley has served close onto 40 days in Detention awaiting trial. He has been dragged around with the battery and put into detention at every place we have gone to. I don't need to tell you that 40 days in detention awaiting trial is harder than 80 days ~~doing~~ a sentence. I am asking you to take this into account on any sentence that you might pass. Gnr. Heeley enlisted in the 9th Battery in September 12, 1939 and has served continuously with the unit ever since. At home he was working for the Tubing and Moulding Co. Ltd., as a metal polisher and buffer which is a skilled job and he earned 32 to 35 dollars a week. He also has a junior matriculation, is married and has 2 children. The last time he heard from his wife or children was about 2 years ago. He is estranged from his wife but is still assigning $20.00 a month. He has been over here nearly three years of which time he has not heard from his wife for 2 years.

The Court is closed for consideration of sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B7099 Gnr. Heeley, F. 9th (Toronto) Field Battery, 11th Cdn. A. Fd. Regt., R.C.A.

FIRST WITNESS

Police Sergeant Hibbert G.A.D., Builth Wells district having been duly sworn states:

"J"

At 0915 hours 2 October 1942, I received information by telephone from Edmond George Pugh, licensee of the Plough Hotel, Market Street, Builth Wells, that he had missed articles from his premises sometime between 2300 hrs 1 Oct 42 and 0915 hrs 2 Oct 42. (Schedule of articles missed is attached).

I visited the Plough Hotel and after making an examination of the premises I could find no evidence of breaking in or out of the premises. I noticed marks on the bar counter as if some heavy article had been dragged across it. I remembered that on the previous night at 0015 hrs (night of 1 - 2 Oct 42) I was in company with W.R. # 5 Pritchard in Market Street, Builth Wells, about 50 yards below the hotel. I had seen three Canadian soldiers standing on the pavement around a case of flagon bottles of Riddlers Cider. The one man was leaning against the telephone post and had a flagon bottle in each hand. That man I have since identified as Gnr. Heeley. The other man, a tall dark man, powerfully built, broad shoulders, black hair brushed back over the head, was standing drinking from one of the flagons. The other man was sick on the side of the street and I have not been able to recognize him. I said to them "Hello boys, what have you got there?" and the tall dark man replied, "We have some drinks." I then noticed that they had ten flagons of Riddlers Cider and Heeley stood with his one foot on the case. I asked where they got the cider from and Heeley replied "We bought them from a store down the street opposite the Star Supply." The tall dark man said, "We paid 28 shillings for them," which is the approximate value of a case of such cider. I advised them to go on to camp then and Heeley and the tall dark man, carrying the case of cider between them, went on down the street. The third man had by this time disappeared. During the course of some talk I had with the tall dark man, he told me his sergeant was Sgt. Black. I then continued my inquiries along North road and found Sgt. Black who was pointed out to me by an officer. I told Sgt. Black that certain things were missing from the Plough Hotel and he handed me four players cigarettes and a box of England's Glory matches. I accompanied Sgt. Black to the camp where we spoke to B.S.M. Gazell and in company with him we made a search for the men I had seen the night before. I attended a parade at 1335 hrs and I picked out Gnr. Heeley as the man I had seen with the other two with his foot on the case of cider at 0015 hrs the night before. I spoke to him and told him that I recognized him as the man I had seen in that position the previous night and asked him if he remembered speaking to me. Heeley replied, "No, I have never seen you before and I was speaking to no policeman." He went on to say that he did not have any cider. I then cautioned him and told him that I would like him to produce any articles he had on his person and he produced a box of "England's Glory" matches (Exhibit "A"), old style, white label. I asked him if he had any money and he said he had only some coppers, which he showed me, but stated he had loaned a pound to Sgt. Battersby made up of a 10 shilling note and the rest silver. He also told me he had bought the matches in Brecon on the way up to camp the previous night.

I then had W.R. # 5 Pritchard look the men over and after passing the men at work twice he picked Gnr. Heeley as being one of the three men in Market Street the night before.

While looking for the men around town and passing the spot where I had seen the three soldiers drinking the cider Sgt. Black noticed a Woodbine Cigarette package on the road, it had been trodden flat and contained 5 Woodbine cigarettes when I picked it up. (Exhibit "B").

An empty flagon bottle of Riddlers cider and case were later brought to the station by W.R. # 5 Pritchard.

I interviewed Sgt. Battersby and in consequence of what he told me I recovered a patched ten shilling note (Exhibit "C") from Mr. Williams, store keeper Electric Power Station, Builth Wells

.....
Police Sergeant, Builth Wells.

The Accused in cross-examining the witness asked - "Did you go and speak to W.R. # 5 Pritchard before he came down the line of guns on his identification tour?"

Answer - "No, not until afterwards, I shouted for him to go on down the line first and see if he could see the man he wanted."

