The heavy rains Friday and Sunday nights put a set back to seeding in this section. The ground on many farms was just getting into a workable condition. There is little seeding done as yet, but if fine weather prevails a large amount will be done next week. The wheat and meadows have seldom come through a winter looking so well.

The Easter services in Watford churches were attended by large congregations. The Spring clean up is now well under way. Where everybody takes a hand the work goes forward in good style. One unkempt property or street often gives a black eye to the whole surroundings, to say nothing about the Board of Health requirements. Set a good example by raking up the rubbish and getting rid of it at an early date. Clean up and do it now, and while you are at it, don't forget to make your front yard and premises more attractive with flower beds and shrubs. Let all unite to make Watford the most beautiful village in Ontario.

METHODIST CHOR GIVES EASTER CANTATA

The Methodist church was completely filled with an eager audience on Easter Monday evening to hear the rendition of the beautiful cantata "From Cross to Crown" by the large choir assisted by some other singers and by well-known soloists, and addresses were also given by Rev. H. V. Workman and the pastor, Rev. H. K. Hager.

The chorus was of good volume, well balanced and tuneful and was skillfully directed by Mr. Rumford. The soloists were in excellent mood and the several numbers were rendered with commendable ability. Mrs. W. L. Millar was unable to be present on account of the illness of her husband, so the solo "He Arose" was admirably rendered by Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner.

The recital was of a capable and compelling nature and appealed to the audience immensely and provided evidence of the result of hard work and enthusiasm of the performers.

UNVEILING OF MEMORIAL TABLET AT HIGH SCHOOL

The unveiling of the High School Memorial Tablet on Wednesday afternoon, April 12th, was a ceremony which will never be forgotten by those present. The meeting opened with the singing of the National Anthem. In the unavoidable absence of Dr. Siddall, Chairman of the Board of Education, Mr. McKecher kindly took the chair, and read the remarks which D. Siddall had intended to make in person. Mr. J. E. Armstrong delivered a fine address, in which he recalled the achievement of the Canadian troops and urged the young people present to guard the laws and ideals for which our boys gave their lives. Five students, Misses Kinnell, Fowler and Cooke, Frank Roberts and Jack Kinell, accompanied by Miss Helen Hamilton, sang "Land of Hope and Glory" (Elgar) and did credit to themselves and the school. Mr. Conn I.P.S. for West Lambton and a former teacher in the Watford High School, was present and made a short but effective speech, in which he pointed out that the aim of all education is character building, and that the record of Watford boys in the war showed them to have possessed such character. In a short account of the work of the Memorial Committee the secretary, Miss McCaw, explained how the bell and tablet had been secured through the co-operation of students, ex-students, the Board of Education and Mr. Armstrong, who had the duty on the bell refunded by the government. After a few well-chosen remarks Mr. Shrapnell read a military history of the twenty-one men whose names appear on the tablet. This history will be preserved among the records of the school. The large audience then moved out into the halls and front stairway for the unveiling. When the words of dedication had been pronounced by Rev. S. P. Irwin, Stanley Trenouth removed from the tablet the beautiful silk flag presented by the Women's Institute, and as Mr. Irwin read each man's name the bell was tolled once. After a brief but inspiring address by Mr. Irwin, Rev. H. V. Workman pronounced the benediction.

Messages of regret were received from Mr. Fansher, Mr. Oke, Mr. McDougall, Mr. G. F. Rogers, High School Inspector, Colonel McCrimmon, Cadet Inspector, and others who were unable to attend.

The history of the twenty-one boys whose names are on the tablet will be published in the Guide shortly.

Joseph Lucier, a resident of Sombrbra was fined $200 and costs in the Lambton county police court at Port Lambton Tuesday of last week on a charge of being in possession of a still or apparatus suitable for the manufacture of liquor, contrary to the provisions of the Ontario Temperance Act. Defendant pleaded guilty.

John Beggs, farmer, residing on the 14th concession, Sombrbra Township, was severely kicked in the stomach while attending to his horses on the road near his farm. Wednesday forenoon. Dr. Cathcart, who is attending him, says the injury is not dangerous. Mr. Beggs lost his young son two years ago as a result of a similar accident; the child being kicked in the head by a horse.

Roy McDonald, first mate, and Clifford White, third-engineer of the Imperial Oil Limited, steamer Royalite, lost their lives at Sarnia on Friday in a compartment of the hold of the steamer, both men being overcome by gasoline fumes. All efforts at rescue proved futile, as the rescuers were in turn overcome by the fumes of the gasoline in their attempts to reach the men.

The death occurred at her home at Alvinston, on Monday, of Miss Agnes McCallum in her 68th year. The late Miss McCallum had been in poor health for a number of years, but death came with unexpected suddenness and the news of her death was a great shock to her many friends. The funeral service was held at her home on Wednesday afternoon, the body being forwarded.

