The accused, Lieut. Frank HAUFEK, formerly Officer Commanding No.12 Canadian Field Security Section, but now on strength of Intelligence Company, No.1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, is charged with:

FIRST CHARGE
Sec. 16 A.A.

WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, BEHAVING IN A SCANDALOUS MANNER UNBECOMING THE CHARACTER OF AN OFFICER AND A GENTLEMAN

in that he

At Heathend, Farnham, Surrey, between 5 Feb 44 and 23 Mar 44 did by consorting with and writing letters of affection to one, Anne Belanger, wife of C.990, L/Cpl. Maurice Herve Belanger, 12 Canadian Field Security Section, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, he, during part of the period aforesaid, having been Officer Commanding of the said soldier and at all times during the said period having been the superior officer of the said soldier, thereby causing discord between said Anne Belanger and said soldier, her husband.

SECOND CHARGE
Sec. 40 A.A.
(ALTERNATIVE)

WHEN ON ACTIVE SERVICE, CONDUCT TO THE PREJUDICE OF GOOD ORDER AND MILITARY DISCIPLINE

in that he

At Heathend, Farnham, Surrey, between 5 Feb 44 and 23 Mar 44, improperly conducted himself by consorting with and writing letters of affection to one, Anne Belanger, wife of C.990, L/Cpl. Maurice Herve Belanger, 12 Canadian Field Security Section, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, he, during part of the period aforesaid having been Officer Commanding of the said soldier, and at all times during said period having been the superior officer of the said soldier, thereby causing discord between said Anne Belanger and said soldier, her husband.

The question provided for in R.P 29 (A) having asked the accused Defending Officer applies for one weeks adjournment

An explanation for this application is requested of Defending Offr.

Defending Offr:

" I was in Aldershot last Monday on duty and I met Lt Haufek and he asked me to defend him at this trial. I said that I certainly would. He told me he had made application for Summary Trial and that if this was granted he would not need me to defend him. He said he would let me know. I returned to Witley Camp where I have been for a week waiting to hear from him. I believe he made an attempt to reach me but he had nothing to tell me anyway. I did not hear anything further until the night before last at 11 pm when I was duty officer. I was given a copy of the Convening Order. I could not phone Lt Haufek at that time. The following day, yesterday, Lt Haufek spent marching from Aldershot to Witley with the other officers of CGRU. He did not know when the Court Martial was convened and that he was not to receive Summary Trial. He did not know the date of his trial until yesterday afternoon. I did not get a chance to study the charge sheet and Summary nor to study the appropriate sections of the Army Act. Nor did I get a chance to speak to Lt Haufek until yesterday afternoon - and I certainly have not been able to interview possible witnesses for the defence. In fact I am, at the moment, entirely unprepared to defend this case. "

Judge Advocate:

" You did not receive the charge sheet and summary until Wednesday?"

Ans: "I received them yesterday evening."

Judge Advocate;to the accused:

" Once you have been handed the Charge Sheet and Summary of Evidence in your case you are entitled to a Defending Officer. Now, according to my information you received these documents on 8 April. It is now the 21st. Why did twelve days passbetween the time you got the charge sheet and the day you got a defending officer?

The Accused:

" It was on Saturday 8 April that I was called before Col Frost. At that time I also made an application for Summary Trial. I was waiting to hear whether I would have the privilege of being tried summarily. At the time I wanted to contact Mr. Wilding White - I could not reach him. Last Monday I did contact Mr Wilding White as he dropped in from Witley. I asked him to defend me. I went to the Adjutant 1 CGRU (Capt McNaughton) and gave in his name. On Tuesday I asked the Adjutant to contact the Intelligence Coy which was already at Witley and get permission for Mr. Wilding White to come over to Aldershot. I have never heard any more about it. After the route march to Witley I contacted Mr White at once and found out that he had been notified the night before.

Judge Advocate:

" When you met Mr White last week in Aldershot why did you not give him the Charge Sheet and Summary then?"

Defending Offr:

" I was other there on duty and I had a very short time to speak to Lt Haufek as I was waiting for the truck to bring me back. I was attached to 2nd Div until recently and Lt Haufek could not contact me as we were on exercises etc. " Judge Advocate: "As far as the records show Mr Haufek has been in a position to arrange for his defence since the 8 April. That is 13 days ago. Now, what is the least possible time that you require to prepare the defence?

Defending Offr:

" One week, sir."

Judge Advocate: "You understand Mr Haufek that you will be under close arrest for that time?"

Accused: "Yes, sir."

Prosecutor: " The witnesses are warned for some draft for the Field."

Judge Advocate: "A General Court Martial is the second duty in the Army in priority after duty for immediate action, so the witnesses will be here."

Defending Offr: "I would draw the attention of the Court to RP 39 and the note on p 644."

THE COURT CLOSES FOR CONSIDERATION OF APPLICATION FOR ADJOURNMENT.

THE COURT REOPENS:

JA: "The court have considered the matter and have agreed that further time should be given but it is considered that an adjournment to Wednesday morning the 26th April 1944 at 1000 hrs should be sufficient."

Defending Offr: " I would like to say that the extra two days until the Friday would be most useful to me."

Judge Advocate: The court is adjourned until 1000 hrs on 26 Apr 44, and if, at that time, you can satisfy the Court that a further two days are necessary, they will be granted."

THE COURT ADJOURNED at1100 hrs 21 Apr 44.

THE SAME COURT RE ASSEMBLED AT 1000 hrs on 26 Apr 44.

The Defending Offr inquires of the Court whether he may make an objection to the charge. The JA states that as the accused saw fit to plead on the 21st April, the time for such objection is passed. The Rules have been complied with.

Defending Offr: "Can the Court consider an objection, now?
JUDGE ADVOCATE: "The court can ~~violate~~ abrogate the Rules of Proceedure if it sees fit." J.M.G.

President: "Make your objection, and the Court can consider it."

Defending Offr: " Sir, this charge reads that the accused "did by consorting with and writing letters of affection to one, Anne Bellanger, wife of C990 L/Cpl Maurice Herve Belanger, particulars of the charge. If the facts are, or cannot be, scandalous as the evidence discloses, then they should have been shown in the particulars. The facts which make this a worse kind of consorting are so important, they should have been stated in the particulars, and if it is being left until the evidence has been heard, then this is nothing but a fishing expedition to find out more.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" You cannot certainly say that any officer of the Canadian Army who, by his conduct, causes a man under his command, and this man's wife to quarrell does not commit an offence."

DEFENCE:

It is not scandalous.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" That is not for you to say.

DEFENCE:

If you compare Section 16 with the neibouring sections, I submit that the crime here is less than the crime alleged in the neighbouring sections. It follows that this cannot be scandalous conduct.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" Will you note the part that says "unbecoming the character of an officer and gentleman." The character of the officer and gentleman connected with the crime is what constitutes the offence. "

PRESIDENT:

" Will you make your objection and then let us rule on it."

DEFENCE:

My objection is that the offence charged does not amount to an offence under Section 16 or under the Army Act and that if it depends on the evidence bringing out the more or less seriousness of the offence alleged, those facts should have been stated in the particulars, but they are not

PRESIDENT:

" Is your point not covered by Para 2 of fn 1 to this Section: ' The addition of an alternative charge under s 40 will meet a case where the evidence, as ultimately given before the court, may justify a more lenient view of the case.' ?"

DEFENCE:

"No, sir, I am attacking the first charge, I was not referring to the second charge.

PRESIDENT:

" But that is why Sec 40 in the second charge has been put in."

DEFENCE:

It is a legal argument, I am submitting.

Defending Offr: "I would draw the attention of the Court to RP 39 and the note on p 644."

THE COURT CLOSES FOR CONSIDERATION OF APPLICATION FOR ADJOURNMENT.

THE COURT REOPENS:

JA: "The court have considered the matter and have agreed that further time should be given but it is considered that an adjournment to Wednesday morning the 26th April 1944 at 1000 hrs should be sufficient."

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "The court can ~~violate~~ abrogate the Rules of Procedure if it sees fit."

President: "Make your objection, and the Court can consider it."

Defending Offr: " Sir, this charge reads that the accused "did by consorting with and writing letters of affection to one, Anne Bellanger, wife of C990 L/Cpl Maurice Herve Belanger, 12 Field Security Section, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, he during part of the period aforesaid, having been Officer Commanding of the said soldier and at all times during the said period having been the superior officer of the said soldier, thereby causing discord between said Anne Belanger and said soldier, her husband." Now that is the first charge, under Sec 16, and it is described as scandelous conduct, and there is one punishment only and that is to be cashiered. The question then is whether these particulars do amount to scandalous conduct, whether this is such an offence. Is it so serious that the Court can feel that it will have no hesitation in cashiering this man. Section 17 says that "Every Person subject to military law who committs any of the following offences; that is to say: Being charged with or concerned in the care of distribution of any public, regimental money or garrison property, steals, fraudulently misapplies, or embezzles the same etc shall, on conviction by court martial be liable to suffer penal servitude, or such less punishment as is in this Act mentioned." The Penalty under this section is not as heavy as that under Sec 16 and yet the acts described in Sec 17 surely appear more serious than those charged against Lt Haufek today.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" Even if you are entitled to make an objection, you must make it in accordance with the rules. You must endeavour to prove that the charge in question does not disclose an offence, under the Army Act."

DEFENCE:

I am working up to that, Sir. This offence is punishable with cashiering only, and in other sections there are offences a great deal more serious than that alleged in the particulars and yet in those cases the Court is allowed to make up its mind to use a much lesser punishment. Is it not reasonable to assume that Section 16 of the Army Act was intended for much more serious offences than those?

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" If an officer had given a bad cheque for £1, would you consider that a serious offence?"

DEFENCE:

I don't know, sir.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" There are facts alleged that are alleged to be scandalous conduct. That is a question of fact. The Court may decide that what has been done is not scandalous conduct, after it has heard the evidence."

DEFENCE:

You mean that conduct that is described in the charge sheet as scandalous conduct?

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" That is what is alleged to be the offence."

DEFENCE:

If, sir, you claim that this consorting, whatever that may be, may be shown to be better or worse than that which is shown in the particulars of the charge. If the facts are, or cannot be, scandalous as the evidence discloses, then they should have been shown in the particulars. The facts which make this a worse kind of consorting are so important, they should have been stated in the particulars, and if it is being left until the evidence has been heard, then this is nothing but a fishing expedition to find out more.

DEFENCE:

"No, sir, I am attacking the first charge, I was not referring to the second charge.

PRESIDENT:

" But that is why Sec 40 in the second charge has been put in."

DEFENCE:

It is a legal argument, I am submitting.

JUDGE ADVOCATE : I must advise the Court first that the objection made can be said to come within the rules. The objection could be on the grounds that the charge does not disclose an offence. But the gist of this offence is causing discord between a man and his wife, the man being under the command of the accused. This is my legal opinion: the objection is not well founded . If the Court decide to grant it, they must give their reasons for so doing.

THE COURT CLOSES FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE OBJECTION

THE COURT REOPENS.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "I have been instructed to advise you that the Court has disallowed your objection and that the Court will now proceed with the case."

DEFENCE: May I make a motion to object to that decision?

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "You have already made your motion and every word you have said has been taken down, and the Court has made its decision."

OPENING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTION:

Gentlemen: I shall endeavour to prove through witnesses and by the production of exhibits that the accused's conduct towards the wife of L/Cpl Bellanger was scandalous. That this conduct was prejudicial to good order and military discipline and of a nature that reflects such discredit upon the Canadian Army that the accused is unfit to remain in it.

I intend to produce a sworn statement by the accused in which he admits this association with the wife of L/Cpl Belanger and corroborates the evidence the witnesses will give. Further the accused therein admits being the author of certain letters to Anne Belanger wife of L/Cpl Belanger.

These letters will be produced as evidence. They are pertinent to this case because in them the accused avows his love for Anne Belanger wife of the aforesaid L/Cpl Belanger. Therein refers to clandestine meetings and promises. Therein also solicits money from said L/Cpl 's wife. They also refer to a telegram sent by the accused to Mrs. Belanger.

A copy of this telegram will be produced as evidence, as it calls Mrs. Belanger away from her child and her husband who was on leave. This at the instigation of the accused.

Witnesses will give evidence that the conduct of the accused caused discord between L/Cpl Belanger and his wife. That this conduct was unilitarylike and ungentlemanly because the accused visited Mrs. Belanger at her hom, well knowing her husband was not there by virtue of the accused being the Commanding Officer of the said husband.

*Instruction (See R. P. 39 (A)) Question

Proceedings on Plea of Not Guilty.

*Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity for preparing your defence?

Answer: Yes, sir. (see attached sheets.)

The prosecutor makes an opening address [redacted]

The prosecutor proceeds to call witnesses.

First witness for prosecution.

Lieut SHG Margetts, Cdn Provost Corps Coy, 1CGRU. being duly sworn states:

[redacted]

I am Lieut SHG Margetts, Cdn Provost Corps Coy, 1CGRU and I took a Summary of Evidence in the case of Lt Haufek on the 4th and 5th April.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q.1 Was he cautioned?
A.1 He was cautioned as follows: " Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

Q.2. What was his reply?
A.2. He desired to give evidence on oath. And the statement on page 5 of the Summary is that taken down from him at the time and the initialling of changes is by him and the changes are by him also, in his own handwriting.

THE DEFENCE DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE.

JUDGE ADVOCATE reads aloud in whole to the Court the evidence of the accused given under oath at the Summary of Evidence.

(In the opinion of the Court and of the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B) in connection with this witness.)

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION) C990 L/Cpl Maurice Herve BELANGER, formerly 12 Fd Sec Section, now on strength of Intsl Coy, CGRU, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecution:

Q.3. How long have you been a member of 12 Fd Security Section?
A.3. I was a member of 12 Fd Security Section from 12 Dec 41 to 23 April 1944.
Q.4. Now will you tell the story of the relations you have had with the accused with regard to this case?
A.4. I have known Lt Haufek since he came to the section on 8 Jan 44.
Q.5. What was he doing there?
A.5. He was taking command of the section, he was my CO.
Q.6. Is he still your CO?
A.6. No, not now, but I recognise him.
Q.7. Will you tell the court when you remember the accused ceased to be your CO.
A.7. He ceased to be my CO around 13 Mar 44.
Q.8. Will you tell the Court the events in which the accused met your wife?
A.8. On 5 Feb 44 there was a social at the Masonic Club at Farnborough and that night the accused who was my CO had been invited and myself and my wife were going along. We decided we would all meet at the queen's Hotel. The accused met my wife there for the first time to my knowledge. SM Browne was there at the same time. We went on to the social. After the social Mr Haufek brought the girl that he had with him home and from there we went to my own home and my wife made coffee and sandwiches. My small son woke up and I went upstairs and put on his dressing gown and brought him downstairs and introduced him to the accused and he played with him until the coffee and sandwiches were ready.
Q.9. What was your work in the section at the time?
A.9. I was previously a batman-driver there. At the time the accused gave me my promotion I was still a driver because we had no driver to release me.
Q.10. How many men are there in a Fd Security Section?
A.10. There are thirteen. That was the establishment in force at the time.
Q.11. With relation to your home and your wife will you tell the Court about the events of the next time you found the accused at your home?
A.11. Shortly after the social party, that was on a Saturday night, on a Sunday night after bringing Lt Haufek back he said he would like to go out for a drink and have a social evening. I agreed that that would be a good idea. I came home to find Lt Haufek there, and he said he had come back to see how things were. And on the 9th....
Q.12. Just one moment, there might be some doubt in the minds of the Court to which dates you are referring?
A.12. The date I have just mentioned was on 9 March.

PRESIDENT:
"There was a social evening and then on the Sunday night you met again."
A.12. Yes, the accused my wife and myself.
PRESIDENT:
"The third time he came home."
A.12. Yes, sir.
Q.13. On these three occasions, will you tell the court what you found?
A.13. When I went in the house the accused was sitting on one chair and my wife on another. He asked me how I was and how things between me and my wife were going.

Q.14. Will you tell the court if there was anybody else in the room?

A.14. At that time there was nobody else in the room and the door was closed. On 9 Feb I was sent up to 1CBJC at Chobham to do some security work there until the draft had moved out. On my return I was detailed to go to Farnborough North station to see troops move out. I was instructed that there was one train leaving at 1900 hrs and another at 2200 hrs. I went on the job about 1800 hrs and at 1830 the accused came on the job in civilian clothes and asked me whether things were alright. I said that so far things were alright as the troops had not arrived. He told me about the trains leaving at 1900 hrs and 2200 hrs. He told me to go round keeping my eyes open and make a good job of it. After he left. After the first draft had left I was informed that the second draft had been cancelled. I returned to the office to make my report and from there went home. As I arrived home the accused was in the house.

Q.15. Will you tell the Court what you found and the time that that occured?

A.15. I went home, it was about 2130 hrs. The accused was there with my wife and also a landarmy girl.

Q.16. Now tell us about the family quarrel when the accused came there?

A.16. On the 24 February I was engaged in a family quarrel with my wife and the accused was called. He came in and told me he had been called in and asked me what it was about. After some discussion he told me that I should go back to the office and sleep there for the night. To that I agreed, so I got prepared and went back to the office. The accused and I left, he in the station wagon and I on my motorcycle. I was suspicious of something wrong so I returned back home, and on my return I found that my wife was gone so I sat down and waited with my motorbike parked in front. I was in the dark. About 20 minutes later I saw the car coming down and slow up when they saw my motorbike. I recognised the car because it had a squeak in the breaks. It went away. I went out and hid my bike. About half an hour later I heard the car come back and I recognised the same squeak, and I know that that was our car because I used to drive it. This time the accused came out of the car and knocked on the door. I did not give any answer. After knocking, the accused went round and knocked on the window. Again no reply. He came back to the front and shouted someting to the effect that the cost was clear. Then I saw my wife come out of the car and they came round the back way as it was unlocked. I was still in the house in the dark. My wife came in first and put on the light. They were surprised to see me in the house. The accused told me that he knew that I was going to come back. He said he had come back to take my wife out to have a drink to calm her down. We agreed again that I was going to sleep at the office and this time I made sure that the car was following me.

Q.17. Will you tell the Court what the accused told you when he suggested that you go back to the office?

A.17. The accused told me that it was better for me to go back there and that he saw no sense in my being there. I knew very well he was bluffing and by the surprise on his face.

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "That is not evidence."

Q.18. Will you tell the Court whether he game you the advice as a CO or as a personal friend?

A.18. The accused told me to go back to the office or if I did not he would tell the police but he told me that as my CO he could not be involved in such a thing - he would leave it in someone elses hands.

Q.19. Will you tell the Court about the next day?

A.19. When I saw him the next day he said I should let my wife go for a weekend and also told me I should mind the baby and let her go on her own. I agreed and said I should take care of the baby from Saturday noon until Sunday night.

Q.20. What happened then?

A.20. My wife left for her weekend on Saturday afternoon and I returned to the office.

Q.21. What did you find there?

A.21. I noticed that the accused was also on a weekend, because he had said he was going on weekend because he had had a tiring week. He had left a phone number to call in case of anything very urgent.

Q.22. What other incident was there?

A.22. First of all on 3 March 44 I came home and found the accused home and I can remember well because it was the next day the 4th of March my wedding anniversary.

Q.23. You say you found him at home?

A.23. Yes, he was with my wife. He was sitting on one chair and she on the other as usual. He said he had been coming to see how things were. He suggested that we go from the house for some drinks. I did not feel in the mood after finding him there to go for a drink. So I said no. I could do nothing about it he being my CO because he could have made it miserable for me at the other end. The next day the accused called me and advised me that my wife was going to her father's place for a holiday and he also told me that I could have the car to take her to the station at North Camp. I was detailed on 6 March to take the accused to Reading. My wife knew I was going to Reading the same day and she said I could ask if we could not all go together. That afternoon the accused said that my wife had phoned him and asked the same question. He gave me a release slip for having a civilian in the car. I produce the release slip that the accused signed in front of me (Release slip handed to Court and Marked "Ex A") That is in the handwriting of the accused except for the signature of my wife at the back. He told me that I was to come to the office in the morning of the 6 March To pick him up in the car. Instead of that the accused drove the car himself down home to get me and my wife. From there we went to Reading and went to the station. The accused left me at the station with my wife until the train left.

Q.24. Will you tell the Court what the accused knew about your leave?

A.24. He knew that I was going on leave on 16 March 44 because we had discussed the matter and it is easy to see who is going on leave when by looking at the duty roster.

Q.25. Will you tell the Court if the accused knew where you were going to spend your leave?

A.25. He knew because I had discussed the matter with him. I was going to stay with my wife at her father's, in Gloucestershire.

Q.26. Now when you were on leave on the 21st March, will you te ll the Court what happened on that day?

A.26. On 21 March I went to Gloucestershire and when I got to the house her two sisters told me.....

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "As a result of what they told you what did you do?"

My Darling:

Only a very few hours ago I wrote you a few lines, not knowing I may have a chance later on to write you more.

I shant write to you after this while "M"s leave lasts (16.--25. Mar) since he is going to spend it with you.

But please do not let anyone stop you from writing to me.

You see, I miss you so much. I should like to have you keep your promise and write daily. Unless you have changed your mind.

I have left the place, as you know and wait here now (at the pool) to go on course.--

It may turn out by missing last weekend, we missed our last chance. You see one never knows, whats going to be next.

Did you got my telegram? If so, why didn't you phone?

Let me know, when it is safe to write to you again. And should you come back soon don't miss to contact me-(phone Aldershot 741)

Hope to hear from you soon and often.

I am yours

"Frank"

P.S. there is no redhead or other woman.

P.S. Yes I meant everything I said

Darling:

Just a line for I have a board of officers waiting to take over.--

Received your two letters.--

Was very tempted to come and see Saturday last, but couldn't afford it, otherwise you would have had the surprise of seeing me.--

"M" is coming 16 Mar on his leave to see you.--

tel: at present Aldershot 741

Get in touch with me as soon as you come back.-

Will be going on course shortly.--

Dont forget me.

My Darling:

Your letters make me so awfully happy and longing for you, I shall not know before long, what to do with myself if I don't see you soon. Yes, I miss you. The Lord only knows how much. If you miss me only half as much, it will be heaven on earth - some day (and I hope with you not too far off) - when we'll be together for all time.

We could have 14 days together, if I am able to borrow a few pounds before 5 Apr 44. You see on that date I will be eligible for 14 days leave. I let you in on the little secret, that I already have made arrangements to get some money, but the question is will I get it before the 5th.

Will you stay with your dad that long? If I shouldn't get the money in time could you manage to help me out until the money comes?

There is always the chance, that I have to go on course before that. But I would take a chance on it.

Do you still want me to spend my leave with you at your dads? "GMG"
Or have you different plans.

Will you be coming back here, when his leave is over?

Dont forget as soon as you come back phone Aldershot 741, which is our Mess phone and I can be got there between 12-1230 and 5.30 - 6 P.M. every day.

When you write send it to INT Coy - 1 C G R U - Cdn Army - England.

Oh, my darling. - words fail me to keep on writing now. I shall wait and get a bit more quiet and then write some more. - As it is now just trying to write to you gets me so excited, I feel I could just run off and keep on running until I catch up with you.

There is one thing I want you to know, honey:--I trust you darling and I do believe you love me; so you cannot possibly be interested in other men. - And for your information there is only one woman for me--YOU.--Yes, I do love you, dearer than life itself. - You know, don't you?--

So long for now dearest.

I am yours

"Frank" xxxxx

P.S. Hug Johnnie for me and give my regards to your dad and sister.

Honey:

Its later in the afternoon of the same day.--Just looked for mail, but there is none for me.--What happened to the promised daily letter.- Of course there is a delay to be likely caused, that I've left and come to the Coy.- All the same there was no letter yesterday also.-- Are you sorry you promised to write daily?

Now my thoughts turn to "M".--He has likely left on his leave already and is possibly with you right this minute.

I do know I have to put up with it, but this knowledge doesn't make me feel any happier.--

Oh, I do wish I could be with you.--I do hope we can arrange to spend my leave together or if I couldnt get my leave, at least a weekend.--

Oh,honey I miss you so.--

Love to you and Johnnie.--

My Darling:

Just received your letters 14 and 15 Mar. I am awfully happy. I do hope you can come next week. I have made arrangements to be off from Friday next week (my birthday 24 Mar) until Monday morning. So make sure you can come and be with me for the weekend.--

When and if I get my leave 5. Apr. could we spend 14 days at your home?

Did you tell your dad?

I wished you did for I do not want to come as a stranger.

So you really mean to be my very own.-- "OMG"

I am so happy over it, be sure

I am yours only.--For ever and a day.--

I miss you so. Thats why you have to be sure to come soon.--

I LOVE YOU

Yours always

"Frank" XXX

P S "M" claims you knew before you left, that he'd spend his leave with you.--
Of course he probably wanted me to believe he got you back for himself.--
I do believe you

Best regards to dad and sister of yours and hug Johnnie.
If we go back for our leave you might as well leave him there.

18 Mar 44

Whilst on orderly officers duty, a dance at the mess going on and YOU away from me.

ALONE

1.You are a lovely flower,
So dewfresh and so bright--
You are at every hour
My hearts foremost delight.

2.Just now you are a doubting,--
Hungry for life and love
Some day I swear your happiness
Will outshine life above...

Yes, I will.

This will give you a very slight idea, what I am going through, being so far away from you. How I am missing you and how I hope you will be with me next week end. I shall write to friends in Tunbridge Wells, so might be able to stay there from Friday night till Monday morning. If you dont mind getting up early to take the first train back. - And if they have no room this time we can probably go up to your home. That is if you have told your dad about us and you succeeded to make him think well of me...

"GMG"

You see, I do want your dad to think well of me. Even I know my faults and shortcomings, of which I have many. - I sometimes wonder how you will put up with me in years to come. Is your love really of the kind, that will permit you to at all times see in me your loved one only--with all his faults etc.?-- I do hope it will be so. For you are my last love. May be more even. - May be my only love.....for though I have loved, had yet to find one, who would the way that you by all appearances do.--Now, please, don't misunderstand me, it is not doubt I wish to give expression, it is may be just the wonder or miracle, if you like, that I should have to come so far and live that longe, before I met the woman. I was always wanting and wishing for, the girl I dreamed about from the first time I realized there were two sexes in this world. I don't know whether I am able to make myself clear, nor--whether you'll be able to understand. - The only thing I do know is this: I want you for always, I want you more than life itself - And I want to hold you and for heavens sake dont ever quit loving me. - as you know I am yours

"Frank" XXX

My only Darling:

This is Sunday. - No letter from you again. Why? I suppose "X" is with you and probably the scale has turned against me.-- So what can I do about it? Nothing--but keep on loving you.--

Only one:

Often I think of you--
You and your loveliness,
Often I dream of you --
Of heaven and happiness.

What more can I say Darling?
Except

I shall always love you.--

My Darling Anne:

Did you get my telegram? I wonder.- For it already is 9 P.M. and I have no word from you.--Do you realize how little time we have left?- I am sure you don't.- Even the weekend I dreamed of is cancelled. - So you see we must hurry, if we want to snatch a very few happy hours --I wonder, did you get my last letter?-Oh, my Darling, why don't you hurry and come.- I am sitting on my bed, partly packing and partly burning papers, which I can't take along; and all along I can't do a thing, for my thoughts are with you and I am trying to wish you here. If I have to go without seeing you, I shall go crazy. I think life surely owes me a bit of happiness, be it only for a short little while. If I don't hear from you by tomorrow night then I shall take all this to "Gramma"(?) so you'll find it when you come back. I would have gone there already, but I was afraid of missing your call, if I left barracks.--

"GMG"

Just had a bit of tea.--Now I am back again to keep on chatting with you a little while longer.--

This is going to be an awful lonely night.--Not even a few written words from you and I did expect you to come. Of course I am silly.-- Thousand different things may have prevented you to come.-
Well tomorrow - maybe I shall be with you.--

But the pity of it is, that there are so very few tomorrows left and I should so wish to see you and talk to you before I leave. There is so much to be talked about.--

I wonder, what your dad thinks of me? Did you tell him all about us?-He should really know, don't you think?

Well it's now 20 to 10 P.M. and I shall go to bed.-All alone by myself- wishing for you - wanting you so much.--I shall fall asleep with you in my heart and may be a good and kind dream god will let be be with you in my dreams.-

Good night my Darling.-there goes hope I'll be with you tomorrow.--

I love you and I am yours forever and a day

Yours
"Frank" XXX

There's not much more I can say without getting too soft.--

I shall take this letter to "Granvera"(?) today, in case you couldnt come in time to see me off. But I shall be a very sad man, if I have to go without seeing you.--

I wished I knew, what you are doing, how you are, did you have any trouble, in case "M" came up there for his leave, was he there, when my last letter came and my telegram? I am really worried. I wished I could drop everything and go up there to see you.-- But I can't. The Army is holding me fast.-- But I belong to you all the same.--You know that.--I had such hopes to celebrate my birthday with you.--Likely as not I'll be all alone.--please keep on writing.-Try to keep your promise of a daily letter.-I'll do the same if its at all possible.--I promise.

Should you read this letter first, before you see me, you can just come up here to barracks (try phone ald 741 first)

This is exhibit "K" referred to in the summary of evidence by Lt. Hafler taken in the case of Pvt. Apr 44 before me this "S.H.C.Barracks"

I am in Corunna barracks.--ask any bloke to get a hold of me. Send him to the Orderly Room Intelligence Coy. and they will tell him, where to find me.-- I have left orders at the Mess to notify me at once in case you phone.-- So you see I have done all I can to not miss a chance of meeting you, should you call.--

Now I must go on with my work. Again: Keep on loving me, stay with your father, if you will get your divorce (Sergeant Major Brown #12 section will help you along with this, I spoke to him - cruelty etc) and stay all mine.--for I need you, because you mean everything to me.--

Should I have to go without seeing you, write at once a detailed letter, answering all this.--

Now, be good and love me, Darling.--

You know that I am All yours

"Frank" XXX "DWG"

God bless you and
Hug Johnnie for me.

P S Be sure to be at your dads, when I get leave or notify me of your plans millions of Kisses from your lover and hubby

21 Mar 44

My only Darling Anne:

And this is the first day of spring. Will I hear from you today? Will you come in time to kiss me good-bye?

I know, if you only knew what its all about, I am sure you would hurry down here to see me once more. Unfortunately I could not mention anything in my telegram.

Now read close:

When I get settled down, wherever I am going I shall endeavor to get my leave. I have 14 days coming next month and I do hope to stay long enough in this country to enjoy my leave with you and Johnnie. For that purpose it would be advisable you stay with your dad, for I think this would be the logical place to spend our leave.-

"GMG"

If I can't get my leave (or anyway) I shall try and find a little place near me, so we can spend the remainder of my stay

England together. This, I take it, is agreeable with you.--You love me, remember.- And after I am gone I should be happy to know, that you stay on with your dad and save a bit of money so there won't be any delay, when I call for you,--so you can come at once and join me--over there. O.K.? Of course it is, for you and I are going places together.--

You keep on writing to me daily under: Lt. F. Haufek, Int. Coy. # 1 C.G.H.Q. - Cdn. Army Overseas - England - and it will always reach me - no matter where I might go.--

I promise: There will be no other woman. Because I am yours and I will stay yours.--and you will stay mine, all mine.-- I will work hard to get promotion, to be able and provide for you and Johnnie.-- I just love you, as I've never thought it was possible to love anyone.--Now, one word of advice: Don't fool the love of a man, who has seen life and knows just what value to attach to a true loving woman.--

"S.H.C.Margetts"

Q.27.What did you find when you got there?
A.27.I found that my wife was gone to go back to Aldershot. I found my wife at Aldershot that night, when I got home at about 0030 hrs. I asked her what it was all about and she told me she had received a telegram....

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "What this witness heard in the absence of the accused is not evidence"

Q.28.Will you produce the telegram that your wife showed you?
A.28.This is the telegram that my wife showed me (Telegram handed to Court and marked Exhibit "B".)

DEFENDING OFFR:"I don't think that telegram should be given in evidence. I don't think that somebody who says he was given it should hand it in."

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q.29.Did your wife give you this telegram?
A.29.Yes, sir.

PROSECUTION:

"I would suggest that the statement of the accused, corroborates the statement of this witness."

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "This is just something that his wife gave to this soldier, it may or may not apply to the accused.

Q.30.Will you go on with your story?
A.30.On the 24th we went to Glouscestershire as the baby had been left there. When we were up there I noticed that she had changed coats and I saw some letters in the pocket of her coat in the hall so I kept them and read bits of them and the letter of 21 March refers to the telegram I have handed in. These are the letters I found in her coat pocket that morning (Letters consisting of ten sheets are handed in to the Court and marked "Ex "C") After reading through the letters - especially the one of 21 March referring to the telegram - I was sure the letters and telegram were from him, the accused. After that I went to see my CO and told him what I had found and told him he was abusing.

DEFENDING OFFR: "I would like to put in an objection that these letters are not relevant."

Q.31.With regard to these letters, will you tell the Court who they were from?
A.31.Lt Haufek.
Q.32.Do you know his handwriting?
A.32.Yes, and I recognised them to be from him because he referred to "Johnny" in them. And he always called my son Johnny although his name was really John. And he said "M is on leave on the 16th" and he knew my name was Maurice, because he had called me that.
Q.33.Were there any other reasons that you knew the letters had been written by the accused to your wife?
A.33.I already mentioned that he referred to "M" because he knew that my name was Maurice and that I was going on leave.
Q.34.Were there any other reasons?
A.34.I think I said them all.
Q.35.Willyou tell the Court who the letters were addressed to?
A.35.I did not see the envelopes but the letters were addressed

GMG.

"Anne" and my wife's name is "Anne".
Q.36.What did you do with these letters?
A.36.I went with them to my CO first and asked him what it was all about. He said what was what all about. I showed him the letters but not too close. I warned him that if he put his feet inside my house again he might be shot.
Q.37.Will you tell the Court why you warned him?
A.37.I warned him because I married my wife because I loved her and I did not want any more trouble coming from him . Then I went to my new CO Capt James and asked what could be done.
Q.38.Will you tell the Court why you did not complain about the accused's conduct before that?
A.38.Because if I had done anything he could have made it very bad for me at the other end.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE DEFENCE:

Q.39.You said the OC left the Security Sec on 13 March?
A.39.About 13 March.
Q.40.And that he came to the Section, when?
A.40.About 8 January 1944.
Q.41.What was the first date on the letters?
A.41.The first one was dated 13 March, but there are two with no date on them.
Q.42.But the earliest date is 13 March?
A.42.I think so.
Q.43.That is rather an important date, don't you think so?
A.43.I don't see why.
Q.44.Well for the OC to be around?
A.44.He was around after that.
Q.45.Well could you tell me what arrangements were made about money you received and your wife received from the Canadian Army?
A.45.My wife received an allowance for herself and one child. I had my pay but I had to give one pound a month until January last because you have to have £200 to get married and I have had to make it up. I used to get some money gambling sometimes and by being a batman driver.
Q.46.You got your expenses refunded?
A.46.I could not have any expenses as a batman driver.
Q.47.Yes, but when you were promoted?
A.47.I would have if I had had any.
Q.48.You say you gambled?
A.48.Yes, I used to get enough to buy my cigarettes and things and give my wife an occational 15/- or 10/-.
Q.49.Your wife would receive about $35 a month as dependents allowance?
A.49.Idon't know exactly what it is.
Q.50.She would receive also some money for the baby....

PRESIDENT: "$12."

A.50.Yes.
Q.51.She would also receive a certain amount of your pay?
A.51.$23, half my pay.
Q.52.Whose money did you consider that to be?
A.52.I considered it to be mine.
Q.53.Yours?
A.53.Yes, definitely.
Q.54.It was assigned to your wife?
A.54.We shared our money.
Q.55.Did you ever ask her for money?
A.55.She never let me go without a penny.

Q.56.Have you ever hit her?
A.56.Yes, I did on two occasions. I have hit her twice in my life.
Q.57.When you hit her what was the result?
A.57.Once she had a black eye. Once she fell on the floor.
Q.58.Was she unconscious?
A.58.I don't know. I set her on a chair and she came to.
Q.59.If she came to she must have been unconscious. When was the first time you gave her a black eye?
A.59.She had a bruise on the side of her face.
Q.60.That was in London around Christmas?
A.60.Yes,I think so.
Q.61.And that blow did not knock her out?
A.61.Yes, it did.
Q.62.Was that on Christmas eve?
A.62.I don't remember.
Q.63.What was the condition of her face after that?
A.63.Well, she had a bruise. She had a black eye in January some time, that was the second time I hit her.
Q.64.You say quite definitely that when you tried to borrow money from your wife she always gave it to you?
A.64.She always told me I could get money if I needed it.
Q.65.What do you think are the requirements of a happy married life?
A.65.The duty of the husband to his wife is to look after her and they must agree fifty-fifty.
Q.65.Do you think it is happy married life to have a date with your wife on Christmas eve, then don't show up then come in and knock her out?
A.65.You have to remember that in the Field Security you are liable to be out up to 24 hrs a day, and if you have security work to do you can't tell your wife about it.
Q.66.In other words you could be out some nights on duty. I was referring to last Christmas eve when you were in London, you were to go out with your wife, you did not show up. You did not come in until midnight?
A.66.Yes,sir.
Q.67.And then.....
Q.67.There is one think you asked me about a happy couple, my wife has got her parents in Gloucestershire, and each time on leave I have been to her home, she has two sisters and her Mother and Father and it pleases her to go there. But there is no man for me. And on Christmas eve I met some friends from Canada and we went drinking and I did not come home.
Q.68.So you preferred to go and get drunk with other men than to go out with Your wife?
A.68.Thats not the same, we started to have a drink.....

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q.69:Did you have a date with your wife?
A.69.Yes.
Q.70.And instead did you go out drinking with some friends?
A.70.Yes.

JA: "Alright, now go on."

DEFENCE:
Q.71.How long were you in London on that leave?
A.71.From the 23rd to 30 December.
Q.72.During that time did you go out on other nights by yourself?
A.72.Yes, sir, there was one other night.

Q.73. And what time did you get in that night?
A.73. It was about 10 pm.
Q.74. How about the second night you knocked your wife cold at 3am?
A.74. You said the night I came back from leave.
Q.75. No, the night you got back at 3am while you were in London?
A.75. The first time was on Christmas Eve....
Q.76. You knocked her out....
A.76. No, sir, I didn't knock her out that time.
Q.77. Have you always been completely faithful to your wife?
A.77. Yes, but in the Fd Security you have to make contacts and you have to meet your informers...
Q.78. But did you have to have sexual relations with anybody but your wife?
A.78. No, sir.
Q.79. How did you get gonorrhoea last July and August?
A.79. Yes, I had it.
Q.80. And who did you get it from?
A.80. Do I have to answer that question?
Q.81. Did you not report it?
A.81. No, sir.
Q.82. What hospital were you in?
A.82. In 17 Cdn Gen.
Q.83. Where did you catch this desease?
A.83. I could not say, I don't know.
Q.84. Did you catch it in Farnborough from a WAAF on 23 June?
A.84. How can you be so sure of the date - No I did not catch it there.
Q.85. It was the 27 June, I'm sorry. Were you there on 27 June?
A.85. I don't know.
Q.86. Did you know a WAAF at the time?
A.86. I know lots of WAAFs.
Q.87. Did you or didn't you report to the MO that you had contracted gonorrhoea from a WAAF?
A.87. I told him that because I did not want to involve another person.
Q.88. Well who did you get this disease from?
A.88. I don't know.
Q.89. Well whom would you involve?
A.89. I might involve my wife.
Q.90. If you have never had sexual intercourse with anyone else how do you know you did not get it from her?
A.90. I might have.
Q.91. Did you make arrangements with the hospital to have your wife examined?
A.91. I told them to.
Q.92. So you had relations with her after you had the disease?
A.92. Yes.

Q.93. JUDGE ADVOCATE: "Do you know the name of the Officer to whom you spoke about this disease?"

A.93. I am not sure, perhaps Major B. Langer.

DEFENCE:
Q.94. But for the past year has your wife refused to have sexual relations with you?
A.94. She never refused me for a year.
Q.95. How long then?
A.95. It might be three or four months, but not a year.
Q.96. You are supposed to go back for another test on 28 April of this year?
A.96. Yes, sir.
Q.97. Now this money that your wife gets, you feel that in justice it belongs to you?
A.97. We agreed to share it.
Q.98. And have you been on subsistance?
A.98. Yes, since late last year.
Q.99. How much do you get?
A.99. About 9/- a day.

Q.100.Did you give that money to your wife?
A.100.I used to split my cheque with her.
Q.101.Did you pay the rent?
A.101.She paid the rent.
Q.102.Do you think it is consistent with a happy married life to go round to dances without your wife the whole time?
A.102.I have been to a few dances but all on duty always.
Q.103.About how much did you borrow from your wife?
A.103.About 10/- or 15/-.
Q.104.How often?
A.104.About once a month.
Q.105.Would it not be true to say that you borrowed about £8 a month regularly from her?
A.105.Definitely not.
Q.106.Is it not true to say that the only contribution you have made to the upkeep and rent was during the first four weeks of your living on subsistance?
A.106.I used to buy my own rations.
Q.10 .About 3d a day....that was all?
A.107 No.
Q.108.What was the other time then?
A.108.It was when I used to take my wife out three or four times a week.
Q.109.That was your only contribution?
A.109.That was all I had.
Q.110.Where did you get it?
A.110.It was my subsistance.
Q.111.You did not give that to your wife then?
A.111.Yes, but then I had to borrow money to replace it.
Q.112.Now did you ever go to your wife's bag and take money?
A.112.No,sir.
Q.113.Did she ever hide her bag from you?
A.113.She did after I had found those letters.
Q.114.Did she not hide it before that?
A.114.Perhaps.
Q.115.In other words you say your wife would hide things in her purse. Did she not hide it because of money? That would be the natural thing to do....if she had other things to hide she would hide them and not put them in the bag?
A.115.Money never tempted me.
Q.116.Is it not more normal for a person to hide a bag because there is money in it?
A.116.No, sir.
Q.117.On this occasion you went up to London, did you borrow money from your wife?
A.117.She lent me a pound.
Q.118.Did you ask for more?
A.118.I get first 10/- and asked her to make it a pound and she did.
Q.119.Did you say what you wanted it for?
A.119.No,sir.
Q.120.You had no difficulty getting it?
A.120.At first she did not like the idea but then she gave it to me. I had given her £7 when we went on leave.
Q.121.Where did you get the £7?
A.121.We have been gambling and I had been lucky.
Q.122.Do you often play dice for high sums?
A.122.Not very high sums-sometimes only pennies.
Q.122.Do you do card tricks?
A.123.Yes, sir, all sorts of things,I used to be on a concert party.
Q.123.When you got back on this occasion late in London, who opened the door to you?
A.123.I can't remember
Q.124.It was not your wife's Aunt?
A.124.It might have been the Aunt.

Q.125.What did she say to you?
A.125.She said where have you been.
Q.126.Didn't she say that this was not quite playing the game?
A.126.I don't recall
Q.127.And then you abused your Aunt?
A.127.I did not.
Q.128.Then you came through and had an argument with your wife?
A.128.Well,
Q.129.And then you hit her didn't you?
A.129.There was only one time I hit her on 29 December and then..
Q.130.Who was present when you hit her?
A.130.Her Aunt was present, anyway she hit me when I came in the door,on the face.
Q.131.Your wife hit you in the face?
A.131.Yes.
Q.132.Supposing for a moment that she did hit you, is that any reason for hitting her?
A.132.No matter who it is, if someone hits me in the face, I shall hit them back.
Q.133.So this is happy married life?
A.133.We were happy, sir, we have been happy.
Q.134.The next occasion when you hit your wife was in January, that was the time she was suffering from a black eye?
A.134.Yes, sir, but it was not a black eye when they saw it, it was just brown.
Q.135.Do you remember what date you did that?
A.135.No...
Q.136.Was it about two weeks before your wife met Lt Haufek on 5 February?
A.136.Yes I think so.
Q.137.Do you remember you came down from London on a Sunday lunch time?
A.137.I remember now sir.
Q.138.You came back unexpectedly at noon? That was when you were on pass?
A.138.I was on pass but I was still on duty - you are on duty 24 hrs a day, 7 days a week in the army.
Q.139.And you did not bring your wife to London with you?
A.139.I asked her but she did not want to come.
Q.140.What reason did she give?
A.140.There were a lot of reasons.
Q.141.What were those reasons?
A.141.First of all if I was to be sent on duty somewhere she would get suspicious and say I was going out someplace else because she is jealous.
Q.142.But why did she not go b ack to London with you?
A.142.I asked her to go to London and she said she would not and I asked her why and she said she did not want to go, so I said I was going to London anyway.
Q.143.You have just said that there were a number of reasons why she would not go -what were those reasons?
A.143.You must excuse me I don't always say what I want in English - I am French. I did not mean to say that.
Q.144. When you got back on Sunday she had had lunch I believe?
A.144.Yes.
Q.145.And you demanded that she get your dinner for you?
A.145.I had to get it myself.
Q.146.Was all this in January?
A.146.Yes.
Q.147.After lunch did she ask you any questions?
A.147.No.
Q.148.Did she not ask you where you had been?
A.148.No.
Q.149.When did she ask you that?
A.149.After I said I had been to London.

Q.150.What did you say when she asked where you had been in London?
A.150.I said she would never know.
Q.151.Now, had your wife invited some friends to tea that day, Joyce Wild and a girl friend of her?
A.151.I know someone came to tea.
Q.152.Do you know Joyce Wild?
A.152.Yes.
Q.153.Did she come to tea?
A.153.Yes, she came one day I can't remember if it was the same.
Q.154.During all the time they were there did you sit in a chair and not speak?
A.154.Yes, I did sit in a chair.
Q.154.Did you speak?
A.155.I don't remember what I did.
Q.156.You sprawled in a chair and did not talk.After that what did Joyce Wild suggest?
A.156.I don't remember.
Q.157.Did she suggest that she go with her and see the girl friend off?
A.157.I don't remember,sir.
Q.158.And later didn't your cousin come with two friends in the CWAC?
A.158.I don't remember.
Q.159.And when your friends were there you were more cheerful and you spoke?
A.159.I had to speak to my cousin.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"You have been given every latitute possible and the Court does not want to hinder you any way, but will you tell us what bearing all this evidence has on the case."

DEFENCE:"I have got to go into all this if I am to show that there was discord in the Belanger home before Lt Haufek appeared on the scene."

Q.160.It was suggested that someone should go out and get beer?
A.160.I went out and got the beer.
Q.161.Where did you get the money?
A.161.My wife gave it to me, she said she would give me the money if I went to get the drinks.
Q.162.How much did she give you?
A.162.She gave me £1 and told me to buy 10/- worth of beer.
Q.163.And how much did you bring back?
A.163.Ibrought back 6 quarts.
Q.164.What did you do with the change?
A.164.I gave her 10/- and kept the rest of the change because she had told me to spend 10/-.
Q.165.How much money did you have on that weekend you went on?
A.165.I can't remember.
Q.166.Did your wife ask what had happened to the £8 you had gone away with?
A.166.I don't recall.
Q.167.This was shortly after pay day . And as a result of that discussion did you not hit your wife in the eye?
A.167.I don't know if that was the time.
Q.168.Was it not on the date the party had occured?
A.168.I don't recall the date of it, sir. I don't know if it was on that date.
Q.169.I don't want the date, I want to know if it was on the same DAY?
A.169.I don't remember.

Q.170.But there was a dispute that evening?
A.170.I don't remember if it was that night.
Q.171.Was it that evening you gave her the black eye?
A.171.I don't recall.
Q.172.It was some other evening then?
A.172.I don't remember, I mean, yes sir, it was.
Q.173.Have you a friend in Chobham?
A.173.Yes, I have lots of friends in Chobham.
Q.174.Did you go there on 9 February?
A.174.I went there from 9 to 17 February on duty.
Q.175.And did you have friends in Chobham before going there?
A.175.No.
Q.176.Have you been to dances at Chobham?
A.176.Yes, I have. I have been going around the pubs and dance halls on a tour of duty.
Q.177.How many nights a week would this keep you on duty.
A.177.About three nights a week or two.
Q.178.What time did you come in?
A.178.Sometimes 10 sometimes 11 and sometimes 12.

THE COURT ADJOURNED AT 1250 hrs for lunch

THE SAME COURT REASSEMBLED AT 1345 hrs.

Q.179.Lets go back to 5 February. You said that you went to the Queens Hotel and then went to your house?
A.179.Yes, sir.
Q.180.What inquiries did the accused make about the black eye?
A.180.At the queens hotel the accused said to my wife 'who gave you the black eye, eh? I suppose Maurice did". My wife laughed and said 'yes" jokingly and the accused was joking too.
Q.181.What did he say after that?
A.181.He said it was a joke or something.
Q.182.What was her condition at the time?
A.182.She was alright.
Q.183.When you got home, did the accused ask any other questions?
A.183.Not that I know of.
Q.184.What day of the week was it?
A.184.It was a Saturday.
Q.185.Did he make any investigations that night to your knowledge?
A.185.I do not know, sir, he did not make any investigations in my presence.
Q.186.On the third meeting you said that they were sitting on two chairs and that there was no one else in the room and the door was closed?
A.186.Yes, that was before I went to Chobham.
Q.187.What is the name of the landlady?
A.187.Mrs. Roberts.
Q.188.Does she stay in room?
A.188.She is in most of the time.
Q.189.She is lame isn't she?
A.189.No..
Q.190.She is a cripple isn't she?
A.190.Well,yes, if you call it that.
Q.191.Where does she usually sit?
A.191.In the kitchen, which is next to our sitting room and there are doors and one between the rooms.
Q.192.And was she sitting there that evening?
A.192.Yes, she was.
Q.193.And was the door open or closed?
A.193.Closed.
Q.194.How do you remember.
A.194.I know that when someone comes to visit us or to visit her we do not keep the door open.
Q.195.On 9 February you came in and saw the accused there?
A.195.You said on 9 February - on 9 February I was in Chobham.
Q.196.What about your statement that you found him at home?
A.196.That was on 17 February.
Q.197.Who was there at the time ?

A.197.The landarmy girl.
Q.198.What was her name?
A.198.Joyce.
Q.199.What was her other name?
A.199.I don't know.
Q.200.Where was she living?
A.200.About ½ a mile away, about 15 minutes across the fields.
Q.201.She was there asfar as you know the whole evening?
A.201.Yes.
Q.202.Was the door open on that evening or not?
A.202.No, sir.
Q.203.Was the landlady in the kitchen?
A.203.Yes.
Q.204.On 24 February you were engaged in family quarrel, what quarrel was that?
A.204.Well, she was talking to me about weekends and things, I don't know exactly what it was all about. It was always about the same thing. I would come home and she would ask me to go out and I did not want to go. Then I would ask her to go out and she would not want to or would want to go for a drink, we never just went out for a walk it was always drinking every time.
Q.205.How long had these arguments been going on?
A.205.Quite a while sir, about six months, perhaps longer.
Q.206.To return to this particular evening, you don't remember about what the quarrel was?
A.206.No.
Q.207.What did you do to her?
A.207.It resulted that I agree that she go to London for a weekend.
Q.208.What did you do to her physically.
A.208. I....
Q.209.Did this landarmy girl feel compelled to call up the OC and get him to come around?
A.209.The Landarmy girl was not in the room at that time.
Q.210.She did call in the OC, what led her to do this?
A.210.She was in the kitchen and I did not talk to her.
Q.211.Did you ask your wife on that evening for £5?
A.211.No.
Q.212.Did you get £5?
A.212.I did.
Q.213.Did you ask for £5?
A.213.No.
Q.214.But you got it?
A.214.Yes, I got it alright. I assigned the money.
Q.215.Did you threaten to have her assigned pay cut?
A.215.I think so.
Q.216.Did you go to the paymaster about it?
A.216.I was going to have it sent to my mother.
Q.217.How much was it?
A.217.It was $20 a month.
Q.218.When did it go up to $23?
A.218.I could not say.
Q.219.Did you arrange for it?
A.219.It just came automatically.
Q.220.Now, about this 20 or 23 dollars....is it not compulsory that it has to go to the wife?
A.220.I always understood that it could go as deferred pay.
Q.221.Did you not make threats to your wife that you would have it taken away from her. Did you not say that you would send it to some woman in Chobham, did you not say you would send it to your common-law wife?
A.221.No,sir, I don't remember.
Q.222.Didn't you threaten to transfer this money to some other woman?
A.222.No, only to my mother.
Q.223.How about your friend in Chobham?
A.223.I never ....
Q.224.Did you never say to Lt Haufek that you had a woman in Chobham, what did you call her?
A.224.I just called her a girl.

Q.225.What else did you say to your wife?
A.225.I said I was going to transfer my money to my mother not to any girl.
Q.226.To return to the question, you said you obtained £5 from your wife on 24 February?
A.226.Yes, sir.
Q.227.How did you obtain that?
A.227.Because I asked her.
Q.228.Did you threaten to destroy her wardrobe?
A.228.No.
Q.229.Did you ever tear the dresses or the hats?
A.229.No.
Q.230.Did you not that evening take her by the arms and damage her arms until she gave you the £5?
A.230.No,sir.
Q.231.The landlady was there that evening and Joyce Wild was there that evening and you still say that you did not do that?
A.231.No,I did not.
Q.232.After that did you not continue to threaten?
A.232.I never did.
Q.233.After the CO was called did he come around?
A.233.Yes, he did.
Q.234.What did he do then?
A.234.He did what I stated in my statement. He said he had been called in and asked what it was all about.
Q.235.What did you tell him?
A.235.He told me to come back to the office and sleep there.
Q.236.Were there marks on your wife's arms?
A.236.Yes.
Q.237.How did they get there?
A.237.When she got to hit me I got her by the arms.
Q.238.Did you twist her arms?
A.238.I just held her by the arms when she was sitting down.
Q.239.Did the CO have a talk with Mrs. Belanger that evening? in your presence?
A.239.Yes.
Q.240.What about?
A.240.He asked her a few questions.
Q.241.What questions?
A.241.He asked her if there was any other man in her life and she said she could not answer.
Q.242.Did he ask her about how you had been treating her?
A.242.I can't remember.
Q.243.He did not ask any questions?
A.243.I can't recall what he said.
Q.244.Was it a long conversation?
A.244.He was there about 15 minutes.
Q.245.Who else was in the room?
A.245.The landaway girl was in,she left and went into the kitchen?
Q.246.Where was the landlady?
A.246.In the kitchen.
Q.247.Did he ask her if you had borrowed money from her?
A.247.He did not ask her but she said that I had borrowed money from her., and he asked me if it was true and I said yes.
Q.248.Did he ask you about your treatment to your wife?
A.248.I remember that he talked to me in the office but I don't remember in the house. I think he said to me, you should not do those things.
Q.249.He could not say that unless he had asked you about "these things"
A.249.I suppose he was referring to the black eye.
Q.250.Did he ask you then about that other woman you mentioned in Chesham?
A.250.No,sir, not at the house.
Q.251.Did he ask your wife about your relations with other women?
A.251.I don't remember.

Q.252.Did he ask you about your marital relations with her?
A.252.I don't remember, sir.
Q.253.Did he ask you to give the $5 back?
A.253.He said I should give it back.
Q.254.Did he advise Mrs. Belanger that if you were physically violent to her again to seek the help of the civil authorities?
A.254.He may have, he said that as my CO he could not interfere but he could see that the police did something about it.
Q.255.Didn't Mrs. Belanger want to get away that night?
A.255.As far as I know she did not want to run away at 10pm. She just said it would be better if she was alone.
Q.256.Did she not want to go to a hotel?
A.256.No.
Q.257.Did he not stay to try to stop her going away that night?
A.257.Something was said to that effect.
Q.258.In other words she was suggesting going away.
A.258.Not that I know of. She just mentioned that she would like to be alone.
Q.259.You and the CO then went away together?
A.259.Yes.
Q.260.You said that you came back later?
A.260.Yes.
Q.261.Did the CO and Joyce and your wife go to have a drink together?
A.261.I did not see Joyce when my wife came back with him in the car.
Q.262.Joyce lives about 15 minutes away?
A.262.Yes.
Q.263.You remember when they came up to the house, did they call up to the landlady to let them in?
A.263.They did not call upstairs at all. The first time they came with the car and when they saw the motorcycle they kept on. The next time they stopped.
Q.264.At any time did they call upstairs to the landlady, when Mrs. Belanger came in?
A.264.No.
Q.265.Was the landlady in bed?
A.265.Yes she and her husband were both in.
Q.266.What did the CO say when he saw you?
A.266.My wife turned on the light and she made an exclamation and the accused seemed surprised and the accused said he knew I would come back.
Q.267.Did he say he had taken Miss Wild with them?
A.267.I don't remember.
Q.268.Did you attempt to hide in the house?
A.268.No.
Q.269.What kind of furniture was there in the room ?
A.269.2 cosy chairs,a piano and a table, I was sitting at the end of the piano.
Q.270.Were you sitting in the dark?
A.270.I was sitting in the dark so I could surprise them when they came in.
Q.271.Weren't you hiding because you were afraid the CO would find you?
A.271I was not afraid, I wanted them to see me and know that I knew what was going on.
Q.272.Did the CO say anything about her nerves?
A.272.He said they were in a bad state.
Q.273.What did he say to you?
A.273.He made me promise that I would not return that night, and go back to the office.
Q.274.Did you and the CO leave together?
A.274.I left first on my motorcycle and he was following behind in the car.
Q.275.How far behind?
A.275.It must have been 200 feet but I was making sure that he was following me.
Q.276.Did you at any time promise not to illtreat your wife?
A.276.I did.
Q.277.What happened the next morning?
A.277.On the 25th the CO sent for me and said I ought to let my wife go on a weekend and I should look after John.

Q.278.Did he say anything about your treatment of your wife?
A.278.That morning, no sir. - Yes he did sir,I'm sorry.

COURT:

Q.295.You must have had a pistol as a DR?
A.295.I was a batman driver and I did not have a pistol.
Q.296.In previous evidence you said you had a motorcycle?
A.296.I was only issued with a tommy gun for the car.

DEFENCE:

Q.297.How this girl you mentioned in Chobham-who detailed you to the Chobham area?
A.297.Lt Haufek sent me there on special duty.
Q.298.Did you ask to be sent?
A.298.I did not know anything about the place.
Q.299.On 14 March you went on leave and the 21st you were at your wife's home. - What were you doing in between times?
A.299.I was at home, at Woking and at Chobham seeing some friends.
Q.300.Did you say that Lt Haufek phoned your wife?
A.300.We have not got a phone. I meant to say that he got in touch with her if I did say it.
Q.301.Did you ever ask the OC to be let off to go to Chobham?
A.301.I never asked for a night off to go to Chobham.
Q.302.How about the Basking trip?
A.302.We went to Basking on an official trip.

A.304.I went home after I was through with the office.
Q.305.Where did you go in the afternoon ?

A.305.I came back home.
Q.306.When?
A.306.I don't know. But it was early.
Q.307.Did you ever buy a pistol from the Field Security Section?
A.307.Yes, early in 1942 there was a small 22. and I bought it from a Sergeant, and I resold it the next day to a Sergeant who is now with No 16.

RE EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:

Q.308.Will you tell the Court what your married life was like in between these quarrels.
A.308.Well inbetween those quarrels we had very happy times and one thing that was always brought up was that we wanted to save money and instead of that it was always costing from £1 to £3 to go out in the evenings.
Q.309.Whom did you sleep with when you went home?
A.309.I slept with my wife every night.
Q.310.In other words you had a normal married life.?
A.310.Yes.

DEFENCE: (By permission of and through the Court)

Q.311.Did you ever force your wife into marital relations by physical violence?
A.311.Yes, once.
Q.312.Why was force necessary?
A.312.Because it had been more than a week since we had had anything together and every time we used to go to bed there was always something brought up, she was tired or something and the following day she was always alright to go out drinking.

BY THE COURT:

Q.313.About this weekend in London, you said you had told your wife she would not know where you had been, where had you been?
A.313. I spent the night at the YMCA . I was in the lounge. You can often spend the night there.
Q.314.To the best of your knowledge, has your wife ever received treatment for VD?
A.314.No, sir.
Q.315.Still you told the Court and expect it to believe that she was responsible for your contacting VD last summer. That is what you led the Court to believe?
A.315.Yes sir.
Q.316.You also stated to the Court that since you had VD yourself and before you are cured you had relations with your wife?
A.316.Yes sir.
Q.317.Did you contract VD a second time from your wife?
A.317.I never had no second time, sir.
Q.318.How long have you been married?
A.318.Two years on 4 March, sir.
Q.319.You mentioned that the first timeyou hit your wife in London she had hit you first. You remember very well that when you went into the room you saw the accused there and that the door was closed, you remember that very well. While you expect the Court to believe that you don't remember when you blacked your wife's eye?
A.319.I said it was at the beginning of January some time.
Q.320.You don't remember the exact date?
A.320.No.
Q.321.You don't remember that date but you remember the date you went on leave?
A.321.But there were certain things that were remarkable about those dates, you always know those dates.
Q.321.Do you not consider marking your wife's eye a remarkable date?
A.321.Yes, sir.

Q.322.You mentioned in your evidence that when your wife went to London the accused was on weekend also. What was the number he left to the Section to be called?
A.322.It was a Farnham No, I don't remember the No.
Q.323.You said also that you did not have a pistol at any time so therefore you could not threaten your wife?
A.323.I meant I had a pistol but...
Q.324.Did you say in your evidence that you had never had a pistol?
A.324.I meant in this house.
Q.325.During the time you have been married have you had a pistol in the place you occupied with your wife?
A.325.No,sir.
Q.326.Where your wife and you have been living, have you had a pistol?
A.326.No, sir.
Q.327.About those £5. The Defending Offr asked you if you asked your wife for £5 and you said no. You then said you got £5, you did not ask for it. But you stated elsewhere that when you wanted money you always asked your wife to land it to you. How did you get this £5.
A.327.I did ask my wife for £5. And she gave it to me.
Q.328.Is your wife English?
A.328.Yes, sir.
Q.329.Where did she live, in Gloucestershire?
A.330.She lived at Heathend, her parents were in Gloucestershire.
Q.331.Your wife is a Protestant and you a Catholic?
A.331.Yes, sir.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q.332.The writing on the letters, on the release form, is Lt Haufek. The release form was written by him in front of you, is that right?
A.332.Yes, sir.
Q.333.If you had just picked those letters up somewhere and not in your wife's pocket, would you have been able to tell whom they were written by?
A.33.Yes, sir, I could because I have another letter written by Lt Haufek since those which I have, and it is signed by him the same as the others.
Q.334.you spoke to Mr. Haufek about them in the office?
A.334.Yes, sir.
Q.335.What did he say?
A.335.He said I love your wife and I will have her some time. He admitted they were his letters.
Q.336.Who did you report this matter to?
A.336.I reported it to the CO and he took it up with Legal Aid at CMH.
Q.337.What happened after that?
A.337.They called me over there and the next thing I heard I had to report to Mr Margetts.
Q.338.Did I understand that you were called to the Legal Aid?
A.338.Yes, sir.
Q.339.Did you ask permission to go?
A.339.I was at the office when the phone call came through, that was after my CO had reported to Legal Aid. And I was told to go and see some officer up there.
Q.340.The phone call was a result of your seeing your CO about the matter?
A.340.Yes.

(In the opinion of the Court and of the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B) in connection with this witness)

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION)Cpl (A/CSM (WO II))Browne RW, No B75949,)formerly of 12 Fd Sec Section, being duly)sworn is examined by the Prosecution:

Q.341.What is your Unit?
A.341.I used to be in 12 Security Section but I am now in No 18.
Q.342.How long were you with No 12 Section?
A.342.From May 43 until now.
Q.343.Who was OC of your Company? in January?
A.343.Lt Haufek.
Q.344.Is Mr Haufek in the Court?
A.344.Yes, he is there (indicating accused)
Q.355.Will you tell the Court when he was OC of No 12 Sec?
A.355.It was about 8 January 44.
Q.356.When in March did Lt Haufek cease to command?
A.356.I could not say just when.

DEFENDING OFFRS offers Pt II Order to Prosecutor to settle date.

Q.357.Lt Haufek ceased to command wef 8 March 44. Now will you tell the Court if you know that the accused carried on his duties at the Section after that date?
A.357.He could not very well carry on his duties but he could have been about. He was there for a few days anyway.
Q.358.Do you know L/Cpl Belanger?
A.358.I do.
Q.359.Will you tell the Court if he was a member of your section?
A.359.Yes, he was made a L/Cpl in February.
Q.360.I understand that there was some discussion between you and the OC regarding affairs in the Belanger household?
A.360.Yes.
Q.361.Will you tell the Court what the nature of this discussion was?
A.361.Mr Haufek mentioned that things were not going too well at the Belanger household, and that he did not think they were getting on well. I advised him not to get mixed up in it. I did not hear anything more about it until such time as Belanger took proceedings.
Q.362.Do you recognise the handwriting on these letters? (Exhibit C)
A.362.It is similar to Lt Haufek's.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q.363.Can you say definitely , as you did in the Summary?
A.363.Yes, I can definitely say that it is his handwriting.

DEFENCE DECLINES TO CROSS EXAMINE THIS WITNESS.

BY THE COURT:

Q.364.Cpl Belanger was given his stripe in February some time?
A.364.Yes, sir.
Q.365.Presumably his work at that time was satisfactory then?
A.365.Yes, sir.
Q.366.Did Belanger have much language difficulty in the course of his duty?
A.366.Not to my knowledge.

G.M.G.

Q.367.Did he mention that he had difficulty with English because he was French?
A.367.No,sir.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q.368.When was this conversation you had with Lt Haufek?
A.368.I could not state the date, it was in February, I think.
Q.369.Have you seen these letters (Ex "C") before today?
A.369.Yes,sir.
Q.370.Now you gave evidence at the Summary of Evidence. You read over your evidence and signed it. I am going to read the last paragraph to you:"I recognise the handwriting on Exhibits A,C,D,E,F,G,H,I, J,K.L, (the letters) as being in the handwriting of the accused."
Now, are these letters in the handwriting of the accused?
A.370.Yes, sir.

(In the opinion of the Court it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(B) in connection with this witness.)

DEFENDING OFFR:
"I would like to present a motion that the Prosecution has not proven a prima facie case. First of all the evidence of Cpl Belanger is useless. He contradicts himself continually. I think it has also been amply shown that discord existed in the Belanger household long before Lt Haufek came on the scene, in fact it had existed for the best part of a year and the CO did not cause any extra discord in any way. There is no evidence of his consorting with her. He went down several times because he thought it was his duty to do so. The only thing that remains are the letters of affection. If that is the only ground left , then it cannot be considered scandalous conduct. He had ceased to be CO on 8 March and the first letter is dated 13 March. He went into that household to do his duty. When we are at OTU it is drummed into us day after day, 'know your men, know their families, etc'. He in the end apparently fell in love with Mrs. Belanger, and I do not think that in such circumstances it is an unlikely thing to happen. He finds that she had been badly treated and with a husband with VD. Take a look at those letters - they are the letters of a man really in love - not someone out to have some fun. The same thing happened with her. She has been bullied around by this husband of hers for a year. If you notice in the letters to her, he mentions her father, and wanting to be well thought of by him - it was all above board. The part we refer to today all happened after Lt Haufek had ceased to be CO of Cpl Belanger. He made no advances to Mrs. Belanger before he was satisfied that there was no hope of reconciliation between her and her husband. "

PROSECUTION:
" The letters in themselves do show that he was causing discord between husband and wife. He mentions that "H is coming" so that there won't be any disturbance. The accused expected Belanger to be with his wife and to cause disturbances."

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE MOTION.

