B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. *If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). NOTES ON RECORDING PROCEEDINGS AND ON DEFENCE PROCEDURE.

(Referred to throughout CF A 96 as "Notes".)

1. RECORDING PROCEEDINGS: When no shorthand writer is employed the addresses of Prosecutor and Defending Offr (RP 95(C)), any objections (RP 95(B)), and any statements by accused, may be summarized and, the evidence, subject to RP 95(A) and 114(B), may be recorded in narrative form as follows:

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 15 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 83(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 83(C) will be complied with.

3. The record of addresses, statements and evidence will be given a marginal number which corresponds with the number of the para in CF A 96, under which it is taken. Both sides of paper should be used.

4. DEFENCE PROCEDURE: RP 116 provides that for procedure on defence RP 40-42 will apply so far as practicable, having due regard to the public service. (RP 122.) If the Court consider such compliance not practicable, the following order of procedure (whether all items are used or not) is suggested as being fair to the accused:

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 90(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statement by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(iii) Evidence of witnesses for accused as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 46 fn 1.)

(iv) Evidence for prosecution in rebuttal or on new matter, if allowed by Court (RP 86(B)), or to prove previous convictions when accused has called witnesses as to character. (RP 86(C).)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 40 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 40(E), KR Can 563(a).)

(vii) Summing up by JA, if any. (RP 42.)

ASSEMBLY AND DISPOSAL OF RECORD AFTER TRIAL.

1. All deletions and alterations in printed and written record MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any. RECORD FORMS B, C OR D NOT USED MUST BE DELETED BY A DIAGONAL LINE AND INITIALLED.

2. All loose sheets of record and exhibits comprising the proceedings of the trial MUST BE INITIALLED by President or JA, if any, and then pinned by top left corner to p 3 of CF A 96 in following order:

(i) Charge Sheet. (On top.)

(ii) Convening Order with any declarations made by Convening Offr under RP 104, 106, 107, 114.

(iii) Medical Certificate(s). (KR Can 557.)

(iv) Addresses, statements and evidence in order taken during trial, pages being numbered and on both sides when both sides used.

(vi) Summary of Evidence, if not already an exhibit.

3. Any report or remarks by President or Court for attention of Confirming Offr will be attached to p 4 of CF A 96 and not form part of record of proceedings. (RP 95(D).) A recommendation for mercy will be inserted in Part I of Schedule on p 4 after minute of sentence awarded. (AA 52(9), RP 118(C), MML p 739.)

4. The President or JA, if any, will return proceedings promptly with covering letter and in an envelope marked "Confidential", or as otherwise directed.

Extra of mitigation of sentence in the case of:- Ex E. 2177.
K 42491 Capt. Henry C.W. - Westmr Regt (Motor) (C.A.) C.M.F.

The accused, in pleading guilty is not making any effort to evade punishment although he is fully aware of the gravity of the situation.

This N.C.O.'s work within the platoon is of a good standard and he has served in the line with his unit with no cause for complaint from his superiors.

A strong point in his favour, I believe, is the fact that this N.C.O. surrendered himself to the authorities, voluntarily.

He has 3 years and 11 months service.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s). (1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex H, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans NO.(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole if part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

Exhibit A

K.D.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. A 116725 Cpl. Henry, H. K., the Algonquin Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness — No. B 54688, C. S. M. Clouthier, E., the Algonquin Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

On Sep 18, 1945, at 1600hours, when afternoon parade ended, I had occasion to want to see Cpl. Henry but could not locate him. I searched the school building where the Company is billeted and he was not there; again at 1800 hours I searched the billets and still could not find him so presumed him to be absent without leave.

On three days, Sep 19, 20 and 21, 1945, at 0700 hours and several times during these days, I personally checked Cpl. Henry's quarters and he was absent.

On the morning of 21 Sep 45 at 0945 hours, Cpl. Henry reported in to L/Cpl. Bell, the acting company orderly copporal. Cpl. Bell reported the accused's presence to me and I went to his quarters and found him sleeping on his bed. I placed him under open arrest and warned that he was for orderly room the next morning.

On the morning of 22 Sep 45 Cpl. Henry was up for Orderly Room and was remanded to the Commanding Officer. I then marched Cpl. Henry out of the orderly room, explained to him again what the Company Commander had said. "You are remanded to the Commanding Officer at 1100 hours tomorrow and you are confined to barracks until then."

On the 23rd Sep 45 C.O.'s Orders were cancelled until the following day and I warned Cpl. Henry then that he would appear for orders on the 24th at 1100 hours. The morning of 24 Sep 45 the Bn. Orderly Room called D Coy and informed us that Orders had been advanced to 1000 hours. At 0955 hours I went to warn Cpl. Henry to get ready for Orders. He was absent. He had broken out of barracks. I reported to the Bn. Orderly Room that Cpl. Henry was absent. The next time I saw Cpl. Henry he was in custody of the regimental police at C. O.'s orders on 28 Sep 45.

E Clouthier C.S.M.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J.F.D.

Second Witness — No. A-117644, L/Cpl. Bell, R. L., the Algonquin Regiment, having been duly sworn, states:

On 21 Sep 45 I was acting orderly corporal for D company. At 0945 hours that day, Cpl. Henry came into D company Orderly Room and reported to me. He said he was spposed to report to the Orderly Room. Since Cpl. Henry was listed as being absent without leave I marked down the time of his return and reported the matter to C. S.M. Clouthier.

R L Bell L/Cpl.

Third Witness — No. F-64761, Cpl. Rennehan, R. V. (Provost Corps)

I certify that, owing to the exigencies of the service, the attendance of this witness cannot be readily procured. A statement of documentary evidence from this witness has been marked "exhibit A" and attached hereto. Certificate of Arrest has been marked "exhibit B" and attached hereto.

The accused was warned as follows:

"Do you wish to m ake any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The Accused:

No. A1167?5, C pl. Henry, H. K. states:

After afternoon parades I am in the habit of occasionally leaving billets and visiting friends in the town. On the 18th of Sep 45 I went out to visit my friend and we decided to have a party. We went to a cafe and had a few drinks of gin. After the cafe closed we bought a bottle of liquer and it was due to this that I did not return to billets that night.

I returned to camp on the 21st Sep 45 and reported my return to the orderly corporal. I appeared before my Company Commander on 22 Sep and was warned for C. O.'s Orders the next day.

I had promised my friend that I would meet him later. Although I was under open arrest it didn't appear that I would be up for orders that day since orders had been cancelled the previous day, so I took a chance and went to m eet my friend.

H K Henry Cpl.

I certify that Rules of Proceedure 4 (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) have been complied with.

Officer detailed to take this summary of evidence.

1st witness – Capt. J.J. Sunstrum, O.C. of "D" Coy of the Algonquin Regt. having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt. Sunstrum, O.C. of "D" Coy of the Algonquin Regt. Corporal Henry has been under my command since the 4th of March 1915. He has been a good soldier in action and has never caused any trouble until this period of N.W.L. ~~often~~. It appears to me that he has considered now that the war is over there is no need to soldier.

PLEA OF MITIGATION.

I wish to enter a plea for leniency on behalf of the accused on the grounds that he was a very good soldier when it was necessary to be a good soldier - in action.

The accused joined the regiment in November and came thro' six months of its action the hard way - in a rifle company. In all these months there was no better fighting soldier. In April he was promoted to the rank of Cpl. on his record in action, and he carried out his duties in a very capable manner at all times.

Now the war has been over for six months and the real duties of a soldier have long ceased mistakes are more easily and more often made and usually under the influence of liquor. In this case the incidents would have not happened had it not been for drink.

We know that drunkeness is no excuse but on the basis of the accused fine fighting record ~~xxx~~ in action, leniency should be shown in passing judgment on this man.

EVIDENCE

At approx 1845 hrs, on the 24 Sep 45, whil on patrol in the city of AMSTERDAM, accompanied by D-7219 Cpl. HOLLGATE H G, of this company, I had occasion to check the a/m soldier on LEIDSCHE PLEIN. I had been informed by the Ord/Sgt before proceeding on patrol, to be on the look out for him.

While proceeding along LEIDSCHE PLEIN I saw the a/m soldier who answered the description that was given to me.

On checking I found it to be the soldier who had been described, when asked how long he had been away from his Unit he stated that he had left in the afternoon of the above date.

I then ordered him into the jeep and escorted him to the Town Guard Room, where he is being held in close arrest awaiting an escort from his Unit.

I have read over and corroborate the above evidence.

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans None[5]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....[1]
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

3 CDN CORPS & ARMY TPS ORD SUB PARK

CHARGED WITH, IMPROPERLY AND WITHOUT AUTHORITY TAKING & USING A W. D. VEHICLE NO. W.D. Z-550161l (SEC 40 A.A.)

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness C-15514 SQMS KERR, J.T. 3 CDN CORPS & ARMY TPS ORD SUB PARK, sworn, states:

On 16 Oct 44, I was duty officer. At approximately 2200 hrs, L/Cpl Murphy, A.P. (B-58014) N.C.O. i/c Guard told me a vehicle was missing. Being duty officer I had not authorized any vehicle to leave area, so I immediately started investigation. At approximately 0015 hrs, 17 Oct 44, S/Sgt. Ashby, L.H.T. (C-15699) and Sgt. Foreman, D.B. (L-9062) informed me they had picked up Pte Henry, H.R. (B-65041) and Pte Herbert, E.J. (M-66507) in one of our reserve vehicles. They informed me they had placed the men under arrest and I reported the matter to the O.C.

Q. Did you authorize any trip out of camp?

A. No Sir.

Q. Did anyone ask you permission to take a vehicle out of camp?

A. No Sir.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J.T. KERR, SQMS

Second Witness C-15699 S/Sgt. Ashby, L.H. 3 CDN CORPS & ARMY TPS ORD SUB PARK, sworn, states:

On 16 Oct 44, at approximately 2230 hrs, I was given an order by SQMS Kerr to block the main road leading into Lede at the railroad crossing between Lede and the main highway from Ghent to Brussels. I was accompanied by Sgt. Foreman. At approximately 0015 hrs, 17 Oct 44, a W.D. vehicle approached. Sgt. Foreman signalled the vehicle down and it stopped. Sgt. Foreman approached the vehicle and identified the occupants which were Pte Herbert, passenger and Pte Henry driver. I approached to left side and told the driver to park his vehicle besides the railroad track. He started to drive straight ahead and I cautioned him to halt, which he did.

He then parked his vehicle and both occupants got out. I placed them under arrest and they were told to take a seat in the jeep. We drove back to camp and into unit lines where I placed Pte Henry under close arrest and Pte Herbert under open arrest. I turned them over to the Guard Cpl and reported to SQMS Kerr.

Q. Did the accused resist arrest?

A. No Sir, not at all Sir.

Cross-examined by the accused:-

We stopped it, and upon examination, the driver was found to be Pte Henry, and the passenger Pte Herbert. S/Sgt. Ashby ordered Pte Henry to drive the vehicle off to side of road and get out. He placed both men under arrest. We brought the men back to guard house & turned them over to guard Cpl. We then informed Sgt.Major Kerr of the whereabouts of Ptes Henry and Herbert and went out and brought back the vehicle to camp.

D.B. FOREMAN Sgt

Fourth Witness B-58014 L/Cpl MURPHY, A.P. 3 CDN CORPS & ARMY TPS ORD SUB PARK, sworn, states:

I was Cpl of the Guard on 16 Oct 44 and when I made my rounds, Pte Boyce, J. (B-9275) reported to me that a vehicle had been taken. This was reported to me by Pte. Boyce at approximately 1945 hrs. I reported this to the Major, as the Sgt.Major was not around. At 0030 hrs, 17 Oct 44, S/Sgt. Ashby and Sgt. Foreman brought Ptes Herbert and Henry back in a jeep. They put Pte Henry under close arrest in my charge. They went out after, to get the vehicle and brought it back.

Q. Did anyone tell you that any vehicle would be going out?

A. When I mounted the guard, I was told by Orderly Officer, SQMS Kerr, to have guards stop all vehicles in our camp area, that they would have to have a properly signed chit to go out. He told me to bring anyone in who was caught moving a vehicle.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

A.P. MURPHY L/Cpl

Fifth Witness B-9275 Pte BOYCE, J. 3 CDN CORPS & ARMY TPS ORD SUB PARK, sworn, states:

On night of 16 Oct 44, I was on guard between the hours of 1800 to 2200 hrs. Between 1900 and 1930 hrs, Pte. Herbert approached me about taking a vehicle out of the Park. There were 2 (two) other soldiers with him, unknown to me . I told him there was no chance of taking any vehicle. In the meantime, Pte Henry came up and made the remark: "No trucks to-night?" The four soldiers went into a huddle. Pte Henry approached me regarding taking a truck out. I told him there was no chance of a truck leaving the Park. So he replied he would take the damn truck out and that I should not be standing in the way.

Pte Henry left. When he was leaving, Pte Herbert shouted to him that he would see him down the road. Shortly after, Pte Henry came round with a truck. I tried to halt the truck but as he was approaching me, He turned the convoy light on. I would have fired at the vehicle, only there were several civilians in the near vicinity. About three hundred (300) yards down the main road, the truck came to a stop. I could hear soldiers running to get in the truck.

Q. Did Pte Henry say anything to you when passing in the vehicle?

A. No Sir.

Q. What attempt did you make to stop the vehicle?

A. I proceeded to the center of the road, raised my right hand. At that moment, he put the convoy light on and increased the speed of the vehicle, so I moved over to the side.

Fifth Witness B-9275 Pte BOYCE, J.(Cont'd)

Cross-examined by accused:-

Q. How do you know it was me driving the truck?

A. I saw you start the truck, from the corner of the street where I was standing.

Q. Were you still at the corner where Herbert and the bunch of the boys were, when you saw me start the vehicle?

A. I moved down from the corner about 50 yards. I followed the sound of your foot-steps to the vehicle.

Q. Could you tell me just what street and where the spot is where the vehicle was parked?

A. On right hand corner at bottom of street; from my guard post, I walked back about 50 yards. Guard post is on street corner on the street directly behing entrance to Institute.

Q. Could you prove it was me starting that vehicle and did you see me starting the vehicle?

A. I could not definitely say that I could, but I followed your foot-steps down to the vehicle. I had reasons to believe it to be you as when you left me, you told me you were taking a vehicle.

Q. Could you prove the vehicle came off that street?

A. By the noise from the engine and lights showing, I could.

Q. Then, you could not definitely prove that I was driving the vehicle?

A. Not definitely prove.

Case of R65041, Pte Henry H.R. 28 Coy M.E.T.D. &c

Civil Witness Lenny being sworn states:- 23 Gubbins Road Poplar
I am Mrs. Vermeulen, Malay ~~Regiment~~ Police.
I recognise accused Pte Henry H.R.

On ~~the~~ I was at home looking after the house. On 23rd May at 3 o'clock I left home to see a doctor. I remained talking there for about half an hour. On my way to see the doctor I met the accused in the street. He asked me where I was going & told him I was going to the doctor. He asked him if he could accompany me to the doctor's office. He went with me & said he would wait for me. The first place we went to I asked him to wait in the cafe as he could not accompany me to the doctor's. I do not know the name of the cafe. When I returned from the doctor's I went into the cafe and met the accused. We had a ~~glass~~ two or three glasses of cognac together. We had been there together with a friend during my absence. We left the cafe & went to a cinema. We obtained tickets for the cinema. I told the accused I had to go home to do an errand and would come back and meet him at the cinema. I had to go and then was arrested by the police who worked in the cafe Jute. The time was 6.20 to 7 P.M. At the time I was arrested I was sitting in the cafe for. In my statement I said I was waiting in the cafe for ~~twenty~~ minutes when the accused came in. He came over to me and asked me to go upstairs but I refused. Upon that he took me by the shoulder and looked me again & I walked him away. He came back and again grabbed me. Another soldier - the one that had the first hold of me took

He would like to ask how many more times I'll be embarrassed I say no. I want always. He then hit me and I fell over and cannot remember anything any more.

D. I am a waitress and was allowed to drink with the customers. I obtained a certain sum of the money paid by customers to him. I met the accused in January at the [illegible] Bar. The accused struck me & he used his knee first.
When he hit me I remember falling then he left me & I got up and he became unconscious. The accused had locked me out & he left with my head jammed in wall.
The accused has probably been in prison with other men. ~~I was not allowed~~ At that time I was unable to go into prison. The doctor had forbidden any driving no. I ~~was not~~ had served notice and had not V.D. When he hit me it was a fortnight. I did not give the accused any reason why I could not go into prison. He had been in prison with me before. He was a little drunk.

On the order of accusation given by Miss Helena Nemeira I immediately charged and escorted the accused to the Provost Coy. The woman was covered with blood. Roland Maty & Miss Helena Nemeira and the accused had left them. The woman's dress was covered with blood. At 1900 hrs 19 Mar 18 I was on a café the name of which I cannot remember. I had a drink with me and we walked out the café & I saw a c. here and when we got out I heard an argument going on between a girl whose name
I don't know, and the accused. My chum I had a few words and when we finished the I went up & got another. The girl gave the accused a slight shove. I looked at the two and proceeded up the lane. My chum was down my back was to them. He then started down
I looked & saw girl following in the direction of but saw the girl falling in the direction of the store which was kept by ~~the woman~~
~~a woman who I don't know by sight~~ see any more as I left, but I ~~did not know~~ think he had the store when he fell. I identify Mrs Helena Vermeiren as being the woman involved.

I had no conversation with the accused.

Four examined by Counsel the witness states.
Neither the accused or the woman were drunk. The woman was against the wall facing the accused when he kicked her. I don't know whether or not her body was against the wall but I would judge she was within 6 inches of it. The store is about 2 feet from the wall but I cannot be certain. I think the floor was wooden certain.

[illegible] did not notice any [illegible] below station. At last the woman struck the accused & stood back. There was no blood on the stone, but when the woman on the floor got back. She fell on between the bar and the stone but I cannot tell the position of her head. I then saw the accused strike the stone at a man in shirtsleeves. I did not take notice where the head was in relation to the stone. The man was bleeding when the man on the floor.

Pte B6504 Henry RAR being duly sworn states

I entered the bar [illegible] at about 9.20 p.m. I went to the bar and took a position wherein I could see over by the wall. I asked for a [illegible] for which I would pay for. She said no. I asked for the same [illegible] but she did not answer. She then put me a bank and I turned around and started to walk away. When I was about 4 ft and the door the person accused and she said that I had struck her. The person then struck me under eyes and took me to the police station. I did not strike the girl or touch her.

Cross examined by accused

I had met an Englishman by [illegible] and drank about six coloneys when the girl [illegible] me, I started to leave the cafe after telling her if could go elsewhere. I did not notice any blood on the stone until we arrived at the police station. When I left the girl was standing next to her bed as well. I don't think Miss Helen Vernon was drunk. When she looked at me I did not think she was in pain. She is quite strong and not the type of woman who would suddenly faint or fall. We were about twelve feet from the bar. When she looked at me there was an engineer about three feet from me sitting down at a table. I am twenty years of age actually but army records show me as being 21yrs.

When I left the cafe the engineer was still sitting at

The defence has no closing remarks

Prosecutor sums up - attached - end (i)

J.A. addresses the court - attached - end (ii)

Defendant's offer no plea in mitigation

Mr. President and Members of the Court, the Prosecution has shown that Helene Vermeiren was struck a blow by the accused. The Defense has produced no evidence to disprove these facts. Gentlemen this is not a case of Moral obligquity but one of Common Assault, the Prosecution is not denying the fact that the woman Vermeiren is a prostitute but you Gentlemen are only concerned with the case as charged. It remains Gentlemen, for you in the interests of Justice and for the good of the Canadian Army to find the accused guilty.

J.K. Beattie Capt.

(ii) Judge Advocate Addresses

It is part of my duty as judge advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the court on the law.

The court is, however, the sole judge of the facts, and anything I say now or may have said previously, in directing my personal knowledge as to the facts should be entirely disregarded.

The offence embodied in the charge is that of common assault. This offence is satisfactorily defined for our purposes in the MCM at 113 - which I now read.

The battery is included in the "assault".

There is no question of indecent assault in this case. I do not believe it is necessary to say anything further as to the offence itself.

I must remind the court that the accused is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. I mean by that, some doubt which is based upon the facts before the court and not some doubt which is purely imaginary.

The onus is on the prosecution. It is not for the accused to prove himself innocent - it is for the prosecution to prove him guilty.

That is all I have to say unless the Court or the Defending Off or Prosecutor require explanation on some point I may have overlooked.

Mr. President are there any points on which you wish me to address the Court? no

Mr. Defending Off ... ? no.

Mr. Prosecuting Off ... ? no.

At approximately 1700 hrs 23 Mar 45, I left the Cafe, Taverne Jose, Ghent, in Bagetten Straat. I met a Canadian soldier whom I know as Bob and whom I hadn't seen since January. After that the soldier went to the show. I promised to join him there.

I went home and at 1930 hrs the soldier entered my Cafe. Three of his friends where already there. The soldier asked me three or four times to go upstairs with him, and as I refused he grasped me by the threat. I kicked him off but he pushed me into a corner and grapped me again by the throat and asked me how many times I would say "no". I answered always. At this time two of his friends excited him by saying "go ahead". The soldier then struck me on the mouth. That is all I remember as I fainted. I can definitely identify the soldier.

First Witness for the Defence, the accused, B-67093 RQMS Henry, J P, R Regt C, having been duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.73 - Give your appointment, number and rank to the Court?
A.73 - I am B-67093 RQMS Henry, J P, RQMS of R Regt C.
Q.74 - I believe you have held that post since two months prior to the Dieppe raid in 1942, in June. What was your position before that?
A.74 - Sir, I joined the 1 Bn R Regt C on Sep 15, 1939.
Q.75 - Do you remember any instances which occurred on 22 Oct this year?
A.75 - Yes, sir.
Q.76 - Will you please relate them to the Court?
A.76 - At approx 1615 hrs on the night I ordered Pte Kellar, the driver of the ration truck, to take me to Antwerp with a view to getting an X-ray of my right hand which previously I had in a cast because of the fact it was broken. The second finger knuckle. They said to keep the cast on for a month, but in two weeks it irritated and I took it off myself. I asked Capt Wilkie about it before I took the cast off, that it hurt and I should have an X-ray, and he replied 'You know damn well that the MO's know their job - leave it on for a month. Two days after that the hand began to swell - after I broke off the cast myself. Again I asked him if I could get it X-rayed. He said who took off the cast. I told him I did. I went to 76 CCS near Capellan and he told me I would have to go to 6 Gen Hosp in Antwerp to get an X-ray. So after the hand was still sore I decided to go to the hospt to see if it was broken and I needed a new cast. I went to Antwerp but couldn't find 6 Gen Hosp. We looked around, asked to English Police but they couldn't tell us. I said to Kellar, drive off home. I saw a cafe on a side street. I told him to stop and went into the bar where I had 4 Belgian beers. Then I got into the cab again and we drove back to B Ech. But there was no recreation or amusement there, no moves, no means of entertainment, so I decided to visit F Ech. I ordered Kellar to drive to F Ech. I visited CQMS King there. We talked for a while, then he suggested a game of cards. I played until 3 or 4 in the morning. King said it was about time to go to bed. King and I decided to quit and go to bed. I got up at 6:30 and drove back to B Ech at the time stated.
Q.77 - In your normal course of duties, would you drive from B to A and to F Ech?
A.77 - Yes, sir.
Q.78 - And would you give the necessary order for the vehicle?
A.78 - Yes, sir.
Q.79 - You would go there to check on things?
A.79 - As a matter of fact I seldom went to check up. I waited for trouble to come to me. I figures if the Coy CQs wanted anything they'd see me.
Q.80 - Did you have any conversation with Cap Wilkie on that day?
A.80 - In what respect?
Q.81 - In respect to him telling you to stay put?
A.81 - He left to go to 8 Recce Bn and said stay put. He mentioned no set time. Later I turned camp over to Sgt Huggins, told him where I was going, to Antwerp.
Q.82 - Was your hand more painful that day?
A.82 - Yes, sir, it was.
Q.83 - Was that the only reason you went to Antwerp?
A.83 - Yes, sir, it was, for an X-ray of my hand, only.

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.84 - You have been in the Army since 1939. You must know quite well about ordinary military procedure. Ordinarily you don't just to to a Gen Hosp yourself and report.
A.84 - I had thought I would get a cast puton, then see my own MO.

Q.85 - The regular practice is to go on sick parade isn't it?
A.85 - Yes, sir.
Q.86 - When you go to a hospital you get an authority, a chit from your MO. Is that correct?
A.86 - Yes, sir.
Q.87 - There must have been a number of MOs at the CCP, ADS, or at your own B Ech?
A.87 - Yes, sir.
Q.88 - Good practice would have been to have gone to one of these and let them decide whether an X-ray was necessary or not?
A.88 - I did, sir.
Q.89 - Not at that time. As I recall you had a cast on your hand and you took that cast off. You should have left it on for the X-ray.
A.89 - One doctor told me to keep it on a month and another told me - another MO - 2 weeks.
Q.90 - Well when you went to the MO did you tell him how long you had to keep the cast on?
A.90 - I told him that the MO who put the cast on didn't say. He said two weeks was enough. So in two weeks I removed the cast.
Q.91 - Ordinarily in your course of duty you would go to Antwerp fairly frequently would you not?
A.91 - No, sir.
Q.92 - Well don't you have to go back to Antwerp for supplies?
A.92 - No, sir.
Q.93 - Why did you suddenly decide one hour after the time Capt Wilkie left to take a 60-cwt and drive into Antwerp?
A.93 - I got up into the truck looking for a certain box. The lid of a box struck me on the hand.
Q.94 - Why not go to the MO?
A.94 - Experience told me an X-ray was needed. I know previously I should have got my hand X-rayed.
Q.95 - What was the reason you went from B Ech to F Ech? For amusement?
A.95 - I went to pay a visit and to combine business with pleasure. CSM Wing didn't mention business.
Q.96 - Ordinarily you wouldn't take a 60-cwt for that trip would you?
A.96 - If no other vehicle was available, yes.
Q.97 - Did you go up to F Ech with the rations usually?
A.97 - No the ration Sgt went with the rations. Sometimes I would go up with Capt Wilkie or with a jeep. But at no set times.

The Defending Officer declines to re-examine the witness.

Questioned by the Court.

Q.98 - I would like to get a few things in chronological order. How long after this cast was applied did you take it off?
A.98 - After two weeks, sir.
Q.99 - And the cast was rubbing the flesh?
A.99 - Yes, sir.
Q.100 - For how long?
A.100 - From the second day I had it.
Q.101 - How long did you have the cast off before you started your trip to Antwerp? How many days?
A.101 - I'm not sure of the time, sir.
Q.102 - Well you had it off for some days?
A.102 - That's right, sir.
Q.103 - Where was F Ech that night?
A.103 - I don't know. Not very far from B Ech.

JA

Q.104 - Why didn't you ask where 6 Cdn Gen Hosp was before you left the unit?
A.104 - They could not tell me, nobody knew. Both officers were absent, sir.
Q.105 - Why didn't you go into one of the other HQ you passed on the way to Antwerp and find out where 6 Gen Hosp was?
A.105 - I missed a bet there, sir.

Q.106 - You have told us that night your hand was painful, and you couldn't find the hospital. Why didn't you go to the MO?
A.106 - I figured it was no use. They told me it was no use until I had the X-ray.
Q.107 - Didn't you jam a box on it?
A.107 - Yes, sir, but I knew it was no good soaking it in hot water, like the MO told me next day.
Q.108 - Why wasn't it any good that day?
A.108 - I wanted the X-ray first, sir.
Q.109 - You'd rather play cards with a broken hand than go to the MO?
A.109 - If the hand was still broken, sir, I wanted to know it. Have it X-rayed and have another cast or plastic bandage put on it if necessary.
Q.110 - You had already taken one cast off yourself?
A.110 - That is right.
Q.111 - Did you think No 6 Gen Hosp would take an X-ray without an authorization from your MO?
A.111 - I had a chit, sir. When I went previous to No 76 CCS, before we moved to Capellan, I had the cast on and they said they couldn't examine it, only X-ray could do that, and they gave me a chit to No 6 Cdn Gen Hosp.
Q.112 - How long did you have the chit?
A.112 - Before this night. Two or three days.
Q.113 - Have you got this chit now?
A.113 - I handed it in to the hospital, sir, No 6 Gen Hosp?
Q.114 - When?
A.114 - A few days later, sir. The 25 or 26 Oct

Court

Q.115 - In short, you arranged for the X-ray about 14 days after you removed the cats. Is that right?
A.115 - Yes, sir, around 14 days, because I left it on for 14 days, and 2 or 3 days after it started to swell I got the chit.
Q.116 - After you received the order and had been told to stay in camp by Capt Wilkie, don't you think you should have stayed in?
A.116 - Well I didn't like the order, sir. He didn't mention any specific time. He said saty put, stand by while I am away, I thought. When he came back, he took over.
Q.117 - Do you have to have the time in an order?
A.117 - No, sir. Until I hurt my hand I intended to stay in camp.

In the opinion of the Court and Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(3).

The Defence is closed.

The Prosecutor makes the following closing address.

Mr. President, gentlemen. There are three different charges in this case. They are (reads the charges). On the first charge, as I understand it, the elements of that charge are first, disobeying, second that the command disobeyed was a lawful command, and third, that it was given by the accused's superior officer. On the latter, I think there is no question. The QM is the superior officer of the RQMS. There is no question about that. As to it being a lawful command, there is no question about that. It is certainly within military law to say to the RQMS stay put in camp while I have gone to the 8th Recce Bn, 8 Bde. With regard to the question of disobedience. The accused has alleged he suffered an accident to his hand in some way that required medical attention. I give the court several propositions. Is it reasonable for a senior WO in a Bn, ordered by his superior officer to stay in camp for him to turn over this Camp, 8 Bde, to the ration Sgt, take a 60-cwt truck, drive off to Antwerp without any clear idea of where he was going, looking for a hospital of a certain number. He knows it is No.6. In the second event, assuming that this is his only purpose in going, or reason, would he, having just in injured hishand, be more interested in getting treatment for it at several places much closer than Antwerp than going to this hospital for an X-ray. The MO was much nearer than No 6 Gen Hosp. If you were a senior WO in 8ech Bde, ordered to stay

An camp, by your superior officer while he left camp, and you hurt your hand , and required certain treatment, would you not get treatment as soon as you got back to camp after not being able to find the hospital outside camp, and then carry on with your orders. Instead of being more interested in getting back in good time this senior WO dtopped in a pub for 3/4 of an hour, and when he returned to camp he didn't even stop in to see whether his superior officer wanted him, whether anything had come up for him to do, but went to call on a friend in another camp, at F Ech, and played cards half the night, returning in the morning. I don not think that is a reasonable course to follow. I think that answers the charge. As regards the second charge, we have evidence that there was no other vehicle at B Ech available at the time than this 60-cwt. Ordinarily this is not a vehicle to take and make trips around the country with. You run around in a 5-cwt on trips. The accused took it to F Ech. He had already been on a trip in it to Antwerp. He didn't ascertain whether it was needed for anything else at B Ech before leaving for F Ech and staying all night. He returned around 0700 hrs in the morning. It is quite clear from the evidence in this case that Capt Wilkie would ordinarily authorize such trips, unless they were emergency trips, necessary trips, which could be authorized by the RQMS. Leaving aside the trip to Antwerp, the trip to F Ech was certainly not in an emergency and I think it was certainly required to have that trip authorized by a responsible officer at camp. Even if the trip to Antwerp was an emergency, I can see no possible excuse for the trip from B Ech to F Ech. And no authority was granted for the trip to F Ech. The accused simply took the vehicle on his own and went. The third charge speaks for itself. The accused was ordered to stay in camp. He left camp for emergency treatment, failed to accomplish this purpose but also failed to report back to B Ech. He left B Ech for F Ech around 2000 hrs, and there can be no question that from that time until 0700 hrs the next morning he absented himself without leave. The accused said he went to F Ech on a combined business and pleasure trip and then says no business was discussed, not with the CQMS there. Instead they played cards. The Court can draw its own conclusions, from its own experience, not only as to whether the evidence proves the third charge but also in regard to all three charges.

With reference to the first charge whichwith this lawful command that was given. I don't think I will take any of the Court's time to discuss whether the command was lawful or not. But it definitely was a very ambiguous command which could be interpreted in different ways. Was it a proper command, a properly given command? I submit that it was not, and that is material to this case. With reference to the second charge, I don't think it should stand. It is true that the accused used this vehicle for the purpose of going to No 6 Cdn Gen Hosp. That was his primary purpose. A review of his evidence shows also that his visit to CQMS King was also a business trip, and heleft for that purpose. He could not find the hospital so he came back and went to visit another QM stores. There is no ffence there. The evidence shows that it was in the normal course of his duty to authorize trips for various reasons, for rations, transporting of personnel for emergency treatment medically, and to check up on other Coy QM stores. I submit that the evidence before you definitely shows there was no other vehicle in camp that night but this 60-cwt ration truck, and that RQMS Henry authorized the use of this truck for an emergency medical treatment and then for a routine visit to one of his subordinates, as he normally would. The latter is substantiated by the evidence of CQMS King. A lot of details have been brought out as to the extent of the injury to RQMS Henry's hand. The circumstances show the gravity of the injury and the definite intention of the accused to obtain treatment, to have his hand X-rayed. Whether he was right or not in this intention is not what is to be decided in this case. Taking a vehicle to the Hospital and then taking it to [illegible] F Ech is within his rights. He was examined on that point and the evidence clearly shows that it was almost an everyday occurence for him to take a vehicle and visit other Coy QMs. Consequently, I submit that the accused did not take this vehicle improperly. The second charge does not stand up. The third charge alleges AWL. Whether or not he disobeyd an order is not material to this charge. He was in charge of B Ech and decided to get medical treatment. He turned the camp over to a senior NCO, then went to look for the necessary hospital, but could not find it. Then he proceeded back to B Ech and went on to F Ech. He went out in the normal course of his duties. I submit it is impossible to charge a man with AWL when he is doing something in the normal course of duty. He was definitely not AWL.