Mrs. L. Barr of Ailsa Craig died suddenly at the home of her parents in Arkona on Friday last. Mrs. Barr left her home on Monday to visit her mother for a few days, when she became ill. A sad feature of the case is that Mr. Barr is just home from Victoria Hospital, where he was taken a short time ago after an accident while digging a well. The young couple have resided in Ailsa Craig only a short time, but made a host of friends.

J. G. Lethbridge, representative for West Middlesex in the Ontario Legislature, is pressing hard for a more equitable distribution of hydro power, and we note by the reports of proceedings in the House that his arguments are being well received. At a wireless concert held in Danforth Avenue Methodist church, Toronto, a few nights ago, Mr. Lethbridge took Premier's Drury's place in the program, and spoke on the necessity for co-operation of the cities and country in the best interests of the province. He said that the rates for hydro should be distributed in such a way that all sections of Ontario would benefit in the same degree as that part in the immediate vicinity of the source of supply.

The death occurred in Toronto after a short illness of Mrs. G. C. McFarlane, formerly Maggie Chittick of Glencoe. Mrs. McFarlane was an exceptionally bright and interesting woman and will be greatly missed in both her home and church where she has always been actively engaged, as well as among a very large circle of friends. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, G. C. McFarlane, formerly druggist of Glencoe, and three daughters, Effie, Jean and Reta all at home, also five sisters, Mrs. Trestain of Detroit; Mrs. Neve of Los Angeles; Mrs. McLellan of Watford; Mrs. Lethbridge of Glencoe; Mrs. Thompson of Carletonville, Mich., and three brothers, Joe, Christopher and Will, all in Michigan.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The Province of Quebec had 54,670 licensed motor cars on the first of this month, and of this number there were at least twenty-five thousand in greater Montreal. Toronto has only a fifth of Ontario's motors. It is evident that Quebec's wealth is concentrated in Montreal to a far greater extent than Ontario's in Toronto.

Warkworth Journal—Who said it was no use trying to doctor a sick hen? Last week one of Mrs. H. Waters' hens became crop-bound and she gave her two doses of medicine, but it did not take effect. So she cut open the hen's crop, emptied the contents and sewed the crop up again and three days later the hen began laying, and apparently is in the best of health.

Major Coyle, of Bethlehem, Pa., one of the speakers at the Canadian Retail Coal Association meeting, at Toronto last week, told the coal men that all costs in handling coal would have to come down. The operators would have to diminish their profit, the railways would have to lower their costs and rates, and the retailers would have to cut their distribution costs, and take less profit. The high cost of coal was a strong factor in preventing business getting back to normal.

Bothwell Times—The smoking of cigarettes by young women does not appeal to men who indulge in the habit as the proper thing to do; they are not willing to allow a woman the same privilege and liberty, as it is so erroneously called, what they indulge in themselves. While we do not believe it becomes a lady to smoke in any form she has just as much right morally to smoke and expectorate on the sidewalks as a man. Custom neither makes right or wrong—both are principles bred and born—but it makes privilege and gives opportunity. To attire a sinner in angelic robes does not change him any more than rags would make a millionaire in reality a pauper, so men who smoke should not sneer at women who do likewise. Then again, it does not improve the appearance of a woman to have a cigarette between her teeth any more than it does a man, and its practice would not improve conditions for humanity physically, financially or morally.

The restoration of prices for the common every day commodities which every home in the land is obliged to purchase, will be very slow unless there is a general getting together of manufacturers, merchants, farmers and artisans. It is rather unfortunate that the attitude of organized labor has so far delayed the revival of business, for it has been inclined—at least so far as its spokesmen are concerned—to insist on a wage scale very near the level that was reached during the boom at the end of the war. Under existing conditions that means that fewer people can be employed. Those who are fortunate get work at high wages, but hundreds of others get no work at all. And business lags because it is impossible to get prices to the point where they meet an effective demand. There are many people who believe that there will be no settlement or satisfactory adjustment of prices, until all—bankers, farmers, workmen, business men, producers and consumers alike—agree upon a general price scale, possibly higher than that which existed before the war, but considerably lower than those now ruling.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

VICTORY NEARS ITS END

Nelson's flagship, the "Victory," has been for so long the symbol and centre of pride in the British navy that there will be regret that age and advancing decay have rendered it imperative that the ship should remain in dry dock at Portsmouth and not again be committed to water. Here the examination by visitors may continue, but the "Victory" will lose some of its majesty as one of the last of the "wooden walls of England" if it is out of its element.

Judged by the brief life of modern warships, which are early scrapped as out of date, the "Victory" has had the career of a Methuselah. She was laid down in 1759, and had thus been afloat 46 years before she took part in the battle of Trafalgar in 1805, when the great Nelson met death in the hour of triumph, as Wolfe had at Quebec nearly half a century earlier. The "Victory" was 186 feet long and 52 feet broad, and carried 100 guns. After the battle she bore Nelson's body home to England, where he was buried in St. Paul's.