THE COURT IS REOPENED.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"I am to advise you that your motion has been denied, and the Court would like to hear the Defence side of the case. "

JUDGE ADVOCATE:
"Lt Haufek, it is now your turn to put your side of the case. You may give evidence yourself on oath, in which case you are subject to cross-examination by the Prosecution and by the Court. You may make a statement not on oath, in which case you will not be cross examined; you must realise of course that the Court will place greater weight on a statement given on oath then on one not on oath. You may call witnesses as to facts or character or both - you may give evidence yourself on oath, you may hand in a written statement or your Defending Officer may hand in a written statement."

DEFENDING OFFR:
"I would like to examine my other witnesses first before Lt Haufek gives his evidence."

JUDGE ADVOCATE:
"You may if you like. But that would not create such a good impression with the Court - If Lt Haufek sits there and hears all the evidence he can get up and "stop up the gaps" in the evidence he has heard.

DEFENDING OFFR:
"Very well, sir."

Instruction

† In this space will be recorded any oral statement or address made by the accused in his defence when he has not given evidence as a witness. (For any additional address which he is entitled to make, see Instructions to the Court above.)

The evidence of the witnesses for the defence, including that of the accused, if he is a witness, will be taken here in the order in which they give evidence.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE) The accused, Lt Frank Haufek, Canadian Intell Corps, 1 Intell Coy, LCGRU, formerly OC 12 Fd Security Section, being duly sworn is examined by the Defence:

Q.371.Would you tell the Court your story of how it happened that you met Mrs. Belanger?
A.371.I ...

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"This is just a suggestion. But if you want to stick to your evidence in the Summary, it is already entered as an Exhibit. If there is any additional evidence, that is different."

ACCUSED:"I have nothing to add, but I want to clear up some points."

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "I would also like to point out that a lot of your evidence is hearsay."

DEFENDING OFFR:"I think it would be better to go through it all again."

Q.372.Will you tell the Court the story of how you met Mrs. Belanger?
A.372.It was on 5 February of this year.
Q.373.Will you tell the Court what date you became OC?
A.373.It was on 12 January. I was there on attachment on 8 January for four days then I was made OC.
Q.374.Now, about meeting Mrs. Belanger?
A.374.I was invited by the Masonic Lodge in Farnborough to attend a social. At the same time I heard that 1/Cpl Belanger was invited with his wife. We decided to go together and to meet at the Queens Hotel before. When I met his wife that night she had a black eye - and there was one thing in L/Cpl Belanger's statement was wrong. I did not say "I suppose Maurice did it" I said"I suppose it was the door, the usual thing." To begin with I did not call Mrs Maurice. We did not say anything further at that time. But I noticed then for the first time that it looked as though something was wrong. We went to the social and I had a lady friend with me. She was a friend of the people I was staying with. I took her home. Then it was suggested that we finish the evening by having some coffee and sandwiches at the Belanger's house. That was logical as I intended to take them home anyway. We had coffee and sandwiches, then I took the Sgt Major home and went home myself. I did not have a driver at the time so I drove myself. At that time due to a new establishment I made Sgt Browne a CSM and everyone all the way down moved up which left a vacancy for a L/Cpl. So Belanger was made a 1/Cpl. Then about the second time I met Mrs. Belanger - the same evening L/Cpl Belanger suggested that I should be invited to a meal. I am not in the habit of going to peoples places to get meals but I was interested in this family and in getting to the bottom of the situation so I accepted. I came to supper the next night. I did offer money to buy the beer that night but he said he was the host so he would get it. While he was away I was talking to Mrs. Belanger and she asked me if I could see her sometime the next week. I saw her the next week and discussed things and that is how I found out what was happening. On 24 February I received a phone call (I had asked Mr. Belanger to feel at liberty to call on me at any time) this call was made by Joyce Wild who is the granddaughter of Mrs. Roberts, the landlady. She asked me to come at once because Belanger was illtreating his wife again. I got there and asked what it was all about. I heard all about it from her and he was present all the time, and was not able to deny the allegations. His wife was sitting in an easy chair by the fire shaking all over, her arms were red and had weals all over them. I found out that he had demanded £5. He did not get it at once so he twisted her arms.. I did not know what to do because I did not want the thing to get publicity - there is quite enough trouble with Canadian soldiers already. I did make the remark to the effect that I was sorry that I was his OC - it was in the heat of the moment and I think rather natural that I should have wanted to treat him as he deserved, but did not. I warned him that if these goings on did not stop I should advise his wife to go to civil authority for help. Mrs. Belanger did not feel that night like spending another night under the same roof, and she wanted to move. She told me that in front of him. I suggested that Belanger should come and stay in the office. He agreed to that and got his things ready. While he was getting the things ready Mrs. Belanger spoke to me and implored me to come back because sje wasafraid he would come back. I took him to the office and left him there. I went back. I suggested to Joyce Wild and Mrs. Belanger that we all go for a drink. We did so and then took Joyce home and then came back all of which took about 45 minutes. We came up to the house, the door was locked so Mrs. Belanger called up to the landlady asking if the back door was open or not? We went in the back door, when we came into the sitting room Belanger was sitting there in the dark. It was no surprise to us because Mrs. Belanger thought he would come back. The motorcycle outside proved to us that our fears were correct. I spoke to him again and asked him to leave with me and stay away for three days until his wife recovered. I came with him to the office and stayed up with him all night to see that he would not go back again. Next morning I had him up again to my office and spoke to him again, again telling him that I had made up my mind to advise his wife to seek help from civil authority. He mentioned to me on the 26th that his wife had said she wanted to go to see her relatives in London. I said why don't you let her go to her father's for some time to recuperate. On the 28th I again received a phone call. Mrs. Belanger was on the phone herself asking me to come because something else had happened. As a result of what I heard there that evening I spoke to Belanger again in the office. He told me at that time about having a woman in Chobham and showed me a wrist watch he had received from her. I had the impression that he was not interested in his wife and wanted to get out of the holy wedlock of matrimony,without paying any alimony. On the 2 March Belanger mentioned his wedding anniversary was on 4 March and could he have a weekend. There was no reason why he should not, so he had it. On the 3 March I went down to the house. I was fully convinced by then that Mrs. Belanger would never again make a wife to her husband. We talked of personal things that evening for the first time. We discussed the past and future insofar as the two of us were concerned. I have four children at home and we decided we could make a go of it together. On 5 March - L/Cpl Belanger had told me that his wife was going up near Gloucester to her father's and I told him he could use the station wagon to take her to North Camp Station. On the Tuesday I was to go to Reading. On Tuesday I had a phone call from Mrs. Belanger since she had found that we were going to Reading she wanted to know if she could go with us. I called in L/Cpl Belanger and asked him why he did not say that his wife was going through Reading and he said he thought the car was military and could not carry civilians. So I made out a release slip and told him to get his wife to sign it and that it would be alright for her to be in the car. In the morning I took the car down and picked them up at the house. That was on the 7 March. On 21 March I saw Mrs. Belanger again. In the morning the officers were called in by the OC Intelligence Coy and were told that we were moving. There was a lot of wishful thinking and we thought we would be moving quite far., by Saturday morning. But it did not happen that way. We did not know where we were going. So I sent a wire on that day. In answer to the wire she arrived in Aldershot at about 16 hrs on the 21st but did not contact me until 1715 hrs. We went and had tea and took in a cinema together and I put her on the bus for Heathend at 2045 hrs the same evening. On 23 March I advised her to stay with her father for some time and make up her mind what she would do. I did consider it much better for her to get a diverce as she originally intended than to spend all her life with this man. On the 23 March I was notified that there was somebody asking for Lt Maufek so I went out and there was L/Cpl Belanger. He showed me these letters. I recognised them as my own and said I had written them. He said he would shoot me in the back if I came back to the house. I did make the remark that I would prefer to be shot in the front. He then gave me his solemn promise that he would not illtreat his wife again. I said that in return I would not contact Anne Belanger so long as she was his lawful wife. I did not in fact contact her until some time after proceedings have been started against me. I saw her twice. Once with Joyce Wild on a Sunday. I was already under open arrest and I saw them for a very short time. The second time Mrs. Belanger was alone and I only saw her for a few minutes again. That was all because she had had a nervous breakdown when she heard I was under arrest and had been in bed for two weeks. To end up, I would like to bring up a few points. First, ever since 3 March when I realised how I felt about Mrs. Belanger I did not visit her at her home nor did I attempt to go there. Second, Whenever I did visit her before I was careful to have the door open and Mrs. Roberts was always next door. Thirdly,the first letter I have addressed to Mrs. Belanger was dated 13 March which was five days after I had handed over my command of 12 Fd Sec Section.

Fourthly, with reference to "g" in my letters, I only referred to his coming because I knew she did not expect him and I wanted to warn her. The second reference that I would not write while he was there was because I did not want Belanger to prevent my letters getting to her, she might have experienced more of his violence. Belanger can get violent on one glass of beer - I'm afraid that will happen tonight, and I beg the Court to stop it somehow.

DEFENCE: "I want to ask question to the accused about his conversation with Mrs. Belanger"

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"That is hearsay evidence. Actually what you want him to tell us is what you asked Belanger about."

DEFENCE:"Yes, but something Belanger did not admit."

JUDGE ADVOCATE"I think the Court is in a position to see that Lt Naufek acted in a certain way because of conversations he had had and certain conditions he had discovered. The Court has to decide on these facts.

DEFENCE:

Q.375.Was Miss Joyce Wild present on any of the occasions you saw Mrs. Belanger?
A.375. She was present on 24 February at the beginning by L- Cpl Belanger ordered her out of the room, into the kitchen and closed the door.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:

Q.376.What is your religion?
A.376.I am a Roman Catholic.
Q.377.Are you married?
A.377.I am married and have four children.
Q.378.Are you happily married?
A.378.I was until about three years ago. A letter never reaches me from home now.
Q.379.In other words another man has come between you and your wife?
A.379.Yes.
Q.380.Before you met Anne Belanger you know of this condition at home?
A.380.Yes.
Q.381.What prompted you to take this interest in the Belanger family?
A.381.Because I was the OC and as it has been said we are told to take an interest in our men and their families.
Q.382.To the extent of visiting their wives in the husband's absence?
A.382.No.
Q.383.During these quarrels you stated that you thought that Belanger was treating his wife improperly, why did you not take action about it?
A.383.Because I did not think it would help matters.
Q.384.When you were threatened with a shot in the back by Belanger why did you not take disciplinary action then?
A.384.The man was excited and it would have been unfair to him.
Q.385.Had you met Anne Belanger before 5 February?
A.385.No.
Q.386.You said that you knew on 3 March that you and Anne Belanger cared for each other. Had you spoken in these terms to her before that date?
A.386.No.
Q.387.Will you tell the Court just what brought this about?
A.387.I said we were engaged in a personal discussion, I was thinking of my four children who would be needing a mother after the war and that Anne Belanger's son would probably be needing a father. I said in my evidence"I must admit that I was attracted to Anne Belanger the first day we met but I still did honestly try to be a peace-maker."

Q.388.It would seem logical that you as an officer and gentleman should have refrained from visiting the wife of your L/Cpl when he was absent?
A.388.Not at all.
Q.389.You mentioned that there was always someone present with Anne Belanger and you. What about the time you came back in the car and found Belanger there?
A.389.That was the only time, for a few minutes.
Q.389.I suggest that that was not the only time you were alone with Anne Belanger?
A.389.There was the time we went to the Cinema, it is true.
Q.390.At one time you knew that Belanger's wife was going for a weekend?
A.390.Yes.
Q.391.You also went for a weekend?
A.391.Yes.
Q.392.Did you see Anne Belanger on that weekend?
A.392.Yes, at 3 pm on the Sunday.
Q.393.Where did you see her?
A.393.At Farnham.
Q.394.Did you see her on the 26th?
A.394.I did not.
Q.395.Do you know the number Farnham 5729112
A.395.Yes, that is where I stayed.
Q.396.I suggest that you stayed the night in Farnham with Anne Belanger?
A.396.I did not.
Q.397.Did you order Belanger back to barracks on the 24th?
A.397.After Mrs. Belanger had said she would not stay in the same house with him I suggested that he go to the office.
Q.398.And you returned to Anne Belanger to comfort her?
A.398.She had asked me to.
Q.399.Did you tell the husband that you were going back?
A.399.I did not because it was to prevent him coming home again.
Q.400.When he did not keep this "agreement" and returned to the house, did you give him an order to return them?
A.400.No. I followed him back to see that he stayed there.
Q.401.That was unusual for an O?
A.401.I don't think so.
Q.402.You have attended a dance or two at LOCHU and Aldershot at various times?
A.402.Yes.
Q.403.I suggest to you that you met Anne Belanger at a dance at Aldershot?
A.403.I did not.
Q.404.You have never been to a dance with Anne Belanger?
A.404.Yes, I have.
Q.405.Where was this dance?
A.405.At the officers Mess.
Q.406.Where was L/Cpl Belanger?
A.406.I could not say.
Q.407.You know he was at Chobham.?
A.407.Yes, I think he was.
Q.408.And you sent him to Chobham?
A.408.No, I did not.
Q.409.But you knew he was in Chobham?
A.409.Yes.
Q.410.And then you took his wife to a dance? Were you not alone with her at the dance?
A.410.There were other officers there.
Q.411.How did you bring her to the dance?
A.411.I picked her up with two other officers in the car.
Q.412.When did you arrange to meet Anne Belanger on the weekend of the 26th?
A.412.I spoke to her on the phone. She called.
Q.413.You are aware, Mr. Haufek,that Anne Belanger is the wife of Cpl Belanger and that he is her sole support?
A.413.I am not aware that he is her sole support.

Q.414.Where else does she get money from?
A.414.Her father helps herout.
Q.415.But outside of charity then, Belanger is her only support?
A.415.Yes.
Q.416.She draws the usual pay and allowances....

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "If we are going to get onto the question of pay I think you had better get this from Mrs. Belanger herself."

PROSECUTOR:"Very well,sir."

Q.417.You are not a born british subject are you?
A.417.No.
Q.418.Possibly then, your interpretations are different to ours. What do you mean in your letter by "hubby". Your last letter was signed"your lover and hubby."?
A.418.That was wishful thinking.
Q.419.Your interpretation of "hubby" is husband?
A.419.Yes.
Q.420.Is it usual for an officer and gentleman to suggest to the wife of a L/Cpl under his command that she save money for him?

DEFENCE:"That is not charged"

JUDGE ADVOCATE: "What is your point there, Mr Margetts? "
PROSECUTOR:"I want to show that he asked her for money."
JUDGE ADVOCATE:" I think the Court will use its own knowledge of military matters and the evidence as shown today as to these facts."

PROSECUTOR:

Q.421.You said somewhere in your evidence that the Belanger home was not actually a marriage at all and yet through these letters you suggest a fear that these very letters will affect their married life and that they might cause discord.
A.421.That is not true.
Q.422.What is the meaning of "I shall not write to you while M's leave lasts"?
A.422.That was to prevent violence on his part to Anne Belanger.
Q.423.How about this passage:"Now my thoughts turn to "M" - He has possibly left on his leave already and is possibly with you right at this minute." "I do know that I have to put up with it, but this knowledge doesn't make me any happier."What do you mean by that?
A.423.I meant that he was subject to these fits of temper and she had to suffer from it.
Q.424.You did not say Anne Belanger had to put up with it, you said YOU had to put up with it?
A.424.We both felt we were both morally free.
Q.425.Do you realise that in the case of Anne Belanger anyway there is a good legal marriage?
A.425.I understand there was a legal marriage.
Q.426.I suggest that you wrote this bit because you were jealous?
A.426.My answer is no.
Q.427.What does this mean:"I have made arrangements to be off from Friday next week (my birthday 24 Mar) until Monday morning. So make sure you can come and be with me for the weekend." Were you going to spend the weekend with her?
A.427.Sooner or later it will happen, I know.
Q.428.And again on 19 March you wrote:"I suppose M is with you and probably the scale has turned against me - So what can I do about it? nothing but keep loving you." I expect that by that you meant that Belanger and his wife were living a normal married life again.
A.428.By the scales I meant that she was always weighing her happiness and on one side and the security of her son on the other.
Q.429.I suggest that she was weighing your seductive breaking up of that marriage on one side and her husband on the other?
A.429.I cannot agree with that suggestion.

Q.430.You mention divorce and that SM Browne would help her, had you in fact spoken to SM Browne?
A.430.That is referring to the fact that I discussed the matter with him.
Q.431.Will you tell the Court what justification in your mind allowed you to send that telegram calling the wife of a L/Cpl away from her husband who was on leave and from her child?
A.431.That was because we knew we cared for each other and we knew we were morally free.
Q.432.Why did you not tell Belanger this?
A.432.He was told. The idea being that Anne Belanger would discuss it with her father before we took any steps.
Q.434.You are sure of being able to secure a divorce?
A.434.Yes.
Q.435.You realise that it will be difficult for Belanger to get a divorce? he is a Catholic and from the Province of Quebec?
A.435.Yes.
Q.436.I suggest that you never had any idea and have not now any idea of marrying Anne Belanger?
A.436.That is not correct.
Q.437.Have you informed your wife or children - if they are old enough- of the facts?
A.437.No.
Q.438.In the PS of a letter dated 17 March you say"H claims you know before you left, that he'd spend his leave with you. - of course he probably wanted me to believe he'd got you back for himself." What do you mean by that?
A.438.Meaning that I thought he got around his wife again - she always seemed to forgive him. Against the wishes of her parents and relatives she took him back for the sake of her small son.
Q.439.What about the reference to your going to spend your leave at her "Dad's?"and leaving "J[illegible]nie"there?
A.439.She was going to come back and pack her things leaving her son up there to go back to.

BY THE COURT:

Q.440.Would you describe to us the wrist watch which Belanger showed you and stated he received from his girl in Chobham?
A.440.The band was narrow, the watch itself was rectangular and cushion type, I could not describe it any further.

BY THE JUDGE ADVOCATE:

Q.441.On 24th February what accusations did Mrs. Belanger make against her husband in front of the three of you?
A.441.She told me of being illtreated before.
Q.442.Is there anything she accused him of at that time that he has denied here today?
A.442.Yes, sir, he claimed that he had never threatened her life. She said he had.
Q.443.I take it from one remark you made that you realised the danger in interfering in the private lives of your other ranks?
A.443.That is why from 3 March I never set foot in the house again.
Q.444.Between 7 and 21 March you say you never saw Anne Belanger - you did at least maintain correspondance from 13 to 21 March?
A.444.That is right.
Q.445.Why did this correspondance suddenly begin on the 13th?
A.445.I had been thinking a lot at that time - I had long evening in which to think things over.
Q.446.Did Belanger ever complain about his wife's conduct to you?
A.446.Yes he once threw in my face that on the 24th I had heard only one side of the story. I asked him to tell me his side. He said that Joyce Wild and his wife had on one evening gone out and he could not find them.
Q.447.He never mentioned to you anything about his wife's conduct up in Gloucestershire?
A.447.No,sir.
Q.448.When were you advised of the charge pending against you?

Q.430.You mention divorce and that SM Browne would help her, had you in fact spoken to SM Browne?
A.430.That is referring to the fact that I discussed the matter with him.

Q.439.What about the reference to your going to spend your leave at her "Dad's?"and leaving "Jeanie"there?
A.439.She was going to come back and pack her things leaving her son up there to go back to.

BY THE COURT:

Q.440.Would you describe to us the wrist watch which Belanger showed you and stated he received from his girl in Chobham?

A.447.No,sir.
Q.448.When were you advised of the charge pending against you?

A.448.It was friday morning 31 March at 9.30.
Q.449.And you had no information about it prior to that?
A.449.No,sir.
PRESIDENT:
Q.450.When you were talking about the squabble you came in at, you said you were sorry that you were the man's CO. What would you have done if you had not been?
A.450.It would have made no difference - but I was rather hot under the collar at all this and I was angry.
Q.451.About the trip to Reading - the Cpl told his wife he could not take her and you said it would be alright. Is that in the Regulations?
A.451.Yes, sir.
Q.452.You have read the regulations?
A.452.Yes, sir.
Q.453.And that is what you understood?
A.453.Yes, I was going to Reading on duty anyway to the CID there.

(In the opinion of the Court and of the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b) in connection with this witness)

SECOND WITNESS) Mrs. Laura Roberts, 1 Bank Cottages,Heathend Road, FOR THE PROSE./) Farnham, Surrey, CUTION) being duly sworn is examined by the Defence:

Q.454.Will you tell the Court who you are and your address?
A.454.I am Mrs. Laura Roberts, of 1 Bank Cottages, Heathend, Road, Farnham.
Q.455.How long have you been there Mrs. Roberts?
A.455.I have been living there with my husband for 25 years.
Q.456.Have you any lodgers?
A.456.Yes, Mrs Belanger and Mr Belanger and the baby.
Q.457.Could you describe how the rooms are set out downstairs?
A.457.There is the front room and the kitchen and scullery behind, and two bedrooms.
Q.458.Is there a door connecting kitchen and the front room?
A.458.Yes.
Q.459.Do you go out much Mrs Roberts?
A.459.Not much.
Q.460.Why don't you?
A.460.I prefer just being quiet and I am a bit of a cripple.
Q.461.Have you let the front room?
A.461.Yes, to Mrs. Belanger.
Q.462.From your position in the kitchen are you able to hear what goes on in the front room?
A.462.Yes, I can hear a little.
Q.463.Whether the door is open or shut?
A.463.I can still hear a bit when it is shut.
Q.464.Were you present on the occasion when Lt Haufek came to the house?
A.464.I was in the kitchen.
Q.464.Was the door open?
A.464.The door between the two rooms was open all the time.
Q.465.Could you hear them?
A.465.I could hear a conversation going on but I did not listen to what they were saying because I was not interested.
Q.466.Did you ever know of anything wrong between them?
A.466.No.
Q.467.What was he there for?
A.467.As far as I know about the trouble between Mr and Mrs Belanger.
Q.468.Could you tell us what you know of the Belangers?
A.468.They came twelve months ago last September, that is in 1942.

Q.469.Could you tell us what their relations were from the start?
A.469.They were alright when they first came to me.
Q.470.How long did that last?
A.470.Until about the New Year of 1943.
Q.471.What sort of trouble started then?
A.471.There was always crying and quarrelling.
Q.472.What sort of things did you hear from that room?
A.472.I heard noises like scuffling and chairs moving and whimpering.
Q.473.Did you ever hear Mrs. Belanger screaming or making alot of noise?
A.473.No, sir.
Q.474.You did not hear her?
A.474.No,sir.
Q.475.Did they go away last Xmas and New Year?
A.475.Yes.
Q.476.For how long?
A.476.About a week, I should say.
Q.477.What did Mrs. Belanger look like when she got back?
A.477.She looked a fright-she looked as if she had been drawn through a hedge backwards.
Q.478.What did you say to her about it?
A.478.I said, whatever is the matter with you, she showed me her bruised face and said her husband had done it.
Q.479.Did you ever hear them discuss anything about money?
A.479.Only once, when he came in one day and asked for £5. she had to give it to him in the end to keep peace.
Q.480.What did you hear going on?
A.480.They were talking in the room.
Q.481.Nothing else?
A.481.I only heard talking.
Q.482.Do you know Joyce Wild?
A.482.She is my grandaughter?
Q.483.Did she at any time go to phone Lt Haufek?
A.483.Yes.
Q.484.Why?
A.484.Because Belanger was worrying Mrs. Belanger.
Q.485.When was that?
A.485.I can't remember.
Q.486.Did you see Mrs. Belanger that night?
A.486.I did not speak to her, but she came in the kitchen, she seemed too distressed to speak.
Q.487.What did she look like?
A.487.She looked all worn out.
Q.488.How long has she been looking like that?
A.488.About 12 months.
Q.489.What was the reason for that?
A.489.She had been worried by her husband.
Q.490.Have you anything more to say about what Mr Haufek came for?

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"You are getting this witness into an awkward position, talking about something she can only guess at."

DEFENCE:
Q.491.Did you ever hear him asking her questions?
A.491.I could hear them but could not hear what they were saying

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION:

Q.492.Was the Belanger family happy in between these quarrels?
A.492.Yes.
Q.493.Did they lead a normal married life?

DEFENCE: "I object, how can she answer that question?"

JUDGE ADVOCATE:" Isn't she a married woman herself?"

A.493. Yes.
Q.494.They, until recently, lived together as man and wife?
A.494.As far as I know, yes.
Q.495.And they had squabbles just like any married couple?
A.495.Yes.

(In the opinion of the Court and of the Judge Advocate, it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b) in connection with this witness)

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION) Miss Joyce Wild, Upper Hale, Surrey, being duly sworn is examined by the Defence:

Q.496.Willyou tell the Court who you are and where you live?
A.496.I am Joyce Wild, landarmy girl, and until two weeks ago I lived with my parents at Upper Hale.
Q.497.Do you know the Bank Cottages?
A.497.Yes, my grandmother lives there
Q.498.How far are you from there?
A.498.About ten minutes walk across fields.
Q.499.Who else lives at No 1 Bank cottages besides your grandmother?
A.499.Mrs Belanger and Mr Belanger and their baby.
Q.500.Do you ever go there?
A.500.Yes, often, practically every day.
Q.501.Who is your friend there?
A.501.Mrs. Belanger.
Q.502.How long did you live at your home near there?
A.502.Since December, before that I was stationed away.
Q.503.Do you know anything of the relations between Mr and Mrs Belanger?
A.503.Yes, they are not very happy together.
Q.504.How long has this been going on?
A.504.To my knowledge since last summer, that is when I first saw them. Q.505.What used to happen?
A.505.He used to come in and hit her about. This used to happen nearly every night.
Q.506.How long had this been going on?
A.506.Since about last October.
Q.507.For what reasons did he hit her?
A.507.He would come in not very happy and she would want to go out and he would not and then other times he would want to go out and she was tired so they quarrelled and he used to hit her.
Q.508.Did you hear these goings on?
A.508.Once I heard her crying from the kitchen.
Q.509.Have you ever heard him threaten her?
A.509. Once he threatenedto tear her clothes up if she did not give him money. He once threatened to kill her before Xmas.
Q.510.Have you heard or seen him do anything like that?
A.510.I saw him tear a hat up once. He came in and we were going to a show, Anne and I were because he said he would not be in, and he saw us getting ready so he just took her hat and tore it. Mrs. Belanger did not know what to say.
Q.511.Do you remember when that was?
A.511.It was sometime in February.

Q.512.When in February?
A.512.In the middle I think.
Q.513.Is there anything that you know of that would have made Mrs. Belanger not want to have anything to do with her husband?
A.513.Well, last summer....

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"That is hearsay. And do you suppose that Mrs. Belanger discussed those sort of things with Miss Wild? I should think it was unlikely."

JUDGE ADVOCATE:
Q.514.In what way did she discuss these matters with you?
A.514.She used to say she was miserable with Maurice, that was all.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"This is not direct evidence, you should get Mrs. Belanger to give it."

DEFENCE:"If she hears them carrying on, is that not direct evidence? The parties in the quarrels might be unwilling to give the evidence.

PROSECUTION:"But this witness, is,I think, repeating something that has been told her."

JUDGE ADVOCATE to witness:

Q.515.This evidence you have been giving us, is it was you were told by Mrs. Belanger?
A.515.It was what I heard and saw.

DEFENCE:
Q.516.Will you tell us about something you heard with your own ears and saw with your own eyes?
A.516.When he asked for £5, she said she had not got £5,so he said he would go upstairs and tear her clothes. So she said she would give him the money. I could hear them making a lot of noise and Maurice asked me to go and phone the CO. Then I refused to do it and went to my grandmother's room. About half an hour later they were making so much noise next door that I went and phoned because I was frightened.
Q.517.Is there anything else?
A.517.No, I don't think so.
Q.518.Did you see Anne Belanger after that dispute?
A.518.Yes, I did see her.
Q.519.Could you tell us about what she looked like?
A.519.She came out and she had weals on her arm and she said that Maurice had been twisting them.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR:

Q.520.Can you tell us when Lt Haufek first care down to the house?
A.520.I don't know.
Q.521.Could it have been on account of Lt Haufek's visits that Belanger illtreated his wife?
A.521.No, he did it before he came.
Q.522.Did Mr Haufek's visits make things worse?
A.522.They were just as normal as before.
Q.523.In other words, there was some normality in the household?
A.523.Yes, sometimes he could be quite nice.

DEFENCE:
Q.524.What do you mean by normal?
A.524.He would come back sometimes and be very nice.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:
Q.525.When they first came there they got on well, is that what you mean?
A.525.I was not there.
Q.526.When you knew them, were they quarrelling a lot?
A.526.They had several rows.
Q.527.Were they going out together?
A.527.About once a week.
Q.528.Did you and Mrs. Belanger go out together frequently?
A.528.Sometimes.
Q.529.And on those occasions, he was at home?
A.529.No, he was on duty, or anyway he was not there.
Q.530.Where would you go?
A.530.To the Cinema or the Hippodrome.
Q.531.Did you go to dances?
A.531.No.
Q.532.Did you go to pubs?
A.532.No, except to get a bottle of grapefruit to bring home.
Q.533.In the kitchen you heard noises but with the door closed you could only assume what was going on, is that right?
A.533.Yes.
Q.534.When he had asked for money and she refused, was that the only time you saw those marks on her arms?
A.534.Yes.

BY THE COURT:
Q.535.Have you ever seen Cpl Belanger strike his wife?
A.535.I saw him knock her against the hedge and another time against the house.
Q.536.When was this?
A.536.One evening he said he was on duty so Anne and I were going to a show. On the road we met him on his motorcycle he stopped and got off and said he did not want her to go out tonight and knocked her against the hedge. The other time was Easter Monday and we went down to have a drink together and Maurice saw someone he knew in the pub and Anne said she did not know him so they had a bit of a squabble about speaking to him. On the way back he kept pushing her against the hedge and when she said don't push me he pushed her against the side of the house.
Q.537.He never struck her with his hand in your presence?
A.537.No.

JUDGE ADVOCATE:
Q.538.How old are you, Miss Wild?
A.538.Eighteen.

(In the opinion of the Court and of the Judge Advocate it is not necessary to comply with RP 83(b) in connection with this witness)

DEFENCE:"I was going to call the MO with the records of Belanger VD but he had to go on medical duty. His Cpl is here and he keeps all the records and could produce the evidence in documentary form. The O/C Records of 3 CMC has the records. This Cpl is the one who gives him the test for cure."

JUDGE ADVOCATE:"What do you want to show from this evidence"

DEFENCE:"I want to show that he contracted gonorrhoea from a WAAF in Farnborough.

JA:"Was he under oath when he made that statement?"

DEFENCE:"NO."

JA"And he said today under oath that he made that statement to save somebody,he did not say it was the truth. You will not be proving anything by producing those documents. "

58

DEFENCE:"It is most relevant to prove that he got it from somebody else."

PROSECUTION:"Belanger said he told the hospital that he got it from a WAAF, he did not say so under oath today."

DEFENCE: "His evidence is contradictory."

JA:"All that evidence would prove is that he did state to the MO that he got gonorrhoea from a WAAF, and he has already admitted that he stated that today."

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE DEFENCE:

"Gentlemen, it has been shown today that this so called "consorting between Lt Haufek and Anne Belanger was entirely for the purpose of finding out how conditions in that household were and of improving them. This is an example of what happens when a person, an officer, is misunderstood in doing something that he considers his duty, even it may get him into trouble. In the course of doing this he says that he fell in love with her, considering her to all intents and purposes an unmarried woman. And he states that he hoped some day to marry her. I think that I have definitely shown that there was discord between man and wife long before Lt Haufek came into their lives; physical violence, hitting, and forcing the wife to have relations with him. I think someone who came into contact with these facts would be falling down on his duty if he did not investigate them.Then when one helps a person in distress like that, one finds that pity is very much akin to love. And what could be more natural for her than to fall in love with this man who was trying to straighten her life out after an awful year or more with a brute of a husband? I cannot help feeling that falling in love is something honourable. I feel that it is obvious that the letters were written by a man who is definitely and wholly in love and not by someone just out to have some fun. I think that the evidence is amply sufficient to cover any summing up that I might make. "

CLOSING ADDRESS BY THE PROSECUTOR:

" Gentlemen; I submit on behalf of the prosecution that the charge against the accused has been proved.

The letters alone are scandalous. consider a few portions therefrom - these written by an officer to the wife of a soldier - the officer recently the Commanding Officer of the soldier and certainly the superior officer of the soldier at all times. May I quote in part from these letters.

Letter 11 Mar 44

"I shan't write to you while "M"'s leave lasts (16-25 Mar) since he is going to spend it with you. But please do NOT let anyone stop you from writing to me." "Let me know when it is safe to write to you again." P.S. "There is no redhead or other women."

Letter 16 Mar 44

"How could have 14 days together.""I shouldn't get the money in time could you manage to help me out until the money comes?" "Will you be coming back here when his leave is over?"As it is now just trying to write to you gets me so excited."

Second letter 16 Mar 44

"Now my thoughts turn to "M" - He has possibly left on his leave already and is possibly with you right at this minute." "I do know I have to put up with it, but this knowledge doesn't make me any happier."

GMS

Letter 17 Mar 44
"I have made arrangements to be off from Friday next week (my birthday 24 Mar) until Monday morning. So make sure you can come and be with me for the week-end." PS "M" claims you knew before you left, that he'd spend his leave with you. - of course he probably wanted me to believe he'd got you back for himself." "Best regards to dad and sister of yours and hug Johnnie. If we go back for our leave you might as well leave him there."

Letter 18 Mar 44
This is a poetic effort with which I do not propose to bore the court but follows the general theme of those previous.

Letter 19 Mar 44
"I suppose "M" is with you and probably the scale has turned against me - So what can I do about it? Nothing - but keep loving you."

Letter 20 Mar 44
"Well it is now 20 to 10 pm and I shall go to bed. All alone by myself - wishing for you - wanting you so much. I shall fall asleep with you in my heart and maybe a good and kind dream god will let me be with you in my dreams."

Letter 21 Mar 44
"Unfortunately I could not mention anything in my telegram", "that you stay on with your dad and save a bit of money so there won't be any delay when I call for you - so that you can come at once and join me - overthere." "I Wished I knew what you are doing, how you are, did you have any trouble in case "M" came up there for his leave, was he there when my last came and my telegram? I am worried." "If you will get your divorce (Sgt Major Browne No 12 Section will help you along with this, I spoke to him, cruelty etc. and stay all mine." "PS be sure to be at your dads when I get my leave or notify me of your plans." "Millions of kisses from your lover and hubby."

These letters tend to show that the Belanger home is not all that could be desired but also suggested that they were trying to get along. Also they show that the accused was conscious of causing discord between Anne Belanger and her husband by his concern regarding the receipt of his letters and telegram coming to the knowledge of L/Cpl Belanger. - He says "I am worried." then he suggests that Mrs. Belanger should leave her son John - "If we go back for our leave you might as well leave him there."

The telegram is outrageous. The letters show that the accused was aware that L/Cpl Belanger was on leave with his wife. Yet he saw fit to call her away from her husband and child by this telegram.

I submit that the sending of these letters and the telegram is obviously conduct not becoming the character of an officer or a gentleman.

The evidence of L/Cpl Belanger clearly proves that the accused, by virtue of him being Officer Commanding Belanger, knew that Belanger would not be home until after 10 pm. That the accused took advantage of this and visited Anne Belanger while her husband was supposedly on duty.

I contend that this act of the accused was not in the interest of the army or the well being of the Belanger family as such, but is a case of a public officer, under colour of exercising the duties of his office, improperly uses that office to further his own ends.

Evidence has been adduced that the conduct of the accused has caused discord between L/Cpl Belanger and his wife to the extent of Belanger asking legal assistance.

The second in command of the accused at the time in question, SM Browne, gives evidence tending to prove that the conduct of the accused towards Mrs. Belanger was of a nature not condusive to good order and military discipline. In fact advises the accused to be careful.

The accused mentions threats by Belanger to his wife and child. - He makes no mention of military action to correct this. Mention is made of illtreatment by Belanger to his wife Anne when the accused was allegedly called in. The accused makes no mention of subsequent disciplinary action but does state that at the instigation of Anne Belanger that he returned to comfort her. He states that he was never alone with Anne Belanger but previously mentions "taking Joyce home then returnin to the Belanger home."Certainly he was alone in the car with Mrs. Belanger after leaving Joyce.

Cross examination has shown that the accused has at least on one occasion taken Mrs. Belanger to a dance and further, on the weekend of 27 February met Anne Belanger clandestinely at Farnham.

DEFENCE:" I would like to obtain permission to file a brief, and unless I get permission to do so I consider that the accused is suffering an injustice. I did not have time to prepare an address for summing up. I have not had time to weigh all the evidence."

JA:"How long do you want?"

DEFENCE:"Until Monday."

JA:"The Court is going to consider the find today. You must remember Mr Wilding White that this is a military court and you are not in a civil court. If Mr Haufek feels that he is suffering injustice he will have to say so. Otherwise if you just feel that you yourself have not done all that you could I may tell you that you have certainly defended this case to the last inch."

JA to the accused:" Mr Haufek, do you feelthat something which should have been mentioned in your defence has been left out and that you need time to prepare another address? "

Accused:"I can't think of anything, sir; I am satisfied."

PROSECUTOR: "I have not finished my address, sir;"

" He further states that he visited Anne Belanger on 3 Mar 44 evidently when her husband was not there, when it became clear that they cared for each other. - This on the eve of the Belanger wedding anniversary.

The alleged unsatisfactory state of the Belanger marital set up can in no way mitigate the seriousness or justify the conduct of the accused. It was married life in wartime under difficult conditions. It was a home, a family with a child. L/Cpl Belanger was the sole support of that family. The accused is already married.

The conduct, proven, of the accused was just as serious to Belanger as if there had been actual seduction. It has been truly said that greater provocation hath no man than this. If Belanger when he confronted the accused with these letters, had in the rage of the moment, killed the accused, would this court convict him of murder with this evidence as his defence?

Regarding the conduct of officers may I quote from a well known authority on "Customs of the service." Quote: "However charming they may be, you must make no attempt to know your men or their families "socially," this is, by visiting their houses as a guest or other form of social liaison. To do so is to invite accusations of favouritism and unfairness, which are difficult to refute, bad for your reputation amongst seniors and juniors, and detrimental to Service discipline. To refrain from doing so is not a question of class distinction or "snobbery"; your position as a commissioned officer with powers of command and punishment makes it impossible.

KR(Can) 413 reads as follows: Officers, warrant officers and non-commissioned officers will adopt towards subordinates such methods of command and treatment as will not only ensure respect for authority, but also foster feelings of self respect and personal honour essential to military efficiency. They will avoid intemperate language or an offensive manner."

I would respectfully refer the Court to specimen charges No 41 and 42 MML. regarding the comparative seriousness of this offence.

Finally, may I quote in part Appendix to RO 325 which pertains to conduct and efficiency of officers:

1. In time of war, it is absolu ely essential that commande of all grades, from the highest to the lowest, should be fully qualified, both by character and efficiency, for the discharge of their vital responsibilities. No amount of training, organisation, manpower or equipment can lend to the defeat of the enemy unless the command in all grades is in energetic and capable hands, and remains so at all times.

3. It therefore follows that on this question of efficient leadership no compromise is permissible. Where individuals have proved, or appear likely to prove, unequal to their responsibilities, they must be removed without hesitation and replaced by others who are considered better qualified.

4. Ill considered leniency in the case of inefficient leaders is not only dangerous to the cause, and disheartening to better men who are thus denied opportunities of risin , but is costly in lives.

I submit, while everything possible has been done for the defence of the accused, that the prosecution case against the accused has been established. "

SUMMING UP BY JUDGE ADVOCATE:

" First of all I want to pay my compliments and thanks to the Prosecuting and Defending Offrs for making a very difficult case run as smoothly as it has. The case has been presented most fairly by Mr Margetts and the accused must feel that he has been defended every step of the way and he can have no regrets whatever at having selected Mr Wilding White.

I am here to rule on questions of law only and the Court is there to judge from thefacts. This Court is governed by the fundamental principle of English law which as everyone knows is that a man is innocent until he is proven guilty. When Mr Haufek came into the room he was to all intents and purposes an innocent man and it is up to the Court to decide whether he may leave the Court in the same way. They must be satisfied that the facts have been proven beyond a reasonable doubt. The doubt to which I refer is not one construed in the minds of someone by desire, or pity or wish for revenge but the doubt brought about by hearing the facts which would be in the mind of any reasonable man under the same circumstances.

I think that there is nothing more that I can usefully add at the present time. The case is just one of weighing the evidence unless there is some point of law which the Court or the Defending or Prosecuting Offrs would like me to discuss. "

GMG.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE:

" There is nothing to say other than that the accused has been in the Army since September 1939, that he joined in the ranks and worked up. That he joined on 7 September but due to certain difficulties in getting naturalisation papers in order was not allowed to actually join until November 1939. He now has his naturalisation papers.

Also it must be taken into consideration that he became involved in this case as a matter of duty, because it had been drummed into him at OCTU that he must know and help his men. We are even told there to write letters to their wives, know their children etc.

One does not often find someone like this who tackles a difficult job knowing that he may get into trouble doing it, because it is his duty. I think that fact and his length of service in the army is all I want to add."

Summary of evidence in the case of Lt. Frank Haufek, formerly Officer Commanding No.12 Cdn Field Security Section. Now on strength of Intelligence Company No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit. An Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, charged with behaving in a Scandalous Manner unbecoming the character of an Officer and a Gentleman.

THE COMMANDING OFFICER DIRECTS THAT THE EVIDENCE BE TAKEN ON OATH.

First Witness for Prosecution

C.990 Lance Corporal Maurice Herve Belanger, No. 12 Canadian Field Security Section, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, duly sworn states:

I have been a member of No 12 Cdn Field Security Section since 11 Dec 41 to date. I have known the accused since he took Command of the 12 Cdn Field Security Section 8 Jan 44. He was my Commanding Officer from that date until approximately the 13 Mar 44. I now recognise the accused here.

The accused met my wife on 5 Feb 44. My wife and I on that date met the accused at the Queens Hotel Farnborough. After attending a social the accused, myself and my wife also Sergeant Major Brown, 12 Cdn Field Security Section, went to my home at 1 Bank Cottages, Wellington Lane, Heathend, Farnham, Surrey. While there I brought my son in to show to the accused. The accused knew that Anne Belanger was my wife and that John was our son. The accused knew that I was a member of his unit because I was his driver for some time and a Field Security Section only consists of 13 all ranks.

Some days after the accused met my wife I returned home and found the accused in the house. He mentioned that he had dropped in to see how things were. The accused was alone in the room with my wife.

On 9 Feb 44 I was sent to the No 1 Cdn Base Staging Camp for security duties there until noon 17 Feb 44. On my return 17 Feb 44 I was detailed to go to Farnborough North Station for security check as troops were leaving from that station. I was told that one train was to leave at 1900 hrs and another at 2200 hrs. At 1830 hrs the accused visited me on the job and asked me how things were. I told him that trains were due at 1900 hrs and 2200 hrs. After the first train the R.T.O. informed me that there was no more trains. I returned home after visiting the office and arrived there at about 2045 hrs. On going into the house I found the accused there. He said that he had just dropped in to see how things were and perhaps we could go for a drink. On this occasion there was a Land Army Girl in the room also.

On or about the 24 Feb 44 my wife and I were engaged in a family quarrel when the accused arrived. He stated that he had been called in by the Land Army Girl. He questioned me and my wife then he advised me that I should go back to the office and sleep there that night. I agreed and the Officer Commanding and I left the house together. He in his car and I went on my motorcycle.

I became suspicious and returned home and found my wife gone. So I sat in the front room and waited. After waiting about half an hour I saw the car slow down in front of the house. I recognised the car I used to drive because the brakes were squeeky. It was bright moonlight night. The car as it passed my

Motorcycle drove on. Seeing that, I then went out and hid my motorcycle and returned into the house. After about twenty minutes waiting I saw the car come to the front of the house and stop. I then saw the accused, and recognised him, as he came to the front door and knocked. I did not answer the door. Then the accused went to the back door and knocked on the window. I still did not answer. At that I saw the accused through the window and heard him call that it was all right or words to that effect. I then saw my wife get out of the car. She came into the house by the back door followed by the accused. When she switched on the light she was surprised to see me sitting there. The accused said that he had come back and took my wife out for a drink because he knew her nerves were in a bad state and he thought it would help. He also said that he thought I would return and cause more trouble. I knew definately it was a bluff. I agreed again to go back to the office but made sure that the car was coming also.

The next day I went into my Commanding Officers office. He there suggested to me that I should allow my wife to go on a weekend alone and if I would take care of Johnnie it would do her some good because she had mentioned to him that she would like very much to go on a weekend. I told the accused that I would do as he suggested. My wife did go away for the weekend. On Saturday in the afternoon I returned to the office the accused was not there. In carual conversation I heard the accused mentioned that he was going away that weekend as he had, had a pretty tough week.

On the 5 Mar 44 the accused knew my wife was going to visit her father and was going from North Camp station. The Officer Commanding told me I could take my wife and baby to the station in the car. I had previously been detailed to drive the car to Reading with the Officer Commanding that day. On the 6 Mar 44 in the afternoon the accused asked me why I had not told him that my wife was going through Reading.. Because he said my wife had telephoned him and asked if she might come in the car as far as Reading. He also said that she had told him that I had refused saying that it was not a civilian car. The accused told me that it was alright and made out a vehicle release form in his own handwriting for me to have signed by my wife. This is that vehicle release form.

The accused knew that I was due for leave starting 16 Mar 44 to 25 Mar 44 as I had discussed my leave with him. Also the leave roster is prominently displayed on the wall in the orderly room. I told the accused before going on leave that I was going to visit my wife in Glos. On the 21 Mar 44 I was on leave and found that my wife was not at her fathers place at English Bickmore, Colsford, Glos. where she was supposed to be. I was informed that she had returned to Aldershot but had left the baby. The same day I returned to Aldershot and found my wife at home. She told me that the accused had sent her a telegram. She took the telegram out of her purse. This is the telegram here. The telegram was addressed to my wife Anne Belanger, English Bickmore, Glos,. and was sent from Aldershot Command Post Office at 1149 and was signed "Frank". It reads,"Please come at once, contact me on arrival, important."

My wife returned to Gloucestershire on the morning of 24 Mar 44. After she had gone I noticed that she had changed coats and left behind the coat she had been wearing. I saw a bunch of letters in the pocket of the coat. I read the letters. Here are these letters now. I immediately recognised the handwriting of the accused. They were signed Frank. In one of the letters the writer gives his name and address as Lt. F. Haufek, Int Coy, No 1 C.G.H.U. It is the same handwriting as the accuseds on the vehicle release form. The letters are addressed to Anne. In one of the letters the accused mentions the telegram. I as mentioned in nearly all the letters as "M". The accused knew that my name was Maurice as on at least one occasion the accused had called me Maurice. The letters refer to "M" going on leave 16 Mar 44 to 25 Mar 44. Also a letter refers to "I shant write to you while "Ms" leave lasts (16-25 Mar 44) since he is going to spend it with you". My sons name is John but the accused called him Johnnie. The letters mention "Hug Johnnie for me".

Here are the letters I found in my wifes pocket. They tell such a story of conduct towards my wife by the accused that I thought I had better have legal assistance to stop him breaking up my home. I did not question or argue with the accused on previous occasions as at first I thought I could trust him as he was my Officer Commanding and later when I became suspicious I realised that he could make things miserable for me as he was Officer Commanding my section.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED

(Q) The day I met your wife did she have a black eye?

(A) Yes, she had a slightly black eye.

(Q) When you found myself and your wife alone in the room, was the door to the adjoining room open or shut?

(A) Shut.

(Q) Do you recall that I suggested to you that your wife should spend some time with her father?

(A) Yes, but after I had agreed to let her go on the weekend.

(Q) Did you spend all your leave at your Father-in-Laws home?

(A) No.

(Q) Did you contact me before you asked for legal Assistance?

(A) Yes.

(Q) Did we on this occasion exchange promises?

(A) Yes.

The accused declines to further cross examine this witness.

(M.H. Belanger) L/Cpl

The vehicle release form referred to by the witness, produced, read over to the accused, marked Exhibit 'A' signed by me and attached hereto.

The telegram referred to by the witness, produced, read over to the accused, marked Exhibit 'B' signed by me and attached hereto.

The letters referred to by the witness, produced, read over to the accused, marked Exhibits 'C', 'D', 'E', 'F', 'G', 'H', 'I', 'J', 'K', 'L', signed by me and attached hereto.

Second Witness for Prosecution

S.75949 Cpl (A/CSM) Robert William Browne, No 12 Cdn Field Security Section, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

I am W.O. 2 (C.S.M.) of No 12 Cdn Field Security Section and have been with this section since May 1943. I recognise the accused here. He was Officer Commanding No 12 Cdn Field Security Section, my section, for some time in January 1944 and continued as such until approximately the 12 Mar 44. L/Cpl Belanger was a member of 12th Cdn Field Security Section during that time.

The Officer Commanding discussed conditions at Belanger home with me. During this conversation. I as the Sergeant Major of the section and second in Command, suggested to the accused that he should be careful not to become too involved. As I thought that the Officer Commanding was taking too much interest in this affair.

I recognise the handwriting on Exhibits A, C, D, E, F, G, H, I, J, K, L, as being in the handwriting of the accused.

CROSS EXAMINED BY THE ACCUSED

(Q) Do you remember the evening at the Queens Hotel, Farnborough when we were with L/Cpl and Mrs Belanger?

(A) Yes.

(Q) On that occasion had Mrs Belanger a black eye?

(A) Her eye was bruised.

The accused declines to further cross examine this witness.

(R.W. Browne) A/CSM.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given in evidence."

The Accused: I desire to give evidence under oath.

First Witness for Defence

The accused, Lieut Frank Haufek, Intelligence Company, No 1 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, and Officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:-

I met Mrs Anne Belanger on or about 5 Feb 44 in company of L/Cpl Belanger and Sergeant Major Browne. At this time she sported a black eye. Her behaviour was that of a woman thoroughly frightened. I decided to find out about it, I did. The black eye was a souvenir for refusing to fulfill Belangers demand for money. This had happened on several occasions. The estrangement having existed for approximately one year, especially since Belanger contracted V.D. Her wish to obtain a divorce was met with threats to her life and the childs. I assured her that I would be at her service at any time. I gave her my private phone number and the one of Corunna Officers Mess, since I quite frequently spent some time there, of an evening. She already knew the office phone number.

In the evening of 24 Feb 44, I received a phone call at the mess from Miss Joyce (grand daughter of Mrs Belangers land lady) to please come at once for Belanger was illtreating his wife again. I went there and found Mrs Belanger with her right arm badly swollen. Belanger had asked for money again and was refused. So he twisted his wifes arm finally getting five pounds.

In the presence of L/Cpl Belanger she then told her story of continued suffering. He was unable to deny any of her accusations. At my request he promised to return the five pounds. I tried to impress him with the terrible wrong he was inflicting on his wife and said that in case of reoccurance I should advise his wife to seek the help of civil authority. Mrs Belanger exhausted and shaken all over refused to stay any longer with him under the same roof, and was fully intending to pack and leave the same night with her little boy to stay at some hotel. I couldn't see any sense in doing that and suggested that Belanger should sleep at the office instead. He finally agreed and got ready. While he carried his stuff to the car Mrs Belanger implored me to come back because she was frightened that he would return and in one of his fits of temper start all over again. I promised. I came back and took her and Joyce to have a drink to get her settled down. After approximately fourty-five minutes we returned. First taking Joyce home. We came up to the house and noticed a motorcycle near the pathway which confirmed her fears anew. We both approached the door, knocked and found it locked. We tried the other door. It was open. Upon entering we found Belanger in the dark. I impressed him with the necessity to leave at once and give his wife a day or two to recover. He promised but was back the next day. I then had him ride on his motorcycle in front of the car and to make sure he would not leave again unnoticed, I took the trouble to stay up in my office all night. I had offered Mrs Belanger to freely call me at the office anytime. She called the next afternoon telling me he had returned.

During the morning of 26 Feb 44 Belanger mentioned in my office he was giving his wife a treat by telling her to go to London over the weekend to visit relations. I thought that was good for her and suggested he should send her for some time to her Father and give her a chance to recuperate. He consented that the idea was all right.

In the afternoon 28 Feb 44, Mrs Belanger again called and asked me to see her. I went there and was told of a really outragious incident. The night before after refusing to be intimate with him, her husband choked her into submission. I again talked to Belanger and tried to make him understand his wrong especially since he by the way of bragging told me he had a woman at Chobham.

On 2 Mar 44 during a conversation Belanger mentioned that on 4 Mar 44 was his wedding anniversary. Having become interested in this family I dropped in on Mrs Belanger on 3 Mar 44 but was convinced by her that there would never be a possibility of a reunion with her husband.

G.M.G.

Though I admit that I was attracted to Mrs Belanger from the time we met I still, and genuinely, tried to be a peacemaker. After finding out under this date that she would never again be the wife to Belanger, a resolution taken about a year ago, I did advise her to go and stay with her father and think the situation over. I considered that, if necessary she would do, to get a divorce than to carry on like this. So she went to stay with her father on 7 Mar 44.

On the 3 Mar 44 it became clear to us that we cared for each other. I am stating here and now that whenever we met we did so with others present. In the case of sitting alone in the room we made it a point even to keep the door open to the next room. The land Lady was sitting there at all my visits.

Next time I saw Mrs Belanger was on 21 Mar 44. We went to a cinema and she took the bus at 2045 hrs to 1 Bank Cottage, Heathend.

In the morning of 23 Mar 44 L/Cpl Belanger looked me up at No 1 CGRU showing me the letters he found and warned me not to come to the house again unless I wanted to be shot in the back. I was not frightened. After he promised solemnly not to ill treat Mrs Belanger ever again I gave him my promise not to contact her as long as she was legally his wife. For her sake it was understood to let things rest quietly since in spite of having a mistress he claimed to love his wife.

As to my letters which were written after the 12 Mar 44, first - referance to Belanger's leave was made to prepare Mrs Belanger. Second - "I shall not write while 'M's leave lasts", I made this decision to prevent trouble between Mrs Belanger and Belanger if he should go there.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(1).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate in result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to attend see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 80(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) and call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. N/C .....(5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (5) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (not) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ~~C~~ , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. .....(1)

(1. If "YES", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 93(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 116. KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

Ans. .....

Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?

Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. .....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1) Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1) Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(4).)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A65.)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(6). See Notes to Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(6).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(4). 2. AA 54(7), RP 45, 117. The alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)

Ans. YES

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s), purporting to refer to the abovesaid, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldiers having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. B and Ex. C respectively.(2)

(1. MFR 285 or AFB 296. 2. MAM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statements and Conduct Sheets, and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans. YES

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. *When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. Charge of AWL against H.136712 Pte Bentley Everett HAUGHTON 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb RCAMC.

1st Witness

Capt F.S. Whittington, 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb RCAMC sworn states -

Q. Are you quartermaster and Adjt of your unit?
A. Yes.

Q. During the time you have been employed as such have you had the opportunity to judge the character of the accused?
A. The accused is an average soldier and his services have been satisfactory.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

2nd Witness

K.32180 Sgt Dove, A., 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb RCAMC sworn states -

Q. Sgt Dove what is your job in your unit?
A. I am section Sgt 12 Cdn lt Fd Amb.

Q. How long have you held this position?
A. One year and two months, sir.

Q. Have section officers been changed in that time?
A. Yes Sir.

Q. During the time the accused was in your section how would you say he did his job generally?
A. He did his job very well and his conduct was good.

Q. Can you give the court any specific instances on which you base your judgement?
A. On the drive through France one convoy was on the road continuously for sixteen hours during wet weather and Pte Haughton did a very good job.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

Plea by the defending officer in mitigation of punishment attached as Sheet 2.

CONSIDERATIONS IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT OF
B.136712 Pte Bentley Everett HAUGHTON
charged with
Sec 15(1) Absenting Himself Without Leave.

1. The youth of the accused. Although he has been on active service since Dec 1942 he will not be 20 years of age until 6 May 1945.

2. The accused has had an unfortunate experience with the Dependents' Allowance Board, which, due to ignorance, he has translated into a grievance against the Army. He is the sole support of a widowed mother. At the age of 17½ years he was employed in a factory where he was earning 65¢ an hour. He gave up his job and falsified his age in order to enlist. He assigned the sum of $20.00 per month from his army pay for his mother's support. To this the Dependents' Allowance Board added the sum of $25.00 per month. When he left home his mother found employment in a canteen. The allowances were immediately cut off with the exception of $5.00 monthly from his pay. Although this was eventually corrected this experience has coloured his attitude toward the Army to such an extent that he frequently felt it justified any derelictions from duty of which he might be guilty.

3. His age, education and intelligence are scarcely adequate for him to have as great a sense of responsibility as is necessary and desirable. It will be noted that although he continued at school until he was 16 years of age, he completed only Grade VII.

4. We suggest, therefore, that we are here dealing not with a hardened military malefactor but with an immature individual of somewhat limited intelligence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

in the case of

B136712 Pte Bentley Everett HAUGHTON

RCASC 12 Canadian Light Field Ambulance RCAMC

charged with

absence without leave from 0001 hrs 31 Aug 44 until 1700 hours 23 Dec 44.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

First Witness
K70416 CPL MILLAR W J

I, Cpl Millar W.J. am section clerk of "B" Section, 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb. On 30 August 44 I was in the section lorry having just crossed the Seine River. We had been left behind and Pte Hale one of the section DRs came back for us. When we arrived at the section harbour area about 1800 hours that day I was informed by Capt J.B. Middleboro, our section commander, that he had sent B.136712 Pte Haughton B.E. one of our section DRs to Headquarters 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb to pick up mail,etc. I understand that Pte Haughton was sent on the run to HQ at approx 1500 hours while the section was in convoy. I have not seen Pte Haughton since that date until his recent return to the unit the first week in January.

Cross examination by officer taking summary.

Ql. "Is Capt J.B. Middleboro still commanding "B" Section of 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb?"
Al "N, sir, he was struck of strength on transfer to another unit over a month ago."

Cross examined by the accused.

Ql. "Had you any idea on that day, just how far the section was going before it harboured?"
Al. "No, I had no idea of any definite distance."

(Sgd) W.J. Millar

Second Witness

K 22180 Sgt Dove A
I am K 22180 Sgt Dove A, section Sgt of "B" Section 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb, the section of which B136712 Pte Haughton B E was on strength. I arrived with the section lorry at the section harbour area at approx 1800 hrs 30 Aug 44. On arrival I found that Pte Haughton was absent. On investigation I learned that Pte Haughton had been sent to HQ of 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb at approx 1500 hours that afternoon to pick up the mail. As Pte Haughton was still absent at 2300 hours I reported the absence to the section commander and also told the section clerk to advise HQ 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb of the absence.

Pte Haughton has not been with the Section since that time and I have not seen him until his return to the unit on 5 Jan 45.

Cross examined by officer taking summary.

Q1 "How far would you judge the distance from your section harbour area to HQ 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb to be?"

A1. About 10 miles, sir, but we were in a strange area and I am not sure of what roads were available."

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

(Sgd) A Dove

Third Witness

D81454 CSM (WO II) Birch J

I am D81454 CSM Birch J, Warrant Officer i/c Tpt 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb. On 30 Aug 44, I was at Headquarters 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb and late in the afternoon I saw B136712 Pte Haughton B.E. He drove into HQ lines on his M/C and parked it against a lorry near to where I was standing. I asked him what he was doing here and he stated that he had come for the mail. I told him to take his M/C and get to the mail man. He did so and I never saw him again until his return to the unit on 5 Jan 45.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

(Sgd) John Birch CSM

Fourth Witness

K70678 Sgt Foster, K.W.

I am K70678 Sgt Foster, orderly room serjeant, 12 Cdn Lt Fd Amb. I present herewith copy of certificate of apprehension dated 24 Dec 44, referring to B136712 Pte Haughton BE. This document arrived with Pte Haughton on 5 Jan 45.

(Sgd) K.W. Foster

The Certificate of Apprehension dated 24 Dec 44 produced as documentary evidence was read over to the accused marked exhibit "A", signed by mehd attached hereto.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

(Sgd) PSW Whittington Capt
Officer taking Summary.

The accused was cautioned as follows:

Q.1 "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."

A.1 "I do not wish to say anything."

The accused does not call any witnesses.

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of three pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (c), (d), (e), and (f) have been complied with.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (ii); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(N)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(N), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(N).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans NO SIR. (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

~~B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~ B

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(N) to which the plea(N) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records findings(N) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1) R

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea(s) and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (~~them~~) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1) B

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

THE PROSECUTION PROCEEDS TO CALL WITNESSES.

FIRST WITNESS FOR) Mde Marthe BOULANGER, Heuvel Street No 6 GHENT, Belgium, being THE PROSECUTION) duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. Are you Mde Marthe BOULANGER, Heuvel Street No 6 GHENT, Belgium?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you recognize anybody in this room?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Will you point to who it is?

A. Yes, (Witness points to accused).

Q. How long have you known him?

A. Between six and eight months.

Q. How did you come to know him first?

A. As a customer he came with his watch into my store.

Q. What kind of a store have you?

A. Goldsmith, watchmaker.

Q. How many times have you seen this soldier during the six or seven months you have known him?

A. Eight or nine times, I cannot tell exactly.

Q. Did you see him on 1 Sep last?

A. Yes, he came in my store.

Q. At what time?

A. About 1700 Hrs.

Q. And what happened?

A. He entered my store and asked for my husband.

Q. Was your husband there?

A. No.

Q. What happened then?

A. I told him his watch was repaired and gave it to him.

Q. You?

A. He paid me.

Q. And then what happened?

A. He gave me a 100 francs note and I gave him 50 francs back, at that time a customer entered - the soldier went aside for a few minutes and when the customer left again, the soldier approached me, came behind the counter, he grabbed me and I was compelled - he forced me to enter the room, the next room with him, he pushed me in a chair.

Q. Just a minute, did you try to get away from him?

A. When he forced me to sit down in a chair with a revolver, at that time I was able to stand up, but he threw me on the floor. At that time he opened his pants and showed me his penus. At that time somebody entered and I shouted "there is my husband". I ran out at that time and the soldier also came out and he told the civilian something about one thousand francs which I didn't understand.

Q. Who was the Civilian?

A. One of the witnesses.

Q. What was his name?

A. M. Dubsey.

Q. Yes?

A. I ran away, the soldier started to fight with the civilian Dubsey.

Q. Just a minute here, which happened first, did you get out first or did the fight start first?

A. When the civilian came in, the soldier immediately challenged him for a fight, at that time I went away.

Q. Did the soldier have anything in his hand.

DEFENDING COUNSEL

I object, that is a leading question.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

Yes, reframe that question.

PROSECUTION CONTINUES

Q. Will you describe exactly everything about the soldier and what happened at that point. Describe everything that the soldier did.

A. Do you want me to repeat everything?

Q. Yes everything.

A. He came in about 1700 hrs and asked for my husband.

Q. No, just at this point, he came into the shop with her and challenged the civilian - I want you to tell everything that happened at that point?

A. The civilian just had approached to the counter, the soldier at that time came out of the next room, he told the civilian that I had a thousand francs from him and didn't want to give them back. The soldier tried to fight the civilian, at that time I ran out.

Q. How did he try to fight the civilian?

A. He came out of the next room and went to the civilian who stood near the door and he went to the civilian and said "Come on" - at that time I ran out and do not know what happened after that.

Q. What happened next?

A. The soldier left with his car -

Q. Now wait a minute, you say you ran out, what happened next?

A. I went into the next house and people living there, a man which lives there came with me, at that time the soldier went out of my establishment stepped into his car and drove off.

Q. When did you see the soldier next?

A. A week later I had to identify him.

Q. Where?

A. Leopold Barracks.

Q. How did you have to identify him?

A. He stood with some other soldiers and I had to point him out.

Q. Did you have any trouble pointing him out?

A. No I immediately recognized him for the other soldiers were rather small and he is rather tall.

Q. Is that the only way you recognized him?

A. No, as he was a good customer of mine I immediately recognized him.

Q. You say that when the soldier took you into the other room, he threw you on the floor, where was he then, what position was he in?

A. He lay also upon me on the ground.

Q. And did he do anything else?

DEFENDING OFFICER

I object to that too - she is to say something that she has no right to say.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

On what grounds, leading question?

Yes.

JUDGE ADVOCATE TO PROSECUTOR

You better ask what happened next.

WITNESS CONTINUES

When I was lying on the floor and he showed me his penis but at that time, somebody entered, I was able to escape and ran away, the civilian came into the store.

Q. You say he pointed a revolver at you, did he still have this revolver when he went out of the room?

A. No, at that time, before that time he had already put the revolver back in his tunic but the civilian told me.

Q. Just a minute, did you see the revolver again after then?

A. No, I didn't.

Q. What did you do after the soldier left?

A. With a neighbor of mine went to the civilian police 4th Section.

Q. What did you do next?

A. Then two of the civilian police and I went with them to a civilian police station.

Q. And what did you do there?

A. When a neighbor ... which went to the police station told the civilian police.

Q. Just a moment now, I just went to know what you did, were you present at that time?

A. It was a soldier who was dressed as a civilian who assaulted me.

Q. Just a minute now, you said you went to the civilian police station and now you say a civilian said something, was that in your presence?

A. When the civilian went the first time to the -

Q. Now I am not interested in what the civilian did, I want to know what happened when you went to the police station?

A. I explained.

Q. Explained to who?

A. To the Chief of Police.

Q. What did you say?

DEFENDING OFFICER

I object to that on the grounds that the accused was not present.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

He is asking the witness what she said.

WITNESS CONTINUES

A. The same as I told just now.

Q. Just tell me as closely as you can what you said to the civilian police?

JUDGE ADVOCATE

Before you ask that question, would you establish what time this would be.

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES

Q. What date was this?

A. 1 Sep.

Q. And what time?

A. It happened about 1900 hrs and it happened about 1730 hrs.

Q. Now tell me closely as you can exactly what you said to the civilian police?

A. I told them that a soldier had come into my store, asked for my husband. I told him my husband was not there - I gave him his watch, he paid me at that time. When the civilian left, the soldier came behind the counter, grabbed me and he took me in the back room, he forced me to sit down in a chair. I didn't tell the Civilian Police that the soldier had showed me his penus but told them that at that time the soldier threw me on the floor and that somebody entered, I shouted "There is my husband" - the soldier released me, I was able to get away. I ran out and the civilians entered the store.

Q. Why didn't you tell them that the soldier had taken out his penus?

A. It is hard to say at that time, I was a little shy, the civilian police asked me if something happened, I told them no.

Q. And after you had left the civilian police station, what did you do next?

A. I went with the civilian police to the Can Provost Brabant Lan.

Q. What did you do there?

A. I made there the same statement.

Q. Did you tell them that the soldier had taken out his penus?

A. Yes I did.

Q. Now just tell the Court as close as you can exactly what you told them took place in the back room?

A. He forced me to enter the back room and pushed me in a chair, at that time he pulled his revolver. At that time I was able to stand up from the chair but he struck me and threw me on the floor. When I lay on the floor he took his penus and lay also down on the floor. At that time the tall lady and somebody entered the store.

Q. Right, and after you left the Can Provost, tell what time would this be?

A. The time I went to the Provost was approximately a quarter past six.

Q. And where did you go after that?

A. I went home and took my bicycle and went to my husband.

Q. Where was he?

A. On the Corsedijk of Ghent at Evergem.

Q. About what time did you see him?

A. I finished at Provost Hq at about 1900 hrs, I met my husband at about 2000 hrs.

Q. And what did you do when you saw your husband?

A. I told him everything.

Q. What do you mean by everything?

A. Everything what had happened.

Q. Did you tell him anything more than you told at the Can Provost Office?

A. No I didn't, I told him the same.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. You say that you had known the accused for eight or nine months, is that right?