The JA sums up as follows.

I will deal with the charges one at a time. On the first charge, then. Before convicting on a charge under AA 9(2) you must have the following items. Was a lawful command given, was it a lawful command and was it given by the superior officer of the person receiving the command. The Defending Officer states the person receiving the command must have known it was his superior officer who was giving the command. There is little law involved outside of that. Was there a command given or not? You will have to decide that. Then decide whether the command was obeyed or disobeyed. That is strictly and entirely to be judged on the facts. You are masters of the facts, I am only here to help you with the law. On the second charge, in my opinion the crux of the matter is the word improperly. The particulars allege that the accused used a vehicle improperly, which is considered to be without authority. He cruised round Antwerp, went to a Cafe, and with that he did not return to B Ech but carried on away to F Ech and sat there playing cards. The Defending Officer states he did not have the vehicle improperly. He says the accused's superior officer testified that the accused had authority to take a vehicle out, and contends it was an emergency trip into the hospital. The Defending Officer also contends that the accused had the right to take a vehicle to his F Ech. With this charge you will just have to consider all the circumstances and decide yourselves as to whether or not the use of that vehicle was improper. You are all regimental officers and I think you know what constitutes improper use of a vehicle with a bn, probably better than I do. The third charge alleges AWL. Whether or not the AWL was committed is simply a matter of proof. You have to be satisfied that the start of the AWL is proved, that some continued period of AWL is shown, and you must be satisfied that the end of the AWL is shown. There you have all three charges. With every charge you will have to decide whether the particulars of the charge have been proved. If you decide that they have been proved, you must decide whether the particulars as proved constitute the offences alleged in the statements of the offences. Concerning the second charge, I must advise you that before you can convict on conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline you must be satisfied that the conduct alleged was prejudicial to both good order and military discipline. With regard to all the charges, as to what weight you wish to attach to the evidence of the various witnesses you have heard, this is entirely for you to decide. You have heard and seen the witnesses. Their credibility is entirely a matter for the Court to judge. Consider all the circumstances of the case and decide which witnesses are telling the truth and which are not. In closing, I will remind the Court that under British Law every man is innocent until he is proved guilty beyond reasonable doubt. The accused is never in a position where he has to prove his innocence. The onus is upon the prosecution and he is always innocent until proved guilty. And in the matter of reasonable doubt, this must be such a doubt as would make the Court, as reasonable men in the conduct of their own affairs and business, stop and consider whether the thing they are about to do is just and wise. It must be no idle reflection or fanciful doubt conjured up in their minds. But if the find this reasonable doubt they are bound by law to constru it on behalf of the accused.

Mr. President are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
- No.

. Prosecuting Officer, are there any matters further matters on which u wish me to advise the Court?
- No, sir.

Mr. Defending Officer, are there any further matters on which you wish me to advise the Court?
A. - No, sir.

The Defending Officer makes the following plea in mitigation of punishment.

There are just a few things I would like to bring to the attention The accused has 5 years and one months service. Most of the time he hasbeen a senior NCO in this Bn and has done a very good job. And I request the court to be very lenient in meeting out any punishment for this accused. He did not mean to do anything wrong, and had done the same sort of thing before without question. He had every reasonable excuse to proceed towards a hospital for medical treatment, and then, afterwards, to proceed to his F.Sch. I respectfully ask the court to consider the length of time that this ~~xxhimxxx~~ man has held his present job and present rank, to look into the facts and to bear in mind the manner in which, as you have seen from his appearance, hmm he has carried out his regimental duties. And I believe you will find that whatever he did was done at least with no intention of offence but in line with his normal duties.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of No B-67093 RQMS HENRY, Joseph Patrick, 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas:-

By Direction of the Commanding Officer the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

For the Prosecution

Capt D.R. Wilkie, 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Capt D.R. Wilkie, and employed as Quartermaster, 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada. At 1710 hrs, on 22 Oct 44, I went over to the "B" Echelon of the 8th Recce Bn. Prior to my leaving "B" Echelon, 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada, I ordered the accused, No B-67093 RQMS Henry, J.P., whom I now recognize, to "stay put" in Camp and told him where I was going. At 1840 hrs, 22 Oct 44, I returned to Camp and noticed the ration truck was missing. On inquiring I found that RQMS Henry had taken the truck and driver, Pte Kellar, M.M., out with him. RQMS Henry, the driver, Pte Kellar, M.M., returned at 0701 hrs, the following morning, 23 Oct 44.

(D.R. Wilkie) Capt.

Questions by the accused:

Q. Why did not Capt Wallace order me to remain in Camp whom I believe to be in charge of the "B" Echelon of 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada?
A. Because I am your superior officer.

Q. What do you mean by the phrase "stay put?"
A. I mean not to leave the "B" Echelon of The Royal Regiment of Canada.

Q. Why did you not use proper English?
A. Because I considered you understood me and did not query or ask for an explanation of what it meant.

Q. Did you order me to ground all vehicles in "B" Echelon on that particular date?
A. No. The only person I grounded was RQMS Henry, J.P.

Q. Who would be next in charge if I left?
A. Sjt Huggins.

(D.R. Wilkie) Capt.

SECOND WITNESS

For the Prosecution

B-66820 Pte Kellar, M.M., 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am B-66820 Pte Kellar, M.M., and employed as Dvr IC at "B" Echelon, 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada. On the 22nd Oct 44, at approximately 1615 hrs, the accused, B-67093 RQMS Henry, J.P., whom I now recognize, ordered me to drive him to the 6th Canadian General Hospital at Antwerp. At first I refused to comply with his order, stating that I did not want to go. He then stated it was a definite order, whereupon I took him in vehicle No CL-4251640 to Antwerp. The accused then asked a provost to direct him to the 6th Canadian General Hospital. I spent almost 15 to 20 minutes looking for it, but was unable to find it and gave up the search. Thereupon, I was ordered to drive the accused to a pub which was in Antwerp, and the accused went into the pub where he remained for almost three-quarters of an hour, while I remained outside guarding my lorry. He then ordered me to drive my vehicle to "F" Echelon, 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada, and he remained there until 0630 hrs, the morning of the 23 Oct 44. I then following his orders proceeded back to "B" Echelon, 1 Bn The Royal Regiment of Canada, and arrived there at 0700 hrs, 23 Oct 44.

Kellar M.M.

(B-66820 Pte Kellar, M.M.)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows:- "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

The accused declines to make a statement or to give evidence on oath or to call witnesses in his defence at this point.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of TWO pages, was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g) have been complied with.

Trial of H77532, Tpr. Leonard Wesley Harry X-4 Cost, CHC, 9 CBRBn.

Medical certificate is produced by prosecuting Officer and marked "B".
The accused pleads guilty to the charge as read.
The accused makes the following statement: B2
I learned that my squadron of 12th Man. Dragoons were having 92 hours leave in Brussels. Being with the Regt. for over 3 years I had a great many friends there which I desired to see. Being in the dumps and thinking it impossible to have leave from CBRB to Brussels, I let the urge to go overcome my better judgement. I proceeded to Brussels joining my friends. On this last night were having quite a get-together in our company were a party of fliers, having many friends in hospital in England our conversation centred there. At the suggestion of the fliers I had them up to fly to England the next day, at the time thinking it a good idea. However, arriving in England. I had misgivings, resolved as soon as I had seen my friends to return to CBRB. At 2059, 30 Nov. 44 I made my way to 1 CHC RA reported myself into the Guard Room there, remaining under close arrest since that date.
Summary of Evidence, marked "A" is read by the President of the Court.
Accused
First witness as to character for accused.
Lt. J. W. Barlow, 18th Armoured Car Regt. 12th Man. Dragoons. 2nd Cdn. Corps. at present with 9 C.B.R. Bn.

E.I.P.2

The witness states that
He an Officer of the Armoured Car Regt. I knew Tpr. Henry and have no hesitation in vouching for his good character and ability as a Tradesman while he served with the Regt. He is an original member with the Regt. and during his services earned a good conduct Badge. His anxiety to return to the Regt. was expressed to me last August while he was in C.B.R.C. in Danville. As a tradesman not as employed for the previous six weeks he was quite disatisfied and asked me if he could possibly return to the Regt.

Second character witness for the accused:
H63517 Sgt. McLeod. J. W. R. of the 12th Manr. Dragoons. at present with 4 C.B.R.C.
The accused having been duly sworn states: I have known Tpr. Henry personally since 1941. Tpr. Henry was in my troop from Nov. 41 until May 43, during that time I always found Tpr. Henry fully reliable. He was in charge of a Light D.R. detail in Jan. 42 and he ran it to a high degree of satisfaction. He was always ambitious to further himself in the Army and to my recollections he was never up for orders.

Third character witness for the accused
C 505 Sgt. Jones attached to the 4 C.B.R.C.
of the R.C.A.S.C.
The witness
Having been duly sworn, states:—
I have known Tpr. Henry for about 3 months during which time he was in my employ in the kitchen. I found him very hard working, very dependable and he always did a good job. Tpr. Henry appeared dissatisfied at times but always did his job.

The defending Officer for the accused makes the following plea of mitigation.

It is felt that the court should show leniency to the accused because.

(1) The accused is a well trained man - qualified as a motor mechanic, Class B., drawing T.P. He has spent last five months in the kitchen at 9 B C B K Bn. This soldier has been dissatisfied and had a keen desire to get to the field. He has gone as far to as to approach an Officer of his Regt. and beg this Officer to do anything on his power to get him to the field Army. The accused had no leave for over 12 months and had no leave while at C.B.D Bn. It is felt that there is some reasonable provocation for his offence.

(2) This type has committed an offence against the Army act and he fully does realizes this. Before going he realized the consequences and was prepared to accept them. He did not initially intend to fly to England. It is a tremendous shock and latent humiliation to this type to have been tried by F.G.C.M. This is the accused's first major crime with only one other minor crime. This is a very severe punishment in itself and it is felt that this trial is an injustice to the accused.

This man is needed by the field army. He is A1, qualified in a difficult trade, can accept responsibility, he shows, and from his conduct can soldier under discipline. He has open initiative and ingenuity in his offence which could be used by an Army in the field. This man has already spent 20 days in confinement and has learned a lasting lesson.

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states:

I am a cpl of the pl to which Pte Smith belongs. The accd in Court is Pte Smith. About 1400 hrs on 16 Jan 43 I ordered the accd to go on parade. He refused and did not go on parade.

Cross-exam: He did not say he was sick. (or, None.)

Re-exam: None.

Exam by Court: He said—"I've had enough parades".

RP 82(B) complied with.

2. When a shorthand writer is employed, addresses, statements, evidence and objections need not, subject to RP 95(A), be taken by him verbatim. (RP 95 fn 1.) If the evidence is taken by him in narrative form, RP 83(B) should be complied with. If taken verbatim, RP 82(C) will be complied with.

(i) Opening address by Defending Offr. (RP 60(C), 87(C), 92(C) (D).)

(ii) At option of accused, statements by accused (not sworn or subject to cross-exam by Prosecutor, Court or JA (RP 40 fn 10)), or evidence by accused, as to facts or his character or both. (See RP 41 fn 3, 46 fn 1, 80.)

(v) Closing address (on matters other than in mitigation of punishment) by Defending Offr or accused. (See RP 46 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

(vi) Closing address by Prosecutor. (See RP 46 fn 7, 87(C), 92(C) (D). Prosecutor has no right to address Court on subject of sentence except as provided by RP 46(E), KR Can 563(a).)

Plea of Mitigation of sentence

The accused was on the strength of the 16th Cdn Fd Coy RCE. which left this country with the invasion troops on D day. The accused had been with this unit for some time and was very happy there.

He had underwent all the intensive training with the unit preparatory for the invasion, and was eagerly looking forward to the great event, when he was suddenly taken off draft with from the unit and sent to a Residue camp for no apparent reason. This move greatly discouraged the accused, as it would any one.

This disappointment was the cause of his going AWL. He was certainly not unwilling to go into action, had he remained with the unit. — The date of his going AWL June 11th — 5 days after the unit had left — is enough to prove this.

He had also never mentioned certain disabilities, so as not to have his category lowered — & prevent his going overseas.

I wish to remind you of — These facts:- in favour of accused.

1. According to his conduct sheet - no offences were committed prior to April of this year — (These probably due to being browned off")
2. He also surrendered himself to the police of his own accord willingly

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of

No. A.4184 Pte. Henry, Robert, The Highland Light Infantry of Canada.

The Commanding Officer directs that all evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness for Prosecution

A.37384 Sgt. Hare, Frederick Walter, The Highland Light Infantry of Canada having been duly sworn states:

" On the night of 31 May-1 June 43, while I was Sergeant of the guard, A.4184 Pte. Henry, Robert, a member of the guard reported in from post #3 to the guard room and told me that his Sten Gun #FD 72065 had accidentally discharged and wounded him in the index finger and thumb of his right hand. I took Pte. Henry, Robert, to the R.A.P. and reported the accident to the Orderly Officer. When I checked Pte. Henry's Sten Gun after the accident the magazine had been removed and naturally there was no round in the breech."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Third Witness for Prosecution

D.71902 Pte. McLeod, Malcolm John, The Highland Light Infantry of Canada having been duly sworn States:

" On the night of 31 May-1 June 1943 I was a member of the guard, and at approximately 2359 hrs 31 May 1943 Pte. Henry, R. and I were posted to #3 post by Cpl. Desjarlais, and we took up positions on opposite sides of the road. At about 0155 hrs 1 June 1943 Pte. Henry, R. complained of being chilly and walked across the road towards me. I heard him say "My sling seems loose", he then stopped to adjust it. I heard the butt of the gun strike the ground, Pte Henry, R. had bent forward trying to catch the gun, which discharged, wounding him in the right index finger and thumb. The gun was lying on the ground. Being unable to leave my post and not having any means of calling the corporal of the guard I told Pte. Henry, R. I would stay while he got his hand attended to. He picked up the gun and reported to the guard room. I cannot state due to the fact that it was raining and quite dark whether or not the gun was cocked."

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

McLeod, M.J. the sling of my Sten Gun came loose allowing it to fall towards the ground. As it fell I bent forward to catch it but the butt of the gun struck the ground and discharged. It wounded me in the right index finger and right thumb. Pte. McLeod, M.J. told me to have it attended to and I reported to the guard room. Sgt. Hare, F.W., the guard commander took me to the R.A.P. where the wound was dressed and I was ordered to bed. The gun was not cocked but the magazine was on the gun in accordance with instructions from the guard commander."

J.G.M.

(Appendix F)

The President
The R.G.C.M.:

I submit that the prosecution has not proven the charge of neglect for the following reasons:

1. None of the witnesses can say that they saw neglect on the accused part. He was on duty at the time and the orders that had been laid down were being complied with.

2. A Court of Inquiry was held and from the findings no charge of neglect could be brought against the accused. The only reason the Court Martial is being held is because higher authorities said he must be tried by an R.G.C.M.

3. In the pamphlet War June 26/43 (page 3) there is a paragraph by an adjutant of a Parachute Battalion regarding many small points learnt in the North African Campaign. In one place he states and I quote "We had several casualties from men knocking a Sten gun against something and the gun firing two or three rounds". If this is the case with some of our more experienced battalions it could easily happen in our own battalion. It is laid down by our Division that these pamphlets be read and their contents be looked upon as confirmed doctrine.

I sum up by saying that there has been no evidence to prove wilful and culpable neglect on the part of the accused and for the accused to be guilty it must be proven as such see 40 (Note: Paragraph 2).

Second Witness for Prosecution

A.82235 Cpl. Desjarlais, Robert, Paul, The Oxford Rifles attached to the Highland Light Infantry of Canada having been duly sworn states:

" On the night of 31 May-1 June 1943 I was Cpl of the guard and at 2359 hrs 31 May I posted Pte. Henry, Robert and Pte. McLeod, M.J. to #3 Post. At approximately 0155 hrs 1 June Pte. Henry, R. reported to the guard room stating that he had been wounded in his right index finger and thumb. I inspected and cleaned his Sten Gun #FD 72065 and with Sgt. Hare, F.W. took Pte. Henry, R. to the R.A.P. where the medical Sgt, Sgt. Chapman, E.B., dressed the wounds and on his instructions I took Pte. Henry, R. to his quarters and put him to bed. When Pte. Henry, R. was posted his Sten Gun was not cocked but had a loaded magazine and a rifle sling was being used for carrying Sten Guns but were not satisfactory as they had a tendency to slip off since there were no attachments on the gun for it.

The accused declines to cross examine the witness.

...Cpl. R.P. Desjarlais.....

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence consisting of 5 pages was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c), (d), (e) and (f) have been complied with.

The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]
(*1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?[1]

Ans. No Sir.
(1. If evidence not already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service[1], and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)[2], purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex C and Ex D respectively.[3]
(1. MFB 353 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?[1] Ans. In mitigation only.....[2]
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.[1]
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.[1] The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.[2]
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. (1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(3)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans .....

First Witness for Prosecution.

A 12345 Cpl H. Jones, RWR, sworn, states :

(See RP 40 fns 8-12, 87(C), 92(C) (D).) But Defending Offr or accused will make his address after the Prosecutor, if there has been no statement by accused or any evidence given as to facts, or if accused alone has given evidence on oath as to facts, whether any evidence as to his character has been given or not. (When accused charged jointly see RP 61.)

Plea of Mitigation

In the case of F.43759 Pte. E.M. HENSHAW, G.I.C., No. 9 C.G.R.U.

This man pleads guilty of the charge, and places himself upon the mercy of the Court.

However, there are three things in this man's story which I would respectfully request that the Court take into consideration.

First, he claims that since he received his embarkation leave in Canada, he has had no leave whatsoever, except for two days down to Salerno in Italy. He has never been given any reason why leave was never granted despite frequent requests.

Secondly, and perhaps this is the most important, this man had no mail from his home for the last year, despite his letters home. He has been very worried about it, and instituted enquiries through the unit padre's office, but nothing has come of it.

The third fact is that whilst in Italy, a Field Court-martial sentenced him to one year's detention for an absence without leave of only thirty six hours, and the accused feels that the sentence was out of all proportion to the crime.

The combination of these three facts produced in him a state of mind where it was rather easy to go absent without leave, and much easier to stay away.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?

D.3. First Witness Pros. } Lt. J.C.M. St. Pierre, S. Sask R. duly sworn is exam by the Pros.

I am the O.C. 14 Fd. C. Coy S. Sask. R. I recognise the acc. On the night of 5 May 45, in company with my pl. sgt, Sgt. Mc Kee, I checked the gd. & the pl. area at approx 2355 hrs. I did not find the gd. on duty at the house where the acc. was billeted. It was supposed to be a 2 man gd. I enquired from Cpl. Keller, the sec. leader, where the gds. were. As a result of what he told me I searched the billets in order to find them. On opening the door of one of the rooms in the house, I found the acc. sitting on the edge of a bed. There was a German woman in the bed. I told the acc. to go back where he belonged. We were billeted in a farm-house about 3 km. from Open, Germany. This was the third night we had been billeted there. I do not know the names of the inhabitants of the house.

Cross-exam:

I looked in that particular room to see if any of my sec. or the gds. were there. The door opened quite freely. It did not feel as if anyone on the inside had hold of the handle. The acc. was sitting on the edge of the bed. I do not recall what position his hands were in. He came out of the room immediately. A minute or two afterwards the Gladue came out of the room. The first person I saw in the room was the acc. The German woman was sitting up in the bed, clothed in a nightgown or some similar garment. The acc. was fully dressed except that his tunic was unbuttoned. He was sitting on the bed nearest to the door. I saw no one else in that bed. I only saw the three in the room and the German woman. I was not at the billets at 2255 hrs that night. To my knowledge the gd. had not been inspected prior to my arrival that evg. I merely told the acc. to get back to his gd. I said nothing else to him.

No re-exam:

By the Court.

When I opened the door I flashed my flashlight around the bedroom. The acc. only had his tunic unbuttoned nothing else. He did not have his boots off. The Coy Comd. laid on the gd. I passed on the orders viz. 2 men of the sec. would be on gd. at all times. Cpl. Keller was to detail the gd. One post was by the door of the billet.

I said to the acc. "Get out of here and go back where you belong." Those were the actual words I used. There was no indication that the acc. had been drinking. The acc. said nothing to me. He was not carrying a weapon when he came out of the room.

By the JA.:

The room in which I found the acc. was situated in the front part of the house. The post near the door leading into the house was about 15' from the room in question. (witness draws a sketch of the house - admitted & marked Ex 'F'). The room I have marked "bedroom" was the one in which I found the acc. The post marked "X" is the one I detailed. Two men would be able to cover all the whole of the front of the house & the roadway. The sgt. was not beside me when I opened the door. He was further along in the back of the billet. opening doors. R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Second Witness Pros. | Frau Frieda Neumann, Bauerhaus, Wehnen, Germany, duly sworn is exam by the Pros. through the Interpreter.

On 5 May 45 I was living at Wehnen in a house in which some Cdns. were billeted. I recognise this soldier (pointing to the acc.). I had not seen him prior to 5 May 45. On the night of 5/6 May 45 Frau Parchem & I had gone to sleep. The acc. came into our bedroom He came up to me in bed & offered to have intercourse with me. I permitted him to do so. It lasted approx. 10 - 20 mins. Then this soldier left the room. He did not molest me in anyway. No one opened the door when he was with me. There were 3 beds in the room in which we were sleeping. My two children & one of Mrs. Parchems children slept in my bed.

Cross-exam:

It was a couple of mins after 11.00 PM when the acc. came into our room. There was a bright moon that night. I had not blacked out the room. It was light enough to recognise anyone in the room. I am quite sure it was this soldier (indicating the acc.) who was in the room with me. There were 7 people in the room - not incl. this soldier. I have 3 soldiers. I do not know where my husband is — in East Prussia, perhaps. He has been a soldier for only 5 mos. There was no room to stand up in the bedroom. Any one coming in the room would have to sit on the bed which was right up against the door. This soldier left the room of his own accord. I saw an Offr there afterwards. He illuminated the room with his flashlight. The following day we were brought before the C.O. He questioned me. In the beginning we did not know that Allied soldiers were not to have anything to do with German women. The C.O. told us so. I did not know it before. I did not deny having sexual intercourse with this soldier when the C.O. first asked me about it. It was several days later that I made a statement in writing before an Offr.

No re-exam.

By the Court:

I admit having had sexual intercourse with the acc. on the night of 5 May 45. Frau Parchem was in the room too. There was another soldier with her. I was wrong before. There were two soldiers in the room, not one. The acc. had been out of the room a couple of mins. before the Offr. shone his torch around it. The acc. closed the door when he went out. The Offr. opened the door when he came in. The other soldier was with Frau Parchem then. There was no soldier with me then. The acc. when he was with me had his clothes on.

By the SA:

I do not speak English. Acc did not speak in German but in English. I could tell the acc. desired to have intercourse by the feel of his body. He was starting to open his trousers.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Third Witness
Pros. | L.846014 Sgt. MacKee, T.G., S. Sask R. duly sworn is exam by Pros.

I recognise the acc. On the night of 5 May 45 at approx 2359 hrs on making a check of No 4 sec. Qd. I found no one on the sentry post, which was at the rear entrance to a civilian farm-house where the sec. was billeted. I went into the quarters & woke up Cpl. Keller, the sec. leader. As a result of what he told me I went looking for the sentry. I saw the acc. come from a room in the house & go back to his post. Lt. St. Pierre accompanied me when I was checking the rooms. It was Lt. St. Pierre not I who opened the door to the room out of which the acc. came. I saw the acc. pass through the doorway but I did not see who was in the room.

Cross-exam:

Cpl. Keller did ask, at one time, to have the sec. moved from the house where they were. As far as I know, no action was taken. When I went to the check the Qd. I expected to find the qd. within the area of the rear entrance. There were two qds. on duty. The points on the sketch I have marked 'A' & 'B' (witness marks sketch.

JBB

Ex. F) are the places where the qds. were supposed to be stationed. There were no obstacles between points A & B. The qd. at point B was under the roof an open shed. The qd. at point B, when I found him, was seated down & was dozing. It was possible to see the qd. at point A from point B. The qd. at point A was missing from his post. I cannot say if he was at his post at 2315 hrs. or not. I sent no one to check that post at that time. I did not receive any report concerning a sentry being absent from his post at 2315 hrs. that night.

No re-exam.

By the Court:

The acc. was fully dressed when I saw him coming out of that room. There was no definite post laid down as a definite post. That was our custom. Had we not found the sentries in the house I would have searched the rear area. I did not search the area surrounding the house before entering the house. The area at the rear entrance was the most likely place for a qd. to be posted. Cpl. Keller did not tell me the exact location of the posts & I was not sure of their exact location. The acc. accompanied me to the post marked B on the sketch (Ex. F) when the other sentry was found there. I do not know if that sentry was on when I went into the house. I was not halted. There was artificial half-light - from searchlights - that night. One could see a fair distance.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Fourth Witness } B.87396 Cpl. Keller H.K., S. Sask R.
Pros. } duly sworn is exam by Pros.

I recognize the acc. On the night of 5 May 45 I was i/c the acc. qd. The qds. had a definite beat to patrol that night. They all knew it. I posted the qds - the acc & another man - at 2200 hrs myself. Their hour of duty was 3 hrs. I gave neither of them permission to leave his post. After posting the acc. I retired to bed. Mrs. St. Pierre & Sgt. Mc Kee wakened me at 2345 hrs. By the time I got dressed & had my boots on the acc. was at his post. When they wakened me. Mrs. St. Pierre & Sgt. Mc Kee wanted to know where the qd. were.

Cross-exam:

Two men were on qd. that night. Acc's post was at the entrance to the house. The other man was posted in front of a barn at the right of the driveway leading to the house. The man on that post could not be able to see the acc on his post. The barn obstructed his view. The posts were some 35ˣ to 40ˣ apart. If the acc. had wished to leave the vicinity of the entrance of the house to investigate something suspicious, the other gd. was too far away for it to be practicable for the acc. to go over to the other gd. & tell that gd. what he proposed doing. The door leading into the bedroom was only 5 or 6 steps from the acc's post. The acc. was able to hear that bedroom door opening or closing when on his post. If the acc. heard a noise inside the house it was quite in order for him to go in & investigate. That was one reason I had a gd. posted near the door to the house. Anyone entering the bedroom in question would have to close the door & sit on the bed. The bed was right up against the door. The door opened outwards into the scullery. I do not know if anyone checked the gd. at 2315 hrs. I did not report that any gd. was not doing his duty at 2315 hrs.

No re-exam.

By the Court:

I went out with the acc. to his post at 2200 hrs. I did not lay down any hrs of duty then. But I told both gds. their hours of duty when we were in the house just before posting them. I told the acc. he was to patrol from one corner of the house to the other i.e. the frontage of the house & to listen for any noises in the house. There were only 3 men & myself in the sec. at that time. It was for this reason that the acc, an NCO, was doing gd. duty. The night was dark & windy. I do not recall there being any searchlights in the sky when I went to bed at 2215 hrs.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Pros. did not call Cpl A.P.W. Wallinson. Def. Offr. did not require his presence for cross-exam.

D6 - First Witness Def | B. 87396 Cpl. Hobbs, H.K. S. Sask R. already sworn is exam. by the Def. Offr.

I have known the acc. for about 6 mos. We have been in the same sec. for some 3 mos. I considered him a good soldier & very trustworthy. I was never afraid to leave the sec in his charge because I knew he would do the job as well as I could. I had a very high respect for him as a soldier

No cross-exam.

By the Court:

I was made sec A/Cpl approx 25 Jan 45. The acc was made 2 i/c of the sec. at the same time. I came to this sec. from a different pl. than the acc. did.

R.P. 83(B) complied with.

Court adjourned at 1750 hrs. Court re-Opened at 2010 hrs, same members present. In the interests of the service it is necessary for the Court to sit after 1900 hrs.

Prosecution Summary in the Case of JBB
H8934 H/Gl. Clarence Sydney Hanson South Staffs Regt.

On the first charge.

The prosecution has been attempting to prove that H/Gl Hanson fraternized by having sexual intercourse with Mdlle. Frieda Neumann at Opln, Germany on the night of May 5th 1945. We have the evidence of H. & C. H. Sgt Pierce own gl. Commander and Sgt McKee G. his gl. sgt. to prove that he was in the room with a German woman. We also have the evidence of Mdlle. Frieda Neumann that H/Gl. Hanson was in the room with her and that they had sexual intercourse on the night in question. ~~He was not clean at that time by reason of the room [illegible] was not empty.~~

On the second charge.

What the prosecution had to prove here was that H/Gl. Hanson, acting as a sentinel left his post before he was regularly relieved. We have the evidence of his own section leader Gl. Tilley who was also a Corporate witness for H/Gl. Hanson, that Hanson was posted by him at 2200 hrs. for a tour of three hours. We also have the evidence of Lt. H. Pierce and Sgt. McKee that Hanson was not at his post at 2359 hours when he should have been.

H. G.W. Nicholl.
Prosecuting.

H 8934 L/Cpl Clarence Sydney Henson

On the first charge the prosecution has not proven that sexual intercourse took place but rather that the stage was set for such an act and a German woman was asked the simple question and on her answer alone rests the whole of the proof. The evidence ~~of such an act~~ up to a point was based on eye witness testimony but from the time Cpl Henson entered the door ~~his fate~~ until he came out is assumed - unless the German witness cares to say a few words that would seal his fate.

The evidence the enemy witness gave was ~~as~~ mixed up as it was cooked up. As far as we know from what she says Cpl Henson never left his sitting position on the bed. A Police Officer opened the door shone his flashlight into the room and saw

Henson sitting on the bed yet she says he had left the room before the Officer entered. W6(B)

Her husband is away somewhere up Russia - if she is the type of a woman who would lye back on her word to her husband by having sexual intercourse with other men, her husbands best friend is supposed to be her, then would she hesitate to lie about a soldier who means nothing to her.

On the second charge the time the charge is laid is 2315 hrs yet there has not been one witness who has said that there was a check made at this time. Is it possible to put any time down and then show that he was absent at some time during the day. The prosecution has not proven the charge as pleaded to.

E3.- ~~L/Cpl Henson is a young Canadian soldier who has already [illegible] 2 years and has men in the army 2 yrs and 2 mos.~~

To find Character witnesses for this man was easy the whole coy wanted to come, but I took the men who should know & best and the men who could give the clearest picture to the Court.

Henson is one of the men that we all owe a lot to - the people in Canada declared a two-day holiday to celebrate his work they are able only to read or hear of the result of all that he has done but you as Regt Officers know what it means to have good fighting men under you so that when a job was given to you to do you know it could be done because your men, men like Henson, were willing to carry out your every order.

Now the work has been brought to a close in this sector and now you are faced with passing a fair punishment on a man who deserve consideration.

His crime sheet is one that must be considered clear because he serves days CB. for having a dirty cap happens [illegible] a year ago.

He is one of the few "originals" left in the unit. He landed with the first and was wounded ~~at~~ at Salerno but returned to fight again ~~during~~ ~~to~~ ~~Feb~~ at Hodgenhuis, North of Putte and serves at the front continuously through the clearing of the Scheldt and the Winter defense at Mook. He has fought during the whole of the Spring offensive up to the last day of the war. Few men have lasted as long at the front as this man has and now he is to be punished for a crime that can only happen when the fighting stops. The irony of war - spend ten months killing Germans and then the day the war ends one German woman sends you jail.

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is to be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS: Lieut. J.C.H. St. Pierre, South Saskatchewan Regiment, Canadian Army Overseas, sworn states:

I am Lieut. J.C.H. St. Pierre of C coy South Saskatchewan Regiment. On 5 May 45 at approximately 2355 hrs while on check of the guards on duty, I discovered that the sentry was not at his post. On inquiry I found that the man who was supposed to be on duty at the time was L/Cpl HENSON, C.S. I then went in search of him in the surrounding buildings of my platoon area. In one of the buildings in my platoon area I had set aside two rooms for the use and occupation of one of my sections. The remaining rooms in the building were for the occupation of the German inhabitants only. In one of the bedrooms set aside for the inhabitants I discovered L/Cpl Henson. The accused was getting off a bed in which there was one female inhabitant of Germany. The accused L/Cpl Henson was not in the bedroom on any official business nor had he permission to enter the room which was occupied and set aside for the inhabitants. Upon discovering the accused in the said room I ordered him to return to his post. He then returned to complete his tour of duty.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

D-3 First Witness Pros.
Lt J C H St Pierre S.Sask R. duly sworn is exam by the Pros.
I am the OC 14 Pl "C" Coy 3 Sask R. I recognise the acc. On the night of 5 May 45, in company with my pl. sgt Sgt McKee, I checked the gd. and the pl. area at approx 2355 hrs. I did not find the gd. on duty at the house where the sec. was billeted. It was supposed to be a 2 man gd. I enquired from Cpl Keller the sec leader where the gds were. As a result of what he told me I searched the billets in order to find them. On opening the door of one of the rooms in the house, I found the acc. sitting on the edge of a bed. There was a German woman in the bed. I told the acc. to go back where he belonged. We were billeted in a farm house about 3 km. from Ofen, Germany. This was the third night we had been billeted there. I do not know the names of the inhabitants of the house.

