The Decay of our Export Trude and popular Remedy. To the intelligence of the commercial t the truth is obvious, that Quebec and Mon rate the importance of Reciprocity in trade with the United States; but, while it is admitted that it can only be hoped for by an appeal to the liberality of the Americans, there is a mystery of the Americane, rity in its future effects upon our exper-rity in its future effects upon our expertrade—in truth, it may be questioned whether Reciprocity would not divert the Export Trade d and Quebec, and turn it toward the Allantic cities. Analogy of reasoning in-structs us that if produce under the 20 per cent-duty abandons its ancient channel of the St. Lawce, and passes to New York and Boston abolition of the 20 per cent. duty, which Reciprocity contemplates, must confine the trade to those newly formed channels. Few persons con-tend that mere Reciprocity will swell our Export its obvious purpose is to relex the restric merican Markets. CANADIAN AFFAIRS. (FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

The Brit more of the Art. Price, on which to go a rice of Resolutions by Mr. Price, on which to go found an Address to her Majesty on the subject of the Clergy Res wes. A foughty on the subject of the Clergy Res wes. A fought debate was expected, but expectation was dissippointed by the post ponement of the Resolutions for a week. Mr. Price's plate is to address the Queen, praying her Majesty to recommend to the Imperial Parliament to pass an Act preciding that the annuities no payable to the several denominations, shall terminate either with the death of the recipients, or at the experiation of a serie of years, learning the Provincial Parliament to appropriate as it m y see fit all revenues derived from the present enterstemens, as well as the future proceeds of the lands. When the question of Printing in extra number of Resolutions came up. Mr. Papiness expressed himself decidedly favorable to such a settlement of the question, as a majerity of the people of Upper Canada himself or years desired. Lafo tais was num. From what I have witnessed of the present tender of the party the thirty of the people of the party the thirty of the people of the party the thirty of the proper of the party the seined of the present their object. The truth is, that of all others, this is the most difficult question to deal with. It cannot be moved without sirring up the reigi as elem nt; and of all things in this world that I have seen, the exhibitions of farincies to bigging the party of may hateful. The spirit of maskish marryrid m displayed, and all the writched twaddle that is poured forth on the su ject, are uttend disgusting to every really liberal wind. While the question is irracted in this style, what good sesult can you expect if the partition of the party of the partition of the world of the process of the partition of the partition at the wind. directly prohibitory form. The motion was all policies of Music, and opposed by Sir C. Wood and Colonel. Thompson. On a division, the Resolution was affirmed by a majority of 93 to 68. Lord John Russell then moved for leave to bring in a Bill to regulate the mode of administering the Oath of Adjurntion to persons professing the Jewish Religion. Mr. Newdegate and Mr. Plumptre having declared their intention of hereafter opposing the measure, leave was given to introduce the Bill. In the coarse of the evening, Mr. Gladstone took the opportunity of declaring his conviction of the unconstitutional character of the Commission to enquire into the state of the Universities by Lord J. Russell. Str. E. N. Buxton's Anti-Stave Trade motion comes on to-night, when a division will, in all probability, be taken, so that the West India Mail may carry out the result to the planters. In 1848, a motion, in substance similar to the present proposition, and introduced by Sir J. Packington, was, after a protracted discussion of many nights' duration, rejected by the narrow majority of 15. There is no reason to suppose that, on the present occasion, the Minister all have but a slender majority in favor of Slavery will be increased. It is anticipated that Ministers will have but a slender majority in favor of the Irish Franchise Bill in the House of Peers—not more than also When in Committee, it is assumed on all sides that Lord Stanley will be able to raise the proposed qualification, or in any other way after the practical clauses of the Bill; as no use of proximation that for the many think that, in the present state of affairs, a change of Government herif would now be no longer inopportune, as there does not remain much probability of any widening the breach between the British and French Cabinets; and many think that, in the present state of affairs, a change of Government herif would be the means of restoring perfect confidence. I cannot say that I am altogether satisfied with the line of policy chalked out by the Opposition—t

For my part, I wish the whole question at the days.

Mr. Hineks stated, that at ong representations had been made to the Government on the subject; and the question being one of urgency, the usual mittee was dispensed with, and the Bill will be passed through Committee of the Whole to-day. My disease is a Hypecondris, which has become chronic. I feel an oppression and obstruction in the articulations of the Epitsyntis up to the shoulders, where the contracting of the articulations is more especially felt. Since I drank of the Phantagenet Mineral Waters, it seems to me as though any shoulders had been cleared of fifty Allograms. Before I make use of your Mineral Wuters. I never expectorated, now I expectorate a large quantity of slimy matters. I think that, for those who are troubled with vitiated humours, there is no better catharite than the Plantageate Waters, because they operate without debiinting or irritating the digrelite organs. These advantages are never found with Pharmaceutick medicines, as experience as taught me; for after many false digrelious, caused by a diet too sedentery, I have tred and need percognitive of the Pharmacopocia—which have been the source of my severe illines.