A. It should be approximately right.

Q. And had been in your store eight or nine times?

A. Approximately, yes.

Q. Did he come there as a friend of yours or as a customer of the shop?

A. Always as a customer.

Q. And what did he buy?

A. He bought a pair of watches and a couple of repairs.

Q. Now about times he used to buy one hundred dollar American bills in your shop?

A. I don't know what you are speaking about.

Q. You never sold the accused, or your husband to your knowledge never sold the accused any one hundred dollar American bills?

A. Not as far as I know.

Q. Going back to the beginning of your story when the customer came,(the accused) entered your shop, you say that you gave him a watch, is that right?

A. Yes it is.

Q. Was he acting peculiarly at all at that time?

A. I don't understand what you mean sir.

Q. After the transaction with the watch money, you have stated that he went around behind the counter and grabbed you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How did he catch you?

A. He first grabbed my arm, next he took me in the -

Q. He grabbed you by the arm?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you scream?

A. I was that scared, I couldn't scream.

Q. And he forced you into the other room?

A. He pulled me into the next room.

Q. Did you try to pull away from him?

A. Yes I did.

Q. Did you try very hard?

A. Yes I did but he was stronger than I was.

Q. When he got you in theother room, he pushed you, you say.

A. Yes.

Q. Did he do it very roughly?

A. Roughly enough.

Q. Then you say he pointed a pistol at you and you stood up, is that right?

A. Yes it is.

Q. And then he threw you on the floor.

A. Yes.

Q. Did he throw you down very hard?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you go to a doctor after this?

A. Yes later in the same afternoon when I went to see my husband in Irungen, I went to a medical sister and she examined me.

Q. When he threw you to the floor, you say he laid down on top of you, is that right?

A. Yes it is.

Q. He lay on you enough so that you couldn't get up and get away, is that right?

A. No, I couldn't escape.

Q. In other words, he was lying flat on top of you, is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. If the soldier was lying flat on top of you, I suggest that it was quite impossible for you to see him undo his pants.

A. I was that scared, I didn't know exactly how it went but all I know is he opened his pants.

Q. If you were so scared that you do not know what happened, why do you come here and tell the Court on oath things that you do not know happened?

A. You asked me sir if he lay flat on me, I don't know exactly how he lay down on me.

Q. But you do remember definitely seeing him open his pants?

A. Yes I do.

Q. In which hand did the accused hold the revolver when he pointed it at you on the chair?

A. Left hand, the revolver was in his left pocket, so he took his left hand.

Q. When you said before that he threw you on the floor, what did he do with the revolver?

A. I guess he put it back in his pocket.

Q. I suggest to you that this soldier was a rather busy man, I suggest that he was lying on top of you holding a revolver in his left hand and was taking out his pants with his right hand.

A. It didn't happen at the same time, there was an interval between. I sat down in the chair when he took his revolver, when I stood up I ran away.

Q. Well where did you run to?

A. I ran to the door to get away but didn't succeed.

Q. Why didn't you succeed?

A. Because he grabbed me again.

Q. Did you reach the door?

A. No.

Q. Did you scream?

A. Yes I did.

Q. You screamed at that time?

A. I did, I screamed but was so scared, there was no sound.

Q. What happened when you heard the doorbell ring?

A. I shouted "There is my husband" - he released me.

Q. Then why in front of the Court did you make the following statement - "The front door bell rang and I called ~~xx~~ Emilius Dubaer"?

A. No, I shouted "My husband is there".

Q. You did not call Emilius Dubaer?

A. When I went out Emilius Dubaer went -

Q. When the front door bell rang, did you call your husband or Emilius Dubaer?

A. I called for my husband.

Q. Why did you state in front of a previous Court that you called for Emilius Dubaer?

A. They probably misunderstood me.

Q. You have appeared before to-day in front of two other Courts, is that right?

A. Yes, one in Brussels and one in Ghent.

Q. Which was first, Brussels or Ghent?

A. Brussels.

Q. On the second Court, did you make a statement "I called Emilius Dubaer".

A. They misunderstood probably.

Q. After you appeared in front of that Court, did you have an opportunity to read your statement?

A. Yes, they translated it to me.

Q. And you signed it?

A. Yes, I signed it but probably at the time the civilian went by it could have been somebody else.

Q. Did you make that statement or not that you called in Emilius Dubaer?

A. I cannot tell you Sir, they probably misunderstood me.

Q. In other words, you did not say it?

A. No I didn't, I shouted "My husband is there", ran to the door and the civilian stood in front of the door.

Q. Did you in front of any other Court say "I called Emilius Dubaer".

A. No.

Q. You have not said it?

A. No, definitely not, they have misunderstood me.

Q. When you went out to the front from the back room, you went first and the soldier followed, is that right?

A. Yes it is.

Q. Did he follow immediately behind you?

A. I ran out and called for the civilian who just went by, Emilius Dubaer and at that time the soldier was right behind me.

Q. When you went in front of the shop Emilius Dubaer was in the shop, is that right?

A. No, he just went by.

Q. You called to him, is that right?

A. Yes I did, he just went by, he just went by the front door.

Q. What caused the door bell to ring?

A. A little boy came in.

Q. A little boy came in, came in your shop?

A. Yes, that is the reason why the bell rang.

Q. You haven't mentioned this little boy before have you?

A. They never asked me for it, I have to answer the questions they put to me.

Q. You stated to the first Court which was I believe in Brussels -

JUDGE ADVOCATE

It might be better if you identify the statement with the signature.

EXAMINATION CONTINUED

Q. Is that your signature?(showing witness original document of sentence)

A. Yes.

Q. In this statement which you have identified as having been signed by you, you stated -"The shop bell rank, I called out "my husband", and the soldier jumped up, I jumped up and ran into the shop. The soldier followed me into the shop, said, "You are me 1000 francs", another customer was in the shop, his name is Emilius Lutzer.

A. I ran out, he went by, I asked him to come in.

Q. Why did you state in front of the other Court that he was in your shop?

A. The witness can tell I am telling the truth.

Q. I am not interested in the witness, I want to know why you made the statement"Another customer was in the shop, his name was Emilius Lutzer".

A. The bell rang, the soldier released me, I jumped up and went outside and Emilius Lutzer went by, I called to him.

Q. Where was the child at this time?

A. I don't know, he probably was gone.

Q. Did this child come in your shop to buy something?

A. The kid passed me some things but I don't know exactly what.

Q. And when the kid was asking you something, you saw Lutzer walking past your shop, is that right?

A. Yes I opened the door and he just came by.

Q. Well why did you say he was already in the shop in front of the other Court?

A. They probably misunderstood me, mistranslated.

Q. In other words you are objecting to this being accepted by this Court as being your true statement.

A. Yes I do, I didn't say what is in that statement.

Q. Was that statement translated for you after you had made it before you signed it?

A. I don't know exactly. They made me sign it. They asked me to sign what I stated.

Q. But they read it back for you and translated it?

A. I guess so, I don't know exactly.

Q. Well if they did, why did you sign it if it was not true?

A. I don't know, I answered the questions they put to me, if they don't translate it the way I tell them, I can't help it.

Q. You read the statement after did you not?

A. I probably did.

Q. And you signed it?

A. Yes I did.

Q. You signed it as being your true statement?

A. Yes, I was in the idea that they had translated it all right.

Q. In other words any time your statements don't jibe, it is the fault of the translator, is that right?

A. I certainly didn't say what is in this statement.

Q. You say the soldier came behind you as you came out in front of the shop, is that right?

A. Yes it is, I run out and called to Emilius Dubeer and the soldier was behind me.

Q. When Emilius Dubeer entered, did you see the child in the shop?

A. Yes the kid went outside.

Q. You saw the child go out, is that right?

A. I don't remember exactly.

Q. You stated a moment ago that the child went out, did the child go out or not?

A. When Emilius Dubeer came in, the kid was already out.

Q. Where was Emilius Dubeer when you called him exactly?

A. He just went by.

Q. The child at that time was in the shop, is that right?

A. I don't know exactly.

Q. Did you ever see this child?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you sure there was a child in your shop?

A. The door opened and the first one to come in was a kid.

Q. And you have never at any time stated that Emilius Dubeer was in the shop when you entered?

A. I didn't state that, I always told that I ran out and called for Dubeir to come in.

Q. On the second Court, did you state to that Court -"The front door bell rang, I called Emilius Dubaer. The soldier got up off of me, pointed this pistol at Emilius Dubaer", did you make that statement?

A. No it is not -

Q. You have never made that statement?

A. I must have been mistranslated.

Q. Is that your signature? (showing witness original statement made on 4th January Bundle of Evidence).

A. Yes.

Q. Was this statement read over to you and translated to you before you signed it?

A. I don't know exactly, whether they read it over to me or not. I answered the questions they put to me.

Q. You have a very convenient memory, you totally omit the two statements which I have shown you with your signature, is that right?

A. I don't say that, but I just didn't state the way you tell me.

Q. In other words they are not true?

A. They may be the truth but I never said Dubaer was in the shop and they never asked me that question.

Q. When the soldier reached the shop behind you and this child had left and Dubaer entered, you say that the soldier stated you owed him a thousand Francs?

A. Dubaer spoke to the soldier and the soldier told Dubaer I owed him a thousand francs.

Q. In what language did he speak to Dubaer?

A. Probably in English but Dubaer said -

Presumption

Oh, that is hearsay.

Examination Continued

Q. You say he spoke in English, is that right?

A. Yes he did, but he also spoke Flemish to Dubaer.

Q. And he said you owed him a thousand francs?

A. Yes, he said that in English.

Q. Weren't you a little surprised that he stated that you owed him a 1000 francs?

A. Emilius Dubaer told him I didn't owe him a thousand francs at all and I ran out.

Q. How did Dubaer know whether you owed him a thousand francs or not?

A. I told Dubaer that somebody had assaulted me, so he came in.

Q. You told Dubaer that somebody had assaulted you, but did he know whether you owed a thousand francs or not?

A. You will have to ask Dubaer.

Q. Does Dubeau know your financial position very well?

A. No, Dubeau doesn't know at all.

Q. Why did you not tell the police in the first place, the civilian police, all the details of what had taken place in your shop.

A. I told them everything, the only thing I didn't tell was he showed me his penus.

Q. Why didn't you tell them?

A. Nothing else happened and it is pretty hard to say.

Q. When you left the Civilian Police Station after having found it very hard to say, did you go to the Cdn Provost Coy?

A. Yes.

Q. How far away are they?

A. Two minutes maybe.

Q. But you did tell all the details to the Cdn Police did you not?

A. Yes I did.

Q. You didn't find it hard to tell?

A. I became a little better by that time.

Q. You overcame your shyness in ten minutes, is that right?

A. It lasted till 1930 hrs.

Q. Was it at the beginning or at the end of the interview that you told the Cdn Provost that he had taken out his penus?

A. When the police told me to tell everything, so at last I told.

Q. Did the Civilian Police tell you to tell everything?

A. They didn't ask me for it.

Q. I put it to you that this incident never took place that you made up your story on the way to the Civil Police and you increased your story on the way to the Cdn Provost Coy?

A. You asked me to tell the truth, I swore I would and I swear everything is the truth.

Q. But before the other courts you swore then to tell the truth didn't you?

A. Which Court?

Q. Before the other two Courts, one in Brussels and one in Ghent?

A. I told just the same as I do here.

Q. In other words everyone is wrong but you?

A. There is only one thing wrong, that I shouted "There is my husband" and I ran outside and called Dubeau to come in.

Q. In other words these are the only two mistakes you have made on the witness stand to-day, is that right?

A. Yes sir, all the rest is exact.

Q. In other words these were the two mistakes you made here to-day?

A. You mean which mistake?

Q. The one about calling Duhaer and the one about Duhaer being in the shop?

A. No I didn't call for Duhaer.

Q. When you went to this medical sister, did she recommend that you should go to a hospital?

A. No she didn't.

Q. Did your husband go with you to this medical sister?

A. That medical sister was there at the time at the place where I went to see my husband.

Q. Was she a friend of yours?

A. She is a neighbor of ours out there.

Q. And she was at the place where your husband was?

A. She was in the garden, also was my husband.

Q. At what time did that take place?

A. 2015 hrs.

Q. You stated when you arrived at the place where your husband was staying, that she and your husband were in the garden?

A. Yes.

Q. Why did you say before that you went to a medical sister later in the afternoon?

A. She lives and is a neighbor of ours out there and from Saturday on she is there and so am I.

Q. Why did you say earlier that you went later in the afternoon to see a medical sister?

A. I didn't have to go because she was already there, I perhaps made a mistake.

Q. Oh, in this case the mistake is yours is it?

Q. When you got to the house, your husband and the medical sister were in the garden, is that right?

A. Yes it is.

Q. What is the name of the Medical Sister?

A. Nellie Kliesten.

Q. She was in the garden with your husband when you got there?

A. They were in the garden when I arrived there, they were about ten metres between each other.

Q. Both in the same garden, or in two different gardens?

A. My husband was on the path and she was in the garden.

Q. Did he call her over or did you?

A. On my arrival, I started to scream and she came.

Q. Why did you start screaming?

A. I don't know why I did.

Q. You didn't scream when you were being assaulted did you?

A. Yes I did, when I ran out and saw M. Dubaer I called to him and started screaming out.

Q. Did you make any further visits to a doctor after this medical sister?

A. No, the first night I couldn't sleep, so she gave me some pills to make me sleep.

Q. I put it to you that from the time you came into the Court until now you have been lying consistently that your story has vestige of truth in it?

A. You asked me for the truth and I told it.

Q. And the other times when you gave evidence on oath, where there was any difference, it was all the fault of others?

A. They probably misunderstood me.

RE-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTION

Q. Did you make a mistake to-day when you said, "When the shop door rung, I called out for my husband"?

A. I called my husband.

Q. The question was did you make a mistake when you said that?

A. I don't understand exactly what you mean sir.

Q. You said to-day, when the shop door rung, I called out "My Husband", is that the truth or not?

A. Yes it is, that is right.

Q. You said to-day -"I saw Emilius Dubaer passing and I called out to him", is that the truth or not?

A. When I was outside of the house.

Q. Where were you when you called out"my husband" ?

A. Lying on the ground.

Q. Where?

A. In the back room.

Q. Where were you when you called to Emilius Dubaer?

A. On the door.

Q. On what door?

A. Front door, I didn't call for Dubaer for I didn't know his name.

Q. What did you say?

A. Somebody assaulted me.

Q. How did you direct Emilius Dubaer's attention?

A. I told him sir, "Will you come in, somebody assaults me".

COURT

Q. Had this soldier ever been in the back room on any previous visit?

A. No.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 82(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDREW

PRESIDING OFFICER

I would like to ask the Court at this point that in the event of an adjournment, that the witnesses be kept apart.

PRESIDENT

Yes - That is rather difficult for the Court to manage but we will take the other witness B. Sadlier right away.

[illegible] SADLIER, [illegible], Belgium, being duly sworn, [illegible]

EXAMINATION BY [illegible]

Q. Are you L. Sadlier Sadlier, [illegible]?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you recognise anybody in this room?

A. Yes. (Witness points to the accused)

Q. Did you see that soldier on the first day last?

A. Yes sir.

Q. At what time?

A. Between twenty to and a quarter to five, I can't tell exactly.

Q. Where?

A. M. Stephart's house.

Q. Will you tell exactly what happened?

A. I passed by Stephart's house and Madame stood in the door gate, she asked me to come in for somebody had assaulted her, her face was blue and pale.

PRESIDENT

Will you explain to the witness that you have to translate everything he says into English and if he talks too long, it is going to be confusing.

WITNESS CONTINUED

When I stood there for about five minutes, I saw somebody wearing civilian clothes standing behind her. I heard him say two or three times to Madame "You owe me a thousand francs". The man then went outside, he went to his car and threw something in it, he then came back and came to me and ordered me three times to go in. The third time he took me by the throat and pushed me inside. That is all I know. He then went outside as a crowd gathered around, he went to his car and pulled off. That is all I know.

Q. Who was this civilian that you say you saw in there?

A. The man I pointed out (witness points to accused).

Q. What did you do when this woman Mme Boelaerts spoke to you first?

A. I didn't move, I still stood on the street with her.

Q. Why did you stay on the street?

A. Madame asked me to stay outside with her.

Q. What did you do then?

A. Nothing, I stood outside and waited to see what is going to happen.

Q. Where was this civilian when you first saw him?

A. He came from the back room, out of the kitchen. He then went towards me and at that time he spoke of a thousand francs, in the store.

Q. Where were you?

A. In the door gate.

Q. Did he say anything to you?

A. Three times he told me "Binnen" Flemish for Come in.

Q. Was this before or after he went to the car?

A. He first went to the car, and when he came back, he spoke to me and next he went outside again and drove off.

Q. When he said "Come in", did you go in?

A. No.

Q. And what happened then?

A. He then grabbed me by the throat and pushed me inside there. I stood approximately one metre inside the store.

Q. Were you afraid of him?

A. Yes I was.

Q. Why?

A. When he pushed me inside he pulled out a revolver out of his right pocket but I stood very close to him.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING COUNSEL

Q. Were you past the door of the shop when Madame called you?

A. When I came by, Madame called me.

Q. You were right in front of the door at that time?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you stay right in front of the door all the time?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you see anyone else in the house outside of the accused and Madame?

A. No.

Q. Was there anyone else in the house or shop?

A. I don't think so.

Q. Were you in a position where you could have seen anyone else come out of the shop?

A. Yes definitely. No one could have come out but I would have seen them.

Q. You didn't see a child in the shop?

A. No.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO RE-EXAMINE

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 95 (B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

AT 1240 HOURS ON THE 10TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1945, THE COURT ADJOURNED UNTIL 1430 HOURS ON THE 10TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1945.

ON THE 10TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1945, AT 1430 HOURS, THE COURT RECONVENED PURSUANT TO ADJOURNMENT, THOSE BEING PRESENT THE SAME PERSONS AS WHEN ADJOURNED.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION) No 106 Inspector Edmond DE MEESTER, No 1 Police Station, GHENT, att 1 Can Provost Corps GHENT, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. Are you No 106 Inspector Edmond DE MEESTER, No 1 Police Station, GHENT, att 1 Can Provost Corps GHENT?

A. Which section?

Q. First section, att Can Provost Corps, Ghent.

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know Mme Boelaerts?

A. No sir.

Q. Have you ever seen her?

A. No I have never seen her.

Q. Do you know Francis STEVAERT?

A. No Sir.

Q. Do you remember anything that happened on the 1st Sep last?

A. I was on duty at our HQ and Mme came down to our HQ and she was telling me just what happened at her place Hovel Street No 6, the real name is Overrevel Street.

Q. About what time was this?

A. It was on a Saturday, so I came on duty at four o'clock and as I remember it would be about 6.30 or seven o'clock on Saturday afternoon so I told to Sgt Newman -

Q. Now just a moment, will you just tell the Court what she told you.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

Just a moment, before you do this, you are introducing this witness as "recent complaint" and therefore I must warn the Court that evidence of "recent complaint" is admissible provided it is recent and is made at the first available opportunity, not as evidence of the facts as stated but as evidence of the consistency of the conduct of the prosecutrix. The evidence may be given so far only as relates to the accused and you will have to establish Capt Thompson that it was voluntarily given and not as a result of questions. You will have to establish before the Court how the evidence was obtained.

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES

Q. Will you tell the Court how you happened to see her at that time?

A. Well because Mme came down to our HQ and I was on duty that night, as the interpreter was not there, so she told me what happened and I told to Sgt Newman what the score was so he said to take a statement from Mme who was with two police from the 5th Section and I asked her to sit down. I took the statement and Sgt Newman was there, I took it in Flemish. Once the statement was made, I made her sign it and I gave the statement to Sgt Newman who gave it to the interpreter who had to translate from Flemish into English. That is the way I came into the Boulearts for the first time while doing my duties.

Q. When she first came to you, how did she tell you this, was it as a result of being asked questions or was it voluntary on her part?

A. No, she had been first to the police section and they sent her to our section.

Q. Now you said when she first came to you she told you something, now was that because you questioned her or on her own?

A. No I didn't ask questions, she told me the story and I took it down in Flemish. It only lasted a half hour that is all and in the presence of the civilian policemen I told her to go home and I gave the statement to Sgt Newman to give it to the interpreter to have it translated, that is what you asked me sir.

PROSECUTION

I would ask the witness to give evidence of the statement which she gave?

DEFENDING OFFICER

I object

JUDGE ADVOCATE

On what grounds?

DEFENDING OFFICER

Because she stated that she gave the full details under questions by the Provost.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER AS TO ADMISSIBILITY OF STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED

Q. When this woman came to you and sat down and gave the statement did you ask her any questions?

A. No sir.

Q. During the statement?

A. Yes I had to ask the day and hour, I have to on all statements.

Q. When she gave you the statement did you consider it first in all, is that the full details?

A. Yes sir, at the end when she finished to tell, I said is that all, she said "Yes" and then I told her, please sign the statement.

Q. But you did ask her some questions?

A. No.

Q. The time and date?

A. Of course.

Q. Then you asked her some questions?

A. No.

Q. You asked her at what time it took place?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that a question or not?

A. It is our duty.

Q. Is it a question?

A. It is our duty to ask . .

Q. Inspector I am not insinuating that you have gone beyond your duty, now you have told the Court that you asked her the date?

DEFENDING COUNSEL SUBMITS THAT THE STATEMENT TAKEN BY THIS WITNESS IS NOT ADMISSIBLE AS EVIDENCE

Sir, questions were asked as to date and hour and at the end she was questioned as to whether that was all. I submit to the Court that the evidence is inadmissible because it was obtained under questioning and I ask that all the evidence introduced by this witness be disregarded on the evidence of the previous witness Jane Boelaerts who stated she told all the story under questioning.

PROSECUTOR ADDRESSING

Mr President, I submit that certain things such as date and hour had to be brought out by questioning and I submit that what she did say without questioning is evidence and must be brought out.

THE PROSECUTOR DECLINES TO REPLY

DEFENDING COUNSEL ADDRESSING THE COURT

Mr President, the prosecution is seeking to introduce into evidence a statement made by a female, sic, to another witness. This is what is known in law as "complaint". Complaints of this nature are allowed in cases such as the accused is charged with. The mere fact that the statement is made in answer to a question is not in itself sufficient to make it inadmissible as a complaint. The question for the Court is whether the statement is spontaneous in the sense that it is an unsolicited and unvarnished story of what happened. In such case the decision as to the character of any questions put, the relationship between the questioner and the complainant, as well as the other circumstances, are matters within the discretion of the Court. The Court must be satisfied that what was told was an unsolicited and unvarnished story, not a story fabricated by leading questions or coaxing as a result of leading questions. Are there any further questions by President, the Court or the Defending or Prosecuting Counsel?

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE OBJECTION OF THE DEFENDING COUNSEL.

THE COURT HAS ALLOWED THE OBJECTION OF THE DEFENDING COUNSEL AND HAS RULED THAT THE STATEMENT MADE TO THE WITNESS IS INADMISSIBLE AS EVIDENCE.

THE COURT IS RESUMED AND THE PRESIDENT TELLS THE PROSECUTOR IN OPEN COURT THE RULING CONCERNING THE OBJECTION BY DEFENDING COUNSEL.

Q. Would you give to the Court as closely as you can remember exactly what this woman told you?

A. Well the woman came down that afternoon and as far as I remember because it is a delicate question, as far as I remember that soldier has a bronze arm watch in repair in that shop so the soldier came down to fetch this wrist watch back again. As far as I remember was there has been between that a question which I think now according to what the Boelaerts said and which I have put down in the statement that he tried to rape that woman. He, that soldier, had thrown that woman on the floor also according to the statement of the Boelaerts he had thrown her on the floor and he tried to rape her. That is all gentlemen and that is in the statement in Flemish which should be here in the Court.

PRESIDENT

I know Inspector but we can only take what we get under oath. We cannot introduce any statements, that is why you were called here

PRESIDENT TO WITNESS CONTINUED

TO/T.M.Y. The evidence must be under oath.

WITNESS CONTINUES

I only took down on my statement what Mme Boelaerts told me you see

THE PROSECUTOR CONTINUES

Q. Now when she said he attempted to rape her, was that said voluntary or was it said as a result of questions on your part?

A. No I didn't make any more questions to her because it was a very delicate question and I let her talk and I wrote it down.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. When this woman came to see you, did she seem to be in a very disturbed state?

A. Something yes, I suppose that woman would be more emotive, she was not very excited either such an event.

Q. In other words would you not think the woman was not as excited as if someone had tried to rape her?

A. Yes, I was surprised, she said she knew that soldier for several months, that was surprising to me, she was not very excited. Other women they usually cry or tell or shouting or something like that but she was not.

Q. She did not scream or go into hysterics?

A. No, she was rather calm, she didn't cry or something.

Q. Did she name the soldier who she claimed had tried to rape her?

A. No sir, I cannot remember.

Q. But you are of the opinion that the average woman who someone has attempted to rape would be more excited and hysterical than this woman was?

A. Yes sir, that is what I think.

THE PROSECUTOR RECURRED TO RE-EXAMINE

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 58 (2).

THE WITNESS WITHDREW.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION } M. Francis [illegible] (Husband of Mme Boelaert) 6 Overboorts Street GHENT, Belgium, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:

Q. Are you M. Francis [illegible], husband of Mme Boelaert, 6 Overboorts Street, Ghent?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Can you speak English?

A. Just a little.

Q. Do you remember seeing your wife on 1 Sep last?

A. Yes I do.

Q. At what time?

A. About 2000 hrs.

Q. Where?

A. At Drongen.

Q. Under what circumstances did you see her?

A. She was overtime, she came in screaming. I went to her and asked her what had happened. She told me that she had been assaulted at home. I asked her what had happened, how it happened.

DEFENDING OFFICER

I object to this. I don't think it can be justified under the grounds of "Recent Complaint". It happened 4 or 5 hours after.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

You are objecting on the grounds that it was not made on the first available opportunity?

PROSECUTOR

I submit that it was at the first available opportunity.

DEFENDING OFFICER

If the crime was committed to-day and you didn't see some other person for three years, then after three years it isn't "Recent complaint". In this case three hours passed which to me is equal to three years.

PROSECUTOR

Sir, in this case the logical first thing to do would be to go to the police and as soon as she had gone to the police, she proceeded to the place out of town where her husband was and I submit that under these circumstances it was the first opportunity she had to complain to her husband about it.

DEFENDING OFFICER WITHDRAWS HIS OBJECTION

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES WITH THE EXAMINATION IN CHIEF OF WIT WITness

Q. Will you tell the Court slowly and as exactly as possible everything she told you at that time?

A. She told me the soldier assaulted her and threw her on the floor and held up her dress and he then pulled out his penis and tried. Somebody entered, a little bit, the soldier released her and she ran out.

Q. When she told all this, did she say it spontaneously, of her own accord or did she say it as a result of questions you asked her?

A. I simply asked her what was wrong because she was screaming and she was quite sad, she started to tell me everything spontaneously.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY DEFENDING OFFICER

Q. Where did you have lunch to-day?

A. At home.

Q. Did you have lunch with your wife?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you discuss the case?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you ask her what occured in this Court this morning?

A. Yes.

Q. And she told you?

A. Yes.

Q. Where about's were you when you first saw your wife on the 1st of May?

A. I was at Irvgen.

Q. Yes but where about?

A. At the week-end cottage.

Q. Which room were you in, in the week-end cottage?

A. There is only one room.

Q. And you were in that room?

A. I was in the garden.

Q. Why did you tell the previous Court that you were in the house?

A. I didn't say so.

Q. May I refer to the original statement, have you appeared before a previous Court?

A. Never.

Q. Have you ever made a statement before a Con Court before?

A. On this case?

Q. Yes?

A. Yes I had to go to Brakent Inn.

Q. Did you make a statement there?

A. Yes by means of an interpreter.

Q. Did your wife tell you this morning that an interpreter was a very useful thing?

A. No she said it was not very easy for her at times.

Q. Did you make a statement in front of that Court?

A. Yes.

Q. After you made that statement, was it translated to you?

A. It was not.

Q. Are you saying that the Con Officer who signed that [illegible] was compiled with was a liar?

A. No.

Q. Was he lying?

A. The interpreter who was up there just simply told me a summary but he translated it completely right away.

Q. The interpreters, you mean, are not very good?

A. There were four interpreters.

Q. Is that your signature, you have signed that this was correct? (Defending Offr shows witness signature on his statement attached to supplementary Summary of Evidence).

A. By means of the interpreter, yes.

Q. The interpreter says that you said that "when my wife came into the house screaming", is that right or not?

A. In the house at Drongen?

Q. Yes, she came in the house screaming?

A. In the garden.

Q. There is a difference between the garden and the house, where did she come in?

A. She entered the garden, next she entered the house and was still screaming.

Q. She was still screaming, she was very upset was she?

A. She was very excited but not hysterical.

Q. Was she screaming?

A. Yes.

Q. Who else was in the garden with you?

A. Three children, a man and a woman.

Q. Who was the woman?

A. In the next house.

Q. Was she in your garden?

A. No.

Q. She was not in your garden?

A. No.

Q. Are you certain she was not in your garden?

A. When she saw my wife coming and that my wife was screaming, she came in the house.

Q. Where was she first, was she in the garden or was she not in the garden?

A. Between the door and the garden.

Q. Between what door?

A. The front door.

Q. Of your house?

A. Of her house.

Q. In other words she was not in your garden?

A. No, it is everybody's garden.

Q. Oh I see, have you ever sold American dollar bills?

A. No.

Q. Never to anyone?

A. No.

Q. I put it to you that you have sold American Dollar bills?

A. No never.

Q. How long have you known the accused?

A. six months.

Q. How often have you seen him?

A. Maybe six, seven or eight times.

Q. Did you see him as a friend or how did you see him?

A. Just as a customer for having his watch repaired and for buying watches, he bought two of them.

Q. He bought two watches from you?

A. Yes.

Q. How many repairs did he have done in your place?

A. Maybe four watches.

Q. Are you suggesting to me and to this Court that you sold this man two new watches and that he went to your place six, seven or eight times to have them repaired four times. Do you repair watches?

A. Yes I do.

Q. Do they stay repaired when you repair them?

A. As long as you don't drop them or fight with them.

Q. This man bought two watches from you and he went to your place 7,8 or 9 times to have these two watches repaired, is that right?

A. Every time it was small repairs once a glass, another time something else, the last time the watch was broken, the upper part of the watch was completely broken.

Q. How long have you been married?

A. ten years approximately.

Q. Have you seen your wife as excited before as she was on this occasion.

A. No never.

Q. How far away from you was she when you first noticed that something was wrong?

A. Approximately ten metres.

Q. In other words ten yards or metres away you could easily see she was excited and screaming, is that right?

A. When I spoke to her, she started screaming.

Q. I put it to you that you have been selling American dollar bills?

A. No sir.

Q. I put it to you that you discussed thoroughly with your wife at lunch time the evidence which she gave before this Court this morning, is that right?

A. I was very surprised when she told me and I guessed that this was the way that they should try to avoid the soldier to be condemned.

Q. Did you ask her what evidence she gave before this Court?

A. No, I didn't have much time, I was rather busy in the store.

Q. Were you working in the store at lunch time to-day?

A. No, but when there is customers, I have to go and serve them.

Q. Did she tell you what evidence she gave before this Court?

A. She told me that she had to tell everything what she already told the first time.

Q. Did she tell you that in detail?

A. No she told me previously all about it.

Q. But you did discuss the case rather thoroughly?

A. Yes because I had to come here, it is quite natural that I discussed the matter with her.

Q. Yes and you discussed with her what she had told?

A. She told me previously about it.

THE COURT

Q. How far is it from your shop to your place in Drongen?

A. About half an hour.

Q. Walking, riding or how?

A. With a bicycle.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83(B).

THE WITNESS WITHDRAWS.

DEFENDING OFFICER

I would like to have it recorded in the proceedings at this point that I previously requested that in the event of an adjournment that the witnesses be kept separate and according to the evidence of this last witness, this has not been done.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER SUBMITS THAT A PRIMA FACIE CASE HAS NOT BEEN ESTABLISHED BY THE PROSECUTION WITH RESPECT TO THE CHARGE

I would like to submit to the Court for the Defence that no Prima Facie case has been established. I would like to draw the attention of the Court at this time to the actual charge involved which is "Assault with intent to Commit Felony, in that he, on or about 1 Sep 45, the accused assaulted Mme Marthe BOELAERTS, with intent to ravish her." And I think I am correct at this time to direct the Courts attention that the only evidence introduced here to-day which has anything to do whatsoever with the charge is the evidence about what happened in the back room. After she emerged from the back room and what she told to any of the witnesses doesn't matter at all to the points of the case. The fact is, it must be established what happened in the back room. It is a sound legal principle that in any case where assault or rape is alleged to have taken place, that the primary requisit is any medical testimony. This woman has told us this morning that she has been dragged in a room, pushed in a chair and thrown on the floor, yet the prosecution has not at any time adduced any evidence to show bruises or marks or any ill effects. It is with the submission for the Defence that these are requisitions of any prosecution in a case of this kind. The only evidence which has been brought by the prosecution as regards the actual charge is the evidence of Mme Boelaerts and I would ask you for that reason to disregard all the other evidence, none of which touches what happened in the back room. We have here many versions of what happened in the back room all from Mme BOELAERTS. It is not sufficient for her to say it was the fault of the translater - I don't believe that the interpreters are careless, I can't bring myself to believing that such carelessness was all the interpreters fault. She gave two previous statements on oath, one in Brussels and one in Ghent, both statements differ but when asked about it to-day, it is the fault of the translater or interpreter. There is no denying these are her statements as her signature is on them and she admits it is her signature but claims the differences to be the fault of the interpreter. I would ask the Court how much value they can place on her word when she gives evidence before this Court. There are two pieces of evidence which are very necessary in a charge of this kind and those are Medical Testimony and what actually happened in that back room. Neither one of these pieces of evidence have been produced by the Prosecution and I therefore submit that a Prima Facie case has not been established by the Prosecution and I would ask that the charge against the accused should be dismissed now.

THE PROSECUTOR ANSWERS

Mr President, there is I submit evidence before the Court on which you could logically convict the accused as charged. There is uncontradicted evidence before the Court that the accused grabbed the woman pulled her by the arm, pushed her onto the chair, threw her on the floor, threatened her with a revolver and got on top of her and the question of intent to ravish, there is uncontradicted evidence before the Court that he took out his penus and got on top of her, also that she tried to get away from him. When he had her by the arm that she tried to run away from him, when she got up from the chair but was grabbed by him and thrown on the floor and again with the revolver, all of which shows on his part an intent to ravish her notwithstanding a resistance on her part. I therefore submit that there is sufficient evidence before the Court to put the accused on his defence.

THE JUDGE ADVOCATE ADVISES THE COURT

Mr President, Members of the Court, the defence has submitted that the charge against the accused should be dismissed at this stage, that the Prosecution has failed to introduce a Prima Facie Case. At this stage of proceedings the Court need not consider the credibility of witnesses nor that the Prosecution has proved its case beyond a "reasonable doubt". The Court need only consider if sufficient evidence has been adduced by the Prosecution upon which if uncontradicted, the Court could convict the accused. If the Court feels that there is sufficient evidence upon which they could convict the accused, then they should disallow the submission of the Defending Officer. If on the other hand they feel that there is not sufficient evidence upon which they could convict the accused, then they should allow the submission.

With regard to the evidence before this Court, I wish to warn the Court again that the evidence of what was said to the Police Inspector and to M. STEYAERT by the Prosecutrix is to be regarded as a "complaint" and it is not evidence of the facts complained of evidence of consistency of the conduct of the Prosecutrix only. At the present time the only evidence to be considered as to the facts is the evidence given by the Prosecutrix herself at the trial.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION OF THE DEFENDING OFFICER.

THE COURT DISALLOWS THE SUBMISSION OF THE DEFENDING OFFICER AND THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE DECISION IS ANNOUNCED IN OPEN COURT.

"D-6"

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE DEFENCE) B.136643 Pte Moses HAVELIN, (the accused), RCASC, 13 Bn, 2 CBRG, att Cdn Sec HQ Brussels Grn, being duly sworn, is examined by the Defending Officer:

Q. For how long a time have you know M. Francis STEYAERT and Mme Marthe BOELAERTS?

A. Since last June sir.

Q. Will you tell the Court in your own words how you came to know them and what transactions you have had with them?

A. I have bought two watches from them and a diamond ring as I was making a little bit of money rolling dice and one of the other soldiers was buying American money so he was a fairly good friend of mine and I asked where he was getting it. He said -"I'll take you to the place where you can buy any amount of American money you want, maybe some Cdn money." So he took me to this jewellery shop where I bought some American money from the husband of this woman. Later I showed some American money to an American soldier. He told me it was counterfeit.

PROSECUTOR

I suggest this is hearsay.

JUDGE ADVOCATE

We allow the Defence greater leniency Mr Thompson.

WITNESS CONTINUES

It was a hundred dollar bill which was counterfeit and so I took it back the 1st Sep to get my Belgian money back for it. I paid 6000 Belgian francs for the $100 bill and all they would give me back was 5,000 francs.

Q. Who?

A. Mme Boelaerts, so we had an argument. I wanted my 100 dollar bill back and she could keep the 5,000 francs until she saw her husband and by that time she had locked it in the safe. She told me to take the 5,000 or she would call the police, so as I was AWL from the army, then I left.

Q. Where did this discussion take place?

A. In the room next to the Jewelery shop.

Q. What happened when you emerged from the back room?

A. She went out, she told me she was going to call the police.

Q. Did she say what for?

A. No she didn't.

Q. How were you dressed?

A. I was dressed in civilian clothes.

Q. Did she know you were a Cdn soldier?

A. Yes sir.

Q. She had seen you in uniform?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you at any time assault this woman?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you lay your hands on her in any way?

A. No sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY THE PROSECUTOR

Q. How do you account for the fact that you had a revolver in your hand when you came out of the door?

A. I had no revolver.

Q. You heard the evidence of this civilian who was standing at the door and said you had a revolver?

DEFENDING OFFICER

Objection, the witness in question never stated that the accused had a revolver in his right hand.

PRESIDENT

He stated he had it in his right hand pocket.

PROSECUTOR CONTINUES

Q. What was this revolver doing in your pocket?

A. I didn't have one.

Q. How do you account for the fact that this witness says you had a revolver in your pocket?

A. I never had a revolver in the army, I was issued with a sten gun on the 10th of May last.

Q. Where did you get this car from?

A. It was a taxi.

Q. Do you travel around in taxis usually?

A. No, just on short trips.

Q. Why did you tell this civilian to get inside the shop?

A. I forget about saying that.

Q. You didn't want them to have a chance to follow you, isn't that correct?

A. No, I wouldn't say that.

Q. What would you say?

A. I told her I would come back and see her husband about this money.

Q. You knew that you weren't supposed to change francs into American money didn't you?

A. Well, there are a lot of soldiers do.

Q. Do you know of any reason this civilian would have for saying you had a revolver, or grabbing him by the throat and shoving him inside the store?

A. No.

Q. So you consider that you were justified under the circumstances for anything that you did in the store, is that correct?

A. I don't understand.

Q. I mean you consider that inasmuch as you were engaged in illegal trade that the only way you could see to get your money back was by using force?

A. Yes with her husband because when he gave me than money, he said it was genuine money.

Q. How do you know the francs were genuine?

A. They had the water-mark on them.

Q. Are you an expert on currency?

A. No, but I have had a little experience with it.

Q. Now you don't know whether this American money was false or not do you?

A. No, not until the American soldier told me.

Q. And as far as you were concerned you took his word from him?

A. Yes.

Q. You didn't take it to a bank?

A. I had heard other soldiers talking about counterfeit money, so I thought I would change it back into Belgian francs.

Q. Then you figured if you gave her a scare that she may give you the money back?

A. Well I told her I wanted my money back, I got in the car and went away.

Q. Only when she wouldn't give you the money back, you naturally would get very angry, is that true?

A. No it didn't bother me at all, I told her I would come back and see her husband about it.

Q. Well now, you don't deny that you took hold of her arm do you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Why would she go out and complain to a "passer by" if she had nothing to fear?

A. Maybe she thought I was going to take something in the shop to cover up for the thousand francs.

Q. What reason would she have for thinking that?

A. I wouldn't go when she told me.

Q. What did you do?

A. I told her I wanted a thousand francs.

Q. You didn't threaten her in any way at all?

A. No sir.

Q. Why did you go out?

A. Because I was AWL and if the police had come I would have been picked up and I wanted to go back to the unit and give myself up. I was going back the Tuesday coming.

Q. When were you coming back to see her husband?

A. Her husband was coming back on Monday and I was coming back to see him. I have witnesses to swear I bought the money there and they are in camp, one is an officer and the other is a Bdr and they are in camp now.

Q. You say you did your dealings with her husband?

A. Yes sir.

COURT

Q. How long had you had this bill before you were told it was counterfeit?

A. I had it for quite a while sir.

Q. And how long before you went to recover your francs?

A. Well I heard it as a rumour and so decided to take it back.

Q. This date the 1st Sep, is that the date you first tried to recover it?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And you got part payment back for it that day?

A. Yes sir.

Q. She took it upon herself to give you 5,000 but not 6,000 francs?

A. Yes sir.

PRESIDENT

Q. You did get 5,000 francs back?

A. Yes sir. I can go and get 5,000 francs now, my girl friend can tell you that I have sold American money at that jewelery shop.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT AND THE JUDGE ADVOCATE IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R.P. 83 (B).

THE WITNESS RESUMES HIS SEAT

THE DEFENCE HAS NO FURTHER WITNESSES

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

THE PROSECUTOR MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS:

Mr President and Members of the Court, there has been considerable emphasis in alleged inconsistency between statements by the complainant, to her second statement made on the supplementary summary of evidence and her statement to-day. The whole inconsistency that has been stressed is the question of whether she called out the name of this man Emilius Dubaer or her husband when the bell rang, but the whole thing is quite clear from what she said to-day. First when the bell rang she called out that it was her husband, then when she went out to the front door, she called to this many who was passing. There may be a few minor variations as to unimportant details between various statements but I submit that under the stress of a situation like that, the witness could not remember all the details perfectly that happened and we have it too that the difficulties arising taking evidence through an interpreter, it is impossible to be sure what the witness means. In any event, there are no variations from essential points in her evidence. First that the accused grabbed her arm and pulled her into the back room, then that he pushed her on to the chair, threw her on the floor, threatened her with a revolver and got on top of her, all of which, or any one of which constitutes an assault. In addition to that the evidence is clear on the point that he undone his trousers and took out his penus and combined with the fact that he got on top of her. I would submit that these facts show and can show nothing else but an intent of his part to ravish her. She had tried to get away from him when he held her by the arm and again when she got out of the chair, he had threatened her with the revolver, all of which shows he had intended to ravish her inspite of the resistance on her part. This evidence substantiates the charge against the accused and it is corroborated by the evidence of the civilian Emilius Dubaer who was passing by at the time and was called by her and told that she had been assaulted and saw the accused come out with a revolver in his pocket. He also gives evidence that after the accused went to the car, he came back and told him to get inside and forced him to go inside by grabbing him by the throat all of which confirms that the accused didn't want to be followed and confirms that he was armed at the time and there has been no suggestion why the civilian should state this if he was not. Then the consistency of the behavior of the complainant is shown by the fact that she complained to the Cdn Military Police of an attempt to rape her within a period of an hour or so after this happened and then later as soon as she saw her husband. The accused naturally enough denies everything that has been stated against him and accuses these people of dealing in American money which is or which can be regarded as a story which might be cooked up in order to discredit them and to help him. However even if the Court does accept his statement that they were dealing in money and he did have some trouble about money, I would submit that there was an assault, then it may have been prompted by some disagreement between them. She wouldn't go and summon a civilian to come in without some reason and under the circumstances assuming that what the accused said did happen, I would submit that being armed, in all probability he did assault this woman, even though from the feeling of temporary anger. In any event, inspite of his denying that he had a revolver there is the evidence of the civilian who has nothing to do with the case whatsoever and there is also his evidence that the accused grabbed him and shoved him in the shop. Under these circumstances, I would submit that the Court must find the accused guilty of the charge and in any event that the evidence shows beyond any reasonable doubt that there was at least an assault.

THE DEFENDING OFFICER MAKES A CLOSING ADDRESS:

I would like to draw the attention of the Court to what my friend the Prosecutor so lightly refers to as facts. Facts are circumstances known to have happened, which have been proved beyond all "reasonable doubt", by either eye witnesses or unbroken circumstancial evidence. The Prosecution refers to the statements made by this Mme Boelaerts as facts but I would ask the Court to agree with me that they are not acceptable as facts but only as the witness before this Court and any weight which is to be placed upon these facts must be placed on the word of this witness if considerable credibility is to be given to them. In the first place, it is not for the accused to prove himself innocent, the accused is not guilty, it is the job for the Prosecution to prove beyond all reasonable doubt that the accused and none other than the accused is guilty of this offence. The Prosecution has also alluded to clear evidence. I would ask the Court to remember the evidence, I don't think anything was any more unclear than the evidence heard to-day. I want to take the Court back to the evidence given by our only witness as to the facts alleged to have taken place in that back room. First in a Summary of Evidence she stated that when she came out of the back room that she found a customer waiting in the shop. To-day in front of this Court she stated that he was walking past which naturally prompted the question -"Who rang the bell?" The answer, after having been given time to think was that a kid rang the bell and asked her for something which she can't remember now. The witness himself states that he stood immediately in front of the door, that he stood there for approximately five minutes and no one could have come out of the shop without him seeing them and he saw no child. Is it presumed by the Prosecution that the child is still in the shop? Then we must consider that this woman went to the police and gave a statment and according to the Police Inspector he was amazed at her calmness. At approximately eight o'clock at night, several hours after the incident, she went to her husband in hysterics and screaming. I am not a medical man but I imagine if a woman is going to have hysterics after such an event as this, she is very likely to be that way very shortly after the incident. The Police Inspector stated that he was most surprised at this woman, the complainant, who complained of assault and attempted rape, should be so calm. I ask the Court to consider whether any natural normal woman would be assaulted with intent to ravish, go to civilian police station and be calm and then to a Cdn Provost station and amaze the inspector by her calmness, then go to her husband in a state of hysterics and screaming. We also have the interpreters mistakes. I would ask the Court to believe that all these mistakes are not the fault of the interpreter but as an easy way for this witness to cover up lies. There have been several allusions to a revolver but no evidence has been given inspite of these two people saying he had one and he didn't have a revolver when he was arrested and we also have several conflicting reports about the use of this revolver. May I say that the accused must have been about the busiest man I have ever seen or heard of. According to the evidence of Mme Boelaerts the accused pushed her in a chair and pointed a revolver at her. She stood up and he threw her to the floor, lay flat on top of her with his revolver in one hand, took his penus out with the other and somehow while lying flat on top of her managed to show his penus to her. He certainly must have been a very busy man.

Still she somehow managed to struggle away from him. Emilius Dubaer, the civilian witness, states that he saw a revolver in the pocket of the accused but in one of the three statements she stated that the accused pointed the revolver at Dubaer, but he doesn't say so. As regards consistency of evidence, the accused has told, considered everyway, a much more consistent story of the purchase of a hundred dollar American bill. He found or thought he found that it was counterfeit. He went to this jewelery shop wishing to exchange the American bill for the 6,000 Belgian francs which he had paid for it. He states that the woman gave him 5,000 francs leaving a balance of 1,000 francs. Mme Boelaerts admitted in the Court to-day about him asking about a 1,000 francs but she didn't know why. Now I ask you gentlemen, would any man have come out of that back room demanding a 1,000 francs if he had just attempted to ravish this woman. There is consistency in this story as it is corroborated by Emilius Dubaer that the accused was aking for 1,000 francs but there is no consistency in the story of what took place in the back room and events which took place after they emerged from this back room. It has been stated before that the main basis for any charge of assault should be medical evidence. There has been no medical testimony adduced in front of this Court, nor was there any proof that any force or violence was used on Mme Dubaer. As regards the question of why the woman should say she was assaulted if she wasn't. It is the oldest trick known - the easiest thing for a woman to do is to yell "rape" if she wants to get rid of a man. Due to the fact that this woman was aware of the fact that the accused was a Cdn soldier dressed in civilian clothes, it made it all the easier for her to get rid of him in this way. After the inconsistency in this woman's evidence the Court is being asked to convict the accused on the unsubstantiated, uncorroborated evidence of this woman who deliberately lies while on oath in front of this Court. The Prosecution says the evidence is quite clear, personally I doubt it. It is the contention of the Defence that not only has the Prosecution failed to prove intent, but they have failed to prove any assault whatsoever. It is considered that the points of what happened in the back room according to the testimony of Mme Boelaerts are not consistent and the story of the accused about the American money is consistent. I have tried to bring this out in cross-examination and in summing up I think they are sufficient to prove that this woman lies and I would say this Court cannot convict this man on the unsubstantiated, uncorroborated evidence of this woman who lies while on oath in front of this Court.

THE JUDGE ADVOCATE SUMS UP:

Mr President and Members of the Court, I wish to point out that it is part of my duty as Judge Advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law. While the evidence is conflicting, I do not think it necessary for me to sum it up. I wish to remind the Court that the Court is the sole judge of the facts and anything I say now or may have previously said indicating my personal views as to the facts should be entirely disregarded. The Court and the Court alone is the sole judge of the facts. The accused is charged under Army Act Sec 41:- "When on Active Service, Committing a Civil Offence, That is to say, Assault with intent to Commit Felony, Contrary to Section 38 of the Offences Against The Person Act, 1861, in that he, in the Field, in Ghent, Belgium, on or about 1 Sep 45, assaulted Mme Marthe Boelaerts, with intent to ravish her." To constitute the offence of Assault with intent to ravish, there must be in addition to the assault, evidence of the intention to have carnal knowledge notwithstanding her resistance. An "assault" is a movement which attempts or threatens the unlawful application of force to another person without his consent; if force is actually applied it constitutes a "battery" which is included in the term "assault". The use of force however slight, is sufficient to justify a conviction for assault, if exercised with the intention to cause, or with the knowledge that it is likely to cause injury, fear, or annoyance to the other person. Not only the actual use of such force, but any act or gesture which causes the other person to apprehend that force will be used, is sufficient to constitute the offence of assault. Thus, shaking a fist in a man's face or pointing a pistol at him may be assaults. Therefore this charge has two elements. There must be an assault as I have defined it together with an intention to have carnal knowledge notwithstanding her resistance. If the Court finds that there was an assault but there was not the intention of having carnal knowledge, then the accused may be found not guilty of the offence as charged but guilty of common assault. With regard to corroboration, though corroboration of the evidence of the Prosecutrix is not essential, it is in practice required and I therefore warn the Court against the danger of acting upon the uncorroborated testimony of the Prosecutrix and in this regard I advise the Court that "recent complaint" cannot be regarded as corroboration. The corroboration is independent testimony which confirms in some material particular not only the evidence that the crime has been committed but also that the accused committed it. The evidence was allowed in two witnesses of "recent complaint" as I warned the Court at that time and I wish to remind them that, that evidence is not to be considered as evidence of the facts complained of but only as evidence of the consistency of the conduct of the Prosecutrix with her evidence given at trial. As the Defending Officer has pointed out the onus is on the Prosecution, it is not for the accused to prove himself innocent, it is for the Prosecution to prove he is guilty. The Prosecution must therefore, prove all the elements of the charge to the satisfaction of the Court. It is also my duty to point out to the Court that the accussed is entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt. I say a reasonable doubt, that is some doubt which is based on the facts before the Court and not some doubt which is purely immaginary. If the Court has a reasonable doubt after hearing and weighing the evidence then the accused is entitled to the benefit of that doubt. On the charge the Court may find the accused "guilty as charged" or "not guilty as charged but guilty of Common Assault" or "not guilty". That is all I wish to say unless the Court or the Prosecutor or Defending Officer require explanation on any question that I may have overlooked. Are there any further questions?

THE PRESIDENT, THE PROSECUTOR AND THE DEFENDING OFFICER DO NOT REQUIRE ANY FURTHER ADVICE FROM THE JUDGE ADVOCATE.

THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR CONSIDERATION OF THE FINDINGS

Q. What type of work were you doing up until 6 Aug 45 the day you went absent without leave?

A. I was scheduled to go back to Canada.

Q. Did you want to go back to Canada?

A. No sir, I wanted to go COF.

Q. Why?

A. I didn't want to go back for a while, for two weeks we weren't doing anything and I volunteered to go into the Provost Corps and I waited two or three days and no word came and so I went to the girl friends and intended to stay for a few days but started drinking cognac and always intended to go back but got drunk instead. I was going to go back on the following Tuesday.

Q. Did you have any trouble at home?

A. Yes.

Q. What type of trouble?

A. In the line of divorce.

(Sgd) "M BOELAERTS"

[redacted] M. DUBAER Emilius St Pielersplein 28 GHENT, having been duly sworn states by means of the official interpreter:-

I first saw the accused one Saturday afternoon about three or four weeks ago at about 1700 hrs in the shop of M. Boelaerts, Heuvel Straat, GHENT. He was coming out of the back room into the shop. He said to Madame in Flemish "You have to give me 1,000 francs". The accused went to a civilian car then came back and said in Flemish to go "Inside". He grabbed me by the throat and pushed me back into the shop. He had a revolver in his hand. He then went out and drove off. I am positive that the soldier (accused) is the same soldier that threatened me.

QUESTIONED BY ACCUSED

Q. What time did you say you arrived?

A. At about 1640 to 1645 hrs.

Q. How was I dressed?

Mde. MARTHA BOELAERTS, Heuvel Streat No 6 Ghent, having been duly sworn states:

At approximately 1700 hrs, 1st Sep 45, a soldier entered my shop. He pushed me into the next room. He put me on the floor and attempted to have sexual intercourse with me. The front door bell rang, I called Emile de Baier. The soldier got up off of me, pointed the pistol at Emile de Baere. I ran out to the neighbours. I found M. Rombaert I told him that the soldier had assaulted me. M. Rombaert took his bycicle and went away to get the police. When they returned I went with them to the police station where I laid a complaint to the police that the soldier had attempted to have sexual intercourse with me at the point of a pistol. I also went to the Cdn Provost with the police, I complained to them about what the Cdn soldier had tried to do. After going to the Cdn Provst I went to my husband in the country on the same day. I told my husband what the soldier had tried to do, namely, he put me down on the floor, got on top of me, pointed a pistol at me, lifted up my dress and took out his penus, and then he was interrupted.

RP 83(e) complied with.

PLEA IN MITIGATION of PUNISHMENT

It is not my intention at this time to take up the time of the Court. It is once again the old story of trouble at home and this soldier finds himself on repat and he doesn't want to go at the present time. He is doing nothing and so decides to take a holiday. This soldier has been in Europe since July 44 served continuously with the 6th Infantry Brigade 2nd Div, front line transport and during that time had no crimes, then temporarily went on the rocks. I would draw the attention of the Court to the fact that he has spent 67 days in custody. During that 67 days he was certainly suffering mental anxiety over the second charge. With further regard to the offence, I would point out that it took place after the cessation of hostilities when all of us felt we were super cargo and didn't have an awful lot to do. For these reasons, I would ask the Court to be lenient.

ORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (E) ; duty and privilege of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B); and of witnesses see RP 83-85 ; calling or re-calling of witness by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No Sir.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ~~Nil~~ charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ~~Nil~~ charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex "A", initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any pleas standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such pleas and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any pleas is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans N.D Sir.(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) (no) opening address.(1) ~~No~~ Nil

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the The charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the ~~charge(s), and that~~, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the ~~former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).~~(4) Charges.
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use record alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans I wish to give evidence on oath Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans NO Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans N.D

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 84(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(B). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President ~~announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and~~ states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans Character, Wit.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Services(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex "Y" and Ex "MFM 6" respectively.(3) Counsel for accused asks for something to be done in connection with Conduct Sheet.

About 2140 some Cdn soldiers came in. First 2 Cdns + then 3 Cdns. The Accused here was one of the two that came. After Mr. Andries left the Rec left with the other soldiers he had come in with Cross X Andries came the first time about 2000 hrs. He stayed the whole evening. left possibly 10 mins. to 10. He came back later that night, about 10 past 10 possibly. I am pretty sure of the times I didn't see Andries before 8 o'clock. I am positive I saw the Rec in the cafe with another soldier that night. He did not have any Cdn there Count - The Rec. was not drunk. Mr. Andries had drunk too much but he walked pretty steadily. The Rec talked to Andries + they ~~both~~ drank together Andries bought the drinks.

The President of the Court acts as Interpreter.

On 22 Sept. I was in the Cafe Bonaloes. I am 45 years old That night I bought drinks for Cdn. soldiers. I think the Rec. here was one of them. I am sure he was. After the drinks with the soldiers, I paid the bill with a 1000 fr. note + then left the cafe. After leaving the cafe I started for home. The two soldiers followed me, one on my right + one on the left. The one on my left tried to slip his hand into my pocket to get my wallet. I said what do you want to be said money. The one who said this was about 5'11".

It was not the Acc who did this. It was the other who was taller who was on my left.

I suggested going to a cafe & said I'd give them some there. A little further on the one on my left again tried to get my wallet. I held on to it.
Then I felt two blows, one on the left side of the jaw & one behind the left ear. I thought it was the one on the left hitting me. ~~He~~ I was stunned & thought I was losing consciousness. When I looked I saw the assailants running away & my wallet was gone. I had 3000 francs in my wallet.

Then I went back to the Arsenal cafe
& Mme of the cafe cleaned me up & dressed my wounds. I then went to the police, stopping on the way at the DR. who put some stitches in both wounds.

I am positive the Acc was on my right.

Cross Ex. I went to the cafe about 6 o'clock. I stayed there all evening drinking all the time. I left cafe about 10 o'clock. I was assaulted shortly after leaving - about 200 metres from the cafe. The man on my left looks like that man (pointing to the court orderly) I think he is the man. The Acc. (pointing) was on my right. I had drunk some wine feeling pretty good. When I left home that night I had had 3000 francs ~~in my wallet~~ with and some smaller notes. I drank for about 2 hrs & was buying drinks. I bought the Acc a drink as I was at the bar when they entered. The Acc stayed at the bar & didn't order one so I bought one for him.

Rec. duly sworn deposes: -

On 22 I went out with Pte. Thompson left camp at about 1600. We went to Antwerp. Went to the cafe Alaska. Had a couple of beers. Thompson danced. The girls put me out. I can't dance, but they put me to dance to me in the party. I was feeling the beer a little when I left. We then went to the Arsenal. Thompson bought a drink for himself & the barmaid. I didn't have any as I don't drink much. Then Ardries called me a bloody fool & I had a drink with him. Then he left. We left too & spotted Ardries. Thompson said "Lets follow him" & off the way. He caught the old man, asked him the road & then asked for money. Then there was a scuffle & Thompson said lets go. I was after him & asked what he'd done. He said "Lets get out I've got the old man's purse." Further along he handed me 40 or 50 francs - I didn't count it. Stopping to have a leak on a bridge he threw away the purse I think. I was with Thompson all evening. He didn't ask me to lend him money nor did I ask him. Thompson was a stranger to me up to that night. He seemed to have lots of money. I didn't know he was low in funds.

I never discussed with T. the possibility of clipping Ardries. I just didn't think when he gave me the money. I didn't know where it was but it might have been Ardries. I'd never been out with T. before.

Cross X - Nil

Court - I feel sure T. must have been aware why I was at the Arsenal as he had spent some. Even after he handed me the money I was sure it was Mr. Ardries. I didn't know where it was. I didn't see where it was. ~~When~~ T. had the money in a wallet. I knew it might have been Ardries but I assist sure. T. brought drinks from a millet during the evening. He gave me 100 francs notes. I didn't ask him why he gave me the money. I didn't ask if it was Andrieu. I thought T. was straight. He had me all balled up. I've never run a out with a fellow like that. I don't think Andrieu had 3000 francs on the next day T. asked me for some of the money back. When I borrow money I never ask a few times. The next day I asked where it had come from & he told me. I gave him back 200 & kept 300. I knew then it had been stolen.

Pros. Clos. Address Acc has admitted the whole charge. I will say no more.

Chas. Addl & Def. 00 Charge sheet says 1930 hours This has not been proved. Andrieu recognised the Court Ordery on the Acc's comparison. The charge has not been proved. the time is wrong.

Mr. Pres & Gentlemen.

This Rec stands before you charged with a serious civil Offence and a further purely military Offence. You have heard the evidence and I do not wish, as it is my duty, to discuss the facts with you. You are sole judges of the facts. I wish only to discuss briefly the civil Offence of receiving stolen property.

While the charge is a serious one, the proof of it is sufficiently straightforward. You must first decide that the property which the Rec is charged with receiving ~~has~~ has been obtained in any way whatsoever under circs. which amount ~~to larceny~~ ~~under the misdemeanour~~ larceny. In ascertaining this you must then decide whether or not the goods were received by the accused soldier and here there must be some proof of possession. Whether or not the Rec was in possession is a question of fact to be determined by you as members of the Court. Possession merely means that the Rec had control of the money in question — for legal purposes with a charge of this nature the possession need not be actual manual possession. Finally it must be proved that the Rec, at the time he received the money, knew it to be stolen. If all these elements exist you are entitled, and it is your duty, to find the Rec guilty.

With the 2nd charge — no advice from me is necessary. All of you as retired Officers have had sufficient experience with charges of this type & as a plea of guilty given we will deal with it later.

You have heard the legal evidence & you must now make your decision. I ask you to consider it well. Here this charge involves an Offence against a civilian & thus concerns the security in reserve. I feel it my privilege & duty to bring charge & in doing so I am reminded of the under British justice which we cherish in all its phases — we say every man is innocent until the contrary is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. Now such a doubt, a real & substantial doubt exists in your minds you are bound by law to give the benefit of that doubt to the Accused ~~[redacted]~~ One further point. The Rec. raised the plea that the time set out in the charge sheet was not the time the Offence occurred. In this case the actual time is not vital and if you find the Rec. guilty of the charge the ~~error~~ apparent error in time can be remedied by a special finding.

"I am B136643 Pte M. Havelin, 6 Bde Coy RCASC. On the night of 22 Sep 44 Pte Thompson and myself went out drinking. We went to ANTWERP about 1930 hrs, we went to several Cafes and finally about 2130 hrs we came to the Cafe AESELMC. There were several Cdns and several civilians in the bar. Thompson went to the bar and ordered two beers, one for himself and one for the girl behind the bar, I did not want any as I was a bit drunk and felt that if I drank beer I would be sick. I sat down at a table about ten or twelve feet from the bar, in a few minutes, Mr. Andries came over and asked if I would have a drink, I said "Yes" so he went up to the bar and bought two cognacs. I did not notice what size of a bill he paid for the drink with. Shortly after this he shook hands with me and left, as the bar was closing I said to Thompson, "Come on, let's go". We went out with several other Cdns directly behind Mr. Andries. After we got outside, Thompson said, "Let's follow that guy and we will ask the way home". When we caught up to him, Thompson grabbed him by the arm and said something about which way to Hoboken. He then said, "give me 200 francs as I know you have the money", suddenly there was a bit of a scuffle and Thompson broke away and ran after knocking the old man down. I did not know what had happened until Thompson called me and said "come on, let's get out of here in a hurry". He wanted me to run and I said, "to Hell with running, I can't run" he then said, "come on let's hurry, I got the guy's purse". After we had walked on a bit further, he handed me some money, 400 or 500 francs. We went into a cafe before we crossed the bridge, and had a drink. After we came out and about when we were on the bridge, we stopped for a piss and it was then when Thompson threw away the wallet. We then went on to Hoboken and after spending some time in several cafes we came home.

I have given the above statement to Capt Careless of my own free will.

Ref the a/m I have to report that on 23 Sep 44 I was detailed by Lt Anderson, Offr i/c Antwerp Detachment 2 Cdn Provost Coy, to investigate a complaint from one L. Andries that he had been assaulted and robbed by two soldiers of the Cdn Army.

2. From information received I formed the opinion that the soldiers responsible for the robbery were RCASC personnel of 2 Cdn Inf Div and accordingly concentrated my investigation on RCASC Units within the Division. OC 2 Cdn Inf Div Tps Coy RCASC Major Ledford informed me that two men who answered the description of the robbers had been seen on two occasions in a Hoboken Cafe when they were in possession of and spending, a considerable amount of money. Mr Landries had alleged that 3000 Belgian francs and certain papers had been stolen from him.

3. After further enquiries I arranged an identification parade of personnel of 6 Cdn Inf Bde Coy Echelon and on this parade Pte THOMPSON was identified by Mr L. Andries as one of the two robbers. A further positive identification of THOMPSON was made by Mdme and Mlle WESTERLINCK of the Cafe ANSELMO in Antwerp.

4. It was then ascertained that Pte HAVELIN had accompanied Pte THOMPSON at the time of the alleged robbery and a search of the Unit revealed him to be AWL. On 25 Sep 44 after having received information that HAVELIN had returned to his Unit and was in custody, I proceeded to the Unit and questioned the accused and obtained from him a voluntary statement which is appended hereto together with copies of statements from all witnesses. Pte THOMPSON refused to make any statement.

5. During the course of the assault and robbery Mr. Andries received injuries to his face which necessitated 5 stitches to close the wounds. In addition to the loss of money he also suffered the loss of all his Identity documents.

6. Charges of Robbery with Violence have been preferred against the a/m soldiers and forwarded this date to the Units concerned together with copies of all available evidence.

I then asked if they would have a drink with me, and they said yes, so I bought two drinks for them. Shortly after that I went out to go home. The two fellows came out directly behind me and as I was approx 50 metres up the Ave, they came up on either side of me and tried to take my wallet, I then asked what they wanted, and they said money, I said I have no money. The tall one then said we know you have money, we saw it. They then tried a second time before they struck me. They then struck me several times and I was knocked nearly unconscious. When I came to, I saw them run away and I found my wallet gone which contained 3000 francs and all my papers. I then returned to the Cafe ANSELMO where the Madame washed me and I started home again. I was met by two members of the White Brigade and taken to the Belgium Police, I was told to report to the Town Major, which I did the next day.

On the 24th Sep 44, Sjt Ford of the Cdn Provost Corps met me at 1500 hrs and took me out to 6 Bde Coy, RCASC, and I was almost certain that I recognized one of the men who had attacked me. I was not certain but I was sure that I had saw the man Pte Thompson W H before. We then came back to the Cafe ANSELMO and the Madame and the Mlle identified Pte Thompson as the man who I had bought the drink for.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your pleas to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your pleas and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. NO - STR.(5)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

PLEA IN MITIGATION OF SENTENCE

1. Regimental particulars - Enlisted 9 Sep 41 as rft for Ontario Tank Regt Following Basic Training the accused was sent to Hamilton Trades school to be trained as Motor Mechanic. Transfered to RCOC Aug 42. Came overseas 19 Dec 42, employed in his trade at Base Wksp, Bordon. In May 43 he became RCEME personnel with change of that time; his category was lowered to S4, and in July 44 he was sent to 22 Special Employment Coy. From Sep 44 he was employed as general duty with the Cdn Army Show, returning to Wksp in July 45 to work in Expense Stores. Stayed with workshop until it closed in Sep 45; was sent to 2 Repat. He understood he was there for repatriation but was posted to P.E. in Transport department. Obtained a pass shortly after arrival.

2. Provocation - Accused was fed up when he found out he was posted to P.E. His point score was 137. He had seen others with lower score and less time overseas go home ahead of him. He had been separated from his wife and two children for over three years. Went to London on his leave. Had about forty pounds to spend. When pass expired he decided to stay another day. Each time he started to come back he became involved in drinking and changed his mind. Eventually he began his return to camp, but was picked up by Provost on his way to the train.