SECOND WITNESS

War Reserve Constable #5 Pritchard, L.C., Builth Wells District, having been duly sworn states:

At 0015 hrs. on the night of Oct. 1 - 2nd in company with Sgt. Hibbert in Market Street, Builth Wells some little distance below the Plough Hotel on the pavement by a telephone post there were 3 soldiers. One was leaning against the post and had his foot on a case and had flagon bottles in his hands. A tall, powerful built soldier was standing at the other end of the case. Sgt. Hibbert spoke to them and asked them what they had. The tall man said, "sure we have some drinks" and Sgt. Hibbert asked them where they had it from which they told him. The man leaning against the post tried to explain where he had it from, a place opposite the Star, and then I told him that that was the White Hart Hotel. Then the tall soldier started a conversation with the Sergeant and while this was on the third soldier was sick down the street.

The soldiers, one, the tall dark one, and the other, the one who had been leaning up against the post picked up the case of flagons up and walked off down the street towards the camp.

About 1330 hrs I was stationed at West Street facing Church Street by Sgt. Hibbert and told to stay there until called. Shortly afterwards P.C. May came to the end of North Road and beckoned me to come forward which I did. On coming into North Road I went towards Sgt. Hibbert who told me to go about my work of recognising my man. I walked up North Road looking right and left then back down, and went back up to where Sgt. Hibbert and an Officer were standing. Sgt. Hibbert asked me if I recognised any of the men I had seen early in the morning in Market Street and I said "Yes" and pointed out to the man I now know as Gnr. Healey to be the man leaning against the post with his foot on the case.

SECOND WITNESS (contd.)

After that on my way to the camp I was given instructions to search the area for an empty case and flagon bottles. Later in the evening in company with P.C. May I found an empty case with one empty flagon, inside a gateway in a playing field near the second entrance to the Camp, in Broadway, which I picked up and took to the station. It was a Riddley's case and flagon bottle.

W.R.#5, Builth Wells Police District

The Accused in cross-examining the witness asked - "Was it not very dark the night of October 1 - 2, and how could you ever recognize anybody on a dark night?"
Answer - "I turned a flashlight on you when you were leaning against the post so I had no trouble in knowing you the next day as the man leaning against the post."

THIRD WITNESS

B7009 Sgt. Black, G.H., 9th (Toronto) Field Battery, 11th Cdn. Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., Canadian Army (Overseas), having been duly sworn states:

I was approached by a police officer on the 2nd Oct. 42 at about 1030 hours. He was looking for me. He told me that my name had been used quite often in a conversation the previous night by a person who he suspected of entering a Public house after hours. With the description of the men which he gave to me and of parts of the conversation that he repeated to me I immediately knew who he was refering to but it was not to Gnr. Heeley.

On the night of Oct. 1st - 2nd at approximately 2230 hrs. I met Gnr. Heeley in company with Gnrs. O'Brien and Frigault in town. Gnr. O'Brien asked me if I would like a drink and I asked him where he could get one this time of night. He told me of a place he knew where he could get it after hours. It was a public house a few yards away. Gnr. O'Brien knocked on the side door and was answered by a woman. The woman would not open the door to him and I told them we had better return to camp as we would not get a drink there. I left them then and returned to camp.

FOURTH WITNESS

B7088 Sgt. Battersby, R.J., 9th (Toronto) Field Battery, 11th Cdn. Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., Canadian Army (Overseas), having been duly sworn states:

At approximately 1345 hrs on Oct 2nd/42 I received a ten shilling note (Bank of England) from Gnr. Healey which was torn in half. While trying to fix it with gummed paper it tore the second time. I spent this note at the Electric Power Company, Builth Wells on gun stores.

11th Cdn. A. Fd. Regt., R.C.A.

The Accused in cross-examining the witness asked - "When I gave you the note it was in two pieces was it not?"
Answer - "Yes"
Question - "Had it been fixed with anything before?"
Answer - "Yes, some white paper was on it and apparently someone had tried to patch it."

Sgt. Battersby was shown the note held as Exhibit "C") and identified it as the 10 shilling note referred to above.

FIFTH WITNESS

Williams, Geo., storeman for the Electrical Power Company, Builth Wells, having been duly sworn, states:

Two soldiers, a Sergeant, one of them, came into my store about dinner time on Friday Oct 2/42 and wanted to purchase some electrical fittings which I was able to supply them. A ten shilling note was tendered by the Sergeant in part payment of the bill. This note was torn and patched together by brown paper and I identify it as Exhibit "C" as held by the Army in this case. I later ascertained and now identify the Sergeant who tendered this note to me as Sergeant Battersby of the 9th Field Battery, RCA.