HIGH COST OF LIVING AND HIGH COST OF LOAFING

(From McClure's Magazine)
How production, not high wages has debased the dollar. Money can't deliver more than it receives. Not until labor appreciates the high cost of loafing shall we properly handle the high cost of living. Every hour cut from a normal schedule proportionally increases the burden of overhead on the unit of production. The interest table doesn't quit on the whistle; a forty-four hour week adds twelve per cent. to the rent account, means two hundred and eight more idle hours a year for the plant, subtract two hundred and eight hours' annual use from factory equipment and it throws a heavier tax load on a reduced output.

The lost time and expense must be figured, with all charges incidental to distribution, in the ultimate purchaser's sale check. No matter how much is obtained from the employer, each raise is promptly offset by absorbing readjustments in other lines. "Everybody's doing it" and nobody's benefiting. Our economic muddle will persist until enough people understand the laws of barter and appreciate that money is nothing more than a convenient symbol representing an exchange of goods and service—that when we give less service, money is worth just that much less. A dollar never works harder than the man who made it.

A Prime Dressing for Wounds.

In some factories and workshops carbolic acid is kept for use in cauterizing wounds and cuts sustained by the workmen. Far better to keep on hand a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It is just as quick in action and does not scar the skin or burn the flesh. m

FICTION WE REMEMBER

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

(By Robert Louis Stevenson)
One evening in 1885, after working with W. E. Henley at the writing of a play, Stevenson went to sleep and was awakened, "much to his indignation," by his wife, because of the cries of horror he was uttering in his sleep. "I was dreaming a fine 'bogy tale,'" he said to her, and then he immediately began to relate the story of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde up to the transformation scene where he had been awakened. In the morning he began writing the story, continuing his task for three days, only to destroy the manuscript after it had reached thirty thousand words. Re-writing it from another point of view, it was ready for the press, with a few minor corrections, in three days more. All this was done during one of the worst periods of his invalidism.

"The success of 'Jekyll and Hyde' was immediate and phenomenal," wrote Mrs. Stevenson later, "both in England and in America, where it was pirated broadcast. The story was used as a text by clergymen in churches, and appeared on the stage as a play in at least three different versions, the only really good dramatization being made by Mr. T. R. Sullivan, who sent his manuscript to my husband for correction and suggestions. It is strange how the public incline to identify an author with the characters of his creation in one particular book. My husband's personal appearance has been described as a sort of grotesque cross between Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Even the artists who painted him tried, apparently, to foreshadow something spectral and strange into the portraits of the author of 'Jekyll and Hyde.' No one, however, seems to have imagined him as Prince Otto, whom he truly did resemble to a degree."

If one be troubled with corns, he will find in Holloway's Corn Remover an application that will entirely relieve suffering. m

POULTRY AND PETS OF NEW YORK

In war time there were more chickens in New York City than at any other time perhaps for fifty years. Lawns were turned into chicken runs, which have now reverted to lawns. Still there are some 20,000 chickens in the city, it is estimated. Most of the chicken raisers, apparently are fanciers. That is to say, they keep chickens for the same reason that men collect postage stamps or breed caviars. The real egg and broiler industry is carried on outside the city, for the production of eggs and broilers requires space that is far too valuable to be put to such purposes in a big town. Dogs continue to keep pace with the population. People who like dogs keep them either as pets, as guards, or for show purposes. Naturally the smaller breeds are the more popular, but the war has brought about quite a boom in the various breeds of European sheep dogs, which are called Belgian police dogs.

Plenty of Cats.

But there are more cats in New York than all other animals combined. It is said there are 1,500,000 of them. The reason there are so many cats is that cats multiply without supervision or control. People who deliberately breed cats are rare. Even dogs and chickens are not permitted to increase at will. Cats, however, are under no more restriction than rats. The result is that the Humane Society in New York puts to death some 300,000 every year. Many of them are half wild. In the tenement districts they are particularly numerous, for it costs nothing to keep them. It is partly due to the activities of cats that the bird population of New York is kept down, and since birds are more desired than cats, the Humane Society feels justified in collecting and exterminating more than a quarter of a million of them every year.

Canaries.

Of live creatures kept as pets, the canary is the most popular. While the war lasted there were no importations, and it is in England and the Hartz Mountains that the best singers are bred and trained. The importations have been resumed, and one dealer receives and sells 3,000 a week, at prices that range from $10 to $50. Finches of various kinds are also imported, and parrots are popular. There are, perhaps, a million cage birds in the city. The authorities have been unable to discover just how many pigeons there are in New York, the owners minimizing the size of their flocks for fear some reformers will try to abolish them. The estimate of 50,000 or 75,000 is suggested, which includes the many flocks of half wild birds that are to be found about churches and under eaves of public buildings. Rabbits and caviars remain fairly constant in numbers. They are bred by fanciers and for hospital purposes.

THE TORTURE OF INDIGESTION

Thousands Made Miserable By This Trouble

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Relieves It

What is Indigestion and what causes it? As you know, solid food must be changed into a liquid by the stomach before it can be taken up as nourishment by the blood.

The stomach acts as a churn. It is covered by a strong, muscular coat and lined with a soft, delicate membrane which secretes the Gastric Juice which digests or dissolves solid food.