3. Military Conduct record - Over a period of three years accused has been an average soldier. Since 1942 he has had five AWL charges, the longest of which was an absence of 21 hrs 45 min, and three Neglect to Obey (Sec 11) for which maximum punishment was 14 days CB. He has no civil offences to his charge.

4. Detention awaiting trial - Accused has spent about 20 days in close arrest, and has worked the same amount as men undergoing detention sentences.

5. Gratuities and effect upon dependents - Longer period of sentence results in larger loss in gratuity to the accused and has a greater effect on the suffering of his dependants, wife and two children.

6. Civil Occupation - Mill hand - Cdn National Carbon Toronto, Ontario. qpw

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 37(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. NO.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(1) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(3)~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans. I WISH TO BE HEARD. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
Ans. NO, SIR. ~~Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....~~
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court ~~is (are)~~ recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the FIRST charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) ~~He then (tentatively) announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and, in the event of (confirmation), that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Para 1 of the Schedule is (also) varied.~~
(1. AA 54(7) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(7), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans. NO, SIR.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 1 and Ex 2, respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans. I HAVE MY DEFENDING OFFICER.(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas NO 309, 1323, MML p 60, 111-159. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

First witness for the prosecution. M62276 Cpl Lewis R.R. C Pro C. 13 Pro Coy. having been duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:- At approximately 2110 hrs on 1 May 1945, L/Cpl Nussey and myself were returning to our billets in the town of Lier, Germany, when we were stopped by a soldier. There was an elderly lady with the Soldier. She was crying and seemed very hysterical. I gathered she wished us to enter a house. L/Cpl Nussey and myself went into the house pointed out by the lady and we entered the bedroom, and found the accused here present and a woman lying on the bed having sexual intercourse. There was also another old lady sitting in a chair along side the bed crying. The accused was partly undressed, so I ordered him to get up and get dressed. The accused smelled strongly of alcohol. I placed him under arrest & took him to my billets. On instructions from an officer, Lt. Reed, I took the accused to his billets where 6th Cdn Inf. Bde. & turned him over to Capt. Gillespie. I did not actually see organ of accused penetrating organ of woman. The accused was going thro the usual motions that a man does when having sexual intercourse with a woman. The bed had no bed clothes on it. There were articles on bed. The woman was lying on the edge, & the accused was lying in between her legs. The woman was totally naked. The accused had his tunic and trousers off. The accused's rear quarters were moving upwards and downwards.

XX. - I noticed woman. She was laying there crying. She was not fighting. She was neither resisting nor cooperating.

Court - The accused was pretty unsteady on his feet.

J:A. 2.

The womans legs were bent up at the knees on each side of the ~~woman's~~ accused's body. I did not notice womans clothes at all. The room was fairly dim until we opened door. The woman was crying and sobbing. I didn't notice her arms. I would have seen them if they had been around accused. The accused's right arm was around the woman under her back. I didnt notice condition of accused's organs when he stood up. The accused had no underwear on, & was naked from the waist down. The other lady was just sitting in chair crying. When we and accused went out of room the woman on the bed was still lying there. The two women were crying when I entered room. I noticed it right away when I entered room. I noticed no marks or bruises on body of woman. The accused had no arms on his person when I searched him. I think I could recognize the two women in the room if I saw them again.

The prosecutor asked permission of Court to put one further question to witness. Permission is granted. The prosecutor has Fraulein Talea Busboom and Frau Martha Busboom brought into Courtroom.

The Court at request of prosecutor:-

Do you recognize anybody in this Courtroom, other than the Accused, as being persons mentioned in your evidence as being in the room in question.

Ans. Yes. I do not recognize those ~~persons~~ women.

Q. Off. You found accused engaged in sexual intercourse?

Ans. Yes.

Q. You dont know whether woman wanted to or did not want to?

Ans. No, sir, I do not.

R.P. 63 (b) complied with.

Second witness for prosecution. B103208 L/Cpl Lewis. N.W. 13 Bde. Coy. C Pns C. being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor:- Cpl. Lewis, the last witness and myself were returning town billet in Fleer Germany at 2110 hrs on 1 May 45, when we were by a house, and a soldier waved at us. We stopped and we had a conversation with the soldier. There was a German woman with the soldier. As a result of the conversation, Cpl Lewis & I went into a civy house which was pointed out to us. We went through a kitchen & through a closed door to a bedroom. There on the bed was a German woman naked with the accused on top of her. Beside the bed on a chair sat an old lady crying. I ordered accused to get up at once & he told me to go out & shut the door. Then Cpl. Lewis ordered him to get up which he did on recognizing who we were. He got up and put on his pants, & we took him out to the Jeep we took him back to our sec. HQ. I would not swear what exactly what the accused was doing, except that he was on top of her. She was lying down and he was kneeling between her legs. The woman was partly lying on bed with her legs apart. The accused was not moving that I saw. He turned around when I opened door. I went in first. I recognize the old lady here (Frau Martha Busboom) as the woman in the room. The other woman (Frau Talea Busboom) is the same build as the woman on the bed, but I can't swear it is the one. The reason I recognize the old lady is she is the first person I saw when I entered the room, and her face was turned towards mine and was sobbing bitterly. The only thing I can say about the woman on the bed is that she was crying & that she was stark naked, & that she was a very big woman.

XX. I was first in room. There was no fornication taking place when I entered room. It was impossible fornication to take place in the position they were when I entered room. (Witness illustrates position of woman). I saw nothing to indicate woman didn't want to take part. I didn't see woman's clothes. I didn't notice whether or not accused had an erection. I wouldn't swear he put on his pants. At that time his penis must have been down, or I would have noticed. The accused was strongly under influence of liquor. I have been drunk, it interferes strongly with fornication.

Re-examn.

Court. When I went into room, I saw old lady first & saw him on cheeks. Then I looked over to bed, immediately after glancing at old lady. Cpl. Lewis was right behind me. I would have obstructed Cpl. Lewis' view when I first came into the room. Cpl Lewis came right up beside me immediately after I got into room. When I first saw accused he was on bed kneeling on his knees & two arms (illustrating to court position of accused). When I first went into room, I opened door. The room was sort of dark. I don't think he recognized me when I entered room. I think his eyes focused when Cpl Lewis came in - he recognized us then, I guess. We were in room for about 2 minutes before he got up. He didn't move, except to turn his head to us. He just stayed there.

J.A.

If Cpl Lewis says that when we entered room the accused was having sexual intercourse with woman, he is wrong. My impression is that to say someone is having sexual intercourse you have to see the penis in the womb - I never saw that. From the position of the bodies, there was about a foot between bodies - the bodies were not touching. The woman's legs were spread, but they were not touching his. The woman's knees were bended up. Their positions were such that he could have been getting off her & she was trying to get up. I did not notice any bruises or injuries to the woman's body. Her face was puffed up - it was very red - she appeared as if she were crying. I did not notice any change on her when accd entered. There was definitely no signs of being startled. She did not get up. She just lay on the bed as she was before & made no effort to cover herself. We left her just like that. Accused was definitely naked up to thighs. I wouldn't swear definitely, but I don't think he had any underwear on.

Def. Offr (with permission of court).

The expression of the woman could very definitely have been due to exertion. Accd had his boots on. The facial expression might have been the result of intercourse. Accused pulled pants on over his boots, so he couldn't have been wearing underwear when he came in.

Third witness for the Prosecution. Fraulein Talia Busboom, 23 Groningerstrasse, Leer, Germany, being duly sworn, is examined by the Prosecutor, through the interpreter -

I am Talia Busboom. I live 23 Groningerstrasse in Leer in Germany. I am a German citizen. I am not married. It was in the evening about half past eight on 1 May 45, a soldier entered my house and went to the bedroom. When he was in my room he lay me on the bed, took off my pants and raped me. When I started crying he hit me in my face. He used me for half an hour and then I thought he would go away, but told me to undress myself. And then again for half an hour he used me. And then the neighbours wife entered our house and had a conversation with me. Then the wife shut the door and about 15 minutes later two soldiers entered the room with pistols and they took the soldier with them. I recognize the soldier without the hat (pointing to accused) as the man who raped me. The accused actually had sexual intercourse with me, his organ actually penetrated mine. I did not try to fight him off. I did not fight him off because we did not know where to go. I was frightened. When the wife of the neighbour entered the house, I screamed, I was not allowed to and I am called. The soldier did not force me but hit me in my face. I did not want soldier to have sexual intercourse with me. The reason I permitted him to have sexual intercourse with me is that I was crying and he hit me in the face.

XX. I am willing to have a medical examination.

The Def Offr makes a motion to the Court for an adjournment in order that a medical examination submitted to the witness and prosecutrix be held. Such is necessary in the interests of justice + favours accused in view of nature of defence.

The prosecution agrees to the request of the Def Offr and to the adjournment.

The Court allows the adjournment.

At 1430 hrs 8 May 1945, the Court adjourns.

At 1545 hrs 8 May 1945, the Court reassembles, present the same members as when adjourned.

The witness resumes the stand.

The acc. came in at 8.30 P.M. I looked at the clock. I was talking with my mother because that sister should pay us a visit and I looked at clock. When the accused came in the house, he was talking in English. I don't understand English, but I only understood "Bedroom" + that I had to go into bedroom. ~~I had to bedroom~~. The soldier was behind me and pulled me into the bedroom. I was afraid and he hit me in my face. I could not resist because he hit me. I could not resist. My mother wanted to help me but it was impossible. I don't know if I'm stronger than the soldier. My mother came in sleeping room at same time. She had to go too. My mother was sitting on chair beside bed. My mother was not in bedroom before soldier came. We were both in kitchen. The soldier pulled me into room + my mother too. We were both pulled into room and he hit me in the face. It is not true I went into room without being forced. He raped me the whole time. My mother had to sit on the chair. My mother had to go to bed. My mother did not go into bed. She sat on chair until wife of neighbor. He touched my mother under her clothing and said this is also alright. My mother is 73 years old. I was laying on my bed. First I had my clothes on. I thought soldier would go but he told me to undress myself. He pulled off my pants and other clothing. I didn't take off my clothing. He pulled also my breast. I only took my coat off. I had all my clothing on, but all was opened because the soldier had touched me several times. He told me to pull off all my clothing and I only pulled off my coat. The soldier pulled off the other clothing. My clothing was not torn. Only my garter was torn. The soldier had sexual intercourse as soon as he came into bedroom. I did not take off my pants then, the soldier did. The soldier did not go out. Then I was naked and the soldier too. The first time he took off my pants, ½ half hour later he told me to take off clothes during half hour he touched my heart & was then behind me and again in front of me. Then he put his penis in my mouth. This was before he took off my clothes. This was lasting I think it was half an hour. 4th.

The first time before I was undressed was half an hour & afterwards for half an hour.

Remember giving evidence at summary. It is not correct when I said accused stayed one hour after undressing. He stayed ½ hr first & then ½ hr after undressing me. The accused slapped me in my face and my lips were bleed & then he placed his fingers before his mouth. Only my lips were dark, but nothing you can see now. I saw two soldiers come to take soldier away, one with pistol. I only saw when I was on my bed 2 soldiers. I never saw 3 soldiers. The wife of my neighbor went for a soldier.

No re-exam.

Court. When the two soldiers came into room, one put his pistol on soldier. But they were not talking. At the moment the two soldiers entered room the accused was actually having sexual intercourse with me. I can't tell you if accused was drunk as I did not smell it, but it is possible that he had some spirits.

J.A.

I could not show him away when he was on bed with me. When my mother was in kitchen and he me found into bedroom, then is was possible that my mother run for help and the soldier wanted to lock the door, but he could not find key. The accused forced himself between my legs. I was afraid of accused because I could not understand him. That is only reason I was afraid. He was unarmed. I could not resist. I don't know what the accused would have done to me if I had resisted. ~~The soldiers had been in Leer~~ The first night the soldiers were in Leer I heard about them being raping women, and I was afraid.

Fourth witness for the Prosecution. Major C.S. Jarnes, D.A.C.C.S. R.C.A.M.C. being duly sworn testified by prosecutor:-

I am a medical doctor a specialist at 2 C.C.S. On 8 May 45, I examined Talea Buuboom. She had written, externally and a vaginal examination. There is no external evidence of any violence. There was a very slight amount of bleeding at posterior part of vulva, in region of fourchette. The mucous membrane of vagina was healthy. The hymen was not intact. The cervix of the uterus was normal palpation, showed no evidence of pregnancy. In any event this would not have anything to do with any thing recent, i.e. the condition of the cervix.

XX

Hymen could be intact with women of that age Taga proposition, it would not be intact.

no R.C. exam

Court

If hymen had been ruptured in last few days it would not necessarily show damage.

J.A.

I would conclude that there had been a recent tear in the hymen by the slight bleeding evidence in vulva. It could have taken place 6 days ago, but that is a matter of speculation only. If injury had been slight, the amount of post bleeding 8 days later. I would not expect the tear to be R.P.83 (b). Complied with.

still bleeding after a week, unless it was a serious tear. There was an obvious tear, but it wasn't very marked. I would think that such a tear would have been healed in a week, i.e. it shouldn't show evidence of bleeding in that time.

Court I couldn't tell whether or not woman had had sexual intercourse the day before yesterday.

RP83(b). Complied with.

The witness withdrawn.

The fourth witness for the Prosecution Frau Martha Busboom, 23 Groningerhaase, Leer, Germany, being duly sworn, is examined by the prosecutor:-

I am Martha Busboom, the mother of Talea Busboom. We live in 23 Groningerhaase, in Leer, Germany. I recognize the accused (pointing him out). He came in my house and immediately to the room. He raped my daughter. When I started crying, I asked him to go away, he hit us in our face. My daughter was in bed & we could do nothing. I saw accused rape my daughter because I had to hold her legs. He was laying in bed with my daughter & her legs were in the air & I had to hold her legs. The soldier touched me under my clothing. He wanted me to go to bed too, but my daughter told him that I was 73 yrs. I saw again of accused with daughter. I saw it happen several times. My daughter had told him do it because he forced her. Immediately when he entered bedroom he layed my daughter on the bed. He undressed my daughter & then he undressed himself. My daughter did not struggle, she could do nothing.

No XX.

J.A.

The soldier told me to hold my daughter's legs. I did not hold them. I refused to do so. I did not run for help, because I could not go out of room. He wanted to lock door but he could not find key. The room was too small when the door was closed, it was impossible to go out.

Note! In bedroom, the curtain plate she did not hold the legs of her daughter as above.

The witness withdraws.

The prosecution is closed.

Closing address of Prosecutor

Just to make one point before the Court, & that is that Lalla Busboom was frightened & that sexual intercourse induced by fear is Rape. It has been established that there was a Rape here.

Closing address by Defending Offr.

The acc has been charged with Rape & a Alto, in the alternative, puts an extension of AA40.
I would like to divide evidence in 2 parts —
① The 2 provosts and ② the two German women.

① The provost gave a lot of evidence of what happened afterwards, but little to assist the evidence to support charge. Suggest Cpl Lewis should not be believed. Suggest L/Cpl Finney the more reliable of the two & ask him to be believed. If the other witnesses are to be believed they only took an hour, & more likely Finney more accurate. All they can say is they averted the accused. It shows opportunity but nothing more. ② The charge of rape must therefore fall solely on evidence of the complainant. She must be corroborative. I suggest the evidence of the provost is not corroborative in law. The evidence of the two civilian witnesses has been coloured, exaggerated, distorted. The complainant has been inconsistent in times. The woman is strong & could not be forced with sexual intercourse with the man. She is a strong horse.
The alternative suggestion is cooperation. Only one person could undress the woman & that is the big strong woman. I suggest there was nothing but cooperation. Prosecution recognize this & suggest submission by fear. That fear must be induced in victim by accused. Vague fears in a person's mind are not enough to say a seduction is rape. Then is no force. There witnesses evaded the question of face down & again. The slapping of the face is the only thing connects in force. Evidence absolutely failing to show force or fear. For the accused probably drunk, exploring around, he's in the house. his having his arms, he's understood a fact, (nobody knows). He makes advances, the woman does not resist, & in his befuddled condition he doesn't realize she is afraid. This is not rape.

There must be a real fear induced by this accused before rape. I submit this is not a rape.

Summing up by J.A.

(1) Function of J.A to sum up & function bodrise on matters of law — Ct in final analysis judges of law but should not disregard advice of J.A except for most cogent reasons — Ct sole judges of facts in case. Ct should ignore and expressed opinions of J.A on the facts, they must decide the facts themselves

(2) Accused charged with Rape & alternatively, "fraternization"

(3) "Rape" defined as:-
"The unlawful carnal knowledge of a woman without her consent by force, fear or fraud"

(4) Elements necessary of proof:-
(a) Carnal knowledge - penetration to slightest degree sufficient; emission of seed not necessary — proof complete on proof of penetration.
(b) Without Consent - Question of fact — act must be "against her will" — not "against her will" if she consented - actual consent is being voluntary — Submission extorted by force, or duress or fear of immediate bodily harm is NOT consent. If fear present but not induced by accused or not known to accused, charges not proved by evidence of accused should acquit. Degree of fear & force

(5) Ct must decide if in evidence Carnal knowledge & if so, whether it was with Consent of woman or was done against her will by force, duress or fear.

(6) If Ct finds Carnal knowledge, but consent, MUST acquit.

(7) However if no Consent, but no penetration ie "Carnal knowledge", and acc endeavored to have carnal knowledge without consent — Ct can find "attempted rape". Also possible finding of "indecent assault explained — "assault & indecent assault" defined and discussed.

(8) Corroboration not essential in law but evidence of woman should be corroborated before Pltf convicts. Pltf's responsibility in this case in advising that Ch must have corroboration of complainant before convicting, because the issue is one of consent or otherwise. In such cases the necessity for corroboration is more evident.

(9) Corroboration defined — must be corroborative both as to commission of the offence and that accused committed it. The evidence must come from other than the complainant or an accomplice — evidence must be corroborative in one or more material circumstances or particulars — that is — something very material & tied up with the fact that the crime accused and that accused was one who did it — Mere opportunity to commit the crime is not enough corroboration normally.

(10) For Court to decide whether or not evidence of woman is corroborated in one or more material particulars — As for Pltf I can say there is evidence before Ch which Ch could say was corroborative. As to commission of offence — there is evidence of prowess for what it is worth — facial expression of woman and her attitude, condition of the mother, the actions and condition of accused at the time they entered — there is some medical evidence of a not very valuable nature that there was some injury on the vicinity of the hymen, etc. As to accused being the person — there was a crime, there is ample corroboration from the same witnesses that he was present, and from the woman at the time, and after the alleged offence — these matters could be corroborative, but for Ch to decide if they are corroborative.

(11) Short summary of evidence of witnesses.

(12) Discussion of alternative charges. If accused guilty of [illegible] charge or any lesser finding [illegible]

(8) Corroboration not essential in law but evidence of woman should be corroborated before Ct convicts. Glube responsibility in this case in advising that Ct must have corroboration of complainant before convicting, because the issue is one of consent or evidence. In such cases the necessity for corroboration is more evident.

(9) Corroboration defined — must be corroboration both as to commission of the offence and that accused committed it. The evidence must come from other than the complainant or an accomplice — evidence must be corroborated in one or more material circumstances or particulars — that is — something very material & tied up with the fact that the crime occured and that accused was one who did it — Mere opportunity to commit the crime is not enough corroboration normally.

(10) For Court to decide whether or not evidence of woman is corroborated in one or more material particulars — as JA. I can say there is evidence before Ct which Ct could say was corroborative. As to commission of offence — there is evidence of mother for what it is worth — evidence of 3 provost of what they saw in the facial expression of woman and her attitude, the condition of the mother, the actions and condition of accused at the time they entered — there is some medical evidence of a not very valuable nature that there was some injury in the vicinity of the hymen, etc. As to accused being the person if there was a crime, there is ample corroboration from the same witnesses that he was present, undressed on the woman at the time, after the alleged offence. — These matters could be corroborative, but for Court to decide if they are corroborative.

(11) Short summary of evidence of witnesses.

(12) Discussion of alternative charges. If accused guilty of first charge or any lesser finding as mentioned before, must be found Not guilty of 2nd (alternative) charge. If not Guilty of 1st charge then consideration of 2nd charge.

(13) What second charge of fraternization means. necessary elements of proof and to Cts satisfaction:-
(a) accused had sexual intercourse with woman in Germany
(b) the woman was an inhabitant of Germany of her free will and a German citizen.
(c) That such act amounts to "fraternization"
(d) That "fraternization" is conduct contrary to BOTH good order and military discipline

(14) Use of general military knowledge and common sense in interpretation of what is & is not fraternization etc.

(15) Credibility of witnesses - right of Court to accept or reject evidence of witnesses in whole or part.

(16) Important part of Summing up — burden of proof — presumption of innocence — "golden thread in British jurisprudence" — necessary to prove guilt beyond a "reasonable doubt" - "reasonable doubt" defined - business man test — if convinced of innocence of accused OR have "reasonable doubt" of guilt, Ct MUST acquit.

(17) Ct must decide case on evidence before it alone, — etc

(18) Pres. President, am there any further matter or which you wish me to advise the Ct? Ans. No, I don't think so.

(19) Mr. Prosecutor, am there any further matter or which you wish me to advise the Ct? Ans. No Sir.

(20) Mr. Defending Officer, am there any further matter on which you wish me to advise the Ct? Ans. No, Sir — except there a definition of "Fraternization" in some order?

(21) J.A. — yes, but the order is not before this Ct & cannot be produced to the Court.

Statement in mitigation of Punishment by Def. Offr.

The offence for which you must meet out punishment is the 2nd most serious offence in law. Theory of punishment is first, to punish the wrongdoer, secondly, to act as a deterrent for the community & thirdly, to stop or satisfy the desire for revenge. Our theory is an "eye for eye". In Canada we take a stunt view of sexual cases, & we exploit savage perverties. However, circumstances can change this position. It is a different case in Canada, where considerable care is taken to protect womanhood from violence. Seriousness of rape vary with the character of the complaint. Most cases don't come to court, unless it is a bad case. Offences of this character are regarded in England less serious than in Canada. There is no offence of rape in Germany. It is a natural custom of the people. They tried to hinder the American Army by charges of rape. There is no change of conscience on the woman. They are available to the Nazis & SS people. It is their course of conduct and their total duty to submit to intercourse and be helpable. I ask you to forget the revenge, an eye for an eye theory. He has to be punished, but only for the sake of discipline in the army, & not to protect these women or to satisfy "eye for eye" theory.

This man has been in the Army a considerable time. He is married with a child & expecting another. He is a Canadian & his behavior is best of all the armies - the victorious, conquering armies. Deplorable, it is true, but the circumstances are not the same as in the civil rape. Remember this Soldier has done a job for Canada, done it well & on the eve of going home. This is the rape of the moment, drunk with fighting, killing and raping. & remember this woman is a Nazi, only too willing to frame our soldiers.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of

C-14387 Signn HAWBOLDT, D. R., "L" Sec,
3 Cdn Inf Div Sigs, att HQ 9 Cdn Inf Bde.

The Commanding Officer directs that the evidence be taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

M-62276 Cpl LEWIS, R.R., Canadian Provost Corps (13 Coy), having been duly sworn, states:

"At approximately 2110 hrs, 1 May 1945, L/Cpl NURSEY and I were returning to our billets in the town of LEER when were flagged down by a soldier who stated that there was some trouble in a house. An old lady outside was crying hysterically. On entering the house we found the accused having sexual intercourse with a woman. She was lying on a bed crying. There was also another elderly lady sitting in a chair by the bed. She was also crying. The women on the bed had no clothes on. The accused had his trousers removed. I ordered the accused to put on his trousers, and placed him under close arrest and took him to my billets. The accused smelled strongly of liquor. On instructions from Lt REED I took the accused to "A" Ech HQ 9 Cdn Inf Bde where I turned him over to Capt GILLESPIE, to whom I explained that the accused was under close arrest, and the nature of his offence."

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

SECOND WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

B-103208 L/Cpl NURSEY, N.W., Canadian Provost Corps (13 Coy), having been duly sworn, states:

"At approximately 2110 hrs,(I looked at my watch at that time), while returning to my billets with Cpl LEWIS we were stopped by a soldier. Standing beside him was an old lady who was crying. Cpl LEWIS and I both went into the bedroom of the house where I noticed two persons on the bed, in a state of complete nudity. One was a woman lying down. The other was the accused, who was on top of her. Sitting beside them on a chair was a very old lady, crying. I at once ordered the soldier to get up which he did not do immediately. All he said to me was "Close the door". Then Cpl LEWIS ordered him to get up, which he did, after noticing who we were. After getting up and putting on his pants he was told to go outside and get into the jeep. Then I told the woman to get dressed. Whereupon we left and took the accused to our billets, where Lt REED ordered us to take him to his unit, "A" Ech 9 Cdn Inf Bde, and turn him over to the highest ranking officer present. We did so, Cpl LEWIS turning the accused over to Capt Gillespie, under close arrest. After leaving "A" Ech 9 Cdn Inf Bde we returned to the civilian house where we tried to interview the GERMAN residents, but owing to language difficulties we could make very little of their story, and they cried a great deal. So we left, and returned to our billets, where Cpl LEWIS made out the report.

The accused declines to cross-examine the witness.

THIRD WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

Miss (Fraulein) Talea BUSBOOM, of 23 Groningerstrasse, LEER.

The witness was duly sworn -" I swear, by God, that I tell the full truth.

"On 1 May 1945, at half past eight in the evening an unarmed soldier entered the kitchen, and then forced me to go into the sleeping room, together with my mother. Then I had to lay down in the bed and I was "disgraced" by the soldier, that is he forced me to have sexual intercouse with him. Half an hour later the soldier forced me to take off my clothes, and he also took off his clothes, and stayed one hour more in the room. During this hour he forced me to have sexual intercouse with him. When I cried he slapped my face and mouth - I was unable to understand what he said. A neighbor then opened the door of the sleeping room, and then a quarter of an hour later three soldiers entered and freed me, and took the soldier away."

Talea BUSBOOM

I certify that the above evidence is an accurate translation from the GERMAN in which it was originally given.

FOURTH WITNESS
FOR THE PROSECUTION

Mrs (Frau) Martha BUSBOOM, of 23 Groningerstrasse, LEER.

The witness was duly sworn - "I swear by God, that I tell the full truth.

"On 1 May 1945, at about half-past eight a soldier entered the kitchen and forced my daughter and myself to go in to the sleeping room, and threw me into a chair, and my daughter on the bed. He then had sexual intercouse by force with my daughter. In the meantime I was sitting on the chair, and when my daughter opposed the soldier or made any remarks he slapped her on the face. He pulled the clothes off my daughter and he bit her on the breast - it did not bleed. He pulled me towards the bed, but when I said I was 73 years old he left me alone. The soldier's underclothes had blood on them. Then a neighbor came in to ask for something. When she saw the scene she closed the door and went away. About half-an hour later two or three soldier (I cannot remember how many) came, and took the soldier away.

I certify that the above evidence is an accurate translation from the GERMAN in which it was originally given.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans ..... (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans No (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s);(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither?
Ans Yes Ex 4 Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf?
Ans No ~~Are they witnesses as to character only?~~ Ans .....

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statements as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy ~~copies~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier's having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 2 and Ex 1 respectively.(3)

PROCEEDINGS OF THE COURT

in the case of

F16506 Gnr. Hawes, A.J.
2nd Medium Battery,
1st Cdn Medium Regiment R.C.A., C.M.F.

FIRST WITNESS 5341295 L/Cpl. Griffin, B. Sec 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigad, having beenduly sworn states:

I am 5341295 L/Cpl. Griffin B. of Sec 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade. At Riccione on 19 Nov 44 at about 1610 hrs I was on duty on the Viale Trento Trieste when I saw three Canadian soldiers fighting. I ordered them to disperse but they failed to comply with my order. One of the soldiers who I later knew to be Gnr. Hawes said "fuck off". At that stage Lieut Blanchard appeared on the scene and asked me what the trouble was. I explained to him and he ordered the soldiers to disperse. They failed to do so. Gnr. Hawes said "fuck off you limey bastards". Lieut Blanchard left for police assistance and returned accompanied by Sgt Sandiford, L/Cpl Bowes, L/Cpl Love and L/Cpl Alborough. Lieut Blanchard then told the three soldiers that they were under close arrest and ordered them to get into the police jeep. At that stage I returned to my duty. I do not know anything that occurred after this regarding said soldiers.

SECOND WITNESS 197443 Lieut Blanchard W.J., 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade, an officer on active service, having been duly sworn states:-

I am 197443 Lieut Blanchard W.J., 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade, an officer on active service. On the 19 Nov 44 at about 1615 hrs I was on duty on the Viale Trento Trieste where I saw a fight taking place between Gnr Billings and Gnr. McKay of the 5 Cdn Med Regt RCA. I noticed L/Cpl. Griffing endeavoring to separate the two mentioned chaps. I asked L/Cpl Griffin what the trouble was about. He told me he was endeavoring to stop the fight and had ordered them todisperse and they had failed to do so. At this stage Gnr. Hawes stared to struggle with Gnr. Billings. I ordered them to disperse. They stopped fighting and the reply from Gnr Hawes was "fuck off you limey Bastards". I then instructed L/Cpl. Griffin to watch the three accused and I went to the police billet for assistance. I returned with Sgt Sandiford, L/Cpl Love, L/Cpl Bowes and L/Cpl Kershaw. I approached the three accused and told them I was a police officer and ordered them to get into the police jeep. Gnr Billings attempted to strike me. A struggle took place. The three soldiers were finally put in the jeep. Then Gnr McKay attempted to strike me. They were violent the whole time. The topic of conversation was limey basturds. I instructed L/Cpl Alborough who at this time arrived on the scene to drive the jeep to the 1 Cdn Div Provost station in Riccione. As they were being driven away they continued to struggle. I followed a few minutes later to 1 Cdn Div Provost station Riccione and instructed them to hold the three accused under close arrest and that charges would follow

SECOND WITNESS (Contid)

Questions by the Defense

Q.1 Had Gnr Hawes been drinking in your opinion?
A.1 Yes he had been drinking.

Q.2 Was he in your opinion drunk?
A.2 I would not say he was drunk. He was able to walk and talk coherently.

Q.3 Would you say he was under the influence of liquor in his actions and speech?
A.3 Yes I conformed the impression he had been drinking

Q.4 What in your opinion are the signs that a man is drunk?

President

Questions as to the sobriety or degree of sobriety of the accused are irrevelant to the charges in question. K.R. states drunkenness is no excuse. Further the witness is not qualified to express any more than an opinion as to the state of sobriety of the accused.

Defense

In the opinion of the defense the state of sobriety is revelant to this case. I refer you to Ch III para 47 of M.M.L. in which it states that "Offences arising from drunkenness should not be the subject of a number of serious charges when in reality the true offenc is drunkenness and the Offencesarising from it may be aggravations of that charge". Further in Ch VII para 9 it states that a man must have the intent of committing an offence.

It is the contention of the defence that the accused was drunk at the time of the incident. The defence suggest that the evidence given by the witnesses in the Summary is sufficient to show this and it is hoped to bring this out in the questions.

President Allowed.

THIRD WITNESS C75818 A/Cpl. Pickerill I.W. No.1 Provost Coy., a soldier on active service, having been duly sworn states:

I am C75818 S/Cpl. Pickerill, I.W. No.1 Provost Coy., On the 19 Nov 44 I was acting Orderly Sgt at our enquiry office in Riccione. At approximately 1600 hrs a jeep drove up containing 3 C.M.Ps and 3 Canadian soldiers. A L/Cpl of the C.M.Ps asked for our Regimental Sergeant-Major. I got the Sgt-Major and asked the 3 Cdn soldiers to step into the enquiry office. The stand-to party was then called on duty and I was relieved for my supper. The condition of these three soldiers showed they had been drinking, but they were not in my estimation drunk. Sgt. Shantz took the names, numbers and regiment of the three soldiers and one of those I now recognize as Gnr. Hawes.

FOURTH WITNESS 7586557 Sgt. Sandiford W.B. Sec. 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigad having been duly sworn states:

I am 7586557 Sgt.Sandiford W.B. Sec. 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade. On the 19 Nov 44 at about 1620 hours I was informed by Lieut Blanchard that there were three Canadian soldiers causing a disturbance by fighting in the Viale Trento Trieste. I accompained Lieut Blanchard with L/Cpl Love, L/Cpl Kershaw and L/Cpl Bowes. On arrival Lieut Blanchard informed the 3 soldiers that he was a police officer and that they were under arrest also to ge t into the police car. They failed to comply and became very violent. After we had been on the scene about two minutes Lieut Blanchard and I had a struggle with Gnr. Hawes eventually placing him in the police Car. At this stage Gnr. Hawes asked Lieut Blanchard if he was English and he replied "yes". Gnr. Hawes replied "you limey bastard" and continued to try to break arrest. All three were eventually convsyed to 1 Cdn Div Provost Coy. where they were handed over to the guard.

Questions by the Def

Q.1 In your opinion was Gnr Hawes under the influence of liquor?
A.1 Yes. He appeared to have been drinking and there was a bottle of liquor in the group on whose person I do not know.

Q.2 Was the accused drunk?
A.2 No.

FIFTH WITNESS A3300 Sgt. Shantz, M.L. No.1 Provost Coy., a soldier on active service having been duly sworn states:

I am A3300 Sgt. Shantz, M.L. No.1 Provost Coy., At approximately 1900 hrs 19 Nov 44 I was informed that the C.M.P. had placed a number of Canadian soldiers under close arrest and had escorted them to the Orderly Sergeants Room, No.1 Provost Coy1, Riccione. On arriving in the Orderly Sergeants room I proceeded to take the particulars of the soldiers present and their units were notified. It was evident that the ~~xxx~~ three present including Gnr Hawes had been drinking as they were incoherent in speech and unsteady on their feet.

Questions by the defence

Q.1. Was the accused drunk?
A.1 No.

Q.2 What on your opinion are the symptoms of drunkenness?
A.2 Incoherence and unsteadiness.

SIXTH WITNESS G19466 L/Cpl Draper R.N., 1 Provost Coy., a soldier on active service having been duly sworn states:

I am G19466 L/Cpl. Draper R.N., 1 Provost Coy., On the 19 Nov 44 as stand-to (which is a duty party standing by on call to the Orderly Sergeant) I reported to the Orderly Sergeant Room at approximately 1745 hrs. During my presence the three Canadian soldiers including one whom I now recognize as Gnr Hawes created little or no distubance. In my estimation the three Canadian soldiers had been drinking as I smelled it on their breath while speaking with them. This statement incorporates all that I know about Gnr Hawes.

SIXTH WITNESS (Cont'd) Questions by the defence 4/11/71

Q.1 Was the accused drunk?
A.1 No but he had been drinking.

Q.2 What in you opinion are the symptoms of drunkenness?
A.2 When a person cannot stand up

8 & 11

Statement of the accused.

I was drunk at the time and do not recollect committing any of the alleged offences.

PLEA IN MITIGATION IN THE CASE OF F.16506 Gnr HAINES, A.J. 21 Nov 44

THE PRESIDENT & MEMBERS OF THE COURT

SIRS:

Before closing the Court to consider sentence, the defendant wishes to have the following facts presented before you in order that the true nature of his offense may be shown. It has not been the desire of the defense to prolong this trial by a plea of Not Guilty, but rather endeavor to bring out the fact that these offenses were committed while the accused was under the influence of liquor, and consequently, these said offenses are minimized in their gravity by the lack of intention. The defense submits that the proper charge on which to try the accused would be that of "Drunkeness", and the charges which are the subject of this D.C.C.M. treated as an aggravation of this offense, and, if pressed at all, be laid under the provisions of [illegible] Sec 40. (See M.M.L. Ch III Para. 47 Page 25).

The evidence of the witnesses has shown, that at the time, the accused was indeed drunk, and as a result of this state, was rendered incapable of forming the specific intent essential to constitute the Crime as charged under these sections, namely. [illegible] 8(2) & 10(3). (See M.M.L. Ch VII Para 9 Page 106).

Further to the above it is hoped that the Court will take into account the past record and good behaviour of the accused. While he is only 22 years of age he has more than 5 years service in the army, having enlisted on 9 Sept 1939. During this time he has been a very good soldier. At one time holding the rank of Bdr, and in all has only 5 crimes on his Conduct Sheet. Of these five crimes, three are minor offenses committed in Canada and two, offenses of a similar trivial character which happened when he first arrived in Italy and was unfamiliar with the existing circumstances here. Since joining this unit he has been employed as an ammunition number and has preformed his duties in a satisfactory manner, and has not been the subject of any disciplinary measures. His Conduct Sheet bears no previous record of drunkenness. In civil life he was employed as a lumberman prior to enlistment and has never been in a Civil Court on any offenses.

Having regard to these facts it is hoped that the Court will find the accused Not Guilty as charged. If in the interest of discipline it in necessary that he be punished to some degree it is felt that justice would be served if the sentence awarded was based on the minor charge of drunkenness.

Respectfully submitted,

J Macdonald

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of:

F16506 Gnr. Hawes A.J.
2nd Medium Battery RCA
1st Cdn Medium Regiment RCA C.M.F.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is Taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution

5341295 L/Cpl Griffin B., Sec 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade, having been duly sworn states:

I am 5341295 L/Cpl Griffin B. of Sec 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade. At Riccione on 19 Nob 44 at about 1610 hrs I was on duty on the Viale Trento Trieste when I saw three Canadian soldiers fighting. I ordered them to disperse but they failed to comply with my order. One of the soldiers who I later knew to be Gnr.Hawes said "fuck off". At that stage Lieut Blanchard appeared on the scene and asked me what the trouble was. I explained to him and he ordered the soldiers to disperse. They failed to do so. Gnr Hawes said "fuck off you limey bastards". Lieut Blanchard left for police assistance and returned accompanied by Sgt Sandiford, L/Cpl Bowes, L/Cpl Love and L/Cpl Alborough. Lieut Blanchard then told the three soldiers that they were under close arrest and ordered them to get into the police jeep. At that stage I returned to my duty. I do not know anything that occurred after this regarding said soldiers.

Question by the Accused:

Q.1 In your opinion on the day and date was I drunk?
A.1 No.
Q.2 How did you identify me that night?
A.2 I was later given the particulars and description of the three soldiers arrested and by that was able to identify Gnr Hawes. These particulars were furnished by 1 Cdn Div Provost in Riccione through Lieut Blanchard.

Questions by Officer taking summary of Evidence.

Q.1 Had the soldiers been drinking?
A.1 Yes. I would say they had been drinking previously.

B Griffin

(Signed) 5341295 L/Cpl Griffin B.

Second Witness for The Prosecution

197443 Lieut Blanchard W.J., 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade, an officer on active service, having been duly sworn states:

I am 197443 Lieut Blanchard W.J., 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade, an officer on active service. On the 19 Nov 44 at about 1615 hrs I was on duty on the Viale Trento Trieste where I saw a fight taking place between Gnr Billings and Gnr McKay of the 5 Cdn Med Regt RCA. I noticed L/Cpl Griffin endeavoring to separate the two mentioned chaps. I asked L/Cpl Griffin what the trouble was about.

He told me he was endeavoring to stop the fight and had ordered them to disperse and they had failed to do so. At this stage Gnr Hawes started to struggle with Gnr Billings. I ordered them to disperse. They stopped fighting and the reply from Gnr Hawes was "fuck off you limey bastards". I then instructed L/Cpl Griffin to watch the three accused and I went to the police billet for assistance. I returned with Sgt Sandiford, L/Cpl Love, L/Cpl Bowes and L/Cpl Kershaw. I approached the three accused and told them I was a police officer and ordered them to get into the police jeep. Gnr Billings attempted to strike me. A struggle took place. The three soldiers were finally put in the jeep. Then Gnr McKay attempted to strike me. They were violent the whole time. The topic of conversation was limey bastards. I instructed L/Cpl Alborough who at this time arrived on the scene to drive the jeep to the 1 Cdn Div Provost station in Riccione. As they were being driven away they continued to struggle. I followed a few minutes later to 1 Cdn Div Provost station Riccione and instructed them to hold the three accused under close arrest and that charges would follow.

Questions by officer taking summary of Evidence.

Q.1 Had Gnr Hawes been drinking in your opinion?
A.1 Yes he had been drinking.
Q.2 Was he in your opinion drunk?
A.2 I would not say he was drunk. He was able to walk and talk coherently.
Q.3 Would you say he was under the influence of liquor in his actions and speech?
A.3 Yes I conformed the impression he had been drinking.

Questions by the accused.

Q.1 Sir , how could you identify me as Gnr Hawes?
A.1 I identified you by your build, your complexion and the fact that your uniform was comparatively free from mud in comparison to the other two accused. The three accused were the only soldiers handed over to by us to the Cdn Provost that day. As I was unable at the time of handing the three soldiers over to the Cdn Provost to obtain their particulars as they were still violent, the particulars of the three were obtained by me the following morning. Before submitting charges I wanted to be certain in my own mind which of the two had attempted to strike me. So the morning they were handed over I went to 5 Cdn Med Regt RCA where I saw Gnr Billings and Gnr McKay and positively identified them as the two soldiers who had attempted to strike me. I then proceeded to 1 Cdn Med Regt RCA where I saw Gnr Hawes and identified him as the third soldier turned over by me to the 1 Cdn Div Provost.
Q.2 Was there any liquor taken from me that night?
A.2 I do remember seeing one bottle of liquor but I am not certain whihh of the accused it came from.

W.J. Blanchard

(Signed) W.J. Blanchard, Lieut.
C.M. Police.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

C75818 A/Cpl Pickerill I.W. No.1 Provost Coy., a soldier on active service, having been duly sworn states:

I am C75818 A/Cpl Pickerill I.W. No.1 Provost Coy., On the 19 Nov 44 I was acting Orderly Sgt at our enquiry office in Riccione. At approximately 1600 hrs a jeep drove up containing 3 C.M.P.s and 3 Canadian soldiers.

A L/Cpl of the C.M.P.s asked for our Regimental Sergeant-Major. I got the Sgt-Major and asked the 3 Cdn soldiers to step into the enquiry office. The stand-to party was then called on duty and I was relieved for my supper. The condition of these three soldiers showed they had been drinking, but they were not in my estimation drunk. Sgt. Shantz took the names, numbers and regiment of the three soldiers and one of those I now recognize as Gnr Hawes.

The accused declines to question this witness.

(Signed) W.I.W. Pickerill.

Fourth Witness for the Prosecution

A3300 Sgt. Shantz, M.L. No.1 Provost Coy., as soldier on active service having been duly sworn states:

I am A3300 Sgt. Shantz M.L. No.1 Provost Coy. At approximately 1900 hrs 19 Nov 44 I was informed that the C.M.P. had placed a number of Canadian soldiers under close arrest and had escorted them to the Orderly Sergeants Room, No.1 Provost Coy., Riccione. On arriving in the Orderly Sergeants room I proceeded to take the particulars of the soldiers present and their units were notified. It was evident that the three present including Gnr Hawes had been drinking as they were incoherent in speech and unsteady on their feet.

Questions by officer taking summary of Evidence.

Q.1. Was Gnr Hawes belligerent, or did he show signs of violence in your presence?
A.1. No.
Q.2. Did Gnr Hawes use profane or language unbecoming to a soldier in your presence.
A.2. No.

THE accused declines to question this witness.

(Signed) Sgt. Shantz M.L.

Fifth Witness for the Prosecution

7586557 Sgt Sandiford W.B. Sec. 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade having been duly sworn states:

I am 7586557 Sgt Sandiford W.B. Sec 105 Provost Coy., attached 21 Tank Brigade. On the 19 Nov 44 at about 1620 hours I was informed by Lieut Blanchard that there were three Canadian soldiers causing a disturbance by fighting in the Vale Trento Trieste. I accompanied Lieut Blanchard with L/Cpl Love, L/Cpl Kershaw and L/Cpl Bowes. On arrival Lieut Blanchard informed the 3 soldiers that he was a police officer and that they were under arrest also to get into the police car. They failed to comply and became very violent. After we had been on the scene about two minutes Lieut Blanchard and I had a struggle with Gnr Hawes eventually placing him in the police car. At this stage Gnr Hawes asked Lieut Blanchard if he was English and he replied "yes". Gnr Hawes replied "you limey bastard" and continued to try to break arrest. All three were eventually conveyed to 1 Cdn Div Provost Coy. where they were handed over to the guard.

Questions by officer taking summary of Evidence.

Q.1. In your opinion was Gnr Hawes under the influence of liquor?

A.1. Yes. They appeared to have been drinking and there was a bottle of liquor in the group on whose person I do not know.

Q.2. Did Gnr Hawes strike either yourself or Lieut Blanchard during the struggle getting into the police car?
A.2. No. He didn't strike either of us. It was just a struggle as he didn't intend to get into the jeep.

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

(Signed) Sgt. Sandiford W.B.
C.M. Police.

Sixth Witness for the Prosecution

G19466 L/Cpl Draper R.N., 1 Provost Coy., a soldier on active service having been duly sworn states:

I am G19466 L/Cpl Draper R.N., 1 Provost Coy., On the 19 Nov 44 as stand-to (which is a duty party standing by on call to the Orderly Sergeant) I reported to the Orderly Sergeant Room at approximately 1745 hours. During my presence the three Canadian soldiers including one whom I now recognize as Gnr Hawes, created little or no disturbance. In my estimation the three Canadian soldiers had been drinking as I smelled it on their breath while speaking with them. This statement incorporates all that I know about Gnr Hawes.

The accused declines to question this witness.

(Signed) L/Cpl Draper, R.N.

The accused was asked the following question:
"Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence."
The accused answered as follows: " I have nothing to say."

I certify that this Summary of Evidence was taken down in writing by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(c) (d) (e) (f) and (g) have been complied with.

TRIAL OF ACCUSED ON FIRST CHARGE

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

Capt EO SNELGROVE, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and on 12 Aug 45 at approx 0030 hrs I was leaving the dance at the Sgts Mess with my lady friend after the dance and as we were passing out of the Mess I noticed a disturbance near the rear entrance of the Bar. I left my lady friend and went to see what the trouble was and I found the accused creating a disturbance, struggling and using very violent language; he was being held by 2-3 Sgts who were trying to quieten him down. I spoke to the accused and asked him what the trouble was but he paid no attention to me and I then ordered him to quieten down and stop using the profane language, but he just ignored me. I called CSM Amyot, the senior NCO present, over, and ordered him to place the accused under close arrest and put him in the compound. I then went back to where the ladies were waiting at the tpt, they could hear the language from where they were standing, and I saw Amyot go into the small crowd that had gathered and then the accused became more violent and more profane than ever. At this time I heard him say something along the lines of "you black bastard, you go from a Cpl to a CSM, you no good son-of-a-bitch" or words to that effect. The tpt arrived shortly after that and I left to take the ladies away from there.

Q. Did he recognize you at all?
A. Yes, he referred to me as the Ord Offr; I doubt if he knew me though by name, but he recognized me.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Where was Amyot when you called him?
A. He wasn't in the crowd, he was on the edge of it sort of.

Q. You don't know if he had been taking part in the fracas?
A. Not when I came along.

Q. Did you at any time see the accused strike CSM Amyot?
A. No.

Q. What did you see Amyot do?
A. I didn't see anything except the accused half breaking away from his escort.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(3)

SECOND WITNESS

Capt EA FARQUHAR, having been duly sworn, states:

On the night of 12 Aug 45 at approx 0015 hrs at the conclusion of the dance at the Sgts Mess, on leaving the bldg I heard a commotion and abusive language at the far end of the bldg outside. I approached and discovered a gp of at least 6 people who were in the midst of an argument. It was still going on and as there were ladies present leaving the dance I took it upon myself to stop the use of this language. I discovered a Sgt, whom I now recognize to be the accused, as being the one using it; I next noticed CSM Amyot as being present and I approached him and demanded an explanation of what was going on.

and as the accused wouldn't go to his quarters I ordered Amyot the CSM to have the accused placed in custody. This was done but with a considerable amount of difficulty and the last I saw of the gp including the escorts and the accused was as they passed through the gate of the camp on the way to the compound.

Q. What were the words used?
A. The word bastard was referred to frequently, and various parts of the word fornification.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Are you absolutely positive it was the accused who was doing all the struggling and swearing?
A. It was dark, but there was a searchlight from a truck about 20 yds away and that was the way I was able to identify the group and I don't recall having heard any other person swearing than the accused.

Q. Were you the first or second to order the CSM to put the accused in arrest?
A. I learned later, the second one. The CSM was standing back some 5 yds from the gp when I arrived.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS

C.11721 CSM (WO II) AMYOTT WF, having been duly sworn, states:

At 0030 hrs on 12 Aug I was ordered by Capt Snelgrove to place the accused whom I now recognize, under arrest. I ordered S/Sgt McLuckie to escort him to the compound, and in ordering this arrest the accused stepped out and he said "you Provost son of a bitch, you rotten bastard, you made your way from a Cpl to a CSM", and then he made a pass at me and struck me on the side of the face; the skin broke on the right side of my mouth. He also cut the inside of my mouth; I've false teeth and have been unable to wear them since. The 2 escorts then dragged him and carried him, and he was swearing and tearing, trying to pull away from them. They got him as far as the East compound gate when I saw he was breaking away from his escort, and I then ordered two other men standing close, to assist the accused's escort to get him to the Gd Room. After when we got him near the septic tank and the escorts were carrying him I stepped close to him and he hit out at me with one foot, knocking me to the ground. After we got him into the Gd Room and into the cell, he still cursed and swore and started pushing his bed around the cell. Sgt Boyer was on duty at the time IC of the shift and I gave him an order to take the bed out of the cell as I was afraid of him starting to break the window or break down the cell door. I did he said again the cell to see if everything was alright and as I then stepped into "you Provost son of a bitch, you bastard", and struck me on the shoulder. In order to get the door closed I pushed him back from the door so that I could shut it, and then I went over and reported the incident to the Orderly Offr.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Sgt-Maj Amyott, I can't see a thing the matter with your face here today, but as I look at the accused's I see greater evidence of him having been struck, and in this melee I don't think you can be sure just who hit you, if anyone did?
A. Yes, I can be sure who hit me alright, Sir.

Q. I would like to hear exactly what you did to the accused, before Capt Snelgrove ordered you to place him under arrest, did you touch the accused at all?
A. No, I had been approx 12 feet from him, and was taking no part in the argument at all. As his own rank was there and his own rank had hold of him, it is the custom in the Mess when the same rank is taking care of the aggressor, a senior rank doesn't interfere.

Q. At no time did you strike or hold him?
A. No, when he went to make a second pass at me I took his arm and used it to try to hold him as a policeman would do.

Q. I would like to know what happened to him inside the compound?
A. I can't tell you; once I was knocked on my back into the rd by the kick I got from him I was not with him or his escort for about 100 yds.

Q. You saw him go into the cell?
A. Yes.

Q. There seems to be no satisfactory explanation coming from you who was the last to see him as to what happened to him?
A. I've told the Court under oath that I didn't strike this man, Sir, I used restraint on him only on one arm.

Q. Did anyone else see the accused strike you?
A. Sgt Longville, his escort here today at his trial.

Q. Before entering the compound did you see what condition his eye was in?
A. No, I noticed blood on his face; in fact there was blood on my tunic.

Q. What time did you go over to the Ord Offr?
A. About 1.30, but I was talking to the switchboard operator as to where he was for awhile as he wasn't in, then I went to see if the RSM was in, and he wasn't in either, and then I went to "A" compound.

Q. What time were you at the Gd Room with the accused?
A. About 1 o'clock, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RF 83(B)

FOURTH WITNESS

C.56649 Sgt McALLISTER, WE, having been duly sworn, states:

On 12 Aug about 1215 hrs I was standing in the door of the Bar when the accused whom I now recognize, came up and said that some Pro had taken his girl and he was doing some swearing. I told him to keep quiet, and then I told him to go away. He said I was sticking up for my Pro friend, and he grabbed hold of me and we were more or less hanging on to one another when S/Sgt Smith took hold of him and then there were some more came along and took him outside. After that I stayed in the door a few mins and then went back and shut the door.

Q. How much of a struggle was it?
A. It was more or less of a clinch, Sir.

Q. Did either of the other 2 Sgts have much of a time taking him outside?
A. No, they picked him up and took him out.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Then it was not really difficult to get him outside?
A. No.

Q. If he had been carried to his quarters then at the time all this would not have come up?
A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you close the door immediately when you went inside?

A. No, Sir, I stood and watched a few mins what was going on?

Q. When did Capt Snelgrove arrive?
A. Not till after when he was outside. I remember Capt Snelgrove coming there at the time he was outside, and there was someone holding on to the accused at the time outside. CSM Amyott was there. The last I saw was CSM Amyott choking the accused and the accused's head going back.

Q. Was that before or after Capt Snelgrove arrived?
A. To the best of my knowledge, before, Sir.

Q. And then you went in after that?
A. Yes.

Q. Did you at any time see the accused strike Amyott?
A. No.

Q. Did you see the accused next morning?
A. Yes, at the breakfast table; both eyes were badly swoollen, his face was swoollen and he was having a hard job to eat, his throat was sore, and he was in bad shape all around.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

FIFTH WITNESS

H.99002 S/Sgt McLUCKIE A, having been duly sworn, states:

At approx 0030 hrs on 12 Aug I left the lounge at the Sgts Mess and went to the back of the bar to see that everything was alright and in order as I am the Bar President and on going behind the Bar I saw S/Sgt McAllister and the accused, whom I now recognize, pushing each other around behind the counter and then I ordered the accused to leave. He didn't pay any attention to me so we had to forcibly eject him. At the time it appeared he had been drinking as he was staggering around a quite a bit and from the way he was talking. Sgt McAllister and myself had to take him by the arm and remove him forcibly to the door as he had no business being there. I then turned in back to the Bar again. About 5 mins later I heard a commotion going on outside and I put my head out to see what was going on. There were 3-4 people milling around approx 5 feet away from me and just then CSM Amyott came along and I believe he started to talk to the accused, and there was a bit of a discussion going on, and then Amyott turned to me and ordered me to put the accused under arrest and take him to the Gd Room. Myself and Sgt Longville, then decided to move the accused from there but he was too strong and we couldn't budge him hardly, and so with the help of CSM Amyott we moved him. I heard one particular word that the accused said "a black son of a bitch".

Q. Did you see him strike the CSM?
A. No.

Q. Then what happened?
A. We took him towards the East Gate and the entrance to the compound.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Is there any doubt in your mind that it was the accused that was doing the swearing?
A. No doubt at all, Sir.

Q. When you and Sgt McAllister took the accused out did you have any difficulty in getting him out?
A. Not particularly, Sir.

Q. Did you see Amyott lay his hands on the accused?
A. No, Sir.

Q. When you left the Gd Room was the accused suffering from any serious injury?

A. No, Sir.

Q. Did you notice any blood or anything like that?

A. No.

Q. What was his condition a couple of days later?

A. He looked as if he had been struck or walked into something; he had bruises and so on.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did the CSM order Sgt Longville and yourself to escort the accused to the Gd Room?

A. Yes.

Q. Did you both take hold of him?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he break away from you then?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he strike Amyott in the face then at that time?

A. I didn't see that, Sir.

Q. Would you have seen it if he had of?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you prepared to say that he didn't strike Amyott the CSM, in the face after he broke away from you and Longville?

A. Yes, I'm prepared to say he didn't, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH R of E 83(B)

THE PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR OF NO PRIMA FACIE CASE

I move that the first charge be dismissed because the Prosecution have failed to make a prima face case for the following reasons: They haven't shown definitely at all that CSM Amyott was struck in the face; there being only 1 witness to that that he was and there being 1 witness for the accused that he was not. I also submit that there is evidence that the CSM incensed the accused by grabbing him by the throat before he was put under arrest and that being incensed led to all the further trouble.

REPLY TO THIS SUBMISSION BY PROSECUTOR

THE PROSECUTOR DID NOT REPLY

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER THE SUBMISSION

THE COURT IS REOPENED AND THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUBMISSION BY THE DEF OFFR IS DISSALLOWED.

- DEFENCE -

FIRST WITNESS

The ACCUSED, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, I went to the dance with a couple of fellows and we started drinking. One of the fellows wasn't feeling so good and I was more or less drinking his drinks as well as my own and it was working pretty hard on me, as I wasn't used to drinking gin. Then I remember that there was an announcement that the Bar would remain open until 12 o'clock. I started for the Bar, I don't remember if someone held me up on the way or not, but when I got to the Bar it was closed down, so I went to the rear and asked for a drink and then I blacked out and I don't remember anything more until I woke up in the cell Sun morning. I looked around then, not knowing where I was. I was all undressed lying on a bed and I didn't know what was going on. I rapped on the door, nobody came, and then I let a yell out of me and a Sgt Jones came and opened the door and told me I had better go and get washed. Just then I started to put on my clothes and I noticed I was awful stiff in my arms and legs and my ribs and arms ached. I went in the washroom and I didn't like what I saw in the mirror there. One eye was sealed right over, my throat was all swoollen up, I couldn't drink water even. That was all there was to it I guess. I went to breakfast then, I presumed I was on a drunken charge, but I found out later it was for striking a senior offr and I presumed I had struck a commissioned offr, but later I found out it was the CSM.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. You remember walking around from the dance to the back of the bar?
A. I can't say I remember it very well, Sir. I went to the bar and then I started out the side door, and then I remembered I was around to the back door, but after that I don't remember what went on at all. Everything went blank all of a sudden.

SECOND WITNESS

G.28904 Sgt JONES CW, having been duly sworn, states:

On the night of 12 Aug 45 I was on shift in the compound from 12.30 to a quarter to eight in the morning. At approx 1 o'clock in Hut 3 I heard a commotion coming down the rd, but I wasn't aware of what was going on, as it was just a mixed bunch of voices.

Q. Did you see the accused then?
A. Not that night, but next morning I escorted him to the washroom. Both of his eyes were puffed out and the left side of his jaw was swoollen and he complained of lacerations at the bottom part of his lips. He also complained to me that he was sore all over.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THE DEFENCE IS CLOSED

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR ON THE FINDING

I repeat the reasons I gave on my submission, Sir, and I would add that there seems to be a doubt, a definite doubt, as to the Sgt-Maj's evidence, who said that he never laid hands on him, that he simply pushed him away, and yet S/Sgt McAllister says that he saw him choking him, and yet no one saw the accused strike the CSM?
It would certainly appear that the accused was very badly beaten up and witnesses for both the Prosecution and Defence have testified to. I'm pointing out that the accused has not had fair treatment, and I ask the Court to acquit him on the first charge.

STATEMENT BY THE PROSECUTOR ON THE FINDING

The evidence brought out by the Prosecution shows that the CSM was standing back and was endeavouring his best to get two men of the accused's rank to put the accused to bed or quieten him down. The CSM says he was struck in the face, and S/Sgt McAllister standing 18 feet away or so said that the accused was being choked - I submit that from that distance it was difficult for him to see just what was going on, whether he was being choked or whether he was being pushed away. The Defence would have us or try to make us believe that the CSM comes out and walks over to the accused and incenses him into a thoroughly mad person - such was not the case - and I ask that the accused be found guilty of the charge.

THE COURT IS CLOSED TO CONSIDER ITS FINDING

THE COURT IS REOPENED

PLEA IN MITIGATION

The accused has been with the SPF since '42 and has seen fighting in Italy up to Anzio and also in the south of France, landing there in Aug 44 and returning to England in Jan 45 and has been with a crackerjack of a unit and his MFM 6 shows that he has been an excellent man, has been through a tough fight and has not broken, has been promoted to Sgt and his record is very good, it is excellent. In making any sentence I think the Court should take cognaizance of that, and that there was definitely provocation of him getting so unruly and also of the fact that he recd a beating up more than was necessary in carrying him to the compound. He has been with the Pro Corps about a month, and they have had no cause to complain about him up until this time. His wife lives in the U.S.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of B.54261 Sgt. HAWES, B.H., Canadian Provost Corps, No 3 Canadian Military Prison and Detention Barracks, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Capt. E.O. Snelgrove, Canadian Provost Corps No 3 Canadian Military Prison and Detention Barracks, and officer of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn States:

At approx 0030 hrs to 0045 hrs, Sunday Aug 12th, I was leaving the Sgts Mess after the dance. As I came around the end of the building I noticed a disturbance taking place, just a few yards away from the rear entrance or the bar. I left the lady I was accompanying and went to see what the trouble was. Sgt Hawes, whom I now recognize as the accused, was being held by two or three sergeants. They were trying to quiet him down. He was using profane language and struggling violently. I asked him what the trouble was. He didn't answer but kept on struggling and shouting. Two or three times I ordered him to quiet down and stop using profane language as there were several lady guests from the dance waiting for transport to take them home. He half broke away from the Sgts holding him and moved over towards the bar entrance away from me. In order to hold him the sergeants had to step in and surround him. He was struggling more violently then ever and swearing more lustily then before. Therefore I called CSM Amyott and ordered him to place Sgt. Hawes under close arrest and put him in the Guard Room. I then returned to the ladies who were still waiting. I saw CSM Amyott go into the crowd who had surrounded Sgt. Hawes to carry out my order. Sgt. Hawes then became very loud and profane, saying, "You black bastard, go from a corporal to a Sgt. Major, you are no fucking good, just a plain miserable bastard". He went on in this manner. Then they started to take him to the Compound Guard house. At that time transport arrived for the ladies and we left.

Q. Did Sgt. Hawes recognize you?

A. Yes, he referred to me as the Orderly Officer.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Capt. E.A. Farquhar, Royal Canadian Army Pay Corps, attached to No 3 Canadian Military Prison and Detention Barracks, as an officer of the Canadian Army Overseas.

Having been duly sworn states:

At approx 0015 hrs, 12 Aug 45, on leaving the Sergeants Mess at the conclusion of the dance I heard loud and abusive language outside and around the corner of the building. On approaching the scene, I saw a group of at least six people in the midst of what seemed to be an argument. I approached them to discover the nature of the disturbance and to stop the use of the profane language as there were ladies still near by in the process of leaving the dance. On arrival I saw a Sgt whom I now recognize as the accused, using profane language including, fucking and sun-of-a-bitch.

P.T.O.

CSM Amyott was present and as he was the senior Warrant Officer in sight I demanded an explanation and then ordered him to provide an escort to remove the accused from that place and the proximity of the ladies who were still about. As the accused would not obey the order to go to his quarters and resisted the escort violently I then ordered the CSM to remove him in custody. This was done with considerable effort and the last I saw of this incident was the group consisting of Sgt. Longville and at least two others the accused and CSM Amyott entering the compound via the East Gate.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — C.11721 CSM Amyott, W.F., Canadian Provost Corps No 3 Canadian Military Prison and Detention Barracks, a soldier of the Canadi an Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

At approx 0050 hrs, 12 Aug 45, at the Sgts Mess, 3 Canadian Military Prison & Detention Barracks, I was ordered by Capt. Snelgrove to put Sgt. Hawes, whom I now recognize as the accused, under close arrest. When I approached him after ordering Sgt. Longville and S/Sgt. McLuckie to escort him to the Guard Room, he broke away from the escort and struck me in the face with his fist. He also used abusive language saying, "You Provost Bastard, you made your way from a corporal to a CSM, you no good son-of-a bitch." In taking him to the Guard Room he struggled so hard that I had to order two more N.C.O's to help, namely, L/Cpl. Celentino and Cpl. Henry. He was placed in a cell in "C" Compound Guard Room. He then began to throw the bed around. I ordered the bed to be removed from the cell. After this was done I stepped to the door of the cell to see if he was alright. He struck me again and swore at me calling me a "Provost Son-of-a-bitch". I left the guard room and reported the incident to the Orderly Officer.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — C.56649 A/Sgt. McAllister, W.E., Canadian Provost Corps, No 3 Canadian Military Prison and Detention Barracks, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

At approx 0015 hrs, 12 Aug 45, I was on duty in the Bar of the Sgts Mess. The bar was closed and I was passing out ladies hand bags. Sgt. Hawes, whom I now recognize as the accused, came to the rear door of the bar and told me that some Provost had taken his girl. He was swearing profusively. I told him to go away, he said I was sticking up for my Provost friends. I then ordered him to go away. He jumped onto the door-step and I pushed him out. He came back in again and grabbed me and we both fell to the floor. A struggle ensued and S/Sgt Smith, P.P., came in and we held him and tried to reason with him. S/Sgt. McLuckie arrived with Sgt. Longville and some others and together we removed him. There was a struggle outside the door, I went inside and closed the door.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — H.99002 S/Sgt. McLuckie, A., Canadian Provost Corps No 5 Canadian Military Prison and Detention Barracks, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn states:

At approx 0030 hrs, 12 Aug 45, I came out of the lounge of the Sgts Mess and went around to the door behind the bar to see that everything was alright, this being my duty as Bar President. On entering the bar I found Sgt. Hawes, whom I now recognize as the accused, struggling with Sgt. McAllister, the bar keeper. I intervened and ordered the accused to leave. He refused and Sgt. McAllister and myself forcibly removed him. I closed the bar door for about five minutes. Later on hearing a comotion outside I opened the door again and went over to see what the trouble was. I saw Sgt. Hawes with three or four people, whom I couldn't recognize, struggling. Sgt. Hawes was struggling violently and saying, "You black son-of-a-bitch". It appeared to me that they were trying to take Sgt. Hawes away. I saw CSM Amyott and on his order I with Sgt. Longville and CSM Amyott took the accused along the road to the East Gate. We were joined by Cpl. Henry and L/Cpl Celentino and took the accused to the Guard Room of "C" Compound, I then left.

Plea in Mitigation of Punishment

By Lieut. M.F. Quinn, Defending Officer, in the case of F45296 Pte. L.C. Hawes:

Mr. President and Members of the Court, on behalf of the accused Pte. Hawes, I will offer a few words with a view to your mitigation of the sentence. He has been Overseas for 7 months and in that time his Field Conduct Sheet has been clean. The accused spent 2 months in the R.U. before being sent to 2 Cdn Corps Def Coy as Special Incr. While with the 2 Cdn Corps Def Coy he was under the impression that he would be sent back to the R.U. and he wanted to be with a Field Unit. If he were with the R.U. he could get on a draft to Italy to rejoin his comrades. He has shown his willingness to help the War effort by supporting the Last Victory Loan.

I submit this short statement on behalf of the accused and ask that you take it into consideration before passing sentence on him.

M. F. Quinn Lieut

I, the undersigned Medical Officer, have on this, the 25 May 44 examined F.45296 Pte HAWES, L.C. and have found him in good health and physically fit. I am fully aware that he is to be tried by courts-martial on this, the, 25 May 44.

A.

Order convening the Court.

On Active Service, this TENTH day of OCTOBER, 1943.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of EIGHTH CANADIAN INFANTRY BRIGADE, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; * ~~[and that it is not practicable to delay the trial for reference to a superior qualified officer]~~

*Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers appointed or detailed hereunder.

*Omit if not applicable.

* ~~If I am directed to appoint as~~ ~~President a Field Officer of not less than the Second~~
~~Senior Field Officer present~~
~~the following officers are detailed~~

From the evidence of the witnesses Pte Reid and Pte Carmichael it is shown that Pte Hamlet made an honest effort to get back to camp from his leave. The evidence proves that he got off the train at Eastleigh and was waiting to get on the first trucks. Owing to the huge number of men he was obliged to wait for two of the trucks to return. The accused admits he was drunk at the time and after waiting he started to walk home a distance of 8½ miles. He got lost and spent the night in a field waking up in the morning he walked back to camp. I believe from the evidence Pte Hamlet made a real effort to get back to his own lines.