SIXTH WITNESS

Pugh, E.G., Licensee of the Plough Hotel, Builth Wells, Wales, having been duly sworn states:

There were quite a number of troops in my hotel the night of Oct 1st - 2nd, Canadian and English Polar Bears. About 2155 hrs three Canadians soldiers came into the front bar and asked for two pints of cider and a pint of beer. I served them and by the time they had finished it had gone time for closing. The biggest of the men asked for more but I refused as it had gone time for closing. At 2215 they left the bar and I ~~started~~ stayed in the bar talking to a friend and then after a few minutes I wished my friend good-bye. I then went and bolted the side door and the back door. I then sent my son to bolt the front door and went back into the bar and washed the remaining glasses up. I went back into the kitchen and sat down and talked to my wife for awhile. Some time later a knock was sounded on my side door. My wife shouted out "We are closed", and the person went away. About 2325 hrs, we decided to go to bed. I went around to see if the doors were all locked safely, which they were. I heard no noises during the night in the house.

I got up about 0750 hrs the next morning, had breakfast in the kitchen, and went out through the back door to my work.

Somewhere around 0900 hrs, I received a message from my wife saying the till had been robbed. I went home, saw my wife, and went into the bar, looked in the till and found it empty except for a few coppers. It had contained, the night before, some fifteen to twenty pounds. I then called the Police Sergeant and told him of my loss and then he asked me if I had lost a case of cider. I said "I don't know but I will go and look in the bar", which I did, and found a case of Riddlers Cider of flagon bottles missing. I then called the sergeant on the phone and told him the cider was missing. He then told me that he had seen three Canadian soldiers outside my place with a case of cider and that he would be around in a few minutes. While waiting for him to come up, I looked around the bar to see if anything else was missing and discovered I had lost about 400 Woodbine cigarettes in packages of fives, also 1 carton of Players cigarettes in 20's with blue paper wrapping, and some other articles which I gave a list of to the Police Sergeant. At dinner time when I went home my wife told me that about a dozen and a half of England's Glory matches were missing. These are of the old xxyix stock with a white paper label on them. I identify a box of matches held by the Army as exhibit "A" as being the same kind as what were stolen from me. I also identify Woodbine cigarettes held as exhibit "B" as being the same kind as were stolen from me.

SIXTH WITNESS (Contd)

(signed) E.G. Pugh
Licensee, Plough Hotel,
Builth Wells, Wales.

The accused in cross-examining the witness asked -
"Why should any reference be made to three Canadian soldiers being in your pub at 2155 hours and can you identify me as being one of them?"
Answer - "Yes, you were one of them. It was almost closing time and I remembered these three as the pub was nearly empty at the time."
Question - "Is it not true that when you walked down the street the other day to see some soldiers at work on the guns, you came back and told the Police Sergeant that there was no one there you knew, even though I was standing on the street at the time?"
Answer - "This is right but you were with the Sergeant at the time and I was referring only to the ones working on the guns. You had been called off them by this time."
Question - "You could not identify me that day, could you?"
Answer - "Yes, I could identify you that day, but I wasn't asked to."

SEVENTH WITNESS

Pugh, Mrs. Dorothy May - wife of E.G. Pugh, Plough Hotel, Builth Wells, having been duly sworn states -

I left the bar at about a quarter to ten on Thursday night Oct 1/42 and went into the kitchen. While I was having my supper I heard the cellar door being tried, I thought it was my husband as I had left him in the bar. The next morning when I came down I found the cellar door open and the bar off the front door, there was no other means of looking the front door besides the bar. About 0915 hours I went to get some change from the till for a friend and I discovered it empty except for a few coppers. I then sent a message to my husband to tell him the till had been robbed and that certain other articles were missing and he informed the police.

In the till had been a ten shilling note which had been torn somewhere about the middle but a bit towards one side and had been repaired with white gummed paper. This note was among those stolen. I have examined the note held by the Army as exhibit "C" and it is exactly the same as the one in the till only it is now torn across the middle and repaired with brown paper. I recognize it as it is somewhat dirty and crumpled.

The Accused in cross-examining the witness asked -

"At what time did you hear the cellar door being tried?"

Answer - "It was while I was having supper, sometime between a quarter to ten and ten o'clock."

Question - "Would that be the door into the cellar from the outside or the outside door of the pub?"

Answer - "It was the cellar door being tried and there is only one cellar door, which leads from the passage-way down into the cellar."

Question - "In other words, someone must have been in the cellar when the Pub closed as there was no sign of breaking into the Pub and then they must have gone out by unbarring the door."

Answer -"Yes, that is the only way I can see."