Cross-exam:
I looked in that particular room to see if any of my sec or the gd. were there. The door opened quite freely. It did not feel as if anyone on the inside had hold of the handle. The acc. was sitting on the edge of the bed. I do not recall what position his hands were in. He came out of the room immediately. A minute or so afterwards the Cpl also came out of the room. The first person I saw in the room was the acc. The German woman was sitting up in the bed, clothed in a nightgown or some similar garment. The acc. was fully dressed except that his tunic was unbuttoned. He was sitting on the bed nearest to the door. I saw no one else in that bed. I only saw the three in the room with the German woman. I was not at the billets at 2255 hrs that night. To my knowledge the gd. had not been inspected prior to my arrival that evg. I merely told the acc. to get back to his gd. I said nothing else to him.

No re-exam:

By the Court:
When I opened the door I flashed my flashlight around the bedroom. The acc. only had his tunic unbuttoned nothing else. He did not have his boots off. The Coy Comd laid on the gd. I passed on the orders vig. 2 men of the sec. would be on gd. at all times. Cpl Keller was to detail the gd. One post was by the door of the bldg. I said to the acc. "Get out of here and go back where you belong". Those were the actual words I used. There was no indication that the acc. had been drinking. The acc. said nothing to me. He was not carrying a weapon when he came out of the room.

By JA:
The room in which I found the acc. was situated in the front part of the house. The post near the door leading into the house was about 15 from the room in question. (witness draws a sketch of the house - admitted and marked Ex "P"). The room I have marked "bedroom" was the one in which I found the acc. The post marked "X" is the one I detailed. Two men would be able to cover off the whole of the front of the house and the roadway. The sgt. was not beside me when I opened the door. He was further along in the back of the bldg. opening doors.
R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Second Witness Pros:
Frau Frieda Neumann Busselmann Wehmen, Germany, duly sworn is exam by the Pros through the Interpreter.
On 5 May 45 I was living at Wehmen in a house in which some Cdns. were billeted. I recognise this soldier (pointing to the acc) I had not seen him prior to 5 May 45. On the night of 5/6 May 45 Frau Parcheu and I had gone to sleep. The acc. came into our bedroom. He came up to me in bed and offered to have intercourse with me. I permitted him to do so. It lasted approx 10 - 20 minutes. Then this soldier left the room. He did not molest me in anyway. No one opened the door when he was with me. There were 3 beds in the room in which we were sleeping. My two children and one of Mrs Parcheus children slept in my bed.

Cross-exam:

It was a couple of mins. after 11.00 PM when the acc. came into our room. There was a bright moon that night. I had not blacked out the room. It was light enough to recognise anyone in the room. I am quite sure it was this soldier (indicating the acc.) who was in the room with me. There were 7 people in the room not incl. this soldier. I have 3 soldiers. I do not know where my husband is - in East Prussia perhaps. He had been a soldier for only 5 mos. There was on room to stand up in the bedroom. Anyone coming in the room would have to sit on the bed which was right up against the door. This soldier left the room of his own accord. I saw an off'r there afterwards. He illuminated the room with his flashlight. The following day we were brought before the C.O. He questioned me. In the beginning we did not know that Allied soldiers were not to have anyt ing to do with German women. The CO told us so. I did not know it before. I did not deny having sexual intercourse with this soldier when the CO first asked me a bout it. It was several days later that I made a statement in writing before an offr.

No re-exam:

By the Court:

I admit having had sexual intercourse with the acc. on the night of 5 May 45. Frau Parcheue was in the room too. There was another soldier with her. I was wrong before. There were two soldiers in the room not one. The acc. had been out of the room a couple of mins before the offr. shone his torch around it. The acc. closed the door when he went out. The offr. opened the door when he came in. The other soldier was with Frau Parchiue then. There was was no soldier with me then. The acc. when he was with me had his clothes on.

By the JA:

I do not speak English. Acc did not speak in German but in English. I could tell the acc. desired to have intercourse by the feel of his body. He was starting to open his trousers.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Third Witness Pros:

L 54804 Sgt Wales T C S Sask R duly sworn is exam by Pros.

I recognise the acc. On the night of 5 May 45 at approx 2355 hrs on making a check of No 4 sec. gd. I found no one on the sentry post, which was at the rear entrance to a Civilian farm-house where the sec. was billeted. I went into the quarters and woke up Cpl Keller the sec. leader. As a result of what he told me I went looking for the sentry. I saw the acc. come from a room in the house and go back to his post. Lt St Pierre accompanied me when I was checking the rooms. It was Mr. St. Pierre not I who opened the door to the room our of which the acc. came. I saw the acc. pass through the door way but I did not see who was in the room.

Cross-exam:

Cpl Keller did ask at one time to have the sec moved from the house where they were. As far as I know no action was taken. When I went to the gd. I expected to find the gd. within the area of the rear entrance. There were two gds on duty. The points on the sketch I have marked A&B (witness marks sketch. Ex "G"1 are the places where the gds were supposed to be stationed. There were no obstacles between points A and B. The gd at point B was under the roof an open shed. The gd at point B where I found him was nestled down and was dozing. It was possible to see the gd at point A from point B. The gd at point A was missing from his post. I cannot say if he was at his post at 2315 hrs or not. I sent no one to check that post at that time. I did not receive any report concerning a sentry being absent from his post at 2315 hrs that night.

No re-exam:

By the Court:

The A cc was fully dressed when I saw hi coming out of that room. There was no definite spot laid down as a definite post. That was our custom. Had we not found the sentries in the house I would have searched the sec area. I did not search the area surrounding the house before entering the house. The area at the rear entrance was the most likely place for a gd to be posted. Cpl Keller did not tell me the exact location of the posts and I was not sure of their exact location. The acc. accommanied me to the post marked B on the sketch (Ex P) when the other sentry was found there. I do not know if this sentry saw me when I went into the house. I was not halted. There was artificial half-light from searchlights that night. One could see a fair distance.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Fourth Witness Pros:

S 878,6 Cpl Keller H g S Sask R duly sworn is exam by Pros.

I recognise the acc. On the night of 8 May 45 I was i/c the sec gd. The gds had a definite beat to patrol that night. They all knew it. I posted the gds the acc and another man at 2200 hrs myself. Their tour of duty was 2 hrs. I gave neither of them permission to leave his post. After posting the acc. I retired to bed. Mr St Pierre and Sgt McKee wakened me at 2340 hrs. By the ti e I got dressed and had my boots on the acc. was at his post. When they wakened me. Mr. St Pierre and Sgt McKee wanted to know where the gd were.

Cross-exam:

Two men were on gd that night. Acc's post was at the entrance to the house. The other man was posted in front of a barn at the right of the driveway leading to the house. The man on that post could not be able to see the acc on his post. The barn obstructed his view. The posts were some 35x to 40x apart. If the acc. had wished to leave the vicinity of the entrance of the house to investigate something suspicious, the other gd was too far away for it to be practicable for the acc. to go over to the other gd and tell that gd what he proposed doing. The door leading into the bedroom was only 5 or 6 steps from the acc's post. The acc was able to hear that bedroom door opening or closing when on his post. If the acc heard a noise inside the house it was quite in order for him to go in and investigate. That was one reason I had a gd posted rear the door to the house. Anyone entering the bedroom in question would have to close the door and sit on the bed. The bed was right up against the door. The door opened outwards into the scullery. I do not know if anyone checked the gd. at 2315 hrs. I did not report that any gd. was not doing his duty at 2315 hrs.

No re-exam:

By the court:

I went out with the acc. to his post at 2200 hrs. I did not lay down any hrs of duty then. But I told both gds their hours of duty when we were in the house just before posting them. I told the acc. he was to patrol from one corner of the house to the other ie the frontage of the house and to listen for any noises in the house. There were only 6 men and myself in the sec. at that time. It was for this reason that the acc. an NCO was doing gd duty. The night was dark and windy. I do not recall there being any searchlights, in the sky when I went to bed at 2215 hrs.

S.P. 83(c) complied with.

Pros did not call Capt A F W Watkinson. Def Offr did not require his presence for cross-exam.

D-6 First Witness Def:

R87396 Cpl Keller, H F S Sask R already sworn is exam by the Def Offr.

I have known the acc. for about 6 mos. We have been in the same sec for some 3 mos. I considered him a good soldier and very trustworthy. I was never afraid to leave the sec in his charge because I knew he would do the job as well as I could. I had a very high respect for him as a soldier.

No cross-exam:

By the court:

I was made a A/Cpl approx 25 Mar 45. The acc was made 2 i/c of the sec at the same time. I came to this sec from a different pl. than the acc. did.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Court adjourned at 1750 hrs. Court re-opened at 2010 hrs same members present. In the interests of the service it is necessary for the court to sit after 1800 hrs.

Prosecution Summary in the Case of:

H 8934 L/Cpl Clarence Sydney Hanson, South Sask Regt.

On the First Charge.

The prosecution has been attempting to prove that L/Cpl Hanson fraternized by having said intercourse with Mrs. Frieda Neumann at ofen, Germany on the night of May 5th 1945. We have the evidence of Lt J O H St Pierre his own pl commander and Sgt McKee I S his pl Sgt to prove that he was in the room with a German woman. We also have the evidence of Mrs Frieda Neumann that L/Cpl Hanson was in the room with her and that they had sexual intercourse on the night in question.

On the Second Charge.

What the prosecut on had to prove here was that L/Cpl Hanson, acting as a sentinel left his post before he was regularly relieved. We have the evidence of his own section leader Cpl Keller who was also a character witness for L/Cpl Hanson, that Hanson was posted by him at 2200 hrs for a tour of two hours. We also have the evidence of Lt St Pierre and Sgt McKee that Hanson was not at his post at 2359 hrs when he should have been.

Lt "C W Nicols"

Defence Summary in the case of H 8934 L/Cpl Clarence Sydney Hanson.

On the first charge the prosecut on has not proven that sexual intercourse took place but rather that the satage was set for such an act and a German woman was asked the simple question and on her answer alone rests the whole of the proof. The evidence up to a point was based on eye witness testimony but from the time Cpl Hanson entered the door until he came out is assumed unless the German witness cares to say a few words that would deal his fate. The evidence the enemy witness gave was as mixed up as it was cocked up. As far as we know from what she says Cpl Hanson never left his sitting position on the bed. A Cdn officer opened the door shone his flashlight into the room and saw Hanson sitting on the bed yet she says he had left the room before the officer entered. Her husband is away somewhere in Prussia if she is the type of a woman who would go back on her word to her husband by having sexual intercourse with other men, her husband is supposed to be her best friend then would she hesitate to lie about a soldier who means nothing to her. On the second charge the time the charge is laid is 2315 hrs yet there has not been one witness who has said that there was a check made at this time. Is it possible to put any time down and then show time during the day. The prosecution has not proven the charge as pleaded to.

"H H Osborn" Capt

Plea in Mitigation of Punishement on behalf of H 8634 L/Cpl Henson, Clarence Sydney.

E-3 L/Cpl Henson is a young unmarried soldier of 21 years and he has been in the army 2 yrs and 8 mos. To find character witnesses for this man was easy. The whole coy wanted to come but I took the men who would know best and the men who could give the clearest picture to the Court. Henson is one of the men that we all owe a lot to the people in Canada declared a two-day holiday to celebrate his work. They are able only to read or hear of the result of all that he had done but you as Regt'l Officers know what it means to have good fighting men under you so that when a job was given to you to do you knew it could be done because your men, men like Henson, were willing to carry out your every order. Now the war has been brought too a close in this sector and now you are faced with passing a fair punishment on a man who deserves consideration. His crime sheet is one that must be considered "clean" because the seven days "CB" for having a dirty cup happened over a year ago. He is one of the few "originals" left in the unit. He landed with the Regt and was wounded at Falaise but returned to fight again at Hoogerheide, north of Putte and served at the front continuously through the clearing of the Scheldt and the Winter defense at Nook. He has fought during the whole of the Spring offensive right up to the last day of the war. Two men have lasted as long at the front as this man has and now he is to be punished for a crime that can only happen when the fighting stops. The irony of war spend ten months killing germans and then the day the war ends one German woman sends you to jail.

Plea of Mediqation D.

This boy, the accused, and I speak of him as a boy since he is only 20 yrs of age having shouldered the full responsibilities of a fighting soldier since early in July did not have a leave until the div went into rest at Ghent after the battle of the Scheldt.

And as you know anyone serving in the infantry during that period had a pretty rough time of it. He arrived in Ghent with the battalion and as most young chaps do, met a girl, and over stayed his time.

When he was picked up by the A.P.C. provost he offered no resistance and went with them willingly.

I have talked with the accused and he says his greatest wish is to continue serving with his unit.

I feel that if this young chap is given a long term sentence it will be a very grave mistake in starting him on the wrong road in life. And I ask you to be as lenient as possible and give him a further chance to show his value on the battle field.

The accused sworn states, I am 20 yrs of age, single. I joined W.L.I. 9th July 44. I have never been in any serious trouble with the unit previous to this. I was a rifleman in my plt. I have never had leave since joining bn. I did not offer any resistance to Provost when arrested.

E-1 The accused sworn states:-

I am 20 years of age, single. I joined the HLI 9th July 44. I have never been in any serious trouble with the xxxx Unit previous to this. I was a rifleman in my platoon. I have never had leave since joining the Bn. I did not offer any resistance to Provost when arrested.

R.P. 83 B Complied with.

E-3 Plea of Mitigation

This boy, the accused, and I speak of him as a boy since he is only 20 years of age having shouldered the full responsibilities of a fighting man since early in July did not have a leave until the Div went into a rest at Ghent after the battle of the Rhelde

And as you know anyone serving in the infantry during that period had a pretty rough time of it. He arrived in Ghent with the Battalion and as mostyoung chaps do, met a girl, and over stayed his time.

When he was picked up by the Provost he offered no resistance and went with them willingly.

I have talked with the accused and he says his greatest wish is to continue serving with his Unit.

I feel that if t is young xxxchap is given a long term sentence it will be a very grave mistake in starting him on the wrong road in life. And I ask you to be as lenient as possible and give him a further chance to show his value on the battlefield.

PLEA of MITIGATION

I, the undersigned, have recently rec'd letters from my wife who is in Canada, to the effect that her ~~living~~ dependent's allowance was not reaching her and that she was very much perturbed because of this fact.

About one month ago her latest letter arrived, informing me that if the allowance did not reach her very soon ~~that~~ she would sue for a divorce.

I spoke to my Coy. Commander,
Capt. MacDonald (NNSH) asking him about a leave (long overdue) and for permission to go before the Camp Commandant to get advice and as to what I should do regarding the financial difficulties

my wife was experiencing.

Capt. MacDonald refused to grant me a leave and also said that I could not be paraded before the Colonel. He was very brusque and entirely unsympathetic.

I left him feeling very downcast and went to see the padre, hoping he could help me.

This took place several days before I absented myself. Due to worry, mental frustration and the feeling that I was totally alone with my troubles, I was driven to going

By the Court.

I asked the guard at the vehicle park for a vehicle & he said they would be run without proper authority. I did not hear anybody else say "I will see you down the road". There were only Dr Fire & us in the vicinity.

By the J.A.

When Henry drove up with the vehicle I presumed he had taken it without authority and did not ask him any questions. I did not drive it at any time, but did take the opportunity of riding in the vehicle both leaving camp & coming back.

RD 83(B) is complied with.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF

3 CDN CORPS & ARMY TROOPS ORD SUB PARK

CHARGED WITH, IMRPOPERLY & WITHOUT AUTHORITY, BEING CONCERNED IN THE TAKING AND USING OF A W.D. VEHICLE NO. Z-5501611. (Sec 40 A.A.)

On 16 Oct 44, I was Duty Officer. About 2230 hrs., the N.C.O. I/C Guard, L/Cpl Murphy, A.P. B-58014, reported to me a vehicle was missing. Being duty officer, I had not authorized any vehicle to leave area. So I immediately started an investigation. At approximately 0015 hrs, 17 Oct 44, S/Sgt. Ashby, L.T.H.(C-15699) and Sgt. Foreman, D.B. (L-9062) reported to me they had picked up Pte Henry, H.R.(B-65041) and Pte Herbert, E.J. (M-66507) in one of our reserve vehicles and had placed them under arrest. I reported the matter to the O.C.

Q. Did you instruct S/Sgt. Ashby and Sgt. Foreman to make investigation?

A. Yes Sir. I placed patrols of all senior N.C.O's around camp area.

Accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness C-15699, S/Sgt, ASHBY, L.T.H., 3 CDN CORPS & ARMY TPS ORD SUB PARK, sworn, states:

On 16 Oct 44, at approximately 2230 hrs, I received an order from SQMS Kerr to block the main road leading into Lede at the railroad crossing between the village of Lede and the main Brussels-Ghent highway. I was accompanied by Sgt. Foreman. At approximately 0015 hrs, 17 Oct 44, a vehicle approached the crossing. Sgt. Foreman signalled him down and the vehicle stopped. Sgt. Foreman approached the vehicle from our right hand side and identified the driver and the passenger. I approached from the left side and recognized the passenger as Pte Herbert and the driver as Pte Henry. I told the driver to park his vehicle besides the railroad track. After parking the vehicle, the driver and passenger got out..I placed them under arrest.

Pte Herbert immediately wanted to know why he was being taken into custody as he said he was picked up along the road and had no knowledge of the vehicle being stolen. I asked Sgt. Foreman the time. It was 0015 hrs, 17 Oct. 44. Therefore, I placed Pte Herbert under open arrest for being A.W.L.

PLEA OF MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF: B-54062 Pte Herbert, G.E.

Mr. President,
Members of the Court,

A very few words have to be added to the ~~14~~ evidence you already have in front of you, in the case of Pte Herbert. The answer to Herbert getting into trouble here and there is due to family trouble back home. In fact Pte Herbert is married and has been for a few years, and in addition to his wife he has a seven year old daughter to care for. While serving in the Army in Canada matrimonial troubles arose. Herbert was sent overseas in July 44 before he could settle the matter with his wife. The last letter received from his wife was in mid summer 1944 in which letter she claimed she was through with him. Herbert then decided to start investigations for preparation to a divorce. He went to see his Unit padre as well as his Unit Adj asking for help in the matter. He claims he had very little satisfaction out of his requests as nothing official came out of it. He at many times claims to have tried again and again during 1944 and 1945 but in vain. Gentlemen, matrimonial troubles are a very touchy matter and no doubt was the immediate influence for Herbert's crimes. It is now up to you do decide as to weather a small or heavy punishment will help Herbert in his rehabilitation to civy life. I ask you Gentlemen to consider these facts and to give this man the lightest possible sentence. That is all Gentlemen.

Defending Officer.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans NO.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

HCP B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex D & E, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

PLEA OF MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF: H-54062 Pte Herbert, G.E.

Mr.President,
Members of the Court,

A very few words have to be added to the evidence you already have in front of you, in the case of Pte Herbert. The answer to Herbert getting into trouble here and there is due to family trouble back home. In fact Pte Herbert is married and has been for a few years, and in addition to his wife has a seven year old daughter to care for. While serving in the Army in Canada matrimonial troubles arose. Herbert was sent overseas in July 44 before he could settle the matter with his wife. The last letter received from his wife was in mid summer 1944 in which letter she claimed she was through with him. Herbert then decided to start investigations for preparation to a divorce. He went to see his Unit padre as well as his Unit Adj asking for help in the latter. He claims he had very little satisfaction out of his requests as nothing official came out of it. He at many times claims to have tried again and again during 1944 and 1945 but in vain. Gentlemen, matrimonial troubles are a very touchy matter and no doubt was the immediate influence for Herbert's crimes. It is now up to you to decide as to whether a small or heave punishment will help Herbert in his rehabilitation to civy life. I ask you Gentlemen to consider these facts and to give this man the lightest possible sentence. That is all Gentlemen.

Notes re Case of
B 66923 Pte Herbert S.S. R. Regt C.

I witness The accused B66923 Pte Herbert S.S.
R. Regt C

Enlisted 9 Sept 39 when he was only just 18 years old. Came overseas with the 1st Bn. When the Bn moved to Littlehampton in July 1942 he met a married woman who had a child of 4 yrs of age. Her husband is on service in India.

On 30 Dec 1943 a baby was born by the woman and Pte Herbert is the father of the baby.

There was produced for the inspection of the court Certificate No DC 128664 Certified copy of birth Certificate dated 28 Jan 44 showing the birth of a son to Beatrice Pearcy of Littlehampton and Pte S.S. Herbert R. Regt C.

The baby arrived early and unexpectedly and the mother could not be taken to the hospital in time so the baby was born at home.

The mother, elder child and baby live alone. There are no relatives available to help her. Pte Herbert, Thompson, went down at night to see her. He was there quite getting back the first time by bus and the second time 10 hrs. He was remanded by the C.O. the second time. On Jan 10 he went to Littlehampton again and found the mother alone in bed and no one taking care of her and the family. Thompson decided he must stay and help them.

Q1 - Your full name and number?
A1 - H-16428, L/cpl. Oman, John George.
Q2 - You are a member of what unit?
A2 - A member of the Canadian Military Police, London.
Q3 - Do you know the accused, Pte. Herbert?
A3 - I have met him.
Q4 - That is the man there?
A4 - Yes, sir.
Q5 - Will you tell this court-martial about your meeting with Herbert?
A5 - Well, the first time I came in contact with the accused was about twelve-thirty on the night of 29th June. I was on duty at Waterloo Station and observed the accused lolling around improperly dressed, minus his cap and respirator and with his tunic wide open. I requested to see his pass and it was issued from after duty on the 29th. I asked him where his cap and respirator was and why he was going about with his tunic open. He said he had found it hot and had opened his tunic to cool off. He said he had left his respirator and cap in a restaurant on Waterloo Road. I told him to proceed there and get them and he said "Alright" and away he went. That was the last time I saw him on that particular night.
Q6 - Did you see him again?
A6 - On the Sunday.
Q7 - What hour?
A7 - At 2350 I was on duty at Waterloo and in the first place I got information from.....
Q8 - What did you do as a result of that information?
A8 - As a result of information received I went to investigate the complaint and I found this soldier, the accused, on the platform. I kept him under observation on the platform.....
Q9 - Where?
A9 - On Waterloo Station between number three and six platforms.
Q10 - You might tell the Court, was anyone with you?
A10 - L/Cpl. Curtis.
Q11 - On duty?
A11 - Yes. When I observed this soldier he was in conversation with a woman. I took particular notice that he was in the same condition as I saw him on Saturday night; minus his hat and respirator and with his tunic wide open. I accosted him and heard him say to the woman "Everything will be alright." I asked him then to produce his pass and he said "Fuck you, I don't need to show my pass." I asked him to accompany me to the police office and he refused to do so. I took hold of him and while I was proceeding to take him up to the office he struck me with his clenched fist on the side of the mouth.
Q12 - You took hold of him. In what way, by the arm?
A12 - By the arm.
Q13 - Did the other lance-corporal have hold of him?
A13 - Before I got hold of him I got struck in the mouth. My mouth started to bleed and I grappled pretty strongly with him and intended to take him to the office but about twenty sailors of the British Navy interfered and let him go and I couldn't hold against such odds and I had to let him go. The following morning I reported the matter and submitted a statement.
Q14 - Tell the Court whether or not there was evidence of the accused having been drinking.
A14 - He was under the influence of liquor.
Q15 - Would you indicate to what extent?
A15 - To me he seemed to be in a fighting mood.

Q16 - How were you dressed?
A16 - I had a blue band with Canadian Military Police in the centre on my right arm.
Q17 - Were you then a lance-corporal?
A17 - Yes, sir.
Q18 - Had you a stripe?
A18 - Yes, sir.

Cross-examination by Defence Counsel.

Q1 - One point I would like clear, When you went up to the accused on the first night, had he been drinking then?
A1 - Yes, sir, there was a strong smell.
Q2 - On the second night?
A2 - He was in practically the same condition as on the Saturday night.
Q3 - What I think we would like to know is what was his general condition with respect to the liquor he had taken. Had he had a few drinks or many drinks?
A3 - By the way he acted, two or three.
Q4 - No more?
A4 - I wouldn't say so.
Q5 - Was the platform on which you were standing light or dark?
A5 - Just dusk.
Q6 - You wouldn't say it was a bright platform?
A6 - No, sir.
Q7 - A dark gloomy place?
A7 - Yes, sir.
Q8 - Did you tell him you were a military policeman?
A8 - Not on the second night.

Prosecutor - The Court may want to know just what is the cause of your teeth being out. Do you attribute that to the blow?
Witness - When I got the blow on the mouth I had four on top and the big tooth on the side cut my lip. My teeth were extracted on the Monday morning.
Prosecutor - You wouldn't blame the accused?
Witness - No, sir.

2nd witness for Prosecution, L/Cpl. W. Curtis, Canadian Military Police, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

Q1 - What is your full name and regimental number?
A1 - William Curtis, B-28145.
Q2 - What unit were you a member of on the date in question, 30 June?
A2 - The Canadian Military Police.
Q3 - Where?
A3 - London.
Q4 - Do you know the accused, Herbert?
A4 - Yes, sir.
Q5 - When did you see him first?
A5 - On the Sunday night.
Q6 - 30th June?
A6 - Yes, sir.
Q7 - Where?
A7 - Waterloo Station.
Q8 - Was anyone with you?
A8 - In the company of L/Cpl. Oman.
Q9 - Were you on duty?
A9 - Yes, sir.

Q10 - Will you tell us the circumstances under which you saw the accused?
A10 - On Sunday night on Waterloo Station I was on patrol on the platform and a gentleman came along.....
Q11 - Don't tell us what he said. What did you do?
A11 - Started to look around for the soldier and ran across the accused, and while approaching him L/Cpl. Oman asked him for his pass. Just don't know exactly what he said but L/Cpl. Oman said "You are under arrest, you had better come with us." But the sailors started coming around and we had to let him go ourselves. We paraded around the platform the rest of the night but couldn't find him. On the following morning the accused came in at about six-thirty for a warrant to go back to camp and the corporal in charge said it was quite alright to give him one to go on the train. That is about all I know.
Q12 - And how was Herbert dressed when you saw him?
A12 - He had no cap, respirator and his tunic was open. On Monday he had no respirator and I asked him where it was and he said he had lost it.
Q13 - On the night of the 30th June; was it in the evening or the afternoon?
A13 - At 2350 hours.
Q14 - Did you see Oman arrest him?
A14 - I was right there and he said "Youare under arrest" and Herbert brought his right fist around and hit the corporal on the mouth and all the sailors came around and they were ready to have a go and so we had to let him go.
Q15 - What do you mean let him go?
A15 - The sailors kind of carried him off with them.
Q16 - Would you indicate to the Court as best you can how Oman had a hold of the accused and just what he did?
A16 - It was right at the time he asked him for his pass and he told him he was under arrest and he reached him by the shoulder. (Indicates manner) Q17 - Then what did he do? Did he withdraw?
A17 - They had a struggle but he had to let him go.

Cross-examination by Defence Counsel

Q1 - He reached into the crowd and said "You are under arrest" and Herbert refused?
A1 - He just reached in and told him and pulled him out.
Q2 - Would you say he was in a fighting mood?
A2 - I don't know exactly. He had had something to drink.
Q3 - Would it be your opinion that he was in a fighting mood?
A3 - Yes, at a time like that.
Q4 - To what would you attribute that mood? What did you think at the time?
A4 - I don't know.
Q5 - To what do you attribute the fighting mood? He had been drinking hadn't he?
A5 - Yes, sir.
Q6 - Would you say he had a substantial amount on the Saturday?
A6 - I didn't see him on the Saturday.
Q7 - On the Sunday?
A7 - He had had quite a bit.
Q8 - He had more than a couple of drinks?
A8 - Yes, sir.
Q9 - From what you say, his release was effected as much by the sailors as anything else. The sailors did take him out of custody but if it hadn't been for the sailors you could have taken him along?
A9 - Yes, sir.

Defence Counsel - The only point in the case, if I may possibly shorten the evidence, is I want Herbert to say something and I don't think the Court probably knows as yet this man's actual state at the time this happened and I think he should give evidence of that kind. The reason I say so is he is charged under Section 8(1) and shall, on conviction, be liable to suffer penal servitude. You will note the third paragraph of Page 433 of the Army Act. I would like to read it as it refers to superior officer.

"This expression in this section means not only a superior in rank as defined by s.190(7), but also a senior in the same grade where that seniority gives power of command according to the usages of the service, but one private soldier can never by the 'superior officer' of another. The court should be satisfied, before conviction, that the accused knew the person with respect to whom the offence was committed to be a superior officer. If the superior did not wear the insignia of his rank, and was not personally known to the accused, evidence would be necessary to show that the accused was otherwise aware of his being his superior officer. Where the accused is charged withan offence against a superior officer who is of the same grade, evidence must be adduced to show that the latter is senior to the accused.

A military policeman is not, as such, the superior officer of a private soldier. When a soldier, who is arrested for drunkenness, strikes a N.C.O. (being his superior officer) of the military police and is brought to trial, the convening officer will consider according to the particular circumstances, whether it is necessary or expedient to charge the soldier with the graver offence of striking his superior officer, or whether the case would be met by charging the accused with one of the less serious offences specified in s.10(2) or (3)."

There might be some doubt. The reason I would like the accused to adduce evidence in his own defence is because the prosecution witness said the accused had a fair load under his belt and I think the charge should be laid under Section 10 and not under 8(1). I would like to call Herbert in his own defence.

The prosecution is closed.

Last witness for defence, C-11668, Pte. Herbert, A., No. 1 General Holding Unit, being duly sworn, is examined by Defence Counsel.

Q1 - Now, Herbert, you were a member of the 1st Corps Petrol Park at the time this happened?
A1 - Yes, sir.
Q22 - How did you come to be in London?
A2 - I left Quebec Barracks some time Saturday and went down to Farnham and bought two bottles of wine and then went to Aldershot to a pub and started drinking wine and beer.
Q3 - On Saturday?
A3 - Yes, sir. It was around noon, the pubs closed at two. I got on a train for London.
Q4 - You had a pass?
A4 - Yes, sir.
Q5 - What then?
A5 - I don't remember anything more until I woke up on a bench in Waterloo Station. I went for breakfast in the Union Jack Club.
Q6 - When?
A6 - On Sunday.
Q7 - Do you remember having a conversation with L/Cpl. Oman that morning?
A7 - No, sir, I don't remember seeing him.
Q8 - Nor on Saturday night?
A8 - No, sir.
Q9 - Go on.
A9 - I went over to the Union Jack Club and had breakfast and then over to the Beaver Club until eleven o'clock when the pubs opened and I went in and had beer and wine.
Q10 - You went in at eleven o'clock. When did you come out?
A10 - I don't remember coming out.
Q11 - What were you drinking?
A11 - We were drinking wine.
Q12 - What kind?
A12 - Ruby Red.
Q13 - How many did you buy?
A13 - I bought one bottle and a fellow, a civilian, bought one too.
Q14 - You had two?
A14 - Yes, sir.
Q15 - Is that what you drank in the pub?
A15 - I don't remember drinking it all.
Q16 - You don't remember leaving the pub?
A16 - The next thing, I woke up on the floor of the Union Jack Club on Monday morning. I got up at six o'clock and enquired what time the train left for Aldershot.
Q17 - Whom did you ask?
A17 - A civvie. I told him I had no money and he showed me a place to get my ticket.
Q18 - What place?
A18 - A Canadian place.
Q19 - What happened then?
A19 - I went up and asked for a ticket and produced my pass and pay book and they gave me a warrant to go back to barracks and I asked where I could get breakfast but I didn't bother.
Q20 - Did they say anything about being in trouble the night before?
A20 - No, sir.

Cross-examination by Prosecutor.

Q1 - Did you go anywhere with the Navy boys, the sailors, on the Sunday night?
A1 - I don't remember meeting them.
Q2 - What about the woman when you said "Everything will be alright?"
A2 - I don't remember a woman.
Q3 - Where did you leave your respirator and cap?
A3 - I don't know where I left them.

Q4 - Did you recover them?
A4 - Yes, sir.
Q5 - You lost both?
A5 - Yes, sir.
Q6 - How much money did you have when you came to London?
A6 - Two pounds.
Q7 - What did you spend it on?
A7 - All on booze.
Q8 - Did you recognize the lance-corporal who gave evidence here?
A8 - I saw him when I got my warrant.
Q9 - This place you went to to get your warrant, did you know where you were going to?
A9 - No, sir, I knew it was the Canadian Military Police.
Q10 - Who told you?
A10 - The civvie; he said they gave out warrants and took it off your pay book.
Q11 - Your story then is you don't remember a thing that happened at Waterloo on Saturday or Sunday?
A11 - No, sir.
Q12 - Has anything like that ever happened to you before?
A12 - Every time it happens.
Q13 - Are you a fighting man when drunk?
A13 - It has got me into a lot of trouble; it is my downfall -- drink.
Q14 - Do you fight when you have too much to drink?
A14 - Most of the time I do.
Q15 - You just don't remember anything after drinking?
A15 - Yes, sir.
Q16 - You are accustomed to drinking?
A16 - I have only been drunk twice since I was over here.
Q17 - Since the trip to London?
A17 - No, since I landed in England in February.