STATEMENT OF MAJOR S.C. HEYES 4 Oct. '43

I am Major S.C. Heyes, 1st Bn The Queen's own Rifles of Canada and have been Company Cmdr of "A" Coy from Apr '43 to 4 Oct '43. The o/m personnel are all on the strength of "A" Coy. I personally warned all ranks of "A" Coy prior to any of them going on 48 hr leave 28 Sep '43 on instructions of the Officer Commanding 1st Bn the Q.O.R. of C. that:-

An important exercise was due to take place shortly and that returning late from their 48 hr leave on the 30th Sep '43 would not be tolerated and would be classed as wilful desertion. A Court martial for this offence would be automatic.

I further explained to all ranks of "A" Coy. that a special concession had been granted to the 1st Bn the Q.O.R. of C. and that any absent without leave personnel on the 30th of Sep might jeopardize other 48 hr leaves within the Bn.

The o/m personnel were all warned by me.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 37(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. NO - SIR .(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes ~~an~~ (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1) NOTE - ATI
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not ~~establish a prima facie case~~ against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on ~~the latter charge(s)~~.(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans. GIVE EVIDENCE Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans. NO - SIR . Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....
(1. RP 113. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1) NOTE ATI
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. ~~The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.~~(1)
Or ~~The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated.~~ Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans. NO - SIR
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 16 and Ex C respectively.(3)
(1. AFB 255 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans. SAME AS BEFORE NOTE - ATI
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the JA, if any~~.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Con 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas AO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 737-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1B), 68(1), KR Con 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Con 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

TRIAL OF

B.64478 Pte HAWKE RR ---------- 11 CDN REPAT DEP

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

No.C.38693 L/Cpl. CHRISTINK, ON, No. 6 (Area) Cdn Prov. Coy, sworn, states:-

Q. Will you produce your Part I Paybook and show us when you were appointed L/Cpl?

Witness shows to the Court the MBM I Part I wherein the court saw that he was appointed L/Cpl on the 30 Jan 45.

Q. Have you been a L/Cpl ever since?
A. Yes sir.

Will you tell the court in your own words the happenings on the evening of 6 Oct 45.

On the 6 Oct 45 at 2250 hours in company with L/Cpl BERUBE we stopped a soldier and asked to see his leave pass. I recognize the accused as that soldier. He said that he didn't have one and that he had gone to London just for the day. I asked him if he had a return ticket. He couldn't show one to me. I placed him in Close Arrest and took him towards our truck about three blocks away, on the way we went about two blocks actually and then all at once he struck me in the face with his fist. He made a slight cut on my lip. He then bolted about two or three steps. We re-arrested him and force was needed to take him in the truck. He seemed to be in his right mind while he was talking to me, there was no evidence of his being drunk, I didn't smell anything.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Would you tell me with which hand the accused struck you?
A. Sir, he was walking on my left and he swung around and hit me on the right hand side of my face with his hand, I do not know sir.

Q. Do you think in your opinion that Pte Hawke would have been capable of carrying on Guard duty as a sentry with a rifle?
A. Yes sir, he looked sober.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

SECOND WITNESS

No.D.146538 L/Cpl BERUBE AE, No. 6 (Area) Cdn Prov. Coy sworn, states:-

Q. Are you No. D.146538 L/Cpl BERUBE AE, No. 6 (Area) Cdn Prov.Coy?
A. Yes sir.

Cpl. Will you tell the court in your own words the happenings on the night of the 6 Oct 45.

On the 6 of Oct 45 I was on duty with L/Cpl. Christink on Coventry St. at about 2250 hrs. We saw Pte Hawke, whom I now recognize as the accused and he looked suspicious and we went over and asked him for his pass. He could not produce it. He told us he was in London just for the day and we asked him for his train ticket to see if he had a return ticket. He didn't produce it either, so we placed him under arrest and we walked up to our truck with him, We went actually up about two blocks, when we got to Piccadilly Circus he swung and hit my friend L/Cpl. Christink with his fist in the face and he took about 3 or 4 paces to go away we we re-arrested him again and escorted him to Store St. barracks.

SECOND WITNESS (CONTINUED)

CROSS-EXAMINATION

Q. Can you answer why the accused looked suspicious?
A. Well we looked at him and he started walking fast away from us.

Q. Were you with L/Cpl. Christink side by side with the accused?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Could you tell with which hand the accused struck L/Cpl Christink?
A. I was walking on the left hand side of the accused.

Q. Which hand did he strike Cpl Christink?
A. I couldn't swear to that as L/Cpl Christink was on the right hand side.

Q. Do you think in your opinion that Pte Hawke would have been capable of carrying on duty of the guard as a sentry with a rifle?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you smell his breath of anything?
A. I did not smell his breath, but he respected our rank and was sober.

QUESTION BY THE COURT

Q. Did the blow have any effect on Christink's face?
A. The blow split his lip on the inside.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

PROSECUTION IS CLOSED

WITNESS FOR THE DEF.

FIRST WITNESS

The Accused No. B.64478 Pte HAWKE, R.R., 11 Repat Dep, Sworn, states:-

STATEMENT BY THE DEF OFFR

First I would like to state that there is different types of drunkenness. A man might be drunk and not struggle, but to a complete stranger he might appear perfectly sober, and as the corporal said answer his questions normally and still be quite drunk.

WITNESS

I was drunk, I met a couple of my chaps from the regiment on Repat leave and I very definitely drank 8 gins and 3 whiskeys and I couldn't say how much more. I definitely was drunk. The first I remember of the provost at all was when my hands were put behind my back. My right arm was hurting me, when I was picked up I don't remember.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT

Q. Do you remember going to the police station?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember hitting the policeman?
A. No sir.

Q. If you were that drunk that you don't remember, how could you remember arriving at the station a few minutes later?
A. As I said the first recollection I had was when my hands were forced behind my back and then there was about ten or twelve people gathered around me and I knew there was some trouble.

FIRST WITNESS (CONTINUED)

Q. And the little twist of your arm sobered you up?
A. It was not a little twist.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

ADDRESS BY THE PROS OFFR TO THE COURT

Sir, at this time the prosecution just would like to bring to the attention of the court of the evidence that has been given by two competent NCO's who are continually on patrol duty in London area and have had experience in determining whether or not a man under arrest was drunk. Since there is no evidence but the man's own statement to prove otherwise. I ask that the court bear this in mind in reaching a decision.

ADDRESS BY THE DEF OFFR TO THE COURT

The only point I would like to bring out is that Pte Hawke has no recollection of what happened, only that he had a twist of his arm and neither of the two witnesses can say for sure whether he was sober or not, they say they think he was sober they are not sure.

C/o B-64478 Sgm Hawke R.R.

Gentlemen,

Re Hawke enlisted in the C.A. in Toronto in April 1941 - 3 months later was sent overseas here, where he has served since. In 1944 Feb. he was wounded and was categorized "4". Upon promised to be returned to Canada. He was kept on fatigue duty since. His own unit, his friends, all were sent overseas from here. He 'loafed' here, moved around, which resulted in having from lose interest or love of soldiering. As has always shown in the army. He felt that a more valuable and important job he could of accomplished back home thank he did here all the time.

Pte Hawke has no record whatsoever in the civilian police records which proves that he has a good character.

At 5 years old he enlisted in the army as an orphan, he lost his only brother in the merchant navy during this present war.

On the 6th of October last two of his best friends on Pilot Stream are on leave in London. A celebration like we and here all celebrations, legion are showed resulting in a state of drunkness for Pte Hawke who does not remember anything of what happened. He was never charged with drunkness or with charges similar to that today. before

I do not try to escape the fact that Pte Hawke was has a few charges

July 16th 1918.

Sir:-

I joined the N.Y.N.G. about 3 yrs. ago. Before I enlisted I was legally separated from my wife. I have one child. My wife has been [illegible] Company of other men. I was told upon enlistment that I must support her. All this trouble has deeply bothered me, for some time, & I believe it is the cause of my trouble

Sir:

[illegible] Hunter #137176. Co. I.

16 July 1943.

Sir:-

On defence of Cpl Hanbury I would like to say that he has been Overseas 2 years with the Highland Light Infantry of Canada and joined the Army on 11 Dec 40.

He has been a very capable soldier as you can see by his M.F.R. 6 and has worked very hard first gaining his stripe and then the second. As a matter of fact he was to get his 3rd stripe during the period he went A.W.L.

Therefore Sir, I beg this Court to take into consideration Corporal Hanbury's good character and that he has tried to be an efficient soldier. Will you take into consideration his family troubles also considering the punishment, Sir

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing at Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. NO - SIR.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (no) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans. NO - SIR. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans. NO - SIR. Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. Cf AA 95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 41, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

~~D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)~~
~~Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges, and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)~~
(1. AA 54(7) (b), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1) Ans. NO - SIR
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)

Plea for Mitigation

E-3
RM

If the court will bear with me I would like to submit a plea for mitigation of sentence in the case of Tpr. Hawkins.
At the outbreak of hostilities in Sept 39 this man enlisted with the 1st Hussars his hometown Regiment He served with that unit until April 43 when he was posted to what is now 2 CACRU for the purpose of going to Sicily with the 1st Can Army Tk Bde. While at CACRU he was medically examined and found to be an L4. He was then boarded to the 2 CA CRU Depot Battery during which time he had not only passed with the 1st Bde but could no longer return to his old regiment. Away from his regiment for the first time in 3 yrs and feeling that as a categorized man he had no duty left to work for he went AWOL for the first time on the 29 May 43.
Since the summer of 1943 Tpr Hawkins has received no mail from his wife in Canada and all his letters to her have been returned marked no such person at the address. While 2 CACRU he had been employed as a Fitter class B for some time and had repeatedly asked if he could not be trade tested for Fitter A qualification and was given no satisfactory reason as to why he could not. He also gave reasons for obtaining promotion which he felt had less right to it than he did. The worry of domestic troubles coupled with the feeling that he was not getting a square deal with the unit rendered his state of mind such that he failed to return from pass on the 21 Jan 44.
In summing up I would like to point out that this man had a good record while with his regiment and I can personally vouch for this being the regiment at the time and having the Hawkins working with me in the same squadron. It was not until I left to Ft Hassan, that I realized that his wife had left him and was unhappy in her new surroundings that he went AWOL. Will the Court please take these facts into consideration when passing sentence.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to less serious offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty to all charges use second alternative in para D6.) and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 2, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E2 of Record Form E.
5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on .....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on .....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by comparing paragraphs D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

Fill here Loose Sheets of Record.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the .....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the .....charge(s), and allowed on the .....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D6.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans .....Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans .....Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 80(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court as to (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the .....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (4), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans .....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (b), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex ..... and Ex ..... respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 353 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans .....(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(4), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). Referred for assessment by M.O. who states that the court directs he have a psychiatric examination. Notes he is a shy timid lad. The m/n states his sentence of two years has just been promulgated. Charged and convicted of S.I.W. States he didn't have a good enough story and told the truth. Claims he is innocent. G.S.W. rifle was an accident left foot wound outer two toes. Claims he didn't know what an S.I.W. was and didn't understand the proceedings on charge. Felt he was bound to be convicted when it came to a F.G.C.M. Believed he would get a year for criminal negligence. He is mildly depressed. Chief worry is loss of money. He won't be able to buy a truck after the war his chief ambition in life. Does not express a great deal of resentment. Claims he knew of very few cases of S.I.W. among fellows. Had never thought of the act. Three others charged at the same time. Knows of only one man who ever "got away with it."

Has an unfavourable back ground and family history is positive for neuropathic traits. Father was a veteran of the last war, R.N. an unstable type - drank considerably - often left the family for periods of time. Mother had to work and was harsh and irritable. M/M is timid recessive insecure type, without many phobias. Never mixed well, little interested in sports, family moved about a great deal and his education was limited and interrupted. Lived in Scotland until age 7 or 8 then moved to Newfoundland. General knowledge quite limited and localized. Calculation is poor - "forgets ". Civilian employment limited - casual menial type - helper on truck. Has little mechanical knowledge.. Is a poor army adjuster. Borderline knowledge of basic subjects. Could do map reading, but memory poor etc. Compatability limited, few friends activities and interests of small scope. Drinks little. This is his only crime. E.R. fair. Is nervous of machine gun fire but not of shelling. Imagination and comprehension limited as is reason and ability informal testing. He is a dull mediocre immature passive and docile unimaginative type, basically recessive unaggressive with traits of shyness. Naive of outlook and judgement. Adjustment inadequate and indicative of inferiority. Handicapped by and reflects his background of unsecurity and mediocrity. He show mental retardation - mild borderline dull intelligence M 4 S 3. Impression mental retardation.

MEDICAL CERTIFICATE

I certify that I have this morning examined G1002
Pte Hawkins J.R. and find him fit to undergo trial by Court Martial.

D.P. Middleton, Maj.
Medical Officer.

Date 27 Dec 44

G-1602 Pte. John Francis HAWKINS
NNSH — 12 Bn 2 CIBRGp.

D2 — Prosecutors opening address:

There are no witnesses available as the casualties have been killed or evacuated.

First Witness for the Prosecution

D-3. Major J.P. Middlebro, 20 Can Gen Hosp RCAMC being duly sworn states: I examined the accused. On his left 4th toe is a well healed scar over the proximal joint of the toe due to a penetrating wound in a downward & outward direction. The joint is stiff but no disability in the function of the toe. This could have been caused by a weapon in the man's own hand. I could not tell how for the weapon was held away.

Cross-examined:

He is fit to go back to the line as far as his foot is concerned. He is A-1 as far as his foot is concerned.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Record Witness for the Prosecution

B-76047 S/Sgt Chester H.W., 3 C.S. C Pro Corps having been duly sworn states: I know the accused. I recognize the statement which I took from him. On 15

Dec 1944 I saw the accused at 8 CGH. I produced the statement to him. It is a statement taken on 19 Sep at 1 CG and witnessed by L/Cpl Paterson and Matthews C. Pro C. Signed by the accused. He said he had been cautioned before writing the statement.

Statement read to the Court, marked "Exhibit "A" and is attached herewith.

The defence has no objection to the admission of the statement. No cross-examination.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

B-938446 Cpl Norton, T.H. having been duly sworn states:

I am Cpl in No. 4 C Pro C. I recognize the accused. On 27 Sept. with Sgt. Watkinson I interviewed him. It was a voluntary statement. He was cautioned in the usual way. He stated that he did intend to shoot himself to get out of the line because the going was tough and he couldn't stand it any longer, but then when he did shoot himself it was accidental.

Statement under RP 16 received and marked "Exhibit "B". Copy having been served on Defence 21 December 1944

No Cross-examination.

RP 83(B) complied with.

Prosecutor submits NFB 371, signed by accused. Marked as Exhibit "C", attached herewith

D-6

First Witness for the Defence

The accused - G-16054 Pte Hawkins, J. F. NWSH, having been duly sworn states:

I was born at Minto, N.B., 4 June 1925. I enlisted 2 July 43. I came to U.K. 16 June 44, to France in July 44. I remember all the statements I made. The 1st one was made at the Unit. I was at the R.A.P. 2d just been wounded. (Exhibit "C"). The Regt was 10 Km from Boloegne. I was doing guard duty. It was 12 Sept.; about 1600 hrs. We were under shell fire, about 200-300 yds. away from where we were. The guard duty lasted 2 hrs. I was having a smoke and looked over and saw a rifle. I picked up the rifle to look at the sights. I was sitting on the outside of a trench. A fellow was sleeping beside me. I had it across my lap. It was a MARK III 1" Cdn rifle. Then I examined the sights and it went off.

The accused demonstrates the above. I am a Bren gunner. As far as I can remember my hand was around the trigger guard.

TO

I didn't want to give up my Bren gun. That is why I decided to shoot myself. But then I didn't have the nerve. The Officer said to me 3 weeks ~~before~~ this I can't find anyone to relieve you on the Bren so you'll have to hang on. I wanted to do this. I didn't want to be taken off the Bren but I wasn't worried. I don't exactly know how long I'd been in the line. I figure about a month and a half. We'd had a week rest and 36 hours. We'd been through Falaise and a few towns and some woods. The regt had engaged the enemy. We had taken pw's. I don't remember the town where we first went into action; this side of Caen. I had Basic and Advanced Trg in Canada and 2 weeks in England. I had been on exercises in Canada where live ammo was used. I have thrown grenades. I was found as 1st Class shot on Rifle and 1st Class on Bren; had fired 91 PPT and 2 "Masters". We'd had long marches; I wanted out. My wound is healed. I would like to go back as rifleman, not as Bren gunner. I went to Grade ~~VII~~ 7. I was 14. Before I went in the army I drove tank mostly.

I remember the wording of the other statements (Exhibit "L" + "M"). I decided to shoot myself because I heard others talking about it, making it look like an accident and getting a break. I'd heard one here and there say it. Then I didn't blame the nerve. When it did happen it was an accident. There was nothing else on my mind when it happened. I told my Sgt I was tired and he said he'd look into it. A week before it happened. But I didn't get any rest. The Bren and mags were too heavy. I was No. 1 on the Bren. I've always been A category. I weigh 140. Never had any nervous disease. No brothers in the Army. My Father is in the V.G. of C. I still know it was accidental. I am positive. If I could get back to the Reg't I'd do good as a Rfmn. At the time of the accident I was tired out. Now I've had a rest I could go back.

Cross-examined:

I'm not nervous. I want to be a Rfmn. It wasn't my nerves I don't remember how I pulled the trigger. I didn't see much action as Bren gunner. I had 2 or 3 No 2's. Carried 2 mags in each pouch and the Bren. There was no pressure brought to bear on me when I made the statements ("Exhibits "A" "B" & "C"

RP 86(b) complied with

Prosecutors Closing Address:

All the evidence has been brought out in direct examination by my friend and it speaks for itself. It is not a question of law. He was discontented because of the type of work he had to do. The actual shooting is still unexplained. I do not feel it necessary to say more.

Closing Address by Defence:

I would remind the Court the accused joined the regt as sft. during heavy part of this campaign. On the fringe of Falaise. The NWSH had seen tough action. It was under these circumstances that, although, a 1st class shot on Brens he was made No. 1. It may be the case of the flea tickling the elephant with the crow bar. Just as effective as he would be under these circumstances. He saw action for 1½ months. Became downcast. Not uncommon in lads 18 & 19. Then Pl. Sgt did nothing about giving him a rest. He made a statement (Pros 3 to) then 2 more statements. So what? Would a reasonable man say that one could find intent on the strength of two statements

It is impossible to convict on such evidence. This is not intent for intent requires cool & calculated thought to establish prima facie case. I ask you to dismiss on the 1st charge. To be blameworthy on the 2nd charge? No. These lads are facing a new kind of warfare. Accordingly it will have to weighed if it is even negligence. The last thought. His willingness to serve as often. He is a cat. He will go back to his kept and prove himself to be a good soldier.

E 1. The accused states:
My father was in the Navy in the last war. He was born in Nfld. My Mother was born in Scotland. I assign $15.00 per month to my Mother. I have one sister. My conduct sheet is clean as far as Overseas is concerned.

Instructor.

Statement of F.1602 Pte. Hawkins J. F. North Nova Scotia Regt, 3 Cdn Inf Div. taken at 2 Cdn. General Hospital, 19 Sept 44.

I have been cautioned by F/Sgt C B Mascall of the Cdn. Provost Corps that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence.

I do know I understand this warning I sign my name herewith.

Sgd - (Hawkins) F

I am John Francis Hawkins, age 19, of the North (Nova Scotia Highlanders) Nova Scotia Regt. I came to France as a reinforcement and joined the regt. just before they went out of the line for a week's rest. I was in action with them from that time until the 12 Sept 44 when I received the injury to my foot. That date the outfit was on reserve and we were resting in trenches. One of the other lads, whose name I cannot remember, and myself had just come off guard and were sitting outside our trench. He was already asleep and I picked up his rifle to look at the sights. I held the rifle on my lap with the barrel pointing towards my left foot. I was playing with the sights with my left hand and my right hand held the rifle by the butt with my finger on the trigger. I pulled the trigger and the gun discharged wounding me in the left foot. I do not know what made me pull the trigger unless it was that the pack which I was leaning up against slipped and made me jump.

I have read over the above statement and it is true.

STATEMENT OF INJURED PERSON:

(Short statement by injured person of the circumstances of the injury. Signed statements of witnesses, or of persons to whom the injured person may have mentioned his injury, to be attached.)

At approximately 1545 hours on 13 Sept. 44 shortly after coming off guard duty, I was sitting down having a smoke. Seeing a rifle beside me I picked it up and while looking over the sights and trigger, it discharged and the bullet passed through my left foot. I reported to the North Nova Scotia Highlanders R.A.P. immediately for treatment. It was not my own rifle.

The marginally named was admitted to R.A.P. at 1545 hours 13 Sept 44 suffering from compound fracture of middle phalanx 4th toe left foot and flesh wound at end of 5th toe. The injury will probably not result in any disability at a later date. Hawkins claims the muzzle was about 8" from toe when fired. There is some blackening of skin around wound which may be due to powder burn. He further claims that gun accidently discharged while he was adjusting the sights of someone elses rifle. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summa ry of Evidence in the case of G.1602 Pte HAWKINS, J.F., NNSH, on strength 12 Bn 2 CBRG, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS

Major G.M. Malone, 8 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC, sworn, states:

I, Major G.M. Malone, No.8 Cdn Gen Hospital, state that this day I have examined the accused and find a healed scar on the medial aspect of the fourth left toe, another scar on the volar aspect in the same toe and a small scar on the volar aspect of the fifth toe at the tip. These wounds are all healed well. There is a partial ankylosis of the distal phalangeal joints fourth left toe. In my opinion this should not interfere with his efficiency as a soldier. I consider him fit for duty. The wound could have been caused by a bullet.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS

B.76047 S/Sgt Chester, H.W., SIB, Cdn Provost Corps, Inc 'C' Cdn Sec GHQ 1 Ech, 21 A Gp, sworn, states:

I recognize the accused, G.1602 Pte Hawkins, J.F. To-day, 13 Dec 44, I saw the accused at No.8 Cdn Gen Hospital and showed him an original of a statement witnessed by L/Cpl Pederson, PA, and L/Cpl Bassell, CE. I asked him if this was a statement which he made on 19 Sep 44 to the two above named NCOs. He said yes. I asked him if he had been cautioned before making this statement and he agreed that he had been cautioned and signed a written caution so that he understood. I submit this statement. The accused was not under arrest at the time of making the statement

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

1. On the 19 Sept. 44, the a/m soldier was interviewed at No.7 Canadian General Hospital by L/Cpls. PEDERSON and MASSELL respecting suspected S.I.W. - gunshot wound in the left foot. He made a written statement which, however, lacked detail.

2. On the 27 Sept. 44, at about 1000 hours, on instructions received from Lt. BARRE, and in company with B-93846 Cpl. NORTON T.H., I interviewed Pte. HAWKINS with a view to obtaining possible further information which might assist in the investigation of his case. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to make a futher statement unless he wished to do so, but that whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and could be given in evidence. He declined to make a further written statement, but while under caution said, quote," I did intend to shoot myself because the going was too tough and I couldn't stand it any longer, but when I did shoot myself, it was accidental."

3. Pte. HAWKINS appeared very reticent regarding the circumstances of the wounding and seemed unable or would not give further information which might assist in the investigation.

4. In the opinion of the writer this man could if he wished say much more about the incident than he has already done, but either for fear of consequence or timidity declines to do so.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (b); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 90, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 32(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

~~D4. The Prosecution is closed (1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s) (2). The Court is cleared, and considers the submission (3). The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans Yes Sir I desire evidence myself on oath Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans Yes Sir Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans not
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the first charge is, being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) ~~In the alternative that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated.~~
(1. AA 54(2) (b), RP 45, 120(F). 2. AA 54(7), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans Yes Sir to give evidence myself on oath.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor ~~states~~ has not available and tenders ~~the~~ copy ~~(ies)~~ of Conduct Sheet(s)(1), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex A and Ex ..... respectively.(2)
(1. MFB 353 or MFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Yes Sir
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. Referred for assessment by M.O. who st ates that the court directs he have a psychiatric examination. Notes he is a shy timid lad. The m/n states his sentence of two years has just been promulgated. Charged and convicted of S.I.W. States he didn't have a good enough story and told the truth. Claims he is innocent. G S W frifle was an accident left foot wound outer two toes. Claims he didn't know what an S.I.W. was and didn't understand the proceedings or charge. Felt he was bound to be convicted when it came to a F.G.C.M. Believed he would get a year for criminal negligence. He is mildly depressed. Chief worry is loss of money. He won't be able to buy a truck after the war his chief ambition in life. Does not express a great deal of resentment. Claims he knew of very few cases of S.I.W. among fellows. Had never thought of the act. Three others charged at the same time. Knows of only one man who ever "got away with it".

Has an unfavourable back ground and family history is positive for neuropathic traits. Father was a veteran of the last war, R.N. an unstable type - dr ank considerably - often left the family for periods of time. Mother had to work and was harsh and irritable. M/M is timid recessive insecure type, without many phobias. Never mixed well, little interested in sports, family moved about a great deal and his education wa s limited and interrupted. Lived in Scotland until a ge 7 or 8 then moved to Newfoundland. General knowledge quite limited and localiz ed. Calculation is poor - "forgets". Civilian employment limited - causal menial type - helper on truck. Has little mechanical knowledge. Is apoor army adjuster. Borderline knowledge of basic subjects. Could do map reading, but memory poor etc. Compatability limited, few friends ativities and interests of small scope. Drinks little. This is his only crime. B.R. fair. Is nervous of machine gun fire but not of shelling. Imagination and comprehension limited as is reason and ability informal testing. He is a dull mediocre immature passive and docile unimaginative type, basically recessive unagressive with traits of shyness. Naive of outlook and fudgement. Adjustment inadequate and indicative of inferiority. Handicapped by and reflects his background of insecurity and mediocrity. He show mental retardation - mild borderline dull intelligence M 4 S 3. First Witness for the prosecution

Major J P Middlebro, 20 Cdn Gen Hosp RCAMC being duly sworn states:

I examined the accused on his left 4th toe is a well healed scar over the proxunal joint of the toe due to a penetrating wound in a downward and outward direction. The joint is stiff but no disability in the function of the toe. This could have been caused by a weapon in the mans own hand. I could not tell how far the weapon was held away.

Cross-examined:

He is fit to go back to the line as far as his foot is concerned. He is A-1 as far as his foot is concerned.

RP (83)E complied with.

Second Witness for the prosecution

B76047 S/Sgt Chester H W, Cdn Pro Corps having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused. I recognize the Statementwhich I took from him. On 15 Dec 44, I saw the accused at 5 Cdn Gen Hosp. I produced this statement to him. It is a statement taken on 19 Dec 44 at 7 C C and witnessed by L/Cpl Paterson and Mathews C Pro C, signed by the accused. He said he had been cautioned before he made the statement.

Statement read to the Court marked Exhibit "A" and is attached herewith.

The defence has no objection to the admission of the statement. No cross-examination.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Third Witness for the prosecution

B93846 Cpl Morton T H, having been duly sworn states:

I am Cpl in No 4 C Pro C. I recognize the accused. On 27 Sept with Sgt Catehouse, I interviewed him, it was a voluntary statement. He was cautioned in the usual way He stated that he did intend to shoot himself to get out of the line because the going was tough and he couldn't stand it any longer; but then when he did shoot himself it was accidental.

Statement under RP 76 received and marked Exhibit "B" copy having been served on Defence 21 December 1944.

No cross-examination.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Prosecution submits MFR 371, signed by the accused. Marked as Exhibit "C", attached herewith.

D-6
First Witness for the Defence

The accused G1602 Pte Hawkins JF, NNSH, having been duly sworn states:

I was born at Minto, N.B., 4 June 1925. I inlisted 2 July 43. I came to the U.K. 16 June 44; to France in July 44.

I remember all the statements I made. The one was made at the unit. I was at the RAP, I'd just been wounded. (Exhibit "C"). The regiment was 10 km from Boulogne. I was doing guard duty. It was 12 Sept; about 1600 hrs. We were under shell fire, about 200 - 300 yards away from where we were. The guard duty lasted about 2 hrs. I was having a smoke and looked over and saw a rifle. I picked up the rifle to have a look at the sights. I was sitting on the outside of a trench. A fellow was sleeping beside me. I laid it across my lap. It was a Mk IV 1 Cdn Rifle. Then I examined the sights and it went off.
The accused demonstrates the above.
I am a Bren gunner. As far as I can remember my hand was around the trigger guard. I didn't want to give up my Bren gun. That is why I decided to shoot myself. But then I didn't have the nerve. The officer said to me 3 weeks before this I can't find anyone to relieve you on the Bren so you'll have to hang on. I wanted to do this. I didn't want to be taken off the Bren but I wasn't worried. I don't exactly know how long I'd been in the line. I figure about a month and a half. We'd had about a weeks rest and a 36 hrs. We'd been through Falaise and a few towns and some MG. posts. The regt had engaged the enemy, we had taken PWs. I don't remember the town where we first went into action; this side of Caen. I had basic and advanced training in Canada and two weeks in England. I had been on exercises in Canada where live amn was used, I have thrown grenades, I was passed 1st class shot on rifle and 2nd class on Bren; had fired PIAT and 2" mortar. We'd had long marches; I wanted rest. My wound is healed. I would like to go back as rifleman, not as Bren gunner. I went to grade 7, I was 14. Before I went in the army I drove truck mostly. I remember the wording of the other statements (Exhibits "B" & "A"). I decided to shoot myself because I heard other talking about it, making it look like an accident and getting a break. I'd heard one here and there say it. Though I didn't have the nerve. When it did happen It was an accident. There was nothing else on my mind when it happened. I told my Sgt I was tired and he said he'd look into it.,a week before it happened. But I didn't get any rest. The Bren and mags were too heavy. I was No.1 on the Bren. Ive always been A category. I weigh 140. Never had any serious disease. No brothers in the army. My father is in the V.G. of C. I still know it was accidental. I am positive. If I could get back to the regiment I'd do good as a rfmn. At the time of the accident I was tired out. Now I've had a rest I could go back.

Cross-examined:

I'm not nar vous. I want to be a rfmn. It wasn't my nerves. I don't remember how I pulled the trigger. I didn't see much a ction as Bren gunner. I had 2 or 3 No. 2s. Carried 2 mags in each pouch and the bren. There was no pressure brought to bear on me when I made the statements (Exhibits "A" "B" & "C".

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Prosecutors closing address:

All the evidence has been brought out in direct examination by my friend and it speaks for itself. It is not a question of trg. He was discontented because of the type of work he had to do. The actual shooting is still unexplained. I do not think it necessary to say more.

~~Closing address by~~

Closing address by defence:

I would remind the Court the accused joined the regt as rft. during heavy part of this campaign. On the fringe of Falais. The NNSH had seen tough action. It was under those circumstances that, although 2nd class shot on the Bren he was made No. 1. It may be the case of the flea tickling the elephant with the crow bar. Just as effective as he would be under those circumstances He saw action for 18 months. He became downcast. Not uncommon in lads 18 or 19. His pl sjt did nothing about giving him a rest. He made a statement (AFD 371). Then 2 more statements. So what? Would a reasonable man say that one could find intent on the strength of his statements. It is impossible to convict on such evidence. He is not intact for intent requires cool & calculated thought to establish prima facie mens rei. I ask you to dismiss on the 1st charge. To be blame worthy on the second charge? No. These lads are facing a new kind of warfare. Accordingly it will have to weighed if it is even negligence. The last thought, his willingness to serve as rfmn. He is A cat. He will go back to his regiment and prove himself to be a good soldier.

E-1 The accused states:

My father was in the Navy in the last war. He was born in Nfld. My mother was born in Scotland. I assign 15.00 per month to my mother. I have one sister. My conduct sheet is clean as far as overseas is concerned.

Exhibit "A"

Statement of G1602 Pte Hawkins J F, North Shore Regiment 3 Cdn Inf Div, taken at 7 Cdn General Hospital, 19 Sept 44.

I have been cautioned by L/Cpl C E Mansell of the Cdn Provos t Corps that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence. To show I understand this warning I sign my name herewith.

Sgd Hawkins JF

I am John Francis Hawkins, age 19, of the North Nova Scotia Highlanders. I came to France as a reinforcement and joined the regt just before they went out of the lines for a weeks rest. I was in action with them from that time until the 12th Sept 44 when I received the injury to my foot. That date the outfit was on reserve and we were resting in trenches. One of the other lads, whose name I cannot remember, and myself had just come off guard duty and were resting outside our trench. He was already asleep and I picked up his rifle to look at the sights. I held the rifle on my lap with the barrel pointing towards my left foot. I was playing with the sights with my left hand and my right hand held the rifle by the buttwith my finger on the trigger. I pulled the trigger and the gun discharged wounding me in the left foot. I do not know what made me pull the trigger unless it was that the pack which I was leaning up against slipped and made me jump.

I have read over the above statement and it is true.

G.1602 Pte Hawkins JF

The marginally named was admitted to R.A.P. at 1545 hours 13 Sept 44 suffering from compound fracture of middle phalanx 4th toe left foot and flesh wound at end of 5th toe. The injury will probably not result in any disability at a later date. Hawkins claims the muzzle was about 8" from toe when fired. There is some blackening of skin around wound which may be due to powder burn. He further claims that gun accidently discharged while he was adjusting the sights of someone elses rifle. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of G.1602 Pte HAWKINS J.F., RNSW, on strength 12 Bn 2 CBRG, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 15(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS Major G.M. Malone, 8 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC, sworn, states:

I, Major G.M. Malone, No. 8 Cdn Gen Hospital, state that this day I have examined the accused and find a healed scar on the medial aspect of the fourth left toe, another scar on the volar aspect in the same toe and a small scar on the volar aspect of the fifth toe at the tip. These wounds are all healed well. There is a partial ankylosis of the distal phalangeal joints fourth left toe. In my opinion this should not interfere with his efficiency as a soldier. I consider him fit for duty. The wound could have been caused by a bullet.

The accused ~~does not~~ declines to cross-examine this witness.

Subject :- Re - C-1602 Pte. HANKINS J.F.
North Nova Scotia Highrs., 3 Div.

1. On the 19 Sept. 44, the a/m soldier was interviewed at no. 7 Canadian General Hospital by 1/Cpls. PEDERSON and MASCELL respecting suspected S.I.W. - gunshot wound in the left foot. He made a written statement which, however, lacked detail.

2. On the 27 Sept. 44, at about 1000 hrs, on instructions received from Lt. EARLE, and in company with B-03846 Cpl. NORTON, T.N., I interviewed Pte. HANKINS with a view to obtaining possible further information which might assist in the investigation of his case. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to make a further statement unless he wished to do so, but that whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and could be given in evidence. He declined to make a further written statement, but while under caution said, quote, " I did intend to shoot myself because the going was too tough and I couldn't stand it any longer, but when I did shoot myself, it was accidental."

3. Pte. HANKINS appeared very reticent regarding the circumstances of the wounding and seemed unable or would not give further information which might assist in the investigation.

4. In the opinion of the writer this man could if he wished say much more about the incident than he has already done, but either for fear of consequence or timidity declines to do so.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 37(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 and 7, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on.....charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on.....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not charged the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(E). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex.....initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

D4. ~~The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission(3). The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the.....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)~~
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans. yes sir to give evidence myself on oath. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans. No Sir. Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(*1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court ~~is~~ (are) recorded in Part I ~~of~~ of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding ~~is~~ of the Court on the first charge ~~is~~, being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1) ~~Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)~~
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1) Ans. yes sir to give evidence myself on oath.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor ~~gives~~ puts in Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), ~~and~~ certified true copy (~~ies~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. D and Ex.....respectively.(3) D2

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans. Yes Sir
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. Referred for assessment by M.O. who st ates that the court directs he have a psychiatric examination. Notes he is a shy timid lad. The m/n states his sentence of two years has just been promulgated. Charged and convicted of S.I.W. States he didn't have a good enough story and told the truth. Claims he is innocent. G S W frifle was an accident left foot wound outer two toes. Claims he didn't know what an S.I.W. was and didn't understand the proceedings or charge. Felt he was bound to be convicted when it came to a F.G.C.M. Believed he would get a year for criminal negligence. He is mildly depressed. Chief worry is loss of money. He won't be able to buy a truck after the war his chief ambition in life. Does not express a great deal of resentment. Claims he knew of very few cases of S.I.W. among fellows. Had never thought of the act. Three others charged at the same time. Knows of only one man who ever "got away with it".

Has an unfavourable back ground and family history is positive for neuropathic traits. Father was a veteran of the last war, R.N. an unstable type - dr ank considerably - often left the family for periods of time. Mother had to work and was harsh and irritable. M/N is timid recessive insecure type, without many phobias. Never mixed well, little interested in sports, family moved about a great deal and his education wa s limited and interrupted. Lived in Scotland until a ge 7 or 8 then moved to Newfoundland. General knowledge quite limited and localiz ed. Calculation is poor - "forgets". Civilian employment limited - causal menial type - helper on truck. Has little mechanical knowledge. Is apoor army adjuster. Borderline knowledge of basic subjects. Could do map reading, but memory poor etc. Compatability limited, few friends ativities and interests of small scope. Drinks little. This is his only crime. B.R. fair. Is nervous of machine gun fire but not of shelling. Imagination and comprehension limited as is reason and ability informal testing. He is a dull mediocre immature passive and docile unimaginative type, basically recessive unagressive with traits of shyness. Naive of outlook and fudgement. Adjustment inadequate and indicative of inferiority. Handicapped by and reflects his background of unsecurity and mediocrity, He show mental retardation - mild borderline dull intelligence M 4 S 3. Prosecutors opening address:

There are no witnesses available as the comrades have been killed or evacuated.

First Witness for the prosecution

Major J P Middlebro, 20 Cdn Gen Hosp RCAMC being duly sworn states:

I examined the accused on his left 4th toe is a well healed scar over the proxunal joint of the toe due to a penetrating wound in a downward and outward direction. The joint is stiff but no disability in the function of the toe. This could have been caused by a weapon in the mans own hand. I could not tell how for the weapon was held away.

Cross-examined:

He is fit to go back to the line as far as his foot is concerned. He is A-1 as far as his foot is concerned.

RP (83)B complied with.

Second Witness for the prosecution

B76047 S/Sgt Chester H [illegible], Cdn Pro Corps having been duly sworn states:

I know the accused. I recognize the Statementwhich I took from him. On 15 Dec 44, I saw the accused at 8 Cdn Gen Hosp. I produced this statement to him. It is a statement taken on 19 Dec 44 at 7 C C and witnessed by L/Cpl Paterson and Mathews C Pro C, signed by the accused. He said he had been cautioned before he made the statement.

Ctatement read to the Court marked Exhibit "A" and is attached herewith.

The defence has no objection to the admission of the statement. No cross-examination.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Third Witness for the prosecution

B93846 Cpl Morton T H, having been duly sworn states:

I am Cpl in No 4 C Pro C. I recognize the accused. On 27 Sept with Sgt Catehouse, I interviewed him, it was a voluntary statement. He was cautioned in the usual way He stated that he did intend to shoot himself to get out of the line because the going was tough and he couldn't stand it any longer; but then when he did shoot himself it was accidental.

Statement under RP 76 received and marked Exhibit "B" copy having been served on Defence 21 December 1944.

No cross-examination.

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Prosecution submits MFB 371, signed by the accused. Marked as Exhibit "C", attached herewith.

D-6
First Witness for the Defence

The accused G1602 Pte Hawkins JF, NNSH, having been duly sworn states:

I was born at Minto, N.B., 4 June 1925. I inlisted 2 July 43. I came to the U.K. 16 June 44; to France in July 44.

I remember all the statements I made. The one was made at the unit, I was at the RAP, I'd just been wounded. (Exhibit "C"). The regiment was 10 km from Boulogne. I was doing guard duty. It was 12 Sept; about 1600 hrs. We were under shell fire, about 200 - 300 yards away from where we were. The guard duty lasted about 2 hrs. I was having a smoke and looked over and saw a rifle. I picked up the rifle to have a look at the sights. I was sitting on the outside of a trench. A fellow was sleeping beside me. I laid it across my lap. It was a Mk IV 1 Cdn Rifle. Then I examined the sights and it went off.
The accused demonstrates the above.
I am a Bren gunner. As far as I can remember my hand was around the trigger guard. I didn't want to give up my Bren gun. That is why I decided to shoot myself. But then I didn't have the nerve. The officer said to me 3 weeks before this I can't find anyone to relieve you on the Bren so you'll have to hang on. I wanted to do this. I didn't want to be taken off the Bren but I wasn't worried. I don't exactly know how long I'd been in the line. I figure about a month and a half. We'd had about a weeks rest and a 36 hrs. We'd been through Falaise and a few towns and some UC. nasts. The regt had engaged the enemy, we had taken PWs. I don't remember the town where we first went into action; this side of Caen. I had basic and advanced training in Canada and two weeks in England. I had been on exercises in Canada where live amn was used, I have thrown grenades, I was passed 1st class shot on rifle and 2nd class on Bren; had fired PIAT and 2" mortar. We'd had long marches; I wanted rest. My wound is healed. I would like to go back as rifleman, not as Bren gunner. I went to grade 7, I was 14. Before I went in the army I drove truck mostly . I remember the wording of the other statements (Exhibits "B" & "A"). I decided to shoot myself because I heard other talking about it, making it look like an accident and getting a break. I'd heard one here and there say it. Though I didn't have the nerve. When it did happen It was an accident. There was nothing else on my mind when it happened. I told my Sgt I was tired and he said he'd look into it.,a week before it happened. But I didn't get any rest. The Bren and mags were too heavy. I was No.1 on the Bren. Ive always been A category, I weigh 140, Never had any serious disease. No brothers in the army. My father is in the W.D. of C. I still know it was accidental. I am positive. If I could get back to the regiment I'd do good as a rfmn. At the time of the accident I was tired out. Now I've had a rest I could go back.

Cross-examined:

I'm not ner vous. I want to be a rfmn. It wasn't my nerves. I don't remember how I pulled the trigger. I didn't see much a ction as Bren gunner. I had 2 or 3 No. 2s. Carried 2 mags in each pouch and the bren. There was no pressure brought to bear on me when I made the statements (Exhibits "A" "B" & "C".

RP 83 (B) complied with.

Prosecutors closing address:

All the evidence has been brought out in direct examination by my friend and it speaks for itself. It is not a question of trg. He was discontented because of the type of work he had to do. The actual shooting is still unexplained. I do not think it necessary to say more.

~~Closing address by~~

Closing address by defence:

I would remind the Court the accused joined the regt as rft. during heavy part of this campaign. On the fringe of Falais. The NNSH had seen tough action. It was under those circumstances that, although 2nd class shot on the Bren he was made No. 1. It may be the case of the flea tickling the elephant with the crow bar. Just as effective as he would be under those circumstances He saw action for 1½ months. He became downcast. Not uncommon in lads 18 or 19. His pl sjt did nothing about giving him a rest. He made a statement (MFB 371). Then 2 more statements. So what? Would a reasonable man say that one could find intent on the strength of his statements. It is impossible to convict on such evidence. He is not intact for intent requires cool & calculated thought to establish prima facie mens rei. I ask you to dismiss on the 1st charge. To be blame worthy on the second charge? No. These lads are facing a new kind of warfare. Accordingly it will have to weighed if it is even negligence. The last thought, his willingness to serve as rfmn. He is A cat. He will go back to his regiment and prove himself to be a good soldier.

E-1 The accused states:

My father was in the Navy in the last war. He was born in Nfld. My mother was born in Scotland. I assign 15.00 per month to my mother. I have one sister. My conduct sheet is clean as far as overseas is concerned.

Exhibit "A"

Statement of G1602 Pte Hawkins J F, North Shore Regiment 3 Cdn Inf Div, taken at 7 Cdn General Hospital, 19 Sept 44.

I have been cautioned by L/Cpl C B Massell of the Cdn Provos t Corps that I am not obliged to say anything unless I wish to do so, but anything I do say will be taken down in writing and may be used as evidence. To show I understand this warning I sign my name herewith.

Sgd Hawkins JF

I am John Francis Hawkins, age 19, of the North Nova Scotia Highlanders. I came to France as a reinforcement and joined the regt just before they went out of the lines for a weeks rest. I was in action with them from that time until the 12th Sept 44 when I received the injury to my foot. That date the outfit was on reserve and we were resting in trenches. One of the other lads, whose name I cannot remember, and myself had just come off guard duty and were resting outside our trench. He was already asleep and I picked up his rifle to look at the sights. I held the rifle on my lap with the barrel pointing towards my left foot. I was playing with the sights with my left hand and my right hand held the rifle by the buttwith my finger on the trigger. I pulled the trigger and the gun discharged wounding me in the left foot. I do not know what made me pull the trigger unless it was that the pach which I was leaning up against slipped and made me jump.

I have read over the above statement and it is true.

G.1602 Pte Hawkins JF

The marginally named was admitted to R.A.P. at 1545 hours 13 Sept 44 suffering from compound fracture of middle phalanx 4th toe left foot and flesh wound at end of 5th toe. The injury will probably not result in any disability at a later date. Hawkins claims the muzzle was about 8" from toe when fired. There is some blackening of skin around wound which may be due to powder burn. He further claims that gun accidently discharged while he was adjusting the sights of someone elses rifle. SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

Summary of Evidence in the case of G.1602 Pte HAWKINS J.F., NNSH, on strength 12 Bn 2 CBRG, charged with, when on active service wilfully injuring himself with intent thereby to render himself unfit for service (AA Sec 18(2)), alternative, when on active service neglect to the prejudice of good order and military discipline (AA Sec 40).

By direction of the Commanding Officer the evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS Major G.M. Malone, 8 Cdn Gen Hospital RCAMC, sworn, states:

I, Major G.M. Malone, No. 8 Cdn Gen Hospital, state that this day I have examined the accused and find a healed scar on the medial aspect of the fourth left toe, another scar on the volar aspect in the same toe and a small scar on the volar aspect of the fifth toe at the tip. These wounds are all healed well. There is a partial ankylosis of the distal phalangeal joints fourth left toe. In my opinion this should not interfere with his efficiency as a soldier. I consider him fit for duty. The wound could have been caused by a bullet.

The accused ~~declines~~ declines to cross-examine this witness.

Subject :- Re - G-1602 Pte. HAWKINS J.F.
North Nova Scotia Highrs., 3 Div.

1. On the 19 Sept. 44, the a/m soldier was interviewed at no. 7 Canadian General Hospital by 1/Cpls. PEDERSON and MASSELL respecting suspected S.I.W. - gunshot wound in the left foot. He made a written statement which, however, lacked detail.

2. On the 27 Sept. 44, at about 1000 hrs, on instructions received from Lt. BARRE, and in company with B-93846 Cpl. NORTON, T.H., I interviewed Pte. HAWKINS with a view to obtaining possible further information which might assist in the investigation of his case. I cautioned him that he was not obliged to make a further statement unless he wished to do so, but that whatever he did say would be taken down in writing and could be given in evidence. He declined to make a further written statement, but while under caution said, quote, " I did intend to shoot myself because the going was too tough and I couldn't stand it any longer, but when I did shoot myself, it was accidental."

3. Pte. HAWKINS appeared very reticent regarding the circumstances of the wounding and seemed unable or would not give further information which might assist in the investigation.

4. In the opinion of the writer this man could if he wished say much more about the incident than he has already done, but either for fear of consequence or timidity declines to do so.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of L2178 Pte. HAWKINS, Ralph of the 1st Bn. Saskatoon Light Infantry (MG).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness for the Prosecution.

L2475 Cpl. Anderson, D.K., "B" Coy, Sask.L.I.(MG) C.A.O. having been sworn states:-

I am L2475 Cpl. Anderson, D.K. Corporal Cook of "B" Company Sask.L.I.(MG).
On returning from exercise "PRESENT" on 22 FEB 43, I picked up Pte. Hawkins' pack with the intention of returning it to his quarters. The pack felt heavy. I lifted the flap and looked inside. I saw two tins of ration plums. Only one tin returned to the food stores. I suspected Pte. Hawkins of theft and reported the matter to CQMS Pickles.

D K Anderson Cpl.

The accused declined to question this witness.

Second Witness for the Prosecution.

L1473 CQMS Pickles, W.F., "B" Coy, Sask.L.I.(MG) having been sworn states:-

I am L1473 CQMS Pickles, W.F., Company Quartermaster Sergeant of "B" Coy, Sask.L.I.(MG).

Question - On what day was this case reported to you?

Answer: - It was reported to me on 10 MAR 43 and was also mentioned to me a couple of days before that by Cpl. Anderson. As a result of my conversation with Cpl. Anderson, I suspected that Pte. Hawkins had two tins of plums in his possession. On 10 MAR 43 when Pte. Hawkins was proceeding on leave, I informed Sgt. Moore of the Regimental Police of the information on the whole case and he detailed L/Cpl. Sharp and Pte. Cochrane to follow Hawkins from billets to the station and check his belongings to see if he had these rations with him. I produce one tin of tea, Marked Exhibit "C", and one tin of plums, marked Exhibit "D". These rations are Government property and correspond exactly with the rations found in Pte. Hawkins' possession.

W F Pickles

The accused declined to ~~xxx~~ cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness for the Prosecution

L1062 L/Cpl. Sharp, R.F.W., Sask.L.I.(MG) having been sworn states:-

I am L1062 L/Cpl. Sharp, R.F.W. of the Regimental Police, 1st Bn. Sask.L.I.(MG). At approximately 1600 hours on 10 MAR 43, Pte. Cochrane and I were detailed by Provost Sergeant Moore to apprehend L2178 Pte. Hawkins, R., who was proceeding on leave, before he reached the railway station and to check his kit for rations suspected of having been stolen. Pte. Cochrane and I apprehended Pte. Hawkins at approximately 1700 hrs. I produce one tin of plums marked Exhibit "A", and one tin of tea marked Exhibit "B" which were found in possession of Pte. Hawkins when we checked his kit at the time of arrest. These rations were removed from the small case carried by the accused conteining his kit, marked exhibit "H".

Sharp R.F.W. L/Cpl

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fourth Witness for the prosecution

L2084 Pte. Cochrane, T., 1st Bn. Sask.L.I.(MG) having been sworn states:-

I am L2084 Pte. Cochrane, T. of the Regimental Police of the Saskatoon Light Infantry (MG). At approximately 1600 hrs on 10 MAR 43 Provost Sgt. Moore detailed me to accompany L/Cpl. Sharp. We were detailed to apprehend L2178 Pte. Hawkins, R., who was proceeding on leave before he reached the station and to check his kit for Government rations suspected of being in his possession. L/Cpl. Sharp and I apprehended L2178 Pte. Hawkins, R. at approximately 1700 hrs. From the kit of Pte. Hawkins, Marked Exhibit "D", L/Cpl. Sharp produced Exhibits "A" and "B". The accused was placed under close arrest and returned to the guard room.

Cochrane T.

The accused declined to question this witness.

The accused, having been cautioned in accordance with Rules of Procedure 4(e) stated he wished to give evidence on oath.

First Witness for the Defence

L2178 Pte. Hawkins, Ralph, "B" Coy, Sask.L.I.(MG) having been sworn states:-

I am the accused, L2178 Pte. Hawkins, R. I am employed as cook in "B" Coy kitchen of the Sask.L.I.(MG). I had these rations in my possession as I was going on leave. I do not eat very much meat or potatoes as they cause a rash on me. I took these rations as it is very difficult to get fruit on the ration card as the points do not cover it. The tea that I had in my possession I brought with me from Combined Training Centre in Scotland.

R. Hawkins

I certify that R.P. 4 (A) (B) (C) (D) (E) and (F) have been complied with.

PROSECUTION

~~Opening Address by Prosecutor is read to the Court marked "H", handed to the Court and marked "H"~~ signed by the President and attached hereto.

FIRST WITNESS FOR PROSECUTION ~~Statement~~ having been duly sworn states:

Sir, I am M 37147, A/RSM James Taylor, 3 Cdn Div Signals. At approx. 1445 hrs 24 May 43 I was in the company of RQMS Neiland in front of the O.M. Stores, 3 Cdn Div Sigs Bullet. Sgmn Hawley, whom I recognize as the accused came into the yard in front of the QM Stores. As he approached, RQMS Neiland and myself, the RQMS spoke to him, asking Sgmn Hawley "How much patrol did you draw" The Accused did not answer and continued towards the QM Stores. RQMS Neeland again spoke to the accused asking the same question as before and still did not receive an answer. By this time the Accused was opposite RQMS Neeland who stepped in front of him in order to get the information which he required. He again asked the accused how much petrol he had drawn and did not receive an answer. The RQMS then held out his hand for some documents which the Accused had in his hand. The Accused gave the documents to the RQMS. RQMS Neeland then asked the Accused "Have you been drinking" The Accused did not reply. RQMS Neeland then turned to myself and asked me what my opinion of the Accused condition was. I spoke to Sgm. Hawley and asked him if he had been drinking. I did not receive an answer. I smelled liquor on the breath of the accused. I told RQMS Neeland to get an escort and march the Accused to the Guard Room and place him in close arrest on a charge of being under the influence of liquor whilst in charge of a WD Vehicle. At this time the Accused was standing facing me at a distance of about 3 feet. The RQMS detailed Sgt Jewell and two men who were in the vicinity to take charge of the Accused and march him to the Guard Room. The escort fell in, one on either side of the Accused and Sgt Jewell gave the command "Attention" The Accused did not respond to this command until after the elapse of several seconds. Sgt Jewell then gave the command "About Turn" The Accused did not respond to this command for a matter of several seconds. Sgt Jewell then gave the command "Quick March" and the leading man of the escort had taken four or five paces before the Accused responded to the command. As he marched towards the Guard Room he swayed and staggered. He was ~~drunk~~ definitely under the influence of liquor.

I have been doing disciplinary work in the Army for over five years,

Cross Examined by the Defending Officer.

Q. Were you and RQMS Neeland standing in the yard of the QM Stores when the Accused entered.

A. Yes

Q2 Were there other people in the yard at that time.
A There were several other people.
Q3 How would you define several
A More than two, Sir.
Q4 In your evidence you say "several records" elapsed before the Accused responded to the Order. Again how many would several be.
A More than two Sir.
Q5 Would you say that there could be some other cause besides the influence of liquor which might cause a man to stagger or sway.
A. There could be other causes, but as I had smelt liquor on the Accused breath I say it was from this.

No re-examination.

Questioned by the Court.

Q1. Did you have any suspicion of drunkeness as the Accused first walked across the QM yard?
A. No Sir
Q2 How does the Accused normally respond to a command.
A. In a normal manner.
Q3 How far away was the Accused when RSMS Neeland asked his first question
A. Approximately five or six paces Sir.

Rules of Procedure. 83 B is complied with.

The witness withdraws.

Second Witness — having been duly sworn states

For Prosecution

I Sir, I am M9044 RSMS Neeland, MW, 3 Can Div Sigs.

On the morning of the 24th of May 1943 Signn Hawley, the Accused left the billet area at approx 0900 hours and was not seen by me until 1245 hrs that afternoon. I was in the company of RSM Taylor when Signn Hawley walked in the QM yard. He was carrying in his hand a form (AN-F-ST 825 "Record of Issues of Petrol, Oil and Lubricants" I was desirous of obtaining this form for record purposes and when Signn Hawley was approx five or six feet from me I called him by name. He did not answer but continued on in the direction of the QM office. I called to him again from a distance of two or three feet and he again did not answer but kept right on going. I moved over and intercepted Sgm. Hawley and obtained the document he was carrying. Sgm Hawley ~~stopped and w~~ When I went back to talk to the RSM, Sgm Hawley came over. I then asked him if he had been drinking and received no answer. I turned to RSM Taylor and asked his opinion as to the condition of Sgm Hawley. RSM Taylor spoke to Sgm Hawley and received no answer. RSM Taylor ordered me to serve an escort. ~~I~~ There were several Sgm present in the QM yard, also Sgt. Tindl. I called two men and Sgt Tindl and Sgm Hawley were marched to the Guard Room.

The document CAN-F-ST 825 is ~~now marked X signed by the Pres and attached hereto~~ the identical document that was taken from the accused, "(F)(6)".

This CAN-F-ST 825 is examined by the Court, marked "X" signed by the President and attached hereto.

Question by Prosecutor

A. There were at least five besides myself and the RSM.

Q3 Were you present when the Accused was marched to the Guard Room.

A.3. Yes Sir.

Q.4 Did you notice accused stumble or stagger as he was being marched away.

A. Yes Sir, he staggered.

Q.5. Could this, do you think, be caused by anything other than drunkeness.

A. Yes Sir.

~~No re-examination~~

Questioned by Court

Q1 Did you called Accused by name the first, second and third times.

A. Yes, for the first two times. I would not swear to the third time.

Q2 Did you see Sgmn Hanley at 0900 hrs before he left the billet area.

A. Yes, I saw him between 0830 hrs and 0900 hrs.

~~Q3. When the Accused departed prior to 0900 hrs before he left the billet area~~

Q 3 What time did you expect Sgmn Hanley back from his trip that day

A. No particular time.

Q 4. How long does it normally take a Dr to collect patrol approximately.

A. No definite answer is possible

RCP 83(B) is complied with.

The witness withdrawn.

~~The document CAN F 57826 is now marked "L" signed by the President and attached hereto.~~

THIRD WITNESS Having been duly sworn states:

"Sir, I am F26375 L/Sgt Jewell R.H. 3 Can Div Sigs. On 24 May 43 at about 1445 hrs I was ordered by RQMS Noland to march the Accused, whom I recognize, to the Guard Room. I fell in the escort and the Accused and when I gave the order "Left Turn" the Accused was slow in obeying the order. And when I gave the Command "Quick March" the Accused was again slow. On the way down to the Guard Room the Accused broke step. I turned him over to the Guard Commander."

Cautioned by Prosecutor

Q 1. Had the Accused been drinking

A. Yes Sir

Cautioned by Def. Off.

Q 1. How do you know the Accused had been drinking

A. He was slow obeying orders, and he broke step going to the Guard House.

Q 2. As a Sgt. do you find that a soldier always responds promptly and never breaks step

A. Not always.

Q 3. How many men were there in the Courtyard besides yourself, the RSM and the RQMS.

A. Three that I know of.

Q 4 Was there any noise or commotion.

A. No Sir.

Q 5. Did you hear either the RQMS or the RSM speak to the accused

A. No Sir.

Question by the Court.

Q1. Did you smell alcohol on the Accused's breath

A. No Sir.

Q 2. What do you mean by saying that the Accused ~~staggered~~ broke step

A. He staggered to the left about two paces out of line.

Q (To the wish of the Defending Officer), Could this staggering have been caused by anything other than drunkenness.

A ~~Yes~~ I do not know.

R.P. 83 (B) complied with.

The witness withdrew.

Fourth Witness having been duly sworn states.

"I am H38838 L/Cpl Sutton R.W.M. 3 Cdn Div Sigs. On 24 May 43 I was Guard Commander at 3 Cdn Div Sigs billets. At approx 1500 hours I was summoned from the Admin Bldg, where I had been escorting a prisoner, and on arriving at the Guard Rm I found Sgm Hawley whom I recognized"

OPENING ADDRESS BY PROSECUTION

The prosecution will prove that the accused was, when on duty, drunk, due to previous indulgence in alcoholic stimulents and also was in charge of a W.D. vehicle during that time. First however the Court is respectfully requested to look at Para. 45 on page 25 of the M.M.L. which states in part " From a Military point of view, drunkeness on duty is considered in reference to the soldier being fit or unfit for duty. There cannot be any distinction between various degrees of drunkeness when on duty".

The prosecution will produce witnesses, senior N.C.O's., who will state that the man was drunk, that they smelt liquor on the mans breath, that his mind was sluggish and when spoken to did not answer, and when given orders was unable to obey them at once, as a soldier should do, and finally that on being marched to the guard room did stagger on route. These all add up, so that there is only one conclusion to be drawn, namely the man was drunk.

The prosecution will also prove that the man was in charge of the vehicle, and was at the appointed place for petrol and on arrival back from that place was drunk, and therefor was in charge of a W.D. vehicle whilst under the influence of alcoholic stimulents.

Summing up of Defending Officer.

In summing up the case as presented to this Court, I humbly beg to direct the courts attention, that only clear facts as produced by the evidence, should be considered.

The first witness for prosecution states that the breath of the accused smelt of liquor & that he staggered & stumbled while being marched to the guard room. But he admits that the staggering & stumbling could be attributed to causes other than drunkenness. I submit that this witness presumed the accused to be drunk because he had the smell of liquor on his breath & staggered & stumbled, but, despite the fact that witness was positive that accused was drunk, can these symptoms be taken as authority for this conviction, especially when witness admits the awkwardness of accused might not be due to the imbibing of intoxicants.

I submit that statements of second witness does nothing more than establish the fact that accused did not answer when spoken to & stumbled & staggered when marched away. The former fact could quite easily be due to the noise of the courtyard, or possibly the preoccupation of the accused while the second fact has been disproved by the witness who agrees in cross examination that this condition might be due to other causes than drunkenness.

This witness, altho he must have been as close to the accused as first witness, makes no mention of the presence of liquor on accused's breath.

The third witness accuses Bentley of being drunk because he broke step & was slow in obeying commands & yet admits on cross questioning that he didn't smell liquor on his breath & by his answers admits that he cannot judge whether a man is drunk or not.

'L2' H. Thorpe

Fourth witness can only state that accused talked loudly & his breath smelt of liquor, but admits that his talking loudly may be due to the crowded condition of the room.

It would seem that the only witness presented by the prosecution who could definitely state accused was drunk was the first witness & he based his opinion on the fact that Bowley had liquor on his breath & staggered. I humbly submit to the court that these facts are quite true. The accused did have the smell of liquor on his breath — but it was from the previous evening's drinking. And he did stagger & was slow to respond to commands, but only because he had taken so many aspirins in quick succession. It has been established that accused had imbibed fairly freely & quite late the previous evening — & not having had any breakfast or dinner on the following day, coupled with the fact of his taking a dozen pills made him somewhat groggy & I therefore humbly submit that the evidence of drunkenness produced by the writers for the prosecution is incorrect & suggest to the court that the charges laid against this man are erroneous.

Prosecution Summary.

I again draw the courts attention to para 95 P25 M.M.L., where drunkenness means unfitness for duty. Witnesses have shown that he, the accused, in taking too long to obey commands, not answering when spoken to, having a smell of alcoholic refreshment on his breath, and staggering, that the accused was unfit for duty, and therefore drunk. The prosecution has shown that Lgnm Hawley did drive the truck and thus was in charge of a vehicle whilst under the influence of alcoholic stimulant.

The mixture of beer, aspirins, and the aftermath of the previous nights drinking would combine to make the man unfit for duty, being drunk.

In spite of the circumstances that the defence have shown as to the mans history, medical and personal, the man was on duty and became unfit for duty from previous indulgence in alcoholic stimulants.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of C-64478 Sigmn. George Arnold Hawley.

First Witness — R.S.M. Taylor, J., being duly sworn states:

I am M-37147 A/R.S.M. Taylor, 3 Cdn. Div. Signals. On 1445 hours 24 May 43 I was in the company of R.Q.M.S. Neeland in the yard in front of the Q.M. Stores. The accused, whom I recognize, as Sigmn. Hawley came into the yard and was going into Q.M. Stores. When he was about five yards from R.Q. Neeland and myself the R.Q.M.S. asked Sigmn. Hawley how much petrol he had drawn. Sigmn. Hawley did not answer and continued walking toward the stores. R.Q.M.S. Neeland repeated the question and did not receive an answer. He then intercepted Sigmn. Hawley, who stopped and R.Q.M.S. Neeland asked him for some papers which he had in his hand and Sigmn. Hawley handed them over. He then asked Sigmn. Hawley how much petrol he had drawn, Sigmn. Hawley did not answer. The R.Q.M.S. then asked Sigmn. Hawley if he had been drinking, Sigmn. Hawley did not answer. The R.Q.M.S. turned to me and asked me what my opinion of his condition was. I asked Sigmn. Hawley if he had been drinking, he did not reply. I smelt liquor on Sigmn. Hawleys breath and ordered him into close arrest on a charge of drunkeness, while in charge of a W.D. Vehicle. R.Q.M.S. Neeland detailed Sgt. Jewell to fall in an escort and march sigmn. Hawley to the Guard Room. The escort fell in and Sgt. Jewell gave the commend for the escort and the accused to come to attention. It was a matter of seconds before the accused realized that he had been given an order and came to attention. The same thing happened when Sgt. Jewell told the escort and accused, "about turn". Sgt. Jewell then gave the command "Quick March". The leading escort took at least four or five paces before sigmn. Hawley started to walk. He then staggered considerably on his way to the Guard Room. He was drunk.

Accused — Sir, would you say that if a man staggered that it couldn't be due to any other cause than drunkeness or intoxication.

Answer — Yes, he could stagger for other causes.

Accused — Sir, couldn't it be possible that if the accused did stagger, that it could be from some other cause except drunkeness or intoxication.

Answer — It might be from some other cause.

Accused — Sir, do you figure that because I didn't answer the R.Q.M.S. question from that distance, that drunkeness was the cause of it?

Answer — When I knew the condition in which the accused was, I appreciated why he did not hear the question.

Accused — What condition do you mean, Sir?

Answer — The condition of drunkeness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
(Cont'd)

In the case of C-64478 Sigmn. Hawley

Accused — And it couldn't be any other cause in your mind?

Answer — It was for no other cause.

Accused — Why was I charged with being incapable of doing my duties when up to that time I had done my duties?

Answer — I say you were drunk and a drunk man is unfit for duty.

Accused — Had you any other reason to believe I was drunk except what you have stated?

Answer — No other reason.

Accused — How many times was I spokento before I heard what you said?

Answer — On the sixth time you were spoken to after a pause of about five seconds, you carried out a commend.

Accused — Could it have not been because I did not hear your order?

Answer — I did not give the order.

Accused — But you did ask me some questions, and couldn't it have been that I did not hear your questions, and didn't answer them for some other reason than drunkeness and intoxication?

Answer — Not unless you are very deaf.

Accused — What condition does a man ahve to be in to constitute a drunken man?

Answer — A man is drunk when he has a smell of liquor on his breath, staggers, and is unable to obey an order implicitly and immediately.

Accused — Declines to question further.

Second Witness — R.Q.M.S. Neeland, being duly sworn states:

I, M-9044 R.Q.M.S. Neeland, M.W. of 3 Cdn Div Signals was present in the company of R.S.M. Taylor in the yard adjoining Q.M. Stores, at 1445 hours 24 May 43. Sigmn. Hawley entered the yard carrying some papers which pertain to the drawing of petrol, one of which is Form CAN-P-ST-825 Record of Issue of P.O.L. which I present. As sigmn. Hawley came within a distance of five or six feet from me, I called him by name, but he continued on toward the Q.M. office and did not answer. I called him again and he still continued on and did not answer. I then moved over to intercept him spoke to him and secured the document I desired. I then asked him if he had been drinking and received no answer. I turned to the R.S.M. and asked his opinion as to the condition of the man. R.S.M. Taylor questioned Hawley and received no answer. He then instructed me to secure an escort and have him placed under close arrest. There were several men present in the Q.M. Yard, so I called for two men and Sgt. Jewell, Sgt. Jewell took charge of the party and marched them to the guard room.

Accused — Couldn't it have been possible that I didn't hear you speak to me, that it could be one reason for not answering your question?

Answer — It is quite possible you did not hear me the first time I called to you, but I do not see how you could have failed to hear me the second time as you were no more than a distance of two feet from me, I spoke quite loudly.

Third Witness — Sgt. Jewell, being duly sworn states:

I am F-26375 L/Sgt. Jewell R.E. 3 Cdn. Div. Sigs. I was at Sigs. Billets drawing equipment at 1445 hours 24 May 43. R.Q. Neeland told me to fall in two men and march the accused, whom I recognize, to the guard room. I fell in the escort with the accused in the centre, gave a command, " About Turn", the escort acted on the command, the accused paused two seconds, I then gave the order "Quick March" and the accused was again slow. On the way down to the guard house the accused broke step. I turned him over to the guard there.