EIGTH WITNESS

H.E. Wright, Lieut.-Col., R.C.A., 11th Cdn. Army Field Regiment, R.C.A., having been duly sworn states -

I am Commanding Officer of the 11th Army Field Regt., R.C.A. On Sunday 4th of October 1942 Gnr. Heeley was paraded before me charged with a civilian offence in connection with loss of money and other articles alleged to have been stolen from the Plough Hotel, Builth Wells. During the course of my examination of witness and accused, the question of his being in possession of a box of matches was brought up. On questioning, the accused stated that the matches had been purchased in Brecon on the first of October by the accused during the time the regimental convoy was halted there. The accused described the place of purchase as being a small confectionery store on the Main street and that the proprietor from whom he purchased the matches was a man of medium height, about 35 years of age, dark hair and clean shaven. In order to co-oberate the accused's statement. I instructed Capt. Macleod, 9th Bty. to take the accused to Brecon, point out the shop and find out whether or not the proprietor recalled having served any Canadian soldiers on the day in question.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B 7099 Gnr. Healey F., 9th Field Battery, 11th Army Field Regt., R.C.A.

First Witness Police Sgt Hibbert G.D.D., Builth Wells district having been duly sworn states.

At 0915 hours 2nd Oct 1942, I received information by telephone from Edmond George Pugh, licensee of the "Plough Hotel" market street Builth Wells, that he had ~~lost~~ missed articles from his premises sometime between ~~between~~ the 2300 hrs on 1st Oct and 0915 hrs. 2nd Oct. 1942. (Schedule of articles missed is attached).

I visited the Plough Hotel and after making an examination of the premises I could find no evidence of breaking in or out of the premises. I noticed marks on the bar counter as if some heavy article had been dragged across it. I remembered that on the previous night at 0015 (night of 1st Oct - 2nd Oct), I was in company with W.R. #5 Pritchard in Market street, Builth Wells, about 50 yds. below the hotel, I had seen 3 Canadian soldiers standing on the pavement around a case of flagon bottles of Riddlers Cider. The one man was leaning against the telephone post and had a flagon bottle in each hand. That man I have since identified as Gnr. Healey. The other man, a tall dark man powerfully built, broad shoulders, black hair brushed back over the head, was standing drinking from one of the flagons. The other man was sick on the side of the street and I have not been able to recognise him. I said to them "Hello boys what have you got here." and the tall dark man replied, "we have some drinks." I then noticed that they had ten flagons of Riddlers Cider and Heeley stood with his one foot on the case. I asked where they got the cider from and Heeley replied that we bought them from a store down the street opposite the Star Supply". The tall dark man said "we paid 28 shillings for them" which is the approximate value of a case of such cider. I advised them to go on to camp then and Heeley and the tall dark man, carrying the case of cider between them, went on down the street. The third man had by this time disappeared. During the course of some talk I had with the tall dark man, he told me his sergeant was Sgt Black. I then continued my inquiries along both road and found Sgt Black who was pointed out to me by an officer. I told Sgt Black that certain things were missing from the Plough Hotel and he handed me four players cigarettes and a box of Englands Glory matches. I accompanied Sgt Black to the camp where we spoke to B.S.M. Tagell and in company with him we made a search for the men I had seen the night before. ~~On identification~~ I attended a parade at 1335 hrs and I picked out Gnr. Heeley as the man I had seen with the other two with his foot on the case of cider at 0015 hrs the night before. I spoke to him and told him that I recognised him as the man I had seen on that position the previous night and asked him if he remembered speaking to me. He replied "no"

"I have never seen you before and I was speaking to no policeman". He went on to say that he did not have any cider. I then cautioned him and told him that I would like him to produce any articles he had on his person and he produced a box of "Englands Glory" matches (exhibit A). old style (white label). I asked him if he had any money and he said he had only some coppers, which he showed me, but stated he had loaned a friend the Sgt. Battersby made up of a 10 shilling note and the rest silver. He also told me he had bought the matches in Brecon on the way up to the camp the previous night.

I then had W.R. #5 Pritchard look the men over and after passing the men at work twice he picked Pte Hurley as being one of the three men in Market street the night before.

While looking for the men around town and passing the spot where I had seen the three soldiers drinking the cider Sgt. Black noticed a Woodbine Cigarette package on the road, it had been trodden flat and contained 5 Woodbine cigarettes when I picked it up. (Exhibit "B").

An empty flagon bottle of Ruddles cider and can was later brought to the station by W.R. #5 Pritchard.

I interviewed Sgt. Battersby and in consequence of what he told me I received a patched ten shilling note. (Exhibit "C"). from Mrs. Williams, store keeper Electric Power station Builth Wells.

Exhibit Blue pergt Battersby Builth Wells over)

The Accused in cross-examining the witness asked 'Did you go and speak to W.R. Pritchard before he came down the line of guns on his identification tour."
Answer No not until afterwards, I shouted for him to go on down the line first and see if he could see the man he wanted.