Defence Counsel - The principle thing I have to say to the Court is not that the evidence discloses the man is not guilty, I think from what the lance-corporals have said, on the face of it, the man is guilty, but at the same time there are two separate offences. Under Section 8(1) the first man must know the other lad he is dealing with is his superior officer. Oman admitted he didn't tell him that night. Herbert says he doesn't remember Waterloo, the sailors or anything. Curtis doesn't say the accused was told they were M.Ps. This man's condition was that he had had quite a few drinks; in a fighting mood. Oman, in caution, says two or three drinks and that he was in a fighting mood. He was fairly well half seas over when this happened, a combination of beer and wine isn't conducive to good sight and I think that under Section 8(1) the prosecution hasn't really satisfied the Court that he knew Oman was, or Curtis was his superior officer. Oman particularly as he was struck, and if the Court isn't satisfied then the charge should be dismissed. If he didn't know it, it was because it wasn't told him or because of his condition. It was not natural. Breaking away from escort; I submit the sailors had as much to do with that as Herbert. At the same time, I think he tried to get away although they actually effected his release rather than he used force to get away. It was that kind of evidence that caused me to offer a plea of not guilty. I thought he was entitled to have these facts put before the court. They are important considerations. Section 8(1) provides for penal servitude; the charge should be laid under 10(1). Section 10(1) provides for less serious cases. I believe the charge should be laid under Section 10(1) instead of 8(1). I think that is all I have to say except that Herbert hasn't tried to explain it and it isn't logical that he would go back to the very same police if he knew he had had contact with them the night before.

Summing up by Prosecutor

There is no doubt the accused was quite drunk. There is no doubt he knows his weakness and knows what happens when he gets drunk and he is not entitled to much consideration knowing he is violent and suffers loss of memory. The fact is quite clear that when he was arrested he struck the lance-corporal and got away from him. He made good his escape with the help of the sailors in the first instance, but by himself he would have been apprehended if no sailors had interfered in his behalf. The fight is proved amply and the only answer he has is that he was drunk and drunkenness is no excuse. On the other charge, the accused may have overlooked the fact he was dealing with a superior officer but I submit it is open to you to make a finding of a qualifying nature along the line suggested by Major Barrett. Section 10(1) is less serious and gives sufficient scope and if you should find him guilty you will be able to give ample and appropriate sentence.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA,~~ if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)[1], and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.[2]

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).[1] If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty[2], or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined[3], we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.[4]

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans ~~No~~.....[5]

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p. 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.[1] The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.[1]

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.[1]

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.[1]

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.[1]

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....[1]

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.[1]

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.[1] You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.[2] You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.[3] But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.[4] You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

He enlisted the 23 May 40, proceeding overseas on the 21 Nov. 41, with the Fifth Divisional Signals as a despatch rider. Pte Herbert is also a qualified army chiropodist and practised for approximately one year with Capt Allen, 1st Canadian Army H.Q.s

The accused wishes to state that his absence was due to family matters at home, having not heard from his wife or infant daughter for three years. This is Pte Herbert's first court martial. It is his wish that he be given the opportunity to serve as a Medical clerk. I would also recommend to the court that the accused due to his acutely and mental state be interviewed by a psychiatrist under these circumstances. I make as for lenency on behalf of Pte Herbert.

4th duties for Prosecution

2/Lt P.D.H. Cole Int. Corps. Edmonton being duly sworn states.

I was recently on strength of I.C.& R.R. I took the summary in this case, the accused made a statement at the summary. I first cautioned him saying "Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath. You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence" There were no threats or promises. He made the statement voluntarily. I wrote it down

THE ACCUSED, M.37018 Pte Hergenheim, L.C., having been duly cautioned: "Do you wish to make any statement or give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything, or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

Ex 3

The statement is taken on oath:

I made a statement to Capt. Strutt, Adj. No. 6 Intell. School, 69 Netherall Gardens, Hampstead, N.W.3. He told me the evidence against me was very convincing, and, to get a lighter sentence, he hinted that I would do well to plead guilty. But I think the following points should be made clear:—

(1) Pte Siemens has been a very close friend of mine for more than a year, and Pte. Baerg has also been a good friend since October 1942. All three of us worked together in Canada before coming to England, and we have been together as close friends ever since.

(2) Being good friends, we had an understanding that whenever any of us was short of anything, and knew one of the other three had it, to take it from his kitbag, so long as he was told afterward what had been taken. Ptes. Baerg and Siemens had occasionally taken things from my kitbag, and told me afterward.

(3) I took 3 packets of Sweet Caporals from Pte. Siemens' web pack on Mon. 28 June 43. I intended to tell him what I had done when next I saw him. This was at a lecture, where I had no opportunity, and forgot about telling him until Saturday, and was about to tell him, when I discovered he had left for the week end.

(4) On Sat. 3 July 43, I took 2 more packets of Sweet Caporals from Pte. Siemens' web pack, and 3 from Pte. Baerg's web pack. I planned to tell them what I had done on their return late Sunday night, but I did not see them until Monday morning, after they had already reported the incident to the Adj., who laid the charge.

(5) I asked Pte Siemens why he had not waited until I returned, before reporting the incident. He said he had been angry at the time and had reported it without thinking to ask me. He had asked and learned that the British soldiers to whom I sold the cigarettes would not be charged for buying them. These British soldiers asked me to sell them cigarettes whenever I had any, and I always gave my weekly ration to them, as I do not smoke. It was according to this arrangement that I sold them cigarettes (because I needed the money — in British Army Schools, Cdn. soldiers are not paid at their normal rates), on 28 June and 3 July 1943.

(6) Of the 5 packets taken on Sat. 3 July 43, 2 were sold and 3 given to a friend.

(7) On Mon 5 July 43 Ptes Siemens and Baerg shook my hand, said they were sorry they had reported the incident, and hoped it would not affect our friendship.

Statement in mitigation of punnishment in the case of M-37016 Hergenheim, L.C.

1. He did not make racket of his sales as total was only nine shillings.

2. Was not aware of the fact that sale was prohibated between members of H.M. Forces.

3. Did not intend going on with these sales but this was just in a case of emergency.

4. Has realized now that he did wrongand is ready to take his punishment.

5. Severe punishment in th's case would do no goode as there will be no further occurance, and severe punishmmnt will embitter the man and perhaps prevent him from being a good soldier.

6. He is not a criminal as is easily seen from his M.F.M. 6.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF
No. M.37018 Pte Hergenheim,L.C.,Intell.Coy., No.1 C.C.R.U.

First Witness for Prosecution. L.67115 Pte. Baerg,W.A.,No. 1 CCRU,having been duly sworn,states:

"From the 28 June 43 until 4 Jul 43,I noticed that some of my cigarettes were missing. On Sunday,4 Jul 43, when I counted over my cigarettes,I noticed that three packets were missing. That same afternoon,I saw pte Ellis, who is on the course with me,smoking Sweet Caporal cigarettes. This was the brand that was missing from my bag. I asked him where he had got them. He replied that he had promised not to divulge the name.' After further questioning,he told me that Pte Hergenheim had sold them to him. I then asked Pte Ellis to describe the package which Pte Hergenheim had sold to him,and he stated that the package was 'wrapped in celophane with a yellow band.' I suspected that they might be mine,as all my cigarettes came in the same wrapping. These were old cigarettes,and the ones received now are not wrapped in celophane.

On Monday morning,5 Jul 43,I approached Pte Hergenheim,whom I now recognise as the accused,and asked him how it was he was able to sell cigarettes. The accused replied:'For Christ's sake! I only took two!' I then walked away. The accused is on the same course as myself,and lives in the same room."

The statement has been read over to Pte Baerg and he wishes no changes to be made.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q."After stating to the Adj of #6 Is that you had not been smoking these cigarettes (Sweet Caporals), why do you say you noticed them diminishing?"

A."Since I had only fourteen packets of Sweet Caporal cigarettes,and they being my favourite cigarettes, I was using them very sparingly,and was smoking other cigarettes. I had these cigarettes in the bottom of my big pack,standing upright. They almost conceal the bottom. I had some tins on top of these cigarettes. It was when I noticed the tins on one side that I saw that some of the cigarettes were missing."

Q."You stated to the Adj that you noticed these cigarettes were missing before Sunday. Why then, did you not count these cigarettes and report the loss before Sunday?"

A."I did not want to incriminate anyone until I was certain they were missing."

"I noticed for the first time on Sunday,29 June 43, that the pack in which my Sweet Caporal cigarettes are kept seemed a great deal less bulky. As I was not smoking my Sweet Caporal cigarettes at the time,I felt convinced someone was stealing them. On Sunday morning,4 Jul,43,I counted them and found ten packages missing. In the afternoon, I found Pte Ellis,who is on the same course,smoking Sweet Caporal cigarettes. I asked him how he had acquired them,and he answered that he had purchaded them from Pte Hergenheim. A few minutes later Sgmn Davies came up and said he also had purchased Sweet Caporal cigarettes from Pte Hergenheim. As all my cigarettes are wrapped in celophane,I asked Pte Ellis and Sgmn Davies if these cigarettes,the ones purchased from Pte Hergenheim,were also wrapped in celophane. The answer was 'Yes.' On Sunday evening,Gnr Richardson came to see me and said that he had purchased Sweet Caporal cigarettes from Pte Hergenheim. Therefore,I felt sure that the cigarettes which Pte Ellis was smoking,and those purchased by Sgmn Davies, Gnr Richardson,and Pte Hopkinson,were mine. Pte Hergenheim does not smoke,and to the best of my knowledge,never received any cigarettes from Canada.

I approached Pte Hergenheim, hom I now recognise as the accused,on Monday morning,5 Jul 43,and told him that I had lost 250 cigarettes,and was sure he had taken them. He answered that he had 'only taken two packages.'"

First Witness for Defence

The accused,M.37018 Pte Hergenhein,L.C.,Intell. Coy., 1 CORU,having been duly sworn,states:

"I made a statement to Capt Strutt,Adj # 6 IS,59 Netherall Gardens,Hampstead,N.W.3. He told me that the evidence was very convincing,and,to get a lighter sentence,he hinted that I would do well to plead guilty. But I think that the following points should be made clear

(1) Pte Siemens has been a very close friend of mine for more than a year,and Pte Baerg has also been a good friend of mine since Oct 1942. All three of us have worked together in Canada before coming to England,and we have been together as close friends ever since.

(2) Being good friends,we had an understanding that whenever any of us was short of anything,and knew one of the other three had it,to take it from his kitbag,so long as he was told afterward what had been taken. Ptes Baerg and Siemens had occasionally taken things from my kitbag, and told me afterwards.

(3) I took three packets of Sweet Caporals from Pte Siemens' web pack on Monday,28 June 43. I intended to tell him what I had done when next I saw him. This was at a lecture,where I had no opportunity,and I forgot about telling him until Saturday,and was about to tell him,when I discovered he had left for the weekend.

(4) On Saturday,3 Jul 43, I took two more packets of Sweet Caporals from Pte Siemens' web pack,and three from Pte Baerg's web pack. I planned to tell them what I had done on their return late Sunday night,but I did not see them until Monday morning,after they had already reported the incident to the Adj.,who laid the charge.

(5) I asked Pte S[illegible] why he had not waited until I returned before reporting the incident. He said he had been angry at the t[illegible],and had reported it without thinking to ~~xxxxxx~~ ask me. He had asked and learned that the British soldiers to whom I sold the cigarettes would not be charged for buying them. These British soldiers asked me to sell them cigarettes whenever I had any,and I always gave my weekly ration to them,as I do not smoke. It was according to this arrangement that I sold them cigarettes (because I needed the money---in British Army Schools,Cdn soldiers are not paid at their normal rates),on 28 June and 3 Jul 43.

(6) Of the five packets taken on Saturday,3 Jul 43,two were sold,and three given to a friend.

(7) On Monday,5 Jul 43,Ptes Siemens and Baerg shook my hand,said they were sorry they had reported the incident, and hoped it would not affect our friendship."

June 29th, 1943

RE: F.G.C.M.
D 3721 Tpr. Marcus Herman
7th Recce Regt (1st D.Y.R.C.H.)

March 13th 1944 Tpr. Herman when served in the Canadian Active Army for 2 years he led an exemplary life in the army his conduct sheet was clear of any crimes.

The Regt moved to South
Eastern Command and whilst the Regt was stationed there Tpr. Herman was employed continuously at maintenance which on the same became very boring to him. He was doing a D.R.'s work but was not getting trades pay.

The day this man went absent he was supposed to go on sick parade. He was also to go on leave the same day which exceeded by was April 19th 1943. He was afraid the Medical Officer may would cancel his leave. Being an "Ex Bounced Off" sort of mind he decided to leave on his own so as not to miss his privilege leave. He thought which was of course wrong, that all he would be punished for was leaving without his pass. He had intended to return on his seven days privilege leave was up. He had wrong money, twenty pounds, but when the time came to go back to the Regt. he became more worried and decided to stay away as long as his money held out. He knew by going to his particular locker the provost would pick him up on the 21st of June 43 he did knowing he would be arrested by the provost.

He realizes his mistake and knows he will be punished. In view of his long and faithful service I wish the Court would consider that he only has made one serious mistake and make his sentence as light as possible under the circumstances.

Prosecutor calls first witness- L/Cpl. Beam I.Z.

Witness Sworn in:-

I-K-38531, L/Cpl. Beam I.Z. of the 28 C.A.R.(B.C.R.)

Sir:- On the evening of charges laid, I was in charge of Regt'l. Police on guard duty, at 2000 hrs I told accused to take over beat. I then went to the N.A.A.F.I. On my return at 2030 hrs I found L/Cpl. Head in Guard room hunting for accused. We shouted several times and received no answer. I then told L/Cpl. Head to wake up Tpr. Burrows and take over the beat. At 2200 hrs the accused walked into Guard Room without Web or Pistol. I then placed him under open arrest and told him he would be up for orders. He tried to talk us out of it, by saying "I have been on the beat all the time". When he found out that that wouldn't work he tried to buy us off by offering us 10 shillings if we could let him go-meaning L/Cpl. Head and myself. I then told him Regt'l. Police didn't do things that way. He then went to bed. At 2330 hrs the accused got out of bed and urinated on the floor, after a lot of arguing we made him wipe it up. At 2400 hrs. we posted him for his next turn at guard. L/Cpl. Head took him out to take over the beat. I walked o t of the Guard house immediately he was posted and I saw the accused fall face first on the road. I immediately went for the M.O. and left L/Cpl. Head to watch him. The M.O. sent Cpl. Closing Address of Prosecuting Officer

There appears to be no evidence of leaving post on instruction of superior officer.

The evidence of two witnesses state that accused did return at 2200 hrs.

Three witnesses gave evidence that Tpr. Herman was no where near his beat so he must have left his post.

Prosecution closes WDY

Closing address of Defending Officer

1st Point- Times laid on for guard duty- accused knew, but was somewhat vague. Laxity in guards by allowing sentries to visit NAAFI etc.Therefore any sentry could have left and got drunk. Accused admits being drunk.Theevidence proves that the accused was drunk as he fell on his face and was carried to the MO.'s. The accused under oath states that he does'nt remember anything which shows that he can't hold liquor,and had apperently had enough to drink at the NAAFI to make himself incapable.

Defending Officer quoted-CHAP.7 SEC.9 M.M.L.

DEFENDING OFFICER'S APPEAL IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT

The accused does not appear to be a very strong character and gets into many little difficulties as shown on his crime sheet,and Ifeel in most cases the blame rests with his superior officers who are morally at fault,and if he had been looked after properly a lot of the minor offences would not have been comitted.Evidence shows that he's a willing worker,has the right spirit and is a good soldier,and all that he needs is the proper guidance.I think that the evidence shows a certain amount of vagueness as to hours of duty on guard,and that very little control,had been enforced.

4. My general opinion of the man: Tpr. Herman in my opinion is of a somewhat simple nature but cheerful. He gets alcng good with the rest of the crew members and I like him as a willing worker. He is a dependable worker and needs very little urging.

K-38531 L/Cpl. Beam, I.Z., 28 Cdn Armd Regt(BCR), having been duly sworn states:-

On Nov 13th 1943 I was in charge of the regimental police and of the guard on duty at the regimental guard room. At 2000 hrs. 13 Nov 43 the accused was sent from the guard room by me to relieve the sentry, Tpr. Burrows, who was on duty. This was the normal way of relieving the sentries. I never actually saw him at the sentry post. I went to the NAAFI and when I came back at 2030 hrs. L/Cpl. Head was in front of the guard house. The guard was not at his post and we had to find him by looking around and shouting for him. We did not find him and we posted another sentry, Tpr. Burrows. I did not have the accused relieved after 2000 hrs.

The accused came into the guard room at 2200 hrs. I placed him under open arrest and told him he would be on orders. He then asked me what I would take and drop the charge and I told him that the regimental police didn't do things that way. He then told us that he would buy us a good drink later. He then went to bed in the guard room.

At 2330 hrs. 13 Nov 43 the accused got out of bed and urinated in the corner of the guard room. We made him mop it up. I did not know the accused was drunk. At 2400 hrs. on 13 Nov 43 I told L/Cpl. Head to post the accused as a sentry. I went out immediately and just as I stepped out of the door I saw the accused fall face first out of the sentry box. He laid on his face and I went up to get the Medical Officer leaving L/Cpl. Head to watch him. I knew there was something wrong with the accused but wasn't sure whether he was sick or drunk or didn't want to go out on shift again. The Medical Officer sent L/Cpl. Morrison and myself to bring the accused in on a stretcher which we did. We set the stretcher on the floor of the R.A.P. and the Medical Officer tried to examine the accused. The accused was rather violent and L/Cpl. Morrison and myself held him down. It appeared to me that the accused made a pass at the Medical Officer with his hand on one occasion and then the Medical Officer called Tpr. Thompson and Tpr. Flower to help us hold him down. The Medical Officer went through the examination. I was told by the Medical Officer to take the accused back to the guard room which I did.

The accused declined to cross examine this witness.

L-36646 L/Cpl. Head, H.G., 28 Cdn Armd Regt(BCR), having been duly sworn states:-

I was second in command of the guard room and the guard. Either L/Cpl. Beam or myself was there at all times. On 13 Nov 43 at 2025 hrs. Lieut J.O. Stevens came into the guard room and told me there was no one on duty as a sentry. I went out but could not find the sentry about. I posted another sentry. Between 2000 hrs. and 2025 hrs. I was not outside of the guard room so cannot say whether a man was actually on duty. I did not at any time relieve or cause to be relieved the accused as a sentry.

The accused came into the guard room at approximately 2200 hrs. he talked to L/Cpl. Beam for a while about leaving his post. He admitted to L/Cpl. Beam that he had left his post, and that he was sorry. L/Cpl Beam told him he was under open arrest. After he was making his bed, he asked L/Cpl Beam and me what it was worth to us to drop the charges. L/Cpl Beam told him things were not run that way. He offered to buy us drinks at a later date.

When he came into the guard room he did not seem to me to be under the influence of liquor. He was walking alright. At 2400 hours when Cpl Beam had me repost him, I took him out to the sentry box and he walked into it and in a few minutes he fell out of it onto the road. L/Cpl Beam immediately went for the M.O. I remained with the accused. L/Cpl Beam and L/Cpl Morrison came back with a stretcher and took him away on it.

(THIRD WITNESS CONTINUED)

The accused was conscious while I was with him alone. I didn't know whether he was sick or drunk or what was wrong.

I stayed at the Guard room when they took him away on the stretcher.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FOURTH WITNESS

D-131084 Tpr Burrows, J. K. of the 28 Cdn Armd Regt(BCR) having been duly sworn, states:

On 13 Nov 43 I was on sentry duty at the Regimental Guard house from 1800 hours to 2000 hours. I was relieved by Tpr Herman, the accused. I then went into the Guard room and went to bed. At 2030 hours was disturbed by L/Cpl Read and told to go on sentry duty until 2200 hours which I did. I did not see Tpr Herman from the time he relieved me until about 2200 hours when he walked past the sentry box going to the Guard room from the direction of the main road past the camp.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

(Signature of witness)

Capt Nathan Kaufman, R.C.A.M.C., having been duly sworn, states:

At approximately 0030 hours on 14 Nov 43 L/Cpl Beam came into the R.A.P. and informed me that the man on guard was lying by the Sentry Post. I sent him and Cpl Morrison, my orderly, out with a stretcher in order to bring him into the R.A.P. The accused was brought in by them on the stretcher. On examination I found him to be intoxicated or drunk.

His behavour alterna ted between periods of extreme quietness to disorderliness. During one of these disorderly periods I called in Tpr Thompson, my driver and Tpr Flower, my batman to help control the man. At no time did the accused offer violence to me during the examination which was carried out during a period when he was quiet. Whenever he showed signs of boisterousness I withdrew a few feet and allowed the others to carry on.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

1. The court was of the opinion that the offence committed by the m/n might have been adequately dealt with by his CO even if it meant stretching the intention of either A.A. Sec 40 or A.A. Sec 15(1).

2. In view of the fact that the CO of the accused did not choose to deal with the offence himself, the Court rendered the minimum sentence required to support the choice of the C.O.

I was on duty Sgt. on 16 May 43. At about 2245 hrs on that day, accompanied by the orderly officer I went on a tour of the sentry posts. There was no sentry present at No 4 post and we waited for him to return until 2300 hrs. About 1302 I saw the accused in another part of the camp coming from his post. I placed him under arrest and reported the matter to the guard commander. He was about 250 x away from his post at 2302 hrs.

No Cross-examination

By the Court. I checked with the guard commander to see if the accused was the sentry at that post at that time, and from his words it was clear that he was the sentry.

1st Witness for Defence — The accused having been duly sworn, states:

I left my post because I had to go to the latrine in a hurry. I tried to get someone else to replace me. There was other sentries other than No 4 Post. I did not go all to them because they had their own duties to do. I could not leave and a latrine close to my post because the only one that was close was locked. It was out to my own block of buildings. I stayed away from my post only for the time required to relieve myself, about 10 minutes.

I attended Church Parade with the guard commanded by the Q.M. Sgt. Parade should be released at 8.30 hrs. I was on my way back to my post when I met the orderly Sgt. He did not order me off my post. I offered him no explanation at the time but later when I had to explain to the Adjt. I told him. I then returned to my post until I was relieved.

Cross-examined

The first letter I read the time looked as if it may be my post. The letter I actually used was about 30 away I admit I might have used the letter in the N.C.O.'s Mess but I was in a hurry and I looked at my watch as I knew what time I had to be at 3rd R.C.H.Q. I have only been a guard duty 3 or 4 times. I never had a party to be supposed to have this post.

Address ~~in extenuation of punishment~~

The Court has been given evidence of the absence of the accused from his post without having secured permission to do so or having been regularly relieved. By pleading not guilty the accused does not intend to deny these facts. But he wants to establish the total absence of formal intention to leave his post without attempting to do it in a manner that was not prejudicial to his duties.

To support this contention may I summarize the concluding factors as implied by the accused in his sworn statement.

Before leaving his post the accused looks for a place of relief in the immediate neighborhood of his beat — He does not call other sentries because he knows they can't help him — He is away during is quite only — He returns to his post by himself — Indecision prevents him from giving to the orderly sergeant — Explanations of ~~his absence~~ for being absent from his duties — for all practical purposes he thinks that due to circumstances ~~he~~ attempt to go back to his post in the shortest time possible is preferable to any prolongation of absence by this asking permission to be relieved from guard.

The ~~offence~~ charge ensues and it is made on solid grounds, but the offense is so unintentional that it might only reveal a slight tendency from the part of the soldier to underestimate the importance of sentry duties even in the absence of immediate danger from enemy action. — Signed: [illegible]

FIRST WITNESS: for the PROSECUTION

B-67558 Cpl. E. McDougall, sworn, states:
I am from "A" Wing, 2 C.I.R.U., and a member of the regimental police of 2 C.I.R.U., and recognize the accused, Pte. Herndon, G.C.
At approximately 0720 hours, 14 June 44, I ordered S.U.S. Pte. Herndon, G.C. to get a bucket and a brush and start scrubbing the floor, and he answered; "Fuck it." I then warned him it was an order and that if he didn't do it, he would be charged. He answered, "I don't care, I am not scrubbing any floor or words to that effect." I then hesitated a few moments. He made no effort to start scrubbing the floor. I then placed him on charge.

Cross-examined by the Prosecutor:

Closing Address by the Prosecution

The defence of the prisoner in this case seems to be that when ordered to scrub the floor he did not say, "Fuck it", he said, "To hell with it." The witnesses produced by the defence, all admit that an order was given although there is some talk of a volunteer system. However two of the witnesses admitted that they heard Cpl. McDougall say "This is an order." The best witness as to who was spoken to is Cpl. McDougall himself, who stated that he mentioned Herndon by name and I submit to the court, that it is highly unlikely that in a Guard Detention Room an N.C.O. in charge detailing fatigues would merely ask for volunteers and allow those who did not feel like working sit back and do nothing. The fatiques in the Guard Detention Room are not designed to be attractive to the inmates. As to the whereabouts of Cpl. Davis, who states that he was just outside the doorway, none of the defence witnesses said that he was not there but merely that they did not see him. Cpl. Davis or Cpl. McDougall would have little to gain by coming before a court-martial and making these statements on oath, if they were not in fact true. None of the defences said that Pte. Herndon was not given time to carry out the orders.
They further admit that he said he would not scrub any floors. It may be that he was walking beside someone when he said it, but Jones could hear it at the other side of the room. It was said with the deliberate intention that Cpl. McDougall should hear. If Pte. Herndon was not the one detailed to do the work, why should he alone announce that he had no intention of doing it when, no doubt it is very unpleasant task. Two relisble witnesses have said that they heard Herndon use the words, "Fuck it." The witnesses for the defence have said only that they did not hear it, and that after a series of very leading questions, which the defending officer saw fit to assist his witnesses in giving the answers he wanted.

Defence closing address ①

Mr President,

Gentlemen Members of this Court,

The case for the prosecution has closed without bringing the conviction wanted of the accused's culpability. However, the evidences of the witnesses have confirmed the beliefs I had that Pte Herndon is not guilty of the charge as read.

On the morning of the alleged offence, the soldiers in detention had been ordered to eat in their living quarters. They were ten men. But due to a lack of care, there was only one table and one bench provided for the whole lot so that most of the men had to eat on the floor. The room is dark as light only flows in from the open door.. It is permissible to believe that when giving an order, Cpl McDougall might have addressed Pte Herndon but due to the almost complete obscurity, the accused and his companions did not know to whom that order was given.

As to the use of insulting words for an answer, I doubt it. I understand that the language of Shakespeare, when spoken in Detention Rooms, gains in color and energy

M.I.R. 2 C.I.R.U.

This is to certify that I have examined 477390 HERNDON, C.C. on 22 JUNE 1944 and I find him medically fit to stand Trial by Court Martial.

what it loses of its melody. There must be a ~~maximum~~ constant rivalry in this Academy for the best depicting adjective and the fiercest exclamations. And Cpl McDougall whose ears should be well trained after many months in the Guard House may have thought he heard such insulting phrases.

However, Justice calls for a fair treatment and we must have a definite proof to the charge.

L/Cpl Davies whose evidence is fitting too well with that of Cpl McDougall was not in the room. Then where was he to hear what was going on? We have heard that there was a lot af noise going on and that two of the witnesses were at the door where L/Cpl Davies claims he was. And they did not see him.

If he was not in the room how could he tell from what he has not seen who was ordered to clean the floor, who answered back, what were the exact words or words to this effect, and so forth. Are his ears better trained then those of Cpl McDougall to tell from a good distance and among all the noise that Pte Herndon, among ten men, was answering. L/Cpl Davies may have inquired to Cpl McDougall of what was going on. That would become earsay evidence and be of no value to the Court.

HDS

When L/Cpl Davies knew that Cpl McDougall was alone among all the soldiers under sentence, why did he not go in to assist his superior NCO ? and thence contribute to the veracity of his sayings ?

Pte Herndon was waiting to be tried when this incident happened. He probably was not in the best of moods. He had been eating on the floor. That could'nt help. But to go so far as to accuse him of #wilful defiance", there is a lot to go.

Cpl. McDougall did not give a direct order mentionning Pte. Herndon's name. Pte Herndon did not use obscene words to show his contempt of the N.C.O. L/Cpl Davies was not there. We cannot pay any special attentions to his sayings.

Therefore, how could we atain the record of this soldier on so meagre evidence.

The question is this : Should a man in detention, at the mercy of his guards, be challenged abusively by who, the guards/for want of protection, league in their statements.

The provisions of the laws governing the soldiers undergoing sentences or awaiting ~~xxx~~ trial are strick enough without adding anything of our own.

The accused is now undergoing sentence for a crime he has admitted. He has a long time to wait yet before he can be of any use to our Army and finish the job he has come over here voluntarily to do.

I know that the Court shall not add to this misfortune by a doubtful verdict. Facts have failed to appear before you in a clear perfect view. I remain certain that judging to the best of your abilities, the accused need not fear because he is not guilty.

Let him finish the job he has come over here voluntarily to do.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT, in the case of, H-77390 Pte. George Charles HERNDON, Canadian Infantry Corps, on strength of No.2 Canadian Infantry Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

We have witnessed a very sad case. This soldier is now undergoing sentence and although he is fit for actual fighting he is by misconduct in the past held up in detention. I feel that he should be given a chance for although he may have been found guilty with no doubt in your mind, the whole thing if contributing only to extend period of detention would prove of no value by not bringing a better understanding of laws governing the army.

This soldier, a volunteer has come over here to do a job and although his character may not be of the highest recommendation, he may be found of greatest help while our country is at war.

However two of the witnesses admitted that they heard Cpl McDougall say this was an order. The best witness was Pte Brown who spoke to Cpl McDougall himself who stated that he understood the order to be one and I submit to the court that it is highly unlikely that in a guard detention room an N.C.O. in charge of detailing fatigues would merely ask for volunteers and allow those who did not feel like working set back and do nothing. If fatigues in the guard detention rooms were not designed to be attractive to the prisoners. As to the character of Cpl Brown who states that he does not entitle the learned counsel of the defence witnesses said that he was not there but merely that they did not see him. Cpl Brown and Cpl McDougall would have little to gain by

... evidence before a Court-Martial
... and in saying these statements are ... truth if they were not of fact
... time. None of the witnesses
... for the defence said that Pte
... Herndon was not given time
... to carry out the ordered.
... They further admit that he said
... he would not scrub any floors.
... It may be that he was walking ... beside someone when he said it
... but Jones could hear it at the other ... side of the room. It was said with the ... deliberate intention that Cpl
... Bergall should hear it. Pte
... Herndon was not the one detailed ... to do the work why should he show
... reluctance that he had no ... intention of doing it when
... no doubt it is a very unpleasant
... task. Two reliable witnesses
... have said that they heard
... Herndon make the remark "I won't ... do it". The witnesses for the defence
... here said only that they had ... not heard it and that after a series
... of very leading questions which
... the defending officer saw fit to ... assist his witnesses in giving
... the answers he wanted.

Def. Mitigation of punishment

We have witnessed a very sad case. This soldier is now undergoing sentence and although he is fit for actual fighting he is by misconduct in the past held up in detention. I feel that he should be given a chance for although he may have been found guilty with no doubt in your mind the whole thing of contributing only to extend period of detention would prove of no value by not bringing a better understanding of laws governing the army.

This soldier, a volunteer has come over here to do a job and although his character may not be of the highest recommendation he may be found of greatest help while our country is at war.

He answered "Fuck it" . I warned him that it was an order, he answered "I don't care I'm not scrubbing any floors", or words to that effect. He did not scrub the floor. I hesitated a few moments to give him a chance to obey the order and then placed him under charge.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. Defence of No H 77635 Pte. V. L. Alderdice

Mr President and Members of the Court.

The accused, whilst only 17½ years of age, enlisted as a volunteer in the Can. Army on 4 July 41. In order to do so he put 6 months on his age. He enlisted in the 18 (Manitoba) Depot Regt in order to serve with his older brother of whom he was very fond. Since then, against his own wishes, the Can Army have separated him from his brother. His home life, prior to enlistment, was very unhappy and most unsatisfactory. His father died when the accused was only a few years old and when his mother went to work as a domestic his relations with his mother's employer were far from happy. Owing to these conditions he has not had the guidance and up bringing that most of us get to make us good citizens or soldiers. The forced separation from his older brother, whom he idolized, did nothing to improve his outlook on life. Owing to the lack of a good home life and also due to the fact that he associated with older men whilst he was still a youth he was most unfortunate and misguided in his relations with the opposite sex. Consequently whilst still only 21 years of age he has had VDS and VDG as well as being an unmarried father. This has given him a twisted outlook on life and as a result he has had to fight against himself. He has made home for. He went with the Regina Rifles and took part in the initial assault on France on D day. For 66 days he was in the front line and was eventually evacuated and classed as a "Battle Exhaustion" case. All these factors have undermined his stability and in attempt to break away from all his worries and troubles he has gone absent Without Leave. He has been examined by a very competent Psychiatrist who reports that his "ultimate prognosis is poor and he is unlikely to profit by punishment - unlikely to become an efficient soldier" The accused has now been rated M1B3. In view of all these factors, gentlemen, I do not feel that justice will be served if this man is confined for a long period. It would be more in the interest of humanity and justice if this man could be given the proper medical guidance to fit him for rehabilitation as a useful citizen for the Canada he has voluntary offered his life for.