When food enters the stomach, the muscular coat squeezes and presses the food from end to end, or churns it, with the gastric juice to dissolve or digest it.

But—if the stomach muscles are weak—or if the dissolving fluid is poor or insufficient—then food cannot be digested properly and you have Indigestion.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the most wonderful medicine in the world for strengthening the stomach muscles and providing an abundance of pure, full-strength dissolving fluid to completely digest every meal.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" does this because it keeps the kidneys active, the bowels regular and the blood pure, which insures pure Gastric Juice.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" will correct your Indigestion or Dyspepsia and enable you to enjoy every meal. Try it.

Subject to subsection 4 the lamps on the front of a motor vehicle shall cast a white or amber colored light only and the lamp on the back shall cast from its face a red light only and from the side shall cast on the rear number plate a white or amber colored light only.

No person shall employ or permit anyone under the age of 16 years to operate a motor vehicle and no person shall employ or permit anyone over the age of 16 and under the age of 18 years to drive a motor vehicle unless and until he has passed an examination and obtained a license as above provided.

Every person who stores or deals in motor vehicles or conducts a garage business without a license shall incur a penalty of not less than $25 and not more than $50 for the first offence; not less than $50 and not more than $100 for the second offence and not less than $100 and not more than $200 and shall also be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months for a third or any subsequent offence.

Any constable or officer of the Department of Public Highways appointed for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act may enter into any place where motor vehicles are stored or dealt in or into any garage required to be licensed and make such investigation and inspection as he thinks proper in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Act have been complied with.

TEA GOING UP

The unrest in India has caused more or less serious labor troubles on the tea plantations, and has resulted in the price of tea, consistently rising for the past year. Between October 1920 and today costs have advanced between 12 and 15 cents a pound. As the crop is much less than estimated consumption this year, it is probable that the price will go still higher.

What This Buffalo Physician Has Done For Humanity

The picture which appears here of Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., was taken in 1910. As a young man Dr. Pierce practised medicine in Pennsylvania and was known far and wide for his great success in alleviating disease. He early moved to Buffalo and put up in ready-to-use form, his Golden Medical Discovery, the well-known tonic for the blood. This strength-builder is made from a formula which Dr. Pierce found most effective in diseases of the blood. It contains no alcohol and is an extract of native roots with the ingredients plainly stated on the wrapper. Good red blood, vim, vigor and vitality are sure to follow if you take this Alternative Extract. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery clears away pimples and annoying eruptions and tends to keep the complexion fresh and clear. This Discovery corrects the disordered conditions in a sick stomach, aids digestion, acts as a tonic and purifies the blood. Write Dr. Pierce's Invalids Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., and receive confidential medical advice without charge. All druggists sell Discovery, tablets or liquid.

CAMPAIGN OF CO-OPERATION

The Scheme of Mr. A. T. Thom, Former Watford Man, Brings Big Business To His Firm

Not infrequently manufacturers are looking for business far afield when it is actually close at hand. A great many business houses are not aware of the requirements and capabilities of their immediate neighbors. This was strikingly shown when A. T. Thom, managing director of Ontario Wind, Engine & Pump Co., Limited, instituted a campaign recently to secure co-operation between his own organization and other manufacturers of Toronto. A four-day campaign was planned but at the end of the second day the canvassers were called in, because so much business had been booked that it was unnecessary to carry the plan further.

The announcement aroused the interest of many manufacturers, and numerous inquiries have been made about the results of the campaign. The sequel was actually surprising, showing that many manufacturers are not aware of the requirement of the products of their neighbors. The execution of the campaign involved sending out members of the office staff to interview Toronto manufacturers, acquainting them with the products of the company and making known their own requirements in the way of semi-finished products, etc.

In the words of Mr. Thom, the scheme was as follows:—"We believe that every manufacturer should do his utmost to relieve the unemployment situation in Toronto. A representative of our firm—not a salesman, simply a member of our office staff—went out to ascertain whether other Toronto manufacturers make or could supply any article or material which we use, or if we can supply anything they required."

"It was simply a straight business proposition to improve conditions in our own city. We found that when our representatives announced themselves they found instructions had been given that the chief executive of the firm would give immediate attention to the visitor. Even in cases where no co-operation was possible every interest was shown in the plan."

"We found that we could supply quite a number of firms with products that they did not know could be secured in the city. We also found that we could buy from Toronto firms. The co-operative effort has changed our plant from comparative inactivity to capacity production. We have taken on men during the last few weeks and are working overtime.

"January and February were rather quiet months. There was not a great deal of new business in sight. The situation has changed almost overnight. We have all the business we can handle. It was the most successful piece of publicity that this company has done in forty years."

"So far as ordinary business is concerned, the purchasing power of farmers was curtailed by the shrinkage in prices of farm products. This has been somewhat altered by recent advances. The declining markets for raw materials and manufactured goods shook confidence somewhat in the stability of prices. Now we find that important products have advanced and are holding firm at higher prices. This should and will give more confidence to buyers. We look for an improvement in the business situation throughout the balance of this year. The campaign of co-operation was a great help in bringing about better business."

