The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Izaak Walton Killam Memorial Library
Dalhousie University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Izaak Walton Killam Memorial Library
Dalhousie University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

For many years past Grand Lodge has been endeavoring to collect together the many ancient and venerable Masonic documents known to be in the Province in the possession of brethren of the Craft and others, for the purpose of ensuring the safe keeping of the same. Much time and labor have been devoted to the subject, and the following report, made to Grand Lodge in 1884, gives the final result of the committee appointed for that purpose :

To the M. W. Grand Master of Nova Scotia :

MOST WORSHIPFUL SIR AND BROTHER,—It will be remembered that our late lamented Grand Master, A. H. Crowe, spent much time and trouble in collecting a vast number of documents connected with the history and working of our Craft in Nova Scotia, and those other colonies which have from time to time been under the jurisdiction of the Provincial or District Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia, under English authority.

In M. W. Brother Crowe's report, dated June 5th. 1878 (when placing these documents in the office of the Grand Secretary), he says : "The labor of compiling and numbering these various documents being too great, the Committee have only been able to carefully fold and place them in such order that easy reference can be made thereto." In 1879 this Grand Lodge appointed, as a Committee to arrange the numerous documents collected by R. W. Bro. Crowe :

—R. W. Bro. Rev. D. C. Moore, R. W. Bro. Lewis Johnstone, and R. W. Bro. Rev. R. Wainwright.

In April, 1880, a box containing 3 cubic feet of closely-packed papers was sent by the Grand Secretary to the residence of Bro. Moore, who gradually, by devoting one evening a week, made himself somewhat acquainted with the nature of the work to be done, and the committee were able to report that the documents ranged from 1784 to 23rd June, 1869,—that is, from the first authority to open lodges down to the day of the union of 1869.

Owing to adverse circumstances—notably the explosion at Albion mines which deprived the chairman of much of his leisure—nothing worth speaking of was done during the next year. R. W. Bro. Wainwright having left the Province, W. Bro. John Green—a member of the same lodge as the chairman—was appointed to fill his place on the committee.

At the Annual Grand Communication, 1882, the committee reported their work half done, and were continued.

From October, 1882, to July, 1883, the chairman was in Europe ; but on his return, Bro. Green and he set to work harder than ever, and now have the pleasure of reporting that their work is done. (R. W. Bro. Johnstone, the third member of the committee, is on his voyage to England.)

Your committee have great satisfaction in presenting the lists, in which will be found the nature and date of each document; and if the delay has been greater than could have been wished, your committee could only have completed their work by means of such delay; and they trust that the result of their labors may be satisfactory to the M. W. Grand Master and Grand Lodge, and useful to the fraternity.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

DAVID C. MOORE,

Chairman.

NOTE BY THE CHAIRMAN.—To W. Bro. John R. Green falls the lion's share of the work, for not only did he attend every meeting since his appointment on the Committee, but all the MSS. were prepared by him; and but for him the work must have been still further delayed.

D. C. M.

Amongst the very many venerable articles enumerated in the catalogue is a Bible of great historic interest, which was loaned to the Grand Lodge and used on the occasion of the dedication of Freemasons' Hall, at Halifax, on June 6, 1877, and which was afterwards presented to Grand Lodge by Rev. Dr. Robertson, of Middleton, and is now the property of the Grand Lodge. The following letter from Rev. Mr. Robertson accompanying the Bible:

Some years ago a large folio Bible came into my possession, of which an old gentleman of the name of Lee, living near Fredericton, New Brunswick, gave me the following account:—

It is matter of history that the late Rt. Revd. Dr. Charles Inglis, Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia, and the first Colonial Bishop in the British Dominions, was Rector of Trinity Church in the City of New York during the Revolutionary struggle, which terminated in the independence of the United States of America. On one occasion the more violent of the revolutionists determined to show their zeal for the cause which they had espoused by threatening vengeance even to the death against the Rector and his congregation, as being the most prominent representatives of British interests in the community. With this dire intention they sent a notice to Dr. Inglis to the effect that if he prayed for the King and the Royal family in the course of the usual service of the church on the following Sunday, a party of resolute men would then be in the gallery ready to fire and to shoot him dead on the instant. Most men would quail under such a threat, and be anxious to adopt every possible precaution to thwart so vile a project. Not so the courageous and devoted Rector of Trinity. He went through the service with his accustomed placidity, praying for King George and the Royal family with more than his usual fervency, and doubtlessly expecting that every passing moment should be his ment ; and if the delay has to adopt every possible

last. But no catastrophe occurred. The impressive service of the Episcopal Church was not once interrupted. The would-be assassins were so overawed by the solemnity of the scene and the resolute and fearless manner of the Rector that their hands were paralyzed ; and their deadly resolution completely dissipated. They sat quietly in their seats during the whole service.

The spirited conduct of Dr. Inglis on this trying occasion immediately became the theme of much commendation and praise, as indicating a deep-rooted and heartfelt attachment to the Royal cause. The fame of his courage and patriotism reached the ears of King George III, who was unusually impressed with this singular instance of fearless devotion to his interests, and desired to ascertain in what manner he could most appropriately make known to the Rector of Trinity the Royal approbation of his conduct. After some consideration His Majesty ultimately resolved to transmit to Dr. Inglis a magnificent Bible and Prayer Book, folio size, and splendidly bound, with the Royal monogram on the covers, as a small token of recognition of fearless devotion to the Royal cause under very trying circumstances. In due time the Books were received in New York, and very probably were used on the reading-desk of Trinity Church.

After the war was over, and the terms of peace finally arranged, the Rector of Trinity and his family still animated by the same loyal principle which they had cherished throughout the contest, emigrated to Nova Scotia, and settled in Aylesford, Kings Co. The Royal gift, the Bible and Prayer Book, formed part of their moveables, and found fitting employment in giving appropriate expression to the devotions of the family. But they were not destined to remain permanently in their new abode.

The Bishop's son-in-law, the Rev. Mr. Pidgeon, became in due time Rector of Fredericton, N. B. and to his keeping the Books were carefully consigned for the special benefit of his own charge, then in the wilderness. There he left them and there they remained until the old church was taken down to make room for the new cathedral. Of course the new edifice must be furnished with new books of a modern pattern. The volumes with the royal monogram, now grown faded and somewhat battered from long and honourable usage were thrown on one side and found a last resting place in the vestry of the new building. It was there that I saw them, and their very appearance suggested the idea that a more useful purpose than occupying a corner of a vestry might be found for them. So I ventured to ask the proper authorities that those substantial volumes might be rendered very useful in my extensive parish, where such books are necessarily scarce. My proposition was accepted, and the Royal gift to the late Dr. Charles Inglis was duly delivered into my possession. The Prayer Book is now on the Committee table of Trinity Church, Wilmot, and the Bible is in the new Church at Farmington, Wilmot, six miles from Clermont, where it first landed in Nova Scotia.