Sir,

At ROUEN on the 9th December 1944 at about 2000hrs I was on duty at the Salvation Army Canteen where I saw the a/n soldier.

I approached him and asked him where he was stationed to which he replied "I am passing through ROUEN with a truck and am staying in a hotel tonight".

Not being satisfied with his statement I checked the list of Absentees and found that the a/n was an absentee from his Unit.

He was questioned as to the whereabouts of the vehicle which he stated he was driving and on proceeding there I found vehicle No. Z 5345921.

I arrested the a/n soldier and conducted him to Rouen Guardroom where I handed him over to the NCO i/c Guard to be detained and the vehicle was retained at this Headquarters for disposal. The a/n soldier refused to give any statement regarding the vehicle.

Handing over slip and certificate of arrest attached.

F.G.C.M. Pte Heron C633.7

Plea of Mitigation

Pte Heron is a well trained soldier, old in service but very young in years. Having just attained his 21st birthday, he has already contributed 4 yrs active service dating from voluntary enlistment on 12 July 1940 at the age of 17. The accused's clean NFM6 now in the hands of the court - is strong testimony to his good conduct and outstanding record, during the most stagnant period in the history of the Canadian Army, when crime was prevalent among all ranks and proved the rule rather than the exception.

Prior to his being attached to 11 Bn. 2 CBRB. in June 1944, Heron has served with the Cdn. Scottish Regt continuously since its arrival in the U.K. 1 Sept 41. Whilst in the field, he was happy at his work, fully realizing that the training there was most essential, personally and collectively, to the success of his job of fighting and helping to win the war. During this time, Heron proved the above statement by working hard and cheerfully, and did not go A.W.L. a single occasion in nearly 3 years, until the 19 May 1944. In the following paragraphs, the defense will attempt to set forth, on the accused behalf, the strong compassionate grounds for this soldier's A.W.L. at this time.

Heron took an English wife 1 yr ago and is very happily married. A child, healthy and normal, was born to them recently, but unfortunately, Divine Providence, willed otherwise and the baby lost both health and normality one month after birth. A tumour on the brain developed, calling for an immediate and at first successful operation. The child's progress was short lived and Heron was frantically summoned as the radium treatment in the a/m operation had proved to intense, and serious complications had latently developed.

Pte Heron W.H.

Plea of Mitigation (Cont'd)

The accused showed the letters to his C.O., - stressed the urgency of the situation and explained he had not seen his wife or child at or since the original operation. He was refused permission and an opportunity to see them for even a few hours.

Heron had not been warned for draft of any kind and was at once bewildered, dismayed and somewhat angry at his C.O.'s refusal to grant what seemed to him a most reasonable request.

The defense strongly submits to the court that Herons next decision was most human, and in complete harmony with the eternal Law of Charity. He decided to commit a military offence - that ~~of A.W.L.~~ to avoid committing what appeared in his turbent mind a far greater crime - that of being away from the side of his wife and baby boy in their great hour of trial and suffering.

Plea of Mitigation (Contd)

Heron stayed with his wife and baby, offering his assistance and encouragement as a loving husband during those days when her mental condition needed his sympathy and understanding. He gave himself up voluntarily to the C.M. Police when he felt his wife could carry on alone.

Surely this is one which demands the special attention and consideration of the court and it is the opinion of the defence that had this soldier's case been properly investigated, the charge, and the appearance of this lad before an F.G.C.M. could have been easily avoided.

The defense pleads for the utmost clemency of the court and asks them to duly consider the compassionate circumstances surrounding this unfortunate affair.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENTENCE

From the evidence submitted in this case of L/Cpl. Herr it appears that with another prisoner escaping just previous to the change of guards that much excitement and movement was evident, and with the new guard being thrown into the search at once the Court realizes just how this would happen. From the statement made by the prosecuting officer that it was now known that the prisoner escaped previous to L/Cpl. Herr taking over, the second charge was incorrect.

L/Cpl. Herr's M.F.M. 6 has no entries.

From the evidence given by the Provost Sergeant it is plain that his staff is far too small and for one L/Cpl and three men as police to look after two barrach areas, as well as twenty prisoners is expecting far to much and this situation should be rectified at once before more prisoners escape.

Woods
Major.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER IS GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE

Q.5. Do you wish to tell the Court your story?

A.5. Sir, when we change shifts the man going on duty is supposed to count and check the prisoners and make sure that everyone is still there. That evening when I took over at 1600 hours, a prisoner had just escaped custody some few minutes before. When I came on duty my men and men on the other shift were out looking for the prisoner, and owing to the confusion and excitement going on, it completely slipped my mind. There is nothing more that I can say

WITNESS WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE

B-36811 Sgt. Patterson A., R.H.L.I. on the strength of 5 C.I.R.U. as Provost Sergeant.

Q.6. What do you know about the second charges in this case?

A.6. Upon investigation since the charge has been submitted among the prisoners confine in the detention room, it appears that Pte. Cornell escaped from custody previous to L/Cpl. Herr's taking over of the Guard Room at 1600 hrs.

Q.7. You are the Provost Sergeant at 5 C.I.R.U.

A.7. Yes Sir.

Q.8. How long have you been the Provost Sergeant?

A.8. I have been a Provost Sergeant since 3rd of September, 1939 in different Units.

Q.9. How long have you known L/Cpl. Herr

A.9. I have known L/Cpl. Herr approximately one month. Maybe a little more

Q.10. How have you found his work to be.

A.10. I have found him to be a very conscientious worker and I have every confidence in him, and still have, Sir.

Q.11. Do you feel that it was the result of the confusion of the escape of the first prisoner that was really the reason for this case and not on account of his habit of neglecting his work?

A.11. I am pretty confident that it is the reason why he slipped up. There was a lot of confusion, a prisoner had just escaped and we were pretty busy. At the time of the escape of this prisoner I had 20 prisoners in the Detention Rooms. I had to guard Tournay Barracks also Lille Barracks, and the most men I could put on duty on a shift was one L/Cpl. and 3 men. We have been in this camp for five weeks and I have not been able to leave the lines myself.

Q.12. You have Two Barrack Areas?

A.12. Yes Sir.

Q.13. You have got to handle two Barrack Areas with yourself , one L/Cpl. and 3 men?

A.14. Yes Sir.

CLOSING ADDRESS BY OFFICER FOR THE PROSECUTION

Due to the appearance yesterday, of one of the escaped prisoners, changes the position of L/Cpl Herr as far as R.C.A.F.R.J. is concerned. The Prisoners say, that the escape happened before the accused came on duty.

ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT OF THE COURT

It is unfortunate that this happened. I realize that owing to the shortness of your staff, and the job that you have to do, that you are overworked and that you can not watch everything at the same time. In future when you have been given a very important job like yours, with a lot of responsibility you must try and carry-out everything as laid down that you are supposed to do. As you say it is very important and I realize there was a lot of excitement and confusion. I can see, and the Court can see the reason why this happened, but in the furture you must be very careful.

Sir

I beg to submit the following statement of evidence.

At 1600 hrs. on March 11th 1918. C/8015 Pte HEBB, P.L. took over as Guard commander, of the Regt. Detention rooms, Tournay Bks. My orders to all N.C.O's when taking over these duties, are that they make a close check on and as to the number of prisoners confined, and that they will sign a receipt for the number of bodies received into their charge.

Guard mounted on 11th March I was in the Guard room when the prisoners were all ordered for the night, and lights were extinguished off. Pte Hebb then reported all correct.

I retired to my quarters adjoining the detention rooms.

At about 2015 hrs. Pte Hebb came to my quarters and reported to me that he had re-checked his prisoners, and that the barrack one of the prisoners, could not be accounted for, also that he could not recall having seen Cornell since he had been on duty.

I asked him if he checked the prisoners at 1600 hrs and he admitted that he had omitted to do so.

I reported the matter to the R.O.R.

At 2230 hrs. I received Pte Hebb of his duties, warned him into open arrest, and preferred charges under A.A. Sect 9 (2) and A.A. Sect 20 (2). Barrack p. Sergt

~~The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.~~

First witness for prosecution. } being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor.

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES THE FOLLOWING OPENING ADDRESS:

Theevidence that I am going to adduce in support of this charge I am going to introduce in chronological order and I might point out to the Court that the charge as laid does not charge that the accused was on duty at the time. It is a simple case of drunkenness at some time between two definite hours and that is the extent of the proof which we intend to adduce.

1st Witness for the Prosecution, Special Constable C.35 Edward Albert Kent, Brighton Police, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q. 1 - Constable, your name is Edward Albert Kent?
A. 1 - Yes, sir
Q. 2 - And you are a member of the Brighton Police Force?
A. 2 - Yes, sir
Q. 3 - Were you on duty on the night of Aug 8th last?
A. 3 - Yes, sir
Q. 4 - Will you relate to the Court just what happened that evening?
A. 4 - At 2210 hours on Aug 8th I was on Kings Road and standing on the pavement just east of Maxim's. I saw three officers come out of Maxim's and cross the road. One was in the centre and he was being assisted by the officer on either side of him. They took him across the road and placed him on a seat on the seafront. There they left him. When I saw him his legs were apart and his elbows were on his knees and his face was in his hands. That is the first time I saw him
Q. 5 - Did you recognize the officer that time?
A. 5 - I did not see the Regiment he belonged to, sir. The next time I saw him, sir, was at 2340. On patrol I saw him at the bottom of the Maxim's Shelter steps leading into the shelter. I carried him into the shelter and saw that he was drunk and smelled strongly of liquor. I carried him inside the shelter and placed him on a seat
Q. 6 - The officer that you carried inside the air raid shelter, have you identified him?
A. 6 - I did, sir
Q. 7 - And who was the officer?
A. 7 - I identified him on the Thursday - 26 Aug at Police Headquarters
Q. 8 - And who was the officer?
A. 8 - He was a Lieut. Herringer
Q. 9 - Do you recognize the accused?
A. 9 - Yes, sir
Q.10 - Is the accused the officer that you have been referring to?
A.10 - Quite, sir
Q.11 - Well, will you carry on with your story from where you carried the officer into the air raid shelter?
A.11 - I left him on the seat in the shelter and went to Box 3 and telephoned our Headquarters who immediately got into contact - -
Q.12 - You said that you informed Police Headquarters?
A.12 - Yes, sir. They got in contact with the Military Police and they told me that - -

Judge-Advocate - Well, now - -

Q.13 - You can't say to the court what they did. As a result of your telephone call what happened after that?
A.13 - The Military Police met me at Box 3 and I took them along to the shelter and showed the Police where the man was Q.14 - Did you enter the shelter the second time?
A.14 - Yes, sir
Q.15 - And what did you findthere?
A.15 - I found the officer still where I had placed him lolling back against the seat there
Q.16 - And you recognized the officer as the accused?
A.16 - Yes, sir
Q.17 - And what was his condition at that time?
A.17 - Well, I should say he was drunk, sir
Q.18 - And what reasons have you for saying that he was drunk?
A.18 - Well, he smelled slightly of liquor and the front of his tunic was soiled with vomit, sir

Q.19 - Is that your only reasons for saying he was drunk?
A.19 - He was absolutely incapable of movement or looking after himself
Q.20 - He was incapable of movement?
A.20 - Right, sir
Q.21 - Did you have any conversation with him?
A.21 - Didn't speak a word, sir
Q.22 - Did he attempt to speak?
A.22 - No, sir
Q.23 - You say that his clothes were soiled?
A.23 - Yes, sir
Q.24 - He had been ill?
A.24 - Yes, sir
Q.25 - How long have you been a constable?
A.25 - Three years, sir
Q.26 - Is this the first case you have had in which you judged a person drunk in the course of your duty?
A.26 - Yes, sir
Q.27 - It is?
A.27 - Yes, sir
Q.28 - Have you seen drunkenness before?
A.28 - Oh yes, sir
Q.29 - On one occasion or many occasions or several?
A.29 - Not many occasions but once or twice, sir
Q.30 - You think you are quite capable of judging when a man is drunk?

Defending Officer - That is a matter for the court to decide

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.31 - Constable Kent, you have been in Brighton for the last three years?
A.31 - Lived there all my life, sir
Q.32 - And what did you do before the War?
A.32 - In what capacity, sir?
Q.33 - Did you work in Brighton?
A.33 - I am working there now, sir
Q.34 - Before the War?
A.34 - Yes, sir
Q.35 - And in the last three years you have been doing this job?
A.35 - Part-time Special Constable
Q.36 - You have a regular job and do this other duty as well?
A.36 - Yes, sir
Q.37 - You have lived in Brighton all your life?
A.37 - Yes, sir
Q.38 - Brighton is quite a big place?
A.38 - Yes, sir
Q.39 - And it is quite a well-known sea resort in England?
A.39 - Yes, sir
Q.40 - And there are a lot of pubs in Brighton?
A.40 - Yes, sir
Q.41 - A lot of hotels?
A.41 - Yes, sir
Q.42 - And a lot of places I suppose in Brighton which are not just respectable in the way of pubs etc?
A.42 - Well, if they were not respectable they would be closed down Q.43 - Then all places in Brighton are absolutely all right, are they?
A.43 - Yes, sir, as far as I know
Q.44 - Now, have you ever in your three years as Special Constable and also the fact that you have lived in Brighton all your life ever heard that some of the pubs sell hooch or bad liquor?
A.44 - I have never heard that, sir
Q.45 - This is the first time you have ever heard it before?
A.45 - Yes, sir
Q.46 - Do you drink yourself?
A.46 - No, sir
Q.47 - Oh, you are not a drinking man?
A.47 - No, sir
Q.48 - Then you would not be in pubs?
A.48 - Not inside, sir
Q.49 - Now, the accused officer sitting here, you first saw him on a bench sitting in front of the seafront?

A.49 - Yes, sir. I first saw him between two officers, sir
Q.50 - And then they placed him on a seat?
A.50 - They took him across the road and placed him on a seat, sir
Q.51 - Was it dark?
A.51 - No, sir
Q.52 - You didn't go over and speak to him?
A.52 - No, sir
Q.53 - He had his knees apart

Witness demonstrates by sitting on chair, spreading his knees apart, placing his elbows on his knees and holding his face in his hands

Q.54 - It was about 2210 hours when you first saw him in that position?
A.54 - That's right, sir
Q.55 - And how far away were you?
A.55 - Well, on Kings Road - rough ly, I should say about 20 yards
Q.56 - Did he look to you as if he was not well?
A.56 - Well, he had that appearance, sir
Q.57 - And you didn't go over and speak to him?
A.57 - No, sir
Q.58 - And then we carry the story a little further and you found him sitting on a step in an air raid shelter?
A.58 - At the bottom of the steps
Q.59 - And you carried him down?
A.59 - I carried him into the shelter, sir
Q.60 - And you say he smelled of liquor?
A.60 - Smelled of liquor, sir
Q.61 - His tunic was soiled?
A.61 - Yes, sir
Q.62 - And he was incapable of moving?
A.62 - Yes, sir
Q.63 - He could have been ill, Constable Kent?
A.63 - Could have been, yes sir

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF R.P.83(B)

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

2nd Witness for the Prosecution, 768483 Sgt. Pettman, H.J., C.M.P. Brighton Detachment, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.64 - You are Sgt. Pettman?
A.64 - Yes, sir
Q.65 - And to what Unit are you attached?
A.65 - I am attached to the C.M.P. at Brighton, sir
Q.66 - Do you recognize the accused?
A.66 - Yes, sir
Q.67 - When did you see him before?
A.67 - I saw him on the night of the 9th of August, sir and on the 26th of August, sir
Q.68 - And will you tell the court what you remember about the 9 Aug?
A.68 - Yes, sir. On the 9 Aug, sir, at Brighton at 0015 hours acting on information received from the Civil Police I proceeded to Maxim's air raid shelter where I saw Lieut. Herringer of the 62 Tpt Coy. He was lying across a bench and drunk and incapable of any movement. I escorted him to Police Headquarters where he was detained pending the arrival of an escort
Q.69 - What was the condition of the clothes of the accused at that time?
A.69 - The front part of his tunic was soiled with sickness, sir, including his necktie
Q.70 - Did you have any conversation with the accused?
A.70 - None at all, sir
Q.71 - Why not?
A.71 - He was incapable of making any speech, sir
Q.72 - And what did you do when you found him?
A.72 - In the air raid shelter?
Q.73 - Yes
A.73 - We escorted him up the steps and to the C.M.P. billets, sir, where he remained until 3 o'clock and was taken away by the escort, sir

Q.74 - In taking him out of the air raid shelter did the accused walk by himself?
A.74 - No, sir, he was escorted by myself and my corporal, sir
Q.75 - You say "escorted". What do you mean by that?
A.75 - We had one arm each around the back of the officer, sir
Q.76 - So all the time you saw the accused at that time you had no conversation with him?
A.76 - None whatsoever, sir
Q.77 - And just as confirmation, who is the constable who took you to the accused?
A.77 - Police Constable Kent, sir, No. 35
Q.78 - Now, you have made a statement that the accused was drunk?
A.78 - Yes, sir
Q.79 - Now, what led you to that belief?
A.79 - Well, the symptoms of drunkenness were there, sir, that sickness and he was lying out on this bench and incapable of any movement sir
Q.80 - I just didn't get the last
A.80 - He was drunk. He was lying on this bench and incapable of any movement, sir
Q.81 - You are trying to tell me he was helpless?
A.81 - Quite, sir
Q.82 - How long have you been attached to the C.M.P.?
A.82 - Four years, sir
Q.83 - Have you had any experience with drunkenness?
A.83 - Quite a bit, sir in Brighton, sir, particularly the Dominion troops, sir

Judge-Advocate - Now, you are not qualifying him as an expert. He has stated his belief that he was drunk and gave the observations on which he based it Prosecutor - Well, I wanted to develop the point that this man was quite familiar with drunkenness cases and as such was particularly able to recognize it. However, I will deal with that in argument
Judge-Advocate - Well, you have dealt with his experience. What further do you want?
Prosecutor - I don't think I need to go any further. I won't labour that point Q.84 - When the accused was brought back to your Headquarters what did you do with him there?

A.84 - We laid him on a bed, sir and he remained there until 3 o'clock in the morning until the escort arrived for him. During the time he was there there was no speech made, sir

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.85 - Sergeant, have you been in Brighton long?
A.85 - About nine months, sir
Q.86 - Pretty big place, isn't it?
A.86 - Yes, quite a size, sir
Q.87 - Quite a lot of pubs in Brighton?
A.87 - Yes, quite a lot
Q.88 - Do you take a drink yourself - off duty?
A.88 - Occasionally - yes, sir
Q.89 - I suppose you have been in some of the pubs around Brighton - off duty?
A.89 - I use our own mess; we have a Mess
Q.90 - Have you ever heard or seen cases in Brighton where bad hooch has been sold or bad liquor?
A.90 - Not in my experience, no sir
Q.91 - Never heard that at all?
A.91 - No, sir
Q.92 - Brighton pubs must be pretty good?
A.92 - Yes, sir
Q.93 - I was not really referring to beer. How about liquor? Never heard that about it?
A.93 - No, sir

Q.94 - Of course, in the experience of your life you have heard that bad liquor has been sold in this Country
A.94 - Well, you hear cases of it being diluted to increase the profit, sir
Q.95 - You have never heard of any cases in Brighton of that type?
A.95 - No, sir
Q.96 - Are there any places in Brighton which are out of bounds to the troops?
A.96 - There is a place just outside, sir
Q.97 - Are there any places not up to standard that would be sort of undesirable?
A.97 - This particular one we put out of bounds was that type, sir
Q.98 - And every now and then there are places put out of bounds?
A.98 - That is the first case in Brighton, sir
Q.99 - Now, you gave evidence in chief sergeant that Lieut. Herringer was lying across a bench. I will just quote your exact words - "lying across a bench and drunk and incapable of movement". He could have been ill, couldn't he?
A.99 - He could have been, yes sir

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.100- Why was the public house which you referred to put out of bounds? For what reason was it placed out of bounds?
A.100- Well, I think there were quite a number of undesirable women used to go in there
Q.101- To the best of your knowledge that is the reason it was placed out of bounds?
A.101- Yes, sir and we have been called to that public house quite often for rowdyism and so on and getting trouble there
Q.102- There were certain indications you mentioned of the man being drunk. Were there any other indications?
A.102- No, sir. I couldn't smell any liquor myself but he was sick all over the front of his tunic and incapable of walking by himself, sir. Personally, I couldn't smell any liquor, sir
Q.103- Could you normally smell liquor on any person who has been drinking? Is it your experience in the past that you have been able to smell liquor?
A.103- Yes, sir, some we have brought in we have been able to smell it quite strongly, sir

QUESTIONS BY JUDGE ADVOCATE

Q.104- How would the fact that he had been sick on his tunic affect that? Could you normally smell it better or worse if he had vomited over himself?
A.104- The sickness is generally a sign of drunkenness, sir
Q.105- Yes, but how would the sickness affect the smell?
A.105- I don't quite get your question, sir
Q.106- Would you be less or more likely to smell liquor on a man if he has vomited?
A.106- Well, not necessarily, no sir

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

3rd Witness for the Prosecution, A.63210 Cpl Faulkins, D.W., 4 C.A.B. Coy., RCASC, having been duly sworn is examined by the Prosecutor.

Q.107- Cpl. Faulkins do you recognize the accused?
A.107- Yes, sir
Q.108- When did you last see him?
A.108- I can't just say the date I saw him, sir, but it was at Worthing
Q.109- You saw him at Worthing?
A.109- Yes, sir
Q.110- Was that about a week ago?
A.110- Yes, sir

Q.111 - Did you see him before that time?
A.111 - Yes, sir
Q.112 - Just tell us the occasion?
A.112 - On Aug 9, sir, at approximately 0300 hours I got a call from the Orderly Officer that I was to go down - -

Judge-Advocate - Now, not what he told you

Q.113 - You got a call from the Orderly Officer and as a result of that call what did you do?
A.113 - I went down to the Provost Headquarters at Brighton and found Lieut. Herringer there?
Q.114 - You found him there. What was his condition when you found him?
A.114 - When I got there, sir, he was lying down on a cot
Q.115 - And what was the condition of his clothes?
A.115 - Apparently on one side of his tunic he had been sick
Q.116 - Did you have any conversation with him at Brighton?
A.116 - I had no conversation with him until I got him back to the Mess
Q.117 - And why didn't you have any conversation with him at Brighton?
A.117 - At Brighton there was no attempt to wake him up that I could see and when I took him over from the Provost I just took him up and took him out to the jeep without any attempt to wake him up
Q.118 - Now what did you think about his condition at that time?

Judge-Advocate - Not what he thought

Q.119 - What did you find?
A.119 - I found that he apparently had been drinking
Q.120 - Now, we had better get that straightened out. Why did you say that he had been drinking. What evidence was there of that?
A.120 - Well, I more or less took the condition of his tunic for one thing - where he had been sick on his tunic
Q.121 - Did it ever occur to you that he might have been seriously ill?
A.121 - No, sir
Q.122 - Now, you say you picked him up, carried him out to the car?
A.122 - Right, sir
Q.123 - Then what did you do?
A.123 - Put him in the jeep and drove him to the Mess where he got out of the jeep himself, went to the Mess, took off his tunic. I asked him if he thought everything would be O.K. and he said yes. I gave him back his personal belongings and left him there
Q.124 - And how far did you travel in the vehicle?
A.124 - Approximately three miles, sir
Q.125 - What was the condition of the accused when he left you?
A.125 - Well, I presumed that he was quite normal because when I gave him back his personal belongings he did miss his necktie which had been cut off at the Provost Office
Q.126 - And in the vehicle - was it an open vehicle?
A.126 - Yes, sir
Q.127 - An open vehicle?
A.127 - Yes, sir
Q.128 - So that the accused was exposed to a good fresh breeze during the three miles that he was travelling?
A.128 - Yes, sir
Q.129 - Now, when the accused reached his destination you have just stated that he appeared quite normal?
A.129 - Yes, sir
Q.130 - Did he make any attempt to explain - -

Judge-Advocate - Now, just a minute. Don't lead the witness please, Capt. Bell. We got from him that he observed certain things and what he did but don't ask him leading questions, please

Q.131 - All right. I will put the question this way. Was there any conversation between the accused and yourself relating to his condition?
A.131 - No, sir

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q.132 - Corporal just one or two little questions. When you went into the Provost you brought Lieut. Herringer and carried him and put him in the jeep?
A.132 - That is right, sir
Q.133 - When you had gone three miles to the Mess he got out on his own initiative?
A.133 - Yes, he did, sir
Q.134 - Walked into the mess?
A.134 - Yes, sir
Q.135 - How was his movement into the Mess?
A.135 - Well I never - -
Q.136 - Did he stagger - did he fall?
A.136 - He never fell and if he staggered it was very little Q.137 - Then what did you see him do in the mess as far as his equipment was concerned?
A.137 - In the Mess he took off his Sam Browne belt and his tunic and laid it on the table
Q.138 - I ask you this question and I want you to think it over very carefully before you give the answer. Were you surprised in your own mind within such a short space of time to find a man whom you had carried out and put into a jeep and then at the end of three miles he gets out of the car, walks in and takes his tunic off in that manner? Were you surprised?
A.138 - Yes, I was, sir

QUESTION BY THE COURT

Q.139 - Corporal, on the occasion in question did you smell liquor on the accused?
A.139 - That is something that I can't just remember

Q.140 - Corporal, do you remember giving evidence on the Summary of Evidence?
A.140 - Yes, sir
Q.141 - Do you remember saying anything about smelling liquor at that time? You were sworn and were on oath when you gave your account?
A.141 - Yes, sir
Q.142 - You remember that, do you?
A.142 - Yes, sir
Q.143 - Do you remember signing it afterwards?
A.143 - Yes, sir
Q.144 - Did you read what it said?
A.144 - I read it over before signing it, yes, sir
Q.145 - And do you remember anything about smelling liquor in it?
A.145 - I can't remember it word for word now, sir
Q.146 - Well, I direct your attention to a statement in which you said "I carried him out to the car and put him in the front seat. I could smell liquor on him and he had been sick on the front of his tunic". Now, do you remember that? If you can't recollect whether or not you smelled liquor on him why did you make that statement in the Summary of Evidence? You appreciate that you are giving evidence on a Summary at which an officer was charged with a serious charge?
A.146 - Yes, sir
Q.147 - Well, now, which is correct? Which is correct, corporal?
A.147 - Well, when he had been sick on his tunic I presumed he had been drinking because - -
Q.148 - I am not asking you what you presume. Did you smell liquor on him or is it true that you can't remember whether you did or you didn't?
A.148 - Yes, I could smell a faint odour that he had been drinking
Q.149 - Then why did you make the answer that you gave a moment ago? Well, now, corporal you are on oath now, you appreciate that, and that this is a serious matter. You say now that you could get a faint smell of liquor. Is that correct?
A.149 - If I remember, yes
Q.150 - Well, do you remember or don't you? First you have said you do remember, then you have said you don't know, now you say you did smell it faintly. Are you going to give the court a fourth version?

A.150 - I could smell it faintly

Defending Officer - As a result of the examination by the court I would like to ask the witness a question?

Judge-Advocate - Yes, through the court

QUESTION BY DEFENDING OFFICER THROUGH THE COURT

Q.151 - When you smelled liquor on my client and the fact that there was sickness on his tunic did the liquor smell come from the sickness on his tunic?

A.151 - Well, I am afraid to say it was from the sickness on his tunic or his breath. All his tunic on one side was covered where he had been sick

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.152 - How did you carry Lieut. Herringer out?

A.152 - At the start there were three of us started to carry him out and we had not gone half way out when I took him with one arm under his legs and the other under his shoulders, carried him out and sat him in the jeep

Q.153 - By yourself?

A.153 - Yes, sir

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF R.P.83(B)

THE PROSECUTION DOES NOT WISH TO CALL ANY FURTHER EVIDENCE

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING MOTION THAT THE PROSECUTION HAS NOT MADE OUT A PRIMA FACIE CASE AGAINST THE ACCUSED:

I make this motion and I won't labour the point. I am submitting that there is not a prima facie case of drunkenness against the accused. If the court so find that there is and would like to get on with the case as quickly as possible that is perfectly agreeable to me. If you take the two police witnesses and the corporal I contend there is not a strong case, not any case of a kind that would ever go to a jury if it were being tried before a judge and jury

THE PROSECUTOR REPLIES TO THE MOTION AS FOLLOWS:

I would merely point out that we have had two witnesses here who have sworn that this man was drunk. I think that is sufficient to put the man on his Defence to either rebut it by evidence that this condition did not obtain or volunteer whatever defence he may have

COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE MOTION

COURT IS RE-OPENED

COURT - The court have considered the motion and disallowed it. He will proceed.

R.P.40 IS COMPLIED WITH AS FOLLOWS BY THE JUDGE-ADVOCATE:-

Mr. Herringer, in a moment you are going to be asked certain questions as to your Defence but before these questions are put to you it is my duty on behalf of the Court to make a brief explanation as to your rights with regard to your Defence.

In a trial like this the onus of proving its case is on the Prosecution and you are accordingly not under any compulsion to make any statement or to give any evidence whatsoever. You have, however, the right, if you wish to exercise it, of being sworn and giving evidence as a witness here on your own behalf. If you do that you will be subject to questioning and to cross-examination like any other witness. You have voluntarily chosen to go in and be a witness to give evidence on oath and you are treated for practical purposes like any other witness in regard to the way in which you can be questioned. If you don't want to give evidence on oath as a witness you may instead make an unsworn statement which may be made by word of mouth or in writing. Such a statement is not subject to any questioning. Now, I hope you understand you can be sworn and give evidence on oath as a witness and be fully cross-examined and questioned, you may give an unsworn statement which is not subject to questioning or you may say nothing whatsoever. I should, however, also tell you that evidence on oath is likely to carry more weight with the Court than an unsworn statement. That is true for two reasons. One reason is that as it is given on oath if it can be shown that you had made a false statement you would be subject to a heavy punishment. The other reason is if it is given on oath your evidence is subject to the usual test of cross-examination to determine what weight should be given it. However, what you do is a matter for you to decide and what weight would be given to any evidence or any unsworn statement is entirely a matter for the Court.

No matter what you decide to do yourself personally in your Defence you may call witnesses as to the facts or as to your character or as to both. There again you don't need to unless you wish to but it is your right to do so or it is your right not to do so whatever you think is in your own best interests

A.200 - I proceeded down to Brighton
Q.201 - Who with?
A.201 - Myself
Q.202 - Tell us what you did?
A.202 - I intended going to the Hippodrome in Brighton. When I got there there was quite a line-up so I walked on down the street and came to a pub. I ordered a rum
Q.203 - How much did you pay for it?
A.203 - They charged me 11d. I thought it was very reasonable. Then I had one more of those rums
Q.204 - Then what did you do?
A.204 - They didn't taste very good. I left this pub and proceeded down the street and called in at another one and met a couple of Canadian officers and we had a couple of beers - light ales
Q.205 - Is that all you had to drink?
A.205 - Yes, sir
Q.206 - Then what happened?

A.206 - I felt sick at my stomach at this time and they took me over onto the seafront and I sat down on a bench there and got very sick. The two chaps I was with left and I remained there for some time and I did not seem to be getting any better so I walked across the street to the air raid shelter
Q.207 - Did you vomit?
A.207 - I threw up, yes
Q.208 - Then what did you do?
A.208 - I then crossed the street to Maxim's air raid shelter
Q.209 - Why did you go into the air raid shelter?
A.209 - It was getting quite late and it was quite a walk back to the Mess and I did not think I was in very good condition to be seen on the street when I was getting sick so I went down in the shelter, remained there for a few minutes or was going to remain there for a few minutes and I threw up again and more or less blacked out at the time and I can't recall anything else until I was riding in a 5 cwt
Q.210 - Just tell us what happened then?
A.210 - Well, I found myself in the 5-cwt pulled up at the Mess. I got out. The corporal followed me into the mess and I saw I was sick on my tunic so I took it off and my Sam Browne belt. The corporal handed me my personal belongings and asked me if I was all right and I said I was quite all right Q.211 - Between 15 May and 8 Aug had you had any drink?
A.211 - No, sir
Q.212 - Why?
A.212 - I was in training for track meets nearly every Wednesday afternoon and Saturday afternoon
Q.213 - And do you drink very much?
A.213 - No, except the odd occasion, on a week-end or on leave
Q.214 - To what do you attribute the fact that you had this black-out?
A.214 - I attribute it to the rum I had had in one pub. The beer I had, there was nothing wrong with that apparently but the rum didn't taste very good and I had a little peppermint in it and that is where I think the sickness came from

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY PROSECUTOR

Q.215 - Your conclusion is that the cause of your trouble was from doped liquor?
A.215 - Well I blamed it on thebad rum and also on the fact that I had not had any liquor for some time which caused me to vomit
Q.216 - Then what I am to take from that is this - in the first place you said that you had not had any liquor for a long time and any liquor you had taken would affect you more than if you had been drinking?
A.216 - Yes, sir
Q.217 - In the second place you had suspicions about what you did drink?
A.217 - Yes, sir
Q.218 - Am I to take it then that normally to take two of these - - are these what are commonly known as single rums?
A.218 - Yes
Q.219 - To drink them and follow them with two beers would not affect you?
A.219 - Yes, sir
Q.220 - You don't subscribe to the opinion that rum and beer are liable to cause you trouble?
A.220 - No, sir
Q.221 - I am no authority on that; I am just wondering. Now, after this event occurred you say you were satisfied there was something wrong with the rum. Did you report the matter to anybody?
A.221 - I mentioned it to Capt. Adams next morning
Q.222 - You mentioned that you thought you had had some bad rum?
A.222 - Yes, I told him I had been sick
Q.223 - Did you tell him the name of the pub?
A.223 - Yes
Q.224 - And did you report it to the civil police?
A.224 - No
Q.225 - But you did report it to your superior officer (He was your superior officer at the time)?