NOTHING TO EQUAL BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. George Lefebvre, St. Zenon, Que., writes: "I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used them for my baby and would use nothing else." What Mrs. Lefebvre says thousands of other mothers say. They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus banish indigestion, constipation, colic, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

There will be no Provincial redistribution this year.

Of the 748,000 inhabitants of Boston, according to the recent United States census, 39,247 were born in Canada. Of these 51.3 per cent. have become naturalized. The entire foreign born population of the city, according to the census, is 239,019, of whom 221,036 are over 21 years of age. Among the foreign blocs are: Irish 56,233; Italians, 33,461; Russians, 33,147; English 11,206.

Windsor has more concrete pavements, in respect of its size, than any other city in America, according to W. A. McLean, Deputy Minister of Highways. The city has also the honor of having the oldest concrete pavements of any city on the continent. Concrete pavement fifteen years ago was laid at an original cost of $101 1/4 per square yard. Maintenance has since been 45 cents per square yard.

John J. Carty, telephone engineer and vice-president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, prophesies the time when radio science will be applied to talking almost around the world. He declares that conversations can now be held across the Atlantic, and predicts that connection with all parts of South America will soon be possible. Mr. Carty indicates the extensive field that is being investigated and experimented in when he says that experts are now working on inventions that may be completed in from five to ten years that will enable the use of radio to be extended far beyond anything yet attempted.

London district was practically 100 per cent. perfect in the return of information demanded by the Federal Government income tax authorities. Inspector George Tambling, of London, Ont., states that it with one or two possible exceptions, all employers, corporations and trustees have come up to the scratch and co-operated to the fullest extent. "Each year sees the public more thoroughly educated as to the procedure necessary at this time of year in the collection of income assessments," said Mr. Tambling. "I suppose," he added jocularly, "that in 50 years' time income taxes will be taken as a matter of course and none will fail to submit the necessary returns or default in the payment of their dues."

HOW A MAN BECAME HIS OWN GRANDFATHER

I married a widow who had a grown-up daughter, my father fell in love with my step-daughter and married her, so my father became my son-in-law and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. Sometime after my wife had a son. He was my father's brother-in-law and my uncle, for he was the brother of my step-mother, he was also my father's grandson. My father's wife, that is my step-daughter, also had a son, he was of course my brother and also my grandson, for he was the son of my daughter. My wife was my grandmother, because she was my father's wife's mother, that is my mother's mother, so that I am at the same time the husband and grandchild of my wife, and as the husband of a person's grandmother is the grandfather, it seems that I have become my own grandfather.

A MODERN SOLOMON SAYS

When a woman begins to dress for comfort instead of style you know she has quit worrying about her age. A husband's job is to find a way to make money; a wife's to find ways of getting rid of it.

A girl gets a thrill at what a man tells her before marriage; afterward she just gets a shock at what he tells her.

We none of us have much use for a coward, but still we can't help but have a sort of fellow feeling for the poor fish who is afraid to talk back to his wife.

When a man brags about what a fine bridge player his wife is it's dollars to doughnuts he would get a lot more pleasure in being able to boast about what a good cook she is.

A lot of the people who put on such a good front haven't much backing.

How times change! We can remember when a woman who wore a modest "round" neck and skirts that came to her ankles was considered daring. Still, we suppose any flapper that dressed that way now would be considered daring, but not for the same reason.

Before marriage a girl is apt to display a warm heart, but later the only thing she displays is a hot temper.

The residents at the corner of Queen and Albert streets, had a brilliant display of fireworks on Monday evening. Several were awakened by the continual ringing of their telephones and on examination they noticed a tree burning beside Caleb Rawling's barn, caused by a cross circuit in the high-power hydro line running to the creamery. These wires now carry 4000 volts instead of 2200 coupled with the rain on Monday evening, was the cause of the short circuit. Manager Ellerker of the local hydro station was called and had the power shut off for the balance of the night and the trouble was remedied the first thing Tuesday morning.

METCALFE FARMER TAKES HIS LIFE

Strathroy, April 18.—Wilbert Field, a popular young farmer, residing on the 3rd line of Metcalfe, committed suicide by hanging this morning. His lifeless body being found by his widow in a shed adjoining the barn.

Field went out to do his chores as usual this morning while his wife prepared breakfast. As he did not return when called she went to the barn to get him, and was horrified to find his body suspended from a beam in the shed roof. Life was extinct when the unfortunate man was found.

The young man had been despondent for some time, but it was not noticed that his condition had grown worse, and his tragic death came as a distinct shock to his many friends. He was 30 years of age, and is survived by a widow and one child. Prior to taking up farming he had been employed by E. Rowland & Co., private bankers, of Stratford. Dr. A. S. Ferguson, coroner, after inquiring into the circumstances, has decided that an inquest is not necessary.

The funeral was held from the family residence, lot 3, con. 3, Metcalfe, on Thursday afternoon to Arkona cemetery.