Second Witness War Reserve constable #5. Pritchard R. G. Builth Wells district, being duly sworn states;
At 2015 hrs. on the night of Oct 1st 2nd in company with Sgt Hibbert in Market Street Builth Wells some little distance below the Plough Hotel on the pavement by a telephone post there were 3 soldiers. One was leaning against the post and had his foot on a case and had flagon bottles in his hands. A tall powerful built soldier was standing at the other end of the case. Sgt Hibbert spoke to them and asked them what they had. The tall man said, "sure we have some drinks" and Sgt Hibbert asked them where they had it from which they told him. The man leaning against the post tried to explain where he had it from, a place opposite the Star, and then I told him that that was the White Hart Hotel. Then the tall soldier started a conversation with the ~~soldier~~ assistant and while this was on the third soldier was sick down the street.
The soldiers, one, the tall dark one and the other the one who had been leaning up against the post picked the case of flagons up and walked off down the street towards the camp.

About 1330 hrs I was stationed at West street facing Church street by Sgt Hibbert and told to stay there until called. Shortly afterwards P.C. May came to the end of North road and beckoned me to come forward which I did. On coming into North road I went towards Sgt Hibbert who told me to go about my work & recognising my man. I walked up North road looking right and left then back down and went back up to where Sgt Hibbert and an officer were standing. Sgt Hibbert asked me if I recognised any of the men I had seen early in the morning in Market street and I said 'yes' and pointed out to the man I now know as Inr. Hurley to be the man leaning against the post with his foot on the case.

After that on my way to the camp I was given instructions to search the area for an empty case and flagon bottles. Later in the evening in company with P.C. May I found an empty case with one empty flagon inside a gateway on a playing field near the second entrance to the camp, in Broadway which I picked up and took to the station. It was a Ridleys case and flagon bottle.

The Accused in cross examining the witness asked. "Was it not very dark the night of 26th 2 and how could you ever recognise anybody on a dark night.

Answer. I turned a flashlight on you when you were leaning against the post so I had no trouble in knowing you the next day as the man leaning against the post.

Third Witness B7009 Sgt Black G.H. 9th Field Battery, 11th Can Army Field Regt R.C.A. having been duly sworn states

I was approached by a police officer on the 2nd Oct at about 10.30 hours. He was looking for me. He told me that my name had been used quite often in a conversation the previous night by a person who he suspected of entering a public house after hours. With the description of the man which he gave to me and of parts of the conversation that he repeated to me I immediately knew who he was refering to but it was not to gunner Heeley.

On the night of Oct 1st 2nd at approximately 22.30 hrs I met Gnr Heeley in company with Gnrs. O'Brien, and Frigault in town. Gnr O'Brien asked me if I would like a drink and I asked him where he could get one this time of night. He told me of a place he knew where he could get it after hours. It was a public house a few yards away. Gnr O'Brien knocked on the side door and was answered by a women. The women would not open the door to him and I told them we had better return to camp so we would not get a drink there

I left them then and returned to camp.

Fourth Witness. B7088 Sgt Battersby R.J. 9th Field Battery, 11th Can Army Field Regt. R.C.A having been duly sworn states.

At approximately 1345 hrs on Oct 2/45 I received a ten shilling note (Bank of England) from Pte. Hurley which was torn in half. While trying to fix it with gumed paper it tore the second time. I spent this note at the Electric Power Company Built Well on gun stores.

The Accused on cross-examining the witness asked;

When I gave you the note it was in two pieces was it not.
Answer: Yes
Had it been fixed with anything before.
Answer: Yes some white paper was on it and apparently someone had tried to patch it.

Sgt. Battersby was shown the note held as exhibit "C" and identified it as the 10 shilling note referred to above.

Fifth Witness Williams. Geo. E. storeman for the electrical power company Builth Wells, having been duly sworn states.

Two soldiers, a sergeant one of them, came into my store about dinner time on Friday Oct 2/41 and wanted to purchase some electrical fittings which I was able to supply them. A ten shilling note was tendered by the Sergeant in part payment of the bill. This note was torn and patched together by brown paper and I identify it as Exhibit "C" as held by the Army in this case. I later ascertained and now identify the sergeant who tendered this note to me as Sergeant Battersby of the 9th Field Battery R.C.A.

~~Sixth~~ First Witness Pugh C. J. Licensee of the Plough Hotel, Builth Wells. Wales. having been duly sworn states.

There were quite a number of troops in my hotel the night of Oct/ 1st 2nd Canadian and English Polar Bears. About 21.55 hrs three Canadian soldiers came into the front bar and asked for two pints of cider and a pint of beer. I served them and by the time they had finished it had gone time for closing. The biggest of the men asked for more but I refused as it had gone time for closing. At 22.15 they left the bar and I stood in the bar talking to a friend and then after a few minutes I wished my friend good-bye. I then went and bolted the side door and back door. I then sent my son to bolt the front door and went back into the ~~door~~ bar and washed the remaining glasses up. I went back into the kitchen and sat down and talked to my wife for awhile. Some time later a knock was sounded on my side door by a person went away. About 23.25 hrs we decided to go to bed. I went around to see if the doors were all locked safely which they were. I heard no noises during the night in the house.