A.225 - Yes
Q.226 - When you became sick out in the dark at that time did you think immediately upon becoming sick that it was the fault of this rum?
A.226 - No, I did not
Q.227 - Were you satisfied then that it was just a stage of inebriation you had reached or what was your thought there?
A.227 - I couldn't see what had upset my stomach. I thought it might have been the rum but I did not think very much about it at the time
Q.228 - You had some difficulty in walking at that time, didn't you?
A.228 - I don't recall
Q.229 - That didn't occur until later. Do I understand that?
A.229 - Well, when I went out to the bench I walked across from the bench to the air raid shelter and that is the last time I did any walking until I got out at the Mess
Q.230 - You say you had no difficulty walking from the bench to the air raid shelter?
A.230 - Yes, sir
Q.231 - Now, you heard the evidence of the constable, didn't you?
A.231 - Yes, sir
Q.232 - Do you remember him saying that two officers assisted you over to the bench at the water front?
A.232 - They walked with me
Q.233 - You don't recall receiving any assistance from them at all?
A.233 - No, sir
Q.234 - So you would quarrel with the constable on that?
A.234 - Yes, sir
Q.235 - And from that time on all was a black-out, eh?
A.235 - Yes, sir
Q.236 - I suppose you admit that you had all the symptoms of drunkenness didn't you?
A.236 - Well, I had been drinking and I suppose there was a smell of liquor on my breath. I was not drunk
Q.237 - From what you remember you were just terribly sick?
A.237 - Yes, just terribly sick

QUESTIONS BY JUDGE ADVOCATE

Q.238 - Do you remember when you were first sick on yourself - on your tunic?
A.238 - Over on the bench and I did vomit down in the shelter
Q.239 - But was it when you were over on thebench that you vomited on yourself - on your tunic and your tie?
A.239 - No, I didn't vomit on my tunic and tie that time
Q.240 - Was there vomit on your tunic and tie when you got back to the Mess?
A.240 - Yes, but I didn't have my tie on Q.241 - You don't remember what time that was?
A.241 - I suppose in the air raid shelter
Q.242 - Was that before you blacked out?
A.242 - Yes
Q.243 - How did you come to do it on yourself, on your tunic? Weren't you strong enough to lean over?
A.243 - Well, I was really awfully sick. I blacked out, I would say almost when I got over there. I had not been sitting there very long. I couldn't get into the air raid shelter; there was no door there so I sat down on the bottom step. I was sick later on again
Q.244 - I am afraid you don't quite get my question. What I am asking is how is it that you came - - Do you remember being sick on yourself, on your clothes? There has been evidence that there was vomit there?
A.244 - Yes
Q.245 - Do you remember when that got there? Was that when you were conscious?
A.245 - I don't know when the vomit got on my tunic; I just kept being sick

Q.246 - Do you remember going and leaning over anything when you were sick?
A.246 - Well, when I passed out - - I don't just remember what my position was when the policeman found me
Q.247 - But do you remember what your position was when you were sick and vomiting?
A.247 - I was bent over
Q.248 - Precisely where were you in the shelter?
A.248 - Well, there is quite a steep stairs down into the shelter and I was down near the bottom
Q.249 - On the steps there, right at the bottom?
A.249 - Yes, just about the bottom step I would say
Q.250 - Well, were you strong enough to go and be sick somewhere?
A.250 - I didn't want to get up on the street
Q.251 - Now, when you got back to the Mess where were you when you took off your tunic and belt?
A.251 - I was inside the Mess itself
Q.252 - In the ante-room or hallway?
A.252 - In the hallway
Q.253 - And did you leave your tunic and belt there?
A.253 - No, I went upstairs and took my tunic and belt with me. I had to unroll my bed - camp cot
Q.254 - You were able to manage that all right?
A.254 - Yes

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.255 - When did you have your meal that night?
A.255 - When I went back to the Mess
Q.256 - What time?
A.256 - About 7 o'clock
Q.257 - Do you remember how much you ate?
A.257 - It was just a small cold salad
Q.258 - It would not be very much?
A.258 - No
Q.259 - And when did you have the rum - what time?
A.259 - I would say about 9 o'clock
Q.260 - And would you describe to the Court how you felt next morning?
A.260 - I seemed to feel all right next morning. I was out with the track team all the next day
Q.261 - Did you report to your M.O.?
A.261 - No. I spoke to Capt. Adams and told him that I had been sick the night before and I think one or two others

THE WITNESS STANDS DOWN

2nd Witness for the Defence, Captain Steward Alexander Adams, 10 Cdn Inf. Bde Coy, RCASC, having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer

Q.262 - Your full name for the record?
A.262 - Stewart Alexander Adams
Q.263 - And you are with?
A.263 - 10 Cdn Inf Bde Coy 4 Cdn Armd Div
Q.264 - What have you been doing the last couple of months in England?
A.264 - On Jun 24 I joined the 4th Div and on the 27th I was detailed as Divisional Troops Sports Officer, training the track team for the 4th Div Army Service Corps at that time and later the divisional team until Jul 7th. At that time I took over the training of the 2nd Corps ASC team and had the 2nd Corps ASC team up until Aug 7th
Q.265 - Before you joined the Army, Capt. Adams, what was your profession - I suppose I should call it a profession?
A.265 - Just prior to joining the Army I was in the clothing business. Just prior to that from '24 to '35 I was a professional hockey player

Q.266 - Who did you play for last?
A.266 - Last I played with was Chicago Black Hawks
Q.267 - Do you know the accused, Lieut. Herringer?
A.267 - Yes, I do
Q.268 - Will you tell the court just when he came under your Command and what his duties were and how he behaved himself?
A.268 - I took over training of the 2nd Corps ASC team on Jul 7th and we had one meet for the Army ServiceCorps on Jul 14th. At that time Mr. Herringer was my ace high jumper. He won the 2nd Corps high jump. He also competed in the running broad jump at that time and I believe the hop, step and jump. We moved down into Brighton and we were attached to the 4 Cdn Armd Bde Coy RCASC and trained at the Greyhound Stadium and Hove Recreation Ground. Mr. Herringer at all times was of great assistance to me. In the entire month that he was under my charge I have never known him to take as much as a glass of beer. He also assisted me in training high jumpers which was one event I did not know much about and he more or less supervised it for me. We were in very strict training as we had to be as we were being watched all the time and we were quite anxious to make a good showing, the reason being that 2nd Corps did not put up a good showing in the tabloid and we were going after sports very strongly. We worked up the Army Service Corps and Mr. Herringer was on two teams, the ASC team and also the 2nd Corps ASC team and we had a meet on Aug 7th at which he won the high jump and all during that month I have never known him to have a drink and his character was exemplary as far as I was concerned
Q.269 - I have two questions I would like to ask you. Did you have any conversation with Herringer on Monday 9th of August?
A.269 - Yes, Mr. Herringer came to me on the morning of Monday Aug 9th and spoke to me and he told me he had gone down townthe previous night and went in and had a couple of drinks of rum and he said that it was funny when they told him the price. He said it knocked him for a loop. Those are the words he used. He said it seemed funny at the time, the cheap price of the rum
Q.270 - Did he carry on his duties?
A.270 - He carried on. He got up that morning and carried on training as we were getting in shape for the meet on the 14th
Q.271 - Now, you have been in Brighton for how long?
A.271 - Just a little more than a month - five weeks
Q.272 - Did you at any time hear - -

Judge-Advocate - I don't see that what he heard in Brighton can be considered as evidence

Q.273 - Do you know of your own knowledge whether or not any bad liquor has been sold in Brighton?

Judge-Advocate - You can ask him if bad liquor has been sold to him or if he has purchased or drunk bad liquor in Brighton

CROSS-EXAMINATION BY PROSECUTOR

Q.274 - Now, the conversation you had with the accused which you have related when he returned on Monday the 9th, is that the only conversation you had with him in respect to these events?
A.274 - It is
Q.275 - So that his only words to you were that he had had a couple of drinks which knocked him for a loop and no other explanation given?
A.275 - I never asked him for any other explanation. I didn't ask him and he didn't volunteer any because I didn't think it necessary

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

3rd Witness for the Defence, Capt. Lawrence Ruhale Rabson, 3 C.C.S., RCAMC, having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer

Q.276 - Just give your name please to the court?
A.276 - Lawrence Ruhale Rabson
Q.277 - You are a medical officer?
A.277 - Yes, sir
Q.278 - And have been practising medicine for some seven years?
A.278 - Correct
Q.279 - And prior to the War you came to England on a two-years post-graduate course?
A.279 - Yes, sir
Q.280 - And you are at present associated with the 3 C.C.S. Canadian Army?
A.280 - Yes
Q.281 - I have two questions to ask you and on those questions you will be entitled to give your opinion. If an individual 24 years of age had been in training for two and a half months - strenuous training and had not had a drink of liquor or beer during that period and has two drinks of rum which might have either ether or wood alcohol in the contents, what effect would that have in your opinion upon the individual?
A.281 - Well, in the case of professional athletes who are accustomed to drinking and who have been in strict training for a long time they find that at the end of their training alcohol has a much more marked effect on them than during the normal course of their lives and should the alcohol be contaminated with any other ingredient such as ether or wood alcohol it is much more marked and has a tendency to produce sickness and all the other complications
Q.282 - What other complications?
A.282 - Well the excessive effects of the exhiliration is just sleepiness and coma
Q.283 - Then what? Suppose the individual vomits?
A.283 - Well, it would tend to relieve the absorption if he vomited

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q.284 - I presume, doctor, that the hangover - you know what I mean when I say "hangover" - where liquor is contaminated with ether or wood alcohol would be much more severe?
A.284 - Yes, normally is unless the patient vomits the whole ingredients up
Q.285 - But in the normal course the hangover would be longer and more severe?
A.285 - Yes
Q.286 - That is, the tendency to have a big head the next day would be much more evident?
A.286 - Yes, depending on the amount absorbed
Q.287 - Would you venture to give us some of the symptoms of drunkenness as you understand them as a medical practitioner?
A.287 - Well, the symptoms usually depend a great deal on the subject's previous habits whether he was a heavy drinker or an abstainer. If he was an abstainer alcohol either makes him sick or tends to produce its effects much more rapidly than on a chronic. I think the first symptom is one of exhilaration and that is followed by a loss of caution sense, followed furthermore by a feeling of sleepiness and that is usually followed by loss of memory for events which occurred in that time. That is the general picture
Q.288 - Did you mention the use of limbs etc?
A.288 - Yes, the postural sense. There is a disturbance of the sense of control
Q.289 - There has been some talk in cross-examination of a witness before you came in in which it was mentioned that the accused was sick. Well, am I right in suggesting that sickness and drunkenness have a tendency to go together?
A.289 - Yes, generally severe drunkenness, when a patient has consumed a great amount of alcohol or alcohol which is in any way affected
Q.290 - It tends to create sickness?

A.290 - Yes

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS

5th Witness for the Defence, Major J. H. Carson, Sask Horse, 3 C.A.C.R.U. having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q.298 - Would you identify yourself Major Carson please to the court?
A.298 - I am Major J. H. Carson, No. 3 C.A.C.R.U., Cdn Army
Q.299 - Major Carson, do you know Lieut. Herringer?
A.299 - Very well, sir
Q.300 - And would you tell the court, please, when you first met him and how long you have known him and what you have to say so far as his character and integrity are concerned?
A.300 - Yes. I have known Mr. Herringer about I would say roughly 20 years. I have known him all his school days in Maple Creek. My ranch is 20 miles south of Maple Creek and Mr. Herringer's father is the President of the Southern Wool Growers Association which is one of the biggest associations in Canada and he is very reliable. Nobody would ever think of doubting his word for a minute. He is one of the outstanding citizens of the Province
Q.301 - Will you please keep your evidence to Mr. Herringer?
A.301 - I was giving the fact that I knew the family. They have lived in Maple Creek ever since I can remember. Mr. Herringer here went to school in Maple Creek, was quite a good athlete taking part in most of our sports and was one of the up and coming young youths and then he went to the University of Saskatoon. He applied to get into our Regiment when we mobilized but we were full up with officers at the time and couldn't take him so he applied elsewhere and got over here before we did but the Herringer's in Maple Creek are very highly respected and there is quite a large family of them and they have all done well. There is just one other brother who is in the Air Force but in my opinion Mr. Herringer is a very capable young man and trustworthy. Any work I ever knew him to have or do he certainly carried it out satisfactorily.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q.302 - Can you tell us what Lieut. Herringer's reputation for sobriety has been?
A.302 - Yes. Before he came over to England it was practically nil. At home around there the young lads didn't care much for liquor. We had the armouries in Maple Creek and went to dances but there was very little liquor there and the young lads of that age were certainly not of the liquor type. We had no beer parlours at that time and they just left it alone
Q.303 - The point I was trying to bring out was this. I suppose that you are here to give evidence as to Lieut. Herringer's character with particular reference to the charge which is before the court and it is obvious if the evidence is to be of any value at all what we really need to know is what you know, if anything at all, of His personal habits with regard to liquor and sobriety
A.303 - I would say they were good. I never heard of him being tight and I would know because I had eight other officers from Maple Creek all of Mr. Herringer's age and I knew where Mr. Herringer was and he came down and visited with my officers and he certainly did not drink any while he was there and he didn't drink any while he was out there and I would definitely say it is not a habit

Q.305 - Major O'Rourke, do you know the accused, Herringer?
A.305 - I do
Q.306 - And would you tell the court under what circumstances you knew him and as a result of knowing him how you found him in your associations where you met?
A.306 - I have known the accused for a period of eight or nine months and Messed with him for about four months and during that time I have found him an officer and a gentleman in the best sense of the term and his conduct was excellent Q.307 - What about his sobriety in the Mess?
A.307 - I never on any occasion saw him under the influence of liquor

PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO CROSS-EXAMINE THIS WITNESS

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS:

I will try and be as short as I possibly can. Gentlemen of the court and may it please the court, I am reminded of the ancient days of Greece by history when some of the great athletes performed great feats. I think all the members of the court will remember the great deeds of Pheippides, the great runner who ran 40 miles in the battle of the Marathon and in those days they were building up athletes and Greece was known for the great athletic events which took place in Sparta and various other parts of Greece. We in the Canadian Army in the past year owing to the static position the Canadian Army is in have stressed athletics and it has been a great source of pride and interest to the various officers, N.C.Os and privates who come down on Wednesday and Saturday to see the athletes perform. It has been a great source of admiration to the different corps to watch their particular group and a great source of pride to the senior officers. But who were these men who went out and trained hard so that these events could come to pass? They were private soldiers and N.C.Os and a very few officers. The accused is one of those who has acquitted himself quite nobly in his athletic prowess. Evidence has been presented to the court in the shape of the Canada Weekly showing the accused winning the high jump.

That is the introduction. I now turn to the evidence. What is the evidence? In my opinion, gentlemen, the evidence is not strong enough for a conviction. You have the first witness, Special Constable Kent who was an honest man - not a drinking man mark you, and he tells you that he smelled liquor and he helped carry him down and put him on the steps and then he finds him at the bottom again and his tunic was soiled and he was incapable of movement but he also admits that he could have been ill. He does not bring out to this court that the accused was drunk.

Then you have the next witness, Sgt. Pettman and he also gives the story of how he found him lying in the air raid shelter across the bench and he says he was incapable of movement and he classifies him as being drunk because his clothes were soiled and he was asked the question "Could he have been ill?" and he said "Yes".

Now, we come to the next witness, Cpl. Faulkins, who is a Canadian Corporal. Incidentally passing back to Sgt. Pettman he does not forget to get the remark in that he has had experience with Canadian troops getting drunk. He just whips that in as sort of a side-cross smash. Next witness is Cpl. Faulkins who is the corporal who took him home and he carried him out and then he said in cross-examination he was quite surprised when he got back when he found that he was able to walk into the Mess, take off his tunic and look for his necktie. He didn't stagger and he was quite surprised. There was some question about the smell of liquor, whether he gave that evidence in the preliminary or not. We admit he had some drink and if he smelled some liquor he might have smelled it on his breath or on his tunic.

Now, let us look at the accused. The accused has come before you a young man. There is nothing against his character. He is 24 years of age, he comes from a good family, he is a graduate of the University of Alberta in Commerce. He is an athlete. He has told you his story and I ask you to believe that story. He has told you he went from the 15th of May to the 7th of August and had no beer or liquor whatsoever and that night he went in and had a couple of drinks. It is my contention and our defence that that liquor he got at 11d - and the court can take judicial notice of what the regular price of a single rum is - was liquor fermented in some way that caused Herringer to become sick - not drunk gentlemen, to become sick and that evidence is corroborated. We have tried to bring everything we can before the court to assist you. That evidence is corroborated by Capt. Rabson that it is quite possible if you did get liquor which was fermented to have the symptoms as Herringer has explained to you. The fact that he became so conscious when he got out of the peep and acted differently was the fact that he vomited and got the poson out of his system. Now, that is the story he told you. He told Capt. Adams that he had been knocked for a loop. He didn't hide it from Capt. Adams; he was his senior officer. He told him he had been knocked for a loop and all the evidence is quite clear that he had been knocked for a loop.

Now, gentlemen, this is not a case of an officer who has disgraced himself, getting drunk in a public place, in a Mess or in London or anywhere where he would be a disgrace to the Canadian Army. He walked out between two officers and sat on a bench, a most natural thing to do, and tried to get some fresh air to recuperate himself. Then he went over to an air raid shelter. It was getting late and dark and he felt himself getting sick. He went down there - a natural thing to do - and he was knocked out. Now, you have heard the evidence the Defence has called. We have called as character evidence Capt. Adams as to what type of lad he was in assisting him in training and how he found him during that period. You have heard the evidence of the doctor, Col. Bell's evidence who knew him and my purpose in bringing this witness, gentlemen, was that you could get the picture of him in Canada, not just someone who knew him in a Mess in England but we went right back to his background and got an idea of what type of boy he is. He has come here, Col. Bell, and I can assure you that he was sincere in everything he said about this young man. You have heard here the evidence of Major O'Rourke. None of these were supoaened; they came here voluntarily to give evidence on behalf of this young man.

Now, I don't want to keep the court long but my contention and my submission is this, that he took some liquor that was bad liquor or liquor that was fermented with something that caused him to get sick. Remember he had very little to eat that night. He had a light salad. He had been on a long period of training and that in itself and I ask you to take notice of what effect it would have on an individual who had been in marvellous physical shape, who had very little to eat, and who had not drunk for a long time and then get some poisoned liquor in his system.

Now, the Prosecution has been extremely fair in the way they have conducted this case. I have prosecuted and defended many cases in England since I have been over here free gratis and I must say that the Prosecution has been very fair. I am sure Capt. Bell would agree with me on this point that we are entitled to a reasonable doubt and that doubt must come to you consciously so that you down in your own heart must be absolutely convinced without any doubt that he was drunk. If there is the slightest doubt in your mind that he did receive that liquor and as a result of getting that bad liquor became sick, then he is entitled to that doubt. You have all taken an oath to try this accused without partiality and to try him on the merits of the case.

Now, gentlemen, I would ask you - - I have never asked a court to acquit an accused before. That is your duty and when I have finished I have completed the work I have been assigned - to defend the accused and the responsibility rests with you but I ask you, gentlemen, with all the facts of this man before you, we need young officers in the Canadian Army who have excelled in sports because if they excell in sports they will excel in battle. The other day the English papers were full of Captain Verity the English cricketer and the way he led his men on the battlefield and you will find in your experience of war that men who have excelled in athletics have been wonderful leaders and I submit we need this man and I also submit that we have proved to this court that this man has all those qualities and I ask you gentlemen from the bottom of my heart to acquit the accused.

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES THE FOLLOWING CLOSING ADDRESS:

May it please the court. I think there are only two matters that the court has to decide in this case. The first is "Was the accused drunk?" and the second is "If he was drunk was there some factor which relieves him from the responsibility of being drunk?" Now, drunkenness is a very hard thing to define. It is something like trying to define the beauty of a rose. Actually no word-picture can give you the sensation you get when you look at something beautiful. When you ask a man what are the symptoms of drunkenness you only get half the picture but most people know a drunken man when they see one. In this case we have a constable who says the man was drunk and we have a provost who is accustomed to dealing with this type of thing. He says the man was drunk. There is no axe to grind with these people and therefore you must give some weight to their testimony.

I was rather struck with the testimony of the accused. I thought he was trying to tell the truth and in his testimony he said himself that his sensations and to me they sounded very much like the sensations which you would expect a person who is intoxicated to have. He said he was sick. The medical testimony corroborates the fact that sickness in the last stages of inebration or drunkenness were concurrent. I think it rather corroborates the story which the provost and the constable were trying to relate and I submit that the court should give some consideration to the point.

MUF.

Now, the other branch of the argument appears to be that the accused drank something he did not know he was drinking just the same as if a man went to take a drink of beer and took a drink or strychnine or something like that. That is extending the case further but that is the point. Now, I think the case is pretty thin when you try to suggest that this was poisoned liquor or liquor which was so adulterated that it did not have any of the usual qualities which liquor can be expected to have and I rather think that the results which drinking this liquor accomplished were caused by the fact that it had been a light dinner and an abstinence from liquor for some time. Those are thoughts which I pass on to the court and the medical testimony indicated that if there was some adulteration of the liquor supply there would be a tendency for a longer, tougher hangover. Apparently in this case there was no hangover at all. Evidently the officer was very quick to recuperate and I think the tendency of the evidence was to show that the liquor was doing its normal duty but was rather used unwisely under the circumstances.

I may say I am quite struck with the attitude of the accused. Apparently he is a very fine soldier and gave very honest evidence but it is only my duty to point out to the court some of the evidence that I think is applicable here and I do so and submit it to you for that purpose.

THE JUDGE ADVOCATE SUMS UP AS FOLLOWS:

May it please the court. In the opinion of the court and of the Judge Advocate a summing-up on the facts is unnecessary but the court have asked for a direction on certain matters of law which may give rise to difficulty. The function of the Judge-Advocate is to explain the law and the function of the court is to apply that law to such facts as it has found proven in evidence. The credibility of witnesses and the weight which should be given to any evidence is entirely a question for the court.

The accused is charged with one offence, namely drunkenness and that charge is laid under Section 19 of the Army Act. In the evidence one or two of the witnesses were permitted to say that the accused was drunk which was the very thing which the court has to try. Now, I wish to point out at this stage that whether or not the accused was drunk is entirely a matter for the court to decide. In some such cases, however, as a matter of convenience - as a convenient way of describing what a witness saw he is allowed to make that statement. The rule is stated in one text book on evidence "Witnesses may, however, describe the apparent condition of people and things, for here the phenomena are often too numerous and vague to be otherwise conveyed". Now, I just mentioned that to emphasize to the court that it should not accept the opinion of witnesses as to whether or not he was drunk, that the court have the responsibility of deciding that on the evidence which has been put before it as to the condition of the accused at the time in question.

Court - But is it not a fact that the opinion of witnesses is admissible evidence?

Judge-Advocate - It is not admissible for the purpose of opinion-evidence in this case. There are cases of expert opinion but that is what I wanted you to be clear on

Court - But you have just told us and this is one of them where it is difficult or impossible for a witness to convey the actual detailed condition of things and in order to describe them it is permissible for the witness to state - -

Judge-Advocate - It is not a question of opinion-evidence; it is a question of rather a convenient way of describing a stated condition

Court - Summarizing it is this. When a witness says so and so was drunk that is a description of all the [illegible] on which the witness has come to that conclusion [illegible]

Judge-Advocate - Well, I think that the quota[illegible] it as well as anything, sir. If it wel[illegible] I have read part opinion-evidence the witness would not be[illegible] matter of because he is not a qualified expert and [illegible] to say that which the court has to try. Sometimes, if [illegible] very question get a certain type of description and the only [illegible] way to is permitted to say it. What I want to make [illegible] the witness is that the court does not adopt the opinion of [illegible] clear Court - No, because the witness may be mistaken [illegible] witness. Judge-Advocate - No, but a witness is normally not permitted [illegible] sir. an opinion on the whole issue which the court is trying, [illegible]

It is not possible to give an apt and comprehensive defi[illegible] of drunkenness. The Judge-Advocate of the British Forces [illegible] ruled that no person should be convicted of drunkenness [illegible] Section 19 of the Air Force Act unless the court is sati[illegible] that he was so much under the influence of drink as to be drunk according to the view of the ordinary reasonable man. While that ruling was specifically made for the British Air Forces the same principle is applicable under the British Army Act, and I accordingly direct the court that it should be applied in the present case. For the assistance of the court I will read part of the ruling made by the British JAG at that time. It will be noted that he was discussing Section 19 of the Air Force Act. For present purposes there is, however, no distinction between the section he was discussing and the section under which the accused officer is charged. The ruling reads in part as follows:

"The offence of drunkenness under Section 19 of the Air Force Act consists of being in a state of intoxication in consequence of taking alcohol or an intoxicating drug or a combination of both. The Air Force Act purposely refrains from defining the meaning of drunkenness and makes no distinction whether it is committed on duty or not on duty. Whether in any particular case the accused person is in a 'state of intoxication' is a question of fact for the decision of the court. In deciding whether the accused was in a state of intoxication or not, the court should attach great weight to the fact that he was unfit to be entrusted with Air Force duties by reason of an overindulgence in alcoholic liquor or a drug, but I am unable to adopt that such a test is the sole factor in deciding the guilt or innocence of an accused person charged under Section 19 of the Air Force Act. The fact that the offence of drunkenness was committed on duty is an aggravating factor which could properly be taken into account by the court on conviction in awarding punishment".

In passing I might note that that particular part does not apply here as there is no suggestion that this officer was on duty. Then, going on with this opinion -

"When a similar point was put to my predecessor in 1933 he ruled as follows; 'I am by no means sure that the difficulties which we would be likely to incur from having a definition might not be greater than any which we may encounter from not having any' Drunkenness is one of those things which it is easier to recognize when it occurs than to define comprehensively. Lord Justice Greer gave effect to this view when, in the case of R. v. Pressdee, 20 C.A.R., at p.96 he said "Drunk" is what an ordinary reasonable person would consider such". Then he goes on to some examples which are not pertinent here and then says "I think that the only safe rule is that no person should be convicted of drunkenness under Section 19 of the Air Force Act unless the court is satisfied that he was so much under the influence of drink as to be drunk according to the view of the ordinary reasonable man".

In the present case one of the main grounds the defence puts forward is that even if it is admitted for purposes of argument that the accused was at the time in question then in the condi[illegible] that is a description of all the circumstances on which the witness has come to that conclusion?

Judge-Advocate - Well, I think that the quotation which I have read put it as well as anything, sir. If it were a straight matter of opinion-evidence the witness would not be allowed to say that because he is not a qualified expert and it is the very question which the court has to try. Sometimes it is practical way to get a certain type of description and that is the only reason the witness is permitted to say it. What I want to make perfectly clear is that the court does not adopt the opinion of any witness.

Court - No, because the witness may be mistaken

Judge-Advocate - No, but a witness is normally not permitted to express an opinion on the whole issue which the court is trying, sir.

It is not possible to give an apt and comprehensive definition of drunkenness. The Judge-Advocate of the British Forces has ruled that no person should be convicted of drunkenness under Section 19 of the Air Force Act unless the court is satisfied that he was so much under the influence of drink as to be drunk according to the view of the ordinary reasonable man. While that ruling was specifically made for the British Air Forces the same principle is applicable under the Army Act, and I accordingly direct the court that it should be applied in the present case. In the present case one of the main grounds the defence puts forward is that even if it is admitted for purposes of argument that the accused was at the time in question then in the condition which is described by certain of the witnesses for the prosecution, that that condition was due mainly or entirely to illness and not to drunkenness. That again, is a question of fact for the decision of the court. If the court comes to the conclusion that the accused was in the condition described but the court is not satisfied on the evidence beyond any reasonable doubt that the condition in which the accused was found was the result of drunkenness the finding must be one of "Not Guilty".

Having considered the particular charge I will now pass on to some principles which are applicable to all trials of this character. It is a fundamental principle of British law that an accused person is presumed to be innocent until proven guilty. The onus of proof, therefore, rests throughout on the prosecution and the accused is entitled to the benefit of every reasonable doubt. If after hearing all the evidence and carefully considering it, the court finds itself in doubt as regards the charge or any essential ingredient thereof, the accused must be found not guilty. The accused is not under any obligation to satisfy the court as to his innocence before he is entitled to an acquittal. It is for the prosecution to satisfy the court beyond any reasonable doubt that the accused is guilty before it may properly so find.

Reasonable doubt has been variously defined. The definition I know is "such a doubt as upon a calm view of the whole evidence a rational understanding will suggest to an honest heart". It now rests with the court to make its finding upon the charge in accordance with the oath taken by the members at the commencement of the trial.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE FINDING

THE COURT IS RE-OPENED

Court - Lieut. Herringer, the finding of the Court being subject to confirmation will be promulgated later.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES THE FOLLOWING PLEA IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT:

May it please the court, apparently you have found the accused guilty of the charge here today. You have just heard the regimental conduct sheet - the last 12 months nil, offences nil since enlistment, 2 days in custody. I don't propose to elaborate at all on my address. Character witnesses came here today voluntarily and gave you the character of this young man. The evidence of Major Carson who came all the way down from Oxford at his own expense speaks for itself. I feel when you have surveyed all the circumstances of this case that it is not a case for Dismissal from the Service, it is not a case for Cashiering, it is not a case for even a Severe Reprimand. If this young man is Dismissed from the Service his whole life is blighted, his whole life is blighted and that responsibility rests on you gentlemen when you make your decision. He has a sister in the Armed Forces over here, he has a brother in the Air Force, he has a father and mother in Saskatchewan. He has been a credit to the Army for participating in the events which he has this Summer. He has had distinction in athletics. You heard what the 2 i/c said and I earnestly ask you when you come tomake your decision as to the sentence, that you take all those things into consideration, that you have before you a young man 24 years of age and you either make him or you break him.

You either make him or you break him and I would like to say that if Herringer should be in the witness box charged with drunkenness - and I am quite serious about this - there are thousands of other Canadian officers who should be here today and I ask you gentlemen to seriously consider your sentence.

The President having announced that the sentence of the Court being subject to confirmation will be promulgated and that the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated in accordance with the provisions of Overseas R.O. 3262 the court is closed to consider the sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE.

Summary of evidence in the case of Lieut. J.G. Herringer, 46 Cdn. Gen. Tpt. Coy. R.C.A.S.C., Cdn. Army overseas, charged with drunkeness.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

768483 Sgt. Pettman R.J. C.M.P. H.Q. sworn states:

I am Sgt. Pettman of C.M.P. H.Q. Brighton. On the ninth of August I was on duty at the C.M.P. H.Q. Brighton. Upon receiving information from the civilian police, I proceeded in company with Corporal Dench to Maxims air-raid shelter, where I saw the accused J.G.Herringer of the 46 Cdn.Gen.Tpt. Coy. This was at 0015 hours on the 9th. of August.

This officer was lying across a bench and he was incapable of any movement, the front of his tunic on the left side was soiled from being sick onit, his neck-tie was also soiled the same way and had to be removed later at H.Q.

When I arrived at the air-raid shelter I spoke to this officer and shook him but he made no reply. He was sleeping at this time. His hat was lying on the bench at the side of him.

This officer was unable to walk and had to be supported on each side by the corporal and mayself up the stairs of the shelter and into the van.

He was brought to C.M.P. H.Q. and had to be carried into the building. He was placed on the bed where he remained until the escort from the 4 C.A.B. Coy. R.C.A.S.C. came for him at 0300 hrs. Lieut. Herringer did not say anything inteligable during this whole time.

Lieut. Herringer was carried out of this H.Q. to the vehicle brought to this H.Q. at 0300 hrs. by the corporal of the escort and corporal Dench. We removed his personal belongings for safe custody and theses were handed to the escort when he arrived, for which we received a receipt.

The accused declines to cross-exame this witness.

Second Witness.

Special constable C 35 Edward Albert Kent of Brighton police sworn states.

I am Edward Albert Kent, on the night of August 8th. I was on duty in Brighton. At 2210 hrs. on the 8th. of August I was standing on the east side of Maxims facing the water front when I saw two officers leading another one between them across the kings rd. and placed him on the seat on the sea front.

The officer was seated facing Maxims. He was sitting on the seat with his knees apart his elbows on his knees and hands covering his face, his cap was on the ground at his feet. The next time I saw the officer it was at 2340 hrs. and he was on the second step from the bottom of Maxims air-raid shelter.