A 50c. box of this wonderful healer is, to the wage earner, as good as any accident insurance policy. Cuts, wounds, burns and scalds can't fester or become inflamed or poisoned where antiseptic Zam-Buk is promptly applied.

"I was back at work in a week thanks to Zam-Buk, though the doctor was sure I would be laid-off for a month," says Mr. H. Hoghen, 389, Beverley St., Winnipeg. "My hand caught in a revolving belt, and three fingers were badly mangled. After one week's use of Zam-Buk the wounds were well healed. It was worth three weeks' wages to me."

Mr. C. Oakley, of Saskatoon, Sask., says:—"Down at the stoneyard, I cut my leg badly. A doctor sewed up the wound and attended me for five weeks. It had cost me $40 when I determined to try Zam-Buk. In two weeks I dollar's worth healed the limb splendidly."

Zam-Buk is equally valuable in eczema, acne, ringworm, ulcers, piles, abscesses, bad legs, etc. Purely herbal, it's a most wonderful skin remedy.

KINGSTON SPOOK HOUSE

Spooks just now are interesting topics of discussion, and it might be as well to recall the case of the spooks which were said to amuse themselves by frightening people some years ago in a certain house, still standing, in Kingston. Queer noises were heard in this, and at times the spooks, in order to stir up its residents, made the house shake a little. This scared the residents, they cleared out. Other people went in, and also were scared out by the mischievous spooks. The house could not be let till one brave man came along, and offered to take it for six months, but rent free. The landlord readily agreed.

Things were quiet for a time. Then the noises started, the man's family did not like them, but he reassured them, and hunted for the spooks. This apparently alarmed the spooks, and they kept still for a time. Then they began their noises again one night, and shook the house too. The man began a diligent search beginning at the attic and going at last to the cellar with a lantern. There in one place the earth suddenly moved under his feet. The man got an axe, and went after the spooks. He chopped away till he came to the roots of a big willow tree, which grew close to the house. There were the spooks.

The roots of the tree had spread under the house and into the walls. Naturally when the wind blew the big tree swayed, thus causing the queer noises, and the shaking of the house. The tree was cut down, the spooks defied, they may have moved to Antigonish, and the house has been peacefully occupied ever since. This case may account for the skepticism with which so many people in Kingston regard spook stories.—Kingston Daily Standard.

DIGESTIVE TROUBLES CAUSE MUCH DISTRESS

Are Nearly Always Due to Thin, Watery Blood.

Do not think that because your stomach is easily upset you are the victim of some serious malady. One of the most common causes of indigestion is anaemia, or thin, watery blood. In fact it has become generally recognized that healthy activity of the stomach is impossible unless the blood is rich and red.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been found valuable in cases of indigestion, nervous dyspepsia and stomach weakness, just because they are a blood builder and nerve tonic. The rich, red blood following their use not only imparts a healthy digestion, but carries color to the cheeks and lips, and gives vigor to the muscles. One important point to remember is that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain no harmful drugs or opiates and are thus to be preferred to preparations that merely stimulate for a time. Before you begin worrying unnecessarily about your state of health, try the tonic treatment of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You will be surprised to see how rapidly your appetite returns and your debilitated system revives.

Miss Sarah Farquhar, North Brookfield, N. S., who has proved the value of these pills in cases of this kind says: "For a long time I was a sufferer from indigestion, which seemed to carry with it a complication of other troubles. Every meal brought misery with it, as the eating was followed by severe pains in the stomach causing at times nausea and vomiting, and at other times an accumulation of gas that caused severe palpitation of the heart and a smothering sensation. The result was that my general health was seriously affected and the least exertion would tire me out. I had taken much medicine, but did not get more than temporary relief until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I took for a considerable time, with the result that I now enjoy every meal and am no longer distressed after eating. I find myself in every way enjoying better health, and I cheerfully recommend these pills to similar sufferers."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, One.

One of the most effective vermifuges on the market is Miller's Worm Powders. They will not only clear the stomach and bowels of worms, but will prove a very serviceable medicine for children in regulating the infantile system and maintaining it in a healthy condition. There is nothing in their composition that will injure the most delicate stomach when directions are followed, and they can be given to children in the full assurance that they will utterly destroy all worms.

SCHOOL OPEN ALL SUMMER

Many young people in and around Forest prefer attending the Sarnia Business College between April and November, owing to the fact that transportation to and from Sarnia is better and more pleasant than in winter.

Class hours during July and August are from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. This makes the course in Sarnia most pleasant as well as profitable.

Sarnia Business College is the only college in Lambton county, as most people know, that is licensed to prepare its students for the examination set by the Business Educators' Association. This diploma is the only nationally known standard of efficiency in stenography in Canada. Young people who have it may well be proud of it.

Young people planning on training for office positions should get in touch with P. R. Stringer, director of the Sarnia Business College. Although a student may commence any Monday, it is well to start as early in April as possible.