I got up about 07.50 hrs the next morning had breakfast in the kitchen and went out through the back door to my work. Somewhere around 0900 hrs. I received a message from my wife saying the till had been robbed. I went home, saw my wife and went into the bar. looked in the till and found it empty except for a few coppers. It had contained the night before some fifteen to twenty pounds. I then call the police sergeant and told him of my loss and then he asked me if I had lost a case of cider. I said "I don't know but I will go and look in the bar". which I did and found a case of Ridders Cider of flagon bottles missing. I then call the sergeant on the phone and told him the cider was missing. He then told me that he saw three Canadian soldiers outside my place with a case of cider and that he would be around in a few minutes. While waiting for him to come up I looked around the bar to see if anything else was missing and discovered I had lost about 400 Woodbine cigarettes in packages of fives also one carton of Players cigarettes in 20's with blue paper wrapping and some other article which I gave a list of to the police sergeant. At dinner time when I went home my wife told me that about a dozen and a half of Englands Glory matches were missing. These are of the old style with a white paper label on them. I identify a box of matches held by the Army as exhibit "A" as being the very same kind as what was stolen from me. I also identify Woodbine cigarettes held as exhibit "B" as being the same kind as were stolen from me.

E Hugh

Licensee, Plough Hotel, Builth Wells, Wales.

The accused in cross-examining the witness asked.

Why should any reference be made to three Canadian soldiers being in your pub at 21.55 hours and can you identify me as being one of them.

Answer. Yes, you were one of them. It was almost closing time and I remembered these three as the pub was nearly empty at the time.

Question Is it not true that when you walked down the street the other day to see some soldiers at work on the guns, you came back and told the police sergeant that there was no one there you knew, even though I was standing on the street at the time.

Answer. This is right but you were with the sergeant at the time and I was referring only to the ones working on the guns. You had been called off them by this time.

Question You could not identify me that day could you.

Answer Yes I could identify you that day but I wasn't asked to.

Seventh Witness - Pugh - Mrs Dorothy Mrag. - wife of E. G. Pugh, Plough Hotel, Bunild Wells. having been duly sworn states

I left the bar at about a quarter to ten on Thursday night Oct 1/42 and went into the kitchen. While I was having my supper I heard the cellar door being tried. I thought it was my husband as I had left him in the bar. The next morning when I came down I found the cellar door open and the bar off the front door, there was no other means of locking the front door beside the bar. About 0715 hours I went to get some change from the till for a friend and I discovered it empty except for a few coppers. I then sent a message to my husband to tell him the till had been robbed and that certain other articles were missing and he informed the police.

In the till had been a ten shilling note which had been torn somewhere about the middle but a bit towards one side and had been repaired with white gummed paper. This note was among those stolen. I have examined the note held by the Army as exhibit "C" and it is exactly the same as the one in the till only it is more torn across the middle and repaired with brown paper. I recognize it as it is somewhat dirty and crumpled.

Dorothy R. Pugh

Wife of E. G. Pugh. Plough Hotel, Builth Wells. Wales.

The Accused on cross-examining the witness asked at what time did you hear the cellar door being tried.

Answer It was while I was having supper, sometime between a quarter to ten and ten o'clock.

Question Would that be the door into the cellar from the outside or the outside door of the pub.

Answer It was the cellar door being tried and there is only one cellar door, which leads from the passageway down into the cellar.

Question In other words, someone must have been in the cellar when the pub closed as there was no ~~no~~ sign of breaking into the pub and then they must have gone out by unbarring the door.

Answer Yes, that is the only way I can see.

Eighth Witness Wright H.C. Lt-Col. 11th Army Field Regt R.C.A. having been duly sworn states:

I am Commanding Officer of the 11th Army Field Regt. R.C.A. On Sunday 11th of October Gnr Hurley was paraded before me charged with a civilian offence in connection with loss of money and other articles alleged to have been stolen from the Plough Hotel, Builth Wells. During the course of my examination of witness and accused, the question of his being in possession of a box of matches was brought up. On questioning, the accused stated that the matches had been purchased in Brecon on the first of October by the accused during the time the regimental convoy was halted there. The accused described the place of purchase as being a small confectionery store on the main street and that the proprietor from whom he purchased the matches was a man of medium height, about 35 years of age, dark hair and clean shaven. In order to corborate the accused's statement, I instructed Capt. Macleod, 9th Bty, to take the accused to Brecon, point out the shop and find out whether or not the proprietor recalled having served any Canadian soldiers on the day in question.

Plea In Mitigation of Sentence On:
B 7099 Gnr Heeley, F., 78 Fd Bty,
13 Canadian Field Regiment, R.C.A.

The accused joined the army early in September 1939.

He is married in Canada and has had domestic trouble. At present he has a legal separation from his wife. There are two children; now under care of the Children's Aid Society. He provides for them by monthly assignment. Worried about his two children, this man has grown morose.