I recognize this officer as Lieut.J.G. Herringer,whom I now see.

Lieut. Herringer was incapable of movement so I took him into the shelter and put him on a seat there. I then phoned and reported the episode to the civilian police headquarters.

I could smell liquor from his person.

When the C.M.P. escort took Liuet.Herringer away from the shelter he was supported between two of the escort.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness.

A63210 Cpl. Faulkin D.W. 4 C.A.B. Coy. R.C.A.S.C. sworn states.

I am Cpl. Faulkins, while on duty as regt. police corporal on August 9th. I received a call from the duty officer that the C.M.P. at Brighton had phoned and I was detailed as an escort to pick up an officer from their H.Q.

I proceeded to Brighton in company with a driver of the 5 cwt. in which I rode. On arriving at the C.M.P. H.Q. I found Lieut. J.G. Herringer lying asleep on a cot in the H.Q. I carried him out to the car and put him in the front seat, I could smell liquor on him and he had been sick on the front of his tunic.

I brought him to the officers mess of the 4 C.A.B. Coy. arriving about ten minutes after we left the C.M.P. H.Q. On arrival at the Mess, Lieut. Herringer got out of the car and walked into the mess without any assistance. He removed his tunic and sam-browne belt and noticed the loss of his tie. Then I returned his personal belongings to him, I asked him if he was alright and he answered "yes" and seemed to be perfectly normal by this time.

Cross-examined by the accused.

Q. Was there any attempt made to arouse me before you carried me out to the car.

A. No, there was not.

Q. Was I able to sit in the front seat of the 5 cwt. without any assistance.

A. Yes, you sat there without any assistance during the trip back to the mess.

Cpl Faulkins D.W.

A63210 Cpl. Faulkins D.W.

The accused was warned as follows;

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence".

The accused: I desire to give evidence under oath.

The accused Lieut. J.G.Herringer, 46 Cdn.Gen.Tpt.Coy. R.C.A.S.C., sworn states:

On the night of August 8th. I went into Brighton at about 2030 hrs. I visited a public house and had two double drinks of rum which I found cost much less than the usual price.

I then went to another public house in Brighton and had a couple of drinks, there I met a couple of Canadain officers. Soon after this the pubs closed and we went out into the street.

I began to feel sick so we crossed over to the water-front where I sat down on a bench and later became sick.

I remained there for some time and as it was after the curfew and I was still feeling sick, I crossed the street to Maxim's air-raid shelter. At about this time I think I passed out and I don't remember anything until I found myself in the 5 cwt. on the way to the mess.

I went into the mess with the corporal and noticed that my tunic was soiled, so I removed it and my sam-browne belt. The corporal returned my personal belongings and asked if I was alright.

Lieut. J.G.Herringer.

I certify that R.P.4 has been complied with.

Taken by me in the field in the presence and hearing of the accused this 26 day of Aug, 1943.

Has never known him to be in any trouble before this. His section have confidence in him & would like to have him back.

Medical Officer

Plea of Mitigation in the case of
B. 155208 A/Cpl Herron George Henry.
I would like to draw the attention of the Court to the following.
A/Cpl. Herron has a dependant grandmother.
He joined the army in Feb. 1943 and arrived in the U.K. on 2 May 44. and joined the Regiment in France early in August
He arrived in the field a private, and when moving forward on 14 Oct. his section N.C.O. was absent, and he took over the section.
In view of his work and reliability in that area (near Mont Mue) he was promoted to A/L Corporal on 22 Oct. 44.
He has been in the lines continually and was restless and battle weary, so I feel sure this unfortunate breach of rules would not have happened.
He has a very good record in the Army and has proved his worth in action.
A large award will cause the forfeiture of his chances of Army Gratuity.
In view of these facts, I beg the leniency of the Court.

A Gillespie Lt.
Defending Officer.

So anxious was he to do his part in the war that this lad boosted up his own age in order to inlist in the army; his actual age was at that time only seventeen years.

Now, at the age of twenty one he has a fine record as a soldier, four years of overseas service, over a year and a half of fighting with a regiment that saw plenty of action and suffered many casualties — The 4th Princess Louise Dragoon Guards. In that time he was twice wounded, each time recovering and returned to action. It would seem that he had been the almost "Perfect Soldier" for there are no entries of misconduct in his M & M 6.

Such was his record on VE day, but! Crowned off by the dull army life in England following VE day; The army had failed to keep this adventurous youth occupied as it had taught and kept him occupied in four long years of training and fighting; he let go, forgot temporarily his good soldiering and went awl. He was not long away before he realized his own mistake, so once more proving himself a good soldier he gave himself up ready to take its punishment for his one misdeed

(I. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. (I. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. ~~The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ____, initialled and read aloud by the President.~~(1)
(*I. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

strength of this unit on 24 Dec 43. I am the Orderly Officer

On a mass arrival for Christmas leave his list is to

Final witness for defence Defence
The accused B 838791 Pte Louis Hall having been duly sworn states:-
Born at Vienna Austria 8 May '07. ~~I don't know~~
I don't know where my mother is or I would have her here for 6 months. The last I heard she had been relieved from a concentration camp in Austria.
Have a sister - she also was in concentration camp.
I don't know where she is now. My youngest brother was beheaded because he refused to join Hitler's army for the occupation of Poland. My second brother - I heard heard from him I enlisted 8 Sep 39 in the army, in Toronto. I am naturalized. 3 days after I enlisted it got worrying to get out of the army. The worrying was signed "Hall Hitler". I don't say it I have been watched by enemy agents. Agents have been sent to orderly room against me. In civil life I was troubled with loss of memory. Sometimes once or twice a year. When I have these spells I can't remember what I have done.

I had trouble with my work as a result. My wife used to be worried. She that I deserted by the whole operation to the court. I was 4 years with my unit in this country coming from K.U. I wanted to go to my own unit. I had £18 or £19 when I arrived at this unit. I had 28 days when I reported to good record. When I came to I was in Glasgow Scotland. I was in a casualty, when I came to it is like a relief — something lifted from my head. I have been treated in civilian life for this ailment, but not in the army. I have been sick before. I went away twice — A.W.L. on this same account. I went to friends in London where I stayed. They made me come back to camp. They brought me back. I did not get any treatment in it. I did not want to get out of the army. When in K.U. I used to get in draft for my wives. Tried several times — I did not take any drinks when I left. I took drinks to leaving the unit on 20 Dec. I was on leave at that time. I sent for them when I came back. — underskirts — underwear — shirt — towel — handkerchief — the parcel was registered. It was sent back to me by registered mail.

Cross examined by Prosecuting Officer:-

Came to Canada in 1928. Was skilled in civil life. Worked for Precision Dye & Cutting Co in Toronto. Worked there five years. Steady employment. I worked different places. Was employed from 1932 until I joined up in 1939. When I was employed everybody it was because there was steady work. The longest spell out 3 months — the last one lasted about 41 days. I did not know how long I was away. With A.W.L. I did not say where I stayed. When I came to I was in Glasgow. I had £18 when I came to unit. When I came to in Glasgow when I woke up in casualty I did not know where I was. I got back from Glasgow by train. I had single fare going up.

Re-examined by Capt. Officer:-

I did not get Sgt Purdy for price of beer.

To the Court:- When I have lapses of memory I do not know who I am. When I was with friends in London was one of the times I had lapse of memory. I had the lapse of memory when I left this unit. I have not got Purdy at present. The only one I recollect here was the Warrant Officer. He took me over to the hut. I could remember Sgt Wagg. Nothing else that happened on 23 Dec 43

Wagg

When I came back I reported at the guard room I didn't tell anyone that I had a lapse of memory.
When I went to yuma pw camp in Glasgow, I asked "is this glasgow" I enquired about train time. When I came out of camp I think I had a board, because I stood in yuma.
I remember leaving R. U. for this camp. I didn't know name of camp. I knew name of regiment I was the name written on a piece of paper. I enquired at Haywards Heath for location of camp. I was bad during treatment for this ailment while in the army. I have had target treatment in the army for my ailment but all I got was aspirin.
R.P. 8 3(6) complied with Second witness for defence

K78867 Pte Wicks Glosn 4 Cdn Armd Recce Coy Recce being duly sworn states:-
I joined at this unit on 23 Dec 43. When I was in hut assigned to me I met one N.C.O. I cannot tell you whether including the N.C.O. for a piece of paper. I got the paper but I was too small.
Cross examined by Prosecuting Offr
The N.C.O. gave me a fairly large piece of paper. It would be large by I should say I did not use it. I put it on my bed. I don't know if I gave it to anyone to read.

To the court:- When I left camp that day I was in company with the accused. I went to Tunbridge Wells - we went to Crowborough. Both got in the bus going to Tunbridge Wells. The accused didn't tell me what he was going to do. The accused did not say anything unusual about the accused. I did not notice anything unusual about the accused for 2 or 3 months. I took unknown leave. I can't say what the accused took etc in a hut bag. I can't say what it was. It had something. It had something. We didn't leave camp together was at night pretty dark. We did not leave camp together by arrangement.
I met the accused not on the road near the gate when I left the camp. It was about 1930 hrs. We then walked down road to bus stop. The accused got on the bus near the station in Tunbridge Wells. Accused said we would have to be careful of the red caps, it might not have been said in these words but that was what was meant - I said I don't think they will bother us. We had talked about this while on the bus and after we got off the bus. We both went into railway station at Tunbridge Wells.

We were in Station sometimes. There were real cops there. We were both trying to keep clear of real cops. We wanted quite a while around the platform. I saw accused again in Weston-on-Hill about two weeks later. I was talking to him. He said he had a pretty good time at Xmas. We were talking together about people whom we were acquainted with in that village i.e. Weston on Hill. Talked general topics. I was with him first at the time. Shortly afterwards the accused left & I don't know where he went. The next time I saw him was in the guard room in the unit lines. He said to me words to the effect "they got you in here too". I asked him where he had been & he said I don't quite know, I have been all over. He asked me about conditions in the guard room about pads etc.

When I met the accused out at the road at the gate on night of 23 Dec 43 he ~~said to me~~ " asked me for a light. Then he said are you going my way - we talked about how the boys ran. He left us did not travel together.

The accused came to the place i.e. the house where I was in Weston on Hill. ~~[illegible]~~. He knew my friends down there. He had just come down there. He was acquainted there.

The accused was carrying something at the time I met him at the gate, but I don't know what it was. It seemed to me it was something he had under his arm.

The friends I know in Weston on Hill are also known to the accused. I had not told the accused the exact place where I was going to stay in Weston on Hill.

R.P. 83 (b) Complied with

Third witness for defence

B82778 S/Sgt Golding T 46 Coy Gp. Transport Coy Bedford being duly sworn states :-

Been with Coy since 15 Sep 39. Knows accused since June 1940, left unit Oct 20th 1943 to go to hospital. I am with workshops. He also was there. Accused was always considered as good workman - never caused any trouble - very conscientious.

Was examined by prosecuting officer :- He was a tradesman - a blacksmith - He was good. He was a good welder. He took pride in his work. This type of work would take years to learn.

To the Court :- I never noticed anything about the accused that led to mental lapses. He never talked about his family & then got over it. He was liked by the boys and worked accounting his nationality. Towards the latter part when he was with us this holiday changed in the Army.

R 178836 complied with.

Fourth witness for Defence
B 82744 Sgt James Lawrie Morrison 46 Cdo Gen Transport
Case having been duly sworn states:-

Been with unit since mobilization. Knew accused when he came to us in Jan 40 until Oct 43 when he left us to go to hospital. I knew him when I was a private myself. Latterly I have been his Section Sgt. He is very efficient soldier - gave us no trouble - did his duty when warned - did everything in efficient manner.

No questions by Prosecuting Offr

To the court - I didn't notice anything about the accused re mental lapses. He was a little moody at times. He would go away & sulk & seemed depressed at times.

Closing address by defending Offr:-
Endeavoured to prove that accused is subject to spells only by his own evidence. That he had the spells in Canada. That anxiety & worry played on his mind over his mother & family. His background is good. The worry caused these his family had had an effect on his mind. Holiday in unit also helped. The worry & did contributed to his worry. He had worry when he left here & when he arrived back. He had no shillings. Everything points to extraordinary case. As to missing of pass, clothing. He left laundry in London. When he arrived here he sent for it & received it. Sgt Purdy. Accepted that accused handed him for paper, Glover swore it was he who asked for the paper. Sgt Purdy could be mistaken. accused has every reason to want to be in this war on account his family. He does not want to get out. Realization of coming to stay must undoubtedly have a baneful effect on his mind. Steps should be taken to have accused treated by brain specialists. Mental stress is becoming bad. When he left here he was not in his proper mind. He did not leave with intent of going A.W.L.

Closing address by Prosecuting Offr:-
There are 2 points concerned in this case:-
(1) the accused claim of being lapse of memory and (2) that there was no intent of going A.W.L.
accused stated came to London in 1928 - employed in 1932 & employed steadily until 1939. Said he was merchant & [illegible] employed by Co making precision tools. Story left of Troop. Coy & total accused was an exceptionally good workman. Employed in civil life as machinist - in army as blacksmith. Period of 4 to 7 years required to be skilled in either of these trades. In civil life accused continued to be employed as machinist with firm also of high grade of work which he was entrusted with fine class of spells.

When spells came mind became a blank. Does it not seem strange he could work steadily employed from 1912 to 1939 & still suffer from a disease where at times he could remember nothing not even his name.

No evidence submitted to court that accused may suffered any spells since time of enlistment until he joined this unit - Hence this accused very conveniently on 23 Dec 43 until 4 Jan 44. It doesn't seem reasonable that accused would wander around streets of England & Glasgow & must be picked up by civil police or by M. P's

P to Glasgow stated he met accused on road to Cowdenbeath both got on bus & went to station at Tunbridge Wells. Said they were trying to evade M. P's at that time. All on train - destination Bedford. There they parted. Glover met accused two weeks later after leaving camp. Reasonable to assume they used various trains to reach Glasgow they were both A. W. L, & if accused was suffering from lapse of memory he could easily return to his unit.

When accused left camp he was in possession of £18. Such an occasion would arise if a person was going to spend a period time away from camp.

I agree with defending officer that accused should be examined by a psychiatrist, & I suggest it would that this is done before sentence is passed on the man.

WOY

Summing up by Judge Advocate

The question arises did the accused have the intent of committing this crime? I will read to you from Wharton's Criminal Law Vol 1 page 109 para 83. (Reads). In my opinion, which opinion you do not have to accept, Flora, the second witness for the defense told a story from which you can determine whether the accused was intent or not, that is, of course if you believe Flora, and I don't know why you wouldn't, also Flora was called by the accused. From the evidence Flora, I think the accused can hardly know what he was doing.

WDY

Statement in writing also by depending Officer:-

You have heard more briefly. I wanted you to hear him & realize the type of man he is. I think he is sincere in all he has said & that he has impressed you that way. His record in civil & army life has been good. His two N.C.O's have spoken highly of him. The subject of loss of memory is hard to diagnose by we laymen. I don't believe it is malingering in this case. The accused has given a straight forward story as far as he knows. Questions have come up about his loss of memory - they are hard to answer. The way he has maintained his attitude as a soldier while having loss of memory. This is shown by the glove on the fear of military police.

Kelly in the hearing of the accused told me to escort the accused from the yard. I went into the Orderly Room and phoned the guard for two escorts, I then went back out into the yard. It was then I heard CSM. Kelly and Spr. Heslegrave in conversation. Spr. Heslegrave did state to CSM. Kelly words to the effect, "take off your coat and I will show you". I went back into the Orderly Room to hurry the escorts down, came out of the Orderly Room again and in the meantime CSM. Kelly placed Spr. Heslegrave under close arrest. Spr. Heslegrave at this time was in the latrine, the two escorts were with him. I waited until he was through then Spr. Heslegrave stated that he wished to see CSM. Kelly so that his wife could be informed of the circumstances. With the two escorts, myself in charge, we proceeded into the Orderly Room to see CSM. Kelly. The escorts did not have Spr. Heslegrave by the arm but one on either side walking. Spr. Heslegrave walked up to the corner of the Orderly Room occupied by CSM. Kelly. CSM. Kelly had Spr. Heslegrave's pass in his hand. Spr. Heslegrave did then stike CSM. Kelly. It was a blow with his right fist to CSM. Kelly's left side of his face about the heighth of the mouth. Spr. Heslegrave did then state to CSM. Kelly"that is something I have wanted to do for a long time". The two escorts and myself intervened and we proceeded to the Guard Room. On leaving the Orderly Room the escort on the right of Spr. Heslegrave opened the door in addition so he had to step back. Spr. Heslegrave did then bolt from the other escort. The two escorts and myself gave chase. Spr. Heslegrave ran out of the yard towards Beckford Road. He ran approximately 150 yards along this Beckford Road. Down the street two of our men were standing in conversation on the sidewalk, one of them was Cpl. Walsh. Upon my orders of "stop that man" Cpl. Walsh did block his route. Spr. Heslegrave did then attempt to spring over Cpl. Walsh who was blocking his way. In doing so, Cpl. Walsh received a blow on his head while Spr. Heslegrave attempted to jump over him. Cpl. Walsh was blocking the way. The escorts and myself then took over and we proceeded to the Guard Room with Spr. Heslegrave. The accused was not drunk. His breath smelt as if he may have been drinking. His eyes were not clear. I could not catch him running. Spr. Heslegrave had his strength."

CROSS EXAMINED

A. Immediately after Cpl. Walsh blocked Spr. Heslegrave's way I saw Cpl. Walsh feel the side of his head. He did not say anything about it.

Q. In what position was Cpl. Walsh when he and the accused came in contact?
A. Cpl. Walsh stood facing in the direction that the accused was coming from. His feet were placed apart and his arms cut-spread. He stood in that position and waited for Spr. Heslegrave to come to him. The distance when he went to block was approximately 15 feet between the accused and Cpl. Walsh.

Q. In other words he was standing in an upright position?
A. Yes.

Court. In what manner did Spr. Haslegrave attempt to evade Cpl. Walsh?
A. Spr. Haslegrave while running attempted to spring over Cpl. Walsh.

Q. How could he have landed the blow?
A. In doing so Cpl. Walsh received a blow to the head. It must have been from the arms of the accused. The escorts and myself intervened.

SECOND WITNESS.

B-5857 Spr Galbraith, J.T. being duly sworn states:

"On the 18 Dec 44 the accused left the room in which CSM. Kelly was. I had actually stopped a moment to pick up his hat and I was behind him. Spr. Downey was behind to open the door. When the door was opened Spr. Heslegrave pushed Spr. Downey behind the door, sprung through the door and pulled the door closed behind him leaving both escorts inside the room. I opened the door and gave chase. I gave chase out into the road down which the accused was running. Spr. Downey and the Sergeant of the guard were behind me. As we were running down the road Cpl. Walsh and some other Sergeant were coming up towards us and the guard Sgt. shouted "stop that man". Cpl. Walsh stepped in and grabbed Spr. Heslegrave as he was running along. I came up and grabbed him. I did not actually see any blow struck. They naturally grabbed for each other. We escorted the accused back to the Guard Room. The accused had been drinking. I had seen him at a kiddies party previously. From his conversation I would say definitely he was drinking. He could walk but his conversation was not normal.

CROSS EXAMINED

Q. When Spr. Heslegrave attempted to hurdle Cpl. Walsh what was the position?
A. Cpl. Walsh was more or less standing with his hands up in front of him open.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IS IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS

B-55168, Spr. Downey, M.B. being duly sworn states:

"As the accused, Spr. Galbraith and I were leaving the office of CSM. Kelly, Spr. Haslegrave bolted through the door. We were given an order of command to pursue by Sgt. Smith. We took after the accused who ran down Beckford Road. Cpl. Walsh was in Beckford Road ahead of us. Sgt. Smith gave a command to halt that man. Cpl. Walsh then blocked his way. I was too far behind to see what actually happened. When I got up to them the accused was again in custody. Spr. Galbraith and I took him to the Guard Room. I did not see a blow struck. I did not think that any man in his normal sense would have done what the accused did. The accused when normal acts like a gentleman all the way through.

Q. Did you know that Cpl. Walsh had received a blow on the head?
A. I did not know anything about Cpl. Walsh receiving a blow on the head.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Q. Were you close enough to see Spr. Heslegrave hurdle over Cpl. Walsh.
A. No. There was a fumble but I could not see him hurdle over Cpl. Walsh.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

FOURTH WITNESS

P.10910, Cpl. Walsh, J.F. being duly sworn states:

"On the 18 Dec 44 at approximately 1700 hrs as I was proceeding down Beckford Road to the camp area I noticed at the time one man running with three men chasing him. I could not determine from the position where I was who the man was until he was approximately 15 feet from me. Then Sgt. Smith said "stop that man". As the man came towards me I held my hands up and out in order to stop him. As I proceeded to stop him he attempted to hurdle over my body. While he was doing this I received a blow on the back of my head. This happened while he was hurdling in my opinion it was either his elbow or his hand. The man was the accused whom I now recognize.

FOURTH WITNESS (Cont'd)

I had no conversation with the accused. Sgt. Smith and the two escorts took charge of him and took him back to the Guard Room.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Q. Did you stop in the path of the accused when he was running?
A. Yes sir.

Q. As he attempted to hurdle you did you change your position?
A. No sir.

Q. Did you remain standing?
A. I remained standing but his weight upon me knocked me down. He ended up practically on my back.

Q. You did receive a blow on the back of your head?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Could you have hit your head on something?
A. Not very well.

Q. Could that something be the accused?
A. Yes it could have been the accused.

Q. Was the blow with a clinched fist?
A. It is pretty hard to determine this.

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED.

The Defending Officer submitted that the charge should be dismissed because the Prosecution had failed to make a prima facie case for the following reasons:

In connection with the charge of striking his superior officer, Cpl. Walsh with his fist on the side of the head, I would like to point out that the statement of B.22456, Sgt. Smith, C.E. reads as follows: "Cpl. Walsh blocked his way and Spr. Heslegrave tried to jump over him. In so doing Cpl. Walsh received a blow on the head".

The evidence of Cpl. Walsh reads as follows: "Sgt. Smith ordered me to stop the man they were running after. As he attempted to hurdle over me I stepped in front of him to stop him and received a blow on the head".

In both cases the evidence shows that Cpl. Walsh was in a tackle position and that Spr. Heslegrave tried to hurdle over him. There is no proof of a deliberate blow with a clenched fist on the head of Cpl. Walsh.

For this reason I would ask the court to dismiss the charge of striking Cpl. Walsh with his fist on the head.

The Prosecutor replied stating that in his opinion he had made a prima facie case.

THE COURT WAS CLOSED.

THE COURT RE-OPENED.

The Court allows the submission of the Defending Officer and states that the first charge is dismissed.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

In summing up the case of Spr Heslegrave to the Court, first, I would like to outline the accused's life up to the time of arrest. He joined the Canadian Active Army on the 5 Dec 39 at Montreal. He was 24 years old and come from a family of six. His father was the only parent living and there was also three sisters and two brothers who are the Canadian Navy. On the 26 Dec 39 he came overseas with the 4th Fd Coy. From then up to this time, he has changed units a few times and also spent a few months in hospital undergoing a knee operation which had lowered his category to L3. Also during this time the accused has had more than his share of bad luck and disappointments. In Jan 1942, he was happily married to an English girl and in Jan of 1943 they were blessed with one child. But their happiness was shortlived and the accused was plunged into sorrow when his wife died in Apr 1943. At the same time he received word from home that his father had died also. This was not the end of his bad luck for in Jul 1943 his only baby died leaving him alone with his sorrow. Despite this the accused continued to soldier and he later met another girl and was married again in Apr 1944. It was with her at their home in Croydon that he was spending his leave. He left his home on the afternoon of 16 Dec to visit his friends at his old unit and also to attend the party being held for the children of the district. The accused has told you his actions during his stay in the unit and he did nothing to attract attention by other NCOs and his behaviour was very much in order. When he met the CSM he was on his way home to his wife who was anxiously awaiting his return. He never arrived and it must be of great concern to her to know her husband was brought about to get himself arrested. This must be very trying days for his wife who is expecting a baby in the near future. There is no need to review the accused's army record but for the length of service it is far from being a bad record. I would like to stress the fact that for a soldier who had met the CSM in the pub earlier in the afternoon and who had also been present in camp among Senior NCOs and Officers, his dress and conduct must have been good or otherwise he would have been checked. There is also very strong signs of provocation on the part of the CSM toward the accused and if he had let him pass on his way after stopping him without going to all the trouble to call an escort which the court must agree was really unnecessary, the accused would not be here to-day. The turn of events brought on by the CSM's hasty, unnecessary action caused the accused to do things of which he had never done before and which was not his true nature. In closing I would like to ask the court to give careful consideration to his long service record in the Canadian Army Overseas and also the possible damaging results that an unjust and heavy punishment might have on his pregnant wife. I beg the court to give this fair consideration and thought and to impose the minimum sentence on the accused.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) Lt H.S. BEAGLE.

I am B-22456 Sgt Smith, G.E. on strength of 1 Canadian Base Park R.C.E. I was on duty as guard sergeant on the ~~night~~ 18 December 1944. At about 1655 hrs I was notified by a soldier to see CSM Kelley. I went from the orderly room to the yard where he was; he ordered me to escort Spr Heslegrave from the yard. I went back to the orderly room to phone two guards to act as escorts. When I came back to the yard the CSM and Spr. Heslegrave were facing each other and talking. I heard Spr Heslegrave say to the CSM "If you take that coat off I'll show you". The escorts hadn't turned up yet but in the meantime Spr. Heslegrave was placed under close arrest by CSM Kelley. I waited in the lavatory for Spr Heslegrave and the 2 escorts which CSM Kelley had procured in the interval. Spr Heslegrave wished to see CSM Kelley in order to notify his wife. We all went to the orderly room. CSM Kelley had Spr. Heslegrave's pass in his hand. Spr. Heslegrave then struck CSM a blow with his right fist, as the two escorts were not holding him. Spr. Hestlegrave said that was what he had wanted to do for a long time. I was ordered to take the prisoner to the guard room under escort. Coming out the right escort opened the door and I followed in rear. Escort on the left was next the wall; then the prisoner bolted and ran approximately 40 yards to Beckford Road turning right. Myself and the escorts gave chase. Ahead of us having the way was Cpl Walsh and another soldier. I shouted to them to stop that man. Spr. Hestlegrave, Cpl. Walsh blocked his way and Spr Hestlegrave tried to jump over him. In doing so Cpl. Walsh received a blow on the head. Escorts and myself then caught up and closed with him. With Cpl Walsh and an escort on either side and myself to the rear holding on to the prisoner's web belt we proceeded to the guard room. En route Spr. Hestlegrave asked me to take my hands off his belt as he could walk by himself. At the guard room the guard took over.

yard. His tunic was open in front, his hat was in his shoulder strap and hands in pocket. On passing him he said "Hello, Kelly". I stopped and asked him if he was on pass. When he replied in the affirmative I asked to see it. He produced it and it was in order. I then told Spr. Hestlegrave I wished N.C.O's in this camp be addressed by their proper rank. Spr. Hestlegrave became abusive and said "You never liked me when I was here before and I don't like you any better now. He also asked me to take off my tunic and became very belligerent. I remonstrated that he shouldn't take that attitude. He persisted in his abuse and I called Sgt. Smith who appeared out of the orderly room to fall in an escort, take Spr. Hestlegrave to the gate, give him his pass and warn him not to come in the camp any more without authority. Spr. Hestlegrave said "I don't give a damn what you want, take off your tunic and I'll show you". I then placed him under close arrest and ordered Sgt Smith to take him to the guard room. I then went to the orderly room. About 2 or 3 minutes later Spr. Hestlegrave was escorted in by Spr's Downey and Galbraith under command of Sgt. Smith. Spr. Hestlegrave said to me "Give me my pass". I replied "You are under close arrest" "Your pass will be forwarded with charges and movement order to 1 C.E.R.U. in the morning. I then turned to end the interview. I was half turned when Spr. Hestlegrave sprang from his escort and struck me on the left side of the mouth with his fist saying "I have been wanting to do that for a long time". I then ordered Sgt Smith to take him to the guard room. I wish to state that Spr. Hestlegrave seemed sober to me.

Before he had finished the guard sergeant came into the latrine and the prisoner asked him if he could see the CSM before going to the guard room. We marched him to the orderly room. He walked up to the CSM and asked for his pass. CSM told Spr Heslegrave he was under close arrest and couldn't have it, and to march him back to the guard room. As their conversation finished and the CSM turned away Spr Heslegrave struck him in the mouth. The guard sergeant and myself grabbed him and the other guard fell in on his left. I stopped to pick up Spr Heslegrave's hat. The other escort was in front and as he opened the door the prisoner jumped through and pulled the door after him. I opened the door and ran after him. ~~Ixxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ Spr Downey and the Sgt of the guard followed. As we were running down the street Cpl Walsh stepped out at the Sergeants shout and stopped him. I came up with the others and we marched him to the guard room, turned him over to the guard."

Q. "After he was stopped by Cpl Walsh did the prisoner make any further attempts to escape"

A. "No".

The accused ~~cross~~-examined this witness.

Q. "Would you say I was drunk"?

A. "I am not a medical authority, but I would not say you were sober".

FIFTH WITNESS

"I am B-55168 Spr Downey, M.B., on strength of 1 Canadian Base Park, R.C.E., a soldier of the Canadian Army(Overseas). On the 16 December 1944 at approximately 1700 hrs I was coming into the yard at the camp and saw CSM Kelly talking to Spr Heslegrave. I was called over to act as escort to Spr Heslegrave who was under arrest. He asked to go to the latrine, and we followed him in. As he finished his business I asked him what the score was and I did not get any answer. Sgt Smith came in and we started for the guard room. The prisoner asked to see CSM Kelly. We took him to the orderly room and he asked the CSM for his pass. Words were exchanged and Spr Heslegrave lost his temper and struck the CSM on the jaw. We then started for the guard room again. As the door was opened the prisoner bolted and pulled the door shut as he went. We chased him down the street where he was blocked by Cpl Walsh. We came up, got our breath and started back, and without any further fuss turned him over to the guard.

The accused cross-examined this witness.

Q. "In the 18 months I have known you would you say I was aggressive"?

A. "In that time I have never known you to be in a jam".

Q. "Would you say this happening was my normal nature"?

A. "No".

Upon nearing the Orderly Room I saw CSM Kelly and Spr Heslegrave and heard the CSM say "you're under arrest". I then entered the orderly room. A few minutes later I saw two soldiers and the guard sergeant escort Spr Heslegrave into the orderly room and approach CSM Kelly. Spr Heslegrave said something to the CSM which I did not hear, broke loose from his escort, struck the CSM and ran out of the orderly room followed by the escorts and the guard sergeant. A little later I saw Spr Heslegrave being escorted back to the guard room".

First witness for prosecution. F 6169 L/Bdr Hargett L.A. 3 A/Tk. Regt RCA.

Q1 What is your position in the unit?
A1. I am technical storeman of the 52 A/Tk Rgt RCA.
Q2. Do you recognise this form?
A2. Yes sir. I recognise this as the M.F.M. 500 of our Harbin. This is his signature which I obtained from him on the 26 March 43 in exchange 26158.

The Accused declines to cross examine the witness.

Second witness for prosecution. F 6097 B.Q.M.S. Curphey W.C., 3 A/Tk Regt RCA.

being duly sworn is examined by the prosecutor:

Q1 What was your position on 13 April 43?
A1 On 13 April 43 I was B.Q.M.S. of the 52 A/Tk Rgt RCA.
Q2 Did you have anything to do with the check on your Harbin revolver at the time he left?
A2 On his absence being reported, I recorded the last shot he slept and took his bolt to Rgt Q. stores but I could not find the revolver. I then reported to Major Ross that the pistol was missing. The accused has not produced the pistol since his return and no trace has been found of it.

Q3 What is the value of the pistol?

A3. The vocabulary price on the 21 may 1943 was £5-12-0.

Q4 Has Gnr. Heslin offered to sign a cash debit voucher for the value of the pistol?

A4 No, sir.

The defending officer examines the accused:

Q5 Do you remember what time of day you searched the hut for gnr. Heslins kit?

A5 About 0900 hrs.

Q6 He left at 0500 hrs?

A6 yes sir.

Q7 So the kit was unattended from 0500 hrs to 0900 hrs.

A7 yes sir.

Q8 A mans personal belongings are customarily left on or near his bed. If any of these articles are lost or stolen is that regarded by Q.M. stores as a loss by neglect.

A8 Yes, sir. it is loss by neglect.

The accused wishes to make a statement on oath:

3 65403 Gnr. Heslin S.D. 3 A/Tk Regt. RCA being duly sworn states:

Sir at approximately 0400 hrs on the 5th of April when I absented myself from my quarters my kit was on my head and my pistol was then in the holster. That is the last time I saw the pistol.

The prosecutor declines to cross examine the accused.

This defending Officer.

A man must not a belonging as left on his bed - during all early hours the man revolver and holster will be left on his head. He should be certain that such articles will not be taken. He expects his kit & he safe there.

It would different if he left it hanging out on a peg but leaving it with his kit is customary.

If it is taken from there it is not his fault.