Accused — Would you say that I was drunk or intoxicated when you escorted me to the guard room?

Answer — Yes.

Accused — What proof had you that I had been drinking?

Answer — Slow in obeying commands and broke step on the way down to the guard house.

Accused — Couldn't that have been caused from any other reason?

Answer — I don't know.

Fourth Witness — H-38838 L/Cpl. Sutton, R.W. being duly sworn states:

I, H-38838 L/Cpl. Sutton, R.W. was guard commander at 3 Cdn. Div. Signals on 24 May 43. At approximstely 1500 hours, while escorting a prisoner in the Adm. building, I was summoned to the guard room where I found the prisoner Sigmn. Hawley, Whom I recognize

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE
(Cont'd)

In the case of C-64478 Sigmn. Hawley.

Accused — Was I drunk or intoxicated when you first came to the guard room?

Answer — Sigmn. Hawley was talkative, and while in the guard room was not seen to stagger in. His breath smelt of liquor and by that it could be told that he had been drinking, at approx. 1600 hours he laid down on the bed to which he was assigned and went to sleep. At approx. 1645 hours I found him awake and he asked in a normal fashion for a guard to escort him to supper. He agreed to wait until the next shift took over Accused — Was I disorderly or creating any disturbance?

Answer — No.

Accused — Didn't I ask you for some aspirin to take because I had severe pains in my legs and feet?

Answer — I believe he asked for some aspirin but I could not swear to it and he mentioned the fact that he couldn't sleep because of terrible pains in his feet.

Accused has no more questions.

Fifth Witness — Capt. W.J. Thomson, being duly sworn states:

I Capt. W.J. Thomson am Q.M. of 3 Cdn Div Signals, and as such am responsible for the supply of petrol. At approx. 0830 hours on the 24 May 43, Sigmn. Hawley, driver of 30 cwt. lorry (CL 4214237) presented his work ticket for signature, as he was to proceed for the drawing of petrol.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

Prosecution

First Witness

H. S. Ferris Comp. Commandant Con. Military Stopt Paris having been duly sworn states.

I recognise Pte. Hawley the accused. I saw Pte Hawley in the Waiters room Hotel Meurice I believe the 7th of Dec 45. On receipt of a telephone call I had proceeded to the Waiters' room in connection with a list enquiry that I had ordered my Orderly Comp. Sgt. Major to carry out after receipt of information regarding some of civilians from Hotel Belle Chasse

When I entered the room at the Meurice [redacted], the A.C.S.M. Sgt. Baker, the accused, Pte Donaldson and Pte Merrison were present

The accused was in the room about 3 feet away I was informed by Sgt Baker that he had found in the accused possession one blue pyjama top and one grey towel which were recognised by Pte Donaldson as being his property. On questioning Pte Howley as to the whereabouts of the lower part of the pyjamas he informed me after some hesitation he was wearing them. I then told him to remove the pyjama bottoms which he did.

The pyjama top and bottoms and towels recovered in my possession will be produced over to S.C "A"

[Prosecution informs Court these have been produced]

I questioned the accused further as to where he had obtained the pyjamas and towel and he informed me he had taken them from the Belle Chasse hotel [D.C does not object to this evidence]

The pyjama top and towel were found in the ~~room~~ right hand corner of the lower drawer of the bureau in the room occupied by Pte Howley.

Cross Examination.

The room is also occupied by Pte Mawson also

The towel and Pyjamas top were in the room when I came in, on the bureau drawer.

The Pyjamas were light blue. I have never seen Pyjamas of that color and texture before in the army issue.

I have not seen American Hospital Pyjamas.

He did not say in which room where the Pyjamas bottoms were. He hesitated considerably before me.

No Re-examination.

R.P. 83(B) completed.

Accused Witness:

H. 102 870 Pte Donovan C. S. Canadian Military Staff Paris. Sworn by his own oath.

I recognize Pte Hawley (accused) I found a towel and one Pyjamas missing from my room on 7 Dec and reported it to Sgt Boden. The next day we went to the Mercedes Hotel to Pte Hawley's room and that is where we found the towel and Pyjamas. There was Sgt Boden A Tennis and Eyers Pte. We found the Pyjamas and towel in the room.

One part of the Pyjamas the top part was in the drawer and he took the other pair on him. He examined the pyjamas closely. He particularly examined them as well. He examined the towels by the bathroom mat.

I saw the pyjamas and towels on my return the morning before I left. When he went out at noon they were gone. He knew where he got that room.

Cross Examination

He brought the pyjamas from a relative. I could not say they were Omeara Hospital issue pyjamas. I must have got the towels from the 2 M. I do not know.

No Re-examination

By the Court

I was issued two towels. He took three towels. It must have been any room.

The pyjamas were eight blue, one colour. They were eight colour

P.P.S.3 (B) company mark

Third Witness:

At 1130 Sgt Baker A.P.M. Corrective Military Staff Police having been duly sworn states:

I recognise Pte Hanley. On my tour of duty I believe 7 Dec 45 on report received I had to grant the accused a pass permission on the person of Pte Dorsen saw and the accused amongst the accused had a towel the upper part of a light blue pyjamas also one towel carrying making name tail outside which were recognised by Pte Dorsen saw on being his property. I then contacted the Camp Commandant H Service and requested that he come to the accused's quarters.

The man was then charged with improper possession, on the arrival of H Service the accused was ordered to open the suit he ordered [D.O does not object] having the lower half of the pyjamas on his person. I then placed the accused under close arrest and he was then handed over to the Cdn. Mil Police for safe custody

The top tray were found in a drawer ~~on the left~~ on left hand side of the room as you entered in the bottom drawer on the right hand side.

Cross Examination

I had a good look at the prisoners they are not Canadians I do not know if they are American Negroes I took R.P. & B to Company unit.

Further Evidence

1465 5884 Pte J Morrison H.A.I.(Bn) att to B.A.S (Fmns) having been duly sworn states:

I recognize the accused. On approx 8th Dec 45 I came back to my room at 1700 hrs and found a Sgt the accused and the non accused I do not know his name in my room. The Sgt was looking through my drawers, I asked him what he wanted The Sgt asked me if the top two drawers were mine, I said yes, and the bottom two drawers belonged to the accused The Sgt then opened the bottom two and found the articles he was enquiring in

There was nothing of mine in the bottom two drawers.

No Cross Examination

R.P. 83 & Complainant rests.

The Prosecution is not calling the Chemist in the Summary. The Defence does not require the Chemist for the purpose of Cross examination.

Defence.

The accused having been sworn states - I am 29 last Sept. my home is Belleville, Ont. I was born in Thomasburg Ont - just north of Belleville. I am single and my parents are still living. I am born of mixed race my mother is part indian (mohawk) and my father Irish and Scotch. RJS I was a general labourer before enlistment. I volunteered to enlist in spring of 42 at Picton Ont but they were not taking recruits. I then went back to work at a Pea canning factory in Picton

From there I went to work at the aluminum factory in Kingston Ont. I enlisted in the Can Army 6 march 44. I left Canada 15 november 44 for overseas. I went to Italy shortly before the 15th Jan 45 and joined N & P. E. I was in action until the Div, left Italy I came to N.W.E. and I saw action in Holland until I was wounded on 15 April 45, I had a fractured right shoulder & buttock from a piece of shrapnel, and a wound rein from a piece of shrapnel in the left arm. When I was wounded I was in a small room in a house across the road from eggsdoom, my section of the Platoon number in the book shed attached to the house number on 55 H.F. hit the building I was in, killed my platoon Sgt. as well as another Pte who I do not know his name, I was evacuated to 1 C. Cy. H. in Nijmegen. From there I went to 5 C. Cy. H. Lundgaat Belgium and was discharged from there and rejoined my unit, near Haarlem Holland. I was there a short time and got in some trouble about the 5 June 45 I appeared before an F. G.C.M. for stealing under 15 (4) B. A.

for an offence which took place on the 22nd of May 45. I have another entry for D.W.L. 19 Nov 45 for 16 hrs 56 mins in Paris. I have no explanation as to why I was in possession of a pair of pyjamas and a towel which I am charged with. I moved from the Bristol Hotel I took my kit bag to the Hotel Voltaire where I left it until the afternoon of the same day until I got a vehicle to move me to the Hotel Westminster after I was there for an hour or so I decided to have a bath and I unpacked my belongings placed them in the drawers which were allotted to me in the room, and whether the towel which I am claiming is his I cannot say whether it is his or not because the towels I have are quite old and I never took any particular pains to look and see if there was any markings on them At the same time I discovered the pyjamas when I was looking for a pair of drawers so I used the pyjamas without. I have no explanation for them being in my kit bag I was pretty drunk the night before I do. I remember coming back to my billets that night. I have heard drinking quite a bit lately, I have been shunning with a chap by the name of Hudson, he does not drink very much. I started to drink fairly heavy just after I came overseas after I was wounded at Ypres. I started to drink fairly heavily as my nerves have been pretty bad, I know. I had an examination. I have not been examined by a psychiatrist since I was wounded. I remember the pegamoe which were found in my possession they were bright colour I have never seen any like that before but since then I have at the No. 239 U.S General Hospital after I was wounded close arrest as a patient there for an infection in my right eye, we all had them in the ward including myself. When I have a drinking bout I cannot remember what I did previously to drinking. I do not remember coming home.

Cross examined by the Prosecution

I did not take any pegimoe with me when I left the U.S Hospital I cannot explain how the pegimoe got into my kit bag as he always keeps his door locked and I had no way of knowing how they got there

I am not a particular friend of Dandurand just a common acquaintance, I knew his door was locked as he said so that night. I knew the pajamas did not belong to me but I have quite a few things in my kit bag which do not belong to me, but I do not know where I got them

Summing up Prosecution.

It is the contention of the prosecution that on the evidence the accused must be found guilty on the first charge.

The circumstantial evidence is complete. Evidence has been given by the complainant that he positively identifies the articles found in the possession of the accused.

Evidence has been given by 3 other witnesses that it was in fact in the possession of the accused. The accused has offered no explanation as to how the articles came into his possession. Therefore it is the contention of the prosecution that the accused is guilty of theft.

T. B. Hilliard Capt.
Prosecutor.

Defence in Reply

Mr President and Gentlemen.
There is no need for me to review the evidence. It is a simple case and the evidence is fresh in your minds. However there are a few matters that I would like to point out to you, and ~~as~~ to these, the J A will advise you as to the law.

There is evidence that accused had been drinking prior to the commission of the alleged offence, and although he was found in possession of a pair of pyjamas and a towel, he has no knowledge as to how they came into his possession I therefore submit that the element of intent necessary in the first charge has not been proven.

Further there is evidence that the pyjamas were ~~the property~~ similar to those issued to patients in 239 American General Hospital. I contend they were not the property of Dandenean. As to the fact that Dandenean states that it must have come from the R.M.

I respectfully suggest that the prosecution has not proven the first charge beyond reasonable doubt and that the accused should be given the benefit of that doubt.

J.R. Baillargeon
Major

Judge Commonsense Sums Up.

It is mine to point out that it is part of my duty as Judge advocate to sum up the evidence and advise the Court on the law.

The Court is however the sole judge of the facts and anything I may say or may have previously said concerning my personal opinion as to the facts should be entirely disregarded. The Court and the Court alone are the sole judge of the facts.

I do not think it necessary to summarise the evidence as their memory and opinion as to be any assistance in that respect.

At the outset of this consideration the Court must remember the accused enjoys the benefit of the presumption of innocence. It is not for the accused to prove himself innocent, it is for the prosecution to prove his guilt.

The accused is charged on the first charge with theft contrary R.A.R. Sec 13 (a) [Charge Read]

Theft is defined as follows [MMM L. p113. Sec 50 read to court]

If the court finds the accused was in possession of the articles mentioned in the charge the court may also consider the question of recent possession [MMM L p124 Sec 66 read to court]

The Defence in act in this charge because the accused alleged that was responsible and put in on ~~behalf~~ of friends. There was some evidence that these are American Hospital ~~Corps~~ of however the court finds that Pte Donaldson was in possession of them unless knowledge that they were American Corps This is accused have an ~~appeal~~ property in them within the meaning of the definition of Theft that is more persuasive

Plea in Mitigation.

Mr President and Gentlemen. You have already heard the accused's story under oath and I do not believe it necessary to go into that in detail again.

I think the Court can understand how "fire water" acts on a man with Indian blood in his veins.

There does not seem to be any explanation for these silly acts except what he has gone through in action, and because of drink. Had he anything to gain, I could understand, such as to "flog" the articles to buy more whiskey.

In view of his service I would ask the court to be as lenient as possible in their sentence, and further due to the fact that accused has not been examined by a psychiatrist since his injuries, I would request the court to recommend that he be so examined before serving his sentence.

SUMMARY of EVIDENCE in the case of C-10148 Pte HAWLEY M.C., Cdn Mil Staff Paris, a soldier of the Cdn Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness : Lt S. Service, Camp Comd, CMSP, having been duly sworn, states :

" On the morning of Friday 7 Dec 45, Sgt Baker came to me and told me that a loss had been reported to him from the Bellechasse Hotel. I instructed him to check to ensure that the articles were actually lost and were not misplaced.

On Saturday morning, he again came to me and reported that Pte Dandeneau C.F. had lost one pair of pyjamas and a towel from his room. I again told Sgt Baker to check and make sure that w as all that was missing and he reported in the afternoon that he had a suspicion that the stolen articles were in Pte Hawley's kit.

It was at this time that I instructed Sgt Baker to carry out a kit-inspection of Pte Hawley's kit and report to me at the Westminster Hotel. I was in my room at approx 1800 hrs, when I received a phone call from Sgt Baker, saying that he was in Pte Hawley's room at the Westminster Hotel and that he had found some of the missing articles. I proceeded to Pte Hawley's room and there found Pte Hawley, Sgt Baker and an English soldier by the name of Pte Merryson. In the right hand corner of the bottom drawer of a dresser, which was open , I found a towel and the top part of a pyjama, which I now produce (marked as Exhibit "A" and "B" respectively). I questioned Pte Hawley as to where the articles had come from. At first, he did not know and later he said that he had taken them from Pte Dandineau's room.

I asked him where the other part of the pyjama was ; he took a moment to think about it and then said he was wearing it . He was then ordered to take off the lower half of the pyjama which I now produce (accepted and marked Exhibit "C"). I took charge of the three exhibits which have been locked up in my room until produced for this Summary of Evidence.

Pte Hawley was then warned that he was under close arrest. I contacted the DAPM and he phoned the Provost to take Pte Hawley to custody."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Lieut S. Service

Second Witness : H-102670 Pte DANDENEAU C.F., Cdn Mil Staff, Paris, having been duly sworn, states :

" At about 0730 hrs, 7 Dec 45, I left room No. 11 at Bellechasse Hotel where I am billeted with the staff of CMSP. I left in my room a light blue pair of pyjamas, by the bed, a towel hung by the sink and the rest of my stuff was in a cupboard which was locked and the key of which was in my pocket. I locked the door of my room and put the key downstairs.

I returned to my room at 1200 hrs and found that the towel and the pyjamas were gone. I asked the room-maids and they said they did not know anything about it. They then said that Pte Hawley, who was in room 12, had moved out of the hotel in the morning.

I did not report to anybody that day, but the next day I told Sgt Baker about it. Later that day, at approx 1800 hrs, Sgt Baker asked me if I wanted to be present at a kit-inspection of Pte Hawley's kit, at which Pte Hawley would be present. In Pte Hawley's room, in the drawer of a cupboard, we found a towel and the top part of a pyjama which I identified as being mine.

.....

Sgt Baker asked Pte Hawley, in my presence, where was the other part of the pyjama. Pte Hawley said he had it on him and we found it on his person. I identified it as being the second part of my pyjama suit."

Questions by the officer taking Summary :

Q - " I show you three articles (producing Exhibits "A", "B" and "C"). Have you seen them before ? "

A - " Yes. I definitely identify both the towel (because of the laundry mark "49") and the pyjama suit, beyond doubt, as my property which was removed from my room on 7 Dec 45 and was later found in Pte Hawley's room and on his person on 8 Dec 45".

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

C.F. Dandeneau

H-102870 Pte Dandeneau C.F.

Third Witness : L-1788 Sgt BAKER A.J., Cdn Mil Staff Paris, having been duly sworn, states :

" On Friday 7 Dec 45, in my line of duty supervising the meal hour, at approx 1300 hrs, Pte Dandeneau approached me and reported a pair of light blue pyjamas and one towel missing from his room at Bellechasse Hotel. He gave me his suspicion that Pte Hawley, who had moved from the hotel to the Westminster Hotel that same day, had taken his property. So I investigated on my own.

On 8 Dec 45, at approx 1600 hrs, I met Pte Hawley in my room at the Voltaire Hotel. I told him that articles had been removed from a room in Bellechasse Hotel on the previous day, and that I was investigating. I asked Pte Hawley if he knew anything about it and he said No . I asked if he could have taken them away by mistake, and was given the same answer, that he had not taken them.

I telephoned Pte Dandeneau to report to my room and explained to him that, if he so wished, he could require a kit-inspection. Pte Dandeneau decided that Pte Hawley's kit be inspected. We then went from the Voltaire Hotel to the Westminster Hotel, which was Pte Hawley's new quarters, and asked Pte Hawley to lay out his kit. He took some of his kit from a large wardrobe and displayed a very small amount of kit on his bed. Nothing was found. I asked him if that was all his kit and he said it was. At the bottom of the big wardrobe there was a drawer which Pte Hawley opened with a key. The drawer was empty. On the other side of the room, there was a dresser. I asked Pte Hawley to open the dresser for inspection. I was told that the dresser belonged to his room-mate, who was an English soldier. Seeing the locks on the dresser were the same as the wardrobe , I took it on my own to unlock the first drawer of the dresser, when the soldier whose kit was in that drawer came in the room. I asked the said soldier if he had any objection for me to took at his kit, as I was looking for certain articles that had been reported missing. He opened the two first drawers for inspection and, after satisfying myself, he shut them. I asked the soldiers to open the two bottom ones. The English soldier told me that the two bottom drawers belonged to Pte Hawley. I proceeded to open the next two drawers. In the bottom one, on the right hand side, I saw the top part of a pyjama and a towel which were identified by Pte Dandeneau as being his property. In addition, in this drawer was the remainder of Pte Hawley's, which he admitted to be his kit. I asked Pte Hawley to give some explanation, which he never did.

Then I contacted Camp Comd, Lt Service, at his quarters. Lt Service came to the room of the accused and talked with the man as to where the other half of the pyjamas was. At first, he got evasive answers and, when advised that he should speak the truth, Pte Hawley admitted in my presence and in the presence of Pte

.....

Dandeneau, wearing the bottom part of the pyjamas. He was then ordered to undress and took them off. I then placed him under close arrest and notified the Cdn Provost. Later on, he was turned to the Cdn Provost for safe custody. Before the man was placed under close arrest, the articles were taken by Lt Service and kept as exhibits. "

Questions by the Officer taking Summary :

Q - " I show you three articles (producing exhibits "A", "B" and "C"). Do you recognize them ?
A - I recognize Exhibit "A" as being similar to the towel found in Pte Hawley's room with the top part of the pyjama, which I identify as Exhibit "B". Exhibit "C" is the bottom part of the pyjamas which the accused took off his person."
Q - " During the inspection of his kit, was Pte Hawley present at all times when his kit was inspected ?"
A - " He never left the room."
Q - " What was the name of the British soldier who shared the room with Pte Hawley ?"
A - " I do not know."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

A.J. Baker

I-1788 Sgt Baker A.J.

Fourth Witness : 14655084 Pte HARRISON HLI (Br), batman att to BAS (France), having been duly sworn, states :

" On 8 Dec 45, I was on duty at 1200 hrs at Hotel Westminster. I left my room at 1200 hrs and did not come back until 1445 hrs. One of my friends came with me and as I told him I would go out that night, he advised me to put my coat on. I looked for it but could not find it. I thought maybe somebody had borrowed it. I inquired, but nobody had it.

At approx 1700 hrs, when I came back to my room, the Sgt-Major was there, with the accused whom I recognize, and another Cdn soldier, and they were looking through my drawers. When Pte Hawley had been assigned to my room the day before, it had been agreed that I would use the top two drawers of the dresser and he would use the bottom two. The Sgt-Major then looked through the bottom two and found the articles which they were interested in, that is a pair of pyjamas and a towel.

This is all I know about the case."

Questions by the officer taking Summary :

Q - " I show you three articles (producing Exhibits "A","B" & "C") Do you recognize them ?"
A - " Yes."
Q - " What are they ?"
A - " A pair of pyjamas and a towel ."
Q - " Where have you seen them before ?"
A - " In the bottom drawer of the dresser, at the time the Sgt-Major opened it."
Q - " Regarding the drawers of the dresser, did you have any article whatsoever in the bottom two ?"
A - " No."
Q - "Was it agreed by mutual consent between yourself and the accused that the top two drawers would be used by you and the bottom two by him ?"
A - " Yes, the date he moved in."

.....

Q - " Were the drawers locked ?"
A - " When I arrived, my top drawer was locked, but the other three were unlocked."
Q - " What is the number of the room you shared with Pte Hawley?"
A - " It was room 607."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

J Merrison

14655884 Pte Merrison

Fifth Witness : B-17936 Pte CHURCHER K.C., CMSP, having been duly sworn, states :

Q - " I show you three articles (producing Exhibits "A", "B" & "C") Have you seen them before ?"
A - " I have seen Exhibits "B" and "C". I have seen Pte Dandeneau wearing these pyjamas at Dufayel Barracks, in Spring. He slept in a bed opposite to mine, across the room. He often wore them in day-time. I am certain these are the pyjamas worn by Pte Dandeneau. I cannot positively identify Exhibit "A", as all members of the staff are issued towels of this type. "

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows :

" Do you wish to make a statement or to give evidence on oath ? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence ."

The accused reserves his defence.

The accused does not wish to call any witnesses at this time.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)
Additional evidence of Capt Fraser. Standing orders marked Ex B.

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts as'y of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?

CASE OF

H.20835 Pte HAWKISH A 1 CITR

WITNESS

Capt LEA FRASER, 1 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I am the SPO 1 CITR, and I produce Standing Orders of the Unit which were posted in the Office of the SPO where accused has been employed for the past 6 mths. They have been posted on the wall since about end of Feb 45.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

ORDERS MARKED EXHIBIT B

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

D-1 STATEMENT BY ACCUSED (ON OATH)

On 28 Apr I went downtown where I met a couple of my friends and we got a bus and went into Farnham and lounged around until the pubs opened. We indulged in some drinks in the pub when it opened and that is as far as I can remember. I don't remember getting back to Aldershot or anything else after that except that the following morning I woke up in the SPOs office and was being told by the SPO what I was supposed to have done the night before.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What was the last thing you remember doing on the day of the 28th?
A. Drinking in the pub in Farnham, I can't tell you the time, but it was quite late I imagine. We went in between 6 and 6.30.

Q. It must have been between 6.30 and 10 o'clock at night?
A. Yes.

Q. How many drinks did you have?
A. I don't remember, but I know I had plenty. Sufficient.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

CHARACTER WITNESS

Lt MR WHITE, 1 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

PRESIDENT: (President reads Sec 95 Chap 6 MMC to this witness when witness tells the Court before being examined that he is on a charge in connection with an incident that took place on the evening of 28-29 Apr, with which the accused is charged)

WITNESS: I understand that, Sir.

Prosecutor: Will you relate what happened on 28 Apr 45.

WITNESS: Yes, on the day of 28 Apr 45, myself, the accused and another OR went to Farnham together in the afternoon. We had supper and went into a pub at about 5 o'clock. I've known the accused from the fd and he has always been a friend of mine, so I wanted to entertain him more or less. As a result of this he had considerable to drink and when it came time to catch the train from Farnham to Aldershot at 8207 hrs he appeared to be quite drunk. The OR and myself got him on the train and brought him back to Aldershot. [redacted] We went and had something to eat in order to try and sober him up a bit and finally came on as far as the sidewalk outside the Offrs Lines 1 CITR. As the other soldier who was with us, appeared capable of looking after him I left him there and went into the Mess.

Q. How long have you been commissioned?
A. Since 10 Jun 44, and before I went for my commission I was in the same Coy as the accused.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What condition was the accused in when you put him on the train?
A. He seemed to have a little difficulty in navigating. He had his girl friend with him, and he had to be more or less dragged onto the train.

Q. Was that the 2207 train from Warnham?
A. Yes.

Q. What time was it when you left him on the sidewalk?
A. Approx 11, 11.10.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

CHARACTER WITNESS

M.10824 Cpl HILLGC, 1 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm a member of the RP 1 CITR and while on duty on the night of 28th and the morning of the 29th, as a result of infm I went to the Albuhura Men's Mess kitchen and found a soldier lying there, who was the accused and whom I now recognize. Another L/Cpl was with me, and we picked the accused up, and we couldn't get his name or anything about him from him as he was so drunk. He couldn't tell us anything.

Q. What time was this?
A. Between 1 and 2 in the morning.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. What made you think he was drunk apart from his inability to answer questions?
A. He couldn't stand up, Sir, and you could smell liquor off his breath.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

CHARACTER WITNESS

M.100446 Lcpl DONAGH, CW, 1 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I'm a member of the RP 1 CITR, and between 1.30 and 2 o'clock on the night of the 28th as a result of infm recd, myself and Cpl Hills went over to the Albuhura Men's Kitchen and a man was lying under the eaves in the snow and rain. That man was the accused. We tried to get him up, waken him, but he wasn't able to get up or stand. We questioned him but he didn't know where he was supposed to be sleeping, until we finally got it out of him that he worked in the SPOs office and we took him there.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B).

CHARACTER WITNESS

M.16001 Cpl JOHNSTON JH, 8 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I saw the accused early in the morning of the 29th. About 20 mins to 1

the accused and some other individual came into my room, and the accused spoke to me and then left with this other chap. About 20 mins later he came in again, alone. I got up, put the light on and saw that he was quite wet and I put him to bed in the room. He had been staying there about a week and a half prior to that, but had changed his quarters. The accused was very drunk, and I took his boots off and put him to bed. I lit a cigarette for him and told him to make sure and put the butt out before he went to sleep. The next morning he had a hole through his shirt and his chest was burnt. He definitely was drunk alright.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(3).

CHARACTER WITNESS

Maj ER TAIBOT, 1 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

I've known the accused since I got 43 when he was in a coy of which I was OC, and during that time until sometime in early Jul 44 he was an exemplary soldier, and I don't remember any major case of any charges against him. As far as I was concerned he was a good soldier. At the time I was a Capt.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(3).

CHARACTER WITNESS

Capt LEA FRASER, 1 CITR, having been duly sworn, states:

The accused has been employed in my office, the SIC, since last Nov, and I have found him absolutely trustworthy and reliable and I've even recommended him for promotion. I would be glad to have him back in the office and if it was in civil life, if it was within my power, I would employ him.

NO CROSS-EXAMINATION

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(3).

PLEA IN MITIGATION
(NONE MADE)

PROSECUTOR:

Although I know that drunkenness is no excuse for crime, it does in some cases mitigate the punishment. In this case the degree of drunkenness is incalculable, as between 1.30 and 2 o'clock he was lying outside the Men's Kitchen. At 11 o'clock he was in condition to walk from Aldershot to the Offrs Mess, at 12 O'clock he was able to answer, or lie, to questions put to him about an identity card.
The reason no charge of drunkenness was laid was because at 2400 hrs there was no witness to say that the accused was drunk. Between 2400 and 0100 hrs a man could imbibe enough liquor to lay 5 men in the snow.

DEF OFFR:

I would like to go on record as objecting to the remarks of the Prosecutor as in my opinion it is not a proper thing for a reply to be made after a plea in mitigation.

Pres: The Court will permit you to have the last word.

Def. Offr. I do not wish to say anything further.

F GCM of H-20835 Pte R. Hawrysh

RP 37 F: footnote 7 permission should always be given.

Opening address: 1. I wish to put the accused on the stand under oath to establish the fact that when these offences were committed he was drunk.
2. I wish to call four witnesses as to fact to establish the fact that the accused was drunk at approximately 2200 hrs on night 28/29 April 45 and that he was still drunk at approximately 0100 hrs on the same night. 1. Accused 2. Pte White 3. Cpl Hill 4 Pte Donagh 5 Cpl Johnson. Character wit: Major Talbot, Capt Fraser.

Opening address: I wish to refer the Court to Chapter III of MML "Offences & Punishments" Section 48 which states: Drunkenness often has to be considered by court-martial not as an offence itself, but in relation to greater offences, which it accompanies. Where intention is of the essence of the offence, drunkenness may justify a court-martial in awarding a less punishment than the offence would otherwise have deserved, or reduce the offence to one of a less serious character. Thus, if an ordinarily steady respectful man commits himself when drunk by the use of insubordinate language, it may be clear that he did not really intend to be insubordinate; & though the offence cannot be passed over, yet a more lenient punishment will meet the justice of the case than if the same man had used the same language deliberately when sober. So, too, acts, which if done deliberately would show a wilful defiance of authority, may, if the man was drunk, be regarded as amounting only to the less offence of simple disobedience.
With reference to the first charge having been drinking with an officer who was formerly an other rank with him it's quite natural for him to have made his way back to the officers quarters with him having done so before. With reference to the second charge, not having been admitted to the dance, and being in a cheery mood someone no doubt suggested that the accused wear an officer's tunic in order to get in, he certainly did not deliberately wear badges of rank otherwise he would be in possession of these yet. With reference to the 3rd & 4th charges language such as the accused is charged with using certainly is not common every day language used by a sober person.

Plea in mitigation of sentence:

Mr President & gentlemen of the Court I wish to make a plea in mitigation of sentence for the accused.

We have here a single young man of 27 years of age who was a commercial artist before the war. He volunteered for active service in ~~March~~ July 1941, joined the QOCH of C in August 1942 with whom he served in the field till he was wounded in France. After his convalescence his category was lowered to L3, not being able to rejoin his Unit, he started working in the Selection Personnel Office where as you've already been told by his CO he did splendid work. He lived at home in Canada. He has never been in trouble in civil life and his conduct sheet only shows two offences over a period ~~exceeding~~ of almost four years.

During the winter of 1943/44 he volunteered from "C" Coy in his Unit to join the Scout Platoon which I personally formed and trained. As a scout I can only speak very highly of his work.

The accused has already been in detention for over two weeks.

During his Military career the accused always invested in Victory Bonds and has been planning on going into business with the help of his gratuities on his return to civilian life.

In view of these facts Gentlemen I plead with you to deal as leniently as possible in sentencing the accused.

[illegible] Major

STANDING ORDERS

1 CANADIAN INFANTRY TRAINING REGIMENT issued by

Col. C. B. Ware, DSO,
Commander

(iii) On picquets and guards, other than ceremonial.
(iv) After orders notifying state of emergency have been issued.

XXVII DRESS (Contd)

(v) As directed in Part I Orders, respirators will be worn on parade each Tuesday morning - face pieces to be adjusted from 1000 hrs to 1030 hrs.

3.(a) Officers and soldiers absent from their stations will take their respirator with them but need not carry them except on occasions detailed above

(b) Unless otherwise ordered, respirators will be carried in a slung position, i.e., the sling over the right shoulder, haversack on the left side.

(c) Steel Helmets - In accordance with Overseas RO 1145, whenever the steel helmet is carried it will either be worn on the head or carried on the point of the right shoulder.

XXVIII LEAVE - DISCIPLINE

1. All troops will be warned that proper discipline must be maintained while on leave. In future soldiers about to proceed on leave will be paraded for inspection and instructed in the proper observance of dress regulations, paying of compliments and general behaviour, particularly towards civilians and allied forces.

2. Tunics will be done up at the neck, unless ties are worn, and caps, berets, etc., worn at the proper angle.

3. All ranks will leave the address where they will be located while on leave. Telephone numbers if available will also be left.

4. Telegrams requesting extensions of leave WILL NOT be answered unless sender has arranged for prepaid reply.

5. Emphasis should be laid on the fact that, as Canadians away from home, they are naturally objects of, even greater than the usual amount of, critical observation.

6. Military Police will arrest troops disobeying these orders. In such cases the soldier will be returned to the Unit under escort, and upon conviction, his leave will be terminated.

7. Personnel proceeding on leave to a stated destination will have their pass stamped by the R.T.O., Civil Police or Military Police at that destination. Passes, upon return, to be turned into the Company Commander whose responsibility it will be to ensure that this order has been carried out.

8. The following extract from A.C.I. 2591 of 1942 is published for information of all ranks:

DISCIPLINE - MUTUAL POWERS OF PROVOST, IN MILITARY FORCES OF THE UNITED KINGDOM, CANADA AND NEW ZEALAND

1. All ranks are advised that members of the Military Police, Provost Corps or picquets of the Military Forces of the United Kingdom, Canada and New Zealand have reciprocal powers of Command including the power of arrest, over personnel of all three forces.
2. Canadian Personnel, will therefore, comply with the lawful orders of such members of the United Kingdom and New Zealand military forces given in the course of their duty as if they had been given by members of the Canadian Provost Corps. Failure to do so is an offence upon which disciplinary action may be taken by an appropriate service authority.
3. Commanding Officers will ensure that the substance of this Order is brought to the attention of all ranks under their command.

XXIX ORDERLY OFFICER AND ORDERLY SERGEANT

1. There will be an Officer on Duty at RHQ at all times.
2. Orderly Officer and his duties are as detailed in Appendix "C" to this Order and Part I DOs.
3. Any special instructions will be issued by the Adjutant.
4. The Orderly Sergeant will be detailed daily by the RSM and will perform such duties as detailed by the RSM.
5. In addition the Orderly Sergeant will report to the Orderly Officer at the Men's Mess at 0700 hrs and will accompany the Orderly Officer on all of the inspections detailed in Appendix "C" to this order and Part 1 DOs.

XXIX ORDERLY OFFICER AND ORDERLY SERGEANT

6. Further, the Orderly Sergeant will be responsible for checking the condition of the blackout within the entire camp area, such inspection to commence one half hour after the time Blackout begins as laid down in Part I DO and result of inspection to be immediately communicated in person to the Orderly Officer at RHQ. Orderly Sergeant will take immediate action to remedy any violation of the blackout regulations.

XXX SECURITY MEASURES

1. All ranks are warned of the necessity of exercising complete discretion in their correspondence both within and without the United Kingdom. The following extracts from Pamphlet No. 3 of FSPB of 1938 are published for guidance in that respect.

STANDING FIRE ORDERS

For

1 CANADIAN INFANTRY TRAINING REGIMENT

1 Jan 45 Barrosa and Albuhera Barracks

PART I

1. OUTLINE OF FIRE ORGANIZATION

(a) Tidiness and cleanliness in all military buildings is essential.
(b) Smoking is prohibited in all garages, stores, workshops, and magazines.
(c) The use of lights other than those officially authorized, is prohibited.
(d) All ranks are cautioned against allowing red hot coals to fall from fires on to wooden flooring, and against throwing down cigarettes, pipe ashes, or glowing matches.
(e) Electric fittings and wiring must be kept in good repair, any evidence of damage, etc., to the installations will be reported to the Q.M., who will in turn inform the DCRE. Only electrical installations sanctioned by competent authority will be used.
(f) Fire Point equipment will be kept in good order--sand for fire-fighting purposes must be well sifted and dry, enabling it to be poured like water.
(g) No naked lights will be allowed near a receptacle that contains, or has contained, petrol, whilst cleaning or repairing operations are in progress.
(h) Inspection pits of garages will be kept clean and ventilated, spilled petrol will be wiped up at once. Petrol will on no account be allowed to run into drains. Tops of petrol cans will always be firmly screwed down, never left open. Petrol tins will NOT be left in wooden huts or buildings, neither will paraffin (coal oil) or other inflammable material, under any circumstances, be stored in ordinary buildings. Special arrangements must be made for this storage, and at least two buckets of sand provided as an anti-fire measure.

(i) There will be no accumulation of grease, oil waste, waste paper, neither will sand bags (treated) or camouflage nets be piled in heaps, as they are liable to spontaneous combustion.

(j) On no account will fire fighting equipment be removed from its authorised location unless to fight fire or to be used for drill and exercise purposes.

(k) Where stove pipes pass through walls or roofs constructed of wood or other combustible material, the air space will NOT be stuffed with paper or other material, but must be left open, and on no account will articles be laid across stovepipes. Fires will NOT on any account be raked out on the hearth, but will be burned or damped out.

(l) In offices where smoking is permitted,- metal ash trays will be used.

2. FIRE ALARM (INSTRUCTIONS FOR RAISING)

(a) The alarm must always be raised when a fire is reported even if the fire is small.
(b) By shouting "FIRE".
(c) By beating on the IRON TRIANGLES (located at)

Barrosa Barracks	Albuhera Barracks
Guard Room	Guard Room
Outside Offrs Mess Kitchen

(d) By sounding ALARM on bugle.
(e) By telephoning ALDERSHOT MIL FIRE BDE (Aldershot 0130), and Unit Fire Bde Office, extension 12.

3. DUTIES OF FIRE OFFICER

(a) The FIRE OFFICER is responsible for the care and maintenance of all fire fighting equipment in the Barrack Areas.
(b) It is the FIRE OFFICER'S duty to see that the fire fighting personnel and auxiliaries, are kept up to strength, and properly trained.
(c) In the event of an outbreak of fire, he will take charge of fire fighting with the unit fire fighting personnel's aid, until the arrival of the Military or Civil Bde.

4. DUTIES OF FIRE NCOs

(a) The Unit Fire NCOs (one Sjt and two Cpls are permanently detailed) will assist the FIRE OFFICER in carrying out his duties.

5. DUTIES OF FIRE DETAIL

(a) 1 NCO and 5 ORs will be detailed weekly by Holding Wing for fire fighting duties, under i/c FIRE FIGHTERS--during this period they will sleep in the FIRE OFFICE and will be confined to camp for the period of their tour of duty. DISCIPLINE AND TREATMENT OF SOLDIERS UNDER SURVEILLANCE AND CLOSE ARREST

1. The object of detention is to render the soldier more fit for his duties in the ranks of his unit. All soldiers in confinement, whether under sentence of Court Martial, or by his Commanding Officer, will be dealt with alike, and subjected to the same discipline during their detention in the Barrack Guard Room.
2. All soldiers in close arrest are to be confined in the Guard Room and will be visited every hour until sent under escort to their companies or the Orderly Room. Those in state of drunkenness will be confined alone. On arrival of a soldier in close arrest at the Guard Room, the NCO in charge will search him in the presence of one of his men and take from him all such superfluous articles as money, pipe tobacco, cigarettes, pocket knife, matches, etc. These articles will be signed for by the NCO i/c including the soldiers pay book. A receipt for same will be given to him. Personal letters and photographs are the only articles that a soldier in custody may retain.
3. No reading material will be allowed soldiers in custody at any time unless first passed by the Officer in charge Regimental Police.
4. All soldiers under close arrest will be confined separately except where space does not permit.
5. Playing Cards will not be allowed in the Guard Detention Rooms.
6. Soldiers in close arrest are not permitted to have cigarettes, tobacco or alcoholic beverages of any kind at any time.
7. Bedding will be removed during the day and will not be spread on bunks until after lights out, and the men will not be in possession of bedding except when actually required for use.
8. Soldiers under close arrest and under sentence, on Active Service, must work except for time allowed for personal toilet and meals. They are to be worked from reveille until lights out.
9. Reveille for the Guard Room will be at 0500 hrs and lights out at 2015 hrs.
10. Soldiers under close arrest are responsible for cleaning the whole of the barracks as well as the immediate area around their beds, and in addition will be required to do any other work that is necessary while in arrest.
11. Regimental Police will NOT enter into conversation with the soldiers in custody except insofar as may be necessary for the execution of their duties.
12. RPs will see that all parties of soldiers under their control are constantly working hard at whatever task they are given to do.
13. When moving about the camp area all soldiers will be kept moving at the double except where the MO orders otherwise.
14. RPs i/c of soldiers in custody will be responsible for the paying of compliments to all officers.
15. Medical Examination - soldiers under close arrest or serving sentence will report sick at the time appointed when they will be examined by the Unit Medical Officer detailed for this duty, daily.
16. All complaints by soldiers in close arrest, or serving sentence must be fully investigated by the Orderly Officer, or if necessary by the Senior Duty Officer.
17. Senior NCO i/c RPs will ensure that all soldiers are medically examined on the morning of their trial of FGCM and each subsequent morning of the trial.
18. Inspection
    (a) The Unit Senior Duty Officer will inspect the Unit Guard Room once daily.
    (b) The Guard Room will be inspected daily, once by day and once by night by the Orderly Officer accompanied by the Orderly Sergeant.
19. To prevent soldiers under close arrest or serving sentence, escaping and thus aggravating their charge, trousers, boots, etc., will be removed at lights out and returned at Reveille.

Appendix "D"

20. The Guard Room and its surroundings, and the prisoners, are to be kept clean. This is one good way to keep the prisoners busy. EVERYTHING IN THE GUARD ROOM - floors, benches, tables, toilets, etc., should be scrubbed daily - the prisoners doing the work. Shortages of soap need not interfere.

21. Every soldier under close arrest or serving sentence, will bath himself thoroughly at least twice a week. The hair of every soldier will be cut close.

22. Bathing and Washing Parades

Bathing and Washing parades will be adequately escorted. Men sentenced to 28 days, 50% escort of a party up to 4 - soldiers awaiting FGCM and sentenced by FGCM 100%. One soldier will be escorted by one RP providing handcuffs are used, otherwise there will be an extra RP included in the party.

23. When a soldier is to appear for an interview or Orderly Room he will be delivered over to the NCO i/c Escort, supplied by his Pn or Coy HQ. The NCO will leave a receipt for the soldier with the NCO i/c of the shift.

24. Mail (outgoing) will be censored. Numbers of letters may be limited. Letter writing will be permitted on Sunday Afternoons only.

25. Mail (incoming) will be censored if so desired by the Comd of the Unit, by the Unit Adjt., or an Officer detailed by him.

26. Parcels will be held in Unit Post Office for soldiers under close arrest or serving sentence, but may be signed over to their friends by the soldiers, in the presence of witnesses.

27. The following procedure will be adopted when a soldier is admitted to 1 Cdn Inf Trg Regt Guard Room.

(i) Upon arrival a check will be made with Records Office to ensure that the soldier is on strength of this Unit.

(ii) The soldiers rank, name and number and particulars will be notified to his Coy HQ. The CQMS of his Coy will arrange to have the soldier issued with two suits of denim, change of underwear, socks, small kit containing personal cleaning materials and one pair of boots. All other items of the soldier's clothing and equipment will be taken away and kept with the soldier's kit at Coy HQ. This must be done within two hours of the man's arrival at the Unit Guard Room except when such arrival takes place after 1700 hrs, in which case the above will be completed by 0830 hrs the following morning.

(iii) Soldiers in 1 CITR Guard Rooms will not be employed outside the Guard Room or enclosure unless an adequate escort is provided.

(iv) The outside door will be kept locked at all times and the keys removed from the locks and kept in custody of a member of the staff.

(v) Soldiers under short sentence, less than 28 days, may be employed on outside fatigue within the camp area.

(vi) Soldiers receiving longer sentence will be kept in close confinement awaiting removal to Military prison or Cdn Detention Barracks as the case may be, but will be kept within the Barrack Detention Rooms or the wire enclosures at the rear unless the Medical Officer orders otherwise.

(vii) Senior NCO i/c RP will immediately notify Unit Adjt particulars of all personnel remanded for Summary of Evidence or FGCM and will also advise Adjt of all personnel held in custody in excess of 24 hrs without a charge being preferred.

(viii) Senior NCO i/c RP will be responsible for the earliest possible committal to detention barracks of all SUS immediately sentence awarded by FGCM has been promulgated.

28. 24 hrs prior to such removal they will be completely equipped with full kit by the CQMS of the Coy. MFM 6 Field Conduct Sheets must also be completed to date, and forwarded to Regimental Police Office.

29. Meal Parades

Meals will be distributed by the Regimental Police on duty, under the supervision of the NCO in charge of the shift. Meals will be picked up at the kitchen by prisoners accompanied by an escort.

NOTE to ensure safe custody of soldiers in confinement the above regulations will be strictly adhered to.

Appendix "D"

30. Visitors - soldiers under sentence who wish to receive visitors should make application 48 hrs in advance to the Adjutant and permission will be allowed only under special circumstances.

31. It is an offence under regulations for unauthorized persons to talk to, give any article whatsoever to, or in any way interfere with soldiers in custody.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of H20835 Private Anthony HAWRYSH, Canadian Infantry Corps, attached to Number 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — H200189 A/Cpl Irving, DR, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am H200189 A/Cpl Irving, DR, and am NCO IC batmen, Albuhera Offrs' me ss, 1 CITR. On the night of 28/29 Apr 45 my duties consisted of collecting and selling tickets for a dance held in Albuhera Offrs' Mess. At approx 2300 hrs 28 Apr 45, Pte Hawrysh, whom I now see and recognize as the accused, approached me in company with a CSM inside the lobby of the Mess. I told them that the dance was for offrs, and that they could not be admitted."

D. A. Irving
(H200189 A/Cpl Irving, DR)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Lt CW Emms, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lt CW Emms, on strength "H" wing, 1 CITR. During a draw of raffle tickets held at an Albuhera Offrs' Mess dance, 1 CITR, on 28 Apr 45, I was standing with a lady guest by a window beside the piano with several other couples. I heard a man's voice saying "Fuck you, you dirty bastard." I turned around and heard the man continue to use obscene language. He was wearing the badges of rank of a Lt, and I now see and recognize the man as the accused, Pte Hawrysh. I reported the matter to the Mess Secretary."

C W Emms Lt.
(C.W. Emms)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Lt WC Duncan, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lt WC Duncan, Mess Secretary , Offrs' Mess, 1 CITR. At approx 2400 hrs 28 Apr 45 as a result of a statement made to me by Lt Emms, I left the Mess bar and in company with Maj Shawcross, went into a room, where a dance was being held. Inside the room I saw an offr lying on the floor. Standing by him was a person wearing the badges of rank of a Lt, whom I now see and recognize as the accused, Pte Hawrysh. Maj Shawcross attempted to pick up the offr on the floor, but the accused intervened. He said, "I don't trust you" and added something to the effect that he wanted to take the offr on the floor upstairs by himself. He used foul language but I cannot remember the exact words he used. Maj Shawcross asked the accused to produce any means of identification he had in his possession. The accused said that he had none in his possession. Maj Shawcross left the room with the offr who had been lying on the floor and the accused followed them out. Later I went to the head of the stairs leading to the upper hallway of the Mess. There I saw the accused, who was then wearing a Pte's tunic, in the company of another offr. The accused left by one of the rear servant's stairways."

W. C. Duncan Lt.
(W.C. Duncan)

the accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Maj R.G. Shawcross, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Maj R.G. Shawcross, OC B coy, 1 Trg Bn, 1 CITR, and a member of the Offrs' Mess Committee, 1 CITR. At approx 2150 hrs 28 Apr 45, whilst at a dance in Albuhera Offrs' Mess, I went to the lobby of the Mess. In the lobby I saw an offr, a CSM, and a Pte soldier whom I now see and recognize as the accused. I said to the offr, "I'm sorry, you cannot bring them in." "O.Rs. are not allowed in an offrs' mess", or words to that effect. All three turned around and went out forthwith without saying anything. At approx 2400 hrs that night, as a result of a statement made to me in the bar by Lt Duncan, I went into the dance room. There I saw an offr lying on the floor. Standing around him was a group including the accused. The accused waswearing the badges of rank of a Lt. I asked the accused for his dance ticket stub. He said that he had lost it. I then asked him to produce his identity card. He said that he would have to go upstairs for it. The accused was trying to lift up the offr lying on the floor. I took the offr out of the dance room. The accused joined us and grasped the free arm of the offr. On the first landing upstairs the accused asked me who I was. I replied, "A member of the Mess Committee." He then said, "No, what is your name?" I replied, "Maj Shawcross." The accused laughed and said "Another Major - bent it." I replied that I wanted to see that the offr got to his room alright and that I wanted to see the identity card of the accused. He said, "Fuck off, we've had enough of Majors," and left the offr hanging onto the bannister and approached me in a threatening manner. I went downstairs to get some witnesses. I contacted Lt Zary who went upstairs, but at his request, stayed behind myself."

R.G. Shawcross Maj.
(R.G. Shawcross)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Lt J. Zary, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lt J. Zary, on strength "RAD" wing, 1 CITR. At approx 2400 hrs 28 Apr 45, as a result of a statement made to me by Maj Shawcross in the Albuhera Offrs' Mess, where a dance was being held, I went upstairs to an offr's room, after requesting the Maj to remain behind. Just as I left this offr's room I saw a Pte soldier, with his back towards me, going down the hall and Lt Duncan approaching from the opposite direction."

J. Zary Lt.
(J. Zary)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidenceupon oath? You are not obliged to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

In the case of H20835 Private Anthony HAWRYSH, Canadian Infantry Corps, attached to Number 1 Canadian Infantry Training Regiment, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this summary of evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — H200189 A/Cpl Irving, DR, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am H200189 A/Cpl Irving, DR, and am NCO IC batmen, Albuhera Offrs' me ss, 1 CITR. On the night of 28/29 Apr 45 my duties consisted of collecting and selling tickets for a dance held in Albuhera Offrs' Mess. At approx 2300 hrs 28 Apr 45, Pte Hawrysh, whom I now see and recognize as the accused, approached me in company with a CSM inside the lobby of the Mess. I told them that the dance was for offrs, and that they could not be admitted."

D. R. Irving
(H200189 A/Cpl Irving, DR)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Lt CW Emms, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lt CW Emms, on strength "H" wing, 1 CITR. During a draw of raffle tickets held at an Albuhera Offrs' Mess dance, 1 CITR, on 28 Apr 45, I was standing with a lady guest by a window beside the piano with several other couples. I heard a man's voice saying "Fuck you, you dirty bastard." I turned around and heard the man continue to use obscene language. He was wearing the badges of rank of a Lt, and I now see and recognize the man as the accused, Pte Hawrysh. I reported the matter to the Mess Secretary."

C W Emms Lt.
(C.W. Emms)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

THIRD WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION — Lt WC Duncan, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lt WC Duncan, Mess Secretary , Offrs' Mess, 1 CITR. At approx 2400 hrs 28 Apr 45 as a result of a statement made to me by Lt Emms, I left the Mess bar and in company with Maj Shawcross, went into a room, where a dance was being held. Inside the room I saw an offr lying on the floor. Standing by him was a person wearing the badges of rank of a Lt, whom I now see and recognize as the accused, Pte Hawrysh. Maj Shawcross attempted to pick up the offr on the floor, but the accused intervened. He said, "I don't trust you" and added something to the effect that he wanted to take the offr on the floor upstairs by himself. He used foul language but I cannot remember the exact words he used. Maj Shawcross asked the accused to produce any means of identification he had in his possession. The accused said that he had none in his possession. Maj Shawcross left the room with the offr who had been lying on the floor and the accused followed them out. Later I went to the head of the stairs leading to the upper hallway of the Mess. There I saw the accused, who was then wearing a Pte's tunic, in the company of another offr. The accused left by one of the rear servant's stairways."

W C Duncan Lt.
(W.C. Duncan)

the accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Maj R.G. Shawcross, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Maj R.G. Shawcross, OC B coy, 1 Trg Bn, 1 CITR, and a member of the Offrs' Mess Committee, 1 CITR. At approx 2150 hrs 28 Apr 45, whilst at a dance in Albuhera Offrs' Mess, I went to the lobby of the Mess. In the lobby I saw an offr, a CSM, and a Pte soldier whom I now see and recognize as the accused. I said to the offr, "I'm sorry, you cannot bring them in," "O.Rs, are not allowed in an offrs' mess", or words to that effect. All three turned around and went out forthwith without saying anything. At approx 2400 hrs that night, as a result of a statement made to me in the bar by Lt Duncan, I went into the dance room. There I saw an offr lying on the floor. Standing around him was a group including the accused. The accused waswearing the badges of rank of a Lt. I asked the accused for his dance ticket stub. He said that he had lost it. I then asked him to produce his identity card. He said that he would have to go upstairs for it. The accused was trying to lift up the offr lying on the floor. I took the offr out of the dance room. The accused joined us and grasped the free arm of the offr. On the first landing upstairs the accused asked me who I was. I replied, "A member of the Mess Committee." He then said, "No, what is your name?" I replied, "Maj Shawcross." The accused laughed and said "Another Major - best it." I replied that I wanted to see that the offr got to his room alright and that I wanted to see the identity card of the accused. He said, "Fuck off, we've had enough of Majors," and left the offr hanging onto the bannister and approached me in a threatening manner. I went downstairs to get some witnesses. I contacted Lt Zary who went upstairs, but at his request, stayed behind myself."

R.G. Shawcross Maj.
(R.G. Shawcross)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

FIFTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Lt J. Zary, having been duly sworn, states:

"I am Lt J. Zary, on strength "R&D" wing, 1 CITR. At approx 2400 hrs 28 Apr 45, as a result of a statement made to me by Maj Shawcross in the Albuhera Offrs' Mess, where a dance was being held, I went upstairs to an offr's room, after requesting the Maj to remain behind. Just as I left this offr's room I saw a Pte soldier, with his back towards me, going down the hall and Lt Duncan approaching from the opposite direction."

J Zary Lt.
(J. Zary)

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned as follows: "Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidenceupon oath? You are not obliged to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence." To this the accused replied, "I don't want to say anything now, Sir."

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No (5)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 3.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(6).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes re Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.) "GW"

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans NO
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy [illegible] of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier A having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3) "GW" "GW"

1 I have considered the petition of Gnr Hay, dated 26 Jul 44, and find no circumstances which would warrant any remission or suspension of the sentence at this time.

2 The offences for which Gnr Hay was convicted were serious offences and the sentence was not a heavy one compared to other sentences awarded in this theatre committed in similar circumstances.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE "A"
"GW"

Summary of evidence in the case of H-35699 Gnr Hay, A., 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt, R.C.A. a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

BY DIRECTION OF THE COMMANDING OFFICER THIS SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IS TAKEN ON OATH.

First Witness
M-125 Sjt Morris, A.L. 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt, R.C.A. having been duly sworn states;

I am M-125 Sjt Morris A.L. of 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. R.C.A. On the 19th of March 44 I went to my drivers billetx at approximately 1600 hrs. While I was there an Italian boy who lives in the house came upstairs saying that his Mother wanted the soldiers down below put out of the house. L/Bdr Mitchell went down and told them that they had better leave. About 20 minutes later the boy came back up again with the same story as before. As it was nearly supper time the drivers and myself all went down stairs As we went through the room L/Bdr. Mitchell again asked them to leave. We then went out and about 25 yards down the street we met Sjt West who is the Sjt of the same troop as some of the men in the building. I asked him if he would see that the men were put out of the house. I then went on down to the Mess Hall for supper. I was in the supper line and had just had my cup filled with tea, waiting for the rest of my supper when Gnr Hay came up to me and said "You told Sjt West to kick us out didn't you" I replied "Yes" I have men billeted there and it is up to me to look after them" He said "You are a prick, I used to think you were a pretty good guy, now I know you are nothing but a cock-sucker" At that time my mess tins were filled up and I went on past the end of the serving table to eat my supper. As I passed the end of the table Sjt Neil was standing there and asked me what I was looking so down-hearted about, I did not reply but I went up the street where I ate my supper.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Second Witness
K-16060 L/Sjt. O'Connell, J.W. of 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt R.C.A. having been duly sworn states;

I am K-16060 L/Sjt O'Connell, J.W. of 111 Bty. On the evening of the 19 Mar 44 I was standing in the meal line up talking to Sjt Morris who was in front of me when Gnr Hay came up to Sjt Morris and asked him if he sent Sjt West to a house to order Gnr Hay out. Sjt Morris said "yes" I did "I have troops billeted in this house and didn't want any trouble for them" Gnr Hay then said you are a prick, I used to think you were a good guy but your nothing but a cock-sucker.

"J.W. O'Connell L/Sgt.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Third Witness K-92306 Sjt Neil D.G., 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt, R.C.A. having been duly sworn states.

I am K-92306 Sjt Neil D.G.111 Bty. On the afternoon of 19 Mar 44 at 1645 hrs. I was standing at the head of the meal parade drinking a cup of tea. Sjt Morris came up and asked him what he was so unhappy about. Gnr Hay immediately came over to me and started tapping me on the chest with his finger, saying he didn't like the idea of me giving him a dirty look, I told him that I had not given him a dirty look, he then knocked the cup out of my hand and remarked that I had given him a silly grin. I warned Gnr Hay that he would be up for office the next day. He then grabbed hold of my tunic and remarked that he didn't give a fuck and that no Sjt. could give him a dirty look I ordered him to take his hands off me, telling him he was looking for serious trouble. He remarked that he didn't give a fuck how much trouble he got into and struck me on the left ear with his fist. I then told him that he was under close arrest and he was taken under escort by Sjt Culshaw.

" Sgt. Neil D.G.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fourth Witness F-16151 Bdr. Schultz, G.R., 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt, RCA having been duly sworn states;

I am F-16151 Bdr Schultz, G.R. 111 Bty. on 18 Mar 44 between 1630 hrs. and 1700 hrs. I overheard an argument between Gnr Hay and Sjt Neil. Gnr Hay stated that he wasn't taking any shit off Sjt Neil and with that he struck Sjt Neil Sjt Neil caught Gnr Hay by the tunic and held him off. That is all I saw.

"Bdr Schultz R.G."

The accuse declines to cross-examine this witness.

Fifth Witness D-114886 Cpl. Goyette, E.R.(RCASC) att to 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. R.C.A. having been duly sworn states;

I am D-114886 Cpl. Goyette, E.R. of the RCASC att to/111 Bty 7 Cdn ATk Regt. I heard some trouble outside the kitchen. An argument was in progress and looked like the start of a fight. There was some bread and butter on the table and I saw Gnr Hay knock it off the table onto the street. I still had 30 men to feed and had to supply more bread and butter.

"Cpl. Goyette E.R."

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Sixth Witness H-59578 Pte Henderson, J.M. RCASC., att 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. RCA having been duly sworn states.

"I am H-59578 Pte Henderson J.M. RCASC att 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt, RCA. On the 19 Mar 44 on supper parade I heard Gnr Hay arguing and then I saw him grab the tray with the bread and butter on it an d thrown it on the ground. I then saw him marched away under escort.

"J.M. Henderson".

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Seventh Witness M-368 Gnr MacLean J.M. 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt, RCA having been duly sworn states.

I am M-368 Gnr MacLean, J.M. 111 Bty., on 19 Mar 44 I saw Gnr Hay knock the bread tray off the table onto the street I then went back into the kitchen to get some more bread.

"J.M. MacLean"

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Eighth Witness M-62 Bdr McDonald, F.E. 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt., RCA having been duly sworn states.

I am M-62 Bdr. McDonald F.E. 111 Bty, At about 1700 hrs. on 19 Mar 44 I spoke to Sjt Culshaw when he told me he was having trouble with Gnr Hay, As there was no detention room he asked me if I could guard him in my billet for the night. I then went up the street to get Gnr Hay . I took him to my billet under a drunken condition and ~~was~~ turned him over under close arrest. Finally Gnr McCormack and myself got him quieted down and put him on the bed, trying to get him to sleep. I then went ~~xxxx xxxxxxx~~ out to get some wood. The first thing I knew Gnr Hay had jumped out the window and was on his way down the street. The window was 25 ft. from the ground and was the only means of escape as there is only one door to the house which Gnr McCormack and I were guarding. Realizing he had gone out the window I ran after him and brought him back to my billet. We then took off his boots and kept guard over him until he went to sleep.

"F.E. McDonald".

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

Ninth Witness M-399 Gnr McCormack, T.M., of 111 Bty., 7 Cdn A.Tk Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn states.

I am M-399 Gnr McCormack, T.M. 111 Bty. At approximately 1700 hrs., 19 Mar 44 I was in my billet when Gnr Hay was brought in by Bdr McDonald . Gnr Hay appeared to be in a drunken condition. He was told by Bdr. McDonald that he was under close arrest. Gnr Hay did not seem to realize this. We got him to the room and finally got him to lay down on the bed. I waited until he appeared to be asleep then I went out to help Bdr McDonald cut wood. We were cutting wood in front of the only door in the house. I noticed Bdr McDonald running around the corner of the house. I ran into the house and found that Gnr Hay had gone. I then went to the road and started in the direction that I was told Hay had gone. I had proceeded down the road a short distance when I saw Bdr McDonald bringing Gnr Hay back. I helped Bdr McDonald escort him back to the room where we placed him on the bed and took off his boots. He soon went to sleep.

"Thomas McCormick"

The accused declines to cross examine this witness.

The accused having been asked; Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence. makes no statement.

"HayA"

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of 4 pages was taken down by me in writing in the presence of the accused and that Rules of Proceedure 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.

Signed in the Field this 22 day of March 1944.

PLEA FOR MITIGATION OF SENTENCE D "GW"

In my plea for mitigation of sentence I wish to point out the following; That in over two years service in this Battery I have grown to know H-35699 Gnr Hay A. probably better than any other officer.

(when the above offences were committed)

There is no doubt that he was under the influence of liquor and, although drunkenness is defined as no excuse. it definately affects a man's mind.

Hay has been a good soldier. His conduct sheet has had several entries the majority of which crimes were all caused by drink.

I have seen Hay drunk. I have seen him sober and during 18 months when I was his Troop Commander I never found a more willing fellow nor a better gunner .

May I also add that I've met him on the field of Sport and never was there an occasion where he portrayed signs of an evil temper.

Hay's big trouble has been liquor and I hope that the court may take this into consideration and that they may also take into consideration that his soldiering abilities are definately first class.

R.P. 83 (b) complied with.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No defence make statement in mitigation.
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3; MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para 3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement (5). The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty in charge(s). The accused is (not) so informed, and he (then) changes(s) his (their) plea(s) as charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the .....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the .....charge(s), and allowed on the .....charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans .....
Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans .....
Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 42, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the .....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(2) (d), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~copies~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier~~s~~ having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)

Plea for Mitigation of Sentence

D Gof.

In my plea for mitigation of sentence I wish to point out the following: That in over two years service in this Battery I have grown to know H 35699 Gnr. Stay. H. probably better than any other officer.

There is no doubt that he was under the influence of liquor when the above offences were committed, and, although drunkenness is defined as no excuse, it definitely affects a man's mind.

Stay has been a good soldier. His conduct sheet has had several entries the majority of which crimes were all caused by drink.

I have seen Stay drunk. I have seen him sober, and during 18 months when I was his Troop Commander I never found a more willing fellow "for a bottle Gunner".

May I also add that I've met him on the field of sport and never was there an occasion where he portrayed signs of an evil temper.

Stay's big trouble has been liquor and I hope that the court may take this into consideration and that they may also take into consideration that his soldierly abilities are definitely first class.

R.P. 83(3) complied with.

M.125 Sjt. Morris, A.L., 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am M.125 Sjt. Morris, A.L. of 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. R.C.A. On the 19th of March 44 I went to my drivers billet at approximately 1600 hrs. While I was there an Italian boy who lives in the house came upstairs saying that his Mother wanted the soldiers down below put out of the house. L/Bdr. Mitchell went down and told them that they had better leave. About 20 minutes later the boy came back up again with the same story as before. As it was nearly supper time the drivers and myself all went down stairs. As we went through the room L/Bdr. Mitchell again asked them to leave. We then went out and about 25 yards down the street we met Sjt. West who is the Sjt. of the same Troop as some of the men in the building. I asked him if he would see that the men were put out of the house. I then went on down to the Mess Hall for supper. I was in the supper line and had just had my cup filled with tea, waiting for the rest of my supper when Gnr. Hay came up to me and said "You told Sjt. West to kick us out did'nt you?" I replied "Yes", I have men billeted there and it is up to me to look after them" He said "You are a prick, I used to think you were a pretty good guy, now I know that you are nothing but a cock-sucker" At that time my mess tins were filled up and I went on past the end of the serving table to eat my supper. As I passed the end of the table Sjt. Neil was standing there and asked me what I was looking so down-hearted about, I did not reply but went on up the street where I ate my supper.

Second Witness

K.16060 L/Sjt. O'Connell, J.W. of 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am K.16060 L/Sjt. O'Connell, J.W. of 111 Bty. On the evening of the 19 Mar. 44 I was standing in the meal line up talking to Sjt. Morris who was in front of me when Gnr. Hay came up to Sjt. Morris and asked him if he sent Sjt. West to a house to order Gnr. Hay out. Sjt. Morris said"yes I did, Gnr. Hay then asked Sjt. Morris why. Sjt. Morris then said "I have troops billeted in this house and didn't want any trouble for them" Gnr. Hay then said you are a prick, I used to think you were a good guy but you're nothing but a cock-sucker.

Third Witness

K.92306 Sjt. Neil, D.G., 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am K.92306 Sjt. Neil D.G., 111 Bty. On the afternoon of 19 Mar. 44 at 1645 hrs. I was standing at the head of the meal parade drinking a cup of tea. Sjt. Morris came up and I asked him what he was so unhappy about. Gnr. Hay immediately came over to me and started tapping me on the chest with his finger, saying he did'nt like the idea of me giving him a dirty look. I told him that I had not given him a dirty look, he then knocked the cup out of my hand and remarked that I had given him a silly grin. I warned Gnr. Hay that he would be up for office the next day. He then grabbed hold of my tunic and remarked that he did'nt give a fuck and that no Sjt. could give him a dirty look. I ordered him to take his hands off me, telling ~~me~~ him he was looking for serious trouble. He remarked that he did'nt give a fuck how much trouble he got into and struck me on the left ear with his fist. I then told him that he was under close arrest and he was taken away under escort by Sjt. Culshaw.

Eighth Witness

M.62 Bdr. McDonald, F.E, 111 Bty., 7 Cdn ATk Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am M.62 Bdr. McDonald, F.E., 111 Bty. At about 1700 hrs. on 19 Mar. 44 I spoke to Sjt. Culshaw when he told me he was having xxxxx trouble with Gnr. Hay. As xx there was no detention room he asked me if I could guard him in xxx my billet for the night. I then went up the street to get Gnr. Hay. I took him to my billet under a drunken condition and warned him he was under close arrest. He did'nt seem to realize that he was under close arrest. Finally Gnr. McCormack and myself got him xxxx quieted down and put him on the bed, trying to get him to sleep. I then went out to get some wood. The first thing I knew Gnr. Hay had jumped out the window and was on his way down the street. The window was 25 ft. from the ground and was the only means of escape as there is only one door to the house which Gnr. McCormack and I were guarding. Realizing he had gone out the window I ran after him and brought him back to my billet. We then took off his boots and kept guard over him until he went to sleep.

Ninth Witness M.399 Gnr. MC Cormack, T.M., of 111 Bty., 7 Cdn A.Tk. Regt. R.C.A., having been duly sworn, states:

" I am M.399 Gnr. McCormack, T.M., 111 Bty. At approximately 1700 hrs., 19 Mar. 44 I was in my billet when Gnr. Hay was brought in by Bdr. McDonald. Gnr. Hay appeared to be in a drunken condition. He was told by Bdr. McDonald that he was under close arrest. Gnr. Hay did not seem to realize this. We got him in the room and finally got him to lay down on the bed. I waited until he appeared to be alseep then I went out to help Bdr. McDonald cut wood. We were cutting wood in front of the only door in the house. I noticed Bdr. McDonald running around the corner of the house. I ran into the house and found that Gnr. Hay was not there. Some children showed the way Gnr. Hay had gone. I then went to the road and started in the direction that I was told Hay had gone. I had proceeded down the road a short distance when I saw Bdr. McDonald bringing Gnr. Hay back. I helped Bdr. McDonald escort him back to the room where we placed him on the bed and took off his boots. He soon went to sleep.