THE DISCIPLE OF THE DEVIL

Many years ago a peasant of the community Z, near Lemberg, emigrated to America. Recently he returned to his village, his pockets stuffed with dollars. He drove to Lemberg to have his dollars changed. His departure became known in the village, and the very same night there was a knock at the door of his house. His wife opened the door and recoiled in terror. On the threshold stood what appeared to be the devil himself, covered with a shaggy hide, with glowing eyes and spreading a penetrating sulphurous odor. He pushed the peasant woman into the room, locked the door, and after rattling his chains and giving forth infernal sounds began to tell her what he wanted. He threatened the woman with all the torments of hell if she did not hand him immediately all the money brought home by her husband from America.

The woman swore solemnly that her husband had taken all the money to Lemberg to have it exchanged for Polish marks. Thereupon the "devil" searched all the chests and shrines and not finding anything declared that he would come again to-morrow when he hoped the man would be back. She had to swear not to tell anybody of the occurrence or he would take her with him to hell. The woman trembling, awaited the dawn. In the morning a gendarme chanced to come to the house. He found the woman in a state of terror and after long urging got from her the story. The gendarme promised to help her. She hid him in the room. At midnight there was a knock at the door. This time the gendarme opened the door and tore the mask from the devil's face. He started back horrified for before him stood the village judge, who in this way, tried to get quick and easy possession of the dollars. The gendarme delivered his superior to the district court.

A COUNTRY WITHOUT CITIZENS

A Canadian, observe the term carefully, please, for that is what he has always called himself as have his fore-fathers unto the fourth generation—a CANADIAN recently became the father of a man child. He took upon himself the duty of registering the birth of the new addition to the ranks of Canadians, but when it came to filling out the answers to the various necessary questions, he struck a snag.

When asked the nationality of the child, he replied, and replied proudly "Canadian, of course." And back came the, to him, astounding reply, "Of course not. You cannot register your child as a Canadian; what we want to know is whether he is English, French, American, Hungarian, Chinese, Abyssinian or what."

And this, it seems, is the law and the gospel in this Dominion and this year of grace A.D. 1922. Your offspring are not classified as nor can they wear the title of Canadians; we must go back to some point along the trail to our simian ancestry where we can claim identity with some nation, so-called; but as for the Canadian, "they ain't no such animal," he does not exist, officially. And this is not a fable or a fairy tale. It records something that is occurring every day everywhere in this broad province of ours. What kink or convulsion in the Carrara brain of officialdom is responsible, is not known, but the man in the street can scarcely regard the regulation as one conducive to the fostering of national pride in Canada.

And the condition is practically Dominion-wide, as witness in the last census; the enumeration blanks made no provision for Canadians. We went back somewhere, sometime and there derived our official status.

How are we going to Canadianize the foreign additions to our population, when we can not be Canadians ourselves?

YOUNG MOTHER NOW STRONG

Her Mother's Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Led Her To Try It

Kenosha, Wisconsin.—"I cannot say enough in praise of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My mother had great faith in it as she had taken so much of it and when I had trouble after my baby was born she gave it to me. It helped me so much more than anything else had done that I advise all women with female trouble to give it a fair trial and I am sure they will feel as I do about it.—Mrs. FRED. P. HANSEY, 662 Symmonds St., Kenosha, Wisconsin.

A medicine that has been in use nearly fifty years and that receives the praise and commendation of mothers and grandmothers is worth your consideration. If you are suffering from troubles that sometimes follow child-birth bear in mind that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a woman's medicine. It is especially adapted to correct such troubles.

The letters we publish ought to convince you; ask some of your women friends or neighbors—they know its worth. You will, too, if you give it a fair trial.

WE OUGHT TO HAVE MAKE-A-WILL WEEK

Half a dozen simple rules for those wishing to make a will are given by Bruce Barton, writing in Collier's. They are as follows:

- 1. Make a list of all your possessions and indicate the way you would like to have them distributed. 2. Take the list to your lawyer and have him draw your will. 3. Sign it in the presence of at least two witnesses, making sure they see you sign it and understand that it is your will. Have them sign as witnesses in your presence and the presence of each other. 4. Put your will in a safe place and let your heirs know where it is. 5. Don't make changes afterward without the advice of your lawyer. 6. Most important of all, don't put off doing the thing until you are sick or about to die. If these instructions are followed there is likely to be no costly litigation, and the will is likely to remain as it was drawn up. Nine Americans out of ten die without making a will, we are told, and we presume that the proportion will be about the same in Canada. As a rule the people who do not make a will are the very ones who on no account should fail to do so; that is, the people who leave a small estate. If a man dies, leaving a million dollars, and there is a difference of opinion about the disposition of his estate, the probability that in the end there will be enough money left for those entitled to it, but the estate which amounts to only a few thousand dollars, and finds its way into the courts, is likely to be reduced to one-half or perhaps a third, of its bulk before it is finally divided.