Granted he lost the revolver but it is not to my mind but it is not a serious offence or neglect. Among a

Prosecutor Address by Prosecutor N.E.A. Jan 1922

There is no question that Fred Horton was armed with the hammer. We have his statement that he left it on his bed when he decided to break away. When going on bail a man takes with him his kit with him so he can get it over to some one else or put it into safe keeping

When a man goes A.W.L. the authorities act as promptly as possible to collect his kit and take it into safe keeping. It seems to me that if a man is going to go A.W.L. he should make some effort to avoid the arrest the authorities in their effort to safe guard his effects

Anything short of that must

Plea in mitigation to charge I

May it please the court to take into consideration the following points when deliberating sentence. Though curiosity and enthusiasm for driving Don Weston thought that would do no harm in driving the jeep up the road and back again, purely to gain the experience of steering the type of vehicle. It was not with the intent of using the vehicle for pleasure for the jeep was driven only approx 300 yds from its parking place and on turning around to come back the unfortunate accident occurred. There was no attempt was made to ~~[illegible]~~ the camp grounds.

In conclusion I wish the court consider the reason for driving the vehicle and the short distance that it travelled.

Tom Hobbs joined the army at the age of seventeen and as he was too young for the field he was sent to C.H.R.A. for a year. When the accident which the jury accused Tom Hobbs on his youth and reading to the first natural impulse which is to avoid trouble and get away from it all he went A.W.O.L.

After a short absence the first impulse wore off he had time to think and realise that running away from trouble was no solution. He then voluntarily reported himself A.W.O.L. in Nottingham. Unsupported he went to Aldershot where he was taken into custody.

This is Tom Hobbs first court martial, crimes on his W.A.W.C. are not of a serious nature, and but mainly crimes originating from his youthful tendencies. I submit that Tom Hobbs realizes his mistakes and would strive to be a good soldier.

Would the court martial also take into consideration the length of time he has been kept under close arrest awaiting court martial.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B.85443 Gnr Stephen Delbert Heslin of the 52nd Bty., 3 Cdn A/Tk. Regt.

The Commanding Officer (Lt-Col. J.P. Phin) of the 3rd Cdn. Anti-Tank Regt. directs that all evidence shall be taken under oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution: Major J.V. Rose of the 52nd Bty., 3 A/Tk Regt. duly sworn states:-

On the afternoon of 3 April 1943 Gnr. Heslin was brought before me on a trivial offence. I sentenced him to C.B. and ordered that he would clean a set of tire chains by hand. At about 2000 hrs, after hearing a report of an accident to my 5-cwt, I carried out an investigation. I found the vehicle at the back of the Orderly Room in a damaged condition; obviously the result of a collision. Further investigation disclosed the spot where the vehicle had collided with a stone wall about 100 yards to the South of the Orderly Room. Closer examination disclosed evidence of chain marks between the wheel tracks, these marks being caused by the dragging of chains behind the vehicle. I immediately returned to the Orderly Room and sent for Gnrs. Crosby, Heslin and Winters and, after questioning, Crosby and Heslin admitted having used the vehicle for the purpose of dragging tire chains. I placed them under open arrest and ordered them to return to their quarters. I had not given permission to either of these men to use the vehicle, and normally this vehicle is only used on my authority.

J.V. Rose Maj. R.C.A.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness. R.P. 4 (E) has been complied with.

Second Witness for the Prosecution: F 6144 Bdr Hiltz, H.E. of the 52nd Bty., 3 A/Tk. Regt. duly sworn states:-

On 3rd April 1943 on my way to the billets, I saw Gnr Heslin and Gnr Crosby sitting in a Willy's 5-cwt. Gnr Heslin was behind the wheel and Gnr Crosby was in the seat beside him. The vehicle was stationary. I had walked on about 60 feet when I heard the vehicle start up and then hit the wall. I looked back and saw Gnr Crosby sprawled in the middle of the road. Gnr Heslin was just getting out of the vehicle from behind the wheel.

H.E. Hiltz - Bdr.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness. R.P. 4 (E) has been complied with.

The estimate ~~xx~~ (Exhibit A) of damage to the Willy's 8-cwt No. CM 4230872, dated 5 April 1943, appearing in Part II of the road accident report made out by Gnr Heslin is a true statement of the damage to said vehicle as estimated be me on 5 April 1943. The signatures on it is my signature.

I checked that evening at 2300 hrs and on the next day at 0600 hrs and at 2300 hrs, and at 0600 hrs, 13 April, and found him to be still absent. U-1599, Pte. HESTER G.D. and B-76729, Pte. CURRAN K.J. of The Toronto Scottish Regiment (MG), of No. 1 Cdn M.G.H.U., tried by Field General Court Martial at BORDON, Hants. on the 25th day of June, 1941.

The order convening the Court, the charge sheet, summary of evidence and medical certificate are laid before the Court.

Prosecutor:	Lieut. R.R. MacGillivray,	No. 1 Cdn M.G.H.U.
Defending Officer:	Lieut. A.D. Anderson,	No. 1 Cdn M.G.H.U.

At 1000 hrs the trial commences.

The names of the President and members of the Court are read over in the hearing of the accused and they severally answer to their names.

Q1 BY THE COURT: Do you object to be tried by me as President or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?
A1 ACCUSED HESTER: No, sir.
A1 ACCUSED CURRAN: No, sir.

The President and members are duly sworn.

Q2 BY THE COURT: Do you object to B66944, Sgt. T. Pyburn, R.Regt.C., Cdn Base Units, acting as shorthand writer?
A2 ACCUSED HESTER: No, sir.
A2 ACCUSED CURRAN: No, sir.

The shorthand writer is duly sworn.

The charge sheet is signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

The accused are arraigned upon each charge in the above mentioned charge sheet.

Q3 BY THE COURT: Pte. Hester, are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A3 ACCUSED HESTER: Guilty, sir.
Q4 And I presume not guilty of the alternative charge, is that right?
A4 Yes, not guilty to the alternative charge, sir.
Q5 In other words, you are pleading guilty to the charge laid under sec 11 and not guilty to the charge laid under sec 40?
A5 Yes, sir.
Q6 Pte. Hester, are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you, which you have heard read?
A6 Guilty, sir.
Q7 And to the alternative or fourth charge, are you guilty or not guilty?
A7 Not guilty, sir.
Q8 Pte. Hester, are you guilty or not guilty of the fifth charge against you, which you have heard read?
A8 Not guilty, sir.
DEFENDING OFFICER: Sir, both the accused plead not guilty to that fifth charge, causing damage to a vehicle to the extent of $35.00, as read, but I understand application will be made by the prosecutor to have the amount in that charge reduced.
THE PROSECUTOR: I will submit that in evidence.
THE COURT: In other words, the plea is Guilty, with the exception of the amount of damage?
DEFENDING OFFICER: Yes, sir.
THE PROSECUTOR: It will be necessary, sir, to enter that as a plea of Not Guilty.

Q9 BY THE COURT: Pte. Curran, you have heard the charges read over. Are you guilty or not guilty of the first charge against you, which you have heard read?
A9 ACCUSED CURRAN: Guilty, sir.
Q10 Are you guilty or not guilty of the second or alternative charge against you, which you have heard read over?
A10 Not guilty, sir.
Q11 Are you guilty or not guilty of the third charge against you which you have heard read over?
A11 Guilty, sir.
Q12 Are you guilty or not guilty of the fourth or alternative charge against you which you have heard read over?
A12 Not guilty, sir.
Q13 Pte. Curran, are you guilty or not guilty of the fifth charge against you, which you have heard read over?
A13 Well, guilty as to the charge, sir, but not guilty as to the amount.

THE PROSECUTOR: As the accused men have pleaded guilty to the more serious charges, I would ask leave to withdraw the second and fourth charges in each case.

R.P.35(B) complied with in connection with the first and third charges.

Q14 THE COURT: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?
A14 ACCUSED HESTER: No, sir.
A14 ACCUSED CURRAN: No, sir.
Q15 On the fifth charge, do you wish to be tried on this charge together or separately?
A15 ACCUSED HESTER: Together, sir.
A15 ACCUSED CURRAN: Together, sir.

THE PROSECUTOR: Since both the accused have pleaded guilty to the fifth charge, with the exception they have taken to the amount of damage, there will be no need of proving the facts of the case beyond the facts of the damage. To do that I would like to be sworn myself and introduce some documents.

LIEUT. R.R. MacGILLIVRAY, No. 1 Cdn Machine Gun Holding Unit, the prosecutor, being duly sworn, states:-

I hereby produce a document certified by Capt. R.M. Noble, who is in command of the Repair Section, No. 2 Detachment, R.C.O.C., Bordon, in which he shows damage to the vehicle, CM-4202003 totalled $22.90. This includes the price of the ornament of the front centre 69¢, handle hood locking 32¢, limb, hood hinge and bracket 26¢, and $20.60 for time, and $1.03 representing 5% for overhead. I have compared this with the certified true copies of the records in the Ordnance Workshop and find it to be a true extract of the same. I will also attach to it these certified true copies of the original.
DEFENDING OFFICER: I admit the correctness of those figures, and have no objection to the documents referred to being submitted as evidence before the Court without further proof.

Documents signed by the President and annexed to the proceedings.

THE COURT: Do the accused men apply to give evidence themselves as witnesses?
DEFENDING OFFICER: No, sir.
THE COURT: Do you intend to call any other witnesses in your defence?
DEFENDING OFFICER: No, sir.

THE COURT: Are you putting forward any character witnesses?
DEFENDING OFFICER: None other than what will be supplied by the prosecutor, sir.
THE COURT: Have you anything whatever to say in your defence?
DEFENDING OFFICER: Nothing whatever, sir, only a statement I wish to make later on in mitigation of sentence.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE FINDING.

The Court being re-opened, the accused are again brought before it.

LIEUT. R.R. MacGILLIVRAY, No. 1 Canadian Machine Gun Holding Unit, being previously sworn, states:-

I produce herewith AFB296, Statements as to Character and Particulars of Service of Accused, also certified copies of MFM6.

The above statements are read, signed by the President, and annexed to the proceedings.

Q16 BY THE COURT: Are the accused the persons named in the statements which you have read?
A16 Yes, sir.
Q17 Have you compared the contents of the above statements with the regimental books?
A17 Yes, sir.
Q18 Are they true extracts from the regimental books, and are the statements of entries in the conduct sheets a fair and true summary of those entries?
A18 Yes, sir.

The defending officer declines to cross-examine this witness.

THE COURT: Do you wish to address the Court?

DEFENDING OFFICER: May it please the Court:- I would like to make a statement in mitigation of sentence. These two privates had been on duty at the M.T. car park. They had been given permission by the officer of the guard to absent themselves from the guard house, and they had noticed there was a sedan there not immobilized but with the keys attached to the ignition. For some unknown reason they made up their minds to go for a little joy-ride. Unfortunately for them, the vehicle had clutch trouble, but rather than leave the vehicle out on the road for someone else to get hold of and have the guard get into trouble, as they might quite well have done, they proceeded back to the car park to obtain another vehicle to bring the sedan back to where it belonged. They both realize the seriousness of this situation. I have examined their MFM6's and do not see anything to indicate the hardened type of criminal at all. They are both 20 years of age, and I think we can lay this offence to their extreme youth, thoughtlessness and carelessness. They have undergone 27 days of detention whilst awaiting trial by Court Martial; they have had 27 days in which to think matters over, and I think it has brought home to them the seriousness of not soldiering. They both assure me that whatever punishment this Court might see fit to impose upon them, they will still continue to carry on soldiering. Pte. Curran is a qualified signaller with nine months experience and was just about ready to go to his unit when this unfortunate affair took place. I would appreciate it if the Court would take those points into consideration before passing sentence on the accused.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE.

Summary of Evidence
in the case of

U1599 Pte. Hunter, G.D. [T.S.R.(M.G.)], No. 1 Cdn. M.G. Holding Unit, C.A.(O).

On instructions from the Commanding Officer the following evidence is given under oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution: Capt. R.S. Bruce # 2 Det. R.C.O.C., M.T. Depot. being sworn states

I am Capt. R.S. Bruce # 2 Det. R.C.O.C., M.T. Depot. At approximately 2030 hrs May 28th 41 I was returning from the Officers Club on the road which runs through the Vehicle Park of # 2 Det. R.C.O.C., when I saw a truck towing a sedan into the Park. I investigated and found that the accused, Pte Hunter, was at the wheel of the sedan CM4202003. After questioning he admitted being in improper possession of the vehicle. He and Pte Curran who was driving the truck C2 4204535, told me that they had moved the sedan in the morning from its proper place in the park to where they could more conveniently remove it and that having taken it away they had had clutch trouble and used the truck to haul it back.

I immediately contacted the commander of the guard and had Pte Hunter put in close arrest. The only people who are authorized to drive the vehicles which are in the park are personnel of the # 2 Det. R.C.O.C. in possession of a pass to the park. Both the sedan CM4202003 and the truck C2 4204535 were in the park and no authority had been issued for their removal.

R.S. Bruce Capt.

The accused declined to question the above witness

Second Witness for the Prosecution: Capt R.H. Noble, # 2 Det. R.C.O.C., C.A.(O). being sworn states:

I am Capt. R.H. Noble, # 2 Det. R.C.O.C., C.A.(O). On May 29th, 1941, I personally inspected the sedan CM4202003, at the R.C.O.C. garage, Bordon, and found that the hood had been bent, the hood catch broken, hinges broken and springs broken due, apparently, to the sedan having run into something. The vehicle was also in need of a new clutch. The parts required for repair of the clutch amounted to approximately $ 6.00 and labor on the clutch approximately $ 6.00. Parts necessary for repairs to the hood amounted to about $5.00 and labor about $6.00. The vehicle is an old one in need of a complete overhaul and I cannot state definitely the amount of damage done until such time as this operation is completed.

Third Witness for the Prosecution: B76656 Sgt McKelvey, S, T.S.R.(M.G.), #1 CM&HU, CA(O) being sworn states:

I am B 76656, Sgt McKelvey, S, T.S.R.(M.G.), #1 CM&HU, CA(O). On 28th May 1941 I was on duty as Sgt of the guard placed by this unit on the vehicle park of #2 Det. RCOC Bordon, at 1400 hrs. At 1600 hrs Pte Bester was on duty at the sentry post near the Officers' Club and came off duty at 1900 hrs. He may have had permission to leave the vicinity of the guard room but I do not know for sure.

At 2000 hrs when I went around to change the sentries I found that the sentries on the post near the Officers' Club had Pte Harris under arrest and I confined him in the guard room on instructions from the guard Commander.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution. Lieut J.G.K. MacEwen, [T.S.R.(M.G.)] #1 C.M.&H.U., C.A.(O). being sworn states

I am Lieut J.G.K. MacEwen [T.S.R.(M.G.)] #1 C.M.&H.U., C.A.(O). On 28th May, 1941, I was in command of the guard on the Vehicle Park of #2 Det. R COC, Bordon. At 1800 hrs Pte Hester whom I recognize came off seeing duty and I gave him permission to leave the vicinity of the guardroom until 2130 hrs.

The accused declined to question the above witness.

The accused, having been duly cautioned under R. P. 4(E), makes the following statement under oath:

I am U1599 Pte Hester, G.D. (T.S.R.(M.G.)) #1 Cdn M.S.H.U., C.A.(O). On May 28th 1941 Pte Curran and I took the staff car CM4202003 for a drive. We found the keys in the car and the car not locked and drove away as the sentries on duty were patrolling the far end of their beat. After we had gone about two miles the clutch seized and being unable to drive the car further we went back and got the truck C.Z. 4204535 and hauled the sedan back. We were stopped by the guard on the gate and when we explained the situation they allowed us to drive in and were going to put us in arrest when Capt. Bruce and some other officers came along.

We did not intend to keep the sedan out for long and could have left it by the road when it stopped on us but rather than involve the whole guard in trouble we got the truck to haul it back.

Summary of Evidence
in the case of

B 76729 Pte Curran, K. J. [T.S.R.(M.G.)], No 1 Cdn. M.G. Holding Unit, C.A.(O).

On instructions from the Commanding Officer, the following evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution. Capt. R. S. Bruce, # 2 Det R.C.O.C., M. T. Depot, C.A.(O). being sworn, states:

I am Capt. R.S. Bruce, # 2 Det. R.C.O.C., M.T. Depot, C.A.(O). At approximately 2030 hrs May 28th 41 I was returning from the Officers' Club along the road which runs through the Vehicle Park of # 2 Det RCOC., when I saw a truck towing a sedan into the Park. I investigated and found that the accused Pte Curran was at the wheel of the truck C.Z. 4204535. After questioning he admitted being in improper possession of the vehicle. He and Pte Hunter CM 420 2003 who was at the wheel of the sedan, told me that they had moved the sedan during the morning from its proper place in the park to where they could more conveniently remove it and that, having taken it away, they had had clutch trouble and used the truck to haul it back.

I immediately contacted the commander of the guard and had Pte Curran put in close arrest. The only people who are authorized to drive the vehicles which are in the park are personnel of # 2 Det. R.C.O.C. in possession of a pass to the park. Both the sedan and the truck were in the park and no authority had been issued for their removal.

Capt.
R S Bruce

The accused declined to question the above witness

Second Witness for the Prosecution: Capt. R. H. Noble # 2 Det. R.C.O.C. C.A.(O) being sworn, states:

I am Capt. R. H. Noble # 2 Det R.C.O.C., C.A.(O) On May 29th, 1941, I personally inspected the sedan C.M. 4202003 at the R.C.O.C. garage, Bordon, and found that the hood had been damaged, hood catch broken, hinges broken and springs broken due, apparently, to the sedan having run into something. The vehicle was also in need of a new clutch. The parts required for repairing the clutch will amount to approximately $6.00 and labor on the clutch approximately $6.00 Parts necessary for repairs to the hood will amount to approximately $5.00 and labor to approximately $8.00. The vehicle is an old one in need of a complete overhaul and I cannot state definitely the amount of damage done until such time as this operation is completed.

R H Noble Capt C.A.O.C.

The accused declined to question the above witness.

Third Witness for the Prosecution: B 76686 Sgt McKelvey, S. T.S.R. (M.G.), # 1 C.M.G.H.U., C.A.(O). being sworn states.

I am B76686, Sgt. McKelvey, S. T.S.R(M.G), #1 C.M.G.H.U., C.A.(O). On 28th May, 1941 I was Sgt. of the guard placed by this unit on the vehicle park of # 2 Det. R.C.O.C. Bordon. I took over as Sgt of the guard at 1400 hrs that day. Pte Curran was at that time off duty and was not due to go back on until 2000 hrs. At about 1600 hrs Pte Curran was given permission to leave the vicinity of the Guard House. A proportion of the men were always allowed this privilege on application to the guard commander or myself. Pte Curran was not due back at the guard house until 1930 hours. There had been a change made in the times at which the men were to go on duty but I do not know at what time the change was made nor how it affected the time that Pte Curran was to go on duty.

At 2000 hrs. when I went around to change the guards I found that the sentries on the post near the Officers' Club had Pte Curran under arrest and on the instructions of the guard commander and I detained Pte Curran in the Guard Room. Sgt S McKelvey
1 CMGHU.

The accused declined to question the above witness.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution. Lieut. J. G.K. Mc Ewan, (T.S.R (M.G.)) = 1 CMGHU, CA(O) being sworn states:

I am Lieut J.G.K. Mc Ewan (T.S.R (M.G.)), 1C MGHU, CH/O)

On 28th May 1941, I was in command of the guard on the Vehicle Park, #2 Det. R.C.O.C. Bordon, at 1400 hrs on that day Pte Curran whom I recognize came off duty and was given permission by me to be away from the vicinity of the Guard Room until 2130 hrs as he was not due to go back on guard until 2200 hrs. While Pte Curran was away I changed the times of some of the duties but this did not affect Pte Curran.

J. G. K. Mc Ewan, Lieut.

The accused declined to question this witness.

The accused was ~~warned~~ cautioned under R.D.P. 9(5) and, being sworn, makes the following statement:

I am B 76729, Pte Curran, K.J. (T.S.R (M.G.)) 1 C.M.G.H.U., CA(O). On May 28th 1941 at about 1845 hrs. Pte Hester and I took the sedan C.M.-4202003 out of the Vehicle Park and went for a ride. We did not intend to go for long — just for a joy-ride. As we drove away the car was not acting properly. The clutch did not operate well and I had difficulty getting it to catch when I put it in high gear. After we had driven as far as Oakhanger I decided that we had better turn back as the clutch was working so badly. As I was turning it around the clutch ceased to work entirely and we left the car to go back and get a truck to haul it in. We had considered leaving the car where it was as we had not been seen leaving but rather than get the rest of the guard into trouble was decided to haul it back.

As we were hauling the car back into the vehicle park, ~~racing~~ we were stopped by the sentries on the gate and they were going to arrest us but first allowed us to drive in. ~~Then~~ Capt. Bruce and some other officers came along and had us arrested. This was all done on the spur of the moment and I am sorry for it now.

The damage to the front of the sedan occurred when it was being hauled back and ~~it~~ the truck stopped rather abruptly causing the sedan to bump into it.

Form for Assembly and Proceedings of Field General Court Martial on Active Service.

PROCEEDINGS.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this Sixteenth day of JUNE, 19 42.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 5 Canadian Infantry Brigade Group Canadian Army (A.F.), on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial, [illegible]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

[illegible] In my opinion, military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units, difficulties of communication, and other difficulties, render it inexpedient to comply with these rules inconsistent to Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the soldier named in the margin.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF No. B.43499 Pte HETMANSKI, M. of "B" Coy, RHLI, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

Capt. W.C. Avery, Adjt RHLI, having been sworn states:-

"I produce Army Form B 252 containing evidence of L/Cpl C.R. Rodger and W.U. Moore to the effect that the accused at 1430 hrs, 11 Nov 44 was absent from his unit in Brussels and was at that time and place apprehended by the military authority.

AF B252 is attached as Exhibit "A".

"I produce Certificate of Arrest purported to be signed by the officer Commanding 120 Provost Coy CHQ.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

C.120919 Cpl JENNINGS, G. of "B" Coy RHLI, having been duly sworn states:

I am C.120919 Cpl Jennings, G. of "B" Coy RHLI. I know the accused, Pte Hetmanski, M. as a member of my section which was No 6 Section of 11 Platoon. I had been on leave in Antwerp the day before on an afternoon pass and returned to my section's billet late at night on the 23 Oct 44. I heard on return that we were to do an attack next morning. When I checked my section at approximately 0600 hrs, 24 Oct 44, the accused was not present. I made inquiries from other members in the section and made a search of the area but the accused's whereabouts was not known nor could he be located. I marked him absent as from 0600 hrs 24 Oct 44.

The accused whom I have known for over a year in the RHLI has always been a good soldier and I was surprised at his absence. He had complained prior to the time of his absence about his feet which I saw on a couple of occasions. They were blistered and festered. He did go to the Medical Officer for treatment and was instructed to carry on by him.

(Sgd) George Jennings

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused having been duly cautioned in accordance with RP 4(e) says:

"I do not want to make a statement nor call any witnesses."

C.120919 Cpl JENNINGS, G. of "B" Coy RHLI, having been duly sworn states:

I am C.120919 Cpl Jennings, G. of "B" Coy RHLI. I know the accused, Pte Hetmanski, M. as a member of my section which was No 6 Section of 11 Platoon. I had been on leave in Antwerp the day before on an afternoon pass and returned to my section's billet late at night on the 23 Oct 44. I heard on return that we were to do an attack next morning. When I checked my section at approximately 0600 hrs, 24 Oct 44, the accused was not present. I made inquiries from other members in the section and made a search of the area but the accused's whereabouts was not known nor could he be located. I marked him absent as from 0600 hrs 24 Oct 44.

The accused whom I have known for over a year in the RHLI has always been a good soldier and I was surprised at his absence. He had complained prior to the time of his absence about his feet which I saw on a couple of occasions. They were blistered and festered. He did goto the Medical Officer for treatment and was instructed to carry on by him.

The accused L 86711 Pte (A/Cpl) John Hetyei, 4 Bn Regina Rifles att Cdn Sec HQ Brussels Grn being duly sworn states;

I am single. I landed in France 7 Jun 44 with NB Cameron of Canada. I stayed with them until first week in Jun 45. With them without break all during the campaign. I was a wasp driver. There were 3 of us left out of 63 in our platoon. The only charge I ever had against me was for a dirty rifle and I got 3 days C B.

I don't know anything at all about the fight I had in Brussels 27 Jul 45. I had just begun a 72 hr leave from COF and I just drink occasionally. I usually get happy and laugh when I drink. It is most unusual and I have no particular explanation for that evening. That is not my custom. When I came to, my wallet with 2000 Belg Francs and about 200 German marks was missing. I was in hospital with concussion for 3 weeks following the fight. When I received the concussion I am not sure. I never saw Frau Van Broeckhoven before. I did not know her and had no reason to like or dislike her. When she gave evidence at the Summary she cried on my shoulder and said she didn't want to see me get into trouble

I remember going into the cafe and buying one bottle of cognac and drinking it with the friend who was with me. After that ~~I remember~~ he bought a bottle and I remember having had a few drinks out of it. No similar incident to the one in question ever happened to me before.

I had volunteered for C.O.F. I don't know if my wallet was missing or not before I became involved in this affair. I had a blackout after a few drinks from the second bottle.

I did not want ~~the~~ Maria Van Broekhoven to have to come here this morning and give evidence again she is too highly emotional and would probably break down again and don't want to subject her to any further stress. R.P. 83(6) complied with.

E3 Plea in Mitigation 4 11.

Hetyei

You have heard Hetyei's own statement as to his character and actions on in connection with the offence.

I hoped to have offrs from his unit here to back it up, but he has changed units recently and all offrs of his old one, Queens Own Cams of Can, who know him well have gone back to Canada.

It is obvious that the assault was in no way voluntary, or intended in any way at all. This puts it in the category of an unfortunate accident rather than a deliberate crime. The woman who was hurt fully realizes this and she herself does not want him punished. As punishment is mainly substantially imposed to redress a wronged person, I ask that her own wishes be respected.

This is for practical purposes his very first offence. He fought with his unit from 7 Jul 44 to VE day without a break. Very few men did this and it is a most creditable performance.

He has been under arrest already for 46 days and was in hosp with concussion received on the 27 Jul for 3 weeks. He is an A/ Cpl. So he has already undergone considerable punishment for his fit of near insanity, besides the loss of money. He latter is not an Army punishment, but is a personal one to him and should be considered.

He was on leave at the time of the offense. This does not excuse getting drunk but it is a mitigating circumstance in that it is a very common occurrence among all ranks on leave.

For all these reasons I suggest the punishment he has already undergone is ample to fit this particular case

M 10737 L/C Elliott, H.N. having been duly sworn states:—

I am M10737 L/C Elliott H.N., 2 Can L of C Provost. At approx 2200 hrs 29 July 45 I, accompanied by 3306130 L/C Kirkum, R., of 247 Coy C.M. Police, was on duty on walking patrol on Rue de Croisades, Brussels.

We received a request for assistance from mme. Alice Lamaire. We went with her to a Cafe 76 Rue Du Marchee Outside the cafe I saw a soldier whom I can recognise & now know to be L 86711 Cpl. Hetyei J., ~~R.C.R.~~ 4 Bn. Regina Rifles.

A woman was lying on the pavement & Cpl. Hetyei was astride her & striking her with both fists. I grabbed him round the neck & pulled him from the woman. He took my thumb between his teeth & bit it to the bone.

L/Cpl Kirkum then held him while I telephoned Coy H. Q. for assistance. The "stand-to" soon arrived. I placed Cpl. Hetyei under close arrest & sent him with the "stand-to" to the Coy H.Q. guard room.

I then took the woman he had been striking Marcia VanBrocklova to the Can. M.I.R. where her injuries & my own were attended to

Cpl. Hetyei was in very bad condition. It was under the influence of liquor & ● it certainly had the best of him. He was just wild & fighting mad, — we could hardly hold him. I investigated the source of his liquor the Cafe Riedekerke — but found nothing suspicious.

Alice LAMAIRE (Madame R. Rossel) having been duly sworn states :—

I am Alice Lamaire, my married name is Rossel, & I live at 97 Rue de Lorient, Etterbeek Brussels. My sister Maria Van Brockhoven & I were visiting at the home of our parents & we decided to go to the last show at the cinema. About 21.00 hrs.

As we walked down the street we noticed that a soldier was following us. We did not know him & had never seen him before. His attitude was threatening so we ran away & into a cafe, 76 Rue du Marche. He followed us into the cafe, seized my sister by the hair & started to strike her. I tried to separate them but the soldier struck me, & I then went to find the military police. I found the one who is now outside, & we came back to the cafe.

My sister was lying on the floor of the cafe when I came back & the soldier was shouting & making a disturbance at the doorway. The police had trouble arresting him.—

My sister had fainted. There was blood on her face, she had a black eye, & some of her teeth were missing. The provost accompanied my sister & I to a Canadian doctor in the Rue St. Lazare & some other provost came & took the soldier away.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Maria Van Broeckhoven having been duly sworn states:-

I am Maria Van Broeckhoven, 77 Staeylanden Street Aarschot, - & my father's address is Rue du marche No. 23. I work at my father's house every day.

My half sister (23), Alice Lemaire, and I were visiting at the home of my father. I don't remember the day or the date. We decided to go to the cinema.

We passed a Canadian soldier on the street. He is the one who is here now. He was very drunk & shouting. We were afraid of him as he was just acting like a madman so we ran away & into a cafe. He was very drunk, it was the cognac, & I do not blame him for what he did.

He followed us into the cafe. He grabbed me by my hair & tried to pull me out in the street. I struggled but fell. He dragged me outside & struck me twice on the head while I was lying on the pavement. I then fainted & don't remember any more. I have no idea what time this occurred.

When I came to I was in the cafe. A Canadian provost, a Belgian policeman, my half sister, & some others were present. They took me to a Canadian doctor in the Rue St. Lazaire. Three of my teeth were broken so the doctor extracted them. He also gave me the necessary care to cure my other injuries. My own doctor extracted the other two teeth.

M Van Broeckhoven

The soldier was very drunk with the cognac + I do not hold him responsible for what happened. I do not wish that he should be punished heavily for what he did because he didn't know.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Statement of Sgt Hewitt.

I joined the army in Sept 1939 and came overseas in Aug 1940. I have served with the Royal Canadian Regt in the field for approximately 2 years as a full corporal. I was sent to the 3. C. I. R. D. in Jan and made an acting Sgt. in April 43.

On July 11th I started duty on our regt was about 6:30 and drove steadily until about 10:30 when I decided to go to bed to me a friend. I was under the influence of alcohol at the time. The reason I drank as much as that I have been very depressed staying at this holding unit. I have tried to get my unit but am unable to do so now that they have gone into action. It has played on my mind and I am very upset at not being with them. I was not in a normal frame of mind.

When I arrived at Ark, I decided it was too late to see my friend, so I asked a porter about the train to Aldershot could be caught. He directed me across the track. I started across the track leading and some shouted at me. I stopped at the next they I knew had forcefully pulled me off the platform. I felt the actions were unwarranted and that they were not Treating me with the respect due a N.C.O.

I do not recall very my abusive language.

I bought a ticket & returned to Aldershot. When I reached the station I was surrounded by eight provost. The rest of me had felt it was not necessary for the 8 to be right of them.

I refused to hand over my book but requested to be taken to the provost Sgt. at No 3. C. I. R. D. The provost forcefully grapped me and gave it No 3 C I R D they forcefully restrained me from seeing the provost Sgt.

In spite of my language and abuse, took full possession and told me to go to bed.

The whole ceremony would not have taken place, had I not been depressed about not being with my unit and the fact drank so much. Also I do feel that the present and unnecessary face with me at was somewhat hasty.

Re Sgt. Howe.

Mr. President and members of the Court

Firstly, I would like to call the court's attention to the evidence of major Clark and C.S.M. Brennan both very well qualified to judge the ability of a soldier. According to this evidence the accused possesses exceptional ability as a N.C.O. I submit it would be a shame for the accused to lose his rank and be reduced to the position of a private simply as a N.C.O. in this unit, especially at the present time.

Secondly, I would like you to take into consideration what I consider to be the two chief mitigating factors in this case. The accused was definitely under the influence of liquor he was not his normal self. Had he not been drinking, I am sure, the circumstances which led up to the injury of this boy would never have occurred. Furthermore, the accused tells me and I believe him that he is sincerely depressed with boy's attempt at holding unit. He wishes to be with his unit and be used to rejoin them. Especially so, now that he sees it taking an active part in the pursuit of Germans and has found, as soldiers he has trained with us now in battle. I would refer you to the evidence of F/Lt Sutton and F/Lt Smith where they stated the accused said "I want to stay in the unit and die like my mates." This) shows great an ample evidence of his state of mind

The accused under the influence of liquor, felt that he was not being treated by the parent unit with consideration due a N.C.O. and thus) submit led to his refusal duty.

A.H.

to bid over his pay book who ordered to do so.

The accused M.T.M.C is not clear but I submit all the charges & it are very much in order. There is no suggestion of a previous charge of drunkenness or of disorderly conduct.

The accused is only 22 years of age; I have talked to him at I know he has learned his lesson. I ask the court to take a long view of the circumstances, not to depart the leniency of a N.C.O. of the ranks, but to be lenient considering the mitigating factors and to pass such on the charge. by award I would suggest as a proper punishment a severe reprimand.