PROCEEDINGS.

A.
Order convening the Court

On Active Service, this SEVENTH day of OCTOBER, 1942.

Whereas it appears to me, the undersigned, an officer in Command of 6 Canadian Infantry Brigade, on active service, that the persons named in the annexed Schedule, being subject to Military Law, have committed the offences in the said Schedule mentioned.

And whereas I am of opinion that it is not practicable that such offences should be tried by an ordinary General Court Martial; *[redacted]

* Omit where Convening Officer is a Commanding Officer or is of Field Rank.

I hereby convene a Field General Court Martial to try the said persons, and to consist of the Officers hereunder named.

* Omit if not applicable.

*[redacted]

In my opinion military exigencies, namely the dispersion of units and difficulties of communication and other difficulties render it inexpedient to observe the provisions of those rules inconsistent with Appendix "A" to D.R.O. 772 on the trial of the person named in the annexed schedule.

Abstract of Evidence

In the Field General Court Martial of
L-12856 R.Q.M.S. (W.O. II) Howard Douglas Jerome Hay,
S.Sask.R., C.A.(O), in pursuance of R.P.76

Take notice that at the trial of the above mentioned Warrant Officer:-

1. No. L-18814 Pte. Black H.R., S.Sask.R., C.A.(O) will be called as a witness to give evidence that he was on guard the night of 1 Sep 42 and that he reported the absence of vehicle No. CZ 4206806 to L-12387 Sgt. Outhwaite W.G., Transport Sgt. of the S.Sask.R., C.A.(O) at approximately 2200 hrs.

2. No. L-12387 Sgt. Outhwaite W.G., Transport Sgt - S.Sask.R., C.A.(O), will be called as a witness to give evidence as follows:-
(a) That at approximately 2200 hrs 1 Sep 42 the absence from Unit Transport Lines of vehicle CZ 4206806 was reported to him.
(b) That at 0615 hrs 2 Sep 42 he saw the same vehicle return to the transport lines.
(c) He will produce A.F. C2518, Work Ticket covering a journey authorized by Major G.H. Matthews which was used by the accused for authority for an unauthorized trip. This form will disclose speedometer readings which were recorded prior to, and at the conclusion of the journey in question, establishing that speedometer readings denote 71 miles of travel.

3. Major G.H. Matthews, O.C. H.Q. Coy., S.Sask.R., C.A.(O) will be called as a witness to give evidence as follows:-
(a) That he authorized a trip for this vehicle for a person other than the accused and for a destination other than that to which the vehicle travelled.
(b) That he preferred charges against the accused for improperly using the vehicle for his own purpose.

4. No. L-12946 Pte. Jones W.F., S.Sask.R., C.A.(O) will be called as a witness to give evidence as follows:-
(a) That he is an authorized driver (M.T.) of the M.T. Section of the S.Sask.R., C.A.(O)
(b) That he was ordered at approximately 1730 hrs 1 Sep 42 by the accused to drive him in vehicle CZ 4206806.
(c) That he drove the accused in the aforesaid vehicle to LETHBRIDGE and return.

The accused was duly warned in accordance with R.P. 4 (c) but declined to make a statement and reserved his defence.

Compliance with R.P. 4 (d) certified.

Evidence of Major J.R. Mather, South Saskatchewan Regiment re character of 2/17758 RQMS Clay. H.B.J.

From end of Sept. 1939 until the end of December 1940. I was adjutant of the 46th regt. during that time. I came in contact with the accused everyday. His work at all times was without reproach, and I know that the hours spent by him at his task averaged from 18-20 hours every day. In January, 1941 I became Coy. Comde. "A" Coy, and in all my coy. dealings with the Q.M. dept. everything has worked very smoothly and efficiently.

With regard to the application of the accused for transfer to the dental services, this application has been accepted.

I hereby submit a copy of this document signed by the senior representatives of Canadian Legion, viz. Robert Leitch.

Evidence of Witness Capt P.S. Wallace R.C.O.C. regarding character of R.Q.M.S. Hay, H.D.J.
L12758.

Capt P.S. Wallace, R.C.O.C. having been duly sworn states:- I was Q.M. of the South Saskatchewan Regt. from 15th November 1939 until Apr. 10th 1942. On assuming the duties, stores were under charge of the accused. When I took over I had no idea of C.M. work, and has to be taught by the accused. From that time the accused has worked long and unsocial hours, with the consequence that he was allowed extra privileges, allowing him the use of the unit at any hour of day or night. During the years I was with the unit, there was at no time that circumstances arose by which the accused's work was ever neglected, and I believe it was due to his untiring effort that the regt. stores were in such good state when I left the unit. During my period as Q.M. his character was irreproachable. As the full responsibility for the handling on boards & LCol Lett, and Lt Col Merritt, rested on his shoulders, the lack of shortages can be credited to his untiring effort.

Just prior to reverse "Re opn" the accused was recommended for a commission. The examination took place later. I understand he obtained very high marks. Before the selection board only his age stood in his way.

As the accused was a fine athlete, it was decided he would be of great value to the auxiliary services. Hence leaving. I understand his application has been accepted.

THE CASE OF TROOPER HAY: 1-74186. 19 JAN 43.

Occasionally a case arises which one feels is deserving of special consideration from the Court. Here we have a steady-going young soldier with a clean record. We have, too, a man who possesses one of the finest characteristics of a superior mind . He was wrong. He slipped. But he had the moral courage to admit his fault. He did not try to shift the blame. He did not try to slide out from under the responsibility. In his statement he mentioned no names. He merely said another trooper was with him.

On investigation I find that this man was off duty. He met his colleague. Undoubtedly there was considerable drinking done in the pub. before closing time. On leaving the pub, it was decided that a visit to the dance in Woking was the thing. But how? Should they walk; no time for that, it was late in the evening then. They belonged to Recce. ---not infantry. What could be more natural than to drive into Woking. They did dozens of times a week. There was adventure in the air--the spirit of daring; but what about the work ticket? What about the sentry---- simply elementary--any plausible story would fool the guard. An emergency hospital run! That was the idea. It would work like a charm. And it did. From the evidence it would appear that the sentry,having sworn to the fact that the car was travelling at about 40 miles per hour, erred in his judgement. He heard the message called to him. I think it would be very hard to hear a message shouted from a car, particularly a closed vehicle, at a speed of 40 miles per hour. However that is not the issue.

Trooper Hay, on whose shoulders all the blame was put by his companion, has an enviable reputation with the Transport Section. He is honest and capable. He has never had an accident. He has never made a misstep. And then this escapade which is worthy of Halloween has placed him in a position of jeopardy. This man is more than useful to the Transport Section. Must he sacrifce a long seperation from this job which he enjoys with more enthusiasm than any I have yet met? Could not these qualities which he is known to possess entitle him to a short term of punishment from which he could return to rebuild the reputation for integrity which he has always enjoyed?

There was no accident. No civilians or soldiers were endangered. He used a vehicle without proper authority, but he did not abuse the vehicle. There are no costly repairs to consider.

Decidedly I feel that a certain leniency could be expended in his case without prejudice to discipline. Everyone in this camp knows him, likes his cheerful manner and his capabilities. His friends would realize that any consideration shown would be meritted by his past record. He is badly needed as a Driver. There was no premeditated plan about this decision to drive to Woking. The car was being returned. No time is being used up while it might rest in the repair department or some L.A.D. Please let the facts influence your decision to the fullest in awarding your term of punishment on Tpr. May.

Summary of Evidence in the case of No. L-74186 Tpr. Jack HAY, 1st. Armoured Car Regt. (RCD), on strength of No.1. C.A.C.R.U., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken down on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

No. D-98626 Tpr. N.V. Stewart, 8th. Cdn. Recce. Regt. (14H), on strength of No.1. C.A.C.R.U., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"AT Inkerman Barracks on the night of 15 Jan 43 I was on Guard Duty at the Knaphill entrance of the Camp lines. Between 2215 hrs. and 2230 hrs. a Ford Staff Car approached the gate coming from camp at about 40 m.p.h. I flashed my torch at it and yelled trying to signal it down. It slowed down a bit but continued through the gate and proceeded towards Knaphill. There appeared to be 2 people in the car and as it went past one of them yelled that they were making an emergency hospital run. I was not certain what action to take and at 2300 hours the Corporal of the M.T. appeared and asked me if a Staff Car had gone out. I reported the above facts to him and then he drove me to the Guard Room where I reported the matter to the Gurd Commander.

Question 1: "Could you recognize any of the distinguishing markings on the vehicle?"

Answer 1: " No Sir, I couldn't."

Question 2: "Where you able to recognize any one in the vehicle?"

Answer 2: "No Sir."

Cross-Examined by the accused.

Question 1: "Are you certain the car was going 40 m.p.h.?"

Answer 1: "I am pretty certain it was going at that speed but it might have been slightly less."

D-98626 Tpr. Stewart, N.V.

SECOND WITNESS FOR the prosecution

No.C-70664 Cpl. Feron, P. 4th. Cdn. Recce. Bn.(PLDG) on strength of No.1. C.A.C.R.U., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states as follows:

"AT Inkerman Barracks on the night of 15 Jan 43 I was Orderly Corporal and despatcher of the M.T. Section At about 2200 hrs I was in the M.T. office with Tpr. McNulty, Tpr. Cooper and the accused. At that hour I went out to take tattoo and when I returned (Tpr. Cooper) and the accused were missing. At 2245 hrs. Tpr. McFayden and I went out to get Staff Car CM4202239 as he was to take it out on a run. We could not find this vehicle in its proper place or within the Transport lines. I then checked on the exits from camp and at No.2 Post (Knaphill) the Guard on duty informed me that a Staff Car had gone through without stopping at approximately 2230 hours. I reported it to the L/Cpl of the Guard and to Capt. Pitman the Transport Officer at approximately 2330 hours.

C-70664 Cpl. Feron, P.

The accused declined to cross examine this witness.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE (Continued)

The accused was cautioned as follows: Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on Oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence, unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

The accused elects to make a statement.

The accused No. L-74186 Tpr. Jack HAY, 1st. Armoured Car Regt. (R.C.D.), on strength of No.1. C.A.C.R.U., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas, states:

"On the night of January 15th. 1943 at approximately 2200 hours I came to the Transport Office in company with another trooper and while the Orderly Corporal was out we took a car CM 4202239. I drove the car. We proceeded out Knaphill gate. When stopped by the sentry an excuse was used that would satisfy him and let the car proceed. We went up to Knaphill and down to the cross roads and past the barracks, then to Woking. From there we went out to the six cross roads, back to Woking. We parked in Woking for a short time and then left to come back to camp. On the way back, due to a blot of fog on a bend in the road the car ran off the edge of the road and not wanting to use the brakes with the possibility of upsetting the car I let it run into the ditch. Not being able to get it out under its own power we came back to camp.

The accused does not call any witnesses for the defence.

L-74186 Tpr. Hay, J.

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence of two (2) pages was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the accused, and that Rules of Procedure 4(G) (D),(E), and (F) have been complied with.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans N/A SIR.(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1)~~ The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his ~~(their)~~ plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) ~~change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s).~~ Part I of the Schedule ~~is amended accordingly~~.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither? Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf? Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only? Ans.....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character?(1)
Ans NO - SIR
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex C and Ex ..... respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment?(1) Ans Reply will be made (MADE ALTO)(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him ~~and the JA, if any~~.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1)(b), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

H77458 TPR HAY J A PLEA OF MITIGATION

This soldier joined up 19 Jun 41 and served till 16 Feb 42 when he was discharged as underage, was 16 years of age at the time. He was given a good military conduct reference.

He again enlisted 24 Feb 43 and was posted O/S Oct 44. He asked to be sent to a theatre of operations but was found to be unstable.

This soldier has had an unhappy marriage, he has not hea rd from his wife in months and has tried to obtain a divorce. Being young he sought legal advice but could not see his way clear to undertake the usual procedure of obtaining evidence when obtaining grounds for a divorce.

This soldier is category S5 and this unhappy married state has not helped his mental outlook. He figured by going AWL his wife would start divorce proceedings when her allowance was stopped. While AWL he obtained work to support himself.

This soldier being S5, cannot stand being confined, his nerves are giving out and he has been on Field Pay of 1 shilling per day since 31 Aug 43.

He has been under close arrest since 4 Aug 45 and has been doing the same work as those undergoing detention, he is willing to undergo any punishment so long as it doesn't entail being confined to a cell as he suffers from claustraphobia. I aske the Court to take into consideration this soldier's youthfulness and his category S5 when passing sentence.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of H77458 Tpr James Akerstream HAY, on the strength of "D" Wing, No. 2 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS for the Prosecution

Lieut C. D. Underhill, RCA, Asst Adjt of "D" Wing, No. 2 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, Canadian Army Overseas, having been duly sworn, states:

I am Lieut C. D. Underhill, RCA, of No. 2 Canadian General Reinforcement Unit, Asst Adjt of "D" Wing, and as such I produce from the Wing Orderly Room files the following documents which have been shown to the Accused:

The first document, which is marked Exhibit "A" is a certified True Extract from No.1 Canadian Armoured Corps Reinforcement Unit Part II Orders No. 99, dated 28 Apr 45, page 5, which declares in Para 9, sub-para (a) that H77458 Tpr Hay J.A., absented himself without leave at 0800 hrs 25 Apr 45 from his Unit.

The second document, which is marked Exhibit "B", is a Certificate in Accordance with P.C. 2797 of 10 Apr 42, signed by Lieut Willimont, D.A.P.M., C.M.H.Q., dated 5 Aug 45 which declares that H77458 Tpr Hay J. A., was arrested at 1600 hrs 4 Aug 45 at London.

The third document, which is marked Exhibit "C", is an Expense Voucher, CMHQ 100;55 (Ref KR & O (Can) 539) dated 7 Aug 45 and signed by the Officer Issuing Railway Warrant and Expense Monies, No. 6 Area Provost Coy., Canadian Provost Corp, London, which declares that expenses were incurred in returning H77458 Tpr Hay J. A., from London to Haslemere in the amount of £0-6-8.

C.D. Underhill
.....
(C.D. Underhill) Lieut RCA

The Accused declines to cross-examine this Witness.

J. A. Hay
.....
(H77458 Tpr Hay J. A.)

The Accused was cautioned as follows:

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or to give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say, or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing, and may be given as evidence.

The Accused declines to make a statement and reserves his defence.

.....J.C.Hay.....
(R77486 Tpr Hay J.A.)

I certify that the foregoing Summary of Evidence, consisting of two (2) pages and three (3) Exhibits, was taken down by me in the presence and hearing of the Accused and that Rules of Procedure 4 (c) (d) (e) and (f) have been complied with.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....(5)

(See overleaf for oaths and notes for use on trial.)

FIRST WITNESS Lt C.R. Haines, IRC, duly sworn, states:

I am 14 Pl Comd. I know accused, he is Pte Hay (pointing). On 20 Dec 44 I was Pl Comd 14 Pl - I received instructions from the coy comd, went to billets and warned everyone I could find and tole the Sgts also to warn anyone I had missed. Later on I saw accused arguing with CSM Hemmings, around 1600 hrs, and I told accused to get on the truck that we were moving forward. Accused got on truck and we moved off to assembly area. Sgt Major reported to me next day. Did not see accused again until he came up for coy office 10 Jan 45 - not sure of date of coy office. We were in Italy 20 Dec and stationed at Mezzano - the unit was out from the NAVIGLIO for a short rest. We were shelled a bit while at Mezzano. Am not sure if accused present when I warned the pl.

Cross examined

I had no reason to belive the accused or any members of the Pl had been drinking.

Re-examined - Nil

Court

Accused was on the truck the last time I saw him. I told him we were going forward. When I told him to get on the truck he was standing near the tail gate. I was acting as Coy Comd and when CSM reported to me on 21 Dec I did not personally check the coy area.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS B78521 CSM Hemmings W., IRC, duly sworn, states:

Am CSM "C" Coy, IRC. I know Pte Hay he is the accused (pointing). On 20 Dec 44 at approximately 1600 hrs coy was embussing to go forward. Sgt Ferrier reported to me and as a result I went to accused and ordered him 3 times to go forward, he said he would not go. I took accused to coy comd who spoke to him. I last saw accused near TCV talking to Mr. Haines. I next saw accused on 10 Feb 45. On 20 Dec he had all his kit ready to go into line.

I have been CSM of "C" Coy from Sep 44 until Feb 45. On 20 Dec C Coy went to assembly area and attaked that night. I had no opportunity to check area for accused that night.

Cross Examined

Accused had been drinking - I had seen a Sgt take a bottle from him. I have had no arguments or discussions with him before. In the assembly area we were under shell fire.

Re Examined - Nil

Court

We crossed MUNIO on 20 Dec about 1800 hrs. There was shellfire Coy had been in Mezzano since it was taken. I had placed accused under close arrest.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

THIRD WITNESS M53303 Sgt Ferrier H.M. IRC, duly sworn, states: -

Am Pl Sgt 14 Pl C Coy IRC. I know Pte Hay, he is accused, (pointing). On 20 Dec 44 we were at Mezzano and going to proceed to front at approximately 1600 hrs. When I warned the accused he refused to go forward. Lt Haines and I warned the accused. I warned him personally. When he refused to go I took him to the CSM who placed him under arrest. After this the accused got on my truck and we proceeded At the debussing point the accused was present- from FUP we were to proceed to line. I checked the Pl and accused was absent. I did not see him again until about 10 Feb 45.

I warned accused and also told him what the coy were going to do in the attack. I checked the Pl at approximately 1800 hrs at the FUP which was about 1 mile from debussing point. Was no enemy action at debussing point but mortar and shellfire at FUP.

Cross Examined

I did not see accused drinking - he seemed quite normal to my knowledge.

Re-Examined - Nil

Court

Am still Sgt 14 Pl. Would know if accused had returned between 20 Dec and 3 Feb.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Prosecution officer present certificate of apprehension, admitted under O/S R) 5352 read, marked Exhibit "A" and attached.

PROSECUTION CLOSED

FIRST WITNESS The accused duly sworn, states: -

The had been with C Coy about 1 week before 20 Dec. Had previous battle experience, was with 48th Highlanders and have seen action with them. Was in hospital for a period. Had no trouble except hom trouble - my mother is alone and has only sister to support her, my other brother was AWL and I was worried. About 19 Dec, 2 or 3 bothering me. Another Pte, White and I were out drinking and a scout car hit him and I started worrying - we had gone to school together. I had a discussion with CSM before. He said my fault for what happened to my friend. I was not worried about going back into line - was not scared to go back in. If I hadn't been worried this would not have happened. I was muddled. Was no shellfire at debussing point or FUP, I was with Pl then.

Was worried about Pte White - had tried to go see him - did not know how he was - looked in Ravenna at CCS there but he was not there. I tried to find my friend, even asked Pro directions - when I got to one it was wrong one. Finally gave up search for him. Wanted to get to Caserta to see if at base hospital. If accident hadn't happened would not be here today.

Cross examined

Few in Pl knew I was worrying about this. I did not go see Pl Comd, CSM or Pl Sgt about it - I reported the accident to them when it first happened.

Was with 48th Highlanders about 7 or 8 mos - had left them only shortly before & had gone to hospital with fever about 20 days before, I joined the Irish.

I remember Sgt Fernier telling me not to go away. Was present at assembly area and did not notice any shellfire.

Was with 48th at Ortona when front static and in Gothic line. Missed Hitler line as in hospital with jaundice. Was knocked out by blast in Gothic line. Went to hospital with fever, 48th then in rest. Came out of hospital and posted to IRC.

Figured would be given stiff sentence so decided to take a holday. Remember night 20 Dec, truck ride and assembly area. I knew we were going somewhere but did not know where. There was some shellfire over to our right.

Had been drinking that day - was not drunk but feeling good - was drinking vino. White & I had been out drinking and on way home were scuffling - I pushed him and a scoutcar came by and hit him. I didn't hear the car coming or wouldn't have shoved him - was worried about how he was.

R.P. s3 (b) complied with.

DEFENCE CLOSED

Prosecutions Closing

Accused present when Pl warned moving forward - accused present at debussing area and FUP - not present later when Pl checked by Sgt. Area under shellfire. Did not report worries to anyone but took things in own hands. Had previous battle experience - no drunk - decided to leave to search for friend - soldering long enough to know score. Evidence clear accused knew going into action and did not return for 45 days.

Defending Officer

Accused left Pl according to chg when under shell fire. Possible for man to get into such mental state that does not care what happens to himself. Accused not afraid of battle.

JA Sums up

Fact finding function, credibility of witnesses, presumption of innocence, burden on prosecution, reasonable doubt, intent, AWL, desertion, AA 56 & RP 44 (d), judicial notice.

Defending Officer in Mitigation

Accused has no serious charges on conduct sheet - ask consideration be given to his mental state of mind.

The following si the correct form of medical certificate to be used for trial. The acused must be examined the morning of each day he is on trial and a certificate obtained on each such date.

I Certify that I have this morning examined B79440 Pte Hay J.T. and in my opinion he is fit to undergo trial by Court Martial.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C) ; powers and duties of JA see RP 103 ; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B) ; duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92 ; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82 ; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85 ; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116 ; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6 ; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans .....(5)
(1. RP 27(B). 2. RP 27(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1) WMWS
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Con 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) ~~The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on (the latter charge(s)).(4)~~ WMWS
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans ~~Have decide not~~ ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans ~~Yes. Another witness as to character only.~~ Ans WMWS
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is ~~(are)~~ recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened. WMWS
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
~~Or The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)~~ WMWS
(1. AA 54(3) (5), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans .....
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true WMWS copy (~~copies~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(i) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex B and Ex C respectively.(3)
(1. MFS 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Con 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans ~~Yes. Have Defending Officer.~~ .....(2)

(See overleaf for oaths and notes for use on trial.)

FIRST WITNESS Lt C.R. Haines, IRC, duly sworn, states:

I am 14 Pl Comd. I know accused, he is Pte Hay (pointing). On 20 Dec 44 I was Pl Comd 14 Pl - I received instructions from the coy comd, went to billets and warned everyone I could find and tole the Sgts also to warn anyone I had missed. Later on I saw accused arguing with CSM Hemmings, around 1600 hrs, and I told accused to get on the truck that we were moving forward. Accused got on truck and we moved off to assembly area. Sgt Major reported to me next day. Did not see accused again until he came up for coy office 10 Jan 45 - not sure of date of coy office. We were in Italy 20 Dec and stationed at Mezzano - the unit was out from the NAVIGLIO for a short rest. We were shelled a bit while at Mezzano. Am not sure if accused present when I warned the pl.

Cross examined

I had no reason to belive the accused or any members of the Pl had been drinking.

Re-examined - Nil

Court

Accused was on the truck the last time I saw him. I told him we were going forward. When I told him to get on the truck he was standing near the tail gate. I was acting as Coy Comd and when CSM reported to me on 21 Dec I did not personally check the coy area.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

SECOND WITNESS B78521 CSM Hemmings W., IRC, duly sworn, states:

Am CSM "C" Coy, IRC. I know Pte Hay he is the accused (pointing). On 20 Dec 44 at approximately 1600 hrs coy was embussing to go forward. Sgt Ferrier reported to me and as a result I went to accused and ordered him 3 times to go forward, he said he would not go. I took accused to coy comd who spoke to him. I last saw accused near TCV talking to Mr. Haines. I next saw accused on 10 Feb 45. On 20 Dec he had all his kit ready to go into line.

I have been CSM of "C" Coy from Sep 44 until Feb 45. On 20 Dec C Coy went to assembly area and attaked that night. I had no opportunity to check area for accused that night.

Cross Examined

Accused had been drinking - I had seen a Sgt take a bottle from him. I have had no arguments or discussions with him before. In the assembly area we were under shell fire.

Re Examined - Nil

Court

We crossed MUNIO on 20 Dec about 1800 hrs. There was shellfire Coy had been in Mezzano since it was taken. I had placed accused under close arrest.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

THIRD WITNESS M53303 Sgt Ferrier H.M. IRC, duly sworn, states: -

Am Pl Sgt 14 Pl C Coy IRC. I know Pte Hay, he is accused, (pointing). On 20 Dec 44 we were at Mezzano and going to proceed to front at approximately 1600 hrs. When I warned the accused he refused to go forward. Lt Hains and I warned the accused. I warned him personally. When he refused to go I took him to the CSM who placed him under arrest. After this the accused got on my truck and we proceeded At the debussing point the accused was present- from FUP we were to proceed to line. I checked the Pl and accused was absent. I did not see him again until about 10 Feb 45.

I warned accused and also told him what the coy were going to do in the attack. I checked the Pl at approximately 1800 hrs at the FUP which was about 1 mile from debussing point. Was no enemy action at debussing point but mortar and shellfire at FUP.

Cross Examined

I did not see accused drinking - he seemed quite normal to my knowledge.

Re-Examined - Nil

Court

Am still Sgt 14 Pl. Would know if accused had returned between 20 Dec and 3 Feb.

R.P. 83(b) complied with.

Prosecution officer present certificate of apprehension, admitted under O/S R) 5352 read, marked Exhibit "A" and attached.

PROSECUTION CLOSED

FIRST WITNESS The accused duly sworn, states: -

The had been with C Coy about 1 week before 20 Dec. Had previous battle experience, was with 48th Highlanders and have seen action with them. Was in hospital for a period. Had no trouble except hom trouble - my mother is alone and has only sister to support her, my other brother was AWL and I was worried. About 19 Dec, 2 or 3 bothering me. Another Pte, White and I were out drinking and a scout car hit him and I started worrying - we had gone to school together. I had a discussion with CSM before. He said my fault for xxx what happened to my friend. I was not worried about going back into line - was not scared to go back in. If I hadn't been worried this would not have happened. I was muddled. Was no shellfire at debussing point or FUP, I was with Pl then.

Was worried about Pte White - had tried to go see him - did not know how he was - looked in Ravenna at CCS there but he was not there. I tried to find my friend, even asked Pro directions - when I got to one it was wrong one. Finally gave up search for him. Wanted to get to Caserta to see if at base hospital. If accident hadn't happened would not be here today.

Cross examined

Few in Pl knew I was worrying about this. I did not go see Pl Comd, CSM or Pl Sgt about it - I reported the accident to them when it first happened.

Was with 48th Highlanders about 7 or 8 mos - had left them only shortly before I had gone to hospital with fever about 20 days before, I joined the Irish.

I remember Sgt Fernier telling me not to go away. Was present at assembly area and did not notice any shellfire.

Re-Examined - Nil

Court

Was with 48th at Ortona when front static and in Gothic line. Missed Hitler line as in hospital with jaundice. Was knocked out by blast in Gothic line. Went to hospital with fever, 48th then in rest. Came out of hospital and posted to IRC.

Figured would be given stiff sentence so decided to take a holiday. Remember night 20 Dec, truck ride and assembly area. I knew we were going somewhere but did not know where. There was some shellfire over to our right.

Had been drinking that day - was not drunk but feeling good - was drinking vino. White & I had been out drinking and on way home were scuffling - I pushed him and a scoutcar came by and hit him. I didn(t hear the car coming or wouldn't have shoved him - was worried about how he was.

R.P. s3 (b) complied with.

DEFENCE CLOSED

Prosecutions Closing

Accused present when Pl warned moving forward - accused present at debussing area and FUP - not present later when Pl checked by Sgt. Area under shellfire. Did not report worries to anyone but took things in own hands. Had previous battle experience - no drunk - decided to leave to search for friend - soldering long enough to know score. Evidence clear accused knew going into action and did not return for 45 days.

Defending Officer

Accused left Pl according to chg when under shell fire. Possible for man to get into such mental state that does not care what happens to himself. Accused not afraid of battle.

JA Summe up

Fact finding function, credibility of witnesses, presumption of innocence, burden on prosecution, reasonable doubt, intent, AWL, desertion, AA 56 & RP 44 (d), judicial notice.

Defending Officer in Mitigation

Accused has no serious charges on conduct sheet - ask consideration be given to his mental state of mind.

The following si the correct form of medical certificate to be used for trial. The acused must be examined the morning of each day he is on trial and a c rtificate obtained on each such date.

I Certify that I have this morning examined B79440 Pte Hay J.T. and in my opinion he is fit to undergo trial by Court Martial.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF B 87922, PRIVATE HAYDEN E.A., 4 Bn., 1 C.B.R.D., C.A.O., C.M.F.

By Order of the Commanding Officer, the Summary of Evidence was taken on Oath.

1st Witness: C 42035, Cpl Robinson, E.E., (No.1 Pro. Coy) 4 Bn, 1 CBRD, C.A.O., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am being employed on special investigations to assist the Regimental Police, 4 Bn, 1 C.B.R.D., C.A.O. At about 0900 hrs 7 Dec 43, I saw a civilian, whom I recognized as the officially authorized Regimental barber, coming through the men's lines. He was carrying a blue canvas bag. The R.S.M. had previously told me to keep an eye on this civilian, so I asked him what he had in the bag. He said "Good-morning", and kept on going. I followed him to the enclosure where the barbers work, and asked him again what he had in the bag. He showed me first of all a bag with his barber's tools in it. I pushed this aside and pointed to the other bag he had been carrying. I opened this bag and found it to contain army rations; 4 cans of cheese, 4 cans of corned beef, 2 cans of pilchards, 2 cans of Prem, and 2½ loaves of bread. The R.S.M. appeared nearby at this time, so I showed him the bage and contents. I called over Pte Alivernini, A., who speaks Italian, and questioned the civilian barber as to where he had got the rations. He said he had got them from the kitchen. When I asked him what kitchen he said he would take me over. I then made a list of the articles in the bag, which up to that time had not been out of my possession. The civilian took me and the R.S.M. to "B" Company kitchen, where he pointed out the accused as being the man whom he had obtained the articles from. He also stated he had given the accused 1½ kilo veal and some macaroni for the rations. The R.S.M. then gave orders for the accused to be placed under close arrest. I identify the bag and contents shown to me as the bag and rations found by me in the possession of the civilian, whose name is Maglio Vincenzo."
(Bag and contents marked EXhibit "A").

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

2nd Witness: D 98553, L/Cpl Hayes, E.J.,(No.1 Pro. Coy) 4 Bn, 1 CBRD, C.A.O., having been duly sworn, states:

"I am at present working with the Regimental Police, 4 Bn, 1 CBRD, C.A.O. At about 0900 hrs, 7 Dec 43, I saw an Italian civilian, whom I recognized as one of the barbers, going past the Officers, W.Os. and N.C.O.s kitchen. He was carrying a large bag which, from the way he was carrying it, appeared to be pretty heavy. I had been speaking with Cpl Robinson a few moments before and saw him speak to the civilian and I followed them into the enclosure where the barbers work. I saw Cpl Robinson examine the contents of the bag and I recognized them as Army rations. As far as I can remember there were 2½ loaves of bread, 2 tins of Prem, 2 tins of fish, and some tins of corned beef and cheese. The R.S.M. had by this time appeared and a soldier who spoke Italian had been obtained. On being questioned by the R.S.M. thro the interpreter, the civilian said he had got the rations from a kitchen and would take us there. He took us to "B" Coy kitchen, where he pointed out the accused as the man who had given him the rations. He also stated he had given the accused some veal and maccaroni in exchange. I recognize the bag and contents now shown to me as the bag and contents found in possession of the civilian barber, whose name I do not know.

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

G 21032, Pte Alivernini, A.R. was sworn as interpreter.

Witness: MAGLIO VINCENZO, civilian authorized to act as a barber within camp area of 4 Bn, 1 CBRD, C.A.O., having been duly sworn, states:

"I recognize the accused soldier as one with whom I have been doing business lately. Last Saturday I gave the accused some tomato sauce and about one and a half kilos of maccaroni. This morning, the 7 Dec 43, I gave the accused one and a half kilos of veal. In exchange for these things the accused gave me some Army rations. The accused told me he wanted to fix up a good meal for the soldiers. I recognize the bag and rations now shown to me as my bag and rations given to me by the accused.

Maglio Vincenzo

The accused declined to cross-examine this witness.

The accused was cautioned in accordance with R.P. 4 (E) and declined to make a statement.

Certified that Rule of Procedure 4 (C) (D) (E) & (F) have been complied with.

Taken down by me in writing, in the presence of the accused, in the field this 7th day of December, 1943.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans.....(5)

PROSECUTION

FIRST WITNESS

L.109175 Lcpl FLAVEL JA, 14 Cdn Pro Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused, and on the evening of 27 Jul I was on street patrol on the rd leading up to the Stn in Aldershot from approx 7.30 to 11 o'clock. About 2245 hrs I was on duty with the civil police; we were on the street and we were informed that there was a quarrel going on up one of the side streets so we proceeded up to see what was happening. As we rounded a corner we saw two soldiers in the distance fighting on the ground. As we approached they got up, one fellow leaving before I got there and the other headed in my direction and I asked him what had happened. As I was talking to this chap the accused approached and he inquired with words to the effect of who had hit the fellow and I I told him I didn't know, so he repeated the question and I told him again I didn't know, and then he said something to the effect that someone had better know. At this time the soldier whom I was talking to kind of got the accused convinced to leave and then I went to see if there were some more Pro around. The civil policeman and I were were on our way down the street when the accused came up again to see us and asked again something about who had hit the soldier and I still told him I didn't know. At this time I noticed he had a knife in his hand or something that looked like a weapon to me.

Q. Did he appear to have been drinking?
A. He may have been but I didn't notice him wobbling around.

Q. Continue?
A. It seemed to me that he wanted to get hold of me. Before this he had taken hold of my tunic. The civilian policeman stepped in between us and the question was repeated again by the accused several times but while the civil policeman and I were standing there two more Pro appeared and as they appeared the accused and the other soldier who was with him more or less started to amble off. When the other Pro appeared I went to get the Sgt IC at the City Police Stn. I went there and Sgt Sharpe and another Pro came back with me. I left the Sgt then who was IC from there on. We continued back to where the other Pro were and we located the accused in front of the Stn. During the conversation in front of the Stn the Sgt asked the accused to get into the jeep and come to the Police Stn for questioning and then he ordered him to get into the jeep. While there we saw the accused again with a knife in his hands, and then just about that time a truck came along from one of the Repat Depots, the accused jumped in it together with other soldiers and the Sgt told the dvr of the truck to take it to the City Police Stn, and the Sgt and I went on ahead in a 5 cwt.

Q. Did the accused use any threatening language to the Sgt?
A. Yes, after the Sgt had ordered him into the 5 cwt he said something about that he would the knife on us. My general impression was that if we went to take him he would use it on all of us.

Q. Did he get into the jeep?
A. No, he got into the other truck when it came along.

Q. What time elapsed from when he got the order to get into the 5 cwt until he got into the truck?
A. About 5-10 mins, Sir.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. How far was the distance from where you saw these two fighting?
A. I imagine between 75-100 yds.

Q. Why didn't you get the name of the other soldier who was fighting?
A. The accused interfered.

Q. He deliberately interfered?
A. Yes.

Q. Don't you think the fact that the other soldier got away had cause to provoke the accused?
A. The other soldier had gone before I got there and I was talking to the fellow who was closest to me.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did he threaten you in any way?
A. He had a knife in his hand and at one time he made a reach for my tunic, Sir.

Q. Did he say anything of a threatening nature?
A. No, except that someone had better know who had been fighting with this other soldier.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

SECOND WITNESS

P.C.313 CLARKE GW, Hampshire Joint Police Force, having been duly sworn, states:

I am a P.C. stationed at Aldershot and I recognize the accused. I was on duty there with Lcpl Flavel of the Cdn Pro when a woman came up and told us of a fight in Burchetts Road and Flavel and I proceeded there to investigate, and we found there a Cdn soldier lying on the ground with his face covered with blood. He stood up and Flavel was talking to him when the accused came forward and asked Flavel who hit the other soldier or words to that effect, and Flavel told the accused he didn't know. The accused then took hold of Flavel's tunic and adopted a threatening attitude, and repeating the same question. I intervened and the accused asked me the same question. I saw nothing in the accused's hand at that time. This white Cdn soldier managed to get the accused away; in the meantime Flavel had gone to the Police Stn for assistance. Shortly after two more Cdn Pro came on the scene and in the meantime the accused had proceeded along the rd and this was the las I saw of him.

Q. Would you say there was anything threatening in the accused's attitude?
A. Yes, when he got hold of Flavel's tunic, his arm was slightly raised. It was dark at the time.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. In your opinion do you think it is possible that the failure of Flavel to get the name of the other soldier tended to incite the accused?
A. Yes, I would be of that opinion, Sir. He felt pretty sore about it but I didn't see any reason why he should attempt to deal with the Pro himself.

QUESTIONS BY THE COURT:

Q. Did you see the other soldier who may have hit the white soldier?
A. No, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

THIRD WITNESS

M.101078 Sgt SHARPE, LE, 14 Cdn Pro Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and at about 2300 hrs on 27 Jul I was IC of the Aldershot patrols when Lcpl Flavel reported to me at the Police Stn and as a result of what he told me we proceeded downtown in a jeep and a few mins later at the Ry Stn in Aldershot I noticed a gp of soldiers. A coloured lad had been described to me by Flavel and he was in this gp. He was the accused. I drove up beside the gp and I asked the accused for his paybook to identify himself. I saw he wasn't going to get it out and so I got out of the jeep and faced him. At the time I noticed in his right hand he had an opened knife (PROSECUTOR SHOWS WITNESS A KNIFE AND WITNESS SAYD "THAT IS THE KNIFE")

Q. Was the knife closed or open?
A. Open, Sir. He took 2-3 paces back and I followed him and I saw I couldn't take the knife and so I ordered him into the jeep, which he didn't do, but made the statement "I can carve you up the same as my people were carved" or words to that effect.

Q. Did he make any gesture?
A. No, other than talking with his hands.

Q. Did he say he wouldn't get into the jeep?
A. No, he just refused to get into the jeep "what do you want me for?" he said, and I said "for questioning at the Police Stn" and he said "no, you can get me tomorrow" or words to that effect. After repeating the statement several times about carving up Pro and myself I decided we had to get him in and I went around to get some stuff out of the bottom of the jeep so that he wouldn't get his hands on it when we would get him in, and just then a Repat truck drove up and the accused jumped in that with about 15-20 other soldiers getting in behind him. I then asked the dvr of the truck to go to the Police Stn with the truck and I put my patrol Lcpl Pasternak, in the truck with the accused and I proceeded to the Police Stn in the jeep and within a few mins I saw Pasternak and the accused coming towards the Police Stn on foot. We took him into our room at the Police Stn and I immediately searched the accused, taking out of his left hand trouser pocket a knife which I have previously recognized.

Q. This is definitely the knife?
A. Yes.

KNIFE MARKED EXHIBIT 1

Q. Yes, go ahead?
A. After taking the knife and his personal belongings such as his paybook, etc., he was placed under arrest and escorted to the Gd Room.

Q. Would you say the accused had been drinking?
A. I didn't smell his breath.

Q. Might he have been drinking?
A. I wouldn't like to say, I only saw him for a few mins that night.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Did you ask the accused for his paybook or the knife first?
A. He had the knife out, I asked him for his paybook first.

Q. Why didn't you place him immediately under arrest instead of waiting until you got him to the Police Stn?
A. It was no good placing him under arrest unless I could take him in, Sir.

IN THE OPINION OF THE COURT IT IS UNNECESSARY TO COMPLY WITH RP 83(B)

FOURTH WITNESS

B.157138 Lcpl PASTERNAK J, 14 Cdn Pro Coy, having been duly sworn, states:

I recognize the accused and on 27 Jul about 2300 hrs I accompanied Sgt Sharpe and Lcpl Flavel to the Ry Stn in Aldershot and when we got there we found the accused and a gp of soldiers standing around. Sgt Sharpe came off the jeep and asked him if he was the man who had threatened Flavel with a knife and the accused immediately put his hands in his pockets and pulled a knife out. Exhibit 1 is the knife. The accused then said if we came near him he would carve us up or words to that effect. Just about then a truck pulled up from a Repat Depot, the accused piled into it and also some other soldiers.

Q. Did the Sgt order the accused?
A. He tried to order him into the jeep but he wouldn't go.

Q. Did he actually say he wouldn't go?
A. No, he just stood there with the knife in his hand.

Q. Go ahead?
A. He piled into this truck and Sgt Sharpe directed me to stay with the truck until it got to the Police Stn. On the way I heard a noise and on looking back - saw the accused lying on the pavement. I jumped off the truck and the accused said "Alright, alright, I'll come along". When I got him to the Police Stn the Sgt searched him and took the knife out of his pocket.

Q. Had he been drinking?
A. He may have, but I don't know.

Q. Did he walk straight?
A. After the bump on the head that he got from the fall to the pavement off the truck he was a little wobbly, Sir.

FIRST WITNESS

The accused, having been duly sworn, states:

Sir, I've never been in any serious trouble before in the Army. On the afternoon of 27 Jul 45 another soldier and I went down town to Aldershot, and when the pubs opened we started drinking all they had to offer, rum, whisky and gin and other stuff. We were having a meal in a restuarant after and one of the two fellows I was with, went out for a leak or something and the girl came along for me to pay for the meal. I went out to get the other fellow as he was going to pay he said and I found him with his face covered with blood. I asked the Pro who hit him and I also asked the civilian police but they said they didn't know and I guess I was pretty mad and attacked him. I didn't know but what it was the Pro that hit him. This friend of mine I thought if he was going to get himself into trouble all the time I wasn't going to stay with him and so I walked off to the Ryn Stn. Another fellow and I waited until a Repat truck came along, and just then a Sgt came towards me asking for a knife and I said "sure" as most fellows have a knife anyway you know. He said I was coming with him in the jeep and I asked him what for as he had nothing on me. I figured all this was not needed as I didn't see any reason, and besides I was on draft for the Far East. I got on the truck and while it was taking me along one of the fellows said to me that I had better jump off as I might possibly be able to get away from the Pro. I jumped off in a daze as I was drinking pretty heavy anyway, and then two Pro got me and brought me to the cell where I was stripped and then I was taken to the MIR where I had four stitches put in my eye and after that I was placed under arrest. That night before starting out I had £7 or so on me and when I finished I had exactly ninepence.

CROSS-EXAMINED

Q. Why did you carry this knife?
A. I suffer from calluses on both feet, Sir, and the MO told me not to use a razor blad on them; that it was safer to use a knife.

Q. When you are drinking did you often get involved in fights?
A. Never.

Q. You realized when you did this that you were committing a serious offence?
A. No, Sir.

STATEMENT BY THE PROS ON THE FINDING

The first charge against the accused is that he interfered with a Provost whoe's duty it was to investigate a street fight. We have the evidence of three witnesses - L-Cpl Flavel, the Police constable, and the accused himself to verify that this in fact did happen - the accused grabbing the provost by the tunic and repeatedly asking "Who done it?" despite the fact that he was assured by both the Policemen and the Provost that they did not know.

The second charge against the accused is that he used threatening language to a Sgt of the Provost Corps. That the accused did actually say "I'll carve you up the same as my people were carved." or some similar statement was again witnessed by three persons. That this was a real threat is proved by the fact that the accused brandished a knife in such a manner as to leave nodoubt in the Provost's mind of his dangerous intentions.

The third charge against the accused is that when ordered to get into a Jeep by the Provost Sgt he refused and jumped on to a lorry going back to camp hoping thus to lose himself in the crowd and avoid arrest. That his purpose was to escape from the Provost is further shown by the fact that, when he suspected that the lorry was being driven to the police station, he jumped out of the back. On these facts we have the testimony of the accused himself.

I submit that the accused is guilty beyond doubt of the charges against him. His only excuse for his shocking behavior is one of drunkeness - and here we have only his word for it. The three witness from the Provost say that they had no reason to believe he had been drinking at all and the Police Constable assures us that the accused, though he may have been drinking, was certainly not drunk and quite capable of

Mr. President and members of the Court. I ask you to consider the past good record of the accused in 3½ years as a soldier in [redacted] service and the fact that he had volunteered for the CAPT and was awaiting repatriation.

The accused felt provoked by the neglect of the guard at long last he did so deliberate harm was intended.

In reaching a sentence I ask you to bear this in mind.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE

IN the case of D35115 Pte. Oscar Theopholus Haye, No 8 Cdn Repat. Depot, a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer this Summary of Evidence is taken on oath.

FIRST WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

No. L.109175 L/Cpl Flavel J.A., 14 Cdn. Provost Coy. having been duly sworn states:

I am L109175 L/Cpl Flavel J.A., 14 Cdn Provost Coy. On 27th July 45 I was on street patrol in Aldershot accompanied by a civilian policeman, At approx. 22.45 hrs as a result of information received I proceeded up the street accompanied by the civilian policeman and saw two soldiers fighting. As I approached they stopped fighting and one of them STARTED to walk away. I approached the other soldier whose face was covered with blood and enquired of him what the trouble was. As I was talking the accused, whom I now recognize, approached and asked the soldier who had hit him. The soldier replied to the effect that everything was all right. The accused then enquired of me "Who hit him"?, or words to that effect. I replied that I did not know. The accused came toward me and repeated the question and I again said I did not know. I believe it was at this time the accused took hold of my tunic and said "Some one had better know", or words to that effect. The civilian policeman moved between the accused and myself and I was able to free my tunic.

About this time the soldier who had blood on his face convinced the accused that he should move away and they moved off together. Being the only Provost on the spot I decided to go for help. As the civilian policeman and I were moving away the accused and the soldier with him caught up to us again and the accused again enquired who had hit the soldier and again I replied I did not know. The accused then came closer and I saw what looked like an open pocket knife in his hand, and he repeated his question. The accused then said "Somebody had better know", or words to that effect, at the same time raising the open knife to about the height of his shoulder. About this time the civilian policeman stepped in between us and kept between us until I noticed two more Provost approaching. The accused and the other soldier then started to move away. The two Provost came up and I left to report to Sgt. Sharpe at the Police Station.

I reported to Sgt. Sharpe and then Sgt. Sharpe, L/Cpl Pasternak and myself returned to the scene in a 5 cwt. The accused was not in sight but we caught up with him a few minutes later in front of Aldershot station. The sergeant ordered the accused into the jeep but he did not obey the order. We all three got out of the jeep and the sergeant approached the accused to arrest him. The accused then pulled the knife from his pocket and opened it, and during the conversation that followed said he would use it on us if we tried to take him. Shortly afterwards a truck drove up and the accused got into the truck. On the instructions of Sgt. Sharpe I then proceeded to the Police Station.

QUESTIONED BY THE ACCUSED:

Q.1 Why did you not take the name of the soldier who was fighting?

A.1 The soldier was not present when I returned from the police station.

Q.2 Was I under the influence of liquor at the time?

A.2 I had no reason to believe you were under the influence of liquor.

SECOND WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

No. B157138 L/Cpl Pasternak J., 14 Cdn Provost Coy. having been duly sworn states:

I am B157138 L/Cpl Pasternak J., 14 Cdn Provost Coy On 27th July 45 at about 23.00 hrs. I was at Aldershot Police Station together with Sgt. Sharpe who was in charge of patrols. L/Cpl Flavel came to the station at that time and as a result of what he told us Sgt. Sharpe and I accompanied him to the Aldershot Station where we saw the accused, whom I now recognize. Sgt. Sharpe spoke to the accused asking if he had threatened L/Cpl Flavel with a knife. The accused put his hand into his pocket and pulled out a pocket knife which he opened. (Witness is shown a knife which he identifies. Knife is shown to accused and marked Exhibit "A") At the same time the accused said "I will use the knife on you if you come anywhere near me", or words to that effect. Sgt. Sharpe walked over to the jeep and about the same time a truck of No. 8 Repat. Depot pulled up. Immediately the accused and some other soldiers jumped into this truck. Sgt. Sharpe instructed me to stay with the truck. I got into the cab and instructed the driver to drive to the police station.

On the way to the police station I heard a noise in the truck and on looking out of the window I saw the accused lying on the pavement. I told the driver to stop, got out of the vehicle and took the accused to the police station on foot, where Sgt. Sharpe took charge. I saw Sgt. Sharpe take Exhibit "A" from the pocket of the accused.

THIRD WITN ESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

No. M101078 Sgt. Sharpe L.E., 14 Cdn Provost Coy. having been duly sworn states:

I am M101078 Sgt. Sharpe L.E., 14 Cdn Provost Coy. On 27 July 45 at approx. 23.00 hrs. I was in charge of patrols in Aldershot and I was at the Aldershot police station. At that time L/Cpl Flavel, 14 Cdn Provost, reported to me and as a result of what he told me L/Cpl Flavel, L/Cpl Pasternak and myself proceeded in a jeep to Aldershot station where I saw a group of soldiers amongst whom was the accused, whom I now recognize. I asked the accused for his service book. He then drew a pocket knife from his right hand pocket and opened the blade, (Witness identifies Exhibit "A") saying to me "I'll carve you up the same as my people were carved", or words to that effect, repeating it several times. I then ordered him into the jeep saying - "I now order you into the jeep". He did not obey the order. A few minutes later I was arranging the jeep to load the accused when a 60cwt lorry drove up in front of the station and allthe soldiers who were standing around, including the accused, climbed into the lorry. I then detailed L/Cpl Pasternak to accompany the vehicle and instructed the driver to drive to the police station. I then proceeded to the police station in my jeep and L/Cpl Pasternak arrived there shortly afterwards with the accused. I searched the accused taking all his personal effects from his pockets, including Exhibit "A". I then placed the accused under arrest and escorted him to CRU guard room.

(Sgt. Sharpe - continued)

QUESTIONED BY THE ACCUSED.-

Q.1 Did you ask me for my paybook or did you ask me if I had a knife?

A.1 I asked you for your paybook.

Q.2 When you saw me was I under the influence of liquor?

A.2 I don't know. I did not smell your breath.

M10170 Sgt. Sharpe L.E.

FOURTH WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

P.C. 313 Clarke G.W. , Hampshire Joint Police Force, having been duly sworn states:

I am a Police Constable of the Hampshire Joint Police Force, stationed at Aldershot. At approx. 22.45 hours 27th July 45 I was on duty ou tside the Hippodrome in company with L/Cpl Flavel of the Cdn Provost. As a result of what a woman told us about a fight in Burchetts Road the L/Cpl and I proceeded to investigate. On arrival we found a Cdn soldier on the ground, his face covered with blood. Apparently he had been fighting. We stood talking to this injured soldier when we were accosted by the accused, whom I now recognize.

The accused enquired of the L/Cpl as to who had hit his pal. L/Cpl Flavel replied he did not know. The accused asked the question several times and was again told by L/Cpl Flavel that he did not know. The accused then adopted a threatening attitude and grabbed L/Cpl Flavel by the tunic. I intervened and the accused repeated his question to me. I informed him I did not know. About this time the injured soldier intervened and endeavoured to get the accused away. The accused moved away and I did not see him further.

QUESTIONED BY THE ACCUSED -

Q.1 Was I under the influence of liquor at the time?

A.1 I would say that obviously you had been drinking but not sufficient to make you drunk and incapable

QUESTION TO THE ACCUSED -

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence upon oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence you give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence.

THE ACCUSED ELECTS TO GIVE EVIDENCE ON OATH.

D35115 Pte. Haye O. having been duly sworn states:

I am D35115 Pte. Haye O., No. 8 Cdn Repat Depot. On 27th July 45 about 14.00 hrs I was washing some clothes in camp when I was asked by one of the soldiers on my draft (I do not know his name) if I would like to go to town to have some beer. My reply was "No" because I had been to town the day before. This friend of mine got dressed and then asked me if I had changed my mind. I said "O K, I'll go", and we went to Aldershot reaching there about 17.00 hrs. We had supper and then went to a pub which opens at 18.00 hrs. We started drinking whiskey, gin and beer. I had just cashed a cheque for five pounds.

We drank in several pubs until they closed at about 22,00 hrs and my friend then suggested that we have something to eat. While we were drinking we had been joined by a third soldier and we three went into a restaurant. I gave this third soldier ten shillings so he could order the meal but he ran outside with the money. I went out to look for him and I saw my first friend standing on the sidewalk his face covered with blood. I asked him what had happened but he said he didn't know. I saw a L/Cpl Provost and a civilian policeman talking to him so I asked them what had happened. They said they didn't know. Being drunk I lost my temper and I pulled out my knife and said to the Provost "You must know who hit the soldier", but he replied "I do not know". Then I released the Provost and asked the civilian policeman what he knew about it, but he also said he didn't know.

My friend and I then started towards the station to catch the lorry back to camp. When I arrived at the station I had to wait for the truck. While waiting for the truck about seven Provost arrived. They stopped their jeep and the Provost sergeant came towards me. He asked me if I had a knife on me. My answer was "Yes", and I pulled the knife out of my pocket with the blade open. I asked "What do you want me for? I haven't done anything or caused anybody any trouble. The sergeant said "You'd better come with me", but I refused because I figured he had no reason to bring me in. Then the lorry came. I closed the knife and put it in my pocket and got on the truck with the rest of the boys and the truck drove off. Later I jumped off the truck because I didn't want to go back with the Provost. In jumping I lost my balance and fell striking my head on the pavement and getting a cut just above the right eye. I remember nothing further.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President ~~or JA, if any~~, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. NO - SIR (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charge(s) on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the charge(s), and allowed on the charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D6.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....

Plea of Mitigation

President & Members of the Court

Pte Hayes has been in the army over two years, and during that period has had no cases of drunkenness, or crimes other than being A.W.L., and only on two previous occasions did his A.W.L.'s exceed two days. This shows that his conduct while on parade has been good. I spoke with an officer of no 2 Cdn General Hospital regarding his conduct, and he stated he was a very good soldier, and worked hard.

Pte Hayes proceeded on a 48 hr. leave, and it was on this occasion that he went A.W.L. Over staying his leave was due to gold troubles. His girl friend was going to have a baby

[illegible] whom he was the father.

The girls mother had nothing to do with the girl and more or less disowned her, and also told her sister to have nothing to do with her, and not to allow her to live at her place she would also have to go to a so called workhouse until she became 21 unless there was someone to take care of her. She pleaded with the Hayes not to leave her.

Pte Hayes liked the girl, and knew he was responsible for these difficulties, so to help the girl he found living quarters for her. While he was A.W.L. he was working, so as to earn money for hospital expenses, and also for the living quarters. He made arrangements at the Lambeth Hosp.

and she was admitted under his name

Pte Hayes also knew he was Category B-2, and was to go back to Canada sometime in December, but instead of just leaving the girl he felt he had a responsibility and should help her.

Several days after returning from the hospital
his girl friend took very sick.
He arranged for a woman to take care of the baby while she went to Dulwich Hospital to undergo an operation. She was placed on the danger list as the attached sheet no ① shows. Sheet no ② is the visiting slip he received once his girl friend was placed in a special ward waiting to undergo the operation.

Pte Hayes visited the hospital daily. All the time his being A.W.L. was preying on his mind, and every time he told her he was going back to camp she would scream and cry, and when he saw these troubles on his hands, he just couldn't leave. Finally he visited his girl friends' sister and told her to tell his girl friend he was returning to camp. He also left £5 with her asking her to give it to the hospital for part of the expenses. Also attached you will find sheet no (3) which is written by Pte Hayes girl friends sister which also indicates he had been wanting to return.

I would also wish to point out to the court that Pte Hayes is very young. He is 19 years of age, and on making out a statutary declaration to that effect. under the circumstances of the troubles Pte Hayes has undergone, and also that he is only 19 years of age I ask that the court realize the difficulty he was in when passing sentence. I might also state he returned to camp himself.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION OF PUNISHMENT AND EVIDENCE AS TO CHARACTER GIVEN BEFORE THE COURT IS CLOSED FOR THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SENTENCE.

Defending Officer states:

I would like the court to consider this man's previous record. You will find that his convictions on A.W.L. charges have been for minor infractions. On top of that, this man is Category B-2, which goes to show that there is definitely somthing ailing him and which possibly tended to bring about his recent offence.

This man was due for an increase of pay, but as this offence occurred just at the time he was due for it, it has been withheld. This increase in pay required six months good conduct, so hi behaviour up to this last offence was fairly good.

I ask the court to consider these different factors. Further as a severe punishment in this case will involve considerable forfieture of pay, and will require considerable time to make good.

I appeal to the court to be as lenient as possible in order that this may be made up quickly, and not give the accused the imppession that he is being persecuted.

Army Form O.1617
R.A.F. Form 1617

PART I.

CERTIFICATE OF SURRENDER TO THE CIVIL POLICE OF A DESERTER OR ABSENTEE WITHOUT LEAVE.

This Form is ONLY applicable where a person surrenders to a Constable as being a Deserter or Absentee.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit*† in the case of soldiers and in the case of airmen the O.C. the station at which the airman last served, notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Where an absentee's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. Regimental Depot in the case of a soldier and in the case of an airman to the O.C. No. 1 R.A.F. Depot, Uxbridge, who will arrange escort. This certificate will be handed to the escort on arrival.

* Stations of Units and Depots are shown in the Monthly Army List.

† NOTE.—Special instructions apply in war for the disposal of absentees and deserters from the Army, who surrender to the civil police; e.g., such personnel will be taken over from the civil authorities by the O.C. the nearest military unit or the O.C. Troops at the nearest military station. (A.C.I. 489/1940).

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement? Ans. NO. CTH.(5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence? Ans. .....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

Statement of Major R.J. Kidston, 7 CP Civil Affairs.

1. At 1450 hrs 4 Dec 44 I saw a soldier on the Rue National, Lille. He was wearing a Canadian Battle Dress without a "Canada" shoulder titles and a Khaki beret without a badge. On his shoulder tabs were the badges of rank of a Captain and he was wearing the Canadian Service Medal with Maple Leaf.

2. I asked the soldier for his identity card. He could not produce it and said that he had left it at his unit around the corner a short walk to get it. He ran down a street and turned a corner I followed him and found him hiding under a car in a garage.

3. I ordered him to remove his blouse, belt and cap badge. I took possession of these articles and escorted the soldier to 242 Provost Coy where I handed him over to D.S.M. Roberts for interrogation.

4. The soldier was identified as No. D-81920 Pte Hayes, C.A.R.

TRANSCRIPT OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF THE TRIAL BY FGCM OF D-81920 PTE HAYES, C A, 5 CDN INF BDE COY, RCASC, HELD 22 DEC 44.

A-7

JA to accused.

You are entitled to have a Defending Officer if you wish. Do you not wish to have a Defending Officer?

Accused

No, sir.

E-3

The accused, D-81920 Pte Hayes, C A, 5 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, RCASC, makes the following statement in mitigation of punishment not under oath.

What I have to say is I was transferred to the Army Service Corps from Ordnance against my wishes. I was sent over to France and to 5 CIB Coy. After having been with the Coy for approximately one month I asked for a transfer which was refused. One night I asked for a pass and received a pass, and I missed the truck by a few minutes and got back to camp an hour and 15 minutes late. For this I was awarded loss of 28 days pay. I was watched for things like that. I know this because one time in Antwerp we were on the liberty truck to go to the show. We couldn't get into the Ensa Theatre but I got in, I knew the manager there, so I came back to the truck and then told three or four fellows around that I was going across the street to eat and would be back before the truck left. I arrived back about 15 second late, to see the truck pulling out. I immediately took the tram and proceeded towards the unit and was in before 12. I was told I was under open arrest and finally got before the OC who fined me 28 days pay For being 1 hour and 45 minutes late. And another fellow who missed the truck that same night I did got nothing. So this happened to me twice when I tried to get back. It didn't seem to work out to try to get back. So this time I didn't try to get back. That is all, sir.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans NO SIR.(5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be cleared to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 92 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

Statement of Major R.J. Kidston, 7 CP Civil Affairs.

1. At 1450 hrs 4 Dec 44 I saw a soldier on the Rue National, Lille. He was wearing a Canadian Battle Dress without " Canada " shoulder titles and a Kaki beret without a badge. On his shoulder tabs were the badbes of rank of a Captain and he was wearing the Canadian Service Medal with Maple Leaf.

2. I asked the soldier for his identity card. He could not produce it and said that he had left it at his unit around the corner and would go to get it. He ran down a street and turned a corner I followed him and found him hiding under a car in a garage.

3. I ordered him to remove his blouse, belt and one boot. I took possesion of these articles and escorted the soldier to 242 provost Coy where I handed him over to R.S.M. Roberts for interrogation.

4. The Soldierx was identified as No. D-81920 Pte Hayes, C.A.R.

JA to accused.

You are entitled to have a Defending Officer if you wish. Do you not wish to have a Defending Officer?

Accused

No, sir.

E-3

The accused, D-81920 Pte Hayes, C A, 5 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, RCASC, makes the following statement in mitigation of punishment not under oath.

What I have to say is I was transferred to the Army Service Corps from Ordnance against my wishes. I was sent over to France and to 5 CIB Coy. After having been with the Coy for approximately one month I asked for a transfer which was refused. One night I asked for a pass and received a pass, and I missed the truck by a few minutes and got back to camp an hour and 15 minutes late. For this I was awarded loss of 28 days pay. I was watched for things like that. I know this because one time in Antwerp we were on the liberty truck to go to the show. We couldn't get into the Ensa theatre but I got in, I knew the manager there, so I came back to the truck and then told three or four fellows around that I was going across the street to eat and would be back before the truck left. I arrived back about 15 second late, to see the truck pulling out. I immediately took the tram and proceeded towards the unit and was in before 12. I was told I was under open arrest and finally got before the OC who fined me 28 days pay. For being 1 hour and 45 minutes late. And another fellow who missed the truck that same night I did got nothing. So this happened to me twice when I tried to get back. It didn't seem to work out to try to get back. So this time I didn't try to get back. That is all, sir.

VOL III FOL 49

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated:

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37(A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See M M L p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 80(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85; calling or re-calling of witness by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 85, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused: The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused: Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans N/O S/E.....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 23(B) fn 5 para 3; MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on EKM charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on .....charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 25(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).) EKM

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused: Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans.....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the.....charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the.....charge(s), and allowed on the..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB: If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused: You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans.....Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans.....Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans.....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the.....charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused: Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans N/O S/E
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 1 and Ex 2 respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 255 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused: Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans N/O S
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 1323, MML p 60, 757-759. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(1)(b), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. As to release from arrest by Confirming Offr see KR Can 567. As to assembly and disposal of record after trial see instrs on back of Convening Order.)

TRANSCRIPT OF EVIDENCE IN THE CASE OF THE TRIAL BY GFCM OF D-81920 PTE HAYES, C.A., 5 CDN INF BDE COY, RCASC, HELD 22 DEC 44.

A-7

JA to accused.

You are entitled to have a Defending Officer if you wish. Do you not wish to have a Defending Officer?

Accused

No, sir.

E-3

The accused, D-81920 Pte Hayes, C.A., 5 Cdn Inf Bde Coy, RCASC, makes the following statement in mitigation of punishment not under oath,

What I have to say is I was transferred to the Army Service Corps from Ordnance against my wishes. I was sent over to France and to 5 CIB Coy. After having been with the Coy for approximately one month I asked for a transfer which was refused. One night I asked for a pass and received a pass, and I missed the truck by a few minutes and got back to camp an hour and 15 minutes late. For this I was awarded loss of 28 days pay. I was watched for things like that. I know this because one time in Antwerp we were on the liberty truck to go to the show. We couldn't get into the Ensa Theatre but I got in., I knew the manager there, so I came back to the truck and then told three or four fellows around that I was going across the street to eat and would be back before the truck left. I arrived back about 15 second late, to see the truck pulling out. I immediately took the tram and proceeded towards the unit and was in before 12. I was told I was under open arrest and finally got before the OC who fined me 28 days pay. For being 1 hour and 45 minutes late. And another fellow who missed the truck that same night I did get nothing. So this happened to me twice when I tried to get back. It didn't seem to work out to try to get back. So this time I didn't try to get back. That is all, sir.

Sir,

At LILLE on 4 DEC 44 at about 1500 hrs I was on duty at Provost Headquarters when the a/n soldier was brought in by MAJOR KIDSTON R.J. (statement attached).

PTE HAYES was carrying his tunic, and it bore the badges of rank of a Captain. He admitted he had been wearing it, in order to change some money (Gulden).

I established the fact that he was an absentee and arrested him. He was conducted to the Town Guard Room, LILLE where he was handed over to the N.C.O. i/c the Guard to be detained.

Handing-over Certificate and Certificate of Arrest attached.

Statement of Major R.J. KIDSTON, 7 Gp Civil Affairs

1. At 1450 hrs 4 Dec 1944 I saw a soldier on the Rue National, Lille. He was wearing a Canadian battle dress without "Canada" shoulder titles and a kaki beret without a badge. On his shoulder tabs were the badges of rank of a Captain and he was wearing the Canadian Service Medal with Maple Leaf.

2. I asked the soldier for his identity card. He could not produce it and said that he had left it at his unit around the corner and would go to get it. He ran down a street and turned a corner. I followed him and found him hiding under a car in a garage.

3. I ordered him to remove his blouse, belt and one boot. I took possession of those articles and escorted the soldier to 242 Provost Coy where I handed him over to R.S.M. Roberts for interrogation.

4. The soldier was identified as No. D81920 Pte Hayes C.A.R.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT IN MITIGATION, CHARACTER EVIDENCE and ADDRESS OF ACCUSED OR HIS DEFENDING OFFICER

XX The accused pleas guilty to the second charge & asks that he surrended himself to Cdr Prov Corps at 2230 hrs 15 Jan 43 at Lowdow. The Pros. signifies that he had the concurrence of the Convening Officer to accept the plea The Court accepted and recorded the Plea accordingly.

1st Witness as to character: P17083. Sgt Cook, W. H. R.C.R. 3rd Bn. Sworn.

I am Provost Sgt. I have known the accused in 1931 in the P.F. He was stationed at St John P.Q. He has been a good soldier a little above the average. I understand he has had trouble at home in 1941 his wife had been neglecting his children.

Accused elects to remain silent.

Accused in his explanation at beginning of 1941 I had received cheque indicating that my wife had a child. I left Canada in 1939. She was sentenced to 1 yr in a Reformatory because the child died. Two children were put in a home. I made application to get home to care for my children. It was refused. I then applied again. I could not settle down as I missed my children. When first apprehended at the time I tried to settle down but I got no news of my children and was away the second time I deserted I got in with bad company.

The Sgt Major said he had nothing to add.

(The following procedure must be actually carried out)

The President produced the Convening Order, Charge Sheet(s) and Summary of Evidence. (RsP 17(E), 22(A)).

The President, in closed court (RP 22, fn 1), reads the Convening Order and the Charge Sheet(s) to the Members, and the Court satisfy themselves that it is properly convened (AA 49; RP 105) and constituted, that the accused is (are) amenable to Military Law, and that each charge discloses an offence. (RP 106).

The accused is (are) brought before the Court, and at 0945 hrs, the trial commences.

The Prosecuting Officer produces a Medical Certificate under KR (Can) 557 (See CMHQ Circular Letter 173) that the accused is (are) fit to undergo trial by Court Martial. The certificate is initialled by the President and attached to the Proceedings.

President to accused:
Do you object to N/A as interpreter? Ans

The interpreter is duly sworn.

Do you object to N/A as Shorthand Writer? Ans

The Shorthand Writer is duly sworn. (Forms of Oath on Page 'D')
The Convening Order is read in the hearing of the accused.
The names of the President and Members of the Court are read to the accused (RP 10)

President to accused
Do you object to be tried by me as President or by any of the Officers whose names you have heard read over? Ans NO

The President, Members, Judge Advocate and Officers under Instruction are duly sworn (RP 26-27 (Forms of Oath on Page 'D'))

The Charge Sheet(s) is (are) initialled by the President.

The Prosecuting Officer informs the Court that the accused has (has not) elected trial by Court Martial (AA 46(8)).