WAR ON THE MOSQUITO

A war against the mosquito is proclaimed. We are asked to kill the first mosquito of the season. This is superfluous, for in the desire to kill the mosquito there are no slackers. But here is something better: Seek out the breeding places the cans, tubs, bottles, rain barrels or cess-pools, or anything containing any amount of water which has become stagnant. Drain the pools of water in back lots, or if this cannot be done spray the pool with oil. The mosquito is a standing pest in many summer resorts, and there are marshes and wet places too large for individual treatment. Drainage undertaken by some public body would be the only remedy.

Farmers, Attention!

DELCO-LIGHT Reduced to $495

"Electricity for every Farm"

I wish to call your attention to the fact that Delco-Light is reduced to below pre-war prices. Every progressive farmer today is interested in electric light and power for the farm, especially for the benefits which the women on the farm derive from its use, in regards to washing, churning, ironing, separating and pumping, not to mention the convenience and safety of the lights. An exploding lantern in your barn would set you back the price of quite a few Delco-Light plants.

Therefore with Delco-Light and wiring reduced to its present basic electricity is within reach of every farmer.

Don't Wait Until Fall. Get it NOW and have its benefits. If interested give me a call and let me tell you all about it. It cost nothing to find out.

"OBEY" AND "ENDOW"

Two important changes in the marriage ceremony of the Episcopal Church of the United States are recommended by the Commission for the Revision of the Book of Common Prayer. One of them is to omit from the woman's obligation the words "obey" and "serve." This is in recognition of the changing status of women throughout the world. But it is also proposed to alter the ring pledge of the man and to omit the words: "With all my worldly goods I thee endow." What the woman will thus gain in freedom she will lose in worldly goods.

The Commission has been in existence for nine years, and these and other proposed changes are results of matured judgment upon altered conditions. But the spring brides of that communion need not worry over them, one way or the other. Under the constitution of that Church the report cannot be adopted until approved by two general conventions, and the Commissioners do not expect the changes to be finally ratified before 1925.

THE LITTLES

We plant the little bulb, or seed. The law of growth with sun and rain There is the vulgar, ugly weed, There is the graceful, useful grain.

How we forget the little things The little answers to our prayers, "Those littles", are the powerful things

Which we neglect for bigger cares. The moments creeping into hours, The seconds lost in precious days The days developing our powers To our disgrace, or to our praise.

The little things, the wee wee things, Things insignificant and small, They're in the air with unfelt stings The unit reaching unto all.

We have the vitalizing charms, In sun, and earth, and air and sky And microscopic little germs Spread by the hairy little fly.

To death, or life, we're all exposed By little things beyond our ken, Our vital organs decomposed Or reinforced by oxygen.

More serious is our moral being The little thoughts that claim the mind, Souls often tainted by their seeing Perceptive organs turning blind.

The physical; oh why is this The little things we do, or say, Creating habits for to bless Or habits for to curse or slay.

We're badly twisted from the start But got a perfect little will To seize the things that cleanse the heart And kill the things that try to kill.

A little thing, a deed, a thought The "littles" dwarf or multiply, What great destructions in us lie, What great destructions in us lie.

Let us control the little things A most essential little part Let us collect the little things To magnify our little heart.

So our career's a ship of fate A little helm in little hands, Can steer our craft to something great, Or wreck our prospects on the sands.

The Community Committee which has during the last winter been cooperating with the Warwick W. I. in staging semi-monthly entertainments concluded their series with a very successful and instructive Mock Parliament in L.O.L. hall on April 7th. The appreciation of the community was duly manifested by the capacity audience which greeted this worthy effort of the young folk. The program consisted of two acts viz.: The Formal Opening of Parliament consisting of the Gov.-General speech and appointment of the Speaker. The regular session during which various petitions were read, and a commission appointed. A bill to provide free text books received its first reading. A sharp debate followed the second reading of the bill to provide funds for the extension of our good roads system but was finally passed. The government's attempt to pass the third reading of a bill to curb Trusts and Combines said to be operating to the detriment of the common welfare, received a stormy passage from the opposition being defeated by the defection of the Labor vote from the usual Government support, precipitating the resignation of the Premier and Cabinet which was placed in the hands of the Lt. Governor. The Leader of the Opposition having declined the responsibility of forming a Cabinet the Premier and Cabinet were requested to continue in office until interim supplies had been voted and arrangements made for an early appeal to the electorate. During the intermission the Dewar talent delighted the audience with musical selections. A silver collection in aid of the Russian Relief was heartily responded to over $20 being contributed.

In the drainage case of D. D. Campbell against the township of Brooke heard at the county court house Sarnia before G. F. Henderson K.C., drainage referee, on Wednesday, Thursday last, a settlement was affected at the second day's hearing in the sum of $27,000. The plaintiff had made application to set aside a bylaw of the municipal corporation covering the excess cost of a seven mile drain excavated in 1921. The total cost of the drain was placed at $35,000, about four times greater than the estimate. After the submission of considerable evidence, the respective parties agreed to a settlement at the sum mentioned above, each party to pay its own costs. J. M. Pike, K.C., of Chatham was counsel for the applicant and John Cowan K.C., for the defendant corporation.