He has not found his place in the army and would like to be examined by an SPO to determine just where he fits into the picture. This man wants to fight. He needs an active outlet for his pent-up feelings. I would strongly suggest to the Court that a letter be sent to the SPO at No.1 CARU to the effect that an interview be arranged when Heeley returns there after serving sentence.

I humbly petition the Court to take the above facts into consideration when determining the length of Sentence.

W.M. Ransberry

(W.M. Ransberry) Lieut,
Defending Officer.

I, the undersigned, hereby request the convening officer to appoint Capt Kelly, No. 1 C.A.R.U., to defend me, if and when I am tried by F.G.C.M.

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE.

Mr. President, Members of the Court,

The accused has pleaded guilty to the charge of absenting himself without leave and technically he is guilty of absenting himself without leave, ~~when~~ when in close arrest. However I wish to elaborate on the circumstances and conditions of his confinement.

The accused had a considerable amount of money in his possession which had been sent to him by friends in this country by means of a money order.

I wish also to add to the summary of evidence by outlining the actual commencement of the absence without leave. The accused was allowed to wash his clothes in the washroom. There is no mention of the fact that once in the washroom, there was no guard between him and freedom. So the accused just opened the door and walke down the street.

This man had just commenced serving a years term and I support that the combination of money in his pocket, no hindrance to his leaving and the alternative of one years detention was a temptation too great for him to resist.

Regulations are made for the prisoner's protection as well as the support of authority and I contend that if regulations had been enforced, the accused would not be on trial to-day for the charge of absenting himself without leave whilst in close arrest.

Therefore in considering sentence ~~may~~ this court ~~should~~ take into consideration ~~the~~ three points.

(a) The fact that the accused was allowed to receive a consid rable amount of money.

(b) The laxness shown in his confinement and (c) The effect of the combination of the above points on the mind of a man who is just commencing a years detention.

The temptation I believe would be far too great for many of us present even in the court this afternoon.

1st Witness Prosecution

B.21036 - Gnr Johnston, T., 11 Cdn A Fd Regt, RCA sworn states:-

Identified as above.

Gnr Hewes suggested to me that we steal some razor blades from the Y.M.C.A. He said he could dispose of them. We went to the Y.M.C.A. to see where they were. Later on the same night we went and took some, during business hours. We got the razor blades by lifting them from the case near the counter. The accused said he knew where he could sell them so we took them to a store at Clindon Cross Roads and turned them over to the man behind the counter who gave us some money for them. On the first occasion he gave us 16 shillings for practically a full carton of 20 packages of blades. When we came out of the store we split the money evenly between us.
We were not together all the time between when we stole the blades and the time we sold them but hid the blades in the bush over night, but we were together all the time until we split the money.
This took place around the first of March.
The same thing took place on several different occasions and I did the stealing or every occasion except when the accused stole the blades.
The blades always were sold when I stole them.
On one occasion that the accused stole them I was on duty but the accused gave me some money afterwards.
When I was stealing the blades the accused screened me from observation and was to ask a certain question which would warn me. On one occasion I screened the accused in a similar manner while he stole the blades.
Here in the room (the hut where we live) the accused took a revolver from an empty bed and stated to me "If I can get rid of this I can make £2-0-0 or £3-0-0."
This happened after one had been reported to be stolen.

On cross-examination states:-

I am sure that it was around 1 March but I am not sure within 2 weeks.
I am quite definite about the thefts. Each package there was from 12 to 20 packages.
The accused and I were pretty close friends but I dont think the accused likes me.
The date of the accasion of the revolver might have been in February but we were wearing great coats.
I have not been promised any reward for giving this evidence.
I changed my mind about and broke away from the accused because I found out he was stealing cigarettes from our own men.
The accused and I were both going around with the same young lady and I dismissed the young lady from my mind for reasons of my own. She then took up with the accused.

On Re-Examination states:-

I dont mind pilfering from a counter but I dont like breaking and entering. I dont mind stealing from a civilian but I dont like stealing from our own men.

Cross-Examined further:-

Blades stolen were Gillet and Glomer blades. I got some from home too and sometimes put them in to make up.
I recognize the 2nd witness - Sawyer.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

2nd Witness
Prosecution

Sydney Herbert Sawyer of West Clandon, Surrey - sworn states:-

I recognize first witness, Johnson, and the accused.
I saw them both in my shop and on two occasions they came into my shop together.
On the first occasion the accused said he had blades received from home and I bought them giving them the regular wholesale price for them.
I got Gillet blades on one occasion. We pay a shilling and sell for 1/3d for a package of 5.
I am not sure how many packets there were the first time.
The accused came alone the first time and afterwards they always came together.
All the blades I bought were made in England but I thought they came from Canada because the accused told me so.

On Cross-Examination states:-

Most of the blades were Gillet blades and I identify the wrapper now presented to me.

I am not sure when the first occasion was but it was early in the year possibly February or March.