(If special plea/s is/are made for separate trial on one or more charges (RSP 62(E), 108); or as to the jurisdiction of the Court (RP 34); or in bar of trial (RP 36); or as to accused's mental fitness to stand trial (AA 130, RP 57), record such pleas and evidence (if any) on separate sheet/s to be initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings.

Each Charge is read to the accused and he is asked as each charge is read whether he pleads guilty or not guilty (RP 112). He pleads as follows:

(For procedure on alternative charges, see RP 37, fn 2)

Further proceedings are recorded on pages hereto attached.

(For use when there are pleas of 'Guilty' and 'Not Guilty')

(All printed matter not applicable to be struck out an all alterations, erasures and additions to be initialled by the President)

1. RP 35(B) is complied with, in respect to 'Guilty' pleas, by the President ascertaining that the accused understands the nature of the charges(s) (fn 3) and his plea thereto, explaining the difference in procedure by the plea (RP 37(B)) and advising him to withdraw his plea if he thinks the accused ought to plead 'Not Guilty' thereto.

2. President to accused:
Q. Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with and that you have been prejudiced thereby or that you have not had sufficient time for preparing your defence? (RP 39(A)).
Ans NO

3. The Prosecutor's opening address (if any) (RP 39(B) and the evidence for the Prosecution are recorded on separate sheets, initialled by the President and attached hereto. (See RECORD OF EVIDENCE on Page 'D').

4. The Prosecution is closed. (If submission that no prima facie case established, see RP 40 fn 1; RP 70 fn 1).

5. The accused is informed that he may, if he wishes, give evidence, but if he does so, he will be liable to cross-examination. (RP 40, fn 2) or that he may, if he wishes make an unsworn statement upon which he can not be cross-examined. (RP 40(D)(ii)(a)).

6. President to accused:
Q. Do you apply to give evidence yourself as a witness? Ans YES
Q. Do you intend to call any other witnesses in your defence? Ans NO
Q. Is he a witness as to character only? (RP 40(B)) Ans N/A

7. The evidence for the defence (if any) is recorded on separate sheets, initialled by the President and attached hereto.

8. The closing addresses of the Prosecutor, Defending Officer and Judge-Advocate (if any) are recorded on separate sheets, initialled by the President and attached hereto. (For order of addresses, see RsP 40, 41 and 42).

9. The Court is now closed to consider the finding. (RsP 43 and 117). (Record Finding on page 2 of AFA.3).

10. The Court being re-opened, the accused is again brought before it and the findings of 'Not Guilty' (if any) are pronounced. (RP 117(B)).

11. The charges, to which the accused pleaded 'Guilty' are read to the accused.

12. President to accused:
Q. Do you desire to make any statement of the circumstances in reference to the charge(s) to which you have pleaded 'Guilty'? (RP 37(B)) Ans YES

(Statement (if any) not on oath is recorded on separate sheet, initialled by the President and attached hereto. Accused is not subject to cross-examination thereon).

13. Summary of Evidence is read aloud in the presence of the accused, initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings. (If not such Summary, it is necessary for determination of sentence that sufficient evidence be taken and recorded on separate sheet, initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings). RP 37(B).

(cont'd)

14. President to accused:
Q. Do you wish to make any statement in mitigation of punishment? (RP 37(C)) Ans YES
No cross-examination.
(Statement (if any) is recorded on separate sheet, initialled by the President and attached hereto).

15. President to accused:
Q. Do you wish to give evidence yourself or call witnesses as to character? (RP 37(C)) Ans No

16. Statement of Character and Service (AFB.296) and Field Conduct Sheet (AFB.6), signed in the manner required by AA 163 (i) (h) and purporting to refer to the accused by his number (if any), rank, name and Corps, are produced to the Court, read, marked " ", and " ", initialled by the President and attached to the proceedings. Trial of B110388 Pte Douglas Hayes

1 Cdn Inf Div Sub Park RCOC.

1st Charge

Prosecution - The Prosecutor made no opening address.

1st Witness for Prosecution

B 88502 Cpl G.A. Strouth, 1 Cdn Inf Div Sub Park RCOC, duly sworn, states: - On the 13 Oct 43, I was riding at the rear of our convoy. Near Volturara, vehicle number L4215485, driven by Pte Hayes, was stopped. An inspection indicated that it was a workshop job. Pte Hayes was ordered to stay with the vehicle until picked up by a Breakdown Lorry.

Cross Examined - Asked what he said when telling the accused to stay with the vehicle he replied "I told him to stay with the vehicle, Hayes asked about food but I told him to stay with the vehicle".

2nd Witness for prosecution

M 20927 Pte H Johnston, 1 C.I.B. Coy RCASC, duly sworn, states: - I was detailed to pick up a lorry near Volturara on 13 Oct 43. On arriving at this point I found a vehicle unattended. I took the vehicle to RCASC area on suspended tow.

On questioning by the prosecution it was stated that the vehicle number was L4215495, and that the back of the lorry was open showing repair parts to be the load. No personal kit was observed.

Cross Examined - The vehicle number was checked by reference to Orderly Room Records. Witness did not check contents of the vehicle and cannot swear that no personal kit was there approx time of picking up vehicle 1930 hrs.

3rd Witness for Prosecution

M 20517. Pte J B. Barnhart, 1 CIB Coy. RCASC, duly sworn, states: "Along with Pte Johnston, I was detailed to pick up a vehicle near Volturara on 130ct 43." Vehicle number, condition, & disposal as given by Pte Johnston were corobarated. It was also established that the vehicle was an old style Chevrolet & had a broken tie rod. The pot light was on and the serial number was 654

Cross Examined — The vehicle number was recalled by checking Orderly Room Records. Witness would not swear that personal kit was not in vehicle.

Prosecution closed

Evidence for the Defense

Charge I.

8110388. Pte D. Hayes

Accused takes the stand – duly sworn, states: "I was driving in convoy when my vehicle broke down. The Cpl fitter told me to stay and direct traffic as it was a job for the workshop. After waiting for sometime I felt that no one was coming back so went to the village to contact the Military Police. The MP's advised getting a D.R to contact a workshop. I then returned to where the vehicle had been but it was gone."

Cross Examined – Q. Do you know the W.D number of your Veh.
A. No
Q. Did you order you not leave the veh unattended
A. Yes.

Questions by Court – At what time did you leave the veh
– 1930 Hours (approx)
– Returned at approx 1910 hrs
– Breakdown occured at approx 1600 hrs.

JCA.

Charge # 3.

First Witness for Prosecution.

L 7649. Sgt J Bean, 1 Cdn ~~Inf~~ Div. Sub Pool. RCOC, duly sworn, states: On 26 Oct 43 I held an Inspection of Pte Hayes kit, he had very little and was short the items as per the attached list (Exhibit A) The list of the shortages was made on the day of re-issue and agreed to by Pte Hayes who signed the list as made out.

Cross Examined - It was established that the unit was completely equipped when it left England, though, Pte Hayes equipment was not necessarily checked by Sgt Bean.

Prosecution Closed

Charge #3 Evidence for the Accused.

Accused. – B110388. Pte D. Hayes, duly sworn, states: After reiterating the statements about leaving the vehicle unattended, which he made when giving evidence on Charge I, added that the kit was not in the vehicle when he returned to camp on 16 Oct 43. and he reported this fact.

Cross Examined – by Pros. – Q. Did you have all your kit in your lorry prior to moving

A – Yes.

Accused also stated that the canvas was tied down & the "pot light" on when he left the vehicle but no extra precautions were taken.

by Court – Everything was gone on return to camp, including Blankets, except steel Helmet.

It was established that the vhl was returned to unit on 14 Oct 43, still on suspended tow.

Summing up by Prosecutor —

Pte Hayes admitted that he left the veh. unattended

... states his complete equipment, thereby admitting he had a complete kit, was left in a veh on the side of the road. - once again admitting that the loss was by negligence as he took no precautions to safeguard it.

Summing up by Defence Counsel —

In 1st Charge – it has not been proved that the O.R.O. was republished in Unit orders nor that Pte Hayes had been informed of this order. He did leave the veh. to see an M.P. but this was reasonable action under the circumstances, in that he had been waiting sometime to have the veh removed to W/S.

On 3rd Charge — Court has shown that he was deficient these articles at the time of Kit Insp. but evidence does show that the equipment was left in the veh. while Pte Hayes went to see the M.P. regarding having veh. removed to W/S. Pte Hayes tied down the canvas and this was a reasonable precaution for safeguarding the kit, in that he could not be expected to carry his complete kit + equipment with him on this errand.

AA Sec 24. (2) note 6., says that this sec + sub section is not intended to punish a soldier for deficiency in his kit occasioned by accident or mere carelessness but by culpable neglect. which was not proven.

Statement made by Pte Hayes in relation to Charge 2, AA Sec 15(1) on which he has pleaded guilty.

Regarding AWL - when I found the truck had been taken care of there was not much I could do that night so I returned to the village, had something to eat & started drinking. I fully intended to return the next morning but got some more wine and it remained a continual drinking party till I reported to the Orderly Room on the 16th

I was fed up with the conditions as they were at the time & that is why I acted this way.

Statement made by Pte Hayes in instigation of punishment relating to Charge # 2.

I was under the influence of liquor practically all the time I was away whereas if I had been sober
I know I would have returned to camp. I do like that to be taken into consideration.

SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of B-110388 Pte. Hayes, D. of the 1 CANADIAN INFANTRY DIVISION SUB PARK, RCOC of the CANADIAN ARMY, CMF, as taken by Lieut. G.A.Grose on 24 Oct 43.

FIRST WITNESS: C-38478 Cpl. Weller, G.H. 1 Cdn Inf Div Sub Park, RCOC
Having been duly sworn states: On 12 Oct 43 I detailed Pte. Hayes for maintenance and driving of WD No. L-4215495. On 13 Oct 43 at approximately 1130 hrs the Unit moved off in Convoy to a new location with Pte. Hayes driving the vehicle assigned to him. After passing through the town of Volturara, drove about a half a mile, when I came upon one of our vehicles which had broken down. Cpl. Struth and I stopped to inspect the vehicle but finding it a Workshop job, I told Pte. Hayes to stay with the vehicle and direct traffic on the road. I then left the vehicle under the care of the driver and proceeded on my way.

Q. Pte. Hayes do you wish to ask any questions?
A. No Sir.

he accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. 4).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for ... reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans N/C (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p. 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ....., initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a seperate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans .....(1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 93(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order. CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(B).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(2), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1) Ans N/C

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex 2 and Ex 3 respectively.(3)

(1. MFB 355 or AFB 2960. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans N/C (2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566, Overseas RO 309, 1323, MML p 60, 737-759. CASE OF A10388 PTE HAYES D

MITIGATION PLEA

The accused had asked for leave prior to the absence charged and had been told by the paymaster that he could not on account of the state of his paybook. He could not even get an hour to go up town, although the unit was not busy at the time. Not having had any leave since March 1943 he became fed up and it was this that caused him to go AWL.

He stayed in the neighborhood of Verona where the unit was stationed, and a week later went to give himself up but found that the unit had moved. Eventually he went to see the Town Major with regard to surrendering, and the latter advised him to go to Venice and surrender himself, which he did.

The accused enlisted in 1942, and landed in Sicily in July 1943 with the 1st Division. He served in Italy until moved to Belgium in March 1945, and has served here since then. He is married and has 2 children, and I would point out that his family will suffer from any punishment he receives.

In conclusion, I would point out that he has already been in custody 40 days awaiting trial.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(D), and of witnesses see RP 83-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 86, 116; see of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. NO .....(5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. ~~The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.~~
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex. A, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. .....(1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 93(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ?
Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ?
Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

Case of B110388 Pte Hayes D. Ex 27

Mitigation Plea

The accused had asked for leave prior to the absence charged and had been told by the paymaster that he could not on account of the state of his pay-book. He could not even get an hour to go up town, although the unit was not busy at the time. Not having had any leave since March 1943 he became fed up and it was this that caused him to go A.W.L.

He stayed in the neighborhood of Ypres where the unit was stationed and a week later went to give himself up but found that the unit had moved. Eventually he went to see the town major with regard to surrendering, and the latter advised him to go to Mechin and surrender himself, which he did.

The accused enlisted in 1942, and landed in Sicily in July 1943 with the 1st Division. He served in Italy until moved to Belgium in March 1945, and has served here since then. He is married and has 2 children, and I would point out that his family will suffer from any punishment he receives.

In conclusion, I would point out that he has already been in custody 10 days awaiting trial.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court etc see RP 75-79, 86, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pros to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans ..... (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 3, para 3. MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex ..... , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (F).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans SEE ATTACHED ANSWER - NO (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (~~no~~) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the 1st & 2nd charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the 1st & 2nd charge(s), and ~~not allowed on the charges~~, and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, ~~but thereupon is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter(s) respectively~~.(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans Giving evidence myself. Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans Yes. Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans NO.
(1. RP 155. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the 1st charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
~~Or. The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated.~~ Part I of your Pay Book (Army Book 64) is signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans Yes.
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (~~extract~~) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(d) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex A and Ex B respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 558. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes. through my Defending Officer.(2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the J.A. if any.(2)
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 7(D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its gravamen, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. As to sentences see AA 44, 138, 182, RP 46-50, 69, 118, 119(A), KR Can 308, 330, 563-566. Overseas RO 309, 2323, MML p 60, 737-739. As to sentences assigned for civil offences by the law of England see AA 41(5), MML p 130. When accused already under sentence of imprisonment or detention see AA 44(18), 68(1), KR Can 564. 2. RP 50. Statement by the Defence

D1 Sir the following points are set forth for consideration by the court as having not been followed out. Namely Nos. 4C, 4D, 4E, 14A, 14E, 15A, 15B, and 15C. These have not been complied with. In the first place the summary of evidence is taken in the presence of all 7 NCOs.

The same evidence was retaken in the following day in the presence of each man. Evidently however, their rights were not properly explained to them. Sections 4C, D and E were not read and on the third day the original sworn statement of Capt Kyle was completely changed from this original form. This individual statement was read over to the accused men and they were told that they could not object to them. In the case of one man Cpl Ransom, he asked for a copy of the original and this was refused. All the above is in contravention of R.P. 4C, D and E.

No charge sheets were produced nor were the men informed of the charges on which they were definitely tried. Before approximately 1600 hours the 30 May 1944, which does not give the men the required 24 hours notice. The men were not informed as to their rights of calling witnesses. This is in contravention to the Rules of Procedure. The charge sheets produced by all the men with exception of Sgt Hayes sheets of two specimen sheets which I have here for the six men. They do not contain any number, rank or name and are not signed by the C.O. as required. No attempt was made to explain this charge sheet. This is in direct contravention of 15B. At 2300 hours on the 30 of May the men had not been informed as to whom the presiding officer would be. This had been asked for. As defending officer I personnally went to the Unit [illegible] and was informed that only the name of the presiding officer was known. The accused men claim that no list of witnesses were produced, nor were they satisfied that they had proper information on their rights. In desperation they sent for the padre. Monday 29 May at approximately 900 hours I was asked if I would undertake the defense. This I decided to do and I was shown a copy of the charge sheet, and a summary of evidence.
At approximately 1200 hours on the 30 of May I was informed by telephone that a change has been made in the second charge but that it was not known just what the change would be. On arriving at the 2 Cdn Road Construction Coy at 1500 hours on the 30th I saw the new charge sheet. I was not in possession of a summary of evidence or charge sheet nor were the men. I submit that the accused have been unfairly treated in regards to the Rules of Procedure. The summary of evidence on which the court martial is convened is definitely wrong and we are willing to prove it in an open court. The sworn statement from him and the second one which is now in the summary before the court is entirely misleading, and this statement except in the case of Sgt Hayes contains all evidence bearing to support this charge. I suggest that the court take into consideration all these things so that a proper investigation can be made of the whole situation. Despite the above statement we are satisfied to go on with the case today.

D2 Opening Address by the Prosecutor

It is the intention of the prosecution to bring all possible evidence to light both for and against the accused. Seven N.C.O.s are being charged separately with being absent from the same parade. The court will have to decide not only whether these men were AWL but why. By why I mean whether it was a deliberate breach of discipline. Possibly with or without provocation. In the second charge the court is concerned in the fact that these men while AWL did start a street fight in the presence of civilians thereby throwing the Canadian Army into disrepute, and a serious condition was only averted by the timely intervention of the civilian police. As stated the prosecution will endeavour to bring all possible evidence to light.

D3 1st Witness for the Prosecution

The witness duly sworn states: Sir, I am B-29053 Sgt Major Herron W.A.M. of 2 Cdn Rd Construction Coy. I was Sgt Major in charge of parade 0730 hours 20 May 1944. On checking M.T. section Sgt Hayes whom I recognise was absent from parade. He was still absent at 1700 hours which was at the end of the day.

Questions by the Prosecutor

(Q)1 On calling parade do you remember whether Sgt Hayes was the only man absent from role call.
(A)1 On the completion of role call on checking there were other men absent.

(Q)2 Will you tell the court whether any of these other men that you say were absent whether they were N.C.O.s?
Objection by defence.
Court grants objection.

Cross-Examination by Defence

(Q)1 When men break off at 1700 hours are they through for the day.
(A)1 All duties cease at 1700 hours but men are still available for duties.

(Q)2 Is there a tatoo role call at night.
(A)2 No sir.

No questions by the prosecutor.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83(B).

Second witness for the Prosecution

The witness duly sworn states: Sir I am Capt G.L. Kyle of 2 Canadian Road Construction Company.

(Q)1 Capt Kyle will you please tell the court from your own words exactly what evidence you may have in this case.
(A)1 On Saturday 20th of May I received certain information and instructions from the O.C. 2 Canadian Road Construction Company. In consequence of which I proceeded to Kingston and Hammersmith. At approximately 2130 hours I noticed some N.C.O.s of the 2 Canadian Road Construction Company on Fulham Palace Road Hammersmith in discussion with civil police. I recognized Sgt Hayes, Sgt Morissette, Cpl Evans, Cpl Ransom, Cpl Bakemeyer, L/Cpl Noland and L/Cpl Pratt. I ordered them to get into the truck. They were obviously under the influence of liquor and a fight broke out which involved a number of civilians and other military personnel.
The police van came up and assisted getting the N.C.O.s into my vehicle with the exception of Sgt Hayes whom they took in custody to their Van. I drove around with the N.C.O.s until I picked up Sgt Hayes at the Hammersmith Police Station. The D.A.P.M. London released him in my care. I returned with the N.C.O.s to Coy H.Q. at approximately 0230 hours 21 May. That is all.

Cross Examination by defence

(Q)1 Capt Kyle is it true that you made two definite sworn statements to the summary of evidence which are different and that the first one was taken out and the second inserted.
The prosecution objects to this question.
Court overule the objection.
(A)1 On the original summary of evidence I gave my evidence in such a manner that it covered each case collectively. When it became known that each accused was to be tried individually, I was asked to change my evidence accordingly.

(Q)2 Capt Kyle you state that at 2130 hours you noticed some the units N.C.O.s in front of the public house and in discussion with the civilian police. Then you state that you recognized a few of the men.

(Q)2 Cont. Is it not true that a few minutes previous to that you had these same men in your protection in your vehicle.

(A)2 No, it is not true. I stopped the truck and in a few minutes all the N.C.O.s were there.

Defence to the court

Sir this witness is definitely hostile and this is not fair to the accused.

Prosecution to the Court

Sir may I ask that Capt Kyle give an exact statement of everything that happened and the facts.

Defence to the Court

Sir, this thing is bigger than it looks. These men are definitely being railroaded and if this witness can stand there and say they did this when they did another thing, it is unfair to the men.

Cross Examination by the Defence continues

(Q)3 Capt Kyle the first two men that met you were in front of the Angel Pub and who were they.

(A)3 Sgt Hayes and I don't know. In two or three or three minutes they were all there.

(Q)4 What happened from the time that you saw these men in front of the Angel Pub.

(A)4 They were in discussion with the civil police so I got out of the truck and asked the police what the trouble was. There was already some civilian spectators standing in the street and the situation was causing trouble and the police suggested to me that I get the N.C.O.s away from there and to their unit so I went over to the truck as some of the N.C.O.s had gathered around. They all got in the truck I think that they were all there I could not swear definitely but I think that they were all there. We moved down the street about 200 yards where everybody got out the truck, at the side street of another pub. They all felt very high obviously under the influence of liquor. If I had not stopped the vehicle they would have gotten out in any case because an H.U.P. has two side doors and a back door. In a few minutes there was a fight going on, I was informed by a civilian. I went up round a corner to see what the trouble was and I asked somebody to tell me. I ordered the men into the truck while doing so the fighting carried on. More civilians became involved. Some military personnel and the police van came up. The inspector asked me if I was trying to get my men and I said yes. So he said we will help you, and the crowd was larger. It was about 2150 hours. We moved the truck farther up the street with some of the N.C.O.s already in. I stopped again. Civilians came up and the police said it looks as if all this was getting out of control. They said: "You had better take what you can and we will take what is left and you can pick them up later" and I said alright. So I drove off with the N.C.O.s I had and later called at Hammersmith Palace Station and picked up Sgt Hayes. This is all it is, more detailed.

(Q)5 Why did you go to London with a different idea of procuring these men. Did you put them under arrest.

(A)5 No they were not under arrest.

(Q)6 Why did you stop at the bar.
(A)6 Because if I did not stop they would have piled out in any case.

(Q)7 May I accept that fact that you were responsible for those men after they were in the truck.

(A)7 No they had been drinking.

(Q)8 You admit that there was a definite attempt made to cover your actions at the expense of these men.
(A)8 I most certainly do not admit that fact.

(Q)9 Where are the other men that are involved in that statement.
(A)9 I consider military personnel as being involved.

(Q)10 You admit that other men were there and yet only 7 men are present on charge for a courts martial charge.
The prosecution objects: Sir, is it any concern of the witness how many men there were.
Court states that the defence is allowed to ask any question.
(A)10 When we stopped at the second pub I realized that it was 2140 hrs and that in about 20 minutes the pubs would be closed. Their frame of mind was such that my concern was to get them home the easiest way. I walked into the pub and was in the pub for a period I should say about 4 or 5 minutes.

(Q)11 Where were you when the fight started.
(A)11 I was standing by the truck on the side of the pub.

(Q)12 Did you attempt to arrest the men.
(A)12 Certainly, I went around to the front of the pub quite a number of civilians had become involved and I did give orders that they were to get into the truck.

(Q)13 Do you consider a Canadian soldier is entitled to defend himself against a civilian who strikes him.
(A)13 Certainly.

(Q)14 Do you consider that in so doing he is fighting in a public place, because he struck back or is a man not entitled to defend himself.
(A)14 Well certainly, but that is for somebody else to decide.

Cross Examination by Prosecution

(Q)1 Capt Kyle why did you go up to Hammersmith.
(A)1 I was primarily concerned in the welfare of the N.C.O.s of the 2 Cdn Rd Constr Coy. I went up there to keep them out of trouble that I might be able to do and return them to their unit with a minimum of exposure to an unfortunate incident.

(Q)2 In your opinion you feel quite certain that you used the easiest possible way to get these men back to their unit.
(A)2 I used my methods to get people out of trouble.

(Q)3 The men the defence referred to, that have not been included in this court martial have they been dealt with to your knowledge.
(A)3 Yes.

The prosecution rest

Questions by the Court

(Q)1 Where were you when you were given information by C.O. in relation to this incident.
(A)1 At Liphook.

(Q)2 Where were the billets of the accused at the time.
(A)2 Liphook.

(Q)3 Did you actually see Sgt Hayes strike anybody else.
(A)3 I could not actually state that I saw Sgt Hayes strike anybody but there was a general mix up pushing and pulling and arguing and a general scrum.

(Q)4 Then it was not actually a fist fight.
(A)4 On the part of anyone I could not say.

(Q)5 You answered twice that the men were under the influence of liquor could definitely say that Sgt Hayes was under the influence of liquor.
(A)5 Obviously when they were engaged in a street brawl.

Questions by the J.A.

(Q)1 You told the court a moment ago that you could not say positively that Sgt Hayes was actually mixed up in this disturbance.
(A)1 No sir.

(Q)2 You could not state positively as to what part Sgt Hayes played in it.
(A)2 No sir because there were more than 300 people.

(Q)3 The difficulty is that Sgt Hayes is charged with creating disturbance in a public place and as I understand it that you could not actually say that Sgt Hayes had been fighting.
(A)3 Well I could not say because there were so many and I could not say just what he did to any civilian.

(Q)4 Did you see Sgt Hayes strike anyone.
(A)4 No, you see some of the N.C.O.s were getting in and out of the truck and they thought that somebody was trying to boot somebody back. I don't know whether Sgt Hayes was trying to look after the civilians or after the N.C.O.s.

(Q)5 Then in fairness of Sgt Hayes he may have been trying to protect.
(A)5 Yes sir.

(Q)6 The reason that I am asking these questions is because the summary of evidence which I have here before me says that a fight broke out and it involved Sgt Hayes.
(A)6 The statement is changed in the summary of evidence because the court martial was to be handled individually and I had to give it for each particular case. The statement was general in the first case. Then I had to say for each case because each case was handled individually. They were equally responsible.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B)

Third witness for the Prosecution

The witness duly sworn in states: Sir I am Frank Wood, Police Inspector, Metropolitan Police (F) Division, Hammersmith Station.

(Q)1 Will you please tell the court in your own words exactly the evidence you may have in this case.
(A)1 At 9.50 P.M on the 20 of May 1944 I with other police officers went to the Greyhound Public House Fulham Palace Road Hammersmith and standing in Greyhound Road when I arrived was a Canadian Army truck and around the truck and in the roadway was approximately ten or a dozen Canadian soldiers. They were fighting and struggling and I saw an officer whom I know now to be Capt Kyle standing by the truck. I spoke to him and he said he was trying to get the men away and I then offered to assist him myself and my police officers did in fact get the soldiers back into the truck. All this time there was a crowd of people between 400 and 500. They were hostile to the soldiers but when the truck drove off we dispersed the crowd as far as we could. The truck drove off about 50 yards into Fulham Palace Road and stopped. The soldiers struggled out again and recommenced the fight. I went there with my men and could then see that they were completely out of control with the crowd against them. Three of them were arrested, one Sgt Hayes was not arrested. They were taken to Hammersmith Police Station where they were detained until picked up by the Canadian Army authorities. Had I not intervened at the time I did the situation from a public point of view would have been very grave. The soldiers collectively had been drinking heavily and in my opinion were drunk.

Prosecution rest

Cross-examination by the Defence

(Q)1 Did you see Sgt Hayes strike anybody.
(A)1 No sir.

(Q)2 He wrestled on the ground.
(A)2 No sir.

(Q)3 He could have been rescuing somebody.
(A)3 Yes sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

Fourth witness for the Prosecution

The witness duly sworn in states: Sir I am Frederick Ford police constable 596 (F) Division Metropolitan Police Force.

(Q)1 Will you tell the court in your own words the evidence you possess.
(A)1 At 9.30 P.M. on the 20 of May 44 in response to a telephone message I proceeded to Fulham Palace Road in company with other officers in the police van. On my arival I saw an army truck standing in Greyhound Road and a number of Canadian soldiers were fighting and struggling around. One section were struggling and endeavouring to get about a dozen men, who were obviously under the influence of liquor, into the truck. I and the other officers assisted them to get them into the truck, which we managed to do. The truck drove away along Fulham Palace Road about 50 yards down the road. It stopped and a number of men came out again and commenced to fight and struggle. I saw Sgt Hayes lying on the footway struggling with another soldier. I went to his assistance and endeavoured to get Sgt Hayes into the truck. This I was unable to do. With the assistance of another officer I took him into custody. He was taken to Hammersmith Police Station in the police van. That is my evidence.

(Q)2 Constable Ford do you recognize the accused Sgt Hayes.
(A)2 The witness points to the accused.

Cross-examination by the defence

(Q)1 Constable Ford did you see Sgt Hayes strike anybody.
(A)1 It was a wrestling match. The other sergeant had blood on his face but I could not say he hit anybody.

Questions by the Court

(Q)1 Constable will you say that Sgt Hayes was under the influence of liquor.
(A)1 Yes sir.

(Q)2 You said you went to the assistance of Sgt Hayes.
(A)2 I went to the assistance of the other sergeant.

(Q)3 How many men were taken into the police van.
(A)3 There were 4.

(Q)4 Can you recall any words that may have been exchanged by the soldiers to include a reason of the struggle.
(A)4 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B)

D4 The defence officer submits

In the second charge particularly there is no evidence to show that Sgt Hayes was fighting, that is, taking a swing at somebody. There is no evidence to show that he was not trying to uphold his rank as Sgt,and the fact is, that he was not drunk.
The statement made by the Sgt Major is that a normal day ends at 1700 hours. I would ask that the court adjourn on those two points.

Court closes to consider the submission

Court reopens

The submission presented by the defence is disallowed on both charges.

D6 The accused duly sworn takes the stand.

(Q)1 On about 2130 hours on 20 May 44 you were in front of the Angel Pub Fulham Road Hammersmith. You were talking to Capt Kyle who entered the bar and at his suggestion you went to another pub.
(A)1 Yes sir.

(Q)2 Some time during approximately 2145 hours or 2150 hours there was a fight started. Were you in that fight. Were you in that disturbance.
(A)2 No sir.

(Q)3 Were you in the original disturbance.
(A)3 No sir.

(Q)4 Were you in the bar or in the street where this disturbance started at the time.
(A)4 No sir.

(Q)5 It has been said that you were wrestling on the ground. Were you struck first.
(A)5 Yes sir.

(Q)6 After you were struck what did you do.
(A)6 I put my arms around him and threw him to the ground and was holding him on the ground when the police came.

(Q)7 Did Capt Kyle give you a direct order stating that you were under arrest or give you a direct order to get into the vehicle.
(A)7 No sir.

Cross-examination by the Prosecutor

(Q)1 Sgt Hayes had you much to drink on the 20th of May.

Objection by defence
Objection overruled

(A)1 I would not say I had an awful lot to drink.

(Q)2 What time did the pub open that you were at.
(A)2 Do you mean in the evening sir.

(Q)3 How long were you in it.
(A)3 Since 5 o'clock.

(Q)4 It was about 9.30 when Capt Kyle arrived on the scene was it not.
(A)4 No sir, it was approximately 9 o'clock.

(Q)5 That is approximately 4 hours. In that 4 hours were you in the pub all that time.
(A)5 No sir.

(Q)6 These 4 hours you did have an opportunity to indulge in quite a few drinks.
(A)6 Yes sir.

(Q)7 Then shall we say at 9 o'clock you had quite a few drinks.

Objection by defence
Objection overruled

(A)7 Normally no sir.

(Q)8 What were you drinking.
(A)8 Bitters.

(Q)9 Were you present on the job at Liphook at 1800 hours.
(A)9 No sir.

(Q)10 You admit then Sgt Hayes, that you were not there at role call. Would you care to tell me where you were.
(A)10 In bed.

(Q)11 Where
(A)11 In Hammersmith.

(Q)12 Were there any other members of 2 Cdn Rd Constr Coy.

Objection by defence
Objection granted

(Q)13 Were you in possession of a pass when you were at Hammersmith.
(A)13 No sir.

(Q)14 You admit then that you were AWL when you were in Hammersmith. Could tell the court about what time the police put you in custody.
(A)14 About 10 o'clock sir.

(Q)15 The vehicle in which Capt Kyle came in do you recall seeing it at the same time as you saw Capt Kyle or did you see the vehicle before you saw Capt Kyle, or did you see both the vehicle and Capt Kyle at the same time.
(A)15 Yes sir, at the same time.

(Q)16 In the street fighting that went on, or shall we say disturbance that was created yourself in your own opinion do you honestly think that

Objection by defence
Objection granted

(Q)17 You claim that you were not there when the disturbance started, would you mind telling the court where you might have been.
(A)17 Yes sir, I was in another bar talking to two girls.

(Q)18 When you did finally go after talking to the girls was this disturbance still going on.
(A)18 To a certain extent.

(Q)19 To what extent.

Objection by defence
Objection granted

(Q)20 Sgt Hayes you say that when you did go out of the pub the disturbance was going to a certain extent would mind telling the court then what your reaction was to it.
(A)20 When I came out of the pub I walked over to the vehicle and they were putting some of the soldiers into the vehicle and I was going to assist them but one of them took a poke at me and I put him down.

(Q)21 Was that when the police came along.
(A)21 Yes sir.

(Q)22 Why did you go AWL.
(A)22 Well sir, I have been a confirmed Sgt for some time. I always looked after myself got treated well. No crime for four years and I tried to do my best. I was sent to a job and an officer under whom I was under got riding me and treated my like a child, more or less. So I got fed up and went for a drink.

Questions by the Court

(Q)1 Were you alone when you came out of the pub.
(A)1 Yes sir.

(Q)2 Were you ordered by police to get into the truck.
(A)2 Yes sir.

(Q)3 Did you refuse.
(A)3 No sir.

(Q)4 Were you ordered by the police to get into the truck by the first pub or the second.
(A)4 At the second pub where I was lying holding the man.

(Q)5 It took place between the time that you arrived there with Capt Kyle and the time that you moved away. At least the time that you were arrested.
(A)5 Right sir.

(Q)6 Do you know of anything that happened at the first pub.
(A)6 Yes sir. We were sitting in the first pub drinking and there was a disturbance and we were the only Canadians there and the lady would not give us any more drinks. The police came along and asked what the trouble was. I said no trouble at all. So he said he explained to me that the woman was on her own and was scared of anything happening in her pub because she could not handle it. She would not serve us any more drinks and told us to go home.

(Q)7 What happened then.
(A)7 Just then Capt Kyle drove up in a H.U.P. at approximately 9 o'clock.

(Q)8 What happened then.
(A)8 Capt Kyle told us to go to another pub and we would talk things over.

(Q)9 As you drove down that road what happened.
(A)9 We went down Fulham Palace Road.

(Q)10 What happened from the time you left the Angel until you got in the truck.
(A)10 Nothing.

(Q)11 Was there a disturbance inside the truck just after you left the Angel.
(A)11 No sir.

(Q)12 The truck was stopped.
(A)12 Yes sir.

(Q)13 But nobody started jumping before it stopped.
(A)13 No sir.

Questions by J.A.

(Q)1 We understand the evidence of the police inspector to be that at the time an H.U.P. stopped at the Greyhound the people were fighting before they got out. What do you have to say about that.
(A)1 No sir.

(Q)2 When it stopped at the Greyhound everybody stopped and there was no trouble at all. Then you say when you personally got out the Greyhound you saw people struggling around a truck. What about this fact that has just been read that everybody got into the H.U.P. at the Greyhound. When somebody hit you in the face that was in front of the Greyhound.
(A)2 Yes sir.

(Q)3 Then would say that you were not in the H.U.P. after it left the Greyhound.
(A)3 No sir, I was in the H.U.P. after it left the Angel.

(Q)4 After the Greyhound in which you were with girls before 9.50 you were attracted to a disturbance outside and you went.
(A)4 Yes sir.

(Q)5 The H.U.P. drove around for about 50 yards stopped again and then the struggle started.
(A)5 Yes sir.

(Q)6 Where were you holding this man on the ground exactly in front of the pub.
(A)6 Yes sir.

(Q)7 You did go from the Angel to the Greyhound.
(A)7 Yes sir.

(Q)8 Evidence of the Police Inspector what do you say to that. You just told me Sgt Hayes that you were fighting in front of the pub.
(A)8 The accused states that the Greyhound Public House is situated at the intersection of Greyhound Road and Fulham Palace Road and that the pub has entrances from both sides and that when the H.U.P. drove up from the Angel pub it parked on Greyhound Road.

Questions by Prosecutor

(Q)1 Sgt Hayes you stated that you did not appear on parade on the morning of 20 May and you state it was due to the condition you were under at Liphook.
(A)1 Yes sir.

(Q)2 You say that your record has been good in the army and I understand that it is only since you have been at Liphook that you are not satisfied with conditions.
(A)2 Right sir.

(Q)3 Is it the officer under whom you are serving. Is it the first time you have been serving under him.
(A)3 Yes sir.

(Q)4 How long does it take approximately to drive from the Angel to the Greyhound.
(A)4 2 minutes.

(Q)5 Did Capt Kyle say anything to you about being under arrest.
(A)5 No sir.

(Q)6 Did Capt Kyle suggest that you were under arrest or did he not make any mention about it.
(A)6 No sir.

(Q)7 Was any conversation held in the truck between anybody and yourself.
(A)7 No sir.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B)

Second witness for Defence

Witness duly sworn states, Sir I am B-29047 Spr Pennell, M.J. of 2 Cdn Rd Constr Coy, RCE.

Defence points out that at the time of the alledged disturbance Spr Pennell was a Cpl and that his reversion had no relation to the case.

(Q)1 Spr Pennell on the 20 of May you went with Capt Kyle to Fulham Palace Road you made two or three stops and eventually wound up at the Angel. Then Cpl Pratt, Bakemeyer and Sgt Hayes came along. Did any of these men get into the vehicle.
(A)1 Yes sir.

(Q)2 And you drove into Greyhound.
(A)2 Yes sir.

(Q)3 Where did you park your car at the Greyhound.
(A)3 At the side of the street of Greyhound Road.

(Q)4 In your own words what happened then.
(A)4 We went into the Greyhound I had a couple of drinks and then trouble arose in another part of the bar.

(Q)5 Did you move the truck from Greyhound Road.
(A)5 I was not there when the truck was moved.

(Q)6 But it was moved from Greyhound Road. Did Capt Kyle at any time order you to place any of these men under arrest. Did you hear him order the men at any time into the vehicle.
(A)6 No sir.

(Q)7 Was there any attempt from the time you left the Angel in which you came into the Greyhound.
(A)7 Not that I recall.

(Q)8 When you came out of the Greyhound the vehicle was on Fulham Palace Road.
(A)8 Yes sir.

(Q)9 Was there a disturbance around the vehicle.
(A)9 Yes sir.

(Q)10 What did you do.
(A)10 I went down to the vehicle where the disturbance was and tried to get it quietened down a little. Shortly after that there was quite a doing. The civilian police got there. I don't know how they got there but they were trying to get everyone into the vehicle but some were getting in and some were getting out.

(Q)11 What eventually happened to you.
(A)11 Well Sgt Hayes was trying to get inside the vehicle and a fight started and Sgt Hayes defended himself and the police interfered and then I tried to get back the Sgt from the van and I landed in the police station.

(Q)12 After you left the police station did you have any talks with the police.
(A)12 No sir.

(Q)13 There was no method of getting transport to your unit.
(A)13 No sir.

Cross-examination by Prosecution

(Q)1 When you saw Sgt Hayes trying to get some of the men into the vehicle and somebody hit him, was it a civilian or a soldier.
(A)1 A soldier sir.

Questions by the Court

(Q)1 When you asked the police for Sgt Hayes how did you go about it. Did you ask them or what.
(A)1 The police were more or less standing around and I spoke to them about transfering Sgt Hayes to our vehicle. But the police would not have any part of it and said I could not have him. I don't know exactly what happened.

(Q)2 You went to the police and you asked for the release of Sgt Hayes and the police said you could not have him. Then what happened.
(A)2 Things were moving fast.

(Q)3 As far as you can make out there is no reason why you got shoved in.
(A)3 No sir.

(Q)4 When you were travelling with Capt Kyle to Hammersmith did you have any idea what you were going down for.
(A)4 A fairly good reason.

(Q)5 What happened then.
(A)5 I don't know. There were some police men there. There was no fighting then.

(Q)6 Did you hear Capt Kyle say anything at that moment.
(A)6 Yes he said to me something about everyone getting in the truck and we went down to the Greyhound.

(Q)7 While you were in the truck after leaving the Angel was there any suggestion made to stop at the Greyhound.
(A)7 Yes some of the fellows that were in said to stop at the Greyhound.

(Q)8 What were Capt Kyle's reactions then.
(A)8 Not very good.

(Q)9 Do you remember words to the fact that Capt Kyle would have suggested that the soldiers would move to the Greyhound to discuss the matter.
(A)9 There seems to be something like that but I am not quite sure.

(Q)10 You are not very sure.
(A)10 No sir.

(Q)11 When the lorry left the Angel did it appear that it was going to drive straight home.
(A)11 No it did not appear that way before the vehicle pulled away.

In the opinion of the court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B)

Capt Kyle is recalled as witness by the defence with the consent of the court.

The witness duly sworn states: Sir I am Capt Kyle G.L. of 2 Cdn Rd Constr Coy, RCE.

Prosecutor

The defence Capt Kyle have a few more questions to ask.

Questions by the Defence

(Q)1 Capt Kyle in the original statement this morning you said that you saw
(A)1 (Interrupted by Capt Kyle) In a matter of a few minutes I recognized all these N.C.O.s.

(Q)2 You said that you ordered them into the truck and while doing so a fight broke out amongst them.
(A)2 The statement is not in detail.

(Q)3 Then they were twice put into the truck.
(A)3 I pulled the truck down the side of the street and that is where the fight broke out.

Questions by the Court

(Q)1 You say that you went first to the Angel got into the H.U.P and some got into trouble and then you drove along Fulham Palace Road and parked the H.U.P and the troops went into the pub.
(A)1 They are both along Fulham Palace Road.

(Q)2 They came out of the Greyhound and went into Fulham Palace.
(A)2 No, the idea is that they did not get into the H.U.P at the Angel they did not get there with any idea of going home and I knew that it was only about 20 minutes to ten and it would be easy.

(Q)3 The lads new that they were not going straight home.
(A)3 For one thing I did not put them under arrest or anything else. Some of them were talking with the police and others were in discussion so I got out and already a few had started gathering around and farther down the street we went to the Greyhound. I was trying to make the situation as easy as possible for all concerned. I went up there to help the boys, not as a provost.

In the opinion of the Court and the J.A. it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (3).

Defence makes a Statement

D6 It looks that the more witnesses you call the more foolish it looks. The only evidence you may have that Sgt Hayes was AWL is Sgt Major Herron's statement, that he was not able to locate Sgt Hayes. The other evidence has nothing to do with this. At 1700 hours a man is automatically off duty. There is no mention that there was a 5 o'clock or a tatoo role call. Actually it is one man's statement that he checked the M.T. lines himself against another man's statement that he was in bed. There is no evidence on the second charge. The prosecution had to prove that this man was fighting definitely, definitely started a fight and was indulging in a fight. The police said that they did not see Sgt Hayes strike a blow. They both said that it was quite likely that he was trying to protect himself. Therefore there is no evidence at all that he was fighting. It is not always easy for a sergeant to control his men. However if these men once they were placed in the vehicle, the first time in front of the Angel by Capt Kyle, if the right thing had been done they would have never stopped in front of the Greyhound pub. The normal procedure is, after a man is off AWL he is warned. I do not think this man has anything to do with this second charge. On the former plea I ask that both of these charges be thrown out. Once they were loaded into that vehicle it was out of their hands. That is all.

The Prosecution Replies

Sir, the evidence that has been submitted both for and against the accused has established the fact that the accused absented himself from 0730 hours 20 May until he was apprehended by the police. This is established by evidence of C.S.M. Herron and the accused himself. The defence states that the accused could not have been AWL after 1700 hours, if he was AWL at all. But, when a man goes AWL he is shown AWL on the role call regardless of whether he has actually either returned to his unit or is apprehended. This N.C.O. was engaged on a priority war job at a time when the invasion of the continent was for all practical purposes imminent. This again on the part of the N.C.O. becomes a much more serious offence. True this N.C.O. had been working long and steady hours previously to this and possibly was in need of a rest himself. The way he went about procuring this rest constitutes a serious breach of military discipline not to mention the reaction it must have had in the lowering of morale amongst the remainder of the Coy. The action by Capt Kyle in attempting to find this N.C.O. and return him to his unit with the minimum of trouble to anyone concerned is in my opinion admirable. He has administered to this N.C.O.s needs and wants for a long time and he knows this N.C.O. very well.

Objection by defence
Objection overruled

He went to Hammersmith consciously believing that if he found him he could bring him back. The second charge is mainly concerned with the fact that by the action of this man the Canadian army was being thrown into disrepute while the general disturbance so created can only be credited to the general attitude of both the civilian and public and this man Sgt Hayes.

Statement by J.A.

In summarising the evidence and the law I wish to make it clear that the facts are to be discerned by the court entirely. The members of the Court in dealing with charges that come before them are entitled to use all their military knowledge, i.e., as officers of experience in general you know how the army operates, and you are entitled to use that knowledge. I also point that the onus of proving charges is with the prosecution at all times. These charges, the first charge is under AA Sec 15 (1) AWL Evidence of the Sgt Major is that the accused did not answer his name on role call at 0750 hours 20 May 44. He says the accused was not present at 1700 hours on the same day and that the accused was in London around about 2145 hours on the same day. What the prosecuting officer said with regard to records is true. A man who is AWL at 1700 hours does not cease to be an AWL at that time simply because the normal routine of the day is over, and is absent until such time as he returns or is apprehended. However, I would remind the court that this is one of the instances in which the court can bring in a special finding. That is, if a court in deliberation concludes that the absence either started at the time stated on the charge or at a later time, and that the absence terminated at such time or at an earlier time. I think that the facts with regard to the first charge are reasonably clear and there should be no difficulty with that charge.
On the second charge the court must be satisfied that whatever was done by the accused must be to the prejudice of good order and military discipline. In deciding, the court is entitled to use its military knowledge. I would personally have no hesitation in feeling that a brawl of Canadian soldiers in the presence of English civilians was prejudice to good order and military discipline. The question is whether the accused was taking part in the fighting under these circumstances. The evidence is confusing and that is a matter for the court to decide. The witnesses I think, have been most fair. There seems to be no question that the accused, Sgt Hayes, was in physical contact with other soldiers whose identity is not known, and Sgt Hayes says that there was a skirmish about the vehicle and other soldiers who were members of the party and that he undertook to assist in getting these soldiers into the vehicle so as to prevent any further disturbance. Capt Kyle says that he cannot say that he did see Sgt Hayes strike anybody. Spr Pennell says that Sgt Hayes was definitely not fighting. If the court accepts this story then it would appear that the accused should be acquitted. The onus is upon the prosecution to prove that Sgt Hayes created a disturbance by fighting in the presence of civilians. I must point out to you that if there is any reasonable doubt that doubt must go in favor of the accused. Reasonable doubt is one not engendered by whim but must be the doubt which reasonable men would have in the conduct of their own affairs. The President, Prosecuting & Defending Officers advise the J.A. that there are no other points which they desire him to deal with.

E1 Witness as to Character

Witness duly sworn states: Sir, I am R.29063 CSM Herron of 2 Cdn Rd Constr Coy.

(Q)1 Sgt Major Herron I would like you to give the court your knowledge of the character of Sgt Hayes.

(A)1 I have known Sgt Hayes since he came over with us in June 1940 and he has been with this Coy ever since. His character has been excellent. He has been our MT Sgt for the last 15 months.

In the opinion of the court and the JA it is not considered necessary to comply with R.P. 83 (B).

83 Address by Defence

Sir, in mitigation for this charge against Sgt Hayes, his character is given by Major Clarke as excellent and he has done a remarkable job as an NCO, and while convicted the evidence has not been too strong and I think that he definitely had a very case. After a man who has reached the rank of full Sgt, confirmed, and held that rank for some months he does not just go off for no reason at all. I do not agree with his method of trying to draw attention to this condition. I think that had a little more care been taken in the handling of his men by the officer whom he was working under, this matter would not have arisen. I would ask that the court take these things into consideration when deciding what punishment is thought necessary.

Summary of Evidence in the case of B-29454 Sgt. Hayes, David Edward, on strength of No 2 Can. Road Construction Coy. R.C.E., a soldier of the Canadian Army Overseas.

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the summary of evidence is taken on Oath.

First witness for the prosecution

B-29053 C.S.M. Herron; William Alvin Michael of No. 2 Can. Road Construction Coy. having been duly sworn states:

I am B-29053 C.S.M. Herron, W.A.M. of No 2 Can. Road Const. Coy R.C.E. I was C.S.M. in charge of the morning parade for No 2 Can. Road Const. Coy. detachment on the 20th of May 1947. On calling the parade at 0730 hours I saw that the M.T. Section was without a senior N.C.O. I checked the M.T. Sec. and found that Sgt. Hayes, the accused, whom I recognize here, was absent. Sgt. Hayes should have been on duty from 0730 hours until 1700 hours as M.T. Section Sergeant. he did not appear on the job during these hours.

C.S.M. Herron C.S.M.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness

2nd witness

for the prosecution

Capt. G L Kyle of No 2 Can Road Const Coy having been duly sworn states:

I am Capt. G L Kyle of No 2 Road Construction Coy. On Sat 20th of May 1944 I received certain information & instructions from the O C No 2 Canadian Road Const. Coy. In consequence of which at about 1430 hours I proceeded to Kingston & Hammersmith. At approximately 2130 hours I noticed some of the unit N.C.Os on Fulham Palace road in front of a Public House in discussion with civilian police. I recognized, Sgt Hayes, Sgt Morissette, Cpl. Pickemeyer, Cpl Evans Cpl Lamrom, L/Cpl Roland and L/Cpl Pratt. Sgt Hayes was obviously under the influence of drink. I ordered them to get into the truck. While doing so a fight broke out amongst all these N.C.Os. which involved Sgt Hayes, It attracted a large crowd, civilians and other military personnel became involved. A police van came up and they assisted in getting all the N.C.Os into my vehicle except Sgt Hayes whom they took in custody in their van. I drove around until I went to the Hammersmith police station to pick up Sgt. Hayes at about 2400 hours. the R.A.M.P. London released him in my care. I returned with the N.C.Os to coy HQ at about 0230 hours

Statement: At 9.50pm, 20th, May, 1944, in response to a telephone message, I went, with other officers, to the Greyhound Public House, Fulham Palace Road, W.6.

On arrival I saw a Canadian Army truck standing in Greyhound Road. There were about a dozen Canadian soldiers struggling and fighting round it. A large crowd of people had congregated in the vicinity. I saw a Canadian Army Captain with the truck and he said he was trying to get some of the men into the truck. This we assisted him to do and the truck drove away into Fulham Palace Road for about 50 yards. It then stopped and the soldiers struggled out of the van and again commenced to fight and struggle. By this time they were completely out of control and the Officer admitted he could nothing with them. We were forced to arrest the three most violent and to take them into custody, to stop what may have developed into an ugly situation in view of the hostility of the crowd against the Canadian soldiers. The three soldiers were:- Sapper Arthur Nodwell, No B.89023, Sergt David Hayes. B. 20464 and Sapper Raymond Stack. No B. 89061, all of No 2 Road Construction Co. R.C.E., were taken to Hammersmith Police Station where they were detained for a Canadian Military Escort.

All the soldiers had been drinking heavily and were drunk. The remainder of the Canadian soldiers were taken away by the truck in question after the above three had been arrested.

INSTRUCTIONS ON PROCEDURE AFTER ARRAIGNMENT.

1. The accused may not plead or be found Guilty on more than one of two or more charges laid in the alternative. (RP 37(A).) As to withdrawal of alternative charges by Prosecutor see RP 35(C). No other charge can be withdrawn for any reason without authy from Convening Offr. If Convening Offr concurs, Court may accept plea of Guilty to lesser, etc, offence. (RP 44(H).) Accused may change a plea of Not Guilty to Guilty during trial. (RP 38.) As to refusing to plead or not pleading intelligibly see RP 35(A). As to plea when sentence may be death see RP 35(D).

2. The proceedings on each charge sheet (RP 62) after arraignment will be conducted as follows in the respective circumstances stated :

I. If pleas to all charges are GUILTY, use Record Form B below.

II. If pleas to all charges are NOT GUILTY, use Record Form D on p 3.

III. If pleas to some charges are GUILTY and to other charges are NOT GUILTY and,

(a) Such mixed pleas occur when there are no alternative charges in the Charge Sheet, use Record Form C below. (RP 37(A).)

(b) Such mixed pleas occur in a set of two or more charges laid in the alternative, see RP 37 (A) and fn 2 as to discretion of Court, (i) to try the accused on all such alternative charges as if he had pleaded Not Guilty thereto, or, (ii) to record the pleas as the findings of Court. After deciding between (i) and (ii), Court will proceed under foregoing instrs as may be appropriate to result of its decision. See MML p 744 Instrs (2).

3. As to responsibility of President to accused see RP 59, 60(C); powers and duties of JA see RP 103; duty of Prosecutor see RP 60(A) (B); duty and privileges of accused and Defending Offr see RP 60(C), 87(C), 91, 92; swearing and withdrawal of witnesses from Court see RP 81, 82; questioning of accused see RP 80, 87(C), 92(B), and of witnesses see RP 85-85; calling or re-calling of witnesses by Court, etc, see RP 75-79, 85, 116; use of Summary of Evidence at Trial see RP 17(E) fn 6; and responsibility of JA or Pres to record proceedings see RP 94, 96.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s)(1), and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s), to call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)

(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans. no (5)

(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.

(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (are) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)

(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B, initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)

(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)

(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)

(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans. ..... (1)

(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)

(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)

(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)

(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges, use second alternative in para D8.)

NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans. ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans. ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans. .....

(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)

(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF 495. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Make the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 103(e).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.

(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)

Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)

(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)

Ans. no

(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(1) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex. F1 and Ex. C respectively.(3)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans. yes through defending Offr (2)

(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(C) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)

(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)

(1. *When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). One sentence only, comprised of the punishment or punishments laid down in AA 41, 44 and its proviso, is to be awarded to cover all charges in all charge sheets on which accused found guilty. RP 48. Statement in Mitigation of ~~Punishment~~ Sentence

in the case of

F 67681 Pte Hayes F.A. 22 cdn Fd Amb Reserve.

The Court is respectfully requested to consider the following points when deciding the ~~punishment~~ sentence to be awarded to the accused, Pte Hayes, F.A.

1. Age. The accused is a man of forty-three years, well past his prime. While his health is good, yet it is reasonable to assume that he cannot stand rigorous punishment as well as a man half his age, the age of the majority of first class soldiers.

2. Marital Status. During the past eighteen months, the accused has had a great deal of distress in his family. His wife, whose health has never been good, has been hospitalized and although she is now at her home yet she is far from well. Their eldest daughter, which before the commission of his offence, died from diphtheria. His youngest daughter was at this time also in hospital with diphtheria. Hardships which may be the lot of the family of the accused are brought to the attention of the Court.

3. Length of Service. This man enlisted on the 2 Sept 39, before date of war was actually declared. He embarked for England in July 1941. He has been with the 22 cdn Fd Amb throughout. During his service in Canada he was absent without leave on two occasions and on both occasions he applied for leave and returned to his former station and was found at his home. At the completion of offering ~~himself~~ himself for service overseas, he was charged on the strength of his willingness to serve. From July 1941 when he arrived in England until now 44, he was charged only one day. He is not apparently a chronic absentee.

4. Time under arrest. The accused has been under close arrest since 26 Nov 44, a total of forty-three days. The Court is requested to consider this period when awarding sentence.

5. Finally, may it be brought to the attention of the Court that the accused voluntarily surrendered to the civil police, and did not wish to be apprehended. He is a soldier of five years service, has represented the Dominion of his offence and has served a good part of it overseas; and is quite prepared to serve his sentence without the Court would accept.

In view of the above facts, it is requested that the Court should dismissing the writ as prayed.

PART I.

CERTIFICATE OF SURRENDER TO THE CIVIL POLICE OF A DESERTER OR ABSENTEE WITHOUT LEAVE.

This Form is ONLY applicable where a person surrenders to a Constable as being a Deserter or Absentee.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Soldier's Unit,* stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military custody. Where a soldier's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. Depot, who will arrange escort. This certificate will be handed to the escort on arrival.

RECORD FORM B—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

B1. The President or JA, if any, complies with RP 35(B) by explaining to the accused the nature and meaning of the charge(s).(1) and that on his plea of Guilty there will be no regular trial but merely a consideration of the sentence to be awarded after he has been given an opportunity to make a statement in reference to the charge(s) and call witnesses as to character and make an address in mitigation of punishment.(2)
(1. RP 35 fn 3. 2. MML p 54 para 47.)

B2. President to accused : The Court will now receive any statement you desire to make in reference to the charge(s).(1) If it appears from your statement that there are circumstances which indicate that you do not understand the effect of the plea of Guilty(2), or which show provocation or extenuation in respect of which in your interest the witnesses for the Prosecution should be examined(3), we shall advise you to change your plea to Not Guilty. In making a statement you will not be sworn or subject to cross-examination ; and anything you say will not be used in evidence against you after you change your plea. If, however, it appears to the Court that your statement affects only the amount of punishment to which you are liable, you will not be advised to change your plea and you will be given an opportunity later to prove your statement by sworn testimony, if you so desire.(4)

President to accused : Do you wish to make a statement ? Ans No (5)
(1. RP 37(B). 2. RP 37(D) fn 6. 3. RP 35(B) fn 5 para 3, MML p 54 para 47. 4. See para E3 of Record Form E. 5. Statement, if any, recorded per Notes.)

B3. The Court considers the accused's statement.(1) The Court decides (not) to advise accused to change his (their) plea(s) of Guilty to Not Guilty on ..... charge(s). The accused is (are) so informed, and he (they) change(s) his (their) plea(s) on ..... charge(s). Part I of the Schedule is amended accordingly.
(1. Court may be closed to consider the statement. Delete whole or part not used.)

B4. On the charge(s) to which the plea(s) of Guilty is (~~are~~) not changed the President records finding(s) of Guilty in Part I of the Schedule.(1)
(1. RP 35(B). If any plea(s) is (are) changed, use Record Form C or D as appropriate.)

B5. The Summary of Evidence is marked Ex B , initialled and read aloud by the President.(1)
(1. If there is no Summary, or if it is inadequate, comply with RP 37(B). If there is any evidence inconsistent with any plea standing as Guilty, Court will advise accused to change such plea and, if changed to Not Guilty, try such charge(s) by use of paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3. RP 37(D).)

B6. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

RECORD FORM C—PROCEEDINGS ON MIXED PLEAS OF GUILTY AND NOT GUILTY.

C1. As to the charges on which accused pleaded NOT GUILTY the trial is continued by using paras D1 to D8 inclusive of Record Form D on p 3 before proceeding with C 2.(1)
(1. RP 37(A) (E).)

C2. The charges on which accused pleaded GUILTY are read to him (them) again, and the trial is continued by using paras B1 to B5 of Record Form B above.(1)
(1. Under B5 such parts only of the Summary of Evidence are read as relate to the charges dealt with under C2. If any plea is changed to Not Guilty, trial thereon proceeds by complying with paras D1 to D8 inclusive in Record Form D on p 3 and making an appropriate record thereof on a separate sheet.)

C3. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E on p 3.

PRESIDENT OR JA WILL INITIAL ALL DELETIONS AND ALTERATIONS.

RECORD FORM D—PROCEEDINGS ON PLEAS OF NOT GUILTY TO ALL CHARGES.

D1. President to accused : Do you wish to apply for an adjournment on the ground that any of the rules relating to procedure before trial have not been complied with, and that you have been prejudiced thereby, or on the ground that you have not had sufficient opportunity to prepare your defence ? Ans ..... (1)
(1. If "yes", see RP 39(A) for procedure. Statement or evidence, if any, is recorded per Notes.)

D2. The Prosecutor makes (an) (no) opening address.(1)
(1. RP 39(B), 60(A) (B), 90, 92(C) (D). Record address per Notes, subject to RP 95(C).)

D3. The evidence for the Prosecution is taken.(1)
(1. RP 39(C), 114, KR Can 555. Record evidence per Notes. As to Prosecutor giving evidence himself see RP 39(D) (E).)

D4. The Prosecution is closed.(1) The Defending Offr submits that the evidence for the Prosecution does not establish a prima facie case against the accused on the ..... charge(s).(2) The Court is closed, and considers the submission.(3) The Court is re-opened, and the President announces that the submission is disallowed on the ..... charge(s), and allowed on the ..... charge(s), and that, accordingly, the trial will proceed on the former, but the accused is (are) found Not Guilty on the latter charge(s).(4)
(1. Delete remainder of this para, if submission not made. 2. Arguments on submission, answer and reply are recorded per Notes. 3. RP 40 fn 1. See MML p 72 paras 12-14 and p 81 para 42. 4. Delete part not used. If accused acquitted on all charges use second alternative in para D8.)
NB : If trial proceeds, accused must be allowed great latitude in making his defence, and the Court should not stop his defence solely on ground of irrelevance. (RP 60(C), 114, 115.)

D5. President to accused : You will now proceed with your defence.(1) You may, if you wish, give evidence yourself on oath as to the facts or your character or both, in which case you will be subject to cross-examination.(2) You may, however, make a statement without being sworn, and you will not be subject to cross-examination.(3) But a statement which could have been made on oath will not carry with the Court the same weight as sworn testimony.(4) You may call witnesses in your defence and as to character, whether you give evidence or make a statement or do neither.

President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself as a witness, make a statement, or do neither ? Ans ..... Do you intend to call witnesses on your behalf ? Ans ..... Are they witnesses as to character only ? Ans .....
(1. RP 115. 2. RP 40(A), see 80(D). 3. RP 40 fn 10. 4. RP 40 fns 2, 9.)

D6. Consequent on the answers recorded in para D5 the appropriate procedure for the defence is followed.(1)
(1. RP 114, 115, 116. For procedure see Notes on back of Convening Order, CF A95. Evidence for accused as to his character should, if in his interest, be given before the finding. See RP 46(A) fn 1, 86(C). Note the further opportunity in para E1 of Record Form E. Record per Notes addresses, statement, evidence and any summing up by the JA under RP 42, 102(E).)

D7. The Court is closed to consider the finding(s).(1) The finding(s) of the Court is (are) recorded in Part I of the Schedule.(2) The Court is re-opened.
(1. RP 43, 117(A). See Notes in Part I of Schedule. 2. RP 44(A).)

D8. The President announces the finding(s), if any, of Not Guilty, and states to the accused that the finding(s) of the Court on the ..... charge(s), being subject to confirmation, will be promulgated later.(1)
Or, The President announces that the accused is found Not Guilty on all charges and is to be released forthwith, and that the proceedings are accordingly terminated. Part I of the Schedule is dated and signed.(2)
(1. AA 54(3) (6), RP 45, 120(A). 2. AA 54(3), RP 45, 117. This alternative announcement is not applicable when there are pleas of Guilty outstanding and dealt with under Record Form B or C.)

D9. The accused having been found Guilty on one or more of the charges, the proceedings are concluded by using Record Form E below.

RECORD FORM E—PROCEEDINGS ON CONVICTION BEFORE SENTENCE.

E1. President to accused : Do you wish to give evidence yourself or to call any witnesses as to your character ?(1)
Ans No
(1. If evidence has already been given by accused or his witnesses as to his character, delete this para. RP 37(C) fn 4, 46 fn 1. Accused and witnesses are sworn. Evidence recorded per Notes.)

E2. The Prosecutor produces Statement(s) as to Character and Particulars of Service(1), and certified true copy (copies) of Conduct Sheet(s)(2), purporting to refer to the accused, which he submits to the Defending Offr for examination, and then to the Court for admission in evidence. The Court is satisfied that these documents refer to the accused, because (i) they purport to be signed in the manner required by AA 163(l) (g) (h), and (ii) they purport to refer to (a) soldier(s) having the same number, rank, name and corps as the accused. Admitted in evidence and marked Ex A and Ex C respectively.(3)
(1. MFB 355 or AFB 296. 2. MFM 6. 3. RP 46, KR Can 55B. If above documents not produced, see RP 46 fn 1 para 1.)

E3. President to accused : Do you wish to address the Court on the Statement(s) and Conduct Sheet(s), and in mitigation of punishment ?(1) Ans Yes through my defending officer. (2)
(1. RP 37(C), 46(D). 2. Address, if any, recorded per Notes. Court should permit accused or his witnesses to prove on oath anything here or previously stated which would affect the amount of punishment. RP 37(F) fn 7.)

E4. The President states that the Court is closed to consider the sentence, and that the sentence to be awarded by the Court, being subject to confirmation, will not be announced, but will be promulgated later, and the proceedings in open court are accordingly terminated.(1)
(1. AA 54(6), RP 120(A).)

E5. The Court considers the sentence.(1) The President records the sentence in Part I of the Schedule, which is dated and signed by him and the JA, if any.(2)
(*1. When several accused tried separately see RP 71 (D). SUMMARY OF EVIDENCE in the case of

67651 Pte Hayes, F.A. HQ Coy 22 Fd Amb RCAMC, CAO

Charged with absenting himself without leave. AA Sec 15 (1).

By direction of the Commanding Officer, the evidence is taken on oath.

First Witness Lt J.L. Heallip, 22 Cdn Fd Amb, sworn, states:-

I can identify the accused as F 67651 Pte Hayes F.A.

I have read the documents presented to me, namely:-

(a) Voucher re-cost of apprehension.

(b) Declaration by the Court of Inquiry held at the 22 Fd Amb on 15 Apr 44.

(c) Army form O 1617 showing F 67651 Pte Hayes, F.A. as surrendering to civil authorities at 1215 hrs 30 Nov 44.

I identify the accused as the person referred to in these documents.

(JL Hearty) Lieut.

The accused declines to cross-examine this witness.

Voucher re-cost of apprehension, produced as documentary evidence was read over to the accused, marked ex A, signed by me attached hereto.

(E.A. Willis) Major

The declaration of Court of Inquiry held at the 22 Cdn Fd Amb on 15 Apr 44 produced as documentary evidence, was read over to the accused, marked Ex B, signed by me and attached hereto.

(E.A. Willis) Major

The Army Form O 1617, produced as documentary evidence, was read over to the accused, marked Ex C, signed by me and attached hereto.

(E.A. Willis) Major

The accused was cautioned as follows:-

Do you wish to make any statement or to give evidence on oath? You are not obliged to say anything or give evidence unless you wish to do so, but whatever you say or any evidence yo give will be taken down in writing and may be given in evidence,

I would like to make a statement.

On oath, or not on oath?

On oath.

The accused, sworn states:-

I am F 67561 Pte Hayes F.A. of 22 Cdn Fd Amb, I applied for compassionate leave to Canada, on the grounds that my wife and two children were in hospital. My oldest girl of 18 passed away. I waited at least four months before I got any reply and then the Colonel told me that he had an answer to my leave. He said it wasn't granted because my wife and daughter were better That has been playing on my mind ever since.

(F.A. Hayes)

The accused does not call any witnesses;

I certify that the foregoing summary of evidence, consisting of two pages, was taken down by me in the presence of the accused and that RP 4 (c) (d) (e) (f) and (g) have been complied with.

PART I.

CERTIFICATE OF SURRENDER TO THE CIVIL POLICE OF A DESERTER OR ABSENTEE WITHOUT LEAVE.

This Form is ONLY applicable where a person surrenders to a Constable as being a Deserter or Absentee.

Instructions for the Guidance of the Police.

When a person surrenders himself to a constable as being a deserter or absentee without leave, the officer of police in charge of the police station to which he is brought shall forthwith inquire into the case, and if it appears to him from the confession of that person that he is a deserter or absentee without leave he may cause him to be delivered into military or Air Force custody without bringing him before a court of summary jurisdiction.

In such a case a telegram should be despatched to the Officer Commanding the Man's Unit,* notifying that he has surrendered, and stating the number, rank, name and unit of the man, and that officer will at once arrange to send an escort for the man to be taken into military or Air Force custody. Where an absentee's unit is stationed overseas (outside Great Britain, Northern Ireland District and the Channel Islands) the telegram will be despatched to the O.C. Regimental Depôt in the case of a soldier and in the case of an airman to the O.C. No. 1 R.A.F. Depôt, Uxbridge, who will arrange escort. This certificate will be handed to the escort on arrival.

* Stations of Units and Depôts are shown in the Monthly Army Lists.