Third Witness
Prosecution

B.7168 - L/Bdr Klemmer, G., 11 Cdn A Fd Regt, RCA, sworn, states:-

I was gathering wood one day at 0630 hrs behind 29th Bty lines and I saw a man up in a tree.
I followed him to an open place and saw it was the accused. I went to Bdr Trueman from the hut and went back to the tree, climbed the tree and found the revolver.
I asked Sgt-Major Dempster to check the number of it.
The revolver was in a gas bag and was numbered J2273.
We then gave it to Capt Bruce and left it with him.
I was on guard that morning but I cant remember what day it was.
I know accused and the above happened about the time he went on leave.

Cross-Examination states:-

I am not sure of the date. It was this year and about 3 months ago.
I was not leaving my post. I could have to see what was up the tree.
Trueman and I did not go to Capt Bruce the Auxiliary Officer of this regiment and offer to sell a .380 revolver to him but we gave to his assistant to see if he wanted to buy it.
After we found out it didnt belong to the regiment we were willing to sell it, notwithstanding, the fact that it was Government property.

PROSECUTION SUBMITS:-

Evidence of Johnston, T., points to definite scheme to steal. Plan arranged between Hewes & Johnston and both took part in carrying it out one helping the other. Supports 1st charge or in alternative 3rd charge. Evidence of Johnaton that he stole blades and gave them to Hewes supports 2nd charge if court throws out first. Receiving knowing them to have been stolen, going to shop together, taking money and dividing, bears out evidence of conspiracy and plan. Execution of plan makes Hewes a principal man who plans, is equally guilty with man who executes the plan.

No reason shown by defence to consider Sawyer as anything but a shop keeper taken in by a plausible story. Sawyer a typical small shopkeeper whose books are likely haphazard, did not note blades as such but at end of day made note of all pd out.
Couborates Johnston's evidence.

4th Charge - Hewes should never have had a revolver. Seen with one in hut. Probability of leaving it in tree when one reported stolen and collecting later for disposal.

DEFENCE SUBMITS:-

Must decide cases on evidence adduced and only that evidence.

Excluding A.M.S. Dawson and storekeeper, Sawyer and the witnesses for the prosecution are people who can not be believed, namely self confessed thieves or would be sellers of Govt property and self confessed people who are not adverse to lying if it suits their purpose.

If storekeeper is an accompolice then there is no corroboration for Gnr Johnston.

No proof adduced that anyone actually had property complained of, the razor blades, stolen from them. Hence one of the essential elements of theff or receiving or conspiracy is missing.

Bdr Klemmer did not identify accused as person up tree except at a distance with his back turned and he was not vague in all his statements. Bdr Klemmer admitted he tried to sell revolver, Govt property, to Capt Bruce. Hence he a would be thief tries to make someone else out as a thief.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
In the case of -
B7048 - Gnr. Hewes, R.

First Witness - for the prosecution

B21036 - Gnr. Johnston, T., 11th Cdn. Army Fd. Regt. RCA having been duly warned states -

Some time between the first February 1941 and thirty-first March 1941, I with Gnr. Hewes, agreed to steal seom razor blades from the YMCA. Hewes and I met there one day during that time and while he acted as a screen and lookout for me, I stole some razor blades in accordance with the plan he suggested to me. That evening we went to a civilian storekeeper near the Clandon Cross-roads. Hewes asked him if he would like to buy some razor blades. He said "yes". On this occasion, I passed the storekeeper the blades. He gave me approximately 16 shillings. I gave 8 shillings to Hewes just outside the shop. Hewes and I were together all during the talk with the storekeeper. On other occasions we sold him blades and split the money. On one occasion I gave the blades to Hewes to sell and he gave me 4/6 as my share of the proceeds. On this last occasion, I stole the blades according to Hewes' and my plan, while Hewes acted as screen and lookout.

I saw Hewes with a revolver hidden under a palliase in Hut D4 (now Q13) on the day a revolver was reported stolen.

On one other occasion, Hewes stole blades from the YMCA while I acted as a screen and lookout. This was done one day when we met in the YMCA and decided just then how we could do it.

I received around 4 or 5 shillings as my share of the money realized when they were sold. Gnr. Hewes gave this money to me next day. We stole razor blades on 4 or 5 occasions from the YMCA and sold them.

Second Witness - for the prosecution

Sydney Herbert Sawyer of West Clandon, Surrey, shopkeeper, having been duly warned states -

I own a shop near the West Clandon Station. I bought razor blades from a soldier one time and from two soldiers on two or three occasions at my shop. I did not know their names. On one occasion only one soldier solde the blades to me; on other occasions there were two to whom I paid money for blades. They told me they had the blades given to them or sent to them from Canada. The two soldiers that I bought blades from are present in this room now and I can identify them. When I gave them the money, either one or the other it was, they remarked one time that they were going to give it to the boys becuase it wasn't all theirs.
